

PASSAGE OF TIME RETIRED

The four-year-old Juddmonte homebred Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}--Clepsydra {GB}, by Sadler's Wells) has been retired, connections announced yesterday. Khalid Abdullah's 2006 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine, who was placed three times at the top level, disappointed on her latest start when only fifth in the Aug. 22 G1 Yorkshire Oaks staged at Newmarket. Trainer Henry Cecil told the Racing Post, "Passage of Time retires as a Group 1 winner,

Passage of Time

Sarah K Andrew

and I'm sure she will prove a valuable addition to her owners' broodmare band. She was very consistent and was a winner in each of the past three seasons." Following her defeat of Soldier of Fortune (Ire) in the Saint-Cloud feature as a juvenile, Passage of Time was also successful in the G3 Musidora S. at York last May before suffering from a cyst on her epiglottis. After recovering from that problem, the filly, from the family of All at Sea, was third in both the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp and G1 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Monmouth Park. Highlights this term were a win in the Listed Steventon S. at Newbury July 19 and another third in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Aug. 2. Passage of Time retires as the winner of five of her 13 starts and with earnings of £335,947.

NEW APPROACH TO CHAMPION; NO ARC, BC

Princess Haya of Jordan's New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will tackle the Oct. 18 G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket, trainer Jim Bolger announced yesterday. While tilts at the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and G1 Breeders' Cup Classic had been under consideration, connections have decided to round off the G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. winner's sophomore season with an outing in the 10-furlong contest. "It has been decided that New Approach will bypass Longchamp and run instead in the Champion S. at Newmarket," Bolger told the Racing Post. "It was decided that running in the Arc would be problematical because of the draw factor, and it is probably the case that the mile-and-a-quarter trip at Newmarket should suit him better than a mile and a half at Longchamp."

INDIAN BLESSING FINE AFTER BLOOM SCORE

Hal and Patti Earnhardt's Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) exited her dominating score in Saturday's GII Gallant Bloom H. in fine fettle, reports Tonja Terranova, who oversees trainer Bob Baffert's horses in New York. "Nothing fazes her," said Terranova. The three-year-old filly won the 6 1/2-furlong event at Belmont by 6 1/4 lengths. Last year's champion juvenile filly is slated to leave for California tomorrow to prepare for the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Santa Anita Park on Friday, Oct. 24. "It will be hard seeing that empty stall," said Terranova, who has supervised Indian Blessing all summer. "But it's time for her to move on." Terranova added that Tough Tiz's Sis (Tiznow), retired Saturday after developing what appeared to be the beginnings of a condylar fracture in her right fore, was to undergo surgery yesterday. "Dr. Patti Hogan will put in a screw," she said. "She's is going to be fine."

Butch Goertzen's homebred Krazy Koffee had made all of his previous nine starts at Hastings Park, and last night captured the track's biggest prize for the three-year-olds. The local star entered this off four straight wins, including three in stakes company: the Chris Loeth H. July 6, the restricted B.C. Cup Stellar Jay Aug. 4 and the Richmond Derby Trial H. Aug. 31--all at 1 1/16 miles. Making his first start at nine furlongs as the crowd's second choice, Krazy Koffee was farther back than usual as he rated seventh of eight. Asked for his run on the far turn, Krazy Koffee circled five wide, hit the front in upper stretch and kept on under a drive to best longshot Wink at the Girls. Favored Texas Wildcatter, who ran for different connections when he was beaten just a nose by Visionaire in the Gill Gotham S. at Aqueduct this past March, completed the trifecta at 6-5 odds. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs.

Successful in handicaps here and at Baden-Baden in the Spring, Zaungast bagged a Maisons-Laffitte conditions event June 23 before running second in a similar contest at Chantilly July 31. Lining up off a handicap score back at Baden-Baden Sept. 7, he raced in fourth until roused into the lead with 300 meters remaining and drew clear of toiling rivals inside the final furlong to register a personal best. Click for the Racing Post chart.

FIRES CALLS IT A CAREER The 61-year-old Earlie Fires, long a fan favorite on the Chicago circuit, rode his final race yesterday at Arlington Park. The Hall of Fame jockey was fifth aboard favored Manchu Prince in a claiming race on the grass. Born Mar. 19, 1947, in Rivervale, Arkansas, Fires booted home his first winner, Carnation Kid, at Oaklawn on Mar. 6, 1965, the same year he led all apprentice jockeys in the nation with 224 wins. During four decades, Fires captured riding titles at Hawthorne, Arlington, Calder, Keeneland, Churchill, Gulfstream, and the Miles Park. Fires competed in five renewals of the Kentucky Derby, his best finish a third (promoted to second) on Francie's Hat in 1968, the year Dancer's Image was taken down after a medication positive. Fires twice won seven races on a card at Arlington, first on Aug. 16, 1983, and again May 25, 1987. Fires had two Breeders' Cup mounts, both in '87. He came home fifth on 39-1 shot Explosive Darling in the Mile and was fifth again in the Distaff on 17-1 shot Ms. Margi. Fires, who has called In Reality his best-known mount, was inducted into racing's Hall of Fame in 2001. Fires was recognized yesterday with a winner's circle celebration. He thanked friends and family, and offered a special thanks to his late wife Kathy, who passed away in 2005 from a rare form of cancer.

Lucky Island Tunes Up for Vosburgh:

Shadwell Stable's Lucky Island (Arg) (Lucky Roberto) worked four furlongs yesterday at Belmont in advance of Saturday's GI Vosburgh H. The four-year-old went in an easy :49.13 over Belmont's training track. Lucky Island saw a four-race win streak snapped when he stumbled at the break and lost all chance as the favorite in the Aug. 30 GI Forego H. at Saratoga. Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin's assistant, Artie Magnusson, reported Lucky Island is "doing better than ever" since the race. Lucky Island is two-for-two at Belmont, having won the GIII Bold Ruler H. May 10 and GII Tom Fool H. July 4.

Ginger Punch Works For Beldame:

Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel sent out Adena Springs homebred Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) to a five-furlong workout Sunday morning at Belmont Park. The five-year-old stopped the clock in 1:01.26 on the fast main track. Ginger Punch, who comes off a nose victory in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga Aug. 22, goes in search of her fifth straight win in and fourth consecutive Grade I triumph in Saturday's GI Beldame S. at Belmont. Frankel's Aug. 30 GI Forego H. winner First Defence (Unbridled's Song) also worked Sunday, breezing a half mile in :48.26, while Out of Control (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}), completed five panels in 1:01.67.

Fellow riders, valets, and Arlington Park staff join Earlie Fires in the winner's circle following the final ride of his career yesterday

Trinity Magic defeated state-bred maidens in his 5 1/2-furlong debut at Saratoga Aug. 15. Bumped at the break, the even-money favorite raced within striking distance before taking over under his own steam with a furlong to run and inched clear to the wire. "He's a pretty nice little horse," said winning jockey Shawn Bridgmohan. "He was nice and relaxed and he just made my job that much simpler. He rated really nice for me, and when I asked him to finish on up, he did." Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen, added, "I would say New York Showcase day here on Oct. 18 is next for him; it seems like a natural progression. He ran a really big race first time out and we wanted to give him plenty of time to recover from it and just train him up to this and it worked out well for us. He beat some nice colts today." Jan. 17. Finding new life when stretched out for a win in a nine-furlong allowance Feb. 15, the dark bay reeled off two more victories over this turf course; the 12-furlong Fit to Fight S. May 12 followed by the GI Brooklyn H. June 6. Tried on the

The lightly raced Lemon Chiffon notched her first black-type success with this impressive effort. The didn't debut until January of her four-year-old and won that race, a grassy sprint down the hill at Santa Anita. She captured a Hollywood turf allowance in her second try off the 16-month absence in early May, then ran fourth in her next three, the June 7 Rodondo Beach H. at Hollywood, the July 12 Gill Modesty H. when shipped to Arlington, and the Aug. 28 Adoration H. at Del Mar. The latter was her first start on synthetic track, and she was trying out conventional dirt here as the crowd's choice. Taking to the new surface with aplomb, Lemon Chiffon relaxed in sixth before parlaying a powerful move on the turn into a clear-cut win.

REACH FOR CHEVELEY Paul Shanahan's G1 Moyglare Stud S. third Beyond Our Reach (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is set to contest the G1 Cheveley Park S., connections announced yesterday. Three lengths behind Again (Ire) in that seven-furlong Curragh highlight last time Aug. 31, the Tommy Stack-trained filly will revert to six furlongs for the Oct. 3 Newmarket contest. "I think we will keep Beyond Our Reach for the Cheveley Park," the trainer's son and assistant Fozzy told PA Sport. "We are happy with her, but Newmarket is the main target with her now." Stack also revealed that Michael O'Flynn's Gowran Park maiden scorer Smart Coco (Smarty Jones) has suffered a setback. "We planned to run her at the Curragh last weekend, but she did not scope very well, so plans are on hold for her at the minute," he explained.
