'COCOA' ASKS, WHO'S YOUR MOMMY?

Up against a slow pace and a defending champion with plenty of class, Godolphin's Cocoa Beach (Chi) (Doneraile Court) showed that she is indeed the second-best distaffer in the country with an impressive victory in Sunday's GI Matriarch H. at Hollywood Park. Runner-up to divisional leader Zenyatta in the GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic, Cocoa Beach was the 9-5 favorite in the Matriarch and looked the part, rallying from the back of the pack to defeat last year's winner Precious Kitten (Catienus). Cont. p2

VISION QUEST

About 40 minutes after booting home Cocoa Beach (Chi) in Hollywood Park's Matriarch, visiting jockey Ramon Dominguez captured his second Grade I on the afternoon aboard IEAH Stables and WinStar Farm's Court Vision (Gulch), who rallied from well back to post an impressive victory in the GI Hollywood Derby. "I was concentrating on getting my horse to relax," Dominguez said after the second victory. "I really didn't want to be that far back. Ideally I would have been laying a little closer, but at the same time he was carrying himself well." SCREEN HERO SPRINGS UPSET IN JAPAN CUP

The four-year-old Screen Hero (Jpn) (Grass Wonder) sprang a huge 40-1 upset in yesterday's G1 Japan Cup in front of 100,000-strong crowd in Tokyo. The colt notched his first Group 1 win at the expense of runner-up and this year's Japanese Derby hero Deep Sky (Jpn) (Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}), with the popular filly Vodka (Jpn) (Tanino Gimlet {Jpn}) back in third. Cont. p3

GRADE 1 MATRIARCH S.

Life's a Beach...

A treble Group 3 winner in her native Chile, Cocoa Beach won a pair of listed events in Dubai earlier this year before finishing a well-beaten third facing males in the G2 UAE Derby in March. Off for five months after that, she showed up in the States at Saratoga in August and looked like the real thing taking the Love Sign S. by five lengths under Ramon Dominguez. Cocoa Beach subsequently defeated last year's champion older female Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) in the G1 Beldame S. at Belmont Sept. 27 before a dead-game try facing Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) in the Ladies' Classic Oct. 25. Breaking widest of all in the Matriarch, she had only one beaten going into the first turn as Precious Kitten doled out modest fractions of :25 3/5, :49 and 1:12. The latter kicked on for home and opened a clear lead while looking to become Bobby Frankel's fifth straight Matriarch winner, but Cocoa Beach uncorked a dazzling rallying in the final eighth and was up in plenty of time.

"My main focus at first was to not lose too much ground," explained Dominguez. "But then I knew I had so much horse under me that I wasn't even worried about saving ground and just wanted to be able to get out when I wanted to. They weren't going that fast up front, but my filly has quite a turn of foot."

Dominguez, who won two Grade 1's yesterday, and Cocoa Beach
Benoit photo

The winning trainer, Saeed bin Suroor, was on hand to watch the race. "I know there was a question mark about the distance early," he admitted. "I think nine furlongs is the best distance for her. This filly always has a good turn of foot and plenty of speed. When I saw her coming from the corner, the last furlong and one-half, I thought she was going to win. The jockey had a brilliant ride and I'm happy with the way he rode her." Bin Suroor said there were no immediate plans for Cocoa Beach. "We're going to give her a break and she will stay here in the U.S.," he said. "We'll bring her back next year."

Though Bobby Frankel was denied yet another Matriarch, he was nonetheless represented by two-three finishers in Precious Kitten and Visit. "It was not her best race, to have her on the lead," Frankel said of the former, while of the rallying Visit he added, "She ran a great race." Winner of last year's GII Remsen S. and GIII Iroquois S. on dirt, Court Vision established himself as a versatile performer this term, running third in the GII Fountain of Youth S. and GI Wood Memorial S. on the main track and running second, beaten just a nose by Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat), in the grassy GII Virginia Derby this summer. Court Vision didn't register a win on the spinach until his most recent, though, when he bested Gio Ponti by 3/4 lengths in the GII Jamaica H. at Belmont Oct. 4. Making the cross-country trip here, he caboosed the field some seven lengths off the leading splits of :25, :49 2/5 and 1:13 2/5, but came with an eye-catching run down the center of the course. "Looking back, if I knew they were going that slow I would have been very worried," admitted Dominguez. "[But] once I got him going at the quarter pole, I thought I had just as good a chance as anybody."

- Screen Hero partnered with Italian jockey Mirco Demuro to upset the Japan Cup in the colt's fifth start this year. Previously off for 11 months with a leg injury, Screen Hero captured the Listed Copa Republica Argentina Nov. 9 in his most recent. After breaking alertly, the four-year-old settled into a stalking position before Demuro steered him to the outside at the top of the stretch. Screen Hero responded emphatically to take the lead approaching the 100-meter pole and held off the late charge of this year's Japanese Derby winner Deep Sky. "I had always thought that Screen Hero was a gifted horse ever since he was trained by Mr. Susumu Yano, [who handed] him down to me upon his retirement," said winning trainer Yuichi Shikato. "Screen Hero was handed to me coming off a recovery from a bone fracture, and the colt made a speedy progress from an allowance-race horse to a graded-race runner in a short time since the summer." Vodka--victress of the 2007 Japanese Derby and the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn S. Nov. 2 in her latest start--led at the top of the stretch, but could not maintain late and settled for third as the only female entered in the race.

December Sale

Mare Sale

TATTERSALLS RESUMES TODAY Following sharp downturns at the yearling and foal sections, Tattersalls' December breeding stock sale begins in Newmarket at 9:30 this morning with some talented and blue-blooded fillies and mares on offer. The G1 1000 Guineas winner

Saoirse Abu

Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) has--as anticipated--been with-drawn, but there is another of this season's Group 1 heroine--Prix de l'Opera heroine Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef)--set to appear. The three-year-old is catalogued as lot 2352 as part of Ronald Rauscher's draft. Among today's stars is lot 1780, Saoirse Abu (Mr. Greeley), winner of last season's G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Phoenix S. She is offered from Jim Bolger's Glebe House Stables. Earlier, lot 1593--11-year-old mare Our Queen of Kings (GB) (Arazi)--should create plenty of interest as the dam of G1 Sun Chariot S. winner Spinning Queen (GB) (Spinning World) when offered from Lord Richard and Lady Joanna Wellesley's Marston Stud in Oxfordshire with a Pivotal (GB) cover. "It's a quality catalogue, and the December Sale is a magnet for overseas buyers," said Tattersalls Marketing Director Jimmy George yesterday. "A positive aspect for them is that every major currency is getting stronger against sterling, giving them more spending power." The December Sale runs today through Thursday, starting at 9:30 a.m. each day. For complete catalogue and results, visit www.tattersalls.com.

HAPPENINGS

Hip 1734, Beyond the Dream, m, 6, Fuisaichi Pegasus--East of the Moon, by Private Account
Consigned by Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard

The Niarchos draft is always sought after and this is a daughter of Miesque's 1994 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner East of the Moon who sells in foal to Sadler's Wells. Among her siblings are the 1999 G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Moon Driver (Mr. Prospector) and the stakes-placed Canda (Storm Cat), whose juvenile Evasive (GB) recently took the G3 Horris Hill S. and occupies a prominent place in the ante-post markets for next year's Guineas.

Hip 1747, Grecian Dancer (GB), m, 5, Dansili (GB)--Pizzicato (GB), by Statoblest (Ire)
Consigned by Baronrath

One of the most classy carriers of Dr. Vincent O'Brien's silks in recent years, Grecian Dancer finally garnered a richly deserved group win in May in the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. when in foal to Galileo (Ire). Subsequently third in Royal Ascot's G2 Windsor Forest S., the half to the 2002 G2 Flying Childers S. heroine Wunders Dream (Ire) (Averti {Ire}) hails from the immediate family of the top Hong Kong performers Mensa (GB) and Firebolt (Ire).

Hip 1753, Arch Swing, f, 4, Arch--Gold Pattern, by Slew o'Gold Consigned by Currabeg Stables

Arch Swing was a highly talented runner for the John Oxx stable, finishing runner-up to Finsceal Beo (Ire) in last year's G1 1000 Guineas and third in both the G1 Falmouth S. and G1 Matron S. after capturing the G3 CL Weld Park S. and G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial. She tops a page rich in bold type, featuring the sires Seattle Pattern, Aldo, Motley and Fast.

Hip 1780, Saoirse Abu, f, 3, Mr. Greeley--Out Too Late, by Future Storm
Consigned by Glebe House Stables

One of the highlights of the fortnight, this filly is a major part of the recent Coolcullen revival as the winner of both the G1 Phoenix S.--in which she accounted for Henrythenavigator--and G1 Moyglare Stud S. at two. Subsequently third in this year's G1 1000 Guineas, she is from the immediate family of Morning Devotion, the dam of Balanchine, Romanov (Ire) and Red Slippers, herself responsible for West Wind (GB).

Hip 1783, Lahaleeb (Ire), f, 2, Redback (GB)--Flames (GB), by Blushing Flame
Consigned by West Ilsley Stables

Third in the G2 May Hill S and runner-up in the G3 CL Weld Park S., Lahaleeb was already a smart performer before Champions' Day, where she sprang to prominence with a comprehensive defeat of the G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Aspen Darlin (Ire) in the G2 Rockfel S. One of the main Guineas contenders for 2009, she has considerable residual value as a member of the family which includes Iceman (GB), Entrepreneur (GB) and a host of Cheveley Park stars.

Hip 1801, Unsung Heroine (Ire), f, 3, High Chaparral (Ire)--Thermopylae (GB), by Tenby (GB)
Consigned by Thomastown Castle Stables

Purchased for just 5,000 guineas as a yearling here, the filly from the immediate family of the top-class Posidonas (GB) and Carry the Flag (GB) was one of the stories of the 2008 flat season and has plenty still to offer on the track. Runner-up to Conduit (Ire) in the latest renewal of the G1 St Leger, she also filled the same spot in the inaugural G2 Pride S. and won the G3 Give Thanks S. earlier this year.

Where Champions Are Born

Louisiana racetracks annually generate over $40 million in additional purses at the tracks with over $12 million reserved for Louisiana-breds and $7.2 million in Breeders Awards. Four Louisiana-bred "Championship" days for nearly $3.5 million are held annually, one at each Louisiana track. There are also three restricted state-bred races offered every day at all four Louisiana tracks. Owner bonuses (purse supplements) in Louisiana offer the most comprehensive incentive awards program in the entire country. The total owner and breeder award payout in 2006 was $20 million with more than $22.6 million being paid out in 2007.

With a total of four state bred days, no other state can match Louisiana.

Russell Road has reeled off five straight wins since running second in his debut at this track Aug. 23. The chestnut followed a 12 1/2-length maiden win Sept. 13 with a 12-length victory in the Sept. 27 Dr. Ernest Benner S., an allowance win Oct. 30 and an 8 1/4-length triumph in the Nov. 8 Tri-State Futurity. The prohibitive favorite here, Russell Road attended the pace early, took charge on the turn and sailed clear an easy winner.

Winchester Works for Turf Cup:

The three-year-old Winchester (Theatrical {Ire}) worked an easy six furlongs over Hollywood's lawn yesterday in advance of Saturday's 1 1/2-mile GI Hollywood Turf Cup. The colt was timed in 1:18 while in company with Towzee (NZ) (Towkay {Aus}). Winchester seeks to become the first three-year-old to annex the Turf Cup since Bien Bien won via disqualification in 1992. Winchester, who shipped from Ireland to win the GI Secretariat S. over the summer, was working at Hollywood for the fourth time since being shipped from Santa Anita following a seventh-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 25. "He's going in the right direction," said Thomas Daly, assistant to trainer Dermot Weld. "He seems to be progressing with each work." Daly said jockey Patrick Smullen was scheduled to arrive Wednesday from Ireland and might give Winchester a light breeze Thursday, the day Weld is slated to arrive. The Turf Cup is also expected to attract Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill), Good Request (Dynaformer), Obrigado (Fr) (Enrique {GB}), Rush Rush (More Than Ready), and Spring House (Chester House).

Margins: 2, 1HF, HF. Odds: 2.40, 3.20, 3.30.

Gayego, who set the track record of 1:13 for 6 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita while winning the Jan. 20 San Pedro S., was looking for his first win since taking the Apr. 12 GII Arkansas Derby. The strapping colt, 17th in the GI Kentucky Derby and 11th in the GI Preakness S., returned from a five-month freshening to be seventh in the Oct. 25 Damascus S. at Santa Anita. The 2-1 second choice was pressed on the early lead through fractions of :21.91 and :44.19. He opened up a clear lead in upper stretch and was not seriously threatened to the wire to finish in track-record time. El Gato Malo (El Corredor), making his first start since winning the May 10 GIII Lone Star Derby, was last in the early going and closed mildly before getting edged for third. Sidelined for six months before returning to be third as the chalk in a six-furlong event here Nov. 15, he was sent off the tepid 5-2 pick in this salty maiden. Taking command of things early, he cut out sensible fractions and had enough left to best 54-1 bomb Indian Love (Cherokee Run) by 1 1/2 lengths.
