KEENELAND NOVEMBER MARCHES ON

A filly from the first crop of graded stakes winner Congrats (A.P. Indy) was the top weanling at yesterday's 11th session of the Keeneland November Sale, bringing a final bid of $70,000. The bay (hip 4013), bred by Cloverleaf Farms in Kentucky, is out of Saramy (Personal Hope); she is a half-sister to Babaganush (Capture the Gold) and stakes-placed Springs Road (Repent). She was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent CXXXIV, and was purchased by Hill 'n' Dale Bloodstock. Also bringing $70,000 was Seedling (Forestry--Viva, by Pulpit), an unraced three-year-old filly in foal to War Front. The bay (hip 4020) was consigned by Claiborne Farm, agent, and was purchased by Carlos S.E. Moore, agent. She is from the family of Kentucky Derby winner Sea Hero, as well as graded stakes winners Wild Applause, Hero's Honor and Roar. Quick Command (Gold Legend--Jet Route, by Alydar), a five-year-old mare in foal to Bernstein, sold for $100,000 on the bid of E-Stable. The mare (hip 3995) was consigned by Belvedere Farm, Agent I. E-Stable purchased Quick Command, in foal to Touch Gold, for $15,000 from last year's Fasig-Tipton November Adena Sale. For the session, 230 head sold for $2,993,700. The session average fell 27.1 percent to $13,016 and the median fell 28.6 percent to $10,000. Of the 395 catalogued for the session, 103 were withdrawn and, of the 292 offered, 62 failed to sell for a buy-back rate of 21.2 percent. Through 11 sessions, the average, $80,246, is down 35.7 percent from a year ago, and the median is down 38 percent to $31,000. The buy-back rate is 29.6 percent. The sale, which runs through Monday, continues this morning at 10 a.m.

JACKSON MAKES BID FOR CURLIN SHARE

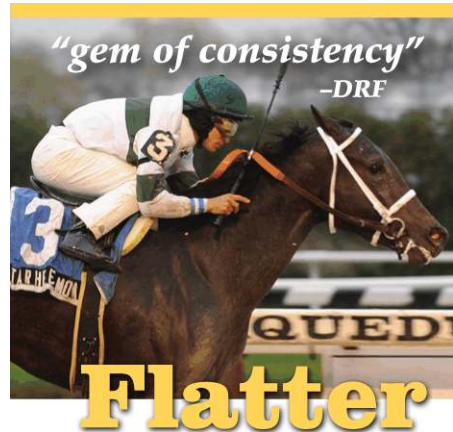

Majority owner Jess Jackson has submitted a bid to buy out the remaining 20-percent share in 2007 Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike), Jackson spokesman Kevin McGee confirmed last night. Jackson owns 80 percent of the four-year-old, while the Midnight Cry Stable of disbarred attorneys Shirley Cunningham Jr and William Gallion retains a 20-percent interest. Jackson's bid comes after a sealed-bid process conducted by a court-appointed receiver failed to result in a sale of the minority interest. Jackson's bid needs court approval and a hearing will be held Monday, with a second hearing scheduled for Dec. 1.

O'DONNELL NAMED CALDER PRESIDENT

Tom O'Donnell has been named president and general manager of Calder Race Course, Churchill Downs Incorporated announced yesterday. O'Donnell was also named senior vice president of CDI. He comes to Calder from Heller Gaming & Leisure, where he served as an advisor and consultant on casino operations, development and strategic acquisition evaluation. He spent 18 years at Harrah's Entertainment, where his titles included Gulf Coast region president, senior vice president and general manager of Harrah's Cherokee Casino Hotel, the Showboat Casino Hotel and Harrah's Joliet casino. "Churchill Downs Incorporated is among the gaming industry's most elite and respected names, and I am excited to bring my expertise to the company during this time of expansion and growth," O'Donnell said. "Calder is about to embark on an exciting new chapter in its history as planning continues for its future slot facility. I look forward to working with the outstanding employees at Calder Race Course and the management team of CDI as we continue to build on the excellent foundation already laid for the success of racing and gaming in Miami."

More on the Giant's Causeways...

COPYRIGHT BLOOD-HORSE PUBLICATIONS. REPRINTED WITH PERMISSION OF COPYRIGHT OWNER.

SHUG McGaughey (Carriage Trail):

I like Giant's Causeway. I have had three in my barn, and Carriage Trail is the best one. I think they are smart, but aggressive. I don't think they like to be messed with a whole lot. You sort of have to let them do what they want to do. The ones I have had have been fairly precocious. They are eager with what they want to do....

DALE ROMANS (Swift Temper):

I have nothing but good things to say about Giant's Causeway. Including one that I have who is just now coming around, I have had three in my barn. The first two were both rugged, solid horses. They were good-minded horses and none had airway problems...

Neil Drysdale (Aragorn, Model):

The ones I have had, I liked a lot. Aragorn was the complete race-horse. He was a good-looking, well-balanced horse, but he didn't like soft ground. That cost him the Breeders' Cup (2006 NetJets Mile, gr. IT, in which he finished second). Aragorn was a late-developing horse, but in Giant's Causeway's first year as a stallion, he had the two best 2-year-olds in Europe. The Giant's Causeways also seem to do very well on the synthetics. They are like he was; they are sound horses. They can run early or can run late. They can run on dirt, on turf, or on synthetics.

This is a great casual, after-hours place not too far from the track. Its specialty is its barbecued shrimp, and that's what I usually get when I go there. They also have great seafood and steaks.

Christophe Clement
(Naissance Royale):

Naissance Royale was a very genuine and game filly and very sound. She retired sound and could have gone on another year. I have not had that many, but I am a big fan of the sire. All of mine were perfectly manageable. They were all ready to run in the fall, but not in June. In my program, which is probably slower than most trainers, they responded very well. They were either average size or taller than average size. I would love to have more in my barn.

John Shirreffs (Imagine):

I like them (Giant's Causeway foals) a lot... They are two-turn-type horses. They act like they have class along with their talent. He's kind of like Unbridled (as a sire). He can get you one that's good, and he can get you one that will take you to special places. They are "typey" Thoroughbreds.

They have a nice, long underline with big strides. They look like route horses. They say you have to take your time with them, but I think that's a misconception.... They have good throats and no breathing issues. They are just good racing prospects.....

Jerry Hollendorfer
(Heatseeker):

Heatseeker was a very correct and good-looking horse. He really liked to train forwardly every day. He was very sound at all times.... Once the light (in his head) went on, he was really good. I recently bought a filly by (Giant's Causeway) at the Keeneland sale because I would like to train as many Giant's Causeways as I can.

GALATOIRE'S RESTAURANT
 209 Bourbon Street
 New Orleans , LA 70130
 (504) 525-2021
www.galatoires.com

It's the best restaurant in New Orleans, bar none. You have to wear a jacket to be seated, but if you don't have one, they will provide a jacket for you. They have all the New Orleans favorites--seafood is their specialty--plus the bartenders know how to make a great drink, and aren't shy when they're pouring it. One of my favorite things to get is one of the appetizers, a little potato puff which is very light and can be dipped in bearnaise. Try the appetizer sampler that includes the shrimp remoulade and shrimp maison. If you have a good waiter, you won't even need a menu. They'll tell you what's best that night and trust me, these guys make a great living and really know their stuff. Galatoire's is three blocks off Canal on Bourbon, so it's a two-for-one--you can dine and enjoy a great meal, then go and listen to some great music.

This place is named after the highest point in New Orleans and the hill every kid in town has ridden his bike down. It's located on Magazine St. It's a very local place, with a great New Orleans flavor. If you pick the right night, you're liable to see any number of New Orleans Saints hanging out there. There's a very casual, cool vibe--it feels like a living room. I've gone in and sat down and played cards for hours. No one hassles you, and the music is always good.

Probably isn't the kind of place you'd tell your cardiologist about, but this very casual neighborhood favorite is a perfect spot for breakfast, especially if you were overserved in the French Quarter the night before. Covered with post-its begging for its return after Katrina, the Camellia Grill is home to the best omelettes in the world. And the chocolate pecan pie is hard to beat, too. BRERETON JONES NAMED KTO HORSEMAN OF THE YEAR Airdrie Stud owner Brereton Jones has been named the recipient of the 2008 Warner L Jones Jr Horseman of the Year Award, presented annually by the Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners, Inc. Jones will receive the award Nov. 15 during the KTO's 20th annual awards dinner at the Kentucky Derby museum. Since 1989, the KTO has presented the award to a member of the racing industry who displays the spirit and passion for the sport exhibited by the late Warner Jones, Jr. Brereton Jones, governor of Kentucky from 1991-1995, and his wife Libby established Airdrie Stud in 1972. He is a founding member and chairman of the Kentucky Equine Education Project.

TED SIEGEL PASSES AWAY Longtime horseman Ted Siegel, 66, died Monday in Greenwich, Connecticut. Siegel served as farm manager at Farnsworth Farms. He also served as trainer for Tartan Farm and Mare Haven Farm. "He was an extremely nice fellow and a good horseman," said J. Michael O'Farrell of Ocala Stud Farm. "He was a quality person and I always thought a lot of him. He is gone too soon and will be missed." While manager of Peter Brant's White Birch Farm, Siegel worked with subsequent champion Gulch. "He was the kind of person you could look in the eye and know you were getting the truth," said Michael Hernon of Gainesway Farm. Siegel is survived by his wife Wendy; sons, Jon Siegel of PM Advertising and Ted Siegel, as well as four grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Sunday at Round Hill Community Church in Greenwich. Burial is scheduled for 11 a.m. at Long Ridge Cemetery in Stamford. Click to watch a tribute to Ted Siegel.

She followed up with a 5 1/4-length romp in the slop at Saratoga Aug. 11 prior to a runner-up effort to subsequent GSW Informed Decision (Monarchos) in the Missile Belle S. at Belmont Sept. 20. The dark bay was coming into this off a willing third to J Z Warrior (Harlan's Holiday) in Belmont's House Party S. Oct. 12 and was favored to earn her first black-type success. Taken off the early pace, Tar Heel Mom swept ominously into contention on the turn, hit the front in upper stretch and stayed on for the win. Laurel Horse Positive for Equine Herpesvirus:

A two-year-old filly in the Laurel Park barn of trainer King Leatherbury has tested positive for equine herpesvirus. A hold order has been placed on Barn 1 at the track, which means no horses in the barn will be permitted to train or race pending further testing. Equine herpesvirus causes upper respiratory infection and can lead to neurological disease. Four horses died at Pimlico and Laurel during a 2006 outbreak. "Today's news is disappointing, but we have already put the proper precautions into place to control the situation," said Maryland Jockey Club racing secretary Georganne Hale. "We learned a great deal from 2006 and now know to shut things down immediately if there is a possible case so as to reduce the possibility of it spreading. The one advantage of having this happen in Barn 1 is that is already isolated from much of the backside."

Mixed Results as Suffolk Downs Closes:

Suffolk Downs wrapped up its 2008 racing season with declines in live wagering and attendance, but with an increase in all-sources handle. On-track handle for the 102-day live meet was down seven percent from last year, as was attendance. All-sources handle was up 11 percent on the strength of 13-percent growth in transmitted handle. "We averaged almost one horse more per race this year, and that, combined with increased coverage from TVG, helped bettors around the country find the Suffolk Downs simulcast signal," said Chip Tuttle, chief operating officer of Suffolk Downs. "Even with those gains, declines in attendance, live handle, and our overall handle on-site, and the deteriorating economy, make business conditions very difficult for facilities like ours that do not have the competitive advantage of expanded gaming." In 2007, Suffolk Downs bucked national trends with increases in live handle (14 percent) and attendance (22 percent). Winston Thompson bounced back from an injury-shortened 2007 campaign to capture his fourth Suffolk riding title in five years and his fifth overall at the East Boston oval. Thompson was the lone rider to top the century mark for the meet, recording 101 wins from 647 mounts (16 percent). John Rigattieri continued his reign atop the trainer standings, earning his fifth consecutive title. Rigattieri saddled 66 winners from 295 starters (22 percent).

Winner of an Argentinian Group 1 sprinting on turf last December, Misty Lady was fifth in a listed stakes on the dirt this past March and closed the South American chapter of her career with a third in a Group 3 on the main track three weeks later. Sent to this country, she was favored at 6-5 in a Keeneland allowance on the Polytrack Oct. 16, but faded late into fourth. Favored to bounce back here, the dark bay, a September foal, was last away from the stalls, but recovered to challenge at the quarter pole. In front soon after, she put the race to rest and won it going away.

6th-CDX, $42,200, Msw, 2yo, f, 8.5fT, 1:46 1/5, gd. PARI (f, 2, Sky Classic--Parmilla, by Silver Deputy) needed a few scratches to get a spot in this field and made the most of the opportunity. A troubled fifth in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden over the Saratoga turf course Aug. 29, the homebred was dealt a death draw from the 12 hole in a seven-furlong event at Belmont Oct. 19, and was closing late to be fourth despite a wide journey. Trying two turns here as the 3-1 third choice, the half to Silver Stockings (Seattle Sleet), MSW, $162,443, raced with the pace throughout, took command approaching the far turn and was not menaced thereafter, scoring by 2 3/4 lengths. Favored Million Seller (A.P. Indy) won the photo for place over Stacie's Smile (Lemon Drop Kid). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $30,876. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O/B-Barbara Hunter (KY). Inaugural "Rider Cup" at Churchill Saturday:

Retired Hall of Fame jockeys Pat Day and Angel Cordero Jr. will captain Team USA and Team World, respectively, in Saturday's inaugural "Rider Cup" for charity at Churchill Downs. The event will showcase American-born jockeys versus foreign-born jockeys in a competition for points in races 4-8. Before each of the five designated races, the celebrity team captains will choose one jockey to represent their respective team with hope of earning coveted points. Points will be awarded on a 3-2-1 scale for first, second and third place finishes in each race. If neither jockey hits the board, the rider with the best finish will be awarded a half-point. The team with the most points at the conclusion of Race 8 will be crowned the winner and a $10,000 donation will be made to the charity of the winning team's choice. The charity of the second place team will win a $5,000 donation. Based on Saturday's entries, Team USA will be comprised of Robby Albarado, E.T. Baird, Calvin Borel, Kent Desormeaux, Julio Garcia, Tracy Hebert, John McKee, Brandon Meier, Larry Melancon, Perry Ouzts, Hector Rosario Jr., and Bill Troilo. Team World will be Shaun Bridgmohan (Jamaica), Aldo Canchano (Peru), Jesus Castanon (Mexico), Ramon Dominguez (Venezuela), Inez Karlsson (Sweden), Julien Leparoux (France), Miguel Mena (Peru), and Diego Rodriguez (Mexico). Before the start of the Rider Cup, Day and Cordero will take part in a free autograph session with area horse racing fans from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on the second floor of the clubhouse near the PEB jockey and trainer murals.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Three wide into the stretch, she was roused to the front leaving the eighth pole and was up for a neck victory from Coracao Beijo (Fantastic Light). LAUNCH OF INGLIS TV ANNOUNCED Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster addressed the Asian Racing Conference in Tokyo yesterday on technology innovations in the business of Thoroughbred auctioneer houses. During the presentation, he appropriately announced the newest innovation, the launch of Inglis TV, which will debut in December. Inglis TV, which aims to inform and entertain industry participants, will provide worldwide access to live, recent and archived video content on a wide range of web based channels. Inglis TV will host live TVN coverage of Inglis sales, and will also be a medium for coverage of topics relative to the thoroughbred industry, including informative information relating to sales, breeding and racing. There will be a channel dedicated to user generated or 'home' video submissions and provide access to a wide range of Sirecam content. "I was delighted to be asked to address the Asian Racing Conference on the many innovations Inglis has introduced in the past year and it was timely that this latest project we have been working on--which is a world first for sales companies--could be announced here," Webster said. "The 'advert-ainment' channel should provide viewers with some light hearted laughs, featured are some very clever ads for Three Chimney's Farm in Kentucky." For a preview on what's to come on Inglis TV, go to www.inglis.tv.
