PAMONA BALL DREW AWAY IMPRESSIVELY
YESTERDAY AT OAK TREE FOR MSW WIN

THE GIRL'S GOT RHYTHM

Paul Pompa Jr's Backseat Rhythm (El Corredor) will have to be on top of her game to keep her two-race winning streak intact in today's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland. Following a seventh-place finish behind Pure Clan (Pure Prize) in the GI American Oaks American Oaks Invitational S. at Hollywood Park July 5, the bay relished yielding courses at Saratoga and Belmont, reeling off back-to-back wins in the GII Lake Placid S. Aug. 15 and the GI Garden City S. Sept. 6. "It's pretty much against horses she's run against and beat before," trainer Pat Reynolds said of the QE II. "But it's not like we're shooting tops; it's a Grade I, and they've all got a chance. I wouldn't trade mine with anybody." Ariege

(Doneraile Court), heroine of the GI Santa Anita Oaks in March, was sidelined after having an ankle chip removed following her victory in the GII Stonerside Beaumont S. over the Keeneland Polytrack in April. The IEAH colorbearer has returned with two big efforts since, annexing Saratoga's Aug. 9 Madame Jumel S. over Closeout (Repriced) and Lickety Lemon (Lemon Drop Kid) before finishing a solid third in the Garden City. "She was coming back fairly quick in the Garden City, and she ran pretty good," trainer Bobby Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "This should be a real good race for her, if she likes the surface. It's an extremely good field, and I think the horse that gets the best trip is going to win. I envision our filly laying just off the pace and making one run."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

NO CUP FOR RAINBOW VIEW

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Rainbow View (Dynaformer) will not take in the Breeders' Cup, trainer John Gosden has announced. George Strawbridge's unbeaten G1 Fillies' Mile heroine had been expected to ship to Santa Anita for the Juvenile Fillies following her Ascot success, but has prompted connections to change tack after turning in her coat. "It's a shame, because she's in great form," Gosden told The Independent: "But she's told us there's no point in sending her out to the heat in California. If it was some tough colt, it might be different, but not her." A daughter of GI Del Mar Oaks winner No Matter What (Nureyev), Rainbow View is virtually untested in her four trips to the post and has amassed earnings of $353,289.

GRADE 1 QUEEN ELIZABETH II CUP

Her Crowning Moment?...

It would only be fitting if My Princess Jess (Stormy Atlantic) earns her first Grade I tally in the Queen Elizabeth. The dark bay completed a five-race campaign for Georgia Stable and trainer Bob Barbara with a win in Belmont's Gaviola S. May 8. Purchased privately by Lael Stables, she won her first two starts for her new connections, the GIII Boiling Springs S. at Monmouth June 28 and the GII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 25. Trained by Barclay Tagg, My Princess Jess enters off a close fourth in the Garden City. "I'm not thrilled about the post position, but it may keep her out of trouble," said Tagg, who won last year's QE II with Bit of Whimsy (Distorted Humor). "I am not sure about any distance limitations with her. If the race sets up well, she should be right there."

LARAGH LIKELY FOR JUVENILE FILLIES TURF

IEAH Stables' and Golden Goose Enterprise's Laragh (Tapit), an impressive 4 3/4-length wire-to-wire winner in Thursday's JPMorgan Chase Jessamine S. at Keeneland, may return on quick notice for the $1 million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita Oct. 24. The gray earned an automatic spot in the starting gate for the Juvenile Fillies Turf with her tour-de-force in the Jessamine. "She looked good [Friday] morning," trainer John Terranova said. "It looks like she is ready to go to the Breeders' Cup. I am going to talk it over with the guys, but it looks like a good possibility." According to Terranova, Laragh will remain in Lexington for the time being. "She will walk for a couple of days and then I am coming back [to Keeneland] on Monday," Terranova said. "I think I am going to keep her there because Keeneland is a great place to train. We have her scheduled to fly out to California on the last plane out of Lexington on [October] 21st."

This is often an important pointer to the following year's movers and shakers, with Daliapour (Ire), Nayef and Ibn Khaldun featuring among the recent winners and Nashwan a notable name on the list. Sans Frontieres captured a seven-furlong maiden on debut at Lingfield Sept. 1 and is held in high regard by Jeremy Nosedá. Owner Sir Robert Ogden's Racing Manager Barry Simpson said, "Having looked at it, the form of his maiden hasn't worked out that well, nothing really has come out of the race and inspired, but we were pleased enough because he didn't have the best of runs. Things didn't happen for him, then he did all his best work at the end, which is always a good sign. If he won well and came out of the race okay, then the G1 Racing Post Trophy [at Doncaster Oct. 25] is there to be considered."

Kite Wood is another who promised more when breaking his maiden over a mile at Doncaster last time Sept. 12, while the Sept. 19 Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S. scorer Taameer represents the Nayef partnership of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum and Marcus Tregoning. "It's a hot race, but Taameer is in good shape and the form of his debut win is looking pretty good," his trainer told PA Sport. "He has taken a while to come to hand, but I think he is the right sort of horse for this race. Nayef was also quite immature, but the extraordinary thing about him was that he was so sound--I don't think I ever gave him a day off in all the days I had him in training. He trained seven days a week--he had to because he got quite fresh--but like Nayef, Taameer has got good limbs and a good mind and I think that is the main thing with these young horses."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

WEEKEND FEATURES LOST TO STRIKE Italy's strike claimed its first major casualties yesterday when no declarations were made for Sunday's cards, which include the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at Milan. The move follows turbulent scenes in Rome on Wednesday, when a protest at the ministries of Agriculture and Finance led to the calling of a blackout on the domestic racing scene. Also lost are the San Siro's G3 Premio Sergio Cumani and G3 Premio Dormello and Rome's prestigious trotting Derby, with next Sunday's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club and G1 Gran Criterium card in the balance.

This race has been won by the likes of Ashkalani (Ire), Gold Away (Ire), Chichicastenango (Fr), Act One (GB) and Thewayyouare in recent times, and Silver Frost promised better things when adding his name to the honor roll in decisive fashion here. While all focus beforehand centered around ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Fuisse, it was the grey, racing under a penalty, who stole the limelight. Successful over six furlongs in a conditions event at this venue June 9 and in the Aug. 3 G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville, he found everything happening too quickly when seventh in the G1 Prix Morny back over that track and trip three weeks later. Getting more distance for this softer spot, Silver Frost settled with only one behind throughout the early stages of this contest. He delivered his challenge wide at the top of the straight as Fuisse took command traveling strongly but quickened by that rival under one slap of Olivier Peslier's whip with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and carried out the rest of the task under hand riding. WON Lake Michigan S. at Arlington Sept. 20

Cottonwood Stable LLC's Stormy Ballad was the 20-1 rank outsider in a field of six for the Lake Michigan S. in Chicago Sept. 20 and probably deservedly so. The Florida-bred entered that event as a maiden in nine previous trips to the post, though he did have eight placings. In the span of 64 seconds and some change that Saturday afternoon, Stormy Ballad graduated in grand style.

"That was pretty sweet," admitted Tommy Ligon, who races the $50,000 OBS April graduate in the name of Cottonwood Stables LLC with his good friend Pete Nance. "The stars were definitely aligned."

Stormy Ballad was the first horse purchased on behalf of Cottonwood by Chicago-based conditioner Anthony Granitz. The outfit also has horses in training in the Midlantic with Larry Jones, who is involved in helping Ligon and Nance select yearlings. But in Granitz, the Cottonwood braintrust have found someone to help in the selection of juveniles. Ligon, who also acquires horses privately, sees some distinct advantages in the two-year-old sales.

"We have a group of advisors and we enjoy being able to see the horses' strides, how they work and how they gallop out afterwards," Ligon explains. "That type of feedback is available to us at two-year-old sales and we just hope that we find something that catches our eye."

Ligon, who owns about a dozen horses in partnership with Nance and an additional 14 on his own, admits that he has had success with all kinds of horses, but those that he purchased as juveniles are more successful on the margins.

"We've had decent success [with two-year-olds]," he commented. "Yeah, sometimes you end up with some damaged goods, but by and large, you don't have to sit on the horse as long and they are more mature and are closer to the races."

Ligon and Nance are also represented by Beyond Ready (More Than Ready), an $80,000 graduate of the 2007 OBSMAR sale, who won three straight this past summer and made his last appearance in the Gill Kentucky Cup Sprint. The team also have high hopes for Smoken Dreams (Smoke Glacken), a $62,000 OBSJUN purchase; and Fast Promises (Broken Vow), a $34,000 OBSAPR buy, who are close to debuting for Granitz in Chicago. Additionally, they now own a Lightnin N Thunder half-sister to Stormy Ballad, a $20,000 OBSAUG yearling.

If there is a negative, it's that Ligon didn't cash in at 20-1 in the Lake Michigan. "I get a thrill out of owning horses, but every time I bet on them, I jinx them," he said with a chuckle. —A.C.

KHRC TO FILE EXCEPTIONS TO DUTROW
SUSPENSION REVERSAL The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission yesterday responded to a recommendation that trainer Rick Dutrow Jr.'s 15-day suspension for a clenbuterol positive at Churchill Downs in May be overturned. In a statement, Lisa Underwood, the KHRC executive director, said, "The staff of the KHRC has reviewed the hearing officer's recommendations to the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission regarding the stewards' ruling against trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. We have concluded that we have a strong basis for filing exceptions to the recommended order, and we intend to do so promptly." Dutrow trainee Salute the Count tested positive for clenbuterol after running second in the May 2 GIII Aegon Turf Sprint S. at Churchill. There was a hearing held at the end of August and, in a report filed Oct. 7, Hearing Officer James Robke concluded that, because the test was performed on the blood plasma, and not the blood serum as is required by the wording of the rule, the KHRC failed to show that Salute the Count had an overage of clenbuterol in his system. Robke recommended that the suspension, and the disqualification from purse money ordered by the Kentucky stewards, should be overturned. The KHRC has 15 days after receiving the report to file their exceptions.

Run Away and Hide won his first two starts in Kentucky--a Keeneland maiden special weight Apr. 18 and the May 1 GIII Kentucky S. at Churchill Downs. Elisabeth Alexander's Magna Graduate (Honor Grades--Peacock Alley, by Fast Play), a MGSW of $2,494,821, will stand at Darby Dan Farm upon completion of his racing career. "He has raced at 15 different race tracks and in Dubai. His attractiveness, heart and durability will make him popular among breeders looking for value and a proven race record. We are excited to work with Ms. Alexander, such a prominent member of the Ohio racing community, especially given Darby Dan Farm's deep Ohio connections." Magna Cracks Down on Slaughter:

Magna Entertainment Corp., North America's largest owner and operator of racetracks based on revenue, announced that it will deny stalls to any owner or trainer who directly or indirectly participates in the transport of a horse from an MEC facility to either a slaughterhouse or an auction house engaged in selling horses for slaughter. The policy also applies to any actions related to the transport of a horse from an MEC facility where the ultimate intended result is the horse's slaughter. "MEC is extremely pleased to formally adopt a policy to further encourage the humane treatment of racehorses," said Ron Charles, MEC COO and president of Santa Anita. Frank Stronach, Magna's chairman and CEO, added, "The goal of the policy is to forewarn industry participants who participate in the slaughter of racehorses that they are not welcome at any of our facilities across the country. I hope other racetrack owners formally adopt similar policies."

InCompass Announces Launch of Jockey Health Information System:

Medical staff at racetracks will have access to jockeys' medical records, thanks to the Jockey Health Information System. A beta version of the database was used on opening day of the Keeneland meet Oct. 3 when jockey John Velazquez was injured in race seven's spill. Dr. Barry Schumer, one of the database's developers, was able to access Velazquez's medical history within seconds and send a hard copy with the rider when he was transported to a local hospital. "Authorized emergency medical staff around the country can now get a rider's medical history," Schumer said. "The information is secure, regularly updated and always accessible to the emergency team." The full rollout of the system at other racetracks is expected to begin in November. Besides Dr. Schumer, The Jockey Health Information system was created by InCompass, The Jockey Club Technology Services Inc., the Jockeys' Guild and Keeneland.

ARCHI MISSES CHAMPION Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum's Archipenko (Kingmambo) will sidestep Saturday's G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. after suffering a setback.

Trainer Mike de Kock was forced to cancel a scheduled racecourse workout at Newmarket on Thursday after the four-year-old pulled off a shoe and yesterday ruled him out of that track's feature. "He's not sound this morning," he told PA Sport.

"It's nothing major, it's just going to cost us running in the Champion S. It's a major setback not to be running in the race, but in terms of the horse's well-being, it's not a major setback. At this stage, we're not even sure what it is. I sent the horse off to the vets to have a scan and a X-ray but, at the moment, we can't find anything. I'm hoping it's only a niggly thing that's going to cost us a week or two. Then we can have him ready for Hong Kong in December."
