

“I LOVE DEAUVILLE” - YAHAGI LEADS INTERNATIONAL BUYERS’ BENCH AT ARQANA

A scene from the sale ground at Arqana on Thursday | Zuzanna Lupa

By Brian Sheerin

DEAUVILLE, France—The August Yearling Sale catalogue provides a unique glimpse into the past, present and—perhaps most importantly—the future.

On the cover you have last year’s brilliant Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Ace Impact (Ire) alongside what bookmakers deem to be the most likely winner of this year’s renewal, Look De Vega (Fr). Both colts were sold at this sale.

When you turn the pages, there are over 300 yearlings who could chart a similar path. And the world knows. Not least Japan’s superstar trainer Yoshito Yahagi. It was at this sale a couple of years back where Yahagi signed for Shin Emperor (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), a full-brother to Arc winner Sottsass (Fr), at a sale-topping €2.1 million. Shin Emperor is being trained with a tilt at the Arc in mind and Yahagi is one of the many international buyers in town who is in search of the stars of tomorrow.

“We bought Shin Emperor here, and he was third in the Japanese Derby, so yes, this has been a successful sale for us,” the trainer explained on the eve of the sale. Cont. p3

SMOOTH RETURN FOR EXCITING ECONOMICS AT DEAUVILLE by Tom Frary

If Thursday’s G2 Prix Guillaume d’Ornano was supposed to be a stern test of the ability of Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}—La Pomme D’Amour {GB}, by Peintre Celebre), it failed to plumb the depths of Isa Salman Al Khalifa’s bright prospect as he came back from a brief absence to shine at Deauville. Given time to mature without the stresses of preparing for the elite races since his six-length G2 Dante Stakes success at York in May, the William Haggas-trained chestnut looked comfortable throughout giving most of his rivals a headstart.

Despite letting his compatriot Jayarebe (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}) disappear heading into the straight, one look at Tom Marquand’s body language was enough to reveal what he had underneath him and with coaxing Economics was able to bridge the gap by the time they hit the 100-metre marker. Cont. p6

He added, "The ultimate goal for him this year is the Arc de Triomphe. Our main purpose for coming here this year is to find another Shin Emperor so we are working very hard in searching for another one."

"Generally speaking, Japanese owners think that the prices at the Select Sale in Japan are very much standard across the world. But comparing this sale to the Select Sale, there may be some bargain prices. First of all, the main thing we are seeking is speed."

Asked what particular stallions he was honing in on with a view towards a racing career in Japan, Yahagi added, "We have seen nice horses by Palace Pier (GB) and St Mark's Basilica (Fr). They are the two new ones that we have liked. Of course, there are some other top stallions there that we like, Wootton Bassett (GB) being one. Deauville is always a pleasure. I love Deauville."

Yoshito Yahagi (r) | Zuzanna Lupa

Along with Yahagi, fellow Japanese-based trainers Mitsumasa Nakauchida and Kyoko Maekawa along with breeder Hirokazu Okada and agent Keisuke Onishi have made the trip to Deauville. The sales company also chartered a plane full of buyers that flew in from Saratoga on Wednesday, which was reported to have been well-attended, while a number of key industry figures were also spotted out and about inspecting stock on Thursday.

This week also marks the first August Sale since the return of Olivier Delloye to the role of chairman of the management board at the sales company. Delloye succeeded the outgoing Eric Hoyeau in the role at Arqana and returned to the company he had previously spent a decade with having worked as managing director for France Galop between 2016 until last September. Cont. p4

Asked what he was expecting for his first sale back, he said, “A good sale that makes vendors and buyers happy. We do hope that the buyers who are coming from all over the world will find the individuals that they are looking for. I think there is plenty to offer at this sale again and hopefully the buyers will get the Group 1 winners that they are all aiming for. There are a lot of people here and there is a very good atmosphere—perfect conditions to show the horses. We are almost ready to kick off.

“We have had some very positive feedback from buyers on the individuals we have presented here. There is consistency across all vendors and it is good to keep in mind all of the nice horses who went through the ring here at Arqana in the last number of years were offered by various different consignors and breeders. Of course, the big players like Monceaux and Etreham produce Group 1 winners very often, but we get really nice horses across the board—like this year’s French Derby winner Look De Vega, who came from a much smaller farm [Aumonerie]. Rashabar (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), the Coventry Stakes winner at Royal Ascot, was offered by another small farm in Haras de Beaufay here last year as well. They have the half-sister here this year as well. So I think that the buyers are very much aware of that [a good horse can come from all farms] and they are looking at everything.”

He added, “I have been missing it quite a lot in the last number of years. Things have not changed that much since I have left—things have just got bigger and bigger. I feel that, the most serious players, they are not here occasionally, but they are here coming to Arqana every year. It seems that the August Sale is now on everyone’s agenda and the sale has hit a new standard—a new status—within people’s mind.”

Few people have been attending the sales in Deauville longer than respected international bloodstock agent Patrick Barbe. The 74-year-old French native had a role to play in the buying of this year’s Arc favourite Look De Vega at this sale in 2022 and, while he is not approaching this week’s action with unbridled optimism, insists there will be quality horses on offer to buyers as ever.

“I was involved in buying Look De Vega,” he explained. “Yann Lerner is a good friend of mine and he was telling me all winter that this horse would win the French Derby. Do you know what I said back to him? Bullshit. He was right, but Look De Vega is a horse who always had great presence. He was led out unsold here a couple of years ago and I said to Yann that he needed to go down and make a private offer. That was my role.”

He added, “Deauville has been very lucky for me. I am responsible for buying the only filly to win a Classic race in England from the yearling sales in Deauville and that was Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}). She won the Cheveley Park, the Guineas and so on. But I am 74 now--I am too old!

“PP Hogan taught me everything that I know. I learned from him that the first look is most important. It is like when a beautiful woman walks into a room, you are like ‘oh my God.’ If you keep looking, trying to make her more beautiful, it is not the same. I think the first look, that instinctive feel that a horse gives you, is more important than the legs, the size, the pedigree. It’s an aura, even a presence, that you look for in a champion. That’s what PP taught me and he was an absolute legend. What a judge.”

Patrick Barbe | Brian Sheerin

There is rightly plenty of caution in the air ahead of the European yearling sale circuit. However, some positives can be taken from Fasig-Tipton’s Saratoga Sale, where record aggregate, average and median figures were posted. This sale last year hit averages of €233,470, a median of €170,000 while turnover reached €55,099,000. Nobody would be unhappy if similar results were posted this week but Barbe, one of the most experienced agents in the business, was left hopeful rather than confident.

He said, “In my opinion, this sale could be tricky. It is the first sale in Europe and, with the flop in the stock exchange, Japanese Yen and what is going on in the world, there is a possibility that there is not as much money going around than there was before. Okay, Saratoga was very strong, and that is a positive.” Cont. p6

He added, “And there are a lot of people here, which is another positive sign. But it will be interesting to see how it goes. One thing I always found was that there was serious value at the beginning and the end of the sales. I would always like to buy the first horse into the ring or even one of the last. Let’s see if there is value this week.”

Surging clear from there, the 11-10 favourite had two lengths in hand of the Brian Meehan-trained G3 Hampton Court Stakes winner at the line and a large amount in reserve, with another British-trained colt who had previously shown smart form in the Listed Heron Stakes winner Almaqam (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) a further six lengths back in third.

“I’m very pleased with him, he had a bit of a fight with Brian’s horse and he stayed on well,” Haggas said of the 160,000gns Tattersalls Book 2 graduate. “I think Brian’s horse is a pretty nice horse and the first four home were in the right order, so that suggests it might have been quite a good race. It’s the firmest ground he’s run on and I’m not sure he needs that. Who knows how much he’ll improve and he was fit enough to do it if he’s good enough. The natural place is the Irish Champion Stakes, as it’s sponsored by Bahrain’s royal family and he’s in the Champion Stakes. All being well, it’ll be those two.”

Jake Warren, representing the owner, added, “I think it was a very strong performance and he picked up very well and didn’t have a hard race. We’re delighted and the Royal Bahrain Irish Champion will probably be the focus.” Cont. p7

STARSPANGLED BANNER'S SOPRANO POWERS TO PRIX DE LIEUREY TRIUMPH AT DEAUVILLE by Sean Cronin

Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's multiple Group 3-placed Soprano (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Lealas Daughter {Ire}, by Excelebration {Ire}) returned off a fourth in last month's G3 Valiant Stakes and dominated the latter stages of Thursday's G3 Prix de Lieurey at Deauville to register a career high in the one-mile test.

The 73-10 chance broke well from an outer gate and tracked the leaders in third through halfway. Looming large off the home turn, she came under pressure to seize control with 300 metres remaining and was driven clear inside the final furlong to easily outpoint Rose Bloom (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) by three lengths.

"She's a filly that has always promised a lot and being ridden differently today was the key to her success," reflected trainer George Boughey. "William [Buick] got her out from the wide draw and it enabled him to get that position. She's a strong stayer at a mile, she's a Royal Ascot winner and now she's a Group 3 winner. She's entered in the G1 Matron Stakes, she's always been well entered, and she'll probably fly the flag at Group 1 level at some point. It was all about today really and I don't have much of a plan for her, but it opens up a lot of options." Cont. p9

Out of a half-sister to the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the €220,000 Arqana Deauville August graduate soon had control on the front end under Aurelien Lemaitre. Sent into the clear passing the furlong pole, the Christopher Head-trained 23-10 favourite registered an impressive 3 1/2-length success from Mighty Boy (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}). He joins the sire's burgeoning TDN Rising Star haul which includes the top-level performers Unquestionable (Fr) and River Tiber (Ire)

Laurent Benoit bought the winner at Arqana last year and was on hand to say, "It is a good cross with Wootton Bassett and Galileo and he has always showed good quality so Christopher was convinced he would run a good race. There is speed in the pedigree and he ought to have a nice future."

Christopher Head added, "He has a lot of speed and he's done very well recently so this was a good opportunity. He is a nice horse with a good stride and he was quite green in the stalls, but it doesn't worry me that much and that will come with time and racing. Stamina-wise, he should be able to get a mile. He'll come on for the run and was very good on the straight course."

Maranoa Charlie is the second of two current foals out of Koubalibre, whose aforementioned half-sibling Tiggy Wiggy was a precocious sensation who also captured the G2 Lowther Stakes but who stayed well enough to be third in the G1 1,000 Guineas. She produced Ballydoyle's ill-fated TDN Rising Star Year Of The Tiger (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was third in the G1 Futurity Trophy, while the family also features another who was a force to be reckoned with as a juvenile in the G3 Norfolk Stakes winner Masta Plasta (Ire) (Mujadil).

The upcoming Horses-in-Training Sales series, to be held at Leopardstown, Ascot, Doncaster and Kildare, was announced by Goffs on Thursday.

The boutique Goffs Champions Sale returns to Leopardstown as the opening event of the Irish Champions Festival on Saturday, Sept. 14. First held in 2014, the 10-year average is €188,000, with a median of €150,000 and a clearance rate of 69% for catalogues ranging between four and 12 lots. Horses have sold for €500,000, €470,000, €450,000 and €300,000 at previous renewals.

The second boutique sale will be the Goffs QIPCO British Champions Day Sale at Ascot, which began in 2023. QIPCO British Champions Day is Britain's richest race day with total prize-money above £4 million and four Group 1 races on tap. This year's edition is slated for the winners' enclosure before racing on Saturday, Oct. 19.

The Doncaster October Horses-In-Training Sale will be held in the Doncaster ring that saw a vibrant HIT market at the Spring Sale followed by a new record for the highest priced National Hunt horse ever sold at public auction, £660,000, at the Doncaster Summer Sale. Cont. p11

Graduates have gone on to win at Cheltenham, as well as the G1 Melbourne Cup.

Goffs Group chief executive Henry Beeby said, “Boutique auctions for elite horses in training are a Goffs specialty. As consistently proven in recent years, our boutique sales have achieved the highest prices of any horses-in-training sales in the UK and Ireland. Goffs London Sale on the eve of Royal Ascot recorded top prices of £5 million, £1.1 million and £1.2 million at its three most recent renewals, and the key ingredients of right time right place also apply to both Leopardstown and Ascot, as the calibre of racing and prize-money draws all the major players and provides the perfect platform for vendors of world-class horses.

“Our onsite horses in training sales in Kildare and Doncaster continue to provide a vibrant international marketplace for Irish and UK trainers and prove time and again that when we have the quality, the buyers flock to Goffs.”

LOS ANGELES SUPPLEMENTED TO THE GREAT VOLTIGEUR

Irish Classic hero Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) has been supplemented to Wednesday's G2 Great Voltigeur Stakes at York on Aug. 21.

The Coolmore partners' runner and Aidan O'Brien trainee was undefeated in two starts at two, including the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. First up at three, the bay won the G3 Derby Trial Stakes at Leopardstown in May, before a solid third to stablemate City Of Troy (Justify) in the G1 Derby at Epsom on June 1. He was last seen prevailing in the G1 Irish Derby on June 30, and faces seven rivals on Wednesday while carrying a penalty.

Chief among them are his stablemates Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Euphoric (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and The Equator (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Other entrants are Derby fourth Deira Mile (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), King's Gambit (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), and Space Legend (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

YOU GOT TO ME PLEASING CONNECTIONS AHEAD OF YORKSHIRE OAKS RUN

Classic winner You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) is pleasing connections ahead of a run in next Thursday's G1 Pertemps Network Yorkshire Oaks, according to trainer Ralph Beckett.

The G1 Irish Oaks heroine is one of 18 still left in the York showpiece. A winner at two from a pair of starts, the Valmont and Newsells Park Stud runner won the Listed Oaks Trial Fillies' Stakes at Lingfield on May 11. Fourth-place efforts in the G1 Oaks at Epsom and the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes at Royal Ascot followed. Cont. p12

The G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on Oct. 6 and the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes later that month are also on her dance card.

Beckett told Tattersalls, "She's on good terms with herself, that much is obvious. If it went to plan and she was really competitive at York, I think her owners would be really keen on the Arc [Group 1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe], so I think there's a good chance she'll go there or the [G1] Fillies and Mares [Stakes] on Champions Day. Those would be the two races that we would work back from."

The Breeders' Cup is also a possibility, and Beckett added, "I wouldn't rule it out, I'm not sure I think it's what we should do but I wouldn't rule it out given how she has developed."

The Sir Mark Prescott-trained Tiffany (Ire) (Farhh {GB}) will miss the Yorkshire Oaks, and is instead returning to Germany for a campaign that includes the G2 Baden Racing Stuten-Preis on Aug. 31. She scored at listed level in her 2023 finale at Hanover, and doubled up at that level at Baden-Baden in May. Tiffany hit a new career high with a 2 1/2-length victory in the G3 Hoppings Fillies' Stakes at Newcastle on the all-weather, and was second in Haydock's G2 Lancashire Oaks on July 6.

Dan Downie, manager of owners Elite Racing Club, said, "She is not going to run next week, she is hopefully going to run back in Germany at the end of the month in a Group 2 over a mile and a half. We are happy with her and she's come out of the race fine.

"So we just chucked her out for couple of weeks and she has come back in, she's back cantering and that's the plan really.

"If she runs well in Germany then obviously we will have some nice options going forward, some at the Arc meeting, you could consider the race at Champions Day. If we are going to Group 1, we'd obviously want to see her win next time."

GASSIM GHAZALI BUYS GULF LEGEND AT TATTERSALLS ONLINE

Gulf Legend (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) topped the Tattersalls Online August Sale when picked up by Qatar-based trainer Gassim Ghazali for 75,000gns on Thursday.

Sold as lot 59 from the draft of James Ferguson Racing, the 3-year-old colt has been placed thrice in five starts and carries a rating of 80. He is also a half-brother to G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and the multiple group winner Sacred Life (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}).

"The Tattersalls Online sales are good for an owner because they don't have to wait until the July or October sales," said Ferguson after the hammer dropped. "It saves a lot on sales costs but it's also amazing how many people are taking note of them. The two minute extra time rule works great online as it gives people a lot more time to think about it. It's going from strength to strength."

The popular Gigginstown House Stud Annual Dispersal was topped by listed-winning chaser Idas Boy (Ire) (Dubai Destination) (lot 6), who sold for 60,000gns to Tom Malone Bloodstock, who bought the horse for an existing client.

Malone said, "I had an order for a horse who could potentially run in the Aintree Grand National. It's a dream for his new owner to have a runner in the race and hopefully we'll be there next April. I did my due diligence, I knew the horse well and Noel Meade was very gracious with his comments on him." Cont. p13

JOCKEYS REVEALED FOR PAT SMULLEN CANCER TRIALS IRELAND CHARITY RACE

A total of 20 jockeys have been confirmed for the Pat Smullen Cancer Trials Ireland Charity Race at the Curragh on Saturday, Aug. 31.

Part of the Pat Smullen Race Day in aid of Cancer Trials Ireland, the race, supported by the Breeze-Up Consigners Association and Smullen’s son Paddy, is just one of the events and activities that will raise funds for the leading cancer research trials organisation in Ireland. The riders, who have to raise a minimum of €3,000 for the charity, will ride over the world famous 12 furlongs Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby course and are all taking part in memory of a family member or friend who they lost to cancer or to support anyone currently living with cancer. The riders are as follows:

- Cara Archbold, Dunlavin, Co Wicklow: Cara lost both her grandfathers to cancer so is riding in the charity race in their memories. Cara has been riding horses since she was four but only started riding racehorses just over a year ago for Michael O’Callaghan.
- Richard Brede, Kilcullen, Co Kildare: Richard only started riding lessons in 2021. He graduated from the trainee jockey course at RACE in June 2023. He was on his work placement with Willie McCreery and is now based with Johnny Murtagh and hopes to take out his license in the near future.
- Triona Burbage, Portarlinton, Co Laois: Triona is from the close-knit community of Portarlinton where they have lost a lot of friends and neighbours to cancer. She has been involved in all equestrian disciplines from the age of four and has been riding out for Jarlath Fahey since 2012. She watched Pat Smullen’s Champions Race for Cancer Trials Ireland in 2019 and was really inspired to ride at the Curragh for this great charity.

- Erin Campbell, Clady, Co Tyrone: Erin rode in pony racing and has always been involved in racing since her teenager years. She worked full-time in racing and now rides out every morning for John O’Donoghue before her day job. Erin has lost close family members to cancer but is dedicating her race to her uncle Eugene who passed away after a lengthy battle. Her uncle Eugene was a huge racing fan and encouraged Erin’s love of horses from an early age.
- Aidan Coonan, Maynooth, Co Kildare: Aidan is riding in the Pat Smullen Cancer Trials Ireland Charity race in memory of family members and friends he has lost to cancer. Aidan has ridden horses since he was a child and for the last five years, he has been riding racehorses during his holidays and weekends and is now based with Cathy O’Leary.
- Anna Cropper, Kildare Town, Co Kildare: Anna is originally from Scotland and has been involved in the racing industry since 1997 working as a groom and exercise rider and using her degree to work in animal DNA profiling and clinical diagnostics. Anna is delighted to have the support of John ‘Shark’ Hanlon who she is currently riding out for and has ridden in four charity races at Naas, the Curragh, Leopardstown and Punchestown. Anna is riding in the race in memory of her grandfather who died when she was a child and her friend Clare, who sadly passed away last year.
- Claire Farrell, Gowran, Co Kilkenny: Claire is participating in the charity race in memory of her grandparents and close family friends whose lives were cut short by cancer. Claire is a radiographer in University Hospital Waterford and sees firsthand the challenges oncology patients face. Claire has been around horses all her life, through the Kilkenny Hunt Pony Club, eventing and re-training racehorses. She has never ridden in a race before but has been riding out for Ray Cody in Owinging in Kilkenny.
- Charles O’Neill, Clane, Co Kildare: Thirteen years ago, Charles lost his younger brother David and his dad Charlie to cancer. Despite riding in two Point-to-Points many years ago, Charles hadn’t sat on racehorse in 35 years when he decided to take part the charity race. Charles has been riding out with trainers Martin Brassill, Shane Nolan, Ross O’Sullivan, Johnny Murtagh and Jessica Harrington since the start of the year in preparation for the race and has lost nearly 20kg in the process.

- Eva O'Neill, Naas, Co Kildare: Eva is riding in the charity race in memory of her aunt who she recently lost to cancer and for all those who might benefit from cancer trails in the future. Eva is going into 6th year this September and has been riding ponies and horses all her life through the Kildare Hunt Pony club and eventing with ponies and juniors. She started riding out for Patrick Prendergast on the Curragh during her transition year and has enjoyed learning and working with racehorses ever since then.
- Ellie Gartlan, Dromin, Co Louth: Ellie lost her Nana on her dad's side to cancer a couple of years ago and her Nana on her mum's side is currently fighting breast cancer. Ellie has been riding out since she was 15 and was based part-time and full-time with trainer John Larkin for six years and is currently working with Gavin Cromwell.
- Mark Harley, Letterkenny, Co Donegal: Mark's dad passed away from pancreatic cancer in June 2022 so is riding the race in his memory and raise money for Cancer Trials Ireland. Mark's background is in showjumping but his family always kept racehorses and when he was younger he rode out for his cousin.
- Shane Harris, Fethard, Co Tipperary: Shane is riding in this race as Cancer Trials Ireland is a charity he wants to support and help raise much needed funds as so many people have been impacted by cancer in some shape or form. He has been riding racehorses for the last eight years with his local pre-trainer PJ Colville. Shane works full-time, plays polocrosse at a top level and also re-trains ex racehorses for polocrosse.
- Jamie Heffernan, Cashel, Co Tipperary: Jamie is a Kilkenny man, living in Rosegreen in Tipperary. He has grown up around horses all his life and for 10 years worked as a work rider in Ballydoyle. He now farms full-time at home and rides out as often as he can with local trainers such as John Grogan. Unfortunately, cancer has affected both friends and family of Jamie's over the years. Jamie's dad Seamus rode alongside Pat for many years and in a way the charity race will be a little like history repeating itself with Jamie and Pat's Paddy riding in the race together.
- Andrew Kinirons, Newbridge, Co Kildare: Andrew had an amateur jockeys licence and rode in Point-to-Points and on the track in Ireland and the UK, eventually hanging up his boots in 2013. He has held a trainers licence for almost four years. Andrew never rode at the Curragh as a jockey, so he is looking forward to ticking the Curragh off his list in memory of his grandparents and friends he has lost to cancer.
- Aisling McGuinness, Rush, Co Dublin: Aisling lost two uncles to cancer, Laurence in 2021 and her uncle Johnny only this July. Aisling has been riding ponies and horses and showjumping all her life and rides out for her dad, trainer Ado McGuinness.
- Emily MacMahon, Kilmessan, Co Meath: Emily is riding the race in memory of her dad who passed away from pancreatic cancer in 2010. Emily has spent most of her career working in the racing industry--either stud farms, racing yards and racecourses and been riding out for her neighbour Ger Lyons in preparation for the race.
- Steph Searle, Duninga, Goresbridge, Kilkenny: Steph has worked in racing since she was 14 and among her many jobs, she currently rides out for Willie Mullins, is travelling head girl for Tom Mullins and works at Tramore Racecourse. Unfortunately, Steph lost her mum to throat cancer in 2013 so is riding in the charity race in her memory. She has been lucky enough to have led-up Pat Smullen on plenty of winners over the years so is honoured to ride in a race in Pat's memory.
- Paddy Smullen, Rhode, Co Offaly: Paddy lost his dad to pancreatic cancer in 2020 and is keen to raise money to help prevent the suffering so many people have had to endure. It's very special for Paddy to ride in the charity race his dad started in 2019. He has ridden horses all his life, firstly on ponies and continues to take part in eventing. Paddy started riding racehorses in Conor Hoban's pre-training yard a few years ago and now is enjoying riding out in Gordon Elliott's and Dermot Weld's.
- Derek Stamp, Rosslare Strand, Co Wexford: Derek rode ponies from a young age and completed the trainee jockey course at RACE in 1996. He rode four winners on the track before hanging up his boots and has been working in Ballydoyle for the last 14 years, He is riding in the charity race for Cancer Trials Ireland after making a promise to Pat Smullen to raise funds for cancer research.
- Joan Widger, Clonmel, Co Tipperary: It is her first time to ride in a charity race and Joan is honoured to do so for such a great cause. Joan is dedicating her race to her dad who passed away from cancer in 2014 and her sister who had her own battle with cancer and rode in this race last year. She has been riding from an early age through pony club, eventing and show jumping. In preparation for the race, Joan is riding out for Miguel Gunn and John 'Shark' Hanlon. Cont. p15

Other events include the 100km Curragh to Curragh charity cycle in memory of Olive Lynch and sponsored by Paddy Power. Prior to racing, 20-time champion jockey AP McCoy will lead the unique cycle, which takes in Moyglare Stud, Naas and Punchestown racecourses and Gilltown Stud before cyclists return to the Curragh during racing. There is also the Pat Smullen Race Day Barbeque hosted in the Oaks Restaurant. Tickets are €50 and include admission and a delicious barbeque.

Admission tickets are €15 online or €20 on race day for everyone over the age of 18, with a contribution going towards Cancer Trials Ireland. To purchase tickets for the various events, please visit the Curragh's website.

Brian Kavanagh, Curragh Racecourse CEO, said, "We are delighted to work closely with Cancer Trials Ireland and overwhelmed with the response to the Pat Smullen race day which has raised substantial funds since it was launched in 2019. Everyone's generosity will make a significant impact to pancreatic cancer patients. I would encourage everyone to donate to the various initiatives taking place across the day including the charity cycle and the riders taking part in the Pat Smullen charity race."

Brendan Holland of Grove Stud, representing the Breeze-Up Consigners Association (BUCA), said, "Unfortunately, in the last few years some of our members' relatives and friends have suffered from and passed away from cancer, so when the opportunity arose to be involved in the Pat Smullen Cancer Trials Ireland charity race, we thought it was a great opportunity to proactively support the important work of Cancer Trials Ireland and all the brave riders taking part in the race. It's going to be a great day and a special race for a cause that is close to so many of us."

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

GODOLPHIN'S BOOK 1 MILLIONAIRE IN LINE FOR 'FRANKEL MAIDEN' DEBUT

17.45 Newmarket, Mdn, £9,000, 2yo, 8fT

Godolphin's hitherto untried ARABIAN POET (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), one of two entries from Charlie Appleby's local nursery, made a mark when purchased for the round one million at last year's Tattersalls October Book 1 sale and is one of nine set to line up for no ordinary maiden. This contest's roll of honour is awash with future Group 1 winners and includes Motivator (GB) and Frankel (GB), who earned their 'TDN Rising Star' stripes in this straight one-mile heat, as well as the ill-fated duo Roaring Lion and Coroebus (Ire). Bred by Newsells Park Stud, the May-foaled bay's five black-type siblings include multiple Group 1 winners Japan (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Mogul (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the Group 2-winning G1 Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Secret Gesture (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). Opposition features Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's fellow debutant King Of Cities (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is a Richard Hannon-trained homebred son of G1 Prix Jean Romanet victrix Ajman Princess (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and thus a half-brother to this term's G1 Commonwealth Cup hero Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal); and Coolmore's once-raced Leopardstown maiden third Scandinavia (Justify), who is a half-brother to G1 Prix Saint-Alary victrix Above The Curve (American Pharoah), representing the Aidan O'Brien-Tom Marquand axis.

15.15 Newbury, Mdn, £12,000, 2yo, 8fT

Aidan O'Brien remains on a scouting mission for opportunities abroad and saddles G1 Dewhurst Stakes nominee ISAMBARD BRUNEL (Justify) in a contest won last year by this term's G3 Hampton Court Stakes and G2 York Stakes runner-up King's Gambit (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). Coolmore's February-foaled newcomer is the sixth foal out of G3 Weld Park Stakes victrix and G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes fourth Magical Dream (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a full-sister to connections' Breeders' Cup Turf and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Found (Ire). His rivals include Godolphin's €650,000 Goffs Orby acquisition King's Charter (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), who first went through the ring as a €550,000 Goffs November foal and is kin to four black-type performers headed by G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes victrix Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy). The Charlie Appleby trainee has vital experience and will head postward coming back off an eye-catching debut third over Sandown's seven furlongs at the end of last month.

Bogota (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), the daughter of a full-sister to War Front's G1 Dewhurst Stakes-winning sire Air Force Blue, ran with real promise in this Arqana Series Des Pouliches, but Infinity Nine Horses and Ecurie des Monceaux's representative ran into one too strong on the day.

14.33 Deauville, Debutantes, €160,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT

Maranoa Charlie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), the son of a half-sister to the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), got off to a flyer to earn TDN Rising Star status to provide Peter Maher, Carl Fitzgerald and John Baxter with the perfect scenario in this valuable Arqana Series Des Poulains.

15.25 Dundalk, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, 8f (AWT)

Nudged along with three furlongs to go, the 16-1 chance was ridden to challenge approaching the furlong pole and kept on in resolute fashion under a late drive to deny Participle (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by a nose in a nip-and-tuck finish, becoming the 10th winner for her freshman sire (by Shamardal). GOLD STAR HERO (IRE) (c, 2, Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Hightime Heroine {Ire}, by Danetime {Ire}), who posted a July 31 debut fourth over this trip at Redcar last time, broke in the front rank and wandered around before settling into a rhythm on the lead. Untroubled for the most part, the 6-1 chance was scrubbed along soon after turning for home and ran on well under a drive to withstand the late bid of Gilet (Ire) (Coulsty {Ire}) by a head. Gold Star Hero is the latest of 10 foals and fifth scorer out of a winning half-sister to four black-type performers headed by stakes-winning G1 Criterium International third Redolent (Ire) (Redback {GB}) and stakes-winning G3 Summer Stakes third Pepita (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}). LOTHLORIEN (IRE) (f, 2, Dandy Man {Ire}--Handbell {Ire}, by Acclamation {GB}), sent off at 11-1, raced freely throughout the early stages behind the leading pair. The dam, a half to the listed-winning sprinter Hareem Queen (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and a full-sister to the group-placed sprinter Chessman (Ire), has produced two black-type performers in the listed-placed Galadriel (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) and Clochette (Ire) (No Nay Never). MS WILLPOWER (IRE) (f, 2, Inns Of Court {Ire}--Lady Willpower {GB}, by Multiplex {GB}), sent off at 12-1, was settled in mid-division throughout the early stages. Powering to the front approaching the furlong pole, the newcomer drew away to win impressively by 3 3/4 lengths from Dazzling Angel (GB) (Harry Angel {Ire}). "It is kind of our first venture into buying two-year-olds," trainer Paul Flynn explained. "We only have two and we sent the other filly home last week, an Advertise filly, a grand filly. This one was backward, but recommended by Tally Ho--they are some operators. They said this was the one for me last year. We gave two grand more than we wanted! We are very happy now. She's so laid-back and has a lovely attitude. We only started galloping her two weeks ago, so I think she will come on a lot. When we galloped here, she worked well. I thought I didn't have her fit enough. I find all those Tally Ho horses know their job, they are so well done from day one. Hopefully we can sell this one and move on to another one. That's the plan." The dam, whose son of Starman (GB) is due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls Somerville Yearling auction, is a full-sister to the Listed Eternal Stakes winner and G3 Fred Darling Stakes-placed Radio Gaga (GB) and a half to the G3 Park Express Stakes winner and G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas runner-up Ardrae Lady (GB) (Overbury {Ire}) and the listed winner Obe Gold (GB) (Namaqualand). Nudged along rounding the home turn, the 1-2 favourite was not for catching once hitting the front inside the final quarter-mile and kept on strongly under continued urging in the latter stages to easily defeat 50-1 outsider Nakatomi (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}) by nine lengths. "He's a smashing colt and Wayne [Lordan] gave him a lovely ride," said Ballydoyle's Chris Armstrong. "He had a very good run the first day at the Curragh in a maiden that is working out well. He was still very green throughout the run, even once he got him straightened up, and Wayne thinks there's lots of improvement in him." Cont. p20

Armstrong added, “He is a horse that will be able to go up in trip, handles the quick ground and is a horse with plenty of class. PIERATA SET TO COVER A$6.6-MILLION MARE IMPERATRIZ

Imperatriz | Bronwen Healy

Champion Imperatriz (Aus) will be covered by Pierata (Aus) this season, Yulong announced on Thursday. The champion mare smashed records when she sold for A$6.6 million at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale on the Gold Coast earlier this year. The 10-time Group 1 winning daughter of I Am Invincible (Aus) was offered for sale by New Zealand-based Te Akau Racing.

In selling for A$6.6 million to Zhijun Zhao, Imperatriz broke the record as the highest-priced filly or mare ever sold in the Southern Hemisphere.

Pierata's first crop are 3-year-olds and he sired juvenile stakes winners Coleman (Aus) and Tobeornottobe (Aus). Pierata served a career-high 191 mares last season and will stand for A$66,000 inc GST in 2024.

SATURDAY SIRE: LOPE DE VEGA

Lope De Vega | Ballylinch Stud

by Jill Williams

It's not often a stallion based outside the continent gets graded winners in the U.S. keeping pace with the leading sires here. Ireland's Lope De Vega (Ire) is not only keeping pace, but more than holding his own.

When Carl Spackler (Ire) won Sunday's GI Fourstardave Handicap at Saratoga, he became the second U.S. Grade I winner in 2024 for his sire, joining Program Trading (GB), who won Churchill's GI Turf Classic Stakes on Derby day. For comparison, only one stallion (Gun Runner) has three Grade I winners in the U.S. in 2024. Just five have two: Into Mischief, Uncle Mo, Good Magic, Nyquist, and Lope De Vega.

In addition, Lope De Vega's Silver Knott (GB) has won three Grade II events in the U.S. in 2024, including the Man o' War Stakes, which was a Grade I until this year, and another two runners by the stallion have captured listed stakes in this country this season. If sorting all Northern Hemisphere sires solely on racing in North America, Lope De Vega has the highest percentage of black-type winners to runners. Of course, that number is skewed as it's likely owners only go to the trouble of importing horses that are top quality. Regardless, it underpins Lope De Vega's breakout success in the U.S.

International race meets--such as the Breeders' Cup--aside, how is it that one horse can accomplish so much on a continent he's never stepped foot on? The answer is twofold, says John O'Connor of Ballylinch Stud, which stands the horse. Cont. p3

THE ROAD BACK: JOHN DAUGHERTY REVELS IN A LIFE TRANSFORMED by Katie Petrunyak

A good barber knows how to create conversation. After years of standing over his chair trimming hair and chatting with clients, John Daugherty has always prided himself on his ability to talk to just about anybody.

"It didn't matter if it was a doctor, the mayor, or the homeless guy around the corner, I could talk to everyone," he said.

So when Daugherty found himself in a prison staring at the adolescent faces of his two sons at a loss for words, his inability to find the right thing to say was just as shocking as the somber place they had all found themselves. It was the first and last time his children ever visited him in prison.

"I don't know if it was embarrassment or if it was about the emotional level you had to keep in there to survive," he reflected. "I think it was mostly the embarrassment of not knowing what to say. I had failed my kids in a lot of ways and it hurt. It truly did." Cont. p5

“I think he's been lucky enough that he's been identified by some very good judges and trainers who have taken his stock over to America. He has a number of things that might be significant to his success in the U.S. They're very athletic horses and have a very high cruising speed. If you can teach to them to settle, they have a very high turn of foot, especially on turf, and that's an advantage.”

Indeed, both Carl Spackler and Program Trading are trained by Chad Brown, while Silver Knott is conditioned by Charlie Appleby, both trainers with outsized turf success in the U.S. Although well established in Europe, and a former Australian shuttle stallion at the beginning of his career, Lope De Vega first came to prominence in the U.S. with another Brown trainee in Newspaperofrecord (Ire), whose victories included the 2018 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf and the 2020 GI Just a Game Stakes.

Click to see Lope De Vega at Ballylinch

Another Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner, Aunt Pearl (Ire), won that race in 2020 for Brad Cox.

Lope De Vega is one of Europe's top stallions, standing at Ballylinch for €125,000, but there's a good chance a number of breeders in this country, who are very familiar with his capabilities as a sire, haven't seen him in person.

“He's probably a medium-sized horse, just over 16 hands,” said O'Connor Thursday via phone as he was walking into the racecourse at Deauville to watch Lope De Vega's Almaqam (GB) finish third in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano and his Rose Bloom (Ire) finish second in the

G3 Prix de Lieurey. “He's very lengthy, has a very powerful shoulder. When he walks, he has an incredible athleticism and really catches your attention with a big overstep. Many of his stock have the same walk and big stride length.”

Lope De Vega won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains in 2010 as a homebred for Gestut Ammerland. O'Connor said he and SF Bloodstock's Tom Ryan went together to see the chestnut son of Shamardal in Andre Fabre's yard and "were both very taken with him." It was an easy decision to stand him at Ballylinch.

With his first foals born in 2012, Lope De Vega stood his first year for €15,000 and eventually took the customary dip for his third and fourth years at stud, dropping to €12,500. However, once his runners hit the track and his prowess became apparent, the tune changed and his fee steadily rose each year from 2015 until it entered six-figure territory for the 2020 season. He's been holding steady at €125,000 since 2021. His first 2-year-olds sired from that fee are starting now.

"He covered 175 mares this year and we'll cut him back a bit next year," said O'Connor. "He's now covering very elite mares, which is reflected with high-quality stock."

Carl Spackler's Fourstardave victory earned him a 'Win and You're In' berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Mile this November | Sarah Andrew

"He's very versatile and has worked with a lot of sire lines, but he's been particularly successful with Danehill lines. He gets outstanding statistics with fast mares, but also with more Classic types. He works with a huge spectrum."

Lope De Vega has a small number of early sire sons, including two at the Irish National Stud and two in Britain. O'Connor said it's too soon to determine if those sons are throwing a particular type, but mentioned G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Phoenix of Spain (Ire) "gets a horse that looks quite like himself. They're powerful, good-bodied horses."

Last month, in association with Al Shaqab Racing, Ballylinch purchased a majority interest in Lope De Vega's undefeated G1 Prix du Jockey Club winner Look De Vega (Fr).

The 3-year-old is currently the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe favorite and will eventually retire to Ballylinch to stand alongside his sire. He's a member of Lope De Vega's first crop resulting from a six-figure fee.

From his first 10 crops to race, Lope De Vega has 73 graded/group winners and 134 black-type winners. His 20 black-type winners worldwide in 2024 currently place him third in that category this year among all sires standing in the Northern Hemisphere, just one behind Dubawi (Ire) and two behind Into Mischief. He's tied with Dubawi for the most Grade I/Group 1 winners with four and leads all Northern Hemisphere-based stallions in Group 1 performers with eight. He also currently holds a comfortable lead among all European sires by progeny earnings for 2024, both by European earnings and by European and North American earnings combined.

In addition to the heady statistics that are becoming a hallmark of his stallion career, Lope De Vega has no fewer than 22 individual Group 1/Grade I winners, spanning countries on four continents: the U.S., Canada, Britain, Ireland, France, Australia, and Dubai.

"He's had success at the elite level in each of those places," said O'Connor. "We realize how lucky we are to have a horse of this quality."

Daugherty's life has not been an easy one, but it was during his darkest moments that he finally saw a spark of hope.

Born in Indiana, Daugherty was one month old when his father died and his mother put him up for adoption. Extended family members took him in and he moved to Owensboro, Kentucky. Growing up, his adoptive parents fought incessantly so he found himself alone most of the time. He was allowed to go where he wanted, when he wanted. Some members of his family were involved in biker gangs so he had easy access to alcohol, drugs and plenty of reckless parties by the age of 15.

When he was in high school, he got married. His drug use continued. After 10 years of marriage and the birth of his two sons, he got divorced. As his career as a barber gained momentum, so too did the drug use. He was sober during the day, but at night and on weekends all bets were off. He went through another failed marriage, lost touch with his family, and eventually started selling drugs and catching charges.

Daugherty was in jail, having just been sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary, when he hit a new low.

"I was still in the Davis County jail when they came and told me my dad was going to die," he recalled. "They got me from my cell and I went to the hospital to see my dad. I got to spend 30 minutes there. Then they took me back to jail and I was shipped to prison three days later. That was the last time I ever talked to my dad."

During his time in prison, Daugherty started reading the Bible and became a Christian. His life was transformed in many ways, but it was still far from perfect. When he made parole, he bounced from different halfway houses and rehabs, oftentimes reverting back to drug use.

On April 18, 2023, it was his son's birthday and Daugherty had found himself back in a jail cell for absconding parol. It was the first day of his journey to sobriety. When he got out of jail, he went to the faith-based Isaiah House Treatment Center. While there, he heard about Stable Recovery.

"When I was reading the Bible later that day, it started talking about King Solomon's horses," said Daugherty. "Everywhere I looked, it would say something about a horse again. I never in my life had thought about a horse. I'd never even touched one. From that time on, I felt that God had led me to Stable Recovery and there wasn't anything that was going to get in my way."

Later that spring, Daugherty started the Stable Recovery program and began learning the ropes of becoming a groom at the Taylor Made School of Horsemanship. He started off working in a barn with two and three-month-old foals and fell in love with them straightaway.

"One day I was out there picking up rocks in the field," he recalled. "A foal came up and just laid her head on my shoulder. It changed something in me and I had a connection with them after that."

John and his doting sidekick Remi | Katie Petrunyak

After graduating from the School of Horsemanship, Daugherty was hired on at the training center at WinStar Farm. It was a big jump going from working with those placid foals to rambunctious racehorses. Cont. p6

On his first day, he encountered one colt that seemed to have a mean streak. The 2-year-old was kicking the walls, foam spewing from his mouth as he pinned his ears back at Daugherty. The barn foreman placed a pile of tack by the stall.

“What am I supposed to do about that?” asked Daugherty him.

“You’re supposed to go in there and put the tack on him,” replied the foreman as he started walking off down the barn aisle.

Daugherty figured he could either give it a try or quit the job on the spot, so he went for it. It didn’t take long before that seemingly aggressive colt was Daugherty’s favorite charge.

“Nobody else liked him, but I loved him,” said Daugherty. “It didn’t matter what kind of mood I was in, what I felt like or what I was thinking. When I got there every morning, that horse demanded me to be at my best.”

Stable Recovery graduate John Daugherty | Katie Petrunyak

“Horses don’t judge you,” he continued. “You walk in there with a clean slate with them and ya’ll better figure it out together. He didn’t care if I had graduated from Yale or if I was a Catholic priest. He was going to try to bite me either way.”

Daugherty has been a groom at the training center for the past year, honing his horsemanship skills while also taking on more responsibility with the Stable Recovery program. Four months ago, WinStar added a house on their farm exclusively for School of Horsemanship graduates. Daugherty signed on as the house manager. With five men at the house filling various jobs at WinStar from night watchman to maintenance crew, Daugherty’s role is to make sure everyone is adjusting to their new jobs while also keeping up with their Stable Recovery meetings.

Having a sense of purpose and a community that supports him is all completely new to Daugherty, but it’s what gets him up at 4 a.m. every morning. Cont. p7

“I wake up every day and I'm thankful that I have a job that I love,” he shared. “I was at WinStar the other day and I looked around and there wasn't anyone else in the barn right then. I realized Bob Baffert had horses there, Todd Pletcher, Brad Cox, the biggest trainers in the world, and I'm sitting here with these horses taking care of them. I guess I started doing things His way. I got myself to prison. He's got me working with the best racehorses in the world in less than a year.”

Daugherty's personal life has transformed too. He has been in touch with both his biological mother and his adoptive mother. His relationships with his sons, now ages 21 and 18, are almost unrecognizable from what they were just a few years ago.

“It went from me not knowing what to say to them, to them actually being able to talk to me about their problems,” Daugherty said. “My son actually said one time, 'When did you start giving good advice?' To tell you the truth—and don't get me wrong, in a way I always loved my kids—but I honestly didn't know what love was. I liked my kids more than I liked everybody else, but I truly believe that I didn't love myself and I believe you cannot give anything you do not possess. I didn't possess love so I didn't know how to love my kids. And now I do. That right there is the biggest change in my life. It's hard to put into words, but it's pretty amazing. God used horses to talk to me and get me to the right place.”

The plan moving forward for Thorpedo Anna is for her to run in the $1-million GI Cotillion Stakes for 3-year-old fillies at Parx Racing on Sept. 21 and then the $2-million GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Del Mar on Nov. 2.

Thorpedo Anna has won six of seven career starts--all against fillies--by a combined 36 1/4 lengths.

“If everything goes well, she is going to Parx,” McPeek said.

Thorpedo Anna will have her final work before the Travers Saturday morning at 7 a.m. on the main track at Saratoga Race Course.

Thorpedo Anna | Sarah Andrew

It will be her first work on the main; all six of her breezes since coming to Saratoga have been on the Oklahoma Training Track.

McPeek said she will work in company with Elko County (Gun Runner), a 3-year-old colt who is winless in eight career starts.

“She needs something to run at and something to run down,” McPeek said. “She should handle him pretty easily.”

Earlier this year, McPeek spilled of confidence before he sent Thorpedo Anna to the prestigious GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs. Before that race, which she won by 4 3/4 lengths, he used a line that displayed how sure he was that Thorpedo Anna would do what she did.

He is bringing the same line out for the Travers.

“I said they better bring a bear because I'm bringing a grizzly,” McPeek said, grinning. “She is as good as ever. We haven't seen her best and (jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr.) has not laid a whip on her. She has done everything easy, easy, easy and that is one of the reasons I am not afraid to do it. There is more horse there ... how much more can she improve?”

With just over a week left until Thorpedo Anna tries to become the first filly since 1915 to win the Travers, McPeek was showing a calmness as he tended to his horses Thursday morning with his dog Sonny shadowing him.

No sense getting nervous. Cont. p8

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: THORPEDO ANNA WILL GO BACK TO FILLIES AFTER TRAVERS

By Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY -- Once the $1.25-million GI Travers Stakes is history, 'TDN Rising Star' Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) will head back to running against fillies.

Trainer Kenny McPeek said he has no plans on running his talented miss against the colts after the centerpiece of the summer meeting at the Spa.

“I’m just trying to keep it steady,” he said. “I don’t worry too much out of my control. You can’t get all wound up about it because the letdown is too hard if it doesn’t go right.”

Candied Gets Her Chance To Shine In Alabama

Four weeks ago, in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks, Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher gave his 3-year-old filly Candied (Candy Ride) her shot against Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna).

Candied was no match, losing by 4 1/2 lengths to the best filly in the division.

“Obviously, we were hoping,” Pletcher said when asked if he thought Candied could upset Thorpedo Anna that July afternoon. “But, no, we were not expecting it. We were hoping for a good effort, and I think we got that. We made a pretty good run at her on the turn, but we just could not sustain it.”

Pletcher and Candied get another chance to take down a big prize in the 3-year-old filly ranks when the $600,000, GI Alabama Stakes is run at Saratoga on Saturday.

Candied is the 7-5 morning-line favorite in the Alabama and that makes sense. Thorpedo Anna is not in this race.

In the CCA Oaks, Candied tracked Thorpedo Anna but was no match for her.

Candied | Sarah Andrew

Pletcher, speaking outside his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track Thursday morning, said he was not sure if Candied would be in the Alabama if Thorpedo Anna was.

“I don’t know,” he said. “I think it would have been a short field. I certainly have a lot of respect for Thorpedo Anna, and I think you can make an argument she might be the favorite in the Travers.”

Pletcher will also run Miss Justify (Justify), who is 6-1 on the morning line, in the Alabama, which drew a field of eight.

Miss Justify has won her last two starts, both at a mile.

“Pedigree-wise, being a daughter of Justify, you would expect her to handle the added distance,” Pletcher said. “She is coming into this off two good wins, one of them (the Wilton Stakes) over the track here.”

Brown Well On His Way To Another Saratoga Training Title

With 14 racing days left in the 40-day Saratoga meet, Chad Brown has positioned himself to win his seventh training title in the last nine years.

After Thursday’s card, Brown has 22 wins, seven more than Todd Pletcher.

Included in Brown’s haul are three Grade I victories. He won the Diana Stakes with Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio), the Test with Ways and Means (Practical Joke) and the Fourstardave with Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}).

“Just past the halfway point, we have three Grade Is, which is very important,” Brown said outside his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track Thursday morning. “You can go a whole meet without winning any.”

Brown ended up tied with Linda Rice for the most wins at last year’s meet (35). He set the all-time Saratoga record for wins in 2018 when he visited the winner’s circle 46 times.

Despite the success in the first half of the season, Brown is not taking any bows yet. He knows there is still much work to do.

“If I had my choice, I would be leading trainer every year and it would be something I could count on,” Brown said. “But this is a really tough meet, and things can change quick. We have had a strong meet, but weather can be a factor, you can have illness in your barn or bad racing luck and, all of a sudden it becomes tight.”

Brown is preparing two colts for the biggest race on the Spa schedule, one that has eluded him. The $1.25-million GI Travers Stakes will be run next weekend and Brown has one of the main contenders in 'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) as well as fellow 'Rising Star' Unmatched Wisdom (Cairo Prince), who has won all three of his starts, including the restricted Curlin Stakes at Saratoga on July 19.

Fifteen horses have run in the Travers for Brown. He has finished third twice, with Miles D (Curlin) in 2021 and Zandon (Upstart) in 2022. Sierra Leone may be his best chance ever.

Sierra Leone has three wins, three seconds and a third in seven career starts. He was purchased for a sales-topping $2.3 million at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale.

After winning the GI Toyota Blue Grass Stakes this year, he was second by a nose in the GI Kentucky Derby, third in the GI Belmont Stakes and second in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes.

"He has proven he is a very consistent, top-level horse," Brown said. "A couple races, by circumstances, he was not able to get there. I would like him to get the credit he deserves to break through and win a race of this magnitude. He is a real good-looking horse and there have always been high expectations. By the time they break from the gate, that doesn't really matter."

50 STAKES WORTH BETTER THAN $10M ON OFFER AT BELMONT AT THE BIG A MEET

The Belmont at the Big A fall meeting will feature 50 stakes races worth $10.35 million, officials at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) announced Thursday.

Thirty-one days of racing are scheduled at Aqueduct Racetrack, which will once again stage the meeting due to the ongoing construction at Belmont Park. The meet begins on Friday, Sept. 13 and runs through Sunday, Nov. 3.

Three Grade I contests for on the flat and six Breeders' Cup Challenge races are to be run, including the first of the elite-level events, the $500,000 Joe Hirsch Turf Classic for older male turf horses at 12 furlongs. Also featured on that Sept. 28 program are the GII Woodward Stakes and a pair of 'Win and You're In' qualifiers--the GII Vosburgh Stakes with an entry into the Breeders' Cup Sprint at stake; and the GII Pilgrim Stakes, which grants the winner a spot in the field for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. The weekend also includes the $250,000 GII Gallant Bloom Stakes and the GII Miss Grillo Stakes, a qualifying race for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

The stakes action continues the next weekend, beginning Friday, Oct. 4 with the running of the GIII Waya Stakes, while juvenile males square off in the GIII Futurity Stakes for a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. The GI Champagne Stakes and its filly counterpart, the GI Frizette Stakes, are carded for Saturday, Oct. 5, with both winners gaining free entry into the corresponding races on Breeders' Cup weekend. Supporting those two races are the GIII Belmont Turf Sprint and GIII Jockey Club Derby. The weekend wraps up with the GII Beldame Stakes and GIII Matron Stakes on Sunday's card.

The annual Empire Showcase Day card is set for Sunday, Oct. 27, which includes eight stakes restricted to New York-breds worth a total of $1.6 million. Cont. p10

CASSE TRIO WILL BE TOUGH TO BEAT IN KING'S PLATE

My Boy Prince | Michael Burns

by Bill Finley

Mark Casse has only won the Queen's Plate/King's Plate three times, which is a little surprising when you consider how he dominates racing at Woodbine. But when 13 Canadian-breds line up for Saturday's first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown Casse will hold a clear upper hand. Among his three horses are 7-5 morning line favorite My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince) and 2-1 second choice Essex Serpent (Honor Code). He will also send out long shot Midnight Mascot (Army Mule), who is 10-1 in the line.

He believes this year's cast is as good, or even better, than last year's when he finished first and second in the race with Paramount Prince (Society's Chairman) and the filly Elysian Field (Hard Spun).

"Last year we were pretty strong," he said. "We had won the Oaks and the Plate Trial, but this group is very strong. Yes, it could be the strongest hand I've ever had."

My Boy Prince went 3-for-6 last year and was named Canada's champion 2-year-old male. After finishing eighth the Palisades S. at Keeneland in his 3-year-old debut, he's been on a tear. He's won three straight, including the Plate Trial. In the Trial, he hopped at start, spotting the field two or three lengths, raced four-wide while well off a slow place. He kept grinding away until he got to the wire first by 1 1/4 lengths.

"I think that he's very good right now," Casse said. "We thought he trained into the Plate Trial not as sharp as he had been previously. Then he gets away bad. I was very impressed with his last race. I've been watching horse racing for a long, long time and have seen that with many a good horse when something goes wrong they're not able to overcome it. For him, he get away bad and then was really wide and still won. I was really impressed and coming out of that race he has trained really well. His work the other day was extremely good. We're ready and we're happy."

My Boy Prince will be ridden by Sahin Civaci, who has emerged as a star on the Woodbine circuit and is at the top of the jockey's standings. He was born in Vancouver, but his family moved to Turkey when he was 10.

"He's a young phenomenon," Casse said. "He can do anything. He's strong and has a great mind. A couple of years ago nobody had ever heard of him. Now, when these big races come up he has everybody's attention."

Essex Serpent is next on the Casse depth chart. He's 2-for-3 and is coming off a one-length win in the GIII Marine S.

"He's a big strong horse," Casse said. "His Marine was very good, especially when you consider that the second place finisher, Cameo Performance, came back after that race and won a stakes at Ellis Park."

Midnight Mascot was third in the Marine, where he showed enough that Casse thought he deserved a spot in the King's Plate.

"If you asked me before the Marine I would have told you that he wasn't on my radar for the King's Plate. I didn't think that he could go that far and I thought he was a cut below the other two," he said. "But his Marine was very good and he came running at the end, which bodes well for the mile and a quarter. I'm not sure that he's as good as the other two, but it wouldn't shock me if he won."

Though he's American, Casse understands the importance of the King's Plate and what it means to win it.

"Any time you can win a race with the prestige that the King's Plate has, that is a big deal," he said. "When I was younger it was the Queen's Plate. For someone like me who's been involved in racing from the time he was five or six years old, the Queen's Plate, the King's Plate was always a big deal to me. It continues to be a big deal." Cont. p11

Kevin Attard may not have the firepower that Casse has, but he has the numbers. He will start four horses, all of them long shots. His best horse may be the filly Caitlininhergrtness (Omaha Beach), who was named for WNBA star Caitlin Clark. She was second, beaten just a neck in the Woodbine Oaks.

The third choice in the morning line belongs to Rafaroo (Hard Spun), who is 8-1.

SANTA ANITA COULD USE TAPETA TRAINING TRACK FOR RACES IN '25

by T.D. Thornton

The Tapeta training track at Santa Anita | Benoit

The nearly 6 1/2-furlong Tapeta training track at Santa Anita Park is being considered for racing in 2025 as an off-the-grass or wet-weather option.

Nate Newby, the track's general manager, disclosed the work-in-progress plan after being prompted for an update on the nearly six-month-old surface by the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) during Thursday's monthly meeting.

"Horsemen have been working over it for a couple months," Newby said. "Feedback is really strong. As Tapeta personnel would tell us, those tracks need a little bit to break in. But feedback has just gotten stronger and stronger. So we are looking, not during the autumn meet, but maybe next year, of using it as an inclement weather option."

At 4,200 feet, the infield track that opened for training Mar. 2 is just shy of 6 1/2 furlongs in circumference.

In terms of width, Newby described it as "very similar to the [60-foot] width of the Gulfstream synthetic track," which is one mile and 70 yards around and first opened for racing in September 2021.

Gulfstream's Tapeta track is between its main dirt track and turf course. Santa Anita's Tapeta track is the innermost of those three ovals.

Newby said Santa Anita's Tapeta surface could accommodate two-turn races at 6 1/2, seven and 7 1/2 furlongs, plus the "about" distance of a mile. He added that cutouts are being incorporated into the inner rail to allow a starting gate to be pulled into the infield once a race starts.

Gregory Ferraro, DVM, the CHRB's chairman, asked if the concept of running on a tighter track was "a little dangerous, or not?"

Newby replied, "It's done at a lot of tracks. [Nationally recognized track maintenance consultant] Dennis Moore, as you know, probably has more experience than anybody in the country, and so he's come up with the plans. Again, we'll test everything before we get to that stage. It's not something we're looking at for the autumn meet."

Newby continued: "It was put in 'racing grade.' We re-did the grade. A new safety rail was put in. So everything is to racing standards, and that's something we're looking at, talking to horsemen with, if there's an off-the-turf day, would we look at that as an option to maintain field size and still be able to operate."

Newby said trial races could be a next step.

"It's something we want to continue to talk to horsemen about," Newby said. "And we'd run some trial races and let them test it. Obviously, they've been [training over] it for quite a bit. But we continue to test it with gates and bigger fields and [would want to] make sure everybody's comfortable before we did anything."

Ferraro asked Newby to check back with the CHRB before Santa Anita management decided to run any actual races over the Tapeta track.

TRAINER RICHARD MANDELLA NAMED 2024 WINNER OF PINCAY AWARD

Trainer Richard Mandella, a member of racing's Hall of Fame since 2001, has been named the 20th recipient of the Laffit Pincay, Jr. Award and will be honored at Del Mar on Saturday, Aug. 31, the track said in a Thursday release.

The Pincay Award, named for, and presented by, the Hall of Fame rider, goes to those who have served the sport of racing "with integrity, extraordinary dedication, determination and distinction."

Mandella, 74, went out on his own with a public stable in 1976 and has over 2,300 winners to his credit who have banked more than $157-million in purses.

"Richard is a solid as they get when it comes to training racehorses," Pincay said. "I knew when I got on one of his horses, we were going to have a good chance to win."

The list of previous Pincay Award winners include the 2023 recipient Trevor Denman.

SHE'S GOT WILL LOOKED LIKE A SEASONED PRO IN SPA MAIDEN WIN by Mike Kane

She's Got Will | Sarah Andrew

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. --Though he was en route to Toronto Thursday, Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse said he had a clear view of She's Got Will's (War of Will) one-length victory in the sixth race at Saratoga Race Course.

Casse watched the 1 1/16th miles $100,000 maiden special weight race for 2-year-old fillies on his iPad on the Queen Elizabeth Way in southern Ontario about 30 miles from Niagara Falls. He was headed from Saratoga to Woodbine Racetrack for Saturday's $1-million King's Plate Stakes, where he will saddle Essex Serpent (Honor Code), Midnight Mascot (Army Mule) and My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince).

On the Saratoga simulcast Casse saw She's Got Will come from a couple lengths off the pace under Dylan Davis in the stretch to collar Never Really Know (Ire) (No Nay Never) and win by one length. She's Got Will reached the wire in 1:44.69 and paid $24 as the 11-1 sixth choice in the field of 10 on the inner turf course.

"I think, this is the third War of Will (War Front) that we've had win going long around two turns," Casse said. "They seem to be a really nice bunch. Her race today was very professional. I was impressed. Had a nice trip. The War of Will winners that we've trained just love the two turns.

Casse trained War of Will, the first-crop sire at Claiborne Farm, who won the 2019 GI Preakness Stakes and the 2020 GI Maker's Mark Mile Stakes. Gary Barber owns the filly bred by Nicholas Lotz, who sold for $160,000 at the 2023 Keeneland September Sale.

She's Got Will broke alertly from the fifth post position and settled into a stalking role along the inside. Never Really Know, co-owned by Casse's brother Justin and trained by his son Norman, led the way through fractions contested by Chelsey's Choice (American Pharoah) of :23.85, :48.79 and 1:13.60 over a surface rated as firm following a downpour. When Davis asked her and tipped her out, She's Got Will accelerated in the stretch, took the lead just inside the 16th pole and was home free.

"It's funny, they don't have very good gate speed, normally," Casse said. "She had a better gate speed today, simply because it was a route of ground, but they kind of have to catch up early."

She's Got Will continued Casse's strong run at Saratoga, delivering his 11 victory this season. She was his fifth winner in 2-year-old open maiden races at the Spa.

"I'm really proud of her," he said. "We brought her to Saratoga because we thought she had a lot of potential, and she proved us right today. That was nice."

Casse's other starter in the race, Wonderland (Medaglia d'Oro) rallied under Jose Ortiz and finished fourth, a head behind Dr. Glick (Constitution)

"She was a victim of the post position. She was outside (#10)," Casse said. "She broke just OK, and then Jose elected to take her back and let her learn something and come with a run. Jose rides a lot of horses for us and he knows that I like our young horses to learn to run by horses. I thought both horses performed very well, and I'm excited for Wonderland, as well."

SHE'S GOT WILL (f, 2, War of Will--Ruffenuff {MSW, $208,314}, by Dialed In), given an 11-1 chance for this debut, settled in a hedge-hugging stalking position as Never Really Know (Ire) (No Nay Never) showed the way through a :23.85 quarter followed by a half in :48.79. Moved off the inside and asked for more straightening for home, the filly drove up between rivals in the stretch, caught the pacesetter late and forged clear to score by a length. She's Got Will is the sixth winner for her Freshman sire (by War Front). Sales history: $160,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Still looking for his first career victory, Courtly Banker broke through in his third try facing New York-bred stakes company in Thursday's Rick Violette Stakes at Saratoga.

Content to let Fidelightcayut lead the way through opening fractions of :25.45 and :51.40 over the rain-softened turf, Courtly Banker began to amp up the pressure on the pacesetter turning for home. Poking his head in front in the lane, he inched clear late to graduate by a neck.

"He had been knocking on the door to breaking his maiden," said winning rider Johnny Velazquez. "He has been very consistent and today was his day. He powered home nicely for me and did everything I asked of him. The turf was really soft, and he didn't mind it. You just have to hope in situations like this that you get a horse who likes the ground, and he happened to today and everything worked out."

The Rick Violette is named for the late multiple graded stakes-winning New York-based trainer, who served as President of the New York Thoroughbred Horseman's Association (NYTHA) for 10 years and was a founding member of the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA).

Courtly Banker | Sarah Andrew

"Rick Violette meant everything to the racing community," said Robin Smullen, assistant to winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "He meant everything to the horsemen and the retired horses. He was a pillar of excellence. I watched him work around a horse in the paddock here one day and it was amazing to watch him work. He was an unbelievable horseman."

Third facing open company in his career bow over Gulfstream synthetic surface Mar. 31, the bay finished in the same spot while trying Empire bred 3-year-olds and up while stretching to a mile on the grass at the Big A Apr. 27. Runner-up to The Big Torpedo (Big Brown) in the New York Stallion Stakes Spectacular Bid over six panels June 16, he found that rival too good next time out while stretching back to eight panels for the NYSSS Cab Calloway at the Spa July 18.

"This horse we bought as a 2-year-old in training and he didn't get to the races last year because we had to do a little surgical procedure," said Sacketoga Stables' Jack Knowlton. "We started him in Florida, and he ran very well down there. He came up here and was second in two stallion stakes races. This race came up and we took a shot - we could have always run in a maiden race, and you'd think he'd probably be able to win that, but we are sportspeople, we took a shot."

Regarding a potential start in the nine-furlong John Hettinger at Belmont at the Big A Sept. 27, said Smullen, "We'll go in an 'a other than' hopefully about a mile or a mile and a sixteenth. He doesn't want to go any further than a mile and a sixteenth. We've at least got him settled enough to do that distance. I don't see a mile and an eighth in his wheel house."

Courtly Lark dropped a filly by Fog of War in 2022 and a full-brother to Courtly Banker last season.

Reverting to the turf last time, she was a close-up second in a Spa turf allowance July 20 and was given a 4-1 chance to return to the winner's circle here. Settled just behind an honest early pace, Riley Jean swung out several paths wide turning for home, closed on the late-leading favorite Leslie's Humor (Kantharos) through the lane and was up in time to triumph by a head. The chestnut returned with a third-place finish behind next out winners Illuminaire (City of Light) and Itza Mirrakle (Arrogate) in a seven-furlong Spa allowance June 7 before coming home a head short of the win in Ozone Park June 30. Pounded down to 1-5 favoritism with the Todd Pletcher-trainer Upstanding, also co-owned by St. Elias Stable, Pentathlon was third as Cuando (Not This Time) led through :24.06 and :47.29 splits. Gradually closing on the pacesetter in the stretch, the chestnut gained control in the final stages and drew clear to score by 3 1/2 lengths. Upstanding was a long way back in third. GSP Parade, out of a sister to champion 2-year-old filly Storm Flag Flying, produced a filly by Justify in 2022 and most recently a colt by Munnings this season. She was bred back to Gun Runner. This represents the Phipp's family of MGISW My Flag (Easy Goer) in addition to GISWs Miner's Mark and Traditionally. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-2, $96,430. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-Phipps Stable, St. Elias Stable and Woodford Racing, LLC; B-Phipps Stable (KY); T-Claude R. 1st-Saratoga, $90,000, (S), Msw, 8-15, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:18.21, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.

MANHATTAN TWIST (c, 2, Liam's Map--Bitter Lemon {MSP, $140,421}, by Lemon Drop Kid), installed the 2-1 second choice in this unveiling, was taken to the front early by Jose Ortiz, cutting out fractions of :22.47 and :46.40. Tracked by favored Man of Mischief (Instagrand) throughout, the grey repelled his rival late en route to a 1 3/4-length victory. Third choice Keepinitreal (City of Light) rounded out the trifecta. Bitter Lemon, in foal to Army Mule, sold for $2,700 at Keeneland January in 2020. She produced a filly by Combatant last term. Sales history: $150,000 Wlg '22 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

GIVE LIFE (f, 2, Caravaggio--Call Mariah, by Dixie Union), installed the 9-5 choice for this first go, settled in a stalking fourth as Unshakable (Improbable) led the way through :23.03 and :46.08 splits. Cornering two wide turning for home, Give Life ground her way to the front late to graduate by a neck over the pacesetter. The winner is a half to Bodecream (Bodemeister), SW & MGSP, $491,204 and Determined Jester (Practical Joke), SW, $201,475. The winner's dam, Call Mariah, is a half to GISWs Albertus Maximus (Albert the Great) and Daredevil (More Than Ready). She produced a colt by Practical Joke last season and was bred back to Omaha Beach this term.

This represents the family of Grade I winner Race the Wild Wind and her group winning sons King Charlemagne and Meshaheer. Sales history: $150,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $36,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

6th-Delaware, $40,250, Msw, 8-15, 2yo, f, 7 1/2ft, :00.00, gd, neck.

DEAR LOUISE (f, 2, Hard Spun--Fancy That, by Street Sense), who debuted as a 9-2 shot here, was reluctant to load before the bell. The homebred lagged towards the rear before the first turn, but quickly made up ground to run in the second flight up the backstretch. Taking aim at the pacesetter around the far turn, the filly ranged up on her target and took over at the top of the lane. However, Winning Strep (Oscar Performance) rolled down the center of the course and just past the temporary rail, she swerved left, unseating her rider. Dear Louise kept to the task and won over the charging Social Love (Social Inclusion). The second foal and first to the races for her dam, the winner has a February weanling half-brother by Essential Quality and Fancy That visited that same sire for next term. This dam, who counts as a half-brother 'TDN Rising Star' Nash (Medaglia d'Oro), hails from an extended female family which includes SW Airosa (Uncle Mo) and MGSW Forbidden Kingdom (American Pharoah). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
