TAMAYUZ TAKES JACQUES LE MAROIS

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef) enjoyed a faultless trip en route to stamping his superiority in yesterday's G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard Jacques le Marois at Deauville. Coming off the back of a lifetime best when capturing the one-mile G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly July 13, the homebred tracked his pacemaker Racinger (Fr) (Spectrum {Ire}) until the quarter pole and, after being committed by Davy Bonilla soon after, kept up a relentless gallop to the line. He had a comfortable 2 1/2-length margin over Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) there to provide trainer

Freddy Head with another top-level success during a golden period of his career. "I am so lucky to train such good horses, and I think this one is also a champion," Head said.

SCOOPING THE SILVER

Most of the main action happened late during yesterday's third session of Arqana's August Yearling Sale and it was a family on the upswing which caused a stir eight lots from the finish. Hip 336, a colt by Verglas (Ire) from the consignment of Haras des Sablonnets, was placed into the spotlight after his full-brother Silver Frost (Ire) captured the G3 Prix de Cabourg at the local track earlier this month. Bound for the G1 Prix Morny Sunday, the son of Hidden Silver (GB) (Anabaa) had been purchased by Charlie Gordon-Watson at last year's sale for €95,000. Since then, High Rock (Ire) elevated the colt's second dam Hint of Silver when winning the G3 Prix La Force by six lengths, and was the starting favorite when fourth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. It was ultimately John Ferguson who consolidated his position as leading buyer during this edition after Mick Buckley of Kildangan Stud made the purchase on his behalf at €360,000. "John had to leave last night, but had inspected the horse, and we found that he was a lovely animal with a great pedigree and the type to make a precocious, speedy two-year-old," Buckley said. "He will return to England and join the contingent of our yearlings before Sheikh Mohammed decides where to allocate him. We are delighted to have him." cont. p8

Tamayuz was two-for-two as a juvenile in mile contests at Longchamp in September, when he had the future G2 Prix Greffulhe winner Prospect Wells (Fr) and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Full of Gold (Fr) back in second and fourth, respectively, and at Chantilly the following month. He returned to win the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau back at Longchamp Apr. 13 before running down the field from an outside draw in that track's May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains. In a hot renewal of the Prix Jean Prat, he benefitted from a positive ride to conquer Raven's Pass, and those tactics were employed again here to further his burgeoning reputation. Showing early speed to sit in behind his stable companion Racer--who cut out perfect fractions under the guidance of Olivier Peslier--the chestnut had total command throughout a lonely final quarter mile as Natagora gave her usual valiant effort in his wake. "He has class, speed and stays and a mile is perfect for him," trainer Freddy Head said. "As a former jockey, I know that you have to ride these races as you feel, and Davy [Bonilla] felt he had a lot of horse and made the right decision to go on as early as he did. I never had a single worry and Olivier [Peslier] and the pacemaker did a great job--it was exactly as we had planned. I have to thank Sheikh Hamdan for giving me such a horse to train and all the public for their support over the past three weeks. I will discuss Tamayuz's future with Sheikh Hamdan and the G1 Prix du Moulin [at Longchamp Sept. 7] is a possibility, but one day we will have to take on Henrythe-navigator, and Ascot for the [Sept. 27] G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. could be the day." Natagora's trainer Pascal Bary paid tribute to the effort of the grey filly afterwards. "She stumbled slightly out of the gates and took time to get balanced, but had the perfect trip afterwards and tried hard, so I am delighted," Bary said. "The winner was superior, but she is so brave and always gives her best. The Prix du Moulin might come too soon, as she has had two hard races at this meeting, so we could very well consider the G1 Prix de la Foret [at Longchamp Oct. 4]."

HARLEM ROCKER WORKS FOR TRAVERS

Stronach Stables' Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno) worked five furlongs over the Saratoga main track Sunday morning in preparation for Saturday's G1 Travers S. The winner of the GIII Withers S. completed the task in :59.72. "I thought he went really well this morning and he's coming into the Travers in good order," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "We were shooting between 1:00 and 1:01. It was a tick quicker than we wanted to go, but he did it the right way. He did it well and galloped out strongly. He seemed to cool out quickly." The grey was accompanied by stablemate Understatement (Distorted Humor), who also completed the task in the same time as the Prince of Wales S. winner. "I always work him in company," added Pletcher. "He has become a very good work horse, which hasn't always been the case. He's gotten better as he has been going along." Asked to assess his chances in the Mid-Summer Derby, the Eclipse Award trainer added, "It will be an interesting Travers; it is a pretty wide open race. Who knows what would have happened if we went to the Preakness? But I feel we have arrived here in pretty good shape."

Tale of Ekati Looking to Get Back on Track...

Trainer Barclay Tagg confirmed Sunday that GI Wood Memorial S. winner Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat) is well and ready to roll in Saturday's 1 1/4-mile feature.

Tale of Ekati A. Coglianese

The colt, who finished fourth in his latest start in the GII Jim Dandy S., worked six panels in 1:13.60 over the Saratoga main track Saturday in what will be his final major move before the Travers. "I knew he was short going into the Jim Dandy," explained Tagg. "I was going to run him in the [GI] Haskell [Aug. 2], [and] get another work into him. I was planning on running [stablemate] Big Truck in the Jim Dandy, but after I decided not to, they asked me if I would run Tale of Ekati, and I thought, he could use a race and it will help move him forward a little bit and it will give me four weeks until the Travers. It was all a last-minute thing. Since then, he's been doing really, really well." GIII Tampa Bay Derby winner Big Truck (Hook and Ladder), who worked five furlongs in a bullet :59.67 Saturday, is entered in Wednesday's Albany S. against New-York bred.

Despite the presence of Papal Bull, it was all about Terry Hellier's enterprise on the all-the-way winner Oriental Tiger as that partnership pulled off a minor upset in convincing style. Near the very top of his generation at three, the bay was third in the G1 Deutsches Derby and runner-up in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden before finishing fourth in the G1 Preis von Europa. Returning the following season to be second in the G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg in June, he was last of six in Dusseldorf's G1 Deutschlandpreis the following month and missed the rest of the term. Successful off a layoff in the Apr. 6 G3 Grand Prix Aufgalopp at this venue and the G2 Gerling-Preis over this track and trip three weeks later, he had been off the track again since a fifth in the G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmen at Baden-Baden May 25. cont. p4

Refreshed by the break, he quickly established a clear lead and never looked likely to relinquish it at any point on his way to a seven-length success. "I never thought he would put up such a performance, but Cologne is his favourite track," trainer Uwe Ostmann said. Papal Bull looked unhappy a long way out under Ryan Moore and the 3-10 favorite failed to get past the runner-up Kamsin late. According to winning owner/breeders Karl-Dieter Ellerbracke and Peter Endres of Gestut Auenquelle, the five-year-old will be targeted toward the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 5. King of Rome ran 11th in last term's G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster and came back to finish fifth in the Apr. 20 Ballysax S. at this track before running second in the May 10 G3 Lingfield Derby Trial. The well-travelled sophomore then turned up to run 12th in the June 7 G1 Epsom Derby, hit the board in the June 19 Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot and finished sixth in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 6 in his penultimate start. He claimed a first pattern-race win in the July 24 G3 Meld S. over course and distance last time, and returned to the scene of that triumph to double his stakes score with this easy victory. Shadowing the leading pair throughout, King of Rome took control inside the final quarter mile and was never seriously threatened thereafter to record an easy 3 1/2-length win from Alarazi. "He's a very classy type who should be a nice horse for next year," commented trainer Aidan O'Brien, however, he added, "I'm not ruling out the G1 Irish Champion S. Eighth in a Roscommon maiden on debut July 7, Again broke through in a Curragh maiden last time July 27 and climbed further up the ladder to register a personal best in this stakes bow. Restrained in midfield for the most part, she loomed large on the wide outside as the field fanned into the straight and dominated her overmatched rivals by drawing clear once taking over at the furlong marker. "David [Wachman] liked her a lot and said she had come on a lot since The Curragh," jockey Johnny Murtagh commented. "She's a big, scopey filly with a great temperament and coped with conditions great. I was really impressed with the way she stretched out in the last furlong. There were a lot of unexposed types there coming off impressive maiden wins and they are the best around, but mine showed she was the best. The G1 Moyglare Stud S. [at The Curragh Aug. 31] seems ideal for her and should suit her down to the ground. She might develop into an Oaks filly next year and there is no end to where she can go." Crowd choice Cuis Ghaire (Galileo {Ire}) came under pressure rounding the home turn and was handled with care in the straight once her chance had gone. Successful in a Mar. 30 Curragh handicap on seasonal return, Snaefell took the Apr. 19 Listed Woodlands S. at Naas and then hit the board in the G3 Greenlands S. back at The Curragh May 24. Hitting the board again in the June 2 Listed Naas Sprint S., he was off the radar in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, but bounced back to claim a career high in the mud here. Restrained under cover early, he took closer order approaching the final furlong and was ridden out late to prevail. "The ground was a big factor, but he deserves that and I'm delighted for [owner] Lady Clague," trainer Michael Halford told PA Sport. "It was great for [jockey] Rory [Cleary] to get the chance on him. I was a bit concerned about the turns as he normally races on a straight course. He's a genuine Group 3 horse in these conditions and he'll probably go next for the G3 Flying Five [at The Curragh Aug. 31]." [Click for the Racing Post race chart. Successful in this contest last year, Mores Wells followed up with a third in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh, but was unable to better that placing until running second in the June 28 G3 Curragh Cup last time. Ridden with patience just off the pace in fourth, he took closer order rounding the home turn and kept on relentlessly under a drive inside the final quarter mile to assert superiority. "He ran well in last year's G1 Irish St Leger and he'll go there next [at The Curragh Sept. 13]," revealed trainer Kevin Prendergast. "He can handle these conditions okay, but he's better on good ground. He's also in the Melbourne Cup, but we'll see how he gets next time first." [Click for the Racing Post race chart. Carribbean Sunset opened her stakes account in the Apr. 6 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial and doubled up in the Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial back here May 11. Finding trouble when contesting the main event at The Curragh May 24, she was promoted to third in that Classic before posting another third in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 20. She was shipped across the Atlantic to run fourth in the July 5 GI American Oaks Invitational at Hollywood Park, but registered a third pattern-race win with a smooth effort. Restrained in last from the outset, Carribbean Sunset cruised to the front when swinging wide off the home turn and was coaxed clear late to win comfortably.

"She's a very tough filly and is unbeaten here at Leopardstown," said Dermot Weld. "She was unlucky not to win the Irish 1000 Guineas, and I've no doubt she would have won without the interference she suffered there. She ran a cracker at Royal Ascot, had travel problems going to America last time and ran a real good fourth in the Grade I there." Click for the Racing Post race chart. Also Ran: Assessment, Schoolin You, Call On Carson, Flamethrowintexan, Honour the West, Nationhood, Luhuk's Dancer, Southern Africa, Diligent Prospect.

Wasserman closed like a freight train to be third in this event last summer before closing out the season with a third in the restricted Muckleshoot Tribal Classic going a sixteenth longer over this track last September. In the winner's circle in his 2008 debut sprinting against allowance foes Apr. 18, the bay was fourth in the Seattle H. May 4, but came back to score next time in the Fox Sports Network H. here May 26. Following a dull fifth in the here June 15, the gelding defended his title in the Governor's H. July 6 before finishing a head back in second most recently in the Mt. Rainier BC H. July 27. Let go at generous odds here, the six-year-old settled near the back early, began to inch his way to the front from the outside, was head and head with the leaders in deep stretch and proved gamest to collect the victory. The victory also marked a first for Jennifer Whitaker, the first female rider to win the race. Favored Tropic Storm tired late to be third. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

Aidan O'Brien indicated that Duke of Marmalade (Ire) could miss tomorrow's G1 Juddmonte International at York due to the heavy ground. Following the track receiving 25 millimetres of overnight rain, the Ballydoyle conditioner is set to discuss the multiple Group 1 winner's participation with owners Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor. "The ground is heavy and very deep," O'Brien told PA Sport. "He's in now, but he has to be a doubt. It's far from ideal and will be totally against him, but knowing the horse he is, the lads might let him run. We'll talk about it tomorrow and make a decision."

Dream dream dream...

Haras du Ma supplied a notable towards the end of play yesterday and the demand for hip 323 ensured her the day's clear top-priced filly tag. From the high-class Aga Khan dynasty, which includes Ebadiyla (Ire), Ebadiya (Ire) and Enzeli (Ire), she boasted a pair of half-siblings who continued to promote the family in Dilek (Ire) (Sendawar {Ire}) and Diyakalanie (Ire) (Ashkalani {Ire}). Dilek has proved a smart performer in his native France, winning the G3 Prix Daphnis and finishing third in the G1 Prix Jean Prat in 2006 before being shipped to Hong Kong as Viva Macau and placing third in the following year's G1 Hong Kong Champions & Charter Cup. Diyakalanie was third in last year's G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly and also placed in G3 Prix de la Nonette and Prix de Psyche. Monaco resident Andreas Pusch, who recently acquired the Haras de Saint Pair du Mont in Normandy, had to fight off the strong partnership of Maria Niarchos Gouaze and Jean-Louis Bouchard, but his persistence paid off when the bidding hit the €260,000 mark. "I look for fillies to improve the quality of my broodmare band," Putsch said. "We will also buy mares in foal, but if this one can run and show quality on the course, she will be a valuable addition. She has a great conformation and an excellent pedigree. I just loved the way she looks and Alain de Royer-Dupre will train her."

The Chantilly Bloodstock Agency's Gerard Larrieu missed out on the filly and was feeling the pinch in this demanding market. "This is a very solid and professional market," he said. "There are a lot of good horses and most definitely it is not easy to buy unless you have unlimited commodities. I bought two yesterday and two today and I am very happy with what I got, but was also underbidder twice tonight on lots that I thought were within my reach. Especially on lot 323, that I thought was a lovely filly, but you have to fix limits and we had to let her go."

The Rub of the Green...

On Saturday, a filly by Green Tune fetched €540,000, and the Haras d'Etream stallion was in the spotlight again yesterday after his colt consigned by Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu as hip 292 was snapped up by Peter Doyle Bloodstock for €210,000. His page includes the star filly Gorella (Fr) and Porto Santo (Fr), who was third in the 2005 G1 Criterium International before making a success of himself State-side. Richard Hannon Jr. was on hand to sign the docket for the chestnut named Loyaliste (Fr), who will enter training with his father. "We don't have a client yet for the horse," Hannon commented. "Ross Doyle, the son of Peter Doyle, who had picked our afternoon listed winner Soul City (Ire) in Deauville and also Paco Boy (Ire), picked this horse and we gave it a try. He is a lovely strong animal, who is very sharp, and we have a lot of owners who ask us to buy horses in France in order to benefit from the owner's premiums when they race over here. So we should find someone quickly." Xavier and Nathalie Bozo, who bred Gorella, were delighted at the sale and Xavier said, "He was the only horse we had for this sale, so we didn't present him ourselves, but asked our friend Aliette Forien if she didn't mind taking him in her consignment. He is a good-looking individual with a perfect vet file. The dam of Gorella and the dam of this one are bred on the same lines. The dam is in foal to Hurricane Run (Ire) and has a lovely foal by Anabaa Blue (GB). We are happy to see the horse go to Richard Hannon, and we wish him the same success as Gorella." The price paid for that colt was later matched by Laurent Benoit's Broadhurst Agency for Haras de Grandcamp's hip 314, a son of Red Ransom who is a three-parts brother to the listed-placed Lear Fan pair Bylaw and Ronnie Gaucho.

That's the Spirit...

Trainer Philippe Demercastel was in the headlines after saddling Spirit One (Fr) to success in the G1 Arlington Million, and he was in selling mode yesterday. His filly, consigned as hip 326 under the banner of Haras du Cadran, is a full-sister to the 2006 G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner and ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Chinandega (Fr), whom he also bred and owned before selling her privately to Teruya Yoshida at the end of her two-year-old season. Agent Paul Nataf went to €170,000 to buy the daughter of Chichicastenango (Fr), sire of this year's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Vision d'Etat (Fr), for owner Enrico Ciampi. Demercastel was very pleased with the transaction. He commented, "It is a very good sale. She looked good and very correct, but I am a trainer first and a breeder second, so we need money to keep going. I have five others that I bred to put into training this year, and that costs money. She was the only one of my yearlings that had any real value in such a market. I have made a deal with Mr. Ciampi; I will keep 30 percent of the filly and I will also train her, so I can't complain." Two lots earlier the same price was realised by Haras de la Perrigne's hip 324 and the April-foaled bay was another to go the way of Marc-Antoine Berghgracht's MAB Agency. Already named Cenelia (Fr), the grey Kendor filly is a full-sister to the 2004 G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte victress Centifolia (Fr). Those prices were almost matched an hour earlier when hip 293 was knocked down to Broadhurst Agency for €150,000. Consigned by Haras de la Louviere, the grey daughter of Captain Rio (GB) is out of the winning mare Without Shoes (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}), a daughter of the 1990 G2 Prix d'Astarte victress Lady Winner (Fr), who made an impression in the U.S. with three stakes victories.

ANOTHER FIRST CROP STAKES WINNER

ELUSIVE CITY

SIRE OF 6 STAKES HORSES THIS YEAR

SOUL CITY MADE ALL TO WIN THE PRIX FRANÇOIS BOUTIN L. RACE AT DEAUVILLE YESTERDAY

Dalakhani in Demand...

Dalakhani was responsible for the clear topper amongst the colts on Saturday and the Aga Khan's resident was at the centre of attention again 24 hours later. Hip 275, a colt from the draft of Haras de la Louviere, is a three-parts brother to the 2006 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau runner-up Light of Joy (Fr) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), whose second dam is the 1995 G3 Prix Vanteaux winner and G1 Prix Saint-Alary third Secret Quest (GB). He was knocked down to agent Borje Olsson on behalf of Swedish owner Eric Soderberg for €200,000. "Mr. Soderberg has raced horses regularly in France for years, but has been quite unlucky these past few years, so he has decided to reorganize things and asked me to buy him horses," Olsson said. "We will decide later on the future of this Dalakhani colt and decide who will train him. I buy cheap horses at Keeneland for Mr. Soderberg to race in Sweden--these more expensive horses in Deauville cannot be sent over there and are kept here."

More Gains...

With another increase of 22 percent in average yesterday and 18 percent in median, the General Manager of Arqana Olivier Delloye was in ebullient mood. "The trade has been solid and consistent throughout today's session and the excellent figures carry on from the first two days," Delloye commented. "There were a lot of people on hand, there was rhythm during the sale and still plenty of money to be spent on the good horses. We have sold many more over €100,000 than on the same day last year when the market had slowed down quite sharply, which has not happened during this session. This is more proof of the quality of the catalogue this year, which is, of course, most satisfactory before we move into the last day of the sale."

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

ARQANA DEAUVILLE YEARLING SALE

Hip 353, f, Highest Honor (Fr)--Litani Queen (GB), by Emperor Jones

Consigned by Haras du Cadran

One of the picks by the recently pensioned Highest Honor, this February-foaled filly is a granddaughter of the listed-placed Litani River, who is herself a full-sister to the dam of Dolphin Street (Fr), Insight (Fr) and Saf-fron Walden (Fr). This is the Luv Luvin' dynasty of the current miling sensation Henrythenavigator and last year's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Listen (Ire).

Hip 415, f, Tiger Hill (Ire)--Seralia (GB), by Royal Academy

Consigned by Haras de la Louviere

One of a quintet of offerings by the Darley-based sire in the catalogue, this March-foaled filly is a half to the 2002 G3 Prix de Psyche winner Seralia (Fr) (Exit to Nowhere) and the useful stakes performer Sandbox (Ire) (Grand Lodge). Her dam, who was also a listed winner and group-placed, is a half to the 1996 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and 1997 G2 Prix Hocquart scorer Shaka (GB) (Exit to Nowhere).

Hip 450, f, High Chaparral (Ire)--Wavey (GB), by Kris (GB)

Consigned by Haras du Mezeray

This February-foaled filly is a half-sister to the 2004 G2 Prix de Malleret runner-up Bouyant (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), whose extended family includes Go for Wand, Dance Spell and Discorama.

Hip 473, f, Muhtathir (GB)--Belle du Bresil (Fr), by Akarad (Fr)

Consigned by Haras du Mezeray

Shadwell's Muhtathir was responsible for Saturday's topper, and this filly has much to commend her as the latest product of the prolific Belle du Bresil. Among her progeny are listed scorer Floresta (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}) and the Octagonal (NZ) pair of stakes performers Pink Cloud (Fr) and Secret de Famille (Fr), as well as the dam of the 2003 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches fourth Welcome Millennium (Fr), 2003 G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Ximb (Fr) and current group performer and ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Verba (Fr).

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

HIRSCH NEXT STOP FOR SWORD DANCER TOP TWO

The first two finishers of Saturday's GI Sword Dancer S--Grand Couturier (Grand Lodge) and Better Talk Now (Talkin Man)--appear poised for a rematch in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational at Belmont Sept. 27, according to connections. "Everybody says the same thing, 'We'll give it a few days, we'll check it out,'" trainer Bobby Ribaldo said. "But, we have very few choices with a horse like him because of logistics and what not, and because of the grass. So, the Turf Classic at Belmont would, naturally, be the first priority. And, if he still runs good there, the Breeders' Cup would certainly be the next." Trainer Graham Motion is pleased with his charge after his weekend efforts. "[Better Talk Now's] very good," he said. "I actually just got done walking him. He's really pretty full of himself, so he's doing well."

NO BC CUP FOR PROUD SPELL? Proud Spell

(Proud Citizen), winner of the GI Alabama S., exited Saturday's race in good order, according to trainer Larry Jones yesterday. "All things are good with her," said Jones. "I don't know what our next objective is. The Alabama had been our main objective, so right now, I don't know. We'll sit down in a day or two and start thinking about it." With a three-year-old championship in mind, Jones told Blood-Horse yesterday, "Hopefully, [the Alabama] will settle the Eclipse Award. I just can't see them settling it on an artificial surface, and using that as the one-race measure. That's why they have dirt horses and they have turf horses, and now you need a third kind of horse. I know we're not looking to go to the Breeders' Cup with Proud Spell." The bay filly, who won the GI Kentucky Oaks in May, also triumphed in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks and GII Delaware Oaks earlier this season. Explaining the decision to bypass the championship series at Santa Anita, Jones told Blood-Horse, "She wasn't comfortable on the Polytrack at Keeneland [third in the GI Ashland S.]. We work over the Tapeta synthetic surface at Fair Hill, and while it's good for her to train on, she still works slow, and had a slow work over it for the Alabama, considering the effort she put in."

MAST TRACK READIES FOR PACIFIC CLASSIC

Mast Track (Mizzen Mast), surprise winner of the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28, completed his final major preparatory move in advance of Sunday's GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar with a sharp six-furlong work in 1:11.40 Sunday morning. Owned, bred and trained by Bobby Frankel, the four-year-old galloped out seven furlongs in 1:24.20. "It was a very good work," said Humberto Ascanio, Frankel's chief assistant in charge of the Del Mar string. "It may have been a little faster than Bobby wanted, but he did it nice. He's a naturally fast horse and he's a good work horse." Frankel's other Pacific Classic prospect, Out of Control (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}), is scheduled to work today at Saratoga before shipping west on Tuesday. The former is expected to be partnered by Rafael Bejarano, while Edgar Pardo will fly in for the duties on the Brazilian import.

TO BE SURPRISED SETS MAGIC MILLIONS

RECORD To Be Surprised (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}--Patrona, by Lomond), a 3/4-sister to Exceed and Excel {Aus}, attracted a sales record final bid of A$1.3 million at yesterday's Magic Millions August Thoroughbred Sale. From the consignment of leading Queensland-based nursery Racetree, as agent, the seven-year-old mare was purchased by Patinack Farm. She is in foal to Zabeel (NZ). "She is a really wonderful prospect," Patinack Farm's Rick Connelly said of To Be Surprised. "She's a three-quarter sister to Exceed and Excel--one of the top young stallions at the present time. We're getting together a great line up of mares and To Be Surprised will fit in nicely. We will get her home and then decide which of our stallions she will visit." During yesterday's action, 129 horses sold for A$3,709,800 and an average of A$28,758. The clearance rate was 87 percent. "Breeders and vendors are now realising that sales such as this are a fantastic place to offer their quality stock--and their entries are competed over strongly by astute buyers," said Magic Millions managing director David Chester. "To have a broodmare sell for A$1.3 million today was a real high-light. A mare with her page and covering is rarely offered in this part of the world."

SAFETY FIRST AT JC ROUND TABLE

By Maryjean Wall

Calling for quick action from the ground up as well as at the top, The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred Safety Committee is urging all racetracks to enact immediate change in horse welfare through the use of interim "house rules" to speed reform while awaiting any future state actions.

This recommendation was among proposals yesterday at the 56th annual Round Table Conference sponsored by The Jockey Club, where the use of anabolic steroids, alkalizing substances ("milkshakes") and toe grabs on horse shoes were singled out as problems that the industry is attempting to solve quickly.

The committee also urged publication of TCO2 (alkalinizing, "milkshake") levels of all horses tested in each state because the public has a right to know.

"Medication issues continue to haunt this industry and they are and will continue to be a priority for this committee," said Stuart S. Janney III, chairman of the Thoroughbred Safety Committee. "We have too much medication compared to the rest of the world," he also said.

The Thoroughbred Safety Committee also recommended changes in drug testing and laboratory standards, uniform penalties for prohibited drug and practices violations, more strenuous milkshake testing, and a national system to report injuries during racing and training. Some 55 racetracks have signed on with the committee's Equine Injury Database and the committee yesterday urged all tracks to participate.

Clearly, the great amount of negative publicity the industry has received since the death of Eight Belles in the Kentucky Derby was one major theme driving this year's Round Table. The Safety Committee is to examine the size of the Kentucky Derby field, which generally attracts 20 horses, to determine if it is, in fact, a safety issue.

The industry can cite some successful strategies that were in place even before the hailstorm of news articles resulting from this year's Triple Crown, according to James Hickey Jr., president of The American Horse Council.

Nonetheless, Hickey stressed in his presentation that the climate of public tolerance for racing injuries has changed markedly since the last time, some 27 years ago, when the fear of federal intervention swept through the industry.

OBS AUGUST YEARLING BEGINS The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's August Yearling Sale begins its four-day run today in Ocala with a total of 230 catalogued for the sale's opening selected session. The Open portion of the sale, which runs from Tuesday through Thursday, will feature an additional 1112 yearlings. Bidding commences at 10:30 a.m. daily; the sale can be viewed live on the internet via the OBS website at www.obssales.com. Recent graduates of the August sale include GII Jim Dandy S. winner Macho Again (Macho Uno), purchased for $150,000 by agent Buzz Chace for West Point Thoroughbreds in 2006. The August sale has six additional graded stakes winners hailing from the class of 2006: Denis of Cork (Harlan's Holiday), winner of the Southwest S. and runner-up in the GI Belmont S. and third in the GI Kentucky Derby; 2007 Canadian champion juvenile Kodiak Cowboy (Posse); Hey Byrn (Put It Back), winner of the GIII Holly Bull S.; GI Breeders' Futurity S. hero Wicked Style (Macho Uno); Set Play (Van Nistelrooy), who accounted for the GI Del Mar Debutante S.; and Grade III winners Sporting Act (Doneraile Court) and Tasha's Miracle (Harlan's Holiday). Last year's class is headed by multiple stakes winner and undefeated juvenile Southern Exchange (Exchange Rate), also purchased by Chace on behalf of Bill and Vicki Poston. This year's catalog includes a plethora of young sires who are represented by their first crop of yearlings. Included among them are Afleet Alex, Closing Argument, Consolidator, Eurosilver, Heckle, Limehouse, Pollard's Vision, Powerscourt (GB), Roman Ruler, Unforgettable Max, Value Plus and Woke Up Dreamin.

“The public is very interested now and not sympathetic,” James Hickey Jr. said. “Overwhelmingly the articles are critical. The focus on steroid problems in other sports has spilled over into racing.”

Alan Foreman, chairman and CEO of the Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Associations, Inc., promised aid with funding post-graduate doctoral students whose career interests will focus on drug-testing of racehorses. Foreman predicted that the industry is going to find it difficult to replace the core scientists who have devoted lifelong careers to this niche.

He also warned that sophisticated testing will be needed to combat the next generation of illegal drugs: gene doping. Foreman said that one solution to prevailing budget problems at state-controlled testing laboratories would be for the racing industry to establish its own laboratory.

Bill Casner, president and co-owner of WinStar Farm, showed visuals that highlighted how the wearing of toe grabs alters the leg and ankle position of a running horse. He cited research by Dr. Sue Stover at UCLA-Davis that has connected the wearing of toe grabs to on-track injuries.

“We have a lot of work ahead of us,” Janney concluded, adding, “If the death of Eight Belles makes us all more cooperative and less inward-looking, Eight Belles may be viewed as one of the most important racehorses ever to step on a track.”

America's Friend, coming into this with two wins from three starts at the distance, debuted at this seaside oval with a narrow nose defeat going five panels in allowance company July 18. Appreciating the added yardage in her latest, the chestnut responded to score by 2 1/4 lengths July 25. Bumped up in class for this one, the four-year-old settled off the pace in sixth in the early going, moved up between foes on the second turn, swung for wide heading for home and responded when asked in the stretch to collect her first stakes victory.

Sea the Stars, a half-brother to champion Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), ran fourth in the hot Curragh maiden won by Driving Snow (GB) on debut July 13, and rewarded the collective faith of the crowd with a smooth success in this second go. Roused from the break to occupy a prominent early pitch in third, he slipstreamed Alyazwa (GB) (Selkirk) through the early fractions. Angled off the rail turning into the home straight, the 2-1 favorite took over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was pushed out in the closing stages to best Dark Humour (Ire) (Bahri) by an impressive 2 1/2 lengths. "He had smartened up over the past couple of weeks--he's a very well-tempered horse and sleepy at home, and he was good enough to overcome ground he didn't like today," trainer John Oxx said. "It was a lovely, easy win and, hopefully, he'll progress again. He's in the [Sept. 14] G1 National S. and the G2 Beresford S. a couple of weeks later at The Curragh--they will be quite a step up, but I think he might be able to make it. He's a Derby contender at this early stage, but he has to keep progressing--he's got a lot of good qualities going for him--temperament, looks and soundness." Sirgarfieldsobers (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), the full-brother of last year's G1 Epsom Derby winner Authorized (Ire), was unable to recover from a tardy start and finished a geared-down 13th. In addition to Galileo (Ch. 3yo Colt-Eur, Hwt. 3yo Colt-Eng & Ire at 11-14f, Hwt. 3yo Colt-Ire at 9.5-11f, G1SW-Ire & MG1SW-Eng, $2,250,614), Sea the Stars is also a half to Urban Ocean (Fr) (Bering {GB}, Hwt. 3yo-Ire at 9.5-11f, GSW-Ire); Melikah (Ire) (Lammtarra, SW & G1SP-Eng, G1SP-Ire, $127,600); Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells, Hwt. 3yo-Ity at 11-14f, G1SW-Ity & Ire, G1SP-Ger, Fr & Eng, $719,717); All Too Beautiful (Ire) (Sadler's Wells, SW & GSP-Ire, GSW & G1SP-Eng, $298,797); My Typhoon (Ire) (Giant's Causeway, GISW-US, $1,308,361); and Cherry Hinton (GB) (Green Desert, GSP-Ire). Still in rear and pushed along in early stretch, the 10-1 chance found her feet inside the final quarter mile and swooped late under a sympathetic drive to oust Jakarta Jazz (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) by a short head on the line. "It didn't look like she was going to figure at all in the race, but when Mick gave her a flick she really quickened up," trainer John Oxx said. "She's not the most robust filly and has had a hard race there in heavy ground, so she may need an interval between her races, and you won't see her much this year. Her dam stayed a mile and a quarter, and she could go a bit further than her and be a nice filly." Progressing from a debut fourth at Windsor June 9, Soul City broke through in a competitive maiden at Newmarket July 9 before running a creditable fourth in the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood last time July 30. Leading after the initial strides here, he maintained control until coming under pressure at the quarter-mile marker, but re-established superiority under a drive inside the last 250 meters to claim a first stakes win. "This is a pretty good horse and he stayed on well despite making all the running," commented trainer Richard Hannon. "It has always been the plan to take him to the Goffs Million [at The Curragh Sept. 28], and the result today can only encourage me to stick with that plan."
