SMARTY JONES Gets 8th Winner
Winners & G1SP on Every Surface

CRUNCH FLIES LATE IN COMMONWEALTH

Nistle's Crunch (Van Nistelrooy) was forced to change course twice in the stretch, but spurred to the lead late to win yesterday's GIII Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Downs. The colt, third over course and trip in the May 2 GIII American Turf S., was second in the GIII Colonial Turf Cup in June. He was well beaten when fifth over the main track in the GI Haskell Invitational H. and returned to the turf to run third in the Aug. 31 GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga before a sixth-place effort in the Oct. 12 Bryan Station S. at Keeneland. Nistle's Crunch saved ground yesterday, while racing within striking distance. Shifted out slightly for the drive, he then moved back to the rail while looking for racing room only to be blocked. He was forced to angle out late and closed with a rush to just get up for his first stakes win. "He was dressed and ready at every point down the lane," said winning rider Robby Albarado. "I just bided my time and waited for some room. I had some opening at the eighth pole, and tried to dive in there but got squeezed out. Fortunately I got out late, and he came home nice." Albarado added the course helped his mount. "I think the turf course is a little soft [yesterday] and conducive to his style. He got over it real nice. One of his other better races was over the Colonial turf course when it stormed and rained, and it was deep and sloppy." Click for brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. WALKLIKEANEGYPTIAN TOPS KEENELAND

R Palmer

Walklikeanegyptian (Ire) (Danehill) attracted a final bid of $220,000 to top yesterday's seventh session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. The eight-year-old mare, second in the 2006 GIII Pucker Up S., is in foal to Perfect Soul (Ire). She was consigned by her owner Glen Hill Farm and was purchased by Arch Bloodstock LLC. During Sunday's session, Keeneland sold 240 horses for a total of $7,417,500. The average fell 42.5 percent, to $30,906, from a year ago, while the median fell 37.5 percent to $25,000. There were 97 horses withdrawn from yesterday's session and 62 horses reported not sold, for a buy-back rate of 20.5 percent. Through seven sessions, the sale average is down 37.4 percent to $116,192 and the median is down 31 percent to $60,000. The buy-back rate is 31 percent. The sale continues today at 10 a.m.

Estejo had only attempted the highest level once before and finished off the board in last term's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club at Milan. Winless in two conditions on his return to the San Siro at the beginning of this campaign, he ran fourth here in the May 11 G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio and finished sixth in the June 22 G3 Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft at Dortmund. He gained a timely score in a conditions event back at the San Siro Aug. 31 and was fifth in the G3 Premio Federico Tesio on his ninth visit to the Milanese track last time Sept. 28. Out swiftly to lead after the initial strides of Europe's weekend feature, he came under pressure in early stretch and would not be denied under continued urging, and bravely turned away all challenges to hold off the vain bid of G1 Derby Italiano runner-up Permesso. Pressing was successful in the feature on this card last year and followed up with a second in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica in his seasonal return back here May 18. Fourth in the June 18 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot next time and again in the July 12 Summer Mile S. back at the Berkshire venue, he ran second in the July 27 G1 Grosser Dallmayr Preis Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich in his penultimate start. He registered a decisive win when scooping the valuable Topkapi Trophy at Veliefendi in Turkey last time Sept. 7 and continued in similar vein to bag this undercard event. Positioned in fourth before inching into third before halfway, Pressing delivered his main effort at the two pole and was urged clear in the final 300 meters to record a comfortable win. Marchfield, winner of last year's Breeders' S., captured a nine-furlong optional claimer at this track Sept. 25 and was coming off a runner-up effort behind Palladio (Lycius) in the Oct. 11 Gill Durham Cup S.

Allowed to settle well off a moderate pace, the bay colt moved closer on the far turn, was forced to steady behind foes with a furlong to run, swept to the outside and closed strongly late for his first graded stakes win.

"I was stalking [Stunning Stag] the whole way," explained winning rider Patrick Husbands. "He had a perfect trip. At the quarter pole, Jono [Jones, aboard Stunning Stag] went four-wide. I didn't want to go six-wide, so I took the shortcut. I got stopped at the eighth pole, inside of [Ice Bear]. I checked him off heels and then I got him back to the outside. He was much the best." Winning trainer Mark Casse added, "He's been really sharp. I had a tough time getting the saddle on him. He wanted to kick me. He's a really talented horse when he puts his mind to it." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Third in a newcomers' event at Longchamp Oct. 22, Peligroso made the necessary improvement to shed his maiden status in this stakes bow and lead home a stable exacta for trainer Mario Hofer. Positioned in fifth until moving into third rounding the home turn, he was ridden to the front at the distance and drew clear in the closing stages for an impressive win. "[Runner-up] Mantoro had been showing up better in his work at home, but I remained confident Peligroso still stood a good chance and so it proved," commented Hofer. "He is definitely a horse for next season, so we shall put him away for the year."

PREMIER STALLION SEASON AUCTION

Introducing the first ever Legends Premier Stallion Season Auction, benefiting the Stallion Reproductive Studies program at the Texas A&M University College of Veterinary Medicine & Biomedical Sciences. As a world leader in stallion reproductive research and clinical studies, Texas A&M University has joined with leading breeders and owners to offer the opportunity to bid on breedings from elite sires in the Thoroughbred racing industry. All proceeds from the auction will directly support the advancement of research relating to stallion reproduction.

Bidding will be open from noon (CST) December 1 through noon (CST) on December 19, 2008, and will begin at 80 percent of the listed 2009 breeding fee, unless otherwise specified. Interested bidders must register to bid online prior to the start of the auction, and agree to the terms and conditions of the auction.

Make plans for your breeding season now and help support continuing research and clinical studies at Texas A&M University dedicated to the betterment of the breeding stallion. Visit our web site for more information.

A Coglianese

The colt, owned by Ronald K Kirk, John Bates and Michael Riordan, was unbeaten in three lifetime starts. After winning his debut at Keeneland in April, he went on to take the May 1 Gill Kentucky S. and the Aug. 14 Gill Saratoga Special S. "He was very special, but untapped," said trainer Ronny Werner. "He hadn't gotten warmed up to what his potential was. At that stage of his career, he was the best two-year-old I've ever had. He's the whole package: very intelligent, a great athlete, with push-button speed."

Lookin at Her graduated at second asking sprinting in the slop against New York-breds at the Spa July 23 before coming home third in the state-bred Aspirant S. at Finger Lakes Sept. 1. Showing plenty of speed in the early going of his latest in the Oct. 4 NY Breeders' Futurity, the grey faded late to be sixth. Let go at generous odds, he forged to the front straight from the start and led at every call, bounding home an easy winner. "I thought the horse was doing very, very well and has shown that he can move," said winning trainer Ramon Hernandez. "He broke super, he was really relaxing well and I thought we had a heck of a chance." As for the colt's next start, Hernandez added, "We don't know where we're heading yet. I hope we stay in the New York-bred program and hope we go the mile. After today, we'll see."

Sarah Accomplished, third sprinting against Empirebreds at the Spa Aug. 13, came back to score when thrown into similar company at Belmont Sept. 17. A discouraged 10th while stretching to a mile in the state-bred Maid of the Mist S. Oct. 18, the dark bay was sent off the joint-second choice with stablemate Anjorie (A.P. Jet). Up to press the early pace carved out by Mother Russia, she gained command in deep stretch and was all out to score. "It looks like she had a good trip and ran big," said winning trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. "[Anjorie, part of entry] ran terrible today [sixth]; I guess they're switching back and forth."

Under Serviced went wire-to-wire in Empire-bred company to score against $25,000 optional claiming foes at Saratoga Aug. 4 before adding the state-bred Schenectady H. at Belmont Sept. 7. Third in his latest in the restricted Iroquois H. Oct. 18, the bay was well-supported to get back to the winner's circle here. On the engine from the start, the filly dug in late and had enough left to eke out a nose victory. "The filly has been training well and Johnny [Velazquez] said she was waiting on some horses a little bit, but you know, we were happy, she was the best in this race and she got it done," said Tonja Terranova, assistant to winning trainer Bob Baffert. Follow My Dream, winless since taking a Belmont optional claimer in September 2007 and fourth in this race a year ago, was coming off a fourth-place effort over course and trip in an Oct. 30 allowance. The bay mare stalked the pacesetter, took the lead along the rail turning for home and opened a clear lead before holding on late for the win.

Mor Chances was claimed for $50,000 out of an eighth-place effort over the Belmont turf course Sept. 21. Returning to the main track for his first start for the new connections, the bay colt was allowed to settle into stride. He rallied five wide into the lane and closed well down the stretch to take the lead late despite drifting out.

Spritely began her career with two straight wins in Kentucky last season before finishing a well-beaten ninth in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. in December. She hit the board in each of three prior attempts this term, including a pair of third-place finishes in the Miss Woodford S. at Monmouth Aug. 24 and the Missile Belle S. at Belmont last out Sept. 20. Making her first start around two turns since the Hollywood Starlet, she was sent to the lead by Mike Luzzi and splashed her way home to an easy victory. "[Trainer] Todd [Pletcher] kind of gave me free reign tonight," explained Luzzi. "She's a little quirky. She kind of lugged in a little bit and, if you're going to lug in, you might as well do it on the rail. She's quick and coming out of some sprints. I thought we had enough speed to get to the lead and when she got there, we just slowed it down a little bit. I hope she stays on the inner track at Aqueduct, but we'll see." Einstein Continues Comeback:

Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) worked a half mile in :49.40 Sunday at Churchill Downs. It was the six-year-old's second work since finishing a troubled fifth in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 9. "He went beautifully, very nice," said trainer Helen Pitts. "He will work five-eighths next week and I will let him tell me [about his next start]." That next outing could come in the Nov. 28 GI Clark H. "If he doesn't go in the Clark, I may look around for something or just wait until Gulfstream," Pitts added.

First Win for Brandon Meier:

Apprentice rider Brandon Meier won his first race Saturday at Churchill Downs when Kori Kori (Prized) came home first in the day's second race. "It felt great to get that first one out of the way," Meier said. "I rode her the other day at Keeneland and ran second and yesterday they took the blinkers off her and added distance and it made all the difference." The 20-year-old apprentice is the son of journeyman rider Randall Meier.

Never far back while saving ground, the bay mare forged to the lead on the final turn and pulled clear down the stretch under urging. "I had a really good trip all the way around," said winning jockey Victor Espinoza. "She broke nice and I put her right in behind the first two horses--saved ground all the way. She's the kind of filly that you have to ride a bit early, because she's such a big filly and one-paced. She's easy to ride if you know her. It took me a race or two to get to know her. The farther, the better for her." Winning trainer Ben Cecil said High Heel Sneakers could face males in her next start. "The problem with a filly like this is there aren't too many races, so we'll have to see where we go," Cecil commented. "Because we're running out of options, she could run against the boys--maybe the [Dec. 6 GI] Hollywood Turf Cup."

4th-HOL, $39,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 6 1/2f (AWT), 1:15 4/5, ft.
 + UNBRIDLED ROMAN (c, 2, Roman Dancer--Unravel, by Unbridled), let go at 6-1, was content to settle near the back of the pack through opening splits of :22.48 and :45.43. Ready to reel in long-time leader (Souvenir Copy) turning for home, the dark bay closed willingly in the final sixteenth to just get up for a head victory. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $22,200.

VIKKILEE (f, 2, Full Mandate--Ghostofalady, by Silver Ghost), runner-up in her route bow at Fairplex Sept. 17, filled the same spot in her latest over the Pro-Ride at Santa Anita Oct. 10. Sent off at 4-1, the chesnut was forced wide by Black Magic Mama (Black Mambo), who swerved at the start, but soon settled into stride to stalk the early pace in fourth through early splits of :24.45, :48.75 and 1:12.75. Bidding three deep for the lead, Vikkilee overtook Black Magic Mama midstretch and inched clear to score by 3/4 of a length. Waddup G (Malibu Moon) walked out of the gate and never made headway, trailing home fifth. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-1-2-0, $46,700.

Margins: 1, 3/4, 3. Odds: 0.40, 38.00, 3.70.

Peppers Pride came into this affair a perfect 17-for-17 and was heavily favored to increase her record-breaking unbeaten streak here. Making her fourth start of the year off a 1 3/4-length win in a six-furlong optional claimer Oct. 4, the dark bay mare settled into stride and moved closer leaving the backstretch. She reeled in the pacesetter at the quarter pole and asserted a clear advantage before holding sway late under urging.

4th-GGX, $29,774, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f (AWT), 1:09 3/5, ft.
 + SOUTHERN ORCHID (f, 3, Yankee Gentleman--Desert Orchid {MSP, $347,648}, by Saros {GB}), sent off the 3-1 second choice, pressed the early pace, forged to the front a furlong out and rolled home an easy 3 1/4-length winner over Friendly Silk (Gone West). The $50,000 KEESEP yearling and $95,000 OBSMAR juvenile is a half to Hoovergetthekeys (Mt. Livermore), MGSW, $406,965. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $17,400.

Successful in claimers at Rome Sept. 14 and Merano Sept. 26, Lady Ginevra added a juvenile handicap to her portfolio at Milan Oct. 5 and continued up the ladder with a victory in this stakes bow. Reserved in the rear through the early fractions, she made wide headway once into the home straight and swooped late to deny Diva Cattiva in the shades of the post.
