THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.

SKY MESA
 #1 2YO Sire by Number of Winners (tied)

GOING OUT IN STYLE

After a slow start due to inclement weather, the Saratoga meeting picked up plenty of steam with a thrilling renewal of the GI Travers S. last weekend, and promises to close with some fireworks with a little help from Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) in today's GI Woodward S. The G1 Dubai World Cup hero, pegged as the 3-5 morning-line favorite, returns to dirt after suffering his first defeat this season when second-best in his grass debut in the GI Man o'War S. July 12.

"We had many options, but we decided this was the best place for him to show his talent," owner Jess Jackson said. "We felt it was best for him to race on a surface where he is already a champion and at a place where he can add to his legend. He is very fit here and is a very happy horse here." Trainer Nick Zito has already worked some magic with a seven-year-old this meeting, saddling Commentator (Distorted Humor) to his second victory in the GI Whitney H., and will be represented by veteran Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold). The speedy chestnut was a sharp allowance winner at the Spa July 28. "It would be like bookends," Zito said. "There's been other trainers who have won the Whitney and the Woodward the same year, but not with two different horses, both of them seven years old." Divine Park (Chester House), a winner of three straight, including the GI Met Mile H. last time May 26, has been training smartly for his return. "I have a lot of respect for Curlin," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said. "If both of us have a perfect day, he's better than us. But I am confident we have the best chance to beat him."

LOADED FIELD FOR PA DERBY

A competitive field of 14, including Southern California-based MGSW Two Step Salsa (Petionville), was entered for Monday's $1-million GII Pennsylvania Derby at Philly Park. The GIII Affirmed H. winner has been assigned the nine slot. You and I Forever (A.P. Indy), a close second behind subsequent GI Travers S. runner-up Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo) in Saratoga's Henry Walton S. July 27, has drawn widest of all in post 14. Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz), a four-length winner of the GII Ohio Derby last time May 31, will exit from stall six. Field p6

CHANNON IN RECOVERY

Trainer Mick Channon continues to improve in intensive care following his involvement in the car accident that claimed the life of Tim Corby Wednesday afternoon. Following surgery Thursday night, the Lambourn-based conditioner was reported to be in "good spirits" yesterday. "It was an operation to wire his jaw and he remains in intensive care," a spokesman at Channon's West Ilsley stables told PA Sport. "The operation was a success and he is in good spirits--but he is desperate to get out of hospital."

FEELING LUCKY?

With the defection of leading sprinter Benny the Bull (Lucky Lionel), who was retired earlier this week due to an ankle injury, it looks like today's GI Forego S. is Lucky Island's race to lose. The dark bay finished a disappointing seventh in his U.S. debut at Calder last December, but has been unbeatable since. Following a pair of tallies at Gulfstream and Aqueduct, he posted his first stakes victory in Belmont's GIII Bold Ruler H. May 10 and followed with a dominating victory in the GII Tom Fool H. last time July 4.

"His breakout race was when he won the Bold Ruler at Belmont," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "He had won two in a row going into that race, but that was a big step going from a 'two other than' into a graded stakes. The Tom Fool just showed that he is a very versatile horse and he has continued to train as well up here as he has trained all year." Eternal Star has enjoyed a breakthrough season for trainer Mike Trombetta winning five of six starts, including triple-digit Beyers in each of his last three outings. He followed a nose victory in Philly Park's Donald LeVine Memorial H. June 28 with a neck decision over Bold Start in Saratoga's James Marvin S. Aug. 9. First Defence, second in last year's GI King's Bishop S. over this strip, most recently completed the exacta in the GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. July 26.

Vacare returns west for the first time since the spring of 2007 to try to earn her first graded stakes win of the year. The bay won the first five starts of her career, including the GIII Pucker Up S. in September 2006, the

GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Keeneland that autumn, and the Magna Distaff S. at Gulfstream in April 2007. Her first defeat was a third in the 2007 GI Gamely S. at Hollywood Park on Memorial Day, where she finished a non-threatening 5 1/4 lengths behind the winner Citronnade. Vacare finished second in her next start, the GII Ballston Spa H. at

Vacare
Horsephotos

Saratoga in August after steady-ing in traffic and completed her 2007 campaign with a win in the GII First Lady S. at Keeneland in October. She has raced twice this year, finishing eighth in the GI Just A Game S. June 7 after getting caught four wide, and was fourth in the GI Diana S. July 26. Kris' Sis has placed in five graded stakes but still seeks her first graded victory. This year, she was second in the GIII Wilshire H. in April and third in the GII Buena Vista H. in February and the GII Milady H. on Cushion Track in May. She was the victim of a soft pace in her last start, the restricted Osunitas H. at Del Mar July 19, and was unable to defend her 2007 title in that race.

THREE CHIMNEYS
Winners' Circle Report

For the week ending August 29, 2008

Point Given

Want Seven Figure Earnings? That's a GIVEN.

GO BETWEEN (03 h. o/o Mediation, by Caerleon) turned in a gutsy performance to win the Pacific Classic (G1) at Del Mar by a neck and set a new track record in the process. The second $1-million race win in 2008 brings his earnings to $2,783,880. He will likely be pointed toward the Breeders' Cup Classic. Owner: Vegso Racing Stable. Breeder: Peter Vegso. chart video

Rahy

Rahy's Son Earns His Place in the Stallion Barn

LEWIS MICHAEL (03 h. o/o Justenuffheart, by Broad Brush), who will become a stallion at Three Chimneys in 2009, dominated some of the best sprinters in the country in the Pat O'Brien H. (G2) on August 24, winning by 2-3/4 lengths and setting his second career all-weather track record in the process. The win brings his record to 22-7-6-2 with $811,714 in earnings. Owner/Breeder: Frank C. Calabrese. chart video

Smarty Jones

Another Smarty Gets it Done First Time Out

BE SMART (06 f. o/o Eishin Bridle, by Unbridled) turned heads at Saratoga, winning a $62,000 maiden special on August 28 going 5-1/2 f. in her first lifetime start. The filly looks the part of a star and will be pointed toward bigger and better things in the near future by trainer D. Wayne Lukas. She starts her bankroll at $37,200. Owner: Thomas F. Van Meter II. Breeder: Gulf Coast Farms LLC. chart video

War Chant

Horses that are Full of Fight

WAR MONGER (04 c. o/o Carnival Delight, by Half A Year), winner of the Sunshine Millions Turf earlier this year, ran a very determined second in the $200,000 Bernard Baruch H. (G2) on August 23 at Saratoga. The colt has earned $507,726 and has a record of 11-4-2-1. Owner/Breeder: Peter Vegso.

Yes It's True

Say YES to Horses with Heart

OFF DUTY (03 h. o/o Ms North Carolina, by Honour and Glory) ran third in the $200,000 Play the King S. (G2) at Woodbine on August 23. The MSW ran a determined race and gave way grudgingly toward the wire. He has won $366,326 with a record of 19-8-1-3. Owner: John Pucek, Brett Setzer, and Robert Edwards. Breeder: Helen Marie Napolitano.

He meets another five unbeaten runners in this contest including the Aug. 16 Listed Washington Singer S. winner Cry of Freedom and the July 26 Newmarket maiden scorer Parisian Art. The latter's trainer Jeremy Nosedá commented, "He's in good form and I'm happy with him. He did every thing right in breaking his maiden, so it will be interesting to see how he copes with the step up in class. I'm hopeful he will handle it well."

BLINKERS OFF FOR NOTONTHEPAGE

Notonthesamepage (Catienus), tabbed as a TDN Rising Star following a sharp maiden win at Churchill Apr. 30, looks to get back on track in Monday's GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. following a second-place finish as the 1-10 chalk in Monmouth's Tyro S. July 26. The Ken and Sarah Ramsey homebred skipped the GII Sanford S. July 24 due to a fever, but recovered quickly enough to make the trip to the Jersey Shore. He will race in the Hopeful for the first time without blinkers. "In the Sanford I wanted to put him on the lead with blinkers," trainer Wesley Ward told Daily Racing Form. "In the Tyro, he just blasted out of there and basically he just got outrun." Notonthesamepage recorded the highest juvenile Beyer Speed Figure of the year when he earned a 104 in his maiden victory.

CHURCHILL CUTS STAKES PURSES BY $975K

Churchill Downs has cut $975,000 from its fall stakes program, blaming an ongoing dispute between track management and the Kentucky horsemen over allocation of revenue derived from Internet and phone wagers. Eleven of Churchill's 12 graded stakes had their purses reduced. The meet's marquee race, the GII Clark H., was unaffected, and will once again offer a purse of $500,000. Five races were trimmed by $100,000: the GIII Ack Ack H., the GIII River City H., the GIII Falls City H., the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., and the GII Golden Rod S. Two ungraded turf sprints worth $100,000, the Mariah's Storm S. and the Cherokee Run S., have been canceled. The season will begin Oct. 26 and will conclude Nov. 29. Churchill has been unable accept wagers from ADW companies starting with this year's spring meet, as the Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association have blocked distribution using their powers under the 1978 Interstate Horseracing Act.

NEW HORSE AT LEOPARDSTOWN--BOLGER

Trainer Jim Bolger is expecting a much improved performance from New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in next Saturday's G1 Tattersalls Millions Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown. Following Princess Haya of Jordan's G1 Epsom Derby winner's comeback effort when third in Saturday's G1 Juddmonte International, the Coolcullen conditioner believes he has him ready for the rematch with Duke of Marmalade (Ire) in the 10-furlong contest. "New Approach came out of the race fine, but he was just too strong in the early part of the race," Bolger told PA Sport. "He was very fresh early and very rusty late and I said afterwards I needed to get him to settle again. He has started to do that in his work already and I think you will see a different horse next time. The Irish Champion Stakes is still very much the plan at this stage."

AFRICAN ROSE HAS HAYDOCK DATE

Khalid Abdullah's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest runner-up African Rose (GB) (Observatory) will be supplemented for next Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, trainer Crique Head-Maarek has announced. Second to Marchand d'Or (Fr) in Deauville's Aug. 10 contest, the sophomore filly will be added to the six-furlong sprint at a fee of £17,500. "I am intending to supplement African Rose into the race and the filly has done really well since her last outing," Head-Maarek told the Racing Post.

Moatize Maiden No More

Rated one of the best maidens in Australia, Danehill Dancer four year-old Moatize broke through for his first win at Sale on Thursday coasting home in a 1422 metre maiden to win by nearly two lengths.

Trained by Bart Cummings, Moatize was resuming from a short let-up of 12 weeks having not raced since finishing third in the Group One QTC Queensland Derby.

Stakes-placed twice previously before that, Moatize is regarded as a highly promising stayer and is entered for both the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups.

... Moatize is another likely spring prospect for leading sire Danehill Dancer, who has a number of smart horses on the go in Light Fantastic, Arapaho Miss, Stripper and progressive Wednesday winners Kimillsy and La Goulue.

GRADED WINNER ELITE SQUADRON RETIRED

Elite Squadron (Officer--Sweet Mama, by High Brite), winner of this year's GII Churchill Downs H. on the Kentucky Derby undercard and runner-up in the GI Triple Bend H. at Hollywood Park, has been retired with a minor soft-tissue injury. "It's the kind of thing he could easily come back from, but the timing is such that we won't be able to make the [GIII] Phoenix [S.] in October at Keeneland, which we'd need as a prep for the [GI] Breeders' Cup Sprint," the four-year-old's trainer Jim

Horsephotos

Baker told Daily Racing Form. Stud plans have not yet been announced. Elite Squadron won four of six starts as a sophomore, including the 2007 Tom Ridge Labor Day S. at Presque Isle. His lone finish outside the trifecta at four was an 11th in the GIII Hal's Hope H. this January, his only try beyond seven furlongs. He was subsequently third in the GII Richter Scale H. in March before finishing second by a head in the GII Commonwealth S. in April. After his Churchill Downs H. triumph, the chestnut completed his career with a third in the GIII Aristides S. May 31 and a second to West Coast sprint division leader Street Boss (Street Cry {Ire}) in the Triple Bend July 5. Elite Squadron is a son of stakes-winning Sweet Mama, who was also third in the GII Landaluce S. Elite Squadron is half to MSP Darting Dot (Geri). His career record stands at 14-5-2-2 with earnings of $507,059.

Clifton Park S.

Acquired privately after a pair of dominating Group 3 scores in her native Chile, Cocoa Beach lost her unbeaten record when she ran second in a conditions race at Nad al Sheba Jan. 17. The dark bay rebounded with open-lengths triumphs in the Feb. 8 Listed UAE 1000 Guineas and Feb. 28 Listed UAE Oaks, and was an honorable third to the boys in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 29 at the Dubai oval. Getting Lasix for her state-side debut, the rangy filly raced within striking distance from the start, made her move turning for home and, once she put Striking Tomisue away, opened up under a hand ride. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Bittel Road, a good-looking winner of his career opener July 11 (video) going six panels on the turf at Belmont, was even-money while stepping up to stakes company here. After being bumped at the break, the dark bay settled into an easy rhythm just off the pace disputed by Ninth Client (Malibu Moon) and stablemate High Cry (Street Cry {Ire}). He looked for running room in the lane and, once in the clear, outfooted Skipadate to remain unbeaten. Herr Mozart, an 11-1 first-time starter, came up the hedge to round out the trifecta; the pacesetters tired to fifth and seventh, respectively. Owens Named Farm Manager of the Year:

Mike Owens has been named the 2008 Farm Manager of the Year, the Kentucky Farm Managers' Club announced Friday. A former president and board member of the KTFMC, Owens had "demonstrated excellence in farm management" at Gary Bisantz's Cobra Farm and at his own Cornerstone Stable. As a farm manager, he is credited for raising Old Trieste (A.P. Indy), Ifyouprefersilver (Silver Deputy), and Sinister Minister (Old Trieste). Owens serves as the Fayette County Team Leader for the Kentucky Equine Education Project and is a board member for the Fayette County Farm Bureau. Previously, he was closely involved with the Kentucky Equine Management Internship and has served on the Lexington/Fayette County Urban Government Board of Adjustment. He was recently appointed to the Lexington/Fayette County Urban Government Planning Commission. Owens will be honored at the KTFMC Premier Event Oct. 10.

2.10 Ripon, Mdn, £6,000, 2yo, 6fT
BAJAN TRYST (Speightstown) debuts for Margaret Forsyth and is a Kevin Ryan-trained half-brother to the 2001 GI Acorn S. winner Forest Secrets (Forest Wildcat), whose dam is a half to champion Silverbulletday. He meets Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's Holberg (UAE) (Halling), a Mark Johnston-trained half-brother to the top-class Undermine (Miner's Mark) out of a half to Will's Way.

2.35 Dundalk, Mdn, €12,000, 2yo, 5fT
PURSUIT OF GLORY (IRE) (Fusaichi Pegasus) makes her debut for Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier and the David Wachman stable and is a daughter of the 2002 G1 Coronation S. heroine Sophisticat (Storm Cat), who has already produced the Listed Prix de Lieurey winner Sefroua (Kingmambo). The granddaughter of the great Serena's Song meets Pat Garvey's newcomer Sheba Five (Five Star Day), a Noel Meade-trained half-sister to talented stable companion Arch Rebel (Arch).

3.20 Killarney, Mdn, €10,500, 2yo, 1m 100ydsT
RECHARGE (IRE) (Cape Cross {Ire}) is unleashed at this Southwestern venue by Kevin Prendergast, who trained her dam Rebelline (Ire) (Robellino) to capture the 2002 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup on her final start. Lady O'Reilly's homebred faces a raft of experienced rivals including Susan Magnier and Anne Keogh's Ballydoyle representative Four Star General (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), a close relative of Spartacus (Ire) who bids to make it fourth time lucky here.

4.55 Ripon, Mdn, £6,000, 3yo/up, 9f 170ydsT
NEXUS (IRE) (Pivotal {GB}) starts out late, but will command attention as a half-brother to the brilliant but ill-fated George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) and equally high-class Grandera (Ire) (Grand Lodge). Godolphin's 1.2-million guineas purchase at 2006 Tattersalls October should have little trouble in dealing with moderate rivals here if he possesses some of the abundant talent of his siblings. Cont. p7

MUBROOK (Alhaarth {Ire}) is another regally-bred colt getting going late in the day, but, in the hands of the patient Luca Cumani there is still time for Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's three-year-old to make headlines if he has a share of the talent of his half-brother Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}).

Like her talented full-brother Snoqualmie Boy (GB), Snoqualmie Girl took four runs to break her maiden but got off the mark at Newmarket last time Aug. 9. Settled in mid-division on the inner throughout the early stages, the homebred stayed true against the fence as Derbaas and On Our Way drifted to the center of the track and that proved decisive as she mastered that duo in the final 100 yards.

Sent off at 8-1, the €260,000 GOFORB yearling stalked the early pace before launching his challenge wide and leading approaching the furlong marker. Despite crossing the runner-up Star Rocker (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) en route to a 1 1/2-length success, he was allowed to keep the race. Racing in third until shaken up to challenge Hamalka (Ire) (Alharth {Ire}) with 2 1/2 furlongs to go, she was carried off a true line by that rival in the straight and her nose defeat was overturned after an inquiry. The winner is a full sister to Time On (GB), GSW-Fr & SW-Eng, $190,063. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-2, £6,066. O-Merry Fox Stud Ltd; B-W & R Barnett Ltd and Globe Bloodstock; T-Luca Cumani.
