Slew's Tizzy went on a nine-race losing streak following a victory in the 2007 GIII Lone Star Derby for trainer Gregory Fox, finishing fourth in that term's GII Pennsylvania Derby and third in the GIII Pegasus S.

Benoit Photo

He closed out his tenure for Fox with a seventh-place finish in the GII Strub S. in February. Transferred to Doug O'Neill, the Joseph LaCombe homebred responded with a second-place finish in a $100,000 optional claimer at Santa Anita Feb. 25, then hit the sidelines. Slew's Tizzy resurfaced with a front-running allowance tally at the Oak Tree meeting Sept. 26, and was last seen finishing 11th in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Placed in a stalking second behind Ball Four here, Slew's Tizzy struck the front in the stretch and outbattled GI Woodward S. runner-up Past the Point to take it in track-record time. "He kind of had a troubled trip at the Breeders' Cup," O'Neill said. "It was a large field and a lot of them were being sent hard early. We put a line through that race, but at the same time you're always worried what a race like that does to their confidence. It obviously didn't affect him in a negative way. Today's race came up in a perfect spot and there's not a ton of options really. We definitely didn't think the mile and one eighth would be a problem. The dream goal is the [GI] Santa Anita H. We'll figure out how he comes out of this and the proper way to get there." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

TDN presents
STAR OF THE WEEK
Brought to you by Fasig-Tipton

Madeline Pickens

Accomplishment: Pickens, a Thoroughbred owner/breeder, has announced a plan to create a refuge for feral horses and burros. More than 30,000 mustangs have been rounded up by the Bureau of Land Management and are being kept in holding facilities, which she plans to change.

Birthdate: March 5, 1957.

Birthplace: Kirkuk, Iraq.

Family: Husband Boone, daughter

Dominique.

Current residence: Dallas, TX.

Describe your own Pickens Plan for us: The idea is that we'll bring wild horses from the holding facilities there. Families can visit and students and tourists can come. It definitely would be a non-profit foundation. People can come see what the American heritage is like in person.

What inspired you to do this? The wild mustang has always been part of our history. Because I immigrated to America, your heritage means more to me than perhaps it does to some of the people here who have forgotten it.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be?

When I found out [horses were going to slaughter], I became obsessed with trying to correct a wrong and stop the slaughter of horses. We herald the winners and sell them for millions of dollars, but very little of that money goes back into taking care of the rest of them.

Favorite vacation spot? America. I live in Texas and have a home in California, so I guess they rate pretty highly. America has so much to offer. We have a beautiful country.

Childhood ambition? I always knew I'd be successful. I never doubted it for a moment. I came here to America with nothing and I knew I'd make it because I loved it here. I think that's the American Dream: that anybody can come here and find success. But when you have success, you need to put back, too.

Proudest moment? Watching my daughter Dominique grow. She just had a baby Tuesday and I became a grandmother. When I married Allen [Paulson]. And when I married Boone. And watching the animals I rescued from Katrina. I took 800 cats and dogs out of Louisiana. There were several aircraft I chartered, and every time one would take off, I felt like it was Noah's Ark.

Favorite food? Chocolate.

If you could have any job in the world, what would you choose?

I have the best job in the world right now! I'm free to be who I am and I'm free to help any cause I want. I don't think there's any better job than that.

Northern California-based trainer Greg Gilchrist has done quite well shipping to South Florida recently, winning graded stakes with the ill-fated champion Lost in the Fog, Indyanne and Victorina, and he added another one to his trophy case here. Harry Aleo's Wild Promises shipped in off four straight stakes victories, including the Luther Burbank H. at Santa Rosa July 26 and the Miss America S. at Golden Gate last time Sept. 20. Making her graded-stakes bow, she was sent to the lead by Aaron Gryder, and found another gear late to take it by a length. "We had pretty much kept her protected racing at home until now, but felt that she had earned a chance to go on to bigger things, and Calder has always been good to us," Gilchrist said. "This race should set her up to come back to Florida next month [Sunshine Millions Filly & Mare Turf at Gulfstream Park Jan. 24]." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com PPs. Transferred to conditioner Patrick Gallagher, he could only manage a ninth-place finish in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 28, and was subsequently shipped to Roger Attfield's Woodbine base. The chestnut annexed a $62,000 optional claimer in his first start for Attfield Aug. 21, then finished a close fifth in the GI Northern Dancer Turf S. Sept. 7. Spice Route was second-best at 38-1 in the GI Pattison Canadian International S. Oct. 4 and entered off a third-place finish in the GII Sky Classic S. Oct. 25. Settled in sixth as A. P. ☆ SALES NEWS ☆

ALIX ROAD TOPS DAY ONE AT DEAUVILLE

Continuing the global trend, returns were down as the first session closed at Arqana's December Sale in Deauville yesterday, but there were several lots to light up the board as business steadied on the Normandy coast. Topping the sheets was the Haras des Capucines-consigned Hip 8, Alix Road (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), who was knocked down to Xavier Bozo's Intercontinental Bloodstock for €310,000. The five-year-old registered a personal best when third in the 2006 G1 Prix Saint-Alary, but has failed to get her head in front in black-type company. She will remain in training in the short term in a bid to rectify that statistic. "Alix Road is a lovely looking mare with a very good race record, and I bought her as a broodmare prospect for leading trotters trainer Jean-Etienne Dubois," revealed Bozo. "She is stakes and group placed on many occasions, but she hasn't won a stakes race yet, so we might keep her in training to try and win a listed race. She is a possible for the Listed Prix Miss Satamixa on the all-weather at Deauville in early January, a race which is restricted to fillies and mares. Then we will retire her and breed her to a top stallion abroad, but it has not yet been decided which one. We got her for what we valued her, and we are very happy."

The joint-second highest price of the day was also the highest paid for a foal when Hip 138 went the way of Horse France for €300,000. The May-foaled son of Galileo (Ire) is a half-brother to the stakes placed City of Troy (GB) (Grand Lodge), and was consigned by fledgling operation Haras de Saint Isidro. "This was a lovely foal, the best in the sale, very correct and by a world-class sire," commented Robert Nataf of Horse France. "I bought him for Irish interests." Trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias added, "I bred this colt in partnership with the Spanish company Darpat SARL. We were not prepared to let him go for a cheap price, and we were the under-bidders on him. At this price, it is certainly a satisfactory sale." That result was matched when Darley's Hip 182, the unraced three-year-old Gulf Breeze (GB) (Dubai Destination), was purchased by Jean-Louis Branere's France Pur Sang on behalf of the Astronomer Royal Syndicate. Branere elaborated on plans for the granddaughter of Fall Aspen. "Astronomer Royal Syndicate is composed of American and Australian investors who have invested in racehorses in the United States and France and they also believe that the French stallion market can be hugely developed," he said. "This is why they bought Astronomer Royal, who will stand at Haras de La Rebourriere et Montaigu and shuttle to Australia during the Southern Hemisphere breeding season. They intend to support the horse in France with 20 mares. This mare is one of them, alongside 16 others that have already been bought in the United States, and a few more that we intend to buy in a near future, probably privately. The syndicate believes Astronomer Royal can be a successful stallion, and any breeder that will send a mare the first season and another one in the second season will be eligible to pay only half price on the third and fourth season."

Grand Slam Filly Comes Up Big...

Bronze medal position in the breeding stock section, and fourth overall, went to another Haras des Capucines consignee when Anthony Stroud hit his budget limit of €265,000 for Hip 223, Just Little (Fr) (Grand Slam). "I bought this filly for an Irish breeder and she will be bred next year," said Stroud of last term's G3 Prix Vanteaux victress. "She was good on the course and, hopefully, she will be good in the breeding shed. The market is difficult and people are very selective, more than ever in these rough periods we are going through. She sold for exactly what I could pay for her, and I could not go much further than that." Selling continues at 11 a.m. today. SUNDAY -- ARQANA DECEMBER

Hip 338, f, 3, Shadiyna (Ire) (Dubai Destination-- Shamadara {Ire}, by Kahyasi {Ire})
 Consigned by the Aga Khan Studs

This dual winner is out of the G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Shamadara. She is a half-sister to the G1 Gran Premio di Milano victress Shamdala (Ire) (Grand Lodge) and the stakes-placed Shamdara (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}), who is the dam of GI Secretariat S. hero Shamdinan (Fr) (Dr Fong).

Hip 361, m, 5, Vadazing (Fr) (Spinning World-- Vadaza {Fr}, by Zafonic)
 Consigned by the Haras du Mezeray

In foal to Dansili (GB), this winner is offered by Haras du Mezeray as part of the Mayfair Stud dispersal. She is a half-sister to a trio of His Highness the Aga Khan-owned stakes winners: the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Vadawina (Ire) (Unfuwain), the dual Group 3 winner Vadapolina (Fr) (Tremolino) and the Listed scorer Vadsalina (Ire) (Sagacity {Fr}).

Baroness Thatcher is two-for-four on synthetic tracks, but tries the Hollywood surface for the first time. The chestnut filly was part of the Patrick Biancone string when she was second in the GI Ballerina S. and third in the GI Test S. in 2007, but was handed over to Biancone assistant Francois Parisel when the French-born horseman started his one-year suspension last fall. Fourth in the inaugural Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint at Monmouth Park, she was then sent to Bill Mott, where, in seven attempts, she posted runner-up finishes in the Mar. 29 GII Shirley Jones H. and May 3 GI Humana Distaff S., and a third in the May 25 GII Vagrancy H. Off the board in the July 4 GII First Flight H. and in this year's edition of the Ballerina Aug. 24, she rebounded to take a Keeneland allowance Oct. 11.

The four-year-old was purchased by Tom Van Meter II and partners for $1.8 million at the Keeneland November sale, then returned to the Biancone fold. She makes her first appearance for her former conditioner off a rapid five-eighths work in :58 4/5 out of the gate Dec. 1. Lady Digby made two starts on the Woodbine synthetic, breaking her maiden in her debut and finishing second in an allowance test at two.

Baroness Thatcher

Now four, the bay was on the board in her first eight turf starts, including a win in the June 21 GIII All Along BC S. at Colonial, but reverts to the all-weather after finishing out of the money in the July 26 GI Diana S. at the Spa and Nov. 15 GIII Cardinal H. at Churchill. Model bids to make it two-for-two on the Hollywood strip after taking the Nov. 2 It's In the Air S. at this trip.

HONGKONG TOUR (f, 3, Broken Vow--Hongkong Charley {SW, $327,262}, by Tour d'Or) took her Charles Town debut by 6 1/4 lengths in November 2007 and made it two straight with a Laurel allowance win three weeks later, but was missing since. Dismissed at 9-1 despite the unbeaten record, the $6,000 KEESEP yearling argued the pace from the inside, inched away leaving the eighth pole and took it by 1 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $50,340.

3rd-PHA, $42,250, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:10 3/5, ft.

RHYAD (c, 2, Essence of Dubai--Radyla, by Country Pine) was let go at 15-1 in his Nov. 2 bow over this course and distance, but turned in a very game effort, dropping a neck decision. With a half-mile bullet in the holster in the interim, the bay was sent off the 13-10 chalk and did not disappoint. Up to force the pace outside of second choice Z Day (Five Star Day) through fractions of :21.48 and :44.29, he rolled by that one and stormed home to win by six solid lengths. The winner, an $80,000 OBSAUG yearling, was resold for $25,000 as an FTMMAY juvenile. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $33,600.

(DH)--MOTION PLAY (g, 3, Trippi--Note to Mimi, by Notebook) Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-1, $18,269. O-Our Sugar Bear Stable. B-Diane Dudley (FL). T-George R Arnold II.

On a busy day for the photo operator, the judges could not split the two race favorites in the day's finale. Motion Play had a fitness advantage as the 2-1 chalk, having finished second against $50,000 maidens over the Keeneland Polytrack Oct. 3 prior to a third in her turf bow in a Churchill special weight Oct. 29. Pure Pulpit was making his belated debut and showed some solid works up at Payson Park. Motion Play and Pure Pulpit each settled off the pace and began their runs on the turn. The two joined forces at the head of the stretch and their noses hit the wire in unison.

3rd-CRC, $18,665, Msw, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:07, ft. HONESTLY (f, 2, Yes It's True--Sweetheart {SP-Fr}, by Mr. Prospector) was purchased by Hugo Merry on behalf of Andrew Rosen for $475,000 as a KEESEP yearling, the most expensive of 40 yearlings by this sire sold in 2007. A half-sister to Sweet Band (Dixieland Band), GSP-Eng, the bay also got her start overseas, but did not fare well in a Sept. 11 maiden over the all-weather at Great Leighs, finishing a distant 15th. The 2-1 second favorite in her U.S. bow, she set a pressured pace along the inside, opened it up turning for home and crossed the line eight lengths better than first-time starter Dzibanche (Roar of the Tiger). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $11,199.

Second in a turf sprint in his Aug. 17 debut at Woodbine, Patena then stretched out to a mile and 70 yards on the synthetic Sept. 6 and finished fourth. The bay tried his luck going short on the Woodbine main track Nov. 9, galloping to a 5 1/4-length victory, and he was a well-backed third choice as he returned to a route in his stakes bow. Settled just off front-running filly Hooh Why early, he made his bid when they straightened for home and prevailed after a determined stretch run. "I've always really liked this horse," said jockey Robert Landry. "[Trainer Josie Carroll] has done a great job with him and gave him a chance to develop. He's a good little horse. When you ride those kind of horses, it makes our job really easy." Flying Brigade (Officer) was found to have had an unfair start and raced for purse money only, finishing 10th. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The winner of the GII Chilukki S. at Churchill last November to cap off her 2007 campaign, Rolling Sea was then sidelined for seven months. The chestnut was off the board in a state-bred stakes at Arlington in her June 1 return, but ran third in a subsequent pair of stakes starts and improved to be second behind Hystericalady in the Aug. 24 GII Molly Pitcher S. at Monmouth Park. Last of 10 in the Oct. 5 GI Spinster S. on the Keeneland Poly, she entered this off a fourth in the Oct. 26 GIII Turnback the Alarm S. at Belmont. The Illinois-bred was up close early, saved ground around the bend, and hit the gas when angled out in the stretch to get up for a narrow score.

Getting back on the Polytrack for this, the homebred filly gained on the second turn, split rivals into the lane and got up in the final jump to best Bodazzle (Albert the Great) by a nose as the even-money favorite. Tyler Baze Sidelined With Cracked Ribs:

Jockey Tyler Baze, who was involved in an ugly spill at Hollywood Friday, will be out of action for two-to-four weeks with cracked ribs and a fractured right shoulder, according to Daily Racing Form. Baze was injured when his mount, Pink Diamond, veered through the inside rail just strides after finishing second in the fourth race. The 26-year-old was taken to Centinela Medical Center in Inglewood for X-rays, and released Friday evening. Baze is currently third in the Hollywood standings with 23 wins, and 19th in the country in earnings. His mounts have bankrolled more than $8 million in purses this year. Pink Diamond escaped the incident without serious injury.

FUTURO (c, 3, Golden Missile--Forever Partners {SW & GISP, $118,560}, by Not For Love) failed to fire in either of his first two career starts, but blinkers and a slight drop into a $100,000 maiden tagger seemed to do the trick, as he finished a willing third at Santa Anita Apr. 4. Rested off that effort, he resurfaced in a spot from which he could not be haltered and wired a Nov. 19 event over course and distance. The 5-1 second choice in his first start against winners, the $55,000 KEENOV weanling and $325,000 FTSAUG yearling was blocked for a run turning for home, but came charging once the hole opened and went on to a half-length score over Onetimeatbandcamp (Forest Camp). POSITION A (c, 2, Aldebaran--Propriety, by Storm Cat) closed ground to be second in his career opener at Hollywood Nov. 8 and was the 9-10 chalk to score at second asking. Changing tactics this time, the bay went right to the front and cut out a half in :46.54. He was joined by Tevez the Tiger (Cuvee) in the stretch, but repeled the challenge to take it by a nose. A $100,000 FTSAUG yearling and a $675,000 KEEAPR juvenile, the winner is a full to Grace Anatomy, GISP, $129,340. The runner-up was a $450,000 FTFEB two-year-old. Third in the Aug. 16 Prelude S. back on the main at Louisiana Downs, he was fourth in the GII Super Derby Sept. 20, but bounced back to take the Oct. 19 Oklahoma Derby, earning a career-best speed figure. Confidently handled from off the pace, he came around rivals into the stretch to win as much the best.

GARCIA SECOND AFTER DAY ONE OF WSJS

Jockey Alan Garcia, the native of Peru who now rides in the United States, is tied for second after the first evening of competition in the World Super Jockeys Series, an event at Hanshin featuring 15 riders from around the world. Garcia, who has 21 points, trails Japanese rider Futoshi Komaki by 12 points entering the second and final day. The WSJS consists of two races each afternoon and the points jockeys receive depend on where their mounts finish. Garcia won the second event WSJS Saturday evening, the Golden Spur Trophy, aboard Clean (Jpn) (White Muzzle {GB}) after finishing 13th in the Golden Saddle Trophy with Machikane Hayate (Jpn) (Sakura Bakushin O {Jpn}). "The break wasn't as good as I expected and we had to race from behind," Garcia said after capturing the Golden Spur. "He's a big horse so I chose the outside route instead of splitting horses at the straight and he really stretched well. I've never ridden such a big horse before--even in the States." Futoshi Komaki guided A Shin Arrow (Jpn) (Afleet) to victory in the Golden Saddle. Edgar Prado, another Peruvian representing the United States, is tied for 12th with four points. Garcia also won the eighth race, an allowance event, with Good Fromage (Jpn) (Commander in Chief {GB}).

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.
