

DUBAWI'S AABLAN ON TOP IN THE SOLARIO

by Tom Frary

Landing a late gamble in Saturday's G3 Solario S., Godolphin's Aablan (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) made it three wins from the last seven renewals of Sandown's staging post for Charlie Appleby.

Sent off the 7-4 favourite, the Newmarket maiden scorer was settled in a share of third early by James Doyle with the pace set by Inishfallen (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) far from exacting. Taking until the final yards to work his way past that long-time leader, the son of the multiple group winner Promising Run (Hard Spun) prevailed by a neck, with Devil's Point (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) 1 1/4 lengths away in third.

Appleby's assistant Alex Merriam was on hand to welcome the winner and said, "A furlong out I thought we weren't going to win and James has said he is a horse that wants a mile in time, so that is probably what we will look at next. I think James has taught him a good bit there. He has done it the right way and got him to settle. He is a big raw horse so he might need a bit of time between his races."

James Doyle added, "He is quite flamboyant in his early paces and it is key to conserve that energy at this stage. The race couldn't have worked out much better, as we were able to get that cover straight away which helped him find a rhythm, although it took a little time." Cont. p3

HAGGAS HAS LEGER DOUBLE IN HIS SIGHTS

By Emma Berry

In 2017 and 2018, Aidan O'Brien won both the St Leger and Irish St Leger, first with Capri (Ire) and Order Of St George (Ire), and the following year with Kew Gardens (Ire) and Flag Of Honour (Ire). Given the dominance of both the trainer and his not-so-secret weapon Galileo (Ire), it has perhaps passed beyond being remarkable that all four of those horses are by the late former champion sire, but it is worth noting nonetheless.

This year, William Haggas will attempt to pull off that same staying Classic double. We'll let it pass that the Irish St Leger has not really been a Classic since 1983 when it was opened up to older horses. It remains an important and prestigious race with a roll of honour populated by some truly special names, including the four-time winner Vinnie Roe (Ire), Ireland's first Melbourne Cup hero Vintage Crop (GB), the brilliant Yeats (Ire), and the subsequent important National Hunt sires Turgeon and Kayf Tara (GB). The jockey added, “He hasn’t got an electric turn of foot, but I knew this distance would be perfect with the stiff finish. I think going further is going to be better for him. As we have seen, he is a lively character that takes a bit of managing but the boys have done great job with him.”

Pedigree Notes

Aablan is the first foal out of Promising Run, whose career tally included successes in the G2 Al Rashidiya, G2 Cape Verdi, G2 Balanchine and G2 Rockfel S. A daughter of the G1 Grande Premio Zelia Gonzaga Peixoto de Castro heroine Aviacion (Brz) (Know Heights {Ire}) and half to Dubawi’s G3 Lillie Langtry S. runner-up Arabian Comet (Ire), her yearling filly is by Night Of Thunder (Ire).

Francis-Henri Graffard trainee Darkaniya (Fr) (Frankel {GB}--Daryakana {Fr}, by Selkirk), who ran fifth in last month’s G1 Prix Jean-Romanet, added to a first black-type win in July’s Listed Prix de la Pepiniere and doubled a her stakes tally with victory in Saturday’s G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis at Baden-Baden.

The 9-5 favourite lobbed along in seventh passing the judge first time and bounded forward to stalk the leaders in fourth along the backstraight. Inching into second rounding the home turn, she was shaken up to seize control approaching the final furlong and stayed on strongly under a late drive to prevail by 1 1/4 lengths from Kolossal (Ger) (Outstrip {GB}). Cont. p4

Sophomore filly North Reliance (Ger) (Reliable Man {GB}) fared best of the remainder and finished a half-length back in third.

“I allowed her time to find her feet at first,” explained winning rider Bauyrzhan Murzabayev after notching a first pattern-race win in Germany for His Highness The Aga Khan since Kartajana (Ire) (Shernazar {Ire}) annexed 1991’s G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich. “There was absolutely no pace, but that did not really matter as she does not tend to pull. I sent her forward in the final turn and soon realized that Kolossal was my main opponent. She fought gamely and ran on well although I might have hit the front a little too soon.”

Pedigree Notes

Darkaniya is the seventh of 10 foals and one of five winners from as many runners produced by G1 Hong Kong Vase victrix and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud third Daryakana (Fr) (Selkirk). The February-foaled homebred, whose dam is a daughter of G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Daryaba (Ire) (Night Shift), is a half-sister to G1 Prix Ganay-winning sire Dariyan (Fr) (Shamardal) and GII Knickerbocker S. and GIII Monmouth S. winner Devamani (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}). She is also kin to stakes-winning G3 Prix Fille de l’Air third Dariyza (Fr) (Dawn Approach {Ire}), Listed Grand Prix de Clairefontaine victor Darabad (Fr) (Dansili {GB}), the unraced 2-year-old filly Darylakha (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Sea The Stars (Ire).

DARK ANGEL’S HEREDIA BEST IN THE ATALANTA by Sean Cronin

St Albans Bloodstock’s 4-year-old homebred filly Heredia (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}--Nakuti {Ire}, by Mastercraftsman {Ire}) took seven attempts to make a stakes breakthrough, doing so in last month’s Listed Dick Hern Fillies’ S. at Haydock, and continued her belated rise up the ladder with a career high in Saturday’s G3 Virgin Bet Atalanta S. at Sandown.

The Richard Hannon trainee settled into a smooth rhythm after breaking from the outside stall and raced in rear for most of this one-mile test. Making eye-catching headway out wide once into the straight, the 5-2 favourite quickened stylishly to challenge passing the furlong pole and was ridden out up the hill to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from Queen For You (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). Cont. p5

Potapova (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) just got he better of Novus (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) by a pixel in a ding-dong tussle in behind and finished 1 1/4 lengths adrift in third.

“She was drawn 10 of 10, which makes things a lot more difficult, but they didn’t go overly quick and Sean [Levey] had to come a bit wide,” said Hannon. “After her last run I thought she would run very well and she is clearly in the form of her life.

“We were talking about some of the big races in America and she has justified going for one or two of those opportunities after this. I thought we would be lucky to win a listed race earlier in the year, but she has thrived throughout the year. For St Albans Bloodstock, who bred her, they admitted she gave them one of them one of the best days of their lives when she won at Royal Ascot [in last year’s Sandringham]. She won a listed race last time and no one was there, but they were here today and it is a great day for them.

“She looks great, but she is carrying a bit of weight as she is getting older. She was a very fast 2-year-old and she won first time. She won’t be going Stateside until she is a squeezed lemon

[here], but it is up to them and I think they have got to try a big one in my name before one of those big trainers in America gets her.”

Pedigree Notes

Heredia, the 57th pattern-race scorer for her sire, mirrored the feat of Nakuti (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in winning this test, her dam being a half-sister to Gil Belmont Gold Cup Invitational Amade (Ire) (Casamento {Ire}). Heredia is full to a weanling colt and a half to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old colt Arch Legend (GB) (Camelot {GB}) and a yearling filly by Night Of Thunder (Ire). Her third dam Sheba’s Step (Alysheba) produced multiple stakes-winning G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris second Arch Rebel (Arch) and the stakes-winning On My Dime (Mizzen Mast). Sheba’s Step, herself a daughter of GI Hollywood Oaks heroine Pattern Step (Nureyev), is also the second dam of Gill Robert J. Frankel S. victrix Customer Base (Lemon Drop Kid). Descendants of Pattern Step include GI Canadian International victor Bullards Alley (Flower Alley), GI Arkansas Derby-winning sire Archarch (Arch) and last term’s G2 German 2000 Guineas victor and G1 St James’s Palace S. fourth Maljoom (Ire) (Caravaggio).

The Haggas duo of Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}) and Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) will launch respective attacks on the Curragh and Doncaster six days apart. For Hamish it is something of a revenge mission, as he was less than a length behind last year's champion stayer Kyprios (Ire) when second in last year's Irish St Leger. Since that day, the determined and quirky little horse has added another four Group 3 wins to his burgeoning record, including three on the bounce this season. Now seven, Hamish's popularity is growing, and he is of special importance to the Haggas family, having been bred by the trainer's 92-year-old father, Brian, in whose colours he races. Hamish is ridden each day by the trainer's wife, Maureen, with former National Hunt jockey Andrew Tinkler stepping in for most of his work mornings.

Other members of the gelding's family have also been successful for the stable. Hamish's dam, the dual winner Tweed (GB) (Sakhee), is a half-sister to the G3 St Simon S. winner Beaten Up (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}), who later won the G1 Doomben Cup for Chris Waller, as well as Group 3 and dual Listed winner Harris Tweed (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), and Vow (GB) (Motivator {GB}), who won the Lingfield Oaks Trial before finishing fourth in the Oaks. The Scottish theme in the naming is derived from Haggas snr's former ownership of the Kenneth Mackenzie mill in Stornoway, which is the oldest producer of the famed Harris Tweed cloth in the Outer Hebrides.

Hamish picking grass with Maureen Haggas | Emma Berry

A fearless and accomplished horsewoman, Maureen Haggas has worked out that the path of least resistance is key to getting the best out of Hamish. She clearly dotes on him, all the while putting up with his foibles. With nine wins from 17 starts and more than £600,000 in earnings, Hamish can by now be forgiven the odd flash of recalcitrance. After all, what happens on the track is what matters most, and there, once he has deigned to enter the stalls, he is all heart.

"I've ridden him since he was a three-year-old when he was a bit tricky and didn't really want to go anywhere or do anything," Maureen recalls. "They are all funny about the stalls, the whole family. The first time he ran he went to Redcar and he wouldn't go in, so we always have someone with him at the stalls."

That said, he still managed to win three times as a three-year-old, breaking his maiden at Windsor over 1m2f before stepping up to 1m6f to score twice at his owner's and trainer's beloved York. Making just one start in the delayed season of 2020, when fourth in the G2 Hardwicke S., Hamish then suffered a tendon injury which kept him off the track for more than a year. Cont. p7

When he returned to win the G3 September S. on his first run after a 442-day hiatus, he posted what now looks in hindsight a terrific piece of form, as behind him that day was the subsequent dual Group 1 winner Hukum (GB).

"He's an interesting character," Maureen continues. "You've got to pretty much let him do his own thing most of the time. You could fight with him from the minute you went in to him to the minute you put him away, if you were that way inclined. But as long as he goes out, does his work and comes home, then I'd rather leave him be and let him do his own thing. It's just keeping him happy, really. He's seven now, so he knows all about it."

She adds, "He never gets tired, he's a really natural athlete, which not every horse is. He has a good, easy gait, and it's just easy for him.

"The ground is crucial. He sat all summer last year and did nothing, but we had no option. We've been a bit luckier this year, but it really is important that he has a bit of cut in the ground."

Haggas's St Leger candidate, Desert Hero, is a horse who has already put him in the good books by providing his owners, the King and Queen, with a first Royal Ascot winner. Then, like Hamish, he struck at Group 3 level at Glorious Goodwood to win the Gordon S. and put himself firmly in the picture for the final Classic of the season.

The last time there was a royal winner of the St Leger was in the Queen's Silver Jubilee year of 1977, when Her Majesty's filly Dunfermline (GB) followed up on her victory in the Oaks. Cont. p8

A link to the present day is provided by the fact that Desert Hero is ridden at home by Luke Carson, the grandson of Dunfermline's jockey Willie Carson.

"What can you say? It's what dreams are made of, that you have a runner for the King at Royal Ascot," says Carson jnr. "We went to Ascot quietly confident and he was an absolute diamond. He put his head down. He tried really hard. You couldn't ask for any more."

Haggas would obviously like to ask for more, and a win in the oldest Classic in his home county of Yorkshire might be just the ticket in the season following the retirement of former stable star Baaeed (GB), who, like Desert Hero, is a son of Sea The Stars. Desert Hero won twice last year and was third to Silver Knott in the G3 Solario S., but he gave his trainer pause for thought earlier this year after not wintering particularly well.

Desert Hero and daily rider Luke Carson | Emma Berry

"He had a poor winter and a moderate spring," Haggas notes. "We ran him at Newbury to try to goad him into action because we weren't getting anywhere, and he ran okay at Newbury actually.

"Ever since then he has started to thrive. We hoped that the handicap at Ascot might be the right race for him and he did very well to win. They went very fast, and it may have flattered the horses that came from the back, but all the horses in the front at the end came from the back at the top of the straight. Then I thought it was a good win at Goodwood."

And as the first anniversary of the Queen's death approaches, a week before the St Leger, a major victory for the Royal Studs would be welcomed by plenty in the racing world.

Haggas adds, "I think it's really important for everyone, and it's especially important for the King and the Queen. And the fact that we're training Desert Hero is just lucky for us because it's important that they have some success. Obviously the late Queen bred Desert Hero, so that's poignant in itself, and now they're taking up the mantle with gusto and enjoying every minute."

RACE PREVIEWS

PARISLONGCHAMP: MOULIN OPPORTUNITY FOR BIG ROCK by Tom Frary

With no Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) lurking in Sunday's G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, the way is clear for Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) to bag that elite contest that his portfolio demands.

Having met his match in Ace Impact (Ire) in the 10 1/2-furlong G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly, Yeguada Centurion SL's G3 Prix de Guiche and G3 Prix la Force winner came up short against Cheveley Park Stud's high-class filly in Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois last month but that form looks enough in what is a winnable renewal on paper.

Team Valor International and Gary Barber's Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}) has proven himself at this level on his last two starts, finishing third in a blanket in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan over another furlong and 55 yards before making Paddington \(GB\) (Siyouni {Fr}) work in the G1 Sussex S.

"Even though it's back in four and a half weeks which sounds like a reasonable amount of time, in the back of my mind I'm hoping he doesn't react to that last race, it certainly knocked out Paddington," Team Valor CEO Barry Irwin said. "We are hopeful for a good race because Big Rock likes to go off in front and we need to have a target. The races where he hasn't ran quite up to scratch this year are when he got too far behind in a paceless race."

Derby Rematch At Baden-Baden

In the day's G1 153rd Wettstar.de Grosser Preis von Baden, the G1 Deutsches Derby one-two Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and Mr Hollywood (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}) resume their rivalry, with the former having to bounce back from a beating from Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich in late July. TDN Rising Star Mr Hollywood arrives fresh after a break since the Hamburg Classic and may offer the sternest threat to Ecurie Altima and Gerard Augustin-Normand's standard-setting G1 Dubai Sheema Classic and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud-placed Zagrey (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}).

Kerdos, winless in six starts since notching a double in his first two outings as a juvenile last year, lined up for this dash coming back off a fifth in Goodwood's G2 King George S. last month and claimed a career high in his third try at black-type level. Stalking the pace along the rail fourth through the early fractions, the 3-1 chance weaved a passage into the clear approaching the final furlong and kept on powerfully under continued urging to deny Silkie Wilkie by an ultimately snug half-length in the dying strides.

"Clive [Cox] told me he's plenty good enough to win and he knows his horses," said winning rider Ben Curtis. "My instructions were to bring him down slowly, get plenty of cover and have loads of confidence. I did that and he duly went and won. It was very smooth from start to finish."

Kerdos, who becomes the eighth stakes winner for his sire, is the first foal out of a winning half-sister to last week's Listed Roses S. victrix Inquisitively (GB) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) and Listed Cathedral S. third Pixieleen (GB) (Pastoral Pursuits {GB}). His third dam Molly Brown (GB) (Rudimentary) produced G2 Temple S. winner Priceless (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and is also the second dam of G3 Chipchase S. victor Aeolus (GB) (Araafa {Ire}). Molly Brown is a half-sister to the Listed Premio Nearco victor Stato King (GB) (Statoblest {Ire}) with this being the family of G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup heroine Rebelline (Ire) (Robellino). The March-foaled bay is kin to the winning 2-year-old colt Dark Vintage (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Dark Angel (Ire). VIDEO.

Coming off a win at the Galway festival, Shanroe upset some bluebloods here including Godolphin's disappointing Listed Lingfield Derby Trial winner Military Order (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) to record a first black-type win at the ripe age of nine. Allowed his own way in front, the veteran was a sitting duck on the final turn but kept finding as his rivals failed to land a serious blow.

Taking over two out, the 4-6 favourite stayed on strongly to score by three lengths from Beautiful Love (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}). "The last furlong was her best. She was relaxed and behind the bridle as she took a bit of waking up, which is good," trainer Ralph Beckett said. "I've not done much with her since Goodwood, but that's on purpose because she is a 15th of May foal. She is a filly that puts plenty in the mornings and she really enjoys her work and we need to manage her for next year. Anchored in rear initially, the €80,000 Arqana Deauville October graduate was able to enter contention without being asked a serious question in the straight and overhauled Sans Voix 100 metres from the finish for a cosy score.

Trainer Nicolas Clement said, "She is a nice improving filly and we will try to go step by step with her. She has won well and I think seven could be her best trip. She has several options for her next race. She is in the [G1 Prix Marcel] Boussac, but is she good enough for that? LADY MARY (GER) (f, 2, Lawman {Fr}--La Reine Noir {Ger}, by Rainbow Quest) was hampered at the break and recovered to track the leaders along the fence after the opening skirmishes of this unveiling. Nudged along off the home turn, the 79-10 chance launched her bid between rivals with 300 metres remaining and was ridden out once gaining an edge at the furlong marker to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from Irisante (Ger) (Tai Chi {Ger}). Lady Mary is the latest of nine foals and third scorer produced by a half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Lady Marian (Ger) (Nayef), G3 Grosser Preis der Freien Hansestadt Bremen victor Lucidor (Ger) (Zafonic) and to the dam of multiple stakes-winning G1 Metropolitan runner-up Le Don De Vie (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). ROYAL ASCOT-WINNING SPRINTER NATURE STRIP RETIRED AFTER UNPLACED EFFORT IN CONCORDE

Multiple Group 1 winner Nature Strip (Aus) (Nicconi {Aus}--Strikeline {Aus}, by Desert Sun {GB}), who is best known in the Northern Hemisphere as the winner of the 2022 G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot, has been retired, trainer Chris Waller announced on Saturday.

The 9-year-old gelding finished sixth in the G3 Concorde S. at Royal Randwick earlier in the day. Several of his owners, including Ron Lyons, were at the track when Waller made the announcement.

"I'm announcing Nature Strip's retirement on behalf of the owners... It's only fitting that we announce it as soon as the decision has been made," Waller told Sky Sports Racing after the race.

"He came to the race sound and was trialling well; there had been no indication that race ability wasn't there, but he wasn't the same horse in the race today. The spark and acceleration weren't there. He's been such a champion horse."

A winner of 22 of his 43 career starts, Nature Strip was named the Australian Horse of the Year twice in 2020 and 2022, while also racking up titles as the Australian Champion Male Sprinter (2020-2022), Champion Older Horse (2020 and 2022), and Champion Turf Male (2020). Also highly regarded in England from five to seven furlongs in 2022, the Golden Grove Stud Farm-bred won a total of nine top-level races, among them three editions of the T J Smith S. (2020-2022), the Sprint Classic in 2019 and 2021, the 2019 Moir S., 2021 Black Caviar Lightning, and the 2019 Galaxy. An A$90,000 RNA at the 2016 Inglis Melbourne Premiere Yearling Sale, he retires with a mark of 43-22-8-1 and $14,846,644 in earnings.

Making just his third career start off his Sapporo maiden win two weeks ago, Set Up earned both a first black-type and group win here by four widening lengths.

From the break the dark bay colt sped right to the front and never looked back, leading by open lengths at every call and was never threatened before cruising to the easy victory over nine juvenile rivals.

Second on his debut at Hakodate in July, he is the second registered foal and first stakes winner out of his winning dam and also represents the first Japanese-sired stakes winner for his sire, who moved to JBBA's Shizunai Stallion Station in 2019. The War Front stallion's first crop of Japanese-breds hit the track this year, and he has 48 stakes winners worldwide. Click for the JRA Chart & Video.

MR BRIGHTSIDE DELIGHTS CROWD WITH MEMSIE SUCCESS

Will, Ben and JD Hayes | Bronwen Healy

By Keely Mckitterick

The G1 Memsie S. on Saturday embodied everything a racing fan loves about the sport.

A field of 14 quality gallopers lined up in the Caulfield barriers, there would be only one winner, and to the delight of racing fans around Australia, it was the cult horse Mr Brightside (NZ) (Bullbars) who added his third Group 1 victory to his outstanding CV.

Given a gun ride by regular partner Craig Williams, he was able to hold off the game Princess Grace (USA) (Karakontie {Jpn}) and the brilliant I Wish I Win (NZ) (Savabeel), after fighting off the courageous Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) who held strong to finish fourth.

In adding his name to the Memsie S. honour roll, Mr Brightside joins some of the greatest gallopers to grace our tracks - Phar Lap (NZ) (Night Raid {GB}), Ajax, Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) and Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) to name a few.

It was also fitting to see the Hayes brothers, now three--Ben, Will and JD--officially enjoy a Group 1 success together.

After winning his fourth Memsie, Williams told Racing.com, "I walked the track before the Memise, and I felt it wouldn't be a disadvantage to him if he sat a bit wider rather than on the rail. I thought I had two options in the race, and Mr Brightside rewarded me with my decision.

"He was very tough, and it was very good; I just love how he sticks his head out and pins back his ears; he had no favours. We had Alligator Blood drawn to our inside, and it was good, but I know that horse doesn't go down quickly, and I couldn't see behind to know where I Wish I Win was, but I'm just very proud of my horse.

"He's going to be the best miler in Australia."

Pedigree Notes

He is out of the unraced Lilahjay (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) who has also produced the Hong Kong-based, eight-time winner Will Power (NZ) (Power {GB}) and a couple of winners in New Zealand.

Not served last spring having foaled a Darci Brahma (NZ) filly in November, Lilahjay also has a yet to be named 2-year-old filly by that same stallion. Her 3-year-old Betterbeyou (NZ) (What's The Story {NZ}) is a yet to race member of the Gavin Sharrock stable in New Zealand.

Lilahjay is a granddaughter of the classy broodmare Delia's Choice (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}) whose six winners include the Group 1 winners Foxwood (NZ) (Centaine) and Celtic Tiger (NZ) (Jetball) - the former going on to produce the G3 Frank Packer Plate winner Rockwood (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}).

Also third dam of the Singapore-based, multiple Group 1 winner Mr Clint (NZ) (Power {GB}), Delia's Choice is a full sister to the multiple Group 1 winners Sovereign Red (NZ) and Gurner's Lane (Sir Tristram {Ire}).

Boasting Sadler's Wells (USA), Sir Ivor (USA) and Secretariat (USA) crosses, Mr Brightside is also line-bred to the outstanding mares Natalma (USA) (Native Dancer {USA}), Lalun (USA) (Djeddah {Fr}), Somethingroyal (USA) (Princequillo {Ire}), Almahmoud (USA) (Mahmoud {Fr}) and Flower Bowl (USA) (Alibhai {GB}).

BRIGHT FUTURE FENDS OFF PROXY IN JCGC THRILLER

Bright Future | Sarah Andrew

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's lightly raced Bright Future (Curlin), a well-backed 7-2 in Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup S. at Saratoga, dug down deep beneath the ageless Javier Castellano to hold off Proxy (Tapit) by a nose and punch his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita.

"It was a good spot to try a Grade I and he delivered a big performance," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said. "In order to go to the next one, he's going to need to make another move forward. It appears to be pretty wide open, the older horse division. I guess we will learn a little more in California tomorrow or Monday. We'll see."

Showing good speed from his wide draw, the $350,000 KESEEP yearling chased pacesetter Warrior Johny (Cairo Prince) through a half-mile in :48.86. Clocking the front-runner's every move into the final half-mile, Bright Future was felt for and came with a two-wide run around the turn and was on even terms at the quarter pole.

Set down in upper stretch, Bright Future went by Warrior Johny with relative ease and got the bob in over the aforementioned last-out GIII Monmouth Cup S. winner. The latter raced just behind the pace, found daylight about four off the inside at the three-sixteenths and attacked the line willingly, but was on the losing end of the photo. Cont. p3

ARABIAN KNIGHT GIVES BAFFERT RECORD-BREAKING WIN IN PACIFIC CLASSIC

Sent off as the 2-1 favorite despite a below-par third behind the re-opposing Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI TVG.com Haskell S. July 22, Zedan Racing Stable's 'TDN Rising Star' Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo) became the first 3-year-old since Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) in 2014 to best his elders in the GI FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic at Del Mar, earning a spot in the field for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita in the process.

"Those two horses (Arabian Knight and Geaux Rocket Ride) are really good horses," winning Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert said. "The wire couldn't come soon enough. I know it was crazy to come back here and run him at a mile and a quarter, but if you're going to get beat, I'd rather get beat in a Grade I. I loved the way he digs and fought and he's going to get better."

Bright Future (inside) | Sarah Andrew

Bright Future, a sharp debut winner going a mile at Gulfstream last March, was third in his only subsequent start at three. He won two of four previous tries this term, including a last out optional claiming victory at the Spa with a career-best 100 Beyer Speed Figure July 21. He was eased in his lone prior attempt versus stakes company in the 12-furlong GI Brooklyn S. June 10.

"He's a horse that we've always thought a lot of," Pletcher said. "I've got to give the Violas and the Repoles a lot of credit because we've had to kind of tap on the brakes a few times along the way and they gave him time to develop. We probably got a little ambitious when we tried the Brooklyn, maybe didn't have quite the foundation to be ready to go a mile and a half at that stage. We regrouped with the allowance race here and I thought it was a powerful performance, so from that time on we've been pointing for this and the horse has trained exceptionally well. Coming into it, we were optimistic he was ready to make a move forward."

Winning co-owners Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola also teamed up to campaign Curlin's Vino Rosso, who concluded his career with an emphatic win in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic after getting controversially disqualified from a win in this same race at Belmont Park in 2019.

"I had a horse by Curlin named Vino Rosso that couldn't put it together at three, but now [Bright Future] has put it together at four," Repole said. "I named the horse Bright Future for a reason. I knew he was going to be a later 3-year-old, 4-year-old horse and so far his name is fitting right now."

After celebrating his first GI Kentucky Derby win aboard Mage (Good Magic) earlier this spring, the momentum has continued into the summer for Castellano. He is also the regular rider of GI Belmont S. winner and GI Travers S. winner Arcangelo (Arrogate).

Mike Repole leads in Bright Future | Sarah Andrew

“Thank God,” Castellano said. “I’ve been blessed, very lucky and very fortunate to ride the best horses, especially with Todd Pletcher, one of the best trainers in the country. He gave me the opportunity to ride this horse and that’s the key. Keep positive and working hard, and see everything come around.”

Pedigree Notes:

Bright Future becomes the 22nd winner at the highest level for leading sire Curlin. He is the first Jockey Club Gold Cup winner for Curlin, a back-to-back winner of this race in 2007-08.

Bellamy Road is also the broodmare sire of fellow Grade I winners Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) and Cave Rock (Arrogate).

Bright Future's dam SW & GSP Sophia's Song is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Booth (Mitole), a $225,000 OBS March purchase by Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt and Jackpot Farm; a Tiz the Law colt of 2022; and a Maxfield colt of this year. She was bred back to Jackie's Warrior.

Arabian Knight | Horsephotos

Kicked straight into the lead from an outside gate by Flavien Prat—who was the passenger aboard Flightline in last year's history-making Pacific Classic, the $2.3-million topper from the 2022 OBS April Sale made the running once guided down onto the fence as Geaux Rocket Ride tracked from just behind while also hugging the inside.

Controlling the pace down the backstretch and around the second turn, Arabian Knight began to feel pressure from Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) as Geaux Rocket Ride was poised to pounce. It appeared as if the front-runner was in hot water, but he continued to find at the rail and was home narrowly best over Geaux Rocket Ride to give trainer Bob Baffert his record-setting seventh win in the race, breaking a tie with the late Bobby Frankel.

A 'Rising Star' on debut over Breeders' Cup weekend at Keeneland last fall, Arabian Knight splashed home an easy winner while making his two-turn debut in Oaklawn's GIII Southwest S. Jan. 28. He returned from the shelf with a third-place finish as the favorite in the Jersey Shore centerpiece.

"He's a nice horse and he showed it today," Prat said. "He was running easily for me all the way around. He's lightly raced and I think this race will only make him better. It's an honor to win a big race like this."

Pedigree Notes:

A 15th Grade I winner for the outstanding Uncle Mo, Arabian Knight is out of Borealis Night, herself a $450,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling, who was fourth in a lone racetrack appearance for owner/trainer Ralph Nicks in late 2018 and was scooped up by Nathan McCauley's River Oak Farm for just $50,000 at the Fasig-Tipton February a few months later.

The mare had some pedigree underneath her as a half-sister to the three-times graded-placed Kinsley Kisses (Congrats) and GSP Spooky Woods (Ghostzapper) and that helped earn her a date in the breeding shed with Uncle Mo. Consigned to the 2019 Keeneland November Sale, Borealis Night was hammered down to Corser Thoroughbreds for $285,000 and the operation recovered a fair bit of that outlay when Scott and Evan Dilworth paid $250,000 for the colt at Keeneland September in 2021.

Prepared by Top Line Sales, agent, for last year's OBS April Sale, the bay breezed an eighth of a mile in :9 4/5 and went on to top the event on a bid of $2.3 million from Gary Young, agent for Zedan Racing Stable. The latter also purchased Princess Noor (Not This Time) off Top Line for a sales-topping $1.35 million at OBSAPR in 2020.

The first daughter of Astrology to be represented by a stakes winner, Borealis Night is also the dam of a yearling colt by Quality Road.

PARNAC LULLS THEM TO SLEEP IN THE FLOWER BOWL

Parnac | Sarah Andrew

West Point Thoroughbreds and Dream With Me Stable's Parnac (Fr) (Zarak (Fr)) was sent to the front by Dylan Davis and never looked back against the three rivals in Saturday's 'Win and You're In' GII Flower Bowl S. at Saratoga.

The 8-1 shot took the initiative in the 1 3/8-mile journey, led through easy fractions of :25.19 and :51.33 over the firm going, kicked for home as the one to catch and kept on finding to score by 1 1/4 lengths over heavily favored McKulick (GB) (Frankel (GB)).

Two for two as a juvenile for trainer Andreas Wohler in Germany, Parnac won one of five starts--a first-level allowance over the Aqueduct lawn Oct. 29--on these shores last term.

A narrow optional claiming winner downstate June 11, she entered off a third-place finish in Delaware's GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial S. July 1.

After that race's winner Sopran Basilea (Night of Thunder {Ire}) and runner-up Ever Summer (Summer Front) suffered fatal injuries over the Saratoga turf in their subsequent starts, Parnac was a precautionary scratch by NYRA officials out of an optional claimer at the Spa Aug. 11.

"I guess I have to be thankful to [NYRA President & CEO] David O'Rourke because we had to scratch Parnac from the three-other-than a few weeks ago," winning trainer Christophe Clement said.

"We decided to run here, and it was the right decision.

Sometimes, you have to take a shot. I thought it was a fair race, I'm delighted. Some people might say she stole the race, maybe she did steal the race, but you know what? She stole it in a nice way. She won pretty easily in the end."

Clement added, "[G1] E.P. Taylor [Oct. 8 at Woodbine], Breeders' Cup, Long Island [at Aqueduct Racetrack]; we have a quite a few choices. Let's enjoy this for a few days."

Pedigree Notes:

Parnac is the first U.S. stakes winner for the Aga Khan's Studs-based Zarak, a son of Dubawi (Ire) and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and Prix de Diane heroine Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar). She becomes the 10th graded/group winner worldwide for her sire. The winner's group-placed dam's most recent produce is the 2-year-old gelding Kingdom of Stars (Fr) (Cloth of Stars {Ire}), who is unraced in France.

A 'STARR' IS BORN IN THE PRIORESS

Dale P. Ladner's Alva Starr (Lord Nelson), a smashing winner over older female sprinters while making her stakes debut in the Dashing Beauty S. at Delaware Park July 8, negotiated the hike into graded stakes company with aplomb, routing four rivals in Saturday's GII Prioress S. at Saratoga.

Sent off as the 7-2 third choice, with GIII Victory Ride S. runner-up Dazzling Blue (Into Mischief) the pari-mutuel princess at 3-5, the bay--bred by Ladner in partnership with trainer Brett Brinkman--attended a sharp early pace while three wide, turned back a challenge from the heavy favorite nearing the stretch and ran away with authority in the final furlong to romp by 8 3/4 lengths.

Jersey Pearl (Bee Jersey), a latest fifth in the GI Test S. Aug. 5, outfinished a disappointing Dazzling Blue for second.

"This filly had not missed a beat since the Delaware race and we just felt really good coming into the race," Brinkman said.

September Salute to Aftercare

Honoring Belmont & Travers
Stakes-Winning Trainer
Jena Antonucci

The New York State Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund is proud to announce that it will salute Thoroughbred aftercare facilities in New York on September 11, 2023 at the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame, with special recognition to trainer Jena Antonucci.

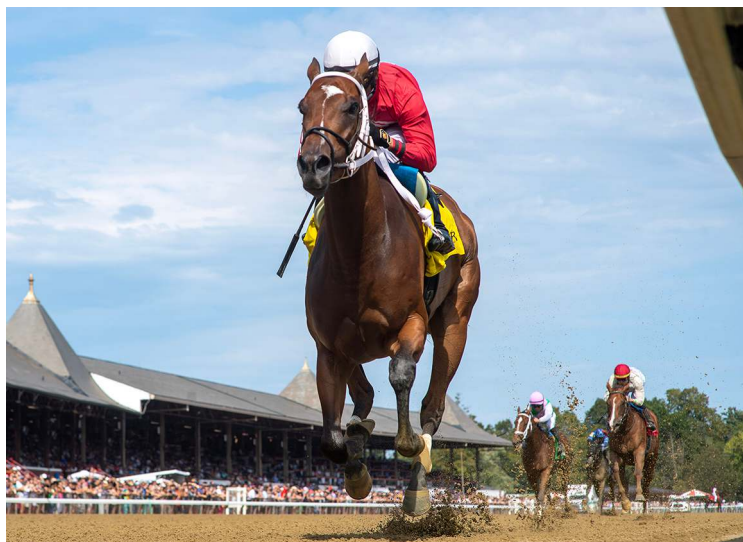

We've named Jena Antonucci our Aftercare Champion of 2023 for the way she has raised the profile of women's contributions to racing and the fact that at every stage of her career Jena has worked to ensure that her racehorses graduate to productive lives after the track. The woman who famously advised others "if you can't get a seat at the table, make your own table" has found a way to re-train or re-home the Thoroughbreds in her care since the very start of her training career back in 2010.

This year the New York Thoroughbred Breeding and Development Fund will pass the million-dollar mark in supportive spending for aftercare facilities.

Alva Starr and Jose Lezcano sporting the Saratoga house silks streak under the line as much the best | Sarah Andrew

After changing into P. Dale Ladner's silks in the winner's circle, Jose Lezcano & Brett Brinkman chat about all things Alva Starr.

"I think that's the first race I've ever won in house silks," Brinkman said. | Sarah Andrew are running fast and she's got a quick turn of foot from a high cruising speed and that's all I told Jose [Lezcano] when he worked her and when he got on her today. I said, 'Let her be who she wants to be, she is very manageable and use her assets.'"

A start in Keeneland's GII Raven Run S. Oct. 21 may be next for Alva Starr, who was narrowly defeated by the aforementioned Jersey Pearl by a neck in a Churchill optional claimer May 27.

Pedigree Notes:

Alva Starr, already one of five stakes winners for Lord Nelson, becomes the first graded winner for her late sire. Into Mischief is now the broodmare sire of four graded winners, including Saratoga's GI Whitney S. winner White Abarrio (Race Day).

The winner's dam Sittin At the Bar, just a $30,000 BSCYRL yearling purchase, won 11 of 19 career starts--led by nine stakes victories in Louisiana--for Ladner and Brinkman.

Sittin At the Bar has also produced the 2021 Prioress heroine Cilla (California Chrome) for these same connections and two other stakes winners. She is responsible for a Frosted filly of 2022 and a Gun Runner filly of 2023. She was bred back to Cyberknife.

MOTORIOUS MOTORS HOME IN GREEN FLASH, EARNS BC TURF SPRINT BERTH

by Alan Carasso

Anthony Fanticola's Motorious (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) rallied smartly through the final furlong and half to prove a much-the-best winner of Saturday's GIII Green Flash H. at Del Mar, sewing up a fees-paid berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint up the road at Santa Anita in early November in the process.

Sent off the 13-5 favorite with Geovanni Franco replacing the injured Umberto Rispoli in the irons, Motorious raced in about seventh position of the 12 runners down the backstretch, but not terribly far off the pace disputed by 60-1 Helladic (Kantharos) and Cal-bred standout 3-year-old Bus Buzz (Stay Thirsty). Kept purposely in the clear for the run around the turn, Motorious was five to six wide off the final corner, kicked it into another gear with a furlong to race and charged home down the middle of the course to score convincingly. Cherubic Factor (The Factor) outfinished the rail-rallying Beer Can Man (Into Mischief) for second.

"I got lucky enough to where Phil would let me work him a few times in the morning so I got pretty familiar with the horse," said Franco of the chance to ride Motorious. "Being given the opportunity for me was a blessing and of him being open for the race. To get to ride him, it gave me a lot of confidence. And you know what, I didn't know how much he can run in the afternoon, but he can sure run. Phil told me he needed a clear break out of the gate, and he broke like a champion. From then on it was just a matter of time whenever I was going to ask him to go and he sure did."

A two-time winner in seven English appearances for trainer Stuart Williams before being purchased by Craig Rounsefell's Boomer Bloodstock for 220,000gns at the 2021 Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, Motorious made a course-and-distance allowance his first U.S. victory last November and took a down-the-hiller at Santa Anita just after the new year before finishing second to Lane Way (Into Mischief) in the Jan. 29 Clockers Corner S. up north. Popular winner of the GIII San Simeon S. Mar. 5, Motorious was making his first start since rallying into second behind Nobals (Noble Mission {GB}) in the GII Turf Sprint S. at Churchill May 6.

Pedigree Notes:

Motorious is one of 11 group/graded winners for his sire, who was only recently moved to Haras du Petit Tellier to stand as the property of Shadwell and a consortium of French breeders. Motorious's multiple Group 3-placed dam is also responsible for Matters Most (GB) (Advertise {GB}), runner-up in the Listed Ripon Champion Two Yrs Old Trophy S. in August, a now-yearling colt by Sergei Prokofiev (Scat Daddy) that sold for 82,000gns at last year's Tattersalls November Foal Sale and a filly by Ardad (Ire) foaled Mar. 23.

GOLD PHOENIX DEFENDS HIS DMR H. TITLE, ON TO BREEDERS' CUP TURF

Gold Phoenix (Ire) | Horsephotos

by Stefanie Grimm

Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) will get a second chance at the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. With a win in Del Mar's GII Del Mar H., the 5-year-old gelding earned a 'Win And You're In' spot in the gate for the November event. Tenth behind Rebel's Romance (Dubawi {Ire}) in last year's renewal of the race, Gold Phoenix rebounded in 2023 with a pair of graded-stakes wins, including a narrow victory in the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile S. to start his year Mar. 23. Though he faltered in both the GII Charles Whittingham S. and the GI Shoemaker Mile S., he entered Saturday's spot off a win in the GII Eddie Read S. July 30.

Favored at 5-2 in a race he also won in similar fashion last year, Gold Phoenix broke smoothly from the outside and let the inside horses clear him, settling near the rear of the field as Azul Coast (Super Saver) and Crosby Beach (Gormley) handled the tempo.

Comfortable at the back past the wire for the first time and into the backstretch, the favorite didn't begin to move until the group started to stack up around the far turn. Splitting horses past the quarter pole, he found a seam six wide into the stretch, dove through and still found more than enough to win despite a tardy lead change in the final yards.

"Plan A was to save ground," said Juan Hernandez. "My horse relaxed really well today and was so patient. This time I go outside because I had a lot of horses in front of me. So I say I want to swing out and see if I can find something. If not I can go back inside. But I was able to find some space to come through, and after that he flew for home. He is getting better every race. Last time he was a little closer and he was able to keep up that space and able to win that race. I just have to wait and he loved the distance."

Pedigree Note:

Gold Phoenix is the sole winner produced out of a full-sister to G1SW Sea Defence and MGSW Jibboom, herself the dam of GSW Flying Jib (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and GSP Accede (Into Mischief). Belardo (Ire), by Lope de Vega (Ire), stood at Darley's Kildangan Stud until last year before moving to Bearstone Stud in Shropshire for 2023. Magnifica foaled a full-brother to Saturday's winner last year and reported a filly by Lucky Vega (Ire) this spring.

ANCIENT ROME CONQUERS MINT MILLIONS

Ancient Rome | Coady Photography

by Stefanie Grimm

Ancient Rome (War Front) came to America and conquered the richest turf race outside of the Breeders' Cup in Kentucky Downs's GIII Mint Millions S. A group-stakes winner in his native France, the Charlie Hill trainee also picked up Group 1 placings in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and the Criterium International as a juvenile.

Shipped in for this race, the 6-1 shot came away in the front flight but began to take back under jockey Jamie Spencer as Stiched (Mizzen Mast) and Smokin' T (War Front) traded blows up front. Caught wide up the sweeping run into the far turn, Ancient Rome had clear aim on the leaders into the stretch and rallied outside of the pair to nab the win. Race favorite Annapolis (War Front) made a move to come through a hole inside of Ancient Rome but had to check back as the eventual winner closed the gap.

"I think he's pretty adaptable on all types of ground," said Spencer. "He's been running on Polytrack also. I went to ride him at home once, and he was pretty lively on his feet. I was pretty expecting that was how he'd be in the paddock. He went to the post a bit lively. I kept him on the move. He was good once he got in the gates. For an English horse, he broke really fast. But he's always done that in France."

Pedigree Note:

Ancient Rome is another feather in the cap for prolific global sire War Front. His full-sister Etoile, herself a group winner in Ireland, is the dam of successful American juvenile runner No Nay Mets (Ire) (No Nay Never) who sold for £800,000 in the Goffs London Sale just before a start at Royal Ascot in June. Dam Gagnoa is a half to several group winners and to the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) who RNA'd for $3.45m at last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale. She is responsible for eight winners from as many to race and foaled back-to-back fillies by Justify in 2021 and 2022 respectively. She returned to the Triple Crown champion for 2024.

One of the hardest-luck horses in the turf mile division, Du Jour made his own good fortune in Saturday's GII Del Mar Mile, as he was given a trouble-free trip by the visiting Flavien Prat for his first graded stakes success since taking the GII American Turf on Kentucky Derby weekend in 2021.

Making the best use of his rail draw, the gelding--carrying the Jill Baffert colors--scraped the paint from just behind midfield and in the slipstream of favored Exaulted, as 20-1 Sumter (War

Du Jour | Horsephotos

Front) took them along at a good gallop. Pinching ground at the fence from the three-eighths peg, Du Jour was steered away from the rail and out into an attacking position while Juan Hernandez was rolling the dice at the inside, praying the runs would come for Exaulted. That did not eventuate for the 9-5 pick, but Du Jour found daylight four off the inside between I'm a Gambler (Ire) (No Nay Never {Ire}) and Balnikhov (Ire) (Aday {Ire}) and it was clear sailing down the outside from there. Exaulted managed to get up late for second ahead of Visitant in third.

"I had a good trip all the way around," Prat said. "When I got a chance to take him out I did and he went. He's a nice horse; certainly could be a Breeders' Cup Mile horse."

Du Jour returned from a 13-month absence to be a nose second, with traffic issues, in the GIII Thunder Road S. at Santa Anita Feb. 4 and endured another checkered passage when a neck second in the GI Kilroe Mile a month later. Fourth to Exaulted in the GIII American S. Apr. 2 and sixth to that foe in the GI Shoemaker Mile May 29, he burst through in the dying strides to win the restricted Wickerr S. over this course and distance July 23.

Pedigree Notes:

Peter O'Callaghan's Woods Edge Farm acquired Guiltless, an unplaced half-sister to Canadian Grade III winner Northern Causeway (Giant's Causeway) for $16,000 at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton February Sale and has since bred four winners from four to race from the mare while upping the quality of her partners. The dam of the winning 3-year-old filly Ninety Nine (Twirling Candy), Guiltless is also represented by the 2-year-old colt Then (Not This Time), a $410,000 purchase by Justin Casse at last year's Keeneland September sale, and a Street Sense filly foaled this past May 11. Cutting back in trip off a sound third to Surge Capacity (Flintshire {GB}) in a yielding-turf renewal of the GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 21, Secret Money managed to knife her way through between horses with time ticking away in Saturday's GIII BigAss Fans Music City S. and outsp rinted favored Danse Macabre to the wire for a first victory at the stakes level.

Away in midfield as Determined Jester (Practical Joke) showed the best early speed in advance of the rail-drawn Danse Macabre, Secret Money was guided down towards the inside and rode the rails into the final four furlongs. Right on the back of the speed nearing the entrance to the false straight, Secret Money muscled her way between the fading front-runner and the race favorite on the elbow into the final stages and kicked on gamely for the victory. Bling came on for third.

A $40,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic juvenile, Secret Money won her maiden at second asking sprinting over the Keeneland turf course Apr. 23 ahead of a first-level allowance score at Churchill May 20. A troubled fifth in Woodbine's grassy Alywow S. June 25, she made the running in the Lake George and held well to be third in ground that may well have been too easy for her liking.

"She's been very good all year," said winning trainer Brendan Walsh. "She hasn't put a foot wrong really. She had a horrible trip at Woodbine a couple of starts back. Came back, we decided we'd try to stretch her out, see if she'd get the mile at Saratoga. She ran really well, didn't quite get home, but ran a very respectable third in very good company. We always had this race in the back of our mind all year, the 6 1/2 [furlongs] we felt would hit her right between the eyes. Thankfully it did. I'm delighted. It's a great group of owners. It's [Fortune Farm] Richard [Nicolai]'s first time here at Kentucky Downs, so it's been a great experience for him."

Pedigree Notes:

Secret Money is the first North American graded winner for her sire (by Harlan's Holiday) and third overall worldwide, joining a pair of Group 3 winners in Chile. The sire's other black-type winner is 2022 Tempted S. heroine Good Sam.

Ceiling Crusher stepped outside of the state-bred ranks for the first time and cruised to a dominating win in Saturday's GIII Torrey Pines S. Undeclared through her first four starts at Santa Anita, including a 17-length exhibition in the Melair S. May 28, the bay had to settle for third in her most recent start in the Fleet Treat S. at Del Mar July 27. Drawn outside for her move into graded company, the 2-1 shot was hard ridden for the front and secured the lead into the turn, dropping down to clear Pink Ace (Alkenite). Comfortably ahead up the backstretch, Ceiling Crusher settled into a nice rhythm and clicked off fractions of :22.14 and :46.29 as Pink Ace began to loom into the far bend. But almost as soon as her rivals began to close, Ceiling Crusher responded with a kick past the quarter pole and quickly put the race to bed, opening up to the wire to win with ease ahead of a strung-out field.

"When she was a baby I used to work her for trainer Luis Mendez before she got sold," said winning jockey Edwin Maldonado. "So, it crushed me when she got sold. But I was happy to see her doing so good. Today, you go or you take back and try and save ground. So it was a no brainer but to go with her today. Day and night, now she does everything so easy, effortless."

"I think I had her in a route mentality and last time (in the Fleet Treat) I kept her one turn and it was a difficult challenge," added trainer Doug O'Neill. "So, I think getting her back to two turns, she drew perfectly and Edwin (Maldonado) did a great job. We did the old find the lead and improve your position. That confident, arrogant thing you do and often times you get pie all over your face, but this particular time it worked perfectly."

Pedigree Note:

Ceiling Crusher would have easily become the most expensive of her siblings at auction when she failed to sell on a final bid of $115,000 as a yearling at last year's Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings Sale. She is the second graded-stakes winner for her California-based sire. Palisadesprincess has an unraced 2-year-old, Majestic Palisades (Majestic Harbor), a yearling colt by Desert Code and a weanling filly by Smiling Tiger.

FLASHY MAIDEN WINNERS TAKE ON SARATOGA STAKES WINNERS IN LOADED SPINAWAY

Ways and Means | Sarah Andrew

Brightwork | Sarah Andrew

'TDN Rising Star' Ways and Means (Practical Joke), one of the more impressive maiden winners this summer at Saratoga, will square off with unbeaten GIII Adirondack S. heroine Brightwork (Outwork) in a deep renewal of Sunday's GI Spinaway S. at the Spa.

Ways and Means, a homebred for Klaravich Stables, earned a field-best 90 Beyer Speed Figure for her geared-down 12 3/4-length debut victory going six furlongs Aug. 6. She'll take on an additional furlong in the Spinaway.

"She's had two easy works since, and she looks fine," trainer Chad Brown said. "I'm excited to see her run again. We've been training easy."

Brightwork made it three-for-three for trainer John Ortiz with an impressive win of her own in the 6 1/2-furlong Adirondack Aug. 6. The re-opposing GIII Schuylerville S. winner Becky's Joker (Practical Joke) was a distant seventh that day.

"The thing about her works is that she's only getting better and better," Ortiz said of Brightwork. "Her heart rate is showing that she's asking for more distance and so we're going in there as confident as can be."

The field of 10 also includes: Astoria S. winner and Schuylerville third Closing Act (Munnings); the Bill Mott-trained six-length debut winner on opening day Sugar Hi (Twirling Candy); and Alys Beach (Omaha Beach), who defeated next-out runaway winner Life Talk (Gun Runner) by a head on debut July 30.

Sunday's graded stakes action also includes: the GII Caesars Sportsbook Del Mar Derby and the GIII National Thoroughbred League Dueling Grounds Derby at Kentucky Downs.

US Racing's Dirt Dilemma Apparent from Across the Pond

In Ireland, we're no strangers to forfeiting the future by hanging onto the past so US racing's dirt dilemma is recognisable from across the pond. Persevering with dirt as its main surface satisfies tradition. It also risks the sport's long-term viability. By Brian O'Connor, The Irish Times

BROKEN HEARTS AND FATALITIES: LETTER TO THE EDITOR

by Eric Ward

I have been following with interest the past week's articles, letters and commentaries in the TDN and while I agree that track surfaces need to be looked at, I feel like it's all a bit deja-vu and that if racing had stayed the course and adapted following the initial introduction of synthetic surfaces 20 years ago, we might be in a better position today. But anyway...

The truth is that everything in the modern "thoroughbred industry" needs to change if racing is to survive as a sport. But still people complain about HISA and fight against any kind of change.

So, more and more, it looks like nothing significant will change because nobody wants to get off the commercial juggernaut...I mean, It's easy to shout and scream about track surfaces because it distracts from addressing the wider issues:

Racing and breeding have become so commercialized that horses are now almost exclusively bred, raised, sold, resold, resold again, trained, run and maybe resold yet again, not as athletes but as financial commodities and nearly everybody is playing the numbers game.

Furthermore, in the last 30 years, the Overton Window for use of PMs (I'm not even going to mention PEDs) has shifted so much that medications are considered standard and necessary and alarmingly often, the reasons for administering tend to be more about our plans, deadlines and expectations than the welfare of the horse. As Bart Cummings was wont to say, "Patience is the cheapest and least used thing in racing."

It breaks my heart to say that I think in another 30 years, racing will either be banned or reduced to a behind-closed-doors, ultra-niche activity like polo, show-jumping or eventing.

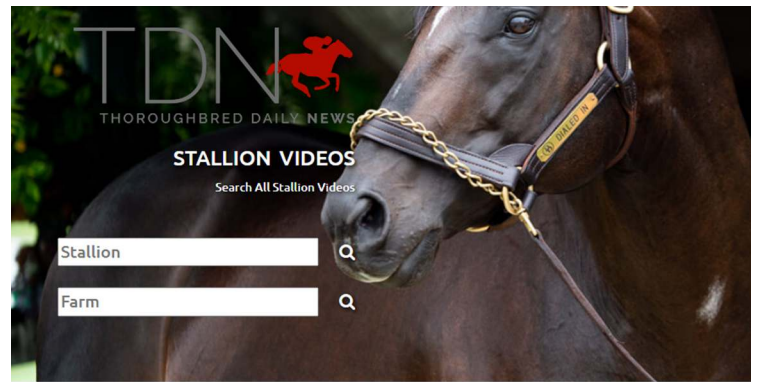

Eric Ward grew up in Ireland and spent nearly 30 years in stud farming all over the world including a decade with Coolmore. He managed studs in Ireland, China and Turkey. Now based in Gaillac, France he assists his winemaker wife, writes novels and is also a volunteer fire-fighter/first responder.

AGATE ROAD DEFIES ALL LOGIC IN 'RISING STAR' TURF DEBUT by Alan Carasso

Agate Road (10) | Sarah Andrew

Repole Stable and St Elias Stable's Agate Road (c, 2, Quality Road--Yellow Agate, by Gemologist) was hammered into even-money favoritism for his turf and two-turn debuts on the strength of a near-miss runner-up effort in a rained-off maiden Aug. 5. At the end of 8 1/2 very eventful furlongs Saturday afternoon at the Spa, the $650,000 Keeneland September purchase was named a 'TDN Rising Star'.

Drawn widest in a field of 10, Agate Road was behind the eight ball right from the opening bell, as he broke a good two paths to his outside, costing himself any shot at securing a forward position. To make matters a bit more complicated, he didn't take the first turn particularly well and settled near the tail of the field as 11-1 Ocala Rocket (Hard Spun) led them along at a moderate early clip. Racing with just two behind as they hit the backstretch, but still patiently handled by Irad Ortiz, Jr., Agate Road had about eight lengths to find banking around the final turn, but was forced to take the scenic route, conceding ground to add to his trouble line through the opening 6 1/2 furlongs.

Switched out widest into the lane and despite being bothered by a shifting-out rival nearing the furlong grounds, Agate Road steamed home down the center of the course to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat in a race he really had no business winning. He becomes the 15th 'Rising Star' for his sire.

Agate Road is the third winner from three foals to race out of Yellow Agate, a $70,000 Keeneland November weanling turned $210,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by China Horse Club who validated 13-10 favoritism in the GI Frizette S. in 2016. The mare is also responsible for Agate Road's year-older full-sister Plentitude, a maiden winner at first asking over the Tampa main track in April before taking an allowance sprinting over the Belmont turf course in June. She was most recently fourth in the Blue Sparkler S. at Monmouth July 8.

The dam of the yearling filly Gin's Beach Road (Quality Road), a $650,000 acquisition by Live Oak at last month's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale, Yellow Agate aborted her Constitution foal of 2023 before being bred once again to Quality Road.

THANKS TO EXPLOSIVE FINISH FROM AGATE ROAD, REPOLE WINS ANOTHER SARATOGA MAIDEN by Bill Finley

Just five races after Mike Repole was visiting the Saratoga winner's circle with 2-year-old winner Life's an Audible (Audible) in Saturday's first race, the owner wasted little time getting back to that same spot. Repole won his second maiden special weight race on the day and his seventh at the meet when Agate Road (Quality Road) unleashed a furious stretch drive to win the day's sixth race, a maiden on the turf.

Repole's 2-year-olds continue to be a relentless force at the Spa.

"He's a nice Quality Road and we really liked him," Repole said. "Todd (Pletcher) is having a great meet, we're having a great meet and my team is doing a great job. A lot of these are 2-year-olds we bought at the sales. Our 2-year-olds are running really well. We're really loading up for this year and next year."

Agate Road | Sarah Andrew

Agate Road was a $650,000 Keeneland September purchase and the dam, Yellow Agate (Gemologist) won the GI Frizette S. for trainer Christophe Clement. Though there didn't appear to be a lot of turf breeding in the colt's pedigree, Pletcher must have known something. He entered Agate Road in an Aug. 5 maiden that was washed off the turf. Agate Road finished second in the one-mile event, losing by just a nose.

But rather than staying on the dirt, Pletcher placed the juvenile right back in a turf maiden. The result was a much-improved effort from the even-money favorite.

Breaking from the 10 hole in a field of 10, Agate Road came out at the start and by the time he could be straightened up by Irad Ortiz, Jr. he was last. Ortiz got the colt going near the top of the stretch, but it still looked like a lost cause.

At the eighth pole, he had just one horse beat, but from there launched a stretch rally for the ages. He passed eight horses and made up about six lengths inside the final furlong to win by a neck over Stolen Magic (Good Magic).

"I wouldn't say it was a masterful ride from Irad when he went 10-wide," Repole said.

"He's had better rides. When he broke a little slow from the 10 post, he was going to be wide. He must have come home in under 12. He was flying at the end."

The final time for the mile-and-a-sixteenth run over a firm turf course was 1:46.79 and Agate Road paid $4.10.

From his army of 2-year-olds, Repole may not be done. On Sunday, he will run Scalable in a six-furlong maiden special weight race and Miz Sense (Street Sense) in the GI Spinaway S. On Monday, he will send out Be You (Curlin) in the closing-day feature, the GI Hopeful S.

LIFE'S AN AUDIBLE POUNCES, GRADUATES AT SECOND ASKING

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. -- Different surface. Different distance. Different pace scenario. Far different outcome for Life's an Audible (Audible) Saturday in the opener at Saratoga Race Course.

When her career debut at 1 1/16 miles on turf on July 30 was switched to the main track at one mile due to wet conditions, Life's an Audible was prominent for six furlongs, but weakened and ended up 21 lengths behind her Todd Pletcher stablemate Miz Sense (Street Sense).

Running 5 1/2 furlongs over a turf course rated as firm in her second start Saturday, the Repole Stable chestnut came from off the pace under Irad Ortiz, Jr. and beat the maiden special weight field by 1 1/4 lengths. Sent off at 7-1 in the field of 10 fillies, she reached the wire in 1:03.29 and paid $16.40.

It was the second consecutive day that Pletcher watched one of his 2-year-olds flourish in its second start. On Friday, Locked (Gun Runner), turned in a very professional performance for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Walmac Farm.

Bayare (Midshipman), the 2-1 favorite, and Echo Baybe (IRE) (Cable Bay {IRE}) set the early pace through fractions of :21.54 seconds and :45.38. Starting from Post 9, Ortiz worked Life's an Audible toward the inside. She got the job done in the stretch.

"Shortening up from an off-the-turf race; got some experience in there," Pletcher said. "They went pretty fast early. She got out-footed a little bit in the beginning but picked it up nicely around the turn came with a good run down the lane."

Repole purchased Life's an Audible for $200,000 at the OBS March sale. She was bred in Kentucky by Susan Moulton.

Ortiz was aboard for the July 30 race and figured that Life's an Audible would again be part of the pace scenario. Instead, she was about six lengths back after a quarter mile.

Life's an Audible | Sarah Andrew

"She was quick last time, so I knew that she was going to be close, but they ran away from me early on," he said.

Ortiz guided the filly closer to the rail and had her in position to make a late run.

"When she hit the clear, she took off," he said.

LIFE'S AN AUDIBLE (f, 2, Audible--Catkins, by Data Link) was an early factor on debut but faded to be a well-beaten fourth at Saratoga in a rained-off one-mile event July 30. On the turf in a true sprint Saturday, the 7-1 shot took her time getting into stride and raced in the back half of the field before moving up into the turn. Fanned out to be six wide past the quarter pole, the $200,000 OBS March grad rallied to the front inside the final sixteenth and got a bit of separation late to score by 1 1/4 lengths over first-time starter, Tammy Lynn (Distorted Humor). Life's an Audible becomes the sixth winner for her freshman sire (by Into Mischief). Catkins has a yearling Tom's d'Etat colt, reported a Liam's Map filly this year, and visited Nashville for 2024. GENERAL PARTNER STAKES HIS CLAIM OF THE SARATOGA WINNER'S ENCLOSURE

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. -- In his second career start Saturday, General Partner (Speightstown) was really ready for prime time at Saratoga Race Course.

While it wasn't exactly a led-from-gate-to-wire performance, General Partner was in front quickly under Manny Franco. He was never seriously challenged and won the seven-furlong maiden special weight race for 2-year-olds by a solid four lengths in front of the favorite, Dive Bomber (Omaha Beach). Klaravich Stables's chestnut colt reached the wire in 1:22.33.

General Partner debuted for trainer Chad Brown at six furlongs on July 22 and after being prominent early ended up fourth, beaten 2 3/4 lengths.

"We really liked the horse first time out, and in hindsight when he came back from running, I could see how hard he was blowing. I ran him a couple of works short," Brown said.

General Partner | Sarah Andrew

"I was eager to run him because he had so much ability and I actually jumped the gun a little bit putting him in."

With Klaravich owner Seth Klarman watching, General Partner broke his maiden with a flashy performance.

"It all worked out in the end," Brown said, "because he got a race that he needed and got the last bit of fitness that he needed for a race rather than a couple more works and we were able to run him back at the meet and be successful today."

General Partner, out of the Distorted Humor mare Fleeting Humor, was bred by Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey and the Speightstown Syndicate. He paid $9.30 as the second choice in the wagering.

Brown said he expected General Partner to be on the lead, but not in the way that the race unfolded. He came out of Post 3 a step slow and appeared to brush with the horse to his inside.

"He didn't break that well and Manny made a key decision to go up in the lead," Brown said. "I'm not sure I actually would have done that when he broke bad because he looked like he was going to be in a nice, cozy stalking spot. Manny used excellent judgement. That was really the difference in the race. He kept him clean the whole way."

General Partner and Franco turned in split times of 22.74, 45.92 and 1:09.87. Without any real pressure, they got the final eighth in 12.46. While Brown said a stake might be General Partner's next start, he did not commit to a specific race.

"There's been some really good-looking maidens this meet-- I've been very impressed-- that aren't mine," he said. "When you look at a horse like this, you look at a race like the (GI) Champagne S. This year, when you say that, you better know that if these horses all stay healthy, this is going to be a real race if some of them end up there. This is not a meet where there's been like one Jack Christopher (Munnings) debut or something like that." Cont., p4

"There's been a handful of ones I can just think of right now that have been super-impressive to my eye. I'm just happy to have one of them."

GENERAL PARTNER (c, 2, Speightstown--Fleeting Humor, by Distorted Humor) finished fourth in what was a loaded maiden special contest July 22 behind well-met Valentine Candy (Justify) but ahead of returning rival Dive Bomber (Omaha Beach), who was crowned the 8-5 favorite between the two here. Jostled at the start by an inner horse coming out, he recovered quickly to set a pressured pace from the public's choice to his outside and had taken firm command six furlongs out. Tucking closer to the rail though the bend and bracing for a pair of challengers, he straightened for home with a clear lead heading passed the eighth pole. Despite moving out late from the left hand stick, General Partner came home four lengths best over Dive Bomber. A half-sibling to a fleet of accomplished runners including Seventhfleethumor (Afleet Alex), GSP, $133,785; Naughty Joker (Into Mischief), SW, $176,403; and Cathedral Reader (Shackleford), SP, $174,795, the victor is the first to the races after a couple years of poor breeding fortunes for the mare. His 2023 half-sibling was stillborn and Fleeting Humor was sent to Epicenter for 2024. Sales history: $250,000 Wlg '21 FTKNOV. DRIVE

The NY Race Track Chaplaincy, with your help, provides backpacks filled with the specific supplies needed for hundreds of students of the backstretch communities of Belmont, Aqueduct, and Saratoga.

During the backpack distribution we also provide free first day of school haircuts, distribute free clothing, and even provide ice cream for everyone in order to provide a fun, relaxing, and festive atmosphere for the students and their families as they prepare for the first day of school.

This year for the second year we will also be providing a new pair of sneakers, which adds significantly to the cost of this program but provides a critical benefit for our families, for whom a pair of new sneakers is not a feasible purchase.

Thank you for blessing the families of the backstretch community.

SUNDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: MAIDENS

TACKLE THE KENTUCKY DOWNS TURF

by Stefanie Grimm

1st-KD, $150K, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 1:30 p.m.

ROCKETEIGHTYEIGHT (Into Mischief), a homebred for Frank Fletcher Racing, debuts for Riley Mott Sunday at Kentucky Downs. His dam is a half to the dam of successful young sire Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) along with GISW Global Campaign (Curlin) and SW/MGSP Sonic Mule (Distorted Humor). Under his third dam is MGISW Zensational (Unbridled's Song) and MGSW/GISP Departing (War Front).

Making his second start, Hanalei Bay (Into Mischief) was a $500,000 yearling who just missed when debuted over the Colonial Downs turf Aug. 3. He is out of a half-sister to GSW/MGISP Out of Control (Brz) (Vetorri Pire {Ire}) and to the dam of Brazil's champion 3-year-old colt George Washington (Brz) (Redattore {Brz}). TJCIS PPS

Off as the 6-5 chalk in Saturday's $1-million Listed Gun Runner S. at Kentucky Downs, Joe Allen and CHC's Talk of the Nation took command in upper stretch and staved off a stinging late rally from Wadsworth to lead home a 1-2 finish for their in-form stallion.

Away in good order, Talk of the Nation took up a stalking position from second early on as Smokey Mandate (Strong Mandate) made the running down the hill and towards the side of the galloping oval. Held together into the final quarter mile, the dark bay put his head in front with about a furlong to travel and kept on resolutely. Wadsworth lingered towards the back of the pack early and was committed to an overland passage at an early stage by Florent Geroux. The Godolphin homebred finished full of run down the center of the course and was gaining late, but the wire arrived in time.

"We always figured he was going to want the grass," said Reeves McGaughey, assistant to winning trainer Shug McGaughey. "When he won the dirt, we had to give him one more try to make sure. As soon as he got on the grass, he was a different horse."

A maiden winner in two starts on the dirt to begin his career, Talk of the Nation took his first two tries once switched to the turf, including Tampa's Columbia S. Mar. 11. A money-burning runner-up in the June 3 Jersey Derby at Monmouth Park, he was last seen checking in second to More Than Looks (More Than Ready) in the GIII Manila S. at Belmont Park July 7.

It was the second win on the afternoon as breeder for China Horse Club, who was represented by new 'TDN Rising Star' Agate Road at Sararoga. Cont., p7

Last year's winner of this same race, Thin White Duke had not found much success of late, only finding the winner's enclosure once in his last nine starts dating back to October of last year though he had been third in back-to-back editions of the Gill Troy S.

Making his third start of this Saratoga meet, the 5-year-old gelding entered off a fourth-place finish just 10 days ago when facing allowance horses Aug. 23. Given a 9-1 shot Saturday, he trailed the field through the opening quarter in :22.42 but came with an outside move into the turn to place himself into contention. Big Invasion got the first jump into the stretch but Thin White Duke rallied strongly to get the best of a three-way bob for the win.

"It's been a slow meet not having any live ones to lead over," said winning trainer David Donk. "This horse likes it here and I thought his races earlier in the year were really good and I thought the course played to him more this week where you can close on it more than you could earlier in the meet. He's done really well and I wasn't afraid to run him back, he's been kind of full of himself. I'm just happy that he ran so well and for [owners] Phil [Gleaves], Steve [Crist], Ken [deRegt] and Bryan [Hilliard]. I know it means a lot to these guys that the race is named after Harvey [Pack]. It was appropriate."

Thin White Duke has only one younger sibling, an unraced 4-year-old half-sister by Freud. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Low Mileage broke her maiden May 5 at Laurel Park and then was a well-beaten second July 14 over that same dirt surface. As the 3-1 shot here, the bay filly raced mid-pack up the backstretch, took aim at the leaders around the far turn and finding the rail open, Low Mileage seized the front with good energy to earn her first stakes win.

Out of an extended female family which includes GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Bodemeister (Empire Maker) and his half-sister MGSW Under the Stars (Pioneerof the Nile), the winner is unraced Chabeso's first offspring. A clear winner when unveiled against maiden claimers at Colonial Downs Aug. 10, Sweet Soddy J stepped up into stakes company Saturday given a 9-1 chance. Away awkwardly and taken back through a rough opening furlong, the gelding found room inside to sit off pacesetter Frosty the Giant in fourth. He still needed a running lane as the field swung off the turn and found it with a rail-skimming move at the head of the affairs, bidding for the command. The best late despite never swapping leads, Sweet Soddy J was the clear winner ahead of a trio of charging rivals. The third stakes winner for Bee Jersey, he has a pair of younger full-sisters still to race and Sweet Rhapsody returned to the Darby Dan stallion for another full-sibling in 2024. ACCRETIVE (g, 4, Practical Joke--Mallory Street {SP, $111,837}, by Street Sense) debuted stylishly at Belmont last season, posting a 91 Beyer, before backing up that winning performance with a neck second to MGISW Gunite (Gun Runner) in just his second career effort in the GII Amsterdam S. at this venue. That field also comprised of no less than six runners with Graded black-type, five of them at the Grade I level. He would run fifth in a tough edition of the GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S. that year behind MGISW Jack Christopher (Munnings) before going on the shelf until his 2023 bow last out July 22 against first-level allowance horses at track and shorter trip. Victorious by over three lengths there, the Chad Brown-trainee picked up his second consecutive win here via a stalk-and-pounce trip, collaring Uncle Moonlight (Uncle Mo) from the five path in upper stretch, and gamely putting away that stubborn rival by a length on the wire. DR. VENKMAN (g, 3, Ghostzapper--Theory of Change, by Archarcharch) experienced slight traffic coming out fo the gate, but the 2-5 favorite paid it no mind, stalking from the inside and moving into third by the half. Switched out for a rally from the grandstand side, he locked horns with the pace setter as the quarter pole sailed by and took over in the stretch. Powering away from Finneus (Stay Thirsty) as his more seasoned rival tried to close the gap, Dr. Venkman came home 5 1/2 lengths to the good. His victory here was notably similar to his maiden score, where he closed from midpack and won by 5 1/4 lengths at track and near trip July 21, netting a 91 Beyer for the effort. Elder half-brother to SW Tranche (Collected), Dr. Venkman also has a yearling half-brother by Street Sense. Theory of Change was barren on a 2023 visit to Maxfield and saw both that stallion as well as Violence for a 2024 covering. Sales history: $105,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. RIDING PRETTY (f, 3, Jack Milton--High Renaissance, by Girolamo) was last seen finishing a distant third to GISP Occult (Into Mischief) and GSW Foggy Night (Khozan) in the Gill Monmouth Oaks, the latter returning victorious next-out in Parx's Aug. 22 Catherine Sophia S. Riding Pretty had also hit the board in two attempts at state-bred stakes company at this venue on both surfaces earlier in the summer and was hammered to 1-9 favoritism for this state-bred allowance contest on the main. Tracking from second early after the jump, she didn't stay there long, launching a bid entering the far bend that allowed her to quickly assume command. Cruising into the lane, the race was over as Riding Pretty allowed her jockey to do just that, hitting the wire 9 1/2 lengths best over Beatubyachubinose (Hey Chub). The most accomplished runner for her dam, the winner is the last registered foal thus far for High Renaissance and has a winning elder sibling. FOREVER SOUPER (g, 4, American Pharoah--Mighty Souper {MSP, $122,866}, by War Front) made the barn switch from Mark Casse in 2022 before graduating from the allowance ranks on his third attempt this year for Mike Trombetta over the Monmouth turf July 22. The 1-5 shot here settled along the fence in fourth into the clubhouse turn, started to make his move three-wide around the far turn and under a hand ride, the dark bay gelding cruised home by 2 1/2 lengths over Kygo (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). The winner is his dam's first to the post, but he does have an unraced 2-year-old half-sister named Souper Gin Can Win (Lookin At Lucky) and a yearling half-brother by that same sire. Mighty Souper foaled a colt by Yaupon Apr. 14 and was bred to Roadster for next year. Lifetime Record: 9-4-0-2, $143,893. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

STRAIGHT AND LEVEL (g, 3, Kantharos--Fly Swift, by City Zip) just missed by a half-length in a respectable effort as a 21-1 longshot over the dirt at Ellis July 30. Given the change of surface in this spot, the 3-1 chance was patiently handled in the opening stages, chasing pacesetter Cigarette Boat (Kantharos) from fourth.

Kept at a mile here, the 6-1 shot trailed only pacesetter Enigmatic (West Coast) through an opening half in :47.23 and pounced into the lane to clear past her competition and pick up the 3 1/4-length win. Moonlight Gambler (Malibu Moon) came from off the pace to pick up second. WINE ME UP (c, 2, Vino Rosso--Deanaallen'skitten {SW, $374,246}, by Kitten's Joy) found his feet after bobbling a touch at the jump and took no time getting to the front, speeding through :22.01, and :45.44 early splits as D'Oro Dash (Bolt d'Oro) hounded him from second as part of the lead trio. Vying with challengers through the turn, Wine Me Up had to dig, but found more in the stretch to kick away from his longtime shadow and score by 1 1/2 lengths. Out of an accomplished racemare, the victor is the fifth to get his picture taken for the dam and has a yearling full-brother waiting in the wings. MISCHIEFS CAUSEWAY (c, 2, Curlin to Mischief--Candy Causeway, by Giant's Causeway) broke sideways a bit and bumped hard with his outside rival, who dropped his rider soon after, and was soon after rushed up to gain an early spot in the flight of three who rated in a line across the track and just behind the pacesetter Fright Train (Bullet Train {GB}) for the run up the backstretch. As the frontrunner led the field into the far turn, Mischief's Causeway was on the move on the outside and had reached even terms with the tiring early leader before reaching the three-sixteenths pole. The winner began to pull away as he made his way into the top of the stretch and under a stern ride continued on to the wire with good energy, safely holding off the challenge from the dueling duo of runner-up Red On Sunday (Smiling Tiger) and third-place finisher Petesoldfashioned (Smiling Tiger) by 2 1/4 lengths.
