

DORNOCH MAKES CASE FOR DIVISIONAL LEAD WITH HASKELL WIN

Dornoch | Sarah Andrew

by Christina Bossinakis

Six weeks removed from the biggest win of his career in the GI Belmont Stakes, Dornoch (Good Magic) did what many thought he surely wouldn't be able to. It seems nobody told him, nor the colt's connections for that matter. During Wednesday's draw for the GI NYRABets Haskell Stakes, trainer Danny Gargan made it pretty clear that he was not really enthused with his Classic-winning colt drawing Post 1. The trainer probably had a flashback to this season's GI Kentucky Derby, where Dornoch drew the dreaded rail and ran accordingly in 10th. But the Haskell is not the Derby, and drawing the rail in the Haskell arguably proved to be a stroke of luck, given 10 prior winners have come out of that position, making it the most prolific winning position in the gate.

Following a textbook beginning, Dornoch easily strode to the front as 4-5 choice Mindframe (Constitution) bobbed slightly at the start and was allowed to settle in a stalking position approaching the initial turn. Following a :23.32 quarter, Dornoch continued to show the way with GI Champagne Stakes winner Timberlake (Into Mischief), Just Step On It (Accelerate) and a rail-hugging Mindframe in close pursuit. Timberlake continued to press the issue following a :48.08 half and Mindframe was only three lengths behind, but seemed to be moving comfortably under Irad Ortiz Jr. Cont. p3

THORPEDO ANNA FLOODS THE TUBES AND FIRES IN CCA OAKS AT THE SPA

'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) continued her assault on the sophomore fillies division with a spectacular 4 1/2-length victory over Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}) in Saturday's GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga. But it was not all smooth sailing for the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Acorn Stakes heroine.

Off as the 1-4 favorite while facing four rivals here, she hopped at the start and subsequently hit the gate and immediately trailed the quartet. She rushed up beneath Brian Hernandez, Jr., however, and was quickly in a perfect stalking second behind GI Ashland Stakes winner Leslie's Rose (Into Mischief) through an opening quarter in :24.28. Always traveling like the winner, Thorpedo Anna inhaled the pacesetter approaching the quarter pole, kicked for home in complete command and ran up the score in the stretch over the aforementioned 2023 GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes winner to make it a perfect four-for-four on the year. Cont. p8

Finding a seam three wide exiting the far turn, Mindframe burst on the scene and appeared poised to inhale front-running Dornoch leaving the quarter pole. Momentarily overtaking the pacesetter, Mindframe floated out several paths wide while his main challenger cut the corner like a knife. Running down the stretch in what appeared to be more like a race at Royal Ascot--with the field split in two--rather than at Monmouth Park, the colts battled down the stretch and, despite his best effort to turn the tables on Dornoch, Mindframe had to play the bridesmaid yet again, 1 1/4 lengths adrift of the winner. Timberlake was a distant third, while Just Step on It rounded out the superfecta. Spendthrift Farm's Tuscan Sky (Vino Rosso), the 5-1 fourth betting choice, finished sixth after early trouble.

The Haskell is a 'Win and You're In' event to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar this fall.

"Today was not an easy race, but he has a big heart," said winning rider Luis Saez, who previously won the Haskell in 2019 with Maximum Security. "He always breaks from there and wants to be on the engine. The plan was to break good from there and put him in the race. He did it. He showed up today. Mindframe was coming at him and we knew he was the horse to beat, but we got the victory."

Luis Saez and Dornoch | Sarah Andrew

Saez continued, "He's a special horse. He was pretty comfortable out there. He's a really good horse who always shows a lot of guts and a big heart. He was traveling pretty comfortably. At the three-eighths when everyone was coming at him, he re-broke again. He responded. He just wanted to get there first."

Despite his scepticism about the rail drawing, Gargan admitted it ultimately worked to his colt's advantage.

“I was playing a little cat and mouse,” Gargan said. “Mindframe went off the favorite and he’s a really good horse. But as trainers, we play games. Luis rode a smart race tactically. It’s a speed bias track normally, but I was a little nervous speed wasn’t holding that well [today]. To go :48 on this track when the rest of the card they were going in :50 earlier, he showed a lot of heart. You can’t take anything away from him after this.”

Dornoch is campaigned by a group united largely through the efforts of Gargan. The team is comprised of Larry Connolly and Keith Mason's West Paces Racing, Randy Hill's R. A. Stable, Vito Cucci's Belmar Racing and former MLB All-Star and 2008 World Series champion Jayson Werth.

Randy Hill, Luis Saez and Jayson Werth accept Haskell trophy
Sarah Andrew

“It’s just incredible,” said Cucci, a New Jersey resident who owns Nanina's in the Park in Bellville, New Jersey. “I’ve been coming [to Monmouth Park] since I was 12 or 13 years old. We would take the bus to downtown Newark and the train would drop you off right behind the stable area. We went to see Dornoch [Friday] and went across the same train tracks. To come back to this is just unbelievable.”

Also on-hand for the colt's Belmont score, Werth was back on the winning scene Saturday afternoon.

“Danny and his staff do such a great job with the horse,” he said. “He’s such a special animal. We call him big puppy. He’s a part of the family. This is the first colt I bought. It’s such a great journey. The horse is the show. The horse is the athlete. He’s an amazing creature.”

Clearly disappointed with Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable's Mindframe's latest defeat, trainer Todd Pletcher said, “I thought he was traveling really well, and at the top of the stretch, I thought he was in a position to put away the race. I thought he got a little bit lost when he put his head in front. He kind of got to wandering around a little bit again. He was pretty far away from the eventual winner, so maybe thinking about making some changes.”

Looking ahead, Gargan seemed eager to face the best of the 3-year-old division in the Aug. 24 GI Travers Stakes.

“This race was five weeks before the Travers, which made the timing perfect,” said Gargan. “We want to win the Travers. He’s always been special to all of us. He’s probably the leading 3-year-old right now and if we can win the Travers that would be three Grade I wins for us. He’s such a great horse and we’re blessed just to be part of it.”

Runner-up in his first two career starts, including Monmouth's Sapling Stakes, Dornoch broke through with a 6 1/2-length score at Keeneland in October before annexing the GII Remsen Stakes. Off the bench, he took the GII Fountain of Youth Stakes before coming home fourth in the GI Blue Grass Stakes. Settling for 10th in the May 4 Run for the Roses, he rebounded to win at generous odds of 17-1 in the Belmont Stakes, run for the first time at Saratoga.

Dornoch to Spendthrift on Retirement from Racing

With two wins at the highest level now solidly under his belt, the flashy colt with the flashy pedigree is the belle of the ball. And of course, he has suitors. During Saturday's post-race conference, Randy Hill announced that Dornoch would stand at Spendthrift Farm at the conclusion of his racing career.

“It’s been in the works since right after the Belmont,” confirmed Hill, a financial industry executive. “I also have Vekoma with Spendthrift and I think they are a class operation. They have run 212 mares to Vekoma two years in a row. He’s off to a fast start for a freshman sire.

Hill and Mike Gatsas of Gatsas Stables campaigned Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}) in partnership. Trained by George Weaver, the chestnut won six of eight career starts, including the GI Met Mile and GI Carter Handicap, before retiring with $1.2 million in earnings. Vekoma currently ranks second among leading freshman sires with over $500,000 in earnings.

“They are great to deal with. They were the first people I called and we made a deal pretty easily,” the New Jersey native said.

When asked about the move to solicit a farm to stand the colt following his retirement, Hill said with a chuckle. “You know what they say, you’re the shiny penny. And he really was after his Belmont win. The timing was just right.”

Pedigree Notes:

Dornoch holds a strong connection to the Haskell. His sire, Good Magic, won the nine-furlong mid-summer test, earning himself the distinction of becoming the fifth Haskell winner to sire a winner of Monmouth’s marquee race for 3-year-olds. Additionally, Dornoch’s full-brother Mage, winner of the 2023 Kentucky Derby, finished second in last year’s renewal of the race.

The Classic-winning colts share the dam Puca, a 'TDN Rising Star' who subsequently brought $2.9 million from John Stewart’s Resolute Racing, who was a post-sale out of the Case

Clay consignment at last year’s Keeneland November sale. The mare produced a full-brother to Mage and Dornoch for Stewart Apr. 4. Both Mage and Dornoch, a $325,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, were bred by Robert Clay’s Grandview Equine, which originally purchased the half-sister to GISW Finnegan’s Wake for $475,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November sale. Including her first foal, Gunning (Gun Runner), Puca has three stakes performers from the same number of starters.

“I hope we haven’t seen the best of her yet,” winning trainer Ken McPeck said. “We’ve seen quite a bit of good of her. She really hasn’t been challenged. Even today, he didn’t hit her. He said he flagged her, but he didn’t actually reach back and hit her. We don’t know what will happen when he does that--she might find two or three more lengths.”

And, as for the $1.25-million question. Will we see her take on males later this summer in the GI DraftKings Travers Stakes?

“If I run her in the Alabama, as a wagering [prospect], it’s no fun for anybody,” McPeck said. “Nobody is going to run against her and what would she be--1-2 or less? I like challenges. I’d be sticking my neck out a little bit, but I think the sport could really enjoy seeing a filly take on the colts. Whether it’s Genuine Risk or Winning Colors or Swiss [Skydiver]--I’ll look at the numbers, look at them really hard and try to make an educated decision if I think we can run with them. I watched Dornoch today [winning the GI Haskell] and he ran 1:50 and change--there’s not much separation there, at least on time. It’s a good problem.”

Hernandez added, “She got just a little anxious in there a couple of times and right before they sprung them, she kinda got a little anxious again and then when she broke she just like hopped up. It just goes to show you how talented she is cause when she hopped, she came down so fast that they weren’t able to get away from her and she was able to secure that spot going into the first turn. That made all the difference in the world because once we were able to secure that spot and force Leslie’s Rose forward a little, it made it to where my filly could just travel in a nice rhythm after that.” He continued, “The last eighth of a mile, it was just her. She had her ears up and was looking around at the grandstand. I was kinda looking out of the corner of my eye at the infield at the big screen to make sure no one was really making a run at her. She was just kinda playing around and messing with me more than anything.”

Pedigree Notes:

Thorpedo Anna was bred by Judy Hicks, who took on the mare as a charitable act and later stayed in for a piece of the filly.

“She was premature; seven, eight weeks premature when she was born,” Hicks explained following her Kentucky Oaks victory. “She was 45” tall, weighed 60 pounds. Her hocks were crushed.

And there wasn't much hope of any future for her. So I volunteered to take her from the owners, Mr. Sanford Robertson and Kathryn Nikkel, who bred her. And Mr. Robertson graciously gave her to me when I volunteered to keep her. And I tried to do my magic and it worked.”

Sanford Robertson campaigned Thorpedo Anna's third dam Aldebaran Light to three wins from five starts at River Downs and went on to breed successfully from her. Robertson campaigned Aldebaran Light's foal of 2001, a Stravinsky colt named Balmont, to a victory (via DQ) in the 2003 G1 Middle Park S. for trainer Jeremy Nosedá, while Eskendereya (Giant's Causeway) helped to further enhance the family with victories in the 2010 GI Wood Memorial S. and GII Fountain of Youth S.

Thorpedo Anna is the second foal out of the 9-year-old Sataves. The first, Charlee O (Tonalist) earned over $100,000 on the track. Thorpedo Anna was purchased by McPeek for $40,000 at the Fasig-Tipton October yearling sale in 2022. Sataves is also the dam of the 2-year-old colt McAfee (Cloud Computing), a $40,000 purchase by Maddie Mattmiller at Keeneland last September, and the daughter of Uncle Mo foaled a filly by Known Agenda--already named After the Storm--earlier this year. Thorpedo Anna is the lone graded winner for the late Three Chimneys stallion Fast Anna.

IDIOMATIC EKES OUT A WIN IN MOLLY

PITCHER by Christina Bossinakis

OCEANPORT, NJ--On paper, it appeared that a single horse, Idiomatic (Curlin), couldn't be beaten. That was until they ran Monmouth Park's GIII Molly Pitcher Stakes. Sent off the searing 1-9 choice in the scratched reduced field of five, the 2023 champion older mare stumbled a hair coming out of stall six as Kathleen O (Upstart) faced a much more dramatic misstep exiting the gate. While the latter was rushed into contention along the inside, the champion cruised effortlessly to the lead, doling out an opening quarter in a poky :25.57 before carving out an equally laughable half in :50.27 with Miles of Smiles (Prospective) and Kathleen O in pursuit. As if caught by surprise as Soul of an Angel (Atreides) rushed up to the champ and inched ahead to a short advantage approaching the quarter pole, the pair rounded the home turn in tandem, loaded for bear. Battling through the length of the lane, Soul of an Angel gave it her all but the champ refused to give up along the inside and managed to put her head down on the wire. Frosty OToole (Frosted) closed from the back to be third.

“A little bit too close for my liking, but champions know how to win races,” said jockey Florent Geroux.

Explaining the narrow win despite the slow early fractions, Geroux added, “I know exactly what happened. She was waiting on the other fillies and looking around a lot. I felt her underneath me going slower and slower. When the filly came up next to me, I gave her a reminder and she pulled it off.”

Winning trainer Brad Cox added, “Her class prevailed late. She ran big. I’m not at all concerned she’s not the same horse she was last year.

“With the lack of pace, it was run like a turf race. That’s the bottom line. You’re going the half in :50 and then it was a race from the half-mile pole to the wire. They were on even terms at the half-mile pole for the most part and she prevailed. When the other horse got by her there was a little bit of a concern, but she rallied. She took the pressure and she was in tight down the lane, but she responded well.”

Idiomatic | Sarah Andrew

The winner of eight of nine starts during her championship season, including a trio of Grade I wins, the 5-year-old kicked off 2024 with a score in the GI La Troienne Stakes at Churchill Downs May 3 before tasting defeat for the first time in over a year in the nine-furlong GI Ogden Phipps at Saratoga June 8.

According to Cox, the mare will make her next start in Saratoga’s GI Personal Ensign Stakes. “That’s still the plan. She’ll leave for Saratoga tomorrow,” he said.

Pedigree Note:

Idiomatic is bred for success top to bottom as a daughter of Curlin and out of a full-sister to champion older mare and MGISW Close Hatches (First Defence), who herself went on to produce MGSW & MGISP Tacitus (Tapit) and his full-siblings MGSW Scylla and GSW Batten Down. That full-sister was herself champion older mare, an honor Idiomatic also claims.

Lockdown was a listed winner and multiple Grade I-placed, including a third place finish in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks and in the GI Cotillion Stakes.

Idiomatic is her first to the races, while her next named Abditory (Medaglia d’Oro) never made it to the track, and who produced her first foal this season, a colt by Girvin. Her last registered offspring is 2-year-old Chasten (Into Mischief).

This is the extended female family of G1 Tattersalls Irish 2,000 Guineas and G1 Keeneland Phoenix Stakes hero Siskin (First Defence), who stands at Shadai Stallion Station in Japan and is expecting his first 2-year-olds to race this year, as well as European champion 2-year-old colt and multiple Highweighted multiple Group 1-winning Xaar (GB).

ISCREAMUSCREAM REFUSES TO MELT IN SAN CLEMENTE

Iscreamuscream | Benoit

With two wins in as many starts, Iscreamuscream (Twirling Candy) did not melt under pressure and remained undefeated in the GII San Clemente Stakes at Del Mar on opening day.

Perfect in a pair of turf sprints going six furlongs over the Santa Anita grass Oct. 14 and June 13, Iscreamuscream was the 6-5 chalk in her stakes debut Saturday.

Making her first start around two turns here, she was sent to the front and raced under pressure through fractions of :22.76 and :47.49. With four of them lined up at the top of the stretch, Iscreamuscream stayed on her left lead down most of the lane and dug down gamely to outlast her Phil D'Amato-trained stablemate Zona Verde (Ire) (Calyx {GB}) by 3/4 of a length.

"I thought she might be stalking, but she ended up being on the lead and showed her class," said D'Amato. "She's a big scopey filly and I think she'll even take another step forward off of this two-turn race."

Pedigree Notes:

Iscreamuscream becomes the 21st graded/53rd black-type winner for Twirling Candy. Her graded stakes winning dam Silver Screamer is also represented by the 2-year-old colt Farasi (Global Campaign), a debut winner in Mexico. Silver Screamer most recently brought $12,000 from Pillar Property Services while in foal to Global Campaign at the 2021 KEENOV sale. She was previously purchased by Upson Downs Farm with the winner in utero for $27,000 at the 2020 KEENOV sale. After RNA'ing for $9,000 as KEENOV weanling, Iscreamuscream brought $55,000 from Pro Racing Stable as a KEESEP yearling. She brought $145,000 from Little Red Feather Racing after breezing an eighth in a bullet :9 4/5 out of the GOP Racing Stable consignment at OBS March.

In a race that came down to the judges to decide, front-running Get Smokin held off a late rail charge from Grand Sonata to upset the GII United Nations Stakes at Monmouth Park Saturday at odds of 9-1. Entered off a strong 2023 campaign which saw the now 7-year-old win his third graded stakes race in the GII FanDuel Kentucky Turf Cup Stakes at Kentucky Downs to finish th year in September, Get Smokin began his 2024 season when fourth beaten just 1 1/4 lengths at Woodbine in the GII bet365 Eclipse Stakes June 1.

A horse with early speed as his main weapon, the Mark Casse trainee had just one route to victory and stole away on the front end right from the jump, opening up a gap right from the first furlong. As the field sorted themselves up into the stretch with a lap to run, Get Smokin had a comfortable, loose advantage with 2-1 favorite Far Bridge (English Channel) embroiled back in the field.

Even through respectable fractions for the 1 3/8-mile distance of :23.54, :47.86 and 1:11.74, Get Smokin refused to yield up the backstretch past their starting point and into the far turn as the mile went in 1:35.69. Set down as the real running began in earnest past the quarter pole, the 9-1 shot had something left as a host of challengers attempted to close and he kept both Tawny Port to his outside and Grand Sonata to his inside at bay to steal the win.

Get Smokin | Sarah Andrew

"It was a little nerve-racking," admitted Casse. "I thought we got beat. It was interesting. They're going to stop letting him on the lead. We had a one-race plan [the GII bet 365 Eclipse Stakes at Woodbine] and then to come here. It worked, and it seldom does. What a nice horse. He's an honest horse. With these older horses, it gets tougher and tougher to get them fit. That Woodbine race was so important. It was everything. Not only that, but getting these older horses ready on the synthetic is important. So we do a lot of training on synthetic."

Pedigree Note:

One of 11 stakes winners for the late Get Stormy, Get Smokin is the third winner from five to race from his dam, who is herself a half to MSW Spanish Pipedream (Scat Daddy), the dam of Australian GSP Latizia (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}). This is the family of champion grass mare and $2.1-million FTKNOV Stonestreet broodmare buy Dayatthespa (City Zip). The 6-year-old Cruden Bay, making his graded stakes debut in his 22nd lifetime start, flew down the lane to earn a narrow victory in the GII Connaught Cup Stakes at Woodbine Saturday. Unhurried out of the gate, the bay settled at the back of the field. Still last at the top of the lane, he was mired in traffic down along the rail in upper stretch, but was angled to the center of the course before unleashing a powerful late rally to just get by War Bomber on the line.

“Down the lane, you just got to give him one clear run and not get him stopped up,” said Sofia Vives, the 2023 Sovereign winner as Canada’s champion apprentice rider. “Today, I got the rail trip. It was a perfect trip. It played out great. There were three horses in front of us and two next to us, and they split just perfectly. They parted perfectly. He's one that you have to tell him what to do, and he listens, and he did just that today.”

Winning trainer Don MacRae added, “I was jumping up and down. I mean, the thing about him is he needs the whole stretch to get there. If you look for him, he knows how to win by a nose, and he tries all the way. And when she punched out, I knew he was coming.”

Racing exclusively at Woodbine, Cruden Bay was making just his fifth start on the turf. The bay gelding ended 2023 with a fourth-place effort in the Dec. 10 Steady Growth Stakes in his only previous try in stakes company. He returned to win an optional claimer over the Connaught Cup’s course and distance last time out June 1.

“I would just like to say I am really happy for [owner] Michael Lay and my team,” said MacRae. “He’s had this horse since he was a baby, and he deserves this.”

Cruden Bay | Michael Burns

Pedigree Notes:

Cruden Bay became the first graded winner for his sire, Big Screen. The stallion, who stands at Spring Farm in Ontario, has just 90 lifetime foals. His three stakes winners include Cruden Bay’s full-sister Sav. Sav, in foal to Epicenter, RNA’d for $95,000 at this year’s Keeneland January sale. In foal to Yaupon, the mare sold for $107,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November sale.

Big Screen Boss, a 2-year-old full-sister to Cruden Bay, sold to Derek Chin for $55,344 at last year’s Canadian August Yearling Sale.

Despite going off a longer odds than her more fancied Chad Brown-trained stablemates, including favorite Delahaye, Beaute Cachee and Frankie Dettori went to the front early and stayed there, holding on to a neck score over Sacred Wish.

From her outside draw, the gray inched the front as Sacred Wish eased into second as Flavien Prat took the favorite back to a ground-saving fourth through a sleepy quarter in :25.16. Still cruising through an equally-unhurried half in :50.66, the French-bred was starting to feel the heat as Sacred Wish got up to her throat latch turning for home and despite her rival's best efforts to get past in the stretch, Beaute Cachee had enough left to hold off the 12-1 shot by a narrow margin. Delahaye was 3/4 of a length back in third while Surprisingly Mastery just missed in fourth.

"Chad Brown told me 'You don't have to leave [out of the gate]. I thought that might be the intention of Luis Saez [aboard runner-up Sacred Wish], said Dettori. "I was able to make the lead, slow things up, and she was relaxed. I was very confident because there was no pressure until the quarter pole. At that point, with the fractions being what they were, I knew she would be very hard to catch. She can sprint late as long as no horse gets past her at the quarter pole. Chad said she likes a target too, but he left it entirely up to me. Once I had those easy fractions it would have been very hard to take back so we just went on with it."

Having enjoyed limited success overseas, Beaute Cachee won at first asking in the U.S. in an 8 1/2-furlong Belmont allowance in May 2023 before finishing a close-up second at the Spa in July. Back in the winner's circle following a win in Monmouth's Violet Stakes in September, she was runner-up behind stablemate Technical Analysis in the nine-furlong GIII Athenia Stakes at the Big A in October before rounding out the season with a third in the GI Matriarch Stakes at Del Mar Dec. 3. After kicking off this season with a score in Keeneland's GI Jenny Wiley Stakes Apr. 13, she encountered a problem-ridden GI Just a Game at Saratoga, finishing seventh June 7.

Beaute Cachee | Sarah Andrew

Pedigree Notes:

Beaute Cachee is the fourth foal out of Sign And Seal, a daughter of Italian highweight older middle distance mare Seraphine (Ger). That daughter of Dashing Blade (GB) is a half-sister to Maid of Killeen (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), dam of dual Group 1 winner Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). Beaute Cachee became the second Group 1 winner for her sire Literato in the Jenny Wiley last spring.

Returning to the races off a year layoff, Tapit Trice marked his return in style, rolling home a 5 1/4-length winner over Highland Falls in the GIII Monmouth Stakes.

A beat slow out of post eight, Tapit Trice was fanned four wide heading into the first turn as Counterspy went to the front, carving out an opening quarter in :24.14. A three-wide third following a :49.15 half, the grey held a slight advantage over favored Highland Falls, who was pinned along the inside and in need of racing room. Cornering wide on the final turn, Tapit Trice spurred clear, and while the favorite did his best to rally into second, there was no catching the winner.

"When you ride for [Todd Pletcher] you don't worry about a layoff or anything else," said winning rider Irad Ortiz Jr. "If they bring a horse from a layoff to a stakes race, it's because they are ready. I always ride them like they are ready to go. I had a good post today, so I was able to let him do his thing early. He put me there, he put himself in that position. I didn't want to take anything away from him, he just made it so easy."

Commenting on his wide trip, Ortiz added, "I didn't mind being off the rail. We were outside and it would have been hard to drop our way to the rail. If I ended up there, I wouldn't have minded, but I let him do his thing."

Pletcher was equally happy with the race, and the result, following a lengthy break.

"We didn't think there was a lot of pace on paper and it's the way it unfolded," said Pletcher. "They were going a pretty comfortable pace. We had to sacrifice a little bit of ground to keep him in his rhythm and he got in a good flow and that seems to be what he does best. I was pleased with the way he was going. I thought it was impressive off the layoff and to finish up the way he did. We're happy to see him back."

Tapit Trice | Sarah Andrew

The winner of four consecutive races at three, including the GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby, the $1.3-million Keeneland September purchase thrust himself squarely in the Triple Crown picture with a victory in Keeneland's GI Toyota Blue Grass Stakes. Seventh behind Mage (Good Magic) in the GI Kentucky Derby, the grey finished an improved third in the GI Belmont Stakes before coming home seventh in Monmouth's marquee event for 3-year-olds, the GI Haskell Stakes. Starting one more time in 2023, he came home third in the GI Travers Stakes at the Spa before heading to the sidelines.

"He's a willing horse to train and he's a good work horse when you want him to be," said Pletcher. "For him, it was probably easier to make a comeback in a race like this [1 1/8 miles] than a six-furlong race, for example."

Pletcher added, "We're very happy. It's been a little frustrating with him. We gave him some time off after the Travers by design last year and we were hoping to get back Kentucky Derby week at Churchill, but we had a little setback. That delayed everything. We're happy to get him back. He was in good form today. That was a good performance."

Pedigree Note:

A $1.3-million yearling for Whisper Hill Farm in 2021, Tapit Trice is one of 165 stakes winners for the legendary Tapit. Danzatrice, herself a multiple stakes winner purchased by Gainesway Farm as a 2-year-old at OBS April in 2014 for just $105,000 and a half to champion 2-year-old filly Jaywalk (Cross Traffic), has three foals of racing age, including her unraced 2-year-old Aeolian, a full-sister to Tapit Trice. Danzatrice and Tapit have been crossed for four of her five foals with Tapit Trice having a full-brother born this year in addition to the aforementioned 2-year-old. The 3-year-old full-sister named Danzit was third in her debut start at Gulfstream in April after selling for $1.1 million as a yearling at Keeneland in 2022. Danzatrice was bred to both Not This Time and Tapit for the 2025 season.

Resolute Racing's Pounce, a narrow winner of the GIII Herecomesthebride S. at Gulfstream Mar. 2 after bringing a sale-topping $370,000 at the Fasig-Tipton February Digital Sale, continued to reward John Stewart's rapidly growing operation with a win in Saratoga's GIII Lake George Stakes.

Off at 5-1 here, Pounce settled in sixth rounding the clubhouse turn. Traveling nicely beneath the hot-handed Dylan Davis while racing in between horses a quarter of a mile from home, Pounce was let loose in the stretch and kicked home with authority to outfinish favored Oversubscribed.

Pounce, 11th as the favorite in the GII Appalachian Stakes at Keeneland Apr. 6, tired to third after setting the pace in the Penn Oaks last time May 31.

Pounce | Coglianese

"In the winter time when she ran, I was considering her to be a real star and then she kind of disappointed me a little bit," winning trainer Mark Casse said. "We freshened her up and gave her a little more time and the only thing I said to Dylan [Davis] was I wanted him to get her to settle if she would--and she did."

The Lake George was Casse's sixth win Saturday--and fourth stakes--in North America. The Hall of Fame trainer has enjoyed a fantastic start to the Saratoga meeting as well.

"It's been a crazy day," Casse said. "We've won six today--it's been a good day. We have a great crew. We got up to Saratoga a lot earlier this year and I think that might be part of it. I have a lot of great people that put a lot of money behind us and we're doing really well with our 2-year-olds. We went out and recruited the strongest group of yearlings we've ever recruited and it's paying dividends."

Pedigree Notes:

Pounce is the first foal and only starter for her winning dam, a $170,000 OBS April breezer, who was purchased by Joshua Deets for $37,000 with this filly in utero at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. A half-sister to a pair of black-type performers, including GIII Providencia S. third Gold Dragon Queen (Goldencents), Bouncy produced a filly by Hard Spun Feb. 25.

Pounce is one of 50 worldwide graded/group winners for Lookin At Lucky and his 76th black-type winner overall. Pounce is one of eight stakes winners and three graded winners out of a mare by Twirling Candy.

Solo Album was second best behind Fashionably Fab after setting the pace in the GIII Belle Mahone Stakes June 1, but refused to lose in another tight finish over the same track and distance in the GIII Trillium Stakes at Woodbine Saturday. Sent off at 2-1, the chestnut filly had the early lead while racing along the rail into the first turn and set a moderate tempo while shadowed by Ocean Club (Curlin) down the backstretch. She scampered clear into the lane and, with Fashionably Fab closing powerfully from the outside and Forever Dixie extricated from traffic to the inside, held on gamely in the final strides.

"I know she could come off the pace and looking at it, no one was really going, and the pace was quite easy, and the rail was open, so I went," said winning rider Sahin Civaci. "I felt them coming, so I was riding hard, and she held on."

Solo Album broke her maiden over 1 1/16 miles of the Woodbine Tapeta surface last May before adding a 6 1/4-length victory over the same in the GIII Selene Stakes July 1.

She sandwiched a win in the Oct. 21 Ontario Derby with runner-up efforts in the Oct. 1 Ontario Damsel Stakes and Nov. 11 GIII Maple Leaf Stakes. Well beaten in a Gulfstream optional claimer in March, she missed by just a neck when second in the Belle Mahone.

Solo Album | Michael Burns

Pedigree Notes:

Summer Solo, third in the 2014 GI Belmont Oaks, is also the dam of 2019 Tempted Stakes and GII Demoiselle Stakes runner-up Maedean (Tapit). Purchased by China Horse Club for $400,000 while in foal to Essential Quality at the 2022 Keeneland November sale, she produced colt in 2023 and, with no foal this year, was bred back to Not This Time.

Summer Solo is a half-sister to the dam of She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}), winner of last summer's GI Natalma Stakes and third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Filles Turf, as well as in the recent GI Fasig-Tipton Belmont Oaks.

Solo Album is one of 59 graded winners for Curlin and the second of the afternoon for the stallion whose daughter Idiomatic won the GIII Molly Pitcher Stakes at Monmouth Park.

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: HONOR MARIE WORKS FOR TRAVERS, COLT STILL NEEDS A NEW RIDER by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Jockey Manny Franco was on Honor Marie's (Honor Code) back when the colt hit the Oklahoma Training Track at 7:30 Saturday morning.

That doesn't mean Franco will be there when Honor Marie runs in the GI Travers Stakes on Aug. 24.

Honor Marie | Sarah Andrew

Honor Marie worked four furlongs in :48.75 with 2-year-old stablemate Fiddling Felix (Mendelssohn) as he continues to train up to the Midsummer Derby.

Franco answered the call to work the horse because trainer Whit Beckman doesn't have an abundance of exercise riders at his disposal for his 13-horse stable at the Spa. Beckman said he has just one salaried exercise rider working for him here.

So, don't read into Franco being the Travers rider. At least, not yet.

"Irada (Ortiz Jr.) was on him for his work last week," Beckman said back at the barn following the work. "There is nothing to read into. I have had a lot of guys help me out. It is something we will decide a little bit later down the line. I am not looking to make a decision today."

Florent Geroux rode Honor Marie to a fourth-place finish in the GI Belmont Stakes. He replaced Ben Curtis, who had ridden the colt to an eighth-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby and a second in the GI Louisiana Derby.

Curtis, however, broke his collarbone and could not ride in the Belmont. Rafael Bejarano rode Honor Marie in his first four starts.

Honor Marie is owned by Ribble Farms LLC, Michael H. Eiserman, Earl I. Silver, Kenneth E. Fishbein and David Fishbein. Beckman said the decision to train the colt up to the Travers came after Honor Marie was given some time off after the Belmont. Once he came back to the barn, he thought it would be a little tight trying to make a prep, like the Grade II Jim Dandy Stakes here next Saturday.

"We're very happy with him, I thought he had a great work today," Beckman said. "We will prepare him (for the Travers) here. He loves it here."

Mystik Dan Might Not Run Again This Year

Right now, it's a life of leisure for GI Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents). The colt is in Lexington, Ky., at trainer Kenny McPeck's Magdalena Farm. All he is doing there is getting time off, something McPeck says was well deserved. He may not return to Saratoga this summer.

Mystik Dan | Sarah Andrew

He won't run in the GI Travers Stakes on Aug. 24--McPeck said he won't even nominate him--and there is no race on the horizon.

"We might not run this year, we will see," McPeck said in his barn office at the Oklahoma Annex. "He is healthy. He has worked really hard this year."

Mystik Dan has raced six times this year, including all three legs of the Triple Crown, the only horse to do so. He finished second in the GI Preakness Stakes and eighth in the GI Belmont Stakes.

Owned by Four G Racing LLC, Lance Gasaway, Daniel Hamby III and Valley View Farm LLC, Mystik Dan remained at Saratoga for 30 days after the Belmont before McPeek shipped him back to Kentucky.

The final major race for 3-year-olds this year after the Travers is the GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx on Sept. 21.

"You can't push horses into a race," McPeek said. "They have to take you. He has been really good to us. He is a lovely horse and has gone 10 months without missing a beat. He has been breezing since probably last July, August ... he has been go go go. He is very deserving of this. Is 30 days enough? Is 60 days enough? Is 90 days enough? We will let him tell us."

McPeek hopes to run Mystik Dan as a 4-year-old. If getting him to that point means giving him the rest of the year off, that is what McPeek is going to do.

"Just want to take my time with him," McPeek said. "He has accomplished a lot, there is nothing else to prove right now."

DeVaux Chasing First Graded Stakes Win At Spa

Since Cherie DeVaux started her own stable in 2018, she has won 12 graded stakes races, according to Equibase.

None of them have come at Saratoga. She hopes that changes on Sunday.

Cherie DeVaux | Horsephotos

DeVaux will saddle Shotgun Hottie (Gun Runner), a 5-year-old mare in the $200,000 GII Shuvee at 1 1/8 miles.

"It's definitely a huge deal," DeVaux said at her barn on the Saratoga backstretch Saturday morning. "I don't put a lot of pressure on myself to hit those type of milestones, but it would be a great experience."

DeVaux has won graded stakes races at eight different tracks. Five of them have come at Churchill Downs, her home base. The most recent was the GI Derby City Distaff at Churchill on May 4 with Vahva (Gun Runner). That was her second career Grade I.

Shotgun Hottie, who is the 3-2 second choice on the Shuvee morning line, won the GIII Molly Pitcher at Monmouth last year for DeVaux.

In her last start, Shotgun Hottie was second, beaten a neck by Scylla (Tapit) in the GII Fleur de Lis Stakes at Churchill on June 29. That came after she had won the Listed Allaire DuPont Distaff Stakes at Pimlico on May 17.

In her career, Shotgun Hottie, who is owned by Omar Aldabbagh and Jeff Ganje, has six wins, five seconds and two thirds in 20 starts. She has started 10 times while under DeVaux's care and has four wins, one second and one third.

Shotgun Hottie will be ridden by Paco Lopez in the Shuvee.

"She is doing great right now," DeVaux said. "She peaked in the DuPont and was just a little unlucky in the Fleur de Lis. She came out of that bouncing around and we decided to take our chances and come up here with the three-week turnaround."

DeVaux was born in Saratoga but grew up in Florida. She knows the significance of winning at the Spa.

"My family is here," she said. "It's a big meet. We are on the forefront for summer racing along with Del Mar. It's important."

DeVaux is off to a strong start at this meet. After winning Saturday's first race with 13-1 Without Caution (Without Parole {GB}), she has four wins, a second and two thirds in 10 starts. She also had four wins in the 2022 meet; last year she had one out of 12 starts.

"So far, everything is going well," she said. "We are taking the horses out and they have been ready to fire."

OHIO DERBY WINNER BATTEN DOWN PROBABLE FOR JIM DANDY

Juddmonte homebred Batten Down (Tapit) is probable for next Saturday's GII Jim Dandy Stakes, per Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott. The gray won the nine-furlong GIII Ohio Derby last out June 22 at Thistledown.

"I guess that is the way we are going," Mott said. "When you have a horse like that, you look at all the options and think of where you fit. We felt it was time to reach out and take a chance in the Jim Dandy."

Mott added that the GI DraftKings Travers Stakes Aug. 24 may become a potential goal for Batten Down with a strong showing.

"The Travers is run here. If we run well, maybe he can come back and run in the Travers," Mott said.

Out of champion older mare Close Hatches, Batten Down is a full-brother to the Mott-trained multiple graded stakes winner Tacitus.

Glassman Racing's Arthur's Ride (Tapit), meanwhile, continued his work towards the GI Whitney, a nine-furlong test Aug. 3 at the Spa. The historic event is a "Win And You're In" qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic in November at Del Mar.

The 4-year-old breezed five furlongs over the Oklahoma dirt training track in 1:00.96 (4/10) in company with the unbeaten 4-year-old filly Nic's Style (Uncaptured).

"They both had a good work. They both looked good on the track," Mott said. "They finished up well."

Last out, Arthur's Ride set the pace in a 10-furlong optional claimer here on June 7 before drawing off to win by a widening 12 3/4 lengths, earning a career-best 111 Beyer in the eye-catching romp.

NYRA TO HONOR FIRST RESPONDERS AT SARATOGA JULY 25

The New York Racing Association, Inc. will continue its tradition of honoring police officers, firefighters, paramedics and emergency medical technicians (EMTs) for their dedication and service to the community on First Responders Day, Thursday, July 25, at Saratoga Race Course. First Responders Day is presented this year for the first time by Albany Med Health System.

The day will feature free admission for all first responders, in addition to a named race in their honor. The running of the GIII Caress Stakes will be presented by the Albany Med Health System.

"These brave first responders answer the call of duty by protecting communities throughout New York State," said David O'Rourke, NYRA President & CEO. "NYRA is honored to pay tribute to their dedicated service by hosting a day in their honor, and we thank Albany Med Health System for its support."

GETAWAY CAR MOVES SWIFTLY FROM THE GATE TO EARN 'TDN RISING STAR' BRACELET

by J.N. Campbell

Getaway Car | Benoit

Getaway Car (c, 2, Curlin--Surrender Now, by Morning Line), named by Katie Ryan [Tom Ryan's wife] after a Taylor Swift-song, topped the charts on debut and earned a 'TDN Rising Star' bracelet at Del Mar on Saturday.

Spotlighted in the Saturday edition of TDN's Racing Insights, the $700,000 Keeneland September grad sported several strong works over this past month in Arcadia for trainer Bob Baffert.

The 6-5 shot here did not disappoint his supporters as he established a healthy lead up the backstretch. Giving chase around the far turn was Todd Fincher trainee Smash It (Star Guitar), but the chestnut was unable decrease Getaway Car's margin by the top of the lane. Cruising along past the eighth pole, jockey Juan Hernandez geared his mount down as the pair got their picture taken by 3 1/4 lengths.

The first registered foal out of SW Surrender Now (Morning Line), the winner has a yearling half-brother by Charlatan, who Campbell Stables bought for $285,000 at last year's Keeneland November Sale, and his dam was bred to Nyquist for next year. A half-sister to GSW Red Flag (Tamarkuz), Surrender Now was a $220,000 purchase for Rockingham Ranch at the March 2017 Barretts 2-year-olds In Training Sale.

This was the 28th 'TDN Rising Star' for the influential Curlin (by Smart Strike).

FRESHMAN SIRE WITHOUT PAROLE COLLECTS FIRST STATESIDE WINNER

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – In The Derby Bar and Grill, nearly 3,000 miles northwest of Saratoga Race Course, breeder-owner John Gunther thoroughly enjoyed Without Caution's (Without Parole {GB}) solid victory Saturday in the first race on the program.

It was still morning, 9:38 a.m. in Surrey, British Columbia, where Gunther watched the $100,000 2-year-old maiden special weight race, when the colt left the gate under Jose Lezcano. Exactly 1:43.88 later, Without Caution reached the wire first to win his debut by 1 3/4 lengths and become his freshman sire's (by Frankel {GB}) first U.S. winner and sixth overall.

"I would say it made my day, big time," Gunther said in a phone interview. Cont.

Without Caution | Coglianesse

Gunther joked that it was a bit early to toast the victory in the 1 1/16-mile race on the inner turf course with champagne.

There was reason to celebrate, though. Without Caution turned in a solid performance for trainer Cherie DeVaux, securing her fourth victory at the meet. Gunther has had a stake in three of them. Starting from the inside after the scratch of Insubordination (IRE) (Bungle IntheJungle {GB}), Without Caution was content to sit a length or two off the pace of :23.98, 48.08 and 1:13.25 near the rail. With traffic in front, Lezcano was able to move him toward the outside coming off the turn and he responded with a strong burst to easily move past Helicity (The Factor) and Nudge (Uncle Mo).

Horseplayers regarded Without Caution as DeVaux's other horse. They made Profound (Twirling Candy) the 2-1 favorite in the field of nine, while Without Caution was 13-1 and returned $28.40. Profound got away slowly from the gate, never was near contention and ended up eighth.

DeVaux said it can be hard to get a read on a field of 2-year-olds, most of whom are first-time starters. She said that Profound has been a flashier workhorse on the dirt than Without Caution.

"But he's the horse that's had the look physically," she said. "He's really trained like he's got a lot of ability. I wasn't really sure how he was going to handle all of this because he was a little immature, but he handled it all."

DeVaux said that she doesn't mind entering more than one horse from her stable in a race.

"I was going to run Profound earlier at Ellis (Park), but he had a minor issue, so we shipped him up here, which is a good Plan B that we have this," she said.

"They have another 2-year-old race next week that I have one I'm entering for. It's a good series of races. They're starting to come more regularly, these type of races, so we're just trying to take advantage. You can't be afraid to run them against each other because you might have more confidence or think one might be a little bit there before the other one. But, like you see out here, one of them just might not fire for you because they've never run before."

Three time zones away near his home in Vancouver, while Gunther was puzzled by the odds on the screen, he was expecting a good performance from his homebred. Without Caution had been offered at the 2023 Keeneland September sale, but Gunther and his daughter ultimately retained ownership.

"They thought a lot of him going into the race," Gunther said. "At the farm, the fellow that was breaking them really liked him. He was training well. He worked well and he looked good on post parade."

The Gunthers bred and raced Without Parole (Frankel {GB}), who stands at Newsells Park Stud. Without Caution is out of the Street Cry mare Mama Tembu, a half-sister to Stage Magic, the dam of Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy).

"We shipped the mare over to England to Without Parole," Gunther said. "Then we flew the mare back in utero and ended up with a nice Without Parole being a U.S.-bred. He has turned out to be really good looking, was training well up to his debut. We were pretty excited about it. It's certainly nice to see Without Parole get another winner in the U.S."

1st-Saratoga, $100,000, Msw, 7-20, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:43.88, fm, 1 3/4 lengths.

WITHOUT CAUTION (c, 2, Without Parole {GB}–Mama Tembu, by Street Cry {Ire}), debuting with a 13-1 shot for John Gunther, broke with speed and settled comfortably mid pack while never far off the pace of a dueling pair into the backstretch. Inching up into contention around the far turn, he struck the front with an outside move past the eighth pole and opened up a bit of separation down the center of the track late to graduate over Helicity (The Factor) by 1 3/4 lengths. Without Caution is the sixth overall winner and first in North America for Newsells Park Stud's freshman stallion Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a horse also bred and raced by the Gunthers. Mama Tembu, purchased by John Gunther for $280,000 at KEENOV in 2012, is a half-sister to Broodmare of the Year Stage Magic (Ghostzapper), the dam of 2018 Horse of the Year, Triple Crown champion and successful young sire Justify (Scat Daddy). Second dam Magical Illusion (Pulpi), third in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks, was also a Gunther purchase for $425,000 at Keeneland January in 2005. Cont.

INCENTIVE PAY GIVES BROWN FIRST 2-YEAR-OLD WIN OF MEET

by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – When the seventh race at Saratoga Race Course was finished Saturday, Chad Brown, who deflects credit often, did it once more.

The six-time leading trainer at the Spa had just won a $100,000 maiden special weight with the 5-2 favorite, Incentive Pay (Volatile). It was the first juvenile starter of the meet for Brown.

Brown didn't want to pat himself on the back after this one.

He wanted Pete Bradley, a longtime friend and respected bloodstock agent, to take the bows. At the 2023 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Brown left after the first two books. Bradley spied some yearlings that Brown might be interested in.

"Chad works the first two books pretty hard, and I have done a lot with him over the years," said Bradley, who was in Saratoga Saturday to watch Incentive Pay's debut. "He said he could use another horse or two and, if I saw a horse I liked, to let him know. I think I sent him three or four hip numbers and we keyed on this horse."

Hip number 1672 was the one Bradley zeroed in on and the bloodstock agent purchased him for Klarman for $315,000. Bradley has been doing this since 1997 and when he makes a recommendation, people listen. Brown certainly did.

"I thought he was exceptionally athletic," Bradley said. "Not only did he have the frame and the balance, but he had that swagger to his walk. A great presence. These horses, when they come, especially Book Three, they are in and out. Some get a little rattled their first day, but he was good in the morning on the first day he was shown and good at the end of the day. I hate to say he ticked all the boxes for me, but he was the right kind of horse."

"This," Brown said, "was a real nice pick."

Bradley has known Brown since he was an assistant under the late Hall of Famer, Bobby Frankel. Back then, Bradley saw things in Brown that he was more than happy to pass on to others.

"I told people that the young man who was Bobby's assistant, you are going to want to know in the future," Bradley said.

Brown has had success with first-crop sires in the past. Both of his GI Preakness winners--Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) in 2017 and Early Voting (Gun Runner in 2022)--were by rookie sires. Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables, which owns Incentive Pay, also owned Early Voting and co-owned Cloud Computing.

Volatile won five of six starts in his racing career, including the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt in his last start in 2020.

"We like to find value at the sales, and not go for the sales topping horses, the million-dollar horses," Brown said. "It's not part of our plan. We've been very lucky. If you pick wrong and you hook up to the wrong first crop stallions, it's not a great experience."

Ridden by Joel Rosario, Incentive Pay cut the corner at the top of the stretch of the six-furlong race and looked like a seasoned horse as he came down to the wire. He won by 2 1/2 lengths, was timed in 1:12.20 and paid $7.20.

Brown said that the next target is the GI Hopeful Stakes Sept. 2, closing day at the Spa.

“We don’t always win first out, but we aren’t really trying to,” Klarman said. “He broke a little slow, took back and then checked again. Chad gets them ready to run.”

Bradley, who said he wanted to be low-key in the winner’s circle, departed while Brown was talking to a group of writers. Rest assured though, he was happy. Maybe happier than all of the winners.

It was his tout that got the ball rolling in the first place. “It takes a lot of the pressure off, that’s for sure,” Bradley said.

7th-Saratoga, $100,000, Msw, 7-20, 2yo, 6f, 1:12.20, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.

INCENTIVE PAY (c, 2, Volatile--Distinguishable, by Distorted Humor), tabbed the 5-2 favorite, was taken in hand right from the break and held under a tight rein to race mid pack. Not content to sit under jockey Joel Rosario, he finally got his head off the far turn and had plenty to offer, unleashing a strong move to clear into the lead and win going away by 2 1/2 lengths over Dapper Moon (Malibu Moon) who also closed from off the speed. The third winner for his freshman sire (by Violence), Incentive Pay has a yearling half-sister by Improbable and a newborn half-sister by Maxfield.

SUMMER BREEZES:

$775K Caracaro Filly Goes Out For Three Amigos

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Sunday at Saratoga, Ellis Park and Del Mar:

SUNDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: CARACARO FILLY POISED FOR FIRST RUN AT DEL MAR

by J.N. Campbell

4th-DMR, $75K, Msw, 2yo, f, 5f, 6:36 p.m. ET.

CASALU (Caracaro) was taken home for $775,000 by the Three Amigos--Pegram, Watson and Weitman--at this year's OBS April Sale. Sent to Bob Baffert, the filly posted a four-furlong bullet drill of :46.40 (1/54) at Santa Anita July 8. Out of Key d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), the juvenile has a 4-year-old half-sister in SP Twirled (Twirling Candy) and a yearling half-brother by Vekoma. Casalu's second dam is herself a full-sister to sire Yankee Gentleman (Storm Cat). TJCIS PPS

7th-ELP, $71K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1mT, 3:52 p.m. ET.

Just Showing Off (Justify) makes the races for trainer Steve Asmussen. A $700,000 purchase by Douglas Scharbauer at last year's Keeneland September Sale, the filly is the first registered foal for Gaels Win (Daaher). This dam is a half-sister to GSW T.D. Vance (Rahy) and her extended female family includes MGISP and sire Optimizer (English Channel). TJCIS PPS

9th-SAR, $100K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 5:41 p.m. ET.

St. Elias homebred Kiss Me Slow (Into Mischief) drilled from the gate going four furlongs at Saratoga July 14 to the tune of :47.40 (1/147). The 2-year-old, who is making her first start for Chad Brown, counts as a full-brother Rebellious Type--a $1 million buy for Spendthrift, Cypress Creek and St. Elias at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. Under Kiss Me Slow's third dam, MGISW My Flag (Easy Goer), we find champion 2-year-old filly Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat). TJCIS PPS

Kin's Concerto, whose lone previous victory came via disqualification, made it to the line first for the first time with a stylish victory in the Woodbine Oaks Saturday afternoon.

Kin's Concerto | Michael Burns

The chestnut filly sat just off the pace while skimming the rail through fractions of :23.78 and :47.96. Behind a wall of horses at the top of the lane, Kin's Concerto angled to the center of the track in upper stretch and closed relentlessly to hit the front in the final strides.

"We just wanted to break in early position," said Sofia Vives, who partnered Cruden Bay to victory one race earlier in the GII Connaught Cup. "We wound up right on the rail. Perfect trip in the turn, I got to get into a two-path, followed the horse that I thought was going to be a tough one, it opened up all the holes, and we shot right through."

"She's a very, very talented filly, and she's always shined bright in my eyes," the apprentice rider continued. "It's pretty exciting for this to happen in your lifetime, but to happen as a bug, I think it's pretty special."

Trainer Josie Carroll, one win away from reaching 1,000 for her career, lauded both Vives and Kin's Concerto.

"This young lady has improved leaps and bounds this year," Carroll said. "She suits this filly very, very much. She listens to instructions, which is what I really like about her. She does exactly what she's asked to do. She was told to sit quiet on this filly, not get in her head and treat it like another race. You know, put the filly in the position that she needed to be in and then have confidence in her and she did just that."

Kin's Concerto finished second, but was promoted to the win in her six-furlong debut over Woodbine's Tapeta last November. She returned with a runner-up effort over the turf at Gulfstream in February and, back on the Woodbine Tapeta, was third in a seven-furlong optional claimer May 11 and second by just a head when stretched to 1 1/16 miles last time out June 22.

"She's always shown some talent, she's just had some unfortunate luck," Carroll said of Kin's Concerto. "Different things that have gone wrong and problems in races. A horse that closes and hooks big fields and has to get through--it's always a challenge."

Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame inductee Rob Landry, who rode three Oaks winners, now has five Oaks to his name, after Nipissing's 2013 triumph and Kin's Concerto's victory, the latter two in his role as Chiefswood's General Manager.

"She just shows you the signs and Josie's team has done a tremendous job with her as well," Landry said. "Sofia rode her great. It was well deserved. I'm happy for the owners, they put a lot into this game and especially when you're in the breeding operation, these types of races are really big."

Kin's Concerto is the final foal out of Kincardine, who died in 2023. The mare was a half-sister to graded winner Essential Edge (Storm Cat) and to the dam of multiple graded winner Flameaway (Scat Daddy). Under the winner's third dam, Flame of Tara, is the likes of Salsabil (Ire) and Marju (Ire). Cont.

The Woodbine Oaks has served as a King's Plate stepping-stone for several fillies, with the list of Oaks-Plate winners including Moira (2022), Holy Helena (2017), Lexie Lou (2014), Inglorious (2011) and Dancethruthedawn (2001). In 2018, Oaks runner-up Wonder Gadot went on to win The King's Plate. A decision on whether to run this Oaks winner in the Plate will take place in the coming days.

"The owners and I will speak and then I'll speak to Josie," said Landry, who won the 2004 Plate with Chiefswood homebred Niigon. "We're just going to let her cool out and see where it goes from here. We personally haven't had a lot of luck running fillies in the Plate, but a lot of people have. Obviously, you've got to think long and hard about it. We're going to do what's right by the filly." Despite rearing at the jump, it was My Boy Prince who got up in good order to take the Plate Trial Stakes at Woodbine on Saturday afternoon.

This effort was the third stakes win in a row for the grey, who has proven nearly unbeatable at his hometrack--having not won just twice in seven jumps at Woodbine, on debut in May 2023, when he ran second and last September in the GI Summer Stakes on the grass when he again played bridesmaid. He ran a respectable third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Nov. 3 at Santa Anita, and had the worst finish of his career Apr. 7 in his 2024 bow when he ran eighth in the Palisades Stakes at Keeneland.

My Boy Prince | Michael Burns Photo

Last year's Canadian champion 2-year-old colt, who was backed at the windows heavily here to the tune of 1-5 by the time the gates opened, left those supporters briefly sweating when he reared at the jump and lost his path. Keen to improve his spot heading into the first bend and able to tuck into cover while racing from third, he stalked Friendly Ghost as that one set a pressured, albeit tepid, pace with Piper's Factor glued to his hip.

Despite the :25.11, :49.51 and 1:13.23 fractions, My Boy Prince had work to do when jockey Sahin Civaci expressed some urgency to get going passing the five-sixteenths marker but he was moving well from his four path. Rolling under a full head of steam by midstretch, My Boy Prince edged clear by the sixteenth pole and was 1 1/4 lengths best over late closing Rafaroo (Hard Spun). Friendly Ghost held on to third.

"Today, he broke a little badly, but he pulled through," said Civaci. "It is a little worrisome if they get away from you, but the pace was going a little easy and he has tactical speed."

"I didn't mind him sitting off the pace today because The King's Plate [Aug. 17] is going to be a lot of horses, and anything can happen. Sometimes, you can't be on the lead, so I wanted to see him relax a bit."

My Boy Prince, who was the sale topper at the CTHS Ontario Canadian Premier Yearling sale, is the second foal to the races for stakes-winning Hopping Not Hoping, whose most recent of racing age is 2-year-old Athlete (Kitten's Joy), who had been exported to England last year. She has a 2024 Classic Empire filly to her credit this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Formidable Man lived up to his name with a powerful kick in the stretch which propelled him to Caesars Sportsbook Oceanside Stakes glory on opening day at Del Mar.

A winner against optional claiming company at Santa Anita Park in March, he'd run a begrudging second to eventual GI Belmont Derby hero Trihari (Oscar Performance) in the GII American Turf Stakes May 4 at Churchill Downs. He gave Churchill turf one last try June 1 in the Audubon Stakes and faded to sixth.

Returning west for this jump, and away as the 3-1 second choice, his eagerness after the break left him running up on heels approaching the first turn but he eventually settled near the rear of the field. Cruising forward as the field closed ranks around the far turn, he sailed in five wide but under a full head of steam, and took command midstretch. He would be 1 1/2 lengths in front of Guy Named Joe on the line, who followed him in from the back flight as Rothschild picked up the last trifecta position. Cont.

Formidable Man | Benoit

"He was a little bit farther back than I thought he would be but he was rolling there in the last quarter mile. I wasn't crazy with what went on the first half mile. Obviously, he was excited," said Michael McCarthy. "He's already a winner at a mile and an eighth so [running in the Del Mar Derby] is something we'll have to think about."

Jockey Umberto Rispoli, who picked up his third Oceanside victory here, added, "It went good today. I've done well in this race before, and things went well today. [Formidable Man] broke well; we got a little squeezed after that, but not too bad. Then we went outside and he had room to run and it was all good after that. Good for the horse, good for [owner W.K. Warren]."

Formidable Man is the most recent winner for his dam, GII Royal Heroine Stakes victress and Group I-placed Fanticola, who has produced three winners overall including this Oceanside conqueror, though he is by far her most accomplished offspring thus far. The mare has since produced 2-year-old Cc Cola (Flatter), a yearling filly by Knicks Go and a 2024 filly by Jack Christopher. MAJOR DUDE (c, 4, Bolt d'Oro--Mary Rita {SP}, by Distorted Humor), winner of last year's GIII Kitten's Joy Stakes and GII Penn Mile, missed by just a neck when second in his 2024 debut in an optional claimer at Aqueduct June 23. Well held and close to the pace into the first turn and down the backstretch, the 2-1 favorite waited for racing room late on the far turn. He found a narrow seam to run through along the rail in upper stretch and drove clear to an easy two-length victory. Harlan Estate (Kantharos) edged Cash Equity (Fr) (Toronado {Ire}) for second. Major Dude was a $550,000 FTSAUG yearling.

Mary Rita, a full-sister to the dam of Grade I winner Arabian Lion (Justify), RNA'd for $950,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale. SILVER SATIN (g, 3, Mitole--Happy Clapper {MSP, $221,151}, by Awesome Again) has never been off the board in his career and broke his maiden at third-asking Apr. 20 at Aqueduct before running third last out June 6 at this venue. Trying first-level allowance company again here, and sent off at 2-1 odds, he chased the leading duo from an inner path and kept that route heading into the lane. He was guided off the rail as On The Hill (Fed Biz) came in, and the two gamely stuck to each other as Silver Satin started drifting out again. They were a half-length apart on the wire as a late closer tried to pull the shocker. Silver Satin is the half-brother to Ice Princess (Palace Malice), SW & GSP, $528,797, who delivered a 2024 filly by Bolt d'Oro this year, and to two other winning elder siblings. Back to the main track here and away as the heavy $0.20 on the dollar favorite, he was involved in the early pace from the rail and had cleared away parring the eighth pole. In the lead but with pressure coming in the form of the closing Jolly by Golly (Speightster), Grand Opening held on to win by a half-length. READY TO JAM (f, 3, More Than Ready--Third Dawn {SW & GISP, $286,314}, by Sky Mesa) had a strong juvenile campaign but came up empty in the GI Natalma Stakes in September and went un-raced until January when sixth at Gulfstream in her first start outside of Canada. Shipped back north for her first race in seven months, the 2-1 second choice endured a wide trip throughout but had plenty of momentum coming from the back half of the field late to win by four lengths over Sassy Melissa (War Dancer). “SHE’S A VERY BRAVE FILLY”: BECKETT HAILS YOU GOT TO ME AFTER IRISH OAKS SUCCESS

You Got To Me | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

Fourth in the Oaks and the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes, Valmont and Newsells Park Stud Bloodstock’s You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}--Brushing {GB}, by Medicean {GB}) made the necessary improvement on Saturday to clinch the G1 Juddmonte Irish Oaks at The Curragh. Cont. p3

JUDDMONTE’S BABOUCHE EYES ANGLESEY TEST by Tom Frary

Gaining TDN Rising Star status with a five-length debut success over six furlongs at Cork last month, Juddmonte’s Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) squares up against the boys in Sunday’s G3 Jebel Ali Racecourse and Stables Anglesey Stakes at The Curragh. Ger Lyons tests her against another TDN Rising Star in Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)), who was down the field along with Cowardofthecounty (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) in the G2 Coventry Stakes.

Beaten under two lengths at Royal Ascot, Stonestreet Stables, Tracy Farmer and John Oxley’s Cowardofthecounty had previously beaten Ballydoyle’s subsequent G2 July Stakes winner Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never) with authority at this track in April and Joseph O’Brien is hoping for more clues. “It’s a good spot for him and it was a good run at Ascot,” he said. “This is a kind of logical stepping stone after the Coventry and after this we will be deciding whether he goes up to seven furlongs. He’s been training very well since Ascot and we’re still confident we have a smart horse.”

Reserved by Hector Crouch in mid-division throughout the early stages in contrast to the forceful ride she was given at Royal Ascot, the well-supported 15-2 shot moved to the front a furlong out with the 3-1 favourite Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in hot pursuit.

Where Content had met with trouble in running in the straight which delayed her assault, the Ralph Beckett trainee enjoyed a smooth passage and at the line that was possibly crucial as she registered a 3/4-of-a-length success from that Ballydoyle representative. There was another 1 1/2 lengths back to Purple Lily (Ire) (Calyx {GB}) in third. The quest for Galileo's 100th Group 1 winner continues, with his daughter ironically denied by a progeny of his son Nathaniel.

"I've always had a lot of faith in her thought she was very good and I thought the track would suit her," Crouch said. "That was the best she's raced for me and it's a very, very special day--I'm extremely thankful to Ralph and to Valmont and to Newsells Park Stud for keeping the faith in me and this filly. I was a touch slow away and I had to take it as it came. She was very tough and very brave when I needed her--when she's good, she's very good."

Bursting onto the scene with a dramatic all-the-way win in the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial in May, You Got To Me was too free in the Oaks and paid the price and by the time she crossed the line tired in the Ribblesdale having set off in isolation there was a sense that she could be heading the wrong way. Perfectly settled here despite the restraint, she turned around her fortunes resolutely to reward her stable's work and reflect her growing maturity.

Beckett added, “She was training well in the spring and did it the hard way at Lingfield, then it didn’t really work out in the Oaks and she went a bit hard in the Ribblesdale, which can happen at Ascot. A tongue strap on today probably helped, as it just gave her something else to think about. Hector said he had to barge through everywhere to get a position and to keep his position. She’s a very brave filly.”

“The plan was to be forward and kick on from the top of the hill, but you always have to have a plan B,” he added. “Hector is not a man that panics and he knew what was going to happen after five strides and rode a race to fit her.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Content, “Ryan said she is made for the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf and we’ll pick a race for her beforehand. She’s been very busy and wouldn’t mind a break. She wasn’t stopping at the finish there and ran a great race.”

Pedigree Notes

The fourth European Classic winner for Nathaniel following on from Desert Crown (GB), Enable (GB) and Channel (Ire), You Got To Me is out of the Listed Galtres Stakes winner Brushing whose dam Seasonal Blossom (Ire) (Fairy King) is a half-sister to the GII Bay Meadows Handicap winner Wait Till Monday (Ire)

(Maelstrom lake {Ire}) and the G3 C L Weld Park Stakes winner Token Gesture (Ire) (Alzao). She is in turn the dam of the GI Canadian International hero Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and the GII All American Derby winner Evolving Tactics (Ire) (Machiavellian). Also related to the multiple Group 1 winner Buffering (Aus) (Mossman {Aus}), her currently unnamed 2-year-old filly is by Time Test (GB).

MOORE CURRAGH CUP MASTERCLASS ON TOWER OF LONDON by Tom Frary

Even the most reverent of Ryan Moore's legions of fans would have put his task on Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) down as a hopeless one at the top of the straight in Saturday's G2 Curragh Cup, but one of the world's finest demonstrated yet again that he is master of the clock as he delivered the 13-8 second favourite virtually on top of the line. Held up in rear throughout the early stages as the fellow Ballydoyle runner Grosvenor Square (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) set off in isolation, the G3 Red Sea Turf Handicap and G2 Dubai Gold Cup winner still had a yawning gap to make up turning for home with the front-runner killing off all others.

It looked highly unlikely there, but the fractions had been judged to perfection as Ballydoyle's number one mastered his stablemate yards from the finish. Cont. p6

At the line, there was an ultimately substantial 1 1/4-length margin between them, a measurement of how much the runner-up was treading water in the closing stages with the 11-8 market-leader Vauban (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) seven lengths away in third.

“He’s a great horse to have, a stayer with speed and he can go anywhere--Hong Kong, Japan or Australia--he could be a Melbourne Cup horse,” Aidan O’Brien said of the winner, who was bouncing back from a disappointing fifth in the G2 Yorkshire Cup in May. “I never thought he was going to get there, as the 3-year-old wasn’t going to stop but Ryan gave him a peach.”

“He could come back here for the [Irish] Leger,” the trainer added. “He’s getting tougher and can go anywhere, he loves travelling. He lost his confidence a little bit at York and Ryan looked after him.

“Grosvenor Square ran a great race and he’s a trip horse. He wanted to go the distance, is a Leger-type horse and a big cruiser and could be a Melbourne Cup horse, but in the St Leger ridden like that it would take a fair 3-year-old to follow him and take him on. He is a big horse with a big stride and we finally let him go.”

Pedigree Notes

Tower Of London is a full-brother to the G1 St Leger and G1 Irish Derby hero Capri (Ire), the G3 Stanerra Stakes winner and G1 Irish Oaks third Passion (Ire) and the G3 Loughbrown Stakes winner Cypress Creek (Ire), as well as to the dam of the G1 Fillies’ Mile heroine Commissioning (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Their dam Dialafara (Fr) (Anabaa) is a daughter of the G2 Prix de Malleret and G3 Prix de la Nonette winner Diamilina (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) from the family of Green Desert’s G3 Prix la Rochette-winning sire Diamond Green (Fr) and the G2 Doncaster Cup scorer Desert Skyline (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). Dialafara’s 2-year-old colt by Camelot (GB) named Saratoga (Ire) was third on debut at Killarney this week.

Believing was alert from the gates and raced fifth, within range of the pace, through halfway in this straight dash. Shaken up with a quarter-mile remaining, the even-money favourite quickened to the fore passing the furlong pole and was ridden out in the latter stages to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Beautiful Diamond (GB) (Twilight Son {GB}). Makarova (GB) (Acclamation {GB}), from the in-form Ed Walker stable, ran on well to finish a half-length adrift in third.

"She's such a hardy, tough filly and she did it well," commented George Boughey's assistant Henry Morshead. "She ran with great credit in two Group 1s over the week, which is amazing, and came out of [Royal] Ascot great. She hasn't done a lot since and we've just freshened her up. She can be quite busy at a high level through the second half of the year and I'd imagine she'll have sales hopes later in the year. Highclere are great supporters of the yard and it's great to get a Group 2 win for them."

Ryan Moore added, "She has been in very good form this year, she won well at Haydock [when winning the June 8 Listed Achilles Stakes] and had two very solid runs in Group 1s at Ascot. She was probably entitled to win this, she is very straightforward and seems to be most suited to five furlongs."

Pedigree Notes

Believing, who also hit the board in last term's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, is the second of four foals and lone scorer out of an unraced half-sister to G3 Brownstown Stakes and G3 Concorde Stakes victrix Miss Sally (Ire) (Danetime {GB}). Cont. p8

She is a half-sister to a yearling colt by Inns Of Court (Ire). The February-foaled bay's third dam Nurse Jo (J. O. ELITE STATUS ON TOP IN THE HACKWOOD

by Sean Cronin

Last year's G3 Prix de Cabourg victor Elite Status (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}--Dotted Swiss {Ire}, by Swiss Spirit {GB}) recorded a winning seasonal return in Newbury's May 18 Listed Carnarvon Stakes and continued on a roll in Saturday's G3 Fidelity Energy Hackwood Stakes over the same six-furlong strip.

Accepting a tow in third after a sharp break, the 5-2 favourite was scrubbed along to launch his challenge with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and kept on powerfully under continued urging to deny last year's G2 Gimcrack hero Lake Forest (GB) (No Nay Never) by a half-length for a fourth black-type triumph.

"I think Elite Status is really talented and he has a huge stride on him," said trainer Karl Burke.

Elite Status | Racingfotos.com

He said, "I made a mistake running him in the [G2] Norfolk after a scintillating win in the Sandown Listed race [National Stakes] before Royal Ascot last year. He looked all speed to me then, but Sheikh Mohammed Obaid recommended that we use his big, long stride over six furlongs." Cont. p9

He added, “I went against that advice and ran him in the Norfolk rather than the Coventry and regretted it. I would say he is a six-furlong specialist and I don’t think we would want to stretch him any further than that. Having said that, I don’t think he was 100% fit again today because when he won the Listed race here in the spring, he had a real heave and he’s having a nice healthy blow again now. Haydock [for the G1 Sprint Cup] will be the plan.”

Pedigree Notes

THE LION IN WINTER SURGES TO TDN RISING STARDOM AT THE CURRAGH

TDN Rising Star Sea The Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) suffered his lone career defeat when fourth in the 2008 renewal of the Curragh's Juddmonte Chaldean Irish EBF Maiden and his son The Lion In Winter (Ire), a €375,000 Goffs Orby yearling, restored family honour in the seven-furlong contest by delivering a stunning closing burst to earn a 'TDN Rising Star' rosette of his own in this year's edition.

The 11-2 chance tracked the leaders from off the pace, racing eighth, through the early stages of this debut. Cajoled closer with three furlongs remaining, he quickened to go third entering the final furlong and went up through the gears in the closing stages to win, going away, by a mightily impressive 2 1/4 lengths from Currawood (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). The Lion In Winter becomes the 20th Rising Star for his sire.

"He's been working lovely and you would have to be very happy with him," commented Aidan O'Brien. "He has plenty of class and would have no trouble going up in trip. He was a bit green, but finished out very well and looks a quality colt. Ryan [Moore] said his horse [eventual third Ides Of March] is more speed than stamina, so he might go back in trip. Wayne [Lordan] and Ryan said the ground is just on the slow side of good."

The Lion In Winter, whose victory yielded a €50,000 Goffs Orby bonus, is the second of three foals and first scorer produced by G3 Pinnacle Stakes third What A Home (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), herself a half-sister to dual Group 3 winner and G1 Irish Oaks, G1 Yorkshire Oaks, G1 Pretty Polly Stakes and G1 Nassau Stakes placegetter Venus De Milo (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}). Cont. p11

PIERRE HOYEAU DIES AT 91

Pierre Hoyeau, a notable figure in the racing community of Western France, has died at the age of 91. He was the father of former Arqana president and current senior advisor Eric Hoyeau, and the grandfather of bloodstock agent Arthur Hoyeau.

Hoyeau got his start in racing by creating a grain and feed trading company in Anjou, which supplied many trainers in the West of France. From there, his interest in racing developed, leading to Hoyeau creating his own stable, which focused primarily on jumping horses, but he worked with all breeds. He also bred a champion Purebred Arabian. Eventually he bred and trained on the l'Aumonerie family property, and was known for the quality of his half-bred horses, which were frequently ridden by his son at the time.

Nicanor was one of the best horses associated with Hoyeau
Racingfotos.com

Mackenzie II was won of his best horses, and Hoyeau bought his dam from Louis Augonnet. Another was dual Grade 1-winning jumper Nicanor (Fr) (Garde Royale {Ire}), who won at Cheltenham and Punchestown. Other notable horses for Hoyeau were Macadam SF, Le Pont Lala and the Purebred Arabian Madjani.

"He was simply a horseman," son Eric told the JDG. "He was passionate about pedigrees, and his memory in this case was quite phenomenal. He had certainties in this matter, which earned him the nickname professor. He was my first guide in horses." Cont. p12

Aidan O'Brien trainee Ides Of March (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who is out of G1 Frizette Stakes heroine Nickname (Scat Daddy), raced up front for the most part, but was unable to match the kick of stablemate The Lion In Winter (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and finished third.

16.10 Newbury, Mdn, £20,000, 2yo, c/g, 6fT

Boxel (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a son of G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes heroine Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy), was handily placed throughout and kept on well in the closing stages to register a promising debut second.

RIC AND MARY HAMBRO APHRODITE FILLIES STAKES-Listed, £45,000, Newmarket, 7-20, 3yo/up, f/m, 12fT, 2:29.64, g/f.

1--MISTRAL STAR (GB), 132, f, 4, by Frankel (GB)

1st Dam: Shirocco Star (GB) (G1SP-Eng, MG1SP-Ire, GSP-Fr, $485,970), by Shirocco (Ger)

2nd Dam: Spectral Star (GB), by Unfuwain

3rd Dam: Hyperspectra (GB), by Rainbow Quest

1ST BLACK-TYPE WIN. O-Helena Springfield Ltd; B-Meon Valley Stud (GB); T-Hugh Morrison; J-Rhys Clutterbuck. £25,520. Lifetime Record: 9-3-2-2, $100,545. *1/2 to Starcaster (GB) (Dansili {GB}), SW-Aus, $298,764; 1/2 to Telecaster (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), MGSW-Fr, GSW-Eng, $277,645; 1/2 to Al Suhail (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), GSW & MG1SP-UAE, GSW-Eng, $695,620.

2--Shining Jewel (GB), 132, f, 4, Siyouni (Fr)--Gaterie, by Dubai Destination. 1ST BLACK TYPE. O/B-Godolphin (GB); T-Charlie Appleby. £9,675.

3--Ambiente Amigo (GB), 121, f, 3, Postponed (Ire)--Labise (Ire), by Azamour (Ire). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-The Gredley Family; B-Stetchworth & Middle Park Studs Ltd (GB); T-J Owen. £4,842. Margins: 3HF, 4, NO. Odds: 5.00, 5.00, 25.00.

Also Ran: Nakheel (Fr), Divina Grace (Ire), One Evening (GB), Truthful (Ire), Drawn To Dream (Ire), Danielle (GB), Esmeray (Ire), Ching Shih (Ire), Kitteridge (GB), Safety Catch (GB). Scratched: Sea Of Roses (GB).

Runner-up in the Listed Prix des Tourelles at Saint-Cloud on her first try at black-type company in September, Mistral Star had shown last time when third behind Queen Of The Pride (GB) (Roaring Lion) in the G3 Lester Piggott Fillies' Stakes at Haydock that she had at least retained her ability. Benefitting from a patient ride here, the homebred sauntered from mid-division to take control passing two out and draw away for an emphatic success to suggest she has improved a notch in her 4-year-old season.

The dam, who was runner-up in the G1 Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks, is also responsible for the G2 Challenge Stakes winner Al Suhail (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the G2 Dante Stakes winner and triple group scorer Telecaster (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) and the Australian stakes winner Starcaster (GB) (Dansili {GB}). This is the Meon Valley Stud family of Stagecraft (GB) (Sadler's Wells) which goes back to their foundation mare Reprocolor (GB). Shirocco Star also has the unraced 2-year-old colt Spy Chief (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and a yearling full-brother to Al Suhail.

3--Sons And Lovers (GB), 125, c, 3, Study Of Man (Ire)--So In Love (GB), by Smart Strike. (€40,000 Ylg '22 GOAUJR). O-Hugo Morriss & Kirsten Rausing; B-Kirsten Rausing (GB); T-Jane Chapple-Hyam. £6,456.

Margins: 1, HD, 1HF. Odds: 16.00, 2.75, 6.50. Also Ran: Alyanaabi (Ire), Savvy Victory (Ire).

4th-Newbury, £250,000, Cond, 7-20, 2yo, 5f 34yT, 1:00.10, g/f. CABURN (IRE) (c, 2, Twilight Son {GB}--Tigrilla {Ire} {SW & GSP-Fr, SP-Eng}, by Clodovil {Ire}), who broke through going six furlongs at Salisbury in his June 26 debut last time, raced off the pace in midfield through the initial fractions of this Weatherbys Super Sprint. Coming under pressure before halfway, the 12-1 chance weaved a passage into seventh passing the furlong pole and kept on relentlessly to deny Vingegaard (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) by a neck in the dying strides. "This is my biggest winner by a country mile, it's unreal and I'm lost for words," said trainer Jack Jones. "He was always going to run in the race, given the prize-money and the horse's profile, but my one obvious doubt would have been the drop back to five furlongs and it didn't look likely at halfway. To win as he did was fantastic and he's only going to be better going back up to six furlongs. I entered him in the [G2] Gimcrack last week and I think that is the obvious next step." Caburn, half to a yearling filly by No Nay Never, is the fifth of six foals and one of three scorers out of Listed Prix Six Perfections victrix and G3 Prix des Reservoirs third Tigrilla (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}). The February-foaled grey's third dam Clear Issue (Riverman) is a half-sister to G1 Meadowlands Cup victrix Twilight Agenda (Devil's Bag) and to the Grade III-placed dam of multiple Group 1-winning sire Refuse To Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and G1 Melbourne Cup hero Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}). Sales history: €19,000 Wlg '22 GOFNO1; 24,000gns Ylg '23 TATOCT; 75,000gns RNA 2yo '24 TATGBU. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $184,701. O-Antram, Pemberton, Lancaster & Harrod; B-Newstead Breeding (IRE); T-Jack Jones.

5th-Newbury, £20,000, Nov, 7-20, 2yo, c/g, 6fT, 1:11.73, g/f. THE WACO KID (IRE) (c, 2, Mehmas {Ire}--Catchingsnowflakes, by Galileo {Ire}), a July 4 debut fourth over course and distance last time, broke swiftly and raced in a share of second after the initial exchanges of this one. Nudged along approaching the two pole, the 16-5 second choice gained an edge passing the furlong marker and was ridden out in the closing stage to assert by 2 1/4 lengths from Boxel (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The Waco Kid, full to a weanling filly from the family of G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup heroine Danish (Ire) (Danehill), is the first of two registered foals produced by an unraced half-sister G1 2000 Guineas hero Kameko (Kitten's Joy). His Grade III-winning second dam Sweeter Still (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) is kin to G1 Racing Post Trophy victor Kingsbarns (Ire), G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial victrix Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}) and the dual stakes-placed Elizabethofaragon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Sales history: 80,000gns Ylg '23 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $14,801. O-The Gene Genies II; B-Tally-Ho Stud (IRE); T-Hugo Palmer.

3rd-Haydock, £10,000, Novice, 7-20, 2yo, 6f 212yT, 1:30.68, gd. ARCHIE'S ANGEL (IRE) (c, 2, Dark Angel {Ire}--Zephyrina {Ire}, by Big Bad Bob {Ire}), sent off at 10-1, raced in rear early after an awkward break. Unleashing a potent turn of acceleration down the outside to take command a furlong from home, the newcomer asserted to score by a length from Boston Run (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). The winner is the first foal out of a half to the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin and G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen scorer and G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Djumama (Ire) (Aussie Rules), in turn responsible for four black-type performers headed by the Listed Prix Volterra winner and triple Group 3-placed Samahram (Fr) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). Also connected to the G3 Greenham Stakes-winning sire Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), her yearling filly Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was a 32,000gns purchase by Valfredo Valiani at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. She also has a filly foal by Kodiak (GB). Sales history: 70,000gns Wlg '22 TATDEC; 40,000gns RNA Ylg '23 TATYEA. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,400. O-Marie McCartan; B-Colin Kennedy (IRE); T-Clive Cox.

2nd-Doncaster, £9,950, Novice, 7-20, 2yo, f, 6f 2yT, 1:14.34, gd. GUNS FIRING (IRE) (f, 2, New Bay {GB}--Sound of Guns {GB} {GSP-Eng}, by Acclamation {GB}), third on debut in Pontefract's Spindrifter Novice last month, tracked the early leader travelling strongly. Committed 1 1/2 out, the 7-4 second favourite readily asserted to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Angelica Bay (Ire) (No Nay Never). The G2 Flying Childers Stakes-placed dam, whose son of New Bay Jumby (Ire) took the G2 Hungerford Stakes and G3 John of Gaunt Stakes, also has a yearling colt by the same sire. Sales history: 180,000gns Ylg '23 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $13,002. O-Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum; B-Ballylinch Stud (IRE); T-Richard Fahey.
