DANEHILL SIBLING TOPS KEENOV SUNDAY

Four-year-old Juddmonte homebred Earth Planet (Distant View--Razyana, by His Majesty), a half-brother to Danehill (Danzig) consigned by Mill Ridge Sales, agent, brought a final bid of $60,000 to top the proceedings on Sunday's penultimate day of trading at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington. Oscar Lobo signed the ticket on the colt, who sold as a racing or stallion prospect.

Danehill www.coolmore.com

The chestnut, a conditions winner at Chantilly last year, has a record of 9-2-2-2 for earnings of $66,591. He was seventh in a Del Mar allowance test in August for trainer Bobby Frankel in his only start this season. Earth Planet is also a half to graded/group winners Eagle Eyed, Shibboleth and Harpia, all full siblings to Danehill. The Keeneland November sale concludes today, with the final session starting at 10 a.m.

GOFFS NOVEMBER BEGINS TODAY

Goffs' week-long November Foal and Breeding Stock Sale gets underway today. This year's edition has added spice with the presence of the only foal by the ill-fated George Washington (Ire) (Danehill). Offered on behalf of breeder Stefano Luciani by the Irish National Stud as hip 1245, the February-foaled filly is a half-sister to the 2002 G3 Prix Penelope victress Ombre Legere (Ire) (Double Bed {Fr}). A 1,280-strong weanling catalogue, just shy of last year's bumper increase, initiates the proceedings at the Kill venue. Five dedicated foal sessions will be followed by two days of broodmares and fillies, which is a reduction of one day from last year's renewal. The sale has been promoted as a leading source of pinhooking success, and foal sale graduates have been notable on the track this term, with two-year-old Bushranger (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) garnering both the G1 Prix Morny and the G1 Middle Park S. Sophomores lending their name to the honor roll include Cheveley Park Stud bound Kingsgate Native (Ire) (Mujadil), who added to his win in last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. with a victory in this year's G1 Golden Jubilee S.; and Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}), who registered a career best in the G1 Prix de la Foret last month. Cont. p3-4

 Little Amapola captured the Daily Hai Queen Cup going a mile in Tokyo in February, then was beaten just a length when fifth in the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) in April. Sidelined after running seventh in the May 25 G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks), she made her return in the Oct. 19 G1 Shuka Sho going 2000 meters at Kyoto, and was looking to improve off that sixth-place effort. Jockey Christophe Lemaire settled the dark bay in fifth, then gave her the signal at the top of the lane and was rewarded with a late kick that carried the pair to a decisive score. Runner-up Kawakami Princess finished first in this event two years ago, but was DQ'd and placed 12th for causing interference. She missed last year's edition due to injury. Her dam, Takano Secretary, was acquired for $200,000 as a KEESEP yearling in 1997. She was unplaced in three career starts.

GOFFS NOVEMBER SALE

Two Foals Are Beters Than One...

Further interest in Goffs November will be generated when the first set of twin foals ever catalogued by the Co. Kildare auction house go under the hammer. Offered as Hips 486 and 487 by Drummond House Stables, the pair of Orpen colts are out of the winning mare Fancied (GB) (Dominion {GB}), and are half-brothers to three winners. In addition to George Washington's sole representative, first-season sires with stock available include the Coolmore quintet Hurricane Run (Ire), Holy Roman Emperor (Ire), Ad Valorem,

Aussie Rules and Ivan Denisovich (Ire), as well as Darley's Iffraaj (GB) and Byron (GB); and Ballyhane Stud's Majestic Missile (Ire) and Diamond Green (Fr). Looking ahead, Goffs' CEO Henry Beeby commented, "It has been proven at the 2008 yearling sales that foals purchased at Goffs November Foal Sale in 2007 achieved greater pinhooking profit than those bought anywhere else. I would also like to remind foal purchasers of the benefits of the Goffs/DBS loyalty scheme, whereby no vendor commission will be paid on any foal bought at this sale if it returns as a yearling to either Goffs or DBS next year. Once again, our vendors have really supported the sale, and we are confident that buyers will be impressed with the quality of foals catalogued. It is particularly exciting for Goffs to be chosen as the auction house to sell the only George Washington foal in the world." Cont. p4

Following in the wake of the foal marathon next Saturday and Sunday, this season's broodmares' and fillies' book has been reduced by a quarter from last year's 800-plus tome, and that has resulted in the loss of a third session. As usual, there are heavyweight drafts from His Highness The Aga Khan's Studs and Moyglare Stud, and a 51-strong squad catalogued by the Darley operation. Selling starts at 11 a.m. on the first three days of the foal sale, and at 11:30 a.m. for the final two foals sessions. The two sessions for fillies and mares kick off at 9:30 a.m. Full catalogue and updates are available at www.goffs.com.

Where Champions Are Born

Louisiana racetracks annually generate over $40 million in additional purses at the tracks with over $12 million reserved for Louisiana-breds and $7.2 million in Breeders Awards. Four Louisiana-bred "Championship" days for nearly $3.5 million are held annually, one at each Louisiana track. There are also three restricted state-bred races offered every day at all four Louisiana tracks. Owner bonuses (purse supplements) in Louisiana offer the most comprehensive incentive awards program in the entire country. The total owner and breeder award payout in 2006 was $20 million with more than $22.6 million being paid out in 2007.

With a total of four state bred days, no other state can match Louisiana.

GOOD NIGHT SHIRT CAPS PERFECT SEASON

IN COLONIAL CUP Bidding for a second straight Eclipse Award as champion steeplechaser, Sonny Via's Good Night Shirt (Concern) ran his 2008 record to a perfect five-for-five in the $150,000 Colonial Cup in Camden, South Carolina, Sunday. The chestnut was a length behind Preemptive Strike (Roanoke) as they cleared the final fence, but pinned his ears in the run to the wire and got on top on the waning yards to take it by a neck. The final time for the 2 3/4 miles was 5:17 4/5. "Preemptive Strike really took it to me," said winning jockey Willie Dowling. "Today proves that he's a fighter, too, when they throw it to him. It's a long run from that last fence, but I was glad to have that today. I'm so happy for the horse that he finished on a good note. He deserved to do it. Everybody wants to see a race and they saw a race today--and the champ won." The seven-year-old gelding added to his wins in the Apr. 12 Georgia Cup, May 10 Iroquois S., Sept. 21 Lonesome Glory S. and Oct. 18 Grand National S. His earnings now stand at $934,493, third only to McDynamo and the great Lonesome Glory.

Not Up For Love, who had been working steadily if not spectacularly over this strip leading up to this stakes and career bow, broke slowly and settled in at a moderate tempo off a crisp opening quarter. Up to third and gaining on the leaders with every stride, the gray poked his head in front midstretch and drew off to take his debut. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Well supported to extend her speed a little bit further this time, the gray broke well and pressed Payton d'Oro through an opening quarter in :22.61. After two disappointing outings, Main Street closed to win second-level state-bred optional claimer Oct. 24, also at Belmont. Shipped across the Hudson River for her first start against open company here, Main Street set fractions of :23.78 and :47.54 before she drew off in the stretch to win by 7 1/2 lengths over Zulmin (Stormin Fever) on closing night at The Big M. After conceding to the initial lead to favored Jehan (Forest Wildcat), she pulled her way up to press from between that foe and Betty's Champ (Champali) on the outside. Ramseys Break Churchill Fall Meet Record:

Owners Ken and Sarah Ramsey picked up their 16th win of the Churchill fall meet Saturday, breaking the mark set back in 1965. Ya Think (Broken Vow) picked up the record-setting victory in an allowance test on day 16 of the 26-day stand. T. Alie Grissom won 15 races during a 23-day fall meeting 43 years ago. The Ramseys already have 13 Churchill owner titles to their credit, the most in the track's history. "I didn't know how many the record was," Ramsey remarked. "Actually, we started on this little rampage at Turfway Park last fall, winter and spring [winning the owner titles]; [we] didn't even try in September because we were holding back for Churchill Downs and Keeneland, and we still tied the Kleins with eight. That worked out great." He added, "Also one of our goals this fall was to make Mike [Maker] the leading trainer at Keeneland, and we did that. It is a total team effort. It is not just Ramsey-Maker and [jockey Julien] Leparoux, but people like [Leparoux's agent] Steve Bass and the exercise riders that make this such a good team." Maker tied the record for most wins by a conditioner at the Churchill fall meeting with Ya Think. It was his 20th victory from 48 starters. Dale Romans set the standard in 2003.

ifying his status as one of the favorites for next month's G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Cup. The champion older horse in Hong Kong last year, Viva Pataca was winning his second straight renewal of the Trial. Patiently handled by Darren Beadman, he cruised to the fore under a stranglehold at the top of the home stretch. It was only passing the furlong pole that he was asked, and he immediately cruised past Hawkes Bay (GB) (Vettori {GB}) to win by a length and a quarter at the post. Jackpot Delight (NZ) (Danasinga {Aus}) was third. The final time for the race was 2:02.41. Viva Pataca now has exactly four weeks to go before his next assignment in Hong Kong's richest race. He ran fourth in the Cup in 2006 and was runner-up last year, and trainer John Moore believes the six-year-old gelding can put the record straight in the Dec. 14 event, saying his charge is "in the form of his life." Moore's plans for Viva Pataca are straightforward. "I think he's already reached his peak now, so I'm hoping we can keep him where he is," said the trainer. "Everything went to plan today. Darren rode a great race, the horse won with some ease and I'm just hoping he can hold it all together until next month. If he does, he will have a great chance of winning the Cup for Hong Kong." Viva Pataca's win yesterday came on the heels of an injury scare in the run-up to the race. "He was shod on Monday and there was a slight infection in his elbow afterwards, but we managed it as best we could," Moore explained. "He's had this before, though, so we were always confident of managing it, and we'll be extra vigilant with him between now and the Cup."
