Point Given's GO BETWEEN

'GO' AND GO GO IN PACIFIC CLASSIC

Peter Vegso's Go Between (Point Given) was looking for his second $1-million race of the year. Jockey Garrett 'Go Go' Gomez was looking for his second $1-million race of the weekend. It was mission accomplished for both as the Gomez-partnered chestnut, winner of the Sunshine Millions Classic at Santa Anita in January, roared from well off the pace and chased down a game Well Armed (Tiznow) in yesterday's G1 Pacific Classic at Del

Mar. While Gomez was beating a son of Tiznow on Sunday, it was another son of the WinStar stallion--Colonel John--who provided him Saturday's G1 Travers S. Gomez said his ride aboard Go Between was straightforward. "The only time I had to make a decision was at the [9/16th] pole," he said. "I had to decide whether to wait, and make that late run, or go around and go for it right then. I decided to go for it and it worked. It sure helps when you have a horse like him. Bill Mott and his crew do a heckuva job." Cont. p2

'TANG BLASTS OFF IN BALLERINA

Second last as they turned the corner, Intangaroo (Orientate) was wheeled six wide into the Saratoga stretch and closed like rocket to capture yesterday's G1 Ballerina S. by 2 3/4 lengths over fellow closer Miraculous Miss (Mr. Greeley). The four-year-old Intangaroo was registering her third Grade I sprint victory on the year. "She relaxes pretty good when she is behind horses; when she's not, she wants to go," said winning rider Alonso Quinonez. "So, I just kept her behind horses, and she was perfect." Cont. p4

POWER RANGER

Johnny Murtagh has enjoyed a landmark year and the jockey's unforgettable summer continued apace as Bushranger (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) bounced back from defeat in The Curragh's July 27 G1 Phoenix S. to claim victory in the G1 Darley Prix Morny at Deauville yesterday. Finding the sanctuary of cover through the early fractions, the G3 Anglesey S. winner found his rhythm inside the final quarter mile and had too many guns for Gallagher (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) in the closing stages, denying that rival by a half length at odds of 43-10. "The ground and trip suited him today," Murtagh commented. "He travelled well, he's got plenty of speed and I think he's a high-class horse." Cont. p3

A Horse For the Classics...

Following his win in the Sunshine Millions Classic Jan. 26, Go Between suffered a run of three straight runner-up finishes. He ran Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) to 3/4 lengths in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar.

Benoit photo

1, then was upset by Sterwins (Runaway Groom) as the odds-on pick in the GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland Apr. 20.

He returned from a freshening in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28, where he was compromised by a slow pace and ran second to loose-on-the-lead Mast Track. Bettors forgave the effort, sending him favored here at 5-2 odds, and the bettors had it right. Barcola (Old Trieste) and Surf Cat (Sir Cat) ensured solid enough :23.40 and :47.36 splits as Go Between sat about eight lengths off. The latter moved four wide rounding the far turn and set his sights on Well Armed, who had spurred clear leaving the quarter pole. The two hooked up for a stirring duel, with Go Between proving gamest. "That was our plan going into it," said Kenny Mccarthy, assistant to trainer Bill Mott. "He has a running style that is good for this distance, and Garrett fits him so well. They're a great team." Trainer Eoin Harty, who sent out Colonel John to victory in the Travers, was happy with the runner-up's effort. "We're proud of the horse," he said. "He ran very well. He just got beat a head. He ran huge. He ran just the way we thought it would come up. He just got outrun."

Go Go, Speed Racer...

It was Garrett Gomez's eighth stakes win of the Del Mar meet--and his second graded victory on the card--and marked the fourth time he's won the Pacific Classic, more than any other rider. His other wins were on Skimming (Nureyev) in 2000 and 2001 and with Borrego (El Prado {Ire}) in 2005. He also has two seconds in a total of eight mounts in the race. The victory also presents the sort of dilemma every jockey hopes for. Gomez will now have to chose between Colonel John and Go Between as both horses progress toward the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Oct. 25.

It was first Pacific Classic win for trainer Bill Mott, His only other starter was in 1996, when Cigar saw his 16-race winning streak snapped.

Successful in a Tipperary maiden on debut June 5, Bushranger was unable to justify favoritism or cope with the 100-1 shocker Flashmans Papers (GB) when second in the June 17 Listed Windsor Cattle S. at Royal Ascot. He bounced back with a stylish win over Westphalia (GB) in the July 13 Anglesey S. at The Curragh and was a creditable third to Mastercraftsman (GB) in the G1 Phoenix S. back at the Co. Kildare venue last time July 27. Positioned under cover in midfield, Bushranger was given the hurry up by jockey Johnny Murtagh approaching the final quarter mile. Sent in pursuit of Gallagher once that rival had grabbed the lead with 300 meters to go, he devoured the ground late to override that rival's effort nearing the line. "He ran very well in the Phoenix S. last time and is a versatile horse who has run well in all his races no matter what conditions he has faced," said trainer David Wachman. "He was given a brilliant ride by Johnny [Murtagh] and stayed on very well at the end. On what he's shown today, he looks as though he might stay further, but we'll take him home and see how he comes out of the race before deciding. An option is to go to Newmarket [for the Oct. 3 G1 Middle Park S.], but the owners may have other horses for that, so we'll see what they want to do first. There are no definite plans at the moment." Brian Meehan, trainer of the runner-up, was not too downhearted. "Every time you have a Group 1 second, you always feel a little frustrated because you'd obviously have liked to have won," Meehan said. "Gallagher's a horse that travels, he's able to come off a fast pace and he'll get a mile later on." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Handicappers who have taken a flyer on Intangaroo in her Grade I efforts have done just fine over the past seven months. She was a 26-1 bomb when she got her nose down on the wire in the GI Santa Monica H. at Santa Anita in February and, following a close-up third in the GIII Las Flores H. at that track in April, she was a 14-1 outsider when taking the GI Humana Distaff S. at Churchill May 3. Back in California for her latest, Intangaroo could do no better than fourth in the seven-furlong GII A Gleam H. at Hollywood June 28, but was back to her best form shipping east for another go at the highest level. The dark bay--off at, for her, relatively short 5-1 odds--had just one beaten in the eight-horse field as Mistical Plan (Game Plan) and favored Sugar Swirl set quick splits of :22 1/5 and :44 4/5.

Tipped out six wide under regular rider Alonso Quinonez, Intangaroo came with a rush down the center of the track and won going away. Miraculous Miss, who caboosed the field early, also came flying, earning place honors. “You just saw why we came to Saratoga,” said winning trainer Gary Sherlock, who was saddling his first starter at the Spa. “This was a national stage; if we could win this, it was three Grade I wins, and she would be looking good for the Eclipse Award. The next race will be the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint [at Santa Anita Oct. 24], and I’m happy about this because I don’t have to worry about a Breeders’ Cup prep [the Ballerina was a “Win and You’re In” Event for the F&M Sprint].” It was also the first Saratoga winner for Quinonez. “It was my first time here and my first win, so I am excited,” he said.

Trainer Steve Klesaris found no fault with the effort of Miraculous Miss, who earlier had been fourth to Intangaroo in the Humana Distaff. “She beat us at Churchill; she’s tough,” said Klesaris. “Regardless, ‘Miss’ always shows up. This was another Grade I race and everyone came with their running shoes.”

Javier Castellano, jockey of beaten favorite Sugar Swirl, said, “The trip was pretty good and she was game. It hadn't been a very pleasant week for trainer John Sadler. Last Monday, his barn was raided by investigators from the California Horse Racing Board as allegations of improper steroid use swirled, and there was talk of a possible lawsuit by Sadler, who was angered by the accusations. The week ended on a high note for Del Mar's leading trainer, however. Sadler sent out a pair of graded winners on yesterday's card, including Dearest Trickski in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. and this colt. Whatsthescript, who shipped from Ireland to take the GIII Generous S. as a juvenile in 2006, made just three starts last term, his best efforts being a win in the Pasadena S. at Santa Anita in March and a second in the GIII American Turf S. at Churchill in May for trainer Doug O'Neill. He was well-beaten as the favorite in the GIII Sir Beaufort S. in his seasonal finale in December and subsequently was moved to Sadler's care.

Whatsthescript was a big 29-1 shot taking the GII American H. for Sadler at Hollywood June 28, but was favored when beaten just a half-length by Monzante in the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar July 20. Confidently ridden here by the red-hot Garrett Gomez, who would add his own stakes double later in the card with Go Between, Whatsthescript settled in seventh through three quarters in 1:09 flat. Given the green light turning into the lane, he rallied wide and outfinished a hard-trying Bold Chieftain. "This is really a great horse," said Sadler. "He's one of the true horses that I've ever had that I think is a Grade I horse. When they went

Though the crowd made Midnight Lute the overwhelming 4-5 favorite, the five-year-old Lewis Michael had the full confidence of trainer Wayne Catalano just prior to this race. Catalano told TVG in the paddock that he wouldn't trade places with anyone--a brazen statement, considering the race marked the return of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint hero. A few minutes later, fans saw the reason for Catalano's confidence. Lewis Michael, a stalking presence early, powered up to take control from pacesetting Barbecue Eddie in upper stretch and bounded away to win by 2 3/4 lengths. Stewards took a look at the stretch run, as Lewis Michael looked to have come in a bit on Barbecue Eddie, but made no change. Rebellion rallied for place honors; Barbecue Eddie held for third. The final time for the seven-furlong race, 1:21.17, established a new track record.

"Oh, no, no, it wasn't my horse," said winning jockey Rene Douglas when asked about the possible interference. "My horse wasn't swerving; that other horse was coming out. At one point he was right on my hip. He hit me. My horse ran good. Other than that bit of business, we had a perfect trip. He ran great."

A full-brother to champion Dreaming of Anna and produced by a stakes-winning half to champion Kitten's Joy, Lewis Michael has always been a solid sort. Second in the GII Peter Pan S. at three, he captured last year's 1 3/16th-mile GII Washington Park H. two starts before running up the track in the slop in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile in late October. He was off for eight months, returning to be a close-up fourth as the favorite in the grassy Sea O Erin BC S. at Arlington July 26. With this win, Lewis Michael earned a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint through the "Win and You're In" program, thought Catalano indicted a trip to the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile is more likely.

Midnight Lute, meanwhile, raced in midpack going into the turn and was caught behind a wall of horses as they neared the quarter pole. Jockey Garrett Gomez was still unable to find a seam at the furlong grounds and the jockey didn't persevere. The pair finished 10th in the 12-horse field. "I had nowhere to go," said Gomez. "I just galloped him around there." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

At 1-10 you'd expect a glorified workout, and that in essence is what the top-class Hystericalady needed in order to register her third straight Grade II success. The five-year-old mare, runner-up in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, won the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill June 14 and the GII Delaware H. in a dominant display July 13 and was looking to defend her title in the Molly Pitcher. Jockey Robby Albarado, fresh off his tough beat in Saturday's GI Travers S. aboard Mambo in Seattle, allowed Hystericalady to track off Rolling Sea's slow opening fractions of :24 1/5 and :48 2/5 before asking her to join that rival going into the far turn. Hystericalady cruised past with ease and, from there, it was just a matter of by how much. "We'll probably go to the GI Lady's Secret BC H. at Santa Anita [Sept. 27], or we may skip it and go right to the GI Breeders' Cup [Ladies' Classic]," said trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "She's entered [at] November Keeneland, but the owner could certainly overrule that and keep her in training." One-time "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Folk Opera had previously failed to build on listed success, but emerged from the shadows under a tactically astute Frankie Dettori to claim a career high in this. The chestnut, who claimed a first stakes win in the May 24 Listed Pinnacle S. at Haydock, ran fourth in that track's July 5 G2 Lancashire Oaks, was second in the July 19 Listed Aphrodite S at Newmarket and occupied the same berth in the Listed Lillie Langtry S. at Goodwood last time July 31. In command from the bell here, Folk Opera toyed with the opposition on the front end and comfortably asserted under urging inside the final quarter mile. "She's genuine and is a very tough filly who always throws her heart into the battle," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "She's good over a mile-and-a-quarter and I am sure she is as good over a mile-and-a-half. We will have a look and see how she does when she returns home, but we'll seriously consider bringing her back to France for the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 14]." Ponte Tresa is a regular fixture in France's top staying events, but has been unable to progress beyond listed success. Correcting that unwelcome statistic here, she called upon all her reserves of stamina to secure a shock victory. Third in last year's G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp, she repeated that position in that course's G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier May 18 before dropping to sixth in the G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil there last time July 14. Restrained in rear for most of this marathon, she was brought wide into the home straight and delivered a telling late burst. "She was too close to the pace in the Maurice de Nieuil last time and made too much use of herself early on," explained conditioner Yves de Nicolay. "It is very much a question of tactics with her, because she has to relax and come with a late run. The entries for [Longchamp's Oct. 4] G1 Prix du Cadran are due to be made this Wednesday, and I have yet to decide whether to put her in or not. I might also wait for the G1 Prix Royal-Oak [at Longchamp Oct. 26]."

The rags-to-riches story of Dearest Trickski continues. Claimed for $32,000 out of a second-place effort here last August, she went on a five-race winning skein that included the GI La Brea S. in December and Sunshine Millions F&M Sprint in January, both at Santa Anita. She returned from a break to be fourth as the chalk in the Desert Stormer H. at Hollywood May 17, but got back on track with a wire-to-wire win in the GII A Gleam H. June 28. Returning to Del Mar for the John Sadler barn, Dearest Trickski raced out and set :22.50 and :44.68 splits and showed grit to hold the closing Tiz Elemental by the narrowest of margins. Sadler said afterwards that Dearest Trickski would likely be pointed toward the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint. "She has to be supplemented, but she's made enough money for Mr. [owner Tom] Mankiewicz that I'm sure he'll be glad to do that." Favorite Magnificience (Stormy Atlantic) lagged near the back of the back and put in a mild rally to be fifth. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Lady Marian registered a first win in the G3 Grosser Preis der Jungheinrich Gabelstapler at Hamburg July 4 and that form was franked by the success of runner-up Ashantee (Ger) in yesterday's G3 Walther J Jacobs-Stutenpreis at Bremen. Runner-up herself in the Aug. 3 G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Dusseldorf last time, she was relentless in the straight here to double her tally for the consistently effective partnership of trainer Werner Baltromei and jockey Dominique Boeuf. Ridden with patience in rear, Lady Marian began her move once turning for home and her unrelenting run saw her cut through the field to deny Treat Gently nearing the line. "She ran well to finish second in the Preis der Diana, but I thought the distance suited her better today," said trainer Werner Baltromei. "She's a tough filly who hasn't run a bad race, and we shall now wait for the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 5] and take our chance there." Click for the Racing Post chart.

COLONEL JOHN FINE AFTER TRAVERS WIN

Just before leaving for an 8:30 a.m. flight back to California, trainer Eoin Harty checked in at the barn at Saratoga to see how WinStar's Colonel John (Tiznow) came out of Saturday's narrow win over Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo) in the G1 Travers S. presented by Shadwell Farm. "He doesn't seem worse for wear," reported Harty. "Right now, he's in good shape. It was such a roughly run race. It was a miracle that he survived the way he had to run. He had a little scrape on the hind leg, but it is nothing serious. He won on heart. It was a courageous effort. He had every reason to get beat." Harty said Colonel John will leave Saratoga and return back to Southern California, where the ultimate foal will be the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic. Saturday, Harty mentioned the possibility of training Colonel John up to the race. It was Colonel John's second Grade I victory on the year, following his tally in the G1 Santa Anita Derby this spring. "Right now, Colonel John has got to be among the top tier [of three-year-olds]," Harty said. "He has to be right up there with Big Brown, but that's for the experts to decide. I still think we'll meet each other in the Breeders' Cup. I'll think about a spot for him before the Breeders' Cup. I'll talk to team WinStar and come up with a game plan."

HEAD EYEING FUTURE FOR DEAUVILLE

STARS Freddy Head failed in his attempt to sweep all four of the summer's Group 1 events at Deauville after the eclipse of Naaqoos (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G1 Prix Morny at the Normandy track yesterday, but the trainer was looking forward rather than back after relaying plans for his three stable stars. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef), winner of the July 13 G1 Prix Jean Prat and Aug. 17 G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois in his last two starts, is set to cross Le Manche to tackle the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 27 in his next outing. "Tamayuz is going for the Queen Elizabeth at Ascot," said Head. "He's a real star, he's got the speed, he can stay and he's a champion. We'll have to discuss it with Sheikh Hamdan, but he could also go for the [Oct. 25 G1 Breeders' Cup] Mile." Diverting his attention to recent G1 Prix Rothschild victress Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), Head continued, "I think Goldikova is going to go for the [Sept. 7] G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp and from there she'll maybe go for the Breeders' Cup Mile later on." Ruling out tilts at both the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp and the Breeders' Cup meet, Head also revealed plans for Carla Giral's G1 July Cup and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest hero Marchand d'Or (Fr) (Marchand de Sable). "He has run in the Foret twice and he was very unlucky both times, so this year I think we are going to choose the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 5]," he said. "The horse is well now, we had a little setback with him and that's why he can't go to Haydock [for the Sept. 6 G1 Sprint Cup], but he'll be okay. I doubt he'll go for the Breeders' Cup Sprint, there is a new [Sprint] race on turf now, but he is not in the race and we'd have to pay big money to enter him, so I think we'll maybe go to Dubai early next year."

MONTMARTRE ARC BID NOW UNLIKELY His Highness The Aga Khan's Montmartre (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}) was yesterday all but ruled out of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe by trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre, according to the Racing Post. The grey sophomore exploded onto the scene with a hugely impressive four-length score in the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp and has since been at the head of ante-post lists for the Oct. 5 feature back at the Bois de Boulogne venue. Montmartre returned sore after that Bastille Day romp, but de Royer-Dupre fears time has almost run out in his attempt to get his star colt ready for the main gig. "We haven't now really got enough time to prepare him for the Arc de Triomphe," the trainer told the trade daily.

F-T TEXAS YEARLINGS BEGINS TODAY Fasig-Tipton begins its two-day Texas Summer Yearlings Sale this morning at 10:00 a.m. at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie. A total of 506 yearlings have been catalogued for the sale, which can boast as a graduate last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Kip Deville (Kipling). The five-year-old gray was hammered down for $20,000 at the 2004 renewal and has earned in excess of $2.6 million. Fasig-Tipton's local director of sales, Tim Boyce, is confident with the depth of the catalogue. "Our list of sires looks as good as any you might see at a national yearling sale, and we have the best distribution we have ever offered of state-breds in the southwest region," said Boyce. "Although our foundation is on Texas-breds, half the number catalogued comes from the thriving Louisiana program and from Kentucky." Tomorrow's final session also begins at 10:00 a.m. For complete catalogue and outs, visit www.fasigtipton.com.

LADY RIZZI (m, 5, Rizzi--What'salltheruckas, by Bold Ruckus) was making her first start since running third in a state-bred optional claimer at Belmont June 19. Half of the 7-2 favored entry, the bay mare sat a stalking third as pacesetter Sort of Tricky (Phone Trick) flew through fractions of :21.07, :43.24 and :54.83. As that foe tired to fourth, Lady Rizzi stormed into contention, overtaking stablemate Myakka (Crafty Prospector) at midstretch and drawing off to win by three lengths in course-record time. The $55,000 OBSJUN juvenile is a half sister to Rapper S S (Monarchos, SW, $101,865). Lifetime Record: 14-3-4-4, $163,350. O-John Donato. B-Sez Who T'breds (NY). T-Linda Rice.

IT'S NOT FOR LOVE (f, 3, Not For Love--Noddy's Halo, by Halo) put together a string of three straight runner-up efforts over the Belmont lawn this spring, but was soundly beaten in an Aug. 10 off-the-turfer at Saratoga last time out. Sent off the 5-2 favorite, the bay filly pressed the pace through pedestrian fractions, took over turning for home and determinedly held on to best Upper Gulch (Gulch) by a nose on the line. It's Not For Love, a $47,000 FTMOCT yearling, is a half sister to P.C. Plod (Pleasant Tap, MSW, $267,567). Lifetime Record: 9-1-3-0, $71,384. O-Robert Susi. B-Roland Farm (MD). T-Timothy A Hills.

Shining Image, third and second in a pair of efforts at Belmont last fall, resurfaced to earn an eight-length maiden victory over track and trip June 19 before a runner-up effort in the July 20 Mongo Queen S. last time out. The filly pressed pacesetter Peisinoe, who blitzed through fractions of :21.54, :43.92 and :56.49. Both fillies proved tenacious down the lane, but Peisinoe bumped Shining Image in the final strides before just holding on. The stewards disqualified Peisinoe to second and promoted Shining Image to the win.

 + MAJORMOTIONPICTURE, c, 2, by Action This Day

1st Dam: Boa, by Rahy
 2nd Dam: French Muff, by Roberto
 3rd Dam: Befuddled, by Tom Fool

Majormotionpicture, looking to become the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by Kris S.), was a heavily touted 9-5 favorite in his debut. A ground-saving fourth in the early going, the chestnut colt squeezed through an opening along the rail on the turn to take a narrow lead and held sway late to score by 3/4 lengths over Empire House (Adebaran). Empire House had a nose over Massone (Menifee) in third.

Majormotionpicture, a half brother to Liquidity (Tiznow, GISW, $197,200), was purchased at last year's Keeneland September Sale for $55,000 by bloodstock agent Bob Feld. Feld is also a principal in the racing partnership Bongo Racing Stable, which retained a 50-percent interest in the colt. Kagele Brothers Inc, Mel Schwartz and Lo Hi Stable own the remainder. Feld said the colt's purchase represented a meeting of the minds between himself and trainer Mike Machowsky.

"Mike Machowsky has a really good eye for a horse, and we worked the sale together a little bit," said Feld. "We both had him on our short list. The fact that he liked him got me pretty excited about him. I think the price comes from the fact that he was average sized, maybe a little below average size, and was out of a Rahy mare, and I think that scared some people off, thinking that he wouldn't grow that much more. But he wound up growing a lot--he's a good-sized, strong colt. Plus, Action This Day, being a first-year sire, probably had people on the fence. He was a really good individual, though. We thought he had all the tools."

As Majormotionpicture began training with Machowsky, their impressions seemed to be confirmed.

"About a week ago, Mike asked me after watching one of his five-eighths works, 'Have you ever seen a two-year-old work that good?' I said, 'Mike I don't think I've ever seen any horse work that good.' He really is special; he does things so effortlessly. He's got great action and a great mind, and Mike didn't really get a chance to crank him up. He's a really, really good horse. I think he'll move up a ton in his next start."

According to Feld, that start may come in the GI Norfolk BC S. at Santa Anita Sept. 28. "After that, we might take a shot at the Breeders' Cup [Juvenile, Oct. 25] if everything goes well." Feld has had previous success in the Juvenile. Along with Ron Ellis, he purchased '03 Juvenile hero Action This Day--sire of Majormotionpicture--as a yearling for B. Wayne Hughes. THIS DATE IN HISTORY...

August 25, 1987...Julie Krone won her 1,000th career race aboard Tiger Higgins in the second race at Monmouth Park.

August 26, 1972...Secretariat won the Hopeful S. by five lengths at Saratoga Racecourse for his second stakes win in as many tries.

August 27, 1953...The Thoroughbred Racing Association denounced a plan for off-track betting in New York. John A. Morris, the TRA president, declared: "Although it could mean increased profits for the race-tracks, off-course betting would inevitably subordinate racing and bring on an adverse public reaction which would kill a traditionally great sport and an economically significant industry."

August 28, 1988...A winning ride aboard Precisionist in the Cabrillo H. at Del Mar Thoroughbred Club made Chris McCarron the fifth jockey to surpass the $100 million in career earnings.
