LOADED FIELD FOR MID-SUMMER DERBY

Even without the presence of dual Classic winner Big Brown (Boundary), today's GI Travers S. at the Spa promises to be a good one. ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Colonel John (Tiznow), winner of the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 5, had never finished worse than second prior to his troubled sixth in the GI Kentucky Derby. The handsome bay ran like he was in need of a race last time when third behind Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park) in the GII Swaps S. July 12, and has been training lights out since. The WinStar Farm homebred fired a best-of-35 five-furlong bullet in :58 at Del Mar Aug. 12. "Very, very, very well," trainer Eoin Harty said of his charge's recent workouts. "I think the key to the Travers will be the pace. I'd like to see a half in :46 and to be laying about five or six lengths off that." Stronach Stables' ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Harlem Rocker (Macho Uno) began his career with three straight victories, including a smart tally over J Be K in the GIII Withers S. Apr. 26. The gray finished a disappointing fourth as the 1-5 chalk in the June 1 Plate Trial S. over the Woodbine Polytrack, but bounced back over the Fort Erie dirt with a win in the Prince of Wales S. July 13. "I don't think we've gotten to the bottom of him yet," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "It looks like a pretty wide-open race. It should be interesting to see what happens." Cont. p2

THE INDIRECT APPROACH

This week's saga surrounding the lost Ebor meeting has seen a few twists, but New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) arrives at Newmarket today in a bid to become the first to win a G1 Juddmonte International having been declared a non-runner for the race. Not shipped from Dublin airport on Tuesday and scratched before the morning inspection was carried out at York, Princess Haya of Jordan's G1 Epsom Derby hero was thrown a lifeline by the transfer of this prize to Suffolk. Injury has kept him off the track since his triumph in the June 7 Blue Riband, and on his comeback he faces his first clash with the older horses, including arguably the best of them in Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill). "They are very happy with the way he is going at home," jockey Kevin Manning commented. "He's very straightforward and there is no badness in him--he likes to get on with the job and takes a hold of the bridle and is a bit strong. Track-wise, he goes left or right-handed and straight or round a bend, so it's immaterial where the race is, but we didn't want the ground as heavy as it was in York. You've got to respect all the opposition and getting him switched off is the main thing, then we'll take it from there." Cont. p9

One Dandy of a Rematch...

West Point Thoroughbreds' Macho Again (Macho Uno), runner-up behind Big Brown in the GI Preakness S., ran the race of his life most recently to annex the July 27 GII Jim Dandy S. over Pyro (Pulpit) by a half-length. The gray has turned in a pair of four-furlong breezes over the Saratoga training track in :50 since. "He's a fighter," trainer Dallas Stewart said of the Derby Trial S. winner. "And he likes Saratoga. He ran second in his first start here last year, and he's bigger and more mature than he was last year." Pyro, the 3-2 favorite in the Jim Dandy, looks to turn the tables on Macho Again. "We were disappointed he didn't win the Jim Dandy, but it was a good effort," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "When we lead him over, we are going to lead him over with confidence."

SHEIKH MOHAMMED BECOMES FABRE'S PRINCIPAL OWNER

In what Andre Fabre described as a "radical change" in his organization, Sheikh Mohammed has acquired Fabre's main yard at Chantilly and will send over 100 horses to the French trainer, he told the TDN's sister publication, Journal de Galop, Friday. With the move, Sheikh Mohammed will become Fabre's main owner, though Fabre will continue to train for five or six of his longtime clients.

Andre Fabre
NTRA.com

"Sheikh Mohammed just acquired my main yard at Chantilly, which is called the 'Rothschild yard,' said Fabre. "There are about 110 stalls in this yard, and they will be occupied in the future by Sheikh Mohammed's horses. This evolution is a radical change in my organization--it is the beginning of a new era for me. Sheikh Mohammed will be, by far, my main owner. This fall, I will receive approximately 35 two-year-olds and around 70 yearlings from him." Fabre explained that while he will train for Sheikh Mohammed, he will not train for Godolphin. "The Godolphin stable is the flag-bearer of Dubai, and the pride of the ruler of Dubai," he said. "Therefore, some of the best horses I'll train for him in Chantilly will be transferred in due time to the Dubai stable. It's a gentlemen's agreement that was concluded with the Sheikh, and I will stick to it 100 percent with no hesitation or regret." Fabre said that the structure of his stable would have to change with this development. "Right now, I have more than 20 different owners, and it's obvious that I won't carry on in this vein for various reasons," he added. "I have decided, based on this development, to reduce the number of horses I train. I will keep about five or six previous, faithful owners who will have, all together, fewer than 100 horses with me. This means that each of them will have to send fewer yearlings than they used to do. I want to still train in order to shape champions, and not to produce average horses. Racing is about competition and I want to remain competitive. That explains the spirit of this important change."

Two-Year-Olds Turn It On!

JULIET'S SPIRIT (06 f. o/o Juliet's Way, by Farma Way) remained undefeated in winning the $150,000 Ontario Debutante S. on August 16 over the synthetic surface. She is proving herself to be one of Canada's premier two-year-old fillies and is a perfect 3 for 3 with $209,358 in earnings. Owner/Breeder: Padua Stables. Chart Video

C Karma (06 f. o/o C B Carm, by Slick) made her stakes debut worth the effort by running third in the $150,000 Ontario Debutante S. at Woodbine over the synthetic surface on August 16. The filly has never finished out of the money. The effort brings her earnings to $68,944 with a record of 4-1-1-2. Owner/Breeder: Pamela F. Edel.

You Luckie Mann (06 c. o/o Terri's Choice, by West Acre), a winner in his first career start last time out, ran a respectable third in the $100,000 Dr. Fager S. at Calder on August 16. Getting bumped at the start caused him to be checked early, but he ran on gamely in his first stakes bow to just miss second money. He has now earned $29,000 in two starts. Owner: Kramer Stables, LLC. Breeder: Elbert Paul and Opal Eileen Paul.

Yes It's True
Say YES to Stakes Success

Circuit Breaker (03 f. o/o Shocker T., by Nodouble) is now 3 times stakes placed this year with her recent third in the $100,000 Charles Town Distaff Sprint S. on August 16. The filly finished willingly when asked and brought her record to 21-4-6-5 and earnings to $163,491 with the effort. Owner: Puglisi Racing LLC & Steve Klesaris. Breeder: Thomasina Caporella.

Three Chimneys Grads

LEMON KISS (04 f. Lemon Drop Kid - Black Tie Kiss, by Danzig), who has been turning in stakes performances left and right this year, won the $100,000 Emerald Distaff H. at Emerald Downs on August 17 going a mile and an eighth. The 1/2 length win brings her record to 11-4-3-3 and $152,110 in earnings. Owner: William DeBurgh & Mark DeDominico, LLC. Breeder: Jayeff B Stables.

KISS THE KID (03 c. Lemon Drop Kid - Black Tie Kiss, by Danzig), who is G1SP already this year, ran a respectable third in the $300,000 Philip H. Iselin H. (G3) on August 16 at Monmouth Park. The colt held his own through much of the race and now has a record of 22-5-2-5 with $379,767 in earnings. Owner: Amy Tarrant. Breeder: Jayeff B Stables.

BREEDERS' CUP ESTABLISHES AE RULES Breeders' Cup races with oversubscribed fields will now have an also-eligible list, the Breeders' Cup announced yesterday. If more horses than the maximum enter during the pre-entry stage, the Breeders' Cup Racing Directors/Secretaries Panel will create an also-eligible list. Should the race remain oversubscribed at time of entry, a maximum of two horses will be placed on the also-eligible list, with the preference order determined by the panel. These horses will draw in if there are any scratches before 7:00 a.m. Friday, Oct. 24. The reason for the change was to "have as many full fields as possible for the Championship races," according to Breeders' Cup President and CEO Greg Avioli. "Establishing also-eligible lists increases the opportunity to give as many top-quality horses a chance to compete for a Championship, and offers fans greater wagering value," Avioli added. The maximum field for 11 of the 14 Breeders' Cup races is 14. The exceptions are the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, the Grey Goose Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and the Grey Goose Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, which are limited to 12 horses.

FOREST WILDCAT DEAD AT 17 Forest Wildcat (Storm Cat--Victoria Beauty, by Bold Native) died Thursday night at Rood and Riddle Equine Clinic at the age of 17, officials at Brookdale Farm announced Friday morning. The sire of 52 blacktype winners had undergone emergency surgery Wednesday after showing signs of discomfort; an autopsy is being performed to determine the cause of death. Bred in Florida by Ocala Stud Farms, Forest Wildcat sold for $325,000 as a two-year-old at OBSFEB in 1993. After winning four races from his first 13 starts, Forest Wildcat returned to the sales ring in Decemebr 1995 for the complete dispersal of Israel Cohen's racing stock. He was purchased for $57,000 by Everett Novak's New Farm, who raced him in partnership with Fred Seitz. Forest Wildcat won five races for his new owners, including the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. and the GIII Finger Lakes Breeders Cup H. He entered stud in 1997 at Seitz's Brookdale Farm, where he stood his entire career. As a sire, Forest Wildcat's progeny have combined to earn $34,236,728 to date. The sire of champions D' Wildcat Speed and Var, he is also represented by Grade I winners Forest Secrets, D'Wildcat, and Wildcat Heir. Snow Dance is her sire's chief earner, having banked $938,597 in her career. Forest Wildcat is the sire of 10 blacktype winners in 2008, including graded winners Behindatthebar (GII Coolmore Lexington S.), Brownie Points (GIII Ouija Board Distaff H.), Chatain (GIII Hal's Hope H.), and Coragil Cat (GIII Hanshin Cup H.). He will be buried at Brookdale Farm.

EYES FOR NO ONE ELSE

Not declared for York due to heavy ground, Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) benefitted from the switch of the G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks to Newmarket yesterday when making amends for her latest luckless defeat in Goodwood's G1 Nassau S. Sent off the even-money favorite to add to her earlier top-level success in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S., Jim and Jackie Bolger's bay swooped to conquer approaching the furlong marker and drew away from Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) up the rising ground to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Setting a new track record in the process, she also passed the £1-million mark in earnings, and jockey Kevin Manning paid tribute. "She's very versatile from a mile to a mile and a half and she did it well," Manning said.

Last year's Goffs Fillies Million heroine, Lush Lashes looked certain to relish middle distances when finishing out strongly at the end of the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas S. on the Rowley Mile here and proved the point with a smooth win in York's G3 Musidora S. 10 days later. Only fifth in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 6, she was a surprise declaration for the one-mile Coronation on her next start June 20, but proved she had the pace for that test with a commanding 3 1/4-length success. Upped to 10 furlongs again for the Nassau last time Aug. 2, she was caught behind rivals at a crucial point and was belatedly eating up ground when a head second to Halfway to Heaven (Ire). Kept at the back early as Cape Amber (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) ran too freely in front, she was brought towards the stands' side for her challenge and rolled by Dar Re Mi and Michita before controlling matters throughout the final uphill furlong. "It was the track that beat her at Epsom rather than the trip," said rider Kevin Manning. "She got the trip very well today--they went a good, even pace all the way, and she switched off well and picked them up nicely."

"She was still more or less asleep when I moved her out, so I just had to shake her up to wake her," Manning cont. "She's a very special filly. It was very unfortunate and very disappointing at Goodwood, but we've put that behind us now and [trainer] Jim [Bolger] will decide where we go. She is in the G1 Matron S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 6] over a mile and, although that's only two weeks away, she hasn't had a hard race today and there is the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 5]." Bolger later pointed at a range of options including the G1 Sun Chariot S. on Newmarket's other course Oct. 4 and possible international engagements in Hong Kong, the Breeders' Cup and Dubai in 2009. John Gosden, trainer of the second and third, told PA Sport, "Both Dar Re Mi and Michita ran absolute blinders. You can't argue with having a second and a third in a Group 1. The winner is a superior filly. Dar Re Mi is improving fast. It's not normal that you run them back after only eight days, but she took the G3 Prix Minerve in Deauville so well and proved here that she is a high-class filly. Whether we will head to the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 14] with Dar Re Mi, we will have to see. Michita could go for the G2 Prix de Royallieu [at Longchamp Oct. 4]."

Borderlescott, for so long a bridesmaid in the most competitive sprint heats of the British calendar, finally turned the corner when registering an upset in this rescheduled contest. Though he'd never won a stakes beforehand, the veteran had earned stripes for a high level of consistency throughout the past four seasons and had failed to hit the board on only eight of his career starts despite running in a mix of pattern races and top handicaps. His best previous effort had come this season when runner-up to Fleeting Spirit (Ire) in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock May 24, and he was in the same spot after the Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury June 15 and Listed City Wall S. at Chester July 12. Third under a weighty burden in the Stewards' Cup H. at Goodwood last time Aug. 2, the bay gave his customary spirited effort to garner a career-best dropped back to the minimum distance here.

Always prominent as the flying grey National Colour freewheeled in front, he gathered in that raider with 100 yards remaining before grafting his way to a new track record, knocking over a second off the previous best. "They went very quick and it suited me, as he is very genuine but needs everything to go right," rider Pat Cosgrave said. "I rode him over six the last day at Goodwood and he didn't quite get home, but we had something to aim at going into the 'dip' and I hardly picked up my stick. Sometimes, he can get there too soon through having so much natural speed, but I'm so glad he's won as he's been second so many times." Trainer Robin Bastiman, who revealed that he may hand over his stable to his daughter Rebecca next year, added, "He's always been a good horse, and I've trained moderate ones all my life to know. He hadn't won a listed race before this, but always gives his all and is better over five furlongs. He's been so unlucky, but we've found his proper trip now." National Colour is set for a rematch with the winner in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye at Longchamp Oct. 5. Trainer Sean Tarry told PA Sport, "One furlong out, we all thought she was going to do it, but we aren't too unhappy with second coming back from knee surgery. We will go for the Abbaye next." Last year's winner Kingsgate Native will tackle the six-furlong G1 Haydock Sprint Cup Sept. 6, according to conditioner John Best. "He was struggling to go with them, which was a little bit of a surprise," Best told PA Sport. "I hoped he would pick up between the two and the one poles, but it didn't quite happen. After that performance we will go for the Haydock Sprint Cup." Last year's July Cup hero Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee) was virtually eased after a tardy start and was later reported to have pulled a muscle leaving the stalls, while the 10-3 favourite Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) was never threatening before finishing fourth. Champion Ginger Punch, heroine of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, had to call on all her class to get the job done here. The chestnut entered this riding a three-race winning streak after overcoming traffic woes in Saratoga's GI Go For Wand H. July 26. With regular rider Rafael Bejarano aboard, she saved ground along the rail in fourth in the early stages. Shifted off the fence down the backstretch, Ginger Punch launched a four wide move on the turn for home while Lemon Drop Mom snuck up the inside to gain the lead entering the stretch. The duo locked horns in the lane, and it was Ginger Punch, who narrowly escaped by a nostril.

"I thought we got beat," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "She got the perfect bob. Today and in her last race, she had to overcome a lot of things. She's in heat--and I was a nervous wreck. When I saw her in the paddock, she was [acting] as if she was ready to be bred. By the way Rafael [Bejarano] was putting her in a drive, I thought she had a lot to do. As soon as she got to the quarter-pole, I knew she had a chance. We're thinking about the [GI] Beldame [at Belmont Park Sept. 27]. We want to see how she comes out of this race."

Another who was not originally declared for York, Shaweel improved on his previous form to register an upset in this rescheduled event. The bay was eighth in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 17 and was stepped up to seven furlongs for his next two starts, finishing third in the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket July 11 and fifth in Goodwood's July 30 G2 Vintage S. Showing plentiful speed dropped back in trip here, he raced prominently before grabbing the lead at the quarter pole and drew away for a clear-cut success. "I let him bowl and had plenty of horse underneath me, so when I asked him to go he picked up and went away well," jockey Greg Fairley commented. Winning trainer Mark Johnston is looking at the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster Sept. 13, while Master Noverre's conditioner Richard Fahey is sighting either the Oct. 3 G1 Middle Park S. or the Tattersalls Million. Elnawin upset stable companion Bonnie Charlie to set another track record, and struck for the Richard Hannon stable renowned for its accuracy in these sales events. Despite having beaten a subsequent winner at Salisbury last time July 26, Elnawin was ignored by the July Course crowd, but subdued them with an ultimately comfortable defeat of their hot favorite. Disputing the early lead, the bay was in front after halfway and never looked likely to relinquish his advantage as his barnmate tried hard to close the gap in the closing stages. "I always thought the winner was nice, and this race is great at this time of year for horses open to improvement," the trainer's son and assistant Richard Hannon Jr. commented. "The winner is a very decent horse who has been slightly underestimated, and is obviously improving. He could turn into a G3 Horris Hill S. [at Newbury Oct. 25] horse or he might stay at six furlongs." Click for the Racing Post chart.

PREVIEWS

For Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Duke of Marmalade, the move of this race to a track at which the surface was producing track records yesterday removes the potential hazard of testing the four-year-old in deep conditions. Victory here would represent a fifth straight win at the highest level, and he has looked almost unstoppable on this type of ground so far this term. He holds Phoenix Tower and Pipedreamer on the form of the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, where he showed his new-found brilliance when putting four lengths between him and that pair. Back at the Berkshire venue last time, the bay showed tenacity when stretching his stamina to a mile and a half to conquer Papal Bull (GB) at the top of his game in the July 26 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. Jockey Johnny Murtagh spoke of the "Duke" earlier in the week, and his faith in the horse is compelling. "I have a great belief in my horse," Murtagh said. "He's tough and genuine, and every day he goes he gives you 110 percent. He's a horse that will die for you and it's a clash of the titans." Henry Cecil, who saddled Wollow (Ire) to win this in 1976 when it was known as the Benson & Hedges Gold Cup, followed up with Royal Anthem in 1999. Alongside Khalid Abdullah's Phoenix Tower--runner-up in the July 5 G1 Eclipse at Sandown following his Prince of Wales's defeat--he sends out the Niarchos Family's Aug. 9 G3 Rose of Lancaster S. winner Multidimensional. Of the former, Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe said, "I think he is really a fast-ground horse and, with the ground good-to-firm at Newmarket, he should be in very good nick. He has trained very well in the run-up to the race and he ran a good race in the Eclipse, so it's hard to say he's not a genuine Group 1 contender."

Kodiak Kowboy lassoed the July 28 GII Amsterdam S. by a head over a game Desert Key and looks like he will have a perfect set-up again here. The bay earned a smart Beyer of 108 while making his first start for Larry

Jones last time. "In the Amsterdam, I learned he was gutsy," said Jones. "I thought I was running a short horse that day. I told [jockey Gabriel Saez] when I left that I didn't know if he was fit enough to win [the Amsterdam]. We definitely couldn't win the King's Bishop if we couldn't get a race into him. I was proud with the way he ran well in the Amsterdam. I am also glad I didn't screw it up three weeks ahead of the King's Bishop." With Edgar Prado in the irons, Desert Key set rapid fractions of :21 3/5 and :44 in the Amsterdam before grudgingly giving way late. He will be ridden by John Velazquez for the first time here. The Centennial Farms' colorbearer figures to have plenty of company on the lead with fel-

Thorn Song faded to sixth in the May 3 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill, but rebounded with an optional-claiming score June 8. He made it two in a row in the July 4 GII Firecracker H., and enters this off a third in the Aug. 3 GII Fourstardave H. over this course. The grey is now two-for-three on the turf at the Spa. Proudinsky, on the board in eight of his first 10 grass appearances, threw in a rare clunker last time.

The five-year-old was wide throughout in the June 8 GI Manhattan H. and faded down the lane to run 11th. The lightly raced bay had been out just once previously this season, taking the Mar. 8 GII Mervin Muniz Jr. Memorial H. at Fair Grounds. He was one-for-three in 2007, winning an Oak Tree allowance as well as running second in the GII San Gabriel H. and third in the GI Citation H. Second in two Saratoga allowance tests on the turf last summer, Operation Red Dawn has hit the board in all four tries this term. The six-year-old was runner-up in a Gulfstream allowance in January and the GIII Fort Marcy H. Apr. 27 before capturing an optional claimer at Belmont June 5. He saved ground and finished evenly to be third behind Kip Deville (Kipling) in the July 13 GIII Poker H. last time out.

Spring House looks to get back on track after his trip to the UAE for the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. Third, but beaten just 3/4 of a length by After Market, in this event last year, the dark bay gelding followed up with a win in the Oct. 28 GIII Carleton F. Burke H. at Oak Tree. He was third again in the Dec. 8 GI Hollywood Turf Cup, then prepped for his overseas adventure with a victory in the Feb. 23 GII San Luis Obispo H. The six-year-old grabbed the lead in the stretch in the Sheema Classic, but weakened late to be 10th. Freshened after that experience, he returned in the July 20 GI Eddie Read H. going nine furlongs on this course, closing in traffic to get fourth. He should appreciate the added ground here. Runaway Dancer makes his nine-year-old bow this afternoon. The grey gelding, three-for-six on the turf at Del Mar, took the GII Sunset H. at Hollywood last July, with Spring House back in third. He has not been out since finishing third behind that rival in the Carleton F. Burke. Heroi do Bafra was the runner-up in three straight, including a half-length loss in the May 3 GIII Inglewood H. at Hollywood, before breaking the streak in a Hollywood allowance June 1. The six-year-old was last seen running fourth in the June 28 GII American H.

Tam Lin began his career in England, where he won four of his first five starts in 2006, including the Icon Holdings Glasgow S., the David Wilson Homes Steventon S. and the G3 Totesport.com Winter Hill S. Subsequently shipped across the Atlantic, Tam Lin was sixth after setting the pace in his North American debut in a Tampa Bay Downs allowance this March, his first start in nearly six months. He hasn't finished off the board since, placing third in the Volponi S. May 11, first in the Scottish Monk S., and second to Kip Deville in his latest start, the GIII Poker H. July 13. This will be Tam Lin's first start at a distance shorter than a mile. Le Cinquieme Essai seeks a three-peat in the Play the King, having won this race in 2006 and 2007. He was second, beaten a head in 2005. The 9-year-old was an even second to Mulmur in his most recent outing, which was his first start since finishing 11th in last September's GI Woodbine Mile.

On the front end, Le Cinquieme Essai will have to contend with Disfunction, who has won five of nine starts. He won his stakes debut May 19, taking the GIII Vigil S. on Woodbine's Polytrack. Most recently, he was second in the July 20 Bold Venture S. after setting the pace. The Play the King will be his first start on turf.

All carry 124 pounds.

After Aidan O'Brien's decision not to send across his originally declared trio headed by Alessandro Volta (GB), this traditional trial for the G1 St Leger has lost some of its lustre, but that could be compensated by the presence of Patkai. Sir Michael Stoute has five renewals of this race on his resume, and Ballymacoll's progressive homebred will be a warm order to make it six. While showing signs of temperament during the early stages of his ultimately impressive handicap success at Haydock May 31 and in the preliminaries of the G3 Queen's Vase, the flashy chestnut showed abundant class when winning Royal Ascot's two-miler by seven lengths on his latest start June 20. Godolphin have won this three times, most recently with their eventual Leger hero Rule of Law four years ago, and will be buoyed that Meydan City does not have to run on York's heavy ground as he steps up in class. The $11.7-million KESEP purchase won on similar ground to this when recording maiden and conditions successes at Newmarket July 9 and Aug. 8, and connections believe he is ready for this level. "Meydan City is in good form and is working well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He won his last two races and is ready to go. It will be a big step for him going into a Group 2, but the horse is improving all the time. I think the step up in trip will suit him." Top Lock was third in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot before finishing a respectable third in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg last time July 6, and conditioner Andrew Balding is hoping he can book his ticket to the Sept. 13 Doncaster Classic. "He ran a good race at Hamburg in the German Derby last time out and he has come out of the race well," Balding said. "He has had a little bit of a break since his trip to Germany, but he's in good order and is working well at home."

5	4	Raven's Pass	Elusive Quality	Gosden

All carry 127 pounds bar Raven's Pass, 121.

Raven's Pass deserves a group success this year after crossing swords against the elite of the sophomore brigade in Henrythenavigator and Tamayuz (GB). Having met the former on three occasions, he had closed the gap to a head in Goodwood's G1 Sussex S. July 30, and succumbed only to the subsequent G1 Prix Jacques le Marois hero Tamayuz in Chantilly's G1 Prix Jean Prat on his penultimate start July 13. Trainer John Gosden, who saddled Muhtathir (GB) to collect 10 years ago, is hoping his consistency can earn its reward here. "I'm looking forward to seeing Raven's Pass back on the track and he has been working nicely since his last run at Goodwood," Gosden told PA Sport. "I will check the ground beforehand as he doesn't want it too soft, but the plan is to run at this stage." Luca Cumani puts forward Bankable, who found only Passage of Time (GB) a neck too strong in the Listed Steventon S. at Newbury last time July 19. He had previously captured his first stakes success in the course-and-distance Listed On the House S. May 31. Cumani told PA Sport, "Bankable is in good form and, while it will be very difficult to beat Raven's Pass, we go there with a chance at least." Godolphin won this with Mark of Esteem (Ire) in 1996, Cape Cross (Ire) three years later and Caradak (Ire) in 2006; they rely on Third Set, who has improvement to find based on his latest fifth in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 14. "I believe that Third Set needed the race at Salisbury," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He came out of that very well, and is pleasing me in his work at home. He wouldn't want the ground to be soft."

6	2	Maggie Lou (Ire)	Red Ransom	K Ryan
7	5	Penny's Gift (GB)	Tobougg (Ire)	Hannon

All carry 124 pounds bar Langs Lash & Please Sing, 127.

Langs Lash, who bids to defy a penalty for her success in the June 18 G2 Queen Mary S., has a few precedents to follow as Bint Allayl (GB), Queen's Logic (Ire) and Flashy Wings (GB) all completed the double in the last 10 years.

"She's a fast filly, but we're training her to settle a little bit," trainer Mick Quinlan's brother and assistant Noel said. "Not that she's a runaway or anything, but she does a lot of it naturally. I definitely think she will handle the step up to six furlongs." Mick Channon, trainer of the aforementioned trio, saddles three fillies here. Channon's charges are headed by Please Sing, who rebounded from an unplaced effort in the June 20 G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot to beat Art Princess by 3/4 of a length in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. over this track and trip last time July 9. African Skies, heroine of the July 26 G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot, bids to emulate Enthused, Russian Rhythm and Soar (GB) in following up here since the millennium.

All carry 123 pounds bar Twice Over, 128.

Henry Cecil, who used this race to launch Multidimensional (Ire) two years ago, ships in the stable's great white hope Twice Over. Kept in the highest class of company so far at three, Khalid Abdullah's homebred beat Raven's Pass in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 17 before running third in both the May 15 G2 Dante S. at York and G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 17. He beat City Leader and Chinchon by 3/4 of a length and a neck at level weights in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte last time July 27, and this will be a barometer of his improvement as that duo re-oppose with a five-pound swing in their favor here. Connections of City Leader are hoping the weight differential will help their homebred. "City Leader has been in great form since his last run and gets a pull at the weights with the winner," Ben Sangster told PA Sport. "I think the 10-furlong trip is ideal for him and the ground is also perfect." 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 River Proud returns to France, having finished third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 11. He has subsequently registered a cozy win in Goodwood's Listed Thoroughbred S. Aug. 2, and bids to provide trainer Paul Cole with a third renewal. Andre Fabre bids for an eighth edition since 1981 with Russian Cross; that colt recorded an impressive 10-length success in a conditions event when tried over this trip for the first time at Chantilly on his latest start July 28.

All carry 127 pounds.

Aidan O'Brien has won five of the last nine renewals, and the honor roll of Giant's Causeway, Hawk Wing, Oratorio (Ire) and Horatio Nelson (Ire) suggests that the master of Ballydoyle sends his best here. With a quintet involved this time, jockey bookings are key. Seamus Heffernan takes the mount on Westphalia, who was runner-up in the G3 Anglesey S. here July 12 before going one better in the Listed Coolmore Hurricane Run S. at Tipperary last time Aug. 7. On that occasion, he had several lengths to spare over his stable companion Sawtooth Mountain and the Kevin Prendergast-trained Driving Snow, and he sets the standard. John Oxx relies on ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Arazan, who comes off an enforced break having won at Leopardstown on debut May 28. "He had shown us a bit in his work before he ran, so I wasn't surprised when he won," Oxx said. "He's a fine horse. He's a half-brother to Azamour (Ire) and has a lot going for him, but there's nothing like the racecourse for putting them to the test. We like him; we'll just have to see what happens and hope that he's competitive."

Northern California based trainer Greg Gilchrist, who shipped the ill-fated Lost in the Fog to Saratoga for a memorable victory in the 2005 GI King's Bishop S., sends the undefeated Indyanne here. The gray won her first three starts in Northern California by a combined margin of 23 lengths, then rolled by 9 1/2 lengths in Calder's GIII Azalea S. July 12. She has been training smartly at Golden Gate since, posting a pair of five furlong bullets Aug. 3 and Aug. 14. "She's flat-out fast, there's no doubt about that," Gilchrist said. "But we don't go into these races thinking that she has to have the lead. It has just worked out that she has outrun her competition, and we don't want to discourage her if she is doing it willingly and easily. We've worked her behind horses before and I have no doubt she can rate, but rating is one thing and taking the run out of a horse is another. At Calder, she just dragged Russell [Baze] to the front when no one else wanted the lead."

WHEN YOU'RE HOT, YOU'RE HOT!

The Mick Price trained Light Fantastic beats Weekend Hussler in the Liston Stakes-Gr.2.

“As they say ‘when you’re hot, you’re hot’ and for Danehill Dancer, that is certainly the case with his Australian flagbearer Light Fantastic back with a cruising win on Saturday... It’s not easy to sire three Group winners in a day, but it happened for Danehill Dancer at Leopardstown on Sunday when Again, Snaefell and Carribean Sunset all saluted in feature events.”

“I think he (Light Fantastic) is the best horse in Australia. He is the best horse I have ever sat on.”

ONOITSMYMOTHERNLAW (f, 3, Johannesburg--Dancal {Ire} {GSW-US & SAf, SW-UAE, $263,551}, by Mujadil) had a pair of very promising efforts to her credit, a debut third in a seven-furlong turf maiden at Belmont June 25 followed by a pacesetting third in an 8 1/2-furlong turf event at this track July 30. Cutting back for this as the 3-1 second choice, the bay filly allowed favored Cocktail Attire (Distorted Humor) to set the pace, went after her rival leaving the midstretch marker and wore her down to take it by a neck. The winner was a $65,000 KEESEP yearling and a $150,000 OBSMAR two-year-old in training acquisition. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-2, $48,700. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

CHRB Amends Rules For Breeders' Cup:

The California Horse Racing Board waived a rule and made other temporary regulatory changes in preparation for the Breeders' Cup, which will be hosted by the Oak Tree Racing Association at Santa Anita Oct 24 and 25. "The Oak Tree Racing Association and Santa Anita are making every effort to make this a spectacular event, and our Board will do everything possible to make this the most successful ever," CHRB Chairman Richard Shapiro said. After Friday's changes, jockeys will be allowed to use any of three styles of whips in Breeders' Cup races, including a riding crop popular in Europe which is softer and more flexible than traditional whips. Also, the CHRB waived the lip-tattoo requirement for European horses as they are identified using microchip implants. Finally, the CHRB will allow authorized attendants to accompany European horses onto the race-track and lead them to the starting gate "so as not to disrupt the routine of those horses and cause them any disadvantage." The Board also received a progress report from Santa Anita on the installation of its Pro-Ride synthetic surface, which is replacing the Cushion Track. Santa Anita President Ron Charles said the project is "proceeding ahead of schedule" and hopes horses will be able to work on the track "by the end of next week."

With its name changed and prizemoney slashed, the prestigious Ebor H. still managed to produce a potential stakes performer in Godolphin's acquisition All the Good, who dominated his opponents here. He had been tried in pattern company by previous trainer Gerard Butler when fourth in the G3 Curragh Cup last June, but the chestnut had been confined to handicaps subsequently, and captured a competitive contest at Ascot in September. Fourth on his next start back at that venue July 28, he was never a factor in the Shergar Cup Challenge on his third visit to Berkshire last time Aug. 9 and was ignored by the public as a result. Anchored towards the rear by Dane O'Neill throughout, he picked up impressively when angled wide in the home stretch and after sweeping to the front approaching the furlong marker settled the result in a matter of strides. "He picked up good on that ground and although Frankie [Dettori] said not to hit the front too soon because he idles, I was going so well things were happening easy for me," his jockey explained. "I thought I would go the easier option and stay out of trouble on the inside. He settles well and just wants an even gallop--there is potential there." All the Good's dam is a half-sister to 1999 G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks heroine Ramruma (Diesis {GB}).

Delegator, who shaped with a deal of promise when runner-up in a competitive maiden over course and distance on debut Aug. 8, enjoyed the crowd's seal of approval in this second go. That confidence was not misplaced as the G1 Dewhurst S. and G1 Racing Post Trophy entry justified those lofty engagements by outclassing 18 rivals with an impressive display. The bay homebred stalked the leaders in a close fifth until swooping for the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs to go. Bursting clear soon after, the 8-11 favorite was geared down late to comfortably hold the promising late run of Palavicini (Giant's Causeway) by a length. "We think the world of him, he's done everything right throughout and is a very special colt," enthused trainer Brian Meehan. "He was green first time and he was green again today, but he won very nicely. We'll play it by ear and will take a view once those [Oct. 18 Dewhurst S. and Oct. 25 Racing Post Trophy] races come upon us. Right now, I'd lean towards the Racing Post Trophy, but it will certainly be one of those two races if we run again [this season]." It has been 31 years since Dunfermline (GB) provided The Queen with Classic success in the 1977 G1 St Leger, but Her Majesty has another potential contender after Golden Stream broke the juvenile track record in convincing style here. The bay homebred was out sharply to claim an immediate lead and settled in second after the early exchanges. Shuffled back to fourth at halfway, she made smooth progress back to the front approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under whipless encouragement up the hill to secure an impressive one-length win from Uvinza (GB) (Bertolini) at odds of 10-1. "She is quite a natural and has known her job for a while now," explained winning trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "I couldn't be more pleased with that debut, and I'm delighted with her." Golden Stream, who retains an entry in the G1 Meon Valley Stud Fillies' Mile at Ascot Sept. 27, received immediate quotes of 20-1 for next term's G1 1000 Guineas. She is a full sister to 2001 G1 Epsom Oaks runner-up Flight of Fancy (GB), G1SP-GB, $124,966. Her dam, Phantom Gold, captured the 1995 G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot for The Queen. Winker Watson reverts to sprinting after running out of gas at the end of the mile of Goodwood's G1 Sussex S. last time July 30. He beat River Proud under a penalty over this track and trip in the G2 July S. last year, and trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam is hoping the drop in trip and grade will bring out the best in him. "I was delighted with his last run at Goodwood, where he probably didn't quite fully see out the mile," Chapple-Hyam commented. "That is why we are coming back in trip. Ideally, we would want to go seven furlongs with him, but, with York off, we had to go to Newmarket. We don't really want any more rain, as he prefers decent ground." The chestnut meets some talented rivals with serious past form, including the 2006 G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere runner-up Battle Paint, who was successful in a Doncaster conditions event on his first start for the John Gosden stable last time Aug. 2.
