TDN Feature Presentation GRADE 2 MRS. REVERE STAKES

10th GRADE 1 WINNER FOR BELONG TO ME
ALL SILENT TAKES GRADE 1 VRC EMIRATES S.

ACOMA IS COMING, ACOMA IS COMING

She was well back early, but Acoma (Empire Maker) swept past the field in the stretch to take yesterday's GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Downs by 1 1/4 lengths. It was the third graded-stakes score for the filly, who captured the May 31 GIII Dogwood S. on the Churchill main track and the Oct. 17 GIII Valley View S. on the turf at Keeneland last time out. "It was just an awesome performance," trainer David Carroll said of the Mrs. Revere score.

"This fall, she's gone from strength to strength. From the [Valley View], she gained weight and trained even better. I told [jockey Julien Lejaroux] in the paddock to ride her with confidence and that he'd have more horse than he did at Keeneland, which he'd need today. We thought she was sitting on a big race. I was so happy for [owner Helen Alexander and her mother, Helen Groves]; they are wonderful to train for, and it's a privilege to train for people who let you do your thing--good things happen." Acoma broke her maiden in her second start at Keeneland in April, then added an allowance score in the slop at Churchill May 11. Fourth in the July 19 GI CCA Oaks after her Dogwood victory, the bay switched to the grass after running second in the Aug. 9 GIII Monmouth Oaks, taking the Valley View in her first turf try. Will she stay on the lawn in the future? "I think you have to have an open mind," Carroll said. "It's just a question as to how she's doing herself. She'll talk to you like they all do." The conditioner indicated that Acoma would now get a break before gearing up for a four-year-old campaign.

GOLD MEDAL TOPPER AT NOVEMBER

Weanlings once again figured prominently during Saturday's sixth session at Keeneland November, with a colt by Medaglia d'Oro out of Vanity Flair leading the proceedings on Tom Van Meter's $290,000 bid. WinStar sire Tiznow was responsible for the second-leading lot yesterday, a colt who was hammered down to agent Ben Glass for $285,000. Eaton Sales, owned by VanMeter and Reiley McDonald, consigned both. "He's the best-looking weanling I've seen all week," VanMeter told the Medaglia d'Oro colt's breeder, Diane Harrington, shortly after signing the ticket as Stockplace. Harrington, thrilled with the result, wished VanMeter the best of luck and said she hoped he'd just purchased a Kentucky Derby winner. "Or a Breeders' Cup winner--whichever you choose," she laughed. VanMeter replied, "Well, I just may resell him as a yearling. But I hope somebody wins the Derby with him." Yesterday marked the end of Book 3 of the Keeneland November Sale, which continues through Monday, Nov. 17. Sessions begin at 10 a.m. daily. KEENOV coverage continued p8

It's In the Blood...

The stakes success of Acoma comes as no surprise. She is a half to GISW Arch (Kris S.), and boasts champion Althea as her second dam and Broodmare of the Year Courtly Dee as her third. Her siblings have been the subject of their share of bidding wars at the yearling sales. Arch brought $710,000 at KEEJUL in 1996, GSW Festival of Light (A.P. Indy) was a $975,000 KEESEP buy, a colt by Kris S. sold for $1.2 million at KEESEP 2001 and, just this past September, a full sister to Acoma went for $1.7 million to Jon Kelly.

GII RED SMITH H. Strike a Deal (Smart Strike) draws off to an impressive victory.

Invitational S. going 12 panels on a yielding turf at Belmont, but faded late to be a distant fourth. Strike a Deal reverted to form in his latest, filling the place spot in the Oct. 25 GIII Knickerbocker H. at Belmont Park, but he put the bridesmaid's role firmly behind him here. Jockey Chuck Lopez rated the colt just off the pace through splits of :52.87, 1:19.05 and 1:43.70 on the bog-like surface. They two were fanned wide into the stretch, but finished full of run to win as much the best. "Around the turn I stayed in the four path, tagged him once left-handed, and he just took off," Lopez said. "He can be difficult to handle--he's off the bridle, then on the bridle...I hate to use the word problematic, but he can be difficult to ride. He was the same way when he was second last time; this time, I was prepared for it." All Silent ended a nine-year drought in Group 1 races for trainer Graeme Begg on the final day of Melbourne's spring carnival. Tucked away in midfield early, he was produced at the 400-meter pole and, while it took a little while to hit top stride, the gelding accelerated impressively in the final furlong. "Once I pushed the go button he really took off," said jockey Dwayne Dunn. Passed in at the Inglis Easter Sale, the close relative to champion Private Steer (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) was purchased privately and sent to Hong Kong, where he raced without distinction as Chiu Shan Elite. All Silent returned to Australia to race in the colours of Graeme's parents Neville and Yvonne, and showed promise this season. A solid fourth in the Oct. 4 G1 Epsom S., the bay won the G3 AAMI Travel Nov. 1 in his most recent outing. Begg said it was likely the five-year-old would now be spelled. "He's still got it all ahead of him," he explained. "We have been very careful how we have planned his races and taken him along very quietly." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Following his historic success last Tuesday in the G1 Melbourne Cup, trainer Bart Cummings added Group 1 win No. 251 for good measure here as Swick powered home from among the tail-enders for a half-length win, while even-money favourite Apache Cat (Aus) (Lion Cavern) uncharacteristically wilted in the straight. Sunburnt Land took the lead from Apache Cat at about the 300-meter pole, but Turffontein--trained by Bart's son Anthony--and Swick loomed fast. "We are on a roll again now, it took a while to get to 250 and, if we get another hundred, I'll be happy," said the Cups king. "[Swick] loves it up the straight here...this is the track he likes, when there is plenty of speed on and there were ideal conditions today with plenty of space, a small field where he could get cracking out in the middle, and the rest is history. I don't get confident, I just work them the way I think is the way to go and hope for the best. Today, it worked." As for Apache Cat, trainer Greg Eurell may rethink plans to appear in Hong Kong next month after the bald-faced gelding, aiming for his sixth straight Group 1 win, produced the worst run of his career. "This horse is basically bulletproof--for him to run that bad is totally out of character," Eurell said. "It's the worst run of his career." Eurell continued, "[Jockey] Corey [Brown] said he got a bit aggressive early but, honestly, I would have expected that being fresh. I wasn't too disturbed about that at all." Apache Cat was scheduled to be flown to Sha Tin Dec. 1 to prepare for the G1 Hong Kong Sprint Dec. 14, but Eurell said he was concerned about making an overseas trip after such a poor performance. "It's a very difficult decision whether or not to go," he said. "We don't have time to run him again. If he doesn't go, he'll go to Perth." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Rio de Janeiro invader Negro da Gaita blew by the leaders in mistretch and held off a late charge from a flying Hot Six to post a career-best triumph in Sao Paulo's Derby, which is the third leg of Sao Paulo's Jockey Club Quadruple Crown series for sophomore colts on the turf. The G1 GP Linneo de Paula Machado hero Flymetothemoon finished a game third after being overtaken in the later stages. Purchased by Luis Fernando Dannemann's Coudelaria Jessica racing stable after finishing second to the exported Estrela do Oriente (Brz) in the G1 Grande Premio ABCPCC at two in late June, Negro da Gaita came into this contest off an off-the-board finish to Flymetothemoon in the Paula Machado Oct. 12. He returned to the site of his lone maiden victory to post a breakthrough win and put an end to a three-race losing skid.

Ollagua placed herself among Argentina's top three-year-old fillies on turf with this smart victory in the last Argentine Group 1 of the year for three-year-old fillies on the grass. The flashy chestnut daughter of Pure Prize demonstrated she could be a formidable rival in next month's G1 Gran Premio Internacional Copa de Plata--Arquitecto Roberto Vasquez Mansilla, South America's equivalent of the Carlos Pellegrini for top turf fillies and mares. With her victory, Ollagua improved her record to three wins from four starts. Her lone defeat came when she placed eighth on dirt in the G1 Gran Premio Polla de Potrancas (Argentine 1000 Guineas) in September at Palermo. Ollagua exited an impressive 2 1/2-length conditions victory, clocking 1:32.88 for one mile on turf at San Isidro Oct. 10. Her dam Open Secrets is a half-sister to Argentine Group 1 winner and Australian-based sire Genereux (Arg) (French Deputy), and to Argentine MGSW winner Global Hunter (Arg) (Jade Hunter), recent winner of the Lure S. at Santa Anita.

With last term's winner Pressing tackling lesser company in the G2 Premio Ribot on the undercard, the path has been cleared for G1 Derby Italiano victor Cima de Triomphe to sit at the top table once again. He was given a break following an unplaced effort in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp July 14 after his Classic triumph, and enjoyed a confidence-boosting conditions win at Milan's San Siro Sept. 17. The bay lines up here off a close ninth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe back at Longchamp Oct. 5. He is confidently expected to confirm Derby Italiano form with Permesso, Papetti and Once More Dubai. Nahoodh, who earned sympathy votes after an unlucky passage in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket's Rowley Mile May 4, has been mixing it up with the best of her sex ever since. The grey eventually gained a deserved Group 1 success in the July 9 G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket's July strip, and was subsequently fourth in the Aug. 3 G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville. Jaber Abdullah's sophomore was runner-up in the Sept. 7 G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown and arrives here off a seventh in the Oct. 4 G1 Sun Chariot S. back at Newmarket.

Fourth in the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot and the July 12 Summer Mile S. back at the Berkshire venue, he ran second in the July 27 G1 Grosser Dallmayr Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich in his penultimate start. He was dropped back to a mile for the Topkapi Trophy at Veliefendi in Turkey last time Sept. 7 and rewarded connections' faith with a decisive win to land the massive pot. The home defence is headed by Farrel, who spent time on the shelf after running fourth in the May 11 G1 Derby Italiano over this course. Claim to Fame...

The story of yesterday's session-topping Medaglia d'Oro weanling begins at the claim box. Back in June of 2004, Diane Harrington took notice when Vanity Flair (Affirmed--Ambid, by Spectacular Bid) was dropped in for a $25,000 tag at Belmont Park by trainer Rick Violette Jr. Harrington had a friend drop in a claim slip, and won a four-way shake for the then-four-year-old. That was the end of Vanity Flair's racing days, and she was retired with one win in 15 starts for $49,940.

"I liked her because she by Affirmed out of a Spectacular Bid mare, and that's a pretty rare cross," Harrington explained. "You've got a Triple Crown winner out of a mare by a horse that won two legs and should have won the Belmont. There are very few opportunities to get a pedigree like that for $25,000."

Harrington sent Vanity Flair to Macho Uno in the spring of 2005 and sold the resulting foal, a two-year-old filly now named Aloto Uno, for $40,000 as a yearling. Vanity Flair did not have a foal the next year, but was put in foal to Medaglia d'Oro, and Mar. 4 foaled yesterday's topper.

"He is a very playful colt," Harrington explained. "He's a very smart colt with a lot of personality. He wouldn't hurt a fly, and if he does it's because he's just playing around. He's so easy to get along with, and you can do whatever you to with him. He would go away from the other weanlings and be just fine on his own--he just didn't care."

Harrington and her husband David are both equine veterinarians based in Pelham, Alabama, where they operate Harrington Equine Hospital. David is a surgeon.

"We worked the racetrack at Birmingham when it was running, and that's how we got hooked on the business," Diane explained. The Harringtons currently own only four mares, whom they board with a friend, a soybean farmer, in Western Kentucky.

Horseshoes, Hand Grenades and Horse Shopping...

Bloodstock agent Ben Glass was just a shade off when he told his clients, Gary and Mary West, that it was going to take $275,000 to land hip 2063, a strapping bay colt by Tiznow. As it turned out, it took $285,000. It was the second-highest price paid for a weanling Saturday. Bids for the colt came in rapid succession from within the pavilion, temporarily leaving Glass out of the action. "I couldn't get back in on the bidding, and finally E.C. [bidspotter] asked if I'd do $5,000 [at the $280,000 mark]," Glass explained. "So that's how I got him. Good ol' E.C."

Glass said the selection of the colt was a team effort, with Des Ryan, manager of Dell Ridge Farm, contributing his expertise. Glass said that, in addition to a strong physical, the colt was by the right sire.

"Well, everybody loves Tiznow," Glass said. "Des liked the way that he walks, and the vet liked him, so everything just came together."

Hailing from the draft of Eaton Sales, the colt was produced by the 10-year-old Hennessy mare Starboard Stinger, a full to the stakes-placed Cointreau and a half to graded stakes-placed First Lieutenant (Sea Hero). The colt was bred in Kentucky by G. Watts Humphrey Jr. and G. Watts Humphrey III.

Glass was busy at the September Sales buying yearlings for the Wests, who have campaigned the likes of GISWs Buddha and Mongoose. Glass signed tickets on no fewer than 26 yearlings at September. He said the Wests typically add in a few weanlings each year.

"But they've got to be ones we really like," Glass explained. "I think we've bought four this year, and last year we got five. Mr. West has a lot of mares at Dell Ridge, so we just buy a few."

Glass said that, despite the overall downturn in the market, action is still lively on well-conformed weanlings with some pedigree.

"I think if you bring a good in there, somehow, somewhere, the money comes in," he said. "If you lead one in the ring and everyone's on him, you can forget about the economy."

Rich Fantasy Lives up to Name...

The five-year-old broodmare Rich Fantasy (Richter Scale--Fantasy of Caro, by Caros Love) lived up to her name during yesterday at Keeneland November. Carrying a member from the first crop of Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense, the gray elicited a bid of $260,000, the top price for a mare on the afternoon. Adena Springs General Manager Eric Hamelback, sitting in the pavilion, saw off all challengers to land the mare for his boss Frank Stronach. Rich Fantasy sold from the consignment of Taylor Made Sales Agency.

"She's a big, good-looking mare, and she is definitely an outcross for our breeding program," Hamelback explained of the mare's appeal. "She fit well with our stallions, and we certainly liked Street Sense." Hamelback said that breeding plans are undecided. "That'll be up to Frank," he added.

Rich Fantasy very much fits the mold of many mares which wind up in Stronach's broodmare band. While not particularly fashionably bred, she was a hard-knocking racemare with plenty of ability. Rich Fantasy was a three-time stakes winner who was first or second in nine of 18 races and earned $323,514.

"It's certainly part of our program to buy fillies that could run, and obviously she was one that could," said Hamelback. "She earned a very good speed figure--she ran a 5 3/4--and had won her maiden very impressively. And she was raised by a good program in Oxbow."

Oxbow Racing is the nom de course of Art Preston, who previously owned Prestonwood Farm (now WinStar) in Kentucky. Oxbow purchased Rich Fantasy for $50,000 at the 2004 Fasig-Tipton July Sale. They sent her through the following year's Calder event, but purchased her back for $90,000.

"We were hoping she'd turn out to be a good one," Preston said with a laugh shortly after watching Rich Fantasy sell. Preston currently has two farms, the former Golden Chance farm in Kentucky and a farm near Ocala, Florida, that is used for sales and race prep. It was Oxbow's second big sale of the week. On Monday, Oxbow sold graded stakes winner Ermine (Exchange Rate) for $1.3 million to Katsumi Yoshida.

"I thought both horses were well sold," Preston added. "Nothing extraordinary, but nice sales."

'Land of Plenty'...

You'd be hard-pressed to pick up a sales sheet at the Keeneland pavilion without coming across at least one mare purchased by Woodland Farm. Though the name is new to Keeneland observers, the operation behind it is not. Businessman William Shively, who owns the Kentucky-based commercial breeding operation Dixiana Farm, is simply using the moniker to purchase mares this year. Whatever the name, Shively has been ubiquitous at November from flagfall through yesterday's close of Book 3. Through Woodland, he has purchased a staggering 40 mares for total cost of $5,837,000, ranking behind only John Ferguson's $9,010,000 as the sale's leading buyer. Shively is averaging $145,925 per purchase.

Shively spoke with the TDN yesterday in a brief break in the action, and explained that he was simply taking advantage of the current depressed market.

"I think it's a great time to buy at the prices they're at," he said. "I think you have to look at the economy, and in two or three years it should be better, and these mares will have yearlings by then."

Shively admitted he didn't intend to be this busy at November. "I've been waiting my turn, but I didn't know how good it would get," he said. "I didn't come into this thinking we'd buy this many--this will put us over 100 mares in total for a broodmare band. But the prices have been right and we have the capital, and it's just a good time."

Shively's most expensive purchase at November is the Grade II-winning Cape Town mare Capeside Lady, who was knocked down for $500,000 during Wednesday's session. He also walked away with Grade I winner Mayo On the Side (French Deputy), who sold Monday for $425,000.

Not all of Shively's purchases were of the six-figure variety. In fact, most were not. A total of 25 of his 40 buys cost under $100,000. Still, Shively says he's seeing great value in those mares. "I've bought a few nice mares with graded placings for that money," he said. "We're trying to stay at or near the top of the market; if it makes any sense, we don't really want to be beyond Book 4 at the September Sale with our yearlings."

Bloodstock agent David Ingordo and Dixiana farm manager Terry Arnold, brother to trainer Rusty Arnold, are advising Shively.

Shively grew up a self-proclaimed "horse guy" in Pennsylvania, where he participated in show jumping. He got into Thoroughbreds about 10 years ago. His very first runner was the Personal Hope horse Personal First. "We won $500,000 and won a graded stakes with Pat Day on him at Saratoga, and I thought the business was going to be easy," Shively laughs. "I still own him, actually."

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Jerry Moss

Accomplishment: Jerry and his wife Ann own Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), the undefeated winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic and a Horse of the Year candidate.

Birthplace: New York City.

Education: BA in English, minor in art from Brooklyn College.

Family: Sons Ron & Harrison, daughter Jennifer.

Principle Business: Thoroughbred owner and breeder. Formerly the chairman of A&M Records.

Current Residence: Los Angeles, CA.
Zenyatta sold for $60,000 at KEESEP.

What did you see in her that others might have missed? When I saw she was by Street Cry, that was exciting because I liked him as a racehorse. She was tall for a yearling and already had size to her. And she was out of a Kris S. mare, and I liked him as a sire. Kris S. was the sire of Kudos, one of the horses I owned. She had a rash across her body, and maybe that turned some people away, but I don't know.

What did you think of Tribal Chief, owned in part by Herb Alpert (the "A" in A&M Records), winning the Living Legends race? I thought it was fantastic. To have Herb and Dave win a race like that with Sandy Hawley was great.

First win as an owner? Back in 1970 with Angeltune. Herb and I owned him with a man named Nate Duroff.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Maui.

Favorite food or meal? Chicken chow mein.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be and why? Abraham Lincoln. He was president at a difficult time, and I'd like to see how he made his priorities and critical decisions.

What's your favorite film? Fargo.

Childhood ambition? To be in the entertainment business. And to own the New York Yankees. I'm a big fan.

Proudest moment? Inside racing, it'd be winning the Kentucky Derby in 2005 with Giacomo (Holy Bull). Outside racing, I've had so many I couldn't describe them all.

Last purchase? We bought a hybrid car. A Lexus.

First job? Selling newspapers in junior high. I had the job of collecting the New York Herald-Tribune and distributing them to classrooms. They'd use them in civics classes.

Favorite book? "The Bonfire of the Vanities" by Tom Wolfe.

What are you currently listening to? Sergio Mendes and Coldplay. I also like John Legend.

Shively's primary business is insurance. He owns several insurance companies Florida under the banner Tower Hill Insurance Group.

As for the future, Shively is looking to take advantage of the regional programs in states like Pennsylvania. He currently has 20 mares in Pennsylvania and intends to send another 15 more. Shively also recently purchased the Phone Trick stallion Zavata and moved him to the Keystone State, and is planning to support him with some of those mares.

"The better mares will stay in Kentucky at Dixiana, and some of the others will go there," Shively said. And while Dixiana sells the majority of its yearling crop, Shively isn't afraid to race, either. He currently has about 12 yearlings currently be broken. "We kept some fillies who were from families that we really liked," he said. -LM

B-Liberation Farm, J Stuart, P Bance & J Donaldson (KY)

Consigned by Bluegrass T'bred Services Inc. (J. Stuart), agent for Liberation Farm, John Donaldson & Bluegrass Farm

Purchased by Bradley Thoroughbreds Brokerage

A graded-stakes winner of more than $1 million, Irish Linnet (Seattle Song), in foal to Rahy, brought $500,000 at KEENOV in 1996. That first foal was SW Blushing Irish, but the mare had produced little since. In foal to Yes It's True at the age of 18, she was bought by John Stuart's Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services for just $40,000 at FTKNOV in 2006. The resulting colt sold for $80,000 as a KEENOV weanling last year, and this son of freshman Artie Schiller was equally well received.

2052      c, Harlan's Holiday--Silver Wire      115,000

B-South Gate & Greg Partain (KY)

Consigned by Warrendale Sales, Agent IV

Purchased by Rose Green Stables

Overcreek signed the ticket for $27,000 on SP Silver Wire (Distinctive Pro) at KEEJAN 2008. The mare foaled this colt Jan. 31, and the bay realized a solid profit for his buyers just nine months later.

2105      c, Lion Heart--Unbridled Dancer (Aus)      210,000

B-Gabriel Duignan & Wall Street Thoroughbreds Pty (Ky)

Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent LIV

Purchased by Indian Creek, agent

The 10-year-old mare Unbridled Dancer (Unbridled's Song), a winner in Australia, was sent through last year's Keeneland November Sale, but was purchased back for $50,000. She was carrying hip 2105 at the time, and yesterday the bay colt proved that last year's RNA can be this year's Nothing But Net. The handsome bay colt was hammered down to Indian Creek, agent, for $210,000. In foal to Chapel Royal, Unbridled Dancer followed her foal into the ring, and once again failed to meet her reserve. She was bought back for $47,000.

Runner-up in this track's Regal Gal S. Aug. 2, Amazing ballooned to 10th in the grassy Noble Robyn S. Aug. 30, but has since rebounded on the main track. A 12 1/2-length winner of a Sept. 14 optional claimer, the chestnut wired the field in the off-the-turf Sunny Issues S. Oct. 25. Carrying the same silks as her sire, Amazing was allowed a relatively easy time of it up front and turned for home well in command. She got to ducking in and out in deep stretch, which nearly cost her, but the wire arrived in time.

Stretching out off that 5 1/2-furlong affair as the odds-on choice, the grey set the pace through a half in :45.22. Soldier's Dancer (Lost Soldier) was the even-money chalk to add to his last-out score in the Gill Miami Mile H., but went to his nose out of the gate, losing jockey Manoel Cruz and throwing the race wide open. Originally purchased as a rabbit for ex-stablemate English Channel (Smart Strike), Icy Atlantic has cut out a nice career in his own right. Three times a graded winner, the bay took out the 2007 Gill Red Bank S., but had been winless in his last seven appearances, including a runner-up effort in this year's Red Bank Aug. 30. He was most recently fifth in the Oct. 10 Gill Cliff Hanger H. at the Meadowlands, but went off at inflated odds in this restricted spot. Always within shouting range, Icy Atlantic raced three deep on the turn, struck the front entering the final furlong and edged clear.

GATO GO WIN (c, 2, CityPlace--Brooks N Boots, by Odyle) finished a distant fourth in his July 13 debut over this surface before checking in seventh in a similar event at Del Mar Aug. 2. Equipped with a set of blinkers for his latest, the dark bay showed his usual speed, but held more gamely when challenged to round out the exacta at Oak Tree Oct. 4. Heads apart through a half in :44.72, he responded when asked and drew clear to score by 3 1/4 lengths. The debuting Position A (Aldebaran) was runner-up. The winner, just a $2,500 FTMOCT yearling, blossomed into a $145,000 BESMAY juvenile. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-0, $34,280. O-Dean De Renzo, Randall Hartley, Joey Platts & William J Sims. B-Mike Bossio (FL). T-Jeff Mullins.

1--GREEN LYONS (IRE), 120, f, 4, Green Desert--Spinnette (Ire), by Spinning World. O-Castleton Lyons; B-Castleton Group (IRE); T-Neil D Drysdale. Lifetime Record: SW-Fr, GSP-US, 20-4-2-5, $189,203.

2--Storybook (UAE), 118, f, 4, Halling--Blixen, by Gone West.

3--America's Friend, 124, f, 4, Unusual Heat--Bel Air Belle, by Runaway Groom.

Margins: 3/4, HF, 3/4. Odds: 6.60, 8.20, 3.30.

A French listed winner for Criquelette Head-Maarek, Green Lyons finished third to Black Mamba (NZ) in the GII Beverly Hills H. on this turf June 29 and sixth to that foe in the GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar Aug. 3. A troubled third in the CTT & TOC H. at the seaside oval Aug. 22, the homebred was most recently eighth in the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 4. Offering outstanding value on the class relief, Green Lyons bided her time in the latter half of the field early on, began an advance on the turn, came out five abreast at the sixteenth pole and prevailed.

3rd dam: Fawn and Hahn, by Grey Dawn II

A $200,000 FTKJUL yearling, Rail Trip was no secret in his debut and was sent off the 2-1 chalk. The bay broke sharply and had company as he pulled his way through an opening quarter in :22.34. He opened up under mild urging from jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. through a half in :44.51 and was on his own courage as he hit the wire 3 1/2 lengths to the good. Hiya Silver (Silver Charm) was easily second best. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $22,200. DAKOTA PHONE (g, 3, Zavata--World of Gold, by Spinning World) graduated on the Hollywood lawn July 13 and promptly added an all-weather allowance score at Del Mar Aug. 16. Third in the Pomona Derby at Fairplex Sept. 20, the bay gave it his best try when runner-up to Casino Drive (Mineshaft) by 3/4 of a length in an Oak Tree optional claimer Oct. 12. After a slow start, the 5-2 second choice raced in fifth, moved up to challenge while four wide in the lane and got up just in time to score by a head from Informed (Tiznow). Dakota Phone was a $67,000 BESMAY juvenile. Lifetime Record: SP, 11-3-3-2, $150,280.

LINDA LOU (f, 3, Dixie Union--Lilly Bean, by Marquetry) gave up a late lead to finish second in her Mar. 6 debut over the Santa Anita Cushion Track, then returned from a four-month absence to post a runner-up effort in similar fashion over this main track July 6. The Gerald Ford homebred was last seen rounding out the triple in an Aug. 17 maiden at Del Mar and was part of a favored entry at 7-5 for her first try on the turf. Quickly in front, the bay opened up a bit of daylight on the turn and was never threatened, scoring by 3 3/4 lengths. Stablemate Precious Union, another Diamond A homebred by Dixie Union, was second best. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, $44,400.
