

CONTENT GIVES GALILEO LANDMARK 100TH GROUP 1 WINNER AT YORK

Content | Eclipse Sportswire

By Tom Frary

Continuing Aidan O'Brien and Coolmore's incredible week, Content (Ire) put the icing on the cake on Thursday by bringing up the long-awaited 100th individual group 1 winner for the legendary Galileo (Ire) in the G1 Pertemps Network Yorkshire Oaks. Close to sealing that deal when an unlucky second to You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in the G1 Irish Oaks last month, the daughter of the high-class sprinter Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) was merely postponing the celebrations to this meeting at which her dam captured two editions of the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes.

Exhibiting her dam's high-octane energy soon after the break, the 3-1 favourite was a handful for Ryan Moore for most of the early stages anchored behind the leaders and the question was what would be left in reserve at the business end. With the smooth-travelling Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) looking the likely winner for much of the straight, Content was called upon to chase down the mare along with You Got To Me and found plenty towards the far side to get ahead inside the final furlong. At the line, the historic feat was achieved by 3/4 of a length from You Got To Me, with a length back to the tiring Emily Upjohn. Cont. p3

JOHN STEWART BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST IN KING GEORGE WINNER GOLIATH By Emma Berry

American owner-breeder John Stewart of Resolute Racing has completed a deal to buy a majority share in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes winner Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}).

The four-year-old gelding, who is trained in Chantilly by Francis-Henri Graffard, was bred by Gestut Schlenderhan and races in the colours of Schlenderhan's Baron Philip von Ullmann. The owner's father, Georg, raced the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) among a host of top-class horses, and this year's Breeders' Cup will be among the options under consideration for Goliath.

Based in Kentucky, Stewart is the owner of Resolute Farm and has become a major player on the bloodstock scene in recent years. His high-profile purchases include Puca (Big Brown), the dam of Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) and his dual Grade I-winning full-brother Dornoch. Now 12, Puca was bought at Keeneland last November for $2.9 million.

“Galileo is incredible, they are so honest and so genuine,” O’Brien said. “The mark he’s going to leave on pedigrees is incredible, from generation to generation. She is a typical example of Galileo. Even if there’s no more left, if their legs can move they put them out there and that’s what she did.”

“Right to the end, Ryan said there was no stopping her. Ninety-nine per cent of thoroughbreds will get to that stage and hold up the flag, but Galileos don’t,” he added. “They’re so genuine and they could be tired today and come out the next day and still put up their best. It’s a very unusual trait in an animal.”

Content, who started out racing over seven furlongs and had the pace to be a close fourth in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, has been able to stretch out incrementally this term before truly hitting her stride over this distance. Time and again down the years Galileo had proven adept at producing strong-staying middle-distance performers from sprinting mares and it is testament to Aidan O’Brien that he has made an art form out of the training of types with such a contrast in the immediate pedigree.

“She has come forward since the Curragh and every time we have stepped her up in trip she has improved,” he added. “Ryan gave her an incredible ride, as she’s not straightforward or easy.

She has a lot of pace and he did an incredible job to get her relaxed. He was surprised, because she was so keen but she kept coming from the three-furlong marker.”

Of immediate targets, O’Brien was looking more at pace scenario than specific races. “She could go to an Arc or a Vermeille or to America. She’s definitely going to be better where the pace is strong, wherever that is, as she is still racing in a gear too high,” he explained. “When she gets into a gear which has other horses out of their comfort zone, she will be comfortable and it will be amazing to see what she can do off that kind of pace.”

Ralph Beckett said of You Got To Me, “I think she was beaten by the better filly. The Irish Oaks form has been upheld and that is racing. I don’t know what we’ll do next. She’s run well again and I suppose we’d have to look at the Fillies & Mares at Ascot on Champions Day. Whether we run somewhere else again first we’ll have to see, but she was far more settled today which was a positive.”

John Gosden was happy that Emily Upjohn has come back to herself after some indifferent efforts and said, “I said after Goodwood I’d like to take the hood off her, which we did, and let her enjoy herself. She ran a lovely race, obviously we had the pacemaker besides us and they’ve gone a solid pace all the way and I think you do learn in life that giving nine pounds to improving 3-year-olds at this time of year is very difficult so it’s notable that the Irish Oaks winner and second are first and second again.”

“The pacemaker did a good job for Ryan, but it did mean we were left on our own in front a long way out. The last furlong to home was quite a long way, but never forget the weight difference. She’s run a valiant race, I’m very happy with her and she’s coming back to her very best. We’ll probably look at something like the Prix Vermeille at Longchamp in the middle of September. It’s nice to see her show her true form again. It’s taken her a long time to come back, but she’s proven she is.”

Pedigree Notes

Content, who has etched her name into Coolmore legend with this historic delivery, is her dam’s first group 1 winner but that tally will very possibly be doubled shortly with the stable’s brilliant 2-year-old Bedtime Story (Ire) by Galileo’s Frankel (GB) being prepared for the highest level after her Listed Chesham Stakes romp and G3 Silver Flash Stakes follow-up. Mecca’s Angel is a full-sister to the G3 Chipchase Stakes and G3 Criterion Stakes-winning sire Markaz (Ire) and a granddaughter of the G3 Prix d’Arenberg winner Desert Dawn (GB) (Belfort {Fr}). Her 2024 foal is a full-sister to Bedtime Story.

Stewart has made no secret of his desire to expand his racing interests into Europe and had his first runners at Royal Ascot this June. Over the weekend, he bought three yearlings for €2.17 million at the Arqana August Sale.

Goliath, who also won the G3 Prix d'Hedouville earlier this season, holds entries for the G1 Qipco Champion Stakes and G2 Qatar Prix Foy but he also has potential targets farther afield. Stewart told TDN, "So many people over here [in America] have changed to where it's a breed-to-sell programme. What are the chances somebody else is going to buy a gelding who's the number two horse that year? He's already got his 'Win And You're In' for the Breeders' Cup and for the Japan Cup and could point to the Sheema Classic. I negotiated a 75% controlling interest in the horse. That's some of the flexibility I have with my focus being the racetrack. I want to have the best-bred horses on the track."

Graffard, who sent Goliath's stable-mate Calandagan (Ire) (Gleneagles (Ire)) to York on Wednesday to run a gallant second to City Of Troy (Justify) in the G1 Juddmonte International Stakes, has issued an update on the King George winner. He said, "I'm very happy with Goliath. He's in top form. We gave him time in August and the plan is to run him in the second half of September, either in the Prix Foy at Longchamp or the Preis von Europa in Cologne." Cont. p6

NUNTHORPE HERO BORDERLESCOTT AND THE STORY OF YORKSHIRE'S FAVOURITE SON By Adam Houghton

Borderlescott | Adam Houghton

No two racing fans ever experience the same journey into the sport. For some the excitement of the punt comes first and a true appreciation for what the Thoroughbred is capable of comes later. Others have always known and still couldn't care less how the bookies bet on the next big race in the calendar.

But if there is a common thread in it all, then it most likely comes in the shape of that one horse nearly all of us have, the horse who did more than any other to help speed up the realisation that this was the game for you.

Perhaps they won you enough money to pay for a nice holiday, or maybe they were the most stunning example of horseflesh you'd ever seen. It doesn't matter which; what does matter is that they got you here today as the sort of racing nut we like to think of most TDN readers as.

For me that horse was Borderlescott (GB), the small, bay gelding who gained a devoted fan from the moment he stepped foot in the York parade ring on Saturday, October 8, 2005.

This nascent racegoer, aged all of 11, was one of the few paddock watchers to brave the elements on that particular afternoon, a day as miserable as any I've experienced on the Knavesmire in the near 19 years since.

As the horses filed out of the paddock for the day's feature contest, the £75,000 Coral Sprint Trophy, my mind was made up. £1 win on no. 13 were Mum's strict instructions, once I'd finally persuaded her to leave the dry and warmth of the grandstand.

The rest, as they say, is history. How I spent my winnings of a saturated £20 note I couldn't tell you, but that Coral Sprint Trophy will always be remembered for it being the day I first started on the Borderlescott journey. And, boy, what a journey it was.

For Jim Edgar and Les Donaldson, the two men lucky enough to own Borderlescott throughout his 85-race career, spanning a remarkable 12 seasons in training, the story began a couple of years earlier in the autumn of 2003.

Whilst I left my first encounter with Borderlescott smiling from ear to ear, Edgar left his grateful that he still had a full set of teeth to smile with, looking forward to what the future might hold with the yearling by Compton Place (GB) out of the winning Touching Wood mare Jeewan (GB).

"We went down in October and it was a really windy day," Edgar says of the trip to Goosemore Farm, near Wetherby in Yorkshire, to inspect the colt bought by trainer Robin Bastiman for just 13,000 guineas at Doncaster. Cont. p7

"They brought out this wee, scrawny-looking thing and when the wind got up he tried to headbutt me--I managed to get out of the way just in time! You could see the look on their faces, thinking that's the deal kiboshed, but we decided to buy the horse and never looked back after that."

Donaldson continues, "Jim said we'd take all of it and he was the first horse in the stable that Robin didn't keep a wee share in. He never hesitated to remind us of that as time went on!"

Borderlescott raced four times at two, culminating with his first success in a Hamilton nursery, the 20-year anniversary of which recently passed on July 31. Lining up from a BHA rating of just 64, he ultimately ran out a decisive winner but not before giving his supporters a few anxious moments when threatening to boil over in the preliminaries.

"I was a teacher and we'd brought a full minibus loaded with teachers with us from the school," Donaldson recalls. "Of course, I went and said to them, 'Look, the trainer says he hasn't got any chance at all because he's already run his race'. You can imagine the stick I took after it when he actually coasted home."

"Mr Bastiman, you have yourself a Group horse," was reportedly the post-race feedback from jockey Paul Hanagan. How right he proved to be, but first Borderlescott's three-year-old campaign was one of gradual progression through the handicap ranks, with his Coral Sprint Trophy win being his last of four that season.

"That was the day I nearly fell in the River Ouse," Edgar says of the post-race knees-up in York city centre. "We were in this pub next to the Ouse and I was really drunk. I think if I'd taken one more step forward, I wouldn't be sitting here now!"

"He was lucky he got into the drink," Donaldson chimes in regretfully. "I had to drive the car back to Robin's."

Edgar avoided disaster, thankfully, and for Donaldson it wasn't long before Borderlescott came up trumps again to satisfy his wish for a proper celebration, notably beating 26 rivals to win the following year's Stewards' Cup, one of the marquee handicaps in the Flat racing calendar.

"The wee horse coming from a small, small stable, compared to some of the trainers who were there, it was just marvellous," Edgar says of that day, before telling a story which suggests Donaldson didn't entirely lose the run of himself in the aftermath.

"We were sitting in the lounge at Gatwick Airport with two hours to wait for the plane, so we said we'll go and get something to eat," he remembers. "We get the menus and mister sitting next to me goes, 'Oh my god, £2.50 for a plate of soup!'. I just looked at him and said, 'You've just won 62 and a half grand and you're worried about £2.50!'. "

"I tell you, he's never let me forget that," Donaldson laughs. "But we were drinking with the hoi polloi that day. When the horse won they took us up the stairs to the reception and we met the various people from Goodwood, etc. I'm just a wee boy from Whitecross and Jim a kid from Glasgow, but there we were drinking with Lord Derby--it was just surreal."

Lord Derby was no doubt toasting the thrilling win of his beloved Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the Nassau Stakes which preceded the Stewards' Cup, the sort of contest which showed this young racing fan just how enthralling the sport can be, even before Borderlescott had gained the biggest success of his blossoming career to date.

However, you soon learn that there are highs and lows to be navigated in this game, with no better demonstration of that for me than in the summer of 2008 when one of the wettest summers on record caused the Ebor Festival at York to be lost, so too my hopes of seeing Borderlescott race in the flesh for the first time since that Coral Sprint Trophy.

The Nunthorpe he'd been due to contest, along with the meeting's other Group 1 events, the Juddmonte International and Yorkshire Oaks, was transferred to Newmarket's July Course, but it was of little comfort to a 14-year-old resigned to watching on from afar as star names such as Duke Of Marmalade (Ire), New Approach (Ire) and Lush Lashes (GB) were rerouted away from Yorkshire.

Instead, it was left to local superstar Borderlescott to salvage a moment of cheer from the week for God's Own Country, with the joy of my old pal's Nunthorpe success overpowering the feeling of disappointment that I wasn't there to see it happen.

"He just came flying up that hill," Edgar recalls of the day Donaldson and himself became Group 1-winning owners. "That South African horse, the big grey [National Colour {SAf} (National Assembly)], went off at a tremendous pace that blew everything out of the water, bar the wee guy who came up on the outside. That was just a tremendous day."

"To win it at Newmarket, the home of racing, was great," Donaldson adds. "And for Robin, Pauline, Rebecca and Harvey, who all put so much effort into getting a win like that, it was fantastic for them, too."

In 2009, Borderlescott's whole campaign was geared around to trying to defend his Nunthorpe crown, back in front of his adoring home crowd at York, around 15 miles from where Bastiman had masterminded his stable star's career, together with wife Pauline and children Rebecca and Harvey.

Sent off at 9/1, carrying the weight of my £2 having doubled my stake since 2005, Borderlescott typically found plenty to get the verdict by a neck, providing one of the most memorable days on a racecourse for myself and so many others.

"That was extra special for everybody," Donaldson concurs. "When he won that day, I've never heard applause like it.

Everybody was around the parade ring and Rebecca was in tears because that was her baby.

"Robin, Jim and I were stood out the back as he took over in front and we couldn't speak. Tears were running down our cheeks. It was just a phenomenal experience and it will never leave me for the rest of my days. To win it at York was just something special."

The word "special" comes up again when Donaldson describes the experience of travelling to Hong Kong with his pride and joy in December of that year, while the first few months of the 2010 season followed a similar pattern to previous years for Borderlescott, who took until Goodwood to give the impression of a horse at the peak of his powers.

With Kieren Fallon in the saddle for the first time, Borderlescott ran out a ready winner of the King George Stakes, on paper the perfect stepping stone to York where he was due to bid for a record-equalling third success in the Nunthorpe. However, it later transpired that he'd suffered an injury at Goodwood which threatened to curtail his season.

"When he took it up and they went by the line, he hit a bit of false ground," Edgar explains. "Whilst he won the race, he injured a leg and was taken away to the vets. He was there for seven or eight days and had x-rays, the whole thing. It was nothing major, but I would say he was never the same horse again after that."

Borderlescott becomes a dual Nunthorpe winner at York
Racingfotos.com

The facts and figures tell their own tale. Though making it to the Nunthorpe just 22 days later, the injury said to be not as bad as first feared, Borderlescott was understandably not on his A-game in finishing sixth behind Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}). All told, he won just one of his 35 starts after that King George and his days of being a factor at the top table were a thing of the past.

Regardless, his popularity with the racing public remained the stuff of legend, so too his enthusiasm for the game. The old warrior ran no fewer than 11 times in 2012 at the age of 10, with the day he won the Beverley Bullet under Freddie Tylicki threatening to take the roof off the grandstand at the East Yorkshire track.

The retirement of Borderlescott was announced in November 2012 before a U-turn on that call saw him return to racing in July the following year, with Bastiman reporting that the then-11-year-old was still annihilating his younger work companions on the gallops.

Though the final chapter of his career failed to deliver another success, he did achieve the notable feat of twice filling the runner-up spot in a race named in his honour, the Borderlescott Sprint Trophy at Musselburgh, in 2014 and 2015.

"Jim and I were delighted to sponsor that race," says Donaldson. "And at the paddock it was just incredible, the number of people who wanted to see him. He was nothing stunning to look at, but by god, he had a heart beyond all hearts."

The decision was made to bring the curtain down on Borderlescott's career, once and for all, after he finished fifth of six in a handicap at Ayr on Saturday, June 20, 2015, fully 11 years and nine days on from his debut at York.

Back then I still had over a year left of primary school. By the end of Borderlescott's racing life I was in my final term at university, hell bent on a career in racing journalism and forever indebted to my favourite racehorse for setting me on that path.

"There was a woman who used to send him a box of polo mints every month," Donaldson says of my competition for the position as Borderlescott's number one fan, with a heavy concentration of his fan base able to be traced to the ancient town of Linlithgow and its surrounding area.

Borderlescott at home at Goosemore Farm | Adam Houghton

"Where we come from, there's maybe another seven or eight towns within a few miles," Donaldson continues. "When he won every race, none of the bookmakers could pay out on that day--they didn't have enough money. You have no idea how many people followed him. It all started with our pals and then it blossomed all over the place. It didn't matter if it was a trainer, an owner or a punter--they loved him."

Donaldson adds that he penned 76,000 words when he started to document the Borderlescott journey during Covid. Now a few days into this feature, I'm starting to see how it could easily happen, but it's time for the final word from Edgar and Donaldson on a horse who is now living a happy retirement in the 35 acres of Goosefarm Farm, with the 27-year-old Maromito (Ire) (Up And At 'Em {GB}), a seven-time winner for the Bastiman stable, for company.

"I just think we had a tremendous time with him," Edgar sums up. "And I think it was tremendous for racing itself because there's not many stories like that going about. Les was a school teacher, I was just a guy who worked in the railway, and we basically went around the world with this guy, starting at his home course at York and finishing up in Hong Kong. Not many horses will do that."

"We had several people trying to buy him, people telling us to take it elsewhere, but we did it the way we wanted to do it. They [the Bastimans] were good to us and we'd like to think we were good to them."

"Where he is now, he's just running about with his old pal. There's the two of them there and they're chalk and cheese--a bit like the partnership that we've had through the years, chalk and cheese again! Sometimes I wanted to go down one path and he [Donaldson] wanted to go down the other, but we always met somewhere in the middle."

"Jim moved into Linlithgow 30-odd years ago and we didn't realise we both had this great enthusiasm for racing," Donaldson says of the common ground they initially found.

"I can't thank Jim enough for helping me at the start. I was a teacher and I wouldn't have been able to go to very many things or afford it. Thanks to Jim, I was able to become a half-owner of Borderlescott with him. When I took early retirement at 55, little did I think that I would have the life that I had--and that was all through Borderlescott."

"As Jim said, we didn't always agree and we had our moments, but the one thing we did agree on was how lucky we were to have a horse like Scotty."

Hear, hear. And whoever your Borderlescott was, I'm sure you feel lucky, too.

KINGMAN'S CELANDINE MAKES ALL FOR

LOWTHER TRIUMPH By Sean Cronin

Rockcliffe Stud's Listed Empress Stakes victrix Celandine (GB) (Kingman {GB}--Pepita {Ire}, by Sir Prancealot {Ire}), who collected minor prizes in last month's G2 Prix Robert Papin and G3 Molecomb Stakes, regained the winning thread with a pillar-to-post victory in Thursday's G2 Sky Bet Lowther Stakes at York.

The 13-2 chance broke sharply and seized an immediate lead in this six-furlong 2-year-old contest. Holding a slender advantage throughout, she came under pressure soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out inside the final furlong to hold the late charge of Time For Sandals (Ire) (Sands Of Mali {Fr}) by a neck for a career high. Wathnan Racing's Leovanni (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), lumbered with a three-pound penalty for her G2 Queen Mary Stakes success, made late headway to finish 1 1/2 lengths back in third, a half-length in front of Aidan O'Brien trainee Heavens Gate (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}).

"I haven't had a buzz like that for a long time, I don't know why but it really got me," admitted trained Ed Walker. "I really fancied her at Goodwood when she kind of disappointed, she disappointed in France too and I stupidly took on the colts at Goodwood hunting for fast ground when I was probably over-thinking it a bit too much. Today was very special, the way she does it, she's so tough. I think she got a bit lonely at Goodwood, we had to use a lot of gas early over five down that hill, drawn out on a wing, whereas today she was in amongst it and surged forward. She's very quick, very tough, very genuine and Tom [Marquand] gets on brilliantly with her. She's cool. She's properly quick, an out-and-out sprinter, and I got my leg pulled for putting her in the [G1] Moyglare, but the Lowther will do. I guess the [G1] Cheveley Park and then the Breeders' Cup has got to be the plan." Cont. p10

Reflecting on the performance of runner-up Time For Sandals, trainer Harry Eustace commented, “I’m delighted and I think it was probably a lack of experience that’s made the difference. I think she’s very much a filly for next year, but we’ve managed to get every target that we were aiming for and that is down to her really. She might run once more [this year], but I’m not sure where or in what. She qualifies for the [Sept. 15] Tattersalls Ireland sales race [at Newmarket], but there are black-type races out there too, so we’ll just have to have a think where we go. She saw the trip out very well, but it is an easy six furlongs and I couldn’t tell you if she’s going to strengthen up and this will be her trip next year or not. She’s bred to be a sprinter and we’ll certainly stick to six for her next run and see what happens next year.”

Pedigree Notes

Celandine, who becomes the 53rd pattern-race winner for her sire, is the third of five foals and one of two scorers from as many runners out of Listed Maggie Dickson Stakes victrix and G3 Summer Stakes third Pepita (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}), herself kin to three black-type performers headed by stakes-winning G1 Criterium International third Redolent (Ire) (Redback {GB}). Descendants of her second dam Esterlina (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}) include G1 Flying Five runner-up Son Of Rest (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and G2 Gimcrack Stakes second Johannes Brahms (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}). The March-foaled homebred bay hails from the family of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Forest Flower (Green Forest), multiple Grade I-winning sire High Yield (Storm Cat) and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies and GI Belmont Oaks Invitational victrix Catch A Glimpse (City Zip). She is full to a yearling colt and half to a weanling filly by Starspangledbanner (Aus).

RACE PREVIEWS

‘THIS IS OUR GRAND FINAL’: DWYER RELISHING ASFOORA’S NUNTHORPE BID

By Tom Frary

With Europe’s sprinting division positioned in a kind of limbo over the past year or so, the presence of Australian raider Asfoora (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}) has added some spice and it is with a tinge of sadness that Britain bids farewell to her after Friday’s G1 Coolmore Wootton Bassett Nunthorpe Stakes at York. Her European tour has included success in the G1 King Charles III Stakes and a second in Goodwood’s G2 King George Stakes, where she just failed to get to Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), and trainer Henry Dwyer is keen for another go.

“It was billed as a bit of a mundane year for sprinters, so I like to think her presence has added a bit of colour to things,” he said. “We’re pretty excited to get up there and we’ve been very much looking forward to York during the whole preparation. This is our grand final and everything has gone well so far and hopefully it can continue.” Cont. p11

“There is no doubt she is in great order and she is really as good as she can be, it’s the best I’ve ever seen her look and generally that translates to good runs,” Dwyer added. “That was the case at Goodwood and I think she’s a little bit fitter for this run, so I think we are right where we need to be.”

Big Evs was down the field in his tilt at this as a juvenile 12 months ago, which is his sole blip and any fears that this isn’t his track were in part dispelled with his win in the Listed Westow Stakes in May. “I think if it stays quick ground, I wouldn’t be surprised if the track record gets broken,” trainer Mick Appleby said.

Others in the mix are Victorious Racing’s 2023 G1 King’s Stand Stakes winner Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), who returned with a win in Deauville’s Listed Prix du Cercle earlier this month, Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s G2 Sapphire Stakes winner Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) and last year’s hero Live In The Dream (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}) who needs to revive dwindling fortunes.

Oliver St Lawrence, racing manager to Bradsell’s owners, issued an upbeat bulletin on Thursday. “I’ve spoken to Archie [Watson] and he says the horse is in great form,” he said. “Hopefully he can acquit himself well, Hollie [Doyle] was really happy with him at Deauville and thought he was back. The Deauville opposition was good, but it was not group 1 standard, hopefully he can put his best foot forward. He’s drawn in stall three so hopefully there is some pace around him and hopefully there isn’t too much rain around.”

Another Viking Raid...

Friday also sees the G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Gimcrack Stakes, where Wathnan Racing’s The Strikin Viking (Ire) (Inns Of Court {Ire}) bids for compensation having been worn down late in both The 40 Curragh’s G2 Railway Stakes and Goodwood’s G2 Richmond Stakes. RP Racing’s G3 Molecomb Stakes winner Big Mojo (Ire) (Mohaaather {GB}) and Ballydoyle’s G3 Anglesey Stakes runner-up Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) are the chief threats on form, with the latter’s run behind Babouche (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) at The Curragh looking particularly strong now.

“He ran very well for us at Goodwood in the Richmond,” Richard Brown said of The Strikin Viking. “The race was run at a blistering pace and he was just a bit off it and maybe he hit the front a bit soon. I think this fast six furlongs will really play to his strengths, but obviously it looks like being a good renewal. I saw him on Monday and he looked fantastic.”

Of the unexposed types, Clipper Logistics’ course-and-distance novice winner Andesite (GB) (Pinatubo {Ire}) is intriguing with the form of his debut strong. He had to sit out Royal Ascot, but is highly-regarded by the Karl Burke stable while Godolphin’s unbeaten Shadow Of Light (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) comes in off a win in the same Newmarket novice won by the fellow Charlie Appleby-trained Noble Style (GB) (Kingman {GB}) who captured this two years ago.

Will The Stars Align?

York also stages the G2 Weatherbys Hamilton Lonsdale Cup, with Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia {GB}) the key older horse moving up to two miles for the first time having enjoyed a freshener since finishing third in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud in June. Judged by his 6 1/2-length defeat of Arrest (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in Chester’s G3 Ormonde Stakes in May, he will be a tough nut to crack with his full-brother Broome (Ire) so comfortable at this trip but he meets a progressive 3-year-old colt in Align The Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

Asfoora at Royal Ascot | Horsephotos

Tony Farmer’s triple handicap winner holds a St Leger entry and trainer Charlie Johnston has his eye on the Doncaster Classic. “We’re going to have to take on some hardened, older stayers but between trying the trip and being out of form, most of them have some sort of question to answer and certainly no one else is coming into the race on the back of three straight wins and on such an upwards curve and a progressive profile,” he said.

“We’re hopeful that stepping up to two miles could see our horse improve again and he can finish in the first four here and still emerge with a lot of credit and keep his Leger credentials intact,” he added. “If he can go closer than that he will have bolstered his Leger ambitions significantly, so let’s hope he can do so.”

BREEDERS' CUP NEXT FOR CITY OF TROY FOLLOWING WORLD-LEADING WIN AT YORK

City Of Troy | Getty Images

The GI Breeders' Cup Classic has been confirmed as the next port of call for City Of Troy following his dominant win in Wednesday's G1 Juddmonte International at York.

Trainer Aidan O'Brien said, "It looks like City Of Troy is going to go straight to the Classic, I think, listening to everybody. I think he's going to go to one of your tracks [for a racecourse gallop], either Southwell or Ryan [Moore, jockey] mentioned Wolverhampton.

"We just want to get him on a different surface, so that's where he could go and then he'll go straight on [to America]."

On going to the Breeders' Cup Classic, Coolmore partner Michael Tabor added, "It is very difficult, trying to prepare the horse for a different situation and it is a big ask. I noticed someone quoted him at 3-1. That is a short price--that's a ridiculous price when he's not used to that surface.

"Naturally we'd love to win it. We've gone pretty close with Giant's Causeway and maybe one day we'll win--hopefully this year with City Of Troy."

Beaten just once in seven career starts, City Of Troy produced a career-best effort when adding to this year's Derby and Coral-Eclipse victories on the Knavesmire, making every yard of the running to win by a length and in course-record time.

Timeform confirmed on Thursday that the son of Justify has been awarded a rating of 130p for that blockbuster performance--the 'p' attached to his rating denotes that he is open to further progress--which identifies him as the highest-rated horse in training ahead of runner-up Calandagan (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), who improved his rating to 129p.

Described by O'Brien as the best horse he's ever trained, City Of Troy still has work to do on Timeform's figures to surpass the likes of Hawk Wing, whose peak rating of 136 puts him ahead of Galileo (Ire) and Rip Van Winkle (Ire)--both of whom achieved a rating of 134--among O'Brien's highest-rated horses.

BAMBALAM (FR) (Persian King {Ire}), who was his sire's most expensive progeny sold at auction when becoming the fourth-highest-priced lot at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze Up Sale in April, makes his debut in this valuable and always-intriguing British Stallion Studs EBF Convivial Maiden Stakes. Trained by Richard Fahey for KHK Racing, the 600,000gns purchase who is a half-brother to the group 3-placed Ritournelle (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) meets some promising types with the benefit of experience. They include Amo Racing's Ralph Beckett-trained €1million Arqana May Breeze-Up purchase Angelo Buonarroti (Justify) whose only run came when beaten around three lengths in the G2 Coventry Stakes; Ballydoyle's Curragh maiden-placed filly Whirl (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) whose dam is a full-sister to Galileo's Hydrangea (Ire), The United States (Ire) and Hermosa (Ire); Hidetoshi Yamamoto's Ultrasoul (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), a Roger Varian-trained son of the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Channel (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) who was second to the day's G2 Gimcrack Stakes contender Shadow Of Light (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) on debut at Yarmouth; and Wathnan Racing's Realign (Fr) (Blue Point {Ire}), a William Haggas-trained €550,000 Arqana May Breeze-Up purchase who also chased home Shadow Of Light at Newmarket.

Scenic, who ran seventh in this contest last year, lined up for her fifth start of the season returning off a third in last month's Listed Prix du Carrousel at Deauville and stepped forward to register a first black-type triumph in impressive fashion. Settled off the tempo in eighth through halfway, she made smooth headway on the bridle in the straight to launch her challenge passing the quarter-mile marker and surged clear once hitting the front approaching the final furlong to easily outpoint Karmology by 3 3/4 lengths for a career high.

"It took us 10 races to win one with her, but there were always excuses as to why it wasn't happening," commented trainer Ed Walker after collecting his second stakes race of the afternoon. "She stays very well and the race panned out perfectly for her today. Oisin [Murphy] gave her a peach of a ride and I think she just outstayed them really. Last time over further she probably should have won, but got to the front too early. She took Saffie [Osborne] there too soon and just pricked her ears. She was beaten in a novice making the running and she doesn't do a lot in front. It's fantastic for David and Sue Ward, who are big supporters and obviously had Starman with us, so it's a really big result." Cont. p15

"Oisin rode her in this last year and was pretty cross with himself, so he kept it really smooth today," Walker added. "We'll think of the [G2] Park Hill, but we might have a look at the [Oct. 5 G1] Prix de Royallieu as she probably won't stay in training next year. David and Sue like to breed."

Scenic, who becomes the 135th stakes winner for her sire, is the second foal of five foals and one of two scorers produced by an unraced half-sister to G3 Prix de Lutece victrix Pacifique (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), Listed Lingfield Derby Trial victor English King (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) and the Listed Prix de la Seine winner Prudenzia (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). The latter is the dam of G1 Irish Oaks heroine Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and G1 MacKinnon Stakes winner Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Chicquita, in turn, is the dam of three black-type performers headed by G2 Curragh Cup winner and G1 Goodwood Cup runner-up Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Scenic's second dam Platonic (GB) (Zafonic) is a half-sister to G2 Lancashire Oaks victrix and G1 Yorkshire Oaks runner-up Pongee (GB) (Barathea {Ire}). The March-foaled bay is kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt King Of The Sea (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) and a yearling colt by Palace Pier (GB).

DILIGENTLY (GB) (c, 2, Harry Angel {Ire}--Anna Of Lorraine {GB}, by Dutch Art {GB}), who had failed to strike in all five prior engagements, was positioned in a handy seventh after an alert getaway in this £626,462 Harry's Half Million By Goffs Premier Yearling Stakes. Inching closer from halfway, the 22-1 chance was hustled along to go fourth entering the final furlong and kept on relentlessly under a drive to deny 11-8 favourite Arizona Blaze (GB) (Sergei Prokofiev) by a head in the dying strides. The victory provided Cox with back-to-back renewals having garnered last year's edition with Dragon Leader (Ire) (El Kabeir).

"It was enormously satisfying to win Harry's race last year, he was a very special person to me, and to win it two years running is amazing," said Cox. "He's a very nice horse, especially with his pedigree, and that makes it all the more pleasing. He was one of those horses I wanted to run over five furlongs just to put his brain into gear. I thought he'd run well at Sandown last time, but he got absolutely murdered down on the rail and that's why he finished nine lengths behind. He clearly put that result well and truly behind him today with a very satisfying reward. He's got a wonderful mind and it's really pleasing that he's got a bit of scope to go on next year as well. It's always a step-by-step process, but I'm really pleased that he's confirmed he is what I hoped he might be. He cost a bit [£100,000], but he's made up for that investment today and hopefully he'll continue to progress as well." Diligently, a 30,000gns Tattersalls December foal turned £100,000 Goffs UK Premier yearling, is the first of three foals produced by a winning half-sister to this term's G1 Lockinge Stakes hero Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), G3 Greenham Stakes victor Esquire (GB) (Harry Angel {Ire}) and G3 Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes victrix Dark Lady (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}). *Chemistry finished second before being promoted to first.

Leopardstown's stewards were forced to intervene here and switch the first- and second-past-the-post Kinesiology and Chemistry to add to Aidan O'Brien's current winning streak. Not seen since breaking his maiden over 10 furlongs at The Curragh in April, Chemistry was bounced out to lead from the outset and stayed there until Kinesiology swept by approaching the final furlong.

Compromised against the rail as that rival leaned in and gave a bump, Chemistry was awarded the contest and Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong said, "Obviously it's not really the way you like to get them, in the stewards room, but unfortunately that's the way it worked out." Cont. p17

"He's a big scopey horse and has just taken a bit of time to fill his frame," Armstrong continued. "He's a horse that will go as far as you want, he's very genuine. Declan gave him a very positive ride from the front. He felt there is plenty more in there and he'll come on a lot fitness-wise. There is no immediate plan for him, we'll just find a group race and step him. He's a horse that we probably won't see the best of until next year."

The unraced dam has now produced four black-type performers from her first six foals and five runners, with the first three being the G3 Prix Cleopatre runner-up Villa d'Amore (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), the listed-placed Rose D'Etoile (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and the listed scorer and multiple group-placed Joie De Soir (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). A daughter of the G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Alpine Rose (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) from the Lagardere family which also includes this year's G2 Dahlia Stakes winner Stay Alert (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), her 2024 colt is by Wootton Bassett (GB).

1st-Leopardstown, €18,000, Mdn, 8-22, 2yo, 7f 30yT, 1:29.75, gd.

CHANTEZ (IRE) (f, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Lady Lara {Ire} {MGSW-US, SW & MGSP-Eng, $781,203}, by Excellent Art {GB}), second on debut to Ballydoyle's subsequent G3 Silver Flash Stakes runner-up Exactly (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) over this course and distance last month, was restrained to track the leading duo throughout the early stages. Let loose passing the two-furlong pole, the 5-6 favourite surged to a three-length success from Indigo Dream (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}). "I loved her first run here, as they quickened twice and I said that was a bit above the ordinary as a maiden," Lyons said. "We have a view to the [Listed] Ingabelle Stakes, which is a race that has been very lucky for us. She shouldn't be running at two, as she's so light and immature--she's just so not there yet. All of a sudden, every filly I have is a nice filly and we're just lucky. She's good and any other year she'd be your best one. Now she's had two runs and I have an Ingabelle horse, so happy days." The GII Honey Fox Stakes and GIII My Charmer Handicap-winning dam has already produced Ballydoyle's G2 King Edward VII Stakes and G3 Chester Vase scorer Changingoftheguard (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). From the family of Footstepsinthesand (GB) et al, her yearling colt by Camelot (GB) is catalogued in the upcoming Goffs Orby Book 1 while she also has a 2024 colt by St Mark's Basilica (Fr). PLATOON (IRE) (c, 3, Galileo {Ire}--I Can Fly {GB} {GSW-Ire, MG1SP-Eng, $815,981}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}), making his belated debut for Ballydoyle, soon held the lead. Finding plenty in the straight, the 11-4 second favourite hung on to score by half a length from Touch The Sound (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). "He's a very straightforward horse and he's just taken time to come to hand," stable representative Chris Armstrong explained. "The trip is his absolute minimum. Probably the best part of the race was the gallop out, Jack [Cleary] couldn't pull him up at the line. He has a nice bit of class and he'll come on a lot physically. There is a winners' race for him in September or we could look at something like the [Listed] Listowel Stakes. The [G3] Diamond Stakes in Dundalk could also suit him over an extended ten furlongs. He's a horse to look forward to for the back-end and I think he'll definitely make up into a stakes horse." The winner is the first foal out of the talented dam, winner of the G2 Solonaway Stakes who was placed in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, G1 Sussex Stakes and G1 Falmouth Stakes. Her second is the stable's recent Listed Churchill Stakes winner and G3 Airlie Stud Stakes third January (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), while she also has a yearling daughter of Dubawi (Ire) and a filly foal by Frankel (GB). From the family of Danehill's ill-fated G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and GI Keeneland Turf Mile hero Landseer (GB), she was bred to Justify this year. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,742. BLAZING STAR (FR) (f, 2, Elarqam {GB}--Flaming Star {Fr} {SP-Fr}, by Captain Marvelous {Ire}), who was on the correct end of a three-way photo in her July 23 debut tackling seven furlongs at Dieppe last time, broke well from the outside stall and raced in a prominent second through the early fractions of this one. Inching ahead with 350 metres remaining, the 7-5 chalk was threatened by Hoshiana (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}) throughout the final furlong and kept on gamely to hold that rival by a neck. Blazing Star is the second of two foals and lone scorer out of Listed Prix Marchand d'Or runner-up Flaming Star (Fr) (Captain Marvelous {Ire}), herself a full-sister to the dual Group 3-placed Listed Prix Ronde de Nuit victor Forza Capitano (Fr). Flaming Star is also kin to the dam of Listed Prix Ronde de Nuit winner Feel Your Power (Fr) (Captain Marvelous {Ire}). “SHE'S GOT THIS,” OWNER MARK EDWARDS RIDING HIGH WITH THORPEDO ANNA

by Katie Petrunyak

Everyone has their superstitions before a big race. For Mark Edwards, it's the shirt he was wearing when Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) broke her maiden by over eight lengths and became a 'TDN Rising Star' at Keeneland last October. He's worn the same shirt for every one of her races since then other than her only career loss last year in the GII Golden Rod, so you can bet that Edwards will be sporting his shirt this weekend when Thorpedo Anna takes on the boys in the GI Travers Stakes.

“I'm doing my best to find some pink stuff that will go with it before Saturday,” said Edwards, a lawyer from Paducah, Kentucky who owns the superstar filly in partnership with Brookdale Racing, Judy Hicks and Magdalena Racing.

Along with a boisterous group of his kids, grandkids and other family members, Edwards will make the trip to Saratoga on Friday. Right now, he's feeling pretty sure of his filly's chances.

“Oh, she's got this,” he said with a chuckle. “I mean, it's a horse race. All of these horses are great. But I'm confident as can be that if she runs her race, she will win.”

'IT'S PERSONAL' IN GRADE I ENSIGN REMATCH AT THE SPA by J.N. Campbell

Friday is shaping up to be quite a stakes-laden slate as the rescheduled King's Plate card from last weekend at Woodbine joins the GI Personal Ensign Stakes at Saratoga and a pair of pricey Grade IIs from Charles Town.

TDN's full coverage of the races that were forced to move because of a deluge in Toronto can be found in Patrycja Szpyra's preview, plus a piece on the King's Plate by Bill Finley.

As for the Spa feature, it boasts a set of intriguing match-ups between four of the runners from early June's GI Ogden Phipps Stakes.

In Saratoga Springs that afternoon it was gate-to-wire winner Randomized (Nyquist) who bested 70 cents on the dollar favorite Idiomatic (Curlin) by a head, while Raging Sea (Curlin) finished fourth and Soul of an Angel (Atreides) checked in fifth.

Thorpedo Anna's nearly undefeated career has been somewhat of a dream come true for Edwards as the filly has taken him to winner's circles from Keeneland, Saratoga and of course Churchill Downs with her victory in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Edwards may not have the same numbers as some owners, but as a lifelong racing fan he understands that very few get to experience the ride he's been on over the past 10 months.

At a young age, Edwards inherited a love of racing from his uncle. The pair would watch the sport together and every year when his uncle went to the Kentucky Derby, Edwards sent him $6 to put an across-the-board bet in for him. After graduating with a degree in broadcasting, Edwards attended law school at the University of Kentucky. He would plan his class schedule to be jam-packed in the mornings so that afternoons were free for him to go to Keeneland in October and April.

After law school, Edwards served in the Marine Corps. He spent five years of active duty at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, California. Once a year, he was required to spend a week in Oceanside-- which is just a few miles up the road from Del Mar--at the Camp Pendleton base for rifle and pistol training.

"I had to be at Camp Pendleton at like zero-dark-30," Edwards recalled. "As soon as the sun would come up, we would start shooting and be done by 11:30 or noon. I would always plan to do this in August because that's when Del Mar runs. I would take my lawn chair, fill my cooler with a six pack, and go sit on the rail and watch Del Mar every day."

In college, the friends had hosted a luau party every Derby week, so they named their filly Luau Queen (Include). Unfortunately, she never won a race for the group.

Edwards may have gotten his fill of horse ownership, but by then his oldest son Brian had caught the bug. Brian incessantly sent his dad information on West Point Thoroughbreds until eventually, Edwards got involved. He owned several horses through West Point, including millionaire and Grade I winner Ring Weekend (Tapit).

A few years ago, a friend had a horse with Kenny McPeck and asked Edwards to join the partnership. Rated R Superstar (Kodiak Kowboy) raced to multiple stakes wins for the group including a score in the 2018 GIII Ben Ali Stakes at Keeneland.

Edwards was impressed with McPeck and asked the veteran trainer if he could pick out horses for people. He soon learned that McPeck not only did that, but he was pretty darn good at it. Edwards has gotten more involved in ownership since, owning a share of around six to 10 horses in training with McPeck each year.

In October of 2022, Edwards was at Keeneland to watch his horse Ten Days Later (Collected). The colt broke his maiden that day, but McPeck was not there for the winner's circle photo. He was busy shopping at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling Sale. As soon as the race was over, Edwards called McPeck to see if there were any yearlings he could buy in on. McPeck told him there was 20% left of a Fast Anna filly he had purchased for $40,000. Edwards replied that if he could name the filly, he would take her.

"Truth be told, I would have taken her anyway," admitted Edwards with a laugh.

The filly was named after Edwards's granddaughter Anna Thorpe, who swims competitively with the nickname "Thorpedo." Cont.

Edwards has been at every one of Thorpedo Anna's races other than her most recent victory in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. He had a previous commitment to visit a friend who was performing at a concert in Mexico, so he sent the rest of his family to Saratoga to cheer her on. In Mexico, realized that he wasn't going to be able to pull up the race on a streaming service, so he FaceTimed a friend he knew would be watching from home. Through his friend's television in Massachusetts, Edwards tuned in to Saratoga from Mexico as Thorpedo Anna hit the gate at the start and broke last, quickly raced to stalking position in second, then surged past at the quarter pole and won by 4 1/2 lengths.

This weekend in Saratoga, Edwards will have his four children and all eight of his grandchildren on hand for the Travers, including Thorpedo Anna's namesake and Edwards's youngest granddaughter who is just five months old.

Edwards said that the opportunity to share this journey with his family is the greatest gift Thorpedo Anna could have given him.

"It's unbelievable," he said. "I mean, who would have ever thought it. It's really cool to have a horse that is this good, but to have my kids and all of their kids getting into it, it's just really cool."

Trainer Chad Brown did something similar last year after she captured by four lengths the GI Alabama Stakes and then was not seen until the GII Beldame Stakes during the Belmont at the Big A meet in early October--she won by 3 3/4 lengths. Cont.

“She’s [Randomized] not a very big horse, but she’s fast and she likes to go to the lead and carry her speed,” Brown said. “The Alabama [Stakes] is a really special race to win, and she’s come back and carried her form into age four winning the Phipps. A really special horse for us, and she’s got a lot of heart.”

Juddmonte homebred Idiomatic, who won the Personal Ensign last year, will look to rebound against her rival. Trained by Brad Cox, the Eclipse winner barely held off Soul of an Angel in the GIII Molly Pitcher Stakes at Monmouth July 20.

“She’s very talented,” said Cox. “She’s able to get into a race and use her big stride and set a solid enough pace to run them off their feet going into the far turn. She doesn’t necessarily have to be on the lead. She tracked Randomized in the Breeders’ Cup last year; we’ll see if we can get a good trip on Friday.”

Idiomatic works | Sarah Andrew

Speaking of Soul of an Angel, the experienced Saffie Joseph, Jr. trainee is not without a strong stakes win, which she posted in the GII Ruffian Stakes at the Big A in early May.

“She ran huge last time against a champion,” Joseph said. “Now, we go an extra sixteenth--we still don’t know if that’s what she wants or not, but we’ll give it a shot again. If she can run similar to last time, I think she’ll have a big chance. It’s a stellar group.”

As for Brown’s other entry, Raging Sea is a 4-year-old filly who took home the GII Shuvee Stakes at Saratoga July 21. The Alpha Delta homebred has three graded stakes wins to her credit, but she is still looking for her first top level win.

“She’s going to have to step up,” Brown said. “She’s been knocking on the door, and she just hasn’t won a Grade I yet. This is a really tough race against proven, Grade I-winning mares, so she’s going to have to step up and break through. But, she likes Saratoga and she’s coming off her career-best race, so there’s a chance she could do it.”

Last but certainly not least, Xigera (Nyquist) makes her first appearance upstate since her days of running there on the grass. Certainly the 4-year-old’s current season has not gone as well as 2023 did, but rest assured the combination of Philip Bauer and Rigney Racing deserve respect. Maybe the change of scenery from Louisville will help her flip the script? Whoever wins the Personal Ensign will have earned it.

Skippy Longstocking seeks to defend Charles Town Classic title | Coady

But we are not done yet, night owls. On Friday evening, Charles Town puts on their GII Oaks where ‘TDN Rising Star’ Impel (Quality Road) is seeking her first graded prize. In the bookend GII Charles Town Classic, the often-overlooked Skippy Longstocking (Exaggerator) will try to repeat from a year ago when he won by five lengths.

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK: HEADING INTO PERSONAL ENSIGN, COX SAYS IDIOMATIC IS AS GOOD AS SHE'S EVER BEEN by Tim Wilkin

Idiomatic | Sarah Andrew

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Trainer Brad Cox said he was listening to a radio show a few days ago and his ears perked up when the chat got to the upcoming GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff at Del Mar in November.

“They were talking about Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) and Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) being a good matchup, and I was like, ‘wow, she is completely forgotten,’” trainer Brad Cox said outside his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track Thursday morning.

‘She’ is Idiomatic (Curlin), and if anyone has put her out of mind, they’d better rethink that.

Idiomatic is indeed very much still in the discussion for best filly or mare in the country. At least around the Cox barn she is. The 5-year-old mare will be one of the marquee names in Friday’s $500,000 GI Personal Ensign at Saratoga Race Course.

Last year’s Eclipse Award winner for Older Dirt Female is the 6-5 morning-line favorite in the 1 1/8-mile Personal Ensign, a race she won last year.

That was part of her six-race win streak, which ended at Saratoga on June 8 when the Chad Brown-trained Randomized (Nyquist) beat her by a head in the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes at Saratoga. Randomized is in the Personal Ensign field, too, and is the 8-5 second choice in the field of five.

Idiomatic, who finished third in the 2023 Horse of the Year voting after a campaign that saw her win eight of nine races--three of them Grade Is--has won two of three starts this year. As she heads into the Personal Ensign, Cox said Idiomatic could not be doing any better.

“I think she is as good as she as ever been,” Cox said as Idiomatic was walked outside the barn. “I really do believe that, and she was damn good last year. We will let her determine whether she wants to be in the mix and people start talking about her again.”

In her last start, Idiomatic and jockey Florent Geroux won the GIII Molly Pitcher at Monmouth Park by a head over Soul of an Angel (Atrides), trained by Saffie Joseph, Jr. Soul of an Angel (5-1) is also running in the Personal Ensign.

Idiomatic has 11 wins in 15 career starts with two seconds and two thirds. Her loss in the Ogden Phipps was her first since May 6, 2023.

“I don’t know that I take (losses with her) personal,” Cox said. “I can’t be really upset. Randomized is very good and it took a lot for us to get by her in last year’s Breeders’ Cup (Distaff). (Idiomatic) ran a great race (in the Phipps). It was not like she got beat by three or four lengths. We did not get the good bob. We are looking forward to giving her another run.”

Mott Looking Forward to See What Improving Batten Down Can Do in Travers

Mid-morning Thursday, jockey Junior Alvarado paid a visit to the stall of Batten Down (Tapit) at Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott’s barn at the Oklahoma Training Track.

“His jockey is going to have a talk with him,” Mott said with a chuckle as he watched the exchange. Cont.

Batten Down schooling Wednesday | Sarah Andrew

Juddmonte’s Kentucky homebred Batten Down put his name in the 3-year-old ring when he finished third in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes at Saratoga last month. He was not going to beat Fierceness (City of Light), who won the race by a length over Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), who was 5 3/4 quarters clear of Batten Down.

But Mott saw enough in that race to give Batten Down a chance in the Midsummer Derby.

“He needs to improve, but he is not far off,” Mott said. “There are horses in here that are more proven--Fierceness and Sierra Leone--but I think we fit with the rest of them. I don’t know if he has to run the race of his life because, hopefully, he has a long career ahead of him. But he has to move forward off his last one.”

Alvarado said he thinks the best formula for Travers success is for Batten Down to be on the lead. When he won the GIII Ohio Derby at Thistledown, he went gate-to-wire; he did the same thing when he broke his maiden on his fourth try on Apr. 30 at Churchill Downs.

He won that race by 8 3/4 lengths.

In the Jim Dandy, Batten Down was third pretty much the whole way around the 1 1/8 miles.

“He gave 70 percent in that race,” Alvarado said. “It was a beautiful spot we were sitting on but I don’t think that is what he wanted. He likes to be on the lead. When he is behind, he is not releasing his power. If he is on the lead, he’ll keep going.”

“He has early speed if we want to use it,” Mott said.

Alvarado has ridden Batten Down in his last four starts. The Travers will be his seventh career start. Batten Down is out of the 2014 champion older mare Close Hatches and is a full-brother to Tacitus, who finished second in the 2019 GI Belmont Stakes for Mott. Batten Down is also a full-brother to Mott trainee Scylla, who is running in the GI Ballerina Stakes Saturday.

“He has such a good pedigree that we were always optimistic about him,” Mott said. “At this time last year, he had not shown it yet. I am going into (the Travers) with a wait and see attitude.”

Batten Down is 20-1 on the Travers morning line, sharing those longest odds with Honor Marie (Honor Code).

“We’re just very fortunate to have a horse good enough to able to compete,” Mott said. “He has earned his way in there.”

It’s No Easy Spot for Speak Easy in Allen Jerkens

In two career starts, Speak Easy (Constitution) has sparkled. Now comes the hard part.

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher has chosen a tough assignment for the third career start for the colt, who is owned by Siena Farm LLC and WinStar Farm LLC. Speak Easy is running in Saturday’s $500,000 GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial, one of five

Speak Easy on Wednesday | Sarah Andrew

Grade I races on the 14-race Travers Day card.

“This is a tall order,” Pletcher said outside his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track. “We are short on experience.”

Speak Easy will be facing seasoned graded stakes runners like Book’em Danno (Buccherro), winner of the GI Woody Stephens Stakes in June, Prince of Monaco (Speightstown), who was second in the Stephens, World Record (Gun Runner), winner of the GII Amsterdam Stakes at Saratoga earlier in the meet and Domestic Product (Practical Joke), winner of the GII Dwyer at Aqueduct last month.

Siena Farm and WinStar Farm also own World Record and Timberlake (Into Mischief), who is also in the Jerkens.

Speak Easy is easily the 3-year-old in the field of 11 with the least experience. Vettriano (Liam’s Map) is closest to him with three starts and Little Ni (Mohaymen) has four.

This is not a unique move for Pletcher. In the GI Belmont Stakes at Saratoga in June, he ran Mindframe (Constitution), who also had just two career starts. He finished second in the Belmont behind Dornoch (Good Magic) and then was second in the GI Haskell Stakes, also behind Dornoch, last month. Cont.

Speak Easy, who will be ridden by Saratoga leading rider Irad Ortiz, Jr., broke his maiden by 1 3/4 lengths at Gulfstream Park in January and Pletcher entered him in the GII Fountain of Youth. He scratched after getting loose in the post parade and resurfaced in an allowance at Saratoga on July 27 and he won that by 2 1/4 lengths.

"I like the way he ran in the six-furlong comeback," Pletcher said. "He showed versatility where he can come off it a little bit. This race should have enough pace where it can set up for his style. This is an ambitious move, but there is a lot of upside."

SATURDAY SIRES: TWIRLING CANDY AND UNION RAGS

by Jill Williams

There were two Grade I races last weekend in North America, one at Saratoga and one at Del Mar. One was on the dirt and one was on the turf, one at 10 furlongs and the other at nine furlongs. Other than both being carded for 3-year-old fillies, what did they have in common?

Each was won by a daughter of a Lane's End sire. Union Rags captured the GI Alabama Stakes with Power Squeeze, while Twirling Candy took the GI Del Mar Oaks with Iscreamuscream. To add to the marvel, the exacta in both races was filled out by daughters of other Lane's End stallions: Candy Ride (Arg)'s Candied was second in the Alabama, while Honor Code's Medoro was second in the Del Mar Oaks. Honor Code's last U.S. crop was born this year as he transferred to Japan for the 2024 season, but Lane's End still stands his son Honor A. P.

In addition, Twirling Candy also won Saratoga's Bolton Landing Stakes Sunday with 2-year-old filly Kimchi Cat and finished second with 4-year-old colt Maker's Candy in Sunday's Evan Shipman Handicap, also at the Spa.

Both stallions represent generations of excellence at Lane's End. Both the sire and grandsire of Union Rags--Dixie Union and Dixieland Band--stood at the Versailles farm, while Twirling Candy is also part of three sire generations for Lane's End. He stands alongside both his sire, Candy Ride (Arg) and his son, Gift Box.

What is the secret to this remarkable, generational success?

"I don't know," said Lane's End's Bill Farish with a laugh, "but we've been very lucky that way and it's so much fun to see it continue that way. Having sons and grandsons standing here is really special."

Making it even sweeter, when Lane's End opened its stallion division in 1985, "Dixieland Band was one of our first stallions, so to go from him to Union Rags is special.

"Sire lines matter a great deal. Successful stallions tend to have successful stallion sons, so that's something we've always paid a lot of attention to."

Like any successful stallion farm, however, Lane's End's focus encompasses far more than what is happening solely with the home sires.

"Our mission is probably similar to others, but we're always looking for the next top stallion and we're excited about some of our younger guys like Flightline, Up to the Mark, and Arcangelo," said Farish. "It's just important that we keep that pipeline going to attract the horses with the best race records, conformation, and pedigree that we can."

Twirling Candy and Union Rags entered stud a year apart, the first in 2012 and the second in 2013. Both were highly successful race horses. Twirling Candy won the 2010 GI Malibu Stakes while setting the seven-furlong track record (1:19.70) at Santa Anita that still stands today. Union Rags won not just the 2012 GI Belmont Stakes, but also the 2011 GI Champagne Stakes.

Iscreamuscream marked the ninth Grade I winner for Twirling Candy, who has 21 graded winners among his 54 black-type winners. Power Squeeze is the sixth Grade I winner for Union Rags, whose 35 stakes winners include 17 graded winners.

“Union Rags doesn't always get quite the support that Twirling Candy has had,” said Farish. “He had a lot of success early, but then it waned a little as there was a little bit of a lull. Now we're seeing the support carrying on.”

“Union Rags is such an underrated stallion,” continued Farish. “He's done so well and has been so consistent. To jump up and have another Grade I winner is great. And Twirling Candy is just on a roll. He's really fulfilling the promise that so many people have believed he had. People have had faith in him all along.”

Farish said the two are not only very different physically, but also diverge from their own sires.

“They're both good-sized horses. Union Rags is definitely a little bigger and a little more solidly made, where Twirling Candy is a little more angular. Both are very good-looking horses, both are very commercial, and both get very good-looking horses. They're different in appearance, as all stallions are.”

“Twirling Candy is quite a bit different than Candy Ride. He's bigger and longer, but very well balanced. He's really a great-looking horse. I would call him medium to slightly taller than medium.”

“Union Rags coming from that Dixieland Band line...he's a little bigger than both his sire and grandsire. He's such a good-looking horse, had such a great career, and is doing so well at stud. He's just got a little more scope than Dixieland Band, who was a little more Northern Dancer, obviously. Union Rags has more scope and size and length.”

Farish also said breeders send the pair a wide variety of mares.

“They attract different types, as they're obviously different sire lines. The Candy Ride sire line opens up to so many different lines where the Northern Dancer line kind of eliminates that, but they've both always gotten good mares. Union Rags does well with a little speed, while everything seems to go well with Twirling Candy.”

Click to see Twirling Candy at Lane's End

Union Rags | Lee Thomas

Interestingly, that holds true when one glances down the list of broodmare sires represented by each stallion's stakes winners. Twirling Candy's mares cover a large breadth of damsires, while a significant percentage of the stakes winners by Union Rags are out of Mr. Prospector-line mares. Smart Strike is particularly represented, with nine of Union Rags's black-type winners--and five of his graded--directly out of Smart Strike mares.

How appropriate that Union Rags has taken advantage of his opportunities with Smart Strike mares, as the feat last Saturday of Lane's End stallions sweeping the nation's Grade I races harkens back to another remarkable landmark set by Smart Strike. That late Lane's End stallion and two-time leading sire had three individual Grade I winners at Belmont Park on Sept. 30, 2007.

“Smart Strike had three in one day at one track, from 1 1/2 miles to six furlongs,” said Farish. “That was an amazing day; three Grade Is on one card! One of them was Curlin.”

Indeed, that was the day Curlin captured the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at 1 1/4 miles, English Channel won the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic at 1 1/2 miles, and Fabulous Strike took the GI Vosburgh Stakes at six furlongs.

Farish said multiple Grade Is on a Saturday for the farm, regardless if it's with one stallion or multiple stallions, is always special.

“With Twirling Candy and Union Rags, it's great and two separate things, really. Each horse is their own situation. We don't really look at it as a farm achievement as much as we're rooting for both horses to do well.”

Both stallions are duly represented in the upcoming Keeneland September sale, with the obvious standout being a filly by Twirling Candy out of Machmer Hall's Special Me (hip 230), making the offering a full-sister to GISW Gift Box.

PRETTY MISCHIEVOUS RETIRED TO GODOLPHIN'S GAINSBOROUGH DIVISION

Pretty Mischievous winning the 2023 Kentucky Oaks | Coady

Godolphin took to X to announce 2023 Eclipse champion 3-year-old filly Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief--Pretty City Dancer, by Tapit) has been retired from racing. The social media post said: "Kentucky Oaks winner #PrettyMischievous arriving at her new home at #GainsboroughFarm today. Next stop, motherhood!"

Last seen finishing fifth in the GI Clement L. Hirsch Stakes Aug. 3 at Del Mar, the Godolphin homebred had an abbreviated 4-year-old campaign after a return from her championship season. The 'TDN Rising Star' was spectacular at three, capturing the GI Kentucky Oaks, GI Acorn Stakes, and GI Test Stakes, in addition to the GII Rachel Alexandra Stakes. Brendan Walsh conditioned her for Godolphin. She was third this year behind last year's older mare champion Idiomatic (Curlin) in the GI La Troienne Stakes in her seasonal debut and third again behind Randomized (Nyquist) and Idiomatic in the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes. Pretty Mischievous retires with a record of 13-7-2-3 and earnings of $2,112,560.

Godolphin has not disclosed breeding plans for the daughter of 2016 GI Spinaway Stakes winner Pretty City Dancer. The mare was a $3.5-million purchase at the Fasig-Tipton November sale by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock on behalf of Godolphin and has a 2024 full-sister to Pretty Mischievous. Pretty City Dancer directly descends from blue hen La Troienne--her seventh dam--through the Businesslike branch.

FASIG-TIPTON OPENS BIDDING FOR AUGUST DIGITAL SALE WITH 200+ ENTRIES

School Dance | Benoit

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 213 entries for its August Digital Sale, which opened bidding Aug. 22 and will close Tuesday, Aug. 27 at 12 p.m. ET., the auction house said in a press release on Thursday.

The catalogue features 70 horses of racing age, led by GISP School Dance (Animal Kingdom) (hip 2), who is both a racing and broodmare prospect.

Breeding stock offerings include 90 broodmares or broodmare prospects, many with stakes qualifications. Headlining these offerings are:

- MGSP Pantsonfire (Ire) (Sir Percy {GB}) (Hip 1);
- Social Matrix (Jimmy Creed) (Hip 4);
- SW Grazed My Heart (Grazen) (Hip 15).

Covering sires represented include Complexity, Gunite, Maclean's Music, Mage, McKinzie, Taiba, Thousand Words, Vekoma and Yaupon.

The catalogue also includes 25 New Mexico-bred yearlings being offered by 2023 New Mexico Breeder of the Year A & A Ranch. These yearlings--which are by leading New Mexico sires Marking and Sporting Chance, as well as American Anthem--are available for inspection by appointment.

Weanlings, 2-year-olds, and a stallion prospect are also catalogued.

"Fasig-Tipton Digital continues to gain impressive momentum, evidenced by the size of this catalogue," said Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales Leif Aaron. "We have quality offerings at all price points, including some exciting racehorses and mares in foal on attractive covers."

Beaute Cachee (Fr) came off the shelf to win her 5-year-old debut at the big price of 25-1 the GI Jenny Wiley Stakes at Keeneland in mid-April. The mare faded to seventh in the GI Just a Game Stakes at the Spa on the Belmont Stakes undercard, but rebounded to win the GIII Matchmaker Stakes at Monmouth July 20.

With only four competing in a scratched down field--three of whom were trained by Chad Brown--Beaute Cachee went off as the 5-2 second choice behind stablemate and MGISW Gina Romantica. Winning the battle for the lead heading into the first turn, jockey Frankie Dettori's mount continued to control the pace up the backstretch, despite some pressure just off her flank from Delahaye. Around the far turn, Gina Romantica joined the fight for the front with a three-wide move and at the top of the lane the Brown trainees were in a dogfight. Beaute Cachee dug down deep, found her best stride and got to the wire in time.

"She [Beaute Cachee] ran great. She had been training really, really well," said Brown. "Frankie [Dettori] has really figured her out, I have to give him a lot of credit, along with my team, who prepared her. He's the one who really wanted to put her on the lead at Keeneland and then again down at Monmouth last time out.

"We will probably take both these fillies, first and second place finishers, back to Keeneland--both of them have run well there in the past--in the GI First Lady."

Pedigree Notes:

The sire of 13 small racing crops of age, Literato (Fr)'s other graded stakes winner is Alterite, who won the GI Belmont Garden City Stakes. Beaute Cachee's dam has herself produced four foals, three of whom have raced, and a pair of winners. This is an extended female family which includes English G1 Coronation Stakes heroine Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), and her half-brother and English G3 Bahrain Trophy victor Feel Like Dancing (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LETTER TO THE EDITOR: WHY SYNTHETIC SURFACES MAKE SENSE FOR NEW YORK BREEDERS

Becky Thomas | Fasig-Tipton

A synthetic track is necessary for the survival of New York breeding farms, such as Sequel. The New York Bred program and the breeder awards generated are incredibly beneficial and fundamental to the financial stability of the New York farms and breeders. However, New York breeders only earn awards for horses competing within New York.

Unfortunately, horses that are predominantly competitive on turf are often shipped to Florida or Louisiana for turf racing as owners want to see their horses race. As such, several prominent New York trainers base their “winter” operations in these warmer climates. The breeders of these migrating horses earn no award money during that time.

Our farms require an immense amount of capital to operate as our employees, blacksmiths, veterinarians, feed companies, etc. all require year-round jobs to survive. The addition of a guaranteed winter racing surface has allowed those of us with farms to breathe a sigh of relief as we depend upon these award monies to fund our operations.

As NYRA continues to build the best turf program in the United States, the ability for some of these horses to remain in New York gives breeders more earning opportunities. The potential for additional award monies is greatly embraced as turf horses, in many instances, convert very well to synthetic surfaces.

The synthetic surface has already increased Sequel’s scope of operations. Following the announcement of a new synthetic surface at Belmont Park, leading racing entity Three Diamonds

Farm chose New York to stand their Breeders' Cup-winning turf stallion. In addition, they earmarked 15-20 mares to join the New York program.

There is no shortage of quality stallions capable of producing successful offspring on multiple surfaces. Notable stallions such as Uncle Mo, War Front, Into Mischief, Justify and even our own Freud have produced exceptional graded stakes horses on multiple surfaces, including synthetic. As more trainers become familiar with our new Belmont surface, I believe there will be an increased comfort level and participation.

Ultimately, our operation is protected by the guarantee of year-round racing. We, the New York breeding industry, need to embrace this concept and unite in support of our future.

--Becky Thomas, Sequel, New York

TAA ONSITE DURING DEL MAR'S PAC CLASSIC DAY

Once again, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) will be present to raise awareness for retired racehorses during Pacific Classic Day at Del Mar on Saturday, Aug. 31, the non-profit said in a Thursday release.

After a named race on the undercard, a presentation will be made to the winning connections, featuring a TAA-branded gift bag and blanket sponsored by Fenwick Equestrian and Dean Dorton. A VIP experience will also be auctioned and a variety of other events are planned.

“Del Mar is extremely committed to the well-being of Thoroughbreds, both on and off the track,” said Josh Rubinstein, president, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club. “Our partnership with Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance reflects our dedication to supporting responsible aftercare practices.”

Additionally, a combined check presentation for donations from Commonwealth and Ocean Reef Racing will take place during racing.

OMAHA BEACH FILLY RUNS TO THE MONEY, EARNS A 'RISING STAR' AT THE SPA

by Alan Carasso

With the Angels | Sarah Andrew

With the Angels (f, 2, Omaha Beach--Sister Margaret, by Pulpit) was accorded a 6-1 chance on the morning line for Thursday's state-bred opener from Saratoga, but she was well-tried in the market and ultimately made even-money look like a gift in a debut romp that was worthy of the 'TDN Rising Star' designation.

Having breezed an eighth of a mile in :9 4/5 before selling to agent Justin Casse for $350,000 at this year's OBS April Sale, the dark bay filly--who fetched $65,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-Bred Sale--worked equally well over a conventional dirt surface and signaled her readiness for this assignment with a half-mile hit-out from that gate that was timed in :47 flat over a 'good' strip Aug. 16.

Drawn wide, With the Angels hit the ground running beneath Jose Ortiz and went along in hand through an opening couple of furlongs in :22.51. Maintaining a safe distance on her rivals rounding the turn, she passed the quarter pole in :45.62, went farther in front with every stride while never feeling the crop and had 11 1/2 lengths on the well-meant Stone Smuggler (Honest Mischieff) after six furlongs in a snappy 1:10.40. Princess Mischieff (Honest Mischieff) was clearly last from the stalls, but gained ground down the backstretch and sustained a long run to round out the triple at 29-1. The winner's part owner Sheila Rosenblum was represented Wednesday by Sacrosanct (Honest Mischieff).

With the Angels is a half-sister to Maggy's Palace (Palace Malice), a latest second in the Johnstone Mile Handicap here Aug. 7, and her dam is the lone produce from Dance Gal Dance, winner of four state-bred stakes and a full-sister to the dual black-type winner Dr Disco. The third dam Dr Margaret, victorious in stakes races at Suffolk Downs, Rockingham Park and Pimlico, was responsible for Dr. Capote (Capote), whose Massachusetts-bred son Dr Blarney (Dublin) took 27 of his 45 career trips to the post.

Sister Margaret is also represented by a colt foal by Twirling Candy and was most recently bred to Street Sense. With the Angels is the second 'Rising Star' for Omaha Beach.

FRIDAY INSIGHTS: BROWN HAS TURF

MAIDEN SURROUNDED by Alan Carasso

7th-SAR, $100k, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, post time: 3:54 p.m. ET

Chad Brown saddles a pair of debutantes in this spot, led by Klaravich Stables' $310,000 Keeneland September purchase LEANER AND MEANER (Munnings). The Jan. 28 foal's dam Revitalized (Uncle Mo) was acquired for $360,000 with this filly in utero at the 2021 Keeneland November Sale and is a daughter of 2011 GIII Virginia Oaks heroine Excited (Giant's Causeway), the dam of SW & MGSP Thrilled (Uncle Mo) and GSP Beside Herself (Uncle Mo). The stakes-winning third dam Path of Thunder (Thunder Gulch) was a full-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Distaff upsetter Spain. Brown also sends out Wise Racing homebred Rescue Me (More Than Ready), whose dam Fools Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) recorded her biggest career victory in this track's GIII Waya Stakes for the same connections in 2019.

Our Prosperity (Tapit), a half-sister to MSP For the Flag (Uncle Mo), is out of a half-sister to GI Flower Bowl Stakes victress Civil Dispatch (War Front) and French GSW/G1SP War Dispatch (War Front). Third dam Black Speck (Arch), a half-sister to Dynaformer, produced Group 1-winning champion Hong Kong stayer Helene Super Star (ex Lines of Battle) (War Front)--also winner of the G2 UAE Derby--and Flower Bowl victress War Flag (War Front), herself responsible for Grade III winner Personal Best (Tapit). American Justice (Justify), a half to MSW & GSP Yulong Warrior (Street Cry {Ire}), is out of a half-sister to GSW Summer Raven (Summer Squall), the dam of MGSW/MGISP Lewis Bay (Bernardini) and GSWs Misconnect (Unbridled's Song) and Winslow Homer (Unbridled's Song). TJCIS PPs

1st-SAR, $100k, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 12:35 p.m. ET

SENZA PAROLE (Gun Runner) is set to become the first starter out of the winning Senza Te (Street Cry {Ire}), whose three-time graded-winning dam Sacristy (Pulpit) produced five winners from six to race, including SW & GSP Catiche (Arrogate) and SW/GISP 'TDN Rising Star' Flor de la Mar (Tiznow). Sacristy's half-sister Mozu Superflare (Speightstown) was a seven-time winner in Japan, including a victory--via DQ--in the 1200-meter G1 Takamtsunomiya Kinen on the turf. Alyeska (Vekoma) would be a poignant debut winner for the Marylou Whitney Stables and trainer Norm Casse. The chestnut is a maternal granddaughter of 2003 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Bird Town (Cape Town), dam of GSW sire Bird Song (Unbridled's Song). This is also the family of Birdstone (Grindstone), who won the GI Travers Stakes under the cloak of darkness and approaching storm some two decades ago. TJCIS PPs

SUMMER BREEZES:

Babies Kick Off Personal Ensign Undercard

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting and stakes-entered 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. Here are the horses entered for Friday at Saratoga and Del Mar:

7th-Saratoga, $110,000, Alw (NW1$X), Opt. Clm ($50,000), 8-22, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8m, 1:51.12, ft, 3/4 length.

HEADLINE NUMBERS (f, 3, Gun Runner--Curlin's Mistress, by Curlin), favored at 3-5, was outgamed to the wire by 8-1 Camera (Curlin), but after a stewards' inquiry and an objection from the connections of third-past-the-post Whocouldaskformo (Uncle Mo), was put up to the victory. Camera bounced well from gate one, but was forced to do some work to find the front, as Headline Numbers--named a 'TDN Rising Star' for an 11 3/4-length graduation July 4--pressed from her outside.

Whocouldaskformo slid up the fence to be just behind the leading pair into the second turn, and when Camera vacated the inside while eyeballing Headline Numbers at the head of the lane, Whocouldaskformo was disappointed for a run three-sixteenths of a mile from home and was checked by Joel Rosario. On the front end, Headline Numbers had edged past Camera in the final stages, only to have that rival come back at her and hit the line first, but stewards upheld the protest and demoted Camera to third, awarding Headline Numbers the win. A $325,000 KEESEP yearling, Headline Numbers is out of a full-sister to MGSW Curlin's Approval and a half to one-time MGSP 'TDN Rising Star' Apologynotaccepted (Fusaichi Pegasus). The 2-year-old full-brother to Headline Numbers named Strategic Focus was purchased by Klaravich for $500,000 at KEESEP last fall. Curlin's Mistress is the dam of a colt foal by Authentic and was bred back to that sire. This female family was recently profiled in Steve Sherack's Second Chances series. Sales history: $325,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $110,000.

REPO ROCKS (g, 6, Tapiture--Hawaiian Love, by Not For Love), runner-up in the 2023 GI Carter Handicap, earned a 109 Beyer for a 5 1/4-length tally in the GIII Westchester Stakes, but had gone winless in his last five, including a runner-up effort in a seven-furlong allowance Aug. 12 that was run in track-record time of 1:19.86. Facing just three rivals on the slight turnback and relatively quick return, the Virginia-bred caboosed the field behind swift early fractions, angled out for the drive and raced past pacesetting Johnyz From Albany to score by a comfortable margin as the 9-10 chalk.

IRISH MAXIMA (f, 3, Maximus Mischief--Palace Pier {SW-Can, GSP-USA, $238,300}, by Out of Place) won her first two starts by nearly 10 lengths combined, but finished a distant fifth of six behind champion Just F Y I (Justify) in the GI Frizette Stakes Oct. 7 and 10th in the Nov. 25 Fern Creek Stakes before calling it a season. Returning here at generous odds of nearly 9-1, the dark bay made the running just off the inside, pinched a break in upper stretch and was shown the whip late en route to a 3 1/2-length success. Palace Pier, third in the GII Beaumont Stakes in 2007, is also represented by a filly foal by Moretti. Sales history: $65,000 Ylg '22 FTKOCT; $50,000 2yo '23 EASMAY. REALIGNMENT (g, 3, Twirling Candy--Lightscameraaction {GSP, $223,825}, by Will Take Charge) made the most of his career debut at Horseshoe Indy, rallying late to graduate by a head on the dirt June 27 and was exiting an even sixth against much tougher first-level allowance foes at Ellis July 27. The 39-10 second choice sat handy to soft fractions and made a run into the final furlong with favored Cowboy Justice (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), prevailing by a head in a driving finish. The latter was ultimately disqualified and placed sixth for stretch interference. Simple Logic (Maclean's Music) was promoted to second. Lightscameraaction foaled a full-brother to Realignment this term. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $41,459. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

LA SALVADORENA (f, 3, Oscar Performance--Lady Astola, by Lonhro {Aus}), second in a Keeneland turf sprint Apr. 18 and in a one-mile test at Aqueduct June 16, was dropping down in trip and adding blinkers off a weakening fifth going two turns here July 14. Not far from the early pace while racing off the inside, the $90,000 Keeneland September yearling tugged Dylan Davis right into contention three deep approaching the stretch. Set down a furlong and a half from home, La Salvadorena continued to find and did her best work through the line, taking it by a strong two-length margin. The third winner from as many starters for her dam, La Salvadorena has a yearling half-sister by Silver State and a foal full-brother. Lady Astola visited Enticed for her 2025 foal. ANNIE GOODBODY (f, 2, War Front--Tiz Ella, by Tiznow) was consigned to a wide trip from a bad draw on her 5 1/2-furlong debut in an unrestricted maiden July 18 and made some late ground to finish eighth, beaten about seven lengths. Taking full advantage of her inside barrier this time around, the $30,000 OBS March breezer settled midfield while saving ground down the back. Given the hurry-up by Romero Maragh inside the three-eighths, Annie Goodbody pushed away from the fence to launch her bid at the top of the lane, engaged front-running Luckyforyou (Lookin At Lucky) with about a furlong to race and edged clear to score at odds of 15-4. Tiz Ella, a full-sister to SW & MGSP Donworth and half to multiple Australian Group 1 winner Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy), was a $500,000 purchase by the late Bob Lothenbach at the 2017 Keeneland September Sale but passed away in 2023 after producing a full-brother to Annie Goodbody, who made $100,000 at this year's Fasig-Tipton February Sale. SOPHISTRY (f, 2, Mitole--Naansense, by Bayern) burned some money when second as the favorite in a state-bred maiden at Gulfstream Park June 23, but gave an excellent account of herself when a pacesetter second in a course-and-distance contest Aug. 1.

The 11-10 chalk was off to a very fast beginning from her low alley for noted gate rider Edwin Maldonado and led by her lonesome into the turn. Tackled by first-time starter Tiger of the Sea (Smiling Tiger) approaching the stretch, Sophistry battled on bravely on the inside and gutted it out, giving her second-crop sire his third maiden allowance winner on the afternoon.

Sophistry is a granddaughter of SW Teak Totem (Northern Afleet), a full-sister to GISW Teaks North and herself the dam of GSW sire Adios Charlie (Indian Charlie). Naansense did not produce a foal the last two years and visited Vekoma this season. CANADA GATE (c, 3, Constitution--Princess Karen {SW & GSP, $176,039}, by Stay Thirsty) was unplaced and well-beaten in two tries over sprint trips earlier this season, but had improved with the stretchout to two turns. A distant second to Gil Jim Dandy Stakes participant Pony Express (Gun Runner) at Santa Anita June 15, he was a close third over track and trip July 25 and was according bet into odds-on to finally break through. Content to track a strong pace set by Abitmischievous (Into Mischief), the homebred edged in front at the furlong grounds and edged clear. Inbred 4 x 4 to A.P. Indy, Canada Gate is one of two winners from three to the races for his dam, who is also responsible for the winner's yearling full-brother. Princess Karen was most recently covered by Girvin.
