

SEVEN DAYS: A GOOD WEEK IF YOUR NAME IS EGAN

Henrietta Egan, breeder of Post Impressionist
Laura Green/Tattersalls

by Emma Berry

We've been waiting so long for the proper Flat to start that it seems almost criminal to veer straight off to the other side of the world, but there was plenty of interest for breeders from this side at Rosehill in Sydney on Saturday morning.

One person who managed to stay awake past 2am to watch the highly impressive last-to-first romp of Post Impressionist (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G3 N E Manion Cup was his breeder Henrietta Egan, who is based at Corduff Stud with her husband David.

Now five, Post Impressionist is the first foal of Island Remede (GB) (Medicean {GB}), who was bought by Egan from the Tattersalls December Mares Sale for 43,000gns. Already a winner for Ed Dunlop, she was put back into training with Henry de Bromhead the following season as a five-year-old and went on to be placed twice in Listed races at Leopardstown and Cork as well as winning over hurdles at Limerick. That National Hunt form didn't deter Shadwell from giving 260,000gns for her Teofilo colt at the yearling sales.

"I was a gibbering wreck when he sold as a yearling to Shadwell and this horse has taken me on the most extraordinary journey," Egan told TDN on Saturday morning. Cont. p3

HEARTBREAK FOR QUINN YARD AS HIGHFIELD PRINCESS DIES AFTER STABLE ACCIDENT

Trainers John and Sean Quinn have been dealt a cruel blow with the news that stable star Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) has died after suffering "an inoperable fracture".

Highfield Princess took the Quinn stable on an extraordinary journey, winning 14 of her 39 career starts and earning close to £2 million in prize-money for her owner-breeder John Fairley.

She tasted Group 1 success four times and mixed it with some of the fastest horses in the world. However, the Prix de l'Abbaye, Nunthorpe, Flying Five and Prix Maurice de Gheest scorer could not be saved after suffering an accident in her stable.

A statement released by the Quinn team on Sunday morning read, "She suffered an inoperable fracture following an accident in her stable and, although over the past week she fought with the same extraordinary spirit she showed on the racecourse, last night lost her battle for life." Cont. p9

She added, "We had dreams of winning the Mares' Hurdle at Cheltenham, which was a bit crackers. David is great mates with Henry and we had big dreams of having fun with her, and we did. She ran at Leopardstown first time out and finished third in a Listed race and I think that was the first black type on the Flat for Henry."

Egan's association with Island Remede stretches back further than the sale ring at Tattersalls, however, to before she was even born.

"I was riding out for Ed Dunlop when she was in training with him, and weirdly I worked for her breeder Ian Quy, who had two mares, and I did the nomination for her, so we have a very long story," she says.

"I'm slightly gobsmacked really. David had a foal last night. I was out to a birthday party and David had to stay behind to watch the mare. I came back to find David fast asleep and it was about one o'clock so I thought I'd pour myself a gin and tonic and try to stay awake for the race. I was screaming downstairs watching this horse and I ran upstairs and couldn't wake my husband who was out for the count. The foaling season is so exhausting, but this is why we do it. It's what dreams are made of."

Later in the day, Island Remede's three-year-old filly Cabrera (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}) ran a promising fourth on debut at Newcastle for Egan and Hot To Trot Racing. The mare is in foal to Cracksman (GB), carrying another filly, and will be sent to Native Trail (GB) this season.

There is likely to be more early-morning screaming in the Egan household this spring as Hong Kong superstar Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who was bred by Corduff Stud and Tim Rooney, will be seeking his seventh Group 1 win when he lines up for the FWD QEII Cup on Sha Tin's Champions Day. As well as his wins in Hong Kong, the six-year-old also won last year's Cox Plate, and there could be more Group 1 success on the cards in Australia for Corduff Stud with Post Impressionist, now owned by Lloyd Williams, likely to head next for the Sydney Cup.

"With Romantic Warrior being such a success for the farm as well, it's just such a cool year," Egan said. "I'm thrilled for David. He works so hard. Good stuff like this just makes it worthwhile."

She added that Romantic Warrior's dam Folk Melody (Ire) (Street Cry {Ire}) has a New Bay (GB) yearling colt but no foal this year. She is booked to Havana Grey (GB).

Haggas Gives Waller a Lead

Australian trainers must dread seeing the name William Haggas among the nominations for runners for Sydney's Autumn Carnival. His raids down under have shown him to be the ultimate target trainer and Post Impressionist gave Haggas his third win in the N E Manion Cup in the last five years after Young Rascal (Fr) (Intello {Ger}) in 2020

Post Impressionist | Bronwen Healy

and Favorite Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) 12 months later. In 2020, while all of European racing was shuttered by Covid, Haggas sent out Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) to give us all something to cheer about when he won the G1 Ranvet and G1

Queen Elizabeth S., and that lovely old warrior returned the following year to tussle with Chris Waller's super mare Verry Elleegant (NZ) (Zed {NZ}), finishing second to her in the Ranvet before winning his second Queen Elizabeth.

Last year, Haggas pulled off that same Group 1 double with Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}), while Protagonist (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) pitched in to take the G3 Sky High S. Frustratingly for all involved with Dubai Honour, a setback ruled him out of a return to Sydney, but that news will doubtless have come as a relief to Waller.

He told Sky Racing World last week that he had taken a leaf out of the Haggas playbook in his training of Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who joined his team after being sold for 2.7 million gns last December at Tattersalls, having won the G1 Pretty Polly S. for George Boughey and owner Rebecca Hillen.

"We prepared her in Newmarket, I kept a close eye on what Mr Haggas has done with a few of his horses which have beaten Verry Elleegant a number of times," Waller said. "He just gets it right every year."

Waller is not exactly a novice himself when it comes to winning Group 1 races. Born in New Zealand, he has been champion trainer in Sydney every year since the 2010/11 season. But it is a mark of his professionalism that he continues to look and learn, and his approach paid off handsomely when Via Sistina landed the Ranvet on her Australian debut.

The five-year-old now races in the colours of Yulong Investments, who also own the Ranvet runner-up Place Du Carrousel (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), another expensive December purchase, bought for €4.025 million at Arqana. The European-bred trifecta was brought up by another Waller trainee, Buckaroo (GB), who was bred by The Roheryn Partnership at Tweenhills on that same productive Fastnet Rock-Galileo cross as Via Sistina.

It was a banner day at Rosehill for the Yulong team, whose stallions Written Tycoon (Aus) and Pierata (Aus) were responsible for the first two home in the G1 Golden Slipper, Lady Of Camelot (Aus) and Coleman (Aus). Another of the team's stallions, Grunt (NZ), sired the G1 George Ryder S. winner Veight (Aus), who was bred and sold by Yulong as a yearling.

A Different Egan

Let's return closer to home where another David Egan, this one the jockey, was in the spotlight on Saturday as turf racing commenced at Doncaster. Egan's major breakthrough came when, as retained rider to Prince AA Faisal, he rode the Prince's homebred Mishriff (Ire) to victory in the Saudi Cup, Dubai Sheema Classic and Juddmonte International. Signed by Amo Racing in December, Egan has grabbed that new opportunity with both hands.

He won the first Irish two-year-old race of the season last Monday aboard Arizona Blaze (GB) (Sergei Prokofiev) on the Curragh, where he grew up, and then delivered Mr Professor (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) to win the Lincoln at 33/1. He will be itching to hop aboard the Amo Racing star King Of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who was seen on Newmarket Heath in Saturday morning's sunshine looking a picture of health amid Roger Varian's string under Raul da Silva. Cont. p6

Varian himself got off to a perfect start by saddling the first winner of the British turf season, Charyn (Ire), who bowled home in the Listed Doncaster Mile. He certainly should have won as he did as the son of Dark Angel (Ire), who was bred by Guy O'Callaghan at Grangemore Stud, is a classy individual and looks to have improved again physically over the winter. A Group 2 winner at two for Nurlan Bizakov, Charyn was fourth in the Irish 2,000 Guineas and third in both the St James's Palace and Sussex S. last year. If he continues to run as well as he looked on Saturday, he could well rival King Of Steel for the title of the best grey at Carlborg Stables and edge his way onto Bizakov's burgeoning roster of Sumbe stallions for next year, alongside the aforementioned Mishriff.

Less than 24 hours later, Charyn's sire Dark Angel was in the spotlight with a rare winner in Japan, and this one at the highest level. Mad Cool (Ire), bred by Moyglare Stud and sold to Katsumi Yoshida as a foal at Goffs for €225,000, landed the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen at Chukyo for Sunday Racing Co and trainer Manabu Ikezoe.

The five-year-old, who became the 16th Group/Grade 1 winner for Dark Angel, was beaten by a nose in the G1 Sprinters S. last October and is from one of the families which has underpinned the success of Moyglare Stud over a number of generations. His dam Mad About You (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) won the G3 Gladness S. and was runner-up in the both the Irish 1,000 Guineas and G1 Pretty Polly S. in the hands of Pat Smullen, and she is a half-sister to the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Princess Highway (Street Cry {Ire}) and G1 Irish St Leger winner Royal Diamond (Ire) (King's Best).

Keep An Eye On Cunha

Profitable, who is now at stud in Turkey, was represented on Saturday by the Lincoln winner Mr Professor, while another son of Invincible Spirit (Ire), Territories (Ire), provided South African trainer Dylan Cunha with his first win in the Brocklesby. Cunha, a former airline pilot and also a Grade 1-winning trainer in his homeland, set up in Newmarket two years ago. His string has grown significantly for this season and, since William Jarvis ceased training, he is now occupying Phantom House Stables, having started out in the bottom yard there with a handful of horses.

Cunha, who spent some of his early years working in Newmarket for Robert Armstrong, certainly knows how to get one ready, and the game Zminiature (GB) battled his way home in heavy ground at Doncaster to take the first British two-year-old race of the season for owner-breeder Jonathan Sarkar and family, who have supported the trainer since his return.

There is an abundance of early races in an expanded spring programme for two-year-olds in Britain. The William Hill EBF Brocklesby S. kicked off the series of High-Value Development races and was worth £40,000, as is the British Stallion Studs EBF Maiden at Chelmsford on Good Friday. They are two of 16 juvenile races that will be run in the UK before we even get to the Craven meeting on April 16.

No Escaping Scat Daddy

The vaunted Storm Boy (Aus) may have had to settle for third in the Golden Slipper, but we are guaranteed to be hearing plenty about his sire Justify this season as the likes of City Of Troy, Ramatuelle and Opera Singer swing back into action.

In the meantime two other sons of Scat Daddy are off the mark with their first winners in these very early days of the European juvenile programme. Sergei Prokofiev supplied Arizona Blaze to win at the Curragh's opening day, as mentioned above, while on Saturday at La Teste de Buch, Sweet Chop became the first winner for his sire, the G2 Railway S. winner Van Beethoven, who stands at Karwin Farm.

The only other freshman to have sired a winner in Europe is New Approach's son Hey Gaman (GB), who was beaten a neck when second to Olmedo (Fr) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and now stands at Haras du Taillis. His son Eagle Gate (Fr) won in Marseille on Wednesday.

Vive Les Turistes

France has led the way on the Flat front in the last few weeks and the country's racing administrators are celebrating the fact that 2023 saw a 17% increase in attendance figures across French racecourses, including trotting tracks. This certainly bucks the trend being seen in other countries.

There has been an early 'TDN Rising Star' among the French ranks in the three-year-old Puchkine (Fr) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), who remains unbeaten in four starts for Jean-Claude Rouget after landing the Prix Torrestrella at Toulouse on Wednesday. While he is on course for the Poule d'Essai des Poulains, his fellow Rising Star of the same day, Clipper Logistics' Night Raider (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) is on course for the 2,000 Guineas after keeping a clean sheet with an emphatic win at Southwell for Karl Burke.

Also at Toulouse, Dancing Queen (Fr), from the penultimate crop of Le Havre (Ire), enhanced the Classic dream of her trainer Fabrice Vermeulen when winning the mile maiden on Saturday. She carries the colours of Haras du Logis Saint Germain, which won the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches of 2020 with Dream And Do (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). Unlike that filly, Dancing Queen is not a homebred as she was bred by Peter Savill, for the former BHB chairman who has recently returned to the forefront of British racing politics, if not in an official capacity.

Another who had gone into the notebook last October when winning the Prix de Saint-Desir on debut was the Wertheimers' Bright Picture (Fr) (Intello {Ger}). He has done nothing but confirm that good impression with two further wins, the latest in the Listed Prix Francois Mathet on March 16. As a gelding, he cannot be aimed at the Classics but he is clearly highly regarded, and our colleagues at Jour de Galop dubbed him 'the next Junko' after his stakes victory at Saint-Cloud.

That is high praise indeed, and we will see the G1 Hong Kong Vase winner Junko (GB), another son of Intello, at Meydan in Saturday's tantalising G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. While Junko was bred by Wertheimer et Frere, Bright Picture is a rare sales purchase, bought from his breeder John Carrington for €72,000 at the Arqana October Yearling Sale. The brothers' support of their stallion Intello also led to the purchase of Pao Alto (Fr), who went on to win the G3 Prix La Force among his five victories.

Thinking of Stefano Cherchi

We end this column with a heavy heart while, at the time of writing, Stefano Cherchi remains in a serious condition in hospital in Canberra, Australia. The 23-year-old jockey sustained serious head and internal injuries when his mount Hasime (Aus) fell, bringing down two other horses, at Canberra's meeting last Wednesday.

An enormously popular figure in Newmarket, where he served his apprenticeship with Marco Botti, Cherchi is originally from Sardinia. He remains in the thoughts of his many friends throughout the racing world.

CALYX'S PURPLE LILY A NEW RISING STAR

by Tom Frary

Sunday's TRM Equine Nutrition Race at Naas looked an intriguing contest, with four winners lined up including one who was Group 1-placed at two. At the end, there was one who was in total command and that was the filly Purple Lily (Ire) (Calyx {GB})--Boca Raton {Ire}, by Approve {Ire} who flashed distinct Classic potential to earn TDN Rising Star status. Cont. p8

Racing for Alan O’Flynn’s Zinlo Syndicate, the Paddy Twomey-trained Tatts Ireland Goresbridge Breeze Up sensation had made an instant impression when off the mark in an often-informative Galway maiden in August. On only her second start, the 10-11 favourite was able to master Ballydoyle’s G1 Criterium International third Portland (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Johnny Murtagh-trained course-and-distance maiden winner Chicago Critic (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) and make light of the testing conditions.

“She’s a nice filly and she had wintered well. She has size and scope and is a strong filly. We just gave her the one run after the breeze-ups last year and she was good,” Twomey said. “I like her, the horses have done loads of cantering but they haven’t done much fast work. I thought she was a nice filly and when you are taking on a 108-rated colt you are asking them a question and she did it well.”

Content to let the two class colts of the race go on from the outset, Billy Lee asked the question of Purple Lily heading to two out and she responded gamely to subdue them soon after. At the line, she had put three lengths between her and the solid yardstick Portland, with another 4 1/4 lengths back to Chicago Critic in third. “We might look at a Guineas trial here and go for an Irish Guineas,” her trainer added. “I think Newmarket would come at her a bit quick and I think we’ll take our time--Billy [Lee] says something like the [G1] Pretty Polly might suit her. Hopefully we have a good year with her.”

Calyx’s third TDN Rising Star, including last year’s G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. winner Persian Dreamer, Purple Lily is the third foal out of Boca Raton, a half-sister to the G1 Irish Oaks third and G3 Lancashire Oaks runner-up Lady’s Secret (Ire) (Alzao). She also has a 2-year-old full-brother to the winner named Cataluyna (Ire) and a yearling filly by Cotai Glory (GB).

AL BASTI EQUIWORLD AND YORK CONTINUE SPONSORSHIP PARTNERSHIP

Al Basti Equiworld will renew its partnership with York Racecourse and continue sponsoring a trio of group races, the two organisations announced on Sunday.

The £180,000 G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Dante S. and the £150,000 G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Middleton S. will take place on May 16 this year. The £250,000 G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Gimcrack S. will be held on Aug. 23.

Malih Al Basti said, "Our long-standing relationship with York Racecourse has contributed significantly to promoting recognition of our brand within the sport and beyond. I am delighted that we are able to continue our support for these three important races at two of British racing's most exciting Festivals."

Chairman of York Racecourse, Bridget Guerin, added, "Malih Al Basti has been a great supporter of York, so it is wonderful news that his support is set to continue. All three races have a rich heritage with many famous winners and memorable contests, they will continue to thrive under the strong partnership between Al Basti Equiworld and the team at York."

Sent mainly over staying trips last term, Sunchart had shown most of his best form at either this trip or a mile and a half and also a liking for this track, at which he had been second in this 12 months ago and in 2021. Always comfortable tracking the leading duo, he was sent to the front passing two out and galloped his rivals into submission from there.

"He was always a very good horse and he likes this track," trainer Andy Slattery said after welcoming back the winner and his son on board. "He likes going left-handed and likes soft ground. It was just about getting him right on the day and today he was right."

The dam, a daughter of the G2 Sun Chariot S. winner Red Slippers (Nureyev) and half to the G1 Prix de Diane heroine West Wind (GB) (Machiavellian), is also a full-sister to Godolphin's high-class producer Eastern Joy (GB) whose six stakes winners are headed by the dual G1 Dubai World Cup hero Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) and who is also the second dam of the ill-fated G1 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. winner Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Hometown's 2-year-old filly is by Kizuna (Jpn).

"He's a turf horse really and I knew what he did in Dundalk wasn't going to be what he could do on turf but he still won twice," trainer Jack Davison. "I'd probably be in favour of having a go at the [G3] Gladness at the Curragh over seven, all going well. He has lots of options. WENDLA (GB) (f, 3, Ulysses {Ire}--Intercontinental {GB} {Champion Grass Mare, MGISW-US, SW & G1SP-Fr, G1SP-Eng, $2,052,463}, by Danehill), last seen finishing sixth over seven furlongs at The Curragh in October, enjoyed a perfect early tow under cover. Slowly angled out to challenge at the top of the straight, the 11-2 shot stayed on strongly to head Harbour Gem (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) passing the furlong pole and account for that rival by 2 1/2 lengths. Ger Lyons, who was saddling his first turf winner of the year, said, "Colin [Keane] said to me she'd win if she did what we've seen at home. It's about whether they handle the ground or not. We thought if she handles that ground if one of the trials comes up soft then we have one for it and if it turns up good we've one for it too. I'm not saying they are Guineas horses or anything, they've to prove that, but at the minute we've won our maiden and they are horses we would like to be going to a trial with and see where the ceiling is in time." The high-class dam, a daughter of the famed Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), captured the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare

DARK ANGEL'S MAD COOL TOO COOL FOR RIVALS AT CHUKYO by Heather Anderson

Mad Cool (Jpn) (Dark Angel {Ire})--Mad About You {Ire}, by Indian Ridge {Ire} climbed the Group 1 heights with a head victory in the 1200-metre ¥329,400,000 G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen at Chukyo on Sunday. Namura Clair (Jpn) (Mikki Isle {Jpn}) was runner-up for the second consecutive year, with the duo three lengths ahead of Hong Kong raider and G1 Centenary Sprint Cup scorer Victor The Winner (Aus) (Toronado {Ire}) in third.

It was a dogfight for pacesetting duties between Mad Cool and Victor The Winner from the bell, with the former conceding the advantage to sit in third on the backstretch as Win Carnelian (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) moved to second. Saving all the ground on the fence while drafting off of Victor The Winner, the 8-1 sixth choice charged through a gap along the inside with 400 metres to travel as the leader drifted toward the centre of the course. The exceedingly deep ground didn't phase the 5-year-old entire, who inched by the determined Hong Kong raider and set sail for the line at the 150-metre point. Gobbling up ground directly behind Mad Cool, Namura Clair was unleashing a furious rally, but she did not hit the front until a stride past the wire. Victor The Winner plugged on to be third. Favoured Lugal (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) raced near the pace, but could not mount a strong challenge at the end and faded to 10th.

"I am so glad to have won this race after our narrow defeat last fall [in the Sprinters S.]," said winning jockey Ryusei Sakai. "He broke well and we were in an ideal position, right behind the pace, throughout the trip. I've been riding this horse from early in his career and the connections had been eyeing this race from the beginning, but he still has room for improvement so I look forward to his future as well."

A winner of four of his six starts at three, the bay was third to Namura Clair in the G3 Silk Road S. last January, before taking his first stake, the Listed Shunrai S., at Nakayama in April of 2023. Second by only a nose to Mama Cocha (Jpn) (Kurofune) in the G1 Sprinters S. last October, he signed off his 4-year-old campaign with an eighth in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint on Dec. 10. Sunday marked his 4-year-old bow.

Pedigree Notes

Mad Cool is the 16th Group 1 winner for his Yeomanstown Stud-based sire, who has 102 stakes winners (59 group winners) on an international scale. Dark Angel covered 166 mares in 2023, and he has three stakes winners out of Indian Ridge mares. G2 July S. hero Alhebayeb (Ire) is his other group/graded winner bred on this cross.

The late Indian Ridge has made quite a mark as a broodmare sire, as his daughters have foaled 114 stakes winners to date. A total of 68 group winners are sprinkled among them, with 19 top-level winners following Mad Cool's Takamatsunomiya Kinen tally.

The seventh foal and fifth winner for his G3 Gladness S.-winning dam, Mad Cool was purchased for €225,000 out of the Goffs November Foal Sale in 2019 by Katsumi Yoshida. He is a half-brother to G3 Silver Flash S. third A Ma Chere (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the winning 4-year-old gelding Partisan Hero (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) and the 3-year-old filly Campari Soda (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}), who has yet to race. Besides her Gladness win, Mad About You was placed four times at the highest level in Ireland and France.

Her dam Irresistible Jewel (Ire) (Danehill) won both the G2 Ribblesdale S. and G3 Blandford S. and was also placed in the G1 Prix de l'Opera. At stud, she foaled fellow G2 Ribblesdale S. heroine and G1 Irish Oaks third Princess Highway to the cover of Street Cry (Ire), as well as G1 Irish St. Leger winner Royal Diamond (Ire) (King's Best). Mad Cool is also kin to G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Homeless Songs (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).

NO NAY NEVER GELDING BECOMES HONG KONG DERBY ROYALTY

by Heather Anderson

Chan Kam Hung's Massive Sovereign (Ire) (No Nay Never--Sweet Charity {Fr}, by Myboycharlie {Ire}) continued his Hong Kong progression in stirring fashion with a come-from-behind victory under Zac Purton in the HK$26,000,000 BMW Hong Kong Derby at Sha Tin on Sunday. The time of 1:59.85 was a new record for the race since the distance was changed to 2000 metres in 2000, with Massive Sovereign bettering the mark of Hong Kong phenom Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro)'s 2:00.15 set in 2020.

The winner's neck defeat of the Group 1-placed Galaxy Patch (Aus) (Wandjina {Aus}) also marked a one-three finish for horses bred and formerly trained in Ireland, as G3 Gallinule S. second Ka Ying Generation (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), ran third by three-quarters of a length.

Once the gates flew, 39-1 longshot Ka Ying Generation, with Andrea Atzeni at the controls, hustled up to anchor the vanguard, with Purton's mount second to last through the first 400 metres in :25.53. The pace quickened from there, with the first 800 metres covered in :49.45, but the 17-5 shot was keen to do more, just to the outside of favoured Helios Express (Aus) (Toronado {Ire}), who had scooped the first two legs of the 4-Year-Old Classic series. That duo soon reached the main body of the field, while Ka Ying Generation continued on by his lonesome at halfway.

Zac Purton and Massive Sovereign | HKJC

Atzeni gave his mount a nudge and soon opened up four lengths on his rivals on the final bend. By the 300-metre mark, he was six lengths clear, and it was not immediately apparent that any of his foes had the requisite turn of foot to run him down. Purton, who won his first HK Derby with Luger (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) in 2015, was undeterred and steered Massive Sovereign through traffic and he soon had the game-but-tiring frontrunner dead to rights. Unleashing a brilliant closing kick, the eventual winner hit the front four strides from the line, and fended off the rush of Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup second Galaxy Patch to his outside. Ka Ying Generation clung grimly on to complete the trifecta.

The winner covered his final 600 metres in a sharp :33.84, while the first three home all broke the two-minute mark for the 2000 metre distance. Helios Express's bid flattened in the final stages and he finished eighth.

"It's very exciting," said former Hong Kong champion trainer Dennis Yip, who was winning his first HK Derby. "I think the Derby for me is more important than the championship [in 2012/13]...but this one for my life is the big one.

"He's a very special horse with a very good mind. The last 200m I was very nervous but I rely on Zac. He is the champion jockey in Hong Kong and everything was good with the horse.

"This horse, the first day he arrived in Hong Kong, he [Purton] sent me the video [of Massive Sovereign winning at Leopardstown] and told me he thought he was a nice horse and asked me if he could ride him." Cont. p14

"I didn't really have a horse for the Derby until this bloke won so, like when I won on Luger, it was a late pick-up ride into the race," said Purton.

"I feel extremely honoured and privileged to have found such a horse to win it. To win the race itself, it's the most prestigious race in Hong Kong and I've had a frustrating run in this race and a frustrating season, so it's nice to get another big one--and probably the biggest one among the local races overall."

Dennis Yip celebrates his first HK Derby win | HKJC

A winner of a Dundalk all-weather affair at third asking last April, Broadhurst, as he was known prior to his arrival in Hong Kong, ran second in a Naas handicap later that spring for the Coolmore partners and trainer Aidan O'Brien. Originally a €620,000 Goffs Orby yearling, he was gelded after winning a Leopardstown handicap in September, and changed hands privately before making a striking debut at Sha Tin over this course and distance under Purton on Mar. 3 (video).

The G1 FWD Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin over this distance on Apr. 28 is next in the cards for Massive Sovereign.

"I've already entered him for [the FWD QEII Cup] at the end of April," Yip added. "I will see how the horse pulls up. If he's good and he improves, I will go this way. I'm very happy, it's amazing for my life. What a memory."

Pedigree Notes

Coolmore Stud's No Nay Never now has 58 stakes winners (34 group) worldwide to his name, while Massive Sovereign is his first stakes winner in Hong Kong. Need I Say More (Aus), racing as Spirited Express in Hong Kong, ran third in the G3 HKJC Premier Plate. A winner of the 2013 G1 Prix Morny, the son of Scat Daddy bred 190 mares in 2023.

From the same family as French stakes winner Aktoria (Fr) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}), herself the dam of multiple group winner Greenland (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), Sweet Charity won the Listed Prix de Liancourt and was third in the GII Santa Ana S. in America. At stud, she has visited No Nay Never exclusively, with Massive Sovereign her first foal and first stakes winner. His 3-year-old full-sister Love Comedy (Ire), a €75,000 Goffs Orby yearling, is a winner in Japan. Juvenile filly Boxie (Ire) has yet to race, while Sweet Charity has another yearling full-sister to the HK Derby winner still to come.

WEEK IN REVIEW: FOSTER'S WORK ETHIC, KEEN EYE FOR BARGAINS PROPEL RISE

Everland goes from humble claimer to Kentucky Oaks qualifier
Coady

The Week in Review, by T.D. Thornton

Stop me if you've heard this one before: A horse gets claimed for a relatively cheap $30,000, later scores qualifying points at Turfway Park in March to get into one of the sport's most prestigious races at Churchill Downs, then ends up winning a career-defining Grade I stakes at improbable odds on the first weekend of May.

That storyline describes the long-shot career of Rich Strike, who upset the GI Kentucky Derby at 80-1 back in 2022.

But it also could be the 2024 script for newly crowned stakes victress Everland (Arrogate), who was haltered for $30,000 out of a trip-troubled win at Turfway three months ago, and on Mar. 23 captured the Bourbonette Oaks over the same Tapeta surface. The purse of that stakes was worth 10 times the gray filly's claiming price, and, just as importantly, the race awarded 50 qualifying points to get into the GI Kentucky Oaks.

Everland's trajectory is only part of the narrative. Her rise through the ranks is a testament to the upward arc of trainer and co-owner Eric Foster, 46, whose 15 wins are currently tops at the nearly concluded Turfway meet. Cont., p3

TDN Q & A: EMIRATES RACING AUTHORITY COMMENTATOR PAT COMERFORD

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES -- It has been a circuitous first three decades of life for Pat Comerford, from big city Melbourne to Alice Springs smack dab in the middle of Australia and from studying in Central Missouri to New Zealand to the bright lights of Dubai.

At age 28, Comerford is set to call his first Dubai World Cup meeting, having cut his teeth on the mic in the Northern Territories almost by accident. Called up into a similar role at the Singapore Turf Club--a job that has proved fertile ground for significant advancement into bigger and more glamorous positions--Comerford was selected last fall as the racecaller at the tracks of the Emirates Racing Association. That not only includes sprawling Meydan Racecourse, but also Jebel Ali, Sharjah, Abu Dhabi and Al Ain.

Foster's $828,364 in earnings for the season there are second behind only perennial powerhouse conditioner Brad Cox.

Foster Family Stables has been in business for a decade. Eric runs a 16-acre farm with a training track in rural Utica out in western Kentucky, about 45 minutes southeast of Ellis Park. Eric trains, exercises and transports the horses to the races while his wife, Brooklyn, manages the barn. The couple tag-teams, along with some help from their children and an on-track team of assistants, on everything else.

"Me and my wife, we work together. We talk together all the time about [the business]," Foster told Jennie Rees in a post-win video interview for the Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (KHBPA).

"It's just exciting to win. I tell everybody, we're still happy to win a $5,000 claimer. And to win these bigger races..." Foster's voice trails off in thought, and he has to take a moment to keep his emotions in check.

"I mean, we're leading this meet right now," Foster said. "It wasn't even something we had thought about going in [to the start of the season]. Of course, we would want to [be a top stable] if we could, [but] it seems that we've had a little bit better go here than we even expected."

As a kid, Foster excelled in barrel racing. Then by 17 he was galloping and exercising Thoroughbreds. He initially took out his training license in 2000, but his first foray as a conditioner at smaller tracks like Fairmount, the Woodlands, Ellis, and River Downs lasted only a year, with a 6-for-59 record and a hard-won appreciation for just how difficult a vocation training racehorses could be.

Foster then worked construction jobs as a welder, taking on whatever work he could, which eventually allowed the couple to buy their house and farm on Highway 431 outside of Owensboro.

According to a 2022 profile in The Gleaner that was written by Rees, Foster initially raised cattle, built a barn, and bought a Thoroughbred baby with the intent of re-selling at a subsequent auction. After determining that it might end up being more cost-effective to race the horse themselves, Foster constructed the training track, taking on most of the job himself.

As his training business grew from 2014 onward, Foster got financial backing from a diverse number of clients, including those who would eventually partner with him to own Everland (Bill Wargel, Sidney Karmia's Maxis Stable, and R.K. Eckrich Racing).

Everland is being pointed to her secured spot in the GI Kentucky Oaks on the first Friday in May | Coady

Foster began honing a reputation as a trainer who could spot horses who could be acquired for comparatively short money via claims and at the sales, then get those Thoroughbreds to outrun their purchase prices.

Kitodan (Point of Entry) is a prime example. In a partnership with Douglas Miller, Foster Family Racing claimed that gelding for $80,000 in May of 2022, and the 5-year-old has responded with two grass stakes victories (one a Grade III), plus a handful of other stakes performances in which he was only beaten by a couple of lengths. Kitodan was named the KHBPA claimer of the year for 2022, his career earnings have since swelled to $835,237, and is he still competing in graded stakes (he finished eighth on Saturday in the GIII Kentucky Cup Classic).

"Now, we have all the supplies, all the tools," Foster said. "We have the help now. We have the confidence. We have the [better] jockeys. You know, it's just a matter of everything coming together. We do the blankets and all the therapy that we can do on them to get the horses happy. But you've just got to have good horses, and I think we've just been blessed with some good horses lately."

When Foster spotted Everland entered for a $30,000 tag on Dec. 30, 2023, he notified his partners to see who wanted in on what would eventually be a four-way deal. Bred by George Strawbridge Jr. and raced by Augustin Stable with trainer Jonathan Thomas, Everland to that point had been 0-for-3 in maiden special weight races at Kentucky Downs, Woodbine and Turfway. Her pedigree--by Arrogate out of a Tapit mare--stood out.

Off at odds of 6-5, Everland endured a horror trip to win, checking on the first turn of a mile race and then almost getting wiped off her feet in a far-turn scrum. Cont.

After losing all momentum, she determinedly bulled her way between horses, then scooted up the rail to win by three-quarters of a length, with Turfway announcer Tony Calo exuding in his call about the filly's display of athleticism.

Everland next won a $50,000 starter-allowance for her new connections by 3 1/2 lengths at 15-1 odds on Feb. 10. She was then fourth in the Mar. 1 $150,000 Cincinnati Trophy S., a race won by stablemate Maxisuperfly (Optimizer), who was bought by the Fosters for $18,000 as a Keeneland yearling.

In the Mar. 23 Bourbonette, Maxisuperfly set the pace while Everland got caught four wide around the clubhouse turn. Guided to the rail by Abel Cedillo, Everland threaded through on the inside. Turning for home, she briefly got caught on the heels of her tiring stablemate (who finished eighth), then freewheeled up the fence while fending off several fresh challengers, quickening nicely inside the final sixteenth to win by 1 1/4 lengths (82 Beyer Speed Figure).

Despite Everland's sky's-the-limit pedigree, Foster doesn't feel like he stole a hot prospect from the filly's former connections. In the winner's circle after the race, he expressed empathy for anyone faced with the difficult business decision of whether or not to drop a well-meant horse in class for a claiming tag.

"It's hard. You expect them to win, and when they don't you say, 'We've got to do something different,' and you give them three or four chances [before trying a spot that's] a little cheaper," Foster said. "We do it too. And a lot of time, we're happy that we didn't lose [a claiming dropdown]."

"I would have to think that they knew that they would probably lose her," Foster continued. "A couple of my good horses are claims, and [the outfits I claim from] are good. I wouldn't ever tell anybody that I'm a better trainer. [But I do] want to be that guy that has horses that run for a long time."

"It's usually the horse that does the running. I don't want to take a whole lot of credit," Foster said. "We take care of them. We do the best we can. We vet them deep. We feed them good. We do everything to make the health of the horse better. And then it's up to the horse."

Everland is now 3-0-1 with $237,093 in earnings from seven starts, and with 54 qualifying points, she ranks fourth on the Oaks leaderboard. She is safely in the race, and Foster indicated post-win that his connections intend to run in that Grade I spot--even though Everland has never raced on the dirt. In fact, Foster has never personally witnessed her step onto a non-Tapeta surface.

"Now I'm going to have the same question everybody else has," Foster said. "If she can run on the dirt, they better look out. That's going to be the thing. We haven't trained her on the dirt. We've left her [at Turfway] since we claimed her."

"So we're going to move to Keeneland this week coming up and just see how everything goes, and get her on the dirt. And hopefully she loves it."

Even though Foster is a meet-leading trainer and on the cusp of breaking through in one of the most prestigious races in Kentucky, he is still facing some smaller-outfit business issues, like stabling.

"You know, I don't want to call out anybody, but we don't get the stalls we put in for," Foster said, alluding to the tight allotments at Churchill and Turfway. "We had the horses to put into them. I think we get taken advantage of a little bit for having our own farm and our own training center...."

"We're going into the Oaks here. We wanted some stalls at Churchill coming into this spring, and I was just certain we would get stalls. But you know what? You never know..."

Foster said he would have to "map out" a shipping or stabling strategy for Everland.

"I'm not going to take one horse up [to Churchill] and train up to the Oaks. It's going to be a bit of a challenge," Foster said.

In case you haven't already figured it out, Foster doesn't shy from challenges.

"I make three, four trips a week sometime," Foster said. "It's over a seven-hour round trip. A lot of those nights are back to back-to-back. I don't always get somebody to ride with me. I have friends that I get to talk to on the phone. Somebody said, 'Well, how do you not get tired?' And I said, 'You know, I just think about my horses.'

"I just go," Foster added. "I don't start to complain."

Comerford graciously took time out of his frenetic schedule to field some questions from TDN Senior Contributing Editor Alan Carasso ahead of Saturday's Dubai World Cup meeting.

TDN: How did you become interested in Thoroughbred racing?

Pat Comerford: Grew up the northwest of Melbourne five minutes from Moonee Valley and 10 minutes from Flemington. Fair to say nine of every 10 people around that area loves a punt. My family weren't involved in racing, just avid racegoers and we loved heading to the races at a young age, especially throughout Melbourne Cup week. I turn 29 this year so I'd say I've been following it the best part of 20 years.

TDN: What got you into commentating?

PC: It's not the usual entry to it. I always had a love for broadcasting and was involved in radio from a young age. After returning to Melbourne following a brief stint at the Missouri School Of Journalism, I graduated back in Australia and got a job in Alice Springs doing breakfast radio. By chance in one of the most remote towns in Australia, the commentator of over 10 years at the Alice Springs Turf Club departed in late 2017 and they were in need of a commentator for the 30-35 meetings each year. I'd never done it before, but being one of the radio presenters in town and heading to the track all the time, they probably thought it was something I could learn. After a few weeks with some help from the outgoing commentator Shane Green, I was calling around the country most weeks and that was my entry in commentating, it was a rough start believe me.

TDN: Australia is home to so many outstanding racecallers. Is there any one of them that you have sort of imitated or that has had a profound impact on you?

PC: Adam Olszanski in my early time in Alice was a great help, he also spent time as a young commentator flying up to Alice Springs to get opportunities. Ric McIntosh was also a great help. In recent times, for both racing and sports commentary advice, Matthew Hill has been a wealth of knowledge and a person I can call a friend. Always free for a call and happy to lend a hand to the young blokes in the game.

TDN: How would you describe your style?

PC: It's a certainly a very Australian style that's for sure. I like to think with my time overseas, I have been able to keep some of the Aussie elements, but also continue adding international elements as I've gone on. A commentator I idolized as a younger person was David Raphael when he called in Hong Kong. He was proof that you can get excited, be a bold and loud voice but also do it with elegance. I've only be calling just over six years, but if I could get to his level and master that style of calling in the near future, I'll be doing well.

TDN: Talk about your experience in Singapore.

PC: Singapore was my first full time overseas calling opportunity, having only called part time during my couple years in New Zealand. Thousands of trials helped me fine tune many things that I never got the experience to do in central Australia and when Nick Child departed to Hong Kong, the Singapore job became available. George Simon, who was the last caller at Bukit Timah and first caller at Kranji was a great mentor during my time in NZ and was a big help in putting me forward for the role. I called my first 6-7 months behind closed doors [due to COVID], but to say it wasn't a massive opportunity would be ridiculous. Getting a chance to start commentating domestic group features allowed me to start putting my name out there and if it wasn't for the chance they gave me, I wouldn't be here in Dubai today.

TDN: Commentating in Singapore been something of a conduit to bigger and better positions elsewhere. Ed Sadler, Brett Davis, Tom Wood, Nick Child, as you pointed out, and one of your predecessors at the ERA, Craig Evans. How did that experience prepare you for this grander stage?

PC: To even be in the line of succession with some of those names is crazy for me to even fathom. There has been some world-class callers come out of Singapore and although I wouldn't class myself anywhere near that bracket yet, all of them I'd say would agree that Singapore certainly improves you as a caller. I personally felt that the track taught me patience, especially long course racing on the turf. The run in at Kranji on the long course feels like it goes forever and so much can unfold in that 600m+. It was the first place where furlong splits and pace was an important element to focus on and include.

Having started on the dirt in the Northern Territory where everything is full bore from the get-go, to calling on very heavy tracks in New Zealand, Singapore gave me great experience to understanding who was getting the best run and allowing those predictions to paint a better picture on what was to potentially unfold in the later stages of the race.

TDN: I would be remiss if I didn't ask you for your thoughts on the sad demise of racing in Singapore.

PC: It is truly devastating that as of October, racing in Singapore will no longer exist. I am truly honored that I got the chance to call there, it is a world-class facility that will unfortunately go to waste. Like many racing fans, we all have so many great memories watching many international champions win at Kranji and it will be missed.

TDN: How daunting a task has it been calling the tracks of the ERA, Meydan especially, and how tricky has it been adapting to calling the Purebred Arabians?

PC: Meydan I found the easiest transition. Everything apart from the straight racing was very similar to Singapore. You are quite far away from the course, sitting up high in a big grandstand, so it was quite an easy one to adapt to. The other tracks however were a challenge at first. Many require you to use the vision screens at certain points because you physically cannot see them through the glasses. Add to that the different style of names which from a recall perspective, took a little while to stick in the brain right away. The process is much easier now but you still get an interesting one every now and then. It certainly keeps you on your toes.

TDN: How have you grown into the role since your appointment?

PC: I'd like to think that I have seen further improvement in my calling this season. I'd like to hope that those listening on have enjoyed the races so far this season. It's a bit of a different sound to what they have heard in Dubai previously. All I can hope is that I can match the class of my predecessors who have called here in the past, some great callers have held this position and I certainly don't take the position for granted, I'm very lucky to be in this spot.

PC: I'd say I'm tied for that. Hard to split the Auguste Rodin v Liberty Island battle in the Sheema and Kabirkhan in the Dubai World Cup. The Sheema once again is a very deep race and should be a great contest. As for Kabirkhan, if he can get the win for Kazakhstan and Doug Watson, it would be an amazing story.

JAMIE RODRIGUEZ NOTCHES FOUR-WIN SUNDAY, CLINCHES MEET TITLE

As the Heritage winter meet winds down with two racing days left on the calendar, Jamie Rodriguez enjoyed a four-win afternoon Sunday at Laurel Park and cemented his claim to the leading rider title.

In addition to his four wins on the day, Rodriguez claims 46 through the meet, 18 more than runner-up Jeiron Barbosa, and helped conditioner Jamie Ness move ahead of Brittany Russell in the race for leading trainer. All four of Sunday's wins were on Ness runners and the combo hit at a lofty 29 per cent for the meeting. Rodriguez also leads in purse earnings at more than $1.6-million.

Since starting his 2024 season, he's recorded 12 multi-win days, six of which he visited the winner's enclosure on three or more occasions. Rodriguez is the three-time defending champion at Delaware Park as well.

GUN RUNNER'S CARTUCHO GRADUATES IN IMPRESSIVE 'RISING STAR' DEBUT AT

TAMPA by Stefanie Grimm

Cartucho | SV Photography

Three Chimneys Farm, William Lawrence and Walmac Farm went to $1,200,000 to secure Cartucho (Gun Runner) as a yearling at the 2022 Keeneland September Sale and were quickly rewarded when their buy graduated on debut in 'TDN Rising Star'-style at Tampa Sunday. Favored at 6-5 as one of only three first-time starters in the field, Cartucho was slow from the gate and got squeezed back from the early frontrunners to be last in the opening jumps. Quickly into stride, Javier Castellano stayed along the rail inside of Faith's Spirit (Violence) as that pair began to gradually reel in the trio of leaders who were content to race three abreast through an opening quarter in :22.69. Tipped outside of Faith's Spirit heading into the far turn, Cartucho stayed covered up behind the widest of the three leaders but had a head of steam passing the quarter pole and was let loose by Castellano with a furlong to run. Up to take command with a sixteenth to run, the favorite ran up the score to win ridden out by 6 1/4 lengths.

The 11th 'TDN Rising Star' for Gun Runner, Cartucho is out of GI Ruffian Invitational H. winner Malibu Prayer who sold to Besilu Stables for $2,000,000 at KEENOV in 2011. The second winner from his dam in as many to race, he is also a half to the dams of Japanese stakes winner Cros Parantoux (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) and stakes placed Awesome Ruta (Mendelssohn). Malibu Prayer is herself a half to MGSW/GISP Valid (Medaglia d'Oro), MGSP Grand Love (Gun Runner) and to the dam of Saturday's Tom Benson Memorial S. winner Delahaye (Medaglia d'Oro). Malibu Prayer has produced back to back colts by Volatile in 2022 and 2023 and is due to Early Voting this year.

Also Ran: Saybrook, Jigsaw, Banded Rocket, Squints, Snowname.

Pure Class closed with a flourish to win his stakes debut Sunday at Tampa Bay Downs. The dark bay colt chased the pacesetters down the backstretch and improved his position on the far. He was squeezed back when rallying between foes into the stretch, but kicked into gear to take charge at midstretch and pulled clear to the wire.

Pure Class was runner-up against state-bred foes in three straight starts before graduating against open company going 6 1/2 furlongs at Gulfstream Dec. 3. A troubled fifth behind subsequent GIII Holy Bull S. winner Hades (Awesome Slew) in a Dec. 31 allowance contest, he returned to the winner's circle with a two-length allowance tally Jan. 26.

l'mclassyandsassy produced a full-sister to Pure Class in 2022 and a colt by Violence last year. She was bred back to Girvin.

LANE'S END FOALED & RAISED

Margins: 3/4, 2 3/4, 5 1/4. Odds: 13.80, 7.10, 2.70.

Also Ran: Tiger Belle (Ire), Let Them Watch, Dot, El Terreno. Scratched: Crimson Advocate, Fast Motion, Riparound, Trumpets.

Starting her career in the barn of Norm Casse, Twirling Queen broke her maiden at first asking facing auction restricted company at Ellis Park last summer. However, she failed to hit the board in her next three races with the last coming at Keeneland in early October.

Changing to Jose D'Angelo's shedrow, the bay came off a break and cleared the optional claiming condition when she won by half a length while sprinting over the Tapeta in Hallandale Feb. 8. Overlooked at the windows at 13-1 here after the race was taken off the grass, the 3-year-old sat just off favorite El Terreno (Speightstown) up the backstretch. Twirling Queen powered to the lead around the far turn, set herself for the drive and found the wire before Karaya could catch her.

The winner is her dam's first registered foal. She has a 2-year-old half-sister named Lady Crush (Liam's Map) and a yearling half-sister by Dialed In. Adventurous Lady was bred to Upstart for this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: 3/4, 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 1.00, 3.60, 4.50.

Also Ran: And Uwish, Lord Knows, Lena's Jazz. Scratched: Everdoit.

Crystal Quest broke her maiden at second asking whilst facing maiden $50,000 claimers over the local grass at a mile Jan. 28 as an 18-1 longshot following an unsuccessful debut over the Tapeta. Switched back to the all-weather track last out, she picked up a narrow win against Florida-breds March 9. Facing her four-straight surface change, the daughter of Uncle Mo got back on the turf as the even-money favorite and was held back to split the field through a half in :47.85. Kicking on for home outside pacesetter Prevent, Crystal Quest rallied the length of the stretch and just denied that rival in the final jumps. A benchmark 100th stakes winner for Coolmore's Uncle Mo, Crystal Quest is out of a half-sister to GISW and sire Gemologist (Tiznow). Giant Crystal has a 2-year-old full-brother to this winner along with a yearling Quality Road filly. She was barren on a Twirling Candy for this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: 3HF, 5 1/4, 1 1/4. Odds: 0.60, 9.70, 10.00.

Also Ran: Miss Sayely, Gullfaxi, Evanora.

Mystic Lake returned to the strip where she won the Gasparilla S. Jan. 13. A consistent runner who broke her maiden at second asking at Woodbine in the early fall and finished third in the GIII Mazarine S. in early November, the dark bay was last seen finishing fifth while trying turf for the first time in the Herecomesthebride S. down south in Hallandale Mar. 2.

The 3-5 choice here, Mystic Lake sailed out of the gate to an early lead up the backstretch and continued to make every pole through the far turn. Entering the lane in charge, the 3-year-old lived up to the bettor's expectations and cruised for the win.

Also Ran: Security Code, Sweetest Princess. Scratched: Bon Adieu, Lady Mine, Sweet Mystery.

After a third place finish in the Gill Beaumont S. at Keeneland last April, Stonewall Star during her latest form cycle battled optional claiming open company with mixed results. The bay was third in Ozone Park in late November, but she was a well-beaten sixth in her next two attempts over the same surface Jan. 11 and Feb. 19. The Horacio De Paz trainee dropped back into state bred stakes company as a 9-2 shot here--a spot where she delivered two wins prior in the Key Cents S. and Franklin Square S. Shedding the blinkers, the 4-year-old was close to the lead, but clearly allowed favorite Venti Valentine to show the way up the backstretch. Ready to make her move around the far turn, the filly poked her head in front, continued to pour on the pressure with a furlong left and she got her picture taken with a game effort.

"She was always a talented filly, we just had trouble bringing her back to form," said De Paz. "I think just letting the pace be a little easier back in New York-bred company [helped] and I figured she could stretch out.

Jonata is a half-sister to GISP Pinch Pie (Victory Gallop) and SW Jonesy Boy (Smarty Jones). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

The 2-1 shot attended the pace through an opening quarter in :22.53, but fell back heading into the far turn. He found a narrow seam to run through in upper stretch and bullied his way to the lead before pulling away late to score by 1 1/2 lengths. Collaborate (Into Mischief) was second. LAND D'ORO (c, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Land Mine {SP, $158,342}, by Mineshaft) debuted with a fifth-place finish at Aqueduct Feb. 11. Entered as part of a coupled entry with his stablemate Final Denile (Mendelssohn) and as a 14-1 shot here, the colt raced to the outside in the second flight as a trio of leaders set the early fractions up the backstretch. With plenty of pace to run into, the homebred appeared to struggle to keep up heading into the lane, but at the eighth pole proved he had plenty left in the tank and, despite a late challenge from Silver Satin (Mitole), Land d'Oro graduated by 3/4 length. The first registered foal for his dam, the winner counts as half-sisters, 2-year-old Just Da Bomb (Justify) and a yearling by Uncle Mo. Land d'Oro's second dam GSW Khancord Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) is responsible for GI Breeders' Cup Sprint heroine Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), the dam of GSW Coinage (Tapit). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $41,300.

MAIDEN WINNERS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Aqueduct, $80,000, Msw, 3-24, 3yo, 7f, 1:24.02, ft, 5 lengths.

J D FACTOR (c, 3, The Factor--Sullivyn's Rose, by Bernardini) was the runner-up by a neck at the Big A in late November but faded to finish third over the same surface Jan. 28. As a 3-1 shot, the bay motored out of the gate and secured the lead up the backstretch. He continued to control the fractions around the far turn and found more down the lane to win by five lengths over Foxhole (Constitution). J D Factor has a 2-year-old half-sister by Connect and a yearling half-brother by Good Magic, who was purchased last year for $185,000 during Keeneland November. Sullivyn's Rose visited Game Winner for this spring. Sales History: $47,000 RNA Ylg '22 KEESEP; $75,000 RNA 2yo '23 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $71,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Broken and Trained by Randy Bradshaw

10th-Gulfstream, $70,000, Msw, 3-24, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m (AWT) (off turf), 1:42.72, ft, 1 length.

CURLIN'S GIRL (f, 3, Curlin--Quality Rocks {GSW, $316,310}, by Rock Hard Ten), runner-up over the Aqueduct turf in her debut last November, missed by just a neck when second over the main track at the Big A Dec. 1. Shipped south, she was a well-beaten third when stretched out to a mile at Gulfstream Jan. 4. Back on the lawn, she was most recently a narrowly beaten runner-up going 7 1/2 furlongs Feb. 25. Sent off at 9-2 in this first try over the Tapeta, the dark bay filly raced in the clear in mid-pack before inching closer on the far turn. She was tipped out five wide at the top of the lane as favored Positive Carry (Ire) (Sea the Moon {Ger}) was trying to find her way through a narrow opening along the rail. The favorite was just able to sneak through and stick a head in front, but Curlin's Girl and On Moonlight Bay (Medaglia d'Oro) both had clear sailing and all of the momentum on the outside, with Curlin's Girl going best of all late to graduate by one length. Curlin's Girl, a $360,000 KEESEP yearling, has a yearling half-sister by Uncle Mo. Quality Rocks was bred to Justify last year. Lifetime Record: 5-1-3-1, $98,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

6th-Santa Anita, $65,000, Msw, 3-24, 3, 4, 5yo, 1m, 1:38.28, ft, 3 3/4 lengths.

ASHCROFT (c, 4, Munnings--Sky Willow {SW, $114,979}, by Empire Maker), making his fourth start for Bob Hess and third start of the year, hit the board for the first time in his career when second over the main track Feb. 24. The even-money favorite with blinkers off for this effort, the chestnut tracked the pacesetters through fractions of :23.27 and :47.96. He rushed up three wide as the five-horse field lined up across the track heading into the home straight and kicked clear down the lane to win by 3 3/4 lengths. Normandy Landing (Gun Runner) just edged Duran (Violence) for second. Ashcroft is a half-brother to Regal Realm (Animal Kingdom), GSW, $825,157. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
