'APPEALING' LONGSHOT IN SUPER DERBY

Conditioner Tom Amoss has enjoyed plenty of success in his native Louisiana throughout his 21-year training career. The Louisiana State University graduate, who saddled the top three finishers in three different stakes races at Louisiana Downs in the 1990s, has stood atop the Fair Grounds trainer standings eight times and was inducted into that racetrack's Hall of Fame in 1999. Amoss can continue to add to his legacy in the Pelican State with a big effort from Roulette Racing's Real Appeal (Successful Appeal) in Saturday's GII Super Derby at Louisiana Downs.

"For about 10 years I trained in Shreveport over the summer and both of my kids [daughters Ashley and Hayley] were born there, so I'm very familiar with Shreveport and have a lot of ties to the area," said Amoss, who currently trains a string of 50 based out of Churchill Downs and Arlington Park. "The Super Derby is their signature race and it would be great to win it. I'm going to be down there and it should be a lot of fun."

Real Appeal stamped himself as one to watch for trainer Anthony Reinstedler during his juvenile season after finishing a creditable fourth behind subsequent GII Pennsylvania Derby hero Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop) in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 24. The gray, sent off as the longest shot on the board that day at 33-1, raced toward the back after breaking in the air, but showed plenty of interest in the stretch, rallying down the center of the course to round out the superfecta, beaten only two lengths. Transferred to Amoss for his sophomore campaign, Real Appeal made a good first impression, scoring by 2 1/2 lengths in the Texas Heritage S. at Sam Houston Mar. 1. Cont. p4

KEENELAND REBOUNDS THURSDAY

As the marathon 15-day Keeneland September Yearling sale marched onward yesterday, Book 5 figures rebounded from a dull day of business Wednesday. During Wednesday's ninth session of the auction, the average was down 24.8 percent from the corresponding 2007 session, while the median fell 28.6 percent. After bidding concluded Thursday, the session average was down just 5.8 percent and the median was down 9.1 percent. "There was a definite drop-off [Wednesday]," admitted Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "But we got back close enough to last year's numbers today. The median [Thursday] was down about $2,000 or something. And the average was comparable. I thought it was a fair sale from start to finish." Leading the way during yesterday's bidding was hip 3553, a son of Tale of the Cat out of the stakes-placed Dehere of the Dog (Dehere). The bay colt, consigned by Peter O'Callaghan's Woods Edge Farm, Agent VIII, was purchased for $190,000 by Maverick Racing. He was bred by Mia Gallo, Dave Stack and Fred Gorsline in New York and is from the family of graded stakes winners Sunray Spirit, Heavenly Cause and Northern Soldier. Dehere of the Dog failed to sell twice as a two-year-old--first for $70,000 at the 1999 OBS February sale and then for $12,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky April sale. On the racetrack she was third in the 2000 Goldfinch S. and earned over $63,000 for Thomas Gallo. She was well-represented in the sales ring at this year's Tattersalls Breeze-Up sale when her juvenile colt by Mr. Greeley brought a final bid of $772,341. Through 10 sessions, Keeneland has sold 2,492 yearlings for a total of $313,084,500. The cumulative average is $125,636, down 11.5 percent from a year ago, while the median of $70,000 is down 6.7 percent. The September sale continues today at 10 a.m. Buy-Back Rate Up at Keeneland, p2-3

RNAs Spike in Recent Days...

After Monday's session realized a very solid not-sold rate of 20.9 percent, buy-backs at Keeneland September have spiked sharply over the past three days. On Tuesday, the session RNA rate was 28 percent (vs. 22.9 percent in '07); on Wednesday, it was 24.6 percent (vs. 20.6 percent); and yesterday, it soared to 29 percent (up 43.6 percent from 20.2 percent last year). So what's behind the jump? Craig Bandoroff, who runs Denali Stud with his wife Holly, alludes to that old political truism: It's the economy, stupid. And not just the American economy.

"You kind of expected that [the market] would run out of steam and that there would be less available dollars for the product, and I think that's what starting to happen," said Bandoroff. "I think it's definitely a reflection of the economy. Last year, you had people from other countries come in--and of course the economy was stronger--and be able to buy a horse for $25,000 or $50,000. That is the guy who is probably feeling the effects of this economy right now. It's not that racing all of a sudden fell off a cliff at this level. I think if it was an industry issue, you would have seen it show up sooner. I thought through yesterday Book 5, the showing was fine. Now, the showing is very sporadic and probably lighter than normal."

Bandoroff added that it has been a tall order selling horses who don't meet all of a buyer's criteria.

"I think the reason you are seeing the RNA rate go up is that sometimes, no matter what you want, you can't get it," he offered. "If there is nobody there who wants the horse, there's nobody there that wants the horse at any price."

Sometimes, a spike in the RNA can be attributed to sellers being overly aggressive with their reserves. Three Chimneys Sales' Case Clay doesn't believe that's been the case in recent days.

"I think that, in stronger markets, during the first day of the sale the RNAs are a little higher than the second day, because the sellers are being more aggressive with their reserves, and it takes a day or so for the buyer and seller to reach some sort of harmony," he said. "But at this point in the sale, I don't feel that the sellers are necessarily being more aggressive; it's just the buyers are not as willing to spend what they did in the last couple of years."

On Wednesday, Three Chimneys--or its clients--opted to buy back a total of nine yearlings, a reflection of sellers who are willing to go on and race them, said Clay. Cont. p3

“From a consignor standpoint, our first question, if we’re selling for someone, is to ask them, ‘Do you want to keep this yearling or not?’” said Clay. “There are some owners who have racing stables of their own. I wish there were more, and I think there needs to be more. Those owners will say, ‘I’d like to get X for this yearling, but if I don’t, I’m happy to race.’ We had a few of those on Wednesday. But if they don’t race, we’ll advise them to be less aggressive with the reserve and let the market decide what the horse is worth.”

Dapple Stud’s Mike Akers, who operates in nearly all sectors of the industry, from breeding and selling at the yearling sales to pinhooking juveniles, views the RNA spike simply as a reflection of market economics.

“I think we’ve got more supply than demand,” Akers said yesterday. “I think we’re a little light on buyers right now, especially end-user buyers. I think people buying to resell at the two-year-old markets are carrying the market. You could write a magazine on why, but right now we’ve got a lot of product on the market, and for the buyers, it’s a smorgasbord. They can look over a lot of horses before landing on the one they really like. There’s plenty of money for a really nice horse--I think the prices are very fair. But maybe a correction is in order.”

Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland’s director of sales, says that it was perhaps unreasonable to expect last year’s RNA rates to carry through to 2008.

“I think last year’s number was remarkably low,” Russell said after the close of trading last night. “I think this is more of the norm. I think last year was slightly abnormal.”

Park Stud’s Michael Byrne claimed Nabethian as a six-year-old at Fort Erie for $7,500, after the mare had run 42 times and earned $221,190. She was bred to Park Stud resident Tomahawk. That freshman sire’s fast start helped this yearling, first through the ring yesterday, reward Byrne’s investment.

GRADE 2 SUPER DERBY

Things didn't go quite as well in his next two starts--a well-beaten seventh in the GII Illinois Derby Apr. 5 and a 10th-place finish in the GIII Lone Star Derby May 10--but he has bounced back well in his most recent pair.

The $47,000 FTMMAY graduate annexed Lone Star's Alysheba S. June 28, then rallied from a 19-length deficit to place third, only three lengths behind

"TDN Rising Star" ☆ Ready Set (Touch Gold) in the GIII West Virginia Derby last time Aug. 2.

"We feel that he's on the right track now, not because of the recent race he won [Alysheba S.], but more importantly the race he ran in the West Virginia Derby," Amoss commented. "He came from a position where he couldn't win from that far back and still ran a really big race. That race is the one that made us want to take a shot in this one. He's been solid; he's won some very nice races for us and he's definitely one of the main players in the barn."

Real Appeal has put together a solid worktab since the West Virginia Derby. He fired a best-of-34 four-furlong bullet in :47 3/5 at Churchill Aug. 19 and also owned the quickest time for five furlongs beneath the Twin Spires when stopping the clock in 1:00 1/5 Sept. 7. He is 12-1 on the morning-line for the Super Derby.

"I don't ever work for speed like that," Amoss said. "If a horse really works fast, it's because they're finishing so well in a work. This horse has trained very well over the last three weeks."

Amoss honed his craft working for Hall of Fame trainer Jack Van Berg, Frank Brothers, Larry Robideaux and John Parisella.

"They each had their own style, and the edge I had was that I was able to learn beneath them and take what I wanted from their style and leave the rest and create my own style--for better or worse," the 46-year-old said. "From all those guys, I took pieces of what they do and then made it my own."

Van Berg accounted for a pair of Super Derby victories with Gate Dancer in 1984 and Alysheba in 1987. Brothers won it with Arch in 1998.

Amoss, currently ranked among the top 20 trainers in the country by earnings, reached a milestone earlier this year in April, when he saddled his 2,000th winner at Churchill.

"The thing about 2,000 wins, at least to me, is that a lot of the people are responsible for that--the people I work with at the barn and my assistants--are still around," Amoss offered. "I feel a lot of pride in that, when you come to our barn, you see the same faces. When we won the 2,000th race, we all got together after the races for a drink and reminisced over some of the old war stories. It was a lot of fun. We always had a great working relationship, but I think that was kind of a bonding experience for us all."

Heritage of Gold (Gold Legend), heroine of the 2000 GI Apple Blossom S. at Oaklawn and GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga; Fly Cry (On to Glory), a hard knocking multiple stakes winner of $479,460 in the mid-'90s; and MGSW Rush Bay (Cozzene), are among the best horses to walk Amoss's shedrow.

"There were other horses I really loved too," he continued. "It's the real horse you make a difference in. When you know you made a difference in that horse's career, that's what really stays with you." --S.S.

Trainer Ross McDonald is as bullish as ever about the prospects of short-priced G1 Caulfield Cup favourite Weekend Hussler, saying rivals including Caulfield Cup second elect Maldivian will have to ramp up their games to down the recently crowned Horse of the Year. In his last start, four-year-old Weekend Hussler won the Makybe Diva S. Sept. 6 at Flemington following a neck victory over Maldivian in the Memsie S. at this track Aug. 30.

"The only trouble for the others is that he's improved," McDonald said. "He's still only 7 1/2 out of 10 in terms of fitness, but they'll have to improve six lengths to beat him." McDonald, who trained Tristarc (Aus) to take out the Underwood-Caulfield Cup double in 1985, added, "Caulfield Cup day he'll be at his top. That's our major goal." Lining up to face the champ are an additional nine Group 1 winners. Among them is Bob and Rosemary Scarborough's classy Light Fantastic, a last-start fourth in the Makybe Diva. Here, the homebred will have to overcome barrier one, a concern for jockey Craig Newitt. "It's definitely better than 13, but it's not perfect," said Newitt. "He's a big-striding horse, but I'll take it anyway. I'm sure he won't be far away. It depends on the speed."

"I don't think there would have been a horse in Australia that would have beaten Weekend Hussler the other day, but we've got all the confidence in our horse that he can bounce back," Newitt added. Light Fantastic's trainer Mick Price is chasing back-to-back wins in the Underwood after Rubiscent's upset victory last year. Weekend Hussler has been backed into A$1.75 favoritism for the race, but trainer Mark Kavanagh is not giving up the fight with Maldivian. "His weight is spot on, exactly the same as around Caulfield Cup time last year," Kavanagh said. "Read into that what you like. I'm not saying it means he's going to come out and beat Weekend Hussler. I'm just saying it's a good sign." Maldivian was a luckless fourth in the Dato Tan Chin Nam S. at Moonee Valley Sept. 13.

Trainer Wendy Kelly is chasing back-to-back wins with smart sprinter Bon Hoffa, and the six-year-old entire has had an ideal lead-up, winning the Bob Lewis S. Sept. 6. "He had to do it a lot tougher [this year]," said Kelly. "He [carried] three kilograms more and he ran a half-second faster." Going into the Bob Lewis, Kelly was unsure how Bon Hoffa would perform after a poor autumn. "I wasn't sure what to expect," she said. "If he was back to his old self, I thought he would win, but the autumn was still lingering in my mind." Trainer David Hayes is hoping Niconero, who finished third to Bon Hoffa last year, will have better luck this time. "He probably should have won that race, in which we protested against the winner," Hayes said, adding that the seven-year-old's two recent Adelaide failures should be forgotten. "It was a good run last start, but he had no luck and he wasn't suited by the wet track first-up," Hayes said.

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC CANCELS MIXED SALE Fasig-Tipton Midlantic will not hold its February Mixed Sale at Timonium next year, the company announced yesterday. "Over the past few years, our numbers indicate a preference from consignors for our mixed sale in early December, which has proved a popular regional and national venue," explained local sales director Paget Bennett. "After our December Sale this year, we will use the break as an opportunity to renovate parts of the sales grounds and pavilion for our opening sale in May 2009." The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2009 schedule at Timonium will include a two-year-olds in training sale in May, a fall yearling sale in September/October and a mixed sale in December.

CHARLES TOWN ANNOUNCES $1 MILLION RACE Charles Town Races & Slots has announced the inaugural running of the Charles Town Classic, a nine-furlong race for four-year-olds and up with available purse money of $1 million. The race will be run on Apr. 18 and will have a guaranteed purse of $500,000, with an additional $500,000 in purse money available to graded stakes winners. Grade I winners in the last two years will race for the total $1-million prize. The tiered payout structure will offer additional winnings above the guaranteed purse for winners of Grade II and Grade III races. "Our goal is simple: We want to attract some of the best horses in training by offering them incentives commensurate with their prior achievements," explained Charles Town Racing Administrator Erich Zimny. For the first time in 2008, Charles Town offered the $500,000 Charles Town Races & Slots Sprint Festival and the $250,000 Juvenile Showcase. "Thanks to the $35 million in purse funds generated by our slots machines this year, we're able to pay out substantial purses on a daily basis while adding big events like these to the racing schedule at Charles Town Races & Slots," said the track's General Manager of Racing Dickie Moore.

PRETTY CARINA (Seeking the Gold) tries to get back to winning ways after coming up a nose short as the favorite in a seven-furlong NW2L at Saratoga Aug. 20. A nicely bred three-year-old filly--she was produced by the GISP Ile de France (Storm Cat), a half to Bernardini--Pretty Carina had romped by 7 1/2 lengths in her seasonal debut at the Spa July 27. Javier Castellano gets the call from trainer Bobby Frankel. Song of Love (Changeintheweather), half-sis to Nobiz Like Shobiz, was a close-up fourth when facing Pretty Carina in their latest Aug. 20. brisset.com pps

*Lost Without You finished first, but was disqualified and placed second.

Lost Without You crossed the line narrowly ahead, but interfered with the progress of Meriweather Jessica, who was awarded the victory following a lengthy stewards' debate. Fifth in the May 4 Bouwerie S. over the Belmont main track, Meriweather Jessica bounced back to take her turf debut going six furlongs versus state-breds at this track July 13 and was last seen finishing runner-up in an open one-mile allowance at Saratoga Aug. 16. Biding her time from off the pace, Meriweather Jessica was making a menacing move inside the eighth pole when she was bothered by Lost Without You. She was switched out to run at that rival from the outside and just missed, but was put up to the win. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

AL BASHA (c, 4, Aljabr--Spectacularcrystal, by Spectacular Bid) missed by a nose in the Ashley T. Cole H. over this turf course last Sept. 16, then followed up with a half-length success in the Mohawk H. Oct. 20, both stakes restricted to New York-breds. Off nine months, the gray returned with a useful fourth-place effort against open company July 16 and was most recently an even fifth in Saratoga's West Point H. Aug. 10. The 3-1 second choice in this open allowance, the $21,000 KEENOV rallied stoutly on the turn, went after the lead approaching the eighth pole and held off March to Victory (Dixieland Band) for a 3/4-length victory. MR. SIDNEY (c, 4, Storm Cat--Tomisue's Delight {MGISW, $1,207,536}, by A.P. Indy) brought $3.9 million as a KEESEP yearling in 2005, and made just one start at three, finishing third in a Gulfstream maiden for trainer John Kimmel that March. Off 17 months after having a screw surgically inserted into a leg, the bay made a successful debut for the Bill Mott barn, coming from off the pace to graduate by 1 3/4 lengths in his turf and two-turn bows at Saratoga Aug. 9. A bit headstrong as they went a lethargic pace up front, Mr. Sidney began picking off horses on the turn, was switched out full of run in upper stretch and raced by Parc des Princes (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}) for a one-length score as the 29-10 favorite. The winner is a full brother to Save Big Money, MSP, $230,454. Parc des Princes was subsequently disqualified and placed third, allowing Colonial Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) to move up to the place spot. in sharper focus.

When Lee Einsidler took the decision to begin racing Thoroughbreds, he did so in a big way, signing for one seven-figure yearling at the 2005 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale while finishing as the underbidder on the $2-million sales-topping filly by Fusaichi Pegasus--Collect Call. He continued his aggressive bidding a few weeks later in Lexington, where trainer John Kimmel acted on Einsidler's behalf to acquire a Storm Cat half-sister to champion Vindication for $1.7 million and a bay colt by Storm Cat out of multiple Grade I winner Tomisue's Delight for $3.9 million. The colt was named Mr. Sidney, ostensibly in honor of Sidney Frank, the chairman of a liquor importing company, which Einsidler joined in 1991 and rose through the ranks to become its chief executive officer in October 2005. Mr. Sidney made his debut in early 2007 for Kimmel, finishing a respectable third in a Gulfstream maiden, but he didn't face the starter again for 17 months.

"We had to put a screw in his cannon bone," explained trainer Bill Mott, who saddled Mr. Sidney to a 1 3/4-length victory in an Aug. 9 turf maiden at Saratoga, his first start for the Hall of Famer. "He had a little stress fracture, so we had to give him time for him to heal. It was in the right fore."

The veteran horseman, who has trained his share of outstanding turf runners, thinks he may well have another, but is inclined to take his time.

"He's still green, obviously," Mott said. "He's a light-raced horse, but he showed a good deal of tenacity. We have to go through the process of elimination and we need to try the other surfaces. We may well try synthetic, and at some point, we'd like to try the dirt. He'd be quite a popular horse to breed to if he ran on both surfaces. We may give him another shot in allowance conditions, mainly because he's inexperienced. We'd like to work our way into stakes company."

Einsidler's best runner to date has been Timber Reserve (Forest Camp), a $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Calder graduate in 2006, who scored a mild upset in last year's GI Pennsylvania Derby. The dark bay, who remains under the care of Kimmel, most recently won a Saratoga allowance Aug. 29.

Indy), SW, was winless in six Southern California starts for Doug O'Neill, but made a successful debut for this barn, taking an Aug. 21 state-bred maiden by a half-length at Saratoga. The 7-2 second choice to go back-to-back stalked the pace from the outside, responded when set down for the drive and was up to hand favored Coastal Drive (Griffinite) a 1 1/2-length defeat. The winner was a $500,000 KEEAPR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-1, $84,800.

INTO MY SOUL (c, 2, Pleasantly Perfect--Stop Traffic {MGISW, $864,519}, by Cure the Blues) made his two previous racetrack appearances on the dirt after each was rained off the turf. The bay was not a factor in either start, finishing sixth after a slow start in a 5 1/2-furlong test at Saratoga July 25 and seventh in a seven-furlong affair Aug. 15. The $50,000 FTFEB juvenile finally got his chance to strut his stuff on the infield, but was dismissed by the betting public as a 44-1 outsider. Close up early while securing a turf-saving trip, Into My Soul remained glued to the fence into the stretch, punched through an opening inside the final furlong and went on to a neck success. He becomes the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by Pleasant Colony). Umbra (Dixie Union) endured a nightmarish trip, breaking slowly and checking repeatedly down the backstretch. He came with a flying finish to just miss and is one to watch next time out. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $32,550. Favored at 1-2 in this off-the-turf affair, the full brother to Apple Martini, SW & GSP, $132,794, cabooseed this field of four while covering ground for the opening three-quarters under a hold. Wygods Donation First to Breeders' Cup Charities:

The Breeders' Cup announced yesterday that Pamela and Martin Wygod, on behalf of WebMD Foundation, have donated $250,000 to Breeders' Cup Charities. The donation is the first contribution from the Thoroughbred industry to Breeders' Cup Charities, which was established this year by the Breeders' Cup to further its community outreach efforts in conjunction with the 2008 Breeders' Cup World Championships, Oct. 24-25, at Santa Anita Park. Martin Wygod, Chairman of WebMD, and Pamela Wygod, co-Chair of WebMD Health Foundation, have campaigned the likes of champion Sweet Catomine and Grade I winner Tranquility Lake. The primary beneficiaries of Breeders' Cup Charities this year are Susan G. Komen for the Cure and the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Breeders' Cup Charities also will support causes in Southern California and Thoroughbred industry charities. The Breeders' Cup has established a goal to raise a minimum of $500,000 in 2008. "We are extremely thankful to Pam and Marty Wygod for the leadership position they have taken to benefit Breeders' Cup Charities," said William S. Farish, Jr., chairman of the board of the Breeders' Cup. "This generous donation supports the important causes advanced by Susan G. Komen, St. Jude and our equine beneficiaries."

1.55 Newmarket, Mdn, £8,000, 2yo, 6fT

MARGARITA (IRE) (Marju {Ire}) is a full-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Soviet Song (Ire) who debuts for the same owner/breeder Elite Racing Club and trainer James Fanshawe. Like her sibling, she starts out over six furlongs, and meets Princess Haya of Jordan's unraced The Hague (GB) (Xaar {GB}), a John Gosden-trained half-brother to the 2005 G1 1000 Guineas third Vista Bella (GB) (Diktat {GB}).

2.20 Ayr, Mdn, £8,000, 2yo, 7f 50ydsT

ROYAL SOCIETY (GB) (King's Best) makes his debut for Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum and the Mark Johnston stable. He is closely related to the high-class No Excuse Needed (GB) (Machiavellian), who currently stands at Waikato Stud in New Zealand, and whose career highlight came when winning the G2 Queen Anne S. in 2002.

7.10 Dundalk, Mdn, €12,000, 2yo, c/g, 1m (AWT)

AGE OF AQUARIUS (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}), who topped Arqana's August Sale at Deauville last August when selling for €1.4million, starts for Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Eduard Mordutchovitch and the Ballydoyle stable. The colt is a half-brother to the top-class 2005 G1 Prix Jean Prat winner and sire Turtle Bowl (Ire) (Dyhim Diamond {Ire}) and Turtle Bow (Fr) (Turtle Island {Ire}), winner of the G2 Prix d'Astarte and runner-up in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational in 2002. He meets another representative of Galileo in Ard Na Greine (Ire), Jim and Jackie Bolger's colt from the extended family of Fatherland (Ire).

8.40 Dundalk, Mdn, €12,000, 2yo, f, 1m (AWT)

KIYRA WELLS (IRE) (Sadler's Wells) is a close relative of Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}), who got the David Wachman yard off to a flyer when winning the 2004 G1 Phoenix S. and G2 Queen Mary S.; and 2002 G3 Prestige S. scorer Geminiani (Ire) (King of Kings {Ire}). Like Damson, Joan Brosnan's newcomer is under the care of Wachman, who has a wealth of talented juvenile fillies at his disposal this season. The filly faces the John Oxx-trained Timabiyra (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}). Only fifth when favored for a Curragh conditions event on debut last month, His Highness the Aga Khan's homebred daughter of top-class Timarida (Ire) (Kalaglow {Ire}) has that vital experience to call upon here.

SELLING IN THE GLOOM Set against the backdrop of a crisis in Italian racing, the latest renewal of the SGA Select Yearling Sale at the Settimo Milanese complex will be a welcome focus away from the bad tidings over the next two days. With the recent ITS and two trotting sales held in Milan in the last week witnessing sharp falls and decision in the spring to increase the tax on horse sales from 10 to 20 percent, there is a natural air of pessimism surrounding this auction. That is spreading from the racing scene, where betting turnover and prizemoney is steeply down and the winter circuit of Pisa is unable to afford its usual quota of race meetings from October to December. Despite all of this negativity, SAG's management is hopeful that they can avoid a disaster and a slight loss will be even welcomed as they prepare to welcome around 50 foreign investors to the sale alongside the two major investors La Nuova Sbarra of Sergio Scarpellini and Incolinx of Diego Romeno. It will be interesting to see if some of the big trotting names like Roberto Cavalli, Giuseppe Pisati and Gina Biasuzzi spend here as they did at ITS and Deauville.

As a standalone feature, this is a sale on an upward trend, thanks mainly to the exploits of its graduates on the track over the past few years and their progress shows no sign of halting. Following Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) have been a host of top-class performers at home and abroad, including last year's G1 Premio Roma and recent Topkapi Trophy winner Pressing (Ire) (Soviet Star); last year's G1 Derby Italiano hero Awelmarduk (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}); dual G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica scorer Distant Way (Distant View); and the 2005 G1 Middle Park S. winner Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}). In the past 12 months, Permesso (GB) (Sakhee) and Farrel (Ire) (Fruits of Love) have finished second and fourth, respectively, in the latest edition of the domestic Derby, while the G3 Premio Carlo Chiesa scorer Love Intrigue (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) and G1 Gran Premio di Milano runner-up Voila Ici (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) have provided a handsome return on their relatively low purchase tags. There is a fair chance that this sale could boast Europe's champion juvenile by the end of 2008 if the vibes from Ballydoyle are right about the recent G3 Tyros S. winner Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Sold to John O'Byrne for $170,000 last year, Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's unbeaten colt has raised the profile of this auction even higher and there are two sons of Galileo to whet the appetite this time. Other high-profile sires represented among the 264-strong catalogue include Acclamation (GB), Anabaa, Dalakhani (Ire), Green Desert, Indian Ridge (Ire), Invincible Spirit (Ire), Nayef, Oasis Dream (GB), Red Ransom, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), Samum (Ger), Selkirk and Verglas (Ire).

Those whose first crop are selling at these sales are Azamour (Ire), Dubawi (Ire), Oratorio (Ire) and Shamardal. As usual, the Compagnia Generale draft consigned by SARL will be of interest. The breeders of Electrocutionist and the 2004 G1 Prix d'Ispahan winner Prince Kirk (Fr) (Selkirk) are responsible for two daughters of Red Ramson closely related to the above. Hip 86 is out of a half to Godolphin's ill-fated G1 Dubai World Cup winner, while hip 59 is out of a half to the dam of Prince Kirk. Selling gets underway at 2pm today. For full catalogue and updates visit www.sgasales.com.

ARTIST OUT FOR THE YEAR

Vintage Thoroughbreds's War Artist (Aus) (Orpen) has been ruled out of action for the remainder of 2008 by trainer James Eustace. Runner-up in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and third on his last start in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 11, the five-year-old suffered a setback which sidelined him for the recent major sprints. "After the July Cup, we let him down for a couple of weeks, and he then had a slight problem with a hind leg that put him out of the Sprint Cup at Haydock," Eustace told PA Sport. "He had been in training for quite some time, and I just felt he had also had enough for the moment. We will put him away until Christmas and look to bringing him back for something like the Listed Abernant S. [at Newmarket] next spring. As a six-year-old gelding, his only earnings will be the prize money he wins and I feel he will be an ideal type to campaign for the Global Sprint Challenge races later on that season."

BLADE ON COURSE FOR MIDDLE PARK

Trainer Tom Dascombe yesterday announced that The Classic Strollers Partnership's G2 July S. winner Classic Blade (Ire) (Daggers Drawn) would run in next Friday's G1 Shadwell Middle Park S. Disappointing when unplaced in Deauville's G1 Prix Morny on his latest start Aug. 24, the colt has enjoyed a freshener subsequently. "He came back very tired from France and has had a nice little break after that," Dascombe explained. "He didn't run his race, for whatever reason. Whether it was the travelling, or he just wasn't 100 percent right at the time, I honestly don't know. He is a better horse than that run at Deauville though."
