TDN Feature Presentation GRADE 1 JOCKEY CLUB GOLD CUP

LEMON DROP KID

15TH STAKES WINNER OF 2008 IS LEMON CHIFFON
WINNER OF THE $100,000 LAS MADRINAS H.

CURLIN HAS FINAL GOLD CUP DRILL

Reigning Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) worked a half mile yesterday over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track in preparation for Saturday's G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup. The imposing chestnut covered the distance in an easy :51.85, setting internal fractions of :13 and :25.70 before galloping out five furlongs in 1:06.15. Steve Asmussen, assistant to trainer Scot Blasi, termed the workout "perfect," adding, "It was his normal work before he runs. He got over the ground really well and we are all excited about Saturday."

Curlin A Coglianesse

Curlin is expected to ship to Belmont Tuesday morning. Also working for the Gold Cup, G1 Travers S. runner-up Mambo in Seattle (Kingmambo) went a half mile in :49.64 at Belmont Monday. With regular rider Robby Albarado committed to Curlin for the Gold Cup, Mambo in Seattle will be ridden by Edgar Prado. "We understand what a tall order it is to go against a champion like Curlin," admitted the three-year-old's trainer Neil Howard. "And it is always a big step up when a three-year-old goes up against older horses. We had the GII Super Derby in Louisiana as an option, but we had a feeling that Mambo in Seattle would love Belmont Park and would love to train here. Plus, it gave us another week after a tough race like the Travers."

Gold Cup hopeful Ravel (Fusaichi Pegasus) went a half mile yesterday in :49.92.

HENRYTHENAVIGATOR HEADS QEII 13

Susan Magnier's dual Classic hero Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) heads a cast of 13 remaining entries for Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot after yesterday's confirmation and supplementary stage. Fifth in the Sept. 7 G1 Prix du Moulin du Longchamp last time, the Ballydoyle sophomore has recorded four wins at the highest level this term and is joined on the list for the Sony-sponsored event by stablemates Astronomer Royal (Danzig), Honoured Guest (Ire) (Danehill), US Ranger (Danzig) and Minneapolis (GB) (Sadler's Wells). Stiff opposition includes Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef), while trainer Freddy Head has supplemented Racing (Fr) (Spectrum {Ire}). Further Gallic spice is provided by Sageburg (Ire) (Johannesburg) and Sabana Perdida (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and the baker's dozen is completed by Festoso (Ire) (Diesis {GB}), Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}), Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) and Winker Watson (GB) (Piccolo {GB}).

PROUD SPELL DONE FOR YEAR

Brereton Jones's homebred Proud Spell (Proud Citizen), second as the heavy favorite in Saturday's GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion H. at Philadelphia Park, will be given the remainder of the year off. The three-year-old filly, winner of the G1 Kentucky Oaks, will be turned out at Jones's Airdrie Stud in Kentucky for the next month while connections mull over her future. "She's been running every month since February against the best fillies in the country, and the last two races she's been just a little knocked out after the race, and it's wearing on her just a little bit," Jones explained from the Keeneland sales grounds yesterday. "So we want to turn her out and let her be a horse for a month. Then we'll decide whether we're going to race her next year or not. We love to race. She loves to race, and she's good at it. So we'll quite possibly be racing her next year. But we haven't made that firm decision yet." Trained by Larry Jones, Proud Spell has thus far amassed a record of 12-7-3-2 and earnings of $2,123,610. Cont. p2

Championship Implications...

The announcement, which means Proud Spell will not start in the Oct. 24 GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic at Santa Anita, adds further intrigue to the three-year-old filly division. With Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in contention for female sprint honors, the title of champion three-year-old filly looks to be between Proud Spell and Music Note (A.P. Indy), who recently took the Sept. 13 GI Gazelle S. with ease. The two have met twice this year. Music Note captured the GI Mother Goose S. in June, while Proud Spell endured a troubled trip. The latter turned the tables in the GI Alabama S. in August, however, staving off Music Note in the final strides at the Spa. Asked if year-end honors factored in his decision making, Jones admitted, "Yeah, it did. The competition will be between the two of them. We have great respect for Music Note--there's no question about that. We hooked each other fair and square [in the Alabama] and we were able to beat her--nobody had an excuse. If Music Note goes on and wins [the Ladies' Classic], and the Breeders' Cup has the quality it normally has, then, quite frankly, I think she deserves to be the champion. But we've run quite a few more times than her and run against the best at different tracks, so if she doesn't win the Breeders' Cup, then I think we would deserve to be the champion." Jones also said that he was reticent to race over Santa Anita's new Pro-Ride surface. "It just didn't seem fair to take her out to an artificial surface that she hasn't been running on, especially given as many times as she's started this year," he said. "We took on, really, the very best fillies--we were the first to beat Indian Blessing--and it was one top race after another. She is just such a competitor, and we want to be fair to her." Proud Spell has won four of eight this season. In addition to the Alabama and Kentucky Oaks, she won the GII Fair Grounds Oaks and GII Delaware Oaks.

PERFECT DRIFT RETIRED Perfect Drift

(Dynaformer--Nice Gal, by Naskra), a GISW who earned $4,714,212 to lead the progeny of his sire, has been retired, his trainer Richard Mandella announced. The nine-year-old gelding had finished third in the Windy Sands H. at Del Mar Sept. 1 in his most recent start. "It wasn't a bad race, but I don't think I had him at the highest level, which is where I think he should be," Mandella said. "The only instructions I had were, if I didn't think he could compete a high level and represent himself well, then it'd be time to retire him." His owner Dr. William Reed said the gelding will live at his farm in Kansas, but is also "looking around to see what might be possible for him to become a pony at one of the Midwest tracks, probably Churchill." Perfect Drift, bred in Kentucky by Reed in partnership with Stonecrest Farm, retires with a record of 50-11-14-7. "We feel eternally grateful to him for taking us to places where never had been," Reed added. Third in the 2002 GI Kentucky Derby, Perfect Drift won seven graded stakes in his eight-year career, which was highlighted by an upset of eventual Horse of the Year Mineshaft (A.P. Indy) in the 2003 GI Stephen Foster H. Through his 2007 campaign, Perfect Drift was conditioned by Murray Johnson, who has left training and is now a partner in Equine Products LLC, which sells therapeutic horse products like the Niagara Equissage. The duo had their best year in 2003 when they won the GII Washington Park H., the GII Kentucky Cup Classic and the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup in addition to their Stephen Foster victory. Two years later, they added a second Washington Park triumph, which would be the final win of Perfect Drift's career. He'd subsequently placed in three Grade I stakes, including a third in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. "[Training Perfect Drift] was a career highlight, and I felt it was something that'd be hard to replicate," Johnson said. "He took us to all parts of the country and won major races at tracks in the Midwest where I had raced for many years." Perfect Drift made four starts for Mandella in 2008, with his third in the Windy Sands as his best effort, as he had failed to place in his three previous starts.

KEENELAND MARCHES ON Figures continued to fall during yesterday's penultimate session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, with the session average falling 30.6 percent to $7,515 and the median down 35.7 percent to $4,500. Through 14 days of selling, the average decreased 10.5 percent, to $94,579, from a year ago and the median fell 14.9 percent to $40,000. The top price during Monday's session was paid for hip 5038, a daughter of freshman sire Candy Ride (Arg) (Ride the Rails) bred by Michael Cataneo in Kentucky. Out of the unraced Wise Love (Dixieland Band), the bay filly was consigned by Stony Point, Agent I, and was purchased for $52,000 by Albatroz Bloodstock, as agent for Haras Cifra. Wise Love is a half sister to graded-stakes placed Short Stay (Citidancer). The sale's 15th and final session begins today at 10 a.m.

FATTY'S BLOWOUT RAISES OVER $5,000 FOR CHARITY Fatty's Four Star Blowout, held this year in memory of the late David Mullins, raised more than $5,000 for Central Kentucky Riding for Hope. "What a tribute to David this was," said Four Star Sales Managing Partner Kerry Cauthen. "It had everything he loved: horses, horse people, a party, and a great charity. Probably 500 people came by the barn throughout the day--many gave generous donations, and others helped with their time and energy." Cauthen added, "I also want to especially mention Keeneland and Eaton Sales, for their generosity." Four Star will continue to accept donations at its Lexington, KY office. MARMALADE GIVEN GREAT LEIGHS ENTRY

Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) has been entered in a conditions event at Great Leighs Saturday, as the five-time Group 1 winner continues his preparation towards possible end-of-season targets, which include the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The Aidan O'Brien trainee is one of 27 entries in the Thoroughbred Open Classic, an extended nine-furlong event with a total purse of £40,000. Saturday's meeting at the Essex venue will also stage three other Breeders Cup-style trial events, on an eight-race card, with a total purse of £40,000. Each of the four main races will attempt to recreate the American experience, as a bell will be sounded as the runners exit the gates. "We have been putting the components for The Thoroughbred Open [meeting] in place for a long time, and even the date has been secured in the long term to coincide with the annual Breeders' Cup trials at Santa Anita and Belmont Park," Racecourse Chairman John Holmes told Racing Post. "I believe that the depth and quality of entry across all four races shows that the demand is there and that we have pitched this just right. I am delighted with the recognition and support we have received from international trainers. Much media focus has been on the possible participation of Duke of Marmalade, but Ballydoyle has also supported our Juvenile event, and the Sprint could also turn out to be a fascinating contest."

Secreto de Estado (Lion Hearted), a Northern Hemisphere two-year-old, finished a close fourth. Gran Rebelde, finished seventh, beaten 4 1/4 lengths under Southern California leading reinsman Rafael Bejarano in an evenly matched field. The top five finishers are likely to renew their rivalry in the Oct. 19 G1 Clasico Ricardo Ortiz de Zevallos, the second jewel of Peru's Quadruple Crown.

As last week's racing represented something of a lull before the storm of major events scheduled for the next few weeks, I hope you'll forgive me if I look back to Sept. 13. That day's quartet of Group 1 races provided yet another reminder of the extraordinary talents of Sadler's Wells, who figured as the sire of one of the Group 1 winners, Septimus, and as the sire of the dams of two others, Music Note and Conduit.

One could be forgiven in the past for wondering whether the unprecedented scale of Sadler's Wells's success as a sire would effectively restrict the opportunities available to his broodmare daughters, especially in the rather cramped upper echelons of the Anglo-Irish industry.

After all, he achieved a record 14 sires' championships between 1990 and 2004 and has more than 2,100 foals of racing age, two of which--Galileo and Montjeu--rank among the most successful stallions of recent years.

Any such fears have proved groundless and the Coolmore giant appears to be heading for his fourth consecutive championship as a broodmare sire. His daughters already have earnings in excess of £3 million this year--over £1 million more than his nearest pursuer, Darshaan--and they have 11 group/graded winners to their credit. As many as six of the 11 have won at the highest level, with Henrythenavigator, Creachadoir, Youmzain and Conduit scoring in Europe and Music Note and Grand Couturier in the U.S.

A noteworthy feature of the 10 mares responsible for these 11 group winners is how few of them made their mark while in training. The exception to the rule is Henrythenavigator's dam, the Group 1-winning Sequoyah. Of the others, Coastal Path's dam Coraline gained a minor win from five starts, while Sadima, the dam of Youmzain and Creachadoir, failed to earn black type despite showing fairly useful form.

That leaves us with seven mares. Rather surprisingly, the dams of Music Note, Conduit, Infamous Angel (G2 Lowther S.), Patkai (G3 Queen's Vase) and Campanologist (G2 King Edward VII S.) were all unraced. Grand Couturier's dam Lady Elgar beat only one home on her only appearance and Juno Madonna, dam of dual Group 3 winner Regime, failed to reach the first seven in two small races at Cagnes-sur-Mer.

The clear lesson is that it isn't safe to ignore any daughter of Sadler's Wells, largely because their sire always commanded a fee which guaranteed that the vast majority of his mates came from excellent families. It is the depth of excellence in his daughters' bloodlines which has often helped convert them from disappointment as a race mare to success story as a broodmare. Another fine example is Saddler's Lass, who failed to earn a single penny in nine starts, but who went on to produce the Japanese superstar El Condor Pasa. Several other Group 1 winners, such as American Post, Laverock, Medaaly, Sumati, the Italian Derby winner Morshdi and the Japanese Derby winner Fusaichi Concorde, are also out of unraced or non-winning dams.

While on the theme of Sadler's Wells, he has played a significant role in the continued success of Conduit's breeders, Ballymacoll Stud.

Perhaps the most notable aspect of Conduit's success in the St Leger was that he became the second Classic winner, following the Irish Oaks winner Moonstone, to emerge from the first crop by Darshaan's Arc-winning son Dalakhani.

But the Ballymacoll family which descends from Sunny Valley deserves similar credit for producing three winners of the St Leger (and a St Leger second) in the space of 26 years. The sequence began back in 1983 when Sunny Valley's daughter Sun Princess added the St Leger to her runaway victories in the Oaks and Yorkshire Oaks. Next came the millennium winner Millenary, a great-grandson of Sunny Valley, and now comes Conduit, a great-great-grandson of Sunny Valley.

Ballymacoll's highly fruitful association with Sadler's Wells, which has also yielded the Group 1 winners Islington and Greek Dance, began as long ago as 1985, when Sun Princess was one of the visitors in his first season. That mating resulted in Prince of Dance, who shared the honor of becoming his sire's first G1 winner with Scenic when they dead-heated in the '88 Dewhurst.

Sun Princess also produced two daughters by Sadler's Wells. One, the unraced Ballet Queen, became the dam of Japanese Derby winner Fusaichi Concorde and second dam of Victory, winner of the 2007 Japanese 2000 Guineas, while the other, Stage Struck, produced Group 2 winner Stage Gift.

It was Sunny Valley's turn to visit Sadler's Wells in his fourth season. This time, Ballymacoll was rewarded with Saddlers' Hall, second in the 1991 St Leger before taking the G1 Coronation Cup the following year. The family's affinity for Sadler's Wells was demonstrated again when Sunny Valley's daughter Dancing Shadow produced Dancing Bloom, who unfortunately died soon after her victory in the G3 Princess Royal S. in 1994.

Two of Dancing Bloom's very successful half-sisters, Ballerina and River Dancer, were also to visit Sadler's Wells. It was Ballerina (no longer owned by Ballymacoll) who appeared to have done the better, producing the 2004 Derby third Let The Lion Roar, as River Dancer's filly Well Head never made it to the track. However, Well Head more than made amends by producing the G2 Great Voltigeur S. winner Hard Top to Darshaan and now Conduit to Darshaan's son Dalakhani. Her legacy may not end there, as her daughter Spring Symphony--a winning sister to Hard Top--is the dam of Glass Harmonium, a Verglas colt who looked very promising when he recently won his second start.

It is far from impossible that Glass Harmonium could also develop into a classic colt, as--in addition to its three St Leger winners--this family has produced winners of the Oaks, Irish Oaks (Petrushka), Irish 2,000 Guineas (Spectrum), Italian 2000 Guineas, Italian 1000 Guineas, Japanese 2000 Guineas and Japanese Derby.

The connections of several of the top Eclipse contenders have indicated that they may not run in the Breeders' Cup because they feel their horses will not perform as well on Santa Anita's synthetic surface as they do on conventional dirt. Should the surface factor so heavily into the decision of whether to run or not? Do you think that skipping the Breeders' Cup for this reason should count against a horse in the Eclipse voting?

Owner/Breeder Marty Wygod:

The Santa Anita track, when it was dirt, was substantially different from the East Coast tracks. So you have the East Coast tracks, the West Coast tracks and the turf courses, and they all are substantially different. I can't understand why anyone would not want to run at Santa Anita. All these synthetic tracks are slightly different. You have a good point if a horse has run on a synthetic and indicated they didn't like it; then I can understand. But if they haven't, then I think they're just trying to duck the top. People who have been training (over Pro-Ride) have been pleased with the safety.

Hall of Fame Jockey Jerry Bailey:

My answer is that a champion--and that's what the Breeders' Cup is all about: crowning champions--can run over anything. If they are scared to run and avoid the Breeders' Cup because of the surface, then they don't deserve a championship. Great horses can run over anything. They may not be quite as effective over some surfaces as they are with others, but the great ones get the job done over anything.

Trainer Bobby Frankel:

I'm sure (the surface) is going to factor into it for some people, like those who might have to supplement and have never run on a synthetic track. I think it's unfair that they're running it on a synthetic track. With the real dirt horses who have never been on synthetic, you're just putting the horses in and praying. It's really giving a big advantage to the grass horses. They almost have two choices of where to run: on turf or on synthetic. It's giving me more options where I might run some of my horses, when I'd only have one choice if it was a [conventional] dirt track. Horses like Ventura (Chester House) could run either way. Jibboom (Mizzen Mast) and Ariege (Doneraile Court) also do well on the grass and on the synthetic. I don't think (skipping the Breeders' Cup) should effect the voting. Maybe they should have a new category (for the Eclipse Awards): dirt, grass and synthetic.

Oak Tree Executive VP Sherwood Chillingworth:

As the years progress, you'll have more and more tracks with synthetic surfaces. They're easier and less costly to maintain. There's no denying that the horse population is protected from injury and death. The numbers are pretty clear, out here anyway. All these people are experienced horsemen and they should be encouraged to race on the artificial surface, but if they don't want to run, that's their prerogative. You can't tell a horse owner or horse trainer who doesn't want to run that he has to do it. The Breeders' Cup was designed as a means to determine champions. If a horse is so far superior to other horses in their category and don't run, but run well every time other surfaces, I wouldn't throw them out [of the voting]. But it would enhance their championship if they did run in the Breeders' Cup, as it would reinforce the idea they can win over any surface.

Hall of Famer Jockey Angel Cordero Jr.:

If I was an owner and I had a horse who had never tried the surface, I'd be worried about running him. He probably wouldn't be as great as he'd be on a regular track. I don't know if they should be penalized (in the Eclipse voting). I'm pretty sure that if they needed to run for their horse to be champion of their division, then they probably would. There's nothing that says you have to run in the Breeders' Cup to be champion of your division. If a horse had finished second and third all year and jumped up and won the Breeders' Cup, I don't see why they should be champion. That's up to the media to decide, I guess, but that would take away from horses who had been (winning consistently) year-round. I've seen horses who haven't raced in the Breeders' Cup still win their divisions. I remember when Slew o'Gold swept the Fall Championship Series and won every race besides the Breeders' Cup, where he got bothered. I think that if he didn't run in the Breeders' Cup, then he probably would have been Horse of the Year. (Slew o'Gold was five-for-six in 1984, and was moved up to second after crossing the line in third in the Breeders' Cup Classic. He was the champion older horse, but John Henry was named Horse of the Year after going six-for-nine, with wins in the GI Budweiser Million, GI Turf Classic, GI Hollywood Invitational H. and GI Sunset H. He ended his career with a victory in the Ballantine Scotch Classic at the Meadowlands, skipping the Breeders' Cup.)

Champali

Glitterman-Radioactivity, by Dixieland Band

A Series of Knockouts!

CHAMPALI is the hottest freshman sire in the nation on all-weather surfaces, with four winners in nine days, Sept. 12-20. On Sept. 20 he also sired a $67,000 yearling.

Owner Paul Pompa Jr. (co-owner, Big Brown):

I feel that if the connections of an Eclipse Award-contending horse decide to skip the Breeders' Cup because they choose not to run their horse on a synthetic surface, the decision should be held against the horse in the Eclipse voting. Breeders' Cup is our industry's marquee event. These are the days we determine our champions and champions are supposed to compete at any venue. Synthetic tracks are part of today's landscape within Thoroughbred racing. I understand that those who might shy away from synthetic tracks are doing so to protect the valuations of their horses. That's fine, but the ultimate decision not to run should adversely effect that horse come Eclipse voting time.

Journalist Bill Finley:

Why are some people so scared of the idea of racing their Breeders' Cup contenders over a synthetic surface at Santa Anita? Their fears are based not on fact, but on a misconception permeating the industry that racing over a synthetic surface is some sort of wild crap shoot. It's anything but.

I spent hundreds of hours researching synthetic surface tracks,* and the No. 1 conclusion I came to is this: synthetic surface racing isn't that different from conventional dirt racing. At every synthetic meet, the percentage of winning favorites has hovered around the industry standard of 30 percent, and the vast majority of horses handle the transition from dirt to synthetic and vice versa just fine. It happened again earlier this month in the $400,000 Presque Isle Downs Masters, where Wild Gams (Forest Wildcat) won by a half-length. She has won two of five starts (40 percent) on synthetic tracks and seven of 20 starts (35 percent) on conventional dirt. Her career-best Beyer number on dirt is a 102; on synthetic tracks it is a 101. Clearly, she is no better on one surface than the other. Wild Gams represents the rule far more than the exception.

Some people get it. Eoin Harty wasn't afraid to enter Colonel John (Tiznow) in the Travers, even though his colt didn't run well in the Kentucky Derby, the only prior time he had tried a dirt surface. They were rewarded with a career-making win. The IEAH Stables team has never wavered in its commitment to run Big Brown (Boundary) in the Breeders' Cup Classic.

Some people don't. Jess Jackson is saying that he probably won't run Curlin (Smart Strike) in the Breeders' Cup Classic because he is uncertain how his horse will perform over a synthetic surface. Passing the Classic with a horse of Curlin's ability (he would be the favorite in a $5-million race; isn't that reason enough to run?)

would be among the biggest mistakes any owner has ever made. He stands to lose out on the $3 million that goes to the winner, might tarnish the horse's reputation and could very well blow the chance of Curlin being named 2008 Horse of the Year. Should Big Brown win the Classic, he is Horse of the Year, no matter what Curlin might accomplish on the racetrack the rest of this year. That's only fair. No Eclipse voter should give a horse a pass because their owner and trainer were too timid to run in the Breeders' Cup.

No one with a top horse should pass the Breeders' Cup simply because it is being run over a surface that is new and different. Run on dirt, a synthetic surface, through the Mojave Desert or over asphalt, the Breeders' Cup is racing's championship showdown and every owner with a quality horse should want nothing more than to win one of these races. That it is being run on synthetic surface is no excuse to stay away.

BETTER THAN HONOUR: LAST THROUGH THE RING AT F-T NOVEMBER

Fasig-Tipton's Selected Mixed Sale, to be held Sunday, Nov. 2 at Newton Paddocks in Lexington, will include a noteworthy finale. The 188-horse offering is highlighted by Broodmare of the Year Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister), who will be sold to dissolve a partnership, and the 12-year-old mare will be the final lot through the ring. Not in foal this year, the dam of GI Belmont S. winners Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) and Jazil (Seeking the Gold) and GSW Casino Drive (Mineshaft) is consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency. A total of 50 broodmares, 80 racing/broodmare prospects and 52 weanlings have been catalogued, including 18 fillies and mares that are either Grade I winners or producers, 15 Grade II winners and 18 Grade III winners. Bidding begins at 3 p.m.

NORTHVIEW TO OPEN PENN DIVISION

Northview Stallion Station has announced plans to open a second stallion division in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania for the 2009 breeding season. Northview will relocate the seven-year-old Medallist (Touch Gold--Santaria, by Star de Naskra) from its base in Chesapeake City, Maryland. In addition, "We will start our search immediately for two or three new stallions that will be added to our roster in Pennsylvania," said Richard Golden and Dr. Tom Bowman, partners in Northview. "We will also be working closely with qualified neighboring farms to support the incoming mare population. This will all be done under Northview's supervision. Since our farms in Maryland are only 45 minutes away from Northview Pennsylvania, we will be boarding maiden and barren mares in Maryland and shuttle them to be bred to our Pennsylvania stallions." The Pennsylvania division will be situated on 180 acres and will include an eight-stall stallion barn, breeding shed, management and booking office and 20-stall broodmare/foaling barn, which will be ready for the 2009 breeding season. Two additional 20-stall broodmare barns will be constructed in 2009 to accommodate mares for the 2010 season. Slots-infused purses at Philly Park, Penn National and Preque Isle have helped bolster Pennsylvania's breeding industry.

Medallist

ADENA MARES TO SELL AT KEENELAND

Adena Springs, which has traditionally sold broodmares in foal to the farm's stallions during its annual November Broodmare sale at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks, will not hold that auction in 2008 and will instead sell mares during the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale and during the OBS January Sale. "Fasig did a great job for us, but at the end of the day, we were selling a quality of mare that needed to be spread throughout the sale, not all sold at one time," explained Mike Recio, Adena's stallion nominations and marketing director. Adena has run a November Broodmare sale for the past 11 years with the primary goal of promoting its stallion roster. The sale has been held in the evening during the first week of Keeneland November. During last year's Adena sale, 101 horses sold for a total of $1,726,000 and an average of $17,089. "The mares we're selling are mares that are in foal for the first time, most of them are just off the racetrack," Recio said. "We were selling them at Fasig, but the people that would most appreciate those mares are mostly in the regional markets and they just weren't in town at that time. At the beginning of Keeneland, you're competing against a different caliber of mare. So we feel if we sell some from start to finish at Keeneland and then go down to Florida and support that sale as well, we'll have a better chance to get our horses out in a more regional market. And also to get a better value for them." Adena will catalogue approximately 150 broodmares in Keeneland November and an additional 150 at OBS January. In addition, the farm will maintain its core group of 300 mares and will purchase an additional 300 to 400 mares to breed to its stallions.

She was given time to regroup after a well-beaten 12th-place finish in that 1 1/4-mile affair and returned as the favorite here. Settled in mid-pack early, the bay filly rallied four wide into the lane and picked off the leaders down the lane to win going away.

HILLS TO RIDE YOUMZAIN IN ARC Jockey Richard Hills will replace Richard Hughes aboard Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) in the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, according to Racing Post. Jaber Abdullah's five-year-old will head straight to the Longchamp showpiece off a third in the July 26 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. He had previously registered a victory in the June 29 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. "Jaber Abdullah has decided Richard Hills will ride Youmzain in the Arc because he feels the horse could benefit from a change of jockey," racing manager Bruce Raymond told the trade daily. "He knows Richard Hills from Dubai and greatly respects him as a rider. He has admired the way Richard Hughes has ridden Youmzain and, as far as I know, there is no fallout between them." Hills added, "Mr. Abdullah approached me 10 days ago and said he wanted a change of jockey and I was delighted to accept his offer. I've ridden for the Maktoum family for many years and know their circle quite closely, including Mr. Abdullah, who I've ridden for on occasions both in Dubai and over here. I'm really looking forward to riding Youmzain in the Arc."

OVER TO FAIRYHOUSE With yearling sales already taking place in France, Britain, Germany and Italy, it is the turn of Ireland this week, as Tattersalls Ireland to launch its two-day September Sale at Fairyhouse. Some important changes have taken place this year: the catalogue being cut by 200 to 504; the sale shrinking from its three-day status in 2007; and the opening "New Sires' Showcase" dropped. Flag-flyers for this auction over the past 12 months include G2 July S. winner Classic Blade (Ire) (Daggers Drawn), purchased for just €19,000 last year; Saturday's G3 Firth of Clyde S. scorer Aspen Darlin (Ire) (Indian Haven {GB}), who fetched a mere €10,000 at the same sale; Smokey Oakey (Ire) (Tendulkar), whose G3 Brigadier Gerard S. and Lincoln H. successes provided a handsome return on his initial €13,500 tag; and Godolphin's Creachadoir (Ire) (King's Best), who added the G1 Lockinge S. to his already enviable tally at Newbury in May before injury intervened. As with the Doncaster, Goffs and Tattersalls sales, there is also the €300,000 sales race staged at The Curragh, which was won last month by Choose Me (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}). Selling gets underway at 10.30 a.m. Full catalogue and updates can be found on www.tattersalls.ie.

32RED TO SPONSOR CHEVELEY PARK STAKES

Online casino operator 32Red will sponsor this season's G1 Cheveley Park S., Newmarket Racecourse, officials revealed. The six-furlong Group 1 event for two-year-old fillies, scheduled for Oct. 3, will be staged as the 32Red.com Cheveley Park S., and boasts a prize fund of £170,000. Last season's renewal was won by subsequent G1 1000 Guineas heroine Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}). "The 32Red.com Cheveley Park S. is our first Group 1-sponsored race, and we are very proud to be associated with a race of this quality," commented 32Red's Ed Ware. "We believe our partnership with Newmarket serves to strengthen the 32Red brand and increases our profile with a significant target audience. We look forward to a competitive and informative 32Red.com Cheveley Park S."

SHADWELL STALLIONS TO PARADE AT NEWMARKET

There will be an added bonus for racegoers at Newmarket's Rowley Mile Oct. 3 when four of Europe's top stallions will be paraded ahead of racing. Local breeding operation Shadwell will showcase Haafhd (GB), Nayef, Sakhee and Act One (GB), who stand at the nearby Nunnery Stud, as part of Shadwell Day. It will provide enthusiasts another opportunity to see these former stars of the track, who are now successful in their secondary careers. Regulars at Headquarters will be familiar with Haafhd, who won both the G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Champion S. at the track, and Nayef, who took the 2001 renewal of the latter event. "Shadwell Day is a hugely important day in Newmarket's calendar with four group races--including two Group 1s--and having four leading stallions parade before racing will make it extra special," said Newmarket's Michael Prosser. "I am sure the racing public will be delighted to once again have the chance to see such top-class performers."

BLANCPAIN CALLS TIME

Jockey Miguel Blancpain called time on his short career after partnering Praxithea (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) to finish ninth in the seventh race at Craon yesterday. The 23-year-old, who has ridden almost 300 winners, cited weight problems as the primary reason for his decision to retire, and he looks forward to returning in some capacity after taking a sabbatical from the sport. "I've had more and more problems in being able to make the weight, and it's out of respect for those who have employed me, that I've decided to terminate my riding career," Blancpain revealed. "I have been lying to myself in order to keep going, but the body is there to remind you what you want, and my body has told me it is time to give up. I owe a lot to Carlos Laffon-Parias and all his owners who have trusted me throughout my career. I really love horses, but I don't yet know what I'll do next. I do have other ambitions, but I hope to return to the sport in the future a stronger man."

WEEKEND REVIEW - JUVENILES TO THE FORE

by Christa Riebel

Sunday's racing in Germany witnessed the 84th renewal of the Listed Junioren-Preis, one of the country's prestigious two-year-old races, at Dusseldorf. This year's winner was Clarissa Hiddemann's filly Novita (Fr), from the first crop of her sire American Post (GB) (see Monday's TDN). She is the 10th foal bred from the smart listed winning Nouvelle Reine (Ger) (Königsstuhl {Ger}), who also produced the stakes-winning fillies Nouvelle Fortune (Ire) and Nobilissima (Ger), as well as being the granddam of the G3 Premio Dormello victress Nouvelle Noblesse (Ger). Second place went to Next Vision (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who is a half-brother to the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Next Desert (Ire) and G1 Preis der Diana winner Next Gina (Ger). While no plans have been made available for Novita as yet, Next Vision might be aimed at the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne Oct. 19. The €50,000 BBAG Auktionsrennen, for two-year-old fillies over seven furlongs, also at Dusseldorf, went to Prema (Ger) (Big Shuffle), who beat her stable companion Airforce (Ger) (Big Shuffle) (see Germany). Gestut Park Wiedingen's homebred is a full-sister to last year's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten victor Precious Boy (Ger), who captured the G2 German 2000 Guineas this season to become his sire's first Classic winner. "That was a super result, and it may well be that Prema will now run in the G3 Preis der Winterkönigin [at Baden-Baden Oct. 26]," revealed trainer Waldemar Hickst. Another talented filly, Gestut Ittlingen's homebred Pariala (Ger) (Lando {Ger}), emerged as the winner of the two-year-old maiden race at Dusseldorf (see Breeders' Edition Europe). She was bred from the mare Pariana (Bering {GB}), whose leading performer to date is the multiple listed-winning and group-placed Pappus (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}). Pariala's next option could also be the Preis der Winterkönigin.

Sunday's Result:

Dusseldorf, 5.10, Cond, €50,000, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:26.90, gd.

PREMA (GER) (f, 2, Big Shuffle--Pretty Su {Ire}), by Surumu {Ger}), second in a Bremen conditions race on debut Aug. 24, raced towards the rear initially. Pushed along at the top of the lane, the €70,000 BBAAUG yearling ran on well when asked to catch Airforce (Ger) (Big Shuffle) 30 yards out and score by 3/4 of a length as the 9-4 second choice. The winner is a full to Precious Boy, GSW-Ger, $333,024. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €26,000.
