MANI BEING MANI IN THE SPINAWAY

Mani Bhavan (Storm Boot) made it a perfect three-for-three with a front-running 1 1/4-length victory in yesterday's GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga. The filly, unchallenged in two previous starts, jumped out to the early lead and set fractions of :22.18, :45.46 and 1:11.03 while alone on a loose lead. GIII Schuylerville S. winner

A Coglianese

Jardin (Montbrook) moved to challenge Mani Bhavan at midstretch, but couldn't get by the determined dark bay. "It was a gutsy performance," said winning trainer Steve Klesaris. "The runner-up ran a great race, and Mani Bhavan dug in to fight her off. Midway down the stretch, I was concerned. Jardin was coming relentlessly. My filly was digging down and had enough to hold her off." Despite Klesaris's concern, jockey Alan Garcia was not worried about the runner-up. "I wasn't nervous when I saw Jardin coming at us," Garcia said. "I knew I still had a lot of horse to keep going. When she was coming closer to us, my filly was trying hard. I didn't want to be too hard on her because I wanted to save her for the next race." Cont. p2

GLORY AGAIN

Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Again (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) justified 6-4 favoritism in yesterday's G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh to maintain a clean sweep of Europe's top-level juvenile contests in 2008. Adding to her success in the course-and-distance G2 Debutante S. last time Aug. 17, the imposing bay tracked the fast early fractions under jockey Seamus Heffernan. She took over inside the final furlong and held Shimah (Storm Cat) at bay by a half-length. "She's a big, tall weak filly that's really a three-year-old, so she's done well to win a Group 1 and Group 2 at two," trainer David Wachman said. Cont. p2

A QUICK GETAWAY

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Getaway (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) had failed to hit the board in two starts since bagging Newmarket's G2 Jockey Club S. in May, but righted those wrongs with a determined effort in yesterday's G2 Grand Prix de Deauville. Bouncing back under a confident Frankie Dettori, Baron Georg von Ullmann's 12-5 second favorite booked his ticket to the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 5 by defeating globetrotter Doctor Dino (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) by a length. "His ability has never been in doubt, and he again showed just how good he is with that victory today," said winning trainer Andre Fabre. Cont. p3

Mani Bhavan earned ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ status with a dominating 9 1/4-length debut win at July 12 Delaware Park. She justified the hype with a front-running seven-length win in the Aug. 13 GII Adirondack S. "I don't know what's next," said Steve Klesaris. "Today was a good test. We'll go back to the drawing board and evaluate and see what's next." Trainer Steve Asmussen was anything but disappointed with Jardin's runner-up effort. "I thought she ran a beautiful race," Asmussen said. "Robby [Albarado] gave her a dream trip and finished second. It looked like Robby had a shot to get [Mani Bhavan], but she was getting tired."

Again started out with an inauspicious eighth at Roscommon July 7, but took a leap forward next time when winning a mile maiden here 20 days later. Dropped back a furlong for the Debutante, she showed she was still making progress with a three-length defeat of Oui Say Oui (Ire), and employed her inherent stamina against a serious opponent in Shimah here. Settled in mid-division off the generous tempo, she loomed alongside the maiden Beyond Our Reach at the eighth pole and, after mastering that rival, was made to dig in by the Shadwell homebred. Again drifted right across that foe's path in the closing stages and was the subject of an inquiry, but the stewards judged that no interference had been caused and allowed the result to stand. "She has no real preference for ground, but works well on good ground at home and handled the testing conditions a fortnight ago," David Wachman remarked. "She's in the G1 Fillies' Mile [at Ascot Sept. 27] and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac [Oct. 5]--wherever her owners would like her to go, if she's fit and well, she'll take her place. Her dam is a half to Montjeu (Ire), so you'd imagine she'll get a trip and could be a Oaks filly next year." Click for Racing Post chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Madeo, a back-to-back winner at Hollywood and Santa Anita this spring, was second by a neck in Hollywood's May 24 Alydar S. and was fourth in the July 12 GII Swaps S. before switching to the turf for a good late-running fourth-place finish in the Aug. 9 GII La Jolla S. at this course. The Moss homebred stalked pacesetting Tangled Tango from fourth, moved to the outside for the stretch run and overtook the leader with a strong move passing midstretch. He held off the late-closing favorite Gio Ponti for the break-out win, while Tangled Tango just held third over the even later closing Nownownow (Whywhywhy). "He's a little bit of a funny horse to ride," Mike Smith admitted of the winner. "I wanted to keep him down inside and covered up. He does better there. But then I had to get him out and going, but not get him going too soon. We found out if we let him out too soon, he gets to playing around and doing all sorts of things. But it broke right today and he was good enough." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Getaway was a close fourth in last term's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, and returned for this campaign with a victory in the G2 Jockey Club S. Enduring late traffic problems when fifth in the June 6 G1 Coronation Cup, he was unable to land a blow in the June 29 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. The bay homebred was settled in third going by the judge the first time as Sommertag (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) enjoyed a clear lead, and inched into a remote second as the field moved onto the backstraight. Edging closer once turning for home, he was ridden to the front with 350 meters remaining and refused to buckle in the closing stages. Trainer Andre Fabre, looking to the immediate future, said, "The plan has always been to run in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, and that is where he will go straight from here." Overdose retained his unbeaten record when going nine-for-nine with victory in the G3 Lotto Trophy at Hamburg July 5, and he made it a perfect 10 with a dominant success in this most prestigious of all German sprints. The bay sophomore is unmatched in Austria, Hungary and Slovakia--where he achieved champion status as a juvenile--and provided the German audience with a first look when winning the Listed Lanson-Cup over course and distance May 18. Stopping off in Bratislava to continue his streak June 1, he overcame setbacks while preparing for the Hamburg event and succeeded in that pattern-race bow despite losing a shoe during the six-furlong contest. The bargain buy burst from the gate to seize instant control in this and was never seriously threatened, coasting to the wire with the minimum of fuss in the straight to easily outclass his five rivals. Hungarian trainer Sandor Ribarszki said, "That was the real Overdose again today, quite different from Hamburg, and I am really very proud of him." A spokesperson for the sophomore's owner, SCH Racing Team, added, "There are two options for him now; the G1 Prix de la Foret [at Longchamp Oct. 4] or the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 5], but the tendency is towards the latter." Peter Rau, trainer of the runner-up Abbadjinn, was not downcast in defeat, and commented, "Abbadjinn is clearly the best domestic horse over such a trip, but to lose to such an outstanding horse is definitely no disgrace."

Despite her debutante status, Maoineach was the model of professionalism as she disposed of experienced rivals in a filly-dominated renewal of this contest. Settled wide without cover throughout the early stages, the chestnut quickened to take over at the furlong marker and assert in convincing fashion. "She will handle any ground and did a furlong in 10.1 seconds on soft ground at the breeze-ups," trainer Jim Bolger commented. "She is in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac [at Longchamp Oct. 5], but we missed entering her in the others as she only came to us in April." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Fifth in the Buckingham Palace H. at Royal Ascot June 20, Laa Rayb landed the valuable International H. back there July 26 and improved on a last-out second in the Aug. 14 G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury to claim a career high in this. Settled in third until improving one spot at halfway, he took control with 3 1/2 furlongs remaining and was urged ever clear of the toiling pack inside the final quarter mile to register a clear-cut success. "He's a very progressive horse, he did it ever so well and was the only one still on the bridle at half-way," explained winning rider Royston Ffrench. "I'd ridden Deauville before, so I was aware of how to ride the track. Mark Johnston's horses are very tough and even though it may have looked as though I went for home too soon, I knew I had plenty left in the tank and that he'd keep going." Third in this contest last year, Tiza came back this term to run second in the Listed Prix Servanne at Chantilly Apr. 24 before finishing third in the May 31 G3 Prix du Palais-Royal at Longchamp. He was off the board in both the July 11 G3 Prix de Ris-Oarngis and the Aug. 10 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest, both at this track, but returned to form with a bang to record a fourth stakes victory in this. Positioned under cover near the back of the field through the early stages, he eased wide for his run at the two pole and kept on strongly under a sympathetic drive in the closing stages to comfortably assert superiority over Inxile. "His last two efforts were moderate and typical of a horse who had lost that competitive edge so I left him to his own devices," explained trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "The gentle approach seems to have rejuvenated him and it's worked out pretty well. I'm tempted to try the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 5] again, but we will only go there if the ground is soft enough for him."

Marlang captured the Charlie Barley S. in his turf debut at Woodbine in June before a third-place effort in the July 12 Toronto Cup S. He rebounded to take the Aug. 3 Breeders' S., the final leg of Canada's Triple Crown, last time out. The bay colt took over at the break, set moderate fractions and kept Vacation at bay down the lane for a confident score. "I thought I would make the lead fairly easily, [but] he doesn't have to be on the lead," explained winning rider Richard Dos Ramos. "I've had him off the pace before, and he settles. I turned to the head of the lane, and he just accelerated underneath me. I figured it would take a pretty good horse to catch him." Winning trainer Deborah England thinks her charge will only improve with seasoning. "I was a little concerned because he'd never shipped before and he heard the races over at the stakes barn," England said. "I was worried about him settling down. I think he will get better at shipping as he gets older. He has gotten better at everything." Marlang runs in the colors of Gustav Schickedanz, who campaigned the colt's sire Langfuhr. ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

CURLIN FINE AFTER WOODWARD WIN Reigning Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) was in fine shape yesterday after his win in Saturday's G1 Woodward S. at Saratoga. "He seemed very comfortable this morning, ate up, did all the things you want to see happen," confirmed trainer Steve Asmussen. Curlin will remain at Saratoga, and a decision on his next start will not be made until an expected breeze next Monday. "He'll train back here right now," Asmussen said. "I spoke with [owner] Mr. [Jess] Jackson and we really liked the circumstances for him right now. We talked last night. We're very pleased with how he cooled out. We'll let him go back to the track in a couple of days, kind of enjoy what happened yesterday and admire him for a little bit, and then try to make a decision on where he's at and what's best for him."

ARGENTINE STAR LADY SPRINTER POINTING TO BREEDERS' CUP F/M SPRINT

Argentine sensation Lady Sprinter (Orientate), who has dominated the Hipodromo Palermo sprint division in Argentina over the last season, is being pointed to the $1-million Sentient Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint Oct. 24 at Santa Anita Park. The Kentucky-bred, a daughter of the 2002 G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint winner and champion sprinter,

Lady Sprinter
www.breedernews.net

had her third official workout since returning to the U.S. at Fairplex Park Saturday, going three furlongs in :38.20. The four-year-old is being handled by Argentine-born trainer Juan Reviriego. "She has really blossomed since arriving here after exiting quarantine in Florida [in July]," said Reviriego from Fairplex Sunday. "Her coat looks good, she's had three 3/8 breezes, and we have been working at Fairplex to get her accommodated to the tight turns. We will be relocating her to Oak Tree at Santa Anita [Sunday morning] and she will have her first half-mile breeze there next week." Lady Sprinter is unbeaten in both of her starts this year, most recently capturing the five-furlong G1 Gran Premio Ciudad de Buenos Aires against males May 3 at Palermo, a convincing victory that stamped her as the top sprinter in Argentina. In her only other start this year, she defeated fellow distaffers by five lengths in the G3 Clasico General Arenales Mar. 24 at Palermo. Campaigned in Argentina by leading owner Ricardo Benedicto's Stud Rubio B., the dark bay has won eight of nine starts in her adopted nation, including the G1 Gran Premio Maipu against her elders on the Argentine Derby card last November. Lady Sprinter's lone career defeat came last year when she was eighth on the turf at San Isidro in the G1 Gran Premio Felix de Alzaga Unzue on the G1 Carlos Pellegrini undercard. The four-year-old filly, bred by Gainesway Thoroughbreds Ltd, is out of the Dixieland Band mare Passionate Player.

will continue to justify his $2.1-million FTFEB price tag. "He's by a hot sire and he has been working well," Harty said. "Right now, it looks like he is capable of winning these types of races. It looks like he's worth the money. If he wins on Monday, he's worth a lot more." Break Water Edison (Lemon Drop Kid), a 4 3/4-length maiden winner at Belmont July 17, is coming off a runner-up effort behind Run Away and Hide (City Zip) in the Aug. 14 GII Saratoga Special S. The colt, a $525,000 OBSMAR juvenile, worked a bullet three furlongs in :36 at Saratoga Aug. 29 for red-hot trainer John Kimmel. Stonestreet Stables's Cognito (Langfuhr), a $700,000 KEEAPR two-year-old, reported home a determined half-length victor over the slop at Saratoga July 23. The gray colt is a half brother to GII Fountain of Youth S. winner Cool Coal Man (Mineshaft).

CLOSING DAY PARTY AT SARATOGA

Trainer Eoin Harty will look to cap a successful Saratoga meet with a win in today's GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. "I thought we had a great meet; it has been a fantastic summer," Harty admitted. Unbeaten Evita Argentina will look to go three-for-three and earn the second graded victory of her young career. A maiden winner in her June 25 debut at Hollywood, the chestnut filly returned to take the Aug. 6 GIII Sorrento S. over this track last time out. She worked a bullet six furlongs at Del Mar Aug. 25 in 1:11. Stardom Bound was left at the gate in her July 20 bow and was last for much of the 5 1/2-furlong contest, but closed with a vengeance to miss by just a nose to Turtle Creek Babe. The talented gray was slow into stride again before chasing Evita Argentina home for a runner-up effort in the Sorrento. Candilejas was second behind Garden District (Dixie Union) in her Apr. 10 debut at Keeneland, then second behind Evita Argentina June 25. With the addition of blinkers for her fourth start, the bay filly battled on the front end before drawing off to a 2 1/4-length maiden victory over this track Aug. 10.

You and I Forever, second by a neck last time to eventual GI Travers S. runner-up Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo) in the restricted Henry Walton S. June 27, has shown steady improvement since debuting in February. Out of MGISW and $2.1 million earner You (You and I), You And I Forever needed four starts to earn his diploma, breaking through in a one-mile Churchill maiden special weight May 29. Entered back in a Churchill allowance July 3, the bay stalked a slow pace before pouncing to win by 2 3/4 lengths. The hat trick appeared to be in sight as You and I Forever led during the stretch run of the Walton, but he could not hold off the determined run of Mambo in Seattle. Power Game, undefeated in two starts, will face stakes foes for the first time. An eight-length victor in his July 6 unveiling at Monmouth, he stretched out for his second start and drew off to win by four Aug. 3. Two Step Salsa, who has never finished outside the top two in six starts, will make his first start away from California and his first on dirt. He won the GIII Laz Barrera Memorial S. sprinting May 18 and the GIII Affirmed H. going long June 15. In his latest effort, he was second to Tres Borrachos (Ecton Park) in the GII Swaps S. July 12, edging Colonel John (Tiznow) by a head to complete the exacta.

Sunday's First a First:

Sunday's first race at Saratoga provided trainer Seth Benzel with his first victory as a trainer. The former assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher saddled Edgewood Farm's Ya Think (Broken Vow) to win the 5 1/2-furlong claiming event. "It feels like a lot of weight off our shoulders," Benzel said. "I am thankful for David Moore [of Edgewood Farm] and everyone else who has given us the opportunity. I am enjoying every minute of it. On a beautiful day at Saratoga, this is a dream come true for me." Benzel didn't have to wait long for a second win, saddling Edgewood's Walkabout Winner (Aldebaran) to take the fifth race at Saratoga. Yesterday's first race also marked the riding debut of Jackie Davis, daughter of retired jockey Robbie Davis. The 21-year-old graduate of Chris McCarron's North American Racing Academy in Lexington, finished 11th aboard Eastern Guardian (Crimson Guard {Ire}). "I may need to go to first aid--my heart is jumping out of my chest," Robbie Davis said after the race. "I'm more nervous than when I was riding in the Kentucky Derby." Jackie Davis will head to Belmont for the fall meet. "I'll need to get an agent," she said. "Maybe my Dad will do it."

+ DETAILS R SKETCHY (g, 2, Great Notion--Wilya Love Me, by Afternoon Deelites), looking to become the second winner for his freshman sire (by Elusive Quality), was let go at 5-2. Always within striking distance, the bay gelding swept to the outside for the stretch run and unleashed a powerful closing kick to overtake pace-setting favorite Princeandrew (Sky Mesa) at midstretch and draw off to an impressive 2 3/4-length win. Galayo (Giant's Causeway) was scratched. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $30,000. O-Burt & Jane Bacharach. SANDERS BREAK LEAVES LOOK RIDERLESS

Trainer Ralph Beckett will have to find a new jockey for Look Here (GB) (Hernando {Fr}). Regular rider Seb Sanders was ruled out for the season after breaking a leg in a fall at Chester Saturday. Julian Richmond-Watson's filly is a possible for next Saturday's G1 St Leger at Doncaster, and Beckett was counting the cost of Sanders's fall. "It is 50-50 whether Look Here will run in the Leger at this stage," Beckett told PA Sport yesterday. "Hopefully, this time next week we will have a good idea of whether she will take her chance or not, so we will have to see. The jockey situation is something I'm working on, so we'll leave it at that for the moment."

CHEKA HAS MILLION DATE

Trainer Eve Johnson Houghton yesterday announced that 🍀 "TDN Rising Star" 🍀 The Cheka (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) will tackle the Oct. 4 Tattersalls Timeform Million at Newmarket. Runner-up in Saturday's G3 Solario S., the colt is set for a rematch with his Sandown conqueror Sri Putra (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) there. "We were delighted with the run and he probably just hit the front too soon," Johnson Houghton told PA Sport. "He was very green and, once he got to the lead, he just didn't seem to know what to do, but he will learn in time. The plan is now to go to Newmarket for the Million and then hopefully for the [Oct. 18] G1 Dewhurst S."

PRINCESS ROSEBURG (f, 2, Johannesburg--Rose Bourbon {MSP-Fr}, by Woodman) went postward as the 4-5 choice coming off a second at Maisons-Laffitte July 29. She raced three lengths off the pace in third during the early running here. Taking closer order inside the final quarter mile, the $100,000 KEESEP yearling forged to the front with 300 meters remaining and was ridden out thereafter to hold Ribadesella (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) by a neck. The winner is half to Bourbonnais (Ire) (Singpiel {Ire}), SW & MGSP-Eng, GSP-UAE, $155,278. Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 2 wins, 2 places, €33,900.
