

FITTING FINALE AT ARQANA AS COOLMORE GO TO €1.7 MILLION FOR ST MARK'S BASILICA FILLY

Monceaux boss Henri Bozo congratulates MV Magnier after Coolmore snapped up the €1.7 million top lot | Zuzanna Lupa

By Brian Sheerin and Adam Houghton

DEAUVILLE, France--Talk about a fitting finale. After what could only be described as a patchy opening two days to the August Yearling Sale, a St Mark's Basilica (Fr) filly (lot 270) out of Ecurie des Monceaux's blue hen Prudenzia (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) topped Sunday's concluding session at €1.7 million when sold to Coolmore's MV Magnier.

Prudenzia is the gift that keeps giving for Henri Bozo's powerful breeding operation in France. Who could forget her daughter Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who became a brilliant globetrotting filly for the Coolmore partners and Aidan O'Brien after topping this sale at €1.4 million in 2016?

Philomene (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) also commanded top-lot status here in 2019 when selling to Godolphin for €1.625 million and she confirmed herself a classy prospect on the racetrack, too, when landing a Group 3 and chasing home Joan Of Arc (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the 2021 Prix de Diane.

Prudenzia is also the dam of Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself a winner of the Irish Oaks. Cont. p3

'SPEED IS HIS BIG THING': O'BRIEN HAILS MORNY WINNER WHISTLEJACKET

by Tom Frary

He's been a bit hit-and-miss so far in his brief career, but Ballydoyle's Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never--Adventure Seeker {Fr}, by Bering {GB}) was in front where it mattered to master his peers in Sunday's stallion-making G1 Sumbé Prix Morny at Deauville. Breaking fast to get the stands' rail, the 27-10 favourite was able to force the pace without the kind of pressure he had endured during last Sunday's G1 Phoenix Stakes. The G2 July Stakes winner kept finding for Ryan Moore to get to the line 3/4 of a length ahead of the G2 Coventry Stakes winner Rashabar (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), with the G3 Prix de Cabourg-winning filly Daylight (Fr) (Earthlight {Ire}) doing best of the French the same margin away in third.

"He's a very fast horse and Ryan felt that maybe things didn't go perfectly for him last week," Aidan O'Brien said of the winner, who gains an automatic berth in the $1-million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Cont. p9

She, in turn, is already a fine producer in her own right with three black-type horses--including the classy Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--flying the flag for the family with distinction.

The chance to buy into families like Prudenzia's does not come around too often but, just as Bozo was thankful to see Coolmore show their respect for such an opportunity in the sales ring, Magnier paid special thanks to Monceaux for supporting the five-time Group 1-winning and dual Classic hero with such a high-quality mating.

Magnier said, "In fairness to everyone at Monceaux, they took a big risk in sending a mare like her to a first-season sire. We're just very happy for them. St Mark's Basilica was an incredible racehorse--very tough."

Along with posting the top lot of the entire sale, St Mark's Basilica enjoyed a productive weekend in France with eight lots selling at an average of €446,250 and an aggregate of €3.57 million. Not bad for what was a €65,000 covering fee when he first joined the stallion ranks at Coolmore in 2022.

Magnier added, "St Mark's Basilica has had an incredible sale these past few days. Listen, a horse who was as tough and as talented as he was--the champion two-year-old and champion-three-year-old--you have to get behind him. We're grateful to Monceaux for supporting him with such a high-class mare and thankfully he came up with a very nice filly. Obviously Prudenzia was bred in partnership with Lady O'Reilly. She was a superb breeder and will be sorely missed by the industry."

Of the 292 lots offered, 226 were sold at a clearance rate of 77%, representing a 6% drop on last year. The average fell 7% to €217,058 while, perhaps most tellingly, the median dropped by €30,000 to €140,000. The aggregate topped out at €50,237,000, down 11% on last year's figure. Cont. p4

Al Shira'aa's Kieran Lalor | Zuzanna Lupa

Can Lightning Strike Twice For Al Shira'aa With €1m Night Of Thunder?

Al Shira'aa Racing returned to a familiar source with their €1-million purchase of Lot 249, a Night Of Thunder (Ire) filly from the Ecurie des Monceaux draft.

It was at this sale two years ago that the powerful owner-breeder operation went to €320,000 to secure another Night Of Thunder filly consigned by Monceaux. That turned out to be Vespertilio (Fr), the G2 Debutante Stakes winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third who belongs to the same family as not one but two of Sunday's top lots.

Not only does Vespertilio share her second dam, Platonic (GB) (Zafonic), with the €1.7-million filly by St Mark's Basilica (Fr), but Platonic also happens to be the third dam of Lot 249, one of five yearlings by Night Of Thunder to sell this week for a total of €3,060,000 and at an average of €612,000.

Noting the similarities with Willie McCreery's stable star, Al Shira'aa's Kieran Lalor said, "We bought Vespertilio from Henri [Bozo] and this filly has a very similar profile. Physically, she has a bit more substance. It's a beautiful family and we loved seeing our filly [Vespertilio] down near the bottom [of the page]. Hopefully, this one works out the same for us."

He added, "Henri's farm is one of the best breeders and raisers of racehorses, so when we come here we always hope to come out of the sale with one of his stock. We're delighted to have her. The boss loved her and was very brave in fairness to go to a million, but she's a fabulous filly. We'd love it to be the same result as Vespertilio--one level up from Group 2, hopefully."

The latest filly destined to carry the familiar black and red silks of Al Shira'aa is the second foal out of the Muhaarar (GB) mare Paix (Ire), who gained the biggest success of her career when winning the G3 Prix de Lutece in 2020, following in the footsteps of her own dam, Pacifique (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who won the same race nine years earlier.

Look De Vega Team To Train €1m Filly By The Arc Favourite's Sire

Ballylinch Stud set the tempo for what proved to be the strongest of the three days. The sales ground had been abuzz about Lot 240, a filly by resident stallion Lope De Vega (Ire) and out of the stud's Group 3 winner Normandel (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). She didn't disappoint.

Lighting up the early part of the Sunday session when becoming the first of the three yearlings to break the seven-figure marker, the Lope De Vega filly was knocked down to Oliver St Lawrence on behalf of Victorious Racing for €1 million.

The agent said, "She wasn't an easy one to get. We loved the filly and Carlos and Yann Lerner will get her to train. They obviously know all about Lope De Vega this year!

"Fawzi Nass and I had discussed these sorts of figures and it was definitely the top end [of the budget] but she is just a lovely filly--a gorgeous-walking filly. Hopefully she can come back for the Prix de Diane or something. We hope."

Victorious Racing has already built up a good reputation with the Lerner stable and, as St Lawrence rightly suggested, the team clearly knows a thing or two about the sire given the yard's exploits this season with the French Derby winner and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe favourite Look De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). “Sheikh Nasser has Calif (Ger) (Areion {Ger}), who we bought at the Arc Sale here last year, in training with Carlos and Yann and he won a Group 1 in Germany the other day,” St Lawrence said.

Reflecting on the market, he added, “I think the nice horses have been very hard to buy. I was really hoping that I wouldn't have to give a million for her. I was reluctant to but Yann was digging me. She is lovely and came from a good nursery.”

Talking Points

- Normal service resumed on Sunday with Monceaux-drafted yearlings responsible for three of the top five yearlings sold. All told, Monceaux sold 31 yearlings for a whopping €12.88 million and an average of €415,484.
- Al Shaqab was notably strong over the past three days and spent €3.135 million on 10 yearlings. The leading owner-breeder operation ended the sale as the leading buyer.
- The Americans were similarly important to the trade. Not least John Stewart of Resolute Racing, who signed for Friday's top lot by Wootton Bassett (GB) at €1.4 million. Resolute ended the weekend as the third-strongest buyer in the ring in terms of aggregate spent after snapping up three well-bred yearlings for €2.17 million collectively.

- Of the leading sires, Wootton Bassett and Siyouni (Fr) were similarly well-represented with 21 and 19 yearlings sold, respectively. It was Wootton Bassett who came out best at an average of €314,048 and an aggregate of €6.595 million while Siyouni's 19 yearlings fetched €5.177 million at an average of €272,474.
- There were four millionaire lots at Arqana over the past few days. The exact same number was posted at this sale last year and in 2022, as well.

Flay Active at Arqana from the US

American chef Bobby Flay has been active at the Arqana August sale this week, shopping from home online in the US after a busy summer of traveling. Flay has purchased three lots for a total of €635,000, striking for the most expense of the three, a €250,000 filly (Lot 263) by Siyouni from the Ecurie des Monceaux consignment on the final day of the sale.

"Most of my focus is the European market, racing in France, England, and Ireland," said Flay. "I have a bunch of mares over there as well."

Flay, who is well-known for his astute collection of top families, purchased mares at last year's December Mares Sale and also at Arqana in December. He also recently picked up a share in Zarak (Fr) at the July Arqana online pop-up sale for €710,000.

"My focus is on sales like this Arqana sale," said Flay. "I just love the Arqana sale. I feel like there are really good families, really great physicals, and some really good value."

Mangan Strikes For €650k Siyouni Filly

Jane Mangan has been a familiar face at Arqana all week and the former amateur jockey and broadcaster got in on the action during the final session when signing for lot 285 on behalf of the Thoroughbred Racing Corporation Limited.

Jane Mangan | Zuzanna Lupa

Perhaps best known for racing top-class talents such as Derby hero Oath (Ire) and the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness Stakes winner War Emblem around the turn of the century, the Thoroughbred Corporation has returned to the fold in recent years with a handful of horses in training with John and Thady Gosden, including the G2 Park Hill Fillies' Stakes third Lmay (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).

The question now is whether the team's historic green and white silks can get back to where they once were as a regular sight at the top level, but it certainly won't be for the want of trying if the €650,000 purchase of this Siyouni (Fr) filly is anything to go by.

Consigned by Ecurie des Monceaux, she is the second foal out of a Lope De Vega (Ire) half-sister to the G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Saturday's G2 Prix de Pomone victrix Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), both bred and raced by Wertheimer and Frere.

"It's an incredible family," Mangan summed up. "The Wertheimers do a wonderful job with their breeding and she's come from Ecurie des Monceaux, an incredible house." Cont. p7

She added, “Prince Faisal bin Ahmad [of the Thoroughbred Corporation] was here during the week. He saw her and liked her. We’ve been trying to buy well-bred fillies here for the last three days, but it’s been very tough for the right horses. We feel very lucky to get her.”

Mangan added, “She’ll go back to the UK, we’ll get her broken and then we’ll give her a break. It’s August, so it’s nice and early, and she’s a February foal. We’ll be in no rush—she’s got a Classic pedigree and there’s plenty of time for that.”

Mandore Making Hay on Back of Good Season

Nicolas de Watrigant of Mandore International has been one of the busiest agents at Arqana over the last few days, signing for yearlings for Al Shaqab Racing, Gerard Augustin-Normand and Jean-Claude Seroul.

“We’ve got the best two-year-old in France right now, Houquetot (Fr), so we try again this year. It has always been a good sale for us. We bought Place Du Carrousel (Ire), Zarakem (Fr), Unquestionable (Fr), Little Big Bear (Ire), and Qemah (Ire) from this sale—all Group 1 winners,” he said.

Among the yearlings signed for by de Watrigant were three by the sale’s leading first-season sire St Mark’s Basilica (Fr), including the half-sister to Group 1 winner Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}) for €550,000.

“I have been very impressed by what I’ve seen by the sire,” he said. “We’ll see from the sales coming but his stock here had a lot of quality. They looked mature with good balance and they were strong animals who looked to have a good attitude. They looked like racehorses, and that’s what the buyers are looking for. They had a lot of Siyouni about them and of course they were both really good two-year-olds, so it looks like his stock could have some precocity as well.”

The agent also manages the interests of Alain Jathiere, the part-owner of Birthe (Fr) (Study Of Man {Ire}) who ran second in Sunday’s G2 Prix Alec Head, and owner of the G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Puchkine (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

“Birthe is with a very talented young trainer, Laura Vanska, who will decide whether she goes next for the Prix Vermeille or the Prix de l’Opera,” he said. “She has done an absolutely great job with her.

“M. Jathiere will remain involved with Puchkine when he stands at Haras de Beaumont next year, and M. Augustin-Normand will also be involved along with the Chehboub family, so Puchkine will have a great chance and, as a son of Starspangledbanner, will be a great addition to the French stallion ranks next year.”

Kingman Filly Bound for Japan after Making €520k for “Thrilled” Applewood Family

The husband-and-wife team of Philippe Brosset and Ciara O’Connor offered two yearlings in just their second year of consigning at the Arqana August Sale and it was all smiles for the pair after Lot 301, a Kingman (GB) filly out of a half-sister to the G1 Preis der Diana heroine Serienholde (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), sold to Japanese jockey-turned-trainer Hiroyasu Tanaka for €520,000.

Hiroyasu Tanaka | Zuzanna Lupa

Operating under the banner of their family-run Applewood Stud, Brosset and O’Connor offered the filly on behalf of Gestut Wittekindshof and were understandably delighted with a sale which they hope will serve as an advertisement for their budding farm.

“We’re just thrilled with the result and so excited,” said Brosset. “We’d had a few hiccups and little things which make you wonder if you’re going to make it. But we expected her to make good money because she was a nice filly and she showed very well.”

He added, “It’s great for us, our small place and the family. It’s a team effort and this is a great advertisement. My main goal is to raise Group 1 winners and to sell a good horse for a client is brilliant—it shows that we can do the job.”

As well as being a German Classic winner, Serienholde has already proved herself as a top-class producer as the dam of Schnell Meister (Ger), the winner of the G1 NHK Mile Cup in Japan and by the same sire as this filly—something that clearly hadn’t gone unnoticed by Tanaka.

“I’m planning to ship this filly back to Japan,” he said. “Her pedigree has a special relationship with Japanese racing and I’m expecting a lot. She’s by Kingman who is siring lots of winners in Japan, including a two-year-old I train who is doing very, very well. The Kingmans have very good speed which is essential to racing in Japan.” Cont. p8

End-Of-Sale Statement

Arqana president Olivier Delloye and managing director Freddy Powell said, “Once again this year, the August Yearling Sale welcomed a wide variety of buyers to Deauville, both regulars and newcomers. Japan and the United States were particularly active, together with Europe, the Middle East and Australia. The 2024 edition was just behind last year’s record-breaking sale, with sales once again topping the €50-million mark and the percentage of horses sold at 77%, which remains more than respectable for a select sale in the current economic climate. It should also be noted that the 11 top priced horses were sold to 11 different buyers.

“These results would not have been possible without the confidence of our buyers and the work of our vendors, whom we would like to thank warmly, as well as our teams, who work tirelessly to ensure the success of our sales. We will now be concentrating on the v.2 Yearling Sale, which we hope will follow on from the results of the August Sale.”

O'Brien added, "Like Little Big Bear, he is very engrossed in his own world and doesn't see much outside of it. That's a massive asset to a horse and very few horses could do this in a week, but we felt if there was one who could do it he was it. Ryan said he had all the guns all the way. Ryan was unbelievable, he gave him a brilliant ride as always."

Whistlejacket | Scoop Dyga

 CHALLENGE SERIES WIN AND YOU'RE IN.™

He added, "Because he is so fast and so precocious, we thought he could do both races in a week but it's a tough thing to do. Speed is his big thing--he'll probably go to the Middle Park now and then to the Breeders' Cup."

This was made a touch easier by the below-par effort of the G2 Norfolk Stakes winner Shareholder (Not This Time), but the renewal was a deep one with some talented individuals assembled for the prize. Whistlejacket has been smart from day one, having run into one on debut at The Curragh in April with the winner of that six-furlong contest Cowardofthecounty (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) recently setting a new race record in this track's G3 Prix Francois Boutin. Impressive in the Listed First Flier Stakes back there, he was one of the Royal meeting's big favourites only to come up short in fourth in the Norfolk.

Getting his first pattern-race win in the G2 July Stakes at Newmarket, he was again on the wrong side of a tussle with a high-class rival when runner-up to TDN Rising Star Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) in Sunday's G1 Phoenix Stakes but is one of the stable's classic "hardy" individuals who thrive on racing much as their most recent Morny-winning son of No Nay Never, Blackbeard (Ire).

Brin Meehan said of Rashabar, "No disrespect to the winner, I think he's a lovely horse, but I think the draw played it's part as far as we were concerned. The winner had the rail and I think there was a fresh strip of ground there, too. I've won the Prix Morny twice before, but I would say this fellow is better. I want to step him up to seven now and we'll play it by ear. I'm a bit wary of the Group 2 penalty, but I'd say the Guineas next year is going to be high on his list. I always like the idea of the Breeders' Cup, so that would be a possibility, but we'll see."

Pauline Chehboub said of Daylight, "Daylight never really got the rub of the green in terms of racing room when she needed to. Mickael Barzalona made the right choices, because the filly sat in the slipstream of the horses which we had wished to track but the fact that we were unlucky certainly cost us dearly. She made a very good impression without really having to dig deep."

"Daylight is a talented filly and we've known that since the outset of her career," she added. "Now she's showing us that she's the top European juvenile filly over sprint distances in Europe. She's entered in the Cheveley Park Stakes, which will certainly be her target in October." Cont. p10

WHISTLEJACKET A PORTRAIT OF CALM ON A PERFECT DAY By Emma Berry

DEAUVILLE, France --While nothing will ever top Derby day as the day in the racing calendar not to be missed, a close second is Prix Morny day in Deauville. Or in fact any racing day in Deauville.

Those mizzly days of autumn with almost nobody there are special in their own aloof way, but Morny day – or Sumbe Prix Morny day to give it its full title – is one that offers something for everyone, whether purist or holidaymaker, in sharp suits or shorts. Probably no course in the world achieves that happy blend better than the one celebrating its 160th anniversary in the seaside town the Parisiens make their home in August, shared on and off by the turfistes and the sales crowd. At the Hippodrome de Deauville-La Touques it doesn't matter what you wear; it doesn't matter who you are. You can pay at most €12, but general entry is €5 with a race card thrown in, and children younger than 12 are allowed in for free, making it the perfect family day out. Cont. p11

Many readers of this publication will have had more serious business to contend with in Deauville over the last few weeks. But it is important, even on those days of toil, to spend a few hours appreciating the end result of all that work by wandering around a geranium-lined racecourse in dappled sunshine while some of the best horses in Europe are paraded close at hand.

Who among us now can not love Mqse De Sevigne? A double-double of Group 1 wins in the town where she was born, for the man who devoted so much of his time and energy towards the betterment of French racing for many a year. There was no mistaking the joy of Baron Edouard de Rothschild and his family as they punched the air in delight – and perhaps a little disbelief – at the latest achievement of their most elegant of mares. An Arc win next, to add to Haras de Meautry's last victory in that great race back in 1963 with Exbury? Wouldn't that be nice.

Friendly Soul, too, is growing in our admiration. Her American owner-breeder George Strawbridge was in town, enjoying the shade of a bench in the parade ring as he awaited the latest victory for his smart filly. Given a super front-running ride by Kieran Shoemark, she is now four-for-five, with a Group 2 added to her collection of stakes victories. That admiration should also be extended to her runner-up, sweet little Birthe, the beating heart of Laura Vanska's small stable and the perfect advertisement for her trainer's skills as a horsewoman.

But the centrepiece of this great day is of course the clash of the youngsters at the highest level, coming hard on the heels of last weekend's G1 Keeneland Phoenix Stakes. Eight days is a short turnaround for juveniles especially, so it was a surprise to see Whistlejacket confirmed for the Morny after the colt had finished second to Juddmonte's

Babouche at the Curragh.

This had always been the plan, insisted Aidan O'Brien, to come to Deauville, and here he was, this laidback and well-made chestnut colt with an easy walk and an even easier attitude, strolling around the ring in the racecourse stables long before any of his rivals emerged from their boxes.

It's lovely to see a horse in the parade ring without the increasingly ubiquitous red hood and, even better, no noseband and just a snaffle bit. That's Whistlejacket: no fuss, just jump, grab the stands' rail, make all, win. Job done.

It is easy to forget that he is following the example set by his elder brother Little Big Bear, a seven-length winner of the Phoenix Stakes just two years ago. Whistlejacket has inherited the chestnut coat of their late dam Adventure Seeker, a daughter of Bering, while Little Big Bear favours the bay of their imposing sire No Nay Never. Different colours, same talent, and another day of delight for the breeding partnership of the Hyde and Shanahan families.

Two generations of those families were among the large throng which joined Whistlejacket for the winning photo: a brace of Timmy Hydes, Sr and Jr, along with Paul and Charles Shanahan.

"Unfortunately the mare died foaling this fella, but she sure left us a good one," said Hyde Sr, adding of the colt's swift return to the racecourse, "We all thought it was a brave call, but Aidan is Aidan."

"It just shows what a good trainer Aidan is," chimed in Charles Shanahan. "The horse was so calm out the back. We couldn't get over it, and going down to the start as well.

"Timmy and Dad have had so much luck with No Nay Never over the years, with Ten Sovereigns, Little Big Bear, and now this fella – if we could get one of these every year we would be very happy." Cont. p12

Hyde's older voice of reason corrected him. "Charles, if we could get one of these every second year it would be good enough."

Good enough it was, on a racing day of near perfection.

MQSE DE SEVIGNE DIGS DEEP FOR REPEAT SUCCESS IN DEAUVILLE'S JEAN ROMANET

by Sean Cronin

Undefeated in three prior starts this term, Baron Edouard de Rothschild's star distaffer Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}--Penne {Fr}, by Sevres Rose {Ire}) registered back-to-back wins in last month's G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville and repeated the dose with a battling performance to defend her title in Sunday's G1 Sumbe Prix Jean Romanet back at the Normandy venue.

The prohibitively priced 1-5 favourite was unhurried at the break and settled at the tail of the five-runner field until well beyond halfway in this 10-furlong contest. Cruising forward once into the home straight, she was ridden to gain a slender buffer entering the final furlong and came under a late drive to prevail by a head and a short-neck from the Joseph O'Brien-trained duo American Sonja (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) and Maxux (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in a three-way photograph.

Mqse De Sevigne (far right) | Scoop Dyga

"Everything has been said about this mare and, at the age of five, she is still at the top of her game," the winning owner commented. "It is a remarkable feat to win the Rothschild and Romanet two years in a row. We never made it a mystery that the [Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l'] Arc [de Triomphe] is the target and that was her last run before October."

Jockey Alexis Pouchin, who has been in the saddle for all four legs of the winner's 'double-double', added, "Mqse de Sevigne is the mare of a lifetime, she is incredible and rises to the occasion in all of her races. She was travelling easily when quickening into the lead, but she tends to idle once in front. This allowed her rivals to come back at her, but the job was already done at the time. She showed a touch of class."

Joseph O'Brien was delighted with the performances of runner-up American Sonja and third-place finisher Maxux and said, "American Sonja and Maxux did us proud as both achieved podium finishes at Group 1 level for the first their time in their careers. They honestly put their hearts and soul into the race and we are very happy. However, they got beaten by a champion.

"Both have the profile to continue their international campaigns at Group 2/Group 1 level in France and Ireland until the end of the season. They both relish ground which was softer than today and this will increase the options open to them in the autumn."

Pedigree Notes

Mqse de Sevigne is the ninth of 10 foals and one of six scorers produced by Listed Prix de Thiberville and Listed Prix Occitanie runner-up Penne (Fr) (Sevres Rose {Ire}), herself a half-sister to the dam of Listed Prix de la Californie and Listed Prix Omnium II victor Gris Tendre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}). The February-foaled bay, who hails from the direct damline of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine Apollonia (Fr) (Djebel {Fr}), is a half-sister to four-time Group 1 winner Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}) and Listed River Eden Fillies' Stakes runner-up Dogma (Fr) (Mount Nelson {GB}).

FRIENDLY CONTINUES HER ASCENT AT DEAUVILLE

by Tom Frary

Firmly back on track following her blip in the Musidora, George Strawbridge's Friendly Soul (GB) (Kingman (GB)--In Clover {GB}, by Inchinor {GB}) backed up her latest win in Ascot's G3 Valiant Stakes with another in Sunday's G2 Sumbe Prix Alec Head at Deauville. Returning to the 10-furlong trip over which she had impressed in Newmarket's Listed Pretty Polly Stakes and disappointed in York's Oaks trial in May, the John and Thady Gosden-trained homebred was sent to the front soon after the start by Kieran Shoemark as she had been over a mile last month.

There to be shot at in the straight, the even-money favourite kept finding to hold her rivals comfortably at bay and score by a length from Birthe (Ire) (Study Of Man {Ire}), with Candala (Fr) (Frankel (GB)) 1 1/2 lengths further back in third.

"She's a very good filly with only one blot on her copybook, but we rode her wrong that day and she likes to use her stride and doesn't like being restrained," John Gosden said. "That tacky ground is not to her liking, but she's done it well. The Opera if the ground is like last year would be an option, but not if it is tres souple."

Pedigree Notes

Friendly Soul is the latest success story out of the G3 Prix de Flore winner In Clover, who produced a trio of Group 1 winners in Dansili's With You (GB) and We Are (Ire) and Call The Wind (GB) by Frankel (GB). With You captured the Prix Rothschild, We Are the Prix de l'Opera and Call The Wind the Prix du Cadran, while the dam's three other black-type performers are headed by the dual listed scorer and G3 Prix de Lieurey-placed Dream Clover (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)). Another of her listed winners Incahoots (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) in turn produced Frankel's G1 Prix de la Foret and G2 Prix de Sandringham winner Kelina (Ire).

In Clover is also the second dam of the Listed Prix Panacee winner Elodie (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) and the multiple group-placed Queen Trezy (Fr) (Almanzor {Fr}), and the third dam of the G2 Prix de Malleret third Yorokobi (Fr) (Camelot (GB)). Also responsible for a 2024 full-brother to Friendly Soul, she is out of the G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Bellarida (Fr) (Bellypha {Ire}) from the family of the G1 Hong Kong Vase hero Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}) and the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Teppal (Fr) (Camacho {GB}).

DAIWA MAJOR'S DOUBLE MAJOR A CLEAR-CUT WINNER OF THE KERGORLAY

by Sean Cronin

Last term's G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Double Major (Ire) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}--Dancequest {Ire}, by Dansili {GB}) hit the board twice earlier in this campaign, before regaining winning ways in last month's G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil, and was in a class of his own when registering a wide-margin victory in Sunday's G2 Sumbe Prix Kergorlay at Deauville.

Breaking on the lead and holding sway throughout, the 1-2 favourite was shaken up in front at the top of the straight and powered clear under minimal coaxing inside the final quarter-mile to easily outclass Goya Senora (Fr) (Anodin {Ire}) by a facile seven lengths.

"He is such a good stayer when he is in top form and he loves to dictate, so it was not a surprise to see him win so nicely," said trainer Christophe Ferland. "This will set him up perfectly for the [Oct. 5 G1] Prix du Cadran, but the question mark is will he stay the [2 1/2-mile] trip. We have to have a try at it and be hopeful that he does."

She is also produced the unraced 2-year-old filly Rooba (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a yearling colt by Lope De Vega (Ire) and a weanling colt by Saxon Warrior (Jpn). Dancequest is a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud heroine Plumania (GB)

COTAI GLORY'S 190K GOFFS UK BREEZER POWERFUL GLORY A NEW TDN RISING STAR

by Tom Frary

While the key action was taking place at Deauville on Sunday, Britain's Northern track Pontefract delivered something special in its opening six-furlong maiden as the Richard Fahey-trained newcomer Powerful Glory (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}--Wouldntitbelovely {Ire}, by Kodiak {GB}) lived up to his name to earn TDN Rising Star status. Bought for Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum by Blandford Bloodstock for £190,000 at the Goffs UK 2yo Breeze Up, the bay who was bred by the Marnanes tanked his way to the front after the first furlong with Oisin Orr unable to curtail his enthusiasm. Bounding clear from the home turn, the 10-11 favourite devoured the uphill rise to the line to win empathically by 5 1/2 lengths from the Karl Burke-trained Sands Of Indi (Ire) (Sands Of Mali {Fr}), with another half length back to the third-placed Dash Dizzy (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), the Charlie Johnston-trained half-brother to Sioux Nation.

“He’s been showing up nicely at home and he’s done that well,” jockey Oisin Orr said. “He was asleep before the race and I just let him roll along.” Fahey added of the G2 the Mill Reef Stakes entry, “He’s pretty smart and I would have him as probably my best 2-year-old. It was a good start and Oisin let him slide in front and we know he can gallop.”

FALLEN ANGEL HANDED MATRON TARGET

Classic winner Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}), off the track since sustaining a setback that ruled her out of Royal Ascot, will aim for a start in the G1 Matron Stakes during Irish Champions Weekend at Leopardstown, according to trainer Karl Burke.

Successful in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas in the silks of Clipper Logistics when last seen, the filly has been pleasing Burke during her recovery. The G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes heroine was only eighth in the G1 1000 Guineas as the favourite in early May, before her Irish heroics.

“Fallen Angel is in great shape and, touch wood, she seems over all her little problems she had,” said the Spigot Lodge handler. “She’s moving really well and is on target for the Matron. That will be her next start and I wouldn’t be surprised if she stepped up to 10 furlongs after that, possibly the [G1] Prix de l’Opera on Arc weekend.

“She was very good in the Irish Guineas and I don’t think she will mind a bit of juice [in the ground]--I don’t think we will run her on very fast ground again. Maybe Ascot wouldn’t have been her cup of tea this year and sometimes these things happen for a reason. Hopefully she will stay in training next year.”

Fallen Angel could face Thursday’s G3 Prix de Lieurey scorer Soprano (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the Matron. Trainer George Boughey said of the Highclere Thoroughbred Racing runner, “It [Leopardstown] is a possibility, but we will see how she comes out of the race. She has always taken her racing incredibly well--even as a 2-year-old--but it is all up in the air a bit at the moment.”

Comfortable on the front end until turning for home, the 9-5 favourite was tackled by Konigin Marika (Ger) (Isfahan {Ger}) at the top of the straight and kept on in resolute fashion under continued rousing inside the final quarter-mile to hold that persistent rival by 1 1/4 lengths. Walkover is the latest of two registered foals and second scorer produced by a multiple-winning full-sister to dual stakes-winning G1 Preis von Europa runner-up Walsingham (Ger) (Campanologist). The March-foaled homebred chestnut's dam is also kin to G2 Gran Criterium victor Wintertraum (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) and hails from the family of G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup hero Alenquer (Fr) (Adlerflug {Ger}). Scrubbed along in early straight, the 107-10 chance made headway into contention approaching the final furlong and kept on relentlessly under continued urging to deny Oriental Star (Ger) (Reliable Man {GB}) by a head on the line. Lazio is the fifth foal and scorer produced by a dual-winning full-sister to the dual stakes-placed La Hermana (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), herself the dam of five black-type performers headed by GIII Orchid Stakes victrix La Luna De Miel (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). La Hermana is also the second dam of G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Lancade (GB) (Areion {Ger}). SARATOGA NOTEBOOK, PRESENTED BY NYRA BETS: CORPORATE POWER IMPROVING, BUT IS HE A TRAVERS PLAYER?

Corporate Power (inside) | Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Soon after the running of the Curlin Stakes at Saratoga Race Course on July 19, Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey had seen enough.

Corporate Power (Curlin), who finished second that day, earned his trip to the big leagues. He will be in the starting gate when the $1.25 million, Grade I Travers Stakes is run for the 155th time.

McGaughey knows a thing or two about getting a horse ready for the Midsummer Derby. He has won the race four times, the most recent being with Code of Honor in 2019. One other trainer--Elliott Burch--has also won the Travers four times.

The all-time record for Travers wins is owned by Bert Mulholland, who had five spanning from 1939-1963.

McGaughey, sitting in his office at his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track on an overcast Sunday morning, wasn't going to say the past success necessarily helps as he gets Corporate Power ready for his Travers date. Cont., p3

WEEK IN REVIEW: AUGUST TRIP TO JERSEY SHORE COULD PAY OFF COME NOVEMBER

by T.D. Thornton

A generation ago, the Philip H. Iselin S. used to be the premier race of the summer at Monmouth Park. Even while cycling through several name changes, the then-handicap carried Grade I status between 1976 and 1996 and a purse that swelled to $500,000 for a few years. Its importance as an August fixture for top older routers merited regular broadcasts on national TV, and the race's roster of winners boasted such standouts as Spectacular Bid, Alysheba and Skip Away.

In decline ever since, the Iselin had already levelled out to its current Grade III ranking by the time Ghostzapper won it in 2004, parlaying a win at the New Jersey shore into a blockbuster second half of the season capped by a win in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and dual Horse of the Year and Champion Older Horse Eclipse Award honors. Cont., p6

Racing fans line Saratoga's horse path to watch Thorpedo Anna walk to the paddock for a schooling session Sunday afternoon. The runaway division leader drew the rail in the GI DraftKings Travers Stakes and will be just the fifth filly to contest the race since 1962. Should she win, Thorpedo Anna will be the eighth to capture it, and the first since Lady Rotha in 1915. | Sarah Andrew

9 | RICH STRIKE RE-INJURED, RETIREMENT LIKELY

The 80-1 shocker in the 2022 GI Kentucky Derby has suffered another training setback in Saratoga, and owner Rick Dawson admits it is likely time to call it a career for his runner.

“I’ve been lucky in it,” McGaughey said. “I don’t have confidence going into knowing he is either going to run good or he can’t run good.”

Corporate Power has two wins and two seconds in five career starts, all of them coming during his 3-year-old season. He was bought by Donald Adam’s Courtlandt Farms at the 2022 Keeneland September Sale for $925,000.

Unraced as a 2-year-old, Corporate Power was favored in three of his first four starts, including his maiden breaker at Gulfstream Park on Feb. 24.

He won the Sir Barton Stakes at Pimlico Race Course on May 24. Then came the Curlin where he chased the Chad Brown-trained Unmatched Wisdom (Cairo Prince) the entire 1 1/8 miles before losing by a length.

Shug McGaughey | Lauren King

“I was very pleased with his race in the Curlin even though he didn’t win,” McGaughey said. “Chad’s horse was on the lead pretty easy all the way and we had to do the work. I think the light went on a lot after the Curlin.”

Corporate Power had his final tune-up for the Travers on Friday, working a bullet four furlongs in 47.45 (1/45). In the Midsummer Derby, Corporate Power will be facing the toughest competition of his young career. Cont.

We don’t just breed athletes, we extend dynasties. Make this your year.

McGaughey says he is up for it but knows the horse will really have to bring it.

“If we get a pace and he is good enough, I think he’ll have a chance,” he said, “It’s a pretty darned good bunch. Do they all want to run that far? I’m not sure. Going 1 ¼ miles, especially off that work, he should be in pretty good shape.”

Whitney Winner Arthur’s Ride Gets Back To Work

Break time is over for Arthur’s Ride (Tapit). The striking grey/roan 4-year-old, was back on the Saratoga work tab Friday. He went four furlongs in 49.66 (35/70) on the Oklahoma Training Track for Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott.

Arthur’s Ride claimed the GI Whitney Stakes on Aug. 3 by 2 1/4 lengths in gate-to-wire fashion. The breakout win came in his seventh career start. It was the first stakes race of any kind for the colt, who is owned by Glassman Racing.

It wasn’t like this came off as a surprise. Even though National Treasure (Quality Road) was in the field and the 4-5 favorite (he finished sixth), Arthur’s Ride was the third choice in the wagering and paid $15.80.

“We knew he could run,” jockey Junior Alvarado said at the Oklahoma Training Track. “I would not think Mr. Mott would put a horse in like that to get embarrassed. He knew he could compete in there. He is in the Hall of Fame for something!”

Mott said the original plan was to have Arthur’s Ride ready for the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes on the final weekend of the Saratoga meet. But, he did not want to wait until the end of the season to run him; before the Whitney, Arthur’s Ride had been impressive in winning an allowance at Saratoga on June 7 during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival at Saratoga.

By winning the Whitney, Arthur's Ride earned a trip to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Del Mar on Nov. 2. The Whitney was part of the Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" program.

"If he is doing well, we would probably run him back (in the Jockey Club Gold Cup)," Mott said. "We'll probably want to run one more before the Breeders' Cup."

Pletcher Sorry to See Kingsbarns Go, But Happy For His New Career As A Stallion

Just when it looked like Kingsbarns (Uncle Mo) had become a major player in the older horse division, he was gone.

The 4-year-old colt had his racing career terminated last week when it was announced he had been retired after sustaining an injury during training at Saratoga. He is now at Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky where he will start his stud career next year.

"We are excited for the horse because he has the opportunity to go to Spendthrift," Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher said at his barn on the Oklahoma Training Track. "But it is a little frustrating because I think he was just getting to his best now."

Kingsbarns had won three of four starts this season, the last being the GI Stephen Foster Stakes at Churchill Downs on June 29. That had earned him a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic as the race was part of the "Win and You're In" program.

Kingsbarns will now end his racing career with six wins in nine career starts. He was three for four this year.

"It was just one of those things," Pletcher said. "It was not a significant injury, but timing wise, we would be giving him 60 days off and then the season is over. It seemed like he was getting better and better. The Stephen Foster was his best race yet."

Pletcher said Kingsbarns “probably” was not going to run next year.

Kingsbarns was part of the roster of older male horses in the Pletcher barn that also includes Tapit Trice (Tapit), Bright Future (Curlin) and Crupi (Curlin). Pletcher was not about to respond to a question that asked him to rank his older horses.

“I don’t rank them,” he said, then smiled, “at least not publicly. That could get me in trouble.”

The Iselin hasn't produced any top-ranked winners in the two decades since. But that script might have shifted on Saturday when Subsador (Arg) (Fortify) unleashed a powerful far-turn move to mow down the pacemakers and score by 1 ½ lengths under jockey Mike Smith for trainer Richard Mandella and owner Wathnan Racing. Cont.

Richard Mandella | Benoit

While Ghostzapper was a proven sprinter who used the 2004 Iselin as a springboard to show he could excel at two-turn races, Subsanador's win in the same stakes 20 summers later served as more of a confidence-builder to earn his first United States victory while prepping him for tougher competition that could eventually include the Breeders' Cup Classic.

The 5-year-old's Argentinian form is already well-established, with seven dirt wins, including three at the Group 1 level. Subsanador was favored in 10 of his 12 starts in his home country, and his only two off-the-board finishes there were turf tries.

Subsanador's debut in America on Dec. 26, 2023, was a disappointing fourth as the 13-10 favorite in the GII San Antonio S. at Santa Anita. But in his next outing, the Mar. 3 GI Santa Anita H., Subsanador nearly stole the 10-furlong race on the front end at 22-1 odds before grudgingly yielding to Newgate (Into Mischief) in the final strides.

Subsanador was privately sold after the Big 'Cap, and in the process got transferred from trainer John Sadler to Mandella. In his first race for Mandella, he reverted to fourth in the 1 1/4-mile GII Hollywood Gold Cup S.

Mandella had been pointing Subsanador for the Aug. 31 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar, but he called an audible earlier this week and shipped to Monmouth instead. Mandella doesn't often send horses from Southern California to New Jersey, but when he does, look out: He captured the 2023 GI Haskell S. with Geaux Rocket Ride at 12-1 odds the last time he made that journey, with Smith also along for the ride. (In the last five years, Mandella has started only one other entrant at Monmouth).

Mandella indicated post-win that the Sept. 28 GI California Crown S. at Santa Anita could be next.

Right around the same late-1990s time frame when Iselin still had star power, Mandella was enjoying his own streak of good fortune with an impressive run of South American imports who ascended to Grade I success under his care in America, with Gentlemen (Arg), Sandpit (Brz), Siphon (Brz) and Puerto Madero (Chi) leading the way.

As they say, wait long enough and everything that was once in vogue will cycle back into fashion again. Perhaps Subsanador will prove that old adage to be true by rekindling the significance of the Iselin while also reasserting Mandella's prowess with South American imports.

'Resolve and Reinvention'

If you have time to read only one long-form racing feature today, make sure it's Mike McIntyre's outstanding story published last Friday in the Winnipeg Free Press (link here) about former Assiniboia Downs jockey Alyssa Selman, who was paralyzed in a 2015 racing accident but recently found the fortitude to get back up on horses thanks to a village of supporters and a specially designed saddle to assist people with disabilities.

Selman, now 38, resonates as a profile in courage for how she has dealt with numerous challenges over the past decade that are not limited to the loss of the use of her legs.

Amazingly, Selman has started to compete in recreational barrel racing, and she is even encouraging her 13-year-old daughter's dream of one day riding horses for a living.

As Selman's sister explains in the article, "She doesn't feel sorry for herself. She doesn't feel limited." Cont.

"It's never 'Are we going to do it?' but 'How are we going to do it?' I think the things [other people] see her do make them want to work harder. The way that she overcomes everything, it makes them think there isn't a 'We can't,' because she's doing it."

It's the type of read that will make you rethink and reorder your own priorities.

And the last shall be...first?

As first reported by Ray Paulick of The Paulick Report on Aug. 13, the sixth race at FanDuel (AKA Fairmount Park) last Tuesday featured:

- 1) A double claim of foul by two separate riders that resulted in a double-disqualification in a four-horse field.
- 2) A miscalculation of the order of finish by the stewards that briefly resulted in the horse who finished last, beaten 19 lengths, being mistakenly declared the winner for a short time.
- 3) The re-posting of a corrected order of finish that had the third- and fourth-place horses across the line listed as the one-two official finishers.
- 4) A judgment that directed the track to pay out on both the stewards' mistakenly posted order of finish and the corrected version.

5) A timing malfunction that necessitated the re-timing of a portion of the race by hand.

RICH STRIKE RE-INJURED, RETIREMENT LIKELY

As first reported by Horse Racing Nation, 80-1 GI Kentucky Derby shocker Rich Strike (Keen Ice) has suffered another setback due to an injury sustained during a training session in New York.

According to an interview with the publication, Rich Strike had been in training with Bill Mott up at Saratoga when a ligament tear was discovered in his left front leg, albeit in a different location from the previous suspensory ligament injury, and he was sent back to Margaux Farm in Midway, KY.

"I'll know exactly what I'm going to do in 60 days," owner Rick Dawson told HRN. "I would say we're 99 percent--at this point--probably moving to retirement and trying to work out some kind of stallion deal for him."

Rich Strike at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

Rich Strike returned to the work tab July 9 after a hiatus which lasted well over a year and had managed to put in another three workouts, the last being Aug. 7 over the Oklahoma training track, but with this latest setback, Dawson admits he's ready to call it a career for the stallion. He told HRN that he's leaning harder toward retirement and selling the entire this fall to start a breeding career next spring.

"I have no interest in some long-term, drawn-out rehab," Dawson commented to HRN. "I haven't talked to Dr. [Larry] Bramlage about what his expectations are, if everything goes perfect."

"When I started this a year and a half ago, I was pretty much convinced we had a 20 to 25 percent chance."

BRADLEY TEAM BEAMING AFTER BRILAND'S MAIDEN SCORE

Briland | Sarah Andrew

by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y.--A good 15 minutes after Briland (McKinzie) won the first race Sunday by a neck at Saratoga Race Course, Devon Bradley was unexpectedly pulled into the interview in the winner's enclosure.

Well-respected bloodstock agent and architect of partnerships, Peter Bradley had just noted that his daughter was the driving force behind the purchase of the filly out of the Speightstown mare Bay Harbor at OBS April. When Peter said--"This was her favorite horse in the sale, so what was I to say?"--Devon was summoned from another conversation to speak for herself.

The filly trained by Chad Brown for Gainesway Stable, Bradley Thoroughbreds, Cambron Equine and Alan Northcutt, was purchased for $675,000 and was impressive in her debut on the track. She pressed pacesetter Rational Theory (Practical Joke) early, surged to the lead in the stretch and withstood the heavy pressure of Claire's Charm (Violence) approaching the wire. Under Tyler Gaffalione, she covered the six furlongs on the muddy track in 1:11.04 and paid $7.10 as the 5-2 second choice in the $100,000 maiden special weight contest for 2-year-old fillies.

Devon Bradley, 32, began her career in finance, returned to her family's equine roots during a stint on the staff of Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey, and has been a member of the Bradley Thoroughbreds team for a half-dozen years.

"We looked at this horse probably 10 different times and it didn't matter when we looked at her, she was as classy a filly we could find," she said. "I sit on the backside and watch horses gallop out for days on end, and sometimes you just see one and you know, that's the horse."

Devon looked at her father, who nodded for her to continue, and described how the purchase of the filly by Gainesway's first-crop sire came to be.

"We don't buy horses that cost this much money," she said. "She sold on the last day of the April sale. We were home, I walked in the office and he said, 'What do we have to pay for her?' Because we do that together. I'm usually the conservative one. I come by that honestly with the sire."

The Bradleys chuckled over the sire reference as Devon explained that "conservative" was preferred over "cheap" that she had used to describe herself.

"And he said, 'What do we want to pay for her?' I said, 'I don't care, buy the horse,'" she said. "Then I left, because I get weak. I get weak before he gets weak when we're buying horses."

Peter followed instructions, made the purchase of the bay bred by Fred Hertrich III, John D. Fielding and Robert Tribbet and formed the partnership.

"Team effort," Devon said. "And I'm so excited for Gainesway. McKinzie (Street Sense) is, I think, the real deal of a sire. I think she is showing that, and I'm so happy for them that she's in their silks. It's like, this is just how you write it up, and it doesn't work like that ever."

Brown said he was not surprised that Briland turned in a strong performance

"This is a horse that really trained well to the 2-year-old sale, and she hasn't missed a beat since she was shipped to us," Brown said.

Brown noted that the favorite, Claire's Charm, impressed him by getting second after a tough trip but said that Briland showed grit to secure the victory. He said he likes what he's seen of the McKinzie babies he has.

"This is the second McKinzie on the dirt that I've had that's won," he said. "I had another one run a really good third. It's a promising young sire that's getting good dirt runners and they all act like they want to run longer. This horse has a good future. She's not very big, but the way she trains, she will stretch out. She's got a good way about her. I'm excited about her future."

The Bradleys, buyers and co-owners, were upbeat too, pleased with their purchase that was heavily influenced by Devon's assessment. Cont.

“She was pretty obvious,” Peter said. “You work :10 flat. You do it the right way. You gallop out well. She’s got the physique that she has.”

Devon followed, almost completing the sentence.

“She’s got a huge pedigree too. When they’re the whole package, it’s just what you do, I guess.”

With a smile, Peter punctuated the thought.

“You want to own them,” he said.

1st-Saratoga, $100,000, Msw, 8-18, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:11.04, my, neck.

BRILAND (f, 2, McKinzie--Bay Harbor, by Speightstown), sent off at 5-2, broke sharply and was on the lead in the initial strides before settling off the pace as Rational Theory (Practical Joke) led the field through fractions of :22.64 and :45.97. The bay filly reeled in the pacesetter at midstretch and held off favored Claire’s Charm (Violence) to the wire to win by a neck. The debuting favorite was squeezed back to last at the break, but made rapid progress through the field on the backstretch and closed strongly once in the clear in upper stretch to just miss catching the winner. Complex Gal (Complexity) was third and Rational Theory fourth. Briland is the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by Street Sense). A $200,000 KEESOP yearling, she sold for $675,000 at this year’s OBS Spring Sale. She is a half-sister to Miuccia (Mitole), SW, $101,940 and has a weanling half-brother by Maclean’s Music. Bay Harbor was purchased by Fred Hertrich while carry Miuccia for $130,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November sale. She was bred to Elite Power this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $55,000.

PRICEY MEDAGLIA D'ORO FILLY DEBUTS AT ELLIS by J.N. Campbell

7th-ELP, $71K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1mT, 3:52 p.m. ET.

Shadwell Stables went to $1.1 million to acquire EL JOURY (Medaglia d'Oro) during Keeneland September. Trained by Brendan Walsh, the first-time starter is out of Irish MGSW Up (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was made the $2.2 million sales topper at the 2015 Keeneland January Sale by Jan Racing and Jan Vandebos. A half-sister to English and French G1SW Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}), this mare also produced GISP Monarch of Egypt (American Pharoah) and GII Lake Placid Stakes victress Aspray (Quality Road). TJCIS PPS 5th-ELP, $71K, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 2:54 p.m. ET.

Poster (Munnings) makes his first start for Godolphin and trainer Eoin Harty. The homebred's second dam is GISW Cara Rafaela (Quiet American), who is also responsible for champion 3-year-old and sire Bernardini (A.P. Indy), and the dam of GI Personal Ensign Handicap heroine Love and Pride (A.P. Indy). TJCIS PPS

Joel Politi's Kimchi Cat, entered for main track only, made the most of her stakes debut when the Bolton Landing Stakes came off the turf Sunday at Saratoga. The dark bay filly sat just off of pacesetting favorite Viggiedal through an opening quarter in :22.03. She rolled up four wide into the lane and took the lead from the favorite with a furlong to run before sailing clear to the wire. Icona Mama overtook Viggiedal late for second.

"Today, [trainer] Tom [Amoss] said there was a lot of speed, so just let her get underneath herself," said winning jockey Tyler Gaffalione. "She was carrying me around the whole way and when I pushed the button she responded nicely. [Viggiedal] is a very quick filly herself and it seemed like approaching the quarter pole, [Jose Ortiz] started to let her out and she wasn't really going anywhere, so I was feeling pretty confident at that point."

Kimchi was five lengths adrift of Viggiedal when second in her five-furlong debut at Churchill Downs June 14. She scored a front-running 3 1/2-length maiden victory over the Bolton Landing's track and distance July 14.

"She got beat by Viggiedal in her first start, but if you go back and look at that race, it was a great learning experience for our filly," said Amoss. "She got held up behind horses, had to wait--she kicked home, but the other filly was just much quicker. Losing that battle helped us today. We were able to rate kindly today, we're not one-dimensional. We knew that going in and I think that really helped in a field that looked like it had a lot of speed, and someone had a chance to really punch at the end. I'm really proud of my filly, she did a great job of that."

Politi, who campaigned 2019 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Serengeti Empress, purchased Kimchi Cat for $185,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale, some 460 hips after he sold the Oaks winner's first foal, a colt by Into Mischief, for $1.2 million.

"I picked her out at the Keeneland sale for Joel," Amoss said. "She still has some maturing to do. She's not a big girl, but we'll let that happen."

Winter Dawn produced a filly by McKinzie this year and was bred back to Maxfield. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Racing for the first time since a gate-to-wire win at Aqueduct in May, Bank Frenzy changed owners and barns and debuted Sunday for LSU Stables and Rudy Rodriguez. The 4-1 shot caught a muddy surface for the first time since Sept. 2023 but another gate-to-wire win that day proved the surface would be no issue. Squeezed back on the break to be nearly last, Bank Frenzy was forced to relax near the back of the field but stayed out wide and began a sustained drive heading into the far turn. Tipped inside of pacesetter Maker's Candy past the quarter pole, he edged past that rival close to the wire pick up his first stakes win.

"I've got to give all the credit to [the owners], they bought the horse and gave me the opportunity to train the horse," said Rodriguez. "We were trying to run him back at Belmont [at the Big A], but he got a little sick on us. They've been very patient with the horse and we've been very patient to get the race [to] go, but thank God they used the race. It's a nice horse. He knows how to win, and he showed it. He's a good horse."

The 15th stakes winner for Central Banker, Bank Frenzy is out of a full-sister to MGSW American Lion. He has a pair of half-sisters by Instagrand (a 2-year-old and a yearling) and Storm Now was sent to Jackie's Warrior for next season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

ONCOURTCOMMENTATOR (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Curlin's Fox {MSW, $224,728}, by Curlin) was a debut winner on the grass over course and near distance June 28 and was denied by just a head facing restricted allowance runners on the cut back to one mile July 20. Rained off the turf onto the main track Sunday and facing a scratched-down field, the 7-5 favorite tried her longest distance to date and got a rail-hugging trip mid pack from the inside gate into the clubhouse turn and up the backstretch. MISS HEBRIDES (f, 3, Mendelssohn--Sylvia T, by Curlin) finished a well-beaten eighth on debut over the grass at the Spa July 14. Off as the 5-2 second choice here, the filly allowed main track entrant The Taco Lady (Enticed) to dictate the pace heading into the first turn. The 3-year-old remained in the second spot up the backstretch, but around the far turn she turned on the jets and began to pass her target. In command past the eighth pole, the filly sealed the deal by 1 1/4 lengths over the leader. The winner's dam was last bred to Army Mule which yielded current yearling filly Stratia, who was purchased by Aithon Stable for $130,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Summer Sale. Sylvia T is a half-

FORTY N FIVE (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Five N Forty, by Distorted Humor) was runner-up in his six-furlong unveiling over the Woodbine lawn July 21. The 3-1 shot rushed up from his inside draw to stalk the early leader. Scrubbed on approaching the lane, the bay kicked into gear late to overtake pacesetter Groot (Collected) in deep stretch and held off Special Session (Constitution) in the final strides to graduate by a neck. The winner is a half-brother to Ghostly Presence (Ghostzapper), SW-USA, MSW-Can, $373,277. He is the last foal out of his unraced dam, who died last year. IVAN THE GREAT (c, 2, Kantharos--I'm Mom's Favorite {SW, $178,373}, by Indian Charlie) missed by just a nose when second in his 4 1/2-furlong debut at Santa Anita May 12 and moved right on to stakes company to be third in the six-furlong Bashford Manor Stakes at Churchill Downs June 30. Sent off at 5-2 while trying turf and two turns for the first time, the bay colt settled near the back of the field early. In traffic as the field bunched up down the backstretch with the half up in :47.98, he rallied between rivals, came four wide into the stretch and closed powerfully to just edge favored Sabertooth (Grazen) for the win. Ivan the Great's high-sister D J's Favorite (Union Rags) is the dam of this year's GIII Chick Lang Stakes winner Frost Free (Frosted). I'm Mom's Favorite, purchased by A&A Farms with Ivan the Great in utero for $100,000 at the 2021 Keeneland November sale, has a yearling colt by Ghostzapper and a weanling filly by Audible. TENMA (f, 2, Nyquist--Amagansett, by Tapit), a 6-1 first-time starter facing more experienced rivals, broke from the far outside gate and was outrun early to beat just one rival through the opening quarter set in a sharp :21.37 by Usha (Tiz the Law). Steadily gaining ground into the turn as the pace began to catch up with the race favorite, Tenma bid wide past the quarter pole, engaged fellow first-timer Mancuso (McKinzie) at the furlong pole and dueled that runner to the line to grab the narrow victory. Amagansett, who Bobby Flay purchased as a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling for $875,000 in 2018, is a daughter of $3.1m KEENOV RNA Twirl (Ire), a full or half-sister to no fewer than three Group/Grade I winners. I'M OTTER HERE (c, 2, Munnings--Any Ylina {Ire}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) closed to be third after a slow start in his 5 1/2-furlong debut over this turf course July 28 and was sent off at 5-2 in this stretch out to a mile. The chestnut colt pressed the pace while well held and racing keenly through an opening quarter in :22.25 and moved up to challenge the pacesetter as the half went up in :46.05. He took charge approaching the stretch and finished strongly to win by two lengths. Reagan's Wit (Authentic) was second. JUNGLE GLOW (g, 2, Caravaggio--Sunlit Forest, by Bernardini) improved as the runner-up at second asking when he switched to the Monmouth turf course July 27. Trying two turns for the first time and at 90 cents on the dollar here, the favorite raced in the second flight around the first turn and up the backstretch. Tipped three wide around the far turn, the gelding began to trade blows at the top of the lane with Wolf Beach (Omaha Beach). The pair took their battle all the way to wire where Jungle Glow prevailed. The winner is the last registered foal for Sunlit Forest.
