ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL FOR GOSDEN

Trainer John Gosden, who enjoyed a huge Breeders' Cup with two winners, visited the quarantine barn at Santa Anita Park Sunday morning to take a look at his stable stars. The veteran trainer walked Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) for awhile and watched as GI Breeders' Cup Classic upsetter Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) was photographed. "Both horses are fine," Gosden reported. "They ate up last night, not an oat left, and are in great form this morning. You've got to be thrilled with them. They handled the heat and the racetrack as well." Gosden said that Donativum might be spending some time in the States next spring. Because he is a gelding, Donativum is ineligible for any of England's Classic races, and Gosden said the gray could be pointed toward the U.S. Triple Crown series. He added that a bid at the GI Kentucky Derby would likely mean an extended stay in the U.S. beforehand. "He could fit into any program, but if you're thinking about those sort of races, you don't sort of drop in on them," he said. "You need to really train for a race like that." Gosden said he was unaware if any decision had been made on the future of Raven's Pass. "He could race next year; he's only a three-year-old," Gosden said. "Or he could go to stud. I wouldn't know. We'll see. If he stayed on training, it's obvious you'd target the [Breeders' Cup] Classic again. That would be the very obvious race to build his year to." Breeders' Cup Wrap-up, p2-3

YEATS GIVES O'BRIEN 22nd GROUP 1 WIN

The seven-year-old Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) gave trainer Aiden O'Brien--who saddled the runners-up in three Breeders' Cup races over the weekend--with a 22nd Group 1 victory on the year in yesterday's GI Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp. O'Brien is now three shy of Bobby Frankel's record of 25 Grade/Group 1 victories in a single season. Cont. p4

TATTS AUTUMN HIT SALE BEGINS

With 1,709 lots entered, the 2008 Autumn Horses In Training Sale at Tattersalls will be easily the largest ever renewal. The sale, which attracts a huge international clientele, gets underway in Newmarket this morning amid an air of global economic uncertainty, but visitors are still expected at Park Paddocks from around the world for a catalogue that features more high-class lots than usual. Demand for prospects for the Dubai Carnival is likely to remain strong, while regular purchasers from the U.S., Hong Kong and the Southern Hemisphere are expected, as well. Anthony Freedman, brother of leading Australian conditioner Lee Freedman, is among those in Newmarket. The English and Irish jumping markets have also proved powerful at the sale in recent years, and time will tell whether these have been hit by the economic downturn. Cont. p7

BREEDERS' CUP
BULLETIN

Gosden Enjoys the 'Ride...

John Gosden described the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita, the first run over a synthetic surface--Santa Anita's Pro-Ride--as a success. "Racing has had a difficult year in this country, let's be honest," he said. "It was tremendous to have extraordinarily good days of racing. As long as I live, I'll see the [GI Ladies' Classic], that huge mare [Zenyatta] winning. She's phenomenal. The two days of racing have gone so cleanly, so smoothly with such good horses, racing all distances on turf and the main track. Horses can win from the front, as in Juvenile, they can come from off the pace. Even Bobby Baffert can't complain about the track now, having won two Grade 1's. All in all, it was a real celebration of racing and the best of racing. I think that's exactly what American racing needed from the Breeders' Cup and they got it."

Shirreffs Makes Case for Horse of the Year...

John Shirreffs, who sent out the four-year-old Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) to victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic and Tiago (Pleasant Tap) to a third-place finish in the GI Breeder's Cup Classic, reported his horses in good condition Sunday and said that he felt the former has a strong claim at Horse of the Year honors. "It's quite an accomplishment to go all year undefeated, and to step up each time, four of them in Grade 1, like she did," said Shirreffs of Zenyatta, who was went seven-for-seven in 2008 and is undefeated in nine lifetime starts. "In the vote, she would have to be seriously considered for that." The last female to win Horse of the Year honors was Azeri in 2002.

No Word On Curlin's Future...

Trainer Steve Asmussen said yesterday that he does not know whether Curlin (Smart Strike) will be retired to stud duty or continue in training. "Nothing has been mentioned to this point about what is next for him, other than those travel arrangements," said Asmussen, adding that Curlin, a disappointing fourth in the GI Classic, was heading back to the Bluegrass. "I'll talk with Mr. Jackson [majority owner Jess Jackson] about the condition in which he came out of the race, confirm with him his schedule of leaving and when he arrives in Kentucky. I think that will be the extent of it. I'll touch base once he's in Kentucky about his condition upon arrival. The conversations will go from there." Asmussen smiled when it was suggested that Curlin may repeat as Horse of the Year even after his fourth-place finish. "With Curlin, nothing is a consolation. We're just proud of who he is. He's the first North American-based horse over $10 million and he's just had a remarkable run. To do what he does and come back the way that he is, is extremely special in this day and age. He's been a throwback from the beginning, and he's still that horse. He's extremely durable mentally and physically, a very special horse. Our affections for him are not going to waver." Asmussen reiterated that he believes Curlin didn't care for Santa Anita's Pro-Ride. "Watching the race the first time by, I was very concerned," he said. "He was off the bridle. I think he had to struggle to get where he was. When he went under the wire the first time, he was farther back and Robby [jockey Albarado] was nudging him forward. He works harder to go over it than he works to go over the dirt." Still, Asmussen did not make any apologies. "No excuses necessary, none required," he said. "That's what makes racing great. No disrespect for a Breeders' Cup winner. [Raven's Pass] beat a talented field and he deserves the congratulations that go with it. It was an outstanding job with an outstanding horse."

Bob Eyes Dubai for Indian Blessing...

Trainer Bob Baffert said yesterday morning that he didn't know if Hal and Patti Earnardt would keep their three-year-old filly Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in training, but said that if they chose to do so, he would consider a tilt at the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen next March. Indian Blessing ran second as the favorite in Friday's Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint. Baffert added that it could have been the filly's last start on an all-weather track. "She's just not the same on the synthetic," he said. "She tried real hard but Saturday morning she was mad; she knew she got beat. I promised her I would not run her on a synthetic track again."

'Bound' Bound For Sale...For Now

GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies hero Stardom Bound (Tapit) is still likely to keep her engagement for the Fasig-Tipton November Sale, trainer Christopher Paasch said Sunday morning, but he added that a final decision would be made at a meeting with owner Charles Cono Tuesday. "Right now, the schedule is for her to be put on a plane Wednesday and be sold at the Fasig-Tipton Sale in Lexington Nov. 2," said Paasch. Cono, 85, is dispersing the majority of his holdings. The 52-year-old Paasch was still riding high after Stardom Bound's big win. "This is as good as it gets for me," he admitted. "She's an unbelievable filly. Mike [jockey Smith] said he had to move her early. He only hit her a couple of times in the lane. She started looking at the Jumbotron and he started flagging her to keep her mind on business. She was back at the barn here at 5:15 p.m. Friday for dinner. She's doing fine. She walked yesterday and today, and tack-walks tomorrow." Paasch said that yesterday's $100,000 Cascapedia S. heroine Foxy Danseur (Mr. Greeley) (see Cal Report in ATW), another who wears Cono's silks, is also slated to sell at the Fasig-Tipton Sale.

Ventura to Remain in Training...

Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel said that Juddmonte Farms' Ventura (Chester House), winner of Friday's Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, will be kept in training for 2009. He also listed the status of his other Breeders' Cup runners. "Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) (sixth in the GI Ladies' Classic) likely will be retired," he said. "I don't know that for a fact yet, but I'm thinking so. Precious Kitten (Catienus) (fourth in the GI Mile) ran good. I knew she would and I was happy with her. That filly she ran into (winner Goldikova (Ire) (Anaaba) was a monster. [Precious Kitten] will race one more time--in the GI Matriarch H. [at Hollywood Park] and then be retired." Frankel added that he would look for races for Out of Control (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}) (fifth in the GI Turf), Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill) (eighth in GI Classic), Mast Track (Mizzen Mast) (fifth in Dirt Mile), and First Defence (Unbridled's Song) (eighth in GI Sprint).

Casino Drive Fine After Last-Place Finish...

Hidetoshi Yamamoto's Casino Drive (Mineshaft), who faded to last in the GI Classic after setting the early pace, was shipped Sunday morning from Santa Anita to Hollywood Park and will remain there while future plans are formulated. "He's OK; there is nothing wrong with him," said Nobutaka Tada, racing manager for Yamamoto. "He is still a little tired, but not as tired as he was after the race. Mr. Fujisawa [trainer Kazuo Fujisawa] thought it was a tough race for a young and inexperienced horse. He did not run the race we wanted. We were surprised to see him on the lead." Fujisawa returned to Japan Yesterday.

Unplaced in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud in 2005 on the heels of his G1 Coronation Cup triumph, he had been eclipsed in the last two editions of the Cadran, and it came as a surprise to see him shipped back so soon after a disappointing effort when the odds-on favorite 22 days previously. Murtagh, who felt he did not make enough use of the veteran last time, made no mistake here, and after tracking the stable rabbit Mikhail Fokine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) isolated from the main peloton, drove him to the fore on the home turn. Kicking decisively there, he was beyond recall and had inflicted the damage by the time Allegretto closed to narrow the winning margin. "Both times he ran in the Cadran, there was a slow pace and a sprint finish," his jockey told the Racing Post after steering to Aidan O'Brien's 22nd Group 1 wins on the year. "Yeats needs to cruise at a high tempo and he was able to today, plus the ground was better for him. I think it is the intention to keep him in training next year, so we can win a fourth Gold Cup at Ascot." Allegretto's rider Ryan Moore told the trade daily, "I think she ran the best race of her life and she is very gutsy." Altesse, who failed to finish this race last year after her reins broke, won the Sweetzie S. at Aqueduct in April before running seventh in the May 17 GII DuPont Distaff. Freshened off that effort, the bay mare returned with a 5 1/4-length victory last time out in the Oct. 2 Quick Mischiev S. Altesse recovered from a bobble shortly after the break to set a moderate pace. She was joined by favored Spring Waltz turning for home and bravely fought back after being headed by that foe. Winning jockey John Velazquez appreciated his mare's effort. "She is so very game," Velazquez said. "She is such a nice horse. She tries hard all the time, no matter what, and you saw that today." Winning trainer Shug McGaughey added, "We thought we had her set up for this race last year at Aqueduct, when the rein broke. She had won two or three of those overnight stakes, but we wanted to win a graded stakes with her. I want to thank [owner] Helen [Alexander] for keeping her in training. That was a pretty good race." Opening day at Churchill was highlighted by the Ack Ack H., and it was the hard-knocking veteran Magna Graduate who came away with the win. Transferred from Todd Pletcher to Steve Asmussen earlier this year, Magna Graduate ran third in Saratoga's Duke of Magenta S. Aug. 9 for his new conditioner. He came back to complete the exacta under Fairbanks (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup Sept. 27 and was the second choice to complete the series here. Under Shaun Bridgmohan, he tracked as favored Forest Command set reasonable fractions. The latter drifted wide coming into the lane, giving Greeley's Conquest a dream run through the inside, but Magna Graduate came with a hard late charge and was up in time. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Tattersalls marketing director Jimmy George commented yesterday, "To date, what we've seen this year has been sustained demand for quality horses and we would hope that that trend continues this week. And this is the best catalogue of its type that we have put together. We've had a lot of interest from around the world and there is genuinely something for everyone."

Lot 1053, Top Lock (GB) (Nayef), is a late addition to the catalogue, but with places in the G1 Deutsches Derby and G2 Great Voltigeur S. on his CV, he looks a top-class staying prospect for next season. He is consigned from Andrew Balding Kingsclere stable, which is responsible for an exciting draft. Lot 1051, Kalahari Gold (Ire) (Trans Island {GB}), has won four of his five career starts--the latest of them in a competitive running of the Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup at Newbury in September. Stablemate Donegal (Menifée), lot 1050, was beaten a head in the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood by subsequent G1 Breeders' Cup Turf winner Conduit. Trainer Luca Cumani's pair of Lion Sands (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), lot 1068, and Sanbuch (GB) (Tobougg {Ire}), lot 1071, both boast high-class staying form, while lot 897--the Mark Tompkins-trained Smokey Oakey (Ire) (Tendulkar)--won the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. this year and should yield a good payout for his owner, the Oscar-winning actress Dame Judi Dench. Cont. p8

Irish champion trainer Aidan O'Brien sends over a blue-blooded draft to Newmarket, including Epsom Derby fifth Washington Irving (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), lot 652, who belatedly broke his maiden at Navan earlier this month. Classy two-year-olds are always in demand, particularly from overseas buyers. Tom Dascombe's duo of Classic Blade (Ire) (Daggers Drawn) and Firth of Fifth (Ire) (Traditionally), lots 579 and lot 580, respectively, won the G2 July S. and G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket in July. Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Prolific (Ire) (Compton Place {GB}), lot 462, won the G2 Richmond S. at Glorious Goodwood in August for trainer Richard Hannon, while his stablemate, lot 450, Souter's Sister (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}), won the G3 Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket on Oct. 3. Lot 1145, Waffle (Ire) (Kheleyf), is offered from Jeremy Nosedá's stable having finished runner-up in the G3 Cornwallis S. earlier this month. The sale runs today through Thursday, beginning at 9.30 a.m. each morning.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

TATTERSALLS AUTUMN - MONDAY

108 Great Barrier Reef, c, 3, Mr. Greeley--Song to Remember, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Ballydoyle Stables

It was difficult to envisage this half-brother to GISW Magnificent Song (Unbridled's Song) ending up here after finishing second on debut in last year's G2 Gimcrack S. He has shown glimpses of ability this season, and is certain to appeal to the visitors from the States.

232 Abraham Lincoln (Ire), c, 4, Danehill--Moon Drop (GB), by Dominion (GB)
Consigned by Ballydoyle Stables

Another notable horse from Coolmore, this four-year-old is just shy of the top standard in the sprinting division and managed a second to Astronomer Royal in this year's G3 Greenlands S. at The Curragh. The full-brother to Devil Moon (Ire) and 3/4-sibling to South Dakota (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is likely to catch the attention of the league of trainers on the lookout for such notably bred sprinters.

277 Conquest (Ire), g, 4, Invincible Spirit \(Ire\)--Aguinaga (Ire), by Machiavellian
Consigned by Somerville Lodge Stables

William Haggas consigns the 2006 G2 Gimcrack S. winner, who has re-emerged on the scene this term with a latest success in the G3 Bengough Memorial S. at Ascot. From the immediate family of the 1996 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Iktamal (Danzig Connection), he still has time to make the grade at the top level.

285 Jargelle (Ire), f, 2, Kheleyf--Winter Tern, by Arctic Tern
Consigned by Somerville Lodge Stables

Like her stable companion Conquest, she is another blessed with speed to burn. The bay filly put that to maximum effect when winning Newbury's Super Sprint and finishing third in Goodwood's G3 Molecomb S. this term.

Where Champions Are Born

Louisiana racetracks annually generate over $40 million in additional purses at the tracks with over $12 million reserved for Louisiana-breds and $7.2 million in Breeders Awards. Four Louisiana-bred "Championship" days for nearly $3.5 million are held annually, one at each Louisiana track. There are also three restricted state-bred races offered every day at all four Louisiana tracks. Owner bonuses (purse supplements) in Louisiana offer the most comprehensive incentive awards program in the entire country. The total owner and breeder award payout in 2006 was $20 million with more than $22.6 million being paid out in 2007.

With a total of four state bred days, no other state can match Louisiana.

Foxy Danseur, scheduled to sell along with stablemate Stardom Bound in next week's Fasig-Tipton November sale, won the Sharp Cat S. at Hollywood last November, but was sidelined seven months after a fifth-place effort in the Dec. 15 GI Hollywood Starlet S. She returned to be a narrowly beaten runner-up in a Solano stakes July 19 and was sixth in the Aug. 31 Torrey Pine S. at Del Mar before a second-place finish in a Sept. 26 allowance at this track last time out. The dark bay filly rated a stalking seventh, rallied four wide into the lane to take over with a furlong to run and held sway to the wire. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

 3rd Dam: White Oak Run, by Dunce
 Dream of Kaylee, a $50,000 FTKJUL yearling who RNA'd for $140,000 at this year's OBSMAR sale, was ambitiously placed in the GIII Kentucky S. in his May 1 debut and ran a solid third after a troubled trip. Off since that effort, the bay colt was the 5-2 favorite in his return. Dream of Kaylee stalked the early pace, inched closer on the turn to draw alongside Princeandrew (Sky Mesa) in upper stretch. He quickly put that rival away and drew clear before being eased down under the wire. The winner is a half brother to Eddie White Sox (Deputed Testimony, SP, $148,160). Mr. Hot Stuff (Tiznow), six wide into the stretch, just missed the show spot. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: GSP, 2-1-0-1, $38,082.

ENCOSTA DE LAGO COLT TOPS INGLIS

BREEZE UP Three horses topped the A$200,000 mark at the Inglis Breeze Up and Racehorse Sale in Oaklands yesterday, including hip 109, a colt by Encosta De Lago (Aus), who realized a final bid of A$300,000. Out of Lake Alexandrina (Aus) (Bluebird), the two-year-old, who was offered by Lakeview Stud, was purchased by William Inglis, agent, on behalf of an unspecified client. Closely related to G1SW Marauding (Aus), the colt will be sent to trainer John O'Shea. Leading the ladies was hip 113, a Zabeel (NZ) filly, who brought A$240,000 from Bob Scarborough's Wood Nook Farm. The filly is out of Mer Du Sud (Ire) (Bluebird), dam of G1 Hong Kong International Mile winner The Duke (Aus). The three-year-old filly was consigned by William Inglis, agent. Hip 79, a juvenile by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), was knocked down to Mike Moroney for A$200,000, after selling at Easter earlier this year for $160,000. Offered by Eliza Park, the gelding is out of 10-year-old Drawbridge (Ire) (Rainbow Quest), a 3/4-sister to Sought Out (Ire), dam of Classic winner North Light (Ire) from the family of Desert Boy (Ire) and Fastness (Ire). "These sales always produce bargain buys and trainers that attended here would be happy with their purchases," Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster said. In the Breeze-Up section (lots 1 through 144), a total of 52 head sold for gross expenditures of A$1,408,500. The buyback rate was 34.7 percent, while the average closed out at A$27,087. "The well-credentialed horses we offered at the top end of the market sold well, but as expected the change in the current economic climate affected the middle and lower end of the market." In the Spring Carnival portion of the sale (lots 145-239), 72 head sold for a total of A$345,350. "There are some outstanding racing prospects still available and vendors are more than happy to negotiate on horses that didn't sell in the ring," added Webster. "We have had quite a lot of post sale interest already via the make an offer service." For complete results, visit www.inglis.com.au.
