FIFTH FALLS CITY FOR BOREL

Making her stakes debut, Domino Stud homebred Miss Isella (Silver Charm) received a patented rail-skimming ride from Calvin Borel to land the GII Falls City H. yesterday at Churchill. It was Borel's fifth win in the traditional Thanksgiving feature under the Twin Spires. "I am very lucky, I guess," said the reinsman. "It's the end of the meet, and fillies always seem to come ready at the end." An optional claimer winner at Turfway three back, the grey filly came up a head short to GSW Game Face last out in similar contest Nov. 15 over a sloppy Churchill strip. "I wanted to take a shot [here]," said winning trainer Ian Wilkes. "It's a shame that Mr. [Ken] Jones [of Guam who owned Domino Stud with his wife Elaine] passed away not too long ago, and a shame that he wasn't here--he really loved this filly. That's the biggest disappointment of it all because she's just getting better and better." Miss Isella has been entered in the Keeneland January Sale, but, "whether she goes in is another thing," said Wilkes.

TRAFFIC CITATION

Whatsthescript (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}) did well to get third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Oct. 25 after breaking from post 11 and, while there are no Goldikovas or Kip Devilles in today's GI Citation H., the bay will have to work out a trip from the nine hole. Winner of the GII American H. in his first start for trainer John Sadler over this course in June, the four-year-old missed by a half-length in the GI Eddie Read H. in July before closing stoutly to take the GII Del Mar Mile the following month. Hyperbaric (Sky Classic) rebounded from a third in the American to rattle off three straight wins, capped by the GII Oak Tree Mile Sept. 28. The bay skipped the Breeders' Cup Mile. "[It] was too close," explained trainer Julio Canani. "You can't keep dancing and doing well. You can't be greedy." Cont. p2

CARE TO COMMENT?

Commentator (Distorted Humor), proud possessor of the best Beyer Speed Figures both up to and over a mile--119 and 120, respectively--looks to cap his 2008 campaign as the 124-pound highweight in the GII Clark H. today at Churchill Downs. The seven-year-old has not faced the starter since a 14-length romp in the MassCap Sept. 20 at Suffolk Downs, but posted a sharp breeze under the Twin Spires last week, and will break alongside stablemate Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop). Magna Graduate (Honor Grades), the 2005 Clark hero when trained by Todd Pletcher, will make his 35th and final career start today. Turned over to Steve Asmussen this year, the six-year-old comes into the Clark off an impressive score in the one-mile GIII Ack Ack H. over this surface Oct. 26. Clark field p2

Oct. 19 at Belmont. "Both are coming up to the race in great shape," said assistant trainer Buzz Tenney. "Altesse's last two races were as good as any of her career, and Boca Grande is doing well. I'm expecting good efforts from both of them." Live Oak homebred Slewfoundmoney steps up in class after a pair of Calder romps, including a 6 1/4-length triumph in the Hollywood S. The homebred is the second foal from turf champion Golden Apples (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who was acquired by Shadwell for $3.4 million at KEENOV in 2003. She will bid to provide some solace following the recent death of stablemate Shakis (Ire). Eloquently gets Lasix for her U.S. and turf debut. December Sale
 Foal Sale

TATTS TRADE PICKS UP There were three six-figure lots as trade stepped up a gear at yesterday's third foal session of the Tattersalls December Sale in Newmarket headed by hip 990, a 180,000gns Galileo (Ire) colt bought by pinhooker Timmy Hyde of Camas Park Stud in Co Tipperary. Hyde outbid Paddy Twomey for the colt, who was bred by Brian Hammond's Ashley House Stud, and sold from Trickle-down Stud. "He was a grand horse and a good mover, and there's a fair chance he'll be resold next year; he'll probably come back here," said Hyde. "His sire has been flying ever since he started--he gets every sort of winner and really has taken over from the boss man [Sadler's Wells]." Yesterday's figures were again well short of their 2007 equivalents. The 3,381,100gns aggregate was down by 43 percent, the 22,244gns average by 36 percent and 13,000gns median by 41 percent. The clearance rate was 70.7 percent. Dalakahani (Ire), sire of GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Conduit (Ire), was another stallion to bring a six-figure price via hip 865, a colt bred by Frank Dunne and offered from Liam Cashman's Rathbarry Stud. Willie Browne of Meadowlands Stud outbid Ed Sackville for the colt at 115,000gns. "That was a little more than I intended to pay, but, as I've said before, I think there is more safety at the top level of the market," said Browne. "But the sire's flying, and these Dalakhanis are very hard to buy. The pedigree was quite decent, and I'd say he'll almost certainly be coming back here." Brown added, "I got 10 in Goffs last week, and also seven or eight in America. They've stayed out there and I'll probably sell more yearlings in the States next year; I just wonder if their economy might recover more quickly than ours, although I'm no economist."

Hip 831, a 110,000gns Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt, was the other to make six figures when agent Peter Doyle outbid Browne for the Shoreham Stud offering. "I've bought him for a client to resell next year. The individual is what really counts although of course it's also important that he's by a proven stallion," said Doyle. The sale continues today with a session starting at 10:30 a.m.

Honorable Mention...

Thursday's session topper heralded a brave new dawn for breeder Brian Hammond of Ashley House Stud in Devon. The Galileo colt out of the Mark of Esteem (Ire) mare Honorine, part of the Trickle-down Stud consignment, was the first youngster to be offered by Hammond's operation since a serious upgrading of his mares several years ago. The colt sold to Timmy Hyde of Camas Park Stud for 180,000gns.

Lot 990 - Galileo colt
tattersalls.com

"I got involved initially through racing syndicates then decided I wanted to breed my own," said Hammond. "I had a printing company in Exeter for 23 years and, for the last five years of that, I was running the stud alongside it. I realised when I sold the company that the mares I had then weren't good enough, so I sold them all."

A meeting with pedigree consultant Michael Youngs led to he and Hammond teaming up in order to improve the quality of stock at Ashley House Stud, which is now home to four mares.

Hammond said: "Michael is very experienced and points me in the right direction. We bought fillies from the racetrack, so it's a long procedure. This is the first sale from my upgraded mares, so I'm delighted with that. I had no yearlings to sell this year, but next year the plan is to sell three."

"I have only a little stud and that's the way it's going to stay: small," Hammond added. "But we have everything there, and this was just what we needed to give us a push. We've had another bit of luck on the racetrack this year as one of the mares has Montmartre (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the family, and she has a nice filly to sell next year."

“The way the first few days of this sale went, we were very apprehensive today, and I wouldn't have been surprised if he had made only 40 or 50,000gns, not that I would have let him go for that,” Hammond explained. “Being a small stud and running it as a business, I obviously have to have some money coming back in. I will reinvest some of it now and this will give me the option of perhaps keeping something to race myself.” One filly that has been retained already is Honorine's first foal, Early Morning Rain (Ire), an unraced two-year-old by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), who will remain in training next year. Honorine herself is currently in foal to Sing-spiel (Ire).

One of the picks of the sale, this is a February-foaled daughter of the dual listed winner and 2001 G2 Rockfel S. runner-up Lahinch (Ire). Her progeny so far include the 2007 G3 Ballyogan S. winner Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and this year's G3 Kiltiernan S. hero The Bogberry (Hawk Wing).

Another from Tom Gaffney's operation, this filly is a product of one of the world's top families, as the dam is an unraced sister to the Group 1-winning Ballydoyle duo Listen (Ire) and Sequoyah (Ire). The latter is responsible for the brilliant Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo), as well as the Classic-placed Queen Cleopatra (Ire) (Kingmambo). This is the dynasty of Luv Luv'in', which includes Dolphin Street (Fr), Saffron Walden (Fr) and Insight (Fr).

There are few opportunities to purchase a full sibling of a 1000 Guineas winner, but buyers have the chance here to snap up a sister to Natagora (Fr), who was so tough and consistent throughout her 2008 campaign following her second Group 1 win at Newmarket in May.

1220, f, Monsun (Ger)--Sweet Stream (Ity), by Shantou
Consigned by Voute Sales Ltd, agent

The sole representative of Germany's monarch Monsun in the catalogue, this March-foaled filly has the added attraction of being the first produce of the 2004 G1 Prix Vermeille and 2005 G2 Park Hill S. heroine Sweet Stream.

1269, c, Invincible Spirit (Ire)--Tropical Lady (Ire), by Sri Pekan
Consigned by Ballybin Stud

This is another first foal out of a top-class performer on the track, who was toughness personified when successful on three occasions at group level, most recently in the G2 Royal Whip S. three years ago. Further back are the high-class combination of Tropicaro (Fr), Persianlux (GB), Comic Strip and Lucayan Prince.

1274, f, Galileo (Ire)--Moon Unit (Ire), by Intikhab
Consigned by Ballybin Stud

Also from Paddy Kelly's establishment, this filly provides a potent blend of stamina and speed. She is a daughter of the 2005 G3 Greenlands S. heroine Moon Unit, one of Ireland's top sprinters of recent seasons who was also successful four times at listed level.

1288, c, Oasis Dream (GB)--House in Wood (Fr),
by Woodman

Consigned by Lewinstown Farm

House in Wood has already produced the highly talented but ill-fated Alexander Tango (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who before her untimely death captured last year's G1 Garden City S. after annexing the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial and finishing fourth in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. Under the second dam are the 1995 G2 Prix Niel winner Housamix (Fr) and 1998 G1 Vanity Invitational H. runner-up House Dancer (Fr), descendants of the champion Hippodamia.

Sidelined after an impressive triumph in last year's GI Vosburgh S., Fabulous Strike aired as the 1-20 chalk when returning at Delaware in the Vincent Moscarelli Memorial H. June 21. The Pennsylvania-bred came up a head short next out in his Vosburgh defense Sept. 27, and failed to fire over Santa Anita's Pro-Ride when fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 25. A deserving highweight here, the five-year-old jumped out in front, showed the way through a half in :44.97 and was kept busy in the lane by Ramon Dominguez, who piloted four winners on the card. "He likes the dirt track, that's for sure," said winning trainer Todd Beattie. "And he likes New York. He trained well over synthetic, but at that level [Breeders' Cup Sprint] if you take even a little off your top game, it is going to show. We'll look at the [GIII] Gravesend [H. Dec. 27] for a next start."

Facing New York-breds once again here, the dark bay raced three wide as Cagey Girl led, set her sights on that pacesetter in front of the stands and got up in time for her second straight score.

Slew's Tiznow concluded his tenure last year under Patrick Biancone with a runner-up finish in the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland. The homebred didn't run again until Aug. 29, when he posted a stylish score in Del Mar's El Cajon S. in his first try for Doug O'Neill. Ambitiously spotted last out, the sophomore gave way to 10th in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile on the Pro-Ride at Santa Anita Oct. 25, and was giving the Cushion Track a try here when rain forced the event off the turf. The dark bay tracked the leaders from the start, angled out to deliver his challenge and kicked away smartly in front of the stands. "The LaCombes and I had talked about trying the turf," said O'Neill. "When it rained and they took it off, it was a little bit of a bummer not being able to try him on the grass, because we think he's going to be a nice grass horse. We were very confident that he would enjoy the Cushion Track. Rafael rode him with so much confidence. Like Joe [LaCombe] said, he's the type of horse that's so talented that if he gets clear sailing any given day, he can jump up and run a monstrous race. He ran dynamite." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Bsharpsonata rattled off four straight stakes victories, capped by Gulfstream's GII Forward Gal S. and GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 9 and Mar. 2, respectively. Second by a neck in the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 5, the Clover Leaf homebred ran fifth in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2, then faded badly to eighth in the mud at Pimlico two weeks later in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. That turned out to be her final start for trainer Tim Salzman, and she was making her first appearance for trainer Todd Pletcher here. The bay conceded the lead early after breaking from the rail and saved ground on the turn. She came off the fence in midstretch and shifted gears smartly to claim her sixth stakes success. "She's a talented filly and she's run with some real quality fillies," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "She did everything handily, and I was quite impressed. She was traveling well the whole time and, when I split horses, I thought I was really going to have to get after her to do it, but as soon as she saw daylight she just cut."
