'MOMENT OF IMPULSE' LEAVES HALL LOOKING FORWARD TO FIRST RUNNER AT NAAS

Robert Hall | Tattersalls Ireland

By Brian Sheerin

The much-loved Robert Hall, who fronted Ireland's terrestrial television coverage of racing on RTE for 37 years before retiring in 2020, says he is optimistic of "a forward showing" but more importantly "something to build on" with his first horse, Frogman (Ire) (Ol' Man River {Ire}), who makes his eagerly-anticipated debut in the closing bumper at Naas on Sunday.

Frogman may be Hall's first runner but eagle-eyed observers may recognise the black and red silks that the four-year-old will carry as they are the exact colours of the old Stablemate Racing Syndicate, a successful ownership venture that Hall was involved with alongside Denny Cordell in the late eighties. After a 30-year hiatus, the black and red is back and the hope is that Frogman can prove up to the task.

"It's my first runner in my own name," the legendary broadcaster explained. "They are the old Stablemate Racing colours. Stablemate was an old syndicate that we had and there were just short of 800 subscribers to it. It was a company set up by the late Denny Cordell, a famous music producer and racehorse trainer, and we had horses with about seven or eight different trainers." Cont. p3

HALF-SISTER TO LA PETITE COCO ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS OF GOFFS FEBRUARY SALE

La Petite Sissi (Ire) (Ivawood {Ire}) (lot 385), a half-sister to G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine La Petite Coco (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}), is one of the leading lots catalogued for the Goffs February Sale on Feb. 7-8. A total of 431 lots are spread across the two days featuring both Flat and National Hunt horses of all ages, with each session beginning at 10 a.m.

Wednesday's session begins with 2-year-olds, horses-in-training and stores followed by a weanling section with a wide variety of sires represented. Foals kick off Thursday's session, that will end with breeding stock from both codes.

Some lots of note include White Caviar (Fr) (Australia {GB}) (lot 360), a sister to G1 St Leger winner Galileo Chrome (Ire) (Australia {GB}); the stakes-placed Pretty Rebel (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) (lot 384); and Grade 3 chase winner Waitnsee (Ire) (Arctic Cosmos) (lot 392).

Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, "Following a phenomenal 2023 at Goffs--a year full of highlights which began with the February Sale reaffirming its market-leading status--we are delighted to present a catalogue of real quality and diversity under both codes for our first sale of the New Year." Cont. p6

He added, "A lot of our proceeds came from the telephone lines. Premium numbers had just come in at the time and we realised there was an opportunity there. So, we did very well and had a lot of fun. All bar one of our horses won races and we had one or two decent ones. We had horses with Willie Mullins when he started out--and I actually won on one of those! We also had horses with Michael Cunningham, Denny himself, Dermot Weld, Arthur Moore and a good few others. They've been lucky enough colours."

He added, "We closed Stablemate Racing down after six years. When we closed it down, the subscribers very kindly registered these colours for a lifetime to myself. I think it is the first time since 1993 since these colours have been used and it's the first time I've had one in my own name."

Hall has been retired from broadcasting for over three years now but remains part of the Tattersalls Ireland media team. It was at the May Sale last year when Frogman first caught his attention and, while he didn't set out to snap up a store on the day, came home from work the proud new owner with trainer Richard O'Brien, who he'd previously never met.

He explained, "I got this fella at the May Sale at Tattersalls Ireland. I do a bit of work with Tattersalls and I can remember I absolutely loved this horse when he came into the ring. I couldn't buy him because I hadn't seen him outside. Anyway, he got knocked down to Gerry Hogan who was standing beside me and I said to him, 'what a lovely horse'. He then told me that the horse was for Richard O'Brien.

"I was interested in the horse because he has a lovely pedigree. It goes all the way back to Mumtaz Mahal, who was an incredible filly, one of the best of all time. I mean, she has just been the most incredible mare and so many good horses, including Alpinista (GB), can be traced back to Mumtaz Mahal. You know, I love all of those old families and, sometimes in this game, you need to look back and see what's not on the page to get a bit of value."

Hall added, "The next thing I did was look up Richard O'Brien. I liked hugely what I saw of him and then I said to Gerry that, if Richard hadn't found anyone for the horse, I'd love to have him. By the end of the day, I owned him."

In O'Brien, Hall has identified a man with a proven track record for winning this race at Naas. The County Limerick trainer sent out Impulsive Dancer (Ire) (Dragon Pulse {Ire})--who would later be sold to Simon Munir and Isaac Souede to race with Willie Mullins--to win this in 2022 while his fingerprints were over last year's scorer Cut The Rope (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) given he sold the horse to Paul Nolan just a few weeks before the first four-year-old bumper of the year. But Sunday is not about winning for Hall. It's about much more than that. Cont. p4

"Since giving up my television role," he explained, "I just felt there was a danger of me not drifting away completely, but losing my connection with racing. It's funny, the last horse I bought on impulse like this turned out to be the dam of Indigenous (Ire) and she was incredible. I've always kept my eye in and it's good to have an interest."

Hall bid adieu to RTE Racing after almost 40 years at the helm of Ireland's terrestrial television coverage of the sport. He provided countless hours of entertainment, often alongside Ted Walsh, with the duo building up a loyal following, especially through the infamous Ask Ted segment, which generated lots of laughs--and some hairy moments--in more recent times.

Frogman at three | Tattersalls Ireland

However, all good things comes to an end, according to Hall, with the 68-year-old revealing that he doesn't miss broadcasting. He also acknowledged how much things have changed, especially over jumps, since his departure.

"I don't miss it and I'm glad I got out when I did because I would have hated to have broadcast during Covid when there was nobody on the track. Also, when we were doing it, there was a hell of a bigger spread of talent among the leading trainers which you're not getting these days. That's tough for them, but that's the way it is."

When it was put to Hall that it was therefore admirable that he kept Frogman with O'Brien, a trainer who doesn't have the same numbers to go to war with compared to a Willie Mullins or a Gordon Elliott, he explained how working with someone of O'Brien's ilk is what provides him with the biggest buzz.

Hall said, "I love them all. I mean, Willie is a pal and I appreciate Gordon hugely, but do you know something, I don't think I'd have gotten any buzz about having a horse in a big yard. I really don't. I love the smaller operations and I think it's great sport." Cont. p5

> "Before they run, you've always got a smile on your face, haven't you?"
> -- Robert Hall

He added, "We'll see how good this fella is but I really enjoy working with the smaller trainers. Of course I do. And when we had Stablemate, a lot of our horses were with smaller trainers as well."

If you're waiting for a clever explanation into the backstory of where Hall came up with the name for his first ever runner, there isn't one. Ask Ted may well have been a better fit but, as long as Frogman can gallop, Hall won't be heard complaining.

He concluded, "Ol' Man River is obviously the Mississippi and Paul Robeson wrote that wonderful song. The Mississippi is full of interesting frogs and the dam's name is sort of northern Ukraine and Southern Russia and they are all quite ugly names. I couldn't attach any names to the horse so I just went with Frogman. I'm not into my nature, terribly, but it will be a great name if he turns out to be any good.

"Before they run, you've always got a smile on your face, haven't you? We think he's a nice horse but he is obviously going to come on a lot from the run. He's a horse for the future. I'm hoping there will be a tomorrow and that he can progress."

IN THE HOT SEAT | Denise Callanan

Next to face the questions is Denise Callanan, who manages her family's commercial breeding operation at Nanallac Stud.

What are your goals for 2024?

To produce good racehorses on the track and in the sales ring, make profits on our pinhooks and breed a black-type horse from our 2023 yearling draft.

Give us a horse to follow...

Phoenix of Spain (Ire). I think for a stallion whose progeny didn't look like two-year-old types, he still produced nearly 40% winners to runners in his first season, which is impressive, and I am interested to see what is in store for his progeny in 2024.

And a young person in the industry to keep an eye on…

Jack Jones in Newmarket looks to be a very talented young trainer.

Who do you think will be champion first-season sire in 2024?

I'd say Earthlight (Ire) but I wouldn't rule out Far Above (Ire) as they also look like runners.

And the best value stallion in Ireland, England, and France?

Havana Grey (GB). He produces class racehorses and very saleable types in the sales ring.

Your best buy/sale of 2023?

We sold a Blue Point (Ire) filly for €300,000 at the Goffs Orby Book 1 Sale. We also bought a lovely Blue Point filly for €82,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale. Blue Point looks to be the real deal.

The best yearling/weanling you saw at the 2023 sales (that someone else bought)?

A filly by Palace Pier (GB) out of Quixotic (GB) at the Goffs November Foal Sale. She was bought for €145,000 by Elton Lodge Stud. She was way out of our budget though.

Who is or was the perfect Thoroughbred?

Dubawi (Ire). He is perfect physically, as a racehorse and as a stallion

Biggest thing you've learned in your career?

With horses you learn something new every day. No one is an expert.

If you could be someone else in the industry for a day who would it be, and why?

Paul McCartan. I think he is very shrewd and is also the most down-to-earth person in the industry, and always stops for a chat.

ECLIPSE FINALISTS TALLIED FOR AWARDS SHOW JAN. 25

The Eclipse Award | Horsephotos

The finalists for the 2023 Eclipse Awards, recognizing excellence in Thoroughbred racing, were announced by the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA), the Daily Racing Form (DRF), and the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters (NTWAB) Saturday.

Winners in 17 horse and human categories will be handed out on FanDuel TV and other outlets, during the 53rd annual Eclipse Awards, presented by FanDuel Racing, John Deere, Keeneland, The Jockey Club and the NTRA, on Thursday, Jan. 25 at 7:30 p.m. ET. The evening will culminate with the announcement of the 2023 Horse of the Year.

Of the 250 eligible voters represented by the NTRA, consisting of member racetrack racing officials and Equibase field personnel, the NTWAB, and Daily Racing Form, 219 (88%) took part in the voting. Finalists were determined in each category by voters' top three selections, using a 10-5-1 point basis. Eclipse Award winners are determined solely by first-place votes.

The 2023 Eclipse Awards finalists, with the exception of Horse of the Year (in alphabetical order), are:

Two-Year-Old Male: Fierceness (City of Light), Locked (Gun Runner), Muth (Good Magic)

BREEDERS' SPOTLIGHT: 'JUST' LIKE THE MOVIES, KRIKORIAN GETS A BREEDERS' CUP CHAMP by Katie Petrunyak

It seems like almost too good of a plot line to believe it now, but Just F Y I (Justify) was never meant to race in George Krikorian's silks.

The filly made it all the way to the Keeneland sales grounds before a puncture wound in her shoulder kept her from going through the ring. While it was nothing serious, the minor abrasion became inflamed enough to make walking back and forth for buyers impossible. So she was scratched from the September Sale, sent to Margaux Farm and eventually joined Bill Mott's stable. Not long after, she became Krikorian's first Breeders' Cup champion.

"It's funny how things happen because we would have sold her," reflected Donato Lanni, Krikorian's longtime advisor who was the one who had made the call to Krikorian about withdrawing the filly from the sale. "Somehow when you do good things in life and you're a good person, the Man Upstairs decides that he's going to take care of you. I really believe things like that happen for a reason."

Lanni couldn't be more genuine in his praise for Krikorian, the California-based movie theater mogul who famously gave Lanni the opportunity to buy his first horse. Cont.

Breeder Spotlight >>> PRESENTED BY KEENELAND

As the story goes, Krikorian told a 20-something-aged Lanni that if he ever saw a yearling that he liked, to go ahead and buy it. In the summer of 1999 while Krikorian was busy scouting out properties for a new theater project in Arizona, Lanni somewhat nervously spent $35,000 on a Dynaformer yearling. Named Starrer, the filly eventually became the first of many Grade I winners for both Krikorian as an owner and Lanni as an agent.

While Lanni has since developed a stellar career working with a number of the top horsemen and owners in the game, he has maintained a steady relationship advising his good friend--the soft-spoken Vietnam veteran with a knack for business who had launched his start in the sport.

"George is the kind of guy that is very low-key," Lanni explained. "He has that Sean Connery way about him. He's charming and everyone that meets him says he's a gentleman and a great guy. His whole operation is pretty cool."

Krikorian celebrates his first Breeders' Cup victory with Just F Y I
Benoit

Krikorian, who developed a passion for racing while growing up near Rockingham Park where his father George Krikorian, Sr. was a trainer, has spent the past three decades building up a prosperous racing and breeding operation with an emphasis on establishing and advancing each family in his commercial program.

As a perfect example of his success in achieving just that, Starrer was among the top performers of Krikorian's racing stable for many years as a dual Grade I-winning millionaire, but she would eventually be surpassed in earnings by her own granddaughter Just F Y I.

A Breeders' Cup win had eluded Krikorian for many years, but to make it to the winner's circle with a homebred in the Juvenile Fillies --and at his home track at Santa Anita with his children and grandchildren celebrating alongside him--made the wait all worthwhile.

"It was exciting just being there the whole week before the Breeders' Cup and going through the whole process," Krikorian recalled. "The whole experience of going back and forth with the horse to the track every morning, watching her get ready and watching the other horses, she was just showing herself more and more. I knew the day that she ran that she was going to run a hell of a race. I didn't know if she would win or not, but I knew she was going to run her best race."

Wrapping up her juvenile season undefeated, Just F Y I secured her spot as the best 2-year-old filly in the country after overcoming the widest post to come out victorious in the Juvenile Fillies. Since then, the talented bay has enjoyed a bit of time off in Florida alongside fellow Krikorian stable star War Like Goddess (English Channel), the three-time Grade I winner who is set to return to the racetrack for her 7-year-old season this spring.

To go into 2024 with the most accomplished 3-year-old filly is exciting, but Krikorian acknowledges that there are plenty of others vying for the top spot.

"It feels great, but there is going to be more competition coming," he said. "The competition gets a little bit tougher this year, but she is also growing. She was going through a growth spurt before the Breeders' Cup and she went through a growth spurt again when she got turned out. She's going to be a much bigger, stronger horse this year. Both she and War Like Goddess are back galloping and we're getting ready for the spring. In a few weeks we will probably start putting together schedules."

When he's not in sunny California or traveling the country for the next horse race, Krikorian has found himself spending more time in Kentucky. He recently opened a one-of-a-kind entertainment complex across from Rupp Arena in downtown Lexington called LexLive.

"I can't help myself," the entrepreneur admitted. "If I'm driving and I see a location that I think may be a good location for a theater, I go for it." Cont.

Krikorian checks in with the full-sister to champion Just F Y I
Sara Gordon

"So downtown Lexington had no theaters and I thought it would make sense to put something there."

Opened for business in 2021, LexLive is home to 10 movie theaters, a bowling alley, multiple restaurants and bars and an arcade. But the main draw for Krikorian's trips to Lexington is to visit his farm outside of Versailles. Named Starwood Farm in honor of Starrer and fellow foundation mare Hollywood Story (Wild Rush), the 350-acre property Krikorian purchased 15 years ago is home to around 40 broodmares and their offspring.

Krikorian is known for the effort he puts into the clever, oftentimes cinema-related names of his racehorses, but he has just as much pride for the work he puts into planning his matings every spring.

Lanni gives Krikorian all the credit for successful matings like the one that produced Just F Y I, but he does wryly point out that Krikorian has a tendency to match his mare to the perfect stallion even if it might be to the detriment of the farm's bottom line in the short term when it comes time to send the yearlings to the sales in the fall.

"It's a commercial operation, but sometimes he likes to breed to stallions that are not the most commercial at the time because it's the right thing to do for the mare," Lanni explained. "So when we go to sell them, they don't bring the money because they're not by a first-year stallion. He wants to breed to the best. I'll tell George, 'This mare is 15 years old and she hasn't had a runner. I think spending this amount of money is too much.' But he doesn't look at the price of the stallion. He just wants to breed what is best for the mare."

He might stray away from the commercial norm, but at the end of the day Krikorian knows when to make the right business decision in order to keep the farm's overhead in check and oftentimes that means parting with a horse that he is confident has all the potential to become a star. Cont.

The one that still makes him wince just a bit is Honor A.P. (Honor Code). The son of his Grade I-winning star mare Hollywood Story, Honor A.P. went through the sales ring as a yearling and fetched $850,000 from CRK Stable before he developed into a Grade I winner and eventual Lane's End sire.

"Honor A.P. stood out from day one from when he was born and it was painful to sell the horse, but I had to," Krikorian reflected. "The poor horse ran in the Derby, but he never got a chance to really run his race. Coming out of the gate, he gets hit and knocked out but still ends up finishing fourth. Had he been able to run his race, who knows what would've happened?"

Another recent success in the sales ring for Krikorian's program was the $1.1-million sale of Mucho Unusual (Mucho Macho Man). The homebred claimed four graded stakes including the 2020 GI Rodeo Drive S. before selling to Shadai Farm when she retired from the track in 2022.

Now Krikorian is looking to make another shrewd move for his program as he sends a high-caliber mare to the Keeneland January Sale. Starrer's stakes-placed daughter Star Act (Street Cry {Ire}), the dam of Just F Y I, already has two other winners that sold for six figures as yearlings on her produce record and she is carrying a foal by Life Is Good.

"She's gorgeous," Krikorian gushed of the winning 13-year-old mare. "She was a beautiful racehorse to look at. Unfortunately she had an injury that shortened her career as a racehorse, but she has made up for it as a broodmare. Her foals are large and very strong-boned with big shoulders and big hips. They're just what you want in a racehorse."

Star Act's newly turned yearling, a full-sister to Just F Y I, was originally slated for the January sale as well, but Krikorian opted to focus on selling the mare in January and perhaps send the yearling to Keeneland come September. He admitted that she reminded him too much of her older sister to part with just yet.

"Just F Y I ruled the roost here," he said with a smile. "She really stood out physically and she pushed everybody around."

"She was running the show and now this foal here is doing the same thing."

Krikorian's Starwood Farm has suffered several sad losses in recent years as Starrer passed away in 2021 and Hollywood Story died the following summer. With the passing of the farm's two matriarch mares, there is space in the program for other talented race mares to take on the role of leading producer someday--be it Just F Y I, or perhaps Big Pond--a daughter of Krikorian's stallion Mr. Big who recently ran second in the GI La Brea S., or maybe one of his rare sales purchases like War Like Goddess.

Bought as a 2-year-old by Lanni for a mere $30,000, the future multi-millionaire marked a full-circle find for Krikorian and Lanni, taking them back to their early days of shopping for bargain buys together back before Krikorian raced almost exclusively from his own breeding program.

"When I had first met Donato, he had just moved to Kentucky and was starting out," Krikorian recalled. "He was sleeping in his car, looking to get a job. I liked him because he was really energetic and you could tell how much he loved the horses. Starrer was the first horse he picked. He was starting his career and I was starting a new venture, so it worked out well. He had an eye for a horse and he didn't know he had an eye for a horse."

Krikorian, too, has more of an eye for a horse than he will readily give himself credit for. Only a few years after the purchase of Starrer, Krikorian and Lanni were shopping for yearlings when Lanni pointed out Hollywood Story. Krikorian took one look and knew he had to have her. He was worried she might sell for too much, but the bidding stalled at $130,000 and he took home a future Grade I winner.

It was a similar story with Mr. Big (Dynafomer). Krikorian rarely buys weanlings, but when Lanni mentioned the colt at the Keeneland November Sale in 2003 and Krikorian went to see him, he couldn't resist going to $220,000 for the youngster.

While injuries kept Mr. Big from reaching his full potential on the racetrack, Krikorian bred a few mares to him on a whim when the new retiree was letting down at Starwood and was thrilled when the stallion's first starter won on debut by almost 10 lengths.

Now standing at Legacy Ranch, Mr. Big is ranked among the top five leading sires in California and Krikorian supports him with a dozen mares every spring.

So when it comes to judging horseflesh, Krikorian's opinion is one to take seriously. And while the septuagenarian doesn't have any specific goals as he continues to develop his program, his drive for finding the winner's circle is evident.

“I just keep looking for those nuggets,” he said. “But everything has worked out well. It seems like every couple of years, we've been fortunate to have something good happen and that keeps you rolling along.”

Krikorian is understated in reflecting on his many achievements in the sport, but Lanni is clear that Krikorian is deserving of everything he has attained and more.

“He's self-made and he did it the hard way,” Lanni said. “I'm lucky that I've known him since 1997 and so to me he's like a father figure. I work for him, but he's more like a father figure than anything else. He takes care of a lot of people and he's very generous, so he's an easy guy to cheer for.”

First or second for all four starts in his juvenile season, including victory in the GI American Pharoah S. two back and a runner-up effort behind fellow Eclipse finalist Fierceness (City of Light) in the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile last out, the betting public heralded this contest as Muth's to lose.

Sent off the overwhelming 2-5 favorite, he was content to track Slider and Pilot Commander as that pair stepped out fastest to his inside. Still widest of all as :45.27 and 1:09.76 splits floated by, he challenged his stablemate coming off the bend from four wide, and cleared the embattled dup with a furlong to go. He was ridden out to a 2 3/4-length victory as Pilot Commander go the best of the photo with Slider.

"I was happy with their performance. I thought Muth was going to be up there early like he was at Del Mar, but the other horse (Pilot Commander) was quicker away from there. I thought he would be stalking but Juan, he just took back and rode Muth with a lot of confidence. He knows his horse really well. I'm just glad it worked out," said Bob Baffert.

He added, "Zedan Racing, he gives us all this ammo to work with. He handles the wins and the losses the same way and he let me name this horse after my good friend Aaron Muth, so it is fun for him."

Pedigree Notes:

Muth is the first offspring to the races for the winning Hoppa, who has since produced two half-sisters to the Eclipse finalist--a 2-year-old by Violence and a yearling by Tacitus. She is due this spring with a full-sibling to the victor.

While his pedigree is quiet immediately up front as he and MSP March to Victory (Dixieland Band) are the only black-type earners, Muth does hail from the extended female family of GSW Wandering Star, who herself went on to produce G1SW-Eng War Command (War Front) and GSW-Fr Naval Officer. Cont.

BELMONT STAKES WINNING TRAINER JOE CANTEY PASSES AT 82 By Bill Finley

Trainer Joe Cantey, who teamed up with owner John Ed Anthony to win a slew of major races, including the GI 1980 Belmont S., passed away Friday at the age of 82 in his hometown of Camden, S.C.

The news was confirmed by his ex-wife, Charlsie Cantey.

The cause of death was lung and mouth cancer.

"Everything he touched pretty much turned to gold," Charlsie said. "When he set his mind to do something, he exceeded it by leaps and bounds."

Cantey started out handling horses for Bert Firestone as they wintered in South Carolina. He would also go on to work for trainer Evan Jackson. He decided that he wanted to go out on his own and set his sights on coming to New York.

"Joe applied for stalls with Kenny Noe and he didn't get them," Cantey recalled. "He got a plane and went to New York. He met with Noe and said I really want these stalls and I want to train horses in New York. Kenny was so persuaded by that he gave him some stalls. He got better owners and better horses and worked his way up going to work John Ed Anthony and Loblolly Stable and did a damn fine job there." Cont.

BREEDER AWARD RATE INCREASES FOR NEW YORK-BREDS IN 2024

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (Tuesday, December 19, 2023) — At the December 12, meeting of The New York State Thoroughbred Breeding & Development Fund Corporation (the Fund) Board of Directors', a motion was unanimously approved to increase the breeder award rates for all New York-breds who compete in New York starting January 1, 2024.

The increase in breeder awards was approved by the Fund board due to projected revenue increases expected by the Fund in 2024. An increased holdback rate from 10 percent to 15 percent will also be implemented to ensure the Fund can payout awards up to the new advertised rates. We anticipate being able to pay the holdback in its entirety upon completion of the fiscal year.

Program Offers Endless Opportunity & Incentives

"These bigger better bonuses reward breeders for creating quality race horses," said Tracy Egan. "Board Chairman Brian O'Dwyer encouraged the Board to find a way to get award money out the door to award earners as quickly as possible and by hiking breeder awards, we will do that."

"This historic increase in breeder awards is monumental news for all breeders currently participating in the New York-bred program. It's another reason why New York remains the top regional state-bred program in the nation and why more breeders should bring their mares to foal in New York," said New York Thoroughbred Breeders executive Najja Thompson.

Eddie Maple, who was Cantey's primary rider | Coady

With Cantey in charge, Loblolly Stable turned into a force on the New York circuit and at Oaklawn Park. Their best horse may have been Temperence Hill, who upset Genuine Risk to win the 1980 GI Belmont S. With wins that same year in the GI Travers S. and the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, he was named 3-year-old male champion of 1980. Their other big star was Cox's Ridge, whose biggest win came in the 1978 GI Metropolitan H. They campaigned still another Grade I winner in Majesty's Prince, a star on the grass who won two runnings of the GI Rothman's International, two runnings of the Man o' War S. and two runnings of the Sword Dancer, one a Grade I race, the other a Grade II race.

"I think about him all the time and I always have," said Eddie Maple, who was Cantey's primary rider. "He was such a big part of our lives back in the seventies and eighties. We were pretty tight. He was an all-around horseman. He picked it up from the guys who were around Camden, like Frank Whiteley. We had a good relationship and it spilled over into our personal lives. He would do anything for anybody."

Cantey's last year of training was in 1987 while he was still in his prime. Charlsie Cantey said he decided to just walk away.

"He just said I've had enough," she said. "When we first got married and were living in Camden, he said, 'Let's go to New York and try our hand at it and then come back to Camden. He loved this town and wanted to come back here. It's not like he got fired or anything. What I want people to know about Joe is that if he stayed in New York I don't know how far he would have gone. He was a brilliant horse trainer. He just had had enough of New York."

According to Equibase records, which go back only to 1976, Cantey had 444 career winners Charlsie Cantey said she believes he had his first winner in 1970 or 71. Cont.

CODY'S WISH ADDED TO TCA STALLION SEASON AUCTION, PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT MAKE-A-WISH

A season with a 2025 breed back to Cody's Wish (Curlin) has been added to the Thoroughbred Charities of America's (TCA) Live Auction and Celebration scheduled to run Sunday, Jan. 7, with the majority of the proceeds going to support the local chapter of the Make-A-Wish Foundation, announced the TCA Saturday.

The offering was donated by Godolphin in memory of Cody Dorman, the 17-year-old Kentuckian whose story and special connection with his namesake was widely beloved in and outside the industry.

Any remaining proceeds will go to honoring his memory in other ways in conjunction with the wishes of his family. The Dorman family as well as representatives from the Make-A-Wish organization will be in attendance Sunday.

Also included in the live auction roster are seasons to Elite Power (with 2025 breed back), Taiba, Life Is Good, and Forte.

Tickets may still be purchased and bidders or their authorized agents may bid on select seasons by attending the event in-person or may email the TCA to register to bid online or by phone.

CORRIGAN: `I DID REACH OUT' TO HISA

In Friday's TDN, Bill Finley wrote about trainer Jimmy Corrigan's suspension after one of his horses tested positive for methamphetamine Oct. 7 at Belterra. In the story, HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus said that Corrigan hadn't reached out to HISA for help or to let them know he felt the positive test was caused by contamination. Corrigan sent a statement to the TDN Saturday morning contradicting that assertion.

“I would like to make a response to Lisa Lazarus's claim I never reached out to anybody in regards to my case. I reached out to Alan Foreman early on and spoke to him about my case as well as Mark Casse and Dale Romans, who are on (HISA's) advisory committee. I realized I needed their advice and I reached out early on.”

A HISA spokesman told the TDN, "Mr. Corrigan never responded to the allegation against him and that is why a provisional suspension was imposed."

GREATEST HONOUR’S FIRST FOAL IS A COLT

Spendthrift Farm’s Greatest Honour sired his first reported foal Jan. 5 when KatieRich Farms in Midway announced that I Love Nola (Champali) had delivered a colt by the well-bred son of Tapit.

“This colt has the longest legs we’ve ever seen on a newborn foal. He has an extraordinary hip and a beautiful head. This is the biggest foal the mare has had. We are very, very happy,” said Martha Rattner, whose Rattner Bloodstock LLC bred the foal.

Greatest Honour, hailing from a half-sister to champion Rags to Riches; Irish Highweight Man of Iron; GSW-US and G1SP-Jpn Casino Drive; GISW Jazil; and the dam of GISW Streaming (Smart Strike), covered 178 mares in his 2023 introductory season, and will stand his second at stud for a fee of $7,500 S&N.

PAIR OF PLETCHER FIRSTERS DO BATTLE ON THE GULFSTREAM GRASS

10th-GP, $89K, Msw, 3yo, f, 1mT, 4:34 p.m. ET.

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher has a pair of newly-minted 3-year-old fillies heading to the post for their debuts over the turf in the Sunday finale in Hallandale.

First, EL MEGEETH (Constitution) makes her first start for Shadwell Stable. Bred by Three Chimneys, the $750,000 Keeneland September purchase is out of Amour d'Ete (Tiznow), who Borges Torrealba Holdings acquired as the third topper at the same sale back in 2013 for $1.75 million. Her most notable produce is GI Preakness S. champ Early Voting (Gun Runner).

Second dam and Canadian 2-year-old champion Silken Cat (Storm Cat) also produced Amour d'Ete's full-sister, MGSW Irap, plus recently deceased sire of sires Speightstown (Gone West) and the dam of G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 victor Capezzano (Bernardini).

Drawn to the extreme outside is the other half of Pletcher's uncoupled entry--Lady Madonna (War Front). A $675,000 Fasig-Tipton Select Yearling Sale buy for Robert and Lawana Low, the SF Bloodstock bred filly is out of GI Central Bank Ashland S. heroine Rosalind (Broken Vow). She had a 2-year-old colt by Twirling Candy sell to Willie Browne for $200,000 at the Keeneland September Sale and sent to Ireland, and a yearling filly by Tapit go for $450,000 to Sycamore Hall Thoroughbreds at Keeneland's November Sale. TJCIS PPS

Also Ran: Lovely Ride, Tiz a Macho Girl.

Before she heads to next week's Keeneland January Sale as hip 853, Misty Veil squeezed in her first black-type win of her career.

The chestnut finished third in the GIII Locust Grove S. in September at Churchill Downs, was fourth under the Twin Spires in the GIII Falls City S. Nov. 23 and then was the runner-up in Hot Springs in the Dec. 9 running of the Mistletoe S.

As a 3-1 choice here, the 6-year-old lay in second passing the grandstand as Lovely Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) took the field into the first turn.

Misty Veil | Coady Photography

In the third position up the backstretch, the hooded mare was on hold until suddenly the rail opened up around the far turn and she took it. That decision would prove fruitful because no one could catch her as she bounded along to give jockey Ramon Vazquez his 400th career victory at Oaklawn.

A half-sister to GIII Skip Away S. victor Cigar Street (Street Sense), the winner's unraced dam produced 3-year-old colt in-training Brennan's Honor (Twirling Candy). Under the third dam we find two-time Horse of the Year Cigar (Palace Malice) and his half-sister, champion imported 3-year-old filly, Mulca (Raised Socially). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: NK, 6 1/4, 11 1/4. Odds: 2.10, 3.65, 2.70.

Also Ran: Know It All Audrey, She's Mo Bubbly, Rayya Valentine.

Comparative, a well-beaten eighth in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 19, scored her first black-type win and second straight victory since returning from the bench here. Stretching out from an Aqueduct allowance win going one mile Nov. 25, Comparative was away well and stalked pacesetter She's Mo Bubbly (Uncle Mo) from second. With the latter backing out of it on the far turn, Comparative hooked up with Saddle Up Jessie with a quarter of a mile to go. Saddle Up Jessie had all of the momentum and looked to be well on her way, but Comparative refused to yield and battled back gamely from the inside under left-handed urging from jockey Manny Franco. The two fillies dueled through the stretch with Comparative emerging victorious by a neck.

"She's one-paced, but she always tries," Franco said. "I saw Sheldon [Russell aboard Saddle Up Jessie] loaded. I was worried, but at the same time my filly is one paced and I knew she's going to keep battling for me and that's what she did. She got it done."

The Godolphin homebred is a full sister to MGSW Shared Sense, who set a new track record in 2022 at the Fair Grounds. The pair have a 3-year-old full brother named Kinetic. Collective produced a colt in 2022 and a filly in 2023, both by Medaglia d'Oro. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Gold Square's Drum Roll Please (Hard Spun), a very solid third going against the grain of the track in the GII Remsen S. at Aqueduct Dec. 2, took care of business as the 3-5 favorite while turning back in distance for Saturday's Jerome S. at the Big A.

He trailed the field of five in the early going after exiting from the fence. Given his cue by Javier Castellano on the far turn, he made a three-wide bid approaching the quarter pole and came rolling down the center of the stretch to win going away by 3 3/4 lengths. El Grande O (Take Charge Indy) was second; Khanate (Hightail) was third.

The top five finishers earned 10-5-3-2-1 qualifying points on the road to the GI Kentucky Derby.

"We've seen a lot of growth with him physically and mentally in the mornings, so we were expecting something nice from him today, and he showed it," said Dustin Dugas, assistant to winning trainer Brad Cox. "We've always thought he would go all day, and now with that fitness and that physical development, he can."

On a potential next start in the nine-furlong GIII Withers Feb. 3 at the Big A, Joe Hardoon, racing manager for Gold Square, said, "I think we have to look at the Withers and get him back to a mile and an eighth. I think that's more his game than this one-turn mile. We'll see how he comes out of this and bounces back and definitely look to getting him back around two turns."

Drum Roll Please, a distant second behind subsequent GISW and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile third-place finisher Locked (Gun Runner) second out at Saratoga Sept.1, graduated over this same track and trip Oct. 6 prior to his aforementioned third over the muddy going in the Remsen.

Drum Roll Please becomes the 102nd stakes winner for Hard Spun. The winner's dam Imply, from the extended female family of Horse of the Year Holy Bull, is also represented by a 2-year-old filly by Practical Joke. She was bred to Uncle Mo for 2024.

Ozara | Lauren King

Also Ran: Madame Mischief, Buttercream Babe, Dancing N Dixie, Time to Dazzle, Independenceavenue, Omaha Girl, San Pantaleo. Scratched: Golden Ghost (GB), Mojave Desert, Yatta. A classy filly who has raced in exclusively stakes company since breaking her maiden at Saratoga last summer, Ozara found the waters at Woodbine a bit too deep when fourth in the GI Natalma shortly after that maiden-breaking win. She since responded with a narrow defeat in the Chelsey Flower S. at Belmont's Aqueduct meeting Oct. 27 and most recently was victorious by a neck over course and near-distance in the Wait a While S. Dec. 9.

Second choice on the board at 3-1, Ozara tracked close behind pacesetter San Pantaleo (Demarchelier {GB}) as the top flight covered the opening half in :46.96.

Well-positioned into the turn, the Christophe Clement trainee angled in as a gap opened at the fence and took full advantage, rocketing through to strike the front a furlong from home and holding a clear advantage to the line ahead of a closing Life's an Audible.

"All the credit goes to Mr. Clement and his team," said winning rider Tyler Gaffalione. "They brought her over ready to run and she fired big for us today. It worked out really well. She broke alertly and I was able to tuck in and save some ground. She traveled beautiful in hand and when the spot opened, she quickened right through and finished the job well."

One of 125 stakes winners worldwide for sire Lope de Vega (Ire), Ozara was a 350,000gns Tattersalls October Yearling out of Book 1 for Mike Ryan before being imported to North America in 2022. Dam Cercle d'Or (Ire) is a half to high-weighted MG1SW Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) along with MGSP Eastern Belle (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), herself the dam of MGSW Megallan (GB) (Kingman {GB}). The family has also produced G1 Investec Oaks third Frankly Darling (GB) (Frankel {GB}). The second-longest shot on the board at 13-1, Tocayo sprung the upset over favored Agate Road Saturday to pick up his first stakes win in the Dania Beach S.

A well-established colt with 10 starts last year, the Maryland-bred son of GI Curlin Florida Derby hero Always Dreaming took seven tries to break his maiden, finally breaking through Oct. 12 at Laurel before making a good account of himself in a pair of turf optional claimers. Overmatched last time out in his Gulfstream stakes debut in the Pulpit S. Dec. 9, Tocayo stretched back out to the mile and was eager to show the way Saturday, leading Frontline Warrior (War Front) through a mild :50.08 opening half.

With plenty of run left on those soft fractions, the 13-1 shot had more than enough of a closing kick to outlast race favorite Agate Road and pick up the win.

"He was travelling very well in front," said winning jockey Jorge Ruiz. "He's a nice horse. The horse was relaxed and comfortable on the lead. The plan was to go to the front and not fight with him."

The third stakes winner for Always Dreaming, Tocayo's only younger sibling is a 2-year-old half-brother by Classic Empire. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Facing a scratched-down field of just three rivals as the heavy race favorite was a late gate scratch, Ship to Shore picked up his first stakes win Saturday with a dominant gate-to-wire effort in the Limehouse S. Back on the main track for the first time since a third to Book'em Danno (Bucchero) in the Smoke Glacken S. at Monmouth last September, the New Jersey-bred was last spotted over the Gulfstream turf course when seventh in the 7 1/2-furlong Pulpit S. Dec. 9.

Dropping back to six furlongs Saturday, the 9-5 second choice set a clear pace from the jump and refused to be headed, taking the field all the way around while Louie the Sun King chased in vain from second throughout. Clearly the class of the quartet turning for home, Ship to Shore only opened up from there and won by daylight to become the second stakes winner for New Jersey-based sire Sea Wizard. Upset City has returned to Sea Wizard twice more, producing a 2-year-old colt and a yearling filly. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

FUNTASTIC AGAIN (c, 4, Funtastic--Repeta, by Broken Vow), unraced since a second in the James W. Murphy S. on Pimlico Day May 20 last year, returned to the surface that saw him win two of three at Turfway to start 2023 including the Leonatus S. before running third behind Two Phil's (Hard Spun) in the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks. Favored at 2-1, he was outrun to the lead by Gunton Roe (Gun Runner) and settled in behind that rival up the backstretch in third.

With a ground-saving move to place himself into contention past the quarter pole, he then angled out to come after the early leader and had plenty to offer late, winning by three lengths over a closing Surly Furious (Upstart). Repeta, also responsible for Lady Glamour (Discreet Cat), GSP, $126,170 and Mucho Del Oro (Mucho Macho Man), SW, $275,100, has a Volatile 2-year-old and a yearling Not This Time filly but failed to take on a Gun Runner cover for this year.
