

ELM TREE STARS AGAIN AS KEENELAND SEPTEMBER SURPASSES 2021 GROSS

by Alan Carasso

Jody and Michelle Huckabay's Elm Tree Farm consigned a son of Curlin on behalf of Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Bred & Raised that topped Saturday's fifth session of the Keeneland September Sale in Lexington on a bid of $900,000. Just 48 hours later, the couple sold a colt by leading sire Candy Ride (Arg) for $600,000 to repeat the dose during yet another solid day of trade Monday which saw the sale surpass its turnover from last year with fully five days of selling remaining.

Monday's topper was one of 10 horses sold for better than a quarter-million dollar during a session where 314 youngsters were reported as sold for $27,544,000. The average of $87,720 and median price of $67,500 represented gains of 2.4% and 12.5%, respectively, over the figures from 2021. As the sale began its second week, a total of 1,556 yearlings have changed hands for $355,453,500, shooting past last year's sale gross of $352,823,000. The average of $228,441 was an improvement of just over 11% year-over-year, while the median of $160,000 is up by a healthy 6.7%.

TAIBA, CYBERKNIFE RENEW RIVALRY IN PENNSYLVANIA DERBY

Last seen fighting out a tight finish in the GI TVG.com Haskell Invitational S. in neighboring New Jersey in mid-July, 'TDN Rising Star' Taiba (Gun Runner) and Cyberknife (Gun Runner) are the top two choices on the morning line for what appears a contentious renewal of the $1-million GI betPARX Pennsylvania Derby Saturday afternoon in suburban Philadelphia.

A veteran of just four starts, Taiba--a $1.7-million purchase by Zedan Racing Stables out of last year's Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream Sale--took the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby at second asking, but the GI Kentucky Derby was perhaps too much, too soon, as the chestnut could do no better than 12th. Freshened for the Haskell, he made what appeared to be a winning move down the center of the track, but the rail-rallying Cyberknife spoiled the party. Trainer Bob Baffert, who won this race three times between 2014 and 2018, says it's all systems go this weekend.

Topper Far Exceeds Expectations...

Jody Huckabay was as surprised as anyone in the Keeneland sales pavilion when hip 2214 proved as popular in the ring as he did. Former Barretts sales executive Kim Lloyd signed the winning ticket at $600,000 on behalf of owner Michael Talla's Talla Racing, a hammer price that far outpaced Huckabay's expectations. Same as the Saturday topper, Elm Tree was offering Monday's colt on behalf of Stonestreet.

"I really thought around $400,000," he admitted when asked how he had appraised the colt. "That certainly wasn't the reserve, he was here to sell, but we are tickled with what he brought. I think the Stonestreet clan were pleased as well, so it's smiles all around.

"He was a very neat little horse," Huckabay continued. "We certainly didn't expect him to do that, but we're very pleased that he did. I say we didn't expect it...as time went on, we heard that he was in the top two or three horses selling today, but we weren't expecting that kind of money, to be honest."

Barbara Banke's high-class operation purchased hip 2214's second dam, Ticket to Houston (Houston) in foal to Storm Cat for an even $2 million at this auction house's November Sale back in 2005. Twelve months prior, the mare's daughter Runway Model (Petionville) carried the colors of owner Naveed Chowhan to victory in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. up at the local racetrack. The half-sister to SW Mambo Train (Kingmambo) would go on to become the dam of 'TDN Rising Star' and current Gainesway stallion McKinzie (Street Sense).

Hip 2214 is the latest produce from Ticket to Houston's daughter Essentially (Maclean's Music), whose now 2-year-old colt Twisted Tightly (Hard Spun) sold to Mike Ryan for $350,000 at last year's September sale.

“He was just a very, very good mover,” Huckabay said of Monday's topper. “He did it all with ease and just a very well-made colt. He moved like an athlete. It worked out that we moved him back a session or two and he ended up being a star. People were here with enthusiasm bidding today at all different levels. Yes, we got lucky with him, but we sold our whole consignment, everybody sold today, so we are very pleased.”

The Huckabays consider themselves fortunate to be entrusted with horses for Stonestreet.

“Their team came to us several years ago, John Moynihan in particular, for us to sell for them and we were really excited and blown away to even be considered,” Jody Huckabay said. “Now after 10 or 12 years of doing this--every year they send us a nice horse and this year it just so happens we got two very nice horses, session-toppers. The Curlin was an absolutely gorgeous individual and we think he was a very special horse. I can't say enough positives about what Barbara brings to the industry and helping people in the business, big and little. She's just wonderful for the business all the way around.”

Take Charge Indy Back With a Vengeance...

Hip 2199 | Keeneland

The late Chuck and Maribeth Sanford's Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) covered sizable books of mares in his first two years at stud at WinStar Farm in 2014 and 2015, but by the end of the following season, the nursery's Elliott Walden announced that the difficult decision had been made to sell the son of Take Charge Lady (Dehere) to the Korea Racing Authority while retaining the right to return the stallion to the U.S. in the future.

From his first two crops, Take Charge Indy sired the likes of Triple Crown prep winners Noble Indy (GII Louisiana Derby) and Long Range Toddy (GII Rebel S.), as well as GIII Forward Gal S. victress Take Charge Paula. Cont. p5

By the middle of 2019, Walden was in discussions to repatriate Take Charge Indy and about this time that year, it was announced that the ridgling would return to WinStar for the 2020 breeding season.

“He has been well received,” Walden said of Take Charge Indy's popularity since coming home. “I think he fits a great mix with being one of the last really good sons of A.P. Indy and at his price point, he's a proven stallion that people want to buy into. He's done well and we're excited about what he's thrown.”

During Monday's session at Keeneland, a member of that first crop--hip 2199--caught the attention of many sales-goers and was ultimately hammered down to WinStar entity Maverick Racing and Siena Farm for $425,000, the third-dearest price of the session.

“He was that best Take Charge Indy that I've ever seen,” Walden said. “He's got a great physique, tremendous strength, full of quality and had a very solid pedigree well. He wasn't cheap, he was pricey, but we just felt like being by a proven stallion that had really good success when he was here before we felt like it was worth taking a shot. We loved this colt today.”

A Mar. 10 foal consigned to the September sale by Taylor Made as agent, the bay is out of the unraced Ghostzapper mare Dynamic Doll, a half-sister to Grade III winners Lawn Ranger (U S Ranger) and Georgie's Angel (Bellamy Road). The latter is the dam of 'TDN Rising Star' Cave Rock (Arrogate), a perfect two-for-two in his young career and recent winner of the GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity. Take Charge Indy is himself a half-brother to Charming (Seeking the Gold), the dam of Omaha Beach (War Front), whose first-crop yearlings have been hot commodities at the September sale.

According to Walden, Take Charge Indy bred 100 mares this year after covering 117 in 2021.

SESSION TOPPERS AND 5 A.M. ERRANDS: CHANCE TIMM ON FIRST KEENELAND SALE AS GROVENDALE PARTNER

by Katie Petrunyak

Making a 5 a.m. trip to Walgreens for Vicks VapoRub was probably not what Chance Timm envisioned as part of his job description when he partnered with James Keogh at Grovendale Sales earlier this year, but when your consignment needs its supplies replenished during the second half of the Keeneland September Sale, you do what you need to do.

Timm is more than happy to take on some of those less-than-glamorous duties. In fact, he enjoys them.

“I like being hands on,” Timm said Monday morning while showing Book 4 yearlings at Barn 43. “I like being involved in everything that happens. We run a pretty tight ship, but James and I will both wear whatever hat is needed so that whatever needs to be done gets done. We love being involved and understanding all the little intricacies about each horse so we're able to make those small changes throughout the process that may really help.”

Timm has been involved in the Thoroughbred business for over 15 years, including eight years serving as the Director of Stallions Seasons and Shares at Lane's End Farm. While he has spent his fair share of time combing through the barns at various sales over the years, this is his first experience as a consignor during the marathon that is the Keeneland September Sale.

“It's nuts,” he said with a laugh and a wipe of his brow. “I was lucky at Lane's End that I was involved in the sales process but--fortunately or otherwise--I never had to deal with the minutiae and all the intricate details that come with putting something like this on. But I am now and it's exciting. It's great to work for yourself and put that pressure on yourself to make it happen. James has given me an unbelievable opportunity to partner with him and take advantage of his name, reputation and what he has built here. Hopefully I can build on it too.”

During its first Keeneland September operating under the Keogh-Timm partnership banner, Grovendale is already in the midst of a successful auction. On Sunday, they sold the session-topping filly for $575,000 to West Bloodstock for Repole Stables. The daughter of Munnings out of the stakes-placed Unbridled's Song mare Oh Carole was bred by Chelsea Bloodstock, Galtee Bloodstock and Paget Bloodstock. Cont. p8

Timm noted that the headlining filly had all the top players looking at her over the weekend.

“That’s why we have horse sales,” he said. “When buyers hook up, they can exceed your expectations. She was an impressive filly with a lot of class. She had a lot of leg and length to her and was very robust. I would think she’s an exceptional model of her sire and the market agreed.”

Chance Timm and Grovendale barn foreman Fernando Ramirez with their Keeneland Book 4 Yoshida colt | Katie Petrunyak

As for the marketplace in its entirety, Timm explained that they have found it to be a continuation of the polarized market.

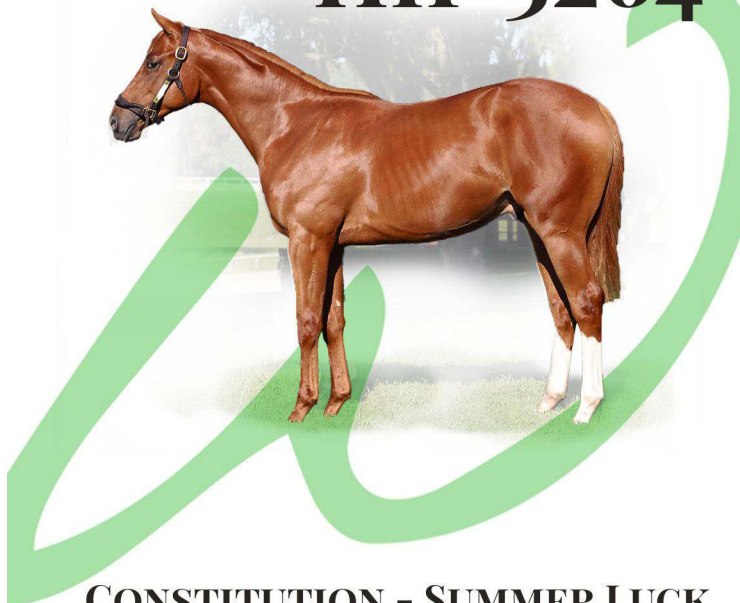

“It’s exceptionally strong at the top,” he said. “For those that are deemed as desirable, it’s crazy strong. The filly yesterday had an enormous amount of interest and it’s crazy for those kinds of horses, but it’s probably equally polarized on the other end. If they fall through the cracks or people don’t like them, it kind of is what it is.”

With just under 30 yearlings on Grovendale’s Keeneland September roster, Timm said that the group represents many of Keogh’s longstanding clients as well as some he shares a connection with through the various positions he has held in the industry over the years.

“There are a lot of people that have come with me as I’ve joined the partnership,” he explained. “Fallbrook Farm, Gail Radke, Jackpot Farm and Summer Wind Farm are all organizations that I am lucky to have a close association with and they’re willing to support Grovendale. WinStar Farm has had a long association with James. They raise a really nice horse and I think people are aware of that so we’re grateful for their continued support.”

One of Grovendale’s seven yearlings going through the ring on Tuesday during Book 4 was bred and raised at WinStar. The colt by Winstar’s first-crop yearling sire Yoshida (Jpn) is from the family of GISW Corinthian (Pulpit) and sells as Hip 2543.

“He’s a really strong physical,” Timm shared. “We purposefully placed him in Book 4. I thought he was good enough to be in Book 3 and Keeneland originally placed him there, but we felt like he would stand out in Book 4. I think he’ll represent his sire and his farm well.”

Timm said that another promising youngster from their list of Book 4 offerings is Hip 2672, a filly by World of Trouble.

“I think she’ll be represented well here in this spot too,” he noted. “She’s by a first-crop sire and she has a wonderful profile. Herbener Farm raised her and we’re honored to have the opportunity to represent the Herbener family.”

Other yearlings preparing to go through the ring for Grovendale in the coming sessions showcase sire power like Munnings, Uncle Mo and Justify, as well as additional first-crop yearling sires in Vino Rosso, Mitole and Coal Front.

Once the September Sale concludes, Timm and Keogh will be preparing for a busy Keeneland November. Last year Grovendale was a top 10 consignor there with gross sales of over $6.9 million.

Timm said that as Grovendale evolves, they hope to maintain the consignment's well-known presence at the breeding stock sales while also widening their reach on the yearling side of the business.

Grovendale Sales sent a $575,000 Munnings filly through the ring during the sixth session of Keeneland September | Keeneland

“I think for the most part, James' business in the past has been pointed toward the breeding stock sales and we have a really strong group of about 80 horses pointing towards this November Sale,” he explained. “I'd say the opportunity for us is within the yearling market. It's something I hope to contribute to over time, but we're never looking to be a large consignment. I think for both of us, our primary motivation is helping the people that we represent do well. We try to do whatever we can to be hands on and help people make the right decisions so they can maximize the value of their horses.”

Never worse than third in the opening half-mile of any of her previous 11 career appearances, Artie's Princess raced well off the pace in Monday's GII Presque Isle Downs Masters S. and finished full of run for a second career graded stakes victory.

Even-money Caravel (Mizzen Mast) hit the ground running and showed the way through lively fractions while Jose Ortiz had Artie's Princess switched off nicely towards the back of the field, poised to take advantage of any pace meltdown. Carefully navigating his way forward while sticking to the inside, Artie's Princess was up into fourth as they hit the stretch, was steered to the outside of a tiring Caravel at the eighth pole and finished well to score comfortably. Cafe Society rallied at the fence to finish a clear runner-up ahead of Allworthy in third. Caravel weakened to fourth.

Artie's Princess defeated older fillies and mares in the 2020 GIII Bessarabian S. while under the care of Wesley Ward and was fifth in last year's GIII Whimsical S., her only appearance of the season. Fourth in this year's Whimsical May 8, the homebred was the three-length winner of the June 26 Ballade S. and was exiting a fifth in the GIII Hendrie S. at Woodbine July 24.

Hailing from the family of Turkoman, the winner has a 2-year-old full-brother named We Storm and a yearling full-sister. Stormkeeper was bred to Gun Runner this term.

The Haskell finish | Sarah Andrew

“He likes to be in the clear, so that is good. He doesn’t like being on the inside,” Baffert said of Taiba, who drew the eight hole and is the 5-2 favorite on the morning line. “I would rather be the five or the six, but this will be OK. Cyberknife is a tough horse; they are all good horses in here. Million-dollar races are not easy; they are not supposed to be easy. As always, you have to break. We had a little bit of a rough trip in the last one [Haskell]. I know he is doing well and we are all set.”

Cyberknife pressed on to the GI Runhappy Travers S., finishing better than five lengths behind divisional leader Epicenter (Not This Time) and narrowly ahead of Zandon (Upstart). He is one of two in the race for Brad Cox, who will also tighten the girth around GIII Ohio Derby hero and GII Jim Dandy S. third Tawny Port (Pioneerof the Nile). The 3-1 morning-line second pick, Cyberknife has post five, while Tawny Port drew gate seven.

“We’ve pointed Tawny Port for this race since the Jim Dandy,” Cox said. “Everything is going great with him. Once again, he’s got to step up to prove that he belongs at this level. With Cyberknife, it wasn’t a whole lot of, coming out of the Travers and ‘we’re going to go to Parx’ way of thinking. I thought we might go straight to the Breeders’ Cup. He had a really good breeze last weekend. Time-wise it wasn’t anything crazy fast, but it’s how he’s doing, how he looks, how he’s acting. This is one last swing at a Grade I around two turns for straight 3-year-olds.”

The filly counterpart, the GI Cotillion S., drew a field of nine headed by GI Longines Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Oath (Arrogate). The competition includes the progressive 'TDN Rising Star' stablemates Shahama (Munnings) and Green Up (Upstart) and the Baffert-trained GIII Las Virgenes S. romper Adare Manor (Uncle Mo).

UNITED TOTE FINED FOR PENNY BREAKAGE MISCALCULATIONS by T.D. Thornton

After failing to properly calculate Kentucky's newly implemented penny breakage at two Standardbred race meets in July, the totalizator services provider United Tote Company has been fined and ordered to "seed" a future exotic wagering pool with $4,445.77, which equals the amount that the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) determined should have been paid out to bettors had the calculations been correct.

According to an administrative ruling dated Sept. 12 and signed by Waqas Ahmed, the KHRC's director of pari-mutuel wagering and compliance, United Tote "provided improper totalizator services" on races conducted at Oak Grove (July 17-19) and The Red Mile (July 31).

The first of those violations occurred two days after Kentucky first rolled out its mandate that dime breakage be replaced by betting-friendly penny breakage.

According to the ruling, the mistakes also occurred despite the fact that United Tote "completed pre-meet totalizator tests with KHRC personnel using the correct breaks."

The ruling stated that on July 20, United Tote submitted an Oak Grove incident report "showing that prices were calculated with ten-cent breaks instead of the required penny breaks, with a $1,916.56 liability owed to the public."

Then on July 31, a separate incident report from The Red Mile stated "that prices were calculated with ten-cent breaks instead of the required penny breaks" but only for "remote sources outside of Kentucky that wagered on Race 2 onward on that date." The liability owed to the public was $2,529.21, according to the KHRC.

According to the ruling, "ordinarily, the fine would total $1,000 for each day of violation; however, due to mitigating factors, that amount is reduced to $500 from July 17 through July 19 and July 31. According to the KHRC, those factors were:

"Oak Grove Racetrack has been conducting pari-mutuel wagering before the new breakage requirement that went into effect on July 14. The above events only impact the last three race dates of this track's 2022 race meet.

"[United Tote] calculated and paid the correct prices for all Kentucky sources for the wagering conducted on Red Mile Racetrack's meet. However, the penny break was not applied to Race 2 onward for all other sources due to a software defect.

"The violations were not intentional [and] the [United Tote] fully cooperated with the KHRC on determining the liability due," the ruling stated.

Bettors will theoretically get repaid through the mandated pool seeding, which must occur "at a harness racetrack in the calendar year 2022 [with] all details...approved by the KHRC."

HFWEAF AWARDS 13 SCHOLARSHIPS FOR '22-'23

Click the photo to watch a video from the Horse Farm Workers Educational Assistance Fund on their program

Thirteen children of full-time horse farm workers are pursuing higher education this year with assistance from the Horse Farm Workers' Educational Assistance Fund, according to a release from the organization Monday. To date, 735 annual scholarships totaling $1,631,623 have been awarded since the Fund's inception in 1996.

Scholarships are awarded for education or skill training after high school and are based upon financial need, merit, biographical essays and personal interviews. Grants are also available for full-time horse farm workers in central Kentucky for equine-related courses or training to help them become more knowledgeable and effective while working with Thoroughbred horses.

One current recipient, Jesus Perez, has also distinguished himself as a Pollard Scholar at the University of Kentucky.

The scholars and schools are listed below:

- Olivia Bryant - U. of Kentucky
- Jacob Compton - U. of Kentucky
- Tania Godina - BCTC*
- Jayden Hamilton - Midway U.
- Alexis Laytart - BCTC*
- Anna Martinez - Transylvania U.
- Flora Martinez - Northern Kentucky U

- Karina Meza - U. of Kentucky
- Richard Osborn - Bellarmine U.
- Jesus Perez - U. of Kentucky
- Kathryn Reams - Eastern Kentucky U.
- Katie Thurman - Bellarmine U.
- Reagan Toothaker - Thomas More U.
- Bluegrass Community and Technical College

Qualifying parents of scholars are employed full-time by one of the following central Kentucky Thoroughbred farms:

Ashview Farm, Betz Thoroughbreds, Godolphin (5), Hermitage, Rose Hill Farm, Spendthrift Farm (2), and Westbrook Stables.

The Fund was founded in 1996 by Rob Whiteley of Liberation Farm, Tom Evans of Trackside Farm, and Fred Seitz of Brookdale Farm.

"In pursuit of their dreams, many of our scholars work 20 or more hours per week at one or two jobs while carrying a full course load," said Evans. "Our main goal is to award enough money so that they can focus on their studies and make school their number one priority without incurring a huge burden of long-term student loan debt.

"Investing in these young people is also an investment in the industry. Many of our scholars after successfully completing their studies have returned to pursue careers in the Thoroughbred industry. Several have already distinguished themselves (including a Director of Racing at a major North American track). Many who have chosen careers outside the industry have made their mark as professionals in nursing, education, social work, theology, and business."

Evans said that the Fund was run on a volunteer basis, allowing over 95% of donor monies to go directly to scholarship recipients.

"We are grateful for all contributors who have so generously supported and valued this remarkable group of young scholars," said Evans. "Over the years, we have received significant contributions from the Carl Pollard Foundation, Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers Club, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, Hilary Boone Foundation, KTA, Fasig-Tipton, Keeneland, Darley and Godolphin, Thoroughbred Charities of America, W.T. Young, William Marquard, Race for Education, Hill 'n' Dale Farm, the Crafty Prospector syndicate, donors in memory of Gus Koch, and many other individual donors."

Said Whiteley, "These scholars and parents are an industry treasure. Farm workers are the backbone of the breeding industry and therefore the foundation of the entire Thoroughbred industry. The parents of these scholars have instilled an incredible work ethic in their children. Year after year, these outstanding young people impress the Board with their ability, motivation, energy, enthusiasm, and accomplishments. In many instances, our scholars are the first in their families to pursue secondary education; and some could not pursue education without our financial assistance."

Board members include Evans, Dan Pride of Godolphin, Judge Wilson of Berea College, Mary Ryan, Whiteley, Stu Pollard, and Chet Blackey, DVM. Carl Pollard serves as advisor to the Board. Muffy Stuart coordinates the Fund and provides personal communication, guidance, and support to scholars throughout the year.

The Fund is a 501c3 organization. Tax deductible contributions may be made through the website:

www.horsefarmworkerseducationfund.com. Checks made be sent to HFWEAF, 2938 Four Pines Drive, Lexington, KY 40502. Applications are available in March with a July 1 deadline, followed by personal interviews with the Board. Inquiries may be made to 859-269-1719. Additional information and a brief video are available on the website.

REAL RIDER CUP TRIPLES PREVIOUS FUNDRAISING RECORD

Following a record-setting turnout in Lexington this past July, the 63 entered riders that have taken part in the Real Rider Cup have raised better than $160,000 this year, a number that rises to $173,000 when corporate sponsors are factored in. That amount more than triple any previous annual total for the event and brings the total raised since the inception of the Real Rider Cup to $410,000 raised for Thoroughbred aftercare.

Former TDN staffer Alexa Reisfield rides Sadie's Magic in the silks of Franklin Ave. Equine in the Real Rider Cup Sept. 16 | Sarah Andrew

"It's been an honor to have been a beneficiary of the Real Rider Cup since the beginning," said Retired Racehorse Project executive director, Kirsten Green. "Aftercare is a critical stage in a racehorse's life, one that is made successful by many different types of organizations working synergistically towards the same result. [Event creator] Anita [Motion]'s selection of beneficiaries recognizes the essential need to fund aftercare organizations who serve the horses in a variety of ways."

The Real Rider Cup returned to Fair Hill Friday with 32 horse and rider combinations along with hundreds of spectators. The Real Rider Cup brings together personalities from across the racing and breeding industry to increase awareness for and raise funds for aftercare. Each participant pledges to raise at least $1,000.

Riders, mounted on off-the-track Thoroughbreds and wearing the silks of their employers, colleagues, and clients contended a winding course of fences with the fastest clear rounds taking home top honors. Connections and institutions represented included Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Maryland Jockey Club, 1/ST Racing, Mid-Atlantic Equine Medical Center, Equine Veterinary Care, Country Life Farm, Hillwood Stables/Rodney Jenkins, Whitney Stables, and more. Noteworthy horses included Henry S. Clark Stakes winner Talk Show Man, who was ridden by both Maggie (Wolfendale) Morley and Penelope Miller, who once again faced off against on-track rival, back-to-back winner of the Maryland Million Turf Stakes Phlash Phelps, who was piloted by his long-time exercise rider Sabrina Morris. Multiple graded stakes placer turned event horse Adirondack King was ridden by Keira Nygaard. Additional black-type runners included Flash McCaul, Virginia Peach, Grandiflora, and hard-knocking campaigner Greek God, piloted by Maryland Jockey Club outrider Kaymarie Kreidel.

LONGTIME MID-ATLANTIC, SALE VET RANDALL BRANDON DIES

Randall Brandon | Courtesy Brandon Family

Randall Gatlin Brandon, 80, passed away Aug. 15, 2022 in his hometown of Camden, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Gatlin Randall and Frances Johns Brandon. Randy is survived by his wife Kirsty May Brandon, daughters Julie Carter (Andrew) and Lisa Boyle, both of Portland, Oregon, grandchildren Katie and Emma Carter, brothers Dr. Jeff Brandon (Nancy) of Palm Coast, Florida and Kyle Brandon of El Paso, Texas.

He graduated from Washington State University and followed with an internship at Auburn University. After completing his internship, he was a member of the Teigland Vet Group in South Florida where he attended to Thoroughbred racehorses at tracks in the area.

The following year, Randy moved to Maryland where he established his own vet practice serving owners and trainers at tracks including Laurel, Bowie, Pimlico and Delaware Park. His equine clientele not only included the bread-and-butter horses but also stakes winners and classic contenders. Randy was very “old school” when it came to giving veterinary advice to his clients as he chose good horsemanship and to unnecessary procedures and medications. The horse came first and if the best medicine for the day was some turnout time, that is what he prescribed for the horses.

After 30 years on the racetrack, Randy sold his practice and made South Carolina his home. The focus of his vet practice turned to assisting his clients in their pre-purchase needs at Thoroughbred auctions throughout the country. From coast to coast, if there was a horse sale, Dr. Brandon would be there.

Although the horse auction schedule kept him busy and on the road for weeks on end, he enjoyed planning the matings for his and Kirsty’s small broodmare operation which awarded them many bonuses from their New York bred foals who competed and won on the New York circuit. They would foal in New York, be bred back in Kentucky and then raised to be sales yearlings at their Dixie Farm in Camden. He enjoyed watching his homebreds develop under his watchful eye and Kirsty’s attention to detail. Whenever there was an open week, Randy enjoyed going on hunting and fishing trips with colleagues. He loved and appreciated the outdoors and all that went with it.

“Dr. Brandon was an integral and highly-valued member of the St. Elias Stables’ team and even more importantly, a dear friend,” said Rory Babich, CEO of St. Elias Stables. “Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Kirsty, his children, grandchildren and other members of his family during this difficult time. He will be sorely missed by his many friends, family, clients and his devoted pack of dogs.”

Contributions may be made in his memory to Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation (TRF), 261 State Farm Road #8200, Rembert, SC, 29128 or to New Vocations, 719 Dolan Lane, Lexington, KY, 40511 (newvocations.org)

A Celebration of Life is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 2 at the Fasig-Tipton sales pavilion at Timonium. Further details will be announced.

A dream lives on. Fields hopes to revive thoroughbred horse racing in Hardwick.

Developer Richard Fields likes to explain his quixotic quest for a thoroughbred racetrack in Massachusetts with sailing terms, not equestrian ones: You need to keep tacking to the left, and then to the right, to catch the wind. Fields knows a thing or two about zigzagging. The self-described horse enthusiast poured millions into Suffolk Downs--New England's last thoroughbred horse track--only to watch its future evaporate when state gaming regulators in 2014 awarded the sole Greater Boston casino license to rival Wynn Resorts.

O-Baoma Corp; B-Gainesway Thoroughbreds Ltd, Brian Graves & Michael E. Hernon (KY); T-Bob Baffert; J-Juan J. Hernandez. $42,000. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $131,600.

Bred & Consigned by  GAINESWAY

2--Empire House, 121, f, 4, Empire Maker--Mama Yay, by Mineshaft. ($240,000 Wlg '18 KEENOV; $500,000 Ylg '19 KEESEP). O-Tommy Town Thoroughbreds LLC; B-Lakland Farm (KY); T-Jonathan Wong. $14,250.

3--Trouville, 124, m, 5, Will Take Charge--Night Drive, by Bernardini. ($15,000 Ylg '18 KEESEP; $37,000 RNA 2yo '19 FTSANA). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-Mark Banuelos & Mathilde Powell; B-WinStar Farm, LLC (KY); T-Leonard Powell. $9,750.

TAYLOR MADE FOR YOU!

Margins: 8, 3/4, HD. Odds: 0.80, 10.80, 5.80.

Also Ran: Founder's Day, Velvet Slippers, Cover Version.

Scratched: Midnight Jamboree.

Ganadora, named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a 6 1/2-length debut romp as the 6-5 favorite Feb. 26 at Santa Anita, switched from Bob Baffert to Sean McCarthy's barn to score a nose victory in an Arcadia allowance/optional claimer Apr. 10 before retreating to finish a well-beaten fourth stretching out to two turns in the Gil Summertime Oaks June 12. Back in Baffert's stable as the 4-5 chalk here, the $1-million Keeneland September buy made the lead easily and dictated terms through fractions of :23.23 and :46.36. Creeping clear past three-quarters in 1:10.47, the bay poured it on through the lane for an eight-length romp over Empire House. The winner's dam, bought by Gainesway for $510,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale, has an unraced 2-year-old Empire Maker filly named Quietlymakingnoise, a yearling filly by Street Sense and a weanling Nyquist filly. She returned to Quality Road this spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

MANZANO S., $50,000, Albuquerque, 9-18, 2yo, 6f, 1:11.29, ft. 1--ZIA ZAPPER, 118, c, 2, Ghostzapper--Fashionable Frolic, by Old Fashioned. ($130,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $23,000 2yo '22 TTAAPR). 1ST BLACK TYPE WIN. O-Jake & Stephen R. Brown; B-Pollock Farms (KY); T-Casey T. Lambert; J-Luis A. Fuentes. $29,000. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $35,720.

TAYLOR MADE FOR YOU!

2--Yolanda Who, 115, f, 2, Khozan--Wishful Melody, by Songandaprayer. 1ST BLACK TYPE. O/B-Sam E. & Sammy L. Stevens (NM); T-Todd W. Fincher. $10,000.
 3--Fleet of Flags, 118, c, 2, Midshipman--Capital Deployment, by Harlan's Holiday. ($27,000 Ylg '21 KEEJAN; $40,000 Ylg '21 FTKJUL; $115,000 2yo '22 TTAAPR). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-Masino Racing Stable; B-Clifton Farm (KY); T-Bart G. Hone. $5,000.

Margins: NK, HF, NO. Odds: 7.10, 8.20, 1.50.
 Also Ran: Diamonds Danzing, Bellamundo, Bold Connection, Charlie's Man, Respect the Union, Ohhh Daddy, Super Besliu, Misfired.

Zia Zapper overcame a slow break and rallied from 16 lengths off the pace in the final three-sixteenths for an improbable two-length debut score Sept. 3 at Ruidoso, and was made the distant third choice in this stakes bow. Again missing the break, the bay settled second-last in the 11-horse field behind a :21.75 quarter, carried all the ground while advancing six or seven wide on the turn, appeared hopeless as late as the eighth pole, but finished full of run in the final sixteenth to just tag Yolanda Who on the wire in a blanket photo. The winner's dam, a $235,000 Keeneland November purchase by Pollock Farms in 2017, is responsible for a yearling filly by Gun Runner. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

3rd-Presque Isle Downs, $34,850, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, f, 6f (AWT), 1:10.20, ft, 1 1/4 lengths.
JILL JITTERBUG (f, 2, Cross Traffic--Sweet Nkosi {SP, $245,059}, by A. P. Warrior) drilled a pair of sharp local half-miles in preparation for this debut, including a bullet in :47 2/5 (1/5) from the gate Sept. 14, but nevertheless drifted up over 13-1 off an 8-1 morning-line quote. Traveling at the rail in the third flight behind a :22.48 quarter, the bay saved ground past a half in :45.58, switched into the two path inside the furlong grounds and overtook odds-on Megan Makin Money (Kantharos) late for a 1 1/4-length success. The victress has a yearling Violence half-sister named Sweet Lilibet and a weanling half-sister by the same sire. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $21,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by TVG. O-Shagbark Farm, LLC; B/T-Ryan D. Walsh (KY).

SEPTEMBER YEARLING SALE RETURNS TO FAIRYHOUSE

Simon Kerins | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

TATTERSALLS IRELAND, Fairyhouse—It might be dressed up as a sales complex, but Tattersalls Ireland is much more than that and, on the eve of the September Yearling Sale, chief executive Simon Kerins shared how there are ‘great vibes’ in the air at Fairyhouse. The September Yearling Sale has been held in England for the past two years due to Covid and, on its return to Fairyhouse, a wide breadth of trainers from Britain and Ireland, many of the top agents and breeze-up consignors as well as international clients, crossed paths on what was a helter-skelter day of showing on Monday.

SEVEN DAYS: BAHRAIN'S BURGEONING SUCCESS

By Emma Berry

It has been another banner week for the breeze-up sector, not to mention the burgeoning Bahraini participation in European racing.

Following Classic victories for Cachet (Ire), Native Trail (GB) and Eldar Eldarov (GB), more graduates of the two-year-old sales scene lifted one of last weekend's major races in Britain, the G2 Mill Reef Stakes, and also the G3 Stockholm Cup.

Sakheer (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) was imperious in the Mill Reef, and was the standout in a magnificent seven winners on Saturday for Roger Varian, which also included landing a Group 3 with Mitbaahy (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) and the Listed Doonside Cup with Royal Champion (Ire) (Shamardal).

Varian had also featured prominently the previous weekend, claiming his second St Leger with Eldar Eldarov, who, like Sakheer, is owned by Bahrain's Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa, who races under the banner of KHK Racing, a name which only appeared on the British racing scene in 2020. This season KHK Racing has had 12 individual runners from six different stables. Cont. p5

Ed Sackville spotted at Tattersalls Ireland | Tattersalls Ireland

Almost €13 million was wagered at this sale last year as buyers were able to look past the Covid clouds and see the sun straining through and, with recent Group 3 juvenile winners Sydneyarms Chelsea (Ire) (Sioux Nation) and Lakota Sioux (Ire) (Sioux Nation) flying the flag for that sale, Kerins is expecting the momentum to continue this week.

He explained, "We have put a lot of work into this sale. Between ourselves and Irish Thoroughbred Marketing, we put a huge amount of work into getting people over here.

"There is great footfall from trainers in Britain and Ireland, the breeze-up consignors and all of the major agents are here as well, while many foreign buyers have arrived today, too. We have people here from Poland, Italy and Spain, so it's looking good."

Kerins added, "It's a very important sale and we feel there is room for it to improve. I have always felt that this sale can go up a level. We have improved the facilities here at Tattersalls, so we can get the people here once we have the horses. The vibes are great ahead of tomorrow."

And why wouldn't they be given the huge demand for horses at the yearling sales at Arqana, Goffs UK and Tattersalls UK already this autumn? Tattersalls Ireland will bid to continue that trend when the two-day sale kicks off on Tuesday, followed by a bigger-and-better Part Two on Thursday, meaning a whopping 582 yearlings will go under the hammer at Fairyhouse this week.

Few will attract as many eyeballs as lot 176, a Footstepsinthesand (GB) half-brother to recent G1 Flying Five S. runner-up Erosandpsyche (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}), consigned by the talented sprinter's owners, Mark Dreeling and Barbara Fonzo of Coole House Farm.

In Barbara's own words, Erosandpsyche provided their Footstepsinthesand colt with "the mother of all pedigree updates" on Irish Champions Weekend and, while Erosandpsyche failed to get into a yearling sale and never made it to the Goresbridge Breeze-up Sale here in 2020, you would get big odds on Coole House Farm having to throw a set of silks on lot 176.

Even Paddy Twomey, the trainer of the 110-rated sprinter has been around to see Erosandpsyche's little brother and offered connections his seal of approval as did Derryconnor's Katie McGivern, who joked that she would be there to breeze the colt if the right price wasn't secured in the ring.

Fonzo said, "Erosandpsyche is a horse we couldn't sell because he's by an unfashionable sire. We tried to breeze him but he didn't make it so we had to put him in training. Luckily he's turned out to be a very good horse.

"A client of ours owned the mare and, when we couldn't get Erosandpsyche into a yearling sale, we said that we'd buy him ourselves. We didn't breed him but he was born at our place.

"We bought the mare on the strength of Erosandpsyche. She hadn't bred a winner at the time but now she's bred two and this Footstepsinthesand colt is going down quite well."

She added, "All the right people are looking at him. Even Paddy came to look at him yesterday [Sunday] and he said we'd be fine so we're looking forward to selling him.

“We have always done very well with Footstepsinthesand. We bred Larcmount Lad (Ire), who won a Group 2 and a Group 3 after selling for €110,000 at this sale in 2015. We also bred Lexington Fury (Ire) who won a race and looked promising before getting injured so the stallion has been good to us.”

Lot 176 is not the only horse in the catalogue to have received a timely boost to his page in recent weeks. Mountarmstrong Stud's Profitable (Ire) colt [lot 127] out of Pilates (Ire) (Shamardal) became a sibling to a Group 2 winner last month when half-sister Swingalong (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) battled to Lowther S. glory at York.

Sales graduates Bottle Of Bubbles (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}), winner of a Group 3 in Italy and Sir Busker (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}), who became a Group 2 winner at York last month, have done their bit in recent weeks to remind customers that the September Yearling Sale continues to churn out the winners. Other notable graduates of this sale includes Layfayette (Ire) (French Navy {GB}), Ponntos (Ire) (Power {GB}), Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) and Thunder Beauty (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

Put simply, there is something for everybody over the next three days at Fairyhouse, a point that is driven home by Gerry Burke of Gildawn Stud.

"We're delighted to be here and Tattersalls are a great company to work with. Whether it's the Somerville, here at Fairyhouse or Book 1, 2 or 3, they give us an opportunity to sell our horses and it's always a pleasure to be here."

He added, "They work hard to get customers in. We've been very busy and it's great to see so many people here. We're delighted to be back at Fairyhouse and I think there's something for every type of buyer here this week. There's great value to be got at this sale and the results are there for everybody to see."

KHK Racing's Sakheer with Roger Varian, David Egan and Oliver St Lawrence | Racingfotos.com

Through trainer Fawzi Nass and bloodstock agent Oliver St Lawrence this is an outfit that has been making quite a splash at the sales in recent years, its purchases including the 2020 Arqana Select Sale topper Pure Dignity (GB), the Dubawi (Ire) half-sister to Sottsass (Fr), who is raced in partnership by Shaikh Khalid and his brother Shaikh Nasser Al Khalifa. She has raced just once, winning well on debut at Newmarket, and is entered on Wednesday at Kempton.

St Lawrence said, "This is only the second crop of three-year-olds for KHK Racing in Britain, so to have a Classic winner and then a very promising two-year-old is very exciting. "It's also very important for racing, and all the shaikhs that are involved in Bahrain are really enjoying it."

Bred by Drumlin Bloodstock, Sakheer, who was bought as a foal by Camas Park Stud, was sold at Arqana 18 months later by one of the original breeze-up men, Willie Browne of Mocklershill. St Lawrence signed for him at €550,000 a year after picking up Eldar Eldarov at the same sale for £480,000 from Norman Williamson.

On the forthcoming return of a lovely broodmare prospect, St Lawrence said, "The intention is for Pure Dignity to run on Wednesday and if all goes well, Roger will try to find a black-type race for her later in the season. Then we will put her away, and she will race on next year, all being well.

"I think both Shaikh Nasser and Shaikh Khalid are very keen to try to build up a quality broodmare band which will obviously take a bit of time."

Shaikh Khalifa, who also races horses individually as Victorious Racing, has enjoyed success this year at Britain's flagship meeting, Royal Ascot, where Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), yet another breezer, won the G2 Coventry Stakes for Archie Watson. He also owns the Listed winner and Group 3 runner-up Rocket Rodney (GB) (Dandy Man {Ire}).

St Lawrence added, "It has been a dream season and I am lucky enough to be buying these expensive horses, With that comes a lot of weight of trying to produce some good ones, but I think so far we are fulfilling that remit, though this season will be a tough one to follow."

Those charged with running racing in Bahrain have signalled their intent to increase the domestic racing programme, with the G3 Bahrain International Trophy steadily gaining more traction, and the second Bahrain Turf Series set to kick off just after that in early December. On the back of recent results it is not hard to imagine that we will see increased Bahraini participation in British racing, too.

Easy to Please

In Scandinavia, the Lodge Park Stud-bred Hard One To Please (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) has been making merry this season.

The winner of the Swedish and Norwegian Derbys in July and August, he stepped into Pattern company to land Sunday's G3 Stockholm Cup in the hands of Pat Cosgrave for trainer Annike Bye Hansen.

An £8,000 Goffs Sportsman's yearling-turned-80,000gns breezer, Hard One To Please was bought by Walter Buick at the Tattersalls Guineas Sale. It could be a big week for the family as his half-sister Dandy Alys (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), who was recently runner-up in the G3 Sweet Solera Stakes, is entered for Friday's G2 Rockfel Stakes. Their dam, the nine-year-old New Approach (Ire) mare Alyssum (Ire), has a Camacho (GB) yearling filly in Book 3 of the Tattersalls October Sale.

Move Over Hollie and Tom

Hollie Doyle and Tom Marquand are rightly feted, both individually and as racing's unofficial golden couple, but two other young jockeys, Saffie Osborne and David Egan, who also happen to be a couple, stole the limelight in the last week. On Thursday, the second Racing League drew to a close in Britain, with a sensational 6,539/1 treble from Saffie Osborne, who duly lifted the £20,000 prize as the leading rider of the series. The 20-year-old jockey's most enjoyable moment of that evening would surely have been her victory on 40/1 shot Raising Sand (GB) for her father Jamie. The 10-year-old son of Oasis Dream (GB) has been a stalwart of the Osborne stable and his eighth win came two years after his last victory.

Mysterious Night is the latest star for Dark Angel | ScoopDyga

Osborne's recent run of success has propelled her into the top 50 riders in the country, the only other female on that list along with Doyle, who is second behind William Buick.

For David Egan, 22, it has been an up-and-down year. He lost his retainer with Prince AA Faisal in July, having previously ridden the owner-breeder's Mishriff (Ire) to victory in the $20 million Saudi Cup, G1 Dubai Sheena Classic, and G1 Juddmonte

International. Taking the news of that reversal with admirable equanimity, Egan kept his head down, kept riding, and for his boss Roger Varian has been at the heart of a real purple patch for the stable, winning his first Classic on Eldar Eldarov and notching four wins at Newbury on Saturday, including in all three group races, two of which were for Varian and one for Hughie Morrison on Stay Alert (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

Angel Shouldn't Be Kept in the Dark

It is hardly a news flash to say that Dark Angel (Ire) is an excellent stallion but Yeomanstown Stud's 17-year-old somehow seems to be a little overlooked. He shouldn't be, for he is currently riding high in the European sires' table in fourth position behind Dubawi (Ire), Frankel (GB), and Sea The Stars (Ire). That leading trio can perhaps be perceived more as 'Classic' sires, but Dark Angel has also been among the Classic winners this season via his daughter Mangoustine (Fr), winner of the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, in which she narrowly beat the 1,000 Guineas winner Cachet.

The son of Acclamation (GB) was among the major winners on three continents on Saturday. In Canada, Dark Angel's 2-year-old son, the Godolphin homebred Mysterious Night (Ire), strolled to victory in the G1 Summer S. to become his sire's twelfth Group 1/Grade I winner.

FIRST CROP 2YO GROUP WINNER

The Aidan O'Brien trained VICTORIA ROAD makes it 3 wins in a row in the Prix de Conde-Gr.3 at Chantilly on Saturday. He will likely run next in the Criterion de Saint Cloud-Gr.1.

“Victoria Road, who beat a subsequent Group 3 winner at Deauville last time, is on the upgrade”

This followed Mysterious Night's triumph in last month's G3 Prix Francois Boutin and was one of three graded stakes winners for Charlie Appleby in North America on Saturday, along with Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}).

Another of his juveniles, Barefoot Angel, bred by Guy O'Callaghan, landed the G3 Firth of Clyde Fillies' Stakes at Ayr, while earlier that day in Australia, the six-year-old Top Ranked (Ire), a former Group 3 winner for James Tate in Britain, had claimed his first southern hemisphere stakes win in the G3 Bill Ritchie Handicap for Annabel Neasham and Australian Bloodstock.

Bravo, Mon Ami

Cracksman (GB) is making a pleasing start to his stud career with ten winners already on the board from his 26 runners to date, including the Listed winner Dance In The Grass (GB). It will also be worth following the progress of another son of Frankel (GB) bearing Anthony Oppenheimer's colours who made the most eye-catching start to his racing career last week. Courage Mon Ami (GB), out of a full-sister to Group 2 winner Bronze Cannon (GB) (Lemon Drop Kid), was well adrift of the main pack in the early stages when making his debut at Kempton on Friday, but that slow start gradually turned into a steaming finish as the 3-year-old passed all his rivals with a ground-eating stride that saw him win eased down by five lengths. Certainly one for the notebook.

Tijuana's Record Enhanced by Tunnes

It would seem that the fairytale of the small breeder Paul Vandenberg still has a few chapters to be written. Vandenberg's lone broodmare Tijuana (Ger) (Toylsome {GB}) is already the dam of Arc winner Torquator Tasso (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), and her 3-year-old son Tunnes (Ger) (Guiliani {Ger}) has now added the G3 Deutsches St Leger to his victory last season in the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen.

The latter had seen him made winter favourite for the Deutsches Derby, but a setback ruled him out of a spring campaign. Trainer Peter Schiergen indicated on Sunday that the colt will now be aimed at the G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern in early November, the race in which his elder brother was second two years ago after winning the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin. Before that, Tunnes could head to Longchamp for the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris, a fortnight after Torquator Tasso will attempt to defend his Arc crown.

Meanwhile, Vandenberg is sitting pretty with a yearling full-brother to Torquator Tasso and a weanling full-brother to Tunnes at home.

The Americans are Coming

Lope De Vega's excellent run, which has seen him recently notch his 100th stakes winner, was extended on Sunday across the pond with the victory of Faith In Humanity (Fr) in the G3 Pebbles Stakes at Belmont at the Big A (so named for the races held at Aqueduct while Belmont Park undergoes development work).

Faith In Humanity, bred in partnership by Ecurie des Monceaux and Lordship Stud, is yet another European-bought stakes winner for Klaravich Stables to add to the list which includes the Grade I winners McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}), Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman {GB}), Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Word has it that American buyers will be out in force for the Orby and October Sales, and who can blame them? With a seeming reluctance from American breeders to use turf sires based in the US, and the exchange rate for the dollar against euros and sterling currently extremely favourable, the best place to shop for horses for an expanding turf programme is in Europe.

Farewell to Her Majesty

As this column was being written, the solemnities of the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II had brought much of Britain to a near standstill.

On Sunday in Newmarket during the Henry Cecil Open Weekend, the public gallops which preceded a morning of stable tours were led by two of the Queen's horses, Educator (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Saga (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), ridden respectively by Michael Hills and Rab Havlin wearing the royal silks in tribute.

A number of the Queen's racehorse trainers were observed among the congregation at St George's Chapel in Windsor Castle for the service of committal. For many involved in racing, the last we saw of the Queen in public was at Ascot last October for Champions Day when she presented the trophy for the Queen Elizabeth II S. and was herself awarded with a commemorative medal to mark her induction in the British Horseracing Hall of Fame. Her Majesty's fellow inductee Lester Piggott was also at Ascot to be honoured that day. Now, in a mournful time for the sport, both are gone, but neither will ever be forgotten.
