

AND NOW FOR SOMETHING COMPLETELY DIFFERENT

On Rathmullan Beach

With apologies to Monty Python, we bring you the view from Rathmullan Beach, by the inimitable Patrick Cooper, as he muses country life in an election year for Ireland.

Imagine the horror of it. The Flat season is almost upon us and you wake up one morning and realise you have misplaced your jockey. You know the routine. Car keys.. I know I just had them in my hand...Raybans...I know I left them beside the keys...cap, raincoat and shoes, I know I left them inside the back door. Ever growing frustration, swearing, stomping, retracing steps, back upstairs, what did I come up here for? Outside for a look in the car and finally relief when all are gathered together and you can leave the building. But no jockey.

You know he will turn up, but after a day or two and still no sign there comes the growing realisation that you need a replacement. Now these teak tough and talented little lads and lassies are hard to come about. Where to start? You could ask Kia the way to the shop or you could look at the jockeys' table, but either way you know you can't afford the one you want. How about narrowing it down geographically?

Number one criterion is of course size. That rules out South Sea Islanders, shopping malls, and the Dutch, who are supposedly the tallest race on earth. We need to find a lasting solution and too many these days are undone at their height by their height. So small folk it is. Cont. p3

MAKING WAVES: SANTA ANITA SCORE FOR GRANNY BUDGIE

by Heather Anderson

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This column is highlighted by the victory of Granny Budgie in California.

Massaat Filly Sparkles At Santa Anita

Mickley Stud-bred Granny Budgie (GB) (Massaat {Ire}) won a Santa Anita contest for trainer Phil D'Amato earlier this month. The 3-year-old filly races in the colours of David Bernsen, Omar Aldabbagh and Jeffrey Lambert (video).

Originally an £18,000 Goffs UK Premier & Silver yearling on the bid of JS Bloodstock, the bay won on debut for owner/trainer George Scott and earned two more wins for Knights & Kings Racing Stable from a total of five UK starts before changing hands again privately and running sixth in the Listed Sweet Life S. locally in February. Her dam raced until she was six and earned her lone win that year. A half-sister to Group 3 winner Caledonia Lady (GB) (Firebreak {GB}), Caledonia Duchess (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) has been bred exclusively to Massaat. Her juvenile colt brought £21,000 at the 2023 edition of the Goffs UK sale from Compas Equine/Iain Jardine, while she also has a yearling filly. Cont. p6

I've got it: Lilliput. Published in 1726, Gulliver's Travels was written anonymously by Jonathan Swift, Dean of St Patrick's Cathedral in Dublin and one of the great political satirists of any age. He once published a perfectly serious article on how Irish peasants might sell their children to the rich as food, even going so far as to give their optimum age to be eaten for nutritional purposes.

Upon landing in Lilliput, Gulliver is first restrained, but then taken into their hearts by the little Lilliputians. Everything goes swimmingly until he refuses them world domination and they turn nasty. Probably best avoid them.

Actually, I'm going to let you into a little secret. I know exactly where to go: Rathmullan, Co Donegal. Where? Are you mad?

Rathmullan is a small seaside village in North Donegal on the shores of Lough Swilly, which is a sea fjord separating the Inishowen peninsula from Fanad Head. Rathmullan Pier sits at the southern end of a two- or three-mile beach, depending on the tide. It has acted as a local training centre for as long as I have been going there.

Four of Ireland's current crop of jockeys learnt their trade on Rathmullan Beach. Twice Champion apprentice and Richard Fahey's number one Oisin Orr; his brother Conor, who plies his trade over jumps; Luke McAteer, who rides for Jim Bolger, and another dual champion apprentice and probably Ireland's next superstar, Dylan Browne McMonagle. Go on to YouTube and look at Five Stone of Lead. It's worth five minutes of anyone's time.

So how do you get there and where to stay? The latter is easy. Rathmullan House Hotel, which sits a hundred yards from the beach, has been in my wife's family since the early 1960s. Cont. p4

It is a haven of tranquility where a couple of Bangladeshi brothers make magic with the produce of the cold waters of the North Atlantic.

How to get there? It is exactly three hours from Dublin Airport. By car you head north on the N1 following the signs for Derry. Donegal was cast adrift when the island of Ireland was partitioned in 1920. It has no railway and had pretty much no infrastructure of any sort until relatively recently, and it's still fairly rudimentary. You will cross the border at Aughnacloy in to 'The Occupied Territories'. At that point Derry ceases to exist and you must follow the signs to Londonderry which is apparently the same place.

You have now exported yourself from the EU in to the utopian land of milk and honey that is post-Brexit Britain. You re-enter the 'Free State' at Lifford. Without the Northern Irish Protocol, if you had brought a horse with you and were intending to bring it back, you would have had to physically produce 44 separate pieces of paper at the borders.

Northern Ireland has two racecourses Downpatrick and Down Royal. Although both are situated in a foreign country with a separate currency they are run under the auspices of the Irish Regulatory Authorities and prize-money, which is provided by the government in Dublin, is paid in euros not the local currency sterling. Gaelic games know no border. We have an all-island rugby team, but two separate soccer teams. There is a lot to Northern Ireland that defies logic.

Rathmullan has its own little place in Irish history. As a country we have never fought a war or won a rebellion. However, we do glorious defeats well. After all, they produce a better class of ballad. Now I am going to tell you a story of a dastardly deed and a plan so cunning that you will understand at last how the small wet island of Britain conquered the world. Cont. p5

In 1597 Red Hugh O'Donnell, the 16-year-old son of a rebellious chieftain, was having a drink in the local hostelry in Rathmullan when he was joined by a couple of strangers. After numerous gregarious gargles he was asked if he would like a couple more free pints on their ship anchored in the Swilly. Upon boarding the vessel, he was promptly kidnapped and imprisoned in Dublin Castle. How did the English figure out an Irish teenager would fall for such a devious plot?

Red Hugh escaped four years later and headed off to Spain to try and garner support for another rebellion. Unfortunately he died in Valladolid in 1602. To this day the locals still parade an empty coffin through the streets on the anniversary of his death. A couple of years ago with huge excitement, à la Richard III in his Leicester car park, a skeleton was found in a city street which was proclaimed to be the remains of Red Hugh. A little like being told your finding of a two-armed skeleton was probably not the authentic Lord Nelson, it was pointed out the real Red Hugh had lost two toes during his escape and this poor soul was fully endowed with all ten. Bubble burst and the search goes on.

However, it was the Flight of the Earls in 1607 that has given Rathmullan its lasting 15 minutes of fame. Another glorious defeat (cue ballads) resulted in Red Hugh's brother Rory and Hugh O'Neill, the two great Earls of Ulster, fleeing to continental Europe with 90 followers to bring their grievances to the Pope and the King of Spain and raise yet another army for yet another rebellion. Their luck went from bad to worse in the Alps when the donkey that was carrying all their money fell down a ravine and was lost. They never returned to Ireland.

During the Napoleonic wars three Martello towers were built on the Swilly to deter invading French. The one beside the pier in Rathmullan now serves as a lovely little museum to the 12th century Abbey as well as being the Flight of the Earls centre.

A 'correction' is a long way from a crash. Barefoot and pregnant, we fled from London to Rathmullan in 1991 after the financial meltdown and bloodstock bloodbath of the late 1980s. Isolated but never backward, village life rocked to a different rhythm.

Owned by Luke McAteer's grandparents, the White Harte was central. Gerry and Mary kept Philip Morris profits at an artificial high for many a year. They also sold the papers, but not much before 10am which is when they arrived on the bus from Letterkenny. There was only ever one copy of the Racing Post which local fish broker Michael Boyce allowed me to read in return for which I was expected to find him a suitable horse for the Dingle Derby every year. Angela ran the post office and along with taxi driver John Kelly knew all that was needed to be known.

Straight out of Leprechaun central casting, Francie was the barman in the Cellar Bar in the hotel. He would sit on his hunkers behind the bar puffing on his pipe and, provided you were prepared to listen to the one about Delhi and Londondelhi, could pull a mean pint.

Pat Patton sold the finest spring lamb in the county and Jim

Morrison was both the bin man and local sulky-driving champion. His wife Betty was in charge of breakfast at the restaurant in Rathmullan House pursuant to which Jim's champions developed a taste for left over stale bread. Wednesday was the dreaded May Day because on Thursday my mother-in-law's cleaner May would come and it was deemed unacceptable for an Irish country lady to have the house anything but spotless upon the arrival of their cleaning lady.

Tom McLaughlin was the local trainer and the other of Luke's grandfathers. A scallywag would be an apt description. He also provided hirelings for those wishing to go for a more leisurely ride on the beach. Thoroughbreds or battys, you were as likely to end up atop one as the other. A third in a handicap hurdle in Sligo was celebrated wildly in the White Harte, while future Don Quixote-like forays against the bookies were never dimmed by reality.

Not much has changed. The wonderful Trish McAteer runs the White Harte. Tom is gone, but his brother sells the finest chips on Rathmullan Pier. Emily still bosses the hotel and the mighty Maurice, whom I am assured speaks English, keeps the gardens immaculate. Jim Barker's petrol pump has been made redundant by the ubiquitous service station, but he still runs the bus to the 'Sectarian Derby' which would be a more appropriate moniker for the Old Firm clash between Rangers and Celtic in Glasgow. Cont. p6

Fifty per cent of the five million people who live in the Republic now live in the Greater Dublin catchment area. The rest of the country is empty and emptying. Yet here we have a small seaside village producing four professional sportsmen. Four professional sportsmen earning themselves a living in one of the toughest professions of them all.

—Patrick Cooper on Rathmullan

Regatta week in August is the social highlight of the year. 'No problem' is the answer to all requests. 'Donegal Time' pays only passing lip service to Greenwich Mean Time and the car park at the pier is still a hive of activity in the not-so-early mornings as local trainers unload their charges and leg up the next youngsters aiming to emulate those four young men who have made it.

Fifty per cent of the five million people who live in the Republic now live in the Greater Dublin catchment area. The rest of the country is empty and emptying. Yet here we have a small seaside village producing four professional sportsmen. Four professional sportsmen earning themselves a living in one of the toughest professions of them all.

Down in Moone, Jessica Harrington employs 60 or 70 people and through the drip system keeps the local economy oiled. The next biggest employer in Moone outside of Church and State (school) is the charity shop which employs no one. Who knows how many the O'Brien family employ in Piltown, or the Mullins family in Bagenalstown, or indeed the Magnier family in Fethard. But you can be sure that if the Industrial Development Agency, which is Ireland's state body in charge of procuring foreign investment, had found these kind of jobs they would be shouting from the rooftops.

We are badly in need of voices with gravitas inside Dáil Éireann (Irish government). We have an increasingly Dublin-centric press with little understanding of racing and a political class for whom the countryside is but for two weeks a year. In this year of elections we need to remind them that there is a wonderful way of life outside the M50 and it needs looking after.

Positioned behind the leaders in fourth for the most part, the 15-8 favourite went third soon after turning for home and kept on well under urging inside the final furlong to outpoint Misty Grey for a career high.

"She did everything right there, seven furlongs is probably her trip and she won very well," said William Buick. "She looked a picture beforehand, she had race fitness on her side and she was very fluent throughout the race. She was very smooth and relaxed, she tries hard and I'm impressed."

CELESTIAL LEGEND TOUGHS OUT RANDWICK GUINEAS

by Renee Geelan and Oz Wedmore

Trainer Les Bridge is confident that he's 'only just scratching the surface' of Celestial Legend (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}) following his hard-fought victory in Saturday's G1 Randwick Guineas. The 3-year-old colt held off the classy Militarize (NZ) (Dundeel {NZ}) to his inside as Cafe Millenium (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) challenged to his outside.

In a tightly run race, just 0.3l separated the first three, with the chasing field close behind led by Tom Kitten (Aus) (Harry Angel {Ire}), who endured some traffic. However, Celestial Legend didn't enjoy the smoothest run himself.

"I thought he was gone..." Bridge said.

"That was an incredible run. I'm only just scratching the surface really. It keeps me out of the old men's home," added the 85-year-old Bridge, who indicated that a G1 Doncaster H. may now be on the cards for his latest boom horse.

"I didn't really have a plan," winning rider Kerrin McEvoy said. "Tough effort, huge job by Les, he's a master."

Victory for the 3-year-old colt capped a superb day for Arrowfield Stud, who were responsible as breeders for G2 Todman S. winner Switzerland (Snitzel) earlier on the card too, plus G2 Kenway S. winner Autumn Angel (The Autumn Sun).

Pedigree Notes

The 2013 G1 Randwick Guineas was one of the six elite level races won by Dundeel who has now sired eight Group 1 winners amongst his 26 stakes winners.

Bred by Arrowfield and sold by them to Legend Racing/Avenue Bloodstock for A$220,000 at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, he is the first foal produced by the unraced Sarraqa (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) whose second foal National Code (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) was purchased by MDK International/Griffiths de Kock Racing for A$160,000 at last year's Inglis Premier Yearling Sale.

Again served last spring by Dundeel having missed to his son Castelveccchio (Aus) the previous season, Sarraqa has a yearling colt by Maurice (Jpn) (Lot 260, Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale). Cont. p9

Sarraqa is a daughter of the outstanding mare National Colour (SAf) (National Assembly)--a triple Group 1 winner in South Africa who also raced well in Dubai and England.

Five of her six foals to race are winners including the Australian-bred, South African-based Group 1 sprinters Rafeef (Aus) and Mustaaqeem (Aus)--both sons of Redoute's Choice (Aus). Also granddam of the Group 3 winner Full Velocity (SAf) (Philanthropist), National Colour is out of the Listed winner Rainbow Cake (SAf) (Mr Eats {Ire}).

Celestial Legend is the second Group 1 bred on a Dundeel/Redoute's Choice cross, Super Seth (Aus) the other.

GODOLPHIN AND KAH'S BIG DAY OUT IN NEWMARKET, EXCEED'S LEGACY EXTENDED

by Renee Geelan and Oz Wedmore

One race after winning the G2 Sires' Produce S., Godolphin and jockey Jamie Kah combined again in the G1 Newmarket H. to win with 3-year-old Cylinder (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). Hot favourite and multiple Group 1 winner Imperatriz (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) led the pack up the middle of the track at Flemington while Cylinder came flying from out wide to win by 1l with Imperatriz in second and The Astrologist (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) taking out third in a photo.

Victory was made all the more special for Godolphin as this year is exactly two decades since Exceed And Excel, whose retirement was announced earlier this week, won the Newmarket.

"I thought I was a tough person but I'm not today. Even [winning] the last race was massive for me, to get through that and have it behind me. This is for Dean Holland," Jamie Kah said, referencing the last-minute call-up of Holland to win aboard Godolphin's In Secret (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) in last year's renewal following her own injury earlier that day.

"I couldn't imagine anyone riding that horse as well as he did last year and I felt so happy that I gave him the opportunity to win the Newmarket. Hopefully he is watching down on us today."

Cylinder was carrying just 51.5kg to Imperatriz's 58kg, and took his record to five wins from 13 starts. This was his second run in for this campaign, having run only sixth of eight in the G1 Lightning S. first-up, a race won by Imperatriz.

An excellent 2-year-old last season, Cylinder won both the G2 Silver Slipper S. and G2 Todman S. before running second in the G1 Golden Slipper. Cont. p10

At three, this spring, he won the G3 Vain S. and G2 Run to the Roses before running third in the G1 Golden Rose. The G1 Newmarket H. was his first win at Group 1 level.

"I thought he was a super chance but that was easy for him. He was never in doubt. I don't think I'll get a better day. That's for sure," said Kah.

Pedigree Notes

A son of recently retired Exceed And Excel, he becomes his 19th Group 1 winner, while Cylinder already counted among Exceed And Excel's 215 stakes winners. Bred by Godolphin, Cylinder is from a Woodlands/Darley family with his granddam Hexameter (Aus) (Octagonal {NZ}) bred by Woodlands Stud and his dam, Circular (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), bred by Darley.

A three-time Group 2 and one-time Group 3 winner who ran second in the G1 Golden Slipper S. and third in the G1 Golden Rose, Cylinder has rarely been far away--winning five of his 13 starts and finishing in the placings on a further four occasions.

He is one of the two stakes winners--the dual Group 3 winner Parisal (Aus) (Astern {Aus}) the other--produced by the Group 3 Matron S. winner Circular.

Served last spring by Extreme Choice (Aus) after foaling a Brazen Beau (Aus) colt, Circular (whose Bivouac (Aus) yearling has been named Sphere {Aus}) is out of the city winner Hexameter (Aus) (Octagonal {NZ}) whose G3 Sweet Embrace S.-winning granddam Shadea (NZ) (Straight Strike) produced the Group 1 gallopers Lonhro (Aus) and Niello (Aus).

What a terrific family this is, also represented at the elite level by Mahaya (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}), Grosvenor (NZ), National Gallery (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}), Tavago (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}), Miss Keepsake (NZ) (Keeper {Aus}) and Lankan Rupee (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}).

Cylinder is the second Group 1 winner --September Run the other --and one of the four stakes winners by Exceed And Excel out of a Street Cry mare; a cross represented by 37 winners from 56 runners.

And he is third Group 1 winner (and one of the 26 stakes winners from 253 winners/377 runners) for the Exceed And Excel/Octagonal (NZ) combination; Golden Mile (Aus) (Astern {Aus}) and Bounding (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) the others.

FIRST GROUP 1 WINNER FOR OVERSHARE

by Renee Geelan and Oz Wedmore

Lady Laguna (Aus) became the first Group 1 winner for her Widden Victoria-based, Group 3-winning sire Overshare (Aus) when she beat the $2.35 favourite Think About It (Aus) (So You Think {NZ}) in the G1 Canterbury S. at Randwick on Saturday.

Lady Laguna | Bronwen Healy

Previously Overshare's only stakes winner, Lady Laguna now has the ultimate addition to her resume.

Lady Laguna ran on from the rear of the field, picking up Think About It who kept pace with her for most of the straight as they ran down the leaders, but Lady Laguna found another gear and won by 1.25l with Think About It and Espiona (Aus) (Extreme Choice {Aus}) separated in a photo for second and third respectively.

"I was quietly confident, particularly as the favourite was first-up as well, we just thought it might be a day to try and get a Group 1. Without a doubt, as a 4-year-old she's gone to another level," said winning trainer Annabel Neasham, who added praise for young jockey Tyler Schiller, who was gaining his second Group 1 win.

Highly consistent, Lady Laguna has won four of her past five starts, with a second last start in the G2 Mille Fox S. Her full record is seven wins and 11 placings from 24 starts.

Pedigree Notes

The sole stakes winner for her Widden Victoria-based, G3 Zeditave S.-winning sire--a son of I Am Invincible --Lady Laguna was bred by Spendthrift Australia.

She is the second of three foals so far for the dual city winner Catalina De Lago (NZ) (Encosta De Lago {Aus}), half-sister to the G2 Edward Manifold S. winner She Will Be Loved (Aus) (Strategic {Aus}) out of the unraced Katie O'Neill (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}).

That half-sister to the dual Group winner Soleil Rouge (NZ) (Red Tempo {NZ}) and the G3 Metric Mile winner Black Sun (NZ) (Otehi Bay {Aus}) is also granddam of the two-time group winner Luke's Luck (Aus) (Show A Heart {Aus}) and third dam of the Listed Takeover Target H. winner Enchanted Heart (Aus) (Show A Heart {Aus}) and the G2 Percy Sykes S. winner Kristilli (Aus) (Hellbent {Aus}).

This is also the family of the Group 1 winners All Thrills Too (Aus) (St Covet {Aus}), Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Sabaveel {Aus}) and Danzanzdance (Aus) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and of two Group 3 winners currently at stud in Australia--Swear (Aus) and Extreme Warrior (Aus).

Lady Laguna boasts crosses of Fairy Bridge (Bold Reason) and her dam Special (Forli {Arg}) via Sadler's Wells, Fairy King and Nureyev.

Now a Kingstar Farm mare, Catalina De Lago has not had much luck in recent times--slipping two years running with her latest foal being Lindelago (Aus) (Bolt d'Oro) who sadly died having raced just the once; not disgraced in last year's G3 Ottawa S. She was served last spring by State Of Rest (Ire).

NEW ZEALAND'S G1 SISTEMA S GOES TO FAVOURITE VELOCIOUS

by Renee Geelan

Written Tycoon (Aus) filly Velocious (Aus) made it four from five for the season when taking out New Zealand's G1 Sistema S. in sensational fashion. She cruised to the lead and held on by 0.75l from the fast-closing Archaic Smile (Aus) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) and Captured By Love (Aus) (Written Tycoon) who finished in the photo for second and third.

"That feels great. She's a great filly, a Karaka Million winner, and now she's a Group 1 winner. That just tops it all off," said winning trainer Stephen Marsh. Cont. p12

He added, “I was nervous coming into today, a lot more gee’d up than for the Karaka Million, but I’m just happy it’s done and dusted, and she’s got it.”

Pedigree Notes

Velocious won the NZ$1 million R. Listed Karaka 2YO Million coming into the G1 Sistema S. and took her prize-money to over NZ$915,000. She becomes the 14th Group 1 winner for Written Tycoon who stands at Yulong Stud, just one week after he earned his 13th via Southport Tycoon in the G1 Australian Guineas.

Velocious is the third foal of winning Snitzel (Aus) mare Parmalove (Aus), whose first foal Mozzarella (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}) won twice as a 2-year-old while her second foal is stakes-placed 2-year-old winner Penvose Lad (Aus) (U S Navy Flag). Velocious was a NZ$190,000 purchase by Go Bloodstock from the Inglewood Stud draft at the 2023 New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale.

Four-time champion sire Snitzel took his damsire record to 29 stakes winners, and this is his second Group 1 winner in that role after G1 Golden Slipper winner Mossfun (Aus) (Mossman {Aus}).

SHOCKING VICTORY IN G1 BONECRUSHER NEW ZEALAND STAKES

by Renee Geelan and Oz Wedmore

The hot favourite Legarto (NZ) (Proisir {Aus}) couldn't run down $20 outsider El Vencedor (NZ) (Shocking {Aus}) in the G1 Bonecrusher New Zealand S. at Ellerslie. Jockey Joe Doyle produced a remarkable front-running display and was 3l clear on the turn aboard El Vencedor.

Legarto slowly closed the gap but was too late finishing 0.3l back in second. They were trailed by Ladies Man (NZ) (Zed {NZ}) 5.5l back in third who led home the rest of the pack.

“Legarto is such a great mare and you never take her cheaply, but I loved the way he got to the front under a bit of pressure then got a couple of cheap sectionals,” said winning trainer Stephen Marsh, who had won the G1 Sistema S. just two races earlier.

“He was galloping beautifully in front and coming into the straight I saw Legarto come off the bridle just as we were starting to climb into it.

“He has got better and better with each run, and this is great for his breeders and owners Mark Freeman and David Price as they own the mare, and it is just awesome all around.”

A 5-year-old gelding, El Vencedor took his record to seven wins and 13 places from 31 starts with earnings over NZ$500,000. Very consistent, El Vencedor hasn't run worse than fourth in his last nine starts, winning the G2 Eagle Technology S. in December and was second in the G1 Thorndon Mile two starts ago.

Pedigree Notes

One of the 23 stakes winners for his Rich Hill-based, G1 Melbourne Cup-winning sire, he is one of the three stakes winner for the unraced Strictly Maternal (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ})-- also dam of the G2 Brisbane Cup and G3 Counties Cup winner Chocante (NZ) (also by Shocking) and the Group 3 and Listed-winning Hong Kong galloper Sky Darci (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}).

A homebred for M W Freeman and D G Price, El Vencedor is a great-grandson of the G3 Canterbury Gold Cup winner Red Chiffon (NZ) (Sovereign Red {NZ}) whose granddaughter Malevola (Tale Of The Cat) earned the title of Panama Champion 2-Year-Old Filly.

Strictly Maternal died just last month with her most recent foal being a yet-to-be-named 2-year-old full-sister to El Vencedor.

El Vencedor was part of a good day for O'Reilly (NZ) as a broodmare sire, the G3 Shaftesbury Avenue winner Von Hauke (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) was another success.

KLARAVICH'S DOMESTIC PRODUCT WINS WILD TAMPA BAY DERBY

With four noses at the line, Domestic Product (#5, green cap) gets the Tampa Bay Derby | SV Photography

by Jill Williams

In a GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby delayed more than 30 minutes due to a tote issue plaguing much of the East Coast, Klaravich Stables homebred Domestic Product (Practical Joke) won in a wild scramble at the finish. Recent GIII Sam F. Davis S. winner No More Time (Not This Time) was nosed out for the win and held second over recent Swale S. third Grand Mo the First (Uncle Mo), while pacesetter Good Money (Good Magic) just missed the board. The final time for the 8 1/2 furlongs was 1:45.47 in a race where the top five finishers all earned qualifying points on a scale of 50-25-15-10-5 for the Road to the Kentucky Derby.

As the Tampa Bay Derby runners circled for about 30 minutes in the saddling paddock prior to the race as the extent of the tote outage became apparent, officials at Tampa Bay Downs finally opted to run the Kentucky Derby points race as a non-wagering event. The final race on the card, scheduled to be run after the Tampa Bay Derby, was canceled altogether.

Most recently the runner-up to Hades (Awesome Slew) in the GIII Holy Bull S. Feb. 3, Domestic Product broke outward at the Tampa Bay Derby start, bumped slightly, and was unbothered as jockey Tyler Gaffalione eased into a covered-up position midpack while keeping his mount under a strong hold. Cont. p3

'RISING STAR' KINZA PROVES A DOMINATING WINNER OF THE SANTA YSABEL by Alan Carasso

Saturday's GIII Santa Ysabel S. proved yet another walk in the park for Michael Lund Petersen's 'TDN Rising Star' Kinza (Carpe Diem), who treated her seven other rivals to a front-running beating while not asked for anything close to her best. It was a second straight win in the race for Petersen, who sent out fellow Fasig-Tipton Midlantic acquisition and 'Rising Star' Faiza (Girvin) last year.

The 1-2 chalk to add to her facile two-length victory in her two-turn bow in the GIII Las Virgenes S. going a mile Feb. 10, the $350,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic breeder won the break, but had some company early in the form of Las Virgenes third She's a Tempest (Connect), who prompted through an opening quarter in a strong :22.52. Cont. p4

Domestic Product's stablemate, fellow Chad Brown trainee Good Money, showed the way through tepid :25.25 and :51.14 early fractions as Gaffalione continued to ask Domestic Product to wait. Tipped wide off the turn, the winner joined a calvary charge bearing down on Good Money with the photo showing mere inches between Domestic Product and No More Time, as Grand Mo the First and Good Money also made noise as part of the final fray.

It was the first Tampa Bay Derby win for both Brown and Gaffalione, as well as for Klaravich Stables. Inaugurated in 1981 with a current purse of $400,000, the Tampa Bay Derby has featured one victor to date (Street Sense, 2007) who went on to win the roses on the first Saturday in May in Louisville.

Prior to his Holy Bull second last month, Domestic Product--an open-daylight winner in a nine-furlong maiden special weight Oct. 27 at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet--finished an unheralded seventh in the GII Remsen S. Dec. 2. The Remsen is proving to be a key race, as the winner, Dornoch (Good Magic), won last week's GII Fountain of Youth S.; the runner-up, 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), won the Feb. 17 GII Risen Star S.; and the third-place finisher, Drum Roll Please (Hard Spun), won the Jerome S. in his last start in January. Domestic Product's first start since, that runner-up trip in the Holy Bull, involved a bumpy start and a six-wide bid in which he outslugged Eclipse champion 2-year-old Fierceness (City of Light).

Pedigree Notes:

The first stakes winner out of a daughter of the late Paynter, Domestic Product is by Coolmore America's Practical Joke, the continent's current-leading fourth-crop sire of 2024 by both earnings and black-type winners. A son of Into Mischief, Practical Joke has 25 career graded winners and 37 stakes winners worldwide.

Unraced Goods and Services, the Tampa Bay Derby winner's dam, sold at the 2021 Keeneland November sale for $37,000 to Railway Street when Domestic Product was a weanling. The mare produced a 2022 filly by Complexity in New York, aborted to Honest Mischief for 2023, and was bred to Drain the Clock for this term.

Kept honest enough down the backstretch, Kinza got the opening half-mile in :45.98, but looked to be doing it willingly enough and under a long rein from Juan Hernandez. Asked to extend a bit at the three-furlong pole, with She's a Tempest now under a ride, Kinza kicked farther in front off the final corner and Hernandez had plenty of time to take a look at the infield board to see just how much he had in hand.

It was a fourth Santa Ysabel in succession for trainer Bob Baffert and his ninth overall.

"I think she was just feeling a little fresh and now she knows she was going to race, so she was feeling a little hot," said Hernandez. "I didn't want to go that fast in the beginning, I wanted to go nice and easy. I just let her go, I didn't want to fight her, she was really comfortable. I felt the pace fast earlier, so I said, 'I'm just going to wait I'm not going to move.' I was just checking making sure no one got too close to me and when she switched leads that's when she picked it up again and gave me another gear, she is a nice filly."

The New York-bred Kinza, also a $17,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Fall Mixed weanling and $30,000 OBS October yearling, was made a no-brainer 'Rising Star' on debut when streaking away to score by 7 1/2 lengths over six furlongs Dec. 29.

Pedigree Notes:

One of 13 worldwide stakes winners and three graded winners for her sire from five crops of racing age, Kinza is out of a half-sister to the stakes-placed Mylastfirstkiss (Flatter). The last-listed produce for Secret Wonder is a 2-year-old filly by Instagrاند.

WASKESIU MAKES THE GRADE IN FLORIDA

OAKS by Alan Carasso

Sent off a lukewarm favorite at 5-2 from a dubious morning line of 8-1, Chiefswood Stable's homebred 3-year-old filly Waskesiu (American Pharoah) sat a perfect ground-saving trip just behind the speed, tipped out in the lane and finished determinedly for a maiden stakes success in Saturday's GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay Downs.

Winner of her turf debut at Aqueduct Nov. 18 and a slow-starting third in the Jan. 6 Ginger Brew S. at Gulfstream Park, the Ontario-bred took advantage of her low draw in gate four to tuck in at the fence to take the shortest way around the Oldsmar oval as triple-digit longshot A Primera Vista (Competitive Edge) cut out the running through fractions of :23.18 and :47.92. Junior Alvarado had his fists full of Waskesiu around the turn and was right on the back of the leaders nearing the stretch, just waiting for the gaps to appear. Pointed at daylight three off the inside with about a furlong and a half to run, Waskesiu knuckled down to deliver her challenge in earnest deep inside the final eighth of a mile and was along in the final few strides. Style Points (Oscar Performance), narrowly defeated in the GIII Sweetest Chant S. last time, got the better of a bobbing finish for second with Dancing N Dixie (Neolithic).

Pedigree Notes:

Waskesiu is the 44th worldwide black-type winner and 26th at the graded/group level for American Pharoah and she is the 88th SW and 46th GSW out of a daughter of the late Bernardini.

Waskesiu | SV Photography

Chiefswood Stable principle Robert Krembil acquired Waskesiu's dam--a daughter of dual Grade II winner Oonagh Maccool--for $600,000 at the 2014 Keeneland September sale. Turned over to Graham Motion, Finn's Girl graduated at first asking on the turf at Delaware Park and was third to Harmonize (Scat Daddy) in the 2015 P.G. Johnson S.

Also the dam of the Grade III-placed Cool Street (Street Cry {Ire}), Oonagh Maccool was a half-sister to Tapian (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}), a two-time Group 1 winner in both Italy and Germany, as well as G1 Sussex S. winner Ali-Royal (Ire) (Royal Academy) and 1997 G1 Pertemps 1000 Guineas winner Sleepytime (Ire) (Royal Academy), the dam of four full black-type winners from eight to the races.

Finn's Girl is the dam of a yearling colt by Curlin and foaled a filly by Justify Feb. 24.

HOW SWEET IT IS! SWEET AZTECA PILLAR TO POST IN BEHOLDER MILE by Jill Williams

Facing a bevy of both more experienced and more accomplished rivals, lightly raced Sweet Azteca (Sharp Azteca) led every step of the way to capture the renamed GI B. Wayne Hughes Beholder Mile S. at Santa Anita Saturday. Last summer's GI Clement L. Hirsch S. winner and even-money favorite Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) was second, while 'TDN Rising Star' and Pumpkin Pie S. winner Green Up (Upstart), an East Coast shipper, was third. Final time for the mile was 1:36.40.

A homebred for Pamela Cee Ziebarth, Sweet Azteca blasted right out of the gate and controlled the early tempo of :23.40 and :47.40 while in hand. As the dust settled with Green Up tracking just off the frontrunner's flank, Sweet Azteca showed no signs of slowing as she rounded the final turn and sailed into the stretch three lengths on top. Adare Manor blew by Green Up to chase the gray home, but couldn't catch the winner and finished three-quarters of a length in arrears.

"It felt like she was used to sprinting, so around the turn I tried to get her to relax, and she did the rest herself," said Flavien Prat, who was aboard the winner. "At the turn for home, I felt the other horse coming and she picked it up herself."

Sweet Azteca made one start as a 3-year-old last year for trainer Michael McCarthy, resulting in a Derby week win at Churchill Downs and an 85 debut Beyer Speed Figure. Benched until the GIII Las Flores S. at Santa Anita on New Year's Day, Sweet Azteca was outkicked for third after drifting out late, then roared back with a 12-length optional allowance win and a 91 Beyer over this surface going 6 1/2 furlongs Feb. 2. The Beholder Mile was her first try around two turns.

McCarthy previously won the Beholder Mile in 2020 with Ce Ce (Elusive Quality), who, like Sweet Azteca, was lightly raced and coming off a 6 1/2-furlong optional allowance a month prior. Ce Ce would go on to become the 2021 Eclipse champion female sprinter and a three-time Grade I winner, whose victories included the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint.

Pedigree Notes:

Sweet Azteca is the first graded winner for Sharp Azteca, a former Three Chimneys stallion who is standing the 2024 season at Shizunai Stallion Station in Japan. Cont.

Sweet Azteca | Benoit

With two crops to the races, Sharp Azteca is responsible for six black-type winners. Sweet Azteca also is one of 93 stakes winners out of a mare by the late Grand Slam. Both Sharp Azteca and Grand Slam also won Grade I races at a mile during their racing careers: the first in the 2017 Cigar Mile, the second in the 1997 Futurity S.

A third-generation homebred for Ziebarth, Sweet Azteca is out of a family first nurtured by Ziebarth's late mother, Cecilia Straub Rubens. The Beholder Mile winner's fourth dam is the famed Straub Rubens mare Cee's Song. Sold for $2.6 million to Dromoland Farm in 2001, Cee's Song produced Horse of the Year Tiznow, MGSW & GISP Budroyale, GSW Tizdubai, and the dams of GISWs Oxbow and Paynter.

The family is seeing a revitalization in 2024 as, in addition to Sweet Azteca, 'TDN Rising Star', GII Rachel Alexandra S. winner, and top GI Kentucky Oaks contender Tarifa (Bernardini) is a direct descendant.

So Sweetitiz has a 2-year-old colt named Mucho Dulce (Mucho Macho Man) and a yearling colt named Under the Big Sky (Tonalist). She is in foal for 2024 with a full-sibling to Sweet Azteca.

The only GII Azeri S. entry to not have tried stakes company, Tiny Temper ran like a giant down the lane on Saturday afternoon in Hot Springs in the prep for next month's GI Apple Blossom S.

Breaking her maiden at second asking over the slop as a late juvenile at Churchill Downs, the bay was not seen until she ran fourth against allowance company at Ellis Park last summer. Taking a break until the beginning of this year, the older filly faced off-the-turf allowance foes at Fair Grounds Jan. 25 and won by a half-length with a Beyer figure of 92. Cont.

Tiny Temper | Coady Photography

Stepping into much deeper waters as an 11-1 shot here, the 4-year-old spotted the field several lengths as favorite Hot and Sultry (Speightster) and Bellamore traded blows into the first turn. Looking like a little engine who could up the backstretch, Tiny Temper chased the pace around the far turn and hugged the rail into the lane.

As the leaders looked like they were in slow motion, fellow longshot Misty Veil highjacked the lead with a furlong left. However, it was James Graham's mount who tipped to the two path, ranged up to the outside of her target and got her picture taken with a gutsy performance.

"Don't be afraid to get in there," said trainer Dallas Stewart. "She (Tiny Temper) showed up big today. We believed in her all along. It's just taken a while. Hopefully, we'll get back to the Apple Blossom. After she won (Jan. 25 entry-level allowance at Fair Grounds), I was like: 'We need to be serious about what we're doing with her quick.' Just get in some good races. This was on the (radar), for sure."

Pedigree Notes:

Out of three racing crops, this was the 18th stakes winner and 12th graded stakes winner for deceased sire Arrogate. Out of SW Forestier, the winner's dam is responsible for a 3-year-old colt by Gun Runner, who Repole Stable bought for $350,000 at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale. Her last registered foal is currently a 2-year-old colt by McKinzie.

Augustin Stable and Catherine Parke's Sparkle Blue got the second graded victory of her career Saturday when leading wire to wire in the GII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Bay Downs. The dark bay was fourth choice after the field of eight was scratched down to six. Cont.

Sparkle Blue left the Hillsborough gate smoothly and briefly raced in tandem with MGSW & MGISP Fluffy Socks just to her inside for much of the first quarter until pulling clear by nearly a length to solely notch the first call in a leisurely :25.38. Fluffy Socks at 6-5 and GSW Star Fortress (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) at 5-2 chased as Sparkle Blue showed the way with her ears pricked. Repelling a stiff challenge from the latter as they hit the top of the lane after :52.11 and 1.17.44 splits, Sparkle Blue held sway as last year's GI Belmont Oaks winner Aspen Grove (Ire) attacked from the inside. Meanwhile, Fluffy Socks made another bid only to miss second by a neck to Aspen Grove at the line. In a determined effort, Sparkle Blue stayed on top by a half-length with a final time of 1:52.62 for the nine furlongs.

Sparkle Blue often keeps top company. She secured her first black-type victory in 2022 in the Christiana S. at Delaware, added her first graded win later in 2022 in the GIII Valley View S. at Keeneland, and added another stakes win last July in the Big Dreyfus S. at Laurel Park. She has an additional five stakes placings, including in the 2022 GI American Oaks at Santa Anita, and was last seen finishing third in the Feb. 3. GIII Endeavor S. at Tampa in her 2024 seasonal debut.

Pedigree Notes:

Darley America stalwart Hard Spun, who has churned out a remarkable 51 graded winners and 102 black-type winners worldwide in 13 crops to race, is the sire of Sparkle Blue and four other stakes winners out of Smart Strike mares. The late Smart Strike has 181 black-type winners as a broodmare sire.

Sparkle Blue is the last foal out of Silk n' Sapphire, making the Hillsborough winner a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect) and to GSW Colonial Flag (Pleasant Tap). Additionally, Shared Account is the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Sharing (Speightstown).

Red Carpet Ready was more than ready to get her photo taken, winning the GIII Hurricane Bertie S. Saturday off an eight-month layoff for trainer George Arnold II and owners Ashbrook Farm and Upland Flats Racing. The daughter of Oscar Performance raised eyebrows with a 10-length maiden win on debut at Churchill Downs in the fall of 2022 and picked up two more in succession including the GIII Forward Gal S. just over a year ago. Third in the GII Davona Dale S., she rebounded with victory in last year's GII Eight Belles S. on Derby weekend at Churchill Downs May 5 but came up empty in defeat as the favorite behind Maple Leaf Mel (Cross Traffic) in the GIII Victory Ride S. to end her season at Belmont July 8.

Unseen since that New York effort, Red Carpet Ready returned to Gulfstream and got a nice, ground-saving trip tucked in behind Spirit Wind. The 4-1 shot had to work, coming three wide outside of the dueling pacesetters turning for home and wearing them both down to steal the show from race favorite Olivia Darling.

"[Trainer George] Rusty always does a great job with all his horses," said winning jockey Luis Saez. "We worked her last time and she did it beautiful. We knew today that the race was not easy, but she always shows up." Cont.

Claimed just two starts back for $50,000, Mucho Del Oro rewarded his new owners with a win in Saturday's GIII San Simeon S. Bounced around between connections for much of his three-year career, this 6-year-old gelding made just three starts in 2023 culminating in a career-high 99 Beyer Speed Figure and new track record when claimed June 3. Given a break off that start, Mucho Del Oro returned to the races in heartbreaking fashion on the losing end of a photo finish in the Clocker's Corner S. Jan. 28. In much of a similar spot Saturday, the 5-2 shot flashed good early speed from an inside gate and led the top flight down the hill while also able to clear down the inside as they swung left handed. Pushed on the outside by a pair of runners as they hit the crossover, Mucho Del Oro rode the rail into the stretch and opened up nicely, holding off a late charging group to nab the win.

Mucho Del Oro | Benoit

“He tries all the time,” said Juan Hernandez. “Last time he came from a layoff, and they caught me right at the wire, he needed that race. Today Doug O’Neill had him ready, I asked him this morning and he said the horse was doing really good, training phenomenal and he was right. The horse showed up today. He went to the gate and he broke really sharp, I think that is his style out of the gate that’s how he likes to run.” Cont.

Skippylongstocking shipped into Tampa for the second straight year and once again won the GIII Challenger S. for owner Daniel Alonso and trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr.

Third in the GI Belmont S. two years ago and running third in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Santa Anita last fall, the 5-year-old was pulled up, but walked off under his power in the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream Park during his only start this year.

Skippylongstocking | SV Photography

Well-backed at the windows as the 3-5 shot here, the bay allowed a longshot to take the field into the first turn as he tracked just off the speed. On hold up the backstretch, Skippylongstocking was given his cue around the far turn, cleared just before the eighth pole and looked nothing short of professional down the lane to win by 2 1/2 lengths.

Pedigree Notes:

The sire of five crops of racing age, Exaggerator's other graded stakes winner is GIII Iroquois S. hero West Saratoga. The dam of six foals and three winners, Twinkling was purchased in 2018 at the OBS Winter Mixed Sale for $42,000 by Brushy Hill Enterprises while GSP Moonlite Strike (Liam's Map) was in utero. The winner's dam produced Mia's Mom (Maclean's Music), who went to August Dawn Farm for $275,000 at the 2023 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale, foaled a filly by Authentic last year and she was bred to Not This Time for the spring.

BEHOLDER MILE TO BE RENAMED TO HONOR HUGHES

The GI Beholder Mile is being renamed the B. Wayne Hughes Beholder Mile in honor of the multiple champion's late owner, who passed away in August 2021.

Hughes, the founder of the Public Storage company and whose silks carried the same purple-and-orange color scheme, owned horses for five decades and was the proprietor of Spendthrift Farm from 2004.

Beholder, a daughter of Henny Hughes, was purchased for $180,000 at the 2011 Keeneland September sale and won a record 13 stakes races at Santa Anita, including the 2012 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and Breeders' Cup Distaffs in Arcadia in 2013 and 2016. Cont.

A four-time Eclipse Award winner, she registered 12 Grade I victories and retired with earnings of $6,156,600. She was inducted into Racing's Hall of Fame in 2022.

"Santa Anita is proud to honor someone who gave so much to the sport," said Nate Newby, Santa Anita Senior Vice President and General Manager. "Mr. Hughes was a true sportsman who made contributions in every aspect of the game. It only seems appropriate that his name stands alongside his greatest racemare in Santa Anita's most prestigious race for fillies and mares."

Added current Spendthrift owner Eric Gustavson: "The team at Spendthrift, including Wayne's daughter Tammy and me, would like to sincerely thank Santa Anita for renaming the Beholder Mile. To have B. Wayne Hughes's name attached to such a prestigious race, named after his best race mare at his favorite place is an amazing way to honor him."

WIN WIN WIN FILLY TIES OBS UNDER-TACK RECORD

by Alan Carasso

An Ocala Stud-bred and -consignee filly from the first crop of GI Forego S. winner Win Win Win (Hat Trick {Jpn}) equaled the record time for a quarter-mile breeze over the SafeTrack surface at the OBS sales grounds, covering the distance in :20 1/5 during the fourth and final preview for next week's OBS March Sale of 2-Year-Olds In Training.

"It wasn't a real surprise," said Ocala Stud's David O'Farrell. "She prepped very well last week, did it very easily and she's just a really, really good filly. She's got 'it'--she's got that 'it' factor. You really don't know exactly what you have until the final prep.

"She's powerful, very classy and very good-minded," he continued. "She came back to the barn after her breeze and just cooled out beautifully. She never turned a hair, she's very quiet and just great to be around. Every time you ask her for work, she lays it down for you. We were high on her at the farm, but when we got over here it completely translated. She's the real deal, she's fast."

Hip 788 is the latest foal out of their homebred Unanimity (Union Rags), whose own dam Lady Discreet (Boundary) was acquired by Ocala Stud for $45,000 in foal to Phone Trick at the 2004 OBS Fall Mixed Sale.

A daughter of 1995 GI Alabama S. heroine Pretty Discreet (Private Account), Lady Discreet is a half-sister to Grade I-winning sire Discreet Cat (Forestry), GISW Discreetly Mine (Mineshaft) and SW/MGISP Pretty Wild (Wild Again). For Ocala Stud, Lady Discreet produced MSW & MGSP Courtesan (Street Sense), the stakes-winning and stakes-producing Chary (Montbrook) and The Shady Lady (Quality Road), the unraced dam of undefeated GIII Holy Bull S. winner Hades (Awesome Slew) and SW Devious Dame (Girvin).

The second-fastest quarter-mile move Saturday was turned in by the Pick View LLC-consigned hip 686, a first-crop son of Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) out of the Irish stakes-placed So Stylish (Johannesburg), who stopped the clock in :20 2/5. Bred by Mt. Brilliant Farm & Ranch, hip 686 was purchased by Pick View for $40,000 at Keeneland September last fall.

A day after a pair of horses shared the :9 3/5 bullet for one-eighth mile breezes, no fewer than seven juveniles shared top honors when working in :9 4/5 Saturday. They include:

- Hip 670, a Catalina Cruiser half-brother to SP Motown Mischief (Malibu Moon) from Coastal Equine LLC (Jesse Hoppel);

OKLAHOMA TRAINING TRACK TO OPEN APR. 18

The Oklahoma Training Track at Saratoga Race Course will open Thursday, Apr. 18, officials at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) said, with the barn area opening to licensed trainers and staff from Monday, Apr. 15.

As Saratoga prepares to host the 2024 Belmont Stakes Festival June 6-9, the main track will open one month earlier than customary on Monday, May 6.

Due to the ongoing construction at Belmont Park, there will be significant changes to the usual NYRA training schedule. The Belmont main track will remain closed for training through the spring and summer as NYRA reconstructs the dirt surface and both turf courses while finishing the installation of a new one-mile synthetic surface. The Belmont training track, synthetic pony track and a jogging barn will be open for daily training throughout the spring and summer.

In light of the construction, NYRA is waiving all stall rental fees at Saratoga for the spring training season beginning May 6, assuming all trainer accounts are current through the end of 2023. Cont.

FIRST MARES BRED TO DARLEY'S CODY'S WISH, PROXY SCANNED IN FOAL

Cody's Wish | Sarah Andrew

New Darley America stallions, champion Cody's Wish (Curlin) and Proxy (Tapit), have had their first mares scanned in foal.

Among the first mares bred to two-time GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile and recent Eclipse Award winner Cody's Wish is Kite Beach (Awesome Again), who is responsible for 'TDN Rising Star' and GII Rachel Alexandra S. victress Tarifa (Bernardini). The Grade II-winning second dam Tizdubai (Cee's Tizzy) is a full-sister to dual Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow.

Proxy, a homebred son of the versatile Panty Raid (Include) who won the 2022 GI Clark S. and was third in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, has gotten several mares in foal in his first month of covering, including Bursting in Air (Violence), a

GULFSTREAM BOOSTS SPRING/SUMMER PURSES

Overnight purses for the upcoming Spring/Summer Meet at Gulfstream Park will be increased in all categories from open handicaps to $6,250 claiming races with conditions.

Open handicap purses will rise from $60,000 last season to $74,000; $6,250 claiming races with conditions will jump from $17,000 to $20,000; open allowances will be $10,000 higher than 2023 levels, ranging from $61,000 to $63,000; entry-level allowances for Florida-breds will increase from $43,000 to $48,000; maiden special weight races will increase by $10,000 to $60,000; maiden special weight races for Florida-breds will go up from $40,000 to $48,000; maiden races for $12,500 claimers will get a boost of $6,000 to $25,000; starter allowance purses will increase from $3,000 to $9,000 (from $25,000 to $49,000); and the purse for a $50,000 claiming race for 3-year-olds will jump by $9,000 to $44,000.

“With the increased purses, grass racing, and our workers compensation program, Gulfstream is now the summer place to be,” said Florida Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (FTHA) President Joe Orseno. “We are able to offer better purses and we hope this will encourage trainers and owners to keep horses at Gulfstream Park through the non-championship meet. A big thank you to 1/ST management and the FTHA purse committee for negotiating this competitive purse structure.”

Gulfstream will race four days a week from April to June and three days a week from July to November with turf racing throughout the spring and summer.

HOMEBREDS DEBUT AT GULFSTREAM, REIGNING KING'S PLATE WINNER RETURNS

2nd-GP, $89K, Msw, 3yo, f, 1mT, 12:39 p.m. ET.

SF Racing's MONT SAINT MICHEL (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) makes her inaugural voyage for Brendan Walsh after she started her work regimen at Turfway in early December and then moved to Palm Meadows. The homebred is out of SP Black Dahlia (GB) (Dansili {GB}), who is also responsible for third place GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}).

Also making the post is Alpha Delta homebred Highland Light (Uncle Mo) for trainer Chad Brown. The dark bay's dam GSW Summer Raven (Summer Squall) produced GIII Holy Bull S. champ Winslow Homer (Unbridled's Song) and his full-brother GSW Misconnect. Her most successful offspring is MGSW/MGISP Lewis Bay (Berandini), who earned over $1.1 million on the racetrack. TJCIS PPS

Just before the Sunday finale in Hallandale, Paramount Prince (Society's Chairman) returns to the races after he took home last year's King's Plate S. at Woodbine. Trained by Mark Casse, the Sovereign 3-year-old male nominee is out of a stakes-placed dam who counts U.S.-based sire Army Mule as a half-brother.

The last-out winner of the Gulfstream Park Turf Sprint S. Feb. 10, Coppola had plenty of positive prior experience over the course and distance of Saturday's Silks Run S. The 7-1 shot kept in touch with Yes I Am Free (Uncaptured), never letting that pacesetter get too comfortable. As the top trio spun for the wire, Coppola swung outside of that rival and managed to run him down in the final sixteenth. Yes I Am Free dead-heated for second with Panther Island. Cont.

Hot Fudge continued to rack up wins during this current form cycle at Aqueduct as she won an optional claimer Dec. 1, the Garland of Roses S. Dec. 9 and then the Interborough S. Jan. 27.

The dark bay was rewarded with 3-5 favoritism here, but she was unable to secure the front. That spot went to Quick Munny (Munnings), who held sway until the top of the lane. As the pacesetter began to tire with a furlong left, Hot Fudge took aim at new leader Kant Hurry Love and nailed her at the wire.

“Hot Fudge, she will bring you to the hot spot, I’ll tell you,” said jockey Kendrick Carmouche. “I’m just a passenger. You see her at the wire stick her head out. She knows how to win. She is a winner.”

The winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old colt Bob's Carrot (Daredevil) and a yearling colt by Essential Quality. She was bred to Liam's Map for this season. Ba Dee Yah began her career on the grass last summer but broke her maiden in her third start when switched to the main track at Fair Grounds Nov. 24.

Third behind the TDN's Top Kentucky Oaks prospect Tarifa (Bernardini) when last seen Jan. 20, Saturday's 9-5 second choice lined up facing only three rivals in a scratched-down field. Paced up front by Ms Quality Control, Ba Dee Yah stalked with a clear outside position, moved past that rival into the far turn and cleared off nicely down the lane to win going away over heavy favorite Pursuit of Liberty.

"We'd have been happy either way (on turf or dirt)," trainer Tom Amoss said. "It was a small field and Mr. Stone (owner) and I talked a lot about strategy. These kinds of races when no one really shows they want the lead, it's about strategy. Edgar executed a great strategy, stayed in perfect position and I think that made the difference."

He continued, "When I first came to the racetrack, I was 14 years-old, a freshman in high school. 'Black Cat' was the man. He was always kind to everyone, and he was kind to me."

The half-sister to Canadian champion 2-year-old Gretzy the Great (Nyquist), Ba Dee Yah is the 99th stakes winner for leading sire Uncle Mo. After beginning his career in the Saffie Joseph, Jr. barn, Full Nelson was claimed by Jose D'Angelo late last summer in his fourth start. Moved up to face winners, the son of Lord Nelson showed marked improvement when stepped up in distance from 5 1/2 furlongs to a mile and 70 yards. Entered Saturday for his stakes debut off three straight wins, including last out over course and distance Feb. 9, Full Nelson went off the 7-2 second choice and raced in the top flight behind Rose Collector (Collected) through a half in :46.97. With plenty of horse left turning for the wire, he kicked past the fading leader and stayed clear to the wire. A seventh stakes winner for the late Lord Nelson, Full Nelson has a 2-year-old Omaha Beach half-brother and a yearling half-sister by Not This Time. VLAHOS (r, 3, Kantharos--Must Be Dreaming, by Run Away and Hide) was quick into stride to lead through :21.47 and :43.69 splits as a fleet of pursuers lined up behind him. Edging away heading into the lane after 1:09.21 sailed by, Vlahos kicked away from the well-regarded rivals behind him to win by 4 1/2 lengths over Feel the Magic (Good Magic). Santarena (Omaha Beach) did the best of the 'Insights' runners when finishing fourth as Winterfell (Arrogate) ran fifth and Pony Express (Gun Runner) faded to ninth. The first to the races for Must Be Dreaming, Vlahos has a yearling half-brother by Tiz the Law and their dam is due to Charlatan in 2024. Sales history: $35,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. SAN SIRO (g, 3, Classic Empire--Catenaria, by Bernardini) was gelded before this jump after three unsuccessful priors attempts to break his maiden including at first asking when he ran behind SW Legalize (Constitution) Nov. 25 at Churchill Downs. Watching the race unfold near the back of the field, San Siro started rolling through the far bend and sustained his kick to run down Rock N Roll Bolt (Bolt d'Oro) by a nose. The winner has one other sibling, a 2-year-old half-brother by Complexity, who is the last registered offspring for Catenaria thus far. 3rd-Sam Houston Race, $33,000, Msw, 3-8, 3yo, f, 1m 70y, 1:43.70, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.

CONNECTABLE (f, 3, Constitution--Soluna, by Tiznow) came in here with a bullet work to her credit Feb. 29, a five panel move in 1:02.02 (1/8) and the betting public was quick to swoop, crowning her the 2-1 favorite. Glued to the pacesetter as the lone horse making her debut, the chestnut was under consistent urging into the far turn, but summoned a second rally in the lane to kick away by 2 3/4 lengths as Get Ready Gal (Mor Spirit) overtook the runner-up spot. Connectable is the first to the races for Soluna, who also has a yearling Not This Time filly. She is due to Epicer for 2024. VERY PRACTICAL (f, 3, Practical Joke--With Intention, by Mr. Greeley), unsuccessful in two prior jumps at Aqueduct on debut and last out Jan. 14 at Gulfstream Park, broke through here at 5-1 odds. In no rush from the rear of the field early, she made her bid from the three path around the turn and steadily marched home to win the photo with Qualificata (Malibu Moon). A half-sister to Maftool (Hard Spun), GSW-UAE, GSW-Eng, GSP-Tur, $807,164, Very Practical is the most recent winning addition for With Intention. The mare has also produced a pair of Gormley fillies--a 2-year-old who was sent to Ireland in 2023 and a yearling filly. She is due to Hard Spun in 2024. ALIMARA (FR) (f, 3, The Grey Gatsby {Ire}--Arctica {Ger}, by Iffraaj {GB}) made a pair of starts--one on grass and synthetic--in her native France last year and was second on both occasions before joining the Chad Brown barn. Racing with Lasix for the first time Saturday, the 9-5 favorite was nearly last from the gate and content to race near the rear markers up the backstretch. With a strong closing kick, she angled out past the quarter pole and was able to drive past Segesta (Ghostzapper)
