

ACE IMPACT CROWNED CARTIER HORSE OF THE YEAR

Ace Impact | Scoop Dyga

Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and Classic winner Ace Impact (Fr) (Cracksman {GB}) has been named Cartier Horse of the Year at the 33rd Cartier Racing Awards ceremony at London's Dorchester Hotel.

Trained by Jean-Claude Rouget for Gousserie Racing and Serge Stempniak, the unbeaten colt is the first French-trained winner of the award since Treve (Fr) in 2013. His sire Cracksman was the Cartier Three-Year Old Colt of 2017. Ace Impact's fellow nominees for the premier award were Coolmore's Paddington (GB) and Auguste Rodin (Ire), each of whom won four Group 1 races during 2023, and Mostahdaf (Ire), winner of the G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes and G1 Juddmonte International. IRISH NATIONAL STUD HOLDS OR LOWERS FEES IN "CHALLENGING TIMES"

The Irish National Stud is either maintaining or reducing the fees for its six stallions "after a challenging yearling sales season, especially in the middle and lower tiers", according to a press release sent out on Thursday.

The venerable Invincible Spirit (Ire), who turns 27 in 2024, is listed with a private fee, having stood for €60,000 in 2023 following a career high of €120,000 between 2016 and 2019. His top runners this season include the unbeaten G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Ghostwriter (Ire) and he covered 89 mares earlier this year.

Irish 2,000 Guineas winner Phoenix of Spain (Ire) has been one of the leading lights among the first-season sires this year, his 17 winners giving him a 43% winners to runners strike-rate. They are led by the G2 Vintage S. winner Haatem (Ire). The son of Lope De Vega (Ire) will stand at €10,000, down from €12,000 last year.

Another of Lope De Vega's sons, Lucky Vega (Ire), is represented by his first foals at the sales from 150 coverings in his debut season. He was sent 147 mares last year and his fee has also been trimmed, from €15,000 to €12,500.

Nando Parrado (GB) will also have his first crop of foals for sale later this month. From an opening book of 130 mares, he covered 94 this year. The son of Kodiak (GB) will remain at €6,000. Cont. p4

Ace Impact also receives the Cartier Three-Year-Old Colt Award, a category in which Paddington, Auguste Rodin and the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Big Rock (Ire) were also shortlisted.

Shadwell's homebred Mostahdaf, a son of Frankel (GB) trained by John and Thady Gosden, was named Cartier Older Horse over Hukum (Ire) and Westover (GB), who produced one of the races of the year in the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth QIPCO S., and Inspiral (GB), a previous dual Cartier Award winner.

Tahiyra (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), a fifth-generation homebred for the Aga Khan, received the Cartier Three-Year-Old Filly Award. Trained by Dermot Weld, she won the Irish 1,000 Guineas, G1 Coronation S. and G1 Matron S. Her conquer in the 1,000 Guineas, Mawj (Ire), was shortlisted for the prize along with French Classic heroine Blue Rose Cen (Ire) and Warm Heart (Ire), who posted Group 1 wins at York and Longchamp this year.

Shaquille (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}), trained by Julie Camacho to win the G1 Commonwealth Cup and G1 July Cup, was named Cartier Sprinter. Co-bred by his owner Martin Hughes, he received the award ahead of his fellow Group 1 winners Highfield Princess (Fr), Live In The Dream (Ire) and Art Power (Ire).

Having been crowned Cartier Stayer in 2021, Trueshan clinched the award for a second time. Now seven, and trained by Alan King for the Singula Partnership, Trueshan returned to top form in 2023 to win the G2 Doncaster Cup and G1 Prix du Cadran. Gold Cup winner Courage Mon Ami (GB), St Leger winner Continuous (Jpn), and the tearaway G1 Goodwood Cup winner Quickthorn (GB) were also nominated.

There was a clean sweep for the Coolmore partners in the juvenile division, with City Of Troy named Cartier Two-Year-Old Colt and Opera Singer claiming the award for Cartier Two-Year-Old Filly. Both are by the Triple Crown winner Justify and trained by Aidan O'Brien. Also shortlisted in their respective categories were the colts Vandeeek (GB), Henry Longfellow (Ire) and Rosallion (GB), and fillies

Porta Fortuna (Ire), Fallen Angel (GB) and Ylang Ylang (GB).

Jeff Smith, the hugely successful owner/breeder based at Littleton Stud in Hampshire, was the recipient of the Cartier/The Daily Telegraph Award of Merit in a longstanding and popular figure in racing, Smith's colours have been carried by a notable list of horses, including Chief Singer, Lochsong (GB), Persian Punch (Ire), and Alcohol Free (Ire). They were most recently seen in stakes-winning action aboard the G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. winner Ghostwriter (Ire), trained by Clive Cox.

Laurent Feniou, managing director of Cartier UK, said, "I am delighted to celebrate another outstanding group of horses at the 33rd Cartier Racing Awards. Ace Impact displayed his brilliance throughout the year, culminating with a magnificent victory in the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, and he is a deserving recipient of the Cartier Horse of the Year Award. We are also extremely pleased to present the Cartier/The Daily Telegraph Award of Merit to Jeff Smith, who has enjoyed tremendous success as an owner and breeder over the past six decades." Cont., p4

Equiano (Fr) and Elusive Pimpernel (Ire) are both advertised at €2,000 with the requirement for breeders to pay for the nomination in advance of the mare being covered.

Cathal Beale, CEO of the Irish National Stud, said, "There is no doubt that in challenging times we must be especially mindful of the bottom line for breeders and that's why we have chosen to drop or maintain all fees for 2024. Breeders need to be able to make a profit on their stock while giving their mares the best possible opportunity of producing a winner at stakes level. We believe they will find those qualities and that exceptional value throughout our roster."

FEES HOLD STEADY FOR BALLYLINCH STUD SIRES

Lope De Vega (Ire), whose new top-level winners in 2023 include Program Trading (GB) and Arapaho (Fr), has had his fee held at €125,000 for the fourth year. Four of the Ballylinch Stud stallions will stand at the same price as they were advertised last year, while the fee for Waldgeist (GB) has been reduced.

Ballylinch Stud's managing director John O'Connor said, "The Ballylinch stallion roster had another flagship year in 2023, with our proven sires Lope de Vega, New Bay and Make Believe being responsible for some of the highest rated two-year-olds across Europe. Despite this success and outstanding results in the sales ring for our stallions, we have listened to breeders in a year which saw sales returns experience significant retrenchment and have decided not to increase our fees for 2024."

Lope De Vega covered 177 mares this year, the same number as his stud-mate New Bay (GB), whose fee for 2024 is €75,000. New Bay stands alongside one of his Group 1-winning sons, Bayside Boy (Ire), who will embark on his second season at stud at a fee of €15,000 after covering 134 mares in his first book.

Make Believe (GB), the sire of multiple Group 1 winner Mishriff (Ire), has his largest crop making their debut next season, and he will stand in 2024 at €10,000, which is also the fee for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Waldgeist (GB), which is down from €12,500 in 2023.

DARK ANGEL REMAINS AT €60,000 IN 2024

Yeomanstown Stud's flagship sire Dark Angel (Ire), who reached a landmark 100 individual stakes winners in 2023, will remain at a fee of €60,000 in 2024.

His top performers of the year have included Khaadem (Ire) and Art Power (Ire), whose victories at Royal Ascot and on Champions Day brought Dark Angel's total of Group 1 winners to 15, while his six-year-old son Alfareeq (Ire) won his second consecutive G1 Jebel Hatta at Meydan in March.

The G2 Prix d'Harcourt winner Shaman (Ire) will have his first runners next season and his fee is also unchanged at €5,000, while Supremacy (Ire) will also remain steady at a fee of €10,000. The winner of the G1 Middle Park S., who has his first foals at the forthcoming sales, covered 143 mares this year.

Invincible Army (Ire) has been represented by 12 individual winners from his first crop to date, including the stakes winner Kitty Rose (Ire). His fee has been reduced to €5,000 for 2024, from €7,500 this season, when he covered 120 mares.

ZOUSTAR TAKES A SEASON OUT AS TWEENHILLS FEES RELEASED

Zoustar (Aus) will not stand at Tweenhills for the 2024 covering season but will remain in Australia with plans for a return to Britain in 2025. The sire of Group 1-winning juvenile Lezoo (GB) was represented by the G1 Coolmore Stud S. winner Ozzmosis (Aus) at Flemington on Saturday.

Tweenhills owner David Redvers said, "Following discussions with Antony Thompson of Widden Stud, it has been decided that after 11 consecutive Northern and Southern covering seasons, to rest Zoustar for six months in Australia.

"Zoustar is happy, healthy and proving exceptionally fertile in Australia this season, where he covers a full book of mares at a fee of $200,000, but we have always been mindful of protecting his long-term wellbeing and agreed that a break now is prudent." Cont., p5

Kameko | Tweenhills

He added, "Zoustar is booked to return to Tweenhills in 2025. His Northern Hemisphere 2023 Stakes winners include Champion two-year-old filly of 2022 Lezoo, G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint-placed and Sirenia Stakes winner Starlust and St Hugh's winner Miaharris."

Qatar Racing's QIPCO 2000 Guineas winner Kameko remains at a fee of £15,000 in 2024, the year in which he will be represented his first crop of runners.

His fellow Group 1 winner Lightning Spear (GB) has also had his fee held at the same price as 2023, and he will cover at £5,000.

Redvers said, "Kameko's first crop were extremely well received at the yearling sales this year making up to €310,000. With an average of over 65,000gns, he offers breeders outstanding value at just £15,000.

"Lightning Spear's first runners have done very well. With his improved fertility, a fee of £5,000 offers exceptional value for an extremely talented, tough and durable son of Pivotal."

Kameko will be at Longholes Stud in Newmarket during the Tattersalls December Sales and will be on show for breeders between Sunday, December 2 and Wednesday, December 6.

Tweenhills will continue the 'Your Success = Our Success' scheme in 2024. Any breeder who produces a stakes winner by a Qatar Racing-owned stallion at Tweenhills will be offered a credit for use with any of the team's stallions in the following year to the value of the nomination paid.

AL SHAQAB STALLIONS REVEALS 2024 FEES, DIGITAL BROCHURE

Haras de Bouquetot has revealed its Al Shaqab Stallions fees for the 2024 breeding season as well as a new digital brochure available here. Leading the roster for the joint venture are Zelzal

(Fr) and Wooded (Ire), both priced at €10,000 for next season.

"Zelzal, thanks to his ability to improve the small number of mares he covered in his early breeding years, was able to cover 189 mares in 2022 and 111 mares in 2023," said Haras de Bouquetot nominations manager, Sebastien Desmontils. "Like many improving stallions, he is building his reputation the hard way, and we can only hope to see breeders who will use him in 2024 ride the wave of these two larger generations."

Desmontils added that Wooded's first yearlings went through the auction ring this year with a good number selling to the international market.

Al Shaqab, a leading buyer of yearlings in France, will have at least ten of his offspring competing in their colours. New addition Lusail (Ire), the first son of Mehmas (Ire) to stand in France, will carry an introductory fee of €6,000.

"He has a very similar profile to his sire, both in terms of physical appearance and 2-year-old performances as a juvenile double G2 winner. [He is a] robust colt with excellent locomotion [who] is sure to catch the eye of breeders looking for speed and precocity."

Joining Lusail at the price point is Thunder Moon (Ire), whose first foals will arrive in 2024. Romanised (Ire) will stand for €7,000 and was represented by first yearlings in 2023, whose average auction price of €34,000 was nearly five times his initial fee. Galileo Gold (GB) will also be at €7,000; Al Wukair (Ire) and Armor (GB) both stand for €5,000; and Olympic Glory (Ire) will see his fee arrive at €4,000.

THREE GROUP 1 WINNERS AMONG FIELD FOR BAHRAIN INTERNATIONAL TROPHY

French Classic winner Marhaba Ya Sanafi (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) is one of three Group 1 winners set to contest the Bahrain International Trophy along with Above The Curve (American Pharoah) and Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}).

This year's race, which takes place on Friday, Nov. 17, has been upgraded to Group 2 status for the first time and has enhanced prize-money of $1 million. Fourteen runners will go to post, including two trained locally in Bahrain.

Among the international travellers from five different countries is Shadwell's Israr (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}), the winner of the G2 Princess of Wales's S. in July who is trained by John and Thady Gosden.

John Gosden said, "We are confident Israr will run a really nice race over the mile and a quarter, it's a very competitive field but so it should be. It's an exciting, lovely race, well timed in the calendar and the prize-money has been increased so that makes it even more attractive. We've been second in it, so we are itching to win it one day." Israr's fellow British-trained challengers include the Group 3 winner Spirit Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is co-owned and bred by former Manchester United manager Sir Alex Ferguson, and Astro King (Ire) (King {GB}), winner of the Cambridgeshire for Daniel and Claire Kubler.

Travelling from Ireland will be the Joseph O'Brien-trained Above The Curve, while Aidan O'Brien fields Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and Noel Meade is sending Layfayette (Ire) (French Navy {GB}). From France, Andreas Schutz is represented by Marhaba Ya Sanafi, while Andre Fabre plans to run Birr Castle (Fr) (Cloth Of Stars {Ire}).

Along with Nations Pride and Birr Castle, Godolphin will also be represented by Dubai Future (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who will return to defend his title for Saeed Bin Suroor and is set to line up alongside his stable-mate Real World (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Nation's Pride's trainer Charlie Appleby will also be double-handed, with the grey Highland Avenue (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) an intended traveller.

Yusuf Buheji, the CEO of Bahrain Turf Club, said, "We are very much looking forward to this year's running of the Bahrain International Trophy. The race has attracted a very competitive field, including horses representing a wide range of countries and connections.

"The Bahrain Turf Club is very grateful for the continued support shown by some of the biggest owners in world horse racing, including Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin operation, who won the race last year. Racing in Bahrain continues to grow thanks to the enthusiasm and passion of owners and we wish all our participants the best of luck for this year's race."

GALILEO COLT TOPS TATTERSALLS NOVEMBER

The mixed November Sale at Tattersalls on Thursday yielded turnover of 483,100gns from 62 horses sold. The clearance rate was 57%, with an average price of 7,792gns and median of 4,000gns.

The day's top price of 70,000gns came for the unraced Galileo (Ire) juvenile Saint Terry (Ire), who was bought online by Tom Malone.

"He's been bought for a client as one owner bought the other partner out. He'll go to be trained at Barry Brennan's Newlands Stables in Lambourn," said the agent.

The colt is out of the Listed winner Pink Dogwood (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), a sister to the Irish Derby winner Latrobe (Ire) and from the family of G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). He was offered by Freddy and Martyn Meade's Manton Park Racing having been bought from Book 1 of the October Sale last year for 130,000gns.

POPTRONIC A GROUP 1-WINNING GEM FOR SMALL BREEDERS

A fantastic year for Karl Burke's stable was crowned by victory on QIPCO British Champions Day for Poptronic (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in the G1 Champion Fillies and Mares S. at Ascot.

What made the win extra special is that the four-year-old was bred by her owners David and Yvonne Blunt, who keep three broodmares and were enjoying their first win at the highest level.

Poptronic, a daughter of the Dream Ahead mare Alpine Dream (Ire), is one of three classy fillies to be heading to the Tattersalls December Mares' Sale from Burke's Spigot Lodge, and she joins the Sceptre Sessions on Tuesday, December 5 as lot 1784. She owns a pedigree with a decent blend of high-class stamina, speed and precocity. Her dam won three sprints at two, three and four, and is a daughter of the G2 Lowther S. winner Infamous Angel (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}).

Reflecting on her first year in training, Burke says, "Early on in her two-year-old career, she always looked like she was always going to be better as she got older, but she showed enough. I remember having a conversation with David and saying that I thought we could win a race with her at two."

Second on debut at two, she then broke her maiden in Christmas week, meaning that Poptronic started her three-year-old season as a winner. Plenty more was to come, however.

"She's a big filly, with a lovely, long stride on her, so as she got stronger, she was always going to get better," Burke says. "We just brought her along steadily and she won first time out as a three-year-old as well."

"I always felt she had the potential to be at least a Listed-class horse. And obviously she has progressed beyond that."

From that first-up win at three, Poptronic then claimed her first Pattern success in the G3 Hopping Fillies' S. at Newcastle. As predicted by her trainer, she was better again at four, running placed in two group contests in the spring before winning the G2 Lancashire Oaks, beating the subsequent Group 1 winner Sea Silk Road (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in the process. After two further unplaced runs in Group 1 company, she arrived at Ascot in October, where the heavy rain meant that several of the races were switched to the fresher ground of Ascot's jumps course.

"I think it was to her advantage that they switched on to the inner track," Burke says. "We were lucky there and for two reasons. One, it was slightly better ground. She handles soft ground, but I think she's better on a firmer surface or a quicker surface. And also the drop back; it was half a furlong and shorter in trip. She's quite a free-going filly and it meant we could be a bit more aggressive with her in the race. And that's how it turned out."

He continues, "I think David and Yvonne were in shock for a week after after winning a Group 1, having bred her as well."

Poptronic's (GB) win in the Qipco British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes, G1, is a timely update ahead of her intended date with the sale ring at the Tattersalls Sceptre Sessions. Poptronic, cont. from p7

"Everybody tells me, the owner/breeders that we have here, that there's nothing better than breeding your own winner and seeing it win in your colours. And to win a Group 1 and breed a Group 1 winner is pretty special. So they're on a big high at the moment."

Burke adds of his trio heading to the Sceptre Sessions, "We have three very nice fillies going there, all black-type fillies obviously. Dawn Charger won a Group 3 and was second in a Group 2 and she will definitely go on and train on next year. Secret Angel is a big, scopey Dark Angel mare. She's a Listed winner and she's in the right slot. They're lovely fillies to be looking at for breeding later on."

EQUINOX TOPS LONGINES WORLD'S BEST RACEHORSE RANKINGS

Japanese superstar Equinox (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) has topped the rankings at 129 in the ninth edition of the 2023 World's Best Racehorse rankings followed closely by Arc winner Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) and Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who are tied for second with a rating of 128 each.

Noteworthy movement in the rankings include dominant G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. victor Big Rock (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), now the co-fourth highest along with Hukum (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). The Breeders' Cup had its impact on the latest ranking shake-up as well with Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) maintaining his 124 following his win in the G1 Longines Breeders' Cup Turf, and pulled up second place finisher Up to the Mark (Not This Time) and third place Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn})'s ratings in the process. The former went to 122 from 121 and the latter joined the rankings off the effort.

FROST AT DAWN (f, 2, Frosted--Hawana, by War Front), an Oct. 20 debut runner-up going seven furlongs at Newcastle last time, was swiftly away from the outside gate and stalked the pace in second for the most part here. Seizing control off the home turn, the 10-1 chance was not for catching thereafter and ran on well under late urging to defeat Mercury Day (Ire) (Time Test {GB}) by two lengths. Frost At Dawn is the third of five foals and second scorer produced by a dual-winning half to dual stakes-winning GI Turf Classic third Ocean Atlantique (American Pharoah) and the stakes-placed Gold Heritage (Union Rags). Frost At Dawn's dam Hawana (War Front), who was bred to Maxfield this year, has a yearling colt by Bernardini and a weanling filly by Nyquist to come. Her second dam Tare Green (Giant's Causeway) is a half-sister to US champion and MGISW sire Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $8,665.

GODOLPHIN'S KINGMAN FILLY WINS VRC

OAKS by TTR AusNZ

Godolphin filly Zardozi (Kingman {GB}), who was a beaten favourite in Saturday's G2 Wakeful S. (2000 metres), relished the 2500 metres of the G1 VRC Oaks, unleashing a stunning turn of foot to win the $1 million feature in dominant fashion.

Zardozi dominates the field with open air to spare
Bronwen Healy/The Image is Everything

Her victory was Godolphin's second in the race in the past three years, after Willowy (Kermadec {NZ}) prevailed in 2021. The Matthew Smith-trained Aethelflaed (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) ran on well to claim second, 2.25l adrift of the winner, while Basilinna (NZ) (Staphanos {Jpn}) was third.

"It's just a real privilege to be on the big stage with beautifully bred horses like this," winning trainer James Cummings said. "She's a real reflection of his honour, Sheikh Mohammed's vision, to have an international pedigree here in a VRC Oaks. For only a slender filly, she packed a punch at the end of a mile-and-a-half, as we had full confidence in her to do. She let go like a weapon, that's absolutely gold for her pedigree."

Zardozi is out of the unraced Dubawi (Ire) mare Chanderi (GB). Godolphin bought Chanderi for 1.3 million gns (AU$2.6 million) from the Highclere Stud consignment at the 2017 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale.

It was a maiden success in the race for superstar jockey James McDonald, who has now won three Group 1s in 12 days, following Romantic Warrior's (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) Cox Plate heroics and Riff Rocket's (American Pharoah {USA}) Victoria Derby victory. McDonald told Racing.com he was rapt to finally have his name on the honour roll. "Derbys and Oaks, there's something special about them. I've never won a VRC Oaks and it's a test of training ability, horsepower and obviously you've got to execute pretty well because they're immature still," he said.

Pedigree Notes:

The second VRC Oaks winner in three years for Godolphin - Willowy (Kermadec {NZ}) the other - Zardozi is one of her Juddmonte-based star sire's 75 stakes winners and his 10th Group 1 winner; his second (King Colorado the first) on Australian soil. Cont., p12

Zardozi is out of the unraced Chanderi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) who made her way to Australia in 2020 in foal with Zardozi.

Served last November by Palace Pier (GB), she foaled an Exceed And Excel colt last spring and her previous foal is the 2-year-old Lonhro colt, Adinath. Chanderi is a daughter of the G2 Park Hill S. and Listed Chalice S. winner Silk Sari (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) whose grandam Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) earned the title of Irish Champion 3YO Filly with her four wins including two at Group 1 level - the Irish 1000 Guineas and the Ascot Fillies Mile.

$825K CANCEL THIS TOPS 'REALISTIC' BOOK 2 OPENER AT KEENELAND NOVEMBER

Cancel This | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini & Christina Bossinakis

LEXINGTON, KY - The first of two Book 2 sessions of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale saw marked polarization, as the demand for the perceived quality remained strong, but fell off for the less desired offerings.

"It's been a realistic, selective market today," said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. "I think it was pretty evident throughout the day, people knew what they wanted and they were very specific about what they were willing to invest in. Speaking to a lot of sellers, they were very pragmatic about the market. They saw, if a mare was young and was well-bred, you were in pretty good shape. I think any mares that were a little older probably have been exposed a little bit and were a tougher sell. And from the consignors we spoke to, there was an acknowledgment that that's where the market is at the moment. So a little bit of softening, but again, that's to be expected in certain areas."

For the session, 213 head grossed $34,428,000. The session average of $161,634 fell 9.21% from a year ago, while the median fell 14.29% to $120,000.

COMING TOGETHER FOR GOLOVKIN

by Sara Gordon

Standing in the first stall on the left in the Clark family's cozy barn at their farm in Springfield, Kentucky, ears pricked and head on a constant swivel in search of the next treat, Golovkin appears right at home.

One would never guess that the 5-year-old gelded son of Mshawish had just shipped from Monmouth Park, nor that he was the center of Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) findings against his racing owner/trainer John Pimental.

The story was first shared by the TDN's T.D. Thornton on Oct. 20, detailing the life-changing ramifications for Pimental and his wife, Diana, stemming from Golovkin testing positive for 193 picograms per milliliter of methamphetamine following his sixth-place finish in a May 29 sprint at Monmouth Park.

The 4-year-old racing/broodmare prospect Cancel This (Malibu Moon), consigned by Four Star Sales, was the session's top-priced lot when selling for $825,000 to Larkin Armstrong on behalf of Helen Alexander.

Competition for the top weanlings continued to be strong Thursday, with a colt by Constitution selling for top price of $525,000 from Cherry Knoll Farm. The weanling was one of five to sell for $400,000 or over during the session. There were two to reach that level in the same session last year.

"The market has been really strong and on a bull run for some years," said Keeneland Director of Sales Operations Cormac Breathnach. "We had a great September sale and yearling market this year. I think that's reflected in strong foal sales."

The Keeneland November sale continues through Nov. 16 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Cancel This Shines at KeeNov Opener

Well into Thursday's session, Cancel This (Malibu Moon) (Hip 601) broke to the fore with a session-topping $825,000 bid from Helen Alexander, bidding from her customary place in front of the media stand at the back of the pavilion. Consigned by Four Star Sales, she was offered as a racing or broodmare prospect.

"We [initially] thought maybe we should put the whole budget on one mare, but we got blown out of the water [at Fasig-Tipton Tuesday]. So we decided to divide it up instead," said Larkin Armstrong, signing on behalf of Alexander. "We were waiting for this one. [She was good enough to] have sold in any sale."

Alexander also signed for a pair of mares in Keeneland's Book 1: Candy Raid (Candy Ride {Arg}) (Hip 206), who brought $425,000 and Weekend Away (Malibu Moon) (Hip 166), a $400,000 purchase. Both mares were consigned by Taylor Made Sales.

"[Alexander] went into the sale wanting to buy some nice young mares for her breeding program, so I feel like we got horses that we're really excited about," added Armstrong.

The 4-year-old filly was sold by Corey Johnson, whose CJ Thoroughbreds secured the filly for $180,000 at Keeneland September in 2020.

"When Dale Romans picked her out, I remember thinking that she was one of the most athletic, well-balanced yearlings we had ever bought," said Johnson, obviously reveling in the moment following her sale.

"That was three years ago. Our plan was to buy yearlings, race, and then sell them as broodmare prospects. I would say this one worked out very well."

The bay made 20 starts over three seasons on the track, winning only once but hitting the board on 11 other occasions, including a runner-up effort in Presque Isle's Satin and Lace S. in July. She entered the sale with earnings over $240,000.

"She had really a good, solid racing career," said Johnson. "And then, of course, we get a little lucky where the pedigree really booms up. It would be very difficult to expect something like that. We just figured the market would take her as far as it would go. We're very excited."

Out of MSW Catch My Fancy (Yes It's True), the filly is a half-sister to SW and GSP Dubini (Gio Ponti), SW What a Catch and full-sister to Catch the Moon, dam of GI Haskell Invitational winner Girvin (Tale of Ekati) and Grade III scorers Midnight Bourbon (Tiznow), who also finished second in the GI Preakness S. and GI Travers S., and Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John). To add some extra luster to the page, Cancel This is also a full-sister to Clarendon Fancy, dam of this summer's GI Spinaway S. winner Brightwork (Outwork).

"We sold her for some really great clients, Corey Johnsen. It's always great to win for friends," added Kerry Cauthen. "I think that was beyond our expectations by quite a number, but when you bring out the best-looking filly of the day, you're going to get rewarded."--@CbossTDN

Finley Strikes Late for Exotic West

Unbeaten GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Flightline took Terry Finley and his West Point Thoroughbred partners on the ride of a lifetime last year and Finley was keen to acquire Exotic West (Hard Spun) (hip 667), in foal to the champion, Thursday at Keeneland. Finley purchased the 5-year-old mare, the second to last horse through the ring during the second session of the November auction, for $650,000.

"David [Ingordo] really liked the mare. She was a beautiful mare," Finley said. "The Flightlines have been selling really well, but we thought with her placement in the sale, we might get a little lucky. And I think we were--either people were tired or they went to dinner."

"Obviously, the appetite for Flightline is really over the top--better than we expected and we had high expectations. Anytime you can get one in a belly with a young mare like that, you're going to take a shot."

Consigned by Grovendale Sales, Exotic West won the 2022 Top Flight Invitational and was second in the GII Allaire DuPont Distaff S. after being claimed by Louis Lazzinnaro for $40,000 at Saratoga in 2021.

Seven mares have sold in foal to Flightline for $6,625,000 through two sessions of the Keeneland November sale. Leading the way were the $1.65-million Dalika (Ger) (Pastorius {GB}) and $1.45-million Champagne Lady (Uncle Mo).

"Our outlook is we can't get enough of them," Finley said. "We are really happy with [Flightline's] first book of mares and the second one is shaping up really well already. If you can't get excited about owning a piece of Flightline and having a shot to have his babies and the expectation of having them hit the track in a couple of years, you probably don't need to be in the game." Cont.

Lady Scarlet Brings $625K On Day 2

Early in Thursday's Book 2 opener at Keeneland, Lady Scarlet (Union Rags) (Hip 338) brought $625,000 from Thirty Year Farm. The Saratoga-based farm's Kristen Esler handled the signing duties on the GIII Miss Preakness S. winner.

"We loved her," said Esler, who operates Thirty Year Farm with her husband, Matt. "She was our first pick. She was in my heart from the moment I saw her. She's beautiful and she's everything we looked for in conformation. She was an A+. She carried herself really well. I like to look them in the eye and spend some time. She is one that we wanted to bring to our farm."

Consigned by Lane's End, the 4-year-old is a daughter of Exclude (GB) (Include), a daughter of SW Soldera, herself responsible for MGSW Exhi (Maria's Mon) and SW Diluvien (Manduro). The daughter of Polish Numbers is also a sister to Soldata, dam of Group 2 scorer Alignement (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). A $200,000 purchase at this venue in January, the mare visited Flightline before returning to Keeneland Thursday.

Thirty Year Farm also made a purchase in Book 1, buying Hip 163 Walking Miracle (Into Mischief) for $525,000.

"This is the one that was our highest priority. We had one that we got yesterday and we were happy with that purchase, so we may be set, but we don't know yet." --@CbossTDN

Muths Flip a Lady

Chip Muth and his sons, always on the lookout for young mares to buy, put in foal and return to the market, purchased Lady Scarlet (Union Rags) (hip 338) for $200,000 at the Keeneland January sale earlier this year.

Covered by champion Flightline, the mare returned to the Keeneland sales ring Thursday and sold for $625,000 to Thirty Year Farm. Cont.

Undefeated Corniche Named Champion 2-Year-Old Male

The decision by Speedway Stables to go big at an auction of 2-year-olds in training last spring to land Corniche didn't take long to pay dividends. In capping a three-race undefeated season with a clear victory in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1), the son of multiple grade 1 winner Quality Road earned the 2021 Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old male. BLOODHORSE 10th Feb. 2022

“We needed a couple of mares and we went through looking at young stakes mares,” Muth said. “That mare kind of caught our eye. And we got lucky and got her for the right kind of money.”

The 4-year-old Lady Scarlet won last year's GIII Miss Preakness S. and Cicada S.

Muth admitted he thought the mare might have brought more money Thursday.

“To be honest, we all felt like the mare would bring more,” he said. “We sold two mares out here last year almost back to back for $750,000 and one for $700,000.”

Also Thursday at Keeneland, Muth sold Miss Mattie B (Tonalist) (hip 373) for $425,000. The 4-year-old, who was third in last year's GII Santa Ynez S., sold in foal to Quality Road.

“That’s pretty much what we do,” Muth said. “We buy mares and put them in foal to the right horses. We restock 24/7. We are always on the prowl.”

“We very seldom buy on the open market--just when we have a need for one and haven't been able to find something to fill a need.”

Asked what the family looks for in mares to buy with an eye towards resale, Muth smiled and said, “Can't tell you our secrets.”

But he added, “Physicals. Young mares, nice American fillies by name brand stallions. And they have got to be drop-dead gorgeous kind of mares.”

Muth said he generally sells about 20 mares a year.

“We concentrate on November,” he said. “We bring mares here in the fall and in January we will bring some that got in our program a little later and might be carrying a later foaling date.”

Constitution Colt Tops Thursday's Weanlings

South Carolina horseman Peter Pugh purchased Thursday's top-priced weanling when going to $525,000 to acquire a colt by Constitution (hip 286) from the Nursery Place consignment.

“He was super well-balanced and a real good mover,” said Pugh, who purchased the weanling in the name of Cherry Knoll Farm. “Every time we saw him, he was the same.”

Asked if the plan was to pinhook the dark bay colt, Pugh said, “For now. Obviously you want to hit the home run, but I have a partner on him also, we discuss all of this stuff as time goes on.”

The weanling is out of Gone to Town (Munnings) and was bred by Nursery Place and Dicken Equine. Nursery Place purchased the mare for $240,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November sale. She RNA'd with the Constitution colt in utero for $190,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

“We try to bring a handful of weanlings every year to Keeneland--a very select few,” said Nursery Place's Griffin Mayer. “They have to be really, really nice with pedigrees and by the right sires. He checked all the boxes and honestly, he’s probably one of the better colts that we’ve raised in the last 10 years. He’s very special. He’s a homebred for my dad and one of his partners, John Dicken of Dicken Equine.” Cont.

Cherry Knoll has purchased three weanlings at Keeneland so far this week and acquired two colts at the Fasig-Tipton sale Tuesday, going to $500,000 for a son of Into Mischief (hip 268) and $270,000 for a colt by Not This Time (hip 61).

“It’s the same old, same old,” Pugh said. “The better horses bring the money. You have to pay for them.”

Klaravich Enjoys Strong Results at November Sales

Ranking as the nation’s second-leading owner in earnings so far this season, Klaravich Stables capitalized on that racetrack success with the sale of a trio of its stable stars in the select sessions of this week’s most important breeding stock auctions. Among the headliners at Tuesday’s Fasig-Tipton November sale was GI Acorn S. winner Search Results (Flatter) (Hip 179), who sold for $3.6 million to Katsumi Yoshida.

Turning its focus on Keeneland in Book 1, the Seth Klarman-led operation also followed up with the sale of four-time graded winner and Grade I-placed Technical Analysis (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) (Hip 145), who sold to Japan’s J S Company for $1 million in addition to black-type producer Strong Incentive (Warrior’s Reward) (Hip 264), who realized $2.15 million from Alpha Delta Stables. She sold in foal to hot sire Good Magic.

Klaravich had GII Mother Goose S. winner Gerrymander (Into Mischief) also entered at Fasig-Tipton earlier this week, but opted to withdraw her and retain her for a 5-year-old campaign.

“[Klarman] really likes racing and he wanted to run her as a 5-year-old,” said Klaravich’s bloodstock agent Mike Ryan. “If they are sound, they have talent and they still have the desire, then you can run them.” Cont.

Ryan continued: "Many of them are really not at their best until they're about five anyway. And with turf horses, it can be older than that. There is so much opportunity, you don't have to run them frequently. You know what they are. You pick your spots, five or six races and they can be very successful."

All consigned by Elite, the trio of mares were campaigned throughout their careers by Eclipse Award-winning trainer Chad Brown, whom Ryan credits with much of the team's success on the track.

"Chad is a huge part of the success," said Ryan. "We understand each other very well now. When I tell him I really like something, he listens. And I know what he likes. We have a great dialogue and a tremendous trust between us. That's important."

The most accomplished of the trio, Search Results, a daughter of Co Cola (Candy Ride {Arg}), was bred by Machmer Hall. In addition to the Acorn, she also won five more black-type races, including the GII Ruffian S. and GIII Gazelle S. She also hit the board in six Grade I tests, headed by the Kentucky Oaks.

Search Results, who brought $310,000 at the 2019 Keeneland September Sale, led that season's Book 4 opener.

Ryan recalled, "She was an exceptional-looking filly. I remember when I bought her [at KEESEP] it was very late in the sale and I said 'this filly will top the sale today. We need to buy her.' And she did. I remember saying at the time that I thought she could win the Spinaway. She was really special. And she is by a sire that I really like and out of a mare by Candy Ride, who is starting to show up prominently in pedigrees. She was a magnificent physical all her life." Cont.

He continued, “From a physical perspective, it was very hard to fault her. She reminded me of [champion turf female] Rushing Fall [More Than Ready]. Very elegant, had size and substance and class. She had the whole deal.”

Through four seasons on the track, Technical Analysis accounted for eight wins, six at the stakes level, including her latest trip to the winner's circle in the Athenia S. last month. She also placed in the GI QEII Challenge Cup S. and the GI Diana S. The daughter of Sealife (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who realized 200,000gns at the 2019 Tattersalls October Sale, sold at Keeneland as a racing or broodmare prospect.

“When we bought her in Newmarket, there was no black-type in the first two dams,” recalled Ryan.

“We thought we just bought a nice filly at the time. Kingman was starting to roll on pretty good. But she really made her own pedigree. She proved to be a very successful filly, just a notch below Grade I. I thought she was going to bring a little bit more than she did, to tell you the truth, but I think the fact she was the only black-type under the first two dams might have had something to do with it.”

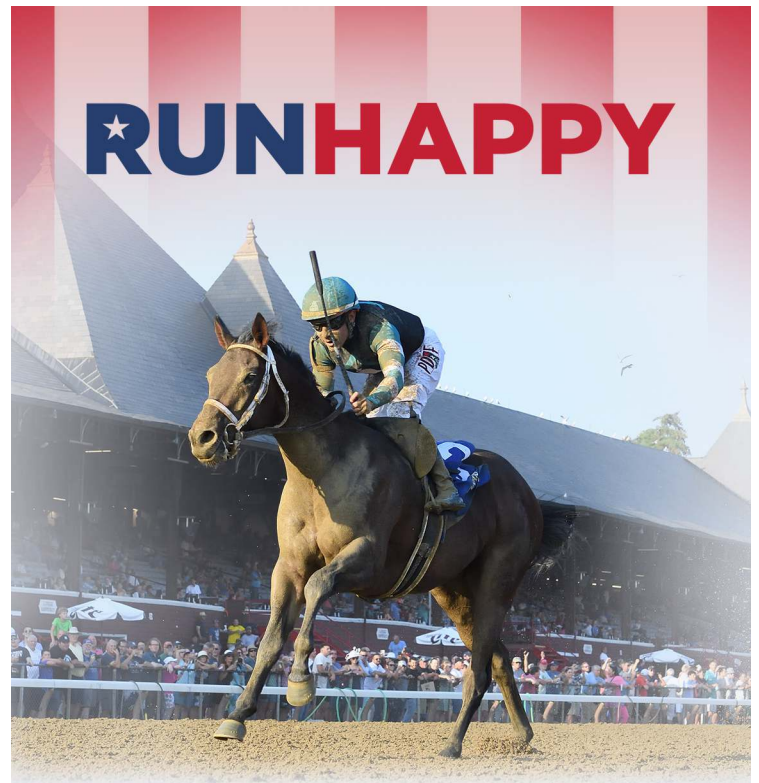

Also showing stakes prowess on the racetrack albeit lightly raced, Strong Incentive collected her only taste of black-type in Woodbine's Jammed Lovely S. in 2015 before retiring to the breeding shed. The mare proved to be of greater value in her latter career, producing Grade III winners Highly Motivated (Into Mischief) and Surge Capacity (Flintshire {GB}).

A $200,000 buy for Klarman and William Lawrence at the OBSAPR sale in 2014, Ryan secured the filly for Klarman for $40,000 at Keeneland November in 2018 after the Klaravich partners decided to part ways. Her son, Highly Motivated, was also sent to the sale's ring that season, bringing $240,000.

The Keeneland November Sale | Keeneland

“Both Strong Incentive and Highly Motivated went to the sale that year to dissolve the partnership,” said Ryan. “She was open at the time she sold. She was a big, beautiful mare and didn't have any black-type at that time, but she was a gorgeous mare and there was so much going for her. I told [Klarman] he needed to keep this mare. For only $40,000, she's proven to be a steal.” Underscoring the point, Strong Incentive's most recent foal to race, Ways and Means (Practical Joke), finished runner-up in this summer's GI Spinaway S. And according to Ryan, the 'TDN Rising Star' could be the crowning jewel of the mare's produce thus far.

“Highly Motivated was very good, but I think the best one might be Ways and Means,” he opined. “She missed the Breeders' Cup with a bit of an issue, but she is very, very good. Three top horses out of three different sires. That's impressive for any mare.”

Given Klaravich's latest success in the sales ring, Ryan is quick to give props to the patience and commitment of Klarman, who is likely to find himself once again among the finalists for leading owner of the 2023 season.

Ryan said, “It is great to see him rewarded because he invests a significant amount of capital every year to buy yearlings and 2-year-olds and racing is his passion. He's a great owner. Really loves the game. And he deserves all the success.” --@CbossTDN

Golovkin | Sara Gordon

A July 28 visit from HIWU agents not only made the Pimentals aware of the meth positive but subsequently revealed Levothyroxine in their truck during a search conducted by the agents, resulting in John facing a three-year period of ineligibility (18 months per violation) and a fine of $25,000 ($12,500 per violation) after agreeing to a "case resolution without hearing." It was the only option he felt was feasible after being unable to afford hiring a lawyer to contest the HIWU's charges of two violations of "banned substances" under the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA)'s Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) Program.

But what about Golovkin? Claimed for $5,000 on the day he tested positive, he raced twice more over the next two months for new connections before the ruling against John voided the claim, resulting in the bay gelding's return to the Pimentals' barn. It was just Golovkin and his stablemate, Richard the pony, left in a nearly empty barn on the Monmouth backstretch.

Acknowledging the rule violations and accepting his consequences led to John signing away his licensure, forbidding him from working in any capacity that puts him in contact with HISA-covered horses. Meanwhile, the Pimentals were restricted to visiting and feeding their remaining horses at the track just twice a day until new homes were found for them.

The Pimentals had been having a hard time finding Golovkin a home due to his mandatory 60-day period of inactivity as a result of the positive, until the TDN story came out. That's when bloodstock agent Lauren Carlisle stepped in.

Already in conversation with her friends Radhika Clark, Director of Operations for Morning Line Club; Sarah Thompson, bloodstock agent for Equix; and Hagyard's Dr. Megan Cassidy about rehoming another horse, Carlisle forwarded the article to the group and the wheels were set in motion. Cont.

"I read it and I was pretty upset about the circumstances and the way it affected the Pimentals and this horse, in particular. I had copied the article, sent it to the group and I said, "We need to try to help this horse, this is not a good situation," she recalled.

They immediately leapt into action, sending texts, making calls and replying to tweets to any and all connections that could possibly get them in touch with the Pimentals. Concurrently, Carlisle reached out to Glenn Brok at Brook Ledge Horse Transportation.

Despite the late hour, Brok called within minutes and Carlisle proceeded to explain the situation. By the next morning, he'd been in touch with Diana and connected her with Carlisle.

The plan was set, Golovkin would be heading to Kentucky.

"The horse couldn't race for 60 days because of the positive and no other trainer wanted to take that horse in, understandably, but it was just a lose-lose situation for everybody. Diana was very thankful and appreciative. She did confirm with me that she wants the horse to be retired and not race again. She was very up front about that," said Carlisle. "She said that [Golovkin] has been through a lot and she's happy that he's going to have a new home. I texted her when the horse got here and I sent her pictures, so she's been very communicative that way. She's the one that told me how much he likes peppermints and carrots.

"I told her, 'Keep my phone number. If you need help with anything else, please don't hesitate to reach out.'"

From the very beginning, Clark and her mother, Sonia, had offered their farm as Golovkin's soft landing. In less than a week after Carlisle's initial call with Diana, Brook Ledge had a spot open up in one of their vans and Golovkin was on his way, free of charge thanks to the support of the transportation company.

"I had several people reach out. [Fasig-Tipton's] Jesse Ullery called me the next morning. He'd seen what I'd put on Twitter trying to find their phone number and he wanted to help. Kirsten [Johnson] with KESMARC called and said if the horse needs any sort of rehab, she will help with that. There have been a lot of people that just wanted to help this horse," said Carlisle. "The whole thing is unfortunate, but it doesn't mean that a horse has to be stuck at a racetrack in a stall."

Team Golovkin | Sara Gordon

Golovkin arrived at the Clarks' farm the morning of Thursday, Oct. 26. After getting a quick bath upon arrival, the gelding settled into his new stall and joined the herd that includes 3-year-old Elegance (Into Mischief), a fellow off-the-track Thoroughbred, and a few other retirees.

"He has a really good personality. As soon as I was in the stall with him, he was super playful. He just wants to play! He came off the trailer without a scratch on him, so you know he traveled well and you can tell he was really well cared for by Diana and John. He's in really great body condition, he looks awesome, so that's a testament to them. They did everything they could for that horse," said Clark. "Dr. Cassidy looked at him and took some X-rays. There are a couple things we're going to verify and re-check, but so far we're pretty happy with him and we're just going to give him some time to settle in."

The four industry women that came together initially to bring Golovkin home were all on hand the day after he arrived and the gelding was more than content to soak up all of the attention.

"I'm going to mess with him a bit here and see what he can do. But past that, we'll reach out to some people. If he is eligible for a second career then that's what he's going to do. If he needs to just hang out in a field all day, he's got the field, it's here. Either way he'll have a home and he'll always have a place to come back to if he needs it," said Clark.

As the gelding now fondly known as 'Go-Go' stood in the aisleway of the barn, a hind foot resting and head low as the farm dogs wandered around him, it's easy to see why he meant so much to the Pimentals, even more so after all they've been dealt this year.

"I understand they're trying to create rules and enforce them, but at the end of the day, now you've got a horse that's pretty much stranded. That's not helping the animal, which is who we're trying to protect. It's a little bit ironic," said Carlisle. "Radhika and her mom Sonia, they really stepped up in giving him a place to go and not asking any questions about it. Megan is going to come back out to do another physical on the horse and she's offering her time at no charge. These are the people that need to be recognized." Cont.

Thornton followed up with the Pimentals, in a TDN story published Oct. 25, revealing that Alan Foreman, an attorney who is the chairman and chief executive of the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, is handling their defense and has managed to get John's signed admission withdrawn so the case can proceed to a hearing.

Meanwhile, the pony Richard is heading to Tampa Bay Downs this winter with trainer Gerald Bennett. The Pimentals will be making their way to Florida as well, where Diana has a job in the Tampa Bay racing office for the upcoming meet.

"We are all working against each other here and there's a lot of competition in our industry with people wanting to win races and just be better, but when the time comes that somebody needs help or a horse needs help, it's not even a question. Everybody chips in to help. That's just a testament to the people that work in this industry," said Carlisle.

DERBY WINNER RICH STRIKE RETIRED, CONSIGNED AS STALLION PROSPECT TO KEENOV HORSES OF RACING AGE SALE

Grade I Kentucky Derby longshot hero Rich Strike will be retired and offered as a stallion prospect at the Keeneland November Horses of Racing Age Sale on Friday, Nov. 17, the organization said in a release Thursday.

The 4-year-old colt by Keen Ice will be consigned by Candy Meadows Farm, agent and is available for inspection in Lexington by appointment.

"Effectively immediately I am announcing the retirement of Rich Strike from racing," owner Rick Dawson said. "Over the past few months, Rich Strike was given the opportunity to rehab and return to his top racing form. However, nagging injuries have prevented that from happening. I'm hopeful now that Rich Strike finds a new home and begins a second career as a stallion."

Bred in Kentucky by Calumet Farm, Rich Strike is out of Canadian champion Gold Strike, by Smart Strike, and a half-brother to Grade II winner Llanarmon (Sky Mesa). He has won or placed in nearly half of his 14 career starts, including, in addition to his aforementioned Derby win, a second in the GII Lukas Classic and a third in the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks, both in 2022.

"Keeneland is excited to showcase Rich Strike, a rare offering who will appeal to international buyers as a stallion prospect and to fans of racing worldwide," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said.

The November Horses of Racing Age Sale starts at noon ET on Nov. 17.

LANE'S END NEW ARRIVAL ARCANGELO TO UNDERGO SURGERY

MGISW Arcangelo (Arrogate) is scheduled to undergo surgery for a left hind short lateral condylar fracture after a consultation by Dr. Larry Bramlage, Lane's End Farm said in a release late Thursday afternoon.

The procedure was recommended to expedite the healing process and ensure his long-term soundness. The findings were made during precautionary radiographs that were performed after missing training and scratching from the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

"We expect a quick recovery and return to normal activities for Arcangelo," said Bill Farish. "We do not anticipate this having any impact on his 2024 breeding season." Cont.

KEENELAND SUPPLEMENTS 16 HORSES TO NOVEMBER HORSES OF RACING AGE SALE

Keeneland has added 16 horses to its single-session Horses of Racing Age Sale, which boasts 320 entries and begins at noon ET on Friday, Nov. 17, the auction company said in a release Thursday.

The latest round of supplements includes:

- Happy Baytown (hip 4312), a 2-year-old Runhappy filly who won a maiden special weight race at Charles Town Oct. 19. Consigned by McEntee Racing, agent, she is a half-sister to multiple stakes performer Spicy Marg (Into Mischief).
- Rastani (hip 4308), a 3-year-old filly by Good Magic who won a Gulfstream Park allowance race Oct. 20. She is consigned by Paramount Sales, agent.
- Riley G (hip 4309), a lightly raced 3-year-old filly by Flatter who finished second in a maiden special weight at Santa Anita Nov. 2, is consigned by Grovendale Sales, agent.
- Tap the Champagne (hip 4310), a 2-year-old daughter of Tapit, is a half-sister to Grade 1 winners Majestic Harbor (Rockport Harbor) and Danza (Street Boss). She is consigned by Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa, agent.

The remaining supplements are by Carpe Diem, Curlin, Dream Ahead, Justify, Kantharos, Mitole, Street Boss, Tapit, The Factor, Unified and War Front.

Additional supplements will be considered until the day of the sale. Print catalogues for the auction are now available for pickup at Keeneland's Welcome Center, with an accompanying supplemental catalogue to be printed prior to the sale.

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC DECEMBER MIXED CATALOGUE POSTED

Midlantic Sale | Fasig-Tipton

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 148 entries for the main catalogue of the Midlantic December Mixed Sale, to be held starting at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 5 at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, the auction house said in a release Thursday.

"This is an important sale for the Midlantic region," said Midlantic Director of Sales Paget Bennett. "There are several quality producers catalogued, as well as weanlings from a variety of state-bred programs by both leading national and regional sires."

The main catalogue consists of broodmares, broodmare prospects, weanlings and yearlings. Fasig-Tipton will also offer a Horses of Racing Age supplement for the seventh consecutive year and entries will continue to be accepted through late November.

"Horses of racing age are one of the strongest segments of the market," said Bennett. "We encourage sellers to take advantage of Midlantic December and utilize its Horses of Racing Supplement which delivers quality results year-after-year."

The Midlantic December Mixed catalogue may now be viewed online and will be available in the EquineLine app. Print catalogues are now available from all Fasig-Tipton offices.

STEWART CONFIRMS GOODNIGHT OLIVE HEADING BACK TO BROWN STABLE

Goodnight Olive | Fasig-Tipton

Back-to-back GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint heroine Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper), who went to Lexington's own John Stewart at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale for $6 million on Tuesday Night, confirmed Wednesday via a message on X that his new acquisition would be returning to trainer Chad Brown to race in 2024.

After the purchase that evening, Stewart told TDN that, "With all the success she's had to date, I think she still has some opportunity to still run."

The new owner added to that sentiment in the Wednesday Tweet when he posted, "Goodnight Olive is off to continue training with trainer Chad Brown. She deserves the right to tell us when/if she is finished racing. Maybe a three-peat at Breeders' Cup 2024?"

If she could pull it off, Goodnight Olive would join French champion Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), who won the GI Breeders' Cup Mile in 2008, 2009 and 2010, as the only horses to win three consecutive races at the World Championships.

YULONG CONFIRMED PURCHASER OF WHITE HOT AT KEENELAND NOVEMBER

BBA Ireland's Michael Donohoe secured Grade I-producing mare White Hot (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at the Keeneland November Sale Wednesday for Yuesheng Zhang's Yulong Investements. Yulong's Chief Operating Officer Sam Fairgray confirmed the news to The Thoroughbred Report overnight.

Hammering down for $2.1 million, White Hot, the dam of GISW Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), was offered in-foal to multiple leading sire Into Mischief by Stone Farm (hip 170).

The purchase was part of a quartet of mares that went to Yulong for a combined total of $3,525,000. All options remain open for the group, according to Fairgray.

"We bought the four Galileo mares, a couple of them are in foal to Justify who is going brilliantly, and Mr. Zhang obviously has a real affinity with Galileo," Fairgray said. "At this stage they'll all stay in America and foal down there, then we'll decide what to do with them. There are plenty of options for them and Mr. Zhang has some other ideas that we might try, but there's a likelihood that a couple of them could end up here in Australia."

CLAIBORNE'S DEMARCHELIER FEE FOR NEXT SEASON AT $7,500

Demarchelier | Equi-Sport Photos

Claiborne Farm's GSW Demarchelier (GB), whose first-crop hit the racetrack this year, will have a 2024 stud fee of $7,500 LFSN, the breeding operation said in a release Thursday.

The only son standing in Kentucky of top international stallion and sire of sires Dubawi (Ire) currently has 11 winners from 28 starters, including two black-type performers and one graded performer. The 7-year-old ranks 14th on TDN's Leading First-Crop Sire list.

Winner of the GIII Pennine Ridge S., Demarchelier (GB) is out of a Sadler's Wells mare who is full-sister to Irish Group 1 winners Yesterday (Ire) and Quarter Moon (Ire). This is an extended female family which includes Irish G1 Pretty Polly S. winner Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and this year's GI Champagne S. hero Timberlake (Into Mischief).

FLORIDA'S LEADING SIRE KHOZAN TO STAND FOR $6,500

Khozan | Louise Reinagel

Multiple leading Florida sire Khozan will have his stud fee set at $6,500, according to a release Thursday from Journeyman Stud.

An 11-year-old son of Distorted Humor, Khozan was the leading 2-year-old sire in Florida when his first crop ran in 2019 and has continued to be the Sunshine State's leading general sire every year since.

Represented by 12 black-type runners this year, including GIII Delaware Oaks winner Foggy Night, Me and Mr. C, winner of the Kentucky Downs Preview S. and R Harper Rose, recent winner of the Susan's Girl S., Khozan's progeny has earned $5.1 million this year.

Journeyman's 2024 roster also includes GSW Uncle Chuck (Uncle Mo) whose first foals will be yearlings in 2024. His fee will remain at $6,500, while American Pharoah's full-brother and Irish multiple group stakes-placed St Patrick's Day (Pioneer of the Nile), with his first-crop racing this year, will be set at $3,500. GISP Chance It (Currency Swap), whose first foals will be yearlings, will once again stand for $2,000.

AZHBPA: 'NO EARTHLY IDEA WHEN AND IF A MEET WILL BE PERFORMED AT TURF PARADISE'

by T.D. Thornton

The ownership group that wants to buy the currently closed Turf Paradise is reportedly at the escrow stage of closing on the sale, but a projected Jan. 13 opening day was met with skepticism when the prospective majority buyer was pressed to name a start date at Thursday's Arizona Racing Commission (AZRC) meeting.

"At this point where we're at, and not having the complete [new ownership] application, there may be a delay from January moving forward," said Rudy Casillas, the deputy director of the AZRC's racing division, told commissioners after brief comments by Richard Moore, the chief executive officer for potential buyer Turf Paradise Land Trust.

Casillas cited both the commission's own lengthy approval process for a new track licensee and what he said was a federal requirement imposed by the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) that stipulates "a 90-day advance notice from any track before their implementation of racing."

"Racing may not start until February or March depending on how things go with the vetting and background investigation," Casillas said.

J. Lloyd Yother, the president of the Arizona Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA), expressed a feeling of being left out of the loop on the status of what might happen at the last remaining commercially active track on a circuit that hasn't hosted Thoroughbred racing for six months.

"We're still in our state of confusion in how things are going down and what's transpiring, what's taking place," Yother said. "There's so many moving targets [and] we still are at the mercy and going through our normal frustrations with how things are to come about.... We have no earthly idea when and if a meet will be performed at Turf Paradise."

Despite that sense of helplessness, the AZHBPA does have one important cudgel of control within its grasp: Its board of directors will be meeting Friday to vote on whether to extend the required interstate simulcasting permissions beyond Nov. 12 so Turf Paradise's 37 off-track betting parlors won't go dark.

Yother said that meeting will determine "whether or not to terminate our signal [permission] or move it forward to [Dec. 31] giving the opportunity for all parties to get their act together and make this happen."

The vote will likely come down to weighing the benefits of keeping the OTBs open (which would allow the new Turf Paradise owner to build up revenue for the purse account) versus closing them (which would make it clear that the AZHBPA has had it with constantly being asked to extend simulcasting privileges to entities that don't conduct live racing).

Turf Paradise ended its racing season back in May with a different buyer doing due diligence to purchase the property. On Aug. 1, track owner Jerry Simms announced Turf Paradise wouldn't be opening in November as scheduled for its traditional six-month meet.

On Sept. 18, the months-long purported sale with the first buyer was publicly declared dead. Then 10 days later, Simms announced a new buyer had suddenly emerged with a desire to purchase the 213-acre property and save racing at the 67-year-old track.

The AZRC met on Sept. 28 and Oct. 12 without anyone from the new prospective buying group speaking in person. But during the Nov. 9 meeting, Simms introduced Moore of Turf Paradise Land Trust, noting that the two parties have been at the escrow stage of the deal since Oct. 18.

"We're going through that contract and executing that contract and hopefully everything goes well and we're going to buy the track and continue on with the racing there in Arizona," Moore said. "That's our main goal."

"We're very excited about this," Moore said. "We're looking forward to it. And we're getting up to speed on where it's at [to] bring the track up to par and to also make it better and to move forward. And we're definitely committed to bring in the necessary funds and commitment and support to make this a destination. And we have a lot of dreams and hopes and things that we'd like to accomplish once we gain ownership."

The Arizona Corporations Commission's website lists no active registration for Turf Paradise Land Trust other than a name reservation made on Oct. 2.

Beyond one question from commissioner Linda York about specifics on the buying group's timetable, Moore was not asked by the AZRC to detail anything about Turf Paradise Land Trust or its plans for the future of the Phoenix track.

York's question about the timing of the meet yielded a response from Moore that the season is projected to start Jan. 13 and would last "to May." Moore added that the sale of the property would likely close before the end of 2023.

After Casillas weighed in that such a timetable might be a stretch, Simms told commissioners that he has already been in talks with the HISA Authority about fast-tracking the process for accreditation, and he claimed to have an assurance that "they could probably get that done a lot quicker [to] work with our time frames."

Turf Paradise has been plagued by safety issues in recent seasons, and as recently as the Oct. 12 commission meeting, Simms and Yother spurred over whether or not extensive repairs are needed for the main track rail.

Yother claimed the fencing is not up to spec and Simms countered that Turf Paradise had fixed problems related to a non-compliance warning issued by the HISA Authority earlier this year after an inspection turned up "numerous gaps and exposed edges in the railing material that could inflict serious harm upon jockeys..."

At the Nov. 9 meeting, Arizona's chief state steward, Jason Hart, said he has been making regular visits to Turf Paradise over the past few weeks. Although Hart acknowledged that the rail had been "in pretty bad shape" at end of the last meet, he said every time he has visited since Oct. 23, he has observed workers shoring it up.

"My expertise or my opinion would be the rail looks very safe at this point," Hart said. "There's a couple of things that don't look pretty with the rail, but it is absolutely safe in my opinion."

Hart added that the turf course well pump has been fixed, and that the grass course is being watered regularly after being seeded and fertilized.

Hart also detailed how six barns have had the copper wiring cut out of them, but that he has been assured by current track management that electricians have been hired to re-wire those stables.

Hart also said frontside windows that appeared to have been blown out in a storm show evidence of being worked on prior to glass replacement.

NINTH THOROUGHBRED OWNER CONFERENCE PANEL NOW ONLINE

The ninth panel of the OwnerView Virtual Thoroughbred Owner Conference was held Tuesday, Nov. 7 and featured videos of farrier work and equine dentistry, said The Jockey Club, who hosted the event along with the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association.

Discussions included perspectives from Dr. Scott Morrison and Dr. Brad Tanner, both of Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital, and OwnerView’s project manager, Gary Falter. The conference is sponsored by Bessemer Trust, Stoll Keenon Ogden and The Green Group. This panel was sponsored by Equilume.

Attendees were able to ask questions through Zoom’s Q&A feature, sponsored by West Point Thoroughbreds.

Breeding Plans, the final Thoroughbred Owner Conference virtual panel of the year, is scheduled for Dec. 5 at 2 p.m. ET.

There is no registration fee for the virtual conference series, but registration is a requirement. For more information and replays of all the panels, click here.

'A TRUE GRADE 1 TALENT'

On the heels of an 8 1/2 lengths debut maiden romp which earned Loggins TDN Rising Star Status, his next start was at Keeneland in the Grade 1 Claiborne Breeders' Futurity. Against eventual Eclipse Champion Juvenile Forte who came into the race off a three lengths win in the Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga, it was the maiden winner Loggins who was sent off the less than even money favorite with Grade 1 winner Forte sent postward at 4 to 1.

'PARTY ON': CONSTITUTION COLT TURNS IN 'RISING STAR' PERFORMANCE AT CHURCHILL by Alan Carasso

Parchment Party | Coady

Pin Oak Stud LLC's Parchment Party (Constitution), who overcame a bit of traffic and a tight spot inside at a crucial stage when belying debut odds of 16-1 over this track and distance Sept. 15, doubled up with an equally eye-catching performance in a Thursday allowance at Churchill Downs, becoming a new 'TDN Rising Star' in the process. He is the eighth 'Rising Star' for his WinStar-based stallion.

Drawn widest in a field of 10 and only lightly regarded in the wagering at just north of 11-2, the $450,000 Keeneland September yearling allowed the inside traffic to clear and was guided down towards the inside by James Graham and trailed into the backstretch. Going sweetly with the better part of a dozen lengths to find passing the half-mile marker, Parchment Party caught the eye with an inside rally around the second turn and was produced three wide into the stretch. Behind a wall of horses at the three-sixteenths, the June foal descended on the leading group five off the fence inside the final furlong and did his best work through the wire to take it by a widening 1 1/2 lengths while not appearing completely focused at the finish of what has the feel of a key race.

First World War (War Front), trying the dirt for the first time and exiting a close fourth as the favorite in the grassy GII Bourbon S. at Keeneland last month, pulled fiercely beneath Tyler Gaffalione for the opening half-mile, settled better thereafter and stayed on for second ahead of longshot Lagynos (Kantharos) in third. Catching Freedom (Constitution), the even-money chalk off a visually impressive debut going this track's one-turn mile Oct. 1, was badly blocked for a run with time ticking away and finished a luckless fourth.

Parchment Party, bred on the same cross that produced GI Belmont S. hero and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Tiz the Law and Grade III winner and 'TDN Rising Star' We the People, is half-brother to Muqtaser (Distorted Humor, MGSP, $303,605; and Darley Japan stallion American Patriot (War Front), GISW, $487,272, and is out of Life Well Lived--a full-sister to MGI/G1SW Well Armed--who was purchased by Bobby Flay in foal to American Pharoah for $1.25 million at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. Life Well Lived is also kin to GSW Witty (Distorted Humor), the dam of GSW Bombard (War Front) and MGSP Amuse (Medaglia d'Oro); and to Well Lived (Tiznow), whose recently retired daughter Played Hard (Into Mischief) won this year's GI La Troienne S. This is also the family of two-time Japanese Horse of the Year Symboli Kris S (Kris S.).

Life Well Lived, who was RNAd for $775,000 when offered in foal to Curlin at KEENOV in 2019, has a yearling full brother to Parchment Party and was purchased by Machmer Hall for $360,000 at Keeneland November Thursday carrying a full-sibling to Parchment Party.

FRIDAY'S INSIGHTS: 'RISING STARS' RETURN AT CHURCHILL, DEL MAR by Alan Carasso

Bandita | Ryan Thompson

8th-CD, $127k, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, post time: 4:33 p.m. ET

Bass Stables' beautifully bred BANDITA (Gun Runner) could not have been more impressive in her lone racetrack appearance to date, as she led every step of the seven furlongs on Gulfstream debut Jan. 29 to score by nearly nine lengths en route to a 'TDN Rising Star' nod (video). The $350,000 Keeneland September grad is unraced since. The bay is out of a daughter of four-time stakes winner and Grade III-placed Simplify (Pulpit), the dam of Bandita's stakes-winning full-sister Optionality and of SW Simple Surprise (Cowboy Cal), whose two-time Grade I-winning son Gunite (Gun Runner) was runner-up in last Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and is a new addition to the stallion roster at Coolmore in Kentucky. TJCIS PPs

7th-GP, $50k, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 3:04 p.m ET

Fans of the 1960s band the Turtles and handicappers alike might flock to the debuting HAPPY TOGETHER (Speightstown) here. The Jan. 23 is the first foal from the stakes-placed Coexistence (Violence), who was purchased by the Lyster family's Ashview Farm for $190,000 out of the 2019 Keeneland November Sale. Herself a $425,000 KESEEP purchase by Robert and Lawana Low, the bay is bred on the very successful cross of Speightstown over Medaglia d'Oro responsible for the likes of Grade I winners Rock Fall, Olympiad, Competitionofideas and this year's GI Del Mar Futurity hero Prince of Monaco. TJCIS PPs

3rd-DMR, $63k, Alw/OC, 2yo, f, 5fT, 4:29 p.m. ET

JULIAS DREAM (Flameaway), a $15,000 KESEEP yearling, blossomed into a $180,000 OBS April juvenile after working an eighth of a mile in a slick :9 4/5. The chestnut filly made the very most of her first trip to the races in a course-and-distance maiden Aug. 6, winning off by 5 1/2 lengths to become a 'Rising Star' and connections could hardly be faulted for taking a crack in the GI Del Mar Debutante, where she finished down the field behind fellow 'Rising Star' Tamara (Bolt d'Oro). The Talla Racing colorbearer gets Flavien Prat for this return to action. TJCIS PPs

PRIVATE CREED (c, 3, Jimmy Creed--South Andros {SW, $207,125}, by Sky Mesa), third in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint, kicked home gamely to just miss in the Aug. 13 Mahony S. at Saratoga and most recently went one better in the GII Franklin-Stamps S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 9. Nevertheless the 2-1 second choice behind Mahony sixth Gaslight Dancer (City of Light), Private Creed won the break, but eased back to sit a three-deep third into the turn.

Private Creed | Coady

Revving up midway on the bend, he put a head in front with better than a quarter mile to race and held them all at bay from there to take it by two easy lengths. South Andros is also the dam of a 2-year-old colt by Vino Rosso that sold for $200,000 at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky last July, a yearling Complexity colt and a weanling full-brother to Private Creed. The mare was most recently served by Jackie's Warrior. Sales history: $45,000 Ylg '21 KESEEP; $155,000 2yo '22 EASMAY. 1st-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $37,440, Alw, 11-9, (NW2L), 2yo, 1m, 1:39.90, ft, 1 length.

FIDGET (c, 2, More Than Ready--Tinabud {SP}, by Lookin At Lucky) was beaten 15 lengths into seventh on his 7 1/2-furlong debut over the local turf course Aug. 3, but improved for the experience to graduate narrowly over a mile Sept. 8. Switching to the main track for this as the 11-5 second choice, the Calumet colorbearer was a touch wide into the first turn and raced prominently down the backstretch.

Fidget | Coady

Overtaking slight favorite Astronomico (Frosted) midway on the second turn, Fidget raced heads apart with Chisparrajos (Blame) deep into the final furlong before finally gaining the upper hand late to score by a length. The winner has a yearling half-brother named Mahmakaan (Union Rags) and a weanling half-sister by Honor A.P. Tinabud most recently visited Game

Winner. Fidget hails from the extended family of E Dubai (Mr. Prospector). Sales history: $85,000 Ylg '22 KESEEP. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $42,340. Click for the Equibase.com chart. O-Calumet Farm; B-Dixiana Farms LLC (KY); T-Brad H Cox.

SPARTAN QUEEN (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Tulsa Queen {SW & GSP-Can, SW-US, $211,381}, by Cactus Ridge) placed once from a pair of starts going long on the dirt at the Fair Grounds last winter, but woke up with a switch to this surface Oct. 1, finishing a half-length second and six clear of a next-out winner. Duly crunched into 3-4 favoritism, the homebred was a forward factor and was content to sit three wide in the breeze from close range. Sent up to challenge two wide rounding the second bend, the dark bay was cut loose in upper stretch and powered home to graduate by 3 1/4 lengths. Lady Claypoole (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) outfinished perfect-trip King's Secret (GB) (Kingman {GB}) for second. English Treasure (English Channel) appeared to go wrong nearing the line and dislodged her jockey Adam Beschizza, who was back on his feet soon after, according to track announcer Travis Stone. Tulsa Queen produced a filly by Tiz the Law this year and was bred back to Cyberknife. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $104,950. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Spartan Team Investments LLC (KY); T-Michelle Lovell.

6th-Churchill Downs, $89,494, Msw, 11-9, 2yo, 7f, 1:24.72, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.

HEART HEADED (c, 2, Oscar Performance--La Malaguena {MSW, $281,610}, by English Channel) was claimed off trainer Al Stall, Jr. for $50,000 out of an even fifth on Keeneland unveiling Oct. 13 and was adding blinkers for this sales price-restricted maiden. Off to an alert beginning from gate seven, the $10,000 Keeneland November weanling was pressured for the opening five-eighths by favored Bear River (Flameaway), but put that one away in upper stretch and remained well clear to the wire to score at odds of 9.54-1. General Issue (Hard Spun), a $3,000 KEESEP yearling, made steady late progress to be a very good second. Hailing from the family of 2015 G1 Irish Derby winner Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling), Heart Headed has a yearling full-brother that sold for $25,827 at this year's CTHS Ontario Sale. Sales history: $10,000 Wlg '21 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $53,753. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

6th-Aqueduct, $85,000, Msw, 11-9, 2yo, 6fT, 1:09.04, fm, nose. TYPHOON FURY (g, 2, Mitole--Tiz Rae Anna {MSP, $143,220}, by Tiz Wonderful) was a distant eighth on his Sept. 2 debut over seven furlongs at Saratoga, but improved to fill the exacta in an off-turf test going six panels on a muddy local strip Oct. 15. Getting the grass this time around as a 26-5 shot, the $55,000 Keeneland September yearling--carrying the Randy Hill silks--was away in good order and chased the pace from a close-up second into the turn. Ridden along to come after front-running favorite Reverend Moon (Omaha Beach) off the final corner, Typhoon Fury battled on bravely inside after being joined by Summer in Adriane (Summer Front) a furlong from home and got the bob to become the 23rd winner for his freshman sire (by Eskendereya). Tiz Rae Anna is also represented by a yearling Twirling Candy filly, a weanling colt by Game Winner and was covered by Midshipman this past breeding season. Sales history: $55,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $65,380. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

KERRI RADCLIFFE BLOODSTOCK PURCHASE
SGV THOROUGHBREDS GRADUATE

1st-Aqueduct, $67,900, (S), Msw, 11-9, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:12.57, ft, head.

WALK WITH ME (f, 2, Central Banker--Might Be {MSP, $228,605}, by Posse) didn't provide any real clues in her steady morning trials and was off as the distant 8-1 third choice behind the rail-drawn 1-2 chalk Dolce Veloce (Maximus Mischief). Hustled to the front from gate two by Jose Gomez, the $100,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling showed the way going only a moderate pace in a tightly grouped bunch. Asked for a kick in upper stretch, Walk With Me carried the lead into the final furlong and just managed to hold off a late try from 5-2 Call Her Bluff (Audible) to take it by a head. Dolce Veloce traveled on the back of the speed, but couldn't quite go with the leaders late and settled for fourth. Produced by a multiple stakes-placed full sister to MSW Sheriffa and a half to SW Tiergan (Afleet Alex), Walk With Me has a yearling full-brother, a weanling half-brother by Uncle Lino and his dam was most recently bred to Nashville, like Central Banker a son of Speightstown. Sales history: $100,000 Ylg '22 EASOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $38,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

DESERT DEBUTERS: BREEZE-UP SALES GRAD MAKES QUICK APPEARANCE AT MEYDAN

by Alan Carasso

In this series, we will have a look at American-bred first-time juvenile starters (through the end of 2023) and debuting 3-year-olds in maiden races at Meydan Racecourse, with a specific focus on pedigree and/or performance in a sales ring in the meetings leading up to the Dubai World Cup program Saturday, Mar. 30, 2024. The flagship venue for racing in the United Arab Emirates, Meydan will host racing predominantly on Fridays, with the exception of Super Saturday Mar. 2 and Dubai World Cup night. Here are the horses of interest for the first card of the season at Meydan:

Tactical Bound | Goffs

Friday, November 10, 2023

2nd-Meydan, AED165,000 ($45k), Maiden, 2yo, 1200m

TACTICAL BOUND (Good Magic) looks to become the fourth winner from as many to the races for his Louisiana-bred dam Jet Black Magic (Hold Me Back), who posted a career-best effort when taking out the GIII Delta Princess S. in 2015. A $65,000 Keeneland September purchase last fall, the Mar. 25 foal fetched €222,222 ($238,303) from bloodstock agent Oliver St Lawrence on behalf of Victorious at the Goffs Dubai Breeze-Up Sale this past March (breeze-up video). The colt's 3-year-old half-brother Midnight Rising (Mendelssohn) was a latest third in the GIII Marine S. at Woodbine.

Alsayef (Union Rags) was a $130,000 acquisition out of last year's Keeneland September sale and is a full-brother to the dual Grade I-placed K P Dreaming. The May 1 foal is out of Litigating (Point Given), whose SW/MGSP dam Mediation (Ire) (Caerleon) is also responsible for the versatile GISW Go Between (Point Given) and SW & GSP Go Around (Medaglia d'Oro).

JOB OPENINGS

A listing of career opportunities in the Thoroughbred industry

Join Our Broodmare Team

Forever Spring Farm is a 310-Acre, state-of-the-art thoroughbred boarding and breeding facility in central Kentucky's thoroughbred country. We are a science-based facility, offering the latest in nutrition science and specially formulated, individually customized, equine care. Forever Spring Farm is located thirty-five minutes away from Keeneland, in Boyle County, home of one of Kentucky's top school systems and the active community of Danville.

We are actively seeking an experienced broodmare team member to play a hands-on role in providing the highest quality of care for our customers' equine investments. This team member will participate in the daily care of mares and foals, work with our veterinary team in breeding and foaling, and provide leadership to our mare care team. This position will be a great opportunity for someone to build experience and make connections in the thoroughbred industry should they desire to do so.

Our compensation package includes comfortable housing, utilities, dental plan, vision coverage, disability and life insurance, employer-matched IRA and a competitive salary based upon experience. Interested applicants should call or email Farm Manager, Jamie McCarthy.
