NORFOLK HERO

Street Hero (Street Cry {Ire}), who had to settled for third behind Midshipman (Unbridled's Song) last time out in the GI Del Mar Futurity Sept. 3, turned the tables on the favorite this time with a gritty 3/4-length victory in yesterday's GI Norfolk S. at Santa Anita's Oak Tree meeting. Sent off at solid 6-1 odds in search of his first victory at the stakes level, the maiden looked like a seasoned pro in the stretch as he wore down the front runners late to eke out the victory. The Del Mar Futurity winner was slowly closing the gap on the leader in the final strides, but could not find enough to get the job done this time. Believe in Hope (Thunder Gulch), who was off to a slow start, closed late to be third. "I can hardly talk, I'm so excited," said owner-breeder Myung Cho, who was also collecting his first Grade I score as a trainer. "I'm really happy. This is the best day of my life. Down the stretch, my heart was pumping. This is my biggest win, and I've been training around 17 years." €3.2million. As usual, the one-day Sportsman's Sale will follow, bringing the total catalogued throughout the two auctions to 957. "The Goffs dream is unique," Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby commented. "Only at our Million Sale can you win Europe's Richest Races for Two-Year-Olds, the two Goffs Million races, which offer an unrivalled €1million to each winner. We are confident that this year's Million and Sportsman's catalogues are as good, if not better, than ever as our vendors have provided us with a truly excellent bunch of future champions." HYPERBARIC POWERS HOME AT OAK TREE

Prestonwood Racing's Hyperbaric (Sky Classic) took command from frontrunner Tropic Storm (Stormy Atlantic) entering the stretch and withstood the fast-closing Tybalt (Storm Cat) to record his first graded stakes win in yesterday's GII Oak Tree Mile at Santa Anita Park. Settled just behind an even early pace, the five-year-old poked his head in front turning for home and was all out to withstand 6-1 chance Tybalt. "The pace surprised me," said winning rider Garrett Gomez, who reached a milestone of 3000 victories Sunday at Santa Anita. "We went a lot slower early than I thought we would. On paper, it didn't look like it would shape up that way. Out of the gate it looked like everybody was taking back, and [Tropic Storm] was going to be on his own, so I gunned my horse up in there to keep him honest." Part of the Breeders' Cup's 'Win and You're In' series, a score in yesterday's Oak Tree Mile guarantees Hyperbaric a berth in the Breeders' Cup, held at Santa Anita Oct. 24 & 25. Asked if the chestnut would run in the Breeders' Cup Mile next, trainer Julio Canani said, "We'll play it by ear. We'll decide later." cont. p8

Content to stalk the early pace through early spilt of :22.96, :47.02 and 1:11.11, the bay, who was equipped with blinkers for the first time, was in tight behind foes turning for home, but once he found a sliver of space, he forged to the front late to record his first career win. "I was in a tough position from the 5/16 [pole] to the top of the stretch," explained winning rider Alex Solis. "Finally, I had enough horse to get out. He's still a little green. He's still learning." Solis added, "I really liked him at Del Mar. Right away I noticed this horse could use blinkers. He was much better today and he's just learning how to run." Third first time out at Hollywood June 29, the homebred hit the board in a pair of maiden tests at Del Mar, including a runner-up finish to Midshipman going 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 17.

CURLIN FINE AFTER GOLD CUP: SHIPS WEST

Curlin (Smart Strike), winner of Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont, exited the race in fine form and was promptly put on a plane heading west Sunday. "He came out of the race great," said trainer Steve Asmussen by phone from a New York-area airport early Sunday morning. With regard to whether the defending Horse of the Year will contest the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 25, Asmussen said, "What we decide will only matter according to how he is on that race track [Santa Anita]." The chestnut, who arrived at the Arcadia-area oval yesterday afternoon, is stabled in Barn 27.

Assistant Scott Blasi said that the decision to ship yesterday morning came with short notice. "Mr. [Jess] Jackson [majority owner] instructed us to fly out [Sunday] morning about 30 minutes after the race," Blasi said, adding, "He shipped very well. He ate a lot and drank a lot of water." As for the colt's schedule, Blasi offered, "He'll walk here at the barn for two days, and then he'll resume training. The Classic is what we showed up for, but he's got to train well to run. If he's going to run, we want Santa Anita to be his home for the next 30 days."

GOSDEN EYES CUP FOR WEEKEND STARS

Trainer John Gosden yesterday revealed that George Strawbridge's unbeaten ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Rainbow View (Dynaformer) could join Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) on the plane to Santa Anita next month. While Saturday's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine is guaranteed a slot in the Juvenile Fillies' Turf, a tilt at the Juvenile Fillies is the preferred option according to her conditioner. "Why not?" he told the Racing Post. "She has never been off the bridle at home or in her races, so it was a good education for her yesterday. She was confused when she first started to come off the bridle, but then she got the idea of it and was back on it again coming to the finishing line." Gosden also suggested that the Classic could be on the cards for Princess Haya of Jordan's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. hero Raven's Pass. "The plan is to go there with him and I wouldn't be frightened at this stage of going for the Classic," he told the trade daily.

DUO SUPPLEMENTED FOR MIDDLE PARK

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Huntdown (Elusive Quality) and Sayif (Ire) (Kheleyf) were yesterday added to Friday's G1 Shadwell Middle Park S. at Newmarket. The former scored by seven lengths for the Princess Haya of Jordan-John Gosden axis in a Newbury maiden Sept. 19, while Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's Sayif will attempt to better a latest third in that track's G2 Mill Reef S. last Saturday for the Peter Chapple-Hyam stable. Their addition at £15,000 each brought the total of colts to 13 for the six-furlong contest at the five-day stage. Aidan O'Brien has left in a trio including the G1 Phoenix S. scorer Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and G3 Tyros S. winner Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), but told the Racing Post yesterday that they are unlikely to line up. "None of them are definite runners at this stage and we might end up not having a runner," he announced. Their owners Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor are more likely to be represented by the David Wachman-trained G1 Prix Morny hero Bushranger (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), while Brian Meehan could saddle the Morny runner-up Gallagher (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) and Marcus Tregoning is looking at running Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G3 Molecomb S. winner Finjaan (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}). Five fillies were supplemented for the same card's G1 Cheveley Park S. yesterday, headed by Geoff Howard-Spink and Peter Marshall's G2 Lowther S. winner Infamous Angel (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) from the Richard Hannon stable. The others are last Saturday's G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Aspen Darlin (Ire) (Indian Haven {GB}), the Weatherbys Super Sprint scorer Jargelle (Ire) (Kheleyf), the Listed Dick Poole Fillies' S. winner Serious Attitude (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) and recent Kempton maiden winner Adorn (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}).

Successful in a newcomers' event at Chantilly May 23, Baila Me proved an instant hit at pattern level when taking out the G2 Diana-Trial at this track next time June 15 before running third in the main event--the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks)--at Dusseldorf Aug. 3. She dropped off the board for the first time when a last-out ninth in the Sept. 14 G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp, but bounced back from that defeat to upset the boys and claim a career high in this meeting feature. Settled in mid division for most of the contest, Baila Me was coaxed forward once into the stretch run. She quickened to the front approaching the final quarter mile and stayed on in tenacious fashion once joined by Poseidon Adventure soon after to deny that rival in a thrilling bobber. The win capped a memorable day for Gestut Karlshof's homebred sire Samum who was responsible for three winners on the card. "I was glad to see that Baila Me was much more alive today because she was very quiet in the Vermeille where she was in season," revealed trainer Werner Baltromei. "She really fought bravely and maybe we will call it a day for this year. I shall have to talk it over with the owner so there is a small chance she might run again." Jockey Dominique Boeuf added, "I wasn't quite sure whether we had won, but she fought like a lion and that was fantastic."

Tam Lin accounted for a trio of stakes victories in England at three, including the G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor. With only a couple of stakes placings from four starts the following season, the attractive bay failed to fire and came home sixth in his U.S. debut going 1 1/16 miles in allowance company over a yielding turf course at Tampa Mar. 15. On the board in his next three starts, including a nose score in the one-mile Scottish Monk S. at Belmont June 14 followed by a runner-up finish behind Kip Deville in that track's GIII Poker H. July 13, the five-year-old failed to fire and had to settle for ninth in his latest in the seven-panel GII Play the King S. at Woodbine Aug. 23. Content to stalk the early pace as the second choice here, the English-bred forged to the front in the final furlong, and displaying his customary swish of his tail to his rivals, rolled home an easy winner. "This horse isn't easy to ride, but I get along with him," said winning rider Javier Castellano. "The key to the race today was that he was so relaxed. When we were right behind the leaders, I didn't want fight with him. I guess he really liked the course." Rick Mettee, assistant trainer to Saeed bin Suroor, echoed the sentiment. "He really likes it here at Belmont Park. He really doesn't corner that well. We thought the one-turn, seven-eighths [Play the King] would be good for him, but he never settled. He's a tough horse to ride because he runs with his head up and pulls hard. Saeed and I did not discuss what is next for him. Obviously, a two-turn race at Santa Anita with a full field would be completely different and I don't know if that would really suit him."

Fourth in a hot seven-furlong maiden here on debut July 13, the bay overcame testing ground to graduate at Leopardstown last time Aug. 17 and was looking to follow in the steps of John Oxx's former celebrities Alamshar (Ire) and Azamour (Ire) here. "He's a lovely colt with a great temperament," rider Mick Kinane said. "He loves the game--he threw a buck going to the start and the last horse that did that with me was Rock of Gibraltar. He's a fluent horse, but he was just a bit keen today with a horse on his heels. He has a lovely engine and a great frame and whatever he is now, he'll be a better horse next year." Oxx added, "He's a half-brother to Galileo out of an Arc winner, but we don't know what his trip is. The winner of four handicaps last term, King's Apostle has come into his own at four and signaled his arrival on the bigger stages when third in the prestigious Wokingham H. over this track and trip at the Royal meeting June 21. Down the field tried over a panel farther in the International H. back here July 26, he was runner-up back at six furlongs in the Aug. 2 Stewards' Cup at Goodwood. Only seventh on his first try in stakes company in the Listed Hopeful S. at Newmarket last time Aug. 23, he rewarded the decision of connections to fit a visor by outgaming Diabolical for a career high. Rank early under restraint behind the leading group, he traveled strongly to the furlong pole and produced a surge there to take command before clinging on in determined fashion as the Godolphin runner charged late. "He's not been over-raced this year and ran cracking races in the Wokingham and Stewards' Cup, so he deserved it," trainer William Haggas's wife Maureen commented. "At Goodwood, he definitely hung off the fence and it probably cost him the race, so I think the visor has really helped him concentrate and keep straight. His owner has horses in Singapore and was going to take him there last year, but we thought he was capable of some black type so we kept him here. The rain is going to come now, so that could be it for the year." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Victorious in last term's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten, Precious Boy bounced back from his only defeat, in the Apr. 20 G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld, to garner the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) over course and distance last time May 12. Reserved off the pace until making headway in the straight here, he made his bid at the two pole, took the measure of In Chambers (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) at the distance and was pushed out in the closing stages to comfortably hold the vain bid of Laa Rayb. "I was slightly sceptical of his chances after such a long break, but Precious Boy is a bloody good horse," insisted trainer Waldemar Hickst. "Maybe he will run again [this season] in France or Italy." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Chintz turned a seemingly competitive renewal of this prize into a one-sided affair under Seamus Heffernan to register a first stakes score. Having scored on debut at Leopardstown June 11, the bay was second to the subsequent G1 Moyglare Stud S. runner-up Shimah in the Listed Saoire S. at The Curragh June 27 before filling the same spot behind Luminous Eyes (Ire) in the July 16 G3 Silver Flash S. back at Leopardstown last time. Prominent throughout the early stages, she put her seal on the contest when taking over passing the quarter pole and was beyond recall as Lahaleeb closed out of the pack. "She's a nice, big filly, and one for next year from a mile to a mile and a quarter," trainer David Wachman commented. "The ground was very quick at Leopardstown last time, and I felt she wasn't in love with it, but she had had a nice break and came back fresh. I'll put her away until next year now." Having had his career curtailed by a breathing problem after his success in last year's G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket, Sixties Icon overcame a slow start to capture his third straight stakes here. His wins in the Aug. 1 G3 Glorious S. at Goodwood and G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury last time Aug. 16 proved he retained ability, but he showed a different side when planting himself in the gates as his rivals set off for this contest. Not panicking, Dettori eased him into the race and he was full of run as Sugar Ray fought off the last of his pursuers inside the final quarter. Quickening by the long-time leader at the furlong marker, the bay swept clear for a decisive score. "He's never planted before, but he's an old horse and is beginning to get a bit clever about the game," his rider said. "I didn't bounce him out, and when the stalls opened, he just froze on me. But it was a good effort because he gave them five lengths start and three pounds. He showed a tremendous turn of foot and has got his ticket to America [for the Breeders' Cup Marathon] now." Not content with scooping the Watership Down Stud Sales Race at Ascot on Friday and DBS £300,000 St Leger Yearling S. last month, the Richard Hannon stable collected yet another massive pot with Soul City an hour before enjoying a one-two in the fillies' equivalent. Fourth in the G2 Vintage S. at Glorious Goodwood July 30, the bay was shipped to France for his next two starts and duly collected the Listed Prix Francois Boutin at Deauville Aug. 17 and Longchamp's G3 Prix la Rochette last time Sept. 7. Soon at the fore of this inflated field under Richard Hughes, he quickened decisively inside the final quarter and was able to pull out extra when Gam Amhras came at him in the final 100 yards. "You can't beat Richard Hannon with these two-year-olds," his rider commented. "He bursts out of the gate quite quick and you have to let him get it out of his system, but he was in the lead here and it was ideal. He stays really well, but has a bit of speed as well." His conditioner added, "He's a very good horse and there is no reason why he won't go on and be a nice three-year-old. I don't know where we are going to go next--he could be packed up for this year and have a crack at the 2000 Guineas. He's a tough horse with a nice relaxed character who doesn't take any work." In winning this incentive, Soul City qualifies for a €1-million bonus if he goes on to success in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at this track next May. Ross Doyle, whose bloodstock agency owned by his father Peter purchased the winner, added, "It's a great day, and Richard and his son are a great team to work with. It is great for the owners and everybody involved to get this reward and these are the horses who make the year for you." Off the mark at Newbury July 11, the bay had the misfortune to run into the unstoppable Rainbow View when third in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket last time Aug. 9. Held up in mid-division off the strong early fractions, she delivered her challenge wide on the track and rolled to the front with a furlong remaining before carrying Baileys Cacao to the line in her slipstream.

Tale of the Tape...

New Approach has embodied the resurgent feel of this sale, which was rescued from the doldrums by the Goffs team in 2006, and his trainer Jim Bolger will be at the forefront once again as he bids to cement his recent run of success. That was brought to a head by the aforementioned colt's success in this year's G1 Epsom Derby, and while New Approach stands tall amongst the sophomore colts, stable companion Lush Lashes has all but dominated her peers this term with wins in the G1 Coronation S., G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Matron S. Her defeat by Ballydoyle's Halfway to Heaven in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood saw a notable one-two for the esteemed graduates there and doubled the Group 1 tally of the former following his victory in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, where fellow graduate and dual Group 3 scorer Carribeau Sunset (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) was promoted to third. Septimus added another major prize to the tally a fortnight ago in the G1 Irish St Leger, while other top-class performers include the Stateside duo Daytona and Red Rocks--who underlined their quality by taking major prizes this summer--and dual Group 1-placed and G2 Sandown Mile winner Major Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}).

Henry Beeby added, "2008 has been a dream year for Goffs graduates. Goffs have sold the winners of 14 Group 1 races, including Derbys on both sides of the Irish Sea and four Classics in all, whilst the Goffs Group sold more Royal Ascot winners than any other sales company. That's what people are looking for, and that's what we give them. We've had a lot of interest at the sales ground and have seen all the people here that you'd want to see, so we're quietly hopeful of a good, solid trade. These are nervous times--you are always nervous ahead of the biggest yearling sale in Ireland and one of the biggest in the world. I have been very impressed with the yearlings on offer and there have been plenty of showings so far." Goffs Chairwoman and Abbeville & Meadow Court Studs owner Eimear Mulhern added, "I was very encouraged that on Friday we were extremely busy, so people seem very serious about buying. There is a very good collection of overseas people there, so we're very optimistic."

RINGSIDE... with Tom Frary

WEATHERING THE STORM

At a time of upheaval in the world economy and the now widely recognised problem of over-production in the breeding industry, consigning bloodstock could be viewed as one of the most precarious businesses to be in. Of course, it helps if you keep producing the goods by offering top-class potential, and that is the case with Bill Dwan's Castlebridge Consignment. Having topped the Tattersalls Ireland Sale with a son of Sahm last week, the County Meath-based operation have cause for optimism ahead of the Million extravaganza. "I'd be encouraged by the Tattersalls Ireland September Sale, because we thankfully topped that and it proved there is money for nice horses, but I'd be concerned about the lesser-bred horses," Dwan says. "I think this sale will be in a similar vein--it is a strong catalogue and I'm sure all the major players will be there and although it sounds like an old line now, the nice horses will still sell well."

Despite the general economic environment, the signs are that the European yearling sales are largely unaffected. While Doncaster and Baden-Baden were slightly down, Deauville was up, and while being realistic, Dwan is more optimistic than negative about the immediate future. "There is certainly a correction happening, but I'd be more inclined to point to the effects of over-production hitting home rather than the economic downturn and market forces," he continues. "I wouldn't be a total doom-and-gloom merchant and, to be honest, I would blame the standard of some of the horses being offered as the reason why we are down 10 percent at the moment. When you see how much the world markets are down, that doesn't look too bad."

Among his draft, Dwan points to hip 157, a son of Royal Applause (GB) whose dam is a half to Cheveley Park's top-class sprinter Danehurst (GB) and smart Pivotal (GB) duo Humouresque (GB) and Mighty (GB). "He is an early, fast type and a very nice colt who I'm hoping will sell well," he says. "He would very nearly be our top one." Also among the dozen is hip 49, a daughter of Green Desert from the extended family of Hector Protector, Bosra Sham and Saturday's GI Clement Hirsch Memorial Turf Championship hero Red Giant. "She is exciting and a typical Green Desert," he adds.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 18, c, Dubawi (Ire)--Lishaway (Fr), by Polish Precedent
Consigned by the Irish National Stud

Dubawi's first crop of yearlings are enjoying pole position during the current sales season, and this February-foaled colt is a half to the 2002 G3 Solario S. scorer Foss Way (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}) and smart Singapore runner Casino Clique (Ire) (Medicean {GB}). The dam is a half to the established sire Gold Away (Ire) and the group-winning Danzigaway, who is herself the dam of the top-class Silent Name (Jpn).

Hip 71, f, Danehill Dancer (Ire)--Moon Drop (GB), by Dominion (GB)
Consigned by Camas Park Stud

This is one of several progeny of Coolmore's resident Danehill Dancer (Ire) to catch the imagination in this catalogue. As well as being a full-sister to last year's G2 Railway S. runner-up South Dakota (Ire), she is also closely related to the other very smart Ballydoyle performers Devil Moon (Ire) (Danehill), Abraham Lincoln (Ire) (Danehill) and the dam of the 2004 G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner Jewel in the Sand (Ire).

Hip 121, c, Montjeu (Ire)--Onereuse (GB), by Sanglamore
Consigned by Clare Castle

This February-foaled colt is a three-parts brother to the 2003 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Fidelite (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}), whose dam is a half to 1995 G1 Irish Derby winner and sire Winged Love (Ire) and the notable Japanese performers Daiwa Caerleon (Fr).

Hip 167, c, Oratorio (Ire)--Queen Titi (Ire), by Sadler's Wells
Consigned by Carriganog Stud

From the first crop of the Ballydoyle champ, this is an April-foaled son of listed winner Queen Titi, whose own dam is a sister to Or Vision. That mare has produced the top-class trio of Dolphin Street (Fr), Saffron Walden (Fr) and Insight (Fr) and is herself a sister to the dam of last year's G1 Fillies' Mile winner Listen (Ire) and the 2000 G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Sequoyah (Ire). The latter is the dam of Henrythenavigator.

Hip 187, f, Sadler's Wells--River Flow, by Affirmed
Consigned by Ashtown House Stud

Opportunities to acquire progeny of Coolmore's legend are soon to become thin on the ground and this March-foaled filly is a stand-out as a half to the talented Australian stakes winner Skiddaw Peak (Aus) (Generous {Ire}) from the family of Landseer (GB), Ikhtyar (Ire) and the champion Trillion, dam of the brilliant Triptych.

Hip 199, f, Pivotal (GB)--Royal Devotion (Ire), by Sadler's Wells
Consigned by Lynn Lodge Stud

One of only four offerings by Cheveley Park's star sire and his sole filly in the catalogue, this is a daughter of a listed scorer whose own siblings include the Stateside stakes winners Thady Quill, April Starlight and Humble Eight. The latter's progeny include the high-class Stage Call (Ire).

Hip 202, c, Shamardal--Sabaah, by Nureyev
Consigned by the Irish National Stud

One of the picks of day one, this February-foaled colt from the first crop of the brilliant Shamardal is a half to the 1997 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 Irish Derby hero and sire Desert King (Ire) (Danehill) and group performers Cairdeas (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) and Chianti (Ire) (Danehill).

Hip 220, c, Galileo (Ire)--Sateen (GB), by Barathea (Ire)
Consigned by Ballymoney Park Stud

Galileo is fast becoming the king of Goffs and all of his offerings are certain to command high prices following another stellar year. This March-foaled colt is a grandson of Souk (Ire), whose progeny include the stakes winner Puce (GB), herself the dam of the 2004 G2 Lancashire Oaks heroine Pongee (GB) and the dual listed winner Lion Sands (GB). Souk's half-sister Shouk (GB) is the dam of the triple Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire), the 2004 G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Magical Romance (Ire) and the potentially top-class Ballydoyle runners Washington Irving (Ire) and Masterofthehorse (Ire).

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC BEGINS Fasig-Tipton launches its three-day Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling Sale today at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, Maryland. A robust figure of 930 yearlings have been cataloged for this year's sale, up from 903 head cataloged one year ago. Approximately 310 yearlings are cataloged per session, and each session is scheduled to commence at 10:00 a.m. Topping the 2007 Eastern Fall Yearling sale was a Kentucky-bred daughter of Stormy Atlantic, who realized the high price of $325,000 during last year's second session. Consigned by Welker Sales Agency, the filly was purchased by Jay Em Ess Stable. Last year's gross dipped from 2006 figures, largely due to the fact that 658 yearlings were sold for $14,580,700 in 2006, while the company streamlined the offering for 2007, selling 574 head for a total of $13,331,400. And while median fell 13% to $10,000 in 2007, the buy-back rate also fell from 2006 to 2007, dropping from 31.6% down to 25% one year ago. A strong selection of sires represented by their first yearlings this year include Afleet Alex, Castledale, Dance With Ravens, Eurosilver, Freefourinternet, Fantasticat, Gators N Bears, Kela, Kitten's Joy, Southern Image, Lesroidesanimaux (Brz), Medallist, Oratory, Pollard's Vision, St Averil and Woke Up Dreamin. For the complete catalog, visit www.fasig-tipton.com.

JOHN VELAZQUEZ GETS WIN #4,000 One day after winning the GI Clement Hirsch Turf Championship and the GI Yellow Ribbon S. at Santa Anita, jockey John Velazquez reached the 4,000-win plateau in Sunday's first race at Belmont, a $16,000 claimer in the mud. "Every one of my wins is memorable to me," said Velazquez, who rode Commentator to victory in the Massachusetts H. Sept. 20. "Every one counts to get to 4,000." Velazquez, 36, won his first race in 1990 at El Comandante (now Camarero Race Track) in his native Puerto Rico. To his credit are triumphs in the 2007 GI Belmont Stakes aboard Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), the 2005 GI Travers S. with Flower Alley (Distorted Humor), and seven Breeders' Cup events.

OLD WARRIOR EVENING ATTIRE RETIRED Evening Attire (Black Tie Affair {Ire}--Concolour, by Our Native), a GISW whose career spanned nine seasons, has been retired with a minor ankle injury, his connections announced Sunday. "We do this with a tear in our eye, but all good things must come to an end and we want to do what's best for him," said co-owner/breeder Joe Grant. The 10-year-old hangs it up with a record of 69-15-16-9 and earnings of $2,977,129. He holds the distinction of having won a stakes every year from 2001-2008, with the exception of 2006. The staying specialist capped his career with an 8 1/4-length score in the Greenwood Cup at Philadelphia Park July 19. Cont. p2

"Evening Attire was one of a kind," said co-owner and retired Hall of Fame trainer Tom Kelly, who bred and raced the gelding in partnership with Joe & Mary Grant. "He rates up at the top of all the good horses I've trained, and that's saying something." The dappled gray had been entered in the Point Given S. at Monmouth Sept. 2, but was scratched on race day. "Last weekend at Monmouth, we saw some swelling in his leg," said his trainer Pat Kelly. "During the week, after discussions with the vet and his owners, we decided, considering his age and all he has done, it was in everyone's best interest to retire Evening Attire and find a good home for him." Where the 10-time graded stakes winner will retire has not been decided by his connections, who are considering all options and suggestions. "We are amazed at his popularity, said Mary Grant. "For years he has received birthday cards from fans in this country as well as from New Zealand and Europe. One fan has even built a website dedicated to him, www.eveningattire.net." Besides his color, Evening Attire's popularity was partially attributable to his running style. He would usually hesitate at the start, then lag behind the field, a habit that became more pronounced with age. Evening Attire broke his maiden in his second start at two at Saratoga, but went winless in his next six races. He got off the schneid in style, shocking the 2001 GIII Discovery H. at 65-1, defeating runner-up Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian) by a length. Proving the upset was no fluke, he added victories in the GIII Queens County H. and GIII Aqueduct H. in his next two starts. His biggest win came in the 2002 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, which he took by 2 3/4 lengths over multiple Grade I winners Lido Palace (Chi) (Rich Man's Gold), Harlan's Holiday (Harlan) and Milwaukee Brew (Wild Again). In the 2003 GI Clark H., Evening Attire defeated 13 rivals to earn his first victory outside New York. His final graded stakes win came in the 2007 Queen's County H., where he made a determine run to get up in the final strides and win by a head.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Romance Is Diane to Cal Cup Classic?

Romance Is Diane (In Excess {Ire}) may make her next start against the boys in the Oct. 5 California Cup Classic, Mike Mitchell said yesterday. The West coast trainer also indicated that he has nominated the four-year-old to the California Cup Matron for fillies and mares at 1 1/16 miles, a race she won by 6 1/4 lengths last year. "Right now, I don't know which race she'll run in, but I do have a commitment from [Rafael] Bejarano in either case," he said of the filly, who worked six furlongs in 1:14.40 at Hollywood Saturday. "She won the Matron last year, but I want to see who's running and the weights of the races before I decide where she'll run." Owned by Senji Nishimura, Romance Is Diane was fourth in the GII Clement L. Hirsch Handicap at Del Mar last out Aug. 2. In 15 career starts, she has never raced against males, but has five wins, three at Santa Anita. "She's training great, and if she can handle this track the way it's playing now, the way speed is holding up on it, she'll like it even more," said Mitchell, who won the recent Fairplex Park training title for his 17th overall in Southern California. "It doesn't look like anybody's coming from out of it on this track. It seems like you've got to be laying up close to win on it, so with her speed, that alone should help her."

Veterinarian to the Stars Jock Jocoy Dies:

Dr. Jock Jocoy, veterinarian to several of the greatest horses in Thoroughbred racing history, including champions Swaps, Ack Ack, Cougar II and Buckpasser, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Del Mar after a lengthy illness. The native of New London, Connecticut, was 82. Earning his degree as a veterinarian at the University of California at Davis in 1954, "Doc" Jocoy had a successful private practice on Southern California racetracks from 1955 until 1983. Serving as the resident vet for owner-breeder Rex Ellsworth early in his career, Jocoy, who was the track veterinarian at Del Mar for several years, was employed by numerous Hall of Famers, including Charlie Whittingham, Hirsch Jacobs, Meshach "Mesh" Tenney, Eddie Neloy, Horatio Luro and D. Wayne Lukas. A successful breeder in California, he bred stakes winners D'Artagnan, Windy Kate, Queen Janine, Jan Jessie, Sheila Jan and Kirrary. Survivors include wife Katie, daughters Jan and Sheila, sons Kelly and Jock Sterling, plus five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Metaphoric was stepped down from Group company to handicaps last term before enjoying a spell over hurdles during the winter which heralded two wins. Third in Royal Ascot's Queen Alexandra S. on his return to the level June 21, the bay captured a competitive handicap at that track on his last start July 12. Lazy out of the gates, he was coaxed into mid-pack before running into traffic on the rail early in the straight. Left with nowhere to go but a slim gap up the fence next to Sagara inside the final furlong, he was squeezed through in typically daring fashion by Jamie Spencer with 100 yards remaining and was firmly in command in the run to the line.

Pasar Silbano stood out in this race for graduates of the Goffs Sportsman's Sale by virtue of her exploits in stakes company earlier this term. Third in the Listed Marble Hill S. over a panel shorter here May 24, she was fourth behind Shimah and Chintz (Ire) in a strong renewal of the Listed Saoire S. over this track and trip June 27 before dropping back to five to win the Listed Curragh S. on her third visit a month later. Prominent throughout the early stages, the bay took over passing halfway and was beyond recall as the outsider City Dancer tried in vain to make inroads.

"I was drawn 29, so I wanted to let her come up the middle of the track and [trainer] Ger [Lyons] said she was very professional and knew her job so she wouldn't mind being out on her own," jockey Johnny Murtagh said. "It was hard to do it from where she was, but she won like a nice filly." Video, courtesy attheraces.com.

Last year's G3 Premio Omenoni winner Le Cadre Noir had failed to find the winner's spot under the care of Dermot Weld this term, but had shaped as if that was a matter of time when fourth in the G3 Sapphire S. over five furlongs here June 29. Second in the prestigious Rockingham H. back over the same track and trip July 13, the bay disappointed when seventh in the Listed Belgrave S. at Fairyhouse last time July 20 before spending a short spell on the shelf. Slowly away and held up throughout the early stages, he made his way to the front before the final furlong and stayed on determinedly as the Curragh specialist Benbaun and Snaefell made a fist of it late on.
