

KEN TAKES A SHOT AGAINST FAMILIAR FACE

Trainer Ken McPeek is plenty familiar with Curlin (Smart Strike). After all, it was McPeek, wearing his bloodstock agent hat, who purchased Curlin as a Keeneland September yearling for just $57,000 for a partnership. McPeek handed the colt over to former assistant Helen Pitts, who sent Curlin out to a 12 3/4-length debut win in February of 2007. An estimated $3-million private transaction and 12 starts later, Curlin is widely considered the best horse in the world, with a Horse of the Year title to his credit. Asked about Curlin yesterday, McPeek quipped, "I wish my name were still next to his." Unfortunately for him it isn't, and this Saturday, he and his old friend reunite as foes in Saratoga's GI Woodward S. McPeek sends out Loose Leaf (Notebook), a four-year-old who earned a big 110 BRIS fig winning a nine-furlong allowance race at the Spa Aug. 13. It was Loose Leaf's first start of the year. At three, Loose Leaf ran fourth to Chelokee in the GIII Northern Dancer S. and a well-beaten sixth to Street Sense in the GI Travers S. He concluded his season with a close-up third in a grassy Churchill allowance in November. Despite Loose Leaf's big comeback number, McPeek knows precisely what he's up against. "Curlin's been a monster since he was a yearling," said McPeek. "If he runs back to his numbers, he's physically impossible to beat. But Loose Leaf ran back a huge number coming off a nine-month layoff. We'll see how close we can get to Curlin. At the worst, we'll get a check out of it."

MAMBO IN SEATTLE TO SUPER DERBY

Mrs. W.S. Kilroy and W.S. Farish's Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo), who just missed when a rallying second to Colonel John (Tiznow) in Saturday's GI Travers S., will start next in the Sept. 20 GII Super Derby at Louisiana Downs, trainer Neil Howard told Daily Racing Form. "It's a mile and an eighth, the timing is pretty decent, it's a nice race, good purse, still with three-year-olds," said the Howard, who took the same route with last year's Travers' runner-up Grasshopper (Dixie Union). That colt ran second as the favorite in the $500,000 Super Derby. Howard also told the Form that the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, to be held this year over Santa Anita's Pro-Ride surface, remains a possibility despite Mambo in Seattle's zero-for-two record on synthetics. "The first time he ever ran, he was a good second on the Polytrack," said Howard. "In his first race this year, he wasn't overly cranked up, so he figured to get tired. I wouldn't be overly concerned if he did run on a synthetic track, but [the Breeders' Cup] is not something we're thinking too much about right now."

ALHAARTH COLT TOPS LEGER FINALE

An Alhaarth half-brother to Blythe Knight (Ire) (Selkirk) topped proceedings on the final day of Doncaster's St Leger Sale yesterday when selling to Cormac McCormack for £95,000. From the draft of Ger Hourigan's Whitehall Stud, the February-foaled bay was always likely to attract keen attention due to the exploits of his half-sibling, who captured his second consecutive renewal of Epsom's G3 Diomed S. on Derby day. Purchased for 30,000gns at Tattersalls December, hip 415 had a host of interested parties, but it was McCormack who prevailed after a tussle with Bobby O'Ryan.

Progeny by Acclamation (GB) have sold well this week and yesterday's session continued to underline the regard buyers have for Rathbarry's success story. Two of his fillies provided a focus and the first was hip 370, a granddaughter of a dual listed-winning half to the 1989 G1 Middle Park S. scorer and sire Balla Cove (Ire). Consigned by David Powell's Catridge Farm Stud, who sold the sire himself for 33,000gns to Gerald Cottrell here in the millennium year, she was knocked down to BBA Ireland's Adrian Nicholl on behalf of owner Matthew Green for £90,000. Gerard Burke's Glidawn Stud was responsible for the other highlight when selling hip 402, a half-sister to the 2006 G2 Premio Parioli fourth Sgiaff (GB) to Highfield Farm for £87,000. That represented a pinhooking success, as she had fetched just 22,000gns at Tattersalls December. Cont. p3

Consignor John Troy was another making a sound profit after Robin O’Ryan paid £80,000 for hip 390, a son of Bahamian Bounty (GB) who is a full-brother to the very smart juvenile filly Bahamian Babe (GB). She had beaten the subsequent G2 Queen Mary S. winner Langs Lash (Ire) in the Listed Marygate S. at York in May, six months after Troy had paid €30,000 for her full-sibling at Goffs November.

Shadwell, who had made such an impact at Deauville last week, were again to the fore at this auction and also paid £80,000 for Floors Stud’s hip 449, a daughter of Royal Applause (GB) whose extended family includes Thunder Gulch.

That price was matched 14 lots later by Blandford Bloodstock for a filly from the first crop of Shamardal consigned by Brendan Holland’s Grove Stud. She is the first produce of Crystal View (Ire) (Imperial Ballet {Ire}), who was third behind the subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Virginia Waters in Leopardstown’s G3 1000 Guineas Trial three years ago.

Despite an overall drop of 11 percent in the average and median, DBS Managing Director Henry Beeby remained upbeat yesterday.

“The St Leger Yearling Sales is unique in the respect that it is the only European yearling sale to have grown every year for the last 10 years,” he said. “To continue that trend would have been difficult in any year, but against the background of such gloomy economic forecasts it was particularly challenging. The general consensus was that we have returned a solid trade that was far better than most thought coming in to the week and there has been real competition for the better lots. However, the polarization we saw last autumn has been confirmed and that has been illustrated by the drop in our figures although we would still submit that a clearance rate of 84 percent is very good.”

Beeby continued, “But we are far from despondent, as the results are on a par with 2006 and a five-year trend shows an incredible 75 percent rise in average, demonstrating that we have developed the sale in to a serious sale of quality in a relatively short space of time. Our feedback has been that it was hard to buy from the purchasers and that vendors were very busy, so we have to face the fact that the economy has played its part, but I would repeat our plea from earlier this month that we must remain positive as to give in to the prophets of doom will only exacerbate any problems the industry may face. The bloodstock business thrives on confidence, and our hope is that we do not allow modest downturns to turn in to talk of much worse. We have survived economic dips before and will again, but it makes such a difference if a realistically positive attitude is adopted.” Full results are available on www.dbsauctions.com.

TIM CORBY DIES IN ROAD ACCIDENT Tim Corby, the British owner and bloodstock agent, died on Wednesday in a car crash in which trainer Mick Channon was seriously injured. He was 63. Both Channon and his 15-year-old son Jack suffered injuries; the Lambourn trainer is currently in intensive care in a Nottingham hospital with broken ribs and arm, a fractured jaw and a punctured lung. He is set to undergo surgery to his arm and jaw, while his son has only bruising, and is not thought to be seriously injured.

According to local police, Corby's car left the motorway and hit a concrete pillar as the trio were returning to Lambourn from the Doncaster Sales. As the owner of the 2002 G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy winner and G1 Gran Criterium runner-up Checkit (Ire) and this year's Champion Hurdle winner Katchit (Ire) before he was sold, Corby enjoyed much high-profile success courtesy of his longstanding connection with the Channon stable. He was also involved in the Box 41 syndicate responsible for the 2006 G2 Superlative S. and last year's G3 Rose of Lancaster S. winner Halicarnassus (Ire), and also acted as racing manager for John Guest, owner of the 2000 G1 2000 Guineas third Baratheia Guest (GB).

Jockey Tony Culhane, who rode for him on many occasions and was a close friend, paid tribute yesterday. "We had great success in Dubai and all over Europe winning group and listed races, and he had a very good eye for picking fillies," Culhane commented. "The thing that I remember most about him is that he took such pride in the achievements of those he sold, like Katchit, and because it gave someone else pleasure, it gave him great satisfaction. I think he was just an all-round good horseman. He had a good eye for a horse and he was comfortable around horses--he was straight down the line, too."

JALIL ENTERED IN SUFFOLK'S WAQUOIT

Godolpin's four-year-old Jalil (Storm Cat), who hasn't raced since running seventh in the $6-million G1 Dubai World Cup in late March, is set to make his stateside debut in Saturday's $50,000, 1 1/16-mile Waquoit S. at Suffolk Downs. "We want to see where he fits in this country, and the Waquoit is a good starting point," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor's assistant trainer Rick Mettee. "He's fit and ready to run. The timing, the distance and the surface all make sense." Jalil, a $9.7-million son of multiple Grade I winner Tranquility Lake, has won four of his eight lifetime starts. He went on a three-race winning skein on the dirt in Dubai earlier this year that was capped with a win in the G2 Maktoum Challenge Round 3. "The MassCap is a possibility," said Mettee when asked if the Waquoit could serve as a prep race for the $500,000 Massachusetts H. Sept. 20. "A lot depends on how he runs and how he comes out of it." Jalil is expected to ship from Saratoga to Boston the morning of the race. Rajiv Maragh is named to ride.

'EXCHANGE' WORKS FOR FUTURITY Bill and Vicki Poston's Southern Exchange (Exchange Rate) breezed four furlongs yesterday at Del Mar in advance of Wednesday's GI Del Mar Futurity. The colt worked an easy half mile in :49 flat (37/56). Southern Exchange is undefeated in three starts at Woodbine, but will get a serious class test in the Futurity, for which he will be supplemented at a cost of $10,000. Trained by Gregory de Gannes, Southern Exchange is coming off a daylight win in the Colin S. July 19. "He came out of the one hole, and the rest of the field sort of ganged up on him and tried to keep him buried down on the inside," de Gannes said of the race. "But when they turned into the stretch, a bit of a hole opened up, and he went right on through." Southern Exchange attracts the services of top rider Garrett Gomez, who was aboard during the colt's move yesterday. "Garrett liked the way he went," de Gannes said. The trainer, who has 21 horses at Woodbine, was scheduled to return to Canada yesterday afternoon, but plans to return Saturday. Other Futurity hopefuls include: Arashi Cat (Fusaichi Pegasus), Blazing Spirit (Cherokee Run), Believe in Hope (Thunder Gulch), Coronet of a Baron (Pure Prize), Escalon (Spanish Steps), Kelly Leak (Victory Gallop), Midshipman (Unbridled's Song). It is believed that Azul Leon (Lion Heart), undefeated winner of the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship S. and GII Best Pal S., will bypass the race.

TOBA COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS CHANGES

TO CROPS The Thoroughbred Action Committee (TAC) of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) yesterday recommended changes in riding crops and their usage for racing and training. Perhaps the biggest change is the recommendation for stricter enforcement of current regulation and penalties for non-compliance. "Riding crops are a necessity in Thoroughbred racing because they can help keep the horse under control," said Tom Ludt, general manager of Vinery and chairman of the TAC. "But when the public sees a horse that is clearly non-competitive still being stung with the crop, racing projects the image of unnecessary abuse. Our committee listened to a number of trainers and riders, including some Hall of Famers, and came to the conclusion that everything we are recommending is in the best interest of the horse without compromising its competitiveness." The recommendations also include similar specifications on the crop as those recommended by The Jockey Club Safety Committee:

- It will have a maximum length of 28 inches;
- Minimum diameter of 0.4 inches;
- The contact area of the shaft must be smooth;
- The flap (popper) must have similar shock absorbing characteristics to that of the contact area; and
- The weight must not exceed 6 ounces.

"One of the surprising findings to many members of the committee was that there is no consistency from state to state and in some cases, from track to track on the crop itself," said Ludt. "This is a small step in working toward a more uniform set of policies across all racing jurisdictions in an effort to improve our product, while offering increased protection for horse and rider."

Another recommendation made by the TAC is that there be no use of the crop with the arm above the shoulder. Violation of that provision would also be subject to penalties. Other recommendations call for educational efforts for jockeys and stewards on use of the crop and inspection of horses following a race.

TOBA, which has membership in every state with a racing jurisdiction, says it plans to marshal its membership to work with racing commissions or authorities in adopting and enforcing these recommendations and rules that already are promulgated by the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI).

TAC also endorsed the recent change in the ARCI model rule on shoeing, which essentially bans the use of toe grabs taller than two millimeters on the front hooves. Violation would make the horse ineligible to start a race.

"Research is clear that the use of taller toe grabs can put more stress on the horse when it's in its racing gait," said Ludt. "Several groups, including The Jockey Club Safety Committee, have already recommended the restrictions, and we think it's the right thing to do as well."

CALDER TO GO TO FOUR DAYS Calder Race Course has amended its 2008 schedule and will conduct four-day live racing weeks instead of its original five-day schedule from September through the middle of November. Florida's Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering granted its approval for Calder's request yesterday afternoon. The track will remain open seven days each week for full-card simulcasting. Calder attributed the change to a combination of a challenging overall economy, lower-than-anticipated business levels due to the unavailability of Calder's signal in the simulcast market earlier this year, and the continued unavailability of Calder's races to advance deposit wagering (ADW) platforms. During the month of August, the track presented live racing four days a week as part of its original schedule. "Our hope is that with one less live racing day each week, Calder will be able to offer fuller fields on its programs and attract players back to our product there," said Kevin Flanery, senior vice president of Churchill Downs Incorporated, Calder's parent company. A total of 11 live racing days will be removed from the schedule: Sept. 4, 8, 15, 22, 29; Oct. 6, 16, 20, 27; and Nov. 3 and 17. With the change of dates in October, the opening day of the Tropical Meet has been moved from Oct. 20 to Oct. 23. Calder will maintain its live race days on Labor Day (Sept. 1), Columbus Day (Oct. 13), and both Monday, Nov. 10 and the following day, Veterans Day, Nov. 11.

The honor roll of Hopeful winners includes a host of subsequent champions, and Monday's renewal will feature several highly regarded youngsters. Among them are the two highest-priced graduates of the 2008 Fasig-Tipton Calder Sale, Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}) and Munnings (Speightstown), who fetched $2.1 million and $1.7 million, respectively. But also in the field is a colt with a more modest background in Cribnote (Read the Footnotes), who graduated in sparkling fashion against New York-breds July 27 (video).

Cribnote represents the first breeding venture for Alan and Dana Reis of the Red Diamond Stable. Alan is a real estate lawyer, while Dana is a commodities trader specializing in sugar for Prudential Bache. Married for 15 years, the Manhattan-based couple first got involved in racing back in 1997.

"I was a casual horseplayer and enjoyed it," Alan Reis recalled. "Dana was in the commodities business, and some of the people on one of her desks had gone into a partnership. I said, 'Why didn't you put us into it?' The next one we decided to go in on, and that's when we met Rick [Violette Jr.]. We sort of drifted away from those partners, but we started to do the same thing with other people. It's amazing to see how many people want to do this--people come in for 10, 15 percent of a horse, and it makes it quite doable."

The Reises have stayed in the business on a small scale, going into partnerships with friends and acquaintances.

"We've owned a dozen horses [over the years], but we've never at one time had more than one horse [in training]," Alan Reis continued. "Maybe once we've had more than one--let's say, 20 percent of this one, 10 percent of that one, 30 percent of this one. We were lucky--in one of the [first] partnerships we had a Grade 1 winner. That was Man From Wicklow."

Dana Reis added, "And one of our partners was our trainer [Rick Violette]. Rick was getting ready to turn him into a show horse, and all of a sudden he woke up. He was a terrific turf horse. He's been gracefully retired, and that's something we're really happy about."

Man From Wicklow took his time getting going, but developed into a solid turf runner by his five-year-old season. The Florida-bred captured the 2002 GII W.L. McKnight H. and added the GI Gulfstream Park BC Turf H. in February 2003. He wound up winning six of 31 career starts, and bankrolled $609,395.

The Reises had less success with Totebook (Notebook), a filly whose best effort in eight outings for Red Diamond and partners was a third in a $40,000 maiden claimer at Monmouth during the summer of her three-year-old season in 2003. As a half-sister to GSW & GISP D'Or Ruckus (Bold Ruckus) and SW Diane's Birthday (With Approval), the chestnut had some things to recommend her as a broodmare.

Totebook and Cribnote

"She never won, but she had a good pedigree," said Alan Reis. "We thought there's no point in racing her anymore; we'll take a shot and take it to the next level of losing."

Totebook was trained by Violette, who also had the swift Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) in his barn at the same time. He stood his first season in Florida in 2005, and Totebook was covered there before being shipped to Sequel Stallions New York in Hudson.

"The New York program is a really terrific thing," said Dana Reis. "When you breed, as opposed to just race, you have another dimension of appreciation for it. We have the best tracks in the world in New York--we should have the best breeding, too."

The mare's first foal, Cribnote was bred in the name of Red Diamond.

"It's basically the same people that owned her [Totebook]," Alan Reis offered. "Some people dropped out that didn't want to go ahead with the breeding."

In addition to the Reises, the Cribnote partnership includes Fred Gorsline, Jeff LaGueux, Brad Kaufman, John Held and John Schmitt. The mare produced a filly by Sequel New York stallion Freud in 2007; barren for 2008, she is back in foal to Read the Footnotes.

After being weaned, Cribnote was sent to Becky Thomas at Sequel's Ocala, Florida, operation for breaking and early training, and arrived in Violette's Aqueduct shedrow this spring. He caught Dana Reis's eye right away.

"When he first shipped back to Aqueduct from Ocala, we went out in the morning," she recalled. "[Exercise rider] Rodney [Paine] was up on him, and I said 'Who's that? He's really great looking!' He said, 'That's Cribnote.' We hadn't seen him since he was weaned."

Alan & Dana Reis with Cribnote in 2006

Violette kept Cribnote in company with another New York-bred juvenile, Heir to the Stone (Birdstone), who debuted impressively at Belmont July 10 (video). The usually conservative conditioner made the call to skip state-bred company for Cribnote's first start July 3.

"That's how, as owners that Rick really thought highly of him, because he wanted to see how he would do in open company," Alan Reis explained.

Sent off at 6-1, the chestnut had a very rough trip and hit the rail, but finished a willing fourth in that five-furlong contest run in :58 2/5 (video).

"He probably would have done pretty well if he hadn't been pushed into the rail a couple of times," said Dana. Her husband added, "That's why next time we didn't bother staying in open company--we knew that he could keep up with them, so [we thought], let's just break our maiden against New York-breds."

Cribnote emphatically earned his diploma next out at Saratoga, drawing off by 13 1/2 lengths while stopping the clock in 1:03.32 for 5 1/2 furlongs. He has come back with a pair of solid drills, earning a bullet (1/50) for five-eighths in :59 3/5 Aug. 15, and covering the same distance in 1:00.26 (2/14) this past Monday.

"He blew a hind shoe going into the turn, so the rider didn't press him after that," Dana Reis explained.

Cribnote's efforts have attracted all sorts of attention; Alan Reis confirmed that Red Diamond had received some offers for the colt, but nothing too tempting.

"The nice thing about this crew is that they're not doing this as an investment," he said. "That doesn't mean we're stupid--if someone makes us an offer we can't refuse. At this point, the kind of offers you get are from people who think they can steal something. Maybe they think we'd take a couple hundred thousand, which isn't necessarily a bad thing--we bred him, we don't have a huge investment in him..."

Dana Reis added, "It's a little premature to say, but you feel like you've won the lottery, that the first one looks like he has the potential; it's just so exciting."

When asked if they are expecting a big turnout for Monday's race, both laughed.

Alan: "Oh, I think people we've never meet will be up there...with their in-laws!"

Dana: "Everyone wants to get in on the action."

Alan: "You know, I try to get them to come out to Aqueduct to see some of these races--maybe now?"

But the couple has been in the game long enough to realize that fortunes can change in an instant.

"We don't know what's going on with this guy," Alan admitted. "It might be the height of our fun--but I don't think it will be. He's certainly a good racehorse, even if he's not the dream fulfiller. We'll certainly have a lot of fun with him." -MK

Elk Manor Farm was the pride and joy of the late owner James Moran Jr., the son of prominent owner and breeder Elizabeth Moran. Moran passed away following a short illness this past April. The farm is situated atop the Elk River and Chesapeake Bay in Maryland and is the home to high-class broodmares and racehorses.

Moran went to $180,000 to acquire Knock Twice (Two Punch) at the 2000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July sale and raced her to a pair of wins and a stakes placing in three years at the races. Under the advice of his longtime friend Robert Courtney Jr., Moran bred Knock Twice to Silver Deputy during the middle of her three-year-old campaign.

"We wanted a prolific sire we thought would make for a good broodmare sire," Courtney said of the choice to breed to Silver Deputy. "We were breeding for the commercial market and he largely kept the fillies and sold the colts."

Knock Twice's filly, a Maryland-bred, was produced Apr. 13, 2004, and was ticketed for a trip to Keeneland the following fall. But things didn't go exactly as planned and she was led out of the ring unsold on a bid of $50,000.

"We had her in the September sale, but she didn't have a lot of interest and we decided at the time--Jimmy left it up to me--to buy her back. It's worked out well."

Indeed it has. Silver Knockers won her first two trips to the post for Moran and trainer Nick Zito and was runner-up in her third career start in the GII Forward Gal S. Taken to her home state, she was also second in the GIII Miss Preakness S. and completed the triple behind Dream Rush in the GI Prioress S. back in New York. "I think Nick has done a great job training for Jimmy, and he needed to be with a Hall of Fame trainer," Courtney offered.

Yesterday was the first major victory for the operation since the death of Moran, and Courtney fondly remembered his friend and colleague. "Jimmy and I were great friends," he commented. "He was a very good horseman and really, really loved to study pedigrees. He took a lot of time and a lot of what he did reflects what he did in the very short time of his life. He was a great father, a good friend and I really miss him. I think about him every day."

Silver Knockers's first stakes win could scarcely have come at a better time. Courtney, whose family's Crestfield is now shut down, is consigning a yearling full brother to Silver Knockers on the first day of Book 3 at this year's Keeneland September sale under the banner of Stonebridge Farm.

"He's a nice, dark bay colt and he'll definitely be a racehorse," Courtney stated. "I think he'll do well. He's probably at about the same point right now that Silver Knockers was."

Additionally, Moran's son Matt and daughters Katie and Meghan are dispersing a large portion of Elk Manor's Thoroughbred holdings, including Knock Twice, in foal to El Corredor, and Silver Knockers at this year's Keeneland November sale. Lane's End will handle the consignment. But don't expect the Moran legacy to end there.

"His son, Matt, will be a presence to be dealt with in the future, I believe," Courtney opined. "He's learning all the time and I would be surprised if he wasn't up there at the races. I think he will carry on the family tradition." --Alan Carasso

Third by a length in the GIII Tropical Turf H. at Calder Dec. 1, Minister's Joy found the one-mile distance a bit too sharp when rallying sixth to Einstein (Brz) in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 11. He got an extra furlong of real estate for his next appearance and that did the trick, as the veteran swung out and was up for a head success in South Florida Feb. 7. The Janney homebred left himself too much to do in his latest and found his best stride late in a sixth-place effort over a yielding Keeneland sod Apr. 5. Void of early speed and last for the opening half-mile, Minister's Joy charged four wide around the far turn and stormed down the middle of the track to win while being shown the whip.

The dark bay posted a series of solid works down at Belmont Park for her debut and was part of an entry sent off the 7-2 third choice in the wagering. Reserved off the early pace set by Southern Oaks (Vindication), the half-sister to Abbondanza (Alphabet Soup), MSW & MGSP, $377,455, gained good ground while wide on the turn, shifted out five deep into the lane and rallied determinedly to catch stablemate Glacken Queen (Smoke Glacken) by a head. Southern Oaks was third, while So Probable (Storm Cat), the 2-1 favorite, was prominent before weakening a bit to be fifth, beaten about 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $37,200. DEL MAR'S FORECAST

Thursday: Areas of dense morning fog. Cloudy skies early will become partly cloudy later in the day. High 74F. Winds SW at 5 to 10 mph.

Jockeys, DMTC Combine for $5,900 to Macbeth Fund:

At Del Mar, multiple-win days by local jockeys is translating into contributions from the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club to the Don MacBeth Foundation to aid injured jockeys and exercise riders. Two wins by a rider nets the foundation $100 and three wins brings $250. Through Monday, Aug. 25, the DMTC had donated $5,900 as a result of multiple-win days by local riders. Leading rider Rafael Bejarano has posted 12 days of multiple wins. Garrett Gomez has added 10 such days and Joel Rosario seven. Those jockeys who have finished first three times in a day are Bejarano and Rosario twice and Gomez, Aaron Gryder, Alex Solis and Tyler Baze once each. Over the years, DMTC and jockeys have teamed up to put a total of more than $150,000 into the foundation.

Del Mar to Honor Memory of Bob Benoit Sunday:

Del Mar will hold a memorial moment Sunday to honor the late racetrack publicist and executive Bob Benoit. The memorial will be held in the winner's circle after the third race. Benoit died Friday, Aug. 15 after battling pneumonia.

The entire 15-day sale, which runs through Sept. 23, will be streamed live on Keeneland.com. Jeff Lifson will host the opening coverage, which will be up-linked both days through Roberts Communications Network LLC and be available on Kentucky racetrack decoders and broadcast live by HRTV. At the top of each hour of the broadcast, commentators will review hips sold, preview upcoming hips, and conduct interviews with buyers, consignors and industry professionals. Commentators also may cut in throughout the sale coverage in the event of breaking news.

ARTIST TO MISS HAYDOCK Vintage Thoroughbreds' War Artist (Aus) (Orpen) may be forced to miss next Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup after suffering a setback. Trainer James Eustace announced yesterday that the G1 Golden Jubilee S. runner-up and G1 July Cup third could be out for the year. "War Artist didn't pull out right this morning and I'm not happy with him," Eustace told PA Sport. "I would say he is a doubtful runner at Haydock, but I will make a final decision on Monday when I would need to confirm the horse. It seems sensible to wait until then. I don't think it is anything serious, his action just doesn't seem quite right and it could just be he has had enough for this year as he has been on the go since March."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races.

ITM Launches Website:

Irish Thoroughbred Marketing, a division of Horse Racing Ireland, has launched a website, www.irishyearlings.com, dedicated to upcoming yearling sales, the company announced Thursday. The website, aimed at overseas buyers, features sales dates and catalogues, transportation information, and recommended hotels and restaurants. Prospective buyers can use the website to view catalogues or order printed versions for the Tattersalls Ireland September, Goresbridge Flat, and Goffs Million and Sportsman's yearling sales. Visitors to the site can also learn about the ITM's "Flight Reimbursement Scheme," which allows overseas buyers to claim back the cost of their airline or ferry ticket, up to a maximum based on country of origin.

Psalm finished off the board when highly tried in the May 11 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and the June 20 G1 Coronation S., but eventually shed maiden status in a maiden at this track July 20. Lining up off a fourth in the Aug. 13 Listed Hurry Harriet S. at Gowran Park, she was reserved under cover in midfield from flagfall in this. Encountering traffic problems once into the straight, she found a clear run passing the furlong marker and lunged late to deny Sharleez in the final strides. Video, courtesy attheraces.com.
