LEGENDS BACK IN BUSINESS AT KEESEP

After buying 28 horses over the course of the first seven days of trade at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington, the collective forces of Legends Racing took a breather from bidding on Tuesday and did not sign a ticket. But the team was back at work Wednesday at Keeneland, going to a session-topping $400,000 for a filly by Tiznow out of Katz Me If You Can (Storm Cat). The dark bay was consigned by Reiley McDonald and Tom Van Meter's Eaton Sales agency on behalf of Overbrook Farm, who bred and raced Katz Me If You Can to victories in the GII Genuine Risk H. at Belmont Park and the GIII Thoroughbred Club of America S. just up the hill at Keeneland. Ironically, Katz Me If You Can, a daughter of GI Hollywood Starlet victress Cuddles from the distinguished Overbrook family of Seaside Attraction, her champion Golden Attraction, Cape Town and Cape Canaveral, was conditioned for Overbrook by D. Wayne Lukas, one of the three trainers that will be employed to train Legends's purchases. "Wayne has a definite partiality to good horses he trained and I am sure she was memorable to him," commented Overbrook's Ric Waldman, who said the result was a pleasant surprise. "No," he said when asked if they'd appraised her near yesterday's hammer price. "But closer to the sale when we saw the action on her, we knew she'd sell well. But you never know how well they'll sell until you put them on the auction block. We were fortunate that she was well-spaced in the session and that she was such a standout this deep into the sale. It shows that there's still good money for a good, well-bred horse." KEESEP cont. p2

GRAND LOOKING FIRST-CROP YEARLINGS

Tiznow On a Tear...

WinStar stallion Tiznow has had a tremendous year at the races in 2008 and ranks second only to Smart Strike on the leading sires listing. He has been represented by 10 stakes winners, including GISWs Colonel John, Classic hero Da' Tara and Tough Tiz's Sis. Retired to stud following his repeat success in the 2001 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, Tiznow sired a champion from his very first crop when the D. Wayne Lukas-trained Folklore completed her two-year-old season with a score in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Belmont Park. She was produced by the Storm Cat mare Contrive, and yesterday's topper can boast of being produced on the same cross. Waldman explained the decision to visit Tiznow.

"Largely, we think a lot of him and the mare needed some size," he stated. "Tiznow is a good-sized horse and he breeds a good-sized horse. There's a good deal of consistency that you see with his yearlings. The mare is close to Storm Cat and Mr. Prospector and Tiznow is void of Mr. Prospector and the Northern Dancer in his pedigree is far enough back. It's as close to an outcross as one can get these days and it served our purpose with the size. So we let it rip."

The dam of a colt by Unbridled's Song for 2008, Katz Me If You Can was bred to Bernardini for the current season.

Fillies Lead the Way Again...

The fairer sex accounted for four of Tuesday's top five offerings and the top two slots were also filled by fillies during yesterday's session. Bidding on behalf of Blandford Bloodstock, Richard Brown went to $250,000 for a filly by Songandaprayer--Forty Gran (El Gran Senor) from the consignment of Anderson Farms, acting as agent for the filly's breeder, David Wilmot's Windhaven Farms. "She was beautifully balanced and really stood out today for filly that could suit Europe," Brown offered. "Her half-brother is pretty decent two-year-old in England. The mare was a stakes performer and she produced a good horse." Windhaven purchased Forty Gran for $245,000 out of the 2001 Keeneland January sale and the mare has done nicely at stud, producing the stakes-placed Reverently to the cover of Pulpit, but it is her current juvenile, Square Eddie (Smart Strike), who is livening up the page. A maiden winner at Salisbury July 22, the colt was most recently runner-up by a head in the G3 Sirenia S. at Kempton Sept. 6. Brown indicated that his purchase would go into quarantine in preparation for her transfer to England. Brown, who was acting on behalf of some "established clients who wish to remain anonymous," was not certain who would train the filly.

Another Steep Day of Losses on the Street...

For the second time in three days, Wall Street endured a loss of over 440 points, casting a pall over the proceedings at Keeneland. Still, there were a pair of marquee sales, much to the pleasure of Keeneland officials. "Like in any market, there is plenty of money for special items and horses that stand out, as was proven today with a $400,000 horse and a $250,000 horse," said Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "But I think the market has performed just about where we thought it would be," he continued. "Going in, we knew that the latter part would be more difficult than the early part because the economic part is harder on those people than the others. We have six more days to go and it'll be getting a little tighter and tougher." Commenting on the 'contribution' made by Legends Racing to this point, Russell added, "Any time you have a new, major player in the industry, it gives it a great boost. They've been very busy, both as buyers and as under-bidders. They haven't bought everything they've bid on, so they've been great assets to the sale from start to finish." The fledgling operation has accounted for just over $12 million in gross receipts. Only John Ferguson for Sheikh Mohammed ($18,185,000) and Shadwell ($14,115,000) have spent more.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

CHURCHILL, KEMPTON OFFER KENTUCKY DERBY CHALLENGE Churchill Downs and Kempton Park Racecourse have joined forces to create a nine-furlong race at Kempton which will reward the winner with an automatic berth in the 2009 GI Kentucky Derby. The $150,000 Kentucky Derby Challenge S. will be run clockwise over Kempton's Polytrack next Mar. 18. The winner will also receive a $100,000 bonus if the horse competes in the Kentucky Derby. The race is designed to encourage international participation in the Kentucky Derby, which has not had a foreign-based entrant since 2002. Venezuela-based Canonero II is the only non-North American horse to capture the roses when he upset the field in 1971. "The Kentucky Derby is naturally a compelling and exciting event, but the presence of international contenders always adds to the anticipation and intrigue surrounding America's greatest race," said Steve Sexton, president of Churchill Downs and executive vice president of Churchill Downs Incorporated. "It has been wonderful to work with Kempton Park and officials of its owning body, Britain's Jockey Club Racecourses, in this innovative effort to encourage the presence of an international competitor in the starting gate at Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May. A consistent international presence in the Derby will strengthen worldwide interest in our race and, in the long term, boost demand for the event as we work to expand distribution of Kentucky Derby wagering opportunities into new international markets." Churchill will provide $90,000 of the KDCS purse and Kempton will contribute $60,000. Churchill Downs will offer the $100,000 bonus.

RAHY'S ATTORNEY TO MISS BC MILE Rahy's Attorney (Crown Attorney) won the Sept. 7 GI Woodbine Mile, thus guaranteeing him a berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Oct. 25. However, the four-year-old will not be making the trip to Santa Anita, according to trainer Ian Black. "It would just cost too much," Black told Daily Racing Form. The Canadian-based trainer cited the $180,000 supplementary fee and the associated costs of the trip as the reason for the decision. Black indicated that Rahy's Attorney will make his next start in the GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland Oct. 4.

The half-brother to Media Play (Alphabet Soup), SW, $115,085, didn't face the starter again until Aug. 2, when he stumbled and finished seventh in a Saratoga allowance. The chestnut rebounded with a narrow decision 14 days later going seven panels at the Spa, and was the 8-5 choice while going a bit further this time. Perfectly positioned in fourth behind a solid pace, he took to the outside on the sweeping turn as Goldsville (Successful Appeal) got shut off on the rail. National Pride took aim at On Board Again (Awesome Again) in the lane and gradually wore that rival down to win by a neck. EXPANSION (c, 3, Maria's Mon--La Sylphide {Swi} {GSW-Fr}, by Baratheia {Ire}), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling, showed vast improvement when switched to the turf in his third and final outing for Barclay Tagg, finishing second in a Gulfstream maiden Mar. 31. The bay colt ran third in his next start at Belmont June 28 and came into this contest off a half-length second going 11 panels at Saratoga Aug. 6. Bet down to 4-5 here, Expansion cabooseed the field in the early stages, angled out turning for home and mowed down his rivals to prevail by a half-length. Runner-up Inquisitive (Giant's Causeway) had a neck on All Together (Danzig) at the wire. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-1, $47,520. O-Gary L & Mary E West. SCOOTIN SCOOTER (c, 2, Saarland--Sarah's a Winner, by Cormorant) showed some speed before fading to sixth in his career bow Aug. 17 over track and trip. Ignored at 33-1 this time, the bay saved ground in fifth, came out for running room in front of the stands and just got up to deny Kentucky Holiday (Harlan's Holiday) by a nose. The half-brother to Smokin Sarah (Smokin Mel), MSP, $193,847, marks the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by Unbridled). Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $16,520. Gambolati Mulls Options for A.P. Cardinal:

Trainer Cam Gambolati is mulling over his options for A.P. Cardinal (A.P. Indy), a son of MGSW Smok'n Frolic (Smoke Glacken), who won his first career start by three lengths as the 1-5 favorite at Monmouth Park Sept. 14 (video). The gray colt is the first produce of Smok'n Frolic, a six-time graded stakes winner of over $1.5 million who was purchased by Frank Stronach for $1.25 million out of the 2004 Keeneland November sale. A.P. Cardinal was hammered down to Ol' Memorial Stable and Charles Glasscock for $380,000 at this year's Adena Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training and took Sunday's six-furlong race in wire-to-wire fashion. "I won't sprint him again," Gambolati confirmed. "And I'm not going to throw him to the wolves. I'll look for a two-turn allowance race for his next start. We'll see how that goes and then start making plans."

Catalano Appealing Futurity DQ:

Arlington Park's leading trainer Wayne Catalano, who is also the co-breeder and co-owner of Jose Adan (Crypto Star), first but placed third in last weekend's GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity S., has filed an official appeal with the Illinois Racing Board. Catalano contends that the alleged interference caused by Jose Adan did not affect the original third-place finisher Terrain (Sky Mesa), who crossed the line third, but was moved up to the victory on a double disqualification. "I've watched it 100 times," Catalano told Daily Racing Form. "It didn't cost [Terrain] a placing." The conditioner isn't quite sure where the Illinois-bred might show up next. "He came out of it excellent, ice cold, perfect," Catalano told DRF. "I'm going to sit tight with him right now--I don't know what I'm going to do with him yet."

CHRB Creates Special Claiming Rule:

The California Horse Racing Board will begin implementing a rule which will allow horses returning from a layoff of six months or longer to be entered in a claiming race from which they will not be eligible to be claimed. The one-time exemption is designed to encourage owners to give horses time off as needed. As proposed by the Thoroughbred Owners of California, the horse will have to be entered for a claiming price equal to or greater than the price at which it last started and must have been away from the races for at least 180 days. "We would like to have horses have the opportunity to be rested, lengthening their career," said TOC Director Tom Bachman in testimony before the CHRB. "It is to the owner's advantage to be able to bring that horse back and run one time [and] not have to worry about somebody claiming the horse and taking advantage of the time and money spent in the rehab of the horse. It's as simple as that." Horses entered for the non-claiming option will be identified in the official track program. Equibase is also taking measures to indicate which horses are ineligible to be claimed.

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

COMMITTEES CONSIDER RACING LEGISLATION

The House Judiciary Committee is expected to mark up H.R. 6598, the Prevention of Equine Cruelty Act of 2008. The bill seeks to eliminate horse slaughter through criminal penalties for "whoever knowingly possess, ships, transports, purchases, sells, delivers, or receives ... any horse with the intent that it is to be slaughtered for human consumption." The bill would require the Attorney General to provide for the humane placement or other humane disposition of any horse seized in connection with an offense.

By a vote of 30 to 19, the House Financial Services Committee on Tuesday passed H.R. 6870, the Payments System Protection Act of 2008. The bill would halt the process of developing regulations to support the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA), passed in 2006. UIGEA prohibits the use of credit instruments for online betting, except pari-mutuel wagering on horseracing. Sports leagues, which support UIGEA, are opposed to the legislation. The current bill contains specific protections for the horseracing industry.

Benoit Memorial Set for October 16:

A tribute to longtime racing executive and publicist Bob Benoit will be held Thursday, Oct. 16 at Santa Anita Park. The Oak Tree Racing Association is sponsoring the event, which will take place in Santa Anita's Turf Club Chandelier Room. Benoit, who passed away Aug. 15 at the age of 81, became the chief operating officer and general manager at Hollywood Park in 1977, then formed his own public relations firm, Benoit and Associates, in 1980. That firm became the official track photographer at Santa Anita in 1991 and now serves in that role for all the major tracks in Southern California. Benoit's photography business will be continued by his partners Rayetta Burr and Tom Abahazy.

Headley Stakes Trio Breeze on Pro-Ride:

A Bruce Headley-trained threesome of talented stakes performers hit the Santa Anita synthetic surface Wednesday morning for workouts. Prepping for the GI Ancient Title S. Sept. 28, leading sprinter Street Boss (Street Cry {Ire}) went five-eighths of a mile in :59.80. Surf Cat (Sir Cat) covered six furlongs in 1:10.20 as he gets ready for a start in the GI Goodwood S. the same afternoon. Magnificence (Stormy Atlantic), tuning up for the Pine Tree Lane S. Sept. 28, breezed three-quarters of a mile in 1:12 flat. "They hit their marks perfectly," said Headley's daughter Karen, who is attending the Keeneland sales.

Jockey Colony That Much More Competitive:

The riding colony for the Oak Tree meeting just got a little bit deeper and a lot more talented. Veteran reinsman Rene Douglas, who will be the leading rider by a long way at the Arlington Park stand, will be on hand for the opening day of Oak Tree and will ride the entire meet. He will be represented by Tom Knust, who also books mounts for Luis Contreras. Canadian Chantal Sutherland, who rode 16 winners at Santa Anita last winter, will return to Southern California for the bulk of the meet. "She'll ride here that first week," said her agent Tommy Ball, who also represents Brice Blanc. "But she'll return to Woodbine that weekend for stakes commitments, then return to ride out the Oak Tree meet. She's excited and can't wait to get back. When she left [last spring], she was riding for new clients she hadn't ridden for and they seem enthusiastic about putting her on horses."

Around the Ovals:

Trainer Richard Mandella is hoping to have two of his top sophomores ready to race on Breeders' Cup weekend, if not in the championship events themselves. B. Wayne Hughes's Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday), last year's GI CashCall Futurity hero, is currently being pointed for a start in the $100,000 Damascus S. on the Breeders' Cup undercard. Runner-up in the GII San Vicente S. in February, he has been sidelined since with foot problems, but has been working well on the come-back trail. Dixie Chatter (Dixie Union), who made a successful transition to the turf in the July 16 Ocean-side S. at Del Mar, is expected to resurface in the GII Oak Tree Derby on the grass Oct. 25.

Maryland Racing Commission Bans Steroids:

Following a unanimous vote, the Maryland Racing Commission approved the ban of anabolic steroids in racehorses, beginning Jan. 1, 2009. The MRC decided to move ahead with the ban after research conducted by Dr. George Maylin, the head of drug testing and research program at Cornell University, failed to produce results of ongoing blood plasma-based research. The ban will cover stanozolol, nandrolone, boldenone and testosterone, and the commission will follow the guidelines developed by the racing Medication and Testing Consortium. The commission did not establish what the penalties would be for the violation of the new rule, but is expected to do so before the ban takes affect in January. Neighboring states to have already adopted the ban includes Kentucky, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

ARC STILL POSSIBLE FOR SEPTIMUS Aidan O'Brien has refused to rule out a tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe for Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), despite the five-year-old entering quarantine at Ballydoyle. While the Nov. 4 G1 Melbourne Cup remains the main aim for Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish St Leger hero, testing ground at Longchamp could see him switched to the Oct. 5 feature. "Septimus, Alessandro Volta (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Honolulu (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) are going into quarantine to go to Australia, but there is a chance that Septimus could come out of quarantine if the Arc was going to come up on the soft side or slow side," the Ballydoyle conditioner told PA Sport. "We're looking at Great Leighs with Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), but it's possible he could miss that race and go straight to the Arc if there was a chance he was going to get nice ground. The plan is for Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to go straight to the Arc and Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is going to the [Oct. 4 G1 Prix du] Cadran."

Lining up off a sixth in the Aug. 22 G1 Yorkshire Oaks at Newmarket, she led throughout this and comfortably asserted under a final-quarter drive to register a first stakes success. "I was delighted for her owners, who also bred her, and it was a super ride by Alan [Munro]," trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam told PA Sport. "I begged the owners not to run her in the Ribblesdale as I'd got her ready for the Oaks, and it took a long time for her to come back. She's a mile-and-a-quarter filly and, hopefully, we can pick up a Group 3 with her. We might have to go abroad as I don't think there's anything here."

 ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Delegator (GB) on debut at Newmarket Aug. 8 and earned the accolade in his own right with a stirring display in this, despite still exhibiting signs of inexperience. Racing keenly through the early stages of this second go, the 1-2 favorite was caught in a pocket, all dressed up with nowhere to go passing the quarter-mile marker. Angled outside and into the clear approaching the final furlong, he settled the contest in a matter of strides with a telling burst of acceleration and coasted to the line in hand to comfortably best Rileskeepingfaith (GB) (Hunting Lion {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. "He needs to learn to settle, but he's going the right way and he came through quite nicely in the end to score well," said winning rider Tom Queally. Regarding future plans, racing manager Lord Grimthorpe added, "The G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket [Oct. 18] will feature in our plans, although he might run again beforehand at the Cambridgeshire meeting."
