ZARK DE TRIOMPHE

His Highness The Aga Khan's Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) had Longchamp holding its breath when making it a magnificent seven career wins, and a fifth at the highest level, in yesterday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Even the great Allez France had failed at the last hurdle when attempting to follow up her successes in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Vermeille here in 1973, but the rare "pearl," as trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre earlier labelled Zarkava, brought up the historic four-timer in style. De Royer-Dupre feared that the star filly might be compromised by the heavy rain he saw at Chantilly in the morning, but he regained confidence after discovering that Longchamp had been untouched by the deluge. The punters followed suit--patriotic bets saw her start as the even-money favorite--but she almost threw away their cash when jinking right when exiting the stalls, almost losing jockey Christophe Soumillon. Soon recovering, the bay found the gaps when it mattered, delivered her trademark acceleration to lead with a furlong remaining and surged clear under a hand ride. "That was beautiful," de Royer-Dupre said. "She had a very easy race and Christophe didn't use his whip, so it was perfect." Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) got going late to fill the runner's-up spot for the second year in succession, two lengths adrift. Jockey Richard Hills said, "It was another great effort in the Arc and it took a great champion to beat us." ABBAYE CHAOS MARS BIG DAY

There was unwanted drama on the Arc undercard yesterday, as the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye had to be staged nearly six hours after its scheduled post time due to a false start. With several of the jockeys failing to see the relevant signals after the stall housing Fleeting Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) failed to open, there were scenes of dismay as soon as Overdose (GB) (Starborough {GB}) had crossed the line in first. Connections of that Hungarian raider and Desert Lord (GB) (Green Desert) and Only Answer (GB) (Green Desert) later withdrew their horses from the re-run. Desert Lord's trainer Sandor Ribarszki told PA Sport, "I am very, very unhappy--we have come 1700 kilometres for nothing." Fleeting Spirit's trainer Jeremy Nosedo revealed that she had twisted a shoe when left in the stall. "It is quite unbelievable," Nosedo said. "I have never seen it in my life and I hope I never see it again. It's so crazy, it's a little bit amusing." Desert Lord's jockey Darryll Holland added, "There was so much confusion down at the start and they took an age to load them up. Nobody knew if it was a false start or not, and when I saw horses coming round me, I just thought I'd better keep going." There was a sense of consternation from rider Dominique Boeuf, who said, "The signal light was definitely not on, and from my position in stall two, I could not see the red flag."

Zarkava was genuine ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ material from the outset, and displayed what would become a customary brilliant turn of foot on debut here in September. Her debut win was the first in a sequence of four stunning successes over a mile of this circuit that also included the 2007 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and a first taste of Classic success in the May 11 Pouliches. Her come-from-behind style was in evidence again in Chantilly's Prix de Diane June 8, and she showed in the Vermeille three weeks ago that she can even gift rivals several lengths headstart and still blow by with lethal authority. After her jink coming out of the stalls here, it was mainly plain sailing.

It's Gino battled it out with Soldier of Fortune against the fence after the field had swallowed the rabbit Red Rock Canyon (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), but Zarkava rolled by that pair with a furlong remaining, and she was already on her way to glory as Richard Hills sent Youmzain in vain chase. "She is just out of this world," commented Soumillon, who threw his hat into the crowd in typical ebullient style. "I had not one moment of worry, and passing those horses will be a memory that will be in my mind forever. People always try and find weaknesses in a champion, but she has none. Of all the greats I have ridden, only Dalakhani (Ire) can equal her, and I can't say which is better." For her owner-breeder The Aga Khan, the result was a culmination of a lifetime's work. "My family has been in breeding over five generations and, down the decades, the challenge has been to breed horses at the top level," he explained. "I think today is the apogee of that, and it is just fantastic. Zarkava is an exceptional filly and I will talk to my team and discuss whether she stays in training next year."

Second Again...

Youmzain failed to get to Dylan Thomas (Ire) 12 months ago, and his late flourish was not quite good enough again after he met some interference in the straight. Connections announced that the five-year-old will not run again this year, but It's Gino's trainer Pavel Vovcenko has more planned for the dead-heating third.
 "I hope he gets an invitation to the [Nov. 30] G1 Japan Cup," Ostmann said. Trainer Eric Libaud said of the previously unbeaten G1 Prix du Jockey-Club hero Vision d'Etat (Chichicastenango {Fr}), who found some trouble in running before staying on for fifth, "He did not get a great run and my initial reaction was confirmed by my jockey Ioritz Mendiazabal, who said he could have been third. He is finished for the year and will be back next season." Johnny Murtagh blamed the lack of pace for the below-par seventh of Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) after the field ignored the pacemaker. "There was not enough pace from the start and he was more cut for speed than beaten on class--the ground was not an excuse," Murtagh said.

NAAQOOS IN CHARGE

In yesterday's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp, Naaqoos (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) struck for the Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum-Freddy Head axis that has enjoyed such a fruitful year. Coming here off the back of a Sept. 14 course-and-distance conditions success, the 4-1 second choice soon had the lead under Davy Bonilla and quickened in the stretch to ward off all challenges and best Milanais (Fr) (Dyhim Diamond {Fr}) by a neck. "I think he is a great horse--a champion," Head said.

Naaqoos started out with a fluent score in a 6 1/2-furlong debutantes contest at Deauville Aug. 2 and followed that with a respectable--if non-threatening--fifth in that venue's G1 Prix Morny 22 days later. Dropped back in class last time, the bay enjoyed a confidence boost there to set him up for this test.

Quickly away from the widest stall, he was able to beat 1-2 favorite Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to the lead and settled when there to dictate honest fractions. Turning the screw in the straight, he soon had the market leader beaten and pulled out extra as Milanais closed fast and late. "That is the first time this year he has got out of the stalls properly, and although the orders were to wait with him instead of fighting him, Davy left it to him," Head said of the winner, who set a new record for the race and shaving 2/10th of a second off the previous best set by Holy Roman Emperor (Ire). "He is a hell of a mover--an extraordinary mover--and he's very intelligent and good in his head. He's very well-balanced and has everything. We'll talk about the Classics with Sheikh Hamdan, but he could be the right horse for Newmarket." But Sheikh Hamdan's Racing Manager Angus Gold suggested that a return to Longchamp for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains could be in the cards. "After winning this, he will be trained with a race like the French 2000 Guineas in mind," Gold said. Thierry Jarnet, aboard runner-up Milanais, remarked, "We had a good fast pace and I was able to ask him to accelerate when I wanted. He has improved with every outing and is not disgraced, as he was not beaten far. As he adapts to all situations, he should stay a mile next year." Jim Bolger said of third-placed Intense Focus, "He has run very well and is very resilient; we'll see how he comes out of this and consider the G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 18]."

Lady Marian, who provided Germany with a second success in this prize after the exploits of Martessa (Ger) in 1991, swooped to deny Lush Lashes for this career-best. Rising to prominence quickly in her home country this term, the bay was breaking her maiden when besting subsequent group scorer Ashantee (Ger) in the G3 Grosser Preis der Jungheinrich Gabelstapler by three lengths at Hamburg July 4. Runner-up to Rosenreihe (Ire) (Catcher In the Rye {Ire}) in the Aug. 3 G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) over 1 3/8 miles at Dusseldorf, she benefitted from a drop back to 10 furlongs when taking the Aug. 24 G3 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville, and took another major step forward here in her toughest test yet. Held up in the pack early by Dominique Boeuf, she quickened impressively on the outside as Lush Lashes was forced through a gap on the fence by Kevin Manning, then inhaled that rival in the final 100 yards for a decisive score. "She is an improving filly and I don't know her limit yet," trainer Werner Baltromei commented. "For me, Dominique [Boeuf] is the best in the world. We will have to see how she comes out of this before thinking about the Breeders' Cup. I just hope that she stays in training next year." Her jockey added, "She is a real racehorse and proved in the Nonette that she belongs at the top level. She has improved on her last run and traveled easily throughout. She is a fighter, and showed the same valor as last time." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Lush Lashes Somewhat the Worse for Wear...

The runner-up's trainer Jim Bolger revealed that she had suffered a cut. "She has a wound on her outside right fore and must be very sore," Bolger said. "I will have to see how much training she misses because of that, and whether I have time to prepare her for Hong Kong." John Oxx, trainer of show horse Katiyra, remarked, "She's a good filly and ran very well. She lost ground at the start and so had a lot to make up." Oxx added, "I expect she'll stay in training next year, but I'm not sure."

DIVINE PROPORTIONS

Proportional (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) registered a fifth win in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac for trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek at Longchamp yesterday. Ignored at 28-1, the blaze-faced bay broke fast and raced close to the strong early fractions before kicking decisively passing the quarter pole. In front soon after, the Sept. 11 Chantilly conditions scorer was not for catching and had a three-length margin to spare over Elusive Wave (Ire) (Elusive City) at the line. "I always had faith in her and I knew she was my best," Head-Maarek said.

Proportional was only fourth in a hot mile Deauville debutantes contest Aug. 10, finishing behind Copperbeech, Go Lovely Rose (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and Pill (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}). Shaping with more professionalism next time at Chantilly, she recorded a neck success over a panel shorter and that performance failed to fire the imagination of the Parisian crowds. Sharply away from her wide draw, the homebred received a lead from Marquesa (Kingmambo), who took her past the quarter pole where she was in full flight. Seizing the advantage soon after, she was beyond recall as Elusive Wave led home the closers in the silks of Martin Schwartz, who bought her for €660,000 at the previous night's Arc Sale. "The first time she ran, she was green and didn't understand what we asked of her," Head-Maarek added. "She won very well at Chantilly and I asked the Prince to let me run her here and I did the right thing. She'll be entered in the Pouliches and 1000 Guineas and will tell me what to do." Marchand d'Or turned what promised to be farce into a celebration when recording a fifth success at the highest level in this re-run contest. One of the few to have realised that there was a false start in the initial race, Davy Bonilla spared the grey a hard race, unlike Hungarian challenger Overdose (GB) (Starborough {GB}) who had raced at full pelt to the line. With that rival absent five hours later, the favorite took his time wide of the pack throughout the early stages. Sweeping by overmatched opponents inside the final quarter, he struck the front passing the eighth pole and had too many guns for Moorhouse Lad. Marchand d'Or, who was following up on a first overseas success in the G1 July Cup and a third consecutive triumph in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest Aug. 10, just missed the record time set by Habibti (Ire) in 1983 by :01. In a twist to the day's embarrassing story, Overdose was later revealed to have completed his five furlongs in identical time to Marchand d'Or. "He is an exceptional horse and compares with the all-time great sprinters like Dayjur and Anabaa," trainer Freddy Head said after completing an afternoon Group 1 double (see Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere p3). "I rode Anabaa and I think he is better, as I am convinced he has more speed. As he is a gelding, he will stay in training next year, and he may not be finished this year either, as I fancy taking him back to Hong Kong [for the G1 Sprint Dec. 14 at Sha Tin]." Of the delay, he added, "It looked to me that he had not suffered from the earlier incident. We were all in the same boat, so I did not hesitate to run."

Moorhouse Lad's rider Jim Crowley told PA Sport, "Having the race called off earlier didn't help him, as he's like a time bomb waiting to go off. It took a bit of buzz out of him, but it was still a great run." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Carriage Trail, a winner of two of three previous starts at Keeneland, won the Gill Doubledogdare S. over the Polytrack here in April. She captured the restricted De La Rose S. over the Saratoga lawn before a runner-up effort behind Wait a While over the grass in the Aug. 21 Gill Ballston Spa H. last time out. Carriage Trail chased the pace from fourth through three-quarters, she powered to the lead on the turn and stormed clear down the lane despite drifting out for a track record-setting win.

"She will drift out in her races a little bit," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "I talked to Kent [Desormeaux] about that in the paddock. Sometime it might have cost her, but she was in EquiSport front and there wasn't any sense in fooling with her." Desormeaux confirmed he was not concerned with his mount's errant path. "I wasn't going to hinder her by correcting her path," said Desormeaux. "I just let her drift, and she was happy and she was going fast." Model rallied from last in the 10-horse field to give Giant's Causeway the Spinster exacta. Favored Unbridled Belle (Broken Vow) never threatened and finished ninth. The turn back in distance was just what the doctor ordered for Tale of Ekati. The Charles Fipke homebred, winner of the GII Futurity S. over this strip a year ago, hadn't been able to hit the board in four route starts since taking the GI Wood Memorial in April. A decent

Adam Coglianesse

fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby, he was sixth in the GI Belmont S., fourth in the GII Jim Dandy S. and, in his latest, seventh in the Aug. 23 GI Travers S. The fourth-longest shot in this seven-horse field, which featured favored GISW Visionaire (Grand Slam), Tale of Ekati tracked in third as Z Humor (Distorted Humor) cut out :23 and :46 1/5 splits. Tale of Ekati forged to the lead in upper stretch, opened a clear advantage and was never in serious danger as You and I Forever closed well along the rail. "I was pleased he handled the mud so well," said winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "I was disappointed that the track was so muddy so late in the day, but fortunately, he handled it well. I knew he was dead-right for the race, and I thought it was a good spot for him, although I knew it was very, very tough. I really have no idea what's next for him." Visionaire trailed throughout. "[Jockey Alan Garcia] said he didn't respond," explained his trainer, Michael Matz. "I don't know if something wasn't to his liking. He has run well in the slop before. I don't know." Margins: HF, HF, NO. Odds: 6.25, 7.65, 3.55.

Also Ran: Red Leader, Dance Into Heaven, Southern Exchange.

Mine That Bird was looking for his third straight stakes win in his two-turn bow. The bay gelding has done nothing wrong since finishing fifth in his July 20 debut. He graduated with a 1 3/4-length win for a $62,500 tag Aug. 4 before jumping out with stakes victories in the Aug. 23 Silver Deputy S. and Sept. 14 Swynford S. Mine That Bird broke outward from his rail post and rushed up to press pacesetting Bear's Conductor. Taken off the pace on the backstretch, he moved up along the rail but was forced to steady and was moved to the outside. In full stride late, he reeled in Bear's Conductor to win going away. "Out of the gate, I think my horse got a little intimidated on the inside and was sharp," said winning jockey Chantal Sutherland. "I went into the race not sure what [favorite] Southern Exchange (Exchange Rate) was going to do. When Bear's Conductor took the lead, I was pleased. On the turn, when I came to Eurico [Rosa da Silva, aboard Bear's Conductor], I wanted to push him because it was so easy for him on the lead and he went for it. I angled out. It worked out, but Bear's Conductor was tough to get by." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Margins: HF, 2HF, 1. Odds: 9.35, 2.55, 15.20.

Also Ran: Retraceable, Bedtime Story, Dancingontheedge, Babylonian, Mullins Beach, After the Applause, Astrotime.

Van Lear Rose broke her maiden in stakes company, taking the Sept. 1 Muskoka S. by 3/4 lengths in her fourth start. The filly raced wide in mid-pack, moved closer on the turn and overtook favored Livin Lovin late for her second straight victory. "I had my eye on [Ramon] Dominguez [aboard Livin Lovin]," admitted jockey Chantal Sutherland, who swept the juvenile stakes at Woodbine yesterday. "I thought she was the one to beat. I was a little wide, but there was really nowhere to get in. When I really needed her, she accelerated." Van Lear Rose's success was no surprise to trainer Catherine Day Phillips. "I've really liked this filly for a long time," Day Phillips said. "I thought she would get better stretching out, which she did. She does tend to relax in the morning when she's asked to. Luckily, Chantal got her to relax today, so she was effective at the end." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Bittel Road drew off to a 3 1/4-length debut win over the Belmont lawn July 11 and returned to earn a narrow victory in the Aug. 29 With Anticipation S. at this distance at Saratoga last time out. Sent off the even-money choice here, the colt was allowed to settle into stride early. He swept to the outside for the drive and closed powerfully to just get up in the final strides. "This colt is one that we liked all along," admitted winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He was able to break his maiden going three-quarters and go to the front doing that, and overcame some adversity at Saratoga to win. So we knew he was a quality colt, but I thought today he was very, very good. We hope to go the Breeders' Cup if everything comes out well." Bittel Road's effort impressed winning jockey Rajiv Maragh. "A couple of horses went to the lead, and I just wanted to settle, but I got shuffled back a bit on the third turn. Going down the backstretch, I was further back than I would hope to be, but the race was really jumbled up and I just waited for a hole. I found it on the outside. I asked him to run and he finished strong. I was at the back and I had, like eight horses in front of me. He just kept passing them one by one until he got there." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

M Burns

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

SKY DIVA HEADING WEST

Sky Diva (Sky Mesa), winner of Saturday's GI Frizette S. at Belmont Park, will head west to contest the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita, confirmed trainer Steve Klesaris yesterday. "She's fantastic," Klesaris said. "Sky Diva is Breeders' Cup-bound, but she will be heading out later, rather than sooner. She's been training on the synthetic surface at Fair Hill, so I don't feel the need to rush out there with her, especially with the heat they've been having." Klesaris added that Mani Bhavan (Storm Boot) would get the rest of the year off after running last in Friday's GI Darley Alcibiades at Keeneland. "She did not take to the synthetic surface at all," Klesaris said. "Her performance was not the norm for her. Being that the [Juvenile Fillies] is on synthetic, we are going to shut her down and get her ready for a spring campaign."

Breeders' Cup plans are up in the air of Vineyard Haven (Lido Palace {Chi}), winner of Saturday's GI Champagne S. at Belmont. "I really don't know what I'm going to do," admitted co-owner and trainer Bobby Frankel. "I want to see how the tracks are out there [before making a decision]." Although the Champagne was a "Win and You're In" race, connections would still have to supplement Vineyard Haven for a fee of $180,000 to run in the Breeders' Cup. Frankel owns Vineyard Haven in partnership with Louis Lazzarino and Los Angeles Dodgers manager Joe Torre, who also watched his ballclub complete a sweep of the Chicago Cubs in the National League Divisional playoff series Saturday.

Square Eddie (Smart Strike) exited his win in Saturday's GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity in fine shape and will head to California Monday. He will continue preparations for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile with new trainer Doug O'Neill.

OBS FALL MIXED SALE BEGINS The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Fall Mixed Sale begins its three-day run today in Florida. A total of 1,000 horses have been catalogued for the auction, which begins with 348 hips in today's single Consignor Preferred session. Tuesday's initial open session includes hips 349 through 674 and the sale concludes with a second open session Wednesday with hips 675 through 1,000. All sessions begin at 10:30 a.m. and live video is available at www.obssales.com. There are 517 weanlings in the catalogue, including youngsters from the first crops of GI Kentucky Derby winner Giacomo and GI Wood Memorial winner Bellamy Road, as well as Rockport Harbor, Bandini, Sharp Humor and War Front. Mares in the catalogue are in foal to first-season sires Discreet Cat, Flashy Bull, Stevie Wonderboy, Stormello, Sun King and Wilko.

CHAPEL ROYAL TO SIGNATURE STALLIONS

Chapel Royal (Montbrook--Cut Class Leanne, by Cutlass) will relocate to Signature Stallions for the 2009 breeding season after being acquired by William Schettine's Ocala-based farm. The seven-year-old stallion, a $1.2-million OBS February juvenile, won the 2003 GII Sanford S. and GIII Flash S. The freshman sire, who stood at Ashford Stud, has been represented by 17 winners to date, including Advice, third in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity. "We are doing something a little bit different," said Bill Bazzell, general manager of Signature Stallions. "We're bringing a successful Kentucky sire back to Florida. William wants Florida breeders to know beyond any doubt that he is committed to Thoroughbred breeding in this state. He has made a huge commitment in bringing Chapel Royal here. This is a horse that has deep Florida roots and is off to a fantastic start as a sire of two-year-olds. He's got everything a breeder could want: great looks, great speed and was a brilliant two-year-old." Chapel Royal will stand for $10,000.

EquiSport

LIEUTENANT RON (c, 3, Graeme Hall--Spell Again, by Seattle Battle) got himself back on track with this sharp effort. The chestnut stamped himself as one to watch with big wins on debut at Aqueduct last November (102 Beyer) and, off the break, at the Big A in April (101 Beyer). Off again before returning in a second-level allowance going six panels at Belmont Sept. 14, Lieutenant Ron ran a disappointing third at 3-5 odds and was hammered down to 1-5 favoritism here to make amends. Kept just off the pacesetter, he took control without being asked on the turn and was in hand down the lane en route to a 8 3/4-length victory. Kaper Lake (Meadowlake) completed the exacta. Parra Family Odnates $53,000 to Tubby's Clubhouses:

The Parra Family Foundation has donated $53,000 to the Lexington-based Tubby's Clubhouses program. In existence for four years, the program offers students a 40-hour advanced technology curriculum for less than $300. "We are very grateful to Ro Parra and his family for their continued support of the Tubby's Clubhouses program," said Tubby Smith, former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and co-founder of the organization. "The Parra Family Foundation has donated $278,000 to our program over the last three years and we are grateful for its commitment to helping at-risk children improve their lives and learn how to use technology. We are also grateful to the support of Keeneland, the University of Kentucky, Lexington, the Urban Leage and the Fayette County school system, who comprise a great team to help Tubby's Clubhouses succeed." Ro Parra added, "My family and I are pleased to present this check to Tubby's Clubhouses. We look forward to our fundraiser at Millennium Farms on Nov. 7, when we will challenge attendees to help us raise $100,000 for the program through live and silent auctions. If the event does raise $100,000, the Parra Family Foundation will match it dollar for dollar as we hope to raise a total of over $200,000 this year."

Trainer Doug O'Neill watched his former star Lava Man lead the horses to the post for the Classic, then saw his newest stakes winner capture the race. "It doesn't get more exciting than this," O'Neill said. "Isn't it amazing to have Lava Man be here and Mr. Chairman ran like Lava Man, as far as the gutsiness down the lane. The gelding promptly won his next two in open allowances, taking a NW1X July 24 and a NW2X Aug. 17--both going a mile over Del Mar's lawn. Looking to make it three straight at a flat mile, Swift Winds was taken off a sharp early pace. He was going best of all at the furlong grounds and swept past the odds-on favorite Bold Chieftain. "I didn't give Alonso [jockey Quinonez] any instructions, except to get the horse to relax...and make one move, and that's it," said Victor Garcia, who added, "My father helped me for a long time and gave me a lot of support, so I'm very happy he is here today to see this victory."

Lightmyfirebaby keyed the exacta for her sire. The five-year-old mare, who was awarded the GIII Las Cinegas H. in April via DQ, completed the exacta in three of five stakes since then, including a division of the Daisy Cutter H. at Del Mar Sept. 3. Looking to take her fourth victory sprinting down the hillside course, she sat an ideal trip off the pacesetters before rallying wide in deep stretch. "She knows this track," said winning trainer Barry Abrams, who also co-bred the mare. "She's already won a couple times down this course, so I had confidence in her. I'm proud of all the Unusual Heats, but it was great to have them run one-two in this race [Christiana's Heat was second at 30-1 for trainer Steve Knapp]. It's another great Cal Cup day."

Tribesman was batting an even .500 coming into this and improved his average with a game score. The gelding, who bested Idiot Proof in the Phoenix Gold Cup H. at Turf Paradise this spring, entered the race off a wire-to-wire win in the California State Fair Sprint H. at Sacramento Aug. 30. Employing the same tactics here, Tribesman blazed the trail through :21 3/5 and :44 1/5 splits. He kept the motor revved under Russell Baze and stayed on well to best GISW Johnny Eves. "I knew we were going fast and those other guys were thinking we were gonna die up front," said Baze. "But I was thinking, 'You guys are in trouble,' because even though the fractions were very fast, he was by himself and doing it easy. When he's not head and head, those are easy fractions for him. He's got a lot of speed and he carries it very well. You can see from the final time he wasn't slowing down much." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Saucey Evening graduated at first asking sprinting on the turf at Colonial Downs June 20 before closing to be a close-up second on the Polytrack at Del Mar in the CTBA S. against statebreds July 18. Ambitiously placed in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 1, the chestnut encountered some difficulties and could only finish seventh that day. Well supported in this drop to easier company, the Cal-bred was off slowly at the start, and settled just off the rail in the early going. Moving up to take on early pacesetter Ten Churros midstretch, Saucey Evening drew clear to post the easy score.
