

‘RYAN WAS VERY IMPRESSED’: O’BRIEN CHAMPIONS CONTENT AHEAD OF IRISH OAKS

Content | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

In the absence of Ezeliya (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks already had an open feel before Ryan Moore decided to give up the ride on the winner of one of this Classic’s key pointers in Port Fairy (Ire) (Australia {GB}). Two of the last five Irish Oaks heroines had captured the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes en route, so the rejection of such a promising and unexposed winner of that Royal Ascot feature can only point to the strong claims of his pick from the Ballydoyle trio. Much more journeyed than her stablemate, Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was a heavily-campaigned 2-year-old whose best form came over a mile when winning the G3 Staffordstown Stud Stakes here and finishing fourth in the G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

Perhaps it was the fact that she was out of the high-class sprinter Mecca’s Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) or maybe it was due to the furious pace she had shown early in her career, but the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes was the first time Content had tried more than a mile and she showed enough to Moore when third three weeks ago to suggest she was too good to pass up here. Success would provide her landmark sire with his overdue landmark century of Group 1 winners and not many jockeys would want to miss out on being part of that episode. Cont. p3

‘ALL ABOUT THE INDIVIDUAL’: GOFFS PREMIER YEARLING SALE CATALOGUE RELEASED

The catalogue for the Goffs UK Doncaster Premier Yearling Sale, featuring 30 more ‘Donny Rockets’ than last year, was released on Friday. A total of 479 lots will pass through the Doncaster ring over the two-day stand on Aug. 27-28.

Some lots of note include a Showcasing (GB) half-brother to Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed Stepper Point (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) (lot 48); lot 195, a Night Of Thunder (Ire) filly out of Group 3 winner Aim To Please (Fr) (Excellent Art {GB}); an Invincible Spirit (Ire) full-brother to the group-placed Invincible Gal (GB), with the duo out of Group 3 winner Alsindi (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}); a Churchill (Ire) colt out of Group 3 winner Angel’s Hideaway (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) (lot 222); and a Ten Sovereigns (Ire) half-brother to Group 2 winner Yonkers (Medaglia d’Oro) (lot 223). Cont. p5

RACE PREVIEWS

Aidan O'Brien is looking for a record-extending eighth renewal and said, "Ryan loved the filly he rode in Ascot and obviously had to think about riding the other filly, but the other filly's run in the Pretty Polly was exceptional. We weren't sure what was going to happen, with those Galileo fillies when they go up in trip things can happen like that sometimes. Ryan said she absolutely flew through the line. He said she relaxed well and he'd have been very comfortable going further with her. He was very impressed with her that day."

"Content has lots of class, we weren't sure about the mile and a quarter but she got it well and it looks like she'll get further," he added. "Port Fairy is very genuine and straightforward. She's been in good shape since Ascot. She got the trip well in Ascot and she's a lovely filly as well. We were delighted with her in Ascot and she's come forward every week since. They are two good-moving fillies, so I'd imagine soft ground wouldn't be a plus for any of them."

Port Fairy held Lava Stream (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) in the Ribblesdale and it is hard to see how that form can be turned around with identical ground conditions and behind them is a clutch of fillies who have appeared on the biggest stages with admirable bit-parts so far. Although the Oaks third, fourth and fifth War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front), You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) and Caught U Looking (Ire) (Harzand {Ire}), the G1 Prix de Diane fifth Dare To Dream (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) and the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas fifth Purple Lily (Ire) (Calyx {GB}) have claims, none offer major clues that they are Irish Oaks winner material.

Perhaps that is why Wathnan Racing's untried Lope De Lilas (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) has attracted so much attention in the lead-up to this race, but Willie Mullins will have had to work the oracle to get her to a pitch where she can be competitive off just a Leopardstown maiden win. This is not a Classic that tends to be won by a filly with such a low-key profile, so she would have to be special to make the leap.

Willie Mullins is looking to repeat the feat of his late father Paddy, who saddled the 2003 Irish Oaks winner Vintage Tipple (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}), and his son and assistant Patrick explained the importance of the moment for the family. "It would mean a huge amount to Willie if he could emulate his father in winning an Irish Oaks and it would be up there with the top of his achievements," he said. "I vividly remember Vintage Tipple winning, I was actually at a hunter trial in Stradbally and I was listening to it on the radio with my cousin, Emmet."

Lope De Lilas has it to do to figure in this and Patrick Mullins is under no illusions as to the size of the task in hand. "It is obviously a big ask coming straight out of maiden company into a Group 1 Classic, but that is the route we have decided to take," he added. "She's had a fantastic preparation at home."

Wathnan's European racing adviser Richard Brown added, "I'm sure she has a bright future, but whether she is going to be streetwise or not on Saturday, we will find out." Cont. p4

–Pat Downes on Hanalia

He added, “Willie does exceptionally well with the runners he does have on the Flat and is obviously a world-class trainer, so it is exciting to be doing this with him.”

Johnny Murtagh said no to this race for Hanalia (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) immediately after her win in the Listed Naas Oaks Trial last month, so it is interesting that she is here to attempt to continue The Aga Khan’s momentum this year. The Aga Khan’s Irish Studs manager Pat Downes explained the change of tack. “Johnny has been very pleased with Hanalia since she won the Oaks trial at Naas and unfortunately she wasn’t in the Irish Oaks, so we had a discussion about it and he was keen to supplement her,” he said.

“We would have a question mark over the trip, but we hope that she will get it and if she does, we would expect her to run a nice race,” he added. “We did think Ezeliya would be lining up, but unfortunately that went out the window a couple of weeks ago. That’s racing. I think it looks a competitive race, so hopefully Hanalia is in the mix there somewhere.”

Regional Battle Ensues at Newbury

Elsewhere on Saturday, Newbury’s G3 Hackwood Stakes looks a strong renewal of the six-furlong test, with last year’s G1 Haydock Sprint Cup hero Regional (GB) (Territories {Ire}) met by Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s classy but accident-prone Elite Status (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) and Tony Bloom and Ian McAleavy’s G1 Commonwealth Cup runner-up Lake Forest (GB) (No Nay Never). This is also the next port of call for Michelle Morris and Jan and Peter Hopper’s TDN Rising Star Kind Of Blue (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}), who performed with such merit when fourth in the Commonwealth Cup on only his third career start and first in any type of black-type contest and whose relatives Deacon Blues (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) and The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) both won this for the James Fanshawe stable.

EUROPEAN NEWS

Other catalogue highlights are: a Blue Point (Ire) half-brother to the listed winner and Group 1-placed Jabaara (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) (lot 243); lot 343, a New Bay (GB) colt who is a half-brother to group winner Sporting Chance (GB) (Kodiac {GB}); and a Cracksman (GB) colt out of Group 2 winner Meeznah (Dynamformer) (lot 457).

There are yearlings by a variety of sires including Blue Point (Ire), Cracksman (GB), Dark Angel, Kingman (GB), Kodiac, Night Of Thunder (Ire), No Nay Never, Oasis Dream (GB), Starspangledbanner (Aus), Too Darn Hot (GB) and Wootton Bassett (GB) among others. There are also sires represented by larger amounts of yearlings like Ardad (Ire) (20), Cotai Glory (GB) (11), Havana Grey (GB) (19), Kodi Bear (Ire) (16), Mehmas (Ire) (17), Sergei Prokofiev (21), and Sioux Nation (16). First season sires include A'Ali (Ire) (14), Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (15), Lucky Vega (Ire) (7), Nando Parrado (GB) (10), Space Blues (Ire) (9), St Mark's Basilica (Fr) (2), Starman (GB) (28), Supremacy (Ire) (17), Ubettabelieveit (Ire) (12), and Victor Ludorum (GB) (4).

The £500,000 Harry's Half Million sales race will also be held during York's Ebor Festival on Aug. 22. All yearlings offered this year will be eligible for the 2025 edition of the race.

Goffs UK Managing Director Tim Kent said, "The Premier Sale is all about the individual, it's about what you see in front of you, the racehorse, and it's that approach on which the sale has built its reputation. We remain fiercely loyal to that mantra so when

Such was the demand among vendors to participate at Doncaster, an additional 30 lots were accepted to the 2024 catalogue buyers arrive at Doncaster in August, they know what they are going to see before they set foot on the complex, yard after yard full of precocious, good walking, smart athletes.

"Importantly, Premier is also delivering on the racecourse, as it consistently produces the highest percentage of 2YO winners, and it has also sent out its share of stars. Premier has a proud history of elite horses coming from its ranks, think Acclamation, Dark Angel, Wootton Bassett, Tasleet (GB), all winners of our sales race at York, and more recently Harry's Angel (Ire), Advertise (GB), A'Ali and Supremacy, the latter two seeing their first yearlings sell at Premier this year. And let's not forget fillies like Laurens (Fr), Fev Rover (Ire) and Sacred Angel (Ire) to graphically illustrate the quality on offer.

"This is why this sale has carved out such a unique identity over so many years and has proved to be one of the most enduringly popular sales for yearling buyers. We have another enticing catalogue for 2024 and we invite buyers from the world over to come and test their eye at Doncaster on 27 – 28 August."

PASSENGER 'PROGRESSING WELL' AHEAD OF INTENDED YORK RETURN

Passenger | PA Media

Passenger (Ulysses {Ire}) could make his eagerly-awaited return to the track in the Sky Bet York Stakes if getting the go-ahead from trainer Sir Michael Stoute.

The Niarchos family-owned colt made a thrilling start to his four-year-old campaign, brushing Israr (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) aside with a degree of ease at Chester in the Huxley Stakes.

However, a setback has kept him on the sidelines since, ruling out a clash with Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the Prince of Wales's Stakes at Royal Ascot and then a Coral-Eclipse showdown with City Of Troy (Justify) at Sandown. Cont. p6

He holds an entry for the Juddmonte International Stakes at York on August 21, but Stoute will decide over the weekend whether the son of Ulysses will get an early sighter of the Knavesmire in the Group 2 over the same course and distance on Saturday week.

Alan Cooper, racing manager for the Niarchos family, said, "Passenger is progressing well and at the beginning of next week Sir Michael will decide if we go to York next weekend or straight to the Juddmonte. The York Stakes is an option but let's wait and see. The horse is very well in himself."

The Freemason Lodge handler won the inaugural running of the York Stakes with Best Alibi (Ire) (King's Best) in 2006, while potential opponents for Passenger could include William Haggas's impressive Dante Stakes scorer Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

DROP IN ATTENDANCES AND FIELD SIZES AS HRI RELEASE SIX-MONTH STATISTICS FOR 2024

Horse Racing Ireland has blamed the bad weather and adverse ground conditions for the reduction in attendances, entries, runners and field sizes in the first six months of the year.

Key statistics for the first half of 2024, released today by HRI, also show an increase in total prize-money, race sponsorship, and the number of new owners, along with a slight decrease in the number of horses-in-training.

Attendances at key dates including Leopardstown's Dublin Racing Festival, BoyleSports Irish Grand National Day at Fairyhouse and Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby Day at the Curragh were all up on last year. Overall, reported attendances reduced by 1.5% to 535,831.

Total race sponsorship came in at €4.6m, an increase of 4.5%, with total prize-money reaching €31m, up 1.3% despite a reduction in the number of race meetings by three to 173 compared to the same period in 2023.

The total number of horses-in-training fell by 2.5% to 8,394 and total entries were 7% down at 27,692. The number of new owners rose to 486, an increase of 6.8% on the first six months of last year, while the number of active owners reduced by 2.1% to 3,763.

Total Tote betting (excluding World Pools) was down 5% to €32.2m while total on-course betting came in at €35.1m, a reduction of 2.8%. On-course bookmaker betting reached €31.3m, down 2.5%.

Suzanne Eade, CEO of Horse Racing Ireland, said, "While the overall reduction in the number of meetings is minimal, the disruption to the fixture list, in April in particular, had a negative impact in a great number of areas. In the face of the adverse conditions, it is to the industry's credit that the vast majority of the races lost were run off at a later date.

"But it is clear that losing 12 of the 33 fixtures originally scheduled for April left its mark. That disruption, coming as it did as the National Hunt season was drawing to its conclusion and as the new Flat term was kicking off, affected many of our figures, including entries, runners and field sizes.

"Rescheduled fixtures do not attract the same crowd figures that might have attended on the original date. The drop in attendances in the first six months of the year would have been avoided if a number of those fixtures had gone ahead as planned."

She added, "Attendances at the bigger meetings held up well, a record crowd on the opening day of the Dublin Racing Festival for example led to a rise of 4% year-on-year across both days of the fixture that continues to attract considerable numbers of overseas visitors.

"An increase in attendance was also recorded on Irish Grand National Day at Fairyhouse and on Derby Day at the Curragh with figures from Punchestown Festival coming in close to one year ago.

"It was important for Ireland to host the World Pool on two days at the Curragh in May and June. These days bring the very best of Irish racing to an audience across the globe and we certainly look forward to the World Pool returning to Leopardstown for day one of Irish Champions Festival in September. Everything is pointing to a truly international flavour to this year's Royal Bahrain Irish Champion Stakes, one of the season's great races."

Ire-Incentive - Pays To Buy Irish Rose Bowl Stakes at Newbury, Phil Cunningham's Yah Mo Be There produced a telling turn of foot to provide his first-crop sire with a breakthrough black-type winner at the track on which the Shadwell freshman captured the G3 Greenham Stakes and G3 Horris Hill Stakes. Second on debut to the highly-regarded Andesite (GB) (Pinatubo {Ire}) at York in May before running down the field in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry Stakes, the Richard Spencer-trained 9-2 shot was slowly away but fortunate in that he had the ultimate hold-up specialist Jamie Spencer on his back to steer him.

Allowed to languish in last for most of the contest, the £95,000 Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale graduate delivered a surge to take control passing the furlong pole and beat Jungle Drums with authority by 1 1/4 lengths. The race was robbed of a crucial actor when Godolphin's Symbol Of Honour (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) was ruled out by Charlie Appleby, but this was an impressive display from a colt who was clear-best of those left to contest the juvenile staging post. Cont. p9

Kalpana followed up early-season wins at Wolverhampton and Newmarket with placed efforts in the Listed Pretty Polly Stakes and G2 Ribblesdale Stakes, and continued on the upgrade in this usually informative 11-furlong test. Lobbing along in second for the most part, she tanked to the front passing the quarter-mile marker and lengthened clear up the hill to claim a career high in impressive fashion.

"I didn't really know what way the race was going to pan out," admitted rider PJ McDonald. "She jumped great, I got a lovely pitch and had a smooth trip the whole way round. Once she hit the rising ground, she stretched and galloped out through the line. She's a big filly and you can see why she has taken her time to come to hand. She has the heart of a lion and a real will to win."

Kalpana, a G1 Yorkshire Oaks nominee, is the eighth of 10 foals and one of five scorers out of Listed Prix Petite Etoile victrix Zero Gravity (GB) (Dansili {GB}), herself a full-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Paris-winning sire Zambezi Sun (GB) and the dual stakes-placed Shared Account (GB). Zero Gravity is also a half-sister to G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano victor Kalabar (GB) (Kahyasi {Ire}) and MGSP G2 Prix Eugene Adam runner-up World Heritage (GB) (Kahyasi {Ire}). Shared Account is the dam of three black-type performers headed by G3 Prix des Reservoirs and GIII Athenia

WORLDWIDE NEWS

TWO-TIME GROUP 1 WINNER PROWESS TO SELL ON GAVELHOUSE PLUS

Australian champion and dual Group 1 winner Prowess (NZ) (Proisir {Aus}) will be offered on Gavelhouse Plus in a special standalone sale from Aug. 2-8, the online sales company announced on Friday.

Bred by Hallmark Stud, Ltd., the bay brought NZ$230,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale in 2021 and raced for a family syndicate led by Dean Skipper. Trained by Roger James and Robert Well, Prowess won her only start as a 2-year-old, and won six of her eight starts at three. After placing in the G3 Soliloquy Stakes and the G1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas, she rattled off five consecutive stakes victories beginning with the G2 Auckland Guineas, then the Karaka Million 3YO Classic, the G2 David & Karyn Ellis Fillies' Classic, and the G1 Bonecrusher New Zealand. She won her fifth stakes in succession across the Tasman at Rosehill when successful in the G1 Vinery Stud Stakes. Her efforts at three also awarded her the accolade of Australian Champion Middle Distance Horse in 2023. Kept in training at four, she added the G2 Crystal Mile and, after sustaining an injury, was retired with a mark of 12-8-1-2 and $965,964 in earnings.

"She's taken us on an amazing ride and it's definitely a shame that it's coming to an end," Skipper said. "We have some mixed emotions about putting her up for sale. But the way we look at it is that we were just so fortunate to have had one as good as her, and now she's ready to go on to the next stage of her career."

He added, “She’s bright and well and a happy horse. She could probably even have made it back to the racetrack if we wanted to wait a bit longer. But she’s at a premium stage of her life to start her breeding career now, and we always set it up so that we would sell her at around this time and have her in the best possible condition for that.”

A full-sister to Prowess topped the New Zealand Bloodstock Book 1 Yearling Sale at NZ$1.6 million in 2023.

“It was unbelievable to see the full-sister sell for such a big price at Karaka earlier in the year,” Skipper said. “It shows how highly the family is regarded now, and it’s a great reward for the hard work that Mark Baker and the Hallmark team have put in.

“Based on that, I guess we could say that we got Prowess quite cheaply in hindsight. But it was still quite a heady price to pay at the time.”

A half-sister to the New Zealand stakes-placed Ajay Tee (NZ) (Foxwedge {Aus}), Prowess is the fourth foal out of the placed Don Eduardo (NZ) mare Donna Marie (NZ). Second dam Scarlet Runner (NZ) (Kingdom Bay {NZ}) captured the G2 Sir Tristram Classic, and also foaled the highly regarded Singapore stakes winner Onceuponatime (NZ) (Van Nistelrooy).

Skipper added, “We started to realise just how good she was when she won the Auckland Guineas, and it was a picket fence from there and she just kept raising the bar. Roger James has been training for a long time and has had some great horses in his stable, so when he started saying she was up there with the best he’d ever trained, it was incredibly exciting.

“One thing about her career that was very special was that we managed to capture the attention of a few people who weren’t previously into racing. They got behind her and were opening up TAB accounts so that they could bet on her. That was another part of the experience that we really enjoyed.

“It was just so much fun and we can’t thank everyone enough – the vets, spelling farms, the farriers and all the team at Kingsclere Stables. They’re the ones getting up at 3 a.m. and putting in all that hard work. We just paid the bills and got to enjoy the end result. She gave us some incredible memories, and now we’re looking forward to seeing what she can do in the broodmare paddock.”

'RISING STAR' MINDFRAME THE ONE TO BEAT IN HASKELL

Mindframe (outside) breezing at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

by Alan Carasso

'TDN Rising Star' Mindframe (Constitution), who led into the final furlong of last month's GI Belmont Stakes before his inexperience cost him the final leg of the Triple Crown, rates the marquee in Saturday's GI NYRA Bets Haskell Stakes at Monmouth Park, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar in early November.

A $600,000 Keeneland September purchase campaigned by the formidable team of Mike Repole's Repole Stable and Vinnie Viola's St Elias Stable, the Maryland-bred won his seven-furlong Gulfstream debut by a towering 13 3/4 lengths, earning a 103 Beyer Speed Figure that was just seven points less than champion Fierceness (City of Light) in the GI Curlin Florida Derby in the closing event on Mar. 30. Cont. p3

CHURCHILL DOWNS INCORPORATED RESCINDS BOB BAFFERT SUSPENSION

The suspension of Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert from racetracks owned and operated by Churchill Downs Incorporated has been rescinded, effective immediately, CDI announced Friday evening.

The decision was detailed in a statement from CDI CEO Bill Carstanjen:

"We are satisfied that Mr. Baffert has taken responsibility for his actions, completed a substantial penalty and is committed to running in full compliance with the rules and regulations going forward. All parties agree that it is time to bring this chapter to a close and focus on the future. Mr. Baffert is welcome to return to any of CDI's racetracks, including our flagship Churchill Downs Racetrack, and we wish him and his connections good luck in their future competitive endeavors."

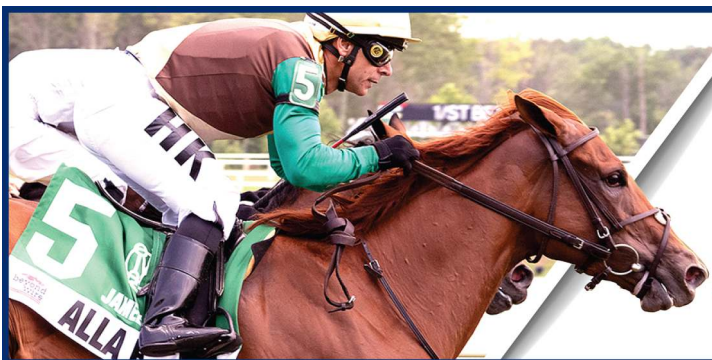

After Medina Spirit (Protonico) tested positive for the medication betamethasone following the 2021 GI Kentucky Derby, Churchill banned Baffert from its tracks. The suspension initially was for two years, but Churchill later amended that and included 2024 to the ban.

A 7 1/2-length allowance winner on the Kentucky Derby undercard May 4, he was backed at 5-1 in the Belmont and sat handy to the pace from his high draw, pouncing to lead at the eighth pole before drifting out and allowing Dornoch (Good Magic) to sneak home late.

"On one side I was elated with his effort in the Belmont and on the other I was a little disappointed he didn't win," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "At the eighth pole he had a big chance. One of our concerns going into the Belmont was he was running against horses with a lot more experience. We hoped that his lack of experience wouldn't compromise his chances. I think that little bit of greenness he showed in the mid-stretch when he veered out may have cost him the win. I couldn't be disappointed in his effort, but I was disappointed we couldn't get the job done."

Both Dornoch and Fierceness were entered Wednesday, but as of this writing, neither is a confirmed runner on Saturday. Dornoch, the full-brother to 2023 GI Kentucky Derby hero Mage, drew the dreaded inside stall on the first Saturday in May and his race was more or less over at the start, though he did manage to split the field in 10th. No better than a 17-1 chance at Saratoga last time, he was ridden positively by Luis Saez and willed himself to the wire. But trainer Danny Gargan was non-committal about the Haskell after landing gate one yet again.

"We're not really happy with the one-hole, so we're going to have to make a decision if we're definitely going to run from it," he said. "If you're in the one hole, obviously, you have to show speed. We don't have to be on the lead. We don't want to get stuck inside and checked."

of Verrazano (More Than Ready) in 2013, also saddles Tuscan Sky (Vino Rosso) for Spendthrift Farm. Having failed to win his way into the Derby when a low-odds seventh in the GII Wood Memorial Stakes Apr. 6, he took in this track's June 15 Pegasus Stakes and thrashed next-out GIII Dwyer Stakes romper Domestic Product (Practical Joke) by nearly seven lengths.

More From the Shore

The Haskell is one of five graded events at Monmouth on Saturday and is supported by the $600,000 GII United Nations Stakes, which has drawn a dozen middle-distance turfers. The locally owned Webslinger (Constitution) has a reputation as one of the unluckiest horses in training, but he stretched out to the 11 furlongs for the first time in the June 15 Charleywood Stakes at Churchill Downs and was up late to score by a half-length. His come-from-behind style is juxtaposed to that of his stablemate Get Smokin (Get Stormy), a reliable sort at distances from eight to 10 furlongs, but who popped the race of his life to wire the field in the GII FanDuel Kentucky Turf Cup Stakes last September. Forced to miss the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, he resumed with a better-than-it-looks fourth in Woodbine's GII Eclipse Stakes June 1. 'TDN Rising Star' Far Bridge (English Channel) exits a third in the GI Manhattan Stakes June 8 and is the 4-1 morning-line choice in a field that also includes 2022 UN winner Adhamo (Ire) (Intello {Ger}). The expected large crowd is set to be treated to an appearance by champion Idiomatic (Curlin) in the GIII Molly Pitcher Stakes. Easy winner of the GI La Troienne Stakes on seasonal return May 3, she just missed to the classy Randomized (Nyquist) in the GI Odgen Phipps Stakes June 8 at Saratoga and should win this from Oceanport to Asbury Park.

Sophomore Fillies Centerstage at the Spa

Where it comes to the 3-year-old filly division, there is no brighter light than 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) and she'll be prohibitively favored to add Saturday's GI Coaching Club American Oaks to her previous wins in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks and GI Acorn Stakes.

"She's done great here and she goes out the first set. She's been happy," said trainer Ken McPeck. "She does everything we ask her. She likes her work and she's an easy filly to be around."

Her march to a championship should continue here, but she faces two other elite-level winners among her four other rivals Saturday. 'Rising Star' Leslie's Rose (Into Mischief) downed champion Just F Y I (Justify) in the Central Bank Ashland Stakes in April and most recently rounded out the Acorn exacta, bouncing back from a dull performance in the Kentucky Oaks. Her Todd Pletcher stablemate Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}) took out last year's GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes and exits a 4

1/2-length thrashing of recent GII Delaware Handicap winner Honor D Lady (Honor Code) in Monmouth's Lady's Secret Stakes June 8.

Klaravich Stables's Oversubscribed (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) is the 5-2 pick to give trainer Chad Brown a sixth consecutive victory in the GIII Lake George Stakes, as she took advantage of a fast pace to overwhelm her competition in the June 22 Wild Applause Stakes at Aqueduct. John Stewart's Resolute Racing is represented by an uncoupled entry in the form of 'Rising Star' Sweet Rebecca (American Pharoah)--who lost all chance when taking an awkward step as the heavy favorite in the GII Wonder Again Stakes downstate May 27--and Fasig-Tipton Digital acquisition Pounce (Lookin At Lucky), who scooped the GIII Herecomesthebride Stakes days after her purchase in early March. 'Rising Star' Manama Gold (Star Guitar), this year's G3 UAE Oaks victress, switches to the grass and has a license to do so, as she is a full-sister to the star turf sprinter Ova Charged.

San Clemente Highlights Opening Day at Del Mar

Horseplayers (and us turf writers alike!) are accustomed to burning the candle at both ends--especially during the summer months--and will have to wait until the 9 p.m. hour Saturday for the first graded event of the Del Mar meeting, the GII San Clemente Stakes. Also restricted to 3-year-old fillies, the 8 1/2-furlong contest has lured its typical mix of familiar faces and horses with prior form overseas. C R K Stable's Medoro (Honor Code) is drawn out wide as she looks to take her record to a perfect five-from-five, having earned her first graded success when just lasting in the GIII Providencia Stakes at Santa Anita Apr. 20. Antonio Fresu has a return call from Peter Eurton.

Iscreamuscream (Twirling Candy) also brings an unblemished mark into the San Clemente, having won her maiden over six grassy furlongs in Arcadia last October before easily defeating CDI's decision to end the suspension follows a statement released by Bob Baffert earlier Friday that said, "I accept responsibility for Medina Spirit's positive test in the 2021 Kentucky Derby. I am responsible for any substance found in the horses that I train, and I have paid a very steep price with a three-year suspension and the disqualification of Medina Spirit's performance. I understand and appreciate that Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission took steps to enforce the rules that they believed were necessary to protect the safety and integrity of horse racing and the reputation of the Kentucky Derby. My family and I want to put this behind us and get back to doing what we love to do without anymore distraction or negativity. I very much look forward to returning to Churchill Downs and getting back to the Winner's Circle."

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: MCPEEK NOT FEELING THE HEAT AS THORPEDO ANNA LOOKS FOR ANOTHER WIN by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Pressure? What pressure. There was none of that over at trainer Kenny McPeek's barn at the Oklahoma Annex Friday morning.

Even though the stable star--the imposing, impressive and almost undefeated 3-year-old filly Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna)--is running on Saturday, no one on McPeek's staff was sweating bullets.

Thorpedo Anna is the 1-2 morning-line favorite in the $500,000 GI Coaching Club American Oaks at 1 1/8 miles at Saratoga Race Course. She has won five of six career starts and has won all three of her races this year.

"Pressure is having 15 bad horses in the dead of winter at Turfway Park and owners won't pay you," McPeek said while sitting in his office. "This isn't pressure. With her, it's more of an expectation. You do your job and you don't worry about anything else. It's either going to happen or it's not."

Thorpedo Anna has won her five career starts by a combined 32 lengths. In her last start, the GI Acorn Stakes at Saratoga on June 7, she cruised around the Spa and won by 5 1/2 lengths.

Before that, she took the GI Kentucky Oaks by 4 3/4 lengths. Both of those races were at 1 1/8 miles.

McPeek could not disagree when it was suggested that things had been easy for his filly.

"That is fair," he said. "She has not felt the whip all year. I don't know what else is there. Let's see what happens in the next few weeks."

Thorpedo Anna is owned by Nader Alaali, Mark Edwards, Judy B. Hicks and Magdalena Racing (Sherri McPeek). There has been talk since the Saratoga meet began that the talented filly could show up against the boys in the GI Travers Stakes on Aug. 24.

McPeek, as he has done all summer, just asks to pump the brakes on that one. For now.

"Let's see how she runs tomorrow and, if she is impressive, then we will seriously talk about it," McPeek said. "If she has to work to beat that group, maybe we would not."

Thorpedo Anna will be ridden by Brian Hernandez, Jr., who has been on board in all six of her races. He did have a bit of a problem getting here.

Hernandez was scheduled to ride Django (Medaglia d'Oro) in Friday's Curlin Stakes, but didn't make it to Saratoga.

He and his brother, jockey Colby Hernandez (he was supposed to ride Elephants Ear {Vino Rosso} in the Curlin) had their flight to Saratoga cancelled from Kentucky Friday.

McPeek said Brian Hernandez got on a private plane at noon on Friday.

"I guarantee he would have driven overnight to get here to keep from missing that mount," McPeek said.

Fierceness in Saratoga; Stablemates Mindframe and Tuscan Sky Set For Haskell

Mindframe (outside) breezing at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

A horse van pulled up at Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher's barn early Friday morning to pick up equine passengers that were heading to New Jersey.

Fierceness (City of Light) wasn't one of them.

Pletcher will be represented in the $1-million GI NYRA Bets Haskell Stakes at Monmouth Park Saturday by Mindframe (Constitution) and Tuscan Sky (Vino Rosso), who left Saratoga at 4:45 a.m. Friday.

Although Pletcher left the door open a sliver that Fierceness might join them Saturday, he will most likely run in the $500,000 GI Jim Dandy at Saratoga next Saturday.

"We have a van on order for the first thing in the (Saturday) morning," Pletcher said at his barn on the Oklahoma Training Track Friday.

That is just a precaution in case Mindframe or Tuscan Sky did not ship well or there are major defections from the Haskell.

Mike Repole owns Fierceness, who was the leading 3-year-old in the country after winning the GI Florida Derby earlier this year. He has not raced since a 15th-place finish as the favorite in the GI Kentucky Derby.

Repole also co-owns Mindframe, the runner-up in the GI Belmont Stakes, along with Vinnie and Teresa Viola. Irad Ortiz, Jr. will ride.

Tuscan Sky, owned by Spendthrift Farm LLC, won the Listed Pegasus Stakes at Monmouth in his last start. He will be ridden by Hall of Famer Javier Castellano.

Mindframe and Tuscan Sky have not won a Grade I race; Fierceness has. That also has been part of the equation as to who goes to the Haskell and who doesn't.

The Jim Dandy is then the probable landing spot for Fierceness.

"I think so," Pletcher said. "The last time I spoke to Mike, that was the way we were leaning."

Pletcher said he will drive to the Jersey Shore after training at Saratoga on Saturday. He said that Repole is planning on being at Monmouth as well.

Abreu Admits He is Taking a Shot in Shuvee

Venti Valentine (Firing Line) has always liked Saratoga. That had a lot to do with trainer Jorge Abreu deciding to swing for the fences in Sunday's $200,000 GII Shuvee Stakes at the Spa.

Four other fillies and mares--all with better credentials than the 5-year-old New York bred mare--are signed up for the 1 1/8-mile race. Venti Valentine is 12-1 on the morning line, the longest price.

But she has won two of three career starts at Saratoga.

"She is doing good, but this is a tough race," Abreu said outside his Saratoga barn Friday morning. "She is going to have to step it up. She'll have to run a career best race."

Owned by NY Final Furlong Racing Stable and Parkland Thoroughbreds, Venti Valentine won the Critical Eye Stakes at the Spa by 6 3/4 lengths on June 9 over a muddy track at the Shuvee distance. Irad Ortiz, Jr., who rode her that day, will stay on for the Shuvee.

In her career, she has seven wins, five seconds and five thirds in 21 starts. Her last graded stakes race was a third in the GIII Go for Wand Stakes last December. She has had five starts since then and has hit the board in all of them.

Venti Valentine | Sarah Andrew

"We know she will give us everything she has, she always does," Abreu said. "Whatever she has in the tank. I would love to win this race, but there are some decent horses in there."

Raging Sea (Curlin), a 4-year-old filly from trainer Chad Brown, is the 7-5 morning-line favorite and was fourth in her last start, the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes. Five-year-old mare Shotgun Hottie (Gun Runner), who was second in the GII Fleur de Lis Stakes at Churchill Downs, is the 3-2 second choice for trainer Cherie DeVaux.

"I don't think it is impossible for us," Abreu said. "We'll give it a try. Every horse has a lucky day."

KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER RICH STRIKE BREEZES AGAIN AT SARATOGA FRIDAY

Rich Strike | Sarah Andrew

Friday morning. Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott said that he caught Keen Ice--with Neil Poznansky in the irons--covering three furlongs solo in :38 (10/16).

Rich Strike stepped onto the fast track from the first turn in the company of a pony immediately after the second renovation break and was brought up to the top of the stretch to stand watch for a short time before commencing his work. He kept to task to complete the exercise willingly and galloped out well through the first turn.

"He went good," said Mott. "We're just getting him started again and back to the work tab."

Rich Strike has not raced since finishing fifth in the GII Alysheba Stakes last May at Churchill Downs when trained by Eric Reed. He was subsequently announced as retired late last year by owner Rick Dawson and was entered in the Keeneland November Horses of Racing Age Sale as a stallion prospect, but was withdrawn and returned to training this year with Mott after receiving treatment for a suspensory ligament issue.

The chestnut is winless in six starts since his shocking 80-1 upset in the Kentucky Derby.

Bred by Calumet Farm, Rich Strike owns a 14-2-1-3 record with $2,526,809 in earnings.

APPLEBY-TRAINED GODOLPHIN STARS ON THE SARATOGA TURF WORKTAB

Five Charlie Appleby-trained stakes horses from the Godolphin barn breezed over the Oklahoma training turf Friday, including

Eternal Hope (outside) & Beautiful Love (inside) breezing Friday | Sarah Andrew

Beautiful Love (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), Eternal Hope (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), Legend of Time (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), Ottoman Fleet (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Cinderella's Dream (GB) (Shamardal).

Eternal Hope made her last two outings at Belmont at the Big A with scores in the GIII Fasig-Tipton Jockey Oaks Club Invitational in September and the GII Sands Point Stakes Oct. 14.

Beautiful Love was last seen taking a conditions race by six lengths in February at Meydan Racecourse.

Beautiful Love commenced the five-furlong breeze in front with Eternal Hope tracking to the outside. Eternal Hope advanced alongside down the lane to finish up together at the wire with Eternal Hope drawing clear through the gallop out. The pair covered five furlongs in 1:05.65 (8/9).

"It was all routine straight forward stuff," said Appleby's traveling assistant Alex Merriam. "Beautiful Love led and Eternal Hope joined up there. They finished up together nicely. We'll see how they come forward."

Merriam said a target race will be picked out in the near future for both fillies.

Legend of Time was last seen finishing third in the GI Belmont Derby Invitational July 6 at Belmont at the Big A. He worked a half-mile solo in :53.22 (62/64) and remains on target for the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational Aug. 3.

Ottoman Fleet worked a solo half-mile in :54.66 (63/64) in his first breeze back since taking the GII Wise Dan Stakes June 29 at Churchill Downs in an effort that was preceded by a score in the GIII Arlington Stakes at the Louisville oval.

He could point to the GI FanDuel Fourstardave on Aug. 10, which offers a Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Mile in November at Del Mar. An additional option would be the GI Woodbine Mile Sept. 14 which also offers a 'Win and You're In' berth to the Breeders' Cup Mile.

"He's come out of the Wise Dan well and is possible for the Fourstardave or the Woodbine Mile," Merriam said.

Cinderella's Dream worked a solo half-mile in :56.50 (64/64) in preparation for the GII Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Oaks Invitational Aug. 2. The talented bay was last seen rallying to a three-quarter length score in the GI Fasig-Tipton Belmont Oaks Invitational July 6 at Belmont at the Big A.

"She's in good form," Merriam said. "They all look to be in good order. It was pretty straightforward."

CALIFORNIA-BASED TRAINER MIKE PUYPE PROVISIONALLY SUSPENDED BY HIWU

Mike Puype | Benoit

by Bill Finley

Trainer Mike Puype, whose accomplishments include two wins in the Breeders' Cup, has been provisionally suspended by the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit after two banned substances, levothyroxine and isoxuprine, were allegedly found on his possession.

The ruling against Puype was posted on the HIWU website Friday. The offense occurred Apr. 24.

According to Equibase, Puype has not started a horse since June 16.

When reached by phone Friday by the TDN, Puype said he would make a comment at a later date after he has had a chance to consult with his attorney.

Levothyroxine is a medicine used to treat an underactive thyroid gland.

According to the Paulick Report, in August 2020, both the American Association of Equine Practitioners and Racing Medication and Testing Consortium issued warnings that the drug should not be used as a "wellness" supplement and should only be administered under the direction of a licensed veterinarian and based on a specific diagnosis.

According to petmd.com, isoxsuprine is a prescription vasodilator medication used to help improve blood circulation. It is used in horses for the treatment of lameness associated with navicular disease, sesamoiditis, and laminitis.

Puype has won 827 career races from 5,462 starters and has been training since 1998. Both of Puype's Breeders' Cup wins came with Mizdirection (Mizzen Mast), who won the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2012 and 2013.

IN KENTUCKY'S BATTLE OF MIDWAY, HORSE FARMS FIGHT MASSIVE RV PARK DEVELOPMENT

RV Park Protest Sign | Dan Liebman

by T.D. Thornton

A rezoning vote that could permit a super-sized recreational vehicle (RV) and "glamping" park to be built on farmland near Midway, Kentucky, got postponed from July 11 to Aug. 8, setting up the next clash in what has been a three-year civic and legal battle over whether a commercial operation of such a massive scale is right for the low-key city of 1,700 residents and the numerous horse farms in the area.

When the project was first proposed in 2021, Woodall's Campground Magazine billed the "enormous" development as having "973 RV sites, 155 cottages, 37 tent sites, a 200-seat restaurant, a pool with a lazy river, hike and bike trails and access to two miles of Elkhorn Creek on what was known as the Mitchell Farm."

Thoroughbred farm owners whose properties sit close to the proposed Kentucky Bluegrass Experience Resort (KBER) near Midway Road straddling the line between Woodford and Scott counties told TDN they are trying to make planning officials realize that a development of that size in that area would wipe out a defining characteristic of the Bluegrass region.

"Horses need a place that's quiet. There's just no way we can survive if that RV park goes in," said Jason Tackitt, whose 20-acre Foxbrook Farm in Georgetown, plus some other leased land, is home to 20 Thoroughbreds "just across the way" from the proposed development.

"I'm not against change and I'm not against progress. But it just has to be a little more thought out than what they're doing now," Tackitt said.

Tackitt said he knows most of the proposed RV park's abutters are on his side. But he wants the greater Thoroughbred community to know that even though he's trying to rally people against the development, he's a realist who has a Plan B if the project is allowed to proceed.

"As soon as they pass it, we'll put the farm up for sale. We'll probably be moving our operation to Florida. We have a home there now that's already our secondary home. We'll just pack up and go," Tackitt said.

Representatives of KBER, which is led by Lexington-based developer Andrew Hopewell, have petitioned the Georgetown-Scott County Planning Commission for a zoning change from what is currently an agricultural designation to agricultural/recreational for 96 acres and conservation zoning for 45 acres.

Some locals have resisted the proposal since its outset, citing alleged threats to Midway's small-town character, ecological concerns related to Elkhorn Creek, and safety issues about whether the roads could handle such an influx of large-vehicle traffic.

Others in the area are a just now alarmed to learn that a development of that scale could be coming, even though the project and resistance to it have been in the news for three years.

Proponents of the development tout the purported boost it would provide to the local economy and the RV park's potential to grow the region's tourism. They also underscore the possibility that the farmland, which had been up for sale for a decade before the Hopewell group bought it, could end up getting used for lesser-aesthetic industrial purposes if the RV park gets blocked.

TDN left voicemail and email messages for Hopewell requesting his side of the story about the horse community's concerns, but the developer did not reply to the interview requests prior to publication of this article.

Others involved in KBER have previously stated at public meetings that they are trying to be respectful of the environment and their neighbors. They point to plans to preserve the land as much as possible, in part by setting aside 50% of the site for green space and by making the RV and camping sites spread out and not crowded together.

Debate over the project has even reached the national level. Andy Zipser, an author and journalist who writes about the pros and cons of America's RV parks and the campground industry, earlier this year termed the proposal so huge that, if completed, it would be "one of the 10 largest RV resorts" in the eastern United States.

Tackitt said he can't fathom how an equine-centric community in Kentucky would let a development of that scope come to pass.

"If something like this happens to you, it's like a slap in the face," Tackitt said. "It's like people saying, 'We don't value horse-raising in this area.'"

History repeating?

Suzi Shoemaker, the longtime owner of the 185-acre Lantern Hill Farm in Midway, told TDN that among the many horse farms that populate the area, she believes hers is the nearest Thoroughbred breeding operation to the proposed development.

"I am really the closest," Shoemaker said in a phone interview during which some of the more vocal of the 80 horses on her property were loudly neighing and whinnying for attention or treats.

"As you can hear in the background, I am one of those horse people who would prefer never to leave the barn," Shoemaker said. "I have been very active in the past when it has come to preservation issues, and I really do need to get more involved in this one."

Shoemaker gave a lay-of-the-land perspective of the proposed RV facility and some insight into the local politics that are the both driving the development and resisting it.

"Half of the park is supposed to be in Scott County, which is technically Georgetown," Shoemaker explained. "The other half is supposed to be in Woodford County, which is not technically Midway, but Woodford County has far more active disagreements about any kind of zoning changes.

"Scott has welcomed development with open arms; hence the Toyota plant that got put there in the 1980s," Shoemaker said. (Georgetown has a population of 37,000, and Toyota bills its plant there as its largest vehicle manufacturing plant in the world.)

"But I live in Woodford, and we're very provincial here in Kentucky. And the counties really are very different in their thinking. A lot of people in Scott County have been for development because of the money it brings in. Woodford tends to be more about preserving ag land. And I'm definitely in that camp about preserving ag land.

"All farm land is really threatened with subdivision and development, and it's encroaching from Louisville on us. It's just a constant threat," Shoemaker said.

"We're close to the interstate, right off I-64 at exit 55," Shoemaker said. "And you can argue, 'Well, you knew that when you bought the place.' And yes, I did. But I would still hope to preserve horse land.

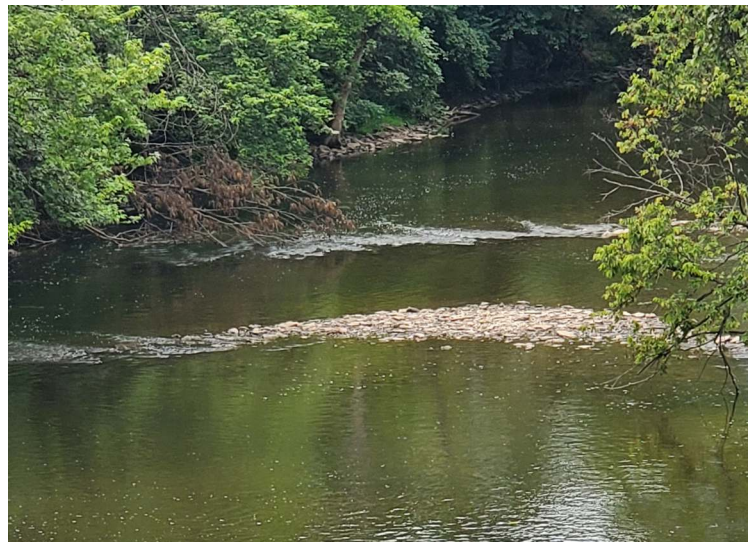

"The biggest problem we have in Kentucky is our roads are very unsafe," Shoemaker said. "They're very narrow. And as development has encroached on our rural roads, nothing has been done to widen that infrastructure. I moved to Kentucky right out of college in 1978. The roads were scary then, and they're still so scary now that I plan lots of things around when I feel there will be no traffic.

"When you're on the road with a horse trailer on a very narrow road, and you're trying to get to the breeding shed and there's a semi coming at you, and it's taking up part of your lane, you have nothing but trees and telephone poles on your side of the road. You literally have nowhere to go. These roads, at best, are about a lane and half wide," Shoemaker said.

"I love it here and I would never move. But it astonished me that we can continue to develop subdivisions and housing and all kinds out tourist attractions and never widen the roads. And that's everywhere, all around here. And no one seems to care. That's my strongest argument against the RV park."

Dick Murphy, a neighbor of Shoemaker and Tackitt, is the co-owner of Heronwood Farm, a dressage and eventing business that is home to a few Thoroughbreds trained in those disciplines.

Elkhorn Creek | Dan Liebman

Murphy said when he and his wife, Karen, first bought their farm near Elkhorn Creek in 1987, they were taking quite a gamble, because the waterway at that time was considered a "dead," foul-smelling stream devoid of wildlife because of untreated sewage that had been allowed to seep into it.

But thanks to preservation efforts in the decades since, Murphy said, "Now the creek has come back, and it's been amazing to see the resurrection" that has re-introduced fish and attracted all sorts of animals, including eagles, heron and otters.

"But I could just see it going the other way," if KBER gets built, Murphy said.

Those concerns are very real according to Zipser, the RV and campground industry writer.

Zipser, who describes himself on his blog, Renting Dirt, as a "guy with an acute B.S. detector who delights in calling out snake-oil salesmen and bureaucratic obfuscators," wrote the following in January 2024 regarding the Woodford/Scott County RV project and the community's fight against it:

"Local resistance isn't always effective, though, if an RV resort developer has exceptionally deep pockets and the locals are slow to cotton on to what's happening. That's been the story in Midway, Kentucky, where town fathers initially welcomed and then belatedly backpedaled from a monster project known as KBER....When the full scope of the proposal--and how it would impact the local community--finally sank in, Midway's city council tried to block the project by refusing to extend municipal water and sewer to the site.

"That was more than two years ago, but despite the lack of subsequent headlines, the developers didn't just go away. Instead they played the long game, culminating in [an October 2023] approval of an ordinance allowing RV parks to operate private sewer plants. Such private plants had been banned a couple of decades ago, after several local mobile home parks had private systems that failed, spilling raw sewage into local waterways. But history doesn't repeat--does it?"

No fix if horse farms leave

Tackitt has been a Thoroughbred owner and breeder for two decades. He said that one of the stunning ironies about the RV park potentially encroaching upon his little slice of horse country is that four years ago, he moved his entire operation from California to Kentucky primarily because he was seeking a more tranquil environment.

"Our farm is on Muir Lane, a street with very little traffic," Tackitt said. "First and foremost, that's why we bought it--it was out of town and it was quiet. Anybody who raises Thoroughbreds knows that you can't have noise and disruptions. Noise changes horses' sleeping patterns and it affects pregnant mares. We can't have that."

Although Tackitt said opposition to the RV park is now at a can't-miss level within the community because of roadside signage, mass mailings, and online social media groups devoted to stopping the development, he acknowledged that some abutters--including himself--didn't immediately pick up on the threat.

"Everybody's kind of rallying around it. It's a big deal. But we just found out about it. I guess it's been in the works for several years, and we're just now hearing about it," Tackitt said.

Still, not every nearby property owner is as outspoken or aware of the RV park's potential disruption as those quoted in this story.

Several nearby Thoroughbred farm owners declined to return phone messages seeking comment on the development. One Thoroughbred farm manager in the same neighborhood as

Heronwood Farm | Dan Liebman

Tackitt and Shoemaker told TDN that he wasn't even aware that a project of such a huge scale was so close to becoming a reality just down the street from his paddocks.

"Without a rally of local citizens that are concerned, I think we'll have an RV park," Murphy said. "But I'm hell-bent not to let that happen."

Murphy added that he's afraid "resistance may materialize in the wrong way" at the upcoming zoning hearing.

Asked to explain what he meant by that, Murphy said a number of his neighbors have horses but not a business at their property. Their chief beefs will be along aesthetic lines, but civic leaders, he said, are more likely to think twice about approving KBER if citizens instead can pinpoint dire economic outcomes resulting from the RV park.

"There will be many outspoken individuals at the Aug. 8 meeting. Many of them will be heartfelt--'Don't change my environment; I moved here because it's beautiful, and you're going to make it all ugly,'" Murphy said.

"And [the planning commission] will hear that 10 times over," Murphy continued. "But after the first five or six times? It's glazed eyes, and 'Move on, please.' That's my biggest concern, is that people will show up without any content about how much economic impact it will have on [the horse] business."

Murphy said abutters need help from the region's larger horse farms. Even if those bigger properties aren't geographically close to the proposed RV park, he said they, too, will be adversely affected by it over time.

"I don't know what the real number is of farms that will be impacted," Murphy said. "The big, huge farms--the 5,000- or 6,000-acre farms--they're not going to care. They won't even show up, probably. But anyone with a horse farm of 30 acres up to a couple of hundred acres, those are the ones that are going to be most impacted, because they're the most sensitive to the revenue stream that the farm's generating. And they're a big part of the Bluegrass."

Shoemaker said that even if development is inevitable, horse farm owners need to speak up to shape it.

"I feel that, to some extent, we all have to accept that development is going to happen around us," Shoemaker said. "There's really almost no one who wants to be doing what I've been doing my entire life, which is managing a horse farm and raising race horses. So you have to expect that development is going to happen, but be much more involved."

Tackitt said the key to winning the fight against the RV park will come down to making certain that civic leaders know horse owners and breeders will vacate the Bluegrass if enough large-scale development is thrust upon them.

"Sewer problems? Road problems? You can maybe fix those things," Tackitt said. "But you can't fix it when horse farms just pack up and leave."

CUT THE DUST SPARKLES ON DEBUT, NEW 'RISING STAR' AT WOODBINE

Not This Time sired his fourth 'TDN Rising Star' Friday at Woodbine | Mary Ellet

Cut the Dust (Not This Time) ran a hole in the wind on this unveiling and cruised home to the easiest of victories, earning a 'TDN Rising Star' nod in the process.

Breaking well with the field and out to take command quickly, the chestnut was still in hand as he distanced himself from his rivals passing the three furlong pole after :22.48 and :45.29 splits. He had built up a six length lead turning for home and from there on, the question was how much he'd like to win by in the end. The 7-5 favorite came in to score impressively by 6 1/2 lengths in a final time of 1:03.68. Scorching (Mo Town) came on from fifth to claim second.

That clocking for Cut the Dust's effort was almost a second faster than what Mensa (Complexity) ran en route to winning the Victoria Stakes two races prior. This is Not This Time's fourth 'TDN Rising Star'.

The victor is the second to the races and second to get his picture taken for Embur's Zip, herself a daughter of Canadian champion older mare MGSW Embur's Song. That dam has since produced a yearling colt by Maclean's Music as well as a 2024 colt by Girvin.

In addition to that Canadian staple, this is also the extended female family of GI Preakness Stakes and GI Haskell Stakes hero Exaggerator (Curlin) by way of Embur's Song's half-sister, track-record setter SP Dawn Raid (Vindication).

SECOND WINNER FOR IMPROBABLE AS GOVERNOR SAM DELIVERS AT THE SPA

By Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - With majority owner Alex Bregman in Seattle for the Houston Astros' game against the Mariners, his partner, Reagan Swinbank, took care of the winner's circle duties Friday at Saratoga Race Course following Governor Sam's (Improbable) impressive maiden-breaking victory.

Swinbank said he jumped at the opportunity to buy an interest in the colt purchased by the MLB star's Bregman Family Racing LLC for $275,000 at the OBS April sale of 2-year-olds.

"We invested based on Alex and his team's opinion," Swinbank said.

Swinbank recalls the analysis of Governor Sam to be to the point: "He's going to be fast and early." Cont.

Governor Sam | Sarah Andrew

Reagan Swinbank | Sarah Andrew

Making his second career start for trainer George Weaver, Governor Sam led from gate to wire under Irad Ortiz Jr. in the 5 1/2-furlong maiden special weight turf race for 2-year-olds. Governor Sam quickly responded to mild challenges high in the stretch and won by 2 1/4 lengths over Test Score (Lookin at Lucky) in 1:02.41. The 3-5 favorite paid $3.30 to win the first race of the day.

Swinbank is from Houston, is friends with Bregman and has been a partner in some other Bregman horses. The connection is Jake Ballis, who operates Black Type Thoroughbreds in Lexington, Ky. with his wife Maddie Mattmiller.

"[Ballis] is one of my childhood best friends and my racing manager and agent," Swinbank said. "He said, 'Hey, you guys want to partner on this horse?' And I said, 'Let's do it.'"

The original goal for Governor Sam was win the Royal Palm Juvenile Stakes on May 11 at Gulfstream Park and earn a berth in the Norfolk Stakes at the Royal Ascot meeting. He pressed the pace in the Royal Palm and finished sixth, three lengths behind Gabaldon (Gone Astray).

"We rushed him into the race and he handled it fine," Weaver said. "I told Alex and Reagan after the race, 'let's just take our time, get some gas back in the tank and lead him over there fresh to Saratoga,' "We thought he'd be pretty live and he was. He ran well today."

Governor Sam broke sharply from the inside post got the first quarter in :21.99, had a one-length after three-eighths and spurted away to a four-length advantage when Ortiz asked him for more. Bred by Stoneriggs Farm, he is the second winner this week by the late freshman sire.'

Last year, Weaver won the male and female divisions of the Royal Ascot qualifiers at Gulfstream Park. Black Type was a partner in Crimson Advocate (Nyquist), who won the Juvenile Fillies and Ascot's Queen Mary. She is now owned by Wathnan Racing and is trained in England by John and Thady Gosden. Bregman was the principal in the colt No Nay Mets (No Nay Never), who was ninth in the Norfolk.

Swinbank's first venture into ownership was with Ballis on Join in the Dance (Sky Mesa), who was seventh in the 2009 GI Kentucky Derby. After a hiatus of several years, Swinbank said he came back into racing five years ago with Black Type. He now operates as Swinbank Stable.

Bregman's family has been connected to racing for decades. He began buying horses in 2021. Ballis and Mattmiller have been on his team.

"We worked the 2-year-old sales, my wife and I, and we partnered up with Alex Bregman on several other horses," Ballis said. "[Governor Sam] ended up on our list of horses that we shortlisted. I talked with George and when Alex bought it, I just called Alex and I said, 'Hey, was there a chance that Reagan can buy into this horse? I represent Reagan in buying into partnerships with Black Type Thoroughbreds. Reagan wants to do this on this on his own.' I advised him to go ahead and partner with Alex."

Ballis said Governor Sam worked well at OBS and was purchased for the Royal Palm race.

"We really want to go back to Royal Ascot and Alex Bregman wants to get another horse there. That was the goal." Ballis said.

"We chased that really, really fast horse of (Jose) d'Angelo's all the way around. When that didn't pan out we sent him up here. We knew we were going to point for one of these races and it all worked out."

GOVERNOR SAM (c, 2, Improbable--I'm Betty G {MSW & MGSP, $353,100}, by Into Mischief) ran sixth in the same race which yielded eventual Windsor Castle Stakes runner-up Gabaldon (Gone Astray) via a gate to wire trip--the Royal Palm Juvenile Stakes May 11--and took a page from that runner's notes here with a frontrunning score. Putting up fractions of :21.99 and :45.14 early in this second jump as the 3-5 favorite, Governor Sam rebroke when they hit midstretch and quickly put open air on his rivals. Longshot Test Score (Lookin At Lucky) tried to close the distance but was 2 1/4 lengths beaten on the line at 15-1 odds. Governor Sam is his late sire (by City Zip)'s second winner. A half-brother to Gill Regret Stakes victress Pin Up Betty (Constitution), $349,365, the winner is the most recent to the races for his dam, who produced a yearling filly by City of Light after him. by J.N. Campbell

5th-ELP, $71K, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 2:53 p.m. ET.

TAPPAN STREET (Into Mischief), a $1 million-purchase at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale, makes his first start for CHC, Siena and WinStar. Trained by Brad Cox, the colt is the second to the races for GSP Virginia Key (Distorted Humor), who is also responsible for his older half-sister in-training Distorted d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro).

SUMMER BREEZES:

Gun Runner Colt Whiskey Shot Debuts at Ellis

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Saturday at Saratoga and Ellis Park:

Tappan Street (Hip 208) | Fasig-Tipton

Tappan Street's second dam, GSW Our Khrysty (Newfoundland), also produced GI Del Mar Debutante Stakes heroine Grace Adler (Curlin) and the recent GI Stephen Foster Stakes runner-up Pyrenees (Into Mischief). This is an extended female family which also includes GI Whitney Handicap champ Bullsbay (Tiznow).

From the same shedrow, Rothko (Tapit) debuts for LNJ Foxwoods. The homebred is the younger brother to fellow colorbearer and recent maiden breaking filly Ellen Jay (Constitution). Both are out of dual champion Covfefe (Into Mischief), who was also campaigned by LNJ and trained by Cox. This dam counts as a half-sister Japanese G1 NHK Mile Cup runner-up Albiano (Harlan's Holiday). Under Rothko's third dam we find GI Juddmonte Spinster Stakes victress Acoma (Empire Maker). TJCIS PPS

7th-SAR, $100K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 3:54 p.m. ET.

A $500,000 purchase, Social Hour (Practical Joke) was taken home at the same sale as Tappan Street and is also owned by CHC, Siena and WinStar. Bred by Machmer Hall, the colt makes his first start for trainer Todd Pletcher.

Ready for his unveiling under Bill Mott, Godolphin's Cooper (Nyquist) hails from a dam who is a full-sister to GSW Indulgent (Bernardini), and who is a half to the dam of MGSW Caramel Swirl (Union Rags) and current sire Frosted (Tapit). Cooper's second dam, GSW Fast Cookie (Deputy Minister), is herself a half-sister to champion Midshipman (Unbridled's Song). TJCIS PPS

2nd-DMR, $75K, Msw, 2yo, 5f, 5:32 p.m. ET.

Getaway Car (Curlin) initially sold as a weanling for $300,000 to FMQ Stables at Keeneland November before going to SF Bloodstock, Starlight and Madaket for $700,000 during Keeneland September. Making his first start for trainer Bob Baffert, the colt is out of SW Surrender Now (Morning Line).

TJCIS PPS

8th-DMR, $75K, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f, 8:44 p.m. ET.

Also at the seaside oval for his inaugural voyage is the top-priced Mitole yearling from 2022--Wayne the Brain. Taken home by Muir Hut for $550,000 at the Keeneland September Sale, the colt was first purchased the year prior during Keeneland November for $110,000. The Mark Glatt trainee's dam is GSP Namaste's Wish (Pulpit). TJCIS PPS

Unmatched Wisdom | Sarah Andrew

Unmatched Wisdom went right to the front for the third time in his career and secured his career first black-type win in the Curlin Stakes.

A standout debuter May 10 over a muddy Belmont Big A mile maiden, where he won by 6 1/4 lengths, he was last seen delivering a similarly eye-catching effort against first-level allowance company at that venue June 22 stretching out to this stakes' distance for the first time.

Quick to the front from the rail after a sluggish break and outfooting a would-be early challenger, the 2-5 favorite coasted along at the head of affairs as Corporate Power and Timeout took up pursuit behind him through :23.58 and :48.37 early fractions. After 1:12.66 posted on the board, the former launched a sustained challenge through the turn and the top pair distanced themselves from the field through the stretch. Getting leg weary but game as they come late, Unmatched Wisdom refused to be denied, and maintained his unbeaten record by a length.

Seth Klarman and Flavien Prat | Sarah Andrew

"We were very intent [on getting the lead]. I didn't want to take any chances. He broke just a step slow--probably from standing in the gate for a little bit from the one-hole. Flavien [Prat] had to use him a little bit that first quarter to get there and he probably felt that first quarter a little bit by the wire, but I liked the strategy," said Chad Brown.

"I told him [Prat] to just keep the silks clean and try and stay out of trouble with this horse and just try to pass the next test. I didn't want such a heavy favorite--although there are some really nice horses in this race, he looked to be the best on paper--to get in a situation where he's trapped in or they're riding against him because of the short field."

When asked about a potential start in the GI DraftKings Travers Stakes Aug. 24, Brown confirmed it was a target for Unmatched Wisdom. "I'd say so, if he comes out of the race good. He's only run three times, but as he's playing catchup you have other 3-year-olds that are accumulating a lot of races and a lot of workouts, and a little bit of wear and tear. You end up catching horses that are on the other end of the curve and maybe regressing a little bit that started earlier in the year. If he can keep developing and playing catchup and a few of the other top ones regress just a bit, he could be in the mix."

The winner is full-sibling to two other multiple-winning siblings--Harvey's Princess and River in Egypt. Their dam delivered a yearling filly by Classic Empire and a 2024 full-brother to the trio. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Mensa, who fetched a then-record $740,000 on the Fasig-Tipton Digital platform from John Stewart's Resolute Racing 13 days after an impressive debut victory in the colors of D J Stable over the Gulfstream Tapeta Apr. 12, atoned for a down-the-field effort when well-backed in the Kentucky Juvenile Stakes last time with a dominating score in Friday's Victoria Stakes at Woodbine.

Off as the second betting choice behind stable companion Into Diamonds--himself a first-out winner sprinting on the turf at Keeneland Apr. 25--Mensa was soon in front and traveled supremely well with Patrick Husbands riding tall in the saddle. Widening on the lead while his rivals were hard at it behind him, Mensa was never asked for a serious effort in the lane and cruised home to score as a mile the best.

"He started pulling away, and I was like, 'This is awesome,'" said Stewart, who was on hand for the race. "I know there are different tactics for different horses, but he ran a great race. He really did it easy. We're seeing some good things out of him. We're really excited for what is next in store."

Mensa is the second stakes winner in the last six days for his first-crop sire (by Maclean's Music), joining GIII Sanford Stakes hero Mo Plex. The winning dam has two full black-type winners and another stakes-placed horse from her four foals to race and was most recently bred to Nashville. Those that swallowed the 1-5 about last-out GI Woody Stephens Stakes winner Book'em Danno were made to sweat it out, as the Jersey-bred star needed every last inch of the Monmouth stretch to peg back the previously unbeaten Little Ni in Friday's Jersey Shore Stakes.

Clearly last of a scratched-down field of four to leave the gates, Book'em Danno was outsprinted and cabooseed the field as Proprietary Trade (Practical Joke) set the pace from Little Ni, with Buccherino not far away in third and three deep on the track. Samuel Marin, who had ridden Book'em Danno to his first two career victories, was sitting on a ton of horse and could easily have circumnavigated the short field, but he opted to ride for luck nearer the inside and was in a bit of a jackpot nearing the stretch. Angled out three deep for clear sailing in upper stretch, the heavy chalk had dead aim on Little Ni, but the gray proved a very stubborn foe up front, only to lose the race on the wire.

"That's a nice horse that ran second," said winning trainer Derek Ryan. "We got what we wanted out of the race. He had to fight for it today. If all things go well, we'll be back in Saratoga to run in the [$500,000 GI H.] Allen Jerkens [Stakes]." Cont.

Breeder Greg Kilka purchased the unraced Adorabella for $14,000 in foal to Fast Anna at the 2020 Keeneland January Sale, and that foal, Girl Trouble, did her part in improving the page with a pair of juvenile stakes scores in 2022. When factoring in Book'em Danno's emergence late last year, the family became even more valuable, as the now-juvenile colt by Classic Empire topped the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic October sale on LC Racing's bid of $135,000 and that same operation added Adorabella to the fold when paying $550,000 for the mare in foal to Medaglia d'Oro after she was supplemented to the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Adorabella subsequently aborted the foal.

The stakes-placed second dam produced synthetic stakes winner Alydiva (Quality Road) and she is a daughter of Esprit d'Escalier, the dam of GSW & MGISP Gastronomical (Sunshine Forever). Alydorable was purchased by Thomas & Mitchell Bloodstock for $5,000 in foal to Sir Winston at last year's Keeneland November Sale. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Making her first start since as the 2-1 pick, the $375,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling showed good speed from the 10 hole and controlled the pace around the turn and into the backstretch. A fraction keen nearing the third corner, the bay remained in hand on the swing for home, carried a clear advantage into the final furlong and held sway as stablemate and 9-4 second choice Child of the Moon (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) took a good run at her late on her U.S. debut. Root Cause is a half-sister to Payne (Paynter), MSP, $660,262; and to Vertical Oak (Giant Oak), MGSW, $773,095, whose son Giant Mischief (Into Mischief) was third in last year's GI Malibu Stakes.
