

OSCAR PERFORMANCE'S TRIKARI TAKES HOME THE STATUE IN BELMONT DERBY

Trikari | Susie Raisher

by Alan Carasso

In a sit-sprint race that turned out to be a tactical affair, Trikari (Oscar Performance), the lesser-preferred half of an uncoupled, Amerman Racing-owned entry with 8-5 second choice Endlessly (Oscar Performance), sat handy to a sluggish pace, engaged long-time leader White Palomino (Kitten's Joy) at the furlong grounds and just held off a late re-rally from the pace-advantaged front-runner to take Saturday's G1 Belmont Derby Invitational Stakes at Aqueduct.

Two-back winner of the May 4 GII American Turf Stakes--at cricket-score odds--and exiting a game third in the GIII Penn Mile Stakes 27 days later, Trikari jumped straight into the bridle for John Velazquez and took up a stalking role from second, as White Palomino enjoyed a very soft time of things on top through splits of :25 flat and :50.24. Narrowly favored Legend of Time (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) enjoyed the run of the race from third beneath William Buick and was flanked all the way by Royal Majesty (GB) (Frankel {GB}), while Endlessly was ridden cold from the tail.

PART OF HISA RULED UNCONSTITUTIONAL IN FIFTH CIRCUIT DECISION by T. D. Thornton

A judgment Friday by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit declared that part of the Horseracing and Safety Integrity Act (HISA) is unconstitutional.

Even though the three-judge panel agreed with "nearly all" of a lower court's ruling that other contested aspects of HISA's constitutionality were fixed by a Congressional amendment to the law in 2022, the panel's one unconstitutional finding has to do with the HISA Authority's broad powers to investigate and operate.

The gravity of that unconstitutionality opinion could be enough to send the case to the U.S. Supreme Court to clear up what are now conflicting opinions between the Fifth Circuit's ruling July 5 and one that the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals issued in 2023.

The NHBPA, claiming victory via press release on Friday evening, referred to the Fifth Circuit's unconstitutionality opinion as a "fatal problem" for HISA. Cont. p12

Susie Raisher

With positions unchanged down the back of the track, White Palomino was clicked up by Flavien Prat leaving the three-eighths pole and tried to win the race right then and there. The Chad Brown runner offered up a nice kick and held gamely into the final eighth of a mile, but was headed and passed by Trikari.

The latter had a good half-length on White Palomino passing the sixteenth pole and was forced to survive a late dive for the victory.

Legend of Time was hemmed in at a critical stage by Royal Majesty and kicked on gamely, but too late. Endlessly had no rally when push came to shove in a race not run to suit and finished last of the five.

Somewhat counter-intuitively, winning trainer Graham Motion said the easy fractions did not necessarily play into the hands of Trikari.

“I think it would help him if they went on a little bit,” said the trainer, saddling his first Grade I winner since Speaking Scout (Mr Speaker) won the Hollywood Derby in 2022. “At one point, right in front of us here, I thought Johnny [Velazquez] might choose to go on, but he made the right call, forcing Flavien to go on. That is what he wanted to do, settle off the pace.”

Motion indicated that Trikari would be strongly considered for the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational Aug. 3.

Of the beaten favorite, Buick said: “He had a good trip, it just never opened up for him. He still finished up full of horse, which was unfortunate. He ran really well and if he had gotten out sooner, it might have been a bit different. I was where I was, and that was it.” Cont. p4

Winner of the 2017 Belmont Derby for the Amermans and trainer Brian Lynch, Oscar Performance was being represented by his first winner at the elite level on Saturday.

On behalf of Augustin Stables, Graham Motion trained Trihari's dam to four wins and earnings of better than $267,000, including the GIII Herecomesthebride Stakes at Gulfstream Park. A half-sister to GSWs Lift Up (Ghostzapper) and Varenka (Ghostzapper), SW & MGSP Appealing Cat (Successful Appeal) and a full to SW Cat's Holiday, Dynamic Holiday was acquired by Michael Slezak for $14,000 carrying the foal that would become Trihari at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton February Sale. She is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly Miavana (Jimmy Creed) and a yearling colt by Beau Liam, and changed hands for $3,500 in foal to Mind Control during the Fasig-Tipton Digital October Sale last fall.

CINDERELLA'S DREAM STRETCHES CLEAR IN FASIG-TIPTON BELMONT OAKS by Alan Carasso

Cinderella's Dream | Walter Wlodarczyk

Cinderella's Dream (GB) (Shamardal), who lost her undefeated record when beaten just over four lengths into seventh in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 5, atoned for that defeat in no uncertain terms, flashing home powerfully through the final furlong to take out Saturday's GI Fasig-Tipton Belmont Oaks Invitational Stakes at Aqueduct.

With fellow once-beaten She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) taking the lion's share of the pari-mutuel activity at odds of 4-5, Cinderella's Dream was a relatively generous 7-2 at the off and was content to take back to sit second-last into the first turn. Segesta (Ghostzapper), recent winner of the local prep in the GII Wonder Again Stakes, showed the way from the favorite, who punched the breeze from third before rolling forward to sit closest to the pacesetter turning up the backstretch.

Cinderella's Dream was guided over to the inside behind a half-mile split in :48.96, and the speed remained steady at best as they approached the end of the backstretch. The homebred was felt for three furlongs from home and was maneuvered off the inside nearing the quarter pole, appearing full of run if the gaps came. Steered some five or six wide into the lane by William Buick, Cinderella's Dream was shifted off the heels of GIII Edgewood Stakes winner Dynamic Pricing (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) in upper stretch, and, with nothing but green grass in front of her, motored home to score an ultimately cozy victory. Segesta held for second ahead of She Feels Pretty, who was given every conceivable chance by John Velazquez, but was simply not good enough on the afternoon.

"It was the plan to get her to relax early and to come with a run, but I probably ended up farther back than I really wanted to," said Buick. "She was posted a little wide in eight, and I just didn't want to cover ground, but look, she picked up really well.

“From the quarter-pole, I always felt I was going to get there. She showed when she ran in Dubai in the winter that she has a real good kick, but I was a little bit impressed with her there because I thought the Juddmonte filly who made the run, she got it her own way in front, she wasn't going very fast and Johnny [Velazquez, aboard She Feels Pretty] sat in the best position in the race. So my filly had to pick up well to pick those two fillies off.”

Victorious in modest events at Lingfield on debut last May and at Thirsk in September, Cinderella's Dream was part of the Charlie Appleby team in Dubai over the winter. Having made a winning reappearance in the Feb. 2 Jumeirah Fillies Classic over 1400 meters, the next logical spot was the Jumeirah 1000 Guineas going the metric mile Mar. 2.

Walter Włodarczyk

Settled midfield on that occasion, Cinderella's Dream suddenly surged forward while drifting out, and passing the 700 meters, camera shots confirmed that Buick's saddle had slipped and he had also lost his irons. It was all the same to the filly, as she continued to find and put some 5 1/2 lengths on her rivals in an effort that needed to be seen to be believed (video). A 12-1 chance in the Guineas, Cinderella's Dream traveled nicely on the far side for Mickael Barzalona, but could not quite go with the winners, finishing 4 1/4 lengths in back of last-to-first upsetter Elmalka (GB) (Kingman {GB}). The Guineas form was flattered when runner-up Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) returned to defeat Elmalka into fourth in the G1 Coronation Stakes at Royal Ascot June 21.

“She ran a creditable race in the [1000] Guineas really, on ground that probably might not have suited her either,” said Appleby. “Her training has gone well and she’s been based in Saratoga. She came in yesterday and the team were very happy with her preparation going into it.

“The plan was always to drop in and ride the race that we rode and off the turn, all we just needed was the splits. Once she leveled off there and accelerated, we were pretty confident.”

Pedigree Notes:

Cinderella's Dream is the 29th worldwide Group 1/Grade I winner and 86th group/graded winner for her late sire (passed away in April 2020) and is one of six winners and two graded scorers from his final crop to race.

Cinderella's Dream is the lone starter and winner out of daughter of High Heeled, successful at Group 3 level in Britain, third in the G1 Investec Epsom Oaks in 2009 and multiple Group 2-placed in France. Third dam Uncharted Haven won the 2000 GII San Clemente Stakes and the 2021 GII San Gorgonio Stakes for 3 Plus U Stable and trainer Bobby Frankel.

A full-sister to German listed winner Pabouche, Espadrille is also the dam of the 2-year-old filly Blue Laced (GB) (Farhh {GB}). Cinderella's Dream is the 41st GSW and 10th G1/GISW produced by a daughter of Dubawi.

MULLIKIN MAKES IT THREE-IN-A-ROW IN THE NERUD

Mullikin | Janet Garaguso

It was second verse same as the first for Mullikin (Violence) as he powered home to win a quick edition of the GII John A. Nerud Stakes.

Untouchable in 2024, he started his season Apr. 26 at Keeneland when beating a first-level allowance group by over five lengths, posting a lifetime best Beyer of 98 in the process. He was awarded a similar number for his effort last out June 8 at Churchill Downs, where he soundly defeated a field of optional claimers by 3 1/4 lengths.

On the back of those performances, the betting public crowned him a slight 6-5 favorite over GSW Everso Mischievous (Into Mischief), who had come into the race having finished worse than second only once in his career. Pressing the pace as ‘TDN Rising Star’ GSW Prevalence (Medaglia d’Oro) showed the way through a quarter in :22.54 and a half in :44.87, Mullikin took command inside the five-sixteenths as MSW & GSP Coastal Mission (Great Notion) came calling from his outside. Game as it gets, the eventual winner wouldn’t give an inch as the runner-up comfortably held on to second with MSW & MGSP Ninetypercentmddie (Weigelia) coming on to claim third.

“Looking at the PPs, having the outside draw let us have an idea of how that was going to set up,” said winning trainer Rodolphe Brisset.

“We didn’t know what they were going to do on the inside, but at least this gave us the chance to break and look at it. We know the gate can be his little hiccup, but we have learned from him-- he did it today; when he got in, he tried to go on the lower end and then the guy got him up and left him alone.

“If you try to do too much, he’ll start to do it again, so after that he broke and was in position. From there, it’s up to the horse and the jock. Perfect position and a good ride. It looks like he’s stepping up with the time [he posted], so we’ll see how the number comes back, bring him home, and go from there.”

Brisset added that a start in the GI Forego Stakes was a potential option.

“That’s the logical next thing, but we’re going to have to see how he comes out. That’s what we’ll be looking at. We opted to come here because [it would give us] seven weeks until the Forego [run Aug. 24], and he’s actually a little better off if he has more space between racing, we think. With running that fast today, I’m happy we have six or seven weeks and not four.”

Pedigree Notes:

A son of GIII Schuylerville Stakes-placed [now a listed race] Tulira’s Star, herself a half-sister to GSW Mountain General (Mountain Cat), Mullikin is her third winner. The dam is also a half-sibling to the dam of graded-placed Xoxo (Majestic Warrior), and to stakes-placed runners Queens Up (Classic Empire) and Everqueen (Colonel John). This is the family of GISW Storm Tower and GSW & GISP Psyched Tulira’s Star has three winners from four to the races with the other runner the placed runner Trump Card (Nyquist). Mullikin is her most recent into the gate and the most successful thus far. She’s since produced a 2-year-old filly by McKinzie, a yearling colt by Maxfield, and a 2024 colt by Liam’s Map.

THE NEW 'GUARD': ANOTHER GRADED WINNER FOR ARROGATE IN INDIANA DERBY

by Alan Carasso

Dragoon Guard | Coady

Making his first start around two turns and looking for a third straight victory in succession, Juddmonte homebred Dragoon Guard (Arrogate) was sent for the lead from his outside draw and made every pole a winning one in Saturday's GIII Indiana Derby at Horseshoe Indianapolis.

Pegged at 7-2 on the morning line and sharing the grey/roan coloring that runs rampant in his pedigree (sire, dam, grandsire, damsire and damsire's sire), Dragoon Guard--off as the 19-10 second-elect--was given a positive ride from Florent Geroux and led his rivals into the first turn as Informed Patriot (Hard Spun) chased from second, with favored GI Santa Anita Derby hero Stronghold (Ghostzapper) in the box seat from third.

Clicking off even fractions of :23.74 and :47.24, Dragoon Guard arguably landed the deciding blow through the next internal quarter mile, going from the 4 1/2-furlong pole to the five-sixteenths in a crisp :23.53, taking the starch out of those behind him.

Dragoon Guard was firmly in front as they hit the stretch and Stronghold was pulled out to offer whatever he had left to give, but the grey colt spurted away to win off as much the best.

"He ran well," said winning trainer Brad Cox. "I thought [jockey] Florent [Geroux] did a good job of getting him away and getting him involved and taking control of the race. Look, based off pedigree and his physical, he's bred to be a two-turn, mile-and-an-eighth and farther type horse. He stepped up today in his first start around two turns and ran well."

With a profile not dissimilar to that of his late sire, Dragoon Guard just might take a similar route towards brighter lights.

"I think if he continues to make progress, he could be a top 3-year-old," Cox said. "I really believe that. He's a good colt. This was just the next step in his progression. I'm happy with what he was able to do today. To be one of the top 3-year-olds in the country he's going to have to take a couple of more steps forward. We're hopeful that he can."

"We may take him up to Saratoga and train him," the conditioner continued. "I don't know if we look at something at Parx, the [GI] Pennsylvania Derby. We'll let the dust settle and let him determine whether he's ready to step forward and face the best 3-year-olds out there."

A debut second to future Springboard Mile Stakes winner Otto the Conqueror (Street Sense) at Churchill last September, Dragoon Guard went missing for the rest of the year, returning to graduate by open lengths going the about seven-furlong configuration at Keeneland while earning an 88 Beyer. Stretched out to the mile for his latest, he handled wet underfoot conditions with aplomb, leading throughout to take a first-level Churchill allowance by better than three lengths June 2.

Pedigree Notes:

Dragoon Guard is the 23rd stakes winner and 14th graded winner for the much-missed Arrogate.

A fourth-generation homebred for Juddmonte, Dragoon Guard's third dam began her career in France for Andre Fabre, who was the trainer of record when she won the Gaily Gaily Handicap at Gulfstream a day after the Breeders' Cup in 1992. Rougeur was turned over to trainer Ron McAnally thereafter, for whom she was placed in the GII Orchid Handicap and the GIII Yerba Buena Handicap. Rougeur passed away in 2016.

Easily the best of Rougeur's five winners resulted from a mating with a then 23-year-old Seattle Slew in 1997. Flute was conditioned by the late Bobby Frankel and she became the only GI Kentucky Oaks winner to date for the late Prince Khalid Abdullah's operation in 2001, also adding that year's GI Alabama Stakes. Cont. p8

A foal of 2010 Filimbi was sent to Criquelette Head-Maarek in France for her early education, winning in listed company there prior to her repatriation. DOMESTIC PRODUCT MUCH THE BEST IN DWYER

Domestic Product | Coglianesse

Domestic Product (Practical Joke), a forgettable 13th after getting pinched at the start in the GI Kentucky Derby, showed no mercy on his three rivals in Saturday's GIII Dwyer Stakes at the Big A.

Turning back to a one-turn mile, the 3-5 favorite stalked the early leaders from an outside third. He launched while three deep entering the far turn, hit the front as they straightened for home and blasted off to score by 7 1/2 lengths over Hades (Awesome Slew). The pacesetter Billal (Street Sense) was third.

"He was traveling very well," winning jockey Flavien Prat said. "I felt in control the whole race and he responded really well turning for home. He took a very nice breather around the turn - I didn't know how much the leader [Billal] had left, but when I called on him, he responded very well."

Prat added, "I do think he's better with the cut back in distance."

Domestic Product, a maiden winner going nine furlongs over this same surface at second asking last October, kicked off his sophomore campaign with a good second at 14-1 behind Hades in the GIII Holy Bull Stakes Feb. 3, then eked out a narrow victory in a pacesetter renewal of the GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 9. Beaten 22 3/4 lengths following an eventful journey on the first Saturday in May, Domestic Product was a distant second in the NYRA Bets Pegasus Stakes at Monmouth Park last out June 15.

SWEET AZTECA SETS NEW TRACK RECORD IN GREAT LADY M

Sweet Azteca | Benoit

Sometimes a prohibitive 3-5 favorite doesn't run his or her race, but sometimes one runs just as hoped and adds a cherry on top. Last-out GI Beholder Mile Stakes winner and Pamela C. Ziebarth homebred Sweet Azteca (Sharp Azteca) not only made it three in a row with a facile win in Saturday's GII Great Lady M Stakes at Los Alamitos, but also set a new track record at Los Al for the distance, getting the 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:14.33.

At the Great Lady M start, Argentinean MGSW Super Shine (Arg) (Super Saver) veered dramatically to the left and spotted the field several lengths as GI La Brea Stakes winner Daddysruby (Frac Daddy) burst out of the fray to show the way. With Sweet Azteca attending the sizzling :21.65 and :43.96 pace, Anywho (Bolt d'Oro) briefly loomed but threw in the towel early. Sweet Azteca tipped outside on the turn and looked Daddysruby in the eye at the top of the lane. She wasn't in any hurry to swap to her correct lead, but once she did, she was gone. Despite Juan Hernandez wrapping up on her before the wire, Sweet Azteca won comfortably by five lengths while Daddysruby held second and Super Shine overcame that disastrous start to finish third.

"It was her first time here, first time shipping, and the configuration of the track is a little different than what she is used to and she was kind of playing a little bit at the top of the stretch, but she leveled off and got the job done," said winning trainer Michael McCarthy. "She has certainly progressed all year long. Obviously the Beholder was a breakout performance for her. We had our sights set on taking her to Kentucky for the [May 4 GI] Derby City Distaff, but she busted open her knee in her stall getting excited for feed time one day, so we had to go to Plan B and this race fit on the calendar for us. It's always nice to win at Los Alamitos. I enjoy being here."

Sweet Azteca debuted at Churchill Downs during Derby week in 2023 with a win and an 85 Beyer Speed Figure, not reappearing until New Year's Day with a third in the GIII Las Flores Stakes behind the re-opposing Chismosa (Clubhouse Ride). That would be her only career loss to date. A 12-length win in a Santa Anita optional allowance got her back on track in February and led to the Beholder win and 103 Beyer over MGISW powerhouse Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) in March. She signaled her readiness for the Great Lady M with a bullet five furlongs in :58 1/5 (1/51) at Santa Anita June 29.

Pedigree Notes:

Sweet Azteca is a fourth-generation homebred for Ziebarth, a daughter of the late Cecilia Straub Rubens, and her family. The filly traces directly to the family's spectacular mare Cee's Song, dam of Horse of the Year Tiznow and his GSW full-siblings Budroyale and Tizdubai. Sweet Azteca's dam, So Sweetitiz, is a granddaughter of another Tiznow full-sister in Tizsweet. So Sweetitiz produced a full-sister to Sweet Azteca Apr. 29. She also has a juvenile colt named Mucho Dulce (Mucho Macho Man) and a yearling colt named Under the Big Sky (Tonalist). So Sweetitiz is a daughter of the late Grand Slam, who has 97 stakes winners as a broodmare sire.

Sweet Azteca is the sole graded winner for Sharp Azteca, a former Three Chimneys stallion who is standing the 2024 breeding season at Shizunai Stallion Station in Japan. The son of New York sensation Freud has five black-type winners and is sending his third crop to the races this year.

Chatalas, all-the-way winner of last year's GII Chandelier Stakes prior to a down-the-field finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies while under the care of Mark Glatt, was sent to trainer Grant Forster this term with an eye on the age-restricted dirt stakes east of the Mississippi. The plan was off to an auspicious beginning Saturday when the bay, having her first start of 2024, fought back tenaciously at the fence to take Saturday's GIII Indiana Oaks.

Sent straight into the lead from the inside post by Antonio Fresu, Chatalas set a comfortable pace through the opening stages, getting the quarter in :23.72 and the first four furlongs in :47.48. Cont. p11

Little Jamie was content to track from a close-up second, while heavily favored 'TDN Rising Star' Impel was allowed to settle a few lengths off the leaders. Little Jamie began to pour on the pressure at the quarter pole, drawing alongside the front-runner as Impel came under a Florent Geroux ride while making little impression on the top two. Neither did it look particularly promising for Chatalas, who surrendered the lead to Little Jamie just outside the eighth pole, but just when it looked like a lost cause, Chatalas came back on her rival for a hard-fought success. Impel looked destined to finish off the board, but found late energy to win a photo for third.

Chatalas (inside) | Coady

“When she made the lead, I felt really good,” said Forster, winning first graded stakes since Pirate’s Punch (Shanghai Bobby) won the 2020 GIII Salvator Mile Stakes. “She’s got a lovely long stride. When she got into that stride down the backside, it looked like she was just cruising. Turning for home, it looked like she lost the lead there for a little bit, but she showed some real fight. I don’t think there could have been a better race for her off the bench.”

A debut winner sprinting over the Del Mar main track last July 30, Chatalas was a well-beaten fourth to 'Rising Star' Tamara (Bolt d'Oro--Beholder) in the GI Del Mar Debutante Stakes prior to her wire-to-wire win in the Chandelier. A distant ninth in the Juvenile Fillies after being bothered significantly at the break, Chatalas was fourth--placed third--in the GII Starlet Stakes Dec. 9 ahead of neck defeat in the grassy Blue Norther Stakes Dec. 29.

Pedigree Notes:

Fleetwood Bloodstock paid $130,000 for dam Indian Safari in foal to Union Rags at the 2015 Keeneland November Sale, and Chatalas is the most recent of the mare's five winners from six to face the starter. The current 2-year-old from the mare, the filly Yellow (Bernardini) who cost Repole Stable $230,000 at Keeneland September, was runner-up on debut at Aqueduct July 4, while her more recent produce include a yearling filly by Liam's Map and a colt foal by that Lane's End stallion.

Gal In a Rush had places to be, and she roared home from last to first to take the GIII Hendrie Stakes.

She'd hit the board in five of her last six efforts barring the try at the graded level.

Overcoming some light contact after the break, Gal In a Rush set up shop as the caboose of the group, running in ninth for the lion's share of the race. Owen's Tour Guide took to showing the way up front and put up :22.69, :44.82, and 1:09.06 fractions as they swung into the lane. Called on for her rally, the 6-1 chance came into the lane eight off the fence but rolling with a full head of steam, taking command with 70 yards left to run. She hit the wire 1 1/4 lengths in front over that longtime leader while Play the Music secured third.

"She's the type to take it easy for the first half and try to finish up strong," said winning rider Kazushi Kimura. "I tried to put on the pressure and make sure I'm in the clear. That's what I did today. It's kind of like gambling, but she just responded so well.

"I was just focused on keeping a good rhythm with my horse. I knew Christophe gave me a good opportunity to ride nice horses here. She's a nice horse."

Pedigree Notes:

Gal In a Rush is the second foal for her dam and all three of her siblings to make racing age are winners. Hudson River Gal has also produced 2-year-old Subsidy (Complexity) as well as a yearling filly by Charlatan and a 2024 colt by Ghostzapper. The female family is a hard-knocking type, as the dam herself has nine winning siblings and the second dam SW Miss City Halo (Carson City) has five winning siblings. This is the distant family of GISW Street Hero.

Gal In a Rush | Michael Burns

"The Court reasoned that Congress unlawfully gave executive governmental power to regulate the horseracing industry over to a private corporation," the release stated, in part. "[The judges] called HISA a 'radical delegation' of governmental enforcement powers to a private corporation. The Court ruled that the FTC was given 'scant oversight' of the Authority, which could execute many governmental functions on its own..."

"In March of last year, the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that the [Congressional] tweak solved the problem of giving legislative powers to the Authority," the NHBPA release continued. "[Friday], the Fifth Circuit agreed with that ruling but found another fatal problem: even after the tweak, HISA still gives unlawful executive powers to the Authority. HISA still violates the Constitution."

Lisa Lazarus, the chief executive officer of the HISA Authority, said her organization is "disappointed" with the court's decision.

"Particularly," Lazarus continued, "in light of the Sixth Circuit's strong endorsement of HISA's constitutionality. While the judicial review process continues, it is critical for all racing participants to know HISA is still the law of the land. Its rules are still fully in effect and will remain so for the foreseeable future. We continue to focus on our mission of protecting the safety and integrity of Thoroughbred racing."

The court explained its general rationale at the outset of the 39-page opinion:

"We agree with nearly all of the district court's well-crafted opinion. Specifically, we agree that the Federal Trade Commission (FTC)'s new rulemaking oversight means the agency is no longer bound by the Authority's policy choices. In other words, the amendment solved the nondelegation problem with the Authority's rulemaking power.

"We also agree that HISA does not violate the Due Process Clause by putting financially interested private individuals in charge of competitors. Further, we agree that, under current Supreme Court precedent, the Authority does not qualify as a government entity subject to the Appointments Clause," the opinion stated.

"We disagree with the district court in one important respect, however: HISA's enforcement provisions violate the private nondelegation doctrine. The statute empowers the Authority to investigate, issue subpoenas, conduct searches, levy fines, and seek injunctions—all without the FTC's say-so. That is forbidden by the Constitution. We therefore DECLARE that HISA's enforcement provisions are facially unconstitutional on that ground. In doing so, we part ways with our esteemed colleagues on the Sixth Circuit."

Evolution of the 3-Year-Old Lawsuit

The NHBPA, 12 of its affiliates, and a number of Texas-based racetrack entities, plus the state of Texas itself and its racing commission, are the plaintiffs/appellants.

The HISA Authority, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and officials from each organization are the defendants/appellees.

The first time the NHBPA-led plaintiffs attempted to challenge the original 2020 version of the HISA statute in federal court, on Mar. 15, 2021, the suit was dismissed, on March 31, 2022.

The NHBPA plaintiffs then appealed, leading to a Fifth Circuit Court reversal on Nov. 18, 2022, that remanded the case back to the lower court.

In the interim, an amended version of HISA got passed by Congress and was signed into law by President Joe Biden on Dec. 29, 2022.

In a separate case Mar. 3, 2023, the U.S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati ruled that a change of language in the HISA law at the end of 2022 was sufficient to alleviate the plaintiffs' concerns over constitutionality.

Then on May 4, 2023, the lower court in the NHBPA case also deemed that the new version of HISA was constitutional because the rewrite of the law fixed the problems the Fifth Circuit had identified.

The HBPAs plaintiffs swiftly filed another appeal back to the Fifth Circuit, which led to an "expedited" scheduling of the oral arguments for Oct. 4, 2023.

Those oral arguments centered on the non-delegation doctrine with regard to HISA's enforcement, focusing on a legal principle that holds that Congress cannot delegate the power to legislate to executive agencies or private entities.

The racing industry had been waiting for the Fifth Circuit's opinion ever since. It was issued nine months after the arguments took place (an unusually long span), and it got handed down late in the day on the Friday of the long Independence Day holiday weekend.

Drilling Down the 'Unconstitutionality' Aspect

The panel of three judges was the same Fifth Circuit trio that declared the previous version of HISA unconstitutional in November 2022, leading to the amended version of HISA that is currently in effect.

The judges are: Stuart Kyle Duncan and Kurt D. Engelhardt (both nominated to their positions by President Donald Trump in 2018) and Carolyn Dineen King (nominated by President Jimmy Carter in 1979).

Regarding the private nondelegation clause that the Fifth Circuit panel declared unconstitutional as it relates to HISA's enforcement, the opinion explained the court's view this way:

"First, the Authority misunderstands the Horsemen's claim.

They do not challenge some particular enforcement action undertaken by the Authority-claiming, for instance, that the Authority issued an overbroad subpoena for medical records or lacked probable cause to search a racetrack. Instead, the Horsemen argue that HISA, on its face, vests the Authority with enforcement power that is effectively unreviewable by the agency.

"The Act's plain terms permit only one conclusion: HISA is enforced by a private entity, the Authority. The Authority decides whether to investigate a covered entity for violating HISA's rules. The Authority decides whether to subpoena the entity's records or search its premises. The Authority decides whether to sanction it. And the Authority decides whether to sue the entity for an injunction or to enforce a sanction it has imposed.

"Consider also what [the HISA statute] does not say. It does not empower the FTC to decide whether to investigate a covered entity, whether to subpoena its records, whether to search its premises, whether to charge it with a violation, or whether to sanction or sue it. Nor does the Act empower the FTC to countermand any of the Authority's investigatory or charging decisions...

"The inescapable conclusion is that the Authority does not 'function subordinately' to the FTC when enforcing HISA. That is not permitted under the private nondelegation doctrine. A private entity that can investigate potential violations, issue subpoenas, conduct searches, levy fines, and seek injunctions-all without the say-so of the agency-does not operate under that agency's 'authority and surveillance.'

"Put another way, with respect to enforcement, HISA's plain terms show that the Authority does not merely act 'as an aid' to the FTC because the FTC does not 'retain the discretion to approve, disapprove, or modify' the Authority's enforcement actions.

"One might counter, though, that the FTC at least partially supervises the Authority because it can review sanctions at the back end, after [an administrative law judge, or ALJ] review. That is true, and it is the Authority's best argument for why its enforcement power is subordinate to the FTC.

"The argument nonetheless fails," the opinion stated.

"Suppose the Authority sanctions a horse owner for a doping violation, but the sanction is later reversed by the FTC. Does that make the Authority's enforcement power subordinate to the agency? No, it does not. Consider everything the Authority was permitted to do up to that point: launch an investigation into the owner, subpoena his records, search his facilities, charge him with a violation, adjudicate it, and fine him. Each and every one of those actions is 'enforcement' of HISA. Each can occur under HISA without any supervision by the FTC. Cont. p14

"Moreover, penalties imposed by the Authority are not automatically stayed pending appeal. So, any penalty goes into effect as soon as the Authority makes its decision, unless the ALJ or FTC exercises its discretion to implement a stay pending appeal.

"It is no answer to say that the FTC can come in at the tail-end of this adversarial process and review the sanction. As far as enforcement goes, the horse was already out of the barn," the opinion stated, humorously acknowledging the pun by parenthetically adding, "You knew that was coming."

"If the sanctioned owner, instead of fighting the process, opts to settle for a lower fine? In that case, according to the Authority's logic, no one has enforced HISA. That is obviously not true. To the contrary, the settlement scenario—which will likely happen often—only underscores that it is the private entity that acts as HISA's enforcer in any meaningful sense...

"The Horsemen are not complaining about how the Authority exercises its enforcement power. They are complaining about where the enforcement power is lodged: on its face, HISA empowers private entities to enforce it and permits agency oversight only after the enforcement process is over and done with (and then only with respect to fines, not injunctions).

"If the Horsemen were objecting only to overbroad subpoenas, unwarranted searches, or lack of free counsel, perhaps those complaints could be addressed through rulemaking or as-applied challenges. But their complaint is different. They contend that HISA facially delegates unsupervised enforcement power to private actors," the opinion stated.

"They are right," the Fifth Circuit concluded.

WET PAINT THE CLASS OF THE DELAWARE HANDICAP

Godolphin's Wet Paint (Blame) ships in from trainer Brad Cox's Kentucky base at Churchill Downs as the favorite for Sunday's GII Delaware Handicap, the annual centerpiece of the racing calendar in the 'First State.' That fact notwithstanding, she'll need to bring her best if she is to put a halt to a four-race skid dating back to a narrow victory in last year's GI CCA Oaks at Saratoga.

Runner-up to the highly impressive Randomized (Nyquist) in the GI Alabama Stakes, the homebred was never a factor when eighth to stablemate Idiomatic (Curlin) in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and called it a season after winning half of her eight starts. A well-beaten sixth in the GI Apple Blossom Handicap on 4-year-old debut Apr. 13, she closed off fairly to be third in the GIII Shawnee S. to Scylla (Tapit), who backed up that effort in last weekend's GII Fleur de Lis Stakes in Louisville.

Wet Paint | Janet Garaguso

Honor D Lady (Honor Code) could prove the spoiler here, as she has a few races on paper that would trouble the chalk. Winner of the GIII Remington Park Oaks last fall, she returned from a freshening and posted a career-best 94 Beyer when taking out Gulfstream's GIII Royal Delta Stakes by two lengths Feb. 17. The Apple Blossom proved a bridge too far, as she was last of nine, but bounced back nicely from a speed-figure perspective when runner-up to Grade I winner Candied (Candy Ride {Arg})--with Saddle Up Jessie (More Than Ready) third--in the June 8 Lady's Secret Stakes at Monmouth, giving eight pounds to her younger rival.

The wagering public won't be getting the 3-1 morning-line odds about War Like Goddess (English Channel), but her mere presence in the GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial Stakes makes it a contest worth watching. The three-time Grade I winner should appreciate this 11-furlong trip more than she did the mile and three-sixteenths of the GI New York Stakes at Saratoga, when she was making a belated seasonal debut and ran on to be a sound third behind Didia (Arg) (Orpen).

A strong supporting cast includes Chop Chop (City of Light), who defeated Atomic Blonde (Ger) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) in Keeneland's GIII Bewitch Stakes in April before the latter reversed form last time in the May 25 Keertana Stakes at Churchill.

DELAWARE CANCELS SATURDAY PROGRAM, CARD TO BE RUN AS DRAWN ON MONDAY

Due to a weather forecast that calls for hot temperatures, high humidity and corresponding excessive heat index readings, officials at Delaware Park, acting upon the recommendation of the Delaware Thoroughbred Racing Commission (DTRC) veterinarians and stewards, have decided to cancel Saturday's live racing program. The heat and humidity combined are forecast to reach 105 degrees during the day on Saturday.

Saturday's program will not be redrawn and will be run as carded on Monday, July 8.

Racing is expected to resume Sunday, July 7 with a first post of 12:30 p.m. ET. A 10-race card is scheduled, featuring the GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial Stakes for older fillies and mares at a mile and three furlongs on the turf, and the annual centerpiece of the meeting, the $500,000 GII Delaware Handicap.

UNCLE MO COLT PUTS ON A 'SHOW' FOR 'RISING STAR' HONORS

Showcase | Susie Raisher

Showcase (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Buy Sell Hold, by Violence) fired back-to-back bullets at Todd Pletcher's Saratoga base, including a four-furlong move in :48 3/5 (1/64) out of the gate over the Oklahoma training track June 21, and delivered as advertised as the 3-5 favorite to earn 'TDN Rising Star' honors on debut at the Big A Saturday.

Drawn widest of all in post five, Showcase traveled nicely beneath Irad Ortiz, Jr. in an outside second, hit the front while racing in between rivals approaching the quarter pole and took off impressively when asked the question at the top of the stretch to win going away by 7 1/2 lengths.

The pacesetter Protected (Maximum Security) held second by a whisker over $500,000 OBS April breezer Tiz Freedom (Tiz the Law).

Showcase, a half-brother to Bourbon Bash (City of Light), MSP, $511,294, becomes the 19th 'Rising Star' for leading sire Uncle Mo.

The winner's dam Buy Sell Hold, a full-sister to GISW and young sire Volatile, was a 2-year-old debut winner for J. Kirk and Judy Robison and Steve Asmussen at Keeneland and followed up with a victory in the Kentucky Juvenile Stakes at Churchill Downs.

Buy Sell Hold is also responsible for the unraced 3-year-old filly Sweet Pea (Union Rags) and a yearling colt by Gun Runner. She was bred to Life Is Good for 2024. Showcase's third dam Lady Tak won the GI Test Stakes and GI Ballerina Handicap, both at Saratoga.

Money Supply picked up his second black-type victory, and his first on the grass, in a photo on the line in the Jonathan B. Schuster Memorial Stakes.

Victorious in the GIII Mineshaft Stakes by a similar margin in February, he's won six times since being claimed by his connections in Saratoga last August. After the Mineshaft effort, he ran third two back Mar. 23 in the GII New Orleans Classic Stakes and finished sixth last out May 3 in the GII Alysheba Stakes. This contest would be his first time on the grass in his career.

In no hurry after the jump, Money Supply raced in cover from seventh as Runaway Storm set his mind to taking the field all the way. Called on for more as that early leader and Masteroffoxhounds took their battle into the stretch, Money Supply closed from three off the rail with the distance closing quickly. Offering one last lunge, he nailed that leading pair on the wire in a blanket finish.

"We knew the speed was going to be pretty aggressive so I just tried to be as close as I could, because those were really good horses," said winning rider Jaime Torres. "It was the first time for my horse on turf, and I just wanted to be close and finish with him. He finished really, really good. When we changed leads in the stretch coming home, I had a lot of horse."

Trainer Joe Sharp admitted the race was an experiment with their eyes on Kentucky Downs in the fall, and was happy with the results. "At this point he owes us nothing. What a fun ride it's been. Jordan [Wycoff, owner] has done the right thing by the horse. He's let us be patient with him. We tried the turf today kind of as an experiment with hopes of opening up some doors possibly at Kentucky Downs in the fall. To have a horse that can win on fast track, slop, now the grass, there's nothing more you can ask for."

Money Supply has three winning elder siblings including the Listed winner Sister Nation. Evita's Sister also claims the placed 3-year-old Pump It Up (Audible) as well as 2-year-old Versus (Tiz the Law). She had been due to Mandaloun for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Loved, the younger half-sister to MGISW and sire Maxfield, won three straight of four starts last year and returned off a 10-month layoff to settle for fourth in the GIII Doubledogdare Stakes at Keeneland April 19. Back facing listed company Saturday, the even-money favorite spotted the field a step at the break but was quickly into stride to sit just off the early tempo set by Hidden Connection. Up to challenge that pacesetter into the far turn, Loved dueled that rival past the furlong marker before gaining a bit of breathing room close to home to get the win. 15-1 longshot Take a Stand just got up to nab Hidden Connection on the wire for second.

"That was huge to get a stakes win in her," said winning trainer Brendan Walsh. "I think she just broke a little slow, it wasn't really by decision. I told Florent to let her do her thing and not get in her way. She was a tick slow away, but she didn't take too long to get back on par with them and took it from there. Shezafunkydrummer broke her maiden in gate to wire fashion as the heavy favorite on debut at Hawthorne June 2 and immediately jumped into stakes company Friday. Second choice at 5-2 with the extra furlong to race, she broke from the rail into the middle of the pack and was never far off the early speed of frontrunners Spankerboom and Elegant Justice. Switched out to engage that pair off the far turn, she drove past at the eighth pole and stayed clear from there to stay perfect in her young career. The 35th stakes winner for Maclean's Music, Shezafunkydrummer was a $200,000 OBS March buy out of a half-sister to the dam of MGSW Joey Freshwater (Jimmy Creed). Mzima Springs reported a colt by Good Magic this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

10th-Belmont The Big A, $100,000, Alw, 7-6, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:36.33, fm, 1 length.

CAPTURE THE FLAG (c, 4, Quality Road--War Flag {GISW-USA, GSW-Fr, $474,660}, by War Front) became a 'TDN Rising Star' on debut at Saratoga nearly two years ago but has not seen the winner's circle since and moved to the turf for previous trainer Shug McGaughey. Having twice raced off extended layoffs, the 9-5 second choice made his second start Saturday for Todd Pletcher having last been sixth when sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs on the grass at Saratoga on the Belmont undercard June 8. Eager to run from mid pack up the backstretch, Capture the Flag was held back on a tight rein in fourth through the half in :47.89 before being let loose past the quarter pole. He got past pacesetter Alexis Zorba (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) late and lasted to win by a length while Victors Valiant (War Front) edged out the early leader for second in a tight finish. The half-brother to Personal Best (Tapit), GSW, $423,594, Capture the Flag is out of a full-sister to Hong Kong's champion stayer Lines of Battle. War Front is features prominently in this family including GISW Civil Union, MG1SW Homesman and GSW/GISP War Dispatch. This is also the family of the late Dynaformer (Roberto). War Flag has a 2-year-old unraced Into Mischief colt, a yearling colt by Gun Runner and a newborn filly by Curlin. CAITLINHERGRTNESS (f, 3, Omaha Beach--Belatrix, by Giant's Causeway) left the gate sharply at 3-1 Saturday in both her first start at Woodbine and first start on the lawn, but quickly relinquished the front to a determined Veery (Giant Gizmo). Settled on the rail in third behind :24 and :47.39 fractions, the chestnut lengthened her stride on the turn, tipped out, leveled off, and ran down Veery for a 2 3/4-length victory. She Makes a Point (Point of Entry) nipped Veery on the line for second by a nose. Third to eventual Untapable Stakes winner Alpine Princess (Classic Empire) on debut at Saratoga last year, Caitlinhergrtness broke her maiden at second asking at a mile on the main track at the Belmont at the Big A meet last fall. She's been freshened since her last out, a fourth in a February optional allowance at Gulfstream. The winner's dam is a half to MSW & GISP Dogtag (War Front) from the same family as European champion Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) and MGISW Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian). Her most recent reported foal is now a 2-year-old colt named Sovereign Star (Midnight Lute). Sales History: $65,000 Wlg '21 KEENOV; $160,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP; $375,000 2yo '23 OBSAPR. OSCAR'S WORLD (c, 3, Oscar Performance--Wendy's World, by Uncle Mo) added to a very nice day for his sire, who was also responsible for Saturday's GI Belmont Derby winner Trikari. A maiden winner over the Gulfstream lawn back in February, Oscar's World disappointed in his two most recent efforts, finishing 11th in the GIII Transylvania Stakes at Keeneland Apr. 5 and eighth in an optional claimer at Churchill last time June 7. Given a 9-2 chance to get back on track here, the rail-drawn Walmac homebred led the field of nine into the clubhouse turn. Back a spot into second through fractions of :23.91 and :47.83, Oscar's World took over for good on the turn for home and wasn't for catching from there. It was four lengths back to Pure Poetry (Quality Road) in second. Sales history: $45,000 RNA 2yo '23 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 7-2-2-1, $125,479. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

REEF RUNNER (c, 3, The Big Beast--Paradise Bay, by Blame), second to Royal Ascot's G2 Queen Mary Stakes winner Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) last out in the May 18 Roar Stakes at Gulfstream, found easier company here and settled in the penultimate spot behind flying frontrunners Urban Legend (Into Mischief) and Esperon (Chitu), who together set :21.21 and :43.09 fractions. Reef Runner emerged from the fray on the turn, staying on his wrong lead down the lane, and reeled in the pacesetters to win by 2 1/2 lengths as the 8-5 choice. Urban Legend, a $1.3-million OBS April buy, held second. Reef Runner's dam, a half to MGISW Paradise Woods (Union Rags), was barren this year, but has a juvenile full-brother to Reef Runner and a yearling filly by Street Sense. TAP TO MISCHIEF (c, 3, Into Mischief--Lesley May, by Tapit), despite escaping the public's notice at a 13-1 price in this career debut, came to the party ready after registering multiple bullet works for Bill Mott. The gray bumped along the rail as the field bunched up early and emerged from the fray in a tracking spot behind pacesetter Master Freud (Freud), who threw down blazing :21.37 and :43.38 fractions. Tap to Mischief ran down the leader at the top of the stretch, appeared well clear until favored Creditworthy (Mitole) came flying late after a troubled trip but prevailed by a half-length. The winner has a 2-year-old half-brother by Speightstown, who hammered for $485,000 to Mike Ryan at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga last year. Lesley May produced a filly by Street Sense Jan. 31. MISS ENCHANTED (f, 3, Maximus Mischief--Erin Enchanted {SP, $164,884}, by Lion Heart), who was dropped in for an $100,000 tag when second in a June 6 Churchill Downs maiden race, rejoined open company to break her duck in her fifth lifetime outing. Sent off at 2-1 in a field of nine, she stalked Life's for Living (Uncle Mo)'s pace set in :21.95 and :45.64 before seizing command approaching the quarter pole. Under confident handling by jockey Martin Chuan, she edged 3 3/4 lengths clear from second-place finisher Unzipped (Omaha Beach)'s mild rally at the finish. Miss Enchanted's dam is a three-time winner who was second in Aqueduct's 2013 Shot Berry Stakes for New York-breds as a 4-year-old. She was sent to Saudi Arabia after foaling Miss Enchanted in 2021. RICH CITY GIRL (f, 2, City of Light--Hassler {Ire}, by War Front), a $195,000 KEESEP yearling turned $435,000 OBSMAR breeder, was working bullets at Hawthorne for Larry Rivelli ahead of her debut and ran them off their feet for a sharp score as the slight 2-1 favorite. Scratched out of Friday evening's Prairie Gold Lassie Stakes at Prairie Meadows in favor of this spot, Rich City Girl was on the engine from her inside draw and was hounded through an opening quarter in :22.12. She began to shake clear as they approached the top of the stretch, and, despite hanging on her left lead down the lane, cruised home to a 3 1/4-length victory. Second-time starter and $410,000 OBS April graduate Praying (Vekoma) was second. It was another 3/4 of a length back to the debuting $400,000 OBS April product Mischief Night (Practical Joke) in third. FLIP FLOPS (f, 2, War of Will--Sandal, by Munnings), third on debut Apr. 26 sprinting over the grass at Keeneland and then sixth last out June 14 at Churchill Downs when trying the main track, stepped up to the mile on her return to the lawn here. Off at 4-1 and in no rush early from eighth after getting bumped around into the first bend, she watched the race unfold through :23.66, :46.81, and 1:11.66 splits as the frontrunners disputed the issue. Five wide and the looming danger entering the lane, Flip Flops assumed command passing the eighth pole and steadily drew away to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Derry Girl (Honor A. P.). 'WE'RE STILL LEARNING ABOUT HIM': MOORE REFLECTS ON CITY OF TROY'S ECLIPSE SCARE

City Of Troy and Ryan Moore | Bronwen Healy

by Tom Frary

Well, he's clearly not Frankel, but City Of Troy (Justify-- Together Forever {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) at least stayed on a winning course as he provided more nervous tension than dazzle at Sandown on Saturday. Labouring rather than surging up the hill to the culmination of the G1 Coral-Eclipse, Ballydoyle's Derby hero proved that he had the grit to get the unique British double done as he ultimately satisfied the abundant odds-on takers. Connections were quick to admit that he had underwhelmed here, so we were again left with a sense of anti-climax as the stable's latest enigma keeps us guessing.

When you are 1-4 for a substandard Eclipse missing the likes of White Birch (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) and Passenger (Ulysses {Ire}), you are in some ways on a hiding to nothing. Little went very wrong here, so the fact that he crossed the line just a length ahead of the largely inconspicuous 4-year-old Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) was certain to engender a degree of deflation. That was only enhanced by the close proximity of Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), an undoubtedly talented 3-year-old but also one who had so far looked below the elite and who was reportedly also unsuited by the easing ground. TERUYA YOSHIDA: 'A LOT OF NEW OWNERS WANT TO SPEND MONEY AT THE SELECT SALE' By Brian Sheerin HOKKAIDO, Japan--Expectation rather than trepidation. Pre-JRHA Select Sale nerves are different to the ones we go through back in Europe, that's for sure.

A quick scan through the over 500-strong catalogue of foals and yearlings will remind you just how small the world is with many familiar names cropping up on any given page.

However, a morning spent in the company of JRHA chairman and Shadai Farm boss Teruya Yoshida followed by a trip to Northern Farm, which will consign a massive 180 lots at the sale, pegs into light what the Japanese are doing better than most. Perhaps Yoshida, who dominates Japanese racing along with his brothers Katsumi and Haruya, has reason to be confident. After all, he approaches the sale, which kicks off with yearlings on Monday, with reason for optimism given the Japanese Derby winner Danon Decile (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) is fresh in everyone's mind.

"This spring time, horses bred by Shadai Farm have won four Group 1s, so it is not just about Danon Decile," Yoshida rightly corrects the interviewer! "For example, Jantar Mantar (Jpn) (Palace Malice) won the NHK Mile Cup so it has been a very good spring." Cont. p15

He stayed in the fight until very late, before fading to be another length away in third.

Unlike Newmarket, where he roared off too fast before burning out, City Of Troy was able to saunter through the early stages of this test and retain energy for what turned out to be a surprisingly arduous finale. Lugging right towards the rail after taking over from his listed/Group 3-class pacemaker Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}) passing two out, Ballydoyle's beau ideal was briefly threatened by Joseph O'Brien's runner in the kind of slow-motion finale that this track can produce.

Ryan Moore admitted to being surprised at how the race panned out, but also offered a telling insight into his underlying faith in his mount. "I thought he'd win better than that--I thought he'd probably beat them by ten lengths to be honest with you and I wouldn't be surprised if he does it next time," he revealed. "The ground is slower than he wants and I got it wrong--I took him up the middle, but he wanted go to the fence--and I never really got it out of him until I really had to, so I think there's a lot more in there."

City Of Troy visibly lost his action turning into the straight and Moore went on to stress the importance of that incident. "I wasn't happy halfway around the bend, where the ground was a little bit loose and it took me a while to organise him and get him balanced after that, but he still got the job done and I thought he did well," he added. "He never felt like he was going to get beat and he found plenty. We're still learning about him and there are a few things I'd do differently next time. He has an extravagant action and slow ground into a headwind is not easy--he'll be better in a higher-tempo race."

Aidan O'Brien pointed to deteriorating ground conditions, which had earlier put paid to the participation of Jayarebe (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Stay Alert (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). "We walked the course beforehand and it was soft, tough, deep ground," he said after greeting his eighth Eclipse winner. "All fairness to the lads--15 years ago they would have taken the horse out, but they enjoy their racing so much now and wanted to run him. It would have been easy to take him out and it was a long discussion before we ran."

"He is a beautiful, good-ground horse and a real fast-ground mover so he has won today despite the ground. It was proper soft ground today, softer than when he won the Dewhurst last season--it was tough, specialist ground. I'd imagine the Lads will now look at the Juddmonte or Irish Champion Stakes before America. He could finish up in the Breeders' Cup Classic--that is what he is bred to be."

John Magnier is not looking to shirk the Breeders' Cup Classic challenge any time soon. "We've tried it on several occasions and we all enjoy having a go," he said. "Ballydoyle is founded on North American blood and it's a very important race for us. We want to try and do something a bit out of the ordinary, so whatever happens we'll keep trying to do it."

"What Aidan and Ballydoyle think about him and see in the morning is just incredible and we want people to see it, so hopefully it'll happen before the end of the year," he concluded. "I've been there watching him work and seen the times he does without being asked. We'll see what the next day brings."

Joseph O'Brien was delighted with the effort of Al Riffa, who was getting back to the big time with much water having passed under the bridge since his success in the 2022 G1 Vincent O'Brien National Stakes. "I think we all thought for a moment he was going to make it interesting and he did," he said. "It was a fantastic run and the first time he has had a bit of juice in the ground since the National Stakes. We'll probably make the rest of the season all about the Arc, which will be his main target. He should enjoy the mile and a half as his family is all stamina."

"I'd imagine the Lads will now look at the Juddmonte or Irish Champion Stakes before America. He could finish up in the Breeders' Cup Classic--that is what he is bred to be."

Clive Cox said of Ghostwriter, "I am over the moon. It was a tremendous performance bar being beat and he has run with full credit. We are all very proud of him and he has tried very hard. We would appreciate slightly drier ground, but I am not making any excuses as he has still run a very solid race. I think a mile and a quarter is a perfect for him and Richard [Kingscote] agrees. He is in the Juddmonte and York is a track that I think he would enjoy."

Pedigree Notes

City Of Troy's pedigree has been covered on many occasions, but it bears repeating that he is out of one of the many Galileo mares at Coolmore who have won at the highest level and who promise to serve Justify with the perfect turf class to complement his dirt prowess. Together Forever, whose big moment came in the G1 Fillies' Mile, is a full-sister to the Oaks heroine Forever Together (Ire) and a half to the G1 Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Lord Shanakill by another dirt sire in Speightstown.

Together Forever, who is related to the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Al Bahathri, the GI Yellow Ribbon Invitational winner Spanish Fern (El Gran Senor) and the GI Santa Anita Handicap hero Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), previously produced a trio of black-type performers by War Front including the G3 Tyros Stakes winner Military Style (War Front). Cont. p5

Her 4-year-old Bertinelli by Justify took the London Gold Cup for this stable before going to Hong Kong to be third in the G3 Queen Mother Memorial Cup.

Next up from Together Forever is the unraced 2-year-old filly by Uncle Mo named Takemetothemoon (Ire), while she also has a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire) and a filly foal by Into Mischief.

It has been well documented how important this colt is to the operation: the European champion two-year-old of 2023, he is by the Triple Crown winner Justify, who was recruited at vast expense to stand at Coolmore's Ashford Stud in Kentucky.

For that stallion to prove himself adept at siring top-class runners on both dirt and turf would be the bloodstock equivalent of owning a licence to print money.

Participating in what was, by his standards, a lengthy interview on Racing TV, Magnier said, "There's no point in us talking any more about this horse. This horse now has to do it himself."

He added with a laugh, "It's like his clothes are off and he's in the bed, so it's up to him."

Magnier admitted that City Of Troy's hard-fought win, by a length over Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), wasn't quite the dazzling performance that had been anticipated from the 1/4 favourite.

He said, "It wasn't what we were expecting, to be honest, but we are not making excuses: you don't need to when a horse wins a race.

"A quarter of the field was taken out because of the ground and he really is a good-moving horse. We posted a video of him working in the last few days and it's quite extraordinary how he moves."

The Coolmore team and City Of Troy in the Sandown's winner's enclosure | Racingfotos.com

He continued, "The year is long and I would just like to see him really run on his ground. But, look, he's only been beaten once in his life and we're complaining, so that will tell you what we think about him."

Of the excitement surrounding City Of Troy, he added, "It emanates from Aidan [O'Brien] and Ballydoyle, really, what they think of him and what they see in the morning. And that's why we published that video – we don't do that sort of thing, and I'm not a social media-type person. But it's just incredible and we wanted people to see it."

Last year, the team's Derby winner Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) closed out his season with victory in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita. With the Japan Cup under consideration for that horse over a possible return to California for a tilt at the Breeders' Cup Classic, could the latter be a suitable option for City Of Troy to show his versatility?

"Only God knows that; I can't answer that one," Magnier said. "All I know is that we've tried it on several occasions. We tried it with Galileo and it didn't work. We tried it with Giant's Causeway and it nearly did. We hit the crossbar with Declaration Of War. We all enjoy having a go and seeing if we can try to do something that's a bit out of the ordinary. Whatever happens, we'll keep trying to do it."

ROARING LION'S QUEEN OF THE PRIDE WINS THE LANCASHIRE OAKS

by Tom Frary

Returning to the course and distance of her G3 Lester Piggott Stakes win, Qatar Racing's prized homebred Queen Of The Pride (GB) (Roaring Lion--Simple Verse {Ire}, by Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) mastered Saturday's G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock to continue her upward trajectory. Held up by Oisin Murphy throughout the early stages, the John and Thady Gosden-trained 100-30 second favourite moved powerfully to Tiffany (Ire) (Farhh {GB}) with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and drew away from that 85-40 favourite to win by three lengths, with the Lester Piggott Stakes runner-up Lady Boba (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) a further half-length away in third. This proved to be the penultimate on the card, with a slippery home turn rated too dangerous for racing to continue.

"She really relaxed today and jumped and travelled," her jockey said. "I thought we went a good, even pace and I was quite cautious of the bend so I went from following Luke Morris [on Tiffany] quite closely to giving him a few lengths head start at the top of the straight. I was really pleased with how she picked up and she ran right the way through the line. We all thought after she won her last race here that something like the [G1] Prix de Royallieu would be a good long-term target and I'm sure that's in John and Thady's mind."

Pedigree Notes

Queen Of The Pride, who had been runner-up in the Listed Daisy Warwick Fillies' S. at Goodwood in May on only her third career start, is out of the operation's G1 St Leger and G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. heroine Simple Verse. She is in turn a half to the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Evensong (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who produced the listed winner and G1 Criterium International runner-up Espionage (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

BLACK-TYPE REVIEW by Tom Frary

Saturday's other pattern-race action saw the Brightwalton Bloodstock homebred Makarova (GB) (Acclamation {GB}) capture Sandown's G3 Sprint Stakes, or Coral Charge, for the Ed Walker stable and Gestut Ittlingen's Lordano (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) win Hamburg's G2 Grosser Hansa-Preis. Makarova, from the Cheveley Park Stud family of Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo), may go back to Goodwood for the G2 King George Stakes in which she was fourth last year.

"She was so laid-back and never looked like a sprinter in the early days, but she just kind of woke up and learned to sprint--she's a legend," Walker said. "She will probably go to the King George and maybe then another crack at the Nunthorpe or the race at the Curragh [the Flying Five]. After that, there is the Prix de l'Abbaye and races like that. This will be her last season racing, especially now she is a group 3 winner."

Lordano's trainer Marcel Weiss said of the improved 5-year-old, "If he still were an entire, I would love to enter him for the Arc. During the winter, I realised that he had matured well in his head so he can now run in the top events--he will remain in Germany for the moment."

lines up as one of the most tantalising members of Sunday's cast for Deauville's G1 Haras d'Etreham Prix Jean Prat. Cruelly denied by pixels in Royal Ascot's G3 Jersey Stakes over this seven-furlong trip last month, the half-brother to Frankel (GB) and Noble Mission (GB) was finishing best of all in that competitive affair which rates at least the equal in terms of form to this race.

While she was only fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, Godolphin's Romantic Style (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) had to navigate an unfavourable wide draw in that ParisLongchamp Classic and a repeat of her previous defeat of Ramatuelle (Justify) and Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) in the course-and-distance G3 Prix Imprudence puts her firmly in contention. The Sangster colour-bearer Kathmandu (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) was half a length ahead in the Pouliches, with Vespertilio (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) in between in third, but had the run of the race from a low stall and might have it to do to confirm placings with that duo.

Clive Washbourn's G2 German 2000 Guineas winner Devil's Point (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) had the subsequent G3 Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft winner Penalty (Ger) (Frankel {GB}) back in second in that Cologne Classic, but is not guaranteed to enjoy this drop back to seven. Second in a deep-ground G1 Futurity Trophy in October, he was a soundly-beaten third behind Lazzat (Fr) (Territories {Ire}) in the G3 Prix Djebel over this track and trip in April while White Birch Farm's TDN Rising Star Havana Cigar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) shook up that rival when second in ParisLongchamp's G3 Prix Paul de Moussac last time.

Waldemar Hickst has a strong hand, with Stall Lucky Owner's impressive Listed Dusseldorf Derby Trial winner Wintertraum (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) joined by their G3 Baden-Baden Derby-Trial winner Augustus (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). Darius Racing's Borna (Fr) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) was four-lengths second to Wintertraum in the G2 Gran Criterium at the San Siro in October, but he beat the solid British yardstick Royal Supremacy (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) with authority in the G2 Derby Italiano at the Capannelle in May.

EUROPEAN NEWS

OAKS WINNER EZELIYA RETIRED AFTER TRAINING SETBACK

Ezeliya (Fr), winner of this year's Oaks for HH Aga Khan and trainer Dermot Weld, has been retired from racing. The news was announced on Saturday morning by the Aga Khan Studs.

A post on the operation's social media accounts read, "The Aga Khan Studs regret to announce that 2024 Oaks winner Ezeliya has been retired from racing. The filly suffered a setback in training and will join the broodmare band."

In June, Ezeliya, ridden by Chris Hayes, became the first daughter of Dubawi (Ire) to win the Oaks at Epsom. She raced just twice in each of her seasons in training in Ireland, finishing fourth on debut in a Leopardstown maiden and then winning a Cork maiden over a mile at the end of September. She returned at three to win the G3 Salsabil Stakes and then went straight to the Oaks, in which she finished three lengths clear of the runner-up, Godolpin's Dance Sequence (GB), who is also by Dubawi.

Pat Downes, manager of the Aga Khan Studs in Ireland, said, "It is a pity to have to retire such a talented filly so early in her career but it would have been a challenge to prepare her for another race in the Autumn. Her wellbeing is the paramount concern for His Highness and Princess Zahra and she will make a wonderful addition to the broodmare band. She is by Dubawi and out of a Group winning mare who herself is out of a sister to Group 1 winners Enzeli (Ire), Estimate (Ire), Ebadiyla (Ire) and Edabiya (Ire). This has been a prolific family for the operation for many years now and we look forward to seeing what Ezeliya can achieve as a broodmare in the years to come."

Ezeliya is the second foal of the multiple Group winner Eziyra (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who was also trained by Weld. Eziyra is herself out of a half-sister to two Gold Cup winners in Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), who raced for the late Queen Elizabeth II, and Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}).

Ezeliya is one of two Classic winners for the Aga Khan this season along with the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches victrix Rouhiya (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Her trainer Dermot Weld added, "She was a beautiful filly to train. She wasn't very big but she had a lot of quality and winning the Oaks with her is very special. She is certainly one of the best fillies I have trained and she has the potential to be a highly successful broodmare."

Invincible Spirit | Bronwen Healy

Runner-up to Godolphin's Devoted Queen (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in York's Listed Michael Seely Memorial Fillies' Stakes in May, she kept producing when her lead was threatened in the straight to pitch herself higher up the Clarehaven pecking order.

"Her team have obviously done a lot of work to settle her and she has form on slow ground and it all worked out well on the day," Kingscote said. "She kept responding and it is very windy up the straight which may have stopped the others making too much ground on us. She's obviously learning and is still lightly-raced. She's going the right way so there is no reason to think that she can't come on for today."

Spiritual is currently the last known foal out of the Listed Stanerra Stakes winner and G3 Give Thanks Stakes runner-up Wild Irish Rose, a half-sister to the G3 Hotham Handicap scorer Ruscello (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) from the Ballymacoll family of the G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine Hellenic (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), her brilliant daughter Islington (Ire) and high-achieving son Greek Dance (Ire) by Sadler's Wells.

SHIOTA (IRE) (f, 2, Tamayuz {GB}--Thawrah {Ire}, by Green Desert), a June 14 debut sixth behind the 'TDN Rising Star' performance of Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) last time, raced off the tempo through the initial fractions of this one. Coming under pressure to reduce arrears passing the two pole, the 40-1 outsider kept finding extra and was driven out inside the final furlong to nail Elzem (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) by a head on the line. "She had an education in Cork and we think she's a lovely filly going forward," commented trainer Joe Murphy. "I think she's more of a three-year-old, she's after stretching since her first run and getting a bit light, but she's growing like mad. I think seven furlongs will be ideal. I thought the race in Cork was the best two-year-old race I'd seen in a long time. She's beautifully bred, she's a half-sister to two Group winners and is by a sire I like in Tamayuz. We'll see how she comes out of it, but you have the [G3] Silver Flash and the [G1] Moyglare at the end of the season. The reason she ran here was to get a feeling for the Ballyhane Stakes, so we'll have two bites at the cherry." Shaken up soon after halfway, the 25-1 outsider came under sterner urging thereafter and was driven out inside the final furlong to prevail by a half-length from Lunigiana (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}). Cont. p13

“She ran so bad first time out, but she was very green and never got into the race,” said trainer Johnny Murtagh. “Her work had been consistently good and I was expecting a bit better, so I was coming here hoping today. Fast ground and five furlongs really suits her. We think she’s a nice filly and sure to improve with a bit of racing. She’ll probably go for a winners-of-one or a stakes race now. She has a nice pedigree, her half-sister [Basil Martini] is a Group 3 winner and we’ll try and do something similar with her.” Amazing Athena is the third foal and scorer out of a half-sister to Listed Prix Petite Etoile victrix Bayargal (Bernstein) and the stakes-placed duo Bulliciosa (Successful Appeal) and Bargouzine (Stravinsky). The latter is the dam of dual Group 3-winning G1 Stewards Cup and G1 Hong Kong Mile placegetter Joyful Trinity (Ire) (Zanzibari) and the second dam of G3 Prix de Meautry winner Bouttemont (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). SWAGMAN (GER) (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Secretina {GB}, by Galileo {Ire}), who hit the board over this trip at the Curragh in his June 5 debut last time, raced prominently throughout this return. Turning for home with a narrow lead, the 15-8 favourite was nudged along when tackled on both sides approaching the two pole and kept on in resolute fashion to deny Viking Invasion (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) by a head in a bunch finish. “He had a lovely run the first day at the Curragh and he’s come on nicely since,” said Ballydoyle’s Chris Armstrong. “He’s a lovely horse and we’re probably going to see the best of him next year. He’ll appreciate going up a bit further and he handled an ease in the ground nicely. He might go for something like the [Aug. 9 Listed] El Gran Senor Stakes at Tipperary and then we’ll go from there.” Swagman, kin to the stakes-placed Santorini (Ger) (Siyouni {Fr}), is the latest of four foals and second scorer out of an unraced half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud heroine Plumania (GB) (Anabaa), G2 Prix de Royallieu victrix Balladeuse (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}) and Listed Prix de Liancourt third Dancequest (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). Listed Prix Yacowlef Cont.

Providing a boost to the form of TDN Rising Star Polyvega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), Juddmonte's Apollo Fountain made light work of Saturday's Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville. Runner-up to that Wertheimer blueblood at Chantilly last month, the 3-1 favourite was keen early in the hands of Alexis Pouchin as he opted to drop out last. Delivering a dramatic surge to hit the front passing the furlong pole, the Andre Fabre-trained daughter of the operation's G3 Prix de Lieurey winner Fount from the family of Ventura (Chester House) stayed on powerfully to record a three-length success from Kaadi.

Apollo Fountain is the second foal out of the aforementioned Fount, a daughter of the four-times top-level winner Ventura who is also the second dam of the G1 Saudi Cup hero Emblem Road (Quality Road). This is the family of the multiple group winners Trade Fair (GB) (Zafonic) and Tested (GB) (Selkirk) and the G1 Australian Cup hero Harlem (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}). Fount's yearling filly is by Dubawi (Ire). Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

James's Delight, who showed when winning a competitive York handicap last month giving weight away that he is a surefire pattern-race performer, produced his customary power-packed finish to arrive from the pack and dominate the closing stages of this black-type breakthrough.

"He travels really well and I didn't expect him too pick up that well," J-Clifford Lee said. "He's always run well with a bit of juice in the ground and I'm sure he'll keep progressing."

The dam, whose unraced 2-year-old colt Horcher (Ire) (Equiano {Fr}) was a €26,000 purchase by BBA Ireland for Javier Maldonado at the Goffs Orby Book 2, hails from a middle-distance family which includes last year's G3 Derby Italiano-placed Relentless Voyager (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) and the G1 1,000 Guineas heroine Sleepytime (Ire) (Royal Academy). WORLDWIDE NEWS

He added, "We are expecting a lot for this sale. So far, this has been a very good sale and a lot of good horses have been sold here. As you said, the Japan Derby winner was sold at this sale a couple of years ago. We have had many, many lookers visiting the farm in recent weeks so I am expecting good things."

Last year's JRHA Select Sale was a behemoth and flew somewhat in the face of what many people were experiencing in Europe and even to a certain extent in America when the words 'polarised' and 'market correction' didn't miss a sales report. But Japanese racing is in a very different place to the rest of the world right now.

Prize-money is soaring, as is betting turnover, owner-incentives give people a proper chance of recouping their losses and the quality of the stock being presented to the sales has never been stronger. It's this perfect storm, according to Yoshida, that has Japanese racing in such a healthy state.

"I expect the market to be strong," he continued. "But last year's market was a record-breaking market so we don't know if it will be as strong as it was last year. It should be very strong, though. There are a lot of new owners who want to spend money. I think there are many people ready to spend ¥100 million. There are always new people wanting to get involved with Japanese racing.

"It is good circulation. Prize-money is good, many new people are coming into the industry and they invest a lot of money in the yearling market. That provides breeders with an opportunity to reinvest that money in mares and stallion fees." Cont. p16

"Prize-money is good, many new people are coming into the industry and they invest a lot of money in the yearling market. That provides breeders with an opportunity to reinvest that money in mares and stallion fees."

--Teruya Yoshida

He added, "The quality is on the up. And I am very confident in the quality of our horses. There are so many good horses with good pedigree and nice conformation. Those horses should attract good buyers. No problem. And we have buyers coming at every level.

"Also, we have seen a lot of good runners bought here for a reasonable price. For example, Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), who finished second in the Breeders' Cup Classic last year, cost less than $100,000 at this sale. This year, his full-brother will be more expensive, no problem! My son Tetsuya's father-in-law bought Derma Sotogake. He is a lucky man."

When it is put to Yoshida that luck has been his friend in life as well, mainly when it came to finding the breed-shaping Sunday Silence, the backstory of which was excellently laid out by Emma Berry in these pages almost exactly 12 months ago, he agrees.

"Not just Sunday Silence but Northern Taste as well. Both of them, we have been very lucky. When we bought Northern Taste at the Saratoga Sale, he cost us $100,000. He would become the champion sire in Japan 11 times. That was the very beginning of our luck. Even at that time, Nijinsky (Can) had run already and was the Triple Crown winner. We saw many sons of Northern Dancer in the sale. When they had run already, we knew we couldn't afford them, so that's why we decided to buy as a yearling. Very, very lucky."

He added on Sunday Silence, "We had a farm in Kentucky and Arthur Hancock was our neighbour. One day, our horses got loose and got out on the road. Arthur helped us catch the horses and put them back in the field. From that day, we became friends."

But is Yoshida lucky or good? How Zenya Yoshida and now his sons Teruya, Katsumi and Haruya have transformed the ownership model throughout the past couple of decades to drive fan engagement has proved to be one of Japanese racing's secret weapons.

Okay, large-scale ownership groups are not exactly a new phenomenon in this game. But where else in the world have genuine superstars like Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) and more recently Equinox (Jpo) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) raced for multi-share racing clubs? Lest we forget that, of the five Japanese-trained winners on Dubai World Cup Night in 2022, four of those were successful for similar clubs. Such is the importance of racing clubs and syndicates in Japan, they are understood to make up 70 per cent of the entire ownership pool in the country.

"Maybe not a secret weapon but a weapon," Yoshida laughs. "It has been very popular. Many racing fans like to get involved and it fuels future ownership. The purse system in Japan is very good, so that is one reason why it is possible. The other is that horse racing is very popular with the people here and there are a lot of racing fans. Many people come to the races to see the horses. Naturally, they would like the feeling of owning a horse and getting that experience. It's like supporting a team. Europe has the same thing--like the Highclere Syndicate for example. But because of our purse system and the amount of racing fans we have, it is much better than in Europe."

He added, "If we have a superstar in sport, regardless of the sport, they become so popular here in Japan. In baseball for example, we have a guy in America doing many home runs called Shohei Ohtani. He earns $700 million for 10 years. Ninety per cent of American people know his name and he is super famous over here. He gave free baseball gloves to every elementary school in Japan. That's a big number of gloves."

The point being drilled home by Yoshida is that Japanese people remain infatuated with stardom. A quick walk through the Northern Farm Horse Park, which is open to the public, confirms as much with an entire shop dedicated to selling racing-related merchandise.

One cannot help but notice the countless teddy-bear sized horses bedecked in famous silks. From Almond Eye to Deep Impact (Jpn), you can purchase your very own superstar. The fan-driven syndicate model is a step above that level of transaction but it speaks to the same principal.

"We have produced many [individual] horse owners after they had a good feeling owning a horse [at a smaller level]. When they get older and richer, they might decide to own a horse of their own. Do you know that 70 per cent of the entire owners in the JRA are made up by our racing clubs? Amazing. This is very important and JRA knows this. At first, the JRA may have been a little bit suspicious of our system, but now they are great believers. When we decided to do this, we decided to do it right. We do everything correct and we present good, quality horses. This is also very important."

And with this, a brochure featuring 88 exquisitely-bred yearlings that will soon be put on the market and syndicated under the banner of Shadai Race Horse Co Ltd is opened up. There is a guide price beside every horse and Yoshida reveals that the expectation is that each share will be filled within a fortnight of those 88 yearlings being put on the market.

The ownership model is a simple one, in that syndicate members are only signing up for the racing experience and, if the horse becomes a stallion prospect or a potential blue hen broodmare, she can be circulated back into the Shadai breeding operation. Ingenious really.

But when this ownership model is providing people with up-close and personal experiences with this year's leading three-year-old miler in Japan Jantar Mantar, for example, and other recognisable forces like Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), Stars On Earth (Jpn) (Duramante {Jpn}) and more, the relationship works both ways.

Those horses being offered for syndication in that brochure are obviously completely separate to the ones who will go under the hammer at the Select Sale on Monday and Tuesday. Having scouted through the barns at Shadai Farm followed by Northern Farm, it's hard to disagree with Yoshida's prediction that another blockbuster sale could be in store. But then again, you reap what you sow.

"We have spent a lot of money on our broodmare band down through the years," Yoshida says. "We just look for what everybody else wants—high-class mares. We bought a lot of broodmares all over the world in the past 20 years and in Europe especially as the Japanese Yen was so strong. We could afford to buy them. Also, your market [the European market] was not strong. Even Deep Impact's mother, [Wind In Her Hair (Ire) (Alzao)] was second in the Oaks and we bought her."

And last year Japanese buyers were very active at the December Mares Sale at Tattersalls.

"Yes, because we are still rich—we still can buy," Yoshida says, before erupting into belly laughter. This may be serious stuff but nobody seems to get bogged down about anything here. Yoshida himself has time for a laugh and a joke just as much as anyone else on the tour of the barns and sits through each show as if it were his first.

One sire that pops up more than most is Contrail (Jpn). It is clear from visiting both farms that the hope is that the Japanese Triple Crown-winning son of Deep Impact can be spoken of in the same glowing terms of his father.

It was at this sale 12 months ago when Contrail really announced himself as a sire to take serious note of when a colt of his topped the foal session at ¥520 million [$3.7m].

Lot 377, a Contrail colt out of Argentinian 1,000 Guineas heroine Joy Nikita (Arg) (Fortify) is being tipped by Shadai's Tsubasa Sato to fly the flag for the stallion once again.

Then you have lot 364 at Northern Farm, a Kitan Black (Jpn) colt foal out of German Oaks winner Serienholde (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). He's a half-brother to Schnell Meister (Ger) (Kingman {GB}) and his reserve--which is completely transparent in Japan--has been set at ¥70 million, the highest reserve set by Northern Farm in the sale.

Add that to Shadai's Epiphaneia (Jpn) colt foal [lot 384], who clearly holds a certain amount of sentimental value to Yoshida, as he didn't need to be asked twice to pose for a photograph with the mare Carina Mia (Malibu Moon) and her offspring.

Shadai forked out $2.6 million on the Grade I winner at Fasig-Tipton in 2021 and, with a cracking Epiphaneia colt foal at foot, is now happily reported to be in foal to Equinox. Not to mention Northern Farm offering the only Gun Runner foal in the sale and one of three foals by Flightline as well.

With such quality everywhere you look, perhaps Yoshida's confidence is well-placed.
