

CURLIN'S RACING CAREER OVER

Reigning Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike--Sherriff's Deputy, by Deputy Minister) will not race in 2009, according to a report in Sunday's New York Times. Stonestreet Stable's Jess Jackson told the Times he was open to the idea of running Curlin again this year, but said that there weren't any races left in North America rich enough to attract his horse. He also ruled out a start in the Japan Cup Dirt Dec. 7 because of problems with quarantine regulations.

Jackson told the newspaper that he felt the big chestnut had little left to prove on the racetrack.

"I've been blessed to have him and to have seen him run over 20 some odd months," Jackson said. "I have such warm memories of him. I just don't see how it could get any better."

Stud plans for next year have not been finalized, although one option is for the G1 Dubai World Cup here to stand at Jackson's Stonestreet Farms in Lexington, Kentucky. Jackson told the Times that several major breeding farms in Kentucky have been in touch with him to express their interest in acquiring Curlin as a stallion.

"I'm going to breed 20 or so of my very best mares to him, no matter where he stands," Jackson said. "And we have some beauties. I really am eager to see his colts and fillies race and see what he produces."

Curlin, who became the first North American-based horse to surpass the $10-million barrier when successfully defending his title in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Sept. 27, sustained two losses this year, finishing second on turf in the GI Man o'War S. in July and fourth on Pro-Ride in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Oct. 25. Jackson told the Times that had Curlin won the Man o'War, he might have raced him next year in rich grass events around the world.

"The turf was the area I wanted to expand on because, internationally, there is a great prominence for horses that compete on the turf," Jackson said. "My other personal goal has been to contribute to the breed. Balancing those things and the fact he could always get hurt, it led me to believe he had no future just running on the dirt. To race merely on dirt for inadequate compensation and to deny his genes to the gene pool of Thoroughbreds, that's not something I wanted to do." Curlin cont. p2

SUNLINE SERIOUSLY ILL IN NEW ZEALAND

Champion mare Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB})--Songline {NZ}, by Western Symphony), a 13-time Group 1 winner in Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong, is reportedly seriously ill with laminitis resulting from complications after surgery for colic in July. Owners, including retired trainer Trevor McKee, will decide in coming days whether to euthanize the 13-year-old mare. McKee's son, trainer Steve McKee, told New Zealand Press Association, "She's got laminitis, which stems from the toxins of the colic working through her body and into her feet. She hasn't been in a good way at all. We had a guy go over from Sydney to operate on her and cut the tendons in the legs, which changes the angle of the feet. We hope that will help her recover, but it's still too early to say." Among 27 stakes wins, Sunline notched 13 Group 1 victories and placed a further seven times at the highest level, including back-to-back wins in the G1 Cox Plate in 1999 and 2000, and was victorious in Group 1 company each year from 1998 to 2002. Cont. p3

Jackson currently owns an 80-percent share in Curlin. The other 20 percent is owned by Midnight Cry Stable, an ownership group consisting of two lawyers currently in jail for allegedly defrauding their clients. Jackson is attempting to buy out the lawyers, but declined to comment to the Times on those negotiations.

Tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following his sensational debut on Feb. 3, 2007 at Gulfstream, Curlin went on to capture 10 of his next 15 starts. Included in his trophy case are the aforementioned pair of Jockey Club Gold Cups, the Dubai World Cup and Breeders' Cup Classic, as well as the GI Preakness S., GI Woodward S., GI Stephen Foster H., GII Arkansas Derby and GIII Rebel S. His record stands at 16-11-2-2 with earnings of $10,501,800.

"He's had a stellar racing career," Jackson continued. "I think he's one of the top 10 horses since 1900. How he rates versus others, it's not merely about statistics."

Star Rises Quickly...

Selected by Ken McPeck for Midnight Cry Stable at the 2005 Keeneland September Sale, Curlin caught everyone's attention following his debut, and a deal worth a reported $3.5 million was quickly struck for an 80-percent share of the colt. He was turned over to trainer Steve Asmussen after getting his start for Helen Pitts. The group buying the majority interest was a partnership consisting of Stonestreet, Padua Stables and George Bolton, and Curlin carried all four sets of colors to victory during his championship campaign. Padua's interest was acquired for an undisclosed sum in November following the Breeders' Cup, and Jackson bought out Bolton in December to hold the 80-percent interest.

After winning the 2007 GIII Memorial Day H. at Calder for trainer Harry Benson, Dry Martini made two starts for Barclay Tagg, capturing the GII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker H. at the end of June before finishing fifth in Lawyer Ron's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga the following month. The grey didn't face the starter again for 13 months, coming in fifth for conditioner Ronald Spatz in a Calder allowance Aug. 3. Turned over to Billy Turner, the Florida-bred ran fourth in the Devil Diver H. at Belmont Sept. 7, then was second to Formal Decree (Ger) on the turf in the Strawberry Burrah H. Oct. 2, and most recently ran fifth to that rival in the GIII Knickerbocker H. on the Belmont sod Oct. 25. The five-year-old was adding blinkers this time, but was content to lope along at the back of the pack as Temporary Saint showed the way through splits of :24.16 and :47.43. Shaken--not stirred--up heading into the far turn, Dry Martini came rolling with a four-wide move, hit the front in midstretch and splashed home to collect his third graded stakes success. Sunline Ailing (cont. from p1)

Six weeks after her title defense in the Cox Plate, Sunline ventured outside Australasia to post a sensational victory over Fairy King Prawn (Aus) in the G1 Hong Kong Mile (video). The mighty mare retired after finishing fourth to Northerly (Aus) in the 2002 Cox Plate with a record of 48-32-9-3, picking up a check every time she faced the starter for a bankroll of A$11,351,607. Sunline is the dam of four foals to date, including a Hussonet filly foaled at Waikato Stud last November. Her first foal, Sunstrike (NZ) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), was retained by her owners Thayne Green and Steve and Trevor McKee. The four-year-old is currently winless in five starts. Sunline's second foal, a colt by Zabeel (NZ) named Sun Ruler (NZ), fetched NZ$2 million to the bid of Don Ha at NZB Premier Sale in 2007, but has yet to race. Sunline also has an unnamed filly by Rock of Gibraltar foaled in 2006.

Indescribable graduated from the maiden ranks in her fourth start last September on Presque Isle's Tapeta, but promptly rattled off three straight wins, including an 8 1/2-length score on the Keeneland Polytrack the following month and an allowance on the turf at Hollywood in December. Switched to the main track thereafter by previous trainer Graham Motion, the chestnut ran fifth to Zenyatta in the GII El Encino S. at Santa Anita Jan. 13 and third to Carriage Trail in the GIII Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland Apr. 18. The four-year-old went out a winner for Motion in the GIII Arlington Matron H. May 26 before following the rest of owner Don Adams's string to trainer Bill Mott's shedrow. Sixth in the GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H. June 28, she came back to be third to Ginger Punch in the GI Go for Wand H. July 26 at Saratoga, but was given some time off following a distant fourth to that champion in the GI Personal Ensign H. Aug. 22 at the same track. Catching a yielding course for her return to the turf, Indescribable was off slowly and raced in the penultimate spot through the opening six furlongs run in 1:17.97. The homebred was still out of the picture as they straightened into the lane, but came running up the center of the course and got up in time to prevail in a tight finish. "That was fun!" said winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "At the 3/16-pole, I thought I had no chance. But, as they say in Europe, 'when she presented herself' and got clear, she really leveled out and took off. She did not have any trouble with the ground at all. She never had that one stumble or bobble. In the last 40 yards, I was pretty confident that we were going to win." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
 Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

David Carroll

Accomplishment: Acoma (Empire Maker), trained by Carroll, closed four-wide to win the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 8.

Birthplace: Dublin, Ireland

Family: Wife Kim, daughter Aisling (13), son Declan (9)

Current Residence: Louisville, KY.

First win as trainer? January 1993 with a horse called British Banker.

He was owned by Dogwood and Jerry Bailey was aboard.

If you could name a stakes for anybody, who would it be and why? I'd name a race after my father, Frankie Carroll, because he's the one who got me in the game. He was a jockey himself and he was the biggest influence on me growing up.

What would you do if you weren't in horse racing? Be miserable! I was born into it. My father was a jockey, my brother was a jockey, I rode for a while myself. I absolutely adore the game. The horses are the show as far as I'm concerned--and that's never going to change.

Who was your biggest idol growing up? Lester Piggott. Everybody wanted to be Lester Piggott!

Favorite food or meal? A good steak. Steak and veggies.

Where would you like to go that you haven't already been? Hawaii.

Proudest moment? Meeting my wife. We've been married for 18 years. I put her through hell and she's followed me everywhere, and it's hard to beat that. She's a great wife and a better mother, and I'm very, very lucky.

What's your favorite film? Blood Diamond and The Deer Hunter.

Favorite sport besides racing? Golf, easy.

Do you play yourself? Occasionally. Not as often as I'd like, but I love the game and I watch it whenever I can. I got to go to The Masters the last couple of years and the Ryder Cup this year, but I don't play nearly as much because it's very time consuming.

Drink of choice? Heineken.

If you could have any job in the world, which one would you want? Be Tiger Woods' caddy. I'd make more money, I know that!

Favorite vacation spot? It's always fun to go back to Ireland. But vacations are always few and far between.

So you hit the Pick Six for $1 million. What do you do with the money? I'd take care of the college fund for the kids, that's for sure.

Then I'd plan to go on a trip to the Melbourne Cup. I've always wanted to do that. I've been to all of the [big races] in Europe. I've been to the Arc many times, the King George, the Irish Derby, the Epsom Derby, but I've never been to the Melbourne Cup. I've always wanted to go to Australia, but I've never had the chance.

Argentine speedball Pryka cemented her status as Palermo's top sprinter with this authoritative victory to annex her first Group 1 tally and the fifth graded stakes victory of her career. The speedy mare turned the tables on archrival Crazy Plus, who recently had defeated her in the G1 Gran Premio Suipacha over the turf at San Isidro Oct. 10. The top two finishers will likely renew their rivalry in next month's G1 Gran Premio Felix De Alzaga Unzue on the Carlos Pellegrini undercard Dec. 13. Pryka's Kentucky-bred dam sold to Botafogo for $40,000 at Keeneland November in 2000 in foal to Deputy Commander.

ZENYATTA COMING BACK FOR MORE Unbeaten Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}), who closed her brilliant four-year-old season with an epic last-to-first win in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies Classic Oct. 24, will return next season following a well-deserved break, according to published reports. "It depends on how she is when she starts back," trainer John Shirreffs told Daily Racing Form when asked when the

"TDN Rising Star" would return in 2009. "It's hard to put a number on how long it will take to get ready. This is the time to give her time off. I don't want to pencil in anything." The Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Moss colorbearer went seven-for-seven in 2008, including wins in the GI Apple Blossom H., GI Vanity H. and GI Lady's Secret S. "She hasn't had a break since this time last year," Shirreffs continued. "For her not to have a cough or a pimple for that long, it's amazing." The half-sister to MGISW Balance (Thunder Gulch) has bankrolled $2,144,580 in earnings while remaining perfect in nine career attempts.

HALFWAY TO HEAVEN, MOONSTONE

RETIRED Aidan O'Brien has admitted defeat in his quest to overhaul Bobby Frankel's world record of 25 Group/Grade 1 victories in a year and will not send out any further runners to add to his 23 top-level winners this season. The Ballydoyle conditioner has also confirmed the retirement of two of this term's Classic winners, Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}--Cassandra Go {Ire}, by Indian Ridge {Ire}) and Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}--Solo de Lune {Ire}, by Law Society). Both had been mooted as possibles for next month's International meet at Sha Tin in Hong Kong, but will instead begin new careers in the paddocks. "We have decided to retire Halfway to Heaven and Moonstone and, as the season is almost over, we won't be having any more runners this year," O'Brien told Racing Post. Halfway to Heaven bagged three Group 1 successes this year with scores in the Irish 1,000 Guineas at The Curragh, the Nassau S. at Goodwood and the Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket. Moonstone enjoyed her day in the sun with victory in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh, part of O'Brien's clean sweep of all five Irish Classics. Breeding plans are yet to be determined. Purchased for €450,000 as a GOFORB yearling, Halfway to Heaven posted a career mark of 9-4-2-2 and earnings of £470,905. A 700,000gns TATDEC yearling acquisition, Moonstone heads to the breeding shed with a record of 6-1-2-0 and earnings of £291,173.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER SALE

Nov. 3-17 * 10:00 a.m. daily

LEGAL MOVE TOPS SATURDAY SESSION

Keeneland November's Saturday topper came near the end of the session when Legal Move (Bold Executive--Charity Country, by Country Store), offered as a racing/stallion prospect by Lane's End, agent, sold for $245,000 to Canadian owner Bruno Schickedanz. The four-year-old was catalogued as hip 4979. A multiple stakes winner at Woodbine this year for Woodford Racing and trainer Mark Casse, the Ontario-bred ran fifth in the Gill Phoenix S. at Keeneland Oct. 4 and most recently won an allowance at Woodbine Nov. 1. With a record of 23-10-4-3, the bay has bankrolled $782,181 to date. The session's second-highest price was $75,000 for hip 4784, a weanling filly by leading freshman sire Tapit (Pulpit) out of multiple stakes winner Princess Willow (Silver Deputy). Consigned by Shawhan Place, agent for Sagamore Overlook, the Pennsylvania-bred chestnut was purchased by Moon Bloodstock. Legal Move, one of 242 lots to sell yesterday, spurred the day's gross to increase 5.3 percent to $2,257,800, compared to 2007, when 202 head sold for a total of $2,143,900. The sale continues through Monday. Catalogues and complete results are available on www.keeneland.com.

Sweet Goodbye was dusted after getting off to a slow start in her June 7 debut at Delaware Park, but she has been unbeatable ever since. A 10-length maiden winner at Chuck Town three weeks later, she followed up with an allowance score at Philly Park July 28, then made it three in a row in an optional claimer in West Virginia Sept. 4. The bay was even-money in the Oct. 4 Maryland Million Oaks at Laurel and proved worthy of that support, winning by three lengths. She was 3-5 to keep the streak alive against an abbreviated line-up of one filly and two geldings. Breaking sharply from her inside post, Sweet Goodbye bid them adieu, opening up by seven lengths after a half in :47.32 and galloping to an easy success.

Get Serious won back-to-back turf allowances at Monmouth Park July 20 and Aug. 14, earning a berth against Big Brown in the Sept. 13 Monmouth S. The New York-bred did not disgrace himself that afternoon, arguing the pace with the dual Classic winner before finishing seventh. The chestnut cut out the fractions in the grassy Mohawk H. against state-breds at Belmont Oct. 18, holding on stubbornly before going down by a neck. Back to the main track and open company for this, Get Serious sat just off the pace while a bit wide, took command on the final turn and came home a convincing winner. Get Serious had run much of his career for trainer Patrick McBurney, but ran under the name of long-time trainer John Forbes. "When we entered the horse, Equibase carried my name over as trainer from when he ran in my name in New York," Forbes said. "I think everyone know that 'Burney' and [jockey] Pablo [Fragoso] are the ones that deserve all the credit."

Game Face ended her juvenile campaign with a 7 1/4-length maiden victory at Aqueduct Nov. 23, and had to take on graded-stakes company in her next four starts. The chestnut opened 2008 with a seven-length triumph in the Jan. 12 GII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream, but settled for second when trying a mile in the Mar. 2 GII Davona Dale S. She came back to take the May 3 GIII La Troienne S. at Churchill Downs before heading north. Bet down to 9-2 in the June 7 GI Acorn S. at Belmont, Game Face faltered in the stretch and finished a distant third, some 21 3/4 lengths behind Zaftig, with champion Indian Blessing a clear runner-up. She was making her return from that effort as the odds-on choice here. Taken in hand after the start, the Zabeel Racing colorbearer gained ground down the backstretch. She angled off the inside on the turn and split horses at the top of the lane to take the lead. Miss Isella made a run at her from the rail in the final yards, but Ramon Dominguez tightened the gap as they hit the wire, and Game Face took the photo. A claim of foul by Calvin Borel aboard the runner-up was disallowed. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Team USA Beats Team World in Rider Cup:

The riders of Team USA nosed out Team World 10 points to 9 1/2 in yesterday's inaugural "Rider Cup" for charity at Churchill Downs. The five-race series, which awarded points to team members for their placings in each race, came down to the final event, the eighth on the card. While Team USA had an 8 to 6 1/2 point advantage, Team World--consisting of jockeys born outside the U.S., had Ramon Dominguez aboard 4-5 favorite Game Face in the eighth race. Dominguez notched three points for the win aboard the chestnut filly (see above), but Calvin Borel, riding Miss Isella, needed just two points for second to secure the victory for Team USA. Game Face edged Miss Isella by head, but Team USA prevailed in the Cup standings. "I knew I had to run second to get it for the team," Borel said. "Heck, she ran so good I almost won. She ran a heck of a race. I knew we had to run second if [Game Face] won to hang on. We did it and got lucky. It was a lot of fun." Fellow Team USA rider Robby Albarado added, "Those guys actually thought they were going to beat us. We had a lot of fun; we should do this again." One rider for each race was selected to represent the team by their celebrity team captains. Hall of Fame jockey Pat Day represented Team USA, and Hall of Fame rider Angel Cordero Jr. captained Team World. No jockey could be chosen more than twice in the series. Points were awarded on a 3-2-1 scale for first-, second- and third-place finishes in each race. If neither jockey hit the board, the rider with the best finish was awarded a half-point. Team USA was crowned the winner, and a $10,000 donation will be made to the charities of the team's choice. The charities of the Team World will receive a $5,000 donation.

3--Daly Daly (Fr), 121, f, 4, Medaaly (GB)--Dame Phanie (Fr), by Kaldoun (Fr). €9,000.

Margins: 1, 3/4, SHD. Odds: 3.40, 5.30, 5.10.

Also Ran: Elaso (Fr), Blue Bresil (Fr), Ticoz, Bon Grain (Fr), Gayanevees (Fr), Kilometre Neuf (Fr), Hello My Lord (Fr).

Third in the May 12 G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp, Trois Rois was off the radar when 16th in the June 1 G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly and came back from a break to run fourth in the Oct. 11 Listed Prix Le Fabuleux at Maisons-Laffitte. Second in a Longchamp conditions event last time Oct. 30, he was settled in midfield for most of this one and responded willingly under stretch-long urging to claim a first black-type win nearing the line.

SUBDUED TRADE AT SGA NOVEMBER

Business was subdued from beginning to end of Societa Gestione Aste's one-day November Sale at the Settimo Milanese complex in Milan yesterday. Only 36 percent of the catalogue was exchanged as a swath of withdrawals and RNAs blighted returns. The breeding stock and foals session was hardest hit with only 27 of 72 lots finding new homes, and no individual trade passed through the five-figure barrier. The yearling session was marginally better with 36 lots sold, from 82 offered, and six managed to break through the five-figure mark. The highlight came towards the end of the day when hip 162, already named Segrate (GB), was knocked down to Gabriele Miliari for €19,000. Offered by SARL Srl, the April-foaled Storming Home (GB) colt is out of the 2001 Listed Premio Buontalenta runner-up Smart Sissy (Ire) (Grand Lodge). Full statistics were available at press time, but results can be viewed at www.sgasales.com.

PATACA LOOKS TOUGH TO CRACK IN CUP TRIAL

Stanley Ho's Viva Pataca (GB) (Marju {Ire}) looms a heavy odds-on favorite when he takes on eight other rivals in Sunday's G2-HK Cathay Pacific International Cup Trial at Sha Tin. The race is the course-and-distance prep for the G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Cup in four weeks' time, a race in which Viva Pataca was defeated in 2007 by Godolphin's Ramonti (Fr). Runner-up to Sun Classique (Aus) in this year's G1 Dubai Sheema

Classic, the six-year-old private purchase returned to Hong Kong to finish third to Archipenko in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in April. Second to Packing Winner (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}), who rematches this afternoon, in the G1-HK Champions and Chater Cup in May, Viva Pataca was having his first run since in the G3-HK Sha Tin Trophy Oct. 26 over an insufficient 1600 meters and was dismissed at 21-1, the first double-digit quote of his career in Hong Kong. In tandem with reigning G1 Hong Kong Mile hero Good Ba Ba at the tail of the field cornering for home, Viva Pataca came with what racecaller Darren Flindell termed a "paralyzing" run down the center to win by 3/4 of a length under top weight of 134 pounds. Anything close to that at a much more comfortable trip today gets the job done. Also in the field today is Bullish Luck (Royal Academy). Hong Kong's Horse of the Year in 2005/6, the nine-year-old is likely making his penultimate career appearance in the Cup Trial.
