Exchange Rate's SERRANO Goes for Black Type in Orleans S. Today

TATTERSALLS CONCLUDES WITH QUIET DAY

Tattersalls' December Sale finished last night with a quiet breeding stock session. A three-year-old colt sold as a jumping prospect to top the trade at 65,000gns. Champion jockey Ryan Moore outbid agent Geoffrey

Saoirse Abu tattersalls.com

Howson for First Avenue (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}--Marciala {Ire}, by Machiavellian), a flat handicap winner for Michael Tabor and trainer Michael Jarvis. "Dad [trainer Gary Moore] had other things to do today, so asked me to come up and bid for this horse," explained Moore. "I think he'll be going hurdling, and he's shown a liking for soft ground. I'm not sure if Dad has an owner for him."

Thursday's session was representative of a sale which suffered major declines across-the-board. The December Sale turnover of 49,901,250gns was 51 percent down on last year, while the 11,000gns median, 45 percent down on 2007, was the lowest since 1998. The 39,138gns average dropped by 35 percent. There were bright spots, however. Well-bred, accomplished mares were, as ever, in demand, as witnessed by John Ferguson's sale-topping 1.95-million guineas bid for Saoirse Abu (Mr. Greeley) during Monday's opening session. Other highlights included the 1.8-million guineas Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef) and the 1.7-million guineas Princesse Dansante (Ire) (King's Best). All three were session toppers and all purchased by Ferguson on behalf of Darley's Sheikh Mohammed.

"This has been a year of stark contrasts," said Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony. "The Tattersalls year began with record-breaking sales in February and at both the Craven and Guineas Breeze-Up sales, despite a sense of disquiet surrounding the economic outlook. The July Sale, although solid, did not match the levels of recent years, and as the sheer scale of the economic upheavals became apparent, the autumn sales season was approached with a degree of apprehension. Fortunately, throughout the 2008 sales season, the contribution from our overseas buyers has been outstanding, but the implications of a mismanaged domestic economy have been very evident. Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale displayed remarkable resilience, as did the Autumn Horses in Training Sale, but it has been clear over the last two months that the bloodstock industry is anything but immune from the impact of a global economy painfully short of confidence." Cont. p2

BAUER WON'T BE DQ'D FROM CUP FINISH

The G1 Melbourne Cup runner-up Bauer (Ire) (Halling) will not be disqualified from a placing despite having been treated with shockwave therapy within seven days of the race, an infraction of the rules in Australia, the country's Racing and Sports reports. On Wednesday, it was revealed that stewards were investigating the matter after they learned that trainer Luca Cumani accepted the advice of a local veterinarian to treat Bauer on the Thursday before the Cup. Cumani later said he was unaware of the rule. According to Racing and Sports, the English-based Bauer was treated to his hindquarters in the Sandown quarantine center by Racing Victoria Limited veterinary surgeon Dr. Rob McInnes. RVL Chief Steward Terry Bailey said that stewards were confident the form of treatment did not significantly enhance Bauer's performance in the Cup and brought the matter to a close on advice of RVL's senior Queen's Counsel, Dr. Cliff Pannam. "That advice is that, in circumstances where the otherwise ineligibility of Bauer was caused as a result of actions taken by a veterinary surgeon specifically assigned by RVL to be responsible for the veterinary care of the visiting horse, and who Mr. Cumani for that very reason was entitled to assume was fully familiar with the Australian Rules of Racing, [the rule] can have no application," Bailey told the publication. "In these circumstances it is not open to RVL stewards to apply the rule." Bauer earned A$835,000 in purse money.

Mahony continued, "The industry has experienced a prolonged period of unprecedented growth since the last downturn in the early 1990s, with sales turnover at Tattersalls growing by almost six times between 1992 and 2007. The key now is to adjust as quickly as possible to the prevailing market conditions. The combined British and Irish foal crops are at an all-time high, driven by the sustained growth of recent years, and the 2008 sales season has illustrated graphically that the market is unable to absorb the numbers. This is an observation which we made last year, and that was after a record-breaking December Sale. The need for adjustment is now rather more pressing, with the impact of the downturn being felt in all sectors of the industry.

"Even in a period of sharp declines it is, however, important to accentuate the positives. It would be fair to say that the 2008 December catalogue lacked the extraordinary strength and depth of 2006 and 2007, but buyers have consistently remarked that quality individuals were still very hard to buy.

"Our vendors have responded swiftly and positively to a challenging time as the market finds a new level, and the weaker currency looks set to benefit our multitude of overseas buyers for a while to come. The December Sale has, as ever, acted as a magnet for bloodstock professionals from all corners of the world, and we are enormously grateful for the support. We will, as ever, work tirelessly to ensure that the industry's confidence in us is repaid, and that Tattersalls continues to remain the focal point of the European bloodstock industry for both buyers and vendors alike."

JAPAN CUP DIRT CONTENDERS ON TRACK

The three foreign invaders for Sunday's main event were out for routine trackwork Thursday morning, a few hours before post positions were drawn for the nine-furlong event. Tin Cup Chalice (Crusader Sword), winner of eight of his nine career starts, including a last-out victory in the Oct. 4 GII Indiana Derby, had Edgar Prado in the irons yesterday morning as he took two tours of the Hanshin main track. "He was very relaxed this morning during his exercise, the dirt feels good, and he seems to have recovered from the long trip," the Peruvian commented. Tin Cup Chalice is owned, bred and trained by Mike Lecesse, who is pleased with how things have gone thus far.

"He looks good and I think he's gained 4 to 5 kilograms since he's left the quarantine station," he explained. "Since we found out he was going to race on a right-handed course, we breezed the horse a few times in that direction at home, and every work has been better." The bay will depart post eight on Sunday. IEAH Stable, Andy Cohen and Pegasus Holding Group's Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway), upset winner of the GI Suburban H. this past summer, drew an inside post in stall two and was guided through his work by Rudy Rodriguez. "He was more aggressive at the quarantine stables, but he's getting used to the environment here and looks comfortable, happy and relaxed," the exercise rider said. Regarding the right-handed course at Hanshin, he offered, "We just have to get used to the system--how they run over here. But I think the horse is used to it because he raced in England before he was brought to the U.S. The surface is much different and sandier, but I hope the horse likes it on the day he runs." Mast Track (Mizzen Mast) jogged one lap of the track, then schooled in the paddock and saddling area. The bay, who took the GI Hollywood Gold Cup in gate-to-wire fashion in June, was partnered by Jose Cuevas yesterday morning. "He did some speed work yesterday, so he just jogged today," he said. "He moved very good and smooth." Mast Track was given post 13. Vermilion (Jpn) (El Condor Pasa) pulled stall number six for his title defense, while GII Peter Pan S. winner Casino Drive (Mineshaft) will leave from the 11 hole.

in September, then proved his mettle with a second to Square Eddie in the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity and a good fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Oct. 25. He returns to the dirt for the first time since winning the Mountaineer Park Juvenile in early August.

Skipadate, by contrast, will be making his first start on anything but grass. The Heiligbrodt colorbearer was beaten just two heads in the With Anticipation S. at Saratoga and Gill Summer S. at Woodbine, but was well back in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

C. S. Silk looked awfully impressive wiring the GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie in her third career start Sept. 6, but she found either the company, or the swift pace she was setting, too much in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 24 and faded to seventh. Returned to trainer Dale Romans's base in Churchill after the Breeders' Cup, C. S. Silk resumed working right away and, if her morning drills are anything to go by, she is no worse for the wear for the trip out west. Livin Lovin completed the exacta in the GIII Mazarine S. at Woodbine in October, then broke through in the GIII Tempted S. at Aqueduct Nov. 2. Just Jenda is an interesting option. Trained by Larry Jones and owned by his wife Cindy, the chestnut miss romped in her debut at Philly Park in September, then put up a repeat performance in the Brandywine S. there Oct. 28, registering a nine-length dismantling over the slop.

ZAYAT STABLES JOINS STALLION MARKET

Zayat Stables is expanding its racing interests into the stallion market with three of the stable's runners: J Be K (Silver Deputy--Major Wager, by Valid Wager), Got the Last Laugh (Distorted Humor--Theresa's Tizzy, by Cee's Tizzy) and Marcavelly (Johannesburg--Dark Jewel, by Majestic Light) beginning stud duties next year. "This is our first year offering stallions," explained Zayat Stables's Vice President Sobhy Sonbol. "We've been pleasantly surprised by the reception of our horses." As previously announced, J Be K will stand the 2009 season at Gainesway in Lexington for $10,000, while Got the Last Laugh will stand at the McKathan Brothers Farm in Florida for $2,500. It was announced yesterday that dual graded stakes winner Marcavelly will begin his stud career at Colebrook Farms Stallion Station in Ontario for C$5,000. The four-year-old captured last year's GIII Hill Prince S. and GIII Transylvania S. On the board in seven of eight starts, Marcavelly retired with four wins and earnings of $332,963. "I am very excited to stand Marcavelly in Canada," said Ahmed Zayat. "We are firm believers in the Canadian program and where it is heading. Marcavelly was a phenomenal racehorse at two and three. He is the total package with looks, talent, pedigree and class. I look forward to seeing his babies hit the ground, as we will be aggressively supporting him in the sales ring and on the race track, especially with the lucrative Ontario-sired program in place." Sonbol admitted state-bred programs were targeted for Zayat Stable's new stallion prospects. "I think it's very important to look at the regional market, especially with the changes in purse structures," Sonbol said. "Not every horse fits in every region." As for how Marcavelly fits in the Canadian marketplace, he continued, "We ship some of our mares to Canada to foal and then we have no one to breed them back to. I think many of the Kentucky mares will find Marcavelly very attractive with his turf and Polytrack form. He has the pedigree and the looks. There was no Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf when he was racing, but if there was, he would have been a favorite." Cont. p2

Sonbol added Zayat Stables was working on stallion deals in New Mexico and Oklahoma. He is excited about the prospects of Zayat's first three stallions. "These are horses we believe in," Sonbol said. "They are the right horses in the right place at the right price." Although he didn't rule out Zayat eventually standing its own stallions, Sonbol did say, for now, the stable is happy to stand its stallions at other farms. "There is a saying in Arabic, 'Give the dough to the baker,'" he offered. Zayat Stable runners remaining in training for 2009 include: Thorn Song (Unbridled's Song), Eaton's Gift (Johannesburg), Z Humor (Distorted Humor), Riley Tucker (Harlan's Holiday) and Forefathers (Gone West).

NYRA ANNOUNCES '09 STAKES SCHEDULE; BUMPS PURSES TO 13 GRADE I RACES

The New York Racing Association announced its 2009 stakes schedule, which includes an increase in purse for 13 Grade I events. The schedule was approved by NYRA's Board of Directors at its monthly meeting yesterday and now awaits approval from the New York State Racing and Wagering Board. The total value of the 177 stakes races is $34,765,000, of which $28,780,000 is for 113 graded stakes races--40 Grade I races, 41 Grade II races and 32 Grade III races. This includes $350,000 for three steeplechase races. Of the 115 Grade I races held in North America, 40 are held at NYRA tracks, with Saratoga hosting 15 of them. Of these, the Spa's Go for Wand H., Test S., NetJets King's Bishop, Ballerina S., Forego S., Spinaway S. and Three Chimneys Hopeful S. will have their purses increased to $300,000. Belmont's Jamaica H., upgraded to Grade I status this year, will also carry a $300,000 purse. The Grade I season in New York will kick off at Aqueduct on Saturday, Apr. 4, with the $750,000 GI Wood Memorial for three-year-olds at nine furlongs and the $300,000 GI Carter H. for three-year-olds and up at seven furlongs. The 141st running of the $1-million GI Belmont S. will be held on Saturday, June 6. The biggest race of Belmont Park's Fall Championship Meet, the $750,000 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Invitational at a mile and a quarter, will be run on Saturday, Oct. 3. NYRA also announced it was renaming the Aqueduct H. in honor of Evening Attire (Black Tie Affair {Ire}), who won the race in 2002 and retired this year at the age of 10. The race will be run on Saturday, Jan. 17. For the complete schedule, visit www.nyra.com.

Contessa Pledges Share of Winnings to Toys for Tots:

Trainer Gary Contessa, who won a record 159 races in New York last year, has pledged a share of any winnings at Aqueduct Saturday to the United States Marine Corps Reserve's Toys for Tots program. The New York Racing Association has agreed to match Contessa's donation. "Every year I pledge $1,000 to Toys for Tots during its annual stop at Aqueduct," said Contessa, who has five horses entered at Aqueduct for Saturday. "But this year, when more parents are struggling just to keep a roof over their heads, I've pledged all of the 10-percent trainer's commission that my horses might earn on Saturday, and NYRA has agreed to match that donation as well. And even if my horses don't earn any money on Saturday, NYRA and I will both donate $1,000 each. It's a great chance to help children during the holidays." Fans are encouraged to support the program by bringing unwrapped toys or making cash contributions this Saturday at Aqueduct.

Race Track Chaplaincy to Host Spa Gathering:

The Race Track Chaplaincy NY Division, Darley USA and a group of New York Breeders and Owners, along with a concerned group of Saratoga residents, have teamed up to host a Christmas gathering for backstretch workers at the Golden Corral in Saratoga. Many workers live in Saratoga year around with their families, seeking winter employment on local horse farms and retail stores. The dinner will take place Dec. 8 at 6 p.m. The following Monday at 6 p.m., the Man O' War Room at Aqueduct racetrack a similar event will take place for Belmont/ Aqueduct families.

Leading Louisiana Stallion Leestown Euthanized:

Leestown (Seattle Slew--Bright Candles, by El Gran Senor), a leading sire in Louisiana, was euthanized Tuesday after sustaining a broken shoulder, according to published reports. The 14-year-old stallion, who covered 102 mares in 2008, had stood his entire career at Red River Farms in Coushatta, Louisiana. A half-brother to MGISW Grand Slam (Gone West), the Overbrook homebred ran third to Kelly Kip in the GIII Tremont S. at two in 1996. He captured the Leonard Richards S. and Bob Jackson Memorial S. the following year, and also finished second to Jules in the Long Branch S. while under the tutelage of D. Wayne Lukas. Sold privately to Richard Lossen in 1999, Leestown campaigned through age five, and retired with a record of 32-6-5-2 and earnings of $322,167. From six crops of racing age, the dark bay has been represented by 12 stakes winners; his progeny have earned over $11 million. In 2008, his leading earner is Lee's Spirit ($209,000) among six stakes winners. Leestown was buried at Red River.

FLASHMANS PAPERS (GB) (c, 2, Exceed And Excel {Aus}--Franglais {Ger}, by Lion Cavern) broke through with a stakes victory in only his third career start--the June 17 Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot--leaving such notables as Bushranger (2nd) and Donativum (7th) in his wake that day. A close-up fourth in only two days later in the Royal meeting's G2 Norfolk S., he was unplaced in his next two, but was a respectable fifth in his European finale in Kempton's G3 Sirenia S. over the Polytrack Sept. 6. Eighth in the GI Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland Oct. 4, the colt was 10th in his final start for trainer John Best while sprinting against allowance foes at the Lexington oval Oct. 18. Sent off the 2-1 second choice in his debut on the turf stateside, the English bred took a slight advantage early, was narrowly in front turning for home and got his nose down on the wire first to edge even-money choice Kelly Leak (Run-away Groom). The winner was a 38,000gns DONAUG yearling and a 30,000gns TATDEC HRA. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: SW-Eng, 10-2-0-2, $104,146.

WINGWALKER DIES

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Wingwalker (GB) (Dansili {GB}--Emlane, by Irish River {Fr}) died of a suspected heart attack on the Newmarket gallops on Monday morning. Unbeaten on his first two starts, Khalid Abdullah's homebred juvenile was only fifth as the 10-11 favorite for the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. on the Rowley Mile at the start of last month. The owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told the Racing Post, "Wingwalker collapsed and died during a canter [Monday] morning. We have yet to have the results of the post-mortem, but we can presume he suffered a heart attack. It's a huge loss, as Henry [Cecil] rated him very highly and we thought he might have been very special. It will be felt very hard throughout the organisation."

2--Terra Incognita (GB), 120, f, 4, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire)--Terre a Terre (Fr), by Kaldounevees (Fr). €10,400.

3--Passager (Fr), 123, g, 5, Anabaa--Passionnee, by Woodman. €7,800.

Margins: NK, 3/4, SNK. Odds: 5.10, 22.00, 2.40. Also Ran: Chopastair (Fr), Prince Fasliyev (GB), Eire (GB), Fareion (Ger), Stop Making Sense (GB), Le Roi Mage (Ire), Slickly Royal (Fr), Major Grace (Fr), Willywell (Fr), Sea Sex Sun (GB), Gone Nuts, Flying Blue (Fr), Jive (Ger).

Successful in the June 24 G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot at Longchamp, Vertigineux was unplaced in the Aug. 10 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest on the turf here, but bagged a second pattern-race win in the G3 Prix Perth at Saint-Cloud last time Nov. 2. Stalking the leaders in fifth after a smart break in this, he was angled outside for his bid in early stretch and kept on relentlessly under urging in the closing stages to comfortably hold the late bid of Terra Incognita.

Deauville, 14.05, Mdn, €19,000, unraced 2yo, f, 1 3/16 (AWT), 2:03.50, stn.
+ ALPINE SNOW (IRE) (f, 2, Verglas {Ire}--Altruiste, by Diesis {GB}) recovered from a tardy start to race in mid division after the early strides of this first go. Inching into third at halfway, the 27-5 chance was pushed along off the home turn and kept on strongly inside the last 300 meters to edge Marechale (Fr) (Anabaa) by a short neck nearing the line. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €9,500.
