

'WE BREED THEM TOUGH HERE' - MARNANE BREWS UP A STORM AT BANSHA BBQ

Amy Marnane, Mike O'Brien and Con Marnane at the Bansha House Open Morning on Saturday | Brian Sheerin

By Brian Sheerin

Dozens of flights were cancelled, 34,000 homes were left without power, roads were closed due to fallen trees and race meetings were lost as Storm Kathleen raged across Ireland.

Only Con Marnane could organise a BBQ in the middle of one of the worst storms the country has faced in months and it be deemed a success.

The plan to stage Saturday's open morning at Bansha House Stables was first hatched when the Marnane family visited the Magic Millions Sale in Australia and, despite the weather in Tipperary, Con couldn't have been happier with how the idea was received by buyers and racing fans alike.

He said, "We're absolutely thrilled with how the day went. Weather-wise, it was the worst day we've had all year. People were ringing me at seven o'clock this morning wondering if it was going to go ahead or not but I told them that they are bred tough down here. We had about 500 people here this morning and, while the weather was horrendous, we had a lovely time."

Marnane added, "I was at the Magic Millions Sale in January and they looked after us so well over there--I was blown away by the generosity of the sales company." Cont. p3

CLASSIC DREAMS IN THE BALANCE ON SUNDAY by Tom Frary

Sunday sees a swing in the momentum towards the more meaningful Flat action of 2024, with Leopardstown--which has to survive an early-morning inspection--and ParisLongchamp staging a host of Classic trials. Ballydoyle's wheels are really set in motion at the former venue, with several of their promising 3-year-olds ready to be unleashed in the card's trio of preps including the 10-furlong G3 P.W. McGrath Memorial Ballysax S.

It is in that early Derby pointer that Rosegreen's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and impressive course maiden-winning TDN Rising Star Ocean Of Dreams (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) look to add to the stable's Blue Riband team taking on Vimal Khosla's G2 Beresford S. winner Deepone (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}) from the Paddy Twomey stable.

"He has a five-pound penalty for his win in the Beresford S. last season, but we're looking forward to running him on Sunday," Twomey said. Cont. p6

He continued, "I said to myself when I came home that we are not doing enough to promote our own industry here which is why I decided to have an open day with a nice BBQ and drink for whoever wanted to visit us. About 20 people--agents and trainers--came over from England and I very much appreciate them giving us their time."

John and Sean Quinn, Dylan Cunha, Jamie Piggott and Jeremy Brummit are just a few of those who made the trip across the Irish Sea. It was actually the latter, who, in showering Marnane with praise, said, "It's just a pity more British trainers didn't make the trip to see how it's done because the majority of people with a training licence in Britain wouldn't have been able to pull off what Con has done today. It's a bloody credit to him."

South African native Cunha was happy to have returned to the man who provided him with his big hope for the season. The Newmarket-based handler's El Bufalo (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) was led out unsold at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale by Marnane's Bansha House Stables 12 months ago at 22,000gns. Fast forward to this spring, and the Wolverhampton maiden winner holds an entry for the 2,000 Guineas, albeit he is a 100-1 shot for the early-season Classic.

Cunha explained, "We bought El Bufalo from Bansha House last year. It's a very good farm. El Bufalo is still in the Guineas and is a horse we like a lot. We got a nice Ten Sovereigns from Con and he is very nice as well. We bought three horses from the breeze-ups last year and they have all done well so we're hoping to buy more this year."

Group 3 winner Tiger Belle | Scoop Dyga

The trainer continued, "We don't have a big owner behind us so we are trying to find value. Basically, we don't look at the times. We just look for the ones who move nicely. We have to be shrewd--El Buffalo hung in his breeze because he cut his mouth. But we liked how he moved and we ended up buying him pretty cheaply. Hopefully we can find another."

Cunha was not the only man returning to Marnane in search of more big-race riches. Trainer Ado McGuinness, who snapped up Rush Queen (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}) and Tiger Belle (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) from Marnane last year, was busy scouting the barns.

Meanwhile, bloodstock agent Hubie de Burgh, who looks after the interests of Bronson Racing, the buyer of Givemethebeatboys (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}), was also making the most of the occasion.

De Burgh said, "Con is the best in the business at this sort of thing. But, at the end of the day, the results speak for themselves and buyers will return to a place that is having results on the track. We've been working with Con for years and he just keeps coming up with good horses."

He added, "What's also so impressive about Con is, he doesn't have success by buying a lovely Dubawi (Ire) or something, he does it by going out and buying a bloody good-looking horse by a lesser stallion. We're involved in some small little way with Givemethebeatboys but how on earth did Con buy that horse for what he did as a yearling? I have no idea.

"Not only that but, we're down here in the middle of a hurricane, and not one of those young horses looked like they were going to buck their rider off. I don't know how he does it but it's just pure professionalism and the horses are a credit to him. Long may it last." Cont. p4

McGuinness was similarly impressed by the professionalism on show, describing the four or five lots of two-year-olds that were put through their paces as "similar to old handicappers" given how not one of the youngsters as much as turned a hair.

But we'd all be kidding ourselves if we came away from the morning without acknowledging the huge degree of poignancy in the air given it is just five months since Theresa, Con's wife, passed away aged 61.

McGuinness said, "We've dealt with Con these past few years and have been successful. When you get results working with somebody, you're always more likely to come back. He's just a great guy.

"Man, he hasn't had an easy year but he's just a top-class man. To be able to pull this all together given what they have all been through in the past few months is incredible. Fair play to them."

THE LABEO TRUCK: MOBILE VETERINARY LAB THE FIRST OF ITS KIND IN EUROPE

by Sue Finley

CAEN, France--For years, laboratory testing for equine diseases has worked about the same way. Draw a sample, send it off to the lab, and in just a few days, depending upon the mail, you'll have your result.

But of course, in a world that has sped up to the point where a few days seems absolutely archaic, it wasn't going to be long until someone brought the lab to you.

Those people were LABEO, the Normandy Interdepartmental Analysis and Research Centre, whose new LABEO Truck was first deployed last year at the European Eventing Championships, and at this February's Arqana Sale. It's the first of its kind in Europe, and quite possibly the world.

With nearly 400 pharmacists, engineers, biologists, and more on staff, LABEO is one of the largest Public Interest Groups in France, processing approximately 1,250,000 samples and conducting research each year for 80,000 clients in France and abroad in the areas of animal health, water, and food products.

The truck not only looks like but is named after a food truck (and in case you're wondering what the French word for that is, it's 'food truck,' said with a French accent.) The idea behind it is that in environments where you may be testing groups of horses whose proximity to one another could have serious health implications, it makes more sense to get the test results quickly, with the same precision of accuracy and standards as in the lab. The machines have been tested to ensure that even after driving over bumpy Norman roads, they maintain the same level of integrity as they do in the lab. "If we want to be credible, people have to know that if they call us, we will have the same level of service and we are the same people doing the analysis in the field as here in the lab," said Pierre-Hugues Pitel, the head of the Health and R&D departments at LABEO.

The team at LABEO stresses that testing integrity. These aren't do-it-yourself rapid tests that you pick up at the pharmacy or at the vet. This is the entire laboratory, with its quality standards, brought to you, with the experts aboard to process and read the results, and to make recommendations.

Pitel emphasized the essence of detection time at the beginning of an outbreak. "Sometimes it's 12 hours to 20 hours to get results back, and in the case of an emergency at a track or big show jumping event, 24 hours just for delivery of samples is a bit long," said Pitel. "So that was the first impetus for the truck, and the second was the EHV1 crisis in Valencia in February 2021." That outbreak in Spain resulted in the death of 18 horses, and spread to horses in 10 countries. "We received 200 nasopharyngeal swabs back at the lab and we thought how much more efficient it would have been to do this in front of the show-jumping arena."

Camille Vercken, well-known in the Thoroughbred industry as the former head of the Syndicat des Eleveurs in France and the owner and founder of the equine biosecurity company Equiways, is the head of LABEO's Equine Industry Business Unit. She said that the truck is fitted with solar panels on the roof so that it can truly be independent if it is called to an event where there is no power. Those panels power refrigerators, freezers, stoves, and heating implements along with computers. It is also equipped with WiFi.

"You could park the truck at a racetrack, and offer owners the opportunity to do a full assessment of a horse who under-performed," said Vercken. "You can take the blood and have the results before he leaves the track that day." Cont. p5

Pronost and Toquet working in the truck | Sue Finley

Stephane Pronost, one of the world's foremost virologists, is the Deputy Research Director for LABEO and a molecular biologist. He explained the importance of performing on-site Polymerase Chain Reaction or PCR tests. A simple test can detect a horse with a heavy viral load, but the PCR test can detect an early-stage virus by amplifying the DNA to study it in greater detail.

"I think today, it's very easy to explain what is PCR because of COVID," said Pronost. "And it's exactly the same for horses, with a nasal swab. If there is an equestrian event and there is an alert with one of the horses, the practitioner or the owner can come to the truck and ask for virus detection, and we can give an answer after only two hours. It's one of the most important aspects of the truck--to go directly on the racetrack or to events and to be able to very quickly detect the presence of a pathogen."

Pitel said there were three major aims for the truck. "First, prevention," he said. "To ensure that horses who come to perform are safe. Second, an emergency. When there is a flu or EHV1 outbreak that begins, we can come and do emergency testing. And the third is if you are a stud manager and you would like to check all of the animals for flu, EHV, parasites, sending the truck makes it quicker and easier to do them all at once."

Marie Pierre Toquet, a research assistant at LABEO, displayed a menu of the tests offered to clients, which looks much like one in a restaurant (or food truck), but includes fitness or inflammation assessments, tests for rhinopneumonia, influenza, strangles, EVA, piroplasmiasis, EHV 1 2 and 4, and a complete parasitological assessment, all within two hours.

The purpose of the truck is not to do drug testing at the races or sales; that is handled by the French national lab.

Arqana had the truck on hand at this year's February Sale, and will offer it at sales going forward, said Arthur Serres, the sales company's technical director, who said that it was an extra layer of service that they can provide both the vendor and the buyer. "In 2024, it's a valuable service to be able to offer," said Serres. "Horses move around a lot, and this is a comforting option to have for people on the sales grounds."

Serres said that a typical usage at the sales could be post-sale testing before a horse leaves the grounds to make sure he's free of any pathogen before heading off to the new owner's stud farm. He also said that while Coggins tests were required before a horse arrives at the sale, from time to time there were problems with the vendors not having received the paperwork by the time they arrive.

"Right now, we ask for a quick test at LABEO, but going forward, with the truck, we can ask for the tests directly on the sales grounds and have the results in two hours. So we gain a lot of time and it's important because if not, the horse has to stay on the van or in another yard in Deauville and miss out on time when he could be being shown to potential buyers."

Vercken points out that the on-site nature of the machine means that a collaboration between the farm manager, the vet, and the lab tech is possible, moving horses quickly into or out of quarantine or from one field to another as results are released. The same goes for horses about to be exported. It can also quickly detect and stop the spread of a larger outbreak at a training centre helping to save money by limiting scratches and keeping racing going.

The truck is cleaned and restocked before each use to ensure that the conditions inside are exactly like a lab, and it is small enough that anyone with a regular driver's licence can drive it.

It was deliberately modeled after the food truck that LABEO workers see in their parking lot every day, but with a glass window instead of an open one to maintain the indoor temperatures and secure environment, while allowing transparency.

For LABEO, it also allows their employees some much-appreciated contact with their regular test subject--the horse--and seeing the economic effect that something like a piroplasmosis positive has on an auction price helps them to understand their work more fully.

"It's not why we built the truck, but it has been a secondary benefit," said Pitel. "It gives meaning to their work."

RACE PREVIEWS

He added, "I think stepping up in trip will play to his strengths, I think a mile and a quarter to a mile and a half should be well within his compass."

Leopardstown also stages the seven-furlong G3 Ballylinch Stud "Red Rocks" S., where Ballydoyle again have two fascinating maiden winners in Samuel Colt (Ire) (No Nay Never) and The Liffey (Ire) (No Nay Never). Both have to meet the standard set by the G3 Killavullan S. one-two Atlantic Coast (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Bright Stripes (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

The fillies take part in the G3 Ballylinch Stud "Priory Belle" S., where Ballydoyle's course-and-distance maiden winner Buttons (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) is the pick of Ryan Moore tackling Deepone's unbeaten stablemate A Lilac Rolla (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}).

It was in August at The Curragh when A Lilac Rolla managed to upstage the subsequent G1 Prix Marcel Bousac heroine Opera Singer (Justify) and Twomey is hoping that she can restart where she left off. "She beat a very good filly in Opera Singer, she's wintered well and is ready to start," he said. "The ground conditions may not be ideal, but she's in a good place and this is a good starting point for the season ahead."

At ParisLongchamp, Guy Pariente, Thomas Lines and Qatar Racing's G1 Criterium International hero Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) returns in the nine-furlong G3 Prix la Force. Trainer David Menuisier said, "It is famous last words, but the ground shouldn't be an issue. It will be hard on the horses, but we feel ours goes on it quite good and the trip shouldn't be a problem, so we go there quite positive. Later down the line, we would like to aim at the Prix du Jockey Club, but we need to take races one by one, obviously. We could drop back in trip to run in one of the Guineas or we could go up in trip to run in a Derby trial next month. It will all depend on what happens this weekend and what Oisin and the owners think--and then we will take it from there."

Also over that trio is the G3 Al Shira'aa Racing Prix Vanteaux for the fillies, where the Head Family's nine-length Saint-Cloud winner La Mandala (Fr) (City Light {Fr}) is tested against some proven peers, while the feature is the G2 Prix d'Harcourt where Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard's G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}) takes on Gousserie Racing's multiple group winner and G1 Champion S. third Horizon Dore (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}).

NOTABLE SPEECH A NEW RISING STAR

by Tom Frary

Godolphin's Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}--Swift Rose {Ire}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}) entered the old Easter S. at Kempton on Saturday with a two-for-two record and a glowing reputation and exited as a TDN Rising Star with a performance that oozed class.

Held up last of the quintet early by a confident William Buick, the 4-7 favourite was slipped through the gaps to overwhelm Ralph Beckett's Derby entry Valvano (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) inside the final furlong and surge to a two-length success. The Hannon runner Persica (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) was a further half a length away in third.

"Today was a warm race with a few unexposed types and he gave away weight to all of them, so I'm delighted," Buick said after the Virgin Bet Best Odds Daily British EBF Conditions S., which formerly carried listed status when known as the Easter.

He added, "I was very pleased with how he has done physically since the last time I rode him--he has really filled out and I feel like he has grown a bit as well, which is always nice to see from a horse who has had two runs. I couldn't be more happy with him and I tested him a little bit today and he quickened up in a stride."

Charlie Appleby has entered the son of the G3 UAE Oaks runner-up Swift Rose, who beat the subsequent listed scorer Cuban Tiger (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) in the European Road To The Kentucky Derby Conditions S. here in February, in the 2000 Guineas and Buick was not ruling that out as a valid objective.

"I just had to pick a path and he's such a genuine, easy horse to deal with," he added. "He's got a bright future ahead of him. It's so wet, so it was a nice opportunity for him to come here and run again on this surface. I think he would handle a little bit of cut in the ground, but he's a very fast horse with a low action, so I think he would want a bit of decent ground. He's opened up a few options there, but he's a speedy miler."

Notable Speech, the 39th TDN Rising Star for Dubawi, is the first foal out of the aforementioned Swift Rose who is a daughter of the ill-fated Listed Prix Ceres winner and G3 Prix du Palais-Royal and G3 Prix de Meautry runner-up Tulips (Ire)

(Pivotal {GB}). Before her death in 2022, she also produced Dubawi's G3 Burj Nahaar winner Desert Wisdom (GB) and also the GI Natalma S. and G3 Fred Darling S. scorer Wild Beauty (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Swift Rose's yearling is a daughter of Pinatubo (Ire). Dubawi's TDN Rising Star tally includes the high-achieving Too Darn Hot (GB), In Italian (GB), Space Blues (Ire) and Zarak (Fr).

DEVOTED QUEEN (GB) (f, 3, Kingman {GB}--Fintry {Ire} {MGSW-Fr, GSW & G1SP-Eng, $327,127}, by Shamardal), off the mark on debut at Newmarket in October, was sent off the 1-2 favourite for this prize which used to carry listed status and be known as the Masaka S. Keen early restrained in fourth, the homebred worked her way to the front passing the furlong pole and needed the line as Marcella (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) lunged to narrow the winning margin to a neck. "She's very inexperienced and she needs to work on a few things," jockey William Buick said. "I'm sure she will get there and today was a new experience for her, she was a bit fresh early but got there in the end. She is the type of filly, with the way she is built, that will keep improving and progressing and I'm sure there is plenty to look forward to with her." The dam, who captured the G2 Prix de Sandringham, G3 Atalanta S. and G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil and was third in the G1 Sun Chariot S., has produced the stable's G3 Autumn S. winner and G1 Futurity Trophy runner-up One Ruler (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). ONE-TWO FOR DAIWA MAJOR IN NEW ZEALAND TROPHY by Heather Anderson

Pensioned Shadai Stallion Station resident Daiwa Major (Jpn) sired the first two home in the G2 New Zealand Trophy S. over 1600 metres at Nakayama on Saturday, with Ecoro Bloom (Jpn) edging filly Bond Girl (Jpn) by three-quarters of a length. Both the first and second were bred by Northern Farm.

Sent off at 37-10, Ecoro Bloom soon cruised up to sit in third behind Yukino Royal (Jpn) (Dee Majesty {Jpn}) and Clean Air (Jpn) (Real Impact {Jpn}) before drifting back a bit to the fence while saving ground. Full of run with 600 metres left, he ranged up to within a length of the leaders, but was forced to alter course in early stretch as a hole closed. A gap opened a few strides later and Takeshi Yokoyama directed the colt through, before the duo kicked past a stubborn Yukino Royal, who lost the battle for second with Bond Girl by a head.

Third on debut over soft ground going this trip at Tokyo in October, the chestnut claimed a similar affair at that course over a firm surface in November. Making his 2024 bow, Ecoro Bloom was a close second in the G3 Nikkan Sports Sho Shinzan Kinen at Kyoto on Jan. 8.

Daiwa Major | Shadai Stallion Station

Pedigree Notes

The winner is the 47th stakes winner for his sire, who was pensioned after breeding a handful of mares in 2023.

American threads run through the dams of both Ecoro Bloom and Bond Girl, as the former's dam, Sugar Shock, a winner of the 2014 GIII Fantasy S., was picked up for $360,000 out of the Fasig-Tipton November Sale in 2015 by Katsumi Yoshida. Stakes winner Coasted (Tizway), the 2016 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf runner-up and the dam of Saturday's runner-up, was sent to Japan after making $1.3 million at that same sale two years later, also on the bid of Yoshida.

At stud, Sugar Shock delivered the winning Admire Metis (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) as her first foal. Four more winners followed, including G3 Kisaragi NKH Sho hero Lagom (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) and Saturday's victor. After foaling the New Zealand Trophy hero, she produced a 2-year-old filly to the cover of dual Saturnalia (Jpn), a yearling full-brother to Lagom and she visited Kizuna (Jpn) last spring.

LEGEND CLAIMS DONCASTER

by Renee Geelen & Keely Mckitterick

Arrowfield Stud's Dundee (NZ) sired the first and third in Saturday's G1 Doncaster H. when his son Celestial Legend (Aus) came with a blistering run on the outside to deny Pericles (Aus) (Street Boss) and his paternal half-brother Militarize (NZ) in the time-honoured Randwick mile.

The Les Bridge-trained and Bon Ho-owned Celestial Legend has won two Group 1 contests from only eight starts, having claimed the G1 Randwick Guineas in March. The handsome grey also provided further updates to his half-brother, by Maurice (Jpn), set to be offered by Arrowfield Stud as lot 260 at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

Veteran trainer, Bridge had words of praise for the son of Dundee, who he describes as "the best horse he has trained". It was also a monumental moment for jockey Tyler Schiller, who wasted to 49 kg to partner Celestial Legend.

"This horse [Celestial Legend] is unbelievable. He's some horse," Bridge proclaimed to Sky Racing.

"I've had some good horses, but this guy is unreal. I didn't think he could win during the run, and I started to give up--they just don't do what he did.

"He's a superstar. I just love Celestial Legend, I never thought I'd get another good horse after Classique Legend, but I keep getting them!"

Schiller added, "Geez he's got a great turn-of-foot. He just surges underneath you. I didn't think I was going to get out but thankfully he was brave enough to get a grab. He's one in a million."

Pedigree Notes

The Arrowfield Stud-bred colt was an A$220,000 purchase by Legend Racing and Avenue Bloodstock from the draft of Arrowfield Stud at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. He is one of eight Group 1 winners and 26 stakes winners for his Arrowfield based sire. Cont. p13

He is the first foal produced by the unraced Sarraqa (Snitzel) whose second foal National Code (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) was purchased by MDK International/Griffiths de Kock Racing for A$160,000 at last year's Inglis Melbourne Premier.

Again served last spring by Dundee having missed to his son Castelvechio (Aus) the previous season, Sarraqa has a yearling colt by Maurice (Jpn).

Sarraqa is a daughter of the outstanding mare National Colour (SAF) (National Assembly)--a triple Group 1 winner in South Africa who also raced well in Dubai and England. Five of her six foals to race are winners including the Australian-bred, South African-based Group 1 sprinters Rafeef (Aus) and Mustaaqem (Aus)--both sons of Redoute's Choice (Aus). Also granddam of the Group 3 winner Full Velocity (SAF) (Philanthropist), National Colour is out of the listed winner Rainbow Cake (SAF) (Mr Eats {Ire}).

LIGHTNING GOLD COAST BOUND

by Renee Geelen & Keely Mckitterick

Five-year-old mare Chain Of Lightning (Aus) (Fighting Sun {Aus}) delivered an exceptional finish in the G1 TJ Smith S. at Randwick on Saturday, beating an elite field. Chain Of Lightning stuck to the rail, leading most of the way down the straight and held on as several horses swamped the finish line.

Bella Nipotina (Aus) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) ran second only 0.3l behind, with I Wish I Win (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) in third. Favourite Imperatriz (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) was fourth, with Sunshine In Paris (Aus) (Invader {Aus}) and Espiona (Aus) (Extreme Choice {Aus}) all within a length of the winner.

Chain Of Lightning's breeder, Stuart Ramsey, confirmed the star mare will head to the Gold Coast for next month's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. She will be consigned by Kenmore Lodge, as agent for Turangga Farm.

Ramsey told The Thoroughbred Report, "Regardless of Saturday's result we had Chain Of Lightning entered for the 2024 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

"I have a lot of starving grandchildren to feed," he proclaimed.

"In all seriousness we own a stud farm and we're in the business of making money. Hopefully she is well received."

Winning hoop, Damian Lane told Sky Racing, "Chain Of Lightning came into Saturday in really good form and peaking at the right time.

"She can also handle the ground. So, she ticked a lot of boxes but of course, you can never be too confident when you face a field like that.

"During the run I always felt the winner, but I thought maybe I had hit the front too soon, thankfully she really gritted her teeth and got her down."

Owned by Ramsay Pastoral and trained by Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman, she won six of her first seven starts, then went nearly 18 months (and 12 starts) without a win before winning the G3 Birthday Card S at her last start. Cont. p14

Chain Of Lightning | Bronwen Healy

The G1 TJ Smith is her first Group 1 win, and her second win in succession, bringing her record to eight wins from 21 starts and earnings over A$2.6 million.

Pedigree Notes

She is the first Group 1 winner for Fighting Sun, a group winning son of Northern Meteor (Aus), who died from colic in 2020 leaving five stakes winners from 420 named foals.

Chain Of Lightning is one of two winners for her winning dam Magic Art (Aus) (Perugino) with the other being Chain Of Lightning's full sister Magic Sunset (Aus). Magic Art is out of G2 Magic Night S. winner Mardi's Magic (Aus) (Kenny's Best Pal {Aus}) from the family of Group 1 winner Racing To Win (Aus) (Encosta De Lago {Aus}) and top sprinters Classique Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) and Aethero (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}).

Magic Art has a yearling filly by Better Land (Shamardal) while her 2-year-old gelding Jaddaf (Aus) (Magna Grecia {Ire}) is unraced. She was served last spring by Jacquinot (Aus).

Magic Art's dam is the G2 Magic Night S. winner Mardi's Magic (Aus) (Kenny's Best Pal {Aus}) whose full-sister Surrealist (Aus) produced the multiple Group 1 winner Racing To Win (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) and the G3 Caulfield Guineas Prelude winner Purrealist (Aus) (Tale Of The Cat)--as well as the dam of the Group 2 winning sprinters Classique Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) and Aethero (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}). Mardi's Magic is also the grandam of Glint Of Silver (Aus) (Rubick {Aus}) who won last year's G2 Autumn S.

A descendant of the great mare La Troienne (Fr) (Teddy {Fr}), Chain Of Lightning boasts an interesting pedigree with her dam sire Perugino hailing from the same prolific Rough Shod II (GB) (Gold Bridge {Fr}) family as Fighting Sun's sire Northern Meteor, his great grandsire Fairy King and his second dam sire Geiger Counter.

ROCKET FOURTH HORSE TO TAKE BOTH DERBYS

by Renee Geelen & Keely Mckitterick

Only very special horses win both the G1 Victoria Derby and the G1 Australian Derby and on Saturday at Randwick, Riff Rocket (Aus) (American Pharoah) added his name to the list.

Riff Rocket came into the race as the winner of the G1 Rosehill Guineas at his last start and was sent out as the A$2.20 favourite by punters. Glad You Think So (Aus) (So You Think {NZ}) led the race setting a strong pace for jockey Rachel King, and dug deep to stick on for third, while Riff Rocket threaded through traffic to sprint to victory up the centre of the track.

Second placed Ceolwulf (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) flew late down the outside and almost nabbed the favourite on the line, but Riff Rocket held on to win by 0.34l.

Trainer Chris Waller told Sky Racing, "It's pretty special to win my first Australian Derby and especially for the Kepitis family, who were with me before I had my first Group 1 winner.

"It's very fitting. I don't cry as much as I used to, but this victory is so special. The team at Randwick have done a fantastic job for us to be racing today (Saturday)."

Pedigree Notes

A homebred for Woppitt Bloodstock, 3-year-old gelding Riff Rocket now has seven wins from 11 starts, including three Classic races, with earnings over A$3.5 million. One of eight Group 1 winners for his sire American Pharoah who was an American Triple Crown winner, Riff Rocket is the second foal of stakes-placed city winner Missile Coda (Aus) (Smart Missile {Aus}). Missile Coda has an unraced 2-year-old filly named Codetta (Aus) (Nicconi {Aus}). Cont. p15

The other dual Victoria/Australian Derby winners are Hitotsu (Aus), Mahogany (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and Dulcify (NZ) (Decies {GB}) with the Australian Derby run in the autumn. Prior to 1977, the Australian Derby was run in the spring and 37 of the 124 winners won both Derbies.

And for a trivia question, Fireworks (Aus) (Kelpie {GB}) is the only horse to win the Victoria Derby twice, as the Victoria Derby was moved to the autumn for one season in 1867/68, and he also won the spring Australian Derby in 1867.

Missile Coda is out of the triple city winner Rain Melody (Lonhro {Aus}), a half sister to the Listed Toy Show H. winner Walk Alone (Aus) (Honour And Glory) from the family of the stakes winners Rain Affair (Aus) (Commands {Aus}), Ranges (Aus) (Shooting To Win {Aus}) and Wayupinthesky (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}).

A descendant of the 1945 G1 Melbourne Cup winner Rainbird (Aus) (The Buzzard {GB}), Riff Rocket boasts a cross of the terrific mare Crimson Saint (Crimson Satan) via her grandson Storm Cat and son Royal Academy.

MANAAL SALUTES IN INGLIS SIRES'

by Renee Geelen & Keely Mckitterick

After a less than ideal trip in the G1 Golden Slipper, the Michael Freedman-trained Manaal (Aus) (Tassort {Aus}) made amends in the G1 Inglis Sires' beating a high-class field in the 1400-metre feature at Randwick.

It wasn't smooth sailing. Manaal, ridden by Jason Collett, had to chase down a game Traffic Warden (Aus) (Street Boss) and hold off the G1 Golden Slipper placegetter Coleman (Aus) (Pierata {Aus}). Meanwhile, race-favourite Storm Boy (Aus) (Justify) failed to fire his best shot finishing fourth.

Manaal's victory furthered the dominance by 2-year-old fillies in the Group 1 juvenile races this season--Hayasugi (Aus) (Royal Meeting {Ire}) won the G1 Blue Diamond and Lady Of Camelot (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) saluted in the G1 Golden Slipper.

Freedman told Sky Racing, "Manaal is just an outstanding filly. She won the G3 Gimcrack S. on debut and then won the G2 Sweet Embrace S. in the autumn.

"She was a bit stiff in the G1 Golden Slipper, and now she's won the Slipper. I am just full of praise for Manaal. It is wonderful to train a Group 1 winner for Emirates Park and Hussain (Lootah).

"Hussain owns a share in the stallion, Tassort. He is an exciting stallion and hopefully we can get a few more in the stable.

"It's just fantastic because I walked away from the Golden Slipper a little bit disappointed. I've always had faith in Manaal. I think she will run a mile whether that's in the Champagne S. we'll just let the dust settle." Cont. p16

Pedigree Notes

An Emirates Park home-bred who was also Tassort's first runner, she is out of the imported Listed winner Red Lodge (Midshipman) whose first two foals are both winners - Fightertown (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) breaking his maiden for the Chris Waller stable at Warwick Farm late winter whilst Badr (Kitten's Joy) is a four times winner in Saudi Arabia.

Red Lodge--who was served last spring by Justify after foaling a Zoustar (Aus) filly (and an I Am Invincible {Aus} filly the year before)--is a half-sister to the Listed Deville S. winner Good Like Magic (Good Magic). Her granddam is the dual Group 1 winner Memories Of Silver (Silver Hawk) whose five winners include the dual Grade I winner Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}), the Grade III winner La Cloche (Ghostzapper) and the Storm Cat Listed winners British Blue and War Trace.

Manaal has no male duplications within six generations of her pedigree but within seven is line-bred to the outstanding mares My Charmer (Poker) and Flower Bowl (Alibhai {GB})--the former appearing via her sons Lomond and Seattle Slew and the latter via her sons (and full-brothers) His Majesty and Graustark.

VINNIE & TE AKAU STRIKE GOLD

by Renee Geelen & Keely Mckitterick

Te Akau Racing has achieved much success with the progeny of Australia's champion sire I Am Invincible (Aus). The Yarraman Park Stud-based stallion is the sire of the tangerine army's 10-time Group 1 winner Imperatriz (Aus).

On Saturday, Te Akau Racing and 'Vinnie' combined again with Move To Strike (Aus), who upset the applegate when winning the G1 Manawatu Sires' Produce S. for Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson.

The colt, ridden by Wiremu Pinn, avoided trouble and congestion that befell on the race favourite Velocious (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}). Finishing second behind Move To Strike was Red Sea (Aus) (Pierata {Aus}) and the colt's stablemate Captured By Love (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}).

Move To Strike was a A$525,000 purchase by David Ellis CNZM (BAFNZ) from the draft of Baramul Stud at the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Baramul Stud's graduates enjoyed a sensational time on Saturday. In addition to Move To Strike, the farm also provided the G3 Kindergarten S. winner Espionage (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) and the smart Eagle Farm winner Gin And Tonic (Aus) (Better Than Ready {Aus}).

Pedigree Notes

The colt is from the Shamardal mare No Evidence Needed (Aus). She won six races, including the G2 Let's Elope S. and the G3 Southern Cross S. Additionally, No Evidence Needed was placed in the G1 Sir Rupert Clarke S. and the G1 Schweppes Oaks.

Move To Strike is the 106th stakes winner for I Am Invincible and his 15th Group 1 winner. Cont. p17

The champion sire has 38 yearlings to be offered for sale at Inglis Easter.

Served last spring by Dundeel (NZ) having missed the previous season, No Evidence Needed is also dam of the Group 2 placed Discharged (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). Her dam is the stakes placed Generosa (NZ) (Generous {Ire}), half-sister to the Listed Hawkesbury Guineas winner Related (Aus) (Elusive Quality).

SIERRA LEONE STAMPS HIS AUTHORITY ON THE TOYOTA BLUE GRASS

by Alan Carasso

He wasn't the most cooperative at the stalls and he left himself plenty to do over a Keeneland main track that was playing kind to speed over the course of the afternoon, but 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (c, 3, Gun Runner--Heavenly Love, by Malibu Moon) saved his best for last and cemented his status as one of the top couple of contenders for the GI Kentucky Derby with a fast-finishing victory in the 100th running of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Saturday afternoon.

The victory, on the back of an equally decisive score in the GI Risen Star S. at the Fair Grounds Feb. 17, sets up a titanic clash of 'TDN Rising Stars' in the $5-million GI Kentucky Derby in a month's time with Eclipse champion 2-year-old Fierceness (City of Light), a far handier sort possessed of a high cruising speed that can be difficult to reel in.

Sierra Leone was to be the last to load in gate 10, but he proved a bit difficult to handle, delaying the start of the Blue Grass by about three minutes. A bit easy in the market, having touched 6-5 before leaving the gates at odds just north of 8-5, the $2.3-million topper from the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale was perhaps a half-step slow to begin, but slid down to race one off the inside and last but one into the first turn.

STRONGHOLD CAPTURES IMAGINATION IN SANTA ANITA DERBY

by Alan Carasso

Sent off as the 11-5 second choice, Rick and Sharon Waller's Stronghold (Ghostzapper) outbattled even-money favorite Imagination (Into Mischief) through the final eighth of a mile to take Saturday's GI Santa Anita Derby, earning 100 points towards the GI Kentucky Derby.

The last-out winner of the GIII Sunland Derby, the homebred was beaten for speed and settled just off the pace in fourth as Tapalo (Tapiture) set the pace from Imagination and E J Won the Cup (Omaha Beach). Content to allow those up front to do the dirty work as they went a good gallop, Stronghold was held together on the turn by Antonio Fresu, who went for his mount in earnest at the quarter pole and split horses in upper stretch. As E J Won the Cup and Tapalo began to back out of it, Imagination and Stronghold were left to settle it, and though neither gave an inch, Stronghold surged by in the shadow of the wire. Cont. p5

His stablemate Top Conor (Twirling Candy)--himself a $1-million OBS March breezer--cut out sharp fractions of :23.15 and :46.48 while tracked intently by recent GIII Gotham S. runner-up Just a Touch (Justify). Unhurried and patiently handled at the tail by Tyler Gaffalione, Sierra Leone raced well out into the track while taking plenty of dirt down the backstretch and still had a double-digit gap to bridge as the Blue Grass field entered the final half-mile.

Wisely angled back down towards the inside for a two-path run around the far turn, Sierra Leone began pick off rivals and was steered outside of Be You (Curlin) and about five deep into the lane. Just a Touch hit the front in upper stretch as inexperience caught up with Top Conor, but the lead was short-lived, as Sierra Leone gathered him up with relative ease while lugging in a bit entering the final sixteenth of a mile and strode clear.

Epic Ride (Blame), a latest runner-up in the John Battaglia S. Mar. 2 and trying the dirt for the first time in his five-race career, was a very good third, while Dornoch (Good Magic) failed to capitalize on a box-seat trip and was an even fourth, 6 1/2 lengths behind Sierra Leone, who he had famously beaten a nose in last year's GII Remsen S.

"He didn't break the sharpest, but it actually gave me time to get over and save some ground into the first turn," said Gaffalione. "He took the dirt just fine. Down the backside he got into a great rhythm. From the five-eighths pole on, he was moving like a winner. I was able to save some ground into the second turn, pop him out, and he just has so much talent."

Added trainer Chad Brown, winning a third Blue Grass: "We're just trying to maintain pretty much the way he's been his whole life, a special horse. I don't know if they ever fully figure it out, but he's only had a handful of starts.

But there's such good chemistry with Tyler and Sierra Leone his last two starts. You can see he wants to lean in a little bit, but it's never too bad. He's still polishing off his experience and his skills, and I just think a mile-and-a-quarter won't be a problem going forward. We're looking forward to it."

Trainer Danny Gargan is far from willing to give up on Dornoch, the full-brother to last year's Derby winner Mage.

"He went really well. He got in there behind," the trainer said. "It's his first time really getting a lot of dirt like that, he resented it a little bit early, [jockey] Luis [Saez] said. He said he kind of ran away from the horses. Next time, we'll break him out of [the starting gate on the lead] and keep his face clean, and he'll run better next time.

Accorded 'Rising Star' status after overcoming an eventful journey to graduate over Aqueduct's one-turn mile at first asking on Breeders' Cup Saturday, Nov. 4, Sierra Leone looked all but home after a heroic rally in the Remsen, only to have Dornoch come back on him at the post. Opting for the long Fair Grounds stretch for his sophomore debut in the Risen Star, he was as many as 10 off the inside in upper stretch and powered home to best Track Phantom (Quality Road) and next-out GII Louisiana Derby winner Catching Freedom (Constitution) by a half-length with blinkers on for the first time.

Pedigree Notes:

Sierra Leone is the eighth elite-level winner for his leading fourth-crop sire and is the only winner from his dam, who carried the silks of breeder Debby Oxley to victory in this track's GI Darley Alcibiades S. in 2017.

Heavenly Love is a daughter of Darling My Darling, a $300,000 Keeneland September purchase by John Oxley in 1998 who won the Doubledogdare S. and Raven Run S. in Lexington while also placing in the GI Frizette S. and GI Matron S. Darling My Darling is also the dam of 2016 GII Santa Ynez S. winner Forever Darling (Congrats), whose son Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) is the top 3-year-old dirt horse in Japan and followed up on a narrow victory in the G3 Saudi Derby Feb. 24 with success in the Mar. 30 G2 UAE Derby for trainer Yoshito Yahagi, stamping his own ticket to Louisville. Sierra Leone's Grade I-winning third dam also produced Japanese Horse of the Year Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence).

Heavenly Love foaled a colt by Nyquist in 2022 and produced a full-sister to Sierra Leone Feb. 11.

“We thought we needed a top three performance to get to the Kentucky Derby,” winning trainer Phil D’Amato said. “We were definitely hoping to get on the winning end here. I think this was a great education for him, and a nice test that he’s going to need to win a race like the Kentucky Derby.”

The win was the first at Grade I level in America for Antonio Fresu.

“I loved the way Phil D’Amato was training him the last couple of works,” the Italian said. “The horse was getting so much confidence and he was getting so much better than before. Today he proved to be a very good horse. Still, when he hit the front, he didn’t want to stay alone, he was waiting for some company. He got the job done and I want to dedicate this to my friend that passed away. I felt like he was there with me today. Stefano Cherchi was an amazing guy and I want to dedicate this to him.”

A maiden winner at second asking going Churchill’s one-turn mile Oct. 1, Stronghold was a distant runner-up to TDN Rising Star Nysos (Nyquist) in the GIII Bob Hope S. at Del Mar Nov. 19 before just getting reeled in late by Wynstock (Solomini) in the GII Los Alamitos Futurity Dec. 16. Sent to the Land of Enchantment for his sophomore debut, Stronghold proved too strong for his rivals at Sunland Park, taking that track’s repositioned Derby by 2 1/2 widening lengths Feb. 18.

Pedigree Notes:

Hill 'n' Dale's Ghostzapper, the veteran son of Awesome Again out of Broodmare of the Year Baby Zip, may be among the elder statesmen in Kentucky's sire ranks, but he still cranks out top horses, among them 55 graded winners and 100 black-type winners worldwide. While Stronghold marks his only stakes winner of 2024 to date, Ghostzapper's other best runners most recently have included 2022-23 Eclipse champion female sprinter Goodnight Olive, 2022 Canadian Horse of the Year Moira, 2021 G1 Dubai World Cup winner Mystic Guide, and triple Grade I winner Guarana. No fewer than nine of Ghostzapper's stakes winners are out of Distorted Humor mares, with GISWs Guarana and Molly Morgan, as well as 2023 GSWs Rhyme Schemes and Two Ghosts, all bred on the same cross as Stronghold, who is the first stakes winner for Distorted Humor's son Jimmy Creed as a broodmare sire. Jimmy Creed stands at Spendthrift.

Stronghold is a fourth-generation homebred for the Waller family. Eric and Sharon Waller lost his dam, Spectator, after she foaled Stronghold--her only produce--in 2021. They had sold her dam, the unraced Diva's Tribute, to Richard Barton Enterprises in 2015 at Keeneland November for just $4,700. After Spectator won the 2017 GII Sorrento S. and placed twice in Grade Is, Diva's Tribute went through Keeneland's ring again in 2022 and hammered for $175,000 to Calvin Nguyen. She produced a Maxfield filly last year for Nguyen and partner Joey Tran before being bred to Idol for 2024. --Jill Williams

ALVA STARR GAINS REVENGE ON VAHVA IN MADISON by Alan Carasso

Alva Starr | Coady

Dale Ladner's Alva Starr (Lord Nelson) was run down by Vahva (Gun Runner) in the shadow of the winning post and dropped a narrow decision in the GII Lexus Raven Run S. during last year's fall meeting at Keeneland. But the speedy bay--favored by about $9,000 when all was said and done in the GI Resolute Racing Madison S.--managed to reverse form by a similar margin Saturday, even as she was forced to show a new dimension.

In the vanguard early, Alva Starr was eased back into a wide fourth to sit just off the pace into the turn as Red Carpet Ready (Oscar Performance) sped through from her inside draw to duel with Hot And Sultry (Speightster) through an opening quarter in :21.98. Consigned to a four-deep run around the turn, a stark contrast to normal front-running ways, Alva Star nevertheless rolled up outside, easily claimed Red Carpet Ready at the three-sixteenths pole and set sail for the wire. Still clear into the final furlong, Alva Starr was able to hold sway as Vahva was taking ground off of her with every stride.

Winning jockey Tyler Gaffalione admitted that the race did not unfold precisely as planned.

"No, [coming from off the pace wasn't the plan], but there was a lot of speed up there and I didn't want to get into a four-way battle," he said. "She relaxed for me and when I called on her, she responded for me. I peeked over at the screen at about the eighth pole and I saw somebody [Vahva] was to my outside, but my filly was still running at that point and I was fairly confident we were going to be able to get the job done."

Runner-up in allowance company in her first two starts at three at Oaklawn and Churchill, Alva Starr dominated older females in the July 8 Dashing Beauty S. at Delaware Park, then bossed her peers by 8 3/4 lengths in the GII Prioress S. at Saratoga Sept. 2. Beaten a half-length at 9-10 in the Raven Run, Alva Starr resumed with a smooth 3 1/2-length tally in a muddy renewal of the Feb. 3 American Beauty S. in Hot Springs.

Pedigree Notes:

Dale Ladner paid $30,000 for a first-crop filly from the first crop of Into Mischief at the 2011 Breeders' Sales Company of Louisiana's September Yearling Sale, and Sittin At the Bar would go on to win 11 of 19 starts--nine in stakes company--and over $700,000 while under the care of Brett Brinkman.

Sittin At the Bar has been even more successful in her second career, as each of her four sons and daughters to make the races are black-type winners, including Alva Starr's half-sister Cilla, who won the 2021 Prioress S.

Sittin At the Bar is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly Walkinaftermidnite, a yearling Gun Runner filly and was most recently bred to Cyberknife. Cont. p8

RESILIENCE WINS SPILL-MARRED WOOD MEMORIAL

Resilience | Sarah Andrew

Emily Bushnell and Ric Waldman's Resilience (Into Mischief) punched his ticket to the GI Kentucky Derby for Hall of Famer Bill Mott in an eventful renewal of Saturday's GII Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct.

Last out Aqueduct maiden winner Society Man (Good Magic), off at boxcar odds of 106-1, was second. Another longshot Protective (Medaglia d'Oro), a maiden of two starts, was third at 38-1.

The race was marred by a spill in the stretch when the Uriah St Lewis owned/trained-longshot Deposition (Constitution) appeared to clip heels while racing in traffic inside the three-sixteenths marker and unseated jockey Dexter Haddock.

Dr. Sarah Hinchliffe, NYRA's Veterinary Department Director, reported that Deposition stood up under his own power and walked onto the equine ambulance and was transported to the Cornell Ruffian Equine Specialists clinic for further evaluation. Haddock was transported to a local hospital for further evaluation.

The rail-drawn Resilience, off as the third choice at odds of 9-2, sat a dream trip beneath John Velazquez in third while racing with first-time blinkers through fractions of :23.45 and :47.49. He revved up three deep approaching the quarter pole, hit the front as they turned for home and kept on rolling down the stretch despite drifting late to win by 2 1/4 lengths.

Resilience, a maiden winner at fourth asking at Gulfstream Park Jan. 1, finished a respectable fourth in a key renewal of the GII Risen Star S. in the Fair Grounds slop Feb. 17. The winner that day 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) returned to impressively capture Saturday's GI Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. Risen Star third-place finisher Catching Freedom (Constitution) followed up with a win in the GII Louisiana Derby. Cont. p10

"He ran very well," Mott said. "[Assistant trainer] Leana [Willaford] did a great job with him. It was a similar trip to what we were hoping for. The blinkers didn't hurt, did they."

Resilience is campaigned in partnership by Thoroughbred consultant Ric Waldman, who oversaw the stallion career of the legendary Storm Cat, and Emily Bushnell, daughter of longtime owner/breeders Marty and Pam Wygod.

Ric Waldman and Emily Bushnell | Sarah Andrew

"We weren't confident, but hopeful," Waldman said. "His race in the Risen Star was better than it appeared and he gave up a lot. Bill [Mott] taking him back to Payson Park and training him for these weeks, he had him just picture perfect for this race."

Waldman continued, "He broke well and he was in great position as you'd want him to be. And John [Velazquez] just bided his time, stayed covered up, and when he saw an opening, he moved him out and the rest you saw yourself."

"It's our first Derby. I grew up in Louisville and I cut my teeth cutting school and going to Churchill Downs. It means a lot."

Bushnell added, "We're just so excited. He showed up, and Bill has done such an amazing job with him. Johnny rode him perfectly, and we're just so happy. I feel so lucky to be part of this incredible horse. He has brought my family's breeding program full circle. My father's [Marty Wygod] dedication and love for the Thoroughbred industry has spanned multiple years and Resilience is the product of a broodmare line he has nurtured and it is so exciting to see him succeed at this level."

Previously unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' and GIII Gotham S. winner Deterministic (Liam's Map), off as the 4-5 favorite, and the two-for-two second-choice Tuscan Sky (Vino Rosso), both disappointed, finishing eighth and seventh, respectively.

We are excited to announce that a generous supporter of our Veterans Build home repairs program, local entrepreneur and philanthropist, Mr. Leonard Green, has agreed to MATCH EVERY DOLLOR donated to our Veterans Build Fund, up to $3,500!

We have until April 27, 2024 to meet this challenge – will you donate to help us?

You can donate to gift any of the items we use regularly in our home repair projects or donate any amount you wish. When we reach $3,500 we will have unlocked the match! Thank you for your generosity!

- Paint Brushes - $10
- Bathroom Faucet - $25
- Set of Hammers - $30
- Furnace Filters - $50
- Light Fixture - $75
- New Window - $100
- New Front Door - $150
- 100lb Nails - $200
- New Water Heater - $500
- New Kitchen Cabinets - $750
- New Siding - $1,000

Our Veterans Build home repairs program provides home repair and upkeep projects at no cost to eligible veterans. Even minor projects can be overwhelming and costly to a veteran homeowner with a low or fixed income. The program relieves concerns and remedies safety and comfort issues.

Projects include critical home repairs such as ramp and rail installation, widening walkways for wheelchairs, roof repairs and re-roofs, general exterior house repairs, and landscaping. Since launching in April 2023, we have completed 6 Veterans Build projects, including several home repair projects, including the installation of two new roofs, the construction of a new wheelchair ramp, the installation of new windows, a new fence, and exterior repairs and painting. Scroll down for photos of recent projects completed.

NOTHING LIKE DETTORI, WHO WINS SANTA ANITA OAKS ON NOTHING LIKE YOU IN SIX-WIN STREAK by Jill Williams

In an event billed almost as a match race between California star fillies Kinza (Carpe Diem), a MGSW and 'TDN Rising Star' for Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, and Kopion (Omaha Beach), a GSW for Hall of Famer Richard Mandella, it was Baffert's other entrant, Nothing Like You (Malibu Moon) who upended the GII Santa Anita Oaks in Arcadia and reported home an eased-up 7 1/2-length victress. Kinza was second, giving Baffert the exacta but suffering her first career loss, and last-out maiden winner Corposo (Vino Rosso) was third, while Kopion weakened to fourth.

Kentucky Oaks points were on the line in the Santa Anita Oaks and were offered on a scale of 100-50-25-15-10; however, both Nothing Like You and Kinza are ineligible to earn points as Baffert's horses continue to be prohibited from racing at Churchill Downs.

Winning jockey Frankie Dettori captured his fifth consecutive race of the day in the Santa Anita Oaks, which was carded as the sixth race Saturday. After finishing sixth in Race 1, Dettori gave a master class by winning Races 2-6, but he didn't stop there, taking Race 7 after the Oaks to make it six in a row.

Nothing Like You and Frankie Dettori | Benoit

He didn't have a mount in Race 8 and finished third in Race 9, the GIII Monrovia S., and second in Race 10, the GI Santa Anita Derby. While six consecutive wins might be a career highlight for most riders, it's just another day in the iconic career of Dettori, who has been a household name since his "Magnificent Seven" in 1996, when he won all seven races on the Ascot card, including the GI Queen Elizabeth II S.

Dettori and Nothing Like You broke from the rail in the Santa Anita Oaks, immediately settling into a comfortable rhythm while a joint third as Kinza tallied early fractions of :23.42 and :46.88 up front with Kopion glued to her flank. Shuffled back to fourth at the top of the stretch, Dettori continued to bide his time until room opened on the rail and he shot through with Nothing Like You in the blink of an eye. Dettori stayed busy on the bay until the last sixteenth, when it was clear the pair would be uncatchable. They covered the 1 1/6 miles in 1:43.21.

"I was fully loaded at the quarter pole," said Dettori. "I just needed a little bit of room and she took off. What can you say about Baffert? He's a genius. We have a good working relationship. He trains them and I ride them."

Well clear in the Santa Anita Oaks | Benoit

Baffert added, "Without the horse, the jockey doesn't matter, but Dettori kept this filly as clean as possible... Unfortunately, when you use Dettori, you can't blame it on the jockey. He's just a phenom. He is world class and has brought his talent to every stage. He's just that good, but you have to give him the horse. And he had the horse to do it."

Dettori first rode Nothing Like You in the Feb. 10 Gill Las Virgenes S., a race in which she was fourth behind Kinza and Kopion. Dettori specifically said the filly did not appreciate the kickback that day and he took care of keep her out of it Saturday. She had previously won three in a row, including the Desi Arnaz S. at Del Mar in November and the GII Starlet S. at Los Alamitos in December.

Pedigree Notes:

The bedrock of the modern Spendthrift goes down to Malibu Moon, who died in 2021 of an apparent heart attack at age 24. Nothing Like You is one of 55 graded winners and 138 black-type winners for the son of A.P. Indy, but only the third for 2006 GI Santa Anita Derby winner Brother Derek as a broodmare sire.

The latter was last reported to be standing in Saudi Arabia.

It's a pretty safe bet to surmise not too many Hastings Racecourse runners find their foals winning graded stakes at Santa Anita, but Nothing Like You's dam, Miss Derek, was a three-time stakes winner at Hastings in Canada. Wolverton Mountain Farm, co-breeder of the Oaks winner, picked her up for $30,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale in 2015. She produced Aqueduct's 2018 Tepin S. winner South of France (Quality Road) as her first foal, while Nothing Like You is her most recent produce. John Rogitz, part of Nothing Like You's ownership group, picked up the Oaks winner for $190,000 at the 2023 OBS April sale after she worked a furlong in :10.

Buchu | Coady/Renee Torbit

Rigney Racing homebred Buchu, winner of the GII Jessamine S. over this course last year at two, made her 3-year-old debut a winning one and kept her Keeneland record perfect with a late-closing score in the $400,000 GII Appalachian S. Saturday. California shipper Mo Fox Givin and last-out GIII Florida Oaks third Dancing N Dixie chased her home in second and third, respectively.

Buchu broke smoothly from the nine hole and quickly settled into a midpack spot on the outside, rating throughout while in the clear as Poolside With Slim (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) set fractions of :22.88 and :47.25 and favorite Pounce (Lookin At Lucky) tracked from third. Midway on the turn, Buchu unfurled a sharp turn of foot as she circled the field while five wide and hit the front in a no-nonsense effort despite bobbling in the last sixteenth. Mo Fox Givin and Dancing N Dixie, both longshots who were 11th and 12th at the first call, got within a half-length and a neck, respectively, but couldn't catch the winner. The final time for the one mile was 1:36.36.

"We came over here knowing she had run well," said winning trainer Phil Bauer. "But this was a pretty good test and you don't expect those efforts. I was a little worried maybe she hit the front too early, but she's game and hung on. So it's a pretty special feeling to be out here for the second time [after winning the Jessamine last year]. You come here as a kid and dream about it, and it's pretty surreal."

Buchu had an exceptional fall last year as a juvenile. After initial tries at Ellis Park and Saratoga, she broke her maiden by daylight in her second try on the lawn and first time at Churchill. A powerful performance in the Jessamine followed before an off-the-board finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Freshened since that effort, she has worked consistently during the last month at Churchill, including a bullet four furlongs in :48 1/5 (1/20) over the training track Mar. 22 and a :47 1/5 half (4/30) Mar. 29 on the main track.

Pedigree Notes:

Hailing from the same family as MGSW Medaglia d'Oro, dam Flowering Peach (Ire) is out of MGSW Naples Bay, a half-sister to that stellar Darley sire and who herself brought $3.6 million to the bid of M. V. Magnier at the 2014 Keeneland November sale. Flowering Peach is a full-sister to French GSW First Minister (Ire) and has produced two foals following Buchu: a now-yearling colt by Uncle Mo and a Golden Pal filly born Feb. 10. Buchu is one of 323 stakes winners out of a daughter of Galileo (Ire).

The Appalachian winner is also one of 18 graded winners and 26 black-type winners worldwide for 2018 Horse of the Year Justify, who stands at Coolmore America and was the leading second-crop sire of 2023.

Arzak | Coady

Making his seasonal bow Saturday, last year's GII Woodford S. winner Arzak stayed perfect over the Keeneland turf course and picked up another graded stake in the GII Shakertown S. Sixth but beaten just two lengths last out in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita last November, the Michael Trombetta trainee returned to Kentucky where his first try over course and distance netted him the Woodford upset at 11-1 odds and a career-best 101 Beyer Speed Figure. Jumping at 7-2 Saturday, the $575,000 OBS April grad ran with the front flight and sat just off the rail from fourth as Yes I Am Free (Uncaptured) and Coppola (Into Mischief) paced the field into the turn through a quarter in :21.61. Perfectly positioned just off the speed, Arzak was poised to strike at the furlong pole and closed well once he swapped leads, building enough separation to hold off a trio of closing challengers for the win.

"We gave him a little vacation after the Breeders' Cup," said Trombetta. "They sent him to Ocala to winter. We brought him up to Fair Hill pretty early, like in February, so we could get him started. Fortunately the weather cooperated and we didn't miss any works. He's trained brilliantly all winter. His last three races are as good as anything he's ever done. I was a little worried coming off the layoff, that he'd be ready, but he showed up and did what he needed to do. It's hard to do [win two stakes at Keeneland, this one following the Woodford-G2 last fall], so I hope to be back here in the fall with him."

Pedigree Notes:

One of 34 stakes winners for Not This Time, Arzak impressed at OBS April in 2020 when selling for $575,000 to Marc Tacher. Dam Delightful Melody, out of MGSW/MGISP Bending Strings, has produced four winners from five to race and herself brought $500,000 as a yearling at Saratoga when selling to Marc Casse at FTSAUG in 2013. The winner has a yearling half-brother by Flameaway and Delightful Melody visited Girvin for this year.

Post Time, a last-out winner of Laurel's GIII General George S. Feb. 17, came rolling down the stretch to capture his fourth straight victory.

Favored at 4-5 in this scratched-down field of four, Post Time trailed the quartet as Super Chow showed the way through easy fractions of :24.38 and :48.18. Post Time began to get going while four wide beneath Sheldon Russell approaching the quarter pole.

Super Chow kicked for home in control, but, just as he did in his win in the local GIII Tom Fool H. Mar. 2, began to drift badly down the stretch. Undeterred despite getting carried out in the final furlong, Post Time rallied down the center as Super Chow continued to wander.

Castle Chaos, meanwhile, enjoyed a dream run along the inside and hit the front as Super Chow packed it in. Post Time, however, just kept on coming on the outside and nailed Castle Chaos on the money to keep his winning streak alive.

Post Time has been perfect in four attempts since finishing a good third in Keeneland's Perryville S. Oct. 21. The gray won Laurel's Jennings S. going a mile Jan. 28 and General George at the Carter distance with Beyer Speed Figures of 104 and 103, respectively.

Winning trainer Brittany Russell also won last year's Carter, contested then as a Grade I, with Doppelganger (Into Mischief).

"You know that [he drifts out] if you watch Super Chow's races and we talked about it, but look it is just sort of how things set up," Russell said. "I mean Sheldon [Russell] even kind of got a little wide on the turn there, too. I was kind of like 'Oh geez,' but look, he's a good horse and he got the job done."

She continued, "He's a good horse. We suspected that, but he also had to step up outside home. Credit to Super Chow, he's a tough horse. I'm really proud of him."

Brittany Russell and Ellen Charles | Sarah Andrew

Pedigree Notes:

Tapit's Frosted is the sire of Post Time and 25 other black-type winners worldwide. Post Time, a third-generation Maryland-bred for the Bowman family, sold to Cary Frommer at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling sale for $85,000. His SW & GSP dam Vielsalm has a 2-year-old McKinzie filly named Field Song, who hammered for $80,000 to Mouse at the 2023 edition of that sale. She was bred to Nyquist for 2024. The mare is one of two daughters of Fairbanks, a son of Giant's Causeway, to produce a stakes winner.

Cutting back to one turn for the first time since finishing a debut second at the Fair Grounds in February 2023, Bo Cruz sat a pace-pressing trip and kicked on nicely in the final furlong for a breakthrough victory at the graded level in Saturday's GIII Commonwealth S. at Keeneland.

Bet in half from his morning line of 12-1, the $45,000 Keeneland September graduate hit the ground running from the middle of the gate and led early before allowing Richiesonaroll (Gone Astray) to take over as second choice Minnesota Ready chased from deeper out. Hounding the front-runner's every move into the turn, Bo Cruz was allowed to stride into the lead with a bit more than five-sixteenths of a mile to race and when asked to sprint in upper stretch by Jose Ortiz, he responded gamely and was always holding Minnesota Ready in the run to the line. Favored Wico plugged on for third while no real menace to the top pair.

"It was an experiment [cutting back to seven furlongs], obviously, but it worked," said trainer Al Stall, Jr., winning his first graded stakes since the 2022 GIII Cardinal S. "We just had a gut feeling, watching him train and the way he's built, that nine furlongs might not be his game, so let's go all the way back. There's a lot of opportunities in this neck of the woods all summer long--seven-eighths and one-turn miles--so we took a chance. We learned a lot, and the experiment really worked well for us."

Named a 'TDN Rising Star' after graduating by over a dozen lengths when tried over a distance of ground for the first time last March, the gray colt added a Churchill allowance victory ahead of a low-odds third in the GIII Matt Winn S. in June. Sidelined off a distant eighth as the 9-5 chalk in the July 8 Iowa Derby, Bo Cruz finished up nicely to be a close third going an extended mile in Fair Grounds allowance company Feb. 12.

Bo Cruz | Coady

Pedigree Notes:

Bo Cruz is the 26th stakes winner for his sire, who stood at Airdrie Stud before being sold at the back end of 2023 to continue his career at Marjorie Farms in Texas.

A half-brother to the dam of the stakes-winning Dana's Beauty (Not This Time), Bo Cruz is out of a winning daughter of MGSP Quick Temper, also the dam of 2017 GI Preakness S. hero Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) and four other winners. Third dam Halo America was among the leading distaffers of her generation, carrying the silks of the late John Franks to 15 victories, including a four-length defeat of champion Jewel Princess (Key to the Mint) in the 1997 GI Apple Blossom H.

Quick Breeze is also responsible for the New Jersey-bred 3-year-old filly Beachfront Breeze (Coal Front), a maiden winner at first asking last summer at Monmouth Park.

WHERE'S MY RING SHIPS IN TO WIN

GAZELLE

There's never a bad day to win your first race but Where's My Ring (Twirling Candy) sure picked an opportune day to do it, breaking her maiden and earning 100 points on the Road to the Kentucky Oaks with a dominant effort in the GIII Gazelle S. at Aqueduct Saturday.

A career maiden through seven starts, the $100,000 Keeneland September grad could perhaps be forgiven for running behind the likes of MGSW Dreamfyre (Flameaway), champion Just F Y I (Justify) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and not once but twice to 'TDN Rising Star' Kinza (Carpe Diem). Five lengths behind in second to that runner last out in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. March. 9, trainer Val Brinkerhoff opted to ship Where's My Ring to Aqueduct after scratching his runner from last week's GI Fantasy S. at Oaklawn. Favored at 5-2 on the last day to earn qualifying points towards the first Friday in May, Where's My Ring broke with some speed from the inside gate but was quickly headed by Carmelina (Maximus Mischief) to her outside on the run into the first turn. Content to sit off that runner, the favorite was swarmed by a trio of runners and managed to hold third as the top five separated themselves from the second flight. Still glued to the fence around the far turn, Where's My Ring tipped outside of the dueling duo on the lead and ran them both down strongly, surging past 19-1 longshot Regulatory Risk (Omaha Beach) to graduate with her ears pricked on the line.

"It's not about breaking the maiden, we wanted to be in the Oaks, that was our goal," admitted winning owner Michael McMillan. "I just got into horse racing, I met Val and Kelly Brinkerhoff and I told them 'I'm not in this for little races, we are in it for the big races.' I told them it was going to be the Kentucky Oaks. Everyone was shocked that we came here, but our whole team figured out the best race for us. It was a huge team effort."

"I'm ecstatic to get a chance like this," added Brinkerhoff. "I come from the bush tracks in Utah and to get to do this is pretty awesome. It's his [Michael McMillan's] first horse and I've had one in the Breeders' Cup where we ran third [Restrainedvengeance in the 2021 Dirt Mile], but this filly has a lot of potential. It's been a long time getting to here and she's getting better and better, so hopefully by the Oaks, we'll be even better."

Pedigree Notes:

Twirling Candy is now represented by his 48th stakes winner and 18th graded winner. The first foal from her dam, Where's My Ring is out of a half to SW Merlazza (Medaglia d'Oro) and MGSP Gold Standard (Medaglia d'Oro).

She is also similarly related to Saturday's GIII Distaff S. winner Shidabhuti (Practical Joke) as third dam Crystal Current, a $3.1m FTKNOV broodmare in 2008, is a daughter of Shidabhuti's third dam MGSIW Dream Supreme. Mapit had her 2-year-old McKinzie colt bring $300,000 from Klaravich Stable at the 2023 FTSAUG sale and she reported another colt by McKinzie this spring.

 A consistent 3-year-old runner at both Monmouth and Aqueduct, Shidabhuti won her first three races by a combined 10 1/2 lengths, picking up a stakes win along the way when upsetting the Busher Invitational S. over a muddy Big A course last March. On the board in the GIII Gazelle S. and the Boiling Springs S., the daughter of Practical Joke was empty and never a factor when a disappointing ninth last out at Monmouth in July. Unraced since that effort, the now 4-year-old made a triumphant return to the races Saturday on the cutback in distance with a come-from-behind win in the GIII Distaff S.

Drawn widest of the five-horse field, the 8-1 shot was outrun early by a pair of rivals content on the lead. Comfortably positioned in a share of third up the backstretch and angled down to ride the rail, Shidabhuti faced a wall of runners in front of her off the turn and, needing room to close into, tipped back out to come four wide inside the final furlong. With only a few left-handed reminders from Dylan Davis, Shidabhuti kicked on and won going away from Ain't Broke.

"She ran great," said winning trainer Chad Brown. "She had a bit of a duel in front of her which really helped her late run there. I was really proud of the horse off the layoff. I thought maybe she needed a race and we could get a nice piece of this and move forward off of it, but as the duel developed it became clear she had a chance to win. It was a good set up for her and she ran great. My team did a great job with her."

Shidabhuti | Janet Napolitano

Pedigree Notes:

One of 37 stakes winners for Coolmore's Practical Joke, Shidabhuti went for $310,000 as a yearling at Keeneland September in 2021. Dam A.P. Candy, herself a half to English stakes winner and MGSP Wind Fire (Distorted Humor), is also responsible for stakes placed Knox Court (Hard Spun). Further back in the family, second dam A.P. Dream was a $2,395,000 RNA as a 2-year-old sold at Keeneland's April 2-Year-Old sale, a price that would have easily topped the auction, and third dam MGISW Dream Supreme produced GISW and sire Majestic Warrior. One of only four reported foals from her dam, the winner's only younger sibling is a 2-year-old McKinzie filly while A.P. Candy visited both Authentic and Mandaloun for 2024.

Ag Bullet proved how much she relishes a go at the Hillside Turf Course at Santa Anita as she took home her first graded stakes win in the GIII Monrovia S. on Saturday afternoon.

A former charge of George Papaprodromou, the filly broke her maiden under him as an early 3-year-old over the same course at second asking, and then won stretching out in Arcadia's mid-February running of the Lady of Shamrock S. However, Ag Bullet was a well-beaten fifth while trying the Tapeta in the Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway in March. Taking a break, the filly switched barns to Richard Baltas, and returned to the hill and the winner's circle as a 4-year-old in the Wishing Well S. at 'The Great Race Place' Feb. 25.

Well-backed at the windows as the 3-2 choice here, the gray burst out of the gates and used her outside post position to challenge an inside longshot for the early lead down the slope. Waiting patiently for the word from Umberto Rispoli, the Ag Bullet was given her command around the far turn, she traversed the dirt like a pro and cruised home a decisive winner.

"[Umberto] Rispoli knows Ag Bullet and had a great handle on the horse from start to finish," said trainer Richard Baltas. "Once they broke away, they took it home effortlessly in the final stretch. Rispoli held her pace as long as possible, and that was the key. I hope to have her running a mile soon."

Pedigree Notes:

This is Twirling Candy's 20th graded stakes winner and his 48th overall stakes winner. The sire also celebrated earlier in the afternoon when Where's My Ring took home the GIII Gazelle S. at Aqueduct. Noble Grey, dam of 10 foals who counts eight winners out of as many to race, is responsible for a 2-year-old filly by Classic Empire and a yearling colt by Mendelssohn. She visited Army Mule for this season. Ag Bullet's extended female family includes GII Go for Wand S. heroine Lovely Lil (Tiznow) and GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. champ Abraaj (Carson City).

ENDLESSLY GOES EASY HALF-MILE AT CHURCHILL

Amerman Racing's Endlessly (Oscar Performance) breezed an easy four furlongs in :49.60 (78/111) over the Churchill Downs main track Saturday morning, his first move since taking the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks at Turfway Park Mar. 23. The homebred could make his next appearance in the $5-million GI Kentucky Derby on May 4, which would mark his first start on the dirt.

Working outside of his multiple stakes-placed stablemate Blue Eyed George (Flameaway) and with exercise rider Walter Davila in the irons, Endlessly remained on even terms for the majority of the breeze, easing clear on the gallop out.

Endlessly (nearest) | Coady

He pulled up five furlongs in 1:02.80, according to Churchill Downs clocker John Nichols.

In the immediate aftermath of the Jeff Ruby Steaks, a victory which took his record to five wins from six starts, connections announced their intentions to point for the GII American Turf S., but reversed course a few days later, with the Derby a possible target.

"After the Jeff Ruby, Mr. Amerman and I talked and we're going to leave all of our options open," trainer Michael McCarthy said. "We still have a few weeks to train here and have some time to make a final decision as to what we do next."

In 2011, Animal Kingdom won the GIII Spiral S. before causing a 20-1 upset in the Derby in his first start on the main track.

Earlier Saturday, GII Rebel S. runner-up Common Defense (Karakontie {Jpn}) went a half-mile in :47.80 (3/111) outside of his Grade II-placed stable companion Real Men Violin (Mendelssohn). Common Defense covered his opening two furlongs in :24.60 and was out five-eighths in 1:01.40.

NO MORE TIME BREEZES FOR POTENTIAL START IN KENTUCKY DERBY

Morplay Racing's No More Time (Not This Time), winner of the GIII Sam F. Davis S. and narrow runner-up in the GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby, breezed a half-mile in :48.60 (8/52) Saturday morning at Palm Meadows Training Center in preparation for a planned start in the GI Kentucky Derby.

"He worked by himself. He went good and also had a strong gallop-out," trainer Jose D'Angelo said. "Everything's good. We're hoping to get into the Kentucky Derby." Cont. p22

Prior to Saturday's three major prep races at Santa Anita, Keeneland, and Aqueduct, No More Time, who has collected 45 qualifying points for the Kentucky Derby, was sitting 15th in the standings that will determine the 20-horse field for the first leg of the Triple Crown at Churchill Downs.

"We're not just going to just run a horse there. We have a horse with a chance to win the race," D'Angelo said.

HADES TO RUN IN LEXINGTON STAKES

by Alan Carasso

Hades | Coglianesse

Hades (Awesome Slew), upset winner of the GIII Holy Bull S. in January and a latest fifth to champion 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light) in the GI Curlin Florida Derby Mar. 30, will back up on two weeks' rest for the GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 13, co-owner Jon Green of D J Stable said in a text message Saturday morning.

"We are entering Hades in the Lexington and have Jose Ortiz in the irons," Green texted. "Hades is doing great, is sound and ready to ship to KEE on Tuesday."

Owned in partnership with Robert Cotran and trained by Joe Orseno, Hades won his first three trips to the post including a two-length defeat of Domestic Product (Practical Joke) in the Holy Bull, as Fierceness failed to fire at long odds-on. He was bumped at the start of the Florida Derby as a 17-5 chance and endured a wide trip before finishing 19 3/4 lengths adrift of the romping Fierceness.

"He got sawed off and never leveled off until he pulled himself back to last," Green explained via text.

Hades has amassed 30 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby, good for 18th in the standings prior to the running of Saturday's 100-point preps. The Lexington is the final Derby points race on a scale of 20-10-6-4-2.

Also headed to the Lexington is Encino (Nyquist), who was scratched from Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. The Godolphin homebred, last-start winner of the John Battaglia Memorial S. Mar. 2, had drawn widest in the field of 11 in the Blue Grass.

PLETCHER SOPHOMORE FILLIES HEADED DOWN SEPARATE PATHS

Leslie's Rose | Coady

Trainer Todd Pletcher reported that both of his fillies that contested Friday's GI Central Bank Ashland S. emerged from the efforts none the worse for wear, but are likely to part company for the time being.

'TDN Rising Star' Leslie's Rose (Into Mischief) atoned for her third in the GII Davona Dale S. with a good-looking three-length victory in the Ashland, earning herself a ticket to the May 3 GI Kentucky Oaks in the process.

"We are trying to sort things out, and we will let the dust settle from today," Pletcher said. "The Oaks and Derby horses have to be on the grounds by 11 a.m. on Apr. 27."

While that $1.15-million Keeneland September purchase will head over to Churchill Downs, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}) is unlikely to make the field for the Oaks after finishing fourth as the favorite on Friday. Her 34 points are good for 18th place on the leaderboard, but the race is limited to 14 starters.

"It is too early to say on her, but she is pretty far down the list with two races to go today," Pletcher said. "The [GII $300,000 George E. Mitchell] Black-Eyed Susan [at Pimlico May 17] or the [GI DK Horse] Acorn S. [June 7] are possible. The Acorn is at Saratoga this year, and it is a mile and an eighth."

Champion 2-year-old filly Just F Y I (Justify), a sound second on seasonal debut in the Ashland, returned to the barn of Bill Mott at Churchill Friday evening.

Glengarry Remaining At KEE Following Lafayette

Glengarry (Maximus Mischief) was originally supposed to return to the Oaklawn Park barn of trainer Doug Anderson after participating in Friday's Lafayette S. at Keeneland, but he will instead remain at Keeneland to train up to the $600,000 Gil Pat Day Mile at Churchill Downs May 4.

"He ran huge off a four-month layoff," Anderson said of Glengarry's 3 1/2-length victory. "When they didn't get him at the three-eighths, it was 'Katie bar the door.' He put everything into it and came back great. We are tickled pink.

"Little guys don't get many shots like this," Anderson added. "We talked it over at dinner last night, and it didn't make any sense to haul him back to Oaklawn and then haul him back [to Kentucky]. He loves this track to train, so we will see what we can get done."

INTO MISCHIEF'S DISCREET MISCHIEF POSTS 'TDN RISING STAR' PERFORMANCE AT SECOND ASKING

Discreet Mischief | Coady

Discreet Mischief (c, 3, Into Mischief--Brushwork, by Discreet Cat), a very solid second sprinting on debut with an 89 Beyer Speed Figure behind the highly regarded Drip (Good Magic) over a sloppy track at Fair Grounds Feb. 17, delivered a 'TDN Rising Star' performance for trainer Brad Cox to graduate impressively at second asking at Keeneland Saturday.

The 4-5 favorite jumped well and secured a perfect spot pressing in an outside second through fractions of :22.47 and :45.54. He took over on the turn for home, was in complete control as they straightened and ran up the score in the stretch to win for fun by 8 1/4 lengths. Timeout (Curlin) was second.

Discreet Mischief, a homebred for Oussama Aboughazale's Sumaya U.S. Stable, becomes the 44th 'TDN Rising Star' for the mighty Into Mischief. The unraced Darley-bred Brushwork, a daughter of MGISW Manistique (Unbridled), is also responsible for Kitten's Cat (Kitten's Joy), MSW & MGSP, $573,545; an Authentic colt of 2022 ($475,000 RNA KEESEP); and a Gun Runner colt of 2023. Brushwork brought $150,000 from International Equities Holding in foal to Kitten's Joy at the 2017 Keeneland January sale.

SUNDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: 'TDN RISING STAR' RETURNS ON KEENELAND SUNDAY

CARD by Stefanie Grimm

4th-KEE, $110K, OC, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m, 2:36 p.m.

Unraced since her 'TDN Rising Star' debut at Churchill Downs last September, TWIRLING GOOD TIME (Twirling Candy) returns to the races Sunday for Rigney Racing and trainer Phillip Bauer. Stretching out from 5 1/2 furlongs to 1 1/16 miles, the $250,000 KEESEP grad will look to carry the speed that saw her go nearly gate-to-wire in her four-length win while posting an 86 Beyer Speed Figure. Cont.

Reasoned Analysis outran his odds to take home his first black-type at the Big A on Saturday afternoon. The bay broke his maiden by half a length at third asking going a mile in Ozone Park Feb. 25.

Overlooked as a 15-1 shot here in favor of his stablemate Proprietary Trade (Practical Joke), the 3-year-old looked out of the race early as the leaders bolted away. Getting into the action around the far turn, Reasoned Analysis fanned to the outside and found his best stride running down the center of the course, driving past Maximus Meridius at the sixteenth pole to ultimately win the day.

"The horse [Reasoned Analysis] ran super," said Brown. "My assistant, Dan Stupp, deserves a lot of credit. He was telling me how well this horse was training up there. It was a last minute entry when it looked like there was going to be a lot of pace in the race. We threw him in there to complement the other one and it worked out. Proprietary Trade never really looked comfortable when he couldn't get to the lead, but Eric Cancel [aboard Reasoned Analysis] was patient and timed it just right to start his run. I'm really impressed with the horse, my team up in New York and Eric, who is 2-for-2 on this horse. Eric has a high-percentage with us and is riding really well."

Reasoned Analysis is her dam's first registered foal. We Love Lucy produced a colt by Preservationist who is now a 2-year-old, foaled a colt by Complexity last year, and was not bred for this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Roberta's Love broke her maiden at second asking in her second straight try over six furlongs at Santa Anita Mar. 17 after being third on debut. Stepping into restricted stakes company for the first time, the 9-1 shot jumped right to the front from the break, turned back rival Clubhouse Bride and dug in gamely to keep a late run from Safa at bay and pick up the win.

"I was surprised, she jumped like a rocket and within 50 yards we were clear of the field and at the rail," said winning rider Frankie Dettori. "I thought if nobody hassled with me, I'd be very hard to catch and that was the case. We went right up to the line."

The 12th stakes winner for Collected, Roberta's Love is a half to GI Starlet S. runner up Yesterday's News. West Coast Gal has a yearling Game Winner colt but lost her Tap Back foal this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Fading to fourth in his seasonal bow last out Feb. 3 in the Swale S., the 7-2 third choice was making his first appearance at Keeneland and on first-time Lasix. Vying with GSP Scatify (Justify) for the lead, the pair put up :22.47 and :45.71 splits before Billal eventually put that one away, grinding home to win by two lengths. Returning 'Insights' runner GSP Pirate (Omaha Beach), half-brother to MGSW National Treasure (Quality Road), finished fourth in his seasonal bow. Bendoog (left) | Sarah Andrew

Off since then, the 2-1 choice here was fitted with blinkers and with Lasix to kick start his new campaign. Bendoog was shuffled towards the rear of the field at the bell, but he started to make headway before the far turn. Given his cue, he ranged up on the leaders to take over at the top of the lane, was challenged by Cascais (Into Mischief) with a furlong left and won by a head. De Regreso stepped out to first press the pace while Watchtower settled near the rear of the field. De Regreso was among runners in the top flight until they swung off the far turn, where she'd taken a clear lead, but the calvary charge was rolling from the back, led by Watchtower. The fillies were on even terms in the final strides, and hit the line together, inseparable in the photo.

De Regreso was picking up her second lifetime win after breaking her maiden last season over Gulfstream's synthetic track and subsequently hitting the board in the Our Peggy Sue S. The 15-1 shot was last seen running second over that same course Mar. 9 against optional claiming company. De Regreso has a 2-year-old half-sister Paamul (Yoshuida {Jpn}) as well as a 2024 half-sister by Independence Hall.

Watchtower picked up her second victory in a row here after her 1 1/2-length graduation last out Jan. 20 at Tampa Bay Downs in a mile maiden event. IN ORDER OF PURSE:

1st-Keeneland, $100,000, Msw, 4-6, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:45.82, ft, head.

ELEPHANTS EAR (c, 3, Vino Rosso--Sunbury, by Speightstown) outran his 16-1 odds to be third behind a pair of heralded runners at Fair Grounds on debut Mar. 16. Kept at the same 1 1/16-mile distance Saturday, the 3-1 third choice broke nicely and enjoyed an inside trip early but needed to alter course into the backstretch to find running room. Mid pack through a half in :48.80, he began to make up ground while still caught out around the turn, came widest of the field past the quarter marker and got the best of a pair of inner challengers to prevail by a head. Bourbon Society (Bernardini) held second narrowly over Batten Down (Tapit). Out of a daughter of MGSW/MGISP Centring, Elephants Ear has an Omaha Beach 2-year-old half-sister while Sunbury has produced back-to-back foals both by Authentic in 2023 and 2024 respectively.

5th-Keeneland, $99,588, Msw, 4-6, 3yo, 1 3/16mT, 1:57.75, gd, 2 lengths.

WHITE PALOMINO (c, 3, Kitten's Joy--Wolf Gourmet, by Flatter), a solid third in his sole start going 8 1/2 furlongs over Gulfstream's lawn Jan. 20, has since delivered nine works at Payson and was sent postward here at just north of 7-2. He left the two hole forwardly, settling kindly just off the pace. Tucked in a joint third on the rail through :22.63 and :46.61 early fractions, he held his spot until a massive seam opened for him in the lane. White Palomino burst through and quickly cleared the field by two lengths with a sharp turn of foot as El Rezen (English Channel) closed to chase him home. The winner's dam, a half to GSW Cowboy Culture (Quality Road), was a $45,000 Keeneland November purchase by Triple T. Ranch in 2021.

The homebred broke alertly, but was challenged by a longshot up the backstretch. Making headway into the far turn, the filly was assailed by a sudden burst to her inside from favorite Focus Pocus (Bourbon Courage). In the role of chaser, the 3-year-old kept to the task of running down the new leader and did so in the final sixteenth to win by four lengths. Dr. Diamonds Prize was purchased for $100,000 by Buttonwood Farm at the 2021 Keeneland January Sale while Al's Ruby--her last registered foal--was in-utero. KATHYNMARISSA (f, 3, American Pharoah--La Dalila {Chi} {G1SW-Chi}, by Milt's Overture) found no success over the main track in two starts in New York, but has found California grass to her liking, placing third last out Feb. 17 at a mile over this course. Breaking a touch flat footed here but hustled to claim a forward position, she stalked Tahini (American Pharoah) as that one put up the fractions. Three wide and rolling into the lane under a full head of steam, she swallowed up that longtime leader as that one faded and picked up Frankie Dettori's fourth win on the card from a six-win day. Loterie (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) closed to claim second. DETERMIND PRINCESS (f, 3, Ghostzapper--Bohemian Queen, by Animal Kingdom) was second on her unveiling Mar. 15 over this main track, and successfully stretched out to the mile at second asking here. Stalking the leading flight as the loose leader put up the early fractions, she'd collared that one from the overland route nearing the three sixteenths marker and put 2 3/4 lengths on Amie's Symphony (Mendelssohn) on the wire, who recovered to claim the minors after stumbling out of the gate. The first to the races for Bohemian Queen, Determined Princess has a 2-year-old half-brother Maclean's Rook (Maclean's Music) as well as a yearling half-sister by Gift Box.

Their dam is due to Olympiad for 2024. Sales history: $120,000 RNA Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $41,860. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-D Hatman Thoroughbreds; B-Determined Stud (MD); T-Phil Schoenthal.

UNCLE HAPPY (g, 3, Runhappy--Vexed {GSW, $143,718}, by Arch) made one start in 2023, a seventh place effort for Tom Amoss Aug. 6 at Ellis Park, before going to the bench for almost nine months. Sent to Bret Calhoun and returning here as a first-time gelding as well as on Lasix, he was bumped at the break but recovered well enough to lock horns with firster C F Cantgoforthat (Girvin), putting up :22.24 and :45.68 splits. When that one threw up the white flag, Flash Humor (Flashback) took over but the eventual winner had already built up a margin turning for home, gamely scoring by 1 1/2 lengths. Uncle Happy has a 2-year-old half-brother by Catholic Boy as well as a yearling half-brother Rascal (Waiting). Vexed returned to Waiting for 2024. GALLIC CHARM (c, 3, Demarchelier {GB}--Dolly Madison {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) dueled over this course and then had to re-rally on debut Jan. 21 to claim third but put it all together here to graduate. Sent away with 6-5 favoritism, he set a pressured pace of :23.05 and :47.39 early as eventual runner-up Noble Factor (The Factor) took up the chase from a tiring rival in the late stages. In control through the final bend, Gallic Charm cleared away by 3 1/2 lengths on the wire. The first to the races for the dam, the victor has a yearling half-brother named Afghanistan (War Front) and their dam is due to Omaha Beach for 2024. This is the extended female family of multiple Group 1-placed Cliffs of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), globetrotting multiple Group winner Francis of Assisi (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) and multiple Group 1-winning Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo).
