Dynaformer's 28th Stakes Performer of 2008 is PICK SIX

WAIT A WHILE RETIRED

Champion Wait a While (Maria's Mon--Flirtatious, by A.P. Indy) has been retired after finishing third in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, according to Daily Racing Form. "She's in Kentucky," Michael McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher, told DRF. "She will be bred. Racing is over for her." The five-year-old's 2009 mate has not yet been determined. Bred in Kentucky by W.S. Farish and W. Temple Webber Jr., the grey was purchased by Tim Hamm for $50,000 as a yearling at KEESEP and, just a few months later, blossomed into a $260,000 OBSFEB juvenile. Racing in the colors of Alan Cohen's Arindel Farm, Wait a While graduated by five lengths when switched to grass in her second start at two, then added a 6 1/2-length tally in the off-the-turf Miss Grillo S. before capping 2005 with a third in the GII Demoiselle S. That versatility was showcased during her championship 2006 campaign, which she kicked off with a 14-length romp in the GII Davona Dale S. over a sloppy track. Second in the GI Ashland S. and fourth in the GI Kentucky Oaks, Wait a While then rattled off four straight wins: an off-the-turf GII Sands Point S., plus the grassy GI American Oaks, GII Lake Placid S. and GI Yellow Ribbon S. She could only manage fourth to Ouija Board (GB), Film Maker and Honey Ryder in the Breeders' Cup at Churchill, but had done enough to secure an Eclipse Award as the nation's top three-year-old filly. Wait a While came back to win two of six starts last year, the GII Ballston Spa H. and GIII Honey Fox H., and also hit the board in the GI Matriarch S. and GI Flower Bowl Invitational. After winning the GII San Gorgonio H. Jan. 14, she was sidelined with a minor injury, but returned to successfully defend her title in the Ballston Spa Aug. 21 before adding another Yellow Ribbon trophy Sept. 27. The five-year-old finished third by a length in the Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita Oct. 24 in what would be her career finale. Wait a While compiled a record of 24-12-3-5 and bankrolled $2,394,916.

TANAKA CONVICTED OF FRAUD

Prominent racehorse owner and businessman Gary Tanaka was convicted Wednesday of defrauding clients and could face prison time, according to published reports. A Manhattan jury convicted Tanaka and business partner Alberto Vilar, who together operated Amerindo Investment Advisors, of stealing $20 million from clients in order to keep the firm afloat and pay off Vilar's personal expenses. Amerindo made billions for investors during the internet boom of the 1990s, but the company was left reeling when tech stocks nosedived in 2000. In one example of fraud provided by bloomberg.com, the men took $5 million from one investor and used $3.1 million to pay another investor, while using $650,000 to pay the firm's bills. Vilar also personally used $1 million to fulfill an outstanding charitable pledge. The jury convicted Vilar on all 12 counts brought against him, including conspiracy and securities fraud, and Tanaka on three of the 12 counts.

Horsephotos

Tanaka, 65, has been under partial house arrest in New York since he and Vilar were arrested in May of 2005. He hasn't seen his wife, who lives in London, in 3 1/2 years. Tanaka's lawyers said that he was receiving cancer treatment in 2003 and 2004, when many of the criminal acts took place, and had surgery to "remove and replace" most of his lower jaw, according to bloomberg.com. Tanaka, who was in court when the verdict was read, was convicted of conspiracy, securities fraud and investment adviser fraud.

Born in a Japanese detainment camp in Idaho during World War II, Tanaka graduated from MIT in 1965 and from London's Imperial College in 1970 and worked his way up in the business world. He first started purchasing Thoroughbreds the early '90s, typically buying proven horses in Europe and shipping them to the States. His best runners include Golden Apples (GB), Pico Central (Brz), Rakti (GB) and Sarafan, as well as 2008 graded stakes winners Sudan (Ire) and Proudinsky (Ger).

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

SPIRIT ONE RETIRED GISW Spirit One (Fr) (Anabaa Blue {GB}--Lavyssiere {Fr}, by Sicyos) has been retired and will stand at Haras de Lonray for the 2009 season. Owned by his breeder Kamel Chehboub, the Philippe Demercastel-trained captured the 2006 G3 Prix des Chenes and was also runner-up in the G1 Criterium International during his juvenile season. Runner-up in the G2 Prix Noailles and Prix Guillaume D'Oranano at three, the four-year-old registered a career-best season in 2008, winning the G3 Prix Exbury in March followed by seconds in the G2 D'Harcourt and the G3 Prix La Coupe in June on either side of a fourth in the G1 Prix Ganay. Victorious over Archipekno in the Aug. 9 G1 Arlington Million, the bay concluded his career with a fifth in his synthetic surface bow in the G1 Goodwood S. Sept. 27. He retires as the winner of five of his 19 starts, having earned over €711,000 in prize money.

MARCHAND D'OR TO DUBAI AFTER HK SPRINT Recently crowned champion sprinter in Europe Marchand D'Or (Fr) (Marchand de Sable {Fr}), scheduled to make is next start in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint Dec. 14, is being lined up for another crack at the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad al Sheba Mar. 28, according to trainer Freddie Head. The five-year-old ran in the Gulf News-sponsored contest in 2007, finishing eighth behind U.S.-bred challenger Kelly's Landing (Patton). The grey has won three consecutive Group 1 races --the July Cup, Prix Maurice de Gheest and Prix de l'Abbaye--and now embarks on an international campaign. "He is going to Hong Kong for the Sprint and then we will look to try Dubai again," said Head. "He is my first Group 1 winner, so is my favorite horse, and hopefully, we can run him for a couple more seasons." The French-bred has won five Group 1 races in total, all under the guidance of Davy Bonilla, but fell short at the top level in his only previous try in Dubai. At the time, the suggestion was that the dirt didn't suit, but connections are keen for another crack on the surface at the Dubai World Cup meeting--the final one to be contested at Nad Al Sheba--before racing moves to Meydan in 2010.

FASIG-TIPTON FORMS ADVISORY BOARD

Fasig-Tipton announced yesterday that it has formed an advisory board of directors to assist its management in areas of auction sales and other related initiatives in the industry. Fasig-Tipton's Walt Robertson will serve as chairman. The board, which will meet at least three times a year, also includes: John Adger, Rusty Arnold, Craig Bandoroff, Antony Beck, Niall Brennan, Cot Campbell, Case Clay, Bill Farish, Dr. John Griggs, Arthur Hancock, Michael Levy, Robert Manfuso, John McCormack, Kieran McLaughlin, Clem Murphy, Samantha Siegel, John Sikura, John Stuart, Mark Taylor, D. G. Van Clief Jr. (Chairman Emeritus), Charlotte Weber and Rob Whiteley. The board held its initial meeting Nov. 18.

ZENYATTA TO PARADE AT HOLLYWOOD

Unbeaten Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) will parade at Hollywood Nov. 30, the final day of the Turf Festival. The four-year-old, based at the Inglewood oval, has been taking it easy for trainer John Shirreffs since landing the G1 Ladies' Classic Oct. 24. That marked her ninth straight trip to the winner's circle since beginning her career on Thanksgiving last year.

Massachusetts H., tuned up for the Nov. 28 GII Clark H. with a four-furlong move in :48.60 at Churchill Downs Nov. 20. Julien Leparoux was in the irons. "I liked the way he worked this morning," trainer Nick Zito said. "He finished up strong and galloped out strong. Julien is a good horseman; the work went perfect." Regular rider John Velazquez is slated to ride in the Clark. Zito also sent out Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop) for a four-furlong move beneath the Twin Spires in :49.80. Zito said that last year's GII Kentucky Jockey Club hero has an "outside chance" of running in the Clark. The Four Roses Thoroughbreds colorbearer was last seen finishing second in the GII Meadowlands Cup H. Oct. 3.

COCOA BEACH TUNES UP FOR MATRIARCH

Godolphin's Cocoa Beach (Chi) (Doneraile Court) prepared for next Sunday's GI Matriarch S. with a half-mile breeze on the turf at Hollywood yesterday. The GI Beldame S. heroine stopped the clock in :46.20. "Her first time on the turf in North America," said Henry Spiller, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "She galloped out in :58 and two. I was very happy with the way she handled everything." He added, "The cones were out quite wide, so it was a very good move. The rider said she felt as good on grass as she did on synthetic or dirt." While the four-year-old hasn't raced on turf since capturing her career debut in Chile, she has won eight of 11 starts in her native land, Dubai and the U.S., and comes into the Matriarch off an honorable second to Zenyatta in the GI Ladies' Classic nee Distaff Oct. 24 at Santa Anita.

J BE K RETIRED TO GAINESWAY

Zayat Stables's MGSW J Be K (Silver Deputy--Major Wager, by Valid Wager) has been retired and will stand his first season at stud at Gainesway Farm in 2009. He will stand for $10,000. The sophomore colt, who was purchased for $350,000 as a FTFEB two-year-old, rattled off wins this year in the GIII Bay Shore S., the GII Woody Stephens S. and the GIII Jersey Shore S. "I am very excited to have found the perfect home for J Be K for his new career at stud," owner Ahmed Zayat said. "I will be breeding my best mares to him and will aggressively support him in the sales ring and on the racetrack." J Be K was tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ following a track-record-setting performance in his Saratoga debut last year. "J Be K is a phenomenally fast horse, who in his first start at two years old broke the 5 1/2-furlong track record at Saratoga," said Antony Beck, president of Gainesway Farm. "In the spring and summer of 2008, he was easily the best three-year-old sprinter in the U.S. I am delighted to partner with Ahmed Zayat, a great sportsman and a keen contributor to racing." The son of GSP Major Wager retires with a record of 9-5-1-0 and $440,200 in earnings.

ALBAHRI SUPPLEMENTED TO HOLLYWOOD

DERBY Albahri (Fr) (Bahri), who topped last Sunday's Arqana Autumn Sale at €140,000, has been supplemented at a cost of $10,000 to the Nov. 30 GI Hollywood Derby. Now trained by Patrick Biancone for Edmund Gann, the three-year-old gelding captured the Listed Grand Prix du Nord Nov. 4 for breeder His Highness the Aga Khan and trainer Michel Delzangles. "He's coming Monday," said Biancone. Produced by a half-sister to 2001 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Sakhee (Bahri), Albahri has won three of five lifetime starts.

of state veterinarian Tom Connor. "He's pretty much the same as he was before," Connor told DRF. "He's nodding off on the right front. He'd have to be sound and not showing a head nod [to get removed from the vet list]." Co-owner Gary Barber revealed to DRF that he may take legal action against the California Horse Racing Board. "We have archaic methods to tell whether a horse is sound," Barber said. "He's got a funny gait when he jogs on the road. That's his idiosyncrasy. He worked like a machine. They have zero medical records to support their position. I've got to deal with fighting city hall, so to speak. I'm not here to run a bad horse. This is an absolute disgrace. I'm a big supporter of this game." Trainer John Sadler added that Cost of Freedom may contest the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen if he remains on the vet list.

GOFFS NOVEMBER FOALS

17 - 21 November

SPIRIT PREVAILS AT GOFFS

Just over half the foals on offer so far this week have failed to sell, but the show carried on in dogged fashion yesterday with a son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) topping proceedings on Day 4 of the Goffs November Sale. While the reverberations of the economic crisis and effects of over-production are felt at every auction at present, trading at the Kildare venue proved once again that sought-after bloodstock continues to command the correct prices. That applied to the topper, consigned by the sire's base the Irish National Stud as hip 1030. Out of a full-sister to the graded stakes scorer St Clair Ridge (Ire), he was knocked down to Summerhill Bloodstock for €72,000. That eclipsed the €70,000 paid by Willie Browne's Meadowlands Bloodstock Service for hip 817, a February-foaled colt by the 2008 success story Kheleyf. Out of a half to the 2002 G3 Debutante S. winner Rainbows for All (Ire) and smart stakes performer Ray of Sunshine (Ire), he hails from the extended family of Sainte Marine (Ire) and Josr Algarhoud (Ire). "I liked him a lot," Browne commented. "He's just a very good, good-walking foal and the sire is well on his way on the evidence of his first runners this year."

"These nice ones are still proving very hard to buy," Browne said. The same buyer later paid €60,000 for Landscape Stud's hip 1000, a son of Acclamation (GB) who is a descendant of the dual group scorer Fly Me (Fr) and also snapped up Carrigbeg Stud's hip 951, a son of Refuse to Bend (Ire) from the family of Acclamation for €40,000. "He's a good sort and at one stage he looked like he was going to be very good value, but I'm still happy to have him and the sire finished off the season well," Browne added. "He too will be back for sale next autumn."

Jimmy Murphy of Redpender Stud secured hip 810, the Balmont half-sister to this year's G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner and G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Aspen Darlin (Ire) (Indian Haven {GB}) for €60,000. "He's a grand, sharp, good-looking foal," the purchaser said. "His half-sister has already proved herself a very high-class filly, and hopefully, she will continue to hold her own in good company next year. Also the sire was a very good sprinter and competed at a high level from two through to four." Of the fillies, it was a member of the first crop of Coolmore's Hurricane Run (Ire) who topped proceedings when selling to Camas Park for €48,000. From the draft of Railstown Stud, her dam is a three-parts sister to the 2005 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Linda's Lad (GB), whose page includes Rail Link (GB). Goffs cont.

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

GOFFS NOVEMBER HIP HAPPENINGS -- FRIDAY

Hip 1106, c, Nayef--Ros the Boss (Ire), by Danehill
Consigned by The Glen Stud

The sole offering by Shadwell's stallion in the catalogue, this is a February-foaled son of a winning dam whose half-brother Yehudi (Ire) was runner-up in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. Under the third dam is the 1994 G1 Epsom Oaks bridesmaid and following year's G1 Aral-Pokal heroine Wind in Her Hair (Ire), now renowned as the dam of Deep Impact (Jpn).

Hip 1120, c, Invincible Spirit (Ire)--Shesasmartlady (Ire), by Dolphin Street (Fr)
Consigned by Jockey Hall Stud

Invincible Spirit's rise to prominence on the international stage has been well documented and this offering from Robert and Jacqueline Norris's organisation is certain to attract keen interest as a full-brother to the 2006 G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte scorer and G1 Middle Park S. third Captain Marvelous (Ire) out of a half to the listed winner Dashing Colours (Ire).

Hip 1121, c, Desert Style (Ire)--Shining Creek, by Bering (GB)
Consigned by Commune Stud

Desert Style continues to produce high-class runners such as this year's G1 Prix de la Foret winner Paco Boy (Ire) and this April-foaled colt is a full-brother to another of his talented sons in the 2005 G2 Mill Reef S. scorer Cool Creek (Ire). Under the second dam is the millennium G2 Grand Prix de Deauville hero Russian Hope (Ire) and 2005 G2 Prix Eugene Adam winner Archange d'Or (Ire), as well as this year's G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano victor Russian Cross (Ire).

Hip 1162, f, Galileo (Ire)--Vanishing River, by Southern Halo
Consigned by Ballybin Stud Consignment

One of a quintet of Galileos in the book, this April foal hails from the immediate family of the high-class Vetheuil and Verveine, who is the dam of the 2003 G1 E.P. Taylor S. heroine Volga (Ire) and G1 Hong Kong Vase winner Vallee Enchantee (Ire). Also on the page is the dual Group 1 winner and sire Vespone (Ire) and last year's G1 Melbourne Cup runner-up Purple Moon (Ire).

Hip 1245, f, George Washington (Ire)--Flawlessly (Fr), by Rainbow Quest

Consigned by the Irish National Stud (agent)

This is the keenly awaited sole foal by the highly talented and enigmatic George Washington (Ire) and she is a half to the 2002 G3 Prix Penelope winner Ombre Legere (Ire) (Double Bed {Fr}) and the 2000 G1 Garden City Breeders' Cup H. runner-up Flawly (GB) (Old Vic {GB}). The latter is the dam of the 2006 G1 Prix du Jockey Club second and G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange scorer Best Name (GB).

Foreign-bred horses finished one-two in Hipodromo La Plata's signature event as Brazilian-bred Reraise, sporting the international TNT Stud's silks of prominent breeder Goncalo Torrealba, ran off to an impressive six-length victory over favorite Potri Arlequin in the 88th running of the international Group 1 event. Under Rodrigo Blanco, the three-year-old made the most of his assigned weight and a speed duel involving pacemakers Kirico (Arg) (Silver Planet {Arg}) and Rocococo (Arg) (Bienvenido {Arg}), inhaling those rivals entering the stretch en route to posting his most lucrative career victory in his dirt debut. Reraise had previously competed only on the grass, including a fourth-place finish in his most recent start, the Group 1 Gran Premio Jockey Club, the second leg of the Argentine Triple Crown Oct. 18 at San Isidro. The Dec. 13 G1 Gran Premio Internacional Carlos Pellegrini, South America's most prestigious race, is under consideration for the winner.

Sent off the prohibitive favorite in this comebacker, Etched was off a touch slowly, but was perfectly placed in a stalking third, as Papa Bear and Screen to Screen (Deputy Wild Cat) locked horns up front. He came under a ride with three-eighths of a mile to race and gained slowly to join the top two in upper stretch. Etched was able to reel in Papa Bear leaving the eighth pole and got the job done in a race he is certain to move forward off of. Unbridled Elaine is a half-sister to the late GISW Glitter Woman (Glitterman), who is in turn the dam of GISW Political Force (Unbridled's Song). The 10-year-old mare has an unraced two-year-old filly of this year named Broad Choice (A.P. Indy), a yearling filly by the Lane's End sire and a weanling colt by Distorted Humor. She is currently in foal to Forestry's son Discreet Cat.

Multiple graded stakes winner Texas Glitter (Glitterman--Come on Texas, by Apalachee) died earlier this week from complications of colic. The 12-year-old stallion had been standing for $4,000 at Signature Stallions in Reddick, Florida. A son of MSP Come on Texas, the bay captured the Gill Spectacular Bid S. on the dirt as a three-year-old in 1999, and later added the Gill Laurel Dash S. in 2000 before concluding his five-year career with a win in the Gill Hollywood Turf Express in 2002. He established new course records on the grass at Laurel and Gulfstream, and equaled Calder's mark of :54 4/5 for five furlongs on grass in 2002. The Florida-bred retired with a record of 36-11-9-2 and earnings of $826,077. Since entering stud in 2003, Texas Glitter has sired 55 winners of over $1.7 million to date, led by MSP Magic Texan with $122,288.

7th-CDX, $40,520, Msw, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23 4/5, ft. BOOK OF Z (c, 3, Booklet--Fees Waived, by Wavering Monarch), a $77,000 OBSOCT weanling purchase, topped the eighth session of the 2006 Keeneland September sale on a bid of $500,000 from John Brocklebank. He was purchased privately by Zayat Stables in 2007. "Physically, he's just an unbelievable looking horse," said Sobhy Sonbol, vice president of Zayat Stables. "He looked like a beast, so we just had to have him." Sonbol explained that the colt underwent ankle surgery earlier this year, delaying his debut at the races until an Oct. 30 maiden at this track. Sent off the 13-10 chalk that day, the bay showed good early speed, but tired some late to finish third. With a subsequent bullet in tow, Book of Z was dispatched the 3-2 favorite in his second start and did not disappoint. Up to stalk the pace while three wide, he was sent to the front at the head of the lane, opened up past midstretch and proved one length better than Clandestine Fury (Stormin Fever) at the wire. Sonbol said Book of Z would winter either at the Fair Grounds or Gulfstream Park. "He has a lot of upside, so we're going to take it sort of easy with him," the adviser commented. "He's got a lot of size, good engine and a lot of scope. He looks like he wants to go further, the way he won [Thursday]. He has a big hip and because of that you can't really tell how stretchy he is, but he's just really, really fast." Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $31,016. Booklet (Notebook--Craft Bobbie, by Bob's Dusty) was one of the leading three-year-olds of 2002, defeating Harlan's Holiday in the Gill Holy Bull S. and the GI Fountain of Youth S. in his first two starts after being purchased by John Oxley from owners Phillip and Marcia Cohen. The following summer it was announced that the Florida-bred would enter stud at the Greathouse family's Glencrest Farm near Midway, Kentucky.

"We thought he was a brilliant miler," Glencrest's David Greathouse said yesterday. "He was able to win going further and we were looking for a horse to replace Clever Trick when we decided to buy into him. We thought he was a very hard-knocking horse that beat some good horses during his career, and he's the kind that we like to buy." But, after covering just 14 mares, Booklet suffered a "diaphragmatic hemorrhage" and passed away less than 30 minutes after being rushed to the Hagyard-Davidson-McGee veterinary clinic in Lexington the morning of Mar. 4, 2004. From that handful of mares, just seven live foals were produced, including a Glencrest-bred bay colt from Fees Waived (Wavering Monarch), born Feb. 3, 2005. Consigned by Glencrest to the OBS Fall Mixed Sale, the bay was hammered down to Spurr LLC for $77,000.

"He was probably as good a baby as we ever raised; as good-looking a horse as we could raise," Greathouse recollected. "Because [Booklet] was so popular in Florida, we decided to send the colt to OBS as a weanling. He was a cowboy, quarter-horse, good-looking son of a gun. We thought we did excellent and we were very happy with the way he sold."

The colt was turned over to Vinery to be prepared for the 2006 Keeneland September sale and he continued to improve, so much so that he topped the proceedings the day he sold.

"I can't say I was jumping up and down when he sold for $500,000," Greathouse said with a chuckle, "but I was certainly happy that the horse we had raised sold so nicely." John Brocklebank signed the winning ticket.

With his promising maiden success yesterday, Book of Z, who was consigned as part of the Zayat draft at Keeneland earlier this month, but was withdrawn, could be on his way to bigger and better things.

"We hope we can get something from him. It would make for a nice legacy," Greathouse said.--Alan Carasso

Theriot Sky High on Indygo Mountain:

Jockey Jamie Theriot has already started thinking about next year's GI Kentucky Derby after guiding two-year-old Indygo Mountain (A.P. Indy) to an impressive 6 1/2-length maiden win at Churchill Downs Wednesday. Theriot was forced to miss the 🍀 "TDN Rising Stars" 🍀 second-place debut at Keeneland Oct. 15 while recovering from a spill. "I had been working him for about six months and I knew what kind of horse he was," Theriot said of the Clarence Scharbauer Jr. colorbearer. "But the day he ran over there [at Keeneland] was the day I took off for surgery. He was like 12-1 on the morning line and I knew he was live. He is the total package people are looking for. His muscle tone, his pedigree and turn of foot. If he stays sound, people will hear from him. He could easily be a Derby horse." Indygo Mountain will join conditioner Bret Calhoun's Fair Grounds string, according to assistant trainer Dennis Geier.

Texas Racing Commission Approves Retama Dates:

The Texas Racing Commission approved the request to move Sam Houston Race Park's Thoroughbred race dates to Retama Park as a result of damage suffered by the Houston race track from Hurricane Ike last month. The Texas Racing Commission held a public meeting yesterday at The Park and agreed to relocate 43 live racing dates to Retama Park in San Antonio. The remaining 12 days scheduled for Sam Houston were cancelled and will not be rescheduled. "We are extremely disappointed that we had to cancel the Thoroughbred meet at The Park this winter," said Andrea Young, Chief Operating Officer of Sam Houston Race Park. "However, we are proud of efforts made by the Texas Racing Commission, the horsemen and our counterparts at Retama to preserve wintertime racing in Texas. We plan to support Retama in any way possible." The additional racing dates will extend Retama's current meet, which opened Aug. 29, through Feb. 28, 2009, creating 78 days of live Thoroughbred racing. Hurricane Ike, which slammed into the Texas Gulf Coast Sept. 12, forced The Park to end the 2008 American Quarter Horse meet one week early and suspend simulcast operations for more than a week. The Park is expected to re-open for live racing May 1, 2009 for the 16th American Quarter Horse meet and later that weekend, will host its annual Kentucky Derby festivities. "We look forward to returning to live racing in the spring," added Young. "We will return even bigger and better."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.
