

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: SANFORD CHAMP MO PLEX COULD RUN IN SPA'S HOPEFUL OR FUNNY CIDE

Mo Plex | Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y.--Trainer Jeremiah Englehart has some time to figure out what to do next with GIII Sanford Stakes winner Mo Plex (Complexity).

The 2-year-old colt came out of his one-length Sanford win last Saturday in good shape, Englehart said Thursday outside his barn at the Oklahoma Annex.

Now he has to decide when we'll see Mo Plex again. The options are the six-furlong, $200,000 Funny Cide for New York-breds on Aug. 25 or the seven-furlong, $300,000 GI Hopeful on Sept. 2, closing day.

"I am definitely not ruling out coming back in the New York-bred race," Englehart said. "You don't know who is going to break their maiden from now until then. The Funny Cide could be an option if I want to give him a little easier test."

Running in the Hopeful might be more appealing to owners Rick Higgins and Howard Read, who are from Albany and Saratoga Springs.

Mo Plex won his debut easily--by 10 lengths--at Aqueduct on June 20. He had to work a little harder in the Sanford.

SATURDAY SIRES: COMPLEXITY by Jill Williams

At this point in the season, a freshman sire can hardly do better than to win Saratoga's--and the nation's--first graded stakes of the year for 2-year-olds. When that young stallion also leads the nation's first-crop sires in winners with 12 (75% of starters), he's signaling he might be something special.

With that kind of start, it's no surprise Airdrie Stud's Complexity, a son of Maclean's Music, is firmly on top of the freshman stallion list at this early juncture. He's also currently leading all sires, regardless of number of crops, by 2-year-old winners and earnings this year.

"It's such a long process of waiting from first getting a stallion, so to be top freshman sire at this point and to lead the overall sires of 2-year-olds with a considerable-enough lead is really everything that you work for and hope for as a stallion farm," said Bret Jones, president of Airdrie Stud. Cont. p5

“The first race didn’t take a whole lot out of him,” Englehart said. “He got a little worked up [in the Sanford] in the paddock and [jockey] Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] had to ask him from start to finish. You worry about how much the race takes out of him.”

Englehart had another impressive juvenile debut when Bellacose (Audible) romped to a 10 3/4-length win vs. New York-breds on Wednesday.

Last year, Englehart won four races at the 40-day meet.

“Every win in Saratoga is special,” he said. “You never know when the next one is going to come. People have said to me that I must have thought [Bellacose] was going to be good. I didn’t think she could really do that, but she is competitive enough where I could see her doing it. It’s always good when you get your first 2-year-olds to run like that.”

White Abarrio Back Home, But No Races Are On Horizon

White Abarrio (Race Day) has been reunited with trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. But it doesn’t appear as though there are any races on the schedule for the 2023 GI Breeders’ Cup Classic winner. At least not in the near future.

“We’re thankful to have him back,” Joseph said outside his barn on the Saratoga backstretch. “Hopefully, we’ll get him back to his top form.”

White Abarrio is not currently in Joseph’s barn, but he’s not far away. The trainer said the grey or roan 5-year-old is at GMP Farm in nearby Schuylerville for some time off.

“He will probably be there for two or three weeks for some down time,” Joseph said. “We just want to let him be a horse for a few weeks.”

Joseph said White Abarrio will start some light training at GMP Farm before coming back to his barn in about five weeks.

After that, the plan is to have White Abarrio breeze and then get him back to the races.

“Our goal is to work backwards from the [GI] Pegasus [at Gulfstream Park on Jan. 25],” Joseph said. “There is no set plan yet, because you can’t have a set plan until you get back on the work chart.” Cont.

White Abarrio had run 11 times while under Joseph’s watch until co-owner Mark Cornett moved the horse to trainer Rick Dutrow in May of 2023. That came about because Joseph was barred from racing at Churchill Downs after two of his horses died suddenly at the track within two days.

The New York Racing Association also barred Joseph, who was pointing White Abarrio to the 2023 GI Metropolitan Handicap. Cornett had to make a change if White Abarrio was going to run in the Metropolitan.

“With the situation I was in, what are you going to do, stop the horse’s career because of me?,” Joseph said. “The owners had to make a decision to go forward and it turned out to be the right decision because he won two Grade Is.”

Under Dutrow, White Abarrio was third in the Met Mile and won the GI Whitney and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic last year. In two starts this year, White Abarrio was 10th in the G1 Saudi Cup and fifth in the Metropolitan Handicap.

The day after the Metropolitan, Cornett moved the horse back to Joseph.

“He has run two below-par races,” Joseph said. “Obviously, he is much better than that.”

In 11 starts for Joseph, White Abarrio had four wins, a second and a third. The biggest wins were the 2022 GIII Holy Bull and GI Florida Derby.

During his 36-race career, Casa Creed had nine wins, five seconds and six thirds. Four of his eight stakes races were Grade I events. His career earnings were $2,691,308. Cont.

Casa Creed | Sarah Andrew

He won the GI Jaipur Stakes twice as well as the GI Fourstardave Handicap twice.

His second score in the Fourstardave came last year at the hearty age of seven.

“A big part of life is making great memories,” Einsidler, who owned the horse with partner Mike Francesa, said recently at the Spa. “And Casa Creed is at the top of my list.”

The last race was the GIII Poker Stakes at Saratoga on June 8 during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival. Casa Creed finished third and, soon after had a problem with a hind ankle.

That’s when the decision came to end the racing career.

“He’s sound, pasture sound,” Mott said. “He’s not sound enough to come out here and work and run another race. He just had had enough.”

Einsidler bought Casa Creed for $105,000 at the 2017 Keeneland Association September Yearling sale. He broke his maiden on dirt but spent the majority of his career on the grass.

Casa Creed also won the GII National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame Stakes in 2019 when he was three and last year’s GIII Kelso Stakes. Both of those races were at Saratoga. Cont.

Jones continued: “We all know we’re a long way from the finish line, but we really believe we’ve got a shot with this horse. We hope he can continue to climb the ladder.

“Our great hope is that his story is far from written.”

If Complexity’s story as a sire is on chapter one, he’s crafted a beginning sure to appeal to the masses. In addition to undefeated graded winner Mo Plex, who captured Saturday’s GIII Sanford Stakes, Complexity has sired the winning Astoria Stakes third-place finisher French Horn, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Complexion, and nine other winners. That would be a pretty nice start for a freshman by this fall, but it’s only mid-July, which makes it an exceptional start. With the opening of Saratoga last week and Del Mar this coming weekend, the 2-year-old race season is just getting started in earnest.

Jones said the buzz began at the 2-year-old sales early this spring.

“Very early on this season the news coming out of Ocala was as positive as its ever been with any new stallion we’ve ever had,” he said. “We all know how quickly that can change, but almost as soon as they hit the track down there, you started hearing positive things. Of course, the proof is when they get in the starting gate and the momentum has continued to build.

A 'TDN Rising Star' himself at two on debut, Complexity won the GI Champagne Stakes in his next out. His sophomore year was abbreviated, but he proved his mettle with a 110 Beyer Speed Figure in a Gill Kelso Handicap win at four.

"I think everybody in the business who stands stallions was following him though that 2-year-old year after that Champagne win," said Jones. "As a 3-year-old, he had some little issues that kept him out of the headlines, but never kept him far from our minds. We did the deal near the end of his racing career as a 4-year-old.

"He was such a talented racehorse. We've said for a long time how important he could be for our operation if his babies ran to their looks because he gets such a well-made foal. He has always appealed to the commercial market and he has the potential to be a real bombshell in the sales ring if he continues to churn out these runners."

Jones cautioned that while Complexity is getting precocity, the bay is also giving indications that's not the whole story.

"He's getting early horses and he was precocious himself by anybody's definition, but he was also a miler that was running 110 Beyers as a 4-year-old. That's such a feather in his cap.

"I would not dismiss anything he's doing based on the idea that they're speed balls. We believe his best days are ahead."

Jones is so bullish on Complexity that Airdrie upped the number of mares sent to him from the farm's own broodmare band in his second year.

"When those first foals started arriving, we made that decision to roll back heavily into him. We bred 26 mares of our own his second season because we were so high on his foals that we were seeing.

"He has so many attractive aspects for us," continued Jones. "We were very fortunate to get him and very grateful that [owner] Seth Klarman and [trainer] Chad Brown trusted us. We've tried to hold up our part of that bargain."

In the just-completed 2024 breeding season, Complexity covered "right around 90 mares. We ran out of breeding season. If only the season could have lasted a few more weeks so people could have seen what he was doing! We hope that's the smallest book he has going forward."

Airdrie introduced Complexity for his initial season in 2021 at $12,500, but unlike the majority of stallions, his fee never dropped in subsequent books before his first runners hit the track.

"He's always been well supported and our shareholders have all been very committed to him," said Jones. "That's so incredibly important. We've always focused on getting quality mares to him and I think we're seeing that in these results."

From a Stonestreet female family, Complexity was "a quintessential Mike Ryan/Chad Brown purchase--an athlete," said Jones. Ryan signed the Keeneland September ticket for the then-yearling for $375,000. Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables campaigned him with trainer Chad Brown, who shared his thoughts on the horse with NYRA officials at Saratoga this weekend.

"Complexity was a horse that was so good to us," said Brown. "He won the Champagne and he was a brilliant winner first time out here. He was a very precocious horse and a very likeable horse.

"I'm so pleased that the horse is off to such a good start at stud. We've had several graduates of our program that are off to really good starts at stud. It's great personally and it's great for our business for different owners and breeding farms to see that we can make good stallions here.

"We did buy Complexity as a yearling and developed him from yearling up and it's very rewarding for the whole program," continued Brown.

With the yearling sales season of 2024 about to get into full swing, Complexity brings a considerable head of steam. He had a pair of second-crop yearlings sell for $250,000 at last week's Fasig-Tipton July Sale. Overall, including last year's first yearlings, 98 have changed hands at sales while averaging $81,139 to date, or 6 1/2 times his stud fee. His 42 juveniles this spring have done well, too, with a healthy $102,792 mean.

"He's always gotten that good, nice sales type and the hope is that continues at the racetrack," said Jones. "So far, so good."

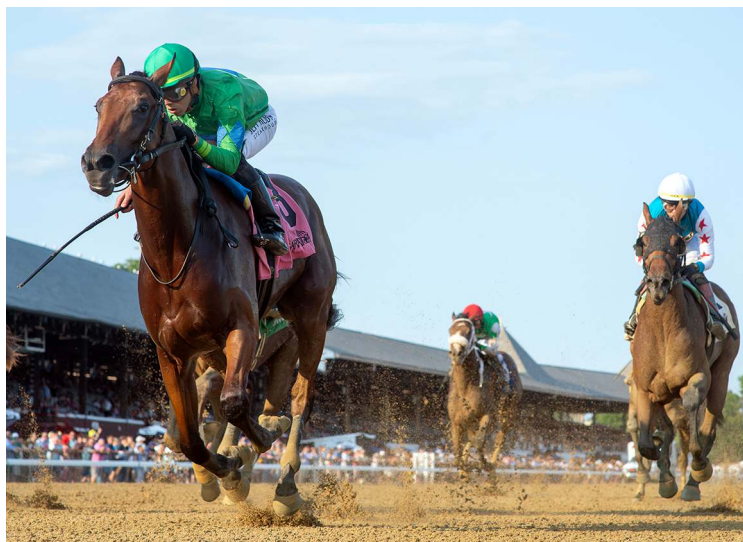

Complexity's very first winner, Mensa, was featured in a one-horse Fasig-Tipton Digital flash sale in April, just two weeks after that initial win. He brought $740,000 to Resolute Bloodstock's bid.

Jones stresses how important it is to a stallion farm's success to have horses farm principals can believe in. Cont.

Complexity's Mo Plex takes Saturday's Sanford | Sarah Andrew

“Our stallion roster is everything to us as we breed the overwhelming amount of our own mares to our own stallions. We're not going to bring in a horse that we're not going to support ourselves.

“We've been fortunate to breed 14 stakes winners this year and that starts in our stallion barn. If our stallion barn is firing, then our broodmare band will be firing and we're going to have good sales. It all starts there.”

As Jones said, Complexity's story is still being written. If his future results match or exceed the early chapters, the sequel promises to be a bestseller.

TRIKARI OUTRUNNING HIS SALES PRICE

by Jessica Martini

When bloodstock agent Bob Feld and his son Sean first saw Trikari (Oscar Performance) at the 2022 OBS October Sale, they pegged him as a definite six-figure yearling and, with no clients for whom to buy the handsome bay, they moved on to the next one. But when the father-son team saw the colt had RNA'd for $30,000, they purchased him privately for just $27,500. Now campaigned by the Amermans, Trikari is a Grade I winner with earnings closing in on a million dollars.

“My son and I were at OBS--we go to all the sales--and we loved this Oscar Performance, but we really didn't have anyone to buy an Oscar Performance for,” Feld, a longtime advisor to John and Jerry Amerman, who bred and campaigned Oscar Performance, said. “The Amermans had never bought a yearling at OBS. And nothing really registered as far as we should buy this horse for somebody, mostly because we thought he had a $100,000 to $150,000 kind of body. I was looking at the results and I saw he RNA'd for $30,000. I thought he was way too nice for $30,000. So I went and looked at the vet report and there were some things on the vet report, but I called the Amermans--only because of the Oscar angle--and I told them he's a really nice colt with a nice page, if you can ignore that the dam hasn't done much yet.”

Trikari is out of Dynamic Holiday (Harlan's Holiday), winner of the 2011 GIII Herecomesthebride Stakes and third in the GII Lake Placid Stakes. She had produced five foals before Trikari, with only two making it to the races and no winners.

“She won a Grade III, she's by Harlan's Holiday, who I love,” Feld said of the mare. “The second dam is a Dynaformer, with a really great pedigree and family. So I said, ‘How about we vet him out and see what the vet says. If the vet says OK, we will make an offer.’”

Dr. Jared High vetted the yearling for Feld and gave an upbeat report.

“He said, ‘You know what, there are some dings here, but this horse just needs time,’” Feld recalled. “If you just give him some extra time and don't break him for six, seven, eight months later than you would normally break a horse, he will be fine.”

The yearling, purchased by Angel Ordonez for $9,000 at the Keeneland January sale earlier in 2022, was consigned to the October sale by Ordonez Thoroughbreds.

“Once Dr. High said it was a go, I went back to the barn and I offered the guy $25,000,” Feld recalled. “And he was wincing and saying, ‘Oh, I really want $30,000.’ So I said, ‘How about we split the difference. I will give you $27,500.’ And he agreed, so we went to the office and signed the paperwork.”

“$27,500 is obviously an odd price,” Feld admitted with a chuckle. “I told someone the other day, I would bet there has never been a Grade I winner bought at auction for $27,500.”

Of the issues on the vet report that might have put off some potential buyers, Feld said, “It was sesamoiditis, just stuff that needed time.” Cont..

Trikari | Susie Raisher

Feld continued: "There was nothing glaring. But a lot of times, especially at the OBS yearling sale, everyone leans on the vet report. They don't hire vets because that gets too expensive. There was just enough on there where I think it discouraged a lot of people. Everyone was kind of looking the other way. But I thought he was the best physical in the sale. I just didn't think I had a client who had $100,000 or $150,000 to buy him."

Trikari was sent to Barry Berkelhammer's Abracadabra Farm for his early training and, once given the extra time he needed, was sent to trainer Graham Motion.

"He's been pretty much straightforward," Feld said of the colt's progress. "I think he had a little niggling thing that Graham mentioned to me, but Graham liked him right away. Graham obviously trained [MGISW] Miss Temple City for us and he was very happy with her and excited about her. But he really gushes about Trikari, so that got me excited early on when he said this horse can really run. He went slow with him, too. He knew, full disclosure, that he needed time. So he gave him even extra time when he got to the track."

Trikari's first start--a last-of-12 finish at Keeneland in October of his juvenile season--may not have inspired much confidence, but the colt returned to graduate over the Tapeta at Gulfstream in December. He added the Rushaway Stakes over the synthetic surface at Turfway in March before upsetting the GII American Turf Stakes as a 47-1 outsider over the Churchill lawn on the Derby undercard. Third best in a blanket finish in the May 31 GIII Penn Mile, Trikari was sent off at 5-1 while trying top-level company for the first time in the Belmont Derby.

Close-up to a sluggish pace, Trikari outbattled resurgent pacesetter White Palomino (Kitten's Joy) in the final strides for a dramatic victory July 6.

"Oh yes, I did," Feld said when asked if he thought Trikari had gotten the bob. "Actually, I don't want to brag, but I am pretty good with photo finishes. I have been watching the races since I was eight years old, so it's over 50 years of photo finishes."

He continued, "The Amermans flew out from California to the race. I really wanted to go, but we had to look at the July sale horses. Sean and I went to McCarthy's to watch it on TV and we were screaming. People were giving us dirty looks, but we were screaming."

Bob Feld (center) with Jerry and John Amerman | Keeneland

The Felds have built a steady reputation for finding future graded-stakes runners at bargain prices. They purchased multiple graded-placed Sueno (Atreides) for $61,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September sale and Hot Rod Charlie (Indian Charlie) for $17,000 at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton February sale before reselling the future Grade I winner and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up for $110,000 at Fasig-Tipton that October.

"Maybe I am Pollyanna, but every time my son and I buy a horse, we think it's potentially a Grade I winner," Feld said. "We really do. We have been very fortunate buying Grade I winners at low prices and it's been fun to kind of get a reputation that we can buy a nice horse for not a whole lot of money. So honestly, no matter what I pay, I believe could be a Grade I winner. That's just my attitude."

Finding those bargains is a labor of love for Feld.

"What I love the most about the auction is the process," he said. "The process is so amazing. There is so much going on. Everyone has their team and their notes. It's like sifting for gold. My son and I work every sale by ourselves--including the September sale--we look at every horse at every sale. We split the horses up. We swap short lists and then we get that down to a short, short list. Then we go together and look at the horses. When you get to the point where you buy a Trikari, the feeling is so amazing and so satisfying."

Feld continued, "And I am proud of our numbers. We don't buy 20 or 30 horses a year. We buy 10 or 12. Our only pinhook, the one year that Sean and I bought our own horse to pinhook, was Hot Rod Charlie. The only horse the Amermans have ever bought at OBS as a yearling is Trikari. I remember one year, the only filly I bought at OBS--and we only bought two that year the whole season at OBS--was a champion 2-year-old filly [in Florida], K P Dreamin. The percentages are what we are really proud of. But it's all part of the process. And through the process, you find a vet report that you can deal with, you find a so-called bad sire that no one wants that has a rock star body. If Trikari was by Gun Runner or Uncle Mo, he would have brought $250,000. A lot of the horses we buy, if they were by different sires, they would be a lot more money. So we are definitely buying physicals and the physical does seem to outrun the pedigree a lot." Cont.

Trikari, cont.

Sean Feld | Emma Berry

As the Felds continue their quest for their next Grade I winner, Trikari’s summer agenda is still to be determined.

“There are a couple of different options that Graham is looking at,” Feld said of a potential next start for the newly minted Grade I winner. “But nothing is etched in stone. He is going to see how he trains. Graham didn’t think he was going to the Penn Mile, but he was training so good, he went there. So it’s going to just depend on how he is training. But there are so many options for 3-year-old colts in the summertime on the grass. And there is plenty of money out there.”

INAUGURAL KEENELAND CHAMPIONSHIP SALE SET FOR WEDNESDAY OF BREEDERS’ CUP WEEK

The inaugural Keeneland Championship Sale, an opportunity for owners to acquire top-class racehorses and breeding stock, will be held the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 30, in the paddock at Del Mar, site of the 2024 Breeders’ Cup World Championships, Keeneland said in a release on Thursday afternoon.

Participation in the sale is by invitation; buyers and sellers will be contacted individually by Keeneland sales representatives. Interested parties also are encouraged to click here for more information.

“The Keeneland Championship Sale is an opportunity to play at the highest levels of the sport,” Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. “Prospective owners have the chance to enjoy the ride of a lifetime, potentially taking a horse from the sales ring to the Breeders’ Cup winner’s circle and possibly back to the sales ring, all in less than a week. That’s a rare thrill only horse racing can provide.”

Capitalizing on the Breeders’ Cup atmosphere, participants will enjoy an exclusive party from the paddock. This event, which will be part of the Breeders’ Cup Official Event Calendar, will feature handcrafted cocktails, unique culinary offerings, live music and other surprises to celebrate what promises to be a memorable evening.

“The Keeneland Championship Sale is a welcome addition and an innovative concept which further enhances the exceptional experience of the Breeders’ Cup World Championships for our participants and international guests,” said Drew Fleming, Breeders’ Cup President and CEO. “We are delighted to welcome the Keeneland team as they conduct the Keeneland Championship Sale at Del Mar and look forward to working with them and Del Mar to showcase this very special evening for the Thoroughbred industry.”

The catalogue for this exciting, one-of-a-kind auction event will feature:

- Horses entered in the Breeders’ Cup or Breeders’ Cup undercard races; may include full sale or fractional ownership interest.
- Bloodstock closely related to contenders in the World Championships.
- Stallion shares or breeding rights in hot sires.

“Keeneland takes its relationship with our customers very seriously; our role is to create the best sales environment possible for buyers and sellers to enjoy success,” Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. “The Championship Sale is an example of the creative offerings Keeneland is excited to provide as we meet the emerging trends in our sport. An eager buyer could join an ownership group and experience the fun of participating in the Breeders’ Cup with a world-class contender. Afterward, should their owners choose to do so, those horses in the Championship Sale will have free and preferential entry into Keeneland’s November Breeding Stock Sale on Nov. 5.” Cont.

"I'm looking forward to a paddock sale in Del Mar during the excitement of the Breeders' Cup," said SF Racing's Tom Ryan. "I believe that Keeneland will naturally attract a global audience to participate in the event. It will be a great opportunity to showcase established racehorses and hopefully acquire some high-quality race fillies and mares. I've been to several Arc sales and similar concepts around the world, and it does create a little bit of excitement around the potential prospect of buying into a horse who can run in a big event within 72 hours. It creates access to participate in championship events that are very hard to access under normal circumstances."

Horses may be entered in the Keeneland Championship Sale at any time prior to the auction by contacting the Keeneland sales team, who will provide concierge entry services. Given the sale's proximity to the Breeders' Cup races, all catalogued horses will be offered remotely but will be available for inspection by appointment with the seller in their respective locations. Video of each hip also will be available to prospective buyers.

Buyers must register and be approved for credit in advance. Qualified buyers may bid in person at the sale, online via the Keeneland Sales Portal or by phone with a Keeneland representative.

GRADED STAKES WINNERS AND LAKIN DISPERSAL HEADLINE FASIG JULY DIGITAL SALE; BIDDING NOW OPEN

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 214 entries for its inaugural July Digital Sale, which may be viewed at digital.fasigtipton.com. Bidding is now open and will close on Tuesday, July 23, beginning at 12 p.m. ET.

Hades | Ryan Thompson

The catalogue features 84 horses of racing age, led by 2024 graded stakes winners Hades (Awesome Slew) (Hip 1) and Nadette (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) (Hip 39). A leader in his 3-year-old crop this year, Hades captured the GIII Holy Bull Stakes in January and recently finished second in the GIII Dwyer Stakes on July 6. Nadette (Fr), a 5-year-old graded stakes winning mare of $329,634, won the Beverly D. Preview Stakes by nearly five lengths at Colonial Downs this past weekend.

Breeding stock on offer is led by the Dispersal of the Lakin Estate Partnership, which includes broodmares as well as several New York-foaled weanlings. The Lakin entries are consigned by Sequel New York, as agent.

In total, there are 89 broodmares or broodmare prospects catalogued, including 28 mares with foals at foot. Covering sires represented include American Pharoah, Cyberknife, Forte, Tiz the Law, Golden Pal, Oscar Performance, Street Sense, and Yaupon.

The catalogue also includes 24 yearlings, as well as unraced 2-year-olds, and a stallion prospect.

"The interest from sellers in this inaugural July Digital Sale has been overwhelming," said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales. "We have quality racehorses at all levels, including high-end stakes horses and recent winners."

"Our breeding stock entries are especially impressive for a mid-summer sale," Aaron continued. "Mare and weanling buyers need to zero in on this catalogue or risk missing some major opportunities."

QATAR RACING PRIVATELY ACQUIRES 50% SHARE IN GABALDON AFTER INGLIS DIGITAL USA JULY SALE

Gabaldon (Gone Astray), a runner-up finisher in last month's Windsor Castle Stakes at Royal Ascot, will race for a new partnership after Qatar Racing privately acquired a 50 percent stake in the colt following Wednesday's Inglis Digital USA July Sale, the online auction company said in a Thursday release.

Qatar Racing purchased 50 percent of the colt for $150,000, valuing him at $300,000, while original owner Soldi Stable will retain a 50 percent stake. Bloodstock agent Fergus Galvin brokered the deal on behalf of Qatar Racing.

"Gabaldon's performance at Ascot caught our eye," Galvin said. "The team at Inglis helped us acquire him in partnership with the original owners. We bought a 2-year-old by Lope de Vega (Ire), Bongos (Ire), as well." Cont.

Gabaldon | Lauren King

"With the quality of offerings Inglis Digital USA are bringing we will be sure to continue to participate in future sales."

Jose D'Angelo trained Gabaldon for his original owner and the colt will remain with him after the transaction.

"Soldi Stables and Qatar Racing has reached an agreement in which Gabaldon, who has started a stellar campaign winning the Royal Palm Stakes at Gulfstream Park, and later a magnificent race in the Windsor Castle Stakes at the tough Royal Ascot meeting in June, will run in partnership," said Alfonso Soued of Soldi Stable. "The goal is to race Gabaldon at the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. In the meantime, his next race will be the Skidmore Stakes at Saratoga. He will continue under the magnificent training of Jose F. D'Angelo, who has done so far a great work and believed in Gabaldon as a potential star since day one."

Bred in Florida by Carol Ann Reitman, Susan Gannon and Warren Miller, Gabaldon is out of the Value Plus mare Valuable Miss. His full-brother, Valuable Breigh, is a seven-time winner from ages two to four.

"Gabaldon is an impressive horse who has been proven internationally," said Inglis Digital USA CEO Liza Hendriks. "We are thrilled for the connections who have been able to take advantage of a global marketplace and look forward to what the future holds for him."

OCALA'S PETERSON SMITH EQUINE HOSPITAL ENHANCES CARE WITH NEW CT WING

Ocala-based Peterson Smith Equine Hospital recently completed a new CT wing to their facility, the healthcare provider said in a release early Thursday.

The project included comprehensive upgrades to the lobby and examination rooms, along with the construction of a cutting-edge standing surgery suite.

The new development includes the installation of the Qalibra Aquillion Exceed LB Computed Tomography (CT) system, which features industry-leading technology and a large (90cm) bore.

The advanced CT unit enables safe and efficient diagnostic imaging of patients under standing sedation or general anesthesia. The enhanced imaging capabilities provide the hospital's veterinary team with critical information, ultimately improving equine patient outcomes.

"With access to these detailed three-dimensional images from the CT scan as part of our diagnostic process, we can confidently identify specific issues and plan surgeries and treatment more effectively," said Dr. Faith Hughes.

REGISTRATION OPEN FOR HASKELL HANDICAPPING CHALLENGE

Registration is now open for Monmouth Park's $1,000 Haskell Handicapping Challenge on Saturday, July 20.

Now in its fourth year, the Haskell Challenge boasted a record 265 entries in 2023. Last year's winner, Gwyn Houston, took home his $7,100 bankroll plus a $17,000 cash prize and a Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge (BCBC) seat. In addition to the eight total BCBC prizes, two seats to the NTRA National Horseplayers Championship were awarded last year and will be awarded again this year.

The Haskell Challenge can only be played online through Xpressbet, TVG, 4NJBETS and HPI. In order to participate, contest players must pre-register.

TVG and 4NJBETS players must pre-register with contest director Brian Skirka by Friday, July 19, at 3 p.m. Eastern. Skirka can be reached at 732-571-6595 or bskirka@monmouthpark.com.

HPI players must pre-register with Klaus Ebner at kbner@woodbine.com by the same deadline.

REMINGTON PARK INSTALLS NEW TURF RAIL

Remington Park's new turf rail | Courtesy of Remington Park

With the Thoroughbred meet set to open Aug. 16, Remington Park in Oklahoma City has installed 5,500 linear feet of new inner turf railing, replacing the traditional aluminum one, officials at the track said in a release Thursday.

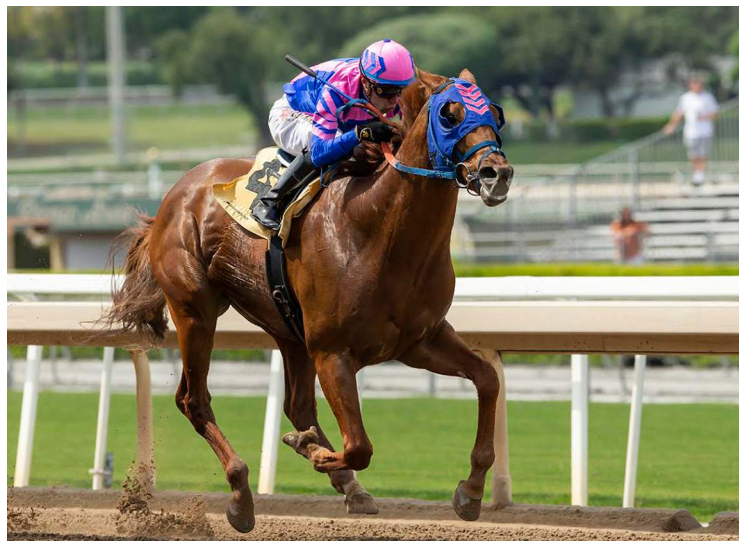

"We purchased the new rail from Equinox Racing. It is amazing," said Remington's Executive Vice President of Racing Matt Vance. "Several prominent tracks have gone to this type of rail made from PVC. I recently saw a race from France on YouTube where a horse hit this kind of rail, taking out about 40 feet of the rail, and when all was said and done there wasn't a scratch on the horse or the jockey."

The installation covers the entire seven-eighths of a mile circumference of the turf course and also includes the turf chute that allows for races up to 1 1/8 miles.

"We are really excited about this new rail. Not only is it safer, but it is easier to deal with when it comes to changing the starting point for different distances," said Vance. "It should take half the manpower to change the rail settings in comparison to the old aluminum rail. It's just easier to work with."

MGSW BRICKYARD RIDE RETIRED TO RANCHO SAN MIGUEL

Brickyard Ride | Benoit

Alfred Pais's homebred Brickyard Ride (Clubhouse Ride--Brickyard Helen, by Southern Image), a multiple graded stakes winner who campaigned from ages two to seven, has been retired and will stand the 2025 season at Rancho San Miguel in Central California. His introductory fee will be $4,000, live foal.

"He had wicked speed, and he stuck around for a long time," said trainer Craig Lewis, who trained both Brickyard Ride and his sire, Clubhouse Ride. "He was a very, very talented horse who loved to train, and he loved the competition, just like his daddy."

Last seen finishing second earlier this year to The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) in the California Cup Sprint Stakes, Brickyard Ride's eight black-type victories include the GII San Carlos Stakes and two editions of the GIII Kona Gold Stakes. He retires with a record of 31-13-2-6 and earnings of $925,477.

"We are blessed to have such a talented athlete join our stallion roster," said Rancho San Miguel's Tom Clark. "As has been observed by many smart horsemen over the years, you cannot coach speed."

Brickyard Ride is available for inspection at Rancho San Miguel, where he will stand as the property of Pais.

CASSE'S 'RECRUITS' SHOW UP IN SPA MAIDEN SPRINT ON TURF by Tim Wilkin

Abientot | Sarah Andrew

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – In the fall of every year, Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse is out on the recruiting trail. He looks for the best four-legged athletes he can find. He goes to Lexington to seek out young talent.

If Thursday's sixth race at Saratoga Race Course-- a $100,000 maiden special weight at 5 1/2 furlongs on the Mellon Turf--is any indication, coach Casse may have found a couple of blue chippers at the 2023 Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Tracy Farmer's Abientot (Not This Time) finished strongly to win the race for 2-year-old fillies by a half-length over her stablemate, Gary Barber's Will Reign (War of Will). Both horses went off at odds of 5-1 in the field of 10.

"I try to bring some of my better young horses here," Casse said after pictures were taken in the Saratoga winner's circle. "If you see me bringing them, it shows you they have shown me something where I feel they deserve a shot up here. It doesn't always work."

For the most part, things have worked out just fine this year for Casse and his young horses. According to Equibase, Casse has now won 16 races with 2-year-olds this year in 84 starts. Will Reign's runner-up finish gives Casse 11 seconds in baby races.

The process started at Keeneland where Casse takes pride in being able to analyze a young horse and tell if it is one that might help him down the road.

"I just thought they were both athletes," Casse said when he saw both Abientot and Will Reign at Keeneland. "When I look at horses, it doesn't matter if they are big, small, tall, long ... I just look for athletes and pedigrees. I have been doing this for 45 years. When you write an article, you know when it's a good article or a bad one. Tina [Casse's wife] goes with me and we make a $300,000, $400,000 or $500,000 decision on a horse after looking at it for two or three minutes. It's what I do. To me, the recruiting is what I enjoy the most."

In the case of Abientot, Casse said that owner Farmer enlists a team to look at horses at the Keeneland sale.

"Then they come to me and I say yes or no to them," Casse said.

There was more sentiment involved with Will Reign, whose sire War of Will won the 2019 GI Preakness Stakes for the Casse/Barber team and also was victorious on the lawn, winning the GI Maker's Mile Stakes at Keeneland in 2020.

"We went out and bought a bunch of War of Wills because we felt like Gary Barber wanted to give him his best shot, and we did that," Casse said.

Abientot, who was ridden by Dylan Davis, was one of three fillies in the race to have started. She took the lead inside the sixteenth pole and then had enough left to hold off her rallying stablemate.

The final time was 1:03.22 and Abientot paid $13.20. She was bred by Killora Stud, LLC.

"It's a huge advantage," Casse said when asked what having already raced means. "It's why I try to get starts into them. I figure for a horse that hasn't started, they need to be about 15% better than horses that have started."

Mark and Tina Casse | Sarah Andrew

Abientot will likely return to the Spa in the Bolton Landing Stakes Aug. 18. Casse will look for another maiden event for Will Reign, who was ridden Thursday by Flavien Prat.

Both horses did what Casse had hoped they would do when he first eyeballed them at the Keeneland sale. They showed athleticism, they showed promise. And one got to the winner's circle.

"The filly that won is a little thing," Casse said. "I said to the valet, 'I can't see over many when I saddle.' You know they are not very big if I can see over them. But, if size meant anything, a rabbit could not outrun a cow."

6th-Saratoga, $100,000, Msw, 7-18, 2yo, f, 5 1/2fT, 1:03.22, fm, 1/2 length.

ABIENOT (f, 2, Not This Time--Ready Ready Ready, by More Than Ready) was fourth in her six-furlong debut over the Aqueduct turf June 21. The 5-1 shot settled in mid-pack down the backstretch. She rolled into contention with a five-wide move into the stretch and found her best gear late to spurt to the lead and hold off the late-rushing Will Reign (War of Will) by a half-length. Favored Brindi (Ire) (No Nay Never) was third. Good Conduct (Without Parole {GB}) trailed for much of the contest and made a strong belated rally to be fifth. Abientot, a $210,000 Keeneland September yearling, is a half-sister to Mr. Hustle (Declaration of War), Ch. 2yo Colt-Can, MSW-Can, SP-USA, $303,589; and to Malibu Coast (Malibu Moon), GSP, $139,300. Ready Ready Ready, who was purchased by Killora Stud with Abientot in utero for $130,000 at the 2021 Keeneland November sale, produced a colt by Nyquist last year and was bred back to Uncle Mo. The mare is a half-sister to the late graded winner Laoban (Uncle Mo). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $60,400.

SUMMER BREEZES:

Reeves Debut Pricy Vekoma Colt

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Friday at Saratoga:

The Big Thorpedo went wire-to-wire to an easy victory, earning his second straight division of the New York Stallion Series at Saratoga Thursday. The strapping chestnut, heavily favored at 1-2, broke sharply and went right out to the early lead. He was in control through fractions of :23.99 and :46.97, skipped further clear into the stretch and was unchallenged to the wire.

“He is a pretty special horse, he is very straightforward,” said winning rider Eric Cancel. “He is very mature mentally, it is great to ride horses like him. He knew what he needed to do. He came out of the gate, we took the lead and we just slowed it down as much as we could. He was very comfortable the pace that he was going in. From there on it was just game over for everybody else.”

The Big Thorpedo broke his maiden by a front-running 10 lengths against state-bred foes over the main track at Aqueduct in January. He moved back to the lawn to finish second against open company in the Woodhaven Stakes Apr. 27 and was most recently a 3 1/2-length winner six-furlong division of the New York Stallion Stakes June 16 at Aqueduct.

“He’s a really neat horse,” said winning trainer Tom Morley. “He’s an absolute joy to have in the barn, and he’s a very adaptable horse. I like the fact that Eric took no prisoners today and said, ‘look, I’m on the best horse in the race and I’m not going to overcomplicate it.’ I thought it was a very good ride and a very good performance to go that fast early and then quicken up as well.”

Of a potential next start against fellow New York-breds in the Aug. 15 Rick Violette Stakes or against graded company in the Aug. 30 Gill Saranac Stakes, Morley said, “He’ll go back to Belmont on the weekend and these races have been his mid-summer targets all year round. There’s the Saranac as well, which has to be under consideration.” Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

PROCTOR STREET (f, 3, Street Sense--Proctor's Ledge {MGSW & GISP, $768,168}, by Ghostzapper) just got her head in front on the line while debuting at 1 1/16 miles over the Horseshoe Indianapolis turf May 27. Dismissed at 17-1, the dark bay filly was unhurried early and settled well off the early pace. She raced near the back of a strung-out field down the backstretch through a quarter in :22.99 and a half in :48.43. Last approaching the stretch, Proctor Street angled to the center of the course at the top of the lane and closed with a powerful late flourish to nail Grayosh (Yoshida {Jpn}) on the line. Proctor's Ledge, who was a three-time graded winner for these same connections, has a 2-year-old full-brother to the winner. The mare and her 2024 foal by Medaglia d'Oro died earlier this year.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

11th-Colonial Downs, $60,000, Msw, 7-18, 2yo, 5 1/2fT, 1:03.91, gd, 6 lengths.

CURAHEE (g, 2, War of Will--Blameitonthemusic, by Blame) graduated with a professional six-length tally over the Colonial turf course Thursday. The even-money favorite, looking to become the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by War Front), broke sharply and was on the lead in the early strides. He sat a pressing second as Lazio (Bucchero) had the lead through an opening quarter in :22.17. Curahee stuck a head in front at the top of the lane and skipped clear to the wire.

Curahee, a $70,000 purchase at the OBS March sale earlier this year, chased the pace before fading to sixth in his five-furlong debut over the Laurel main track June 23. He is the only foal out of Blameitonthemusic, who died in 2022. The mare was a half-sister to graded winner She Can't Sing (Bernardini), who sold for $1.1 million as part of the Lothenbach dispersal at the Fasig-Tipton February sale this year.

Earlier Thursday, War of Will was represented by Will Reign, who was second on his debut at Saratoga. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

3rd-Delaware, $40,125, Msw, 7-18, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m (off turf), 1:48.78, ft, head.

SOMETHING WICKED (f, 3, Gun Runner--Just Wicked {GSW, $208,460}, by Tapit) had not been seen since finishing fourth over the Laurel turf in her 5 1/2-furlong debut last October. The 6-5 favorite raced just off the early leaders while three wide into the first time. Tucked in along the rail down the backstretch, the chestnut filly lost touch with the pacesetters as the tempo quickened into the far turn, but she skimmed the rail to challenge for the lead in upper stretch and just got her head in front of Arijana's Pearl (Curlin) on the wire. Something Wicked, a full-sister to Wicked Halo (MGSW & MGISP, $1,579,400), was a $1.1-million Keeneland September yearling. Just Wicked's 2023 foal by Gun Runner died, but the mare has a weanling filly by Epicenter and was bred back to Gun Runner this year. The mare won the 2015 GIII Adirondack Stakes and is a full-sister to graded winner My Miss Lilly. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,600.

COUSINO: 'I KNEW JANCIS WOULD BE GOOD BECAUSE SHE'S ALWAYS BEEN A FIGHTER'

Jancis: has been a dream for owner-breeder Arturo Cousino
Racingfotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

Owner-breeder Arturo Cousino has promised to cheer on Jancis (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) when she lines out in the G1 Matron Stakes at the Irish Champions Festival after admitting to have been completely lost for words when his star filly landed a Group 3 at Leopardstown last week.

What that victory meant to the 63-year-old, whose family is steeped in racing and breeding history in his native Chile, can scarcely be put into words. Literally.

"Honestly, I couldn't believe it," Cousino recalled of that Brownstown Stakes success. "When I saw her racing in her own style in the early part of the race I said, 'I don't believe this, she's going to win,' and she did. I was watching it at home on my computer with my brother and there were almost no words. Not even one shout. That will change in the Matron--I will shout!"

In Willie McCreery, Cousino has a trainer who has a knack of producing a high-class filly at fever pitch for the Matron. It is almost a decade since Fiesolana (Ire) (Aussie Rules) provided the trainer with a breakthrough success at the highest level in the race and now new dreams abound for the latest star filly at the Curragh stable. 'HE COULD BE A COX PLATE HORSE': FRANKEL'S DIEGO VELAZQUEZ DOMINATES THE MELD by Tom Frary

Such an eye-catcher when fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at ParisLongchamp in May, Ballydoyle's TDN Rising Star Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB})--Sweepstake {Ire}, by Acclamation {GB}) who failed to stay the mile and a half of Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward VII Stakes roared back to form dropping to nine furlongs in Thursday's G3 Meld Stakes at Leopardstown. Kept wide early by Ryan Moore, the 8-11 favourite took up a prominent position and when sent for home two out stretched his rivals to breaking point en route to a seven-length success from Tarawa (Ire) (Shamardal).

"He's made like a miler and loved the ground--he could be a Cox Plate horse, as he's definitely not short of pace. Ryan said he's got all the class and all the speed in the world. At least we know now what to do with him."

Promising so much when successful in the G2 Champions Juvenile Stakes here in September, Diego Velazquez had been eighth in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and 10th in the KEVII after his Poulains effort so this was very much a case of back on track.

But it's not just McCreery who can be attributed for helping Cousino fulfill a lifelong ambition of finding a filly of this quality.

He explained, "It has been a personal project that began a few years ago. I went into this venture with [bloodstock agent] Chad Schumer. He bought the mare, Blameless (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), and we have a lot of respect for that line in Chile because Blameless goes back to Cristalline (Chi), who is a very famous mare in Chile. A lot of our best horses can be traced back to that line. It is by far the most respected line in Chile. So, when Chad bought Blameless [for €22,000 from Darley at Goffs in 2014], I proposed to him that we do foal shares together so that I could recover that line. My thought was that the line was getting lost, not only because of a lack of investment, but also some intelligence with getting the best out of that line in terms of matings.

"That was one of the things that Chad and Nancy Sexton did a great job with. We had a relationship with Chad for about 15 years already. Chad helped me source some stallions from Europe down through the years so we have been working together for some time."

To say that Jancis has done her bit to revive the Cristalline line would be an understatement. But Cousino doesn't need to be so modest in deflecting the spotlight as few people would have devoted such time and patience to the project.

He continued, "What can I tell you? Finally! After many years trying, we have a filly like Jancis. My family has been involved in this activity of breeding horses in Chile for over a century and a half. As a matter of fact, they were the first thoroughbred breeders in Chile and, along with other families, founded the first racetrack--Club Hipico--in the country as well. That was back in 1870.

"So it has always been a hobby for my family. My grandfather won several of the most important races in Chile. In those days they were not Group races but they are Group 1s now. So, I just kept going in this activity, breeding a few horses and having fun, but only as a hobby. It's more than a hobby, though, more of a tradition now."

Blameless produced just one filly for Cousino. A daughter of Derby winner Ruler Of The World (Ire), she raced just twice in France for trainer John Hammond. Sadly, Blame The Ruler suffered a career-ending injury after winning her maiden over 1m4f at Clairefontaine as a three-year-old, with the owner revealing that Hammond made it clear the esteem in which she was held in before that injury cut her career short.

He said, "With Blameless, we had a few foals. The first two were colts and we sold them in the sales. But when she gave me my first filly, by Ruler Of The World, Chad decided to sell Blameless to Chile. Unfortunately, Blameless died on that trip. I kept the Ruler Of The World filly, who we named Blame The Ruler, and I sent her to race in France with John Hammond. She was very late-maturing and was a stayer. She raced only twice--second and first. But after she broke her maiden, John called me to tell me that she had suffered an injury and couldn't race anymore.

"But what was interesting was that John said, 'please, whatever you do, don't get rid of her.' He said he thought she was a very talented stayer who would have made some noise in France had she not gotten injured." Cont. p4

Congratulations to her connections !

He added, "I was never going to get rid of her anyway but I took her to Ireland and asked Chad and Nancy to try and help me bring this pedigree up. To try to recover it."

And that they did. The recommended mating with Tamayuz, who stood for a modest €8,000 at Derrinstown Stud at the time, is looking an inspired decision now.

"Nancy and Chad came out with this cross with Tamayuz, making a beautiful pedigree. I saw so many families who have bred on similar lines--Height Of Fashion being one. It's the same with Allegretta (GB)--you can find so many things in that pedigree. I said, okay, let's go with it. This filly was born beautiful but Blame The Ruler died two days after the birth."

Oh my God.

"Yes, oh my God. I said the same thing! I knew that she was going to be a good filly from the beginning because she has always been a fighter. To lose your mother on your second day of life, even in Ireland where everyone speaks your language--the language of horses--you've got to be a real fighter. So here we are, a couple of years later, we have Jancis being a very successful little filly and who knows what else."

To that extent, huge credit has to go to Ballylinch Stud, who raised the orphan Jancis along with Blame The Ruler and Blameless before her. If they say it takes a village to raise a child, the same can be said with Jancis, as this has been a collaborative effort from the very outset.

"All of the team that Chad and Nancy have assembled for this project have been amazing and I am also so grateful to Ballylinch Stud. Finally, we are paying back their favour with a filly who is making good impressions. It is beyond dreams. And actually, it's kind of crazy here in Chile, too, because everyone is talking about Jancis. They are amazed about what has been done with this famous line. Everybody's so happy that the line has been recovered. There wasn't a fear that it had been completely lost because, every once and a while, a horse would come out of the same line. But it was dying abroad until Jancis came along."

Cousino added, "The reason I went into this partnership in the beginning with Chad was because I always dreamed of one day having a mare good enough to breed from. What I mean by this is to have a mare good enough to send to all of the stallions that I read about in the TDN. You know, in Chile you can only watch horses like this, so my dream was--whether in Kentucky, England or Ireland--to have a good mare. At this time, my dream has already been fulfilled in that I know I can send Jancis to some very good stallions. If she gets a Group 1, the only difference is that we will have to pick even better stallions!"

"He ran a lovely race in the French Guineas and then we went to the French Derby with him, where Ryan just said maybe over a mile-and-a-quarter we rode him too forward and the pace of the race didn't work out for him," O'Brien added. "We felt very much coming from Ascot that he's not a mile-and-a-half horse--he's probably an eight, nine or 10-furlong horse. He was different today. He has a lot of options and we'll give him a little bit of time now."

Pedigree Notes

Diego Velazquez, who cost 2.4million gns at the Tattersalls Book 1 Sale, is the last known foal out of the Listed National Stakes winner and GIII Appalachian Stakes and G3 Princess Margaret Stakes-placed Sweepstake whose sons of Australia (GB), Broome (Ire) and Point Lonsdale (Ire) boast multiple pattern-race successes between them including the former's win in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud.

Sweepstake's dam Dust Flicker (GB) (Suave Dancer) is a full-sister to the G3 Prix de la Nonette scorer Dust Dancer (GB), in turn the second dam of the stable's G1 Phoenix Stakes-winning sire Zoffany (Ire), Frankel's G2 Futurity Stakes winner and G1 Irish Derby runner-up Rostropovich (Ire) and the G3 Bengough Stakes winner Projection (GB) also by Acclamation. RACE PREVIEWS

RYAN MOORE PICKS CONTENT WITH 14 SET FOR IRISH OAKS

A total of 14 fillies will line up for Saturday's G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks, with Ballydoyle responsible for two live contenders in the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes winner Port Fairy (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes third Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), with Ryan Moore siding with the latter on Thursday. Wayne Lordan will partner Port Fairy, due to renew rivalry with Elwick Stud's supplemented Lava Stream (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) who was runner-up in that Royal Ascot contest.

Moore explained his decision on his betfair blog, "Content stayed on very strongly for me when third to Bluestocking and Emily Upjohn in the Pretty Polly over a mile and a quarter last month and that may well be the strongest piece of form on show," he said. "We know Port Fairy is a guaranteed stayer, having won the Ribblesdale last time. Form-wise, there is very little between the pair, so I'd have gladly sat on either. Both have winning form on soft if the forecast rain arrives, although it is currently on the quick side."

Port Fairy | Megan Coggin

Wathnan Racing's acquisition Lope De Lilas (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) represents the Willie Mullins stable stepping up from a Leopardstown maiden win, while other notables include Tars Farm Equestrian Stud's Oaks third War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front) and The Aga Khan's Listed Naas Oaks Trial winner Hanalia (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

THE LOWDOWN: JUDDMONTE IRISH OAKS

By Heather Anderson & Adam Houghton

The Coolmore partners have a strong presence in the G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks, with Ballydoyle's Aidan O'Brien saddling three contestants in the 14-horse field. Highest on ratings is Group 3 winner Content, who is one of three among the 3-year-old fillies aiming to give her late, great sire his 100th worldwide Grade/Group 1 winner. The 1 1/2-mile Classic is not all about the former kingpin, however, as Camelot's G3 Staffordstown Stud Stakes winner Dare To Dream also lines up. The G2 Ribblesdale one-two Port Fairy and Lava Stream lock horns once again as well.

CAUGHT U LOOKING (IRE)

Harzand (Ire)--Wild Mix (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire})

Sales info: Bred by Peter Kelly, she was sold by The Castlebridge Consignment for €27,000 to Peter Nolan and Noel Meade at the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale. However, Kelly remained involved in the ownership of the filly, along with Tally Ho-Stud's Tony O'Callaghan, who bought into her after the sale.

Pedigree/form notes: This Group 3-winning juvenile is the first runner out of an unraced half-sister to the G3 Abernant Stakes and G3 Supreme Stakes winner Double Or Bubble (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and the G3 Chartwell Fillies' Stakes heroine Mix And Mingle (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}). Her second dam Mango Lady (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) is a winning half-sister to the G1 St Leger and G1 Rheinland-Pokal runner-up High Accolade (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}).

Beaten nine lengths when finishing fifth in the G1 Oaks at Epsom last time, Caught U Looking needs to leave that form well behind to make an impact against this class of opposition.

CONTENT (IRE)

Galileo (Ire)--Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: This Coolmore homebred is one of three winners from as many runners out of the dual G1 Nunthorpe Stakes heroine Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), with the others including this year's two-year-old Bedtime Story (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), a 9 1/2-length winner of the Listed Chesham Stakes at Royal Ascot. Mecca's Angel, in turn, is a full-sister to the G3 Chipchase Stakes and G3 Criterion Stakes-winning sire Markaz (Ire).

Content is already a black-type winner having struck in the G3 Staffordstown Stud Stakes at the Curragh as a two-year-old, while she added a valuable Group 1 placing to her record when finishing third in the Pretty Polly Stakes at the same course last time. Cont. p7

Dare To Dream | Scoop Dyga

DARE TO DREAM (FR)

Camelot (GB)--Debutante (Fr) (Gold Away {Ire})

Sales info: This March foal was offered by co-breeder Ecurie des Monceaux at the Arqana October Yearling Sale and was knocked down to Gavin Heron for €67,000. Monceaux, Meridian International and Scuderia Waldeck SNC are the breeders on her page.

Pedigree/form notes: This filly's dual Listed-placed dam is a half-sister to four black-type winners, including the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes heroine Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), plus this year's G2 Queen's Vase scorer and G1 Grand Prix de Paris second Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). She is also from the family of the G1 Prix Vermeille-winning champion Indian Rose (Fr) (General Holme) and the sires Vert Amante and Le Nain Jaune (Fr).

Dare To Dream won the G3 Prix Vanteaux at Longchamp in April and has performed with credit in two subsequent starts up in grade, notably finishing a close-up fifth in last month's G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly.

ELIZABETH JANE (IRE)

Dubawi (Ire)--Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB})

Pedigree/form notes: This Moyglare Stud homebred is one of four winners out of the G2 British Champions Fillies And Mares Stakes victrix and G1 Pretty Polly Stakes second Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}), with the others including the G2 Kilboy Estate Stakes third Kiss For A Jewel (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) and the dual Group 3-placed Federica Sophia (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Sapphire herself is out of the blue hen Polished Gem (Ire) (Daneshill), whose other progeny include star stayer Kyprios (Ire) and the dual G1 Irish St Leger heroine Search For A Song (Ire), both by Galileo (Ire), plus the G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes winner and sire Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}). Polished Gem, in turn, is out of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas victrix Trusted Partner (Affirmed).

A 'TDN Rising Star' having impressed when making a winning debut at Leopardstown last October, Elizabeth Jane might have needed the run after eight months off when finishing seventh in the Listed Naas Oaks Trial last time.

GALILEO DAME (IRE)

Galileo Gold (GB)--Two For Tea (Ire) (Mount Nelson {GB})

Sales info: Bred by Tally-Ho Stud, she sold to Blandford Bloodstock for €125,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-up Sale.

Pedigree/form notes: This filly is the first winner from two runners out of a winning half-sister to the G2 Champions Juvenile Stakes third Alder (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and the G3 1000 Guineas Trial second Radiantly (GB) (Aussie Rules), as well as Fabulae (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), the dam of another Irish Oaks runner in Port Fairy. Galileo Dame--whose third dam is the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup winner Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector), a half-sister to the G1 Oaks heroine Light Shift (Kingmambo)--followed her Leopardstown maiden win in April with a fourth-place finish in the Listed Cheshire Oaks and a runner-up effort in the Gowran Classic.

HANALIA (IRE)

Sea The Stars (Ire)--Hanakiyya (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: This Aga Khan homebred is one of five winners out of her winning dam, with the others including the G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil scorer Hunaina (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and the G3 1000 Guineas Trial victrix Hamariyna (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). Her second dam, Handaza (Ire) (Be My Guest), is a half-sister to the G3 Athasi Stakes scorer Hazariya (Ire) (Xaar {GB}), herself dam of the dual Derby hero and sire Harzand (Ire). This is also the family of the three-time Group 1 winner Hurricane Lane (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), whose victories included the Irish Derby and St Leger.

After getting off the mark at the second attempt in a maiden at the Curragh, Hanalia took a big step forward to follow up in last month's Listed Naas Oaks Trial.

LAVA STREAM (IRE)

Too Darn Hot (GB)--Stream Song (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: This Elwick Stud homebred is the second winner from as many runners out of her dam, a winning half-sister to five black-type performers. They include a trio of Group-race winners by Dubawi (Ire), namely the G1 British Champions Fillies And Mares Stakes heroine Journey (GB), G2 Park Hill Fillies' Stakes scorer Mimikyū (GB) and G2 May Hill Stakes victrix Indigo Girl (GB). Cont. p8

The second dam is the G1 Prix Royal-Oak heroine Montare (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself a daughter of the Listed-winning Contare (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}).

Rated just 74 at the start of the season, Lava Stream has since been successful in a handicap at Doncaster and a Listed race at Goodwood, before being beaten just a neck behind Port Fairy in the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes at Royal Ascot.

LOPE DE LILAS (IRE)

Lope De Vega (Ire)--Golden Gazelle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})

Sales info: Meridian International shelled out €90,000 for this filly, who was bred by a group led by Ammerland Verwaltung GmbH and company. Incidentally, Ammerland consigned her to the Arqana August Sale.

Pedigree/form notes: A maiden winner from two starts, the chestnut is the second foal and second winner out of Golden Gazelle, who landed her single victory as a 3-year-old over 2000 metres at Compiègne. Second dam and G1 Prix du Moulin heroine Grey Lilas (Ire) (Daneshill) threw a trio of stakes winners, including Golden Gazelle's full-sister, French Oaks/French 1000 Guineas and Prix d'Ispahan heroine Golden Lilac (Ire).

Champion NH trainer Willie Mullins has earned almost every accolade imaginable in the National Hunt sphere. If his filly is successful on Saturday, it would be his first Irish Oaks victory, but she faces a tough ask.

MADAM CELESTE (IRE)

Galileo (Ire)--Signora Cabello (Ire) (Camacho {GB})

Sales info: Unsold when offered by The Castlebridge Consignment as a weanling at Goffs, this bay made €750,000 on the bid of owner Newtown Anner Stud when sent through the same ring during the Orby Sale in 2022.

Pedigree/form notes: A winner in three starts, this Phoenix Thoroughbred-bred filly was second in the G3 Jannah Rose Stakes in May. The first foal out of G2 Queen Mary Stakes/G2 Prix Robert Papin victress Signora Cabello, who was also second in the G1 Prix Morny, the Ger Lyons trainee is from the same family as 1994 G1 1000 Guineas heroine Las Meninas (Ire) (Glenstal).

Few fillies are facing a bigger challenge than Madam Celeste, especially as she was fifth to the supplemented Hanalia--with future stakes winner Greenfinch third--in the Listed Naas Oaks Trial last out on June 26.

PORT FAIRY (IRE)

Australia (GB)--Fabulae (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus})

Pedigree/form notes: Bred by the O'Brien family's Whisperview Trading, the chestnut is the second produce of Fabulae, herself a half-sister to both G2 Champions Juvenile Stakes second Alder (Ire) (Australia {GB}), and the winning Two For Tea (Ire) (Mount Nelson {GB}), who foaled fellow Irish Oaks participant Galileo Dame.

To put it bluntly, the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes heroine is one of the likeliest winners. If she, or one of her two stablemates prevail, they would give Ballydoyle trainer Aidan O'Brien his eighth Irish Oaks.

PURPLE LILY (IRE)

Calyx (GB)--Boca Raton (Ire) (Approve {Ire})

Sales info: This B O'Neill-bred filly was consigned by Woodford Stud to the Goffs November Foal Sale, where she changed hands for €17,500 to Masterly Bloodstock. Lissglen Stables re-offered her as a yearling in the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale, and she caught the eye of Paragon Bloodstock for €24,000 there. Re-offered through Tattersalls Ireland, this time as a Goresbridge breeder, the Chasefield Stables draftee found a new home with Avenue Bloodstock to the tune of €155,000.

Pedigree/form notes: This 'TDN Rising Star' is the third foal out of her winning dam. Boca Raton's half-sister Lady's Secret (Ire) (Alzao) was third in this race in 2002.

Although this will be her first trip over the 1 1/2 mile-distance, Purple Lily acquitted herself well when fifth in Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB})'s G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at the end of May. With talent to burn, the G3 Salsabil Stakes-placed filly has the potential to surprise on Saturday. Cont. p9

RUBIES ARE RED (IRE)

Galileo (Ire)--Red Evie (Ire) (Intikhab)

Pedigree/form notes: G1 Matron Stakes and G1 Lockinge Stakes scorer Red Evie has been a revelation as a broodmare, with group-winning Galileo (Ire) full-sisters Magical Dream (Ire), Arc/BC Turf victress Found (Ire), Best In The World (Ire), and Irish Oaks runner-up Divinely (Ire) her best foals.

She has the family for it, and the Coolmore homebred Rubies Are Red would be the 100th Grade/Group 1 winner for her illustrious late sire. A Classic would be a resounding locale to break one's maiden, however there are more likely rivals participating.

WAR CHIMES (FR)

Summer Front--Chipolata (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB})

Sales info: Trainer David Menuisier paid just €62,000 for this filly, from Haras de Capucines, at the Arqana October Yearling Sale.

Pedigree/form notes: The trio of Hubert Honore, Nicolas Clement and Christophe Clement Racing bred the Listed Prix Isonomy heroine out of the G1 Belmont Oaks Invitational Stakes third Chipolata.

Third in the G3 Prix Cleopatre later in the spring, she was not disgraced when third in the G1 Betfred Oaks and the distance should hold no fears. Worth a shot, especially as Menuisier has hit the crossbars of multiple Classics with his trainees already this season.

YOU GOT TO ME (GB)

Nathaniel (Ire)--Brushing (GB) (Medicean {GB})

Sales info: Part of The National Stud draft during the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in 2011, the daughter of Brushing made 62,000gns when selected by BBA Ireland. Re-emerging as a Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling, You Got To Me cost Alex Elliott 200,000gns from consignor Glenvale Stud.

Pedigree/form notes: Part of the Dullingham Park Stud and Sarabex breeding programme, this filly is the third foal produced by the Listed Galtres Stakes winner. Group 1 winners abound in this clan, among them G1 Canadian International Stakes hero Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), and Buffering (Aus) (Mossman {Aus}), a top-tier winner in both Australia and Dubai.

Already a listed winner at Lingfield, You Got To Me has shown to be a hair below group company to date, after a pair of fourths in the G1 Oaks and the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes. However, she'd need just a few cards to fall differently to waltz away with some valuable Group 1 black-type.

Bred by Tally-Ho Stud, the bay son of Asmeen (Ire) (Shamardal) was bought for 65,000gns out of the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up Sale in May. From the family of worldbeater Azamour (Ire), he made his first two starts for Middleham Park Racing and trainer Kevin Ryan. The Strikin Viking is named after Manchester City's Norwegian phenomenon Erling Haaland.

Brown said, "Kevin Ryan and his team have done a very impressive job with The Strikin Viking and Kevin and Tom and Tim Palin of Middleham Racing have been a pleasure to deal with. Hamad's got off to an outstanding start in Newmarket with just a handful of horses and Wathnan is keen to support him with some more firepower. I'm sure The Strikin Viking will give Wathnan lots of fun over the months ahead."

"We thank Kevin Ryan and wish his new connections the best of luck with him," Middleham Park Racing said on X.

STEVE PARKIN AND JOE FOLEY CLASH IN THE IRISH HIGH COURT AFTER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS FILED

After a 20-year business relationship between Clipper Logistics' Steven Parkin and his racing advisor, Ballyhane Stud's Joe Foley, ended in March, Parkin has filed against Foley in the Irish High Court as of Wednesday, The Currency reported.

A Classic-winning owner with Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) in the 2024 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, Parkin has had great success with his grey Clipper Logistics silks for many years, with the owner and Foley a formidable team. In the past, the relationship was described as "nearly like family". The master of Ballyhane lodged his case against Parkin and Clipper Logistics in May.

The first hint of troubled waters occurred this spring when Parkin-owned stallions Asymmetric (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) and Space Traveller (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) departed Ballyhane to instead stand the remainder of the 2024 breeding season at Starfield Stud. A third stallion, Sands Of Mali (Fr) (Panis) who is owned in partnership, has remained at Ballyhane.

Foley told The Irish Field at the time, that he wished "the team at Starfield all the best with the two horses".

"It has been a great adventure helping Steve and his family build his racing and breeding operation into what it has become today and I'm proud of the top horses I have spruced for them over the years," Foley added.

Parkin purchased Dullingham Park Stud in Newmarket in 2023, and earlier acquired Branton Court Stud in Harrowgate. He sold Clipper Logistics to GXO Logistics for nearly £1 billion in May of 2022.

TIM NAYLOR TO LEAVE BHA

Tim Naylor, the British Horseracing Authority's director of integrity and regulation, will step down from his post after serving in the role for 7 1/2 years to spend more time with his family, the BHA announced on Thursday.

Naylor was the first head of regulation, and oversaw the successful completion of the Rules of Racing re-write in 2019. In addition, he led the integrity, regulatory and safeguarding teams in his current role since 2018. He will continue as a voluntary non-executive director of the Commonwealth Games Wales, and as a disciplinary and appeals chair for the RFU and FAW.

BHA Chief Executive Julie Harrington said, "We are very grateful for Tim's contribution to the BHA and British racing over the past seven and a half years. This has been a significant period for racing, during which we have developed and strengthened our integrity, disciplinary, regulatory and safeguarding functions to ensure the highest standards and bolster participant and public confidence in our sport. We wish Tim well for the future."

NAAS TO WELCOME MELBOURNE CUP DURING BALLYHANE STAKES DAY

The Lexus Melbourne Cup will be at Naas Racecourse during The €300,000 Irish EBF Ballyhane Stakes Day, on Monday, Aug. 5.

Besides celebrating the iconic Australian race, the course will also venerate the legacy of Kildare man Robert Cooper Bagot, whose contributions helped shape one of the world's greatest races, and the experience of the Melbourne Cup.

"The Race That Stops a Nation" will be run for the 164th time this year, and will offer prize-money of A$8.4 million. The trophy itself is valued at A$750,000. The trophy travels 110,000 kilometres, visiting 39 destinations globally before returning to Melbourne for the race on Nov. 5.

Cooper Bagot, born in 1827 in County Kildare, emigrated to Australia in 1849, prior to becoming the first secretary of the Victoria Racing Club in 1864. His redesign of the Flemington racecourse and successful lobbying for a Melbourne Cup Day half-holiday expanded the race's appeal.

There will also be a Treo Eile ex-racehorse parade that day, which will include the dual Melbourne Cup placegetter Max Dynamite (Fr) (Great Journey {Jpn}), and the first race on the day is due off at 2:20 p.m. For more information about the event and schedule, please visit the Naas website.

GREAT RACING WELFARE CYCLE CHALLENGE SET FOR JULY 20-21

The Great Racing Welfare Cycle will take place in Newmarket and its environs from noon on Saturday, July 20 until noon the following day, charity Racing Welfare announced on Thursday.

The Rowley Mile Racecourse will be the base for participating teams consisting of four to eight persons, who will continuously cycle over a 24-hour period completing laps of a planned 32km route around the town and surrounding villages. Afterward, there will be a BBQ and a celebration for all cyclists and their families.

Earlier this week, a quiz was held by the Baker McVeigh cycling team at The Yard pub in Newmarket on Tuesday, July 16, which raised £1,362.80 towards their fundraising total. Juddmonte's Jake Woolf will also field a team, and has arranged a ticket drawing for six people to meet Frankel \(GB\) at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud. For every £50 donated to his team's JustGiving page, Woolf will offer a ticket. There are 50 tickets available.

For more information on the charity cycle, please visit the Racing Welfare website.

TONY MARTIN'S SUSPENSION EXTENDED BY TWO MONTHS AFTER NEWCASTLE RULE BREACHES

Tony Martin, currently serving a three-month suspension, has been banned an additional two months and incurred a fine by the Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board (IHRB). Cont. p12

The additional suspension comes after his actions following Alphonse Le Grande (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire})'s Northumberland Vase win.

Martin was originally banned for a six-month period--three suspended--for breaking anti-doping rules. Martin's sister Cathy O'Leary now holds his training licence, but Martin was present both before and after the race at Newcastle in the paddock, and appeared to be instructing rider Hollie Doyle.

The trainer's actions were considered by the IHRB referrals committee to "constitute a flagrant disregard of the rules" that had "brought horse racing into disrepute" resulting in an additional two months' suspension, running from Aug. 16 to Oct. 16, and a €5,000 fine. Their ruling was that the former trainer had committed a "significant breach of Rules 272(i) and 273(xiii), undermining regulatory authority and damaging the reputation of the horseracing industry in that, once his licence was withdrawn, he continued to act in his capacity as a trainer despite the revocation of his licence". His quick apology post-race was acknowledged by the IHRB and they weakened their sanctions accordingly. Martin did say that Doyle had reached out to him for advice on how to approach the race, a statement that the jockey has since corroborated.

Martin's statement read, "I sincerely apologise for my actions during the Northumberland Vase. I fully understand that my behaviour was inappropriate given my current suspension status. I let my excitement and passion for the sport get the better of me, and for that, I am deeply sorry.

"I accept the consequences of my actions and will comply fully with any disciplinary measures imposed. I apologise to the racing community, officials and fans for any disappointment caused."

OMBUDSMAN (IRE) (c, 3, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Syndicate {GB}, by Dansili {GB}), who graduated over a mile in his June 22 debut at Newmarket last time, was settled four lengths off the pace in fifth after an alert getaway here. Easing closer once into the home straight, the 1-5 favourite bounded into contention approaching the quarter-mile marker and kept on powerfully to deny Winston's Tipple (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) by a length in snug fashion. Ombudsman, full to a yearling filly, is the second foal and scorer produced by a winning full-sister to G3 Premio Carlo Vittadini victor Runnymede (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and multiple Group-placed dual black-type winner Stipulate (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Looming large on the bridle passing the two pole, the 1-2 favourite hit the front soon after and was ridden clear inside the final furlong to easily outpoint Broski (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) by 3 1/4 lengths. "She did it in good style, which was great, and she's a lovely filly," said Jessica Harrington. "She's a fine, big, strong filly and I'm delighted with that. She's in the [G2] Debutante, she has an entry in France [Aug. 17 G2 Prix du Calvados] and she's got a [G1] Moyglare entry as well. She's still learning on the job and stepping up to a mile will be no problem to her." Va Va Vroom, half to a yearling colt by Sioux Nation, is the first of two foals out of a half-sister to GIII Wilshire Stakes victrix Simply Breathless (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), stakes-winning GIII Autumn Miss Stakes third Breath Away (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) and Listed Ingabelle Stakes third Serious Notions (GB) (Advertise {GB}). Cont. p15

Looming wide on the home turn, the homebred swooped on the experienced 11-4 favourite Valencia (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) with a furlong remaining and asserted to score by 1 3/4 lengths. "She's a gorgeous filly, she's a big filly and has always shown ability," Weld said. "I did enter her in the Moyglare and the Debutante so it's not a surprise that she won here at all. She settled beautifully. She's a big filly, so I'm looking more at next year with her. Please God she can make into a Guineas filly, that's how high I rate her. She's a talented filly, a nice mover and my only concern was a mile for her first run. If it was seven, I'd have been confident that she'd win because of the pace she has. That's why Chris took his time on her, from a fitness score to go a mile, but she had no problem with the distance." The winner is currently the last known foal out of the G3 Nell Gwyn Stakes-winning and G1 Nassau Stakes-placed half-sister to the multiple Group and Grade I winner Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). The family includes Juddmonte's Oaks heroine Reams Of Verse (Nureyev). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $11,690. O-Juddmonte; B-Juddmonte Farms Ltd (GB); T-Dermot Weld.

Also Ran: Sunny Spell (Ire), Fathom (Ire), Luna Rock (Fr), Palmarola, Rose D'Ete (Ire), Sea Ice (Ire), Swing City (Fr).

Start Of Day registered victories at Chateaubriant and Chantilly last month and made a smooth transition to black-type level with a career high in the distaffers' test.

Shuffled back through the field to race off the pace in eighth after breaking in the front rank, the 8-5 favourite made continued headway in the straight to challenge out wide passing the furlong pole and was ridden out in the closing stages to assert superiority in decisive fashion.

Start Of Day, who becomes the 51st stakes winner for her sire, is the sixth of eight foals and one of five scorers produced by an unraced half to GII Ft. Lauderdale Stakes victor Doswell (Giant's Causeway), stakes-winning GII Seabiscuit Handicap second Secretary At War (War Front) and GIII Providencia Stakes third Entrechat (Giant's Causeway). Listed Prix Madame Jean Couture Cont.

Her stakes-winning second dam Ballet Pacifica (Mindardi), who placed in the G3 Prix de la Nonette and GIII Pucker Up Stakes, is kin to GI Santa Anita Oaks victrix Ariege (Doneraile Court) out of multiple Grade-I winning distaffer Kostroma (Ire) (Caerleon). The April-foaled bay is kin to GIII Robert B. Lewis Stakes runner-up Ayacara (GB) (Violence), the 2-year-old colt Dark Thunderstorm (GB) (Ardad {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Palace Pier (GB). Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
