RAVEN'S PASS TO KILDANGAN

Princess Haya of Jordan's GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) has run his last race and will commence stallion duties at Kildangan Stud in

Raven's Pass winning the Classic
Sarah K. Andrew

Ireland next season, it was announced yesterday. The chestnut sophomore, who also bagged a top-level score in the Sept. 27 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot, will stand at an initial covering fee €40,000. Initially campaigned in the colors of breeder Stonerside Stable, Raven's Pass exploded onto the scene with a five-length success in last year's Listed Winkfield S. at Ascot before he dished out a seven-length demolition in the G3 Solario S. at Sandown. He concluded his juvenile campaign with a third in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. His three-year-old season was chaptered by an ongoing rivalry with dual Classic winner Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo), who won their first three meetings, but he finally bettered that old foe at Ascot in September before he did so again when leading home a Euro exacta in Santa Anita's showpiece. "He will start at Kildangan next year, we are thrilled and it is exciting news for the stud," commented the stud's general manager Jimmy Hyland. Regular partner Jimmy Fortune, who missed out on the plum Breeders' Cup Classic ride, added, "I had some great days on him, he did nothing but improve and [trainer] John Gosden did a fantastic job on him. I still don't think we had seen the best of him, but he's the most beautiful stamp of a horse and I am sure he will make a great stallion." Raven's Pass retires with a career record of six wins from 12 starts and earnings of £1,847,661.

KING OF THE CASTLE

Noel Murphy's Castle Park Farm sold the highest-priced lot on a day when weanlings ruled at Keeneland November. On the fifth day of trading, it was a striking chestnut son of Giant's Causeway--Queen's Music who led the way on the strength of Clear Ridge Stable's $310,000 offer. Brian Graves, sitting just under the press box on the left side of the pavilion, handled the bidding duties for Clear Ridge and saw off a challenger standing in a doorway. Weanlings accounted for the top three prices Friday. They included a $300,000 Cherokee Run colt, hip 1536, and a $280,000 Tiznow colt, hip 1427. "He was a gorgeous foal," Murphy said of the Giant's Causeway colt, who was catalogued as hip 1629. "We thought he'd sell pretty well because he was a lovely individual, but that was more than we thought he'd bring. He's a super, super walker with a great top line." Cont. p2

Big Score for Murphy's Castle Park...

The sale of the session topper was a big score for both Christoph Amerian, the man who bred and sold him, and for Murphy. The Irish-bred consignor hails from Galway and got into the business the old-fashioned way: "It was a family business in Ireland--my father was a veterinarian."

Noel Murphy

The peripatetic Murphy first came to the States as a student and worked at Ashford Stud for a term. He moved his tack to Japan for two years, working at Lex Stud on Hokkaido.

"Then Noel O'Callaghan of BBA Ireland asked me to come back to Kentucky to manage Green Gates, and I managed that for five years before going out on my own," said Murphy, who launched Castle Park in 1999. Castle Park's primary client is Joe Lacombe, who became acquainted with Murphy around the time that Favorite Trick was running. Murphy had done some lay-ups for the juvenile star's trainer, Patrick Byrne. The Murphy/Lacombe partnership has been a successful one. Murphy selected and purchased the mares of Lacombe's three best homebred runners in 2008, the full-brothers Slew's Tizzy and Slew's Tiznow--both by Tiznow out of Hepatica--and the good two-year-old Azul Leon, by Lion Heart out of Quick Blue.

"We also have the dam of Raw Silk (Malibu Moon), who Joe bred," said Murphy. "She won a Grade II this year. I bought the dam [Silken Sash {Ire}] for Joe in Ireland."

Castle Park is based in Georgetown, not far from Lexington. The farm is home to 55 mares year-round.

$300,000 for Cherokee Run Colt...

Hip 1536 further illustrated that the market is still receptive to weanlings that tick all the boxes. The Feb. 8-foaled colt, a son of Cherokee Run out of the stakes-placed Limited Entry (Carson City), realized $300,000 from buyer Ferguson Valley. The colt is likely to be pinhooked as a yearling. Cherokee Run has worked with the family before, as Betty's Star (Pentelicus), a half-sister to Limited Entry, produced MSW Cherokee Jewel, who also is by Darley's stallion.

Yesterday's second-highest-priced horse was bred by G. Watts Humphrey Jr., Susan Keller, Victoria Oliver, and G. Watts Humphrey III in Kentucky. The first named purchased Limited Entry for $160,000 at the 2003 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. Limited Entry carried his green and white colors to a second-placed finish in the Listed Fashion S. at Belmont the following year. This was Limited Entry's second foal. Her first, a colt by Yes It's True, was sold as a weanling at this sale last year for $55,000. cont. p3

...$200,000 for Unbridled's Song Mare

The top price for mare Friday at November was the $200,000 paid by Quarter B Farm/Tim Boyer for hip 1598, the four-year-old Unbridled's Song mare Ourfavoritesong. The gray or roan sold in foal on a Feb. 16 cover to Tiznow, whose name was attached to several of the day's best performers. Ourfavoritesong sold from the consignment of Taylor Made Sales Agency. Ourfavoritesong was a broodmare prospect when she was purchased by Shining Light Farm for $70,000 at this sale a year ago. Ourfavoritesong is a half-sister to graded stakes winner Martha's Music and was produced by Danzig Key (Danzig), sister to Grade I winners Nine Keys (Forty Niner) and Silver Voice (The Minstrel).

Anatomy of the Sale...

The session-topping Giant's Causeway colt was produced by the winning Dixieland Band mare Queen's Music and is thus bred on the same cross that produced First Samurai. The 15-year-old Queen's Music is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Splendent (Shadeed) and Group 3 heroine Aim for the Top (Irish River {Fr}). Queen's Music is familiar face at bloodstock auctions. She sold in foal to Diesis (GB) to BBA Ireland for $190,000 at November in 2000 and was shipped to Europe, where she produced three foals for breeder Wood Hall Stud Limited. While in Europe, Queen's Music RNA'd twice at Tattersalls December, first for 100,000gns in 2002 and then for 36,000gns a year later. Sent through the sale a third year in a row while in foal to Medicean (GB) in 2004, Queen's Music finally found a buyer when Curragh Bloodstock Agency, acting on behalf of Christoph Amerian, acquired her for only 20,000gns ($39,750). Amerian has seen a healthy return on that investment. In 2005, Amerian sold the Medicean foal she was carrying, a filly named Contessina (Ire), for 64,000gns ($115,214) at Tattersalls December. In 2006, he trumped that buy selling a High Chaparral (Ire)--Queen's Music colt for €230,000 ($295,090) to the account of Paul Shanahan at Goffs November. That colt is named High Cian (Ire) and is currently racing in Europe. Queen's Music was subsequently put in foal to the Giant's Causeway stallion Footstepsinthesand (GB) and sent to Castle Park Stud in Kentucky. Queen's Music foaled a colt last year, named Beach Rhythm, who Castle Park and Amerian sold as a weanling for $150,000 at this sale. Comparing the Giant's Causeway colt with his year-older brother, Noel Murphy offered, "He was very similar to the Footstepsinthesand, but he was a bigger, stronger horse. Murphy added that Queen's Music is not currently in foal and is booked to Giant's Causeway once again. Christoph Amerian, the man who owns Queen's Music, formerly had a farm in Ireland and is now based in Germany, where he is involved in show jumping. "He still has a few mares in Ireland, but this is his only mare in the States," said Murphy. "He mostly sells, and he buys some foals and re-sells them as yearlings."-LM

Tiz Good Timing...

When Taylor Made Farm, Louis Brooks and Jo and Sam Pollock partnered to buy the stakes-placed Wild Rush mare Dirty Rush about 90 days ago, they thought the handsome Tiznow colt by her side, which they also purchased, would make a good yearling prospect at next year's Saratoga Sale. As it turned out, the weanling proved a top draw on day five of this year's Keeneland November Sale. Selling yesterday as hip 1427, the Apr. 2-foaled colt brought $280,000 on the bid of Pearl Street Farm. It was third-highest price for a weanling Friday. "We thought he was a nice horse," said Sam Pollock shortly after the sale. "We thought he might be a nice Saratoga horse--that's our vacation spot; we like to go up there and bring a few horses with us."

In the end, they decided to send the colt through the ring as a weanling, and were rewarded for that decision. Brooks said the group was thrilled with the final price. "We thought $100,000, maybe $150,000, so we were as happy as a hog in water," he said. No doubt boosted by the strong year his sire is having, the Tiznow colt was produced by the five-year-old Dirty Rush, who is a half to three stakes horses, including GI King's Bishop runner-up Social Probation (Jules), stakes winner and graded-placed Britt's Jules (Jules) and stakes winner Probation Ready (More Than Ready).

Dirty Rush had been acquired privately by Chris and Kirt Cahill, who bred hip 1427 before selling colt and mare as a package privately. It wasn't the first time Tiznow has played a role in the Pollocks' success. At the 2004 Keeneland November Sale, they purchased the Storm Cat mare Contrive for $140,000. The following year, Contrive's daughter Folklore, from the first crop of Tiznow, became the top juvenile filly in the land. She won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and was awarded with an Eclipse. Shortly after Folklore's Breeders' Cup win, Contrive was offered by the Pollocks at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale, where she was knocked down to the folks who owned Folklore--Bob and Beverly Lewis--for $825,000. "We really like Tiznow," said Sam. "I guess he's one of our favorite stallions, and we were fortunate enough to buy a piece of a share in him this year." The Pollocks also have done well with Saint Ballado relations. They owned portions of Grade I winners Sister Act and Yankee Victor, both by the late Halo son. Just last Sunday, a horse co-bred by the Pollocks, the four-year-old treble Grade I winner Intangaroo (Orientate), was among the stars at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale after going to Frank Stronach for $1.8 million. The Pollocks bred Intangaroo with Taylor Made Farm and sold her as a yearling for $37,000 in 2005. cont. p5

The Pollocks made the trek over to Newtown Paddocks to watch her sell Sunday. Asked if it was emotional, Jo quipped, "It was sad for me, because I'd like to have her back."

Jo and Sam Pollock, who do business as Pollock Farms, got into the Thoroughbred game about 20 years ago. Before that, the Alabama-based couple owned automobile dealerships and dabbled in a different kind of livestock.

"We had cattle for a long time; we raised exotic cattle," Sam explained. "We'd go to England or France and bring some over. But we slowly drifted away from cattle and toward the horses."

Ten years ago, they bought a farm in Kentucky, but currently lease the operation to Taylor Made.

"We stay up here in the summertime and keep an eye on all of our horses," said Sam.

Primarily a breed-to-sell operation, Pollock Farms owns in whole or in partnership between 20 and 25 mares. "We always sell the Grade I horses and keep the others," laughed Jo, who grew up riding horses.

Louis Brooks, meanwhile, is based in Texas, where he operates a cattle ranch. He has recently become involved in wind generators, however, and says that that has become his primary business these days. Brooks is quick to praise his partners for their success.

"Frank [Taylor, of Taylor Made Farm] found the mare, and we lucked out with this one," he said, before pointing to Sam and adding, "This guy is the best partner in the world--and the smartest, too."-LM

Still Down, but Some Silver Lining...

Like the four days that preceded it, Friday's session saw sharp declines in average and median and a steep increase in the number of RNAs. The average of $55,591 was down 38.2 percent from 2007, while the median of $45,000 was down 30.8 percent. There were 104 RNA's yesterday, compared with 76 in 2007. One bright spot on the day was that weanlings sold well. During last year's corresponding fifth session, a total of 18 weanlings realized $100,000 or more. That number had dropped to 13 yesterday. But in 2007, only four foals made over $150,000, with the top two selling for $250,000 and $225,000. This year, seven weanlings made over that mark. That includes three at $310,000, $300,000 and $280,000, respectively. "I thought the foal market today was very strong, especially at the top end," commented Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "I would credit it to the strength of the physicals, as most of the weanlings were purchased by pinhookers. One of the comments that I heard was that some of the better pedigreed weanlings had been taken out, and having such a narrow band of horses that fit all the criteria meant that everyone landed on the same ones. But the pinhookers obviously are optimistic that we'll get over this bump in the market, so that's always pleasant." As one prominent pinhooker told Russell while bidding him goodnight, "Good foals are recession proof." -LM

KEENELAND NOVEMBER —FRIDAY

Hip	Name	Price
1619	c, Tale of the Cat--Preachtothechoir B-Corner Farm & Raul Lottero (Va) Consigned by Denail Stud (Craig & Holly Bandoroff), agent Purchased by Ben Glass, agent	150,000

As chronicled by Lucas Marquardt in Friday's TDN, Carlos Moore went to $40,000 for Preachtothechoir (Pulpit) carrying this foal in utero, but some misinformation led to Moore sharing in the foal with Argentine Raul Lottero. The family has really taken off this year owing to the exploits of Thunders Dove (Thunderello), who has rattled off four consecutive stakes scores and is bound for graded company in her next start.

1647	Saki to Me (f, 3, Fusaichi Pegasus--Buy the Cat, by Storm Cat) Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent Purchased by Luigi d'Alessandri	$75,000
-------------	--	-----------------

A $55,000 Keeneland September graduate in 2006, Saki to Me proceeded to win her first three career starts, including the Blue Hen S. last October. She added a dead-heat victory in this year's Little Silver S. at Monmouth Park and was offered with four tallies from 10 career starts and earnings just shy of $160,000. Yesterday's sale added a bit more to the pocket of owner Morris Bailey.

1725	c, Stormy Atlantic--Underworld B-Robert A Haas Jr (Ky) Consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent Purchased by Rose Green Bloodstock	$165,000

Breeder Robert Haas went to $180,000 to acquire Underworld (Unbridled's Song) out of the 2006 November sale carrying a foal by El Corredor. The young mare produced a filly by that sire in early 2007 and was bred to another popular and successful sire at Hill 'n' Dale. The resulting offspring went a long way towards repaying the original investment. The colt's page received a boost when Monty's Best (Montbrook), a half-brother to Underworld, ran a good second in the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 1.

DARK SKY STEPS UP

Dark Sky (Storm Cat), runner-up while sprinting over this track June 14, comes into this off a pair of intriguing victories; a turf sprint at the Spa Aug. 3 followed by an allowance win over Keeneland's Polytrack Oct. 10. Out of Media Nox (GB) (Lycius), winner of the GII Buena Vista H. and G3 Prix du Bois in France, the chestnut is a full sister to G1 French Oaks heorine Nebraska Tornado, who also annexed the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. The Overbrook Farm-owned filly is a half to Grade III winner Mirabilis (Lear Fan) and Burning Sun (Danzig), victorious in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam.

CURLIN INTEREST REMAINS UNSOLD

A sealed-bid auction for a 20-percent interest in defending Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) failed to result in a sale, according to Sylvius H. von Saucken, the attorney for the court-appointed receiver. Bids were due by 5 p.m. Wednesday. According to a statement issued by von Saucken, the 20 percent share will be marketed privately to parties who had expressed an interest in the stake during the bidding process, though it is not certain that the negotiations will result in a sale. "Through this process, we identified that there is much love for Curlin, but this is a depressed market," said von Saucken of the Garretson Law Firm in Cincinnati. "There were no bids acceptable to the receiver. The sealed-bid process was intended to determine if a market interest existed for the 20-percent interest in Curlin. The process was not necessarily intended to result in a sale, but the receiver recognizes the pressing, but not mandatory need given this market to sell that interest. The receiver has spoken to everyone who contacted Keeneland and our office, and they have been unanimous in their praise for this champion stallion. The market echoed the same concerns we had going in, that a minority interest owned by folks with legal problems is a hard sell for those who prefer simplicity over complexity." Disbarred attorneys Shirley Cunningham Jr. and William Gallion own the 20-percent interest through their corporation, Tandy LLC, which races as Midnight Cry Stables. Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables owns the other 80 percent of Curlin. "With all that being said, this process did bring forth some interested parties who have identified potential willingness to continue a dialogue concerning a private sale," added von Saucken. "We will pursue whatever actions are necessary to maximize the value of the horse. This was just the first necessary step in the receiver's plans to protect the value of Tandy's interests, including Curlin."

STARDOM BOUND TO RACE IN CALIFORNIA

IN '09 MGISW Stardom Bound (Tapit), who was purchased by IEAH Stables for $5.7-million at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale last Sunday, will be sent back to California to launch her 2009 campaign, connections announced yesterday. Sent to Three Chimneys Farm following the sale, the grey is expected to make her first start of the year in either the GIII Santa Ysabel S. Jan. 5 or the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 9 before a tilt at the Mar. 9 GI Santa Anita Oaks. "As soon as she's ready, we'll run her--we're not backing off on her," IEAH President Michael Iavarone told Daily Racing Form yesterday. Winner of the GI Oak Leaf S., GI Del Mar Debutante S. and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, the Kentucky-bred will remain under the care of Bobby Frankel during her stay out West. "She loves the track out there," trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. told DRF. "Frankel is the best horseman alive; he's going to be with her every day. He wants to help her out so much. I would love to be around her every day, but the best thing is to see her out in her own environment." Iavarone added that the goal will be the GI Kentucky Oaks, but left a slight opening for a tilt at the Kentucky Derby. "She'd have to impress the daylights out of us and everybody else," he told DRF. "If she belongs there, we'll consider it."

Q: The Breeders' Cup featured several additional changes this year, including new races, a new format and the first-ever synthetic surface. What did you like and not like about this year's two-day Breeders' Cup, and what was your Breeders' Cup experience like? (Please specify if you were participating on-site, at a simulcast outlet, or as a broadcast viewer.)

R.D. HUBBARD, OWNER AND MEMBER OF THE BREEDERS' CUP BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The experience was probably the best I've had in a long, long time. The people at Oak Tree were very well-prepared, with lots of staff and volunteers. There was no comparison between that and Churchill in 2006. I thought we had two great days of racing. I was a little disappointed with the overall handle, but I think that's the effect of the overall economy, as a lot of the tracks are down double digits.

JOSE NELSON, BREEDER, OWNER AND ATTORNEY

I have been at the Breeders' Cup races almost every year since its inception. This year the quality of the horses and the organization was excellent in every respect. The beauty of Santa Anita racetrack and the sunny skies only added to a perfect two-day racing festival. As an Argentinian breeder, owner and racing fan, I was able to achieve once again the basic purpose of going to the BC, which is and should be to see most of the best thoroughbreds available in the world and see racing friends from all over once again.

Changes? Two minor issues. It seems that synthetics work a little in favor of turf horses, so perhaps in the future BC should avoid giving one track with synthetic surface the BC day twice in a row. On the television signal, I think that something must be done to provide a better view of the positions of the horses. Perhaps what Mr. Nicholson suggested, tracking technology or maybe just making what was used at Santa Anita a little bit better. Great idea on the two-day format. And the hospitality of everyone at the racetrack was superb.

Why I Joined the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance

The last few weeks have been an important time in the history of Thoroughbred racing, with the announcement in New York of the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance. As both the executive chair of the NTRA and the president of Turfway Park, I often find myself viewing the Alliance from two distinctly different points of view. From the broad perspective of my role with the NTRA, I am exceedingly gratified that so many subsets of our diverse industry were able to put individual issues aside and collaborate for the good of all. These industry groups, which importantly included fans, were not just unified in their approval of the Alliance and their willingness to embrace changes that were, first and foremost, the right thing to do on behalf of our equine and human athletes. They also were instrumental in developing virtually every component and concept contained in the Alliance's 21 pages of reforms.

And that wide-ranging input will continue to be vital as the work of the Alliance evolves in the weeks and months ahead. Equally impressive was the industry's willingness to cede the important role of oversight to a fair but tough-minded outsider who would cut us no slack. Three things stuck out in my mind about our independent counsel Tommy Thompson after spending several hours with the former four-term Governor of Wisconsin and Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services last Wednesday: 1) he has a very high energy level and little tolerance for inaction; 2) he has a deep passion for Thoroughbred racing; and 3) he was not blowing smoke when he said he would have no problem giving racetracks and others a grade of "F" in his periodic public report cards if he found them insincere about their resolve to reform horse racing. As unsettling as the glare of public scrutiny may be to a track operator, it is exactly this brand of transparency that can help the Alliance succeed where other well-intentioned industry initiatives have failed. And to be sure, there are plenty of obstacles we all must hurdle on the road to successful implementation of the Alliance's reforms. Chief among them is the financial cost. It's safe to say that 2008 will not be chronicled as the "salad days" of our industry from a bottom-line standpoint.

All horses sell Tuesday Nov.11

The economy has played a big role in that. But so has our relative inaction on matters like health and safety and wagering security. We have no choice but to shore up the infrastructure of our sport to ensure that our future is brighter than our recent past. Does the current business downturn make it more difficult for track execs like me to do this? Absolutely. But that same business slump and the pain it brings make the need to change--and change now--inescapably apparent. It's easy to overlook problems during otherwise tranquil times, and all of us have been guilty of that at one time or another. Now, problems of our own doing (lack of reform) coupled with problems not of our doing (the economy) have made it clear that the salient question is not, "How much will it cost me to implement these reforms?" The question is, "How much will it cost me today and in the longer run--NOT to implement these reforms?"

I am reading the New York Times bestseller "Snowball," a pretty good read about the most recognized investor on the planet, Warren Buffet. In the book, Buffett sums up his philosophy this way: "I am fearful when others are greedy, and I am greedy when others are fearful." In that vein, those who fear making investments in reform merely open the door wider for those of us who think it is not only the morally right thing to do but also ultimately the path to economic dividends. I hope the wagering public, who rightfully has demanded many of these reforms, rewards those making the investment with a greater share of their play. I trust that owners, our industry's largest lifeline of investment capital, will run their horses at facilities willing to invest in protecting those valuable assets and in conducting racing with the utmost integrity. If some view that as greedy, then I am happy to be viewed in that light.

When we made the decision to install Polytrack at Turfway Park in 2005, we faced financial costs that were staggering for a mid-sized track like ours. When I look back three years later, though, I shudder to think what things would be like for Turfway today had we not made that switch. Our racing has been safer, our field sizes have increased and our weather-related cancellations have declined. Switching to Polytrack proved to be the right decision for us back then. And I know that joining the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance is the right decision for us now.

I am pleased that 55 other racetracks see this issue as Turfway sees it and have joined the Alliance. And I'm hopeful that those who have not yet joined will soon do so. In the big picture, it doesn't really matter when a racetrack or other industry organization climbs on board--it just matters that we're all, indeed, on board. That's because Governor Thompson isn't the only one who will be grading us. Even more telling will be the grade we receive from the American public, including our fans and our prospective fans. They will be grading us individually in our local markets and collectively on a national scale. And when that report card comes, not a single one of us can afford a failing grade.

CHURCHILL REDUCES SOME PURSES Soft business levels stemming from the nation's economic slowdown and the unresolved negotiations with horsemen over distribution of the Churchill Downs simulcast signal to national advance deposit wagering outlets have prompted Churchill Downs to announce a 10-percent reduction in overnight purses for the remainder of its Fall Meet, and reductions in purses for two of the meet's major stakes races. Overnight purses will be reduced by 10 percent, effective with the racing program Nov. 12. In addition, purses will be reduced for the Nov. 28 Gil Clark H. and the Nov. 27 Gil Falls City H.. The Clark purse will be reduced by $100,000 to $400,000-added, and the Falls City purse by $50,000 to $150,000-added. "The soft economy has led to a decline of wagering dollars industry-wide and resulted in purse reductions at tracks across the country," said Churchill Downs Inc. Senior Vice President Kevin Flanery. "The inability to distribute simulcast signals to national ADW platforms has placed additional pressure on purses at Churchill Downs. We apologize to our customers for this inconvenience and will continue to work to obtain the horsemen's consent to distribute the Churchill Downs simulcast signal to those sites." The reduction in stakes purses for the Oct. 26-Nov. 29 meet is the second announced by Churchill Downs following the reduction of some stakes purses and the cancellation of two stakes events during the summer. The Churchill Downs simulcast signal has been blocked from national advance deposit wagering outlets since the beginning of Churchill Downs' April 26-July 6 Spring Meet. Those outlets include www.TwinSpires.com, the official ADW site for Churchill Downs Incorporated. The Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and Kentucky Thoroughbred Association have withheld permission to allow distribution of the track's simulcast signal to those ADW platforms.

COWTOWN CAT TO JOURNEYMAN STUD Multiple graded stakes winner Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor--Tom's Cat, by Storm Cat), who topped the 2006 Barretts March Sale at $1.5 million, has been retired from racing and will stand at Brent Fernung's Journeyman Stud in Florida. The chestnut will stand for a fee of $8,000, stands and nurses. "Cowtown Cat has a striking physical resemblance to his champion sire, Distorted Humor," said Doug Cauthen, President of WinStar Farm. "Of all of Distorted Humor's sons, I would have to say Cowtown Cat looks most like his sire. We feel Florida breeders will love a $1.5-million sale-topping two-year-old who came out early and displayed speed with the ability to carry it a distance of ground. We have already enjoyed much success with Journeyman Stud, so this is clearly a natural fit. He really could be any kind of sire." Campaigned by WinStar Farm and Gulf Coast Farms, Cowtown Cat broke his maiden at Belmont by 4 1/2 lengths at two before adding the Gil Illinois Derby and Gil Gotham S. at three. He retires with earnings of $562,228. "Cowtown Cat was one of the very best two-year-old prospects we've ever sold...and when you consider that others in that category have included stallions like Unbridled's Song, Yes It's True, Officer, and the emerging Henny Hughes, I think that's a pretty good indicator of his potential," added Jerry Bailey, co-owner of Gulf Coast Farms.

KEEP THINKING (A.P. Indy), the first foal from French highweight Denebola (Storm Cat), debuted with a solid second Sept. 13 at Belmont; the winner that day, Royal Vindication (Vindication), came back to be third in the Gill Nashua S. A $2.4-million KEESEP purchase, the Darley colorbearer will have Garrett Gomez in the irons once again as he faces a solid field here. Papa Clem (Smart Strike), a son of Gl Del Mar Debutante S. heroine Miss Houdini (Belong to Me), has an outstanding worktab ahead of his debut for trainer Gary Stute and owner/breeder Bo Hirsch. Also making his first start is Juddmonte homebred Molten Lava (Empire Maker), the latest from MGSW True Flare (Capote). The Bobby Frankel trainee is a 1/2 to GISW Latent Heat (Maria's Mon) and MGSW Art Master (Royal Academy) as well as the ill-fated GSW Indian Flare (Cherokee Run). brisnet.com PPs Bribon earned an improbable 118 Beyer Speed Figure in winning a Belmont optional claimer by 9 3/4 lengths June 25, when he was timed in 1:34 1/5. The chestnut didn't make another appearance until Oct. 3, when he ran third in a six-furlong affair at Belmont, and was the third choice in this competitive contest. Squeezed back when even-money Timber Reserve (Forest Camp) broke out from the rail, the French-bred was an unhurried fifth down the backstretch. He picked up the pace on the turn, rallied five wide in the lane and spurted clear in the final furlong to remain perfect in two starts over the Aqueduct main track. Timber Reserve went up to press the pace before tiring to finish last in the six-horse field. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Garcia to Florida for Winter:

Alan Garcia will head to Gulfstream Park in Florida for the winter meet, his agent Tony Micallef told Daily Racing Form. The 23-year-old was the second-leading rider during last season's inner-track meet at Aqueduct. "All of our business is going south," Micallef told DRF. "We don't ride for Gary [Contessa] or Richard [Dutrow]. We picked up some new business, Christophe Clement, John Kimmel, we're starting to ride for more; Shug [McGaughey] rides us on some horses. It looks good for us down there. We're looking forward to it." Garcia's main client is Kiaran McLaughlin, who splits his horses between Florida and New York during the winter. Garcia, who will be at Hollywood Park from Nov. 29-30, will head to Hong Kong to compete in the jockey's challenge before heading to Florida for the Jan. 3 opening of Gulfstream.

Favored for this, he set a sharp opening quarter of :21.90 after bobbling at the start, led by two lengths in the stretch and held the maiden Moonlite Ride safe.

LA MENINA (f, 3, El Prado {Ire}--Camella {MSW & MGSP, $373,754}, by Housebuster) captured her career opener as a two-year-old at Saratoga, but hadn't faced the starter in the interim. Favored at 9-5 despite the 16-month hiatus, the bay was unhurried down the backstretch and remained near the rear turning for home. She remained out of the camera frame while rallying up the center of the course, but finished with a flourish to edge Battingstar (Grand Slam) by a nose. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $52,020.

The Cliff's Edge to Margaux:

The Cliff's Edge (Gulch--Zigember, Danzig), hero of the 2004 GI Toyota Blue Grass S., will stand at Margaux Farm in 2009. Previously at Vinery, the seven-year-old has been represented by 10 winners from his first crop this season. In addition to his Blue Grass score, the bay captured the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. and GIII Iroquois S. at two, and earned $1,265,000. "The Cliff's Edge has the three main ingredients necessary for success at stud: conformation, ability and pedigree," said Gary Hudson, Margaux's stallion manager. "He is a wonderfully built, correct individual who was able to compete and win at the highest levels. He was a tough horse that showed tremendous heart throughout his career and he is passing off those traits to his offspring." The Cliff's Edge fee for 2009 will be $7,500, reduced from $10,000 in 2008. "In today's economy, it is vital to provide value to breeders and we feel a reduction in his fee matches the current state of the market, despite the fact that his first crop has been terrific on the track," said Steve Johnson, owner and managing partner of Margaux Farm. "The interest in this stallion is as high as ever, and at this new fee breeders will be hard pressed to find more value at his level."

Tetrarch S., and also finished second in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and third in the GII Oak Tree BC Mile and GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

Liquidity Back in Action:

J. Paul Reddam's Liquidity (Tiznow) runs in today's fourth race at Hollywood; it marks his first appearance since finishing 14th in the 2007 GI Kentucky Derby. Second by a neck in the 2006 GI Hollywood Futurity, the bay mirrored that effort in the GIII Sham S. and also finished fourth in the GI Santa Anita Derby. He sustained a tendon injury shortly after his Churchill Downs appearance and, after lengthy recuperation, resurfaced on the worktab this past July. "We're looking forward to Saturday and getting back at it," trainer Doug O'Neill told Daily Racing Form. "His big races were going two turns and, hopefully, this is a step in that direction." Michael Baze has the mount aboard the four-year-old.

Wateree Holds Graduation:

Eight inmates have graduated from the Groom Elite program at the Wateree River Correctional Facility in Rembert, South Carolina, bringing the total number of inmates to graduate from the program to just over 50 at the end of its second full year of classes. The inmates are part of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's program at the prison, home to over 50 retired thoroughbreds. TRF correctional facility programs bring together retired racehorses and inmates in vocational training and rehabilitative programs at nine farms in as many states. "Every time I come to one of these graduations, it renews my commitment to helping the horses help the men help themselves," said Kip Elser, President of the South Carolina chapter of the TRF. "Corrections department officials at Wateree are very pleased with the program and say it really is cutting down on recidivism rates." The Groom Elite horsemen's education program in place at Wateree is designed to provide knowledge and skills training that will enhance the ability of grooms and other equine care workers to properly care for their horses, and offers vocational programs to prepare individuals without equine care experience for entry level positions. The nation's oldest and largest equine rescue and retirement organization, the TRF operates 34 farms in 11 states.
