

WINNING MACHINE: BIG WEEK COULD BE IN STORE FOR MEHMAS AT ROYAL ASCOT

Mehmas: is on fire this season and has a number of big runners to look forward to at Royal Ascot | Tally-Ho Stud

By Brian Sheerin

Is there any stallion out there who is better represented in the juvenile division than Mehmas (Ire)? He seems to be banging in a winner every other day in Britain and Ireland but it's his statistics with two-year-olds that are really off the charts.

This year alone, with the season still in its infancy, Mehmas has sired 17 individual two-year-old winners in Europe and enjoyed 19 successes overall. For context, fellow Tally-Ho Stud resident Kodiak (GB) is on 12 individual juvenile winners while No Nay Never has eight, Soldier's Call (GB) seven and first-season sire Sergei Prokofiev, who many have been showering with praise, is on that same number.

So Mehmas is off to a flyer. But is anyone surprised? This year's crop of juveniles were covered at a fee of €25,000, which was the July and Richmond Stakes winner's most expensive book of mares at the time. Not only was the quality up for that covering in 2021, but so, too, were the numbers.

RECORDS BROKEN AS SHARE IN ZOUSTAR FETCHES A$1.3M AT INGLIS DIGITAL SALE

Zoustar (Aus) continued his march Down Under by breaking the record for the most expensive stallion share ever sold at public auction in Australia when topping the Inglis Digital June (Early) Online Sale at A$1.3m.

Interest in the Qatar Bloodstock offering was global and led to some extraordinary participation, with 15 bids for the 1/60th share placed above A$1m alone.

It was Bangaloe Stud who struck the winning bid with Qatar's David Redvers describing the result as "fabulous".

"I was fascinated by the whole process," he said. "It's a very new thing for us, selling something like this online but the Inglis Digital platform is an excellent and dynamic way in which to trade.

"I've been watching it from afar for quite a while now and it's clearly a proven platform. I mean this sale alone had more than 400 lots in it so it's a proven and well used platform and if we were going to put something as significant as some equity in Zoustar online, Inglis Digital was the obvious platform to use."

Aesterius prior to selling for £380,000 at Goffs UK

Following a record-breaking first crop, where he recorded 56 individual winners, breeders flocked to Mehmas, who covered 292 mares in 2021. That number was up from 118 on a €7,500 fee in 2020.

From that first crop, Minzaal (Ire) went on to score at the highest level when landing the Sprint Cup at Haydock, as did Supremacy (Ire), who won the Middle Park. Both of those horses are now standing at stud in Ireland for €15,000 and €10,000 respectively.

Given what he has achieved to date, producing stallion sons and 22 horses rated in excess of 100 from lesser books, one can only imagine that things are set to get even better for Mehmas. And who knows, next week could be the beginning of that next chapter at Royal Ascot where he is likely to have a number of big chances.

Aesterius (Ire) could well be the most exciting of the juvenile runners. Bought by Blandford Bloodstock's Richard Brown for £380,000 at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale from Willie Browne of Mocklershill, the colt made a impressive start to his career at Bath and has the option of the Norfolk or Windsor Castle.

The Archie Watson-trained runner is the most expensive progeny of Mehmas ever sold at the breeze-up sales but Perfect Part (Ire) did her bit to illustrate what a punch her sire packs.

Offered at the same sale by Church Farm and Horse Park Stud, Perfect Part was sold for just £10,000 after putting in a solid breeze without doing anything fancy.

Perhaps it was that inauspicious price tag that allowed her to be sent off at odds of 125-1 for the Hilary Needler S. on debut at Beverley, but there was nothing ordinary about how she slalomed through the field to win going away at the line for trainer Brian Ellison.

When you add The Man (Ire), an impressive debut winner for trainer Richard Spencer and owner Phil Cunningham, Kempton scorer Tales Of The Heart (Ire), Leicester winner Blinky (Ire) and then the Windsor Castle-bound Sir Yoshi (Ire), it becomes evident that few stallions will be better-represented in the juvenile division at the royal meeting.

And that's not to mention those who haven't got off the mark as of yet. It's understood that those closest to California Dreamer (GB), last seen finishing an honourable third to Fairy Godmother (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in a Group 3 contest at Naas, are confident that you will see a big performance from the Adrian Murray-trained filly at Ascot.

With so much quality to look forward to this season, it might seem odd that Tally-Ho Stud decided to drop the covering fee for Mehmas this year to €50,000, down from €60,000 last year. However, this was in line with a number of other studs trimming their stallion fees in response to a tougher year for many breeders at the yearling sales. Stiff competition from Havana Grey (GB) and others is also understood to have been behind the idea at the time.

However, if the O'Callaghan family at Tally-Ho Stud felt they had to sit on their hands somewhat until the 2021 crop came through the ranks, better can be expected from this year and beyond given that Mehmas has stood for €50,000, €60,000 and now €50,000 again since 2022.

Indeed, plenty of shrewd breeders clearly backed Mehmas to make a splash this season, with one person close to the camp revealing that the stallion already has 170 mares in foal.

Some will argue that, given the numbers that Mehmas has running for him, he should be achieving everything that he is. But nothing should be taken away from what Mehmas has recorded to date and is on track to achieve this season. Royal Ascot promises to be a big week for him.

REYNIER TAKING ON TRIO OF GUINEAS WINNERS WITH DARLINGHURST

For France, there's a Classic weekend to contend with before Royal Ascot commences but next week's action in England could well include the strongest French challenge ever assembled for the royal meeting.

Next Friday's G1 Coronation S. is already being hotly anticipated for its potential clash of the English, Irish and French 1,000 Guineas winners Elmalka (GB), Fallen Angel (GB) and Rouhiya (Fr), but before that the G1 St James's Palace S. could provide an equally enthralling meeting of some of the best three-year-olds in Europe. Notable Speech (GB) and Rosallion (Ire) look set to renew their 2,000 Guineas rivalry, while Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Metropolitan (Fr) will join the line-up.

France will also be represented by the progressive Darlinghurst (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who is one of three potential runners for Marseille-based trainer Jerome Reynier. The Yeomanstown Stud-bred colt is unbeaten in his last four starts, including the G3 Prix de Guiche, in which he beat subsequent G1 Prix du Jockey Club runner-up First Look (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

"I'm really looking forward to seeing this race, it is going to be very interesting with all three of the Guineas winners. It will be interesting to see who is the number one three-year-old colt in Europe," Reynier said.

He and owner Jean-Etienne Dubois clearly have much confidence in Darlinghurst having recently retained him at €590,000 when offered for auction through an Arqana Online Sale.

"Darlinghurst has beaten First Look who was runner-up in the French Derby, his form is very good and we're very happy with the horse. He is very easy to deal with and I know he will travel well and is in good shape," he continued.

"His main quality is his turn of foot and if he can follow a horse with his high cruising speed and Christophe [Soumillon] can show him a gap or bring him on the outside, then he can use his turn of foot in the closing stages and he will be finishing really well."

Reynier will also be returning to Ascot with last year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. runner-up Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}), who will again tackle the straight mile in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S. The Team Valor-owned five-year-old was last seen on Dubai World Cup night, when he won the G1 Dubai Turf in the hands of Maxime Guyon.

"He came back from the Dubai Turf in really good shape and I was really happy with him," the trainer reported.

"The form from Dubai is amazing. The second Namur ran a cracker when second in the Yasuda Kinen and the Godolphin horse who finished fourth [Measured Time] won a Grade I in America at the weekend. Even the horse who finished eighth [Calif] won the La Coupe in ParisLongchamp and it was a very strong race."

He added of Facteur Cheval, "Maybe we could see him over a mile and a quarter in the future, but right now we had the choice between the Prince of Wales's or the Queen Anne and we thought it would be good to stick to going one mile straight. You always need that little bit more stamina than just being a miler and I think it fits him well."

Completing Reynier's trio of contenders is the G2 Prix d'Harcourt winner Zarakem (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}), who is being aimed at the G1 Prince of Wales's S.

He said, "He won five in a row last year as a three-year-old, including two Listed races, and his reappearance was really good in the Prix d'Harcourt in early April. We supplemented him for the Ganay but everything went wrong and he was too keen and he burnt too much petrol. Now, we will be riding him from the back [at Ascot] like we did in the Harcourt, waiting out the back for a place and you never know what can happen in this kind of race. If there is enough pace he will be able to come from behind."

Reynier, who has had a superb start to the season with 10 stakes winners already to his credit, is currently fifth in the French trainers' table.

He added, "A first win in Britain during Royal Ascot would be unreal, so I just hope the horses travel safe ahead of D Day.

"Ascot is something I have been watching on TV for many years, I was lucky enough to run Royal Julius in the Prince of Wales's six years ago.

"That was a good trip, I was driving the horse box myself and taking care of the horse myself and it was a great memory. This year I will only be racing on the Tuesday and Wednesday and we are staying Monday until Thursday so we will be able to enjoy it. "When we came over for the Sussex Stakes, we flew over, the horse ran and then we were dashing to catch our flight so I wasn't really able to enjoy it and the same with the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, I wasn't able to stay for the Champion Stakes as the flight was straight after the race.

"This time we will make sure we will enjoy ourselves and I will be in the French tent in the car park having a good time."

OISIN MURPHY WILL RIDE RAMATUELLE IN CORONATION STAKES

Ramatuelle | Scoop Dyga

Former champion jockey Oisín Murphy will ride G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas runner-up Ramatuelle (Justify) in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot on June 21. Murphy replaces Aurelien Lemaitre.

The filly, who earned a ‘TDN Rising Star’ badge on debut, was third to the re-opposing Elmalka (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) at Newmarket. The G3 Prix du Bois and G2 Prix Robert Papin heroine was second to dual Group 1 winner Vandeeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) in the G1 Prix Morny at two. In her 3-year-old bow, she found only Romantic Style (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) too good in the G3 Prix Imprudence at Deauville, missing by just a half-length in April.

The Irishman said of the Christopher Head trainee, “I thought she ran very well in the Guineas and it looks to be one of the most competitive races of the week.

“There are a lot of stars in there and there is a whole host of them who can win, but she was very good at two and has done nothing wrong this year. [Qatar Racing]’s Sheikh Fahad is part of her ownership along with the former NBA star Tony Parker and a few others.”

Already successful aboard 11 Royal Ascot winners to date, Murphy will also be in action aboard Aussie raider and G1 King Charles III S. entrant Asfoora (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}) for Henry Dwyer, as well as Kitty Rose (GB) (Invincible Army {Ire}), who is bound for the Sandringham S. for Aussie co-trainers Mick Price and Michael Kent, Jr. Asfoora, a multiple group winner in Australia, was a good fourth in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock on May 25.

“Asfoora would have needed her run at Haydock on tiring ground but felt very good when I rode her yesterday morning,” Murphy added. “I rode her just over four furlongs on the grass in Newmarket and she is fit and ready to go. Hopefully she can put up a bold show.”

He said of the former Natalia Lupini trainee, “Kitty Rose was trained in Ireland and has been with her Australian connections only a short time. But she’s a big, powerful filly who has good form.

“She is going to carry a lot of weight in the Sandringham, but it often takes a group filly to win the race and she has already proven that she is that--she’s a very good ride to pick up.”

Murphy Reunites With Tamfana In Diane

Prior to the start of Royal Ascot, Chantilly will host the G1 Prix de Diane Longines on Sunday, June 16, and Murphy will ride 1000 Guineas fourth Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) for trainer David Menuisier. Notably unlucky in that Newmarket showpiece, the bay was third one race before the Guineas in the Prix Imprudence.

“I thought that when we would take her over a longer trip she would be better and I thought we would use the Guineas as a stepping stone for the Prix de Diane, but at the same time I did say to the owners we were running at Newmarket to win--it was not just a prep race it was a proper target,” said Menuisier.

“She was travelling alongside Ryan Moore on Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and when I saw Ryan struggling and our filly still travelling I thought if she gets the gap, she surely can’t get beat. Sadly she didn’t get the gap.”

The Frenchman, who operates out of Sussex, added on the jockey switch, “Jamie [Spencer] did absolutely nothing wrong, I said it at the time and I say it again.

“Oisín has always been number one and has come down a few times this year and last year to work the filly and I always made it clear to Jamie’s agent whenever Oisín is available he would ride the horse. It is nothing to do with the ride in the Guineas.”

"I'm not sure what else he could do he does not have wings, he could not fly over the wall of horses in front of him," Menuisier continued. "I think to the day I die I won't have any regrets--first of all about the jockey booking and secondly how he rode the race. We have to move on and Oisin Murphy rides and it has always been the plan."

NOTABLE SPEECH AND INSPIRAL AMONG STAR ENTRIES FOR DAY ONE OF ROYAL ASCOT

The entries are out for the opening day of Royal Ascot | Horsephotos

Following Wednesday's confirmation stage, G1 2,000 Guineas winner Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is one of 11 possible runners in the G1 St James's Palace S. on the opening day of Royal Ascot on Tuesday, June 18.

Unbeaten in four starts for Charlie Appleby, Notable Speech will be tasked with trying to confirm his Newmarket superiority over runner-up Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), who also has Ascot firmly in his sights having resumed winning ways with a determined victory in the G1 Irish 2,000 Guineas at the Curragh last time.

Other notable entries include last year's G1 National S. winner Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--one of four colts still in contention for Aidan O'Brien--and the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak (Fr)), who was supplemented at a cost of £46,000 on Wednesday.

The G1 Queen Anne S. which kicks off the meeting could feature up to 16 runners, including the 2023 runner-up Inspiral (GB) (Frankel (GB)), a six-time winner at the top level and a key ride for Kieran Shoemark in his first season as the retained rider at John and Thady Gosden's Clarehaven Stables.

Speaking to Boylesports, Shoemark said of Inspiral, "She had a fantastic year last year, capping it off at the Breeders' Cup. She returned in the Lockinge and needed the run [when finishing fourth], maybe more so than we anticipated. She has been in great order since."

The G1 Lockinge S. was won by Inspiral's stable-mate Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) and he too remains in contention for the Queen Anne, along with Charyn (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), who finished second and sixth, respectively, in the Newbury feature. Last year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Big Rock is set to be joined on the journey from France by Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}), who was last seen gaining the first Group 1 success of his career in the Dubai Turf at Meydan in March.

The other top-level race on the card is the King Charles III S. in which leading fancies Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), Regional (GB) (Territories {Ire}), Asfoora (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}) and Kerdos (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) have all stood their ground in a 19-strong entry.

Added to the race at a cost of £46,000 was the George Scott-trained Seven Questions (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who won the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket at the beginning of May before finishing third behind Kerdos in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock three weeks later.

"Seven Questions seems to be improving all the time," Scott said of the three-year-old. "We could not be more happy with him and we were delighted with his work this morning. He showed himself to be in great form. He is a horse who seems to be progressing with every start, so we have decided to push the button on the supplementary entry for the King Charles.

"His form ties in quite nicely with a couple of the main players in the race, but at the same time, we've got to be realistic. You're not supplementing a 6-4 shot, he's probably going to be 14-1 or 16-1, but in an open race we feel it's worth taking a chance."

Elsewhere on the card, 31 two-year-olds have been entered in the G2 Coventry S. over six furlongs. They include four for Ballydoyle-- headed by the G3 Marble Hill S. runner-up Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB))--and Cowardofthecounty (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), trained by Aidan O'Brien's son Joseph and an impressive winner on his debut at the Curragh.

"Cowardofthecounty has had a good preparation since his debut," said the trainer. "The plan has always been to come here since then. He made a really good debut and the form of the race has worked out well."

SPACE LEGEND THE LATEST ADDITION TO WATHNAN RACING TEAM

Space Legend | Racingfotos.com

Wathnan Racing's exciting team of horses for Royal Ascot has been bolstered further by the acquisition of the smart three-year-old prospect Space Legend (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) from Hong Kong-based owner Bon Ho.

Blandford Bloodstock's Richard Brown, who has been charged with assembling some enticing prospects for the Emir of Qatar's burgeoning racing operation, confirmed the purchase on Wednesday.

He said, "Space Legend is a lovely, progressive type, typical of the best by his sire. We're really looking forward to seeing how he develops in the months and seasons ahead."

The colt, who was the facile winner of a Leicester maiden in April before being narrowly touched off when second in the Listed Cockeyed Hat S. at Goodwood on May 25, is being aimed at the G2 King Edward VII S. by his trainer William Haggas. Bred by the Tsui family's Sunderland Holdings, Space Legend was bought as a yearling for Bon Ho for 150,000gns at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale by Mark McStay of Avenue Bloodstock.

HOT DARLING SNAPPED UP BY SUMBE FOR RECORD 460K DURING TATTERSALLS ONLINE POP-UP SALE

Nurlan Bizakov's Sumbe bought the two-for-two listed winner Hot Darling (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) for a record 460,000gns during the Tattersalls Online Pop-Up Sale on Wednesday.

The daughter of Boater (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) won her debut at Chantilly in April before taking the Listed Prix des Reves d'Or at Vichy on May 15. She was consigned by trainer Amy Murphy, and is from the same family as 2024 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}). The bay carried an entry in Sunday's G3 Prix du Bois at Chantilly with the sale, but her new connections are opting for either the G2 Queen Mary S. or G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot next week.

Sumbe general manager Tony Fry said, "We are going to go to Royal Ascot with her, either for the Queen Mary or the Albany but most likely the Queen Mary. We now sponsor the [G1] Prix Morny and we would hope that she may get there eventually but, for now, we will take it one race at a time. She has an active pedigree, her sire Too Darn Hot is doing fantastically and looking to the future the plan would be for her to come back for our broodmare band. We have a selection of our own stallions that would suit her and she would be a lovely cross for them.

"Today was very easy. The boss [Nurlan Bizakov] is in Kazakhstan at the moment, so it was very easy for him to bid from there and he was keeping me up to date throughout. When it is the right horse, it is a very good job."

Bred by Rabbah Bloodstock, Ltd, Hot Darling cost 25,000gns during the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 3 when purchased by Rodrigo Goncalves from Baroda Stud, agent. She raced for Daniel Macauliffe, Lemos de Souza and Anoj Don for her first two starts.

Tattersalls Online sales executive Katherine Sheridan said, "We are thrilled with today's result for Hot Darling as the highest priced lot to have sold on the Tattersalls Online platform since its inception. The auction attracted worldwide attention and is a ringing endorsement of the platform and the opportunities it presents for those seeking to trade.

"Our most sincere thanks extends to Amy Murphy Racing and the owners for entrusting us with the sale of this elite filly and to Mr. Bizakov of Sumbe for his support of the sale today. We look forward to following Hot Darling as she aims for the Royal Meeting next week and wish all connections the very best of luck for the future."

HAROLD KIRK AND WILLIE MULLINS SIGN FOR TOP LOT AT GOFFS ARKLE SALE PART 1

Goffs

Liss House had cause to celebrate again at the conclusion of the second and final session of the Goffs Arkle Sale Part 1 on Wednesday, having sold a gelding by Tunis (Pol) to Harold Kirk and Willie Mullins for €210,000. That followed the consignor's other significant result during Tuesday's opening session when Ian Ferguson purchased their gelding by No Risk At All (Fr) for €160,000.

Already named Leader Des Bordes (Fr) (lot 317), the Tunis gelding is a half-brother to the top-class French chasers Utopie Des Bordes (Fr) (Antarctique {Ire}) and Victoire Des Bordes (Fr) (Antarctique {Ire}), plus Kopek Des Bordes (Fr) (No Risk At All {Fr}), an impressive bumper winner for Mullins during the latest season.

Lot 360, Lakefield Farm's filly by No Risk At All (Fr) out of the G3 Prix Exbury heroine Pearl Sky (Fr) (Kahyasi {Ire}), was another highlight of Wednesday's session when selling to Aiden and Olly Murphy for €125,000, while lot 274 also commanded a six-figure sum when selling to Grandville Racing for €110,000. A gelding by Goliath Du Berlais (Fr), he was consigned by Brown Island Stables and is fittingly set to join Martin Brassil, trainer of the multiple Grade 1 winner Fastorslow (Fr) (Saint Des Saints {Fr})--a half-brother to this horse's dam.

From a marginally smaller catalogue than in 2023 the clearance rate dropped by 9% to 80%, with 340 lots being sold over the course of the two sessions for a total of €16,529,000 (-19%) at an average of €48,615 (-7%) and a median of €42,000 (-12.5%).

Reflecting on the sale, Henry Beeby, Goffs chief executive, said, "The Arkle Sale is truly the first-choice sale for so many of the leading NH Store vendors and consignors these days and we were proud to assemble a catalogue that accounts for the lion's share of the best on offer once again this year.

"It is no secret that there was a feeling of trepidation as the sale approached as it has been a tough year in several ways, not least with the weather that played such havoc with the point to point season, but the overriding vibe from the two days was a sale of vibrancy and strength with the familiar refrain that it is 'hard to buy the good ones' regularly heard.

"While the statistics are behind last year, they have only been bettered by the last two amazing renewals of the sale and we must put the trade into the context of the world today which is a much different place to 12 months ago so therefore derive a level of satisfaction from the results."

The Goffs Arkle Sale Part 2 begins at 10am on Thursday. The catalogue can be viewed here.

RACING TO SCHOOL VISITS THE ROYAL STUDS

A total of 55 five- and six-year students from Brisley CofE Primary Academy and Rudham CofE Primary Academy both visited the Royal Studs last week, the charity Racing to School announced on Wednesday.

The visit included a lecture by the Royal Studs' stud manager David Somers and his team covering the history of the stud, the thoroughbred breeding season, and the daily routines to provide the best possible care for each horse. A visit with the Royal Studs' veterinarian Camilla Scott, the farrier Dermot Barry and many of the equine residents also took place. Students were also able to visit the statue of G1 Gold Cup winner Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) on the Sandringham Estate.

John Blake, chief executive of Racing to School said, "We are extremely grateful to the management and team at the prestigious Royal Studs for once again welcoming some very lucky beneficiaries to see the workings of such an historic and special place. We know that this experience will stay with them for a long time and hopefully spark an interest in the fascinating world of breeding and in racing itself."

HRI ISSUES STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO RTE INVESTIGATES DOCUMENTARY

Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) has released a statement following the broadcasting of an RTE Investigates documentary, “Horses: Making a Killing”, focusing on what happens to Irish racehorses upon their retirement.

The HRI’s statement read: “The Board, management and staff of Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) are deeply shocked and appalled by the content of the RTE Investigates documentary broadcast on RTE 1 tonight.

“The criminal behaviour depicted in the RTE documentary is disgusting and is not the experience of the vast majority of the 30,000 people who make their livelihood in the horse racing and breeding industry in Ireland.

“HRI has zero tolerance for mistreatment of horses in any circumstance and criminal and regulatory sanction must be imposed on anyone found to have behaved in an illegal way towards horses.

“Equine safety and care is HRI’s top priority, and this year HRI will invest €16.1 million in welfare and integrity services. The thoroughbred horse is enshrined in Irish and EU law. Significant legal and regulatory checks and balances are in place for thoroughbred horses from birth through their racing career and life cycle.

“HRI will review the issues raised in the RTE documentary and will actively support any Department of Agriculture or Garda investigation, and urge anyone with information about mistreatment of horses to report it to An Garda Siochana.”

SKY SAFARI (GB) (f, 3, Zoustar {Aus}--Moonlight Sonata {GB}, by Galileo {Ire}), sent off at 28-1, broke slowly but quickly tagged onto the group racing towards the stand's rail. Making steady headway to get to the front inside the final furlong, the homebred stayed on to prevail by a short head from Santa Croce (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). The dam, a half-sister to the four-times group winner and triple group 1-placed Western Hymn (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}), is also connected to the multiple group and graded-stakes scorer and multiple group and grade I-placed Fantasia (GB) by Galileo and High Chaparral's sire Sadler's Wells.

ZILFEE (GB) (f, 3, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Concentric {GB} {SW & GSP-Fr, $117,776}, by Sadler's Wells) recovered from an early stumble to race fourth passing the judge first time and improved one spot turning onto the backstraight in this debut. Shaken up to reduce arrears off the home turn, the 7-1 chance was ridden to gain a narrow edge approaching the final furlong and kept on in resolute fashion to deny Incensed (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) by a short-head after a to-and-fro tussle. Zilfee is the 11th of 14 foals and eighth scorer from as many runners produced by stakes-winning G3 Prix de Flore runner-up Concentric (GB) (Sadler's Wells). The March-foaled homebred bay is a full-sister to Listed Steventon S. runner-up Derab (GB) and a half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), G2 Prix de Pomone and G3 Prix Allez France third Contribution (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and G3 Musidora S. second Entitle (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Looking held a furlong out despite having made sound progress, the homebred stuck to her task to hunt down the tiring long-time leader Mystical Elegance (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) close home and score by a short head. The winner is the second foal out of the dam, who also scored on the all-weather and whose first is the stable's winning 3-year-old filly Power Of Destiny (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). esteem in which Zoustar is held and it's great that the market's view of the stallion matches our thoughts on how good he is and how valuable he is."

Bangaloe Stud's Julia Ritchie said the A$1.3m invested in the stallion share for Zoustar was 'worth every penny.'

She explained, "I was always prepared to go close to that price and in the end he's worth it, every penny of it. That said, that was my absolute upper limit, I didn't really have another bid in me but I think it's worthwhile to be able to become involved in a superstar stallion like Zoustar.

"I've been supporting Zoustar previously as a breeder and to now be able to have a share in a young stallion who is kicking it out of the park, as a breeder that's what you like to do, to support these next generation of great stallions."

$400,000 TIZ THE LAW FILLY LEADS THE WAY AT OBS JUNE OPENER

Hip 187, the session topper by Tiz the Law | Judit Seipert

by Jessica Martini

OCALA, FL - The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's June Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training opened with a steady session and figures largely in line with the auction's opening session in 2023.

"It was a solid opening session with results on par with last year," said OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski. "We have two more days to go and there are lots of good horses left."

From a catalogue of 350 juveniles, 259 horses were offered Wednesday with 173 selling for a gross of $6,825,500. The session average was $39,454 and the median was $21,000.

During last year's opening session, 192 horses grossed $7,110,400 for an average of $37,033 and a median of $20,000.

With 86 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 33.2% Wednesday. It was 27.8% a year ago.

A filly by Tiz the Law brought the top price of Wednesday's session, selling for $400,000 to Bill Childs. The juvenile was consigned by Tom McCrocklin, who topped the OBS Spring sale two months ago with another first-crop daughter of the GI Belmont S. victor who sold for $1.9 million to Michael Lund Petersen.

The session topper was one of six to top the $200,000 mark Wednesday. There were three—including the $450,000 session topper—to hit that mark during last year's opening session. Cont.

Q AND A WITH DAVID INGORDO: HISA HORSEMEN'S ADVISORY GROUP by Sue Finley

Monday, HISA announced four new members to its Horsemen's Advisory Group, replacing six outgoing members. The advisory group was formed in 2022 to provide feedback to HISA from the boots on the ground in the racing industry. It is comprised of 18 members, representing a variety of viewpoints across the industry. We sat down with outgoing member David Ingordo to talk about how the group operates and what the experience was like.

SF: Can you explain how members are chosen for this group? Is there a committee who picks them? Do they volunteer?

DI: There is a period during which you can send in a resume to fill a position on the advisory board on a volunteer basis, and there were a lot of resumes submitted. Cont. p6

Asked if he was satisfied by the number of buyers on the grounds, Wojciechowski said, “You always want to see more activity on the grounds. But we see a lot of online activity—that seems to be a thing of the future. And I think maybe people don’t come onto the grounds as early as they used to because of the amount of data that we are giving them—under-tack previews, walking videos, pictures. A lot of people are becoming very comfortable using that as a good, at least, first start.”

The OBS June sale continues through Friday with sessions beginning each day at 10 a.m.

Childs Strikes for Tiz the Law Filly

Bill Childs, who has been an active buyer all spring, had one more filly to add to his stable before transitioning from the sales ring to the racetrack, purchasing a daughter of Tiz the Law (hip 187) for $400,000 Wednesday at OBS. The juvenile, consigned by Tom McCrocklin, was making her second trip through the ring this spring after RNA'ing for $190,000 at the OBS April sale.

“We loved her in the last sale,” Childs said. “She worked fast then, she worked fast this time. It’s a good family. She just fits the mold of what we are trying to find.”

The dark bay filly worked a quarter-mile in a bullet :20 2/5 during last week’s under-tack preview for the auction. Out of Southern Silence (Dixie Union), she is a half-sister to stakes winners Liberate (Gemologist) and Esplanade (Daredevil) and was purchased by Mustang Farms for $80,000 at last year’s Keeneland September sale.

McCrocklin has had success with fillies from Tiz the Law’s first crop. The consignor, who said he purchased hip 187 after she RNA’d in April, sold the $1.9-million sale topper by the GI Belmont S. winner at that auction.

Childs said the filly was the last juvenile on his to-do list at the sale. Cont.

“I am done. I have had enough,” he said with a laugh. “We have more fillies than we planned on this year, but we like the ones we have.”

Childs will be heading west to watch his Midland Money (Shancelot), a $650,000 purchase at the OBS March sale, debut at Santa Anita with trainer Bob Baffert.

“We like him,” Childs said of the colt. “Bob has a Win Win Win filly [Zedan Racing’s $1.8-million Noonie] who starts tomorrow. And then he has a Tiz the Law filly [$1.9-million OBS April topper] that he likes real well. We kind of like them.”

Also at OBS this spring, Childs purchased a filly by McKinzie (hip 1143) for $600,000 at the Spring sale and a colt by that Gainesway stallion (hip 89) for $750,000 at the March sale.

The resumes represent people from all over the spectrum--from a casual fan to multiple trainers of the level of Todd Pletcher. Once the resumes have been received, senior HISA management reviews those submissions and makes the selections on who ultimately serves on the Advisory Board. You won't be asked to be on the committee; you need to apply. If you are reading this and this is something that you are interested in, I encourage you to apply.

SF: Once people submit their resumes, I assume there's a selection process on the part of HISA? And I see that six people are leaving, and four are coming on. I'm assuming that it was determined that 18 was the right number.

DI: Correct, HISA senior management chooses from the pool of applicants. Quite honestly, it was a big board. There are people on it who are listeners and there are people who are doers. I think it just got to be a little bit cumbersome with the numbers. My understanding was that the idea was to tighten it up so as to not have too many cooks in the kitchen. Cont.

SF: Tell me what your experience was like being on the board. What would be a typical situation that arose and how did it operate? Do you have a vote on policy with HISA or HIWU?

DI: First, we don't have a vote with either the safety committee or the ADMC. We are a collection of participants in the industry and advocates for horses and racing. We had regularly scheduled calls, usually monthly, and Lisa (Lazarus) would set an agenda. HISA and HIWU would participate, and we would give feedback. That was one scenario. The other scenario is that we address issues when there are, I'll call them industry emergencies. Louisiana being one of them recently. Lisa is a very open-minded person always seeking to understand industry issues, and she would ask questions about these issues to make informed policy recommendations.

SF: Can you give me an example of one issue that was resolved or changed because of input from the committee?

DI: There were several. One big change was delaying any provisional suspension of a trainer until a B sample came back in the case of a banned substance. In the beginning, you got a bad test for a banned substance, and you were right away provisionally suspended. Now that's been stopped until the B sample comes back. I thought that was a good change. Recently, we have been pushing for changes to substances like Metformin. It is important to understand that HISA and HIWU are two separate entities. Lisa will take our suggestions and go to work with HIWU. For example, there are now new rules on the treatment for human drugs of abuse like meth and cocaine. The Horsemen's Advisory Group recommendations have helped to reduce the sanctions that a trainer could receive. These are just a few changes that came from the HAG. There are more than that, but it gives you an idea that this is not a group just for show.

SF: If one of the members saw something that you thought was wrong, would they call for a meeting or ask for an emergency meeting?

DI: Definitely. If we saw something that we didn't like, we were able to bring it up. The very active members of the committee are advocating daily for change. I think it's important to know that people really work on this advisory group. A number of us are spending two to three to four hours a day working on issues that come up, and they come up daily. Anyone on the advisory board could bring something to Lisa and I found her to be very responsive. That was my experience and I believe others there felt that way as well.

Trust me, there are plenty of us that volunteered our opinions outside of the meetings. There are several of us that are vocal. Quite frankly, I'm surprised they allowed me to be on as long as I was! But kidding aside, this is not a group made up of yes men and women. It's made up of horse people who have strong opinions and personalities, who are educated and experienced that are willing to speak up.

SF: You said people need to understand the differences between HISA and HIWU. Explain the difference to me in simple terms.

DI: HISA is a private, non-governmental agency formed in response to the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act. They run the racing safety program and the Anti-Doping and Medication Control Program. HIWU is a division of Drug Free Sport International, a private company. It is not a part of HISA, but an independent agency that has been contracted to enforce HISA's ADMC rules. I think people also have to understand that Lisa Lazarus did not make these rules. She came in and inherited them as they were written up before she came into HISA. As a group, we had a lot of contentious conversations. Some of these rules were maybe good in theory and not as good in practice, and Lisa's very quick to help us fix those through the right channels. She can't snap her fingers magically and make something change. But I think what I've been most proud of, is the speed at which some of these issues are able to be changed, which in my lifetime never happened before, and that is a direct result of Lisa and her team at HISA. Cont.

SF: Was this advisory committee in place from day one?

DI: Lisa developed the advisory committee, and it was forward-looking on her part. I am presuming if they were creating HISA today, had they had asked some of these questions to a Horsemen's Advisory Group that we're dealing with now, we might have been able to avoid some of what we are working through today.

SF: What else has come out of being on the advisory committee?

DI: A lot of us on this advisory committee have become de facto ombudsman to trainers and owners when they encounter a problem. We all signed an NDA. So if someone calls me for help or advice, I can speak to them pretty frankly and clearly, and I have my conversation with that person on a confidential level. The job is to help people and solve problems. I think that's important to really focus on. Anybody in the industry who has questions, problems or concerns, call someone you feel comfortable talking to in this group.

SF: What are some of the things you've learned about the process of adjudicating a positive test?

DI: On the legal side of this, what I've learned is that the old way of approaching a problem with all the fire and brimstone that attorneys have historically chosen to do is really not the right way to advocate for yourself or your clients any more. I've dealt directly with the attorneys for HISA and HIWU over medication violations for friends and clients. I can tell you they're not out to get you. It's just not that way.

I'm not a lawyer, but I have learned through experience, that attorneys should take another look at the theatrics that might have worked in the past and realize there is a lot more understanding there if you sit down and talk to HISA and HIWU. This isn't Darth Vader and the Galactic Empire. These are good logical people that are looking to help you within the rules, but you've got to help yourself, too.

SF: Do you think more people in the industry are starting to feel that way?

DI: I spoke to somebody here at Keeneland Tuesday morning who said they were beginning to warm up to it. Let's face it: we haven't had any real, meaningful change in this area of racing in our lifetime. I'm 48. I went to work when I was 14. We've never had a governing body like this. We have a real industry, we have a real sport. This is the best opportunity we have had to do something uniformly nationwide as a sport.

SF: Would you recommend to people they serve on this committee?

DI: My informed opinion is that HISA is here to stay and it is one of the most important organizations in racing today. We need to make HISA work and serving on this committee gives those of us who love the sport a chance to help HISA be the best overseer it can be. You're going to get out of it what you put into it and what you put into it can help shape our sport for the future.

For me, I treated this like this is my civic duty to the industry. The game has been great to me. From my shoes to my haircut, it's paid for everything my entire life. From my family, my parents, to now with myself and (wife) Cherie (DeVaux), and I love this sport. We are passionate about racing. This isn't a resume builder; this is to try to support the industry and change the policies that we don't feel are correct and do something substantial for the sport of horseracing.

YEAR-OVER RACING FATALITIES DOWN BY OVER A THIRD ACCORDING TO HISA'S Q1 REPORT

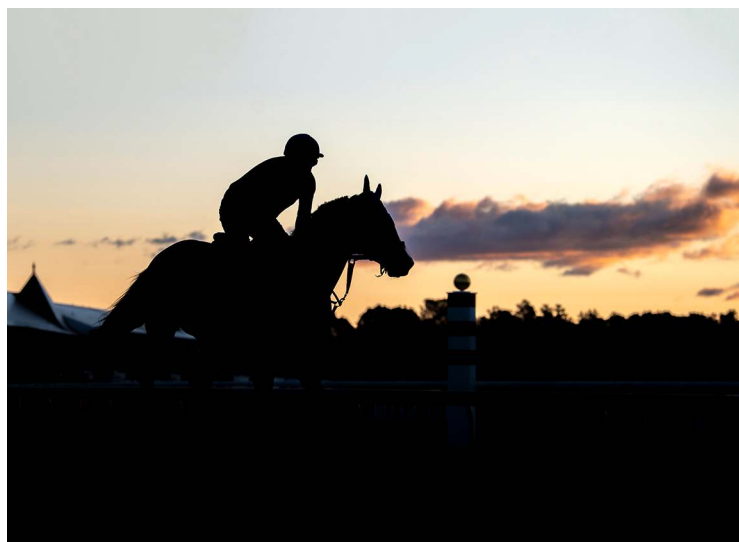

On the heels of a clean Triple Crown season, the first quarter of 2024 (Jan. 1-Mar. 31) witnessed an approximate 38% decrease in racing-related fatalities year-over-year, according to a new Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) metrics report, which the organization released on Wednesday.

The reduction by over a third took place at racetracks operating under HISA's rules. During this year's first quarter, tracks reported 0.84 racing-related equine fatalities per 1,000 starts, compared to 1.35 racing-related equine fatalities per 1,000 starts in the first quarter of 2023. Excluding Rillito Park in Arizona, which is closed for racing this year, the same tracks conducted racing during the first quarters of both 2023 and 2024.

"Reducing equine fatalities is the central focus of HISA's work," said HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus. "While even one fatality is too many, we are pleased to see the progress we are making. I am incredibly proud of HISA's hard work and dedication in cooperation with our industry partners to prioritize horse welfare above all else. We continue to actively seek feedback from the horse racing community on improving our rules and making Thoroughbred racing safer and fairer, and the achievement of a Triple Crown with no equine fatalities is a testament to our collective efforts. The industry can and should celebrate its commitment to evolve and prioritize the safety and welfare of its athletes--human and equine--above all else."

This is the first time in U.S. Thoroughbred racing history that fatality metrics have been published on a quarterly basis--a reporting cadence that HISA will maintain going forward, in recognition of the seasonal variabilities in racing conditions and numbers of equine fatalities, as well as the importance of ongoing transparency regarding safety concerns. Highlights of HISA's Quarterly Metrics Report include:

- Equine Fatalities: Racetracks operating under HISA's rules that were open for racing reported 0.84 racing-related equine fatalities per 1,000 starts during the first quarter of 2024 as compared to 1.35 racing-related equine fatalities per 1,000 starts during the first quarter of 2023, a decrease of approximately 38% year over year. The report also sets forth the racing-related fatalities by individual racetrack.
- Beginning with HISA's 2024 Annual Metrics Report, to be published during the first quarter of 2025, HISA will provide training-related fatalities for the full year and each quarter of 2024 on an aggregate and per-track basis.

Morning workouts | Sarah Andrew

- Racetrack Accreditation: As of Mar. 31, HISA has completed accreditation visits at 24 tracks, three of which occurred during the first quarter of this year: Turfway Park in Kentucky, Laurel Park in Maryland and Sunland Park in New Mexico.
- Racing Participant Registration: As of Mar. 31, approximately 33,000 Covered Persons, 58,000 Covered Horses and 1,000 veterinarians were registered with HISA.
- Use of Riding Crop Violations: During the first quarter of 2024, HISA reported 4.74 crop rule violations per 1,000 starts, compared to 4.46 crop rule violations per 1,000 starts in the first quarter of 2023.
- Veterinary Treatment Records: On average, HISA received approximately 5,900 veterinary treatment records each day during the first quarter of 2024, and, as of Mar. 31, approximately 2.5 million veterinary treatment records had been uploaded to the HISA Portal since the inception of the Racetrack Safety Program on July 1, 2022.

The Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit will also release a separate quarterly report detailing metrics from the Anti-Doping and Medication Control Program.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A HAPPENING IN SARATOGA: "AS GOOD AS IT GETS IN SPORTS" by Earle I. Mack

Saratoga Race Course, often referred to as the "Graveyard of Favorites," has always held a special place in the hearts of racing enthusiasts. This historic venue, which has witnessed countless moments of glory and heartbreak, added another illustrious chapter to its storied legacy with the hosting of the 2024 Belmont S. As someone who has been attending races at Saratoga since 1962 and has had the privilege of witnessing numerous Triple Crown events, Breeders' Cup races, and other remarkable moments in horse racing history, I can unequivocally say that the atmosphere during this year's Belmont S. was unparalleled.

The decision to move the Belmont S. to Saratoga for 2024, 2025, and perhaps 2026, necessitated by the renovation of Belmont Park, was initially met with both excitement and skepticism. There were those that thought few people would take the trip. Au contraire, the outcome exceeded all expectations, transforming a logistical challenge into a resounding success. Wow! Over 120,000 fans flocked to the Spa over four days, setting a record for attendance and generating an all-sources handle of $125,748,941--a testament to the enduring allure of horse racing and the impeccable planning by the New York Racing Association (NYRA). Kudos to Marc Holliday, David O'Rourke and the outstanding staff of NYRA. The racing community and the people of Saratoga salute you.

From the moment the gates opened, there was a palpable sense of excitement and anticipation in the air. The crowd's enthusiasm was infectious, creating an atmosphere that was both joyful and celebratory. In all my years at Saratoga, I've never seen such camaraderie and happiness of the people attending. It was a scene that evoked what the artist Allan Kaprow famously termed "a happening," an ephemeral experience that cannot be replicated, it simply happens. The vibrant energy, the cheers of the spectators, and the collective thrill of witnessing history in the making made for an unforgettable experience. It was clear that the sport of kings had found a new jewel in its crown.

Earle Mack | Horsephotos

One of the most remarkable aspects of this year's Belmont S. was the perfect harmony between tradition and innovation. Saratoga, with its 154 years of rich history, provided the ideal backdrop for this prestigious event. The track was in impeccable condition, ensuring fast and fair races, and the newly showcased facilities offered modern amenities while preserving the historic charm that makes Saratoga so unique. As my dear friend Chris Meigher, CEO of Meigher Communications, aptly noted, "It was near-perfectly staged and meticulously managed, and NYRA deserves to be beaming as their conviction and diligence paid off beyond all expectations!"

Kudos are also in order to the City of Saratoga Springs and Mayor John Safford for being amazing hosts and putting on an outstanding fan festival. With some estimating a $50-$100 million economic impact, the event was a boon for the local economy as the restaurants, hotels, and all the venues rolled out their best. The entire city embraced the event with open arms, showcasing the true spirit of hospitality and making every attendee feel welcome.

As a longtime advocate for Thoroughbred racing, I was particularly pleased to see the level of engagement and enthusiasm from the fans. Horse racing has faced its share of challenges in recent years, but the 2024 Belmont S. at Saratoga demonstrated the sport's enduring appeal. The fans, both old and new, were deeply invested in the races, cheering passionately for their favorites and celebrating each moment of triumph. This event was a powerful reminder of why we love this sport--the thrill of the race, the beauty of the horses, and the shared joy of the crowd.

The success of the Belmont S. was also a testament to the importance of leadership and vision in the racing industry. Congratulations to the connections of Dornoch (Good Magic)--owned by former MLB star and World Series champion Jayson Werth and West Paces Racing, trained by Danny Gargan, and ridden by Luis Saez--for their remarkable victory with a 17-1 longshot. Werth captured the essence of the sport, urging Dornoch to victory in the stretch run and literally jumping for joy at the finish. Their win added a captivating storyline to the event, highlighting the unpredictable and exhilarating nature of horse racing at its best.

Asked about what winning the Belmont means, Werth put it best when he said, "I would put it right up there with winning at the biggest stage. Horse racing is the most underrated sport in the world, bar none. It's the biggest game; you've got the Derby, the Preakness, the Belmont. We just won the Belmont. This is as good as it gets in horse racing, this is as good as it gets in sports."

Jayson Werth hugs Luis Saez | Sarah Andrew

Looking ahead, the success of the 2024 Belmont S. at Saratoga sets a high bar for future events. It reaffirms Saratoga's status as one of the premier racing venues in the world and showcases the potential for innovative approaches in the sport. It is clear that the new Belmont and Saratoga are the epicenter of a bright future of racing in New York and our nation. As we prepare for the 2025 Belmont S. and the upcoming summer meet, I am filled with optimism and excitement for what lies ahead.

In conclusion, the 2024 Belmont S. at Saratoga was more than just a race; it was a celebration of horse racing's rich heritage and a glimpse into its promising future. It was a momentous occasion--by all means--that brought together the best of tradition and modernity, leaving an indelible mark on everyone who attended. I am immensely proud to have been a part of this historic event and look forward to many more memorable moments at the Spa.

Here's to the continued success of Saratoga, the new Belmont, and the enduring legacy of horse racing.

Cheers to all!

DANNY GARGAN JOINS TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST

Dornoch (Good Magic) had not been running particularly well. He was a badly beaten fourth in the GI Blue Grass S. and followed that up with a 10th-place showing in the GI Kentucky Derby. But trainer Danny Gargan never gave up on his colt, and was brimming with confidence in the days leading up to the GI Belmont S., contested this year at Saratoga. He was proven right as the bay colt won the final leg of the Triple Crown by a half-length at odds of 17-1.

"We were unfortunate in the Derby and got stuck in behind a wall and just kept checking the whole way around," Gargan said. "At one point we had two horses beat and that's not our running style. I just drew a line through it. [Jockey] Luis [Saez], got off of him that day and said, 'We're going to win the Belmont, Danny. I never got to let him run.' So if he was only beaten 15 lengths when he never got a chance to run and, if this time, he could break and get his position I knew he'd be really tough. And he loves this track."

Gargan discussed his Belmont triumph on this week's TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland. He was the Green Group Guest of the Week.

Gargan said the key this time was that they regrouped and decided to once again let the little brother of Mage use his early speed, which can be a potent weapon.

"He's not the world's fastest out of the gate," Gargan said. "Then he broke as good as he did and Luis had so much horse. The first hundred yards, he just drug him right there and down the backside. I could see he had a lot of horse. If you watch it up close, he's just loaded with horse all the way around there. We were just blessed that he showed up and ran the race we always knew he had in him."

When it comes to comparing Dornoch to Mage, Gargan said they are two very different horses. Cont.

Play Video

"They're totally opposites," said Gargan, who also won Sunday's GIII Matt Winn S. at Churchill with Society Man (Good Magic). "I'd say Mag is more like Good Magic. He's a smaller, stocky chestnut like Society Man. A lot of the Good Magics look like that. They're not really big, robust bay horses. They're medium-sized chestnuts, most of them. They all look alike, but Dornoch is the spitting image of his dam, Puca. In the head and the shoulder, he looks so much like the mare. It's unbelievable."

In our breeding spotlight section we took a look at the WinStar stallion Global Campaign.

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders' Association, 1/ST Racing, West Point Thoroughbreds, WinStar and XBTV.com, the team of Zoe Cadman, Randy Moss and Bill Finley dissected the Belmont Stakes and the other major races run over the weekend in Saratoga. As well as Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) ran in winning the GI Acorn S., Moss wondered aloud if trainer Kenny McPeck regretted not running her in the Derby.

There was also a discussion of the final day of racing at Golden Gate Fields. Cadman was there and gave her observations on what was a bittersweet afternoon.

This would not be a complete podcast without commenting on the drug regulations fiasco that went on all week in Louisiana. Fortunately, the Louisiana Racing Commission was backed into a corner by HISA and Churchill Downs and had to scrap rules that would have been, by far, the most lenient drug regulations in the sport.

MIDNIGHT RISING (g, 4, Mendelssohn--Jet Black Magic {GSW, $399,430}, by Hold Me Back) launched the season with a pair of wins at Oaklawn, including the most recent facing optional claiming company Mar. 2. Favored while stepping up for the GIII Oaklawn Mile Mar. 30, the dark bay tired to fifth.

Given a 2-1 chance here, the gelding pressed favored Salute the Stars (Candy Ride {Arg}) through a half-mile in :47.58, overtook that rival following 3/4 of a mile in 1:11.41 and despite the stout-closing effort of Classic Catch (Classic Empire), he was able to hold on to win by a nose. The favorite tired to fourth. The winner's dam, Jet Black Magic, produced a filly by McKinzie in 2022 followed by a Connect colt last year. She was bred back to Maclean's Music. Sales history: $180,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP; $100,000 2yo '22 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 10-4-0-2, $347,164. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BELLE OF RIGHTS (f, 3, Constitution--Ayers Rock, by More Than Ready) dead-heated for the win at Tampa in February before returning with a close-up second last time over this course and trip May 22. Sent off at 3-1 this time, she settled in a stalking fifth along the inside through initial fractions of :23.30 and :47.75. Weaving between rivals turning from home, she burst to the front midstretch and drew off to score by 1 3/4 lengths over favored Source (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Belle of Rights is out of Ayers Rock, a full-sister to dual Grade I winner Verrazano, who was also named Highweight older horse on Irish Free Hcp. from 7 - 9.5 furlongs in 2014. Granddam Enchanted Rock, who is also responsible for GSW El Padrino (Pulpit), brought $2 million--in foal to More Than Ready--at the Keeneland November Sale in 2017. Third dam, GISW Chic Shirine (Mr. Prospector), produced GSWs Waldoboro (Lyphard) and Tara Roma (Lyphard) in addition to accomplished producers Flying Passage (A.P. Indy), dam of MGSWs Hungry Island (More Than Ready) and Soaring Empire (Empire Maker), and Chic Corine (Nureyev), dam of GISW Somali Lemonade (Lemon Drop Kid). Ayers Rock dropped a full-brother to the winner in 2023 and follow up with a Tapit filly this term. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $45,440. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Emory A. Hamilton (KY); T-Claude R. McGaughey III.
