VINEYARD HAVEN SURPRISES HOPEFUL

Purchased privately by a group including trainer Bobby Frankel following a sharp debut at Calder, Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}) took advantage of Cribnote (Read the Footnotes) blowing the turn in the GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. at Saratoga. The grey colt scampered home a 2 1/4-length winner over the troubled Cribnote. Vineyard Haven's front-running task was made easier when 2-1 choice Munnings (Speightstown) stumbled at the start before winding up third. "Obviously, everything counts," said Frankel. "I was worried about a lot of horses." Vineyard Haven got out of the blocks quickly under meet-leading rider Alan Garcia, showing the way by a half-length over Break Water Edison (Lemon Drop Kid) through splits of :22.68 and :44.17. In third early, Cribnote loomed boldly on the turn as rider Rajiv Maragh was trying to keep him straight, but the chestnut wound up bearing out badly. He passed his rivals in the lane to finish a clear runner-up. "I think he was tons the best today," said trainer Rick Violette Jr. "All the way down the backside, it looked like he was afraid of horses inside of him--I thought maybe when he turned the corner coming for home, he might finally cooperate and straighten out. He was still looking at them like they were ghosts inside of him and he wanted to get away from them. For him to be second is pretty miraculous." Cont. p2

DARLEY ACQUIRES STONERSIDE OPERATION

Owner Bob McNair announced yesterday that Sheikh Mohammed's Darley has purchased nearly all of the holdings of McNair's Stonerside Stable. Included in the transaction are approximately 80 horses in training and approximately 170 broodmares, yearlings and weanlings, as well as the 2,000-acre farm near Paris, Kentucky, and the training center in Aiken, South Carolina. The Texas native, who founded the Thoroughbred operation with his wife Janice in 1994, cited his NFL commitments as the reason behind the decision to sell. "Janice and I have loved every minute of owning Stonerside," McNair said, "but I have a duty to the Houston Texans now, and it has become increasingly difficult to focus on both ventures. We decided to sell to Darley, and an important aspect of the deal to us is that the Stonerside staff, who have worked so hard for the family and contributed so much to our success, have been assured that their futures are secure." The McNairs will keep just one of their racehorses, the three-year-old GSW Cowboy Cal (Giant's Causeway), and will retain their homebred stallions Congaree (Arazi), Bob and John (Seeking the Gold) and Stonesider (Giant's Causeway), as well as their other stallion interests. "Stonerside and the McNair family have a record to be proud of," Darley representative John Ferguson said. "John Adger, Bobby Spalding, David Sorrell and Tim Jones, along with the entire Stonerside team, have done a great job, and Darley looks forward to working with them. We have no plans to change anything at the present time, and it will be business as usual at Stonerside. Sheikh Mohamed is delighted to have been given this opportunity. Stonerside have bred some great horses in the past, and we are confident it will continue to do so." Cont. p10-12

That caught the attention of trainer Bobby Frankel, who had saddled the colt's sire, Chilean champion Lido Palace, to victory in the GI Whitney H. and GI Woodward S. in 2001; Frankel, along with partners Louis Lazzinnaro and Diamond Pride LLC acquired the colt in a private transaction.

Shipped up to Saratoga, the grey colt got third in the four-horse GI Sanford S. won by Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}) in the slop July 24.

With his wire-to-window victory in the season's first Grade I race for juveniles, Vineyard Haven may be on the market once more. "I know we'll be getting some good offers, because he won like a really nice horse," Frankel added. "I think we'll keep him, but it depends. We'll play it by ear and enjoy this race. Maybe, we'll look at the [GI] Champagne [at Belmont Oct. 4]."

Stardom Bound was the highest-priced juvenile from Tapit's first crop at this year's in-training sales, and had a host of good works heading into her career bow over this surface July 20. Her connections' hopes were dashed when she broke in the air, but the grey filly closed powerfully to miss by just a nose in that 5 1/2-furlong affair (video). Trainer Chris Paasch took a pass on maidens thereafter and entered her in the 6 1/2-panel GIII Sorrento S. Aug. 6, but her late charge came up a length shy of Evita Argentina (Candy Ride {Arg}) (video). The third time was indeed the charm, however, as Stardom Bound did her best impression of Zenyatta. Content to caboose the field as longshot Palacio de Amor showed the way, the Cono colorbearer began to rev her engine heading into the turn. She came sweeping up on the outside whilst on her left lead, collared the pacesetter and shifted gears nicely once on her right lead. Stardom Bound was the first maiden to capture the Debutante since Cindy's Hero in 2000. "She was a little bit better coming out of the gate today," said jockey Mike Smith. "A little. And I didn't mind at all sitting back there--with her it's like being on the lead." He added, "She was picking those horses up in the stretch without even trying. She was on her wrong lead, but it didn't matter. The most amazing thing was, as we were pulling up, she started playing." Paasch added that her next start would likely be the GI Oak Leaf S. Sept. 27. Click for the brisnet.com chart, brisnet.com PPs or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

FIRST CROP COLTS

SENLIS won Italian 2,000 Guineas (Premio Parioli-Gr.3).

MAGADAN defeated Montmartre on debut, 3rd Grand Prix de Paris-Gr.1 and holds entries in the Prix Niel and the 'Arc'.

FIRST CROP FILLIES

UN Sung HEROINE won Give Thanks Stakes-Gr.3 on 8th Aug to remain unbeaten.

"Dark horse of the Leger is Unsung Heroine, unbeaten in two starts in Ireland. Connections have no doubt been encouraged by how the race has cut up and the form of both her victories has been franked" RACING POST, 27/08/08

"The further she went, the further she won and on this evidence, the High Chaparral filly looks on an upward curve and capable of picking up a Group race. She is still lightly raced and could develop into a smart filly next season"

It wasn't quite Da' Tara in the Belmont, but it wasn't bad. Trainer Nick Zito, who plundered that million-dollar race at big 38-1 odds, was back to his tricks for this seven-figure purse, sending out Anak Nakal to a 16-1 upset. Anak Nakal looked to be a promising juvenile last year after taking the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. in November, but he failed to hit the board in his next four, including a fifth in the Apr. 5 GI Wood Memorial and a seventh in the May 3 GI Kentucky Derby. He was eight lengths adrift of his stablemate when third in the Belmont June 7, but could do no better than fifth, beaten 13 lengths, in the GII Jim Dandy S. July 27. Disregarded here, Anak Nakal settled near the back of the 12-horse field as Two Step Salsa (Petionville) prompted Wishful Tomcat (Tactical Cat)'s pace. Those two packed it in as Acai forged to the front, but Anak Nakal was just getting going and came charging wide to be up in the dying strides. "We'd worked with this horse at Palm Meadows all winter long, and he always showed a lot of talent," said winning jockey Joe Bravo. "He's a big stud colt. He never really concentrates much, but he was concentrating today. When it comes to big races, Nick Zito gets 'em ready." Smooth Air, the tepid chalk at 4-1, loomed a threat in upper stretch before flattening out.

Hostess handed Mauralakana (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) a 1 1/4-length defeat in the GIII Orchid H. Mar. 30 at Gulfstream, but wound up third behind that divisional leader in her next two outings. Third by 3 1/2 lengths in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. May 24 at Belmont, the bay came up a half-length short to Mauralakana and Dynaforce (Dynaformer) in the GII New York H. at the New York oval June 21. Trainer Jim Bond considered running her in the GI Sword Dancer Invitational Aug. 16, but held her out due to Saratoga's copious rainfall. Jockey Rajiv Maragh allowed his mount to settle into stride in here fourth as Tejida (Rahy) showed the way in the early stages. With 1-2 Dynaforce coming up empty turning for home, Hostess hit the lead in front of the stands and held Palmilla at bay in record time for the inner turf. "I know we would have liked to take a shot against the colts, but this was a smart conservative way," said Bond. "Now, we'll probably go onto the [GI] Flower Bowl [at Belmont] or the [GI] Yellow Ribbon [at Oak Tree; both Sept. 27]--we'll have to see what the turf is like." Click for brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com PPs. The Niarchos family's Racing Manager Alan Cooper told PA Sport yesterday, "At the moment, it is quite possible he will run--the ground won't be firm in Ireland. A final decision will be made on Thursday, but I think Henry Cecil would like to run if conditions are suitable." Kevin Prendergast has left in the Iona Equine Syndicate's G3 Ballyroan S. scorer Mores Wells (GB) (Sadler's Wells). He told PA Sport, "We left him in the race and I will have a look at it later in the week and see how it looks. Obviously, it looks very hot, and I was planning to run him in the Irish St Leger a week later, but the owner pays the bills. He won nicely at Leopardstown last time over a mile and a half and was always travelling well. He has won over a mile and quarter a couple of times, though, and has plenty of pace, so the trip is not really a concern."

The race for the title of leading freshman sire heated up nicely two days ago. Firstly we saw Congaree become the first of this year's newcomers to sire three stakes winners, thanks to the G3 success of the Irish debutante Maoineach. Then Lion Heart matched Congaree's feat when Silent Valor took the Gill Sapling S., looking every inch a colt who will thrive as the distances lengthen.

Assessing new stallions has never been easy, the only certainty being that the vast majority of them will fail in the long-term. If pushed to make predictions about Congaree and Lion Heart at the end of 2005, I must admit I would have been more optimistic about Lion Heart.

Not that there was much fault to be found with Congaree's racing career. As a three-year-old he had limbered up for the Kentucky Derby with a trio of victories, the last gained at the main expense of Monarchos in the Gil Wood Memorial. He made a bold bid at Churchill Downs, holding a clear lead at the top of the stretch which he didn't relinquish until the final eighth. His third in the Derby was followed by another in the Preakness and a decisive victory in the GI Swaps S. No wonder the compilers of the International Classifications awarded him an official rating of 123, just seven pounds below Point Given.

Congaree maintained a similarly high level of form for the next two years, winning two editions of the GI Cigar Mile H. in addition to collecting other Grade I successes in the Carter H. over seven furlongs and the Hollywood Gold Cup over 1¼ miles. His second victory in the Cigar came on his 20th consecutive appearance in a graded stake, a statistic which paid ample testimony to Congaree's talent and toughness. He was also admirably versatile and boasted an imposing physique.

What more could one wish for? Well, for a start, one could have wished that he was NOT a son of Arazi, even though this brilliant performer had proved himself the best two-year-old in Europe by a margin of no less than eight pounds in 1991. Nothing proved capable of finishing closer than three lengths to Arazi in three Group 1 races in France, and the son of Blushing Groom was even more dazzling in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs, where he handed out a five-length beating to Bertrando. Cont. p8

Unfortunately, brilliant racehorses don't always develop into brilliant stallions and Arazi fell squarely into this category. He made such a slow start with his first runners in 1996 that he left Dalham Hall in England (his home for four years) for Three Chimneys in Kentucky. Then, when his stock generally continued to disappoint in 1997, he was sold to Japan.

As so often happens, Arazi's fortunes quickly took a turn for the better. Having failed to sire a group winner in his first two crops, Arazi came up with two in his third crop and three in his fourth. However, it wasn't until Congaree won the 2001 Swaps S. that he was finally represented by a Grade I winner.

Arazi's woes continued in Japan, to the extent that he topped up his frequent flyer points with a trip to Switzerland to stand at Gestut Sohrehof in 2003. He then shuttled between Switzerland and Australia for two years before settling permanently in Australia, where, as a 19-year-old, he is standing the 2008 season at only A$7,700. Remarkably, Congaree remains his only Grade I winner.

The limited success that Arazi did enjoy owed a lot to inbreeding to the great Northern Dancer. Arazi's first Group 2 winner, First Magnitude, was inbred 3x3, and so was Prairie Runner, his other group winner from his 1996 crop. Shibl, a Group 3 winner from his 1997 crop, was also inbred 3x3, while America, the Group 2 winner from this crop, was inbred 3x4. Congaree too is inbred 3x3, his dam Mari's Sheba being a daughter of Northern Dancer's son Mari's Book.

Mari's Book's racing record stood at three ordinary wins from 17 starts, but the Northern Dancer magic worked again to some extent, with several of his daughters shining as broodmares. Cont. p9

In addition to Congaree, daughters of Mari's Book have produced the siblings Ashado, Sunriver and Saint Stephen as well as Behrens and Palladio.

Congaree's dam Mari's Sheba was good enough to finish third in the GI Santa Anita Oaks and she had the distinction of being inbred 4x4 to the brilliant Ribot, her third dam being Ribot's Oaks winner Long Look.

Mari's Sheba and her '03 filly by Thunder Gulch, Mari's Thunder
stonerside.com

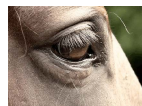

Even so, a horse by Arazi out of a Mari's Book mare surely represented a potentially hard sell as a stallion, and Congaree's prospects weren't helped by the fact that he showed little of his usual fire in two starts early in 2004. Stonerside quickly retired their old favorite, with his earnings standing in excess of $3.2 million, but it was too late for the 2004 season.

When Congaree finally made his debut at Adena Springs in 2005, his connections compensated for the Arazi factor by setting his fee no higher than $15,000, in a year when the highest-priced newcomers were Smarty Jones ($100,000), Speightstown ($40,000), Pleasantly Perfect ($40,000), Medaglia d'Oro ($35,000), Lion Heart ($30,000) and Strong Hope ($30,000).

The interesting link between Congaree's stakes winners is that all three have more Northern Dancer blood in the bottom half of their pedigree, supplied on each occasion partly by Danzig. Maoineach has a second dam by Storm Cat and a third dam by Danzig. Zigaree, winner of the Minstrel S. on turf at Louisiana Downs, is out of an unraced Danzig mare. And the third stakes winner, Congo Kaye, has an unraced Danzig mare as her second dam.

It is interesting that two of Congaree's stakes winners have scored on turf, as he finished only seventh on his single appearance on turf. Chances are that he is going to sire winners on all surfaces.

Maoineach, who cost $225,000 at Fasig-Tipton in Florida in February, has unraced mares as her first two dams, but her third dam, Dispute, proved herself one of Danzig's best daughters by winning four Grade I events, including the Kentucky Oaks. Dispute's brother Adjudicating was also very talented, collecting a pair of Grade I successes at two. This female line traces back to Misty Morn and Grey Flight, so it would be no surprise to see Jim Bolger's filly develop into another potential champion for the Irish maestro.

How did the deal for Darley to buy Stonerside unfold?
Well, we've had a good relationship with John Ferguson for years. We did foal shares with Dubai Millennium

(GB) and lots of other horses over the years. About 18 months ago, we sold the old Whitney property in Saratoga--Greentree--to Darley. The McNairs had been thinking about this for months and had gone back and forth on, if they were going to cut way back, how the best way was to do it. I made a suggestion that I would talk to John [Ferguson] while he was up in Saratoga and visit with him a little bit. Frankly, we were just exploring the idea, and had no idea it would move as quickly as it did. Basically, from the time I talked to him to the time we agreed on the sale, it was about three weeks.

MR. GREELEY'S CLASSIC FILLIES

Saoirse Abu at 2, winning the Phoenix S. (G1) over the undefeated colt Henrythenavigator, a dual-classic winner in 2008. Saoirse Abu won two Group 1's at two and was classic-placed in the 2008 English 1,000 Guineas. In the past 12 months, Mr. Greeley progeny have Won or Placed in Ten Grade 1 or Group 1 events.

Are there any Stonerside yearlings slated to sell at Keeneland September, and how will they be affected? We have some partnership yearlings that will sell--there are a couple of foal shares, and a couple we co-owned, having co-owned the dams, too. I think there are four or five, and they are still in the sale. But our interest will become Darley's interest. There's a colt by Tale of the Cat that's co-owned by Dr. Walter Zent and Tony Holmes who's a half-brother to (GISW) Dixie Chatter. There's also a Storm Cat colt out of Gossamer (Seattle Slew), which was a foal share we did.

Will all of the horses in training be Darley's as of Tuesday? They're going to be soon, but the deal's not actually closed yet. It's completely agreed to, but the lawyers have to work out their stuff--we expect the deal to be closed in the next 10 days to two weeks. We've got a horse running Wednesday in the GI Del Mar Futurity, Midshipman (Unbridled's Song), and he'll run in Stonerside's name and Stonerside's colors. As soon as we get everything buttoned up, we'll switch over to the Darley colors.

MR. GREELEY'S SALE TOPPERS

At the 2008 Tattersalls 2-Year-Old Craven Sale, this Mr. Greeley filly topped the sale at £540,000 ($1,111,860).

Last year at Saratoga, Mr. Greeley's yearling colt topped the sale at $2,200,000.

Watch for Mr. Greeley yearlings at Keeneland September.

Will Stonerside's current horses in training be moved to Darley's trainers? No, they'll stay with their current trainers. It was part of the deal that they stay with their trainers for at least a year--we've got about 10 different trainers.

And that includes the unraced two-year-olds? Yes. The only ones that might not be included are those that Sheikh Mohammed thinks are good enough to go to Dubai next winter. There also might be some two-year-olds that are at the training center that haven't yet gone to a trainer that they might want to send somewhere else, to one of their trainers.

Do you see Mr. McNair becoming involved in the racing side of the business again? Yeah, I think there's a chance, if we see a promising filly who's racing and we like her pedigree and record, that we'd buy one or two like that. We've had luck with that in the past. It's not a question of whether they love their horses--they love their horses, their beautiful farm, but Mr. McNair's children have other interests, and no one's really in tune with the Thoroughbred interests. We never thought it was going to become the large operation it is. But we're all proud of the fact that it's been an economic success and an artistic success. I hope the first Kentucky Derby winner Sheikh Mohammed has comes off Stonerside.

Personally, what's it mean to you? Will you stay on? I don't know for sure. John Ferguson and I have talked about possibly staying on as a consultant, but we haven't finalized anything yet. Frankly, I'm just happy the entire operation is going to stay together, and the people that have worked so hard in Kentucky and down in South Carolina will be taken care of. Obviously, the McNairs are going to take care of everybody. I think the main thing is it's going to stay as one entity. It's my understanding it will be called Darley at Stonerside.

Coming off a fourth in the July 9 Inside the Beltway S. in Elmont, he was let go at 9-1, but proved a gallant winner. Unhurried through the early going after getting checked at the start, Salute the Count rallied down the middle of the course to get the bob in a blanket finish. Jockey Ramon Dominguez and Natural Seven (Partner's Hero) cut out a half in :43.56 and still led at the eighth pole, but Dominguez dropped his whip late in the lane. # in sharper focus.

"I'm real tickled," trainer John Kimmel admitted after Premium Gold (Mineshaft) yesterday gave him his seventh consecutive win at Saratoga. Prior to the recent run, Kimmel had only saddled one winner at the Spa this season, but the hot streak was not a complete surprise. "I knew I had some horses sitting on good races, but you never know who you are going against; you don't know if your race is going," Kimmel said. "There were a couple of races that they had to go in open company when the New York-bred race didn't go. I just want the momentum to carry over."

Premium Gold disappointed in his last start, but Kimmel is expecting the $400,000 FTFEB juvenile to improve.

"He came out here and ran a great race," Kimmel said. "When I bought him, I was looking for a horse who could go a distance of ground. He didn't breeze the fastest, but he was well-bred and moved well."

"It took a while for him to come around, but we look forward to him being a good older horse." As for what is next for the colt, Kimmel added, "We're pretty open about where he might go next. We know he likes Poly[track] and two turns."

Kimmel also won yesterday's second race with Gem for Hook (Hook and Ladder), a homebred for Chester and Mary Broman. The filly bested state-bred maiden company. Kimmel trained the filly's sire, Hook and Ladder. "Hook and Ladder won the GII Gulfstream Park Sprint Championship, which was a pretty nice race that year," Kimmel recalled.

Kimmel's Saratoga Streak (with $2 win payoff):

- Premium Gold ($25.60), third race Monday.
- Gem for Hook ($4.40), second race Monday
- Remarkable Remy ($17.20), eighth race Sunday
- Freedom Bay ($20.20), seventh race Saturday
- Timber Reserve ($7.40), eighth race Friday
- Close Encounter ($9.40), sixth race Friday
- Doughdaddy ($4.70), fifth race Friday

Kimmel is already looking ahead. "We have some nice horses," the trainer said. "Hopefully, they stay healthy and we can keep the ball rolling. Perhaps we can come up with a horse or two for the Breeders' Cup."

+ LEADER OF THE LITE (f, 3, Lite the Fuse--Rosie Is a Leader, by Fit to Fight), a 6-1 chance in her career opener, had a horror of a trip and needed the help of the stewards to make it to the winner's circle. Always prominent after a sharp break, she had to steady off the heels of front-running Mrs. Holden (Western Expression) as they headed into the far turn and checked hard when that rival drifted out at the top of the lane. The filly shook off her troubles and dug in to take second by a neck. Mrs. Holden was 2 1/4 lengths in front at the wire, but was demoted to the runner-up spot, giving Leader of the Lite the victory. Albertus Maximus made a successful debut for the Vladimir Cerin barn with this first stakes success. The four-year-old looked poised for bigger and better things when runner-up in last summer's GIII Affirmed H. and GII Swaps BC S. in consecutive starts. He failed to build on the promise, however, and didn't find the winner's circle until four starts later, when he captured a Hollywood NW2X in April. Fourth in the May 31 GII Californian S., he was fifth in a NW3X when tried on the grass in Inglewood July 2, his final start for trainer Gary Mandella. Offered up at 6-1 odds here, Albertus Maximus relaxed in sixth off sensible fractions. Asked for his best turning for home, he rallied to catch Perfect Drift, who had rallied clear in the lane, and was drawing away late. The late-charging Add Heat nabbed place honors. ANNA PAVLOVA RETIRED

Anna Pavlova (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}--Wheeler's Wonder {Ire}, by Sure Blade) has been retired, trainer Richard Fahey announced yesterday. Last year's G2 Prix de Royallieu winner had added the G2 Lancashire Oaks to her tally last month, but connections have decided to call time on the career of the five-year-old, who could be sold at Tattersalls December. She retires as the winner of 10 of her 23 starts and over £380,000 in prizemoney.

NATIVE OUT OF CUP

John Mayne's Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil) will miss Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup after trainer John Best revealed that the sophomore has suffered a setback. The 2007 G1 Nunthorpe S. and 2008 G1 Golden Jubilee S. winner was fifth in the July 11 G1 Darley July Cup and most recently third in the Aug. 22 Nunthorpe. He is now set for a short spell on the sidelines. "He won't be running on Saturday as he is still slightly sore behind," Best said. "It is nothing major, but the horse needs to be 110 percent to be running and, at the moment, we can't say that is the case. The day after the July Cup, the horse was stiff, and he normally comes out of his races so well so we had a slight concern at that stage. To be honest, we thought it would have gone by now, and while he is almost completely better, he is not just right." The six-furlong sprint attracted a list of 22 at yesterday's five-day stage. As expected, Criquelette Head-Maarek has supplemented Khalid Abdullah's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest runner-up African Rose (GB) (Observatory). He is likely to face Michael Tabor, Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Joseph Allen's July Cup runner-up US Ranger (Danzig), one of a quartet of entries from Ballydoyle. Also entered is James Acheson's G1 King's Stand S. hero Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}). Trainer Jeremy Nosedá is watching the weather for last year's G2 Richmond S. winner Strike the Deal (Van Nistelrooy). "I just hope it doesn't rain too much, as he'd only run on good or faster ground," Nosedá said yesterday. "Someone told me that the forecast for the rest of this week is pretty poor, so it might be in jeopardy."

BAZALGETTE NEW HEAD OF JOCKEY CLUB

Simon Bazalgette has been confirmed as chief executive of Britain's Jockey Club from the start of this month. The former executive chairman of Racing UK and Racecourse Media Services will oversee the Club's racecourse portfolio and the group's commercial and media rights. "This is an exciting opportunity; the objective is to take The Jockey Club forward and enable it to fulfill its commercial potential, thereby further increasing its contribution to the sport," said Bazalgette.

SOLDIER MARCHES STRAIGHT TO LONGCHAMP

Aidan O'Brien yesterday told the Racing Post that Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will head to the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp without a prep. Not seen since finishing runner-up in the June 29 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Coronation Cup winner is set to avoid a clash with stable companion Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) in Saturday's G1 Tattersalls Million Irish Champion S. "Soldier of Fortune worked at the weekend," O'Brien told the trade daily. "Everything went well and the plan is for him to go for the Arc without a prep race."

WEEKEND REVIEW, by Christa Riebel

It is the most coveted prize in German racing. The 'Golden Whip,' which has the names of all the previous winners engraved on it, was in the grip of the Hungarian connections of Overdose (GB) (Starborough {GB}) after the G2 Golden Pietsche at Baden-Baden Sunday (see Monday's TDN). Returning to Germany after winning the G3 Holsten Trophy at Hamburg last month, the three-year-old colt is now the unbeaten winner of 10 races, and his jockey Andreas Suborics later paid tribute. "I've not sat on such a fast horse before--he is amazing," Suborics said. The plan now is to run at Longchamp in either the Oct. 4 G1 Prix de la Foret or Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye, with next year's G1 July Cup on the agenda.

Baden-Baden's Summer Racing Festival began on Saturday with the G3 Preis der Badischen Sparkassen Finanzgruppe as the main event on the card, and it was garnered by Stall Reni's Prince Flori (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) (see Sunday's TDN). Gestut Schlenderhan's sire Tertullian sired his second stakes winner this month when his three-year-old son Idolino (Ger) landed the Listed Preis des Casino Baden-Baden on Sunday (see Monday's TDN). Tertullian won five group races over sprinting distances, and shares Miswaki as a sire with his close relative Urban Sea. Interestingly, his other stakes winner, the two-year-old filly Illiana (Ger), is trained in Hungary like Overdose.

Saturday's big auction race for two-year-olds may have witnessed a potentially smart filly in the making as Stall Salzburg's Night Magic (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}) recorded a second success in the valuable prize (see Monday's TDN). Out of Night Woman (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), she had to defy top weight and could now be aimed at the Oct. 26 G3 Preis der Winterkonigin, also at Baden-Baden.
