NO CURLIN, NO PROBLEM FOR EINSTEIN

The last time Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) set foot on the main track, he ran into a buzz saw named Curlin (Smart Strike) and had to settle for second in the GI Stephen Foster H. at this track in June. But with the reigning Horse of the Year staying in the barn as he prepares for his stud career, the Brazilian-bred, already a three-time Grade I winner on the turf, stalked favored Commentator (Distorted Humor) throughout, engaged that rival in the stretch and went on to an ultimately comfortable 1 1/2-length victory for a valuable first graded success on the dirt. Trainer Helen Pitts sent out Curlin to his maiden victory back in 2007, but could not have been happier with the performance of her current stable star. "To be able to win a stake like that means the world to me but to get a graded stake on the dirt for him is super," she said. "It was kind of my main objective coming in here. But to win a graded stake on the dirt for him, he deserves it more than anybody out there because I've never had a horse that loves his job and loves to train and loves to run as much as he does." Cont. p2

SWEET STREAM'S FIRST FOAL TOPS TATDEC

A Monsun (Ger) filly out of G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sweet Stream (Ity) (Shantou) topped trading yesterday at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, selling for 440,000gns to agent John Ferguson. "She was a standout this week," Ferguson said of lot 1220. "She was by a great sire out of a top race mare and was a great individual as well. She'll go to Ireland now and we'll decide where she goes into training next year. We're delighted to have her, not only for her potential on the racetrack but also because she should have value for years to come." Eddie O'Leary of Lynn Lodge Stud was underbidder on the filly, who was consigned by Voute Sales for agent Charlie Gordon-Watson. Sweet Stream was bought for 1.1 million gns by Gordon-Watson for client Michael Baker at last year's December Sale, but he did not pay for his purchase. Baker was jailed for three years in September for fraud. "This is a legacy from the unfortunate thing and I can tell you that being a vendor is a lot more stressful than buying," said Gordon-Watson.

Einstein has had his fair share of success beneath the Twin Spires, including his victory in this year's GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, but few remember that Sunday afternoon in November 2005 when the striking dark bay broke his maiden by 5 3/4 lengths over a sloppy Churchill strip. Winner of the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S. in 2006, the GII Muniz Memorial H. in 2007 and the GI Gulfstream Park Turf this season, Einstein followed his runner-up effort to Curlin with another behind Thorn Song (Unbridled's Song) when returned to the infield for the GII Firecracker H. July 4. The veteran was making his first start since finishing fifth, beaten just three lengths, in a pacesetter renewal of the GI Arlington Million in Chicago Aug. 9. Commentator, favored at 2-5, broke running and was allowed to do what he does best, cutting out even fractions of :24.57 and :48.58 while closely monitored by the record-setting Julien Leparoux atop Einstein, the clear second choice. Carrying owner Tracy Farmer's black and white silks, Commentator felt a crack of jockey John Velazquez's right-handed stick, but Einstein ran right on by and held off the onrushing Delightful Kiss (Kissin Kris) for the win. Velazquez said the beaten favorite might have had an excuse. "He struggled with the track," he commented. "He was good the first part of the race, but he got to the half-mile pole and I tried to encourage him, but it seemed like he was skipping--he was slipping and sliding a little bit. That's the first time he ever felt that he was not getting hold of the track, and he's been everywhere. But today he just struggled with it."

One of the top gate riders on the circuit, Tyler Baze guided Mast Track to a front-running victory in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup in June and he was back to his crafty best yesterday, stealing the Citation H. with Hyperbaric. Horse and jockey teamed for a near-miss second in the GII Arcadia H. Apr. 5, but Rafael Bejarano was aboard when the gelding was third in the GI Shoemaker Mile May 26. Garrett Gomez linked up with Hyperbaric for his four most recent efforts, a streak beginning with a third to Whatsthescript (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}) in the GII American H. at this oval June 28. The bay bounced back to win a July 28 optional tagger and the H. F. Brubaker H. Aug. 20 at Del Mar and was last seen taking the GII Oak Tree Mile by a neck Sept. 28. Hyperbaric was freshened for this instead of squeezing the lemon dry in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile and the decision was richly rewarded. With Gomez opting for GI Breeders' Cup Mile third-place finisher Whatsthescript, Baze jumped back aboard, gunned Hyperbaric away from the inside stall and carved out an opening quarter-mile in a moderate :24.08 and a half in an equally ordinary :48.56 while chased by GIII Knickerbocker H. hero Formal Decree. Still clear into the stretch, he was asked for a sprint and covered his final 5/16ths of a mile in a lightning-quick :28.66 for his first Grade I victory.

A trip to the breeding shed might be on hold for Leah's Secret, who continued in the best form of her career by taking the post-Thanksgiving feature at Aqueduct. "I'm pretty sure she has a date with Distorted Humor, but she is eligible for the Sunshine Millions," said trainer Todd Pletcher, referring to the valuable restricted races Jan. 24. "She is in such good form now, that I might ask WinStar for one more race." Winner of the GIII Chicago H. in June, the dark bay was overmatched when fourth in the GI Ballerina S. Aug. 24 and in the GI Beldame S. Sept. 27, but bounced back with a 1/2-length score in the GI Chilukki S. at Churchill Nov. 2. A bit slow into stride, Leah's Secret raced on the fence behind the pacesetters, then was deftly eased out into the three path at the three-eighths pole. She took aim on Slewfoundmoney in upper stretch and that foe proved difficult to go by, but was gradually worn down late. Also Ran: Emmy Darling, Dreamalong, Atka, Pretty Katherine, Kinesiology, Century Park, Platinum Stiletto, Ms. Lively, Grace Gryder.

Habaya, the first foal to race out of champion Golden Apples, provided her connections with a bit of solace following the untimely passing of turf star Shakis (Ire) last week. Despite regal breeding to handle this or any surface, Habaya was sent off at debut odds of 9-1 in a seven-furlong maiden at Belmont Sept. 25 and was up to register a half-length success. Returned on just two weeks' rest, the homebred tried two turns in Keeneland's Jessamine S. Oct. 9 and was shuffled back at the midway point before coming on for second. Settled in centerfield beneath Richard Migliore, Habaya advanced on the turn, was three deep into the stretch and held on under some urging. We're going to space out her races a little bit, look after her, and have big goals in mind next summer like the [GI] American Oaks," said assistant trainer Neal McLaughlin. "I really feel like she is a filly that wants to go a mile and one-quarter." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The sophomore class has dominated the last two runnings of this final New York Grade I event on the calendar, including Daaher's upset over subsequent champion Midnight Lute last year and Discreet Cat's powerhouse victory in 2006. No fewer than five three-year-olds take their place against four of their elders,

Kodiak Kowboy Adam Coglianes

with Kodiak Kowboy a slight favorite in what figures an open betting affair. Canada's champion juvenile of 2007, the bay, owned by Vinery and Rick Porter's Fox Hill Farm has had a solid season, with scores in Saratoga's GII Amsterdam S. in July and a success versus older rivals in Belmont's GIII Sport Page H. Oct. 25. He gets an extra furlong this afternoon as he goes in search of his first Grade I tally. Tale of Ekati is proven not only at today's trip, but also at this track. The Charles Fipke runner upset champion War Pass to win the G1 Wood Memorial S. at the Big A and comes into the Cigar off a one-length victory in the one-mile GII Jerome H. at Belmont Oct. 5, where he had Harlem Rocker, winner of the GIII Withers S. over course and distance Apr. 26, a little more than four lengths back in third. Jockey Garrett Gomez took back-to-back renewals with Purge in 2005 before taking the ride on Discreet Cat and he looks to hold a strong hand, as he picks up the mount on Jay Em Ess Stable's Arson Squad. Victorious in the GII Strub S. in February 2007, with Gomez in the irons, the dark bay was off the board in seven consecutive appearances on the synthetic surfaces of the Southern California circuit over the next 18 months. Wisely moved to the East Coast for his most recent appearance, Arson Squad came from next to last to win the Oct. 3 GII Meadowlands Cup H. going away. He need only prove effective at this one-turn mile to be right there on the wire.

dom Bound (Tapit) in third. The chestnut filly took the Oct. 4 GI Frizette S. in her BC prep, and looms the class of the field here. She was purchased by Jeff Puglisi for $250,000 as a FTFFEB juvenile. "She was the only one we got out of that sale, and she turned out to be the right one," said trainer Steve Klesaris. "In addition to meeting all our criteria, she had a great presence. She's a big, sizeable filly with quite a bit of length. I saw a lot of [maternal grandsire] Unbridled in her."

Canadian shipper Springside showed little in her July 19 debut on the Woodbine Poly, then came back to be off the board on the grass Sept. 19. The $335,000 KEESEP yearling turned it around Oct. 2, breaking her maiden by a length on the synthetic surface. Stretched out to two turns for the first time in a Nov. 6 allowance, the Sapara colorbearer showed her appreciation for the extra ground with a 10-length romp. She gets Garrett Gomez in the irons today. Ain't Love Grand, a $535,000 KEESEP acquisition for Jay Em Ess Stable, steps up off an 11-length triumph in an off-the-turf maiden going seven panels at Belmont Oct. 5.

Old Fashioned was under the radar when he broke his maiden by a nose at Delaware Park Oct. 6, but earned the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ honors with his 15 1/2-length allowance win going a mile at that track Nov. 3. The Fox Hill Farm colt was an $800,000 KEESEP purchase. "When we did stretch him out--which we felt he definitely wanted to do--he did that the right way," trainer Larry Jones told Daily Racing Form. "When we asked him to run, he just ran away from them the way Eight Belles used to when she was coming up." Edward Evans homebred American Dance, a half to the ill-fated Horse of the Year Saint Liam (Saint Ballado), was a game half-length winner in his second start, a one-turn mile test at the Big A. Nov. 5. Trainer Todd Pletcher also saddles Idol Maker, a $310,000 KEESEP yearling who scored at first asking at Belmont Oct. 19. "They're light on experience going into a race like this, but there's not a lot of allowance opportunity, especially at this distance," said Pletcher. "We're stepping out a bit in jumping out of conditions, but I think both will improve as they stretch out in distance."

Dream Empress, second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 24, will make her first start on traditional dirt when she heads to post for the Golden Rod S. The bay made her first two starts on turf and prevailed by a nose in a Saratoga maiden Aug. 22. Her next two starts came over all-weather surfaces as she was a 4 1/4-length winner of the GI Alcibiades S. at Keeneland Oct. 3 before she chased home Stardom Bound (Tapit) in the Breeders' Cup most recently. Sara Louise, who sold for $550,000 at FTFFEB this year, pounced while racing five wide to win the GIII Pocahontas S. over this course Nov. 1 in her stakes debut. The Golden Rod will be her first start around two turns. That also goes for Rachel Alexandra, who has finished second in her two previous efforts at Churchill Downs. In June, Rachel Alexandra closed to be runner-up in the GIII Debutante S., then pulled away to a three-length score in a Keeneland allowance Oct. 17. Rachel Alexandra, from the first crop of Medaglia d'Oro, pressed the pace in the Pocahontas before Sara Louise swooped by at the top of the stretch, but battled willingly after clearing traffic and was forced to settle for the place spot.

Jazzandthemagician and Brother Keith, both first-out graduates by freshman sires, will tackle winners for the first time in the Kentucky Jockey Club S. Zayat Stables' Jazzandthemagician posted a 3 1/4-length success in his Nov. 1 debut going six furlongs at Churchill. The dark bay was sharp from the gate and dueled for the lead before he kicked clear in the stretch. Similarly, Brother Keith demonstrated good early speed in his bow before he drove away to a 2 1/4-length victory in a 6 1/2-furlong maiden Nov. 8, also at Churchill. Owned by Ken and Sarah Ramsey, Brother Keith worked five furlongs in :59 4/5 over Keeneland's Polytrack Nov. 8 in preparation for this. ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Capt. Candyman Can, also a representative of his sire's first crop, has already proven his worth against stakes competition as he was a three-length victor of the GIII Iroquois S. at this venue Nov 1. The bay gelding also has ample early speed, which could create a hot pace. Big Surf, out of the 2000 champion three-year-old filly Surfside, could be the beneficiary, as he closed four wide to break his maiden at Churchill in his second start Nov 12.

The lone graded winner in this octet, Joe Iracane and Jim Scatuorchio's Bittel Road closed with a rush to win the GIII Bourbon S. at Keeneland Oct. 5, earning his spot in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Oct. 25. Drawn in the 11 hole, the dark bay was forced into a more forward trip than is his custom and was in contention to the eighth pole before weakening to finish eighth. He looms the one to beat from a much more favorable draw, despite spotting his rivals from five to seven pounds. A mere $2,000 Keeneland September purchase, Bourbon Bay was runner-up in the grassy Cradle S. in Cincinnati before being purchased by David and Jill Heerensperger. Favored in a Nov. 6 optional claimer at Hollywood, he had over five lengths to make up into the final furlong and nearly got the job done, dead-heating for second while missing by a head for the victory.

Though Roshani (Fantastic Light) didn't win a Breeders' Cup event, what she did accomplish on Ladies' Day at Santa Anita was just about as good. Well, not quite, but in a business where timing is everything, the five-year-old's game success in the Oct. 24 GII Las Palmas H. that Friday afternoon came just 11 days before then owner Ben McElroy was to part company at Keeneland's November sale. He bought the daughter of Sahibah (Deputy Minister) for $135,000 out of that auction house's January sale in 2007. She endured a tough trip in the Las Palmas, but ultimately found the line a half-length to the good, and, consigned as hip 469, was purchased for $950,000 by Reynolds Bell, agent for Richard Santulli's Jayeff B Stables. Roshani remains under the care of trainer Todd Pletcher for the Matriarch. The reigning Eclipse Award-winning conditioner will look to improve on his runner-up effort in last year's event with the now-retired Wait a While (Maria's Mon).

"But this is a big improvement in the general situation," Gordon-Watson continued. "As a result of everything I now own this filly's dam Sweet Stream outright. This was a very good first foal and the mare is now in foal to Galileo (Ire). She was in the sale next week but I have taken her out, partly on the strength of the first foal and also due to the fact that it is better to keep her in this diamond market. I tried to be realistic and would have been happy with 200,000gns; I'm so grateful to everybody who bid for her and to Ted Voute for doing such a good job preparing her." The filly was officially bred by Tattersalls, who had legal ownership of the mare while discussions between parties continued.

2006 G1 St Leger second-place finisher The Last Drop (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), went to Eugene McDermott of Kennycourt Stud for 200,000gns. Anthony Stroud was the underbidder. Bred by Sunderland Holdings and consigned from Brian and Sheila Grassick's Newtown Stud, his yearling full-brother was bought for 460,000gns by owner Sir Robert Ogden at Tattersalls in October. "The plan is to resell him back here in Book 1 of the October Sale next year; we got away well with selling the Galileos this year," said McDermott. "The plan is to try and compete at the top end and I got one foal at Goffs last week and this is the fourth I've bought this week so far." Figures were again well short of their 2007 equivalents. The 6,414,600gns turnover dropped by 48 percent, the 50,910gns average by 28 percent and the 35,000gns median by 31 percent. The clearance rate was 69 percent. Another Kodak Moment for What a Picture...

It's been 18 years since Joerg and Diana Vasicek left their native Switzerland after buying a rundown farm in the heart of Coolmore country near Clonmel in Co Tipperary. "We went there for the hunting when we were young and used to go back every winter and one day saw this delightful farm for sale, so bought it," Joerg Vasicek said. "We didn't know what to do to start with. We began with National Hunt store horses and later on got mares." That farm--later named Kenilworth House Stud--now houses a 12-strong broodmare band, both Flat and National Hunt. Among them is the seven-year-old mare What A Picture (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), who was bought as a yearling at Deauville as a long-term breeding prospect and went into training in France with Francois Doumen. Although unplaced in four starts with Doumen, she is proving a bright broodmare prospect. Her Marju (Ire) colt foal was sold for 85,000gns to Willie Browne last year (before being resold for 170,000gns to Shadwell last month) while yesterday her 2008 Dalakhani (Ire) colt foal--hip 1127--was bought by John Ferguson for 170,000gns. "Our hopes rose on Thursday and on Friday morning; there were vets around the whole time and a lot of the big people were there so we hoped he might make 100,000gns, but you never really know," he added. "Apparently the foal might go into training with Andre Fabre eventually and something like that is always important to the breeder owning the mare. It is always encouraging. We sell them mainly as foals; we'd maybe offer them as yearlings if they were a bit backward, such as the Peintre Celebre filly we bought back for 10,000gns [Thursday]."

Full to Cockney Rebel to Bobby O’Ryan...

Lot 1241, an eight-month-old Val Royal (Fr) colt, is set to race in the same colours as his full-sibling--2007 G1 English and G1 Irish 2,000 Guineas hero Cockney Rebel (Ire) (Val Royal)--after selling for 37,000gns to agent Bobby O’Ryan. Cockney Rebel had cost 15,000gns as a foal when bought by a Trickledown Stud pinhooking partnership, including racing journalist Carl Evans. He was resold as a yearling at Doncaster for 30,000gns to O’Ryan, acting for Essex-based owner Phil Cunningham. “He was a brilliant walker and will strengthen up a lot,” said O’Ryan, who is based at Kirriemuir Stud in Ireland’s County Kildare. “He was very like Cockney Rebel and has been bought for Phil [Cunningham].” Cockney Rebel’s trainer Geoff Huffer has now retired and O’Ryan added, “He’s coming back to my place now and then will be broken in next September or October. We can decide on a trainer then.”

It’s Good to Be the Queen...

A family with regal connections has proved a lucky one for Heather Raw’s Shoreham Stud and its good run continued on Thursday when hip 831, the first foal of Starlit Sky (GB) by the exciting young sire Invincible Spirit, made the third highest price of the session, selling for 110,000gns to Peter Doyle.

The trio of foals consigned by the Sussex-based stud on the third day of Tattersalls December Foal Sale also included a King’s Best filly out of Starlit Sky (GB)’s half-sister Success Story (GB) and a Cape Cross (Ire) colt from Tarneem, who fetched 25,000gns.

“Success Story and Starlit Sky were both bred by the Queen,” explained Raw. “I bought the unraced Starlit Sky here two years ago [for 50,000gns] and put her in foal to Invincible Spirit and this is the result.

“In this climate it’s an unbelievable result so I’m thrilled to bits but he was an exceptional colt. I just hope he goes on and does well for the people who bought him.”

The February-foaled colt had a long queue of visitors the day before he sold and rarely returned to his box throughout a hectic viewing session.

“He was exhausted but he has a lovely temperament and I’m sure with a temperament like that he’ll go on and do well,” said Raw, who sells most of her homebreds as foals but retains the odd filly to race. Starlit Sky and Success Story are daughters of the Teenoso mare Starlet (GB), whose seven victories include the G2 Team Trophy der Volksbanken und Raffeisenbanken at Frankfurt, and was trained by Lord Huntingdon for the Queen. Success Story, a dual winner, was bought by Raw at the 1999 December Sale for 32,000gns and has been rested this year but is set to visit Invincible Spirit in 2009. Her listed-winning daughter Film Script (GB) produced this year’s Chesham S. winner in the royal colours, Free Agent.

Raw continued: "It's a family I really like and Success Story has been so lucky for me--for us a small stud she really has been a success story. Her filly today sold for 15,000gns, which isn't a huge amount but I already have a daughter at home by Unfuwain, who is a full-sister to Film Script, and the filly has been bought by a very good friend of mine, Joe Foley of Ballyhane Stud. It's so lovely that the family is still doing so well for the Queen."

Raw describes her select broodmare band as containing some "old pensioners" and says that the dual spectres of overproduction and a gloomy economical outlook have caused her to approach her matings with caution.

"I have seven foals due next year and we'll probably cover about the same amount of mares from almost double that number," she said. "We're just not covering everything in this climate. We rested four last year but we're looking forward to Starlit Sky's next foal by Cape Cross. We switched her with Tarneem this year and Tarneem is in foal to Invincible Spirit."

Crate's Alhufoof a One-Ring Circus...

Shadwell's decision to sell Alhufoof (Dayjur) in the year that the subsequent G3 Molecomb S. winner and G1 Dewhurst S. third Finjaan (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) was foaled may appear rash in hindsight, but it has been to the benefit of her new owner Peter Crate, for whom she is the sole broodmare.

"I race horses and I have a share in Piccolo, so I bought the mare purely to go to Piccolo to breed my own racehorses," says Crate, who purchased Alhufoof for 24,000gns at the December Sale in 2006 and keeps her at his home near Epsom in Surrey. He added: "Watching Finjaan this year was almost more exciting than racing the horses myself."

Despite initially having planned to keep the Piccolo colt foal, Crate was persuaded to enter him for the sale, where he was consigned as hip 796 by Lavington Stud and knocked down to David McGreavy Bloodstock for 15,000gns Thursday.

"With Finjaan doing so well, Lavington Stud kept saying that this colt should go to the sales," said Crate who has sent her Dubai Destination yearling to trainer Brett Johnson in Epsom. "I'm a bit disappointed to sell him in a way but I have his yearling half-sister in training now and she's really nice and the mare is in foal to Piccolo again but I think she'll go to (Finjaan's sire) Royal Applause next year."

He continued, "The mare was bought in foal to Dubai Destination with the intention of selling the Dubai Destination and keeping the Piccolos to race but the filly didn't sell at the yearling sales. She's now cantering and going really well and we're getting really excited about her."

Flushed with Finjaan's success, Crate hopes to double his broodmare band with a return trip to Newmarket for the mares' sale.

He said: "We'll be coming up again next week and the way the market is I'll try to buy another mare. This foal didn't make the kind of money I'd have liked him to make but I'm happy enough with it and you can't keep them all."

Going Back to the Well...

Five years since a young Mull Of Kintyre colt made 48,000gns when bought by Paul Shanahan as a foal at Tattersalls, agent Tony Nerses was hoping history might repeat itself Wednesday. That colt--who was bought the following year by Nerses for 150,000gns -- was named Araafa (Ire) and went on to win the G1 St James's Palace S. and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas for owners Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar before being sold to stand as a stallion at Plantation Stud. Nerses paid 70,000gns for a first-crop Araafa colt bred and consigned by John Fagan's Deerpark Stud as a racing prospect to run in the colours of his illustrious sire. "I hope he achieves half what his dad did--that would be great," Nerses said of hip 930 after outbidding Kingwood Stud's Fiona Marner for the April-born colt, whose dam Frond (GB) (Alzao), has produced seven winners from seven runners so far, including this year's G3 Oh So Sharp S. third Nashmiah (Ire) (Elusive City). "I just thought he was a lovely foal, that was the reason we wanted him rather than just our connection with his father," he added. "He'll go to Ted Voute's farm now before he eventually goes into training." James Rowley, stud groom at Plantation Stud, was underbidder on another Araafa--a 52,000gns colt sold from Trickledown Stud to Yeomanstown Stud. Rowley was bidding in partnership with Carmel Stud and Noel Quinlan to try and pinhook the colt.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FALLON TO RETURN IN SEPTEMBER Kieren Fallon will be free to return to the saddle in September following a declaration by the British Horseracing Authority that he will not face charges of corruption. Currently sidelined by a suspension imposed by France Galop after testing positive for cocaine last summer, the former Coolmore-retained rider has been cleared by the BHA after their investigation into a series of races from 2003-04. BHA Public Relations Manager Paul Struthers said yesterday, "Kieren Fallon will not face any charges in relation to matters directly related to the [Old Bailey] trial." In a statement, the ruling body said Fallon "accepted that his attitude to inside information has in the past been reckless, conceding that he has been too free with such information and careless about whom he passed it to" and that he has committed "to accept a rigorous regime to ensure he is and remains both drug-free, and compliant with Rules of Racing regarding the use of inside information." Fallon, along with fellow jockeys Fergal Lynch and Darren Williams, were cleared of race-fixing charges after the well-documented and high-profile trial at the Old Bailey collapsed last December.

Classic Campaign took the Gill Robert F. Carey Memorial H. at Hawthorne 14 months ago, but had been winless since. Beaten a neck when second Apr. 10 in a Keeneland allowance in his second start of the year, the gelding lost his rider when tangled up in a spill in Monmouth's May 24 Elkwood S., but recovered to be fourth in the Scottish Monk S. at Belmont June 14. He was third in the July 12 Bob Harding S. on the Jersey Shore, then ran a close-up sixth in an optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 28 and again in a Keeneland allowance Oct. 22. The longest shot on the board in this four-horse field, Classic Campaign trailed early, but closed while saving ground on the turn and rallied outside of Wise River down the lane, edging clear late.

Bullsbay started the season in Southern California with trainer Eric Kruljac, breaking his maiden at Santa Anita in February. Second in allowance company in Arcadia Mar. 14 and, after a vacation, at Hollywood June 28, the bay annexed his entry-level condition at Del Mar July 17. He capped off his West Coast campaign with a fourth in the Sept. 3 Pirate's Bounty H., then headed east to join the Graham Motion stable. A troubled third in a Keeneland allowance in his first outing under new management Oct. 12, Bullsbay captured a Churchill allowance on Halloween and was favored to make it two in a row. He pressed GI Belmont S. hero Da' Tara through six furlongs in 1:12.59, swept to the lead as they came out of the turn and drew clear. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

11:30a HRTV 1st-CDX, $44K, Alw, 2yo, f, 1m
A.P. Elegance (A.P. Indy) was a non-threatening eighth in her debut sprinting at Saratoga Aug. 24, but rebounded to post an emphatic score in her most recent start going 6 1/2 furlongs over this track Nov. 9. Trained by Steve Asmussen, the $675,000 KEESEP yearling runs for The Robert and Beverly Lewis Trust. Ken McPeck, who is winning at a 28-percent clip these days, sends Passion Du Coeur (Distorted Humor) for Lansdon Robbins III and Equilete Stables. Third while trying six furlongs on Keeneland's Polytrack Oct. 10, the $300,000 FTKJUL yearling was a solid winner in her latest when stretched to seven panels over the main track here Oct. 29.

12:58p HRTV 4th-CDX, $42K, Msw, 2yo, 7f
JUSTIN (Speightstown), a $700,000 KEESEP purchase, debuts for Zayat Stables. Out of GISP Love at Noon (Afternoon Deelites), the dark bay is trained by Steve Asmussen. Greg Foley saddles the Tim Thornton and Meg Buckley homebred Better Than Gold (Medaglia d'Oro). A half brother to GSW Inspiring (Golden Missile), the son of Arches of Gold—who is a GSW and GISP--has been training solidly of late. Obligingly (Officer), a $300,000 FTFEB juvenile, finished seventh after a troubled start in his bow going a furlong shorter at Keeneland Oct. 24, and makes his dirt debut here.

1:50p HRTV/G 4th-AQU, $43K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f
HEADACHE (Tapit), fifth in the slop in his bow here Nov. 8, will try and do better on a fast track this time. Sent postward by trainer Nick Zito, the Ken and Sarah Ramsey colt posted a sharp four-furlong work at Belmont in :48 1/5 Nov. 19. Quality Road (Elusive Quality) gets his start for Jimmy Jerkens, who is winning with 46 percent at the current meet. The Edward Evans homebred has been posting sharp numbers in the mornings of late, including a three-furlong move in :36 1/5 at Belmont Nov. 27. On the also-eligible list for the same connections is Marital Court (Vindication). Out of Marital Spook, dam of GSW Yonaguska (Cherokee Run) and GSW Halo Homewrecker (Southern Halo), the dark bay was a $325,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase.

3:58p HRTV CARESSING H. ($56K, 2yo, f, 1mT)
SUGAR MOM (Monarchos), winner of the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies on Turfway's Polytrack Sept. 27, offered little and had to settle for seventh most recently in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita Oct. 24. She makes her dirt bow here for owner Frank Calabrese and trainer Wayne Catalano. Devil By Design (Medaglia d'Oro) graduated at first asking while trying six panels over the Keeneland Poly Oct. 25, and sports a pair of impressive recent works, including a five-furlong move over that surface in :59 3/5 Oct. 18.

She dropped back to a sprint for an optional claimer in New Orleans Mar. 14, running third, then went to the bench. Making her return as the 5-2 second choice, the dark bay went right to the front over the sloppy surface and opened it up late to take it by a handy 5 3/4 lengths. Ford Gallop (Victory Gallop), the slight choice, was along for second. The winner is a 1/2 to Cuvee (Carson City), GISW, $402,043; and Will He Shine (Silver Deputy), GSW, $346,041. Leparoux Breaks Day's Fall Meet Record:
Jockey Julien Leparoux picked up his 56th winner of the Churchill Fall Meet on Friday to pass Pat Day's previous mark, which the Hall of Fame rider set in 1985. "This has been a kind of a chain [reaction]," Leparoux explained. "I rode for Mike Maker [who broke the Fall Meet's record for wins by a trainer] and Ken [and Sarah] Ramsey [who set a new mark for wins by an owner]." Through Friday's card, Leparoux has ridden all but one of Maker's 29 winners, and has accounted for 22 Ramseys' 24 victories. Leparoux, a 25-year-old native of Senlis, France, has captured three riding titles at Churchill Downs and won five races on yesterday's card, including the Gil Clark H. aboard Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck).

It was her closest call to date, but Dana My Love ran her record to a perfect eight-for-eight with this game tally. The chestnut captured her first five starts by an average of 5 1/4 lengths, then made it six in a row with a half-length victory in a stakes test Sept. 7. Off at 1-10 in her latest Nov. 9, she once again scored by a half, and the crowd sent her off the odds-on chalk to remain unbeaten here. Dana My Love went right to the front, opened up daylight at midstretch and held off Wonder Girl to the wire.

RTCA Hires Directors of Operations & Fundraising:

Race Track Chaplaincy of America officials announced yesterday that, as part of the basic restructuring of the organization, they have hired Rev. Ron Fraker as director of operations and John Roark as director of fundraising. "John Roark comes to us with a tremendous knowledge of the horse industry and is willing to help RTCA move to the next level," said Dr. Enrique Torres, RTCA's executive director. "The decision to hire these two leaders is part of the RTCA Executive Committee's restructuring plan to bring aboard an experienced operations manager and a well recognized fundraiser." Fraker, a Foursquare minister for 21 years, was a professor at Life Pacific College for five years before taking up service as a police detective for 10 years. He also served as president of RTCA Division of Southern California and as the vice president of RTCA National. Roark, a trial lawyer, is one of the founding members of the Texas Thoroughbred Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and was chairman of the Texas Horseman's Partnership and president and chairman of the board of the National HBPA. In addition, Roark served as general counsel to the RTCA and was on the board of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association where he served as co-chairman of NTRA charities.
