

HENRYTHENAVIGATOR TO ASHFORD

Four-time Group 1 winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo--Sequoyah {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells), runner-up in the $5-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic this past weekend, has been retired to Ashford Stud in Versailles, Kentucky. The three-year-old is now available for inspection; a stud fee will be announced at a later date. "It's great to have a horse of Henrythenavigator's class and bloodlines retiring here," said Dermot Ryan, Ash-ford's manager. "Twice he won in record time at Royal Ascot, twice he beat Epsom Derby winner New Approach, three times he beat Raven's Pass and four times he won at Group 1 level. He is also rated an even better miler than his sire Kingmambo and is out of a Group 1-winning two-year-old by Sadler's Wells. His conformation is excellent, too, so basically he's the complete package."

Master of His Domain...

At two, the "TDN Rising Star" captured the G2 Coventry S. (video) at Royal Ascot before finishing second in the G1 Phoenix S. and third to New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Futurity S. He returned this year at three to eclipse that colt by a nose in the G1 2000 Guineas May 3--with Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) fourth--and added a 1 3/4-length success over the subsequent G1 Epsom Derby hero three weeks later in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas (video) at The Curragh.

STARDOM BOUND SENT TO KENTUCKY

Charles Cono's Stardom Bound (Tapit), who sealed an Eclipse Award with a brilliant win last Friday in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, departed Chris Paasch's barn at 2:30 a.m. yesterday en route to Lexington, Kentucky. Along with stakes-winning stable-mate Foxy Danseur (Mr. Greeley), the grey filly will go through the ring at Fasig-Tipton's November Sale this Sunday. They are part of the 85-year-old Cono's dispersal, but will be offered with a reserve. "We'll run Stardom Bound through the sale," said Paasch. "If we get the number we want, she's sold. If not, we'll bring her home. The same with Foxy." Stardom Bound is catalogued as hip 65, while the three-year-old Foxy Danseur is 148.

TOP LOCK TOPS TATTERSALLS

A lively trade at Tattersalls' Autumn Horses In Training Sale continued in Newmarket yesterday when G2 Great Voltigeur S. runner-up Top Lock (GB) (Nayef) sold for 410,000gns to Saudi agent Saad Al Kahtani. The three-year-old will be trained in Saudi Arabia for Prince Faisal bin Khalid by South African-born Neil Bruss. Catalogued as lot 1053, the bay was bought through Broadfields Bloodstock, the agency run by Bruss's brother Robin.

Top Lock tattersalls.com

"He's been bought to go for the King's Cup at Riyadh in February," said Al Kahtani, who outbid agent Anthony Stroud. "We've won it 10 times before, but not for a long time. He could then go on to our neighbouring country Dubai afterwards for the Carnival. He has won on the all-weather and stays a mile and a half well."

rival in the G1 Sussex S. July 30 at Glorious Goodwood. Fifth to subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Mile heroine Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 7, 'Henry' came up second best to Raven's Pass in his final two career efforts, the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 27 before his Oct. 25 outing at Santa Anita, a contest which marked his first attempt beyond eight furlongs.

The homebred is a son of Sequoyah, heroine of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at two in 2000 and a full sister to Group 1 winner Listen (Ire); he is a full brother to stakes winner Queen Cleopatra, who was also third in both the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. Also from the family of Grade/Group 1 winners Dolphin Street (Fr) (Bluebird), Insight (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) and Saffron Walden (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), Henrythenavigator heads to the breeding shed with a record of 11-6-3-1 and earnings of $2,730,221.

Top Lock's trainer Andrew Balding was also responsible for the day's second-highest price when three-year-old Kalahari Gold (Ire) (Trans Island {GB}) was bought by Hamdan Al Maktoum's stud manager Johnny Peter-Hoblyn for 370,000gns. Hong Kong trainer Peter Ho was underbidder for the chestnut, lot 1051. "He will come back to Shadwell Stud and at the moment we are thinking he could possibly go to Dubai, but it will be up to Sheikh Hamdan to decide," Peter-Hoblyn said of the Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup S. winner.

Dubai-based owner Malih Al Basti, who was underbidder on Tuesday's 600,000gns sale topper Sugar Ray (Ire), paid 250,000gns for Juddmonte's listed-placed Weald (GB) (Bering {GB}), lot 1172, and 180,000gns for the same consignor's French winner World Ruler (GB) (Dansili {GB}), lot 1178. "They will go to Doug Watson to be trained for the Dubai Carnival," said Al Basti.

Two-year-old High Alert (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), lot 983, will join Peter Ho in Hong Kong after being bought for 225,000gns through McKeever St Lawrence's Philip Johnston.

Those heading to the U.S. include Jeremy Nosedo's recent Ascot listed winner Meydan Princess (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}), for whom agent Gordian Troeller bid 200,000gns on behalf of trainer Jim Cassidy. "As she's three, we have a few more options with her than the two-year-olds," said Cassidy, who was buying lot 988 for James Peyton's Forging Oaks Farm. "They usually fly over two weeks after the sale, and we'll see how she travels, but she could run straight off the plane." Cassidy added, "It's just happened that we seem to have followed a lot of fillies into the ring this year, and she was really the last one that fit the bill. The owner's done well with Bahama Mama (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Passified (GB) (Compton Place {GB}), who both came from Tattersalls." The sale concludes today with a session starting at 9:30 a.m. Catalogues and complete results are available on www.tattersalls.com.

FIELD OF EIGHT LIKELY FOR NASHUA

Eight juveniles are expected to line up for Sunday's GIII Nashua S. at the Big A, according to NYRA Stakes Coordinator Andrew Byrnes. Break Water Edison (Lemon Drop Kid), a $525,000 OBSMAR graduate earlier this year, looks to get back on track following an eighth-place finish in the GI Champagne S. Oct. 4. The handsome bay worked five furlongs in 1:02.24 over the Belmont training track Monday.

Forty Thieves, a son of 2003 Nashua hero Read the Footnotes, puts his perfect record on the line after annexing the Monmouth Park NATC Futurity Sept. 27.

Hello Broadway (Broken Vow), a half-brother to GI Wood Memorial S. winner Nobiz Like Shobiz (Albert the Great), enters off a well-beaten fifth-place finish in the Champagne. The Elizabeth Valando homebred has been training smartly since, posting a five-furlong bullet in :58.86 at Belmont Oct. 22. Friesan Fire (A.P. Indy), a decent third behind Charitable Man (Lemon Drop Kid) in the GI Futurity S. Sept. 13, Trapp Mountain S. victor Royal Vindication (Vindication), recent Philly Park allowance winner Rip Rap (Harlan's Holiday), and last-out maiden grads Prince Charming (Vindication) and Viscount (Orientate) round out the likely octet.

GOSDEN REFLECTS ON BC SUCCESS John Gosden yesterday spoke of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic triumph of Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality), and championed the Pro-Ride at Santa Anita. Princess Haya of Jordan's three-year-old got the better of Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo) and a host of dirt performers in Saturday's highlight and his trainer pointed to the change of surface as highly significant in the stable star's performance. "In shifting on to the Pro-Ride, which had great spring in it and rode like good ground, a horse can carry a jockey, and when they ask them to go they can really accelerate," Gosden offered. "On this surface, if you're close to dirt horses, you are always going to beat them with a European horse. I would say 95 percent of trainers there are really happy with the surface and the one at Hollywood Park. I'm into the welfare of horses, and if it does mean that the goalposts have changed, then so be it." Gosden also revealed that the Juvenile Turf winner Donativum (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) might tackle the Kentucky Derby Challenge S. on Kempton's Polytrack before preparing for a tilt at the Kentucky Derby. "That race is a very attractive option for us, and then you can think of going over there and having another prep," he added.

LEWIS MICHAEL RETIRED TO THREE CHIMNEYS Multiple graded stakes winner Lewis Michael (Rahy--Justenuffheart, by Broad Brush) has arrived at Three Chimneys Farm in Midway, Kentucky, and is available for inspection. The five-year-old's stud fee is expected to be announced in early November. "Lewis Michael is the full package that the middle market needs," said Three Chimneys President Case Clay. "Standing at over 16 hands, he is a big, solid horse that is exceptionally good-looking. He has beaten some of the best milers in the country and retired sound after competing at the highest level from age two through the end of his five-year-old campaign." A full brother to 2006 champion juvenile filly Dreaming of Anna, the Frank Calabrese homebred was a solid sophomore, finishing second in both the GII Peter Pan S. and GIII Perryville S. and third in the GIII Tropical Park Derby. In 2007, he captured the GII Washington Park H. and was runner-up in the GII Commonwealth BC S. The bay was impressive this summer in the GII Pat O'Brien H. at Del Mar, soundly defeating a field that included champion Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) and Grade I winner In Summation (Put It Back) while establishing a new track record of 1:21.17 for seven furlongs. Seventh in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Santa Anita, the Wayne Catalano trainee retires with a record of 23-7-6-2 and earnings of $811,714. He will stand along his sire at Three Chimneys. "We are thrilled to have the opportunity to stand this outstanding son of Rahy, who has become a major influence on the breed," Clay continued. "We welcome breeders to come out and see Lewis Michael. His physique and conformation are definitely impressive and, taking into consideration the state of the economy and the situation breeders are facing, we plan to price him very competitively."

NEW DATE FOR OBS FEBRUARY SALE The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company February Selected Sale of Two-Year-Olds has been rescheduled for Feb. 17. OBS has also added the Adena Springs Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training to its 2009 line-up. That auction will be held Mar. 16. The February sale, originally scheduled for a week earlier, was moved to allow consignors an additional week of preparation, according to an OBS release. OBS has also changed its under tack policy and will now have a single under-tack show for both the February and the March Selected Two-Year-Olds sale. The February under-tack show will take place Feb. 13 at 9 a.m. The under-tack show for the two-day March auction will take place Mar. 12 and 13, with each session beginning at 8 a.m. For more information, go to www.obssales.com.

ONE-BREEZE FORMAT FOR BARRETTS

MARCH Barretts Equine Limited has announced that there will be one under-tack show for the company's March Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training, which will take place Tuesday, March 10 at the Hinds Pavilion at Fairplex in Pomona, California. The preview is scheduled for Thursday, March 5. "We've always had to be sensitive to weather influences on our track," said Barretts President Jerry McMahan, "and that means we'll have to be flexible about the day we actually work." McMahan also revealed that the company was working with fellow auction houses Fasig-Tipton, Keeneland and Ocala Breeders' Sales Company regarding uniform rules for the use of the whip during training previews. For more information, go to www.barretts.com.

COMMENTATOR TO CLARK? Trainer Nick Zito is considering the Nov. 28 GII Clark H. for Commentator (Distorted Humor). The two-time GI Whitney H. hero was thought to be done for the year after taking the MassCap in September. "I still have to talk with [owner] Tracy [Farmer], but it's the end of the year and he likes Churchill," said trainer Nick Zito. "He likes anywhere, but he proved that he liked Churchill. The Clark is a prestigious race and Tracy's a Kentuckian--and we run on dirt." Zito added, "I couldn't make the Breeders' Cup. But he does need time in between races. The Clark is a good stop-off, it's a good end-of-the-year race. So it's a possibility. We'll talk before we decide anything, but right now it's what we're looking at." Commentator is currently in training at Saratoga.

GOLDEN DREAM FOR 'EMPRESS' GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner Dream Empress (Bernstein), runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last Friday, is expected to make one more start this year in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 29 at Churchill. The bay filly closed smartly to likely champion Stardom Bound (Tapit) in the $2-million contest at Santa Anita. "We're happy with the race," said trainer Ken McPeck. "Obviously you want to win, but she's going to come back in the Golden Rod. This is a good test for her. If she were not to run well, we'd probably relegate her to turf and 'Poly' for a while. But there's a lot to be learned still." After two starts on turf, the Live the Dream colorbearer took the Alcibiades over Keeneland's Polytrack before her Pro-Ride effort. "I think she can handle about anything, but I do think she handles the turf and the Poly really, really well," McPeck added. "Good horses, I think, run over anything, and I think she is that."

“Entering the ring is Hip#4, the magnificent Magnificience from the Hill ‘n’ Dale consignment here at Fasig-Tipton. Magnificience, by Champion Sire Stormy Atlantic, served notice in her debut at Santa Anita where she drew off by 6 1/2 lengths, announcing herself as perhaps the most promising Three-Year-Old on the west coast. Her 5 length win in the Grade 3 Santa Paula in which she ran an internal fraction of 1:08 flat for 6 furlongs, was nothing short of brilliant.

READY'S IMAGE TO WALMAC Graded winner Ready's Image (More Than Ready--Clever Phrase, by Clever Trick) will stand at Walmac Farm in 2009 for a stud fee of $12,500, live foal. "Ready's Image has that all-important brilliance at two, coupled with good size, being 16.2 hands, and from an internationally fashionable sire line," said Walmac Managing Director John T.L. Jones III. "He was the highest-priced yearling of his year by More Than Ready, and, being out of a Clever Trick mare, is sure to put commercial conformation on his progeny." A $410,000 KEESEP yearling, the Maryland-bred won his debut at Keeneland before finishing third in the GIII Kentucky BC S. He rebounded to take the Tremont S. by 7 3/4 lengths and the GII Sanford S. by four lengths before finishing second in the GI Hopeful S. Injured when unplaced to champion War Pass (Cherokee Run) in the GI Champagne S. last October, the dark bay returned to take the Adjudicating S. at Belmont in May, but failed to sustain that form in three subsequent starts for trainer Todd Pletcher. Ready's Image has compiled a record of 10-4-1-1 with earnings of $310,542 while racing for Jim Scaturochio and Walmac Farm.

Littleexpectations to Louisiana:

Littleexpectations (Valid Appeal--Mepache, by Iron Constitution) will move from Millennium Farms in Kentucky to 519 Thoroughbreds in Arcadia, Louisiana, for the 2009 breeding season. The 11-year-old, who will stand for a stud fee of $2,500 as the property of Millennium Farms and Glory Days Breeding, has been represented by multiple graded stakes winner King of the Roxy from three crops of racing age.

He will join Easyfromthegitgo (Dehere) and Millennium Wind (Cryptoclearance) in the Pelican State. "We now have three of our stallions in Louisiana, which is a testament to how highly we rank the state-bred program there," said Ro Parra, owner of Millennium Farms. "Littleexpectations is a perfect fit for Louisiana and that region; his full brother Valid Expectations has made a national name for himself in Texas, and he stacks up well with Louisiana's top stallions. As the sire of King of the Roxy, who won graded stakes at two and three, we already know he can produce 'the big horse.' We look forward to offering him to breeders in Louisiana."

Sam Houston Dates Approved To Move to Retama:

The Texas Racing Commission has approved the request to move Sam Houston Race Park's Thoroughbred race dates to Retama Park as a result of damage suffered by the Houston race track from Hurricane Ike last month. The TRC held a public meeting yesterday at The Park and agreed to relocate 43 live racing dates to Retama Park in San Antonio. The remaining 12 days scheduled for Sam Houston were cancelled and will not be rescheduled. "We are extremely disappointed that we had to cancel the Thoroughbred meet at The Park this winter," said Andrea Young, chief operating officer, Sam Houston Race Park. "However, we are proud of efforts made by the Texas Racing Commission, the horsemen and our counterparts at Retama to preserve wintertime racing in Texas. We plan to support Retama in any way possible." The additional racing dates will extend Retama's current meet, which opened Aug. 29, through Feb. 28, creating 78 days of live Thoroughbred racing. The Park was forced to relocate the 2008/2009 Thoroughbred meet, which consisted of 65 live racing dates, due to damages sustained by the facility as a result of Hurricane Ike, which slammed into the Texas Gulf Coast Sept. 12. The Park will re-open for live racing events May 1 for the 16th American Quarter Horse meet. Later that weekend, The Park will host its annual Kentucky Derby festivities.

Hollywood to Cut Purses:

Hollywood Park has announced that purses will be cut by 6.25 percent beginning Sunday due to the fact that account wagering companies are not permitted to accept wagers from outside of California on races at the Inglewood oval. According to the Interstate Horse-racing Act, the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) must approve the terms of out-of-state wagering on Hollywood Park races. Companies such as TVG, YouBet.com, TwinSpires and XpressBet are offering wagering only in California on Hollywood Park races. "I am extremely disappointed that wagering on Hollywood Park races will not be available through account wagering outside California," said Jack Liebau, Hollywood Park's president. "This curtailment in account wagering will be economically harmful to everyone within the industry, and will be compounded by the tumultuous economic times in which we find ourselves. I had incorrectly assumed that the account wagering framework during the Hollywood Park and Santa Anita meets everyone proclaimed to be so successful--including the TOC--would have been permitted to be continued."

Queen Of the Catsle has been all but unstoppable since taking a first-level allowance over this course and distance May 24. Second by a neck at Del Mar July 17, she scored in an optional claimer over that sod Aug. 14 before capturing a division of the Daisycutter H. Sept. 3 at the oceanside oval. The dark bay continued her rise by taking the GIII Senator Ken Maddy H. down the hill at Oak Tree Oct. 4 and loomed an odds-on choice here. Ferneley, winner of the G3 Amethyst S. May 11, was third in the Listed Glencairn S. June 4 before coming home fifth for trainer Frank Ennis in his European finale in the Listed Nijinsky S. June 18. Moved to the Ben Cecil barn for his U.S. bow in the GI Eddie Read H. July 20, the bay finished fifth before offering little en route to a sixth-place finish most recently in the GII Oak Tree Mile Sept. 28. Favored against easier foes here, the Irish-bred colt settled off the early pace, made up ground leaving the turn, bid four-wide into the stretch and inched clear to post the victory.

Tapit Colt Tops Day 2 at Barretts October:

A dark bay colt by freshman sire Tapit realized the top bid during the second and final session of the Barretts October Mixed Sale at Fairplex in Pomona Tuesday. Offered by Havens Bloodstock Agency Inc., acting as agent for Shields Thoroughbreds Inc., hip 323 brought a $60,000 final bid from Kjell H. Qvale. The Jan. 28 foal is the second named offspring out of the stakes-placed Ruhlmann mare Mydaddysthemian. The California bred is from the family of multiple graded-stakes placed Offshore Pirate. During Tuesday's session, a total of 63 broodmares, three stallions and 34 weanlings sold for an aggregate of $379,500. The average closed out at $3,795 for the second day, while the median was $1,500. Through two days of selling, 243 horses sold for $916,100, averaging $3,770. Last year's final session, which saw 191 head sell, grossed $1,383,700. For complete results visit www.barretts.com.

Rattling up a hat-trick of handicap wins with a victory at Milan June 22, Basaltico then ran second in the Sept. 28 G3 Premio Federico Tesio back at the San Siro last time and made up for the lack of domestic action with a first stakes success in this. Reserved off the pace for much of the contest, he was shaken up exiting the backstraight and sliced through the pack under a final-quarter drive to assert superiority.

Successful on black-type bow in the Aug. 23 Listed Criterium du Fonds Europeen de l'Elevage at Deauville, Sokar was a last-out fifth in the Oct. 10 G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud and made light of a penalty for his initial stakes win to claim a second such score in impressive style here. Sent to the front after the initial strides, he was pushed along off the home turn and urged further clear inside the closing panel to register an easy victory.

AUSTRALASIA

JOCKEY CHRIS MUNCE FREE Jockey Chris Munce, 39, is expected to apply for his riding licence immediately after being released from Silverwater Jail, having served almost two years for his involvement in a 'tips-for-bets' scandal in Hong Kong. Racing NSW Chief Executive Peter V'landys said Munce had not been charged by Hong Kong stewards, who have reconvened an inquiry, and had paid a "more than adequate penalty" for his involvement. Munce has support from leading trainers, including Gai Waterhouse, who said, "Chris is a decent man who is straight down the line. I'd be proud to have him back riding for me." Munce will hold a media conference at Randwick racecourse today where he will read from a prepared statement. Munce was arrested by ICAC in July 2006 and was sentenced on March 1 last year to 30 months in jail for receiving illegal advantages, contravening section 9(1)(a) of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance, for providing tips to a punter in return for a share of bets placed on those tips. Munce is required by racing's rules to attend the inquiry at Happy Valley racecourse Nov. 3, but is likely to apply for permission to appear via video link from Australia. Adopting a strict fitness regime while behind bars, Munce has kept himself fit and ready to resume riding.

EFFICIENT OUT OF MELBOURNE CUP Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) has firmed to an A$4.50 favourite for next Tuesday's A$5.5-million G1 Melbourne Cup with Mad Rush (Lemon Drop Kid) edging close at A$5.50 after it was announced that last year's winner Efficient (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) was scratched after injuring his right front ankle. "He worked yesterday and seemed fine, but we got him out of his box this morning and there was heat in joint," owner Lloyd Williams said of Efficient. "I notified everyone straight away he was scratched. At this stage he'll need three months of doing nothing. That means it will be 12 months before he can race again."
