THREE CHIMNEYS
The Idea is Excellence.
75% of SMARTY JONES
Winners Won Their Career Debut

CURLIN TO GOLD CUP

Stonestreet Farms announced today that Curlin (Smart Strike) will defend his title in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park on Saturday, Sept. 27. "The Jockey Club Gold Cup was selected for Curlin in order to continue his legacy as one of America's greatest Thoroughbreds," Jess Jackson, majority owner of Curlin, said in a press release. "We are steering Curlin toward all the renowned competitions, and certainly the Jockey Club Gold Cup is one of America's most prestigious races. In the past, many of America's top Thoroughbreds sealed their honors by competing in this race.

Horsephotos

Also, this contest is in New York State, where Curlin has seen much success and received an outpouring of support. Both factors weighed heavily in favor of our decision to compete again at Belmont." Curlin beat Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) in a thrilling renewal of last year's Gold Cup. Last Saturday, Curlin notched his sixth Grade I tally in the Woodward S. at Saratoga, which moved him into second place behind two-time Horse of the Year Cigar as racing's all-time leading earner in North America. Cigar's career earnings totaled $9,999,815. Curlin's current earnings total is $9,796,800.

DUKE PARTICIPATION HINGES ON GROUND

Tomorrow's G1 Tattersalls Millions Irish Champion S. could be without Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) if Leopardstown gets a drenching in the preceding hours. While Clerk of the Course Joe Collins reported "perfect" good ground at the Dublin venue yesterday, he is aware that there is a threat of significant rain. "We've had no rain of any consequence in the last couple of days, but tomorrow there is about 20-25 millimetres of rain forecast to Saturday morning," he said. "I walked the track yesterday morning and it was beautiful, perfectly good ground, so I see no reason why the track wouldn't be able to handle that amount of rain." Aidan O'Brien is keen to avoid a slog for Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's five-time Group 1 winner and told the Independent newspaper, "Everything is fine with the Duke and the plan at the moment is to run at Leopardstown. The situation is exactly as it has been all week. The things we have to consider are the ground and his recovery time since his last run. The ground will come into it; if it is too soft, it might be too much of a test so soon after Newmarket. We'll hope to clear him tomorrow morning. But with the weather as it is, we'll be playing everything by ear."

STREET BOSS TO DARLEY

Bruce Headley, Marsha Naify and Simon Yu's multiple Grade I winner Street Boss (Street Cry {Ire})--Blushing Ogygian, by Ogygian) will retire to Darley in Lexington upon the conclusion of his racing career. The four-year-old has won six of seven starts this term, including the GI Bing Crosby H. and GI Triple Bend Invitational H. Street Boss set the six-furlong track record of 1:07.55 at Del Mar in the Bing Crosby and also set the six-furlong mark at Hollywood, winning the GIII Los Angeles H. in 1:08.67. "Street Boss is a multiple record-breaking, multiple Group 1-winning son of the most exciting young stallion in America," commented Charlie Boden, head of nominations at Darley America. "We're obviously partial to [Darley stallion] Street Cry, and Street Boss truly shows the diversity of his sire's progeny. What's more, he's a gorgeous-looking horse. Mr. Headley has done a great job with him and we're very excited that Street Boss will be joining the roster at Darley." On the board in nine of 11 starts to date, Street Boss has seven wins and earnings of $581,800.

SAMUM DUO LIGHT UP BADEN-BADEN

Gestut Karlshof's Samum (Ger) has enjoyed a successful season so far thanks to the exploits of flag-bearers Kamsin (Ger) and Baila Me (Ger), and it was a full brother and full sister to that high-class pair who dominated proceedings at the BBAG Yearling Sale yesterday. The full-sibling to the G2 Diana-Trial scorer and G1 Preis der Diana third-place finisher Baila Me provided the main focus when selling to the active agency Blandford Bloodstock for €250,000. Consigned by Karlshof as hip 161, the March-foaled filly named Be Fabulous (Ger) is also a half to the dual listed scorer and multiple Group-placed performer Bailamos (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}).

"True to form, his progeny have starred in top events around the globe"

- TBH MarketWatch 8/22/08

KIP DEVILLE MORNING LINE FAVORITE FOR MILE

Kip Deville (Kipling), winner of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile, was assigned post four when the field was drawn yesterday for Sunday's GI Woodbine Mile S. The gray was installed the 6-5 morning-line favorite to improve on his runner-up effort in last year's Woodbine Mile and has been unbeaten in three starts since. "He's been doing great since [the Woodbine Mile] last year," said trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. "He's just been in a zone of his own. He's incredible. He's doing unbelievable. I'm just really excited about being able to watch him run again." Juddmonte Farms' Ventura (Chester House) is the 4-1 second choice in her attempt to become the first female to win the Woodbine Mile. "I've had five Eclipse Award-winning fillies, but I'd rate [Ventura] pretty good," trainer Bobby Frankel said of the four-year-old who has already won this year's GI Just a Game S. and GII Vinery Madison S. "We'll see how she does in this race [before planning her next start]," he added. The local contingent is headed by Just Rushing (Wild Rush) at 5-1 on the morning line. The seven-year-old gelding is coming off a win in the Aug. 23 GII Play the King S. "It's a good draw...number three, close to the rail," said trainer Sid Attard. "It looks like he's the only speed, so we'll see."

(Cont. from p1)

Jurgen Albrecht prevailed with a bid of €220,000 for Blandford Bloodstock's hip 204, a full brother to this year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Kamsin (Ger), who has also been awarded last month's G1 Rheinland-Pokal due to the disqualification of Oriental Tiger (Ger). Named Kings Messenger (Ger), he will race in the colors of Russian owner Rashit Shaykhutdinov and is likely to be trained by Andreas Wohler.

Blandford Blitz...

Tom Goff and Richard Brown's Blandford Bloodstock have become a regular force at this sale and yesterday's session saw the operation strike for a number of high-profile yearlings. Following their purchase of the Samum filly, they swooped for Ronald Rauscher's hip 221, a daughter of Darley's red-hot Dubawi (Ire) who is a half to the listed-placed Goblet of Fire (Green Desert). Her dam, who was also listed-placed, is a half to the 2000 G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Love Divine (GB), later the dam of the 2006 G1 St Leger hero Sixties Icon (GB). She provided Rauscher with a profit on the 90,000 guineas he paid for her at Tattersalls December. Blandford also signed the docket for Gestut Brummerhof's hip 254, a son of Monsun (Ger) whose half-sister Quila (Ire) (Unfuwain) is the dam of Quijano (Ger). The international exploits of that gelding ensured that the May-foaled colt named Quitao (Ger) would be hot property and it took a bid of €150,000 to see off the opposition. Twenty lots earlier, the agency had paid €100,000 for Gestut Auenquelle's hip 234, a March-foaled son of Big Shuffle named Molly Mambo (Ger). He is a full brother to the 2006 G3 Alice-Cup winner Molly Art (Ger) and that year's G3 Preis der Winterfavoriten scorer Molly Max (Ger). Goff revealed that his purchases may be offered for re-sale. Cont. p3

Just One for Shadwell...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation was responsible for a single purchase 12 months ago and it was the same story again yesterday as Tom Goff signed for the sole offering by stallion Nayef on their behalf. Consigned by Brummerhof as hip 338, the March-foaled colt named Kayef (Ger) hails from an Aga Khan family and his group-winning second dam Kassana (Ire) was responsible for the 2006 G1 Irish St Leger heroine and G1 Hong Kong Vase runner-up Kastoria (Ire). From the extended family of Kahyasi (Ire), he fetched €200,000. Jurgen Albrecht, who bought the session topper, also paid €180,000 for a daughter of Monsun consigned by Gestut Fahrhof Stiftung. Hip 212 is out of the 2004 G1 Preis der Diana fourth La Hermana (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), whose page includes Lomitas (GB). IVA's Roger Alles later paid €100,000 for the von Stauffenberg's hip 269, a filly by Soviet Star named She is Madonna (Ger). Her second dam is the GIII Pucker Up S. winner Sum, whose progeny include the smart Add the Gold and the dams of the 2006 G3 Chairmans Trophy winner and last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup fourth Art Trader and this year's G3 Grand Prix de Vichy scorer Hapsburg (Fr).

Bad Timing...

With the average of €28,469 and median of €30,229 down by 22 percent and 24 percent respectively on the record-breaking year of 2007, the hierarchy at BBAG were taking a downbeat stance on the two days of trading. Managing Director Carola Ortlieb commented, "The structural reform [of German racing] has been proposed, but sadly too late for this sale. Vendors at the top level were pleased and very pleasing also was the strong foreign interest, with England and Russia being very active this year. We all hope that we have reached the very bottom and things will improve from now." Full results are available on www.bbag-sales.de.

Trainer Pat Flynn is hoping that the B & M Syndicate's She's Our Mark (GB) can hold her own and reward a bold decision to take on the big guns with last year's G3 Desmond S. winner. "I think this trip suits her and while there are Duke of Marmalade and New Approach in there, we will be trying to win the race if we can--we are not just going for the day out. They have four legs and our filly has four legs and she is in good form so we will see."

SIRIUS RADIO TO PRESENT LIVE COVERAGE OF MONMOUTH S. The Sept. 13 Monmouth S., which is expected to serve as the next start for Big Brown (Boundary), will be offered live on Sirius Satellite radio from Monmouth Park and will be sponsored by Three Chimneys Farm. The program will be aired on Channel 127 from 5-6 p.m. and will be hosted by Sirius's Down the Stretch team, including Dave Johnson and Bill Finley. The one-hour show will feature live coverage of the race, analysis and interviews with the Big Brown team. "Our goal at Down the Stretch has always been to broadcast the sport's most important races and any race that Big Brown is in certainly qualifies," said executive producer Ed Pappas. "Three Chimneys was nice enough to step in and sponsor this special broadcast, which was not part of our original schedule. Without their help it would not have been possible to cover this race. We anticipate a large audience made up of racing fans and potential new racing fans lured to our broadcast by this very special horse."

LAVA MAN TO RETIRE TO OLD FRIENDS Three-time GI Hollywood Gold Cup winner Lava Man (Slew City Slew), who was retired from racing in July, will spend his retirement at Old Friends, the Thoroughbred retirement facility based in Georgetown, Kentucky. The seven-year-old gelding is expected to arrive at the 92-acre Dream Chase Farm Sept. 16. During six seasons at the track, Lava Man won 20 of 46 starts and earned $5,268,706. An event celebrating his arrival at the farm, which is also home to Sunshine Forever, Ogygian, Ruhlmann and Special Ring, is scheduled for Oct. 7. "The attention and notice a superstar like Lava Man brings to our organization is multi-fold," explained Old Friends founder and president Michael Blowen. "It's the champions that attract tourism and donations; in turn that helps us care for the many geldings and mares we have also retired that are not bold-type. We're really looking forward to meeting Lava Man's many admirers here at the farm."

THE JOCKEY CLUB ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

The Jockey Club has announced the election of four new members: Dr. Rick Arthur, B. Wayne Hughes, Warren "Spud" Williamson and Peter Willmott. Arthur is the equine medical director for both the California Horse Racing Board and the School of Veterinary Medicine at the University of California, Davis. He is a member of the board of directors of Oak Tree Racing Association and Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and serves as secretary of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium. Hughes owns Spendthrift Farm and serves on the board of directors of Breeders' Cup Ltd. Williamson, who breeds under Williamson Racing LLC, serves on the board of directors of Oak Tree Racing Association. Willmott is treasurer of TOBA and serves on that organization's board of trustees and as chairman of TOBA's American Graded Stakes Committee. He breeds and races under the Willmott Stables banner.

HR/TVG VENTANA (Toccet) realized the top price for a juvenile by his sire this year, drawing a $410,000 final bid at the Barretts March sale. Debuting for Bob Baffert and Michael Pegram et al, the bay has been training forwardly of late, including a four-furlong move in :48 3/5 at the Spa Sept. 1. Phipps homebred Conservative (Unbridled's Song), out of GISW Oh What a Windfall, has been breezing steadily and gets the services of Edgar Prado here. Celestial Diamond (Malibu Moon), a $700,000 FTFEB purchase, tired to fifth first time out at the Spa Aug. 13, but should be better off for the effort this time. Trained by the Spa's leading trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, the dark bay will be piloted by Alan Garcia, who led the jockey ranks at the recently concluded Saratoga meeting. brisnet.com PPs

CARMA Kick-Off Raises $100,000:

The newly formed California Retirement Management Account (CARMA) raised over $100,000 for retired racehorses at its first public event Aug. 21. The event, held at the Del Mar Hilton, was attended by more than 300 owners, trainers, jockeys and fans and included a silent auction and charity poker tournament. "So many people donated items for the auction, and we had more than a dozen people assisting throughout the day and evening," said Madeline Auerbach, chairman of the non-profit organization. "They were instrumental in making the evening a success and CARMA can't thank them enough." All CARMA donations will be used to help care for retired racehorses who have raced in California. Facilities that care for retired racehorses must apply for funding on an annual basis. The group's first grants will be awarded in 2009. Tax deductible donations may be sent to CARMA, P.O. Box 1086, Sierra Madre, CA 91025.

PRIMO DOMINIE DEAD AT 26 Primo Dominie (GB) (Dominion {GB}--Swan Ann {GB}, by My Swanee {GB}), a top juvenile of 1984 who reeled off victories in the G3 Coventry S., G3 July S. and G2 Richmond S., has been euthanized due to infirmities of old age at 26. The G1 King's Stand S. runner-up retired to Cheveley Park Stud at the end of his racing career, where he sired Group 1 winners First Trump (GB) and Primo Valentino (Ire). Managing Director Chris Richardson said, "Primo Dominie has been a delight to have around. He was a commercial stud's dream being a very fertile stallion with a proven ability to get precocious types. He will be greatly missed."

Serious Attitude impressed when slamming the opposition by five lengths at Windsor on debut Aug. 7 and followed up with another decisive score to secure a first black-type badge here. Handily placed along the rail through the early stages, she was pushed to the front at the eighth pole and was ridden clear of the pack thereafter to register a cozy win. "She is not a typical Mtoto, as she has plenty of speed, and we have always thought she is a nice filly," trainer Rae Guest told PA Sport. "She doesn't look like a sprinter and will get further next year. She has now won a listed race and beaten horses who have ran in group races. She is still in the Tattersalls Sales race [at Newmarket Oct. 4] and we'll see how we go between now and then, but she does pick up a six-pound penalty for this win."
