REGARDING HENRY

Henry Cecil holds a special place in the affections of the Newmarket faithful and there will be more emotive scenes if he can conjure up a third win in today's G1 Emirates Airlines Champion S. with Twice Over (GB) (Observatory). Synonymous with the recent history of many of this track's great races, the maestro of Warren Place supplied two highlights in this particular contest's roll call courtesy of Indian Skimmer in 1988 and Bosra Sham eight years later. Rejuvenated in recent months

newmarketracecourses.co.uk

despite an ongoing battle with cancer, Cecil suffered the slings and arrows earlier this week when Phoenix Tower (Chester House) was ruled out, but in Khalid Abdullah's homebred colt he still has a potent force to go to war with. Twice Over Raven's Pass in the G3 Craven S. here on his sophomore bow Apr. 17, form which has been given more substance by the runner-up's subsequent exploits. He also boasts a third placing in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot and a win in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 27 before being hampered when only seventh under a penalty in the Aug. 23 G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville last time. There is a sense that his season has been stage-managed for this encore, but his trainer was in typically understated mood yesterday. "He is a far more inexperienced colt than Phoenix Tower and, although--if there is good ground--he has a chance of being in the frame, to win is asking a lot of him, but you never know," he reflected. "With the winter over him, he will be a much stronger horse, but let's wait and see."

WILL RIP WAKE UP?

Ballydoyle's previous heroes of the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. include some of the sport's most renowned characters in Nijinsky, The Minstrel, Storm Bird and El Gran Senor, and the establishment's new leader Aidan O'Brien saddled Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) to success seven years ago. Today's renewal features the much-vaunted Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is ready to be unleashed following a layoff since his success in the G3 Tyros S. at Leopardstown July 24. Despite his obvious talent, the trainer of Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's latest flame issued a note of caution this week. "Rip Van Winkle has been prepared for three races and he hasn't run in them," he explained. "He was prepared for the Futurity S. at the Curragh in August and National S. at the Curragh in September, but didn't run because of the heavy ground and then we ran Mastercraftsman in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp. It's not easy to bring horses up and down for races, especially when they're babies, so it's not ideal." The bay colt could give his leading sire a threepeat in the Dewhurst following successive victories by Teofilo (Ire) in 2006 and New Approach (Ire) last year.

Three-year-olds have won three of the last four renewals, and Baron Edouard de Rothschild's Russian Cross (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will be bidding for a third consecutive edition for France after the heroics of Pride (Fr) and Literato (Fr). Like Twice Over, he is another under the auspices of a legendary figure in Andre Fabre whose career appears to have been orchestrated with a major autumn target in mind. Successful on his stakes bow in the aforementioned Prix Guillaume d'Ornano, the homebred was far from disgraced when failing by a neck to give five pounds to the smart Never on Sunday (Fr) in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at Longchamp last time Sept. 20. "The horse is in very good form and we have saved him for this race," the Chantilly-based conditioner told PA Sport. "We supplemented him, so obviously I am confident he will run a very good race. He had a bit of a bad race at Longchamp last time and things did not go right for him--I don't think the result was fair. He has won on fast ground before so that will be no problem, but obviously New Approach looks to be different class. I don't expect to beat him if he runs to his true form, but if my horse can finish second or third, I would be delighted." Sir Michael Stoute has long been revered for his campaigning of older horses and his past winners Pilsudski (Ire) and Kalanisi (Ire) typified that approach. The Freemason Lodge conditioner looks to six-year-old Linngari (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) this time. Linngari defeated Pressing (Ire) in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich July 27, and he looked in need of the extra distance when runner-up to that rival when dropped back to a mile for the Sept. 7 Topkapi Trophy at Veliefendi last time.

Acoma rattled off three straight victories this spring, capped by the GIII Dogwood S. going a flat mile on Churchill's main track May 31. Shipped east, the bay

filly was a tame fourth in the 10-furlong GI CCA Oaks at Belmont July 19, and came here off a second in the GIII Monmouth Oaks Aug. 9. She went postward as the tepid 7-2 choice for this turf debut. Acoma recovered from a bump at the start to race in fifth, but began to tug her way forward on the far turn. The homebred hit the front in deep stretch and asserted herself in the final strides to post her second graded tally.

THREE CHIMNEYS Winners' Circle Report

For the week ending October 17, 2008

Dynaformer

RESCUE SQUAD (06 c. o/o Search Party, by Seeking the Gold) turned his first start into his first win, taking an October 11 maiden special on the turf valued at $53,000 at Belmont. The race was definitely a learning experience, as the colt endured several changes in pace and interference. He won by a head and starts his bankroll off at $31,800. Owner/Breeder: Stuart Janney, III & Phipps Stable. chart video

War Chant

SEA CHANTER (05 f. o/o Smooth Charmer, by Easy Goer) won a $60,000 Belmont Park allowance going a mile and a sixteenth on the turf on October 10. A multiple stakes winner, one of which was a graded event, in 2007, the filly has now earned $312,270 and has a record of 9-4-1-0. Owner: Darley Stable. Breeder: Stonerside Stable. chart video

Yes It's True

Peisinoe (05 f. o/o Galadriel, by Ascot Knight), who is G2SP this year, got up for third in the $75,000 House Party S. at Belmont Park on October 12. The filly, who is being offered in the Three Chimneys consignment at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale, has earned $92,610 with a record of 8-2-1-1. Owner: Howard Litt. Breeder: Padua Stables.

SKEPTIC (06 f. o/o Snowy Apprehension, by Devils Bag) made her third start a winning one, taking a $21,800 maiden special at Mountaineer by 3-1/4 lengths. After failing to score in her first two starts on synthetic, the dirt does the trick and sets her bankroll at $14,304. Owner: Cobalt Racing Stable. Breeder: Gainesway Thoroughbreds, Ltd. chart

Ignored at 50-1 for this fiercely competitive renewal, Charlie Farnsbarns wound back the clock to recapture his top-class juvenile form under Ryan Moore. In 2006 he had the subsequent G1 July Cup hero Sakhee's Secret (GB) behind when taking a conditions event at Ascot before finishing runner-up to Authorized (Ire) in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Newbury. Restricted by injury to a sole run last term, the bay made a successful four-year-old bow in a conditions event at York May 15 before failing to add to that tally on his next three starts culminating with a second to Alexandros (GB) at Bath on Sunday. Settled behind the early leaders, he was under pressure after halfway but responded to pick up Bankable in the final 100 yards and assert for a convincing success. "His form was very solid and he had most of this summer off with an injury," trainer Brian Meehan commented. "He probably needed it on Sunday and with the ground being as good as it is, I thought he had an excellent chance of being in the first four. We'll play it by ear and with nothing left for him this year we have Dubai in the spring in the back of our mind."

All carry 127 pounds.

Rip Van Winkle will have to be all he is cracked up to be to handle some highly progressive and promising types including the runaway G3 Somerville Tattersall S. winner Ashram. His 4 1/2-length defeat of the smart Control Zone (Ire) in that course-and-distance event 16 days ago marked him as potentially top-class, and trainer John Hills is happy that he has not gone backwards in the short lead-up to this contest. "Ashram did well and he showed a good turn of foot coming from last to first, like he had on his first run," he commented. "We were really pleased with him and he's a horse that is growing up. He won on the soft side of good when he won his maiden on the July Course and it was quick last time." Mark Johnston saddled Shamardal to win in brilliant fashion four years ago and relies on Shaweel, who followed a convincing success in the G2 Gimcrack S. over six furlongs at Newbury Aug. 22 with a battling short-head second to Mastercraftsman (Ire) in the G1 National S. over a panel further at The Curragh last time Sept. 14. This race features two ☆ "TDN Rising Stars" ☆ in Huntdown and Delegator, and both add weight to a strong renewal. Kept to six furlongs so far, the former stepped up from a seven-length maiden success at Newbury Sept. 19 to finish third in the G1 Middle Park S. here 15 days ago. Trainer John Gosden told PA Sport, "He came to us late, which is why he wasn't in any of the races originally. He won his maiden nicely and then got left in the Middle Park. But we were happy with him and Frankie [Dettori] felt seven furlongs would suit." Delegator, who was runner-up to Wingwalker (GB) on the July Course on debut Aug. 8, returned to the same circuit to record an impressive first win a fortnight later. He hails from the Brian Meehan barn, who went so close to upsetting New Approach (Ire) with Fast Company (Ire) 12 months ago. The colt has attracted significant support all week. "We've always thought the world of him, and his maiden win was very impressive," Meehan said. "His work has been outstanding at home since his maiden."

All carry 122 pounds bar Under the Rainbow, 129.

Unsung Heroine reverts to a mile and a half following her game second to Conduit (Ire) in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster last time Sept. 13. That was only her third start and first defeat, having previously accounted for older rivals in the G3 Give Thanks S. over this trip at Cork Aug. 8. "She is in good form and ran a really good race in the Leger," jockey Wayne Lordan said. "While there was always a question mark going into a top race like that, we knew she had the potential from her work at home. They have a had a bit of rain at Newmarket, which will help as she likes to get her toe in and I have no doubts about the ground. The trip also won't be a problem, so she must have a big chance."

☛ "TDN Rising Star" ☛ Dar Re Mi has not looked back since winning the Aug. 14 G3 Prix Minerve at Deauville, finishing runner-up to Europe's best fillies Lush Lashes (GB) and Zarkava (Ire) in the Aug. 22 G1 Yorkshire Oaks on the July Course and Sept. 14 G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp, respectively. Only third in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at the latter venue last time Oct. 4, she would be a worthy winner of this new contest. Crystal Capella is an interesting contender from the Stoute stable and looked progressive when rattling up a brace of wins in the Aug. 24 Listed Alice Keppel S. at Goodwood and Sept. 26 Listed Princess Royal S. at Ascot.

The admirably consistent Major Cadeaux bids to become the third horse in the last five runnings to defy a penalty here, having annexed the G2 Sandown Mile Apr. 26. Subsequently successful in Haydock's G3 John of Gaunt S. May 31, the chestnut was third in both the July 30 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood and Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois Aug. 17. He was runner-up to Arabian Gleam (GB) in the seven-furlong G2 Park S. at Doncaster on his latest outing Sept. 13. Laa Rayb, who is closely tied with Ordnance Row on the form of the G3 Sovereign S., in which the latter was 3/4 of a length to the good at Salisbury Aug. 14, excelled with a five-length success in the Aug. 30 G3 Prix Quincey at Deauville before flopping when only seventh in the Park S. Rebounding with a second to Precious Boy (Ger) in the G2 Grosse Europa Mile at Cologne last time Sept. 28, he warrants respect along with Godolphin's Il Warrd. He regained some form when winning Redcar's Listed Guisborough S. on his latest outing two weeks ago and represents the stable successful with Charnwood Forest (Ire) in 1996, Kahal (GB) a year later and Firebreak (GB) in 2004. "Il Warrd won well on his last start and I have been pleased with his work since," Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He shows a good turn of foot over seven furlongs and I hope he can run a big race [today]."

Aspen Darlin is back in action 15 days later after finishing second in the six-furlong G1 Cheveley Park S. at this venue, and her connections are hoping she will see out this extra panel and gain some compensation for that near-miss. She had previously looked as if this trip might suit when winning Ayr's G3 Firth of Clyde S. on heavy ground Sept. 20 and trainer Alan Bailey is confident she will last out. "Aspen Darlin came out of the Cheveley Park S. very well, she has never left oats since she ran and is well in herself," he said. "She has gone in her coat, but she had at Newmarket last time so she's all set. The extra furlong will be no problem at all. I'm not saying she'll improve for it, because she couldn't have done much better than she did last time. She's as game as a pebble, is well in herself and I think she'll run a big race." Richard Hannon struck with Distant Valley (GB) in 2001 and saddles a smart trio in the Goffs Fillies Million runner-up Baileys Cacao, G3 Oh So Sharp S. scorer Souter's Sister and G2 Lowther S. runner-up Penny's Gift.

Souter's Sister had Godolphin's Moonlife a half-length back in second in the Oct. 3 Oh So Sharp over course and distance and connections of the latter are hopeful she can turn the tables. "It will be tough for her in a Group 2 contest against some nice fillies, but I think we'll see a good run from her," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "She is a very honest filly who always tries her best and is improving all the time."

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Secret Gypsy was freshened following a fourth to champion Indian Blessing in the GI Prioress S. July 5 at Belmont, and got back in the swing of things with a sharp front-running score in a Saratoga optional claimer Aug. 31. In her penultimate work for this contest, the chestnut flew through five panels in :57 2/5 over this surface Oct. 1. Golden Doc A gets back on the all-weather in hopes of turning around her form. After running Indian Blessing to a head in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 13, the chestnut captured the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 9 before settling for runner-up to Ariege in her next two, the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 8 and GII Stonerside Beaumont S. over track and trip Apr. 10. Sidelined after a desultory fourth in the GI Acorn S. June 7, she came back to be fourth in the Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar Aug. 31, but faltered to finish sixth in the GII Indiana Oaks Oct. 3. That effort marked her first outing for trainer Gregory Fox. "She's very much a track-sensitive animal," Fox told Daily Racing Form. "She tried the dirt up there in Indiana, but she basically protected herself and didn't perform very well. She just couldn't handle the surface." He added, "Hopefully she can put it all together on Saturday. It looks like a pretty good group, as it always is."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

DEL CONTE OUT OF JUVENILE TURF Hours after he was pre-entered in the $1-million Grey Goose Juvenile Turf, Del Conte (Point Given) came up with an ankle problem and is out of consideration for next Saturday's race, Daily Racing Form reports. "He had some swelling in an ankle," trainer Bob Baffert told the publication. "If it came down it will be all right, but the timing is not right for him." After breaking his maiden in his turf bow at Del Mar Aug. 21, the chestnut colt ran fourth--beaten 3/4 of a length--in the blanket finish of the GI Norfolk S. Sept. 28. He carries the colors of Karl Watson and Weitman Performance.

DOWN THE STRETCH

with Dave Johnson, Bill Finley, Jay Privman & Caton Bredar

This Week's Guest:
Gary Stevens

Down The Stretch is an Eclipse Award-winning radio program.

Take Two
With... Tom Durant
Sponsored by National Association of 2YO Consignors

Owner of Sing Baby Sing
(h, 5, Unbridled's Song-Roll Over Baby, by Rollin On Over)
Consigned by Hoby & Layna Knight, agent
$80,000 2yo '05 FTFFEB
Lifetime Record: 17-7-6-0, $399,620.

Tom Durant may not be the first guy to make the transition from Quarter Horses to Thoroughbred racing, but he certainly was one of that exclusive set that could boast winning a graded stakes during Keeneland's 2008 fall meeting, when his five-year-old Sing Baby Sing (Unbridled's Song) gamely battled in the stretch to score in the GIII Phoenix S. Oct. 4.

Born in Ruston, Louisiana, Durant moved to Texas at a very young age and never left his adoptive state. Graduating with a degree in finance at Texas Tech University, Durant ventured into the automobile business, and developed a thriving enterprise, which currently includes six dealerships in the Lone Star state, including Classic Chevrolet, located in his hometown of Granbury.

Having grown up in horse country, Durant became involved with Quarter Horses in the 70's before being introduced to Thoroughbreds the following decade. The transition began when he bought a Thoroughbred mare, Glory Be Good, for $300,000 in 1982. She was in foal to a Quarter Horse stallion at the time, and had a foal by her side, which Durant later sold for $100,000.

"One of my friends, who is a customer, talked me into buying this mare," Durant recalled. "It was kind of my introduction into Thoroughbred racing."

It wouldn't be until the following decade that Durant would make the switch completely, inspired primarily out of convenience and necessity.

"I was still racing Quarter Horses until 1997, when Lone Star Park opened," the 59-year-old said. "They have a very short Quarter Horse meet, and a much longer Thoroughbred meet, and I just wanted to run at home, if I could."

That decision to make the switch obviously paid off, and with just over a decade in the game, Durant has earned the title of leading owner at Lone Star Park on four occasions, and was inducted into the Grand Prairie track's Hall of Fame in 2007.

Durant currently has 30 mares boarded at his 265-acre farm in Granbury, and an additional 20 horses in training, including his current star, Sing Baby Sing. The five-year-old is a half brother to GSW Roll Hennessy Roll (Hennessy) and SW Majorbigtimesheet (Carson City), and Sing Baby Sing RNA'd for $475,000 at KEESEP before Durant--assisted by trainer Jack Bruner--signed the ticket on the Kentucky-bred for $80,000 at the 2005 Fasig-Tipton February sale.

"I was drawn to his pedigree and his conformation," said Durant. "We got lucky because he didn't work so well, which is why we got him for the price we did."

The bay's family also packs plenty of value in the sale's ring through his dam Roll Over Baby, whose offspring include Morocco (Brocco), who realized $2-million at BESMAR in 1999; Value Plus, who was purchased for $1.1 million at KEEJAN in 2002; and $1.5-million KEESEP yearling purchase Incriminate (Unbridled's Song).

"I breed to race as well as buying a few at the sales," Durant explained. "We have about 25 yearlings to break for next year. We pretty much run everything we raise, but we will probably also return to the training sales to add a few more."

Certainly not a stranger to the two-year-old sales' arena, Durant enjoyed earlier success with a trio of juveniles that he purchased in Ocala. In 2000, Durant bought Touch Tone (Pick Up the Phone), a $230,000 OBSAPR purchase, who went on to win the Alysheba BC S. at two before adding the Iowa Derby and a runner-up finish in the GI Haskell Inv. at three. The next season at OBSMAR, Durant picked up Lunar Bounty (Migrating Moon), who he purchased for $60,000 and went on to win the GII Bashford Manor S.; and Thunder

Sing Baby Sing Horsephotos

Days (Thunder Gulch)--a $70,000 buy--who finished third in the GI Hopeful S. and GIII Nashua S. at two and third in the GI King's Bishop S. the following year.

"At the training sales you get to see a little more of the horse than you would get as a yearling, when most of them are bought," said Durant, explaining the allure of the juvenile sales. "They're more developed and they have some training under their belt."

As for his star pupil's next objective, Durant is hoping that the five-year-old, who finished second in three prior starts this term, including Zia Park's Premier H. Sept. 14, will carry his form over from Keeneland's Polytrack to Santa Anita Park's new Pro-Ride surface for the Breeders' Cup Oct. 25.

"I think we saw one of his best races in the Phoenix," Durant offered. "He pulled up well and came out of the race in very good shape. They say that both surfaces a really very different, but we're looking for him to run big in the Sprint. After that, we'll have to wait and see."-CBossinakis

Kelly's Landing, winner of the GIII Phoenix S. over this track and trip in 2006, rolled home the easiest kind of winner in this latest comeback test. A half-length best in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in March 2007, the massive dark bay did not face the starter again until last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and did well to be fifth. Rested off that effort, he had two starts to his credit this season, a third in a May 10 allowance at Churchill and a fourth in that track's GIII Aristides S. May 31. Quickly in front here beneath Julien Leparoux, Kelly's Landing galloped through his opening half-mile in :45.17 and covered his final two panels in :23.42 to record a facile success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Cure for Sale caused a boilover and threw a wrench into the hopes most Pick Six players. A listed winner and Group 3-placed in his native country, the chestnut hadn't factored in a trio of stateside starts. Fifth in an off-the-turf sprint at Gulfstream Mar. 23, she tired to seventh in a turf allowance at Belmont June 6 and was coming into this off a fifth in a race rained off the Saratoga lawn Aug. 15. A decided outsider here, Cure for Sale was sent for the lead by Miguel Mena, made all the running and just lasted.

Sixth in her May 22 debut at Churchill, the homebred showed much-improved speed to wire the field in Louisville June 13. The bay came from off the pace to finish second by a half-length in the June 28 GIII Debutante S. beneath the Twin Spires and was having her first run since that flurry of activity. Narrowly favored at 5-2, Rachel Alexandra prompted the pace while racing out into the track. BLAME (c, 2, Arch--Liable {MSP, $235,021}, by Seeking the Gold) was a 4-1 chance in a Sept. 13 maiden at Turfway Park and turned in a promising effort, closing a bit of ground late to be third, beaten 2 1/2 lengths.

Taken back to race slightly worse than midpack for the opening furlongs, the homebred made a menacing move while trapped out five deep around the turn. He was able to sustain that momentum into the stretch, taking command outside the eighth pole before holding on for a one-length score as the 5-2 favorite. # in sharper focus.

After acquiring Josette (Ire) (Danehill) for $300,000 at the 2005 Keeneland November sale carrying a foal by Johannesburg, the collective braintrust at Catesby Clay's Runnymede Farm made the decision to return the mare to Europe, where she produced a filly by the Coolmore stallion Mar. 19, 2006. A few months later, the foal was offered at the Tattersalls December sale, but was led out unsold on a bid of 30,000gns.

"She was an attractive filly and I was probably just chancing my arm and figured if we got good money for her, we'd take it," Runnymede's Martin O'Dowd said of sending the weanling filly immediately through the ring.

While Josette stayed behind to be bred to Singspiel (Ire)--more on that later--her filly boarded a plane back for the States, and she found herself at Keeneland last fall.

"We always thought very highly of her and I absolutely loved her," O'Dowd explained. "She was a very beautifully conformed filly and always, always looked like a racehorse."

The buying public didn't entirely degree, as bidding stalled out at $175,000. O'Dowd assures there were no tears shed.

"We didn't feel at all bad afterwards," he said. "I was only too happy to keep her and race her."

Put into training in Canada with Mark Casse, the filly, named Helena Bay (GB) and campaigned by Runnymede in partnership with their longtime friend and client Peter Callahan, faltered in her first two career appearances, which came in turf sprints. She was making her two-turn and synthetic debuts yesterday.

"Mark thought she would be better when we stretched her out," O'Dowd explained. "She was a nervous wreck those first two starts, but this time Mr. Clay wanted to try the Polytrack, although Mark is still convinced she is a very good grass filly. We were on the also-eligible list for a suitable turf race, but we didn't get into that race last week. We sort of had no option but to run on the Poly. She didn't really handle it in the mornings, but in her last two works, she handled it much better and did really well, and Mark said let's have a go."

When Runnymede reached in for Josette, they had a little bit of inside information. The mare's second dam Allicance (Alleged) produced Chancey Squaw (Chief's Crown), who in turn is the dam of the Runnymede-bred Japanese champion Agnes Digital. Employing a serious amount of out-of-the-box thinking, O'Dowd and company took the decision to breed to Singspiel with the intent of offering that foal at the JRHA sales in July.

"It's a family which has obviously done very well over there," O'Dowd opined. "It seemed to make sense to us."

And, as it turns out, some dollars as well. Josette herself accompanied her foal to the Orient and was bred in 2007 to Japanese sensation Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence). Now residing at Shadai Farm, the mare produced a colt by the outstanding racehorse

Josette and her Deep Impact foal of 2008 jrha.or.jp

Mar. 8 of this year. The Singspiel colt was sold for ¥20.5 million ($191,588), while the Deep Impact colt was knocked down for ¥33.5 million ($319,047). Both horses were purchased by Yuichi Masuda. O'Dowd indicated that Josette, who was bred back to

Deep Impact for the current breeding season, will remain in Japan for the foreseeable future.--Alan Carasso

MEDIAN, AVERAGE DECLINE FOR TATTS BOOK 3

Book 3 of Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale finished in Newmarket yesterday with a 10,389gns average, down 33 percent on last year, and a 7,000gns median, which showed a 36-percent decline on 2007. A low-key concluding day was topped by two 40,000gns lots. The first was a Bahamian Bounty (GB) (lot #1842) colt, who was bought by Jono Mills of Rabbah Bloodstock. Later, trainer David Elsworth, standing with owner Matthew Green, paid 40,000gns for a Titus Livius (Fr) (lot #1933) colt. Out of a half-sister to G3 winner Compton Bolter (Ire) (Red Sunset), he was offered from Maurice Burns' Rathasker Stud. At the close of play, Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "Putting this year's Tattersalls October yearling trade into context, the total spend through Books 1 to 3 of the 2008 October Yearling Sale has been just over 72- million guineas, which, although a fair way below the record-breaking 2007 and 2006 figures, places it only marginally below 2005."

Mahony continued, "Bearing in mind the current economic climate, the industry can be satisfied with the resilience of the market when one considers that the FTSE and other stock markets are currently around 30 percent lower than their autumn 2005 levels, and we hover on the brink of recession." He continued, "The 72 million guineas has, however, been spread more thinly than in 2005. In addition to the very different economic conditions, another major change between the 2005 October Yearling Sale and this year's is the number of yearlings being offered. Between Books 1 to 3 this year we have catalogued 1,942 yearlings, whereas we catalogued 1,556 for the equivalent sales in 2005. Even in last year's market, the weight of numbers had begun to take its toll, and with a backdrop of global financial turmoil, we could not expect to come close to such figures. What we have seen, however, has been sustained demand throughout Books 1 to 3 for quality individuals, and for that we should be grateful. Yes, the market has been selective, and yes, it has adjusted significantly, but the Book 3 clearance rate has been higher than last year, and the better yearlings have attracted plenty of attention. Recent promotional visits to smaller markets such as Serbia, have paid dividends, and in these testing times we will continue to spread the net as far and wide as possible exploring new markets and maintaining existing ones, in conjunction with British Bloodstock Marketing." Complete results are available at www.tattersalls.com.

Just short of top-class on her day, Barshiba signed off her career with a game win as the G1 1000 Guineas runner-up Spacious (GB) (Nayef) proved a notable flop here. Among her best efforts were a fourth in last year's G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville and second to Archipenko in Ascot's G2 Summer Mile July 12. She was sixth in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at this venue on her latest outing 13 days ago, and pulled hard early in customary fashion when restrained behind the leaders. Striding to the front with a furlong remaining, the chestnut clung on determinedly as Fragrancy swooped wide and late. "She has, on occasions, shown high-class form," trainer David Elsworth explained after revealing that she will be retired to her owner/breeder Jeff Smith's Littleton Stud. "The race at Ascot was a Group 1 in disguise, and she ran a good race in the Sun Chariot, so we've had great fun with her tinged with a bit of frustration, but she has always run under the handicap of limited vision in her right eye."

After two Polytrack wins at Great Leighs Aug. 21 and Kempton Sept. 6, Ethaara disappointed when only seventh in the Listed October S. at Ascot back on turf last time Sept. 27. Settled behind the strong early fractions carved out by the free-running Red Dune (Ire) (Red Ransom) in the centre of the track, the homebred picked up when asked to rush to the front passing the eighth pole and asserted on the uphill climb. "We've got lucky today, because she wants top of the ground and Richard [Hills] thought it was loose at Ascot last time," trainer William Haggas commented. "She has a beautiful pedigree and had some soundness problems as a two-year-old, but always showed ability. Sheikh Hamdan doesn't usually keep them in training, but if we keep her next year she'll run over six furlongs."

5.10 Cork, Mdn, €14,000, 3yo, 1m 100ydsT
TUSCAN EVENING (IRE) (Oasis Dream {GB}) makes a belated attempt to shake off her maiden tag after being injured following a disappointing effort when ninth in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot in June. The form of Hubie de Burgh's filly's second before being disqualified and placed fourth in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh in May is more than enough to see the John Murphy trainee take this easily.

Newmarket, 14.35, Cond, £20,000, 2yo, 1mT, 1:36.40, gd.
ON OUR WAY (GB) (c, 3, Oasis Dream {GB}--Singed {GB}, by Zamindar), third in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot last time Sept. 27, was sent off the 11-8 favorite and raced under restraint throughout the early stages. Coaxed to the front traveling easily with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 55,000gns TATOCT yearling drifted left across Ra Junior (Rahy), but was always comfortably in command and had 2 1/4 lengths to spare at the line. Lifetime Record: GSP-Eng, 5-2-1-2, £38,406. O-J R May; B-Whetton Manor Stud; T-Henry Cecil.

RUN FOR THE HILLS (GB) (c, 2, Oasis Dream {GB}--Maid for the Hills {GB} {SW-Eng}, by Indian Ridge {Ire}), runner-up at Goodwood when last seen July 29, was sent off the 13-8 favorite and soon led. Traveling strongly running down into the dip, the homebred comfortably held the challenge of Invincible Heart (Gr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) to score by 1 1/2 lengths. "He was growing at the time when second at Goodwood, but has come back well and did it nicely," trainer John Gosden said. "He has a lot of natural speed, like his sire, and I think we'll aim him at six-furlong races next spring." Catigo (Giant's Causeway), the $1.5-million full-sister to Aragorn (Ire), showed early speed, but was green in the centre of the track and stuck to her task to finish an unthreatening seventh. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £11,100. O/B-Normandie Stud Ltd; T-John Gosden.

MUSTAQER (IRE) (c, 2, Dalakhani {Ire}--Al Ihtithar {Ire} {MSW-Eng}, by Baratheia {Ire}), runner-up in the Listed Washington Singer S. at Newbury Aug. 16, disappointed when only fifth as the 4-6 favorite for a Doncaster maiden last time Sept. 12. Prominent early, the 3-1 second choice led after the first quarter mile and faced his sternest challenge from the newcomer Hyades (Aldebaran), the close relative of Shiva (Jpn) and Light Shift. Despite that rival's efforts, the homebred asserted to record a neck success. Jockey Richard Hills said, "He ran an exceptionally good race at Newbury and then got it wrong when pulling too hard on soft ground, so we put a crossed noseband on him today, and I thought he did it well." The winner is half to Mahaatheer (Ire) (Daylami (Ire), SW-Fr. Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 3-1-1-0, £12,608. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Estate Company Limited; T-Barry Hills.

+ MOOAKADA (IRE) (f, 2, Montjeu {Ire}--Sulaalah {Ire}, by Darshaan {GB}) broke well before being anchored early towards the rear. Making smooth progress towards the far rail passing halfway, the 11-2 joint-second favorite cruised to the front passing the quarter pole and needed only a wave of Richard Hills' whip to comfortably account for Times Up (GB) (Olden Times {GB}) by a half-length. "She has been quite tricky to train early on due to her temperament, but having said that she was very good today," her rider said. "I didn't hit her today--I just wanted her to enjoy it and she was probably only 80-percent wound-up, having just done bridle work at home." Her stable companion Dreamcoat (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), a half-brother to Pipedreamer (GB), was never a factor and stayed on under tender handling to finish ninth. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,152. SHADY LADY (IRE) (f, 2, Celtic Swing {GB}--Viola Royale {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by Royal Academy) was let go at 12-1 returning off a first-up 10th at Haydock Aug. 7 and was roused from the gate to occupy a prominent pitch. Shaken up to seize the outright lead at the three-furlong marker, the 15,000gns TATDEC yearling stayed on relentlessly under final-quarter urging to hold the promising newcomer Storming Sioux (GB) (Storming Home {GB}) by two lengths. The victress is half to St Andrews (Ire) (Celtic Swing {GB}), SW & GSP-Eng, $249,714. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £2,388. O-Ascot In Mind; B-Peter Savill; T-Mark Johnston.
