TDN FEATURE PRESENTATION
Grade III Pocahontas Stakes

BAKER'S DOZEN FOR OPENER

A field of 13 was entered yesterday for Sunday's GIII Pocahontas S., the co-featured event on opening day of the live fall race meet at historic Churchill Downs. Oddsmaker Mike Battaglia had a difficult time separating the top four, but made Sassy Image (Broken Vow) a lukewarm 9-2 morning-line favorite. Trained by Dale Romans, who took the 2008 Pocahontas with Sara Louise (Malibu Moon), the chestnut filly broke her maiden beneath the Twin Spires last spring, then was runner-up to Worstcase-scenario (Forbidden Apple) in the GII Adirondack S. at Saratoga Aug. 19. She enters Sunday's event off an even eighth in the Oct. 9 GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland. Westrock Stable's Decelerator (Dehere) is the lone graded winner in the field, having taken the GIII Debutante S. at this track in the spring. Off form since, she is a 10-1 chance on the morning line. Vertical Vision (Pollard's Vision) is one of two dual stakes winners in the field along with Indiana-bred Running Bride (Cherokee Run). Owned by Heiligbrodt Racing Stable, Vertical Vision showed speed aplenty to win the Prairie Gold Lassie July 18 and most recently the Prairie Meadows Debutante Sept. 18. She need only see out the one-mile trip to be a major factor in the Pocahontas.

Decelerator Reed Palmer

BREEDERS' CUP

INTEREST IN FERNELEY SOLD

An interest in Silver Spring Stable's Ferneley (Ire) (Ishiguru), winner earlier this summer of the GII Del Mar Mile S., has been purchased by owner Robert Teel ahead of the five-year-old's scheduled appearance in the GI TVG Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 7. Tentative plans call for Ferneley, who will remain under the care of trainer Ben Cecil, to take part in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 13 and in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. next March. "I am very excited to be involved with a horse heading towards the Breeders' Cup and some of the world's biggest races," Teel said. The deal was brokered by John Tyrell of the BBA Ireland and Warren Byrne's Rancho Park Management and occurred on the heels of his runner-up effort to Ventura (Chester House) in the GI Woodbine Mile Sept. 20.

ZENYATTA THE CLASSIC FAVE...IF SHE GOES

With all signs pointing towards a Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) start in next Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, Santa Anita oddsmaker Jon White intends on making her the favorite for the $5-million event. "Zenyatta not only is 13 for 13, she has been the favorite in her last nine races," said White, also a commentator for HRTV.

"Granted, this would be the first time Zenyatta has run against males, plus she's never gone farther than a mile and an eighth. But Zenyatta likes Santa Anita's main track and it looks like she actually might thrive going a mile and a quarter. I also think she will get a lot of play because of her big-time reputation." He continued, "Some may feel that Europe's Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) will be the Classic favorite. But I expect Zenyatta to be a lower price than Rip Van Winkle. Rip Van Winkle has been the favorite only twice in eight career starts. He also will be running on a synthetic surface for the first time, so there will be bettors who have reservations about him on the surface. As it stands right now, I'm planning to make Zenyatta the 5-2 favorite for the Classic, with Rip Van Winkle next at 7-2."

SWEET HEARTH MISSES CUP

Investimenti Immobiliari's Sweet Hearth (Touch Gold) will be forced to miss her two possible engagements at Santa Anita next weekend after scoping dirty. Runner-up in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp Oct. 3, the three-year-old held entries in the Dirt Mile and Filly and Mare Sprint and trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre told the Racing Post yesterday, "She scoped dirty this morning and I can't risk traveling her now."

WAGERING MENU ANNOUNCED

Officials at Breeders' Cup Limited have announced the wagering menus for the championship programs Nov. 6 and 7 at Santa Anita Park. Among the wagering opportunities are Ultra Pick Sixes, offering guaranteed pools of $500,000 for Friday and $2 million for Saturday. If Friday's sequence is not hit, there will be a carryover into Saturday's program. There is a mandatory payout Saturday. There will be two Pick 4 opportunities each day, with a $500,000 guaranteed pool on Friday and $1 million Saturday. For the first time, a special Daily Double will be offered linking Friday's GI Ladies' Classic to Saturday's GI Classic. Super High Fives (aka Pentafectas) will be offered on the Ladies' Classic and the Classic. Additionally, a Head2Head Jockey Bet is also available, with the objective being to select the jockey who pilots the most winners over the two days. Last year, over $155 million was bet on the Breeders' Cup worldwide.

KIRKLEES CATCHES THE EYE Kirklees (Ire) (Jade Robbery) was eye-catching at Sandown yesterday morning when Godolphin jockey Kerrin McEvoy partnered the consistent six-year-old, moving off from the 1400 meters and allowing him to stride home over 1200 meters in 1:16, with his final 400 meters coming in :24. "It was good work and I think he has improved since the Caulfield Cup," McEvoy said of Kirklees, who was wide throughout before finishing seventh in that Oct. 17 contest. Kirklees will be ridden by Frankie Dettori, who is seeking his first Melbourne Cup after 11 previous attempts. McEvoy will partner Crime Scene (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), a disappointing sixth in the G3 Geelong Cup Oct. 21. Godolphin trainer Saeed bin Suroor, set to arrive Friday, has yet to decide whether the six-year-old will wear blinkers in Tuesday's Cup.

Question Mark over Efficient...

The Lloyd Williams-owned Efficient (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), who shares the top line of ante-post betting at A$6.50 alongside Viewed (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}) and country-trained Alcopop (Aus) (Jeune {GB}), is an uncertain starter in Tuesday's Cup. Racing Victoria stewards ordered veterinary examinations on three horses at the Macedon stables of trainer John Sadler and, while C'est La Guerre (NZ) (Shinko King {Ire}) and Zipping (Aus) (Danehill) were passed fit for racing, a question mark remains over Efficient, hero of the 2007 Melbourne Cup. Racing Victoria reported that the stable was managing a recurring injury in Efficient's right foreleg, and noted the gelding had raced successfully despite the condition, capturing the G1 Turnbull S. at Flemington Oct. 3 last out. However, Racing Victoria veterinarians will assess the grey before he is allowed to take his place in the field.

Hayes Import Fails to Impress...

Trainer David Hayes has brushed aside concerns about a less-than-impressive gallop at Sandown by recent import Changingoftheguard (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), a last-start sixth in the St. Leger after over-racing in the feature at Doncaster Sept. 12. The four-year-old former Aidan O'Brien trainee, second in the Ebor one start back, was sold to a group of Hayes' clients. It was anticipated he would start in the G1 Mackinnon S. Saturday but the entire suffered a hoof abscess 10 days ago. Changingoftheguard galloped with the Herman Brown-trained Mourilyan (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}) who left Changingoftheguard three lengths in arrears over the line.

Hayes pointed out that Mourilyan (Ire) had worked over a much shorter distance and had more in reserve and told stewards the horse had not missed any work due to his hoof problem. "Trackwork isn't everything and I expect him to be racing midfield in the cup," he said, adding it was important that jockey Glen Boss would be able to settle the stayer and avoid him racing fiercely.

Daffodil Blooming...

The classy Kiwi Daffodil (NZ) (No Excuse Needed {GB}) has recovered well from a deep cut sustained to just below her knee when a game fourth in the G1 Caulfield Cup Oct. 17--an effort that saw her Melbourne Cup quote trimmed from 20-1 to 14-1. "It was a deep cut that swelled up, but she is excellent now. You can hardly see it at all," trainer Kevin Gray said of his first Melbourne Cup runner. "We gave her a few days off and put her on light duties, but it was not so severe that you could not work her. She has trained on well and we are very pleased with her." Daffodil opened her Group 1 account in the NZ Guineas last November, and added the G1 AJC Oaks at Randwick Apr. 18 to her record. She came back to take the G1 Windsor Plate Sept. 19 before finishing fourth in the G1 Kelt Capital S. at Hastings Oct. 3.

Cummings Bides His Time...

Bart Cummings will bypass Saturday's G1 Mackinnon S. with Cox Plate victor So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in favor of the G1 Emirates S. Nov. 7. The famed conditioner said he wanted to give the sophomore time to recover from his Moonee Valley exertions. Well-fancied Melbourne Cup hope Viewed (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}), aiming for back-to-back wins in Tuesday's big race after scoring in the Caulfield Cup Oct. 17, will again use the Mackinnon as a launching pad. Cummings also has G1 Toorak H. winner Allez Wonder (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), rated 25-1 at present, and Caulfield Cup runner-up Roman Emperor (NZ) (Montjeu {Ire})--on the second line of ante post betting at 10-1--as certain starters in the Cup. The "Cups King" aims to secure a berth for either Dandaad (NZ) (Istidaad) or Naval Escort (NZ) (Montjeu {Ire}) by running both in Saturday G3 Lexus S., a race whose winner is exempt from ballot.

As ever our Middle Eastern buyers have had a massive impact on the sale and it has been equally gratifying to have seen the success of past graduates from the sale attracting an unprecedented number of Australian buyers. The key to the enduring success of the Autumn Horses in Training Sale is its ability to attract buyers in numbers at all levels of the market and our promotional visits to emerging markets throughout Europe and further afield, many of them in conjunction with British Bloodstock Marketing, continue to bring new faces to the sale."

Entry to yesterday's lower key session cost vendors £300, compared to £475 on the previous three days and business was a far cry from earlier in the week. Yesterday's top price was just 55,000gns, paid by agent Geoffrey Howson for two-year-old Rezwaan (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) (hip 1265), a recent Nottingham nursery winner for Hamdan Al Maktoum and trainer Ed Dunlop. "He's been bought for Gallagher Equine and is going back to Pat Gallagher's farm in Kent and then he'll decide on a trainer," said Howson, after outbidding trainer William Knight. "He's a lovely looking horse who vetted well and should make a nice three-year-old."

SALES NEWS

TATTS AUTUMN HIT SALE CONCLUDES An international clientele helped Tattersalls' Autumn Horses in Training Sale reach its conclusion last night with solid figures. The sale's 19,333gns average price was eight percent lower than last year, but the 9,000gns median rose by 13 percent. The 17,457,800gns turnover dropped by 11 percent, while the clearance rate improved from 79 percent to 85 percent. Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony commented: "Our 2009 yearling sales outperformed expectations and this week's sale has continued in a similar vein," said Mahony. "The Autumn Horses in Training Sale is a unique fixture and yet again it has attracted a uniquely diverse crowd of buyers all of whom have contributed to a sale which has produced a significant increase in the median as well as a higher clearance rate than last year. "The sale was perhaps a touch short of obvious stars and, considering the strength of the market, the handful of high-profile withdrawals was a little disappointing, but overall this has been another week which has provided encouragement for the industry. Quality horses have sold particularly well with buyers from all corners of the world providing stern competition for the domestic buyers from both the Flat and National Hunt fraternities.

CHARITY BEGINS WITH HOPE

The famed Dudley's Restaurant will be moving to a new site in downtown Lexington in the next couple of months, and proprietor Debbie Long is signing off at the current location tonight with a fundraiser for Horses and Hope, the breast cancer awareness and education charity established by Kentucky's First Lady Jane Beshear. Long was at the Keeneland races yesterday for Pink Day, which featured a luncheon for breast cancer survivors, as well as a handicapping seminar and contest, the proceeds of which benefit Horses and Hope.

"We're closing our present location after 28 years, and we're moving to a new location in about two months," Long explained. "We decided to do a cocktail party on our last night in conjunction with the charity, since the horsemen have been so good to me over the last 28 years. It's a pay what you want [party], and a portion of those proceeds are going to go to Horses and Hope."

Debbie Long
southsidermagazine.com

The farewell to the Dudley's Square location will be held tonight from 6-9 p.m. Long, a lifelong Kentuckian, is involved in a number of civic organizations, including the Board of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce, the Downtown Lexington Corporation, Lexington Convention and Visitors Bureau, Lexington Civic Center Board and the Fayette Alliance. During yesterday's festivities at Keeneland, Long was sitting with Ann Evans, the executive director of the Governor's Mansion.

"[Horses and Hope is] Jane Beshear's initiative, because Jane Beshear is quite an equestrian herself and has a passion for horses," Evans explained. "She also has a passion for women's health, and has combined the two." "This particular charity is raising money so that women who work on racetracks across Kentucky-- on the backside, as well as the women [that work] the betting windows that don't have insurance, they can get screened for breast cancer by a mamogram truck brought to the track," Evans said. "It's about education and detection." Cont. p3

Beshear established Horses and Hope last year in partnership with the Kentucky Cancer Program. According to www.horsesandhope.org, breast cancer is the second-leading cause of death for women in the Bluegrass State, and between 2,800 and 3,200 women are diagnosed each year. To date, approximately 1,200 women have been screened through the initiative's efforts.

"All four racetracks [in Kentucky] have Pink Days in honor of Horses and Hope," Evans added. "In fact, Oaks Day was Pink Day this year. Susan G. Komen [for the Cure] and Horses and Hope shared the spotlight, and we have agreed to go pink again next year.

Kentucky Oaks heroine Rachel Alexandra wears her pink halter for the cause

"It's amazing to see all of these women on board," Evans continued. "We had the fundraising luncheon upstairs. There are about 550 women sitting out in the sales pavilion that are breast cancer survivors. They are treated to lunch and get a ticket into Keeneland. Keeneland has been wonderful. I'm looking at all of the waitresses and waiters--they all have pink cumberbunds and ties. All of the Keeneland staff--and Nick Nicholson and Geoff Russell--all have on pink ties. Keeneland is a sea of pink today."

The next Pink Day will be at Churchill Nov. 15, and Evans is looking forward to Dudley's Friday evening.

"People like Debbie Long are amazing," Evans noted. "It's her closing night tomorrow night, and she's doing something for Horses and Hope. Not only are they paying tribute to a wonderful cause, but they're also there to raise a glass to Debbie Long, who's done so much for the community." --M Kizenko

7th-KEE, $51,947, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 7f (AWT), 1:22, ft. MOON TOWN (c, 3, Speightstown--Vauxhall, by Theatrical {Ire}) didn't show much when sixth on debut over Churchill's main track in June. The Melnyk homebred returned a different horse four months later, romping by three lengths in a quickly run seven-furlong maiden at Keeneland Oct. 9 (90 Beyer). Taking plenty of money to make it two straight, the 9-5 crowd's pick was outrun as a quartet of rivals vied for the early lead. They began to sort themselves out on the turn, at which point Moon Town took aim on the leaders and, tipped wide, the colt strode clear with authority in the lane to win by 5 3/4 lengths. Second choice Strong Commitment (Maria's Mon) was clearly second best. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $61,397. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The Herman Heinlein homebred was dismissed at 20-1 odds in this turf debut and put himself behind the eight ball after a stumbling break left him last of eight. Running greenly into the first turn, he dropped back even further, and jockey Manuel Cruz had already gone to the whip after a furlong as they trailed by some 12 lengths. The leaders, meanwhile, set :23 and :46 4/5 fractions, and by the second turn Sunrise Nursery had progressed back into contention. Hargus Sexton

Accomplishment: Bred by Hargus and Sandra Sexton, Satans Quick Chick (Sky Mesa) came from off the pace to take last Saturday's GII Raven Run S. at Keeneland. Satans Quick Chick sells at the upcoming Fasig-Tipton November Sale.
Birthdate: Aug. 19, 1920

Birthplace: Greenhall, Ky

Family: Wife Sandra, six daughters

Principal Business: Tobacco Warehouseman: retired.

Current Residence: Versailles, Ky

Your biggest accomplishment since you've been in racing? We bred two GII Arkansas Derby winners and GISWs Corinthian and Gayego.

First win as an owner? Resoric Jet Set (1979).

Most memorable moment in racing? Black Tie Affair (Ire) winning the BC Classic. (The Sextons and Ben Walden Jr held the breeding rights to the grey upon his retirement). We felt like he was like our horse too.

How many mares/horses/etc. do you own now? 30 mares and three on the track.

What is your favorite vacation spot? The Everglades in Florida.

Favorite racetrack and why? Keeneland. It's beautiful and it is wonderful to watch our homebreds win at our hometrack.

Of all the horses you've been around, who has been your favorite? We had two. The first was Charging Indian. He won four straight, including one at Keeneland. We bred, raised and raced him so it was very special to us. The other is Daddy Rex, who was our first stakes winner.

Biggest score in racing? When we sold a yearling filly by Theatrical (Ire) out of Multiply (Easy Goer) for $2.2 million to Sheikh Mohammed in 2001.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure who would it be and why?: Rex Ellsworth, because he was a very knowledgeable horseman.

Who was your biggest idol growing up? John L. Buckley. I learned the tobacco business from him.

Favorite food or meal?: Breakfast. Sausage, biscuits and gravy with fried green tomatoes.

Favorite time of year and why? After the last full moon in October to go fishing in the Everglades.

First job?: Working at the A&P grocery for 12 cents an hour.

Proudest moment? When my first daughter, Donna, was born.

CONGRATULATIONS from Fasig-Tipton to

In her debut, she was back some 17 lengths at the first call in a course-and-distance event Oct. 11, but rallied stoutly to complete the exacta, beaten 2 1/2 lengths. Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism in this second go, the chestnut was away much better this time and sat a stalking trip under Chantal Sutherland. Covered up down the backstretch and into the turn, she slipped through a narrow opening leaving the quarter pole and was dead game to hold Tasha's Alibi (Closing Argument) safe by a neck after a stretch-long duel. Owner/breeder Charles Fipke purchased Fire Into Ice's dam Tapatina for $1.05 million at the 2005 KEENOV sale carrying Internallyflawless, winner of this year's GI Del Mar Oaks. AGA KHAN PAIR SOLD John Oxx yesterday announced that his stable stayers Alandi (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Mourayan (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) have been sold to race in Australia. Both bred and owned by His Highness The Aga Khan, the G1 Irish St Leger and G1 Prix du Cadran winner Alandi and G1 St Leger fifth Mourayan have been purchased by an undisclosed buyer and will be a Melbourne-based trainer, according to the Racing Post. Bloodstock agent Hubie de Burgh, who brokered the deal, told the trade daily, "I can confirm that Alandi and Mourayan have been sold to a highly successful racehorse owner in Australia and they will both be trained in Melbourne with the main aim to try and win the 2010 GI Melbourne Cup." Oxx added, "Obviously, we would have liked another go with Alandi next season as he looked a nice Ascot Gold Cup type, but it's not to be and he's on a different mission now. It's a case of commercial realities, which is why he has been sold, but he provided us with two great days in the Irish St Leger and the Cadran and is a very good horse. Mourayan didn't quite get the breaks this year, particularly in the St Leger at Doncaster, but he's lightly raced and should do well for his new owner."

MAWZQON (IRE) (Pivotal {GB}) makes his debut for Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum and the Michael Jarvis stable and is a half-brother to the 2006 G1 New York Sprint Cup and 2005 G2 Coventry S. winner Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom). Another to race in the Shadwell stakes is the fellow new-comer Hajjaan (Ir), a John Dunlop-trained half-brother to the 2005 G1f Texas Mile winner High Strike Zone (Smart Strike) who cost $400,000 at Keeneland September.

SILVER PATRIARCH DIES The National Stud announced that Silver Patriarch (Ire) (Saddler's Hall {Ire}--Early Rising, by *Grey Dawn II) died from natural causes in his paddock yesterday morning. He was 15. Campaigned by breeder Peter Winfield and trained by John Dunlop, the grey was narrowly defeated by Benny the Dip in the 1997 G1 Epsom Derby, but captured the G1 St Leger S. later that season. He won the G1 Coronation Cup and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey-Club the following year, and was retired at the end of his five-year-old campaign with a record of 24-8-6-2 and earnings of £918,254. Silver Patriarch began his breeding career at the National Stud in 2000, and moved to Wood Farm Stud for the 2008 and 2009 seasons. He was pensioned this past June due to declining fertility, and returned to Newmarket for his retirement. Brian O'Rourke, the National Stud's managing director, said, "We are deeply saddened by the loss of Silver Patriarch. He had so many fans because of his terrific career on the racetrack, and he was always a very great favourite amongst our visitors during his stud career. We had hoped that he would be able to enjoy a long retirement back here with us at the National Stud, but sadly it was not to be. He will be greatly missed here, and our condolences are sent to his owners; to John Dunlop who looked after him throughout his racing career; and to Pat Eddery who formed such a tremendous association with him, riding him in 21 of his 24 races."

Among Baila Me's finest efforts under the care of Werner Baltromei were a win in last year's G2 Diana-Trial at Cologne and third in the G1 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf, but it was her battling score in the G1 Preis von Europa back at Cologne in September that captured the imagination of Sheikh Mohammed. Returning after a long break to be runner-up for Godolphin in the Listed Doonside Cup at Ayr Sept. 19, the bay dropped to sixth in the G2 Pride S. at Newmarket last time Oct. 17. Settled in a stalking fourth early while traveling easily, she was unleashed on the final turn and, after seizing command approaching the quarter pole, drew away for an authoritative success in a scorching time. STRONG TRADE CONTINUES AT MM HIT

A colt by Hidden Dragon topped the proceedings on the second day of the Magic Millions National Horses in Training Sale on Australia's Gold Coast Thursday. Singapore trainer Don Baertschiger went to A$110,000 to secure hip hip 358, who worked a furlong in 10:73 during Monday's breeze show. Consigned by Victoria's Centaur Park Thoroughbreds, the colt--out of Donnatelle (Aus) (Black Zephyr {NZ})--is a half-brother to group winner Don't Tell Clang (Aus) (Clang {Aus}). "He's a really nice colt," Baertschiger said. "He impressed me in his breeze-up--he had a lovely action. He should really be suited to our style of racing in Singapore." The Centaur team provided five of the top eight priced horses yesterday, including a pair of colts who brought A$80,000 from Baertschiger. The first through the ring was hip 302, a colt by Dane Shadow (Aus), and the second was hip 361, who is by Al Samer (Aus). The top-priced filly on the afternoon was hip 378, a filly by Street Cry (Ire) out of Genalta (Aus) (General Nediym {Aus}). Offered by Epsom Lodge, the juvenile was purchased by Laurence Eales for A$85,000. At the conclusion of day two, a total of A$2,771,000 was traded on 131 youngsters at an average of A$21,153. The clearance rate was 74 percent. "I'm rapt with the final figures for both sessions," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "We worked hard in attracting a big buying bench to the Gold Coast and we were rewarded with really positive results." Over 70 head comprising horses in training, yearlings, mares and two-year-olds will be on offer today, with bidding beginning at 11 a.m. For the complete results, go to www.magicmillions.com.au.

NTRA SAFETY & INTEGRITY ALLIANCE

Track Accredited: Santa Anita Park

- "Oak Tree was reviewed during its recent live meeting," said Mike Ziegler, executive director of the NTRA Safety Alliance. "It exceeded prescribed benchmarks on the vast majority of fronts and established industry-wide best practices in no fewer than 11 areas including post-mortem veterinary examinations, shoes and hoof care, equine ambulance protocol, safety training and continuing education, out-of-competition testing, frozen-sample testing, and testing for alkalinizing substances and exogenous steroids."
- "We are proud that Oak Tree received such strong ratings in so many aspects of its racing operations at Santa Anita," said Sherwood Chillingworth, Executive Vice President of the Oak Tree Racing Association. "We take our responsibilities very seriously with respect to the safety of our human and equine competitors."
- Tracks previously accredited by the Alliance are Arlington Park, Belmont, Calder, Churchill, Delaware Park, Hollywood Park, Keeneland, Monmouth Park and Saratoga; Pimlico received provisional approval.
