GUN RUNNER FILLY MARKS END OF AN ERA FOR SELTZER

Ed Seltzer | Joe DiOrio

by Jessica Martini

"The venture was a disaster and I fell in love with it," Ed Seltzer said of his initial foray into racing nearly 65 years ago. Now, 90, Seltzer is in the midst of dispersing his bloodstock and on offer will be horses from families he has cultivated over six decades. On offer during Monday's first session of the Keeneland September Yearling sale will be a filly by Gun Runner (hip 117) from the Taylor Made Sales Agency consignment. Seltzer's involvement with the family goes back five generations.

"We bought Overpowering and she was pretty old at the time, but we got one foal out of her and that was Over Your Shoulder," Seltzer recalled. "We have had the family ever since then. It's a family that has been very rewarding."

Over Your Shoulder, in turn, produced Harbour Club (Danzig), the dam of True Legacy (GB) (A.P. Indy). True Legacy produced Verdana Bold (Rahy), who fortuitously for Seltzer, failed to sell as a weanling at the 2005 Keeneland November sale. A graded stakes winner in Seltzer's colors, she has produced a pair of stakes winners; Ghalia (Medaglia d'Oro) and graded-placed Lucrezia (Into Mischief), the dam of hip 117.

"She is a lovely individual," Seltzer's daughter, farm manager and veterinarian Krista said of the yearling. Cont. p3

HISA SAYS PARX TURF DIVOTS FILLED, TRACK HAD 'NOTICEABLE LACK OF MOISTURE' by Bill Finley

Eight days after turf racing was halted at Parx amid pressure from horsemen and HISA, HISA officials released their evaluation of the turf surface, saying that the holes had been filled, but the surface was noticeably dry.

Causes Trouble (Creative Cause) broke down on the grass in the Aug. 24 Parx Dash, leading his trainer, Harold Wyner, to walk the course and release a video that showed numerous holes, some of them up to a foot deep. Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's President Bob Hutt said he was ignored when he demanded Parx management do something about the issue, and ended up reaching out to HISA chief Lisa Lazarus.

Thursday night's HISA statement reads, in its entirety:

"HISA officials visited PARX Casino and Racing on Monday, September 2 and Tuesday, September 3, accompanied by turf surface experts. Cont. p8

"She is very balanced. She reminds me a lot of her mom. She is feminine, but a decent size. I really like her.

"But ask my dad about her," Krista insisted. "He's better at looking at horses than he thinks."

Seltzer's response?

"She's wrong," he said with a laugh. "The same horse walked by me twice and I didn't realize it was the same horse. I can't look at a horse. I've never been able to."

But from the time he bought a small piece of a horse when he was in his 20s, Seltzer has been in love with the game.

"I had never been to a horse race, I'd never been around horses and I didn't know anything about it," Seltzer explained. "But I bought an eighth of a horse in a card game. A guy that I was close to bought a quarter, I think. I was young and I didn't have any money. We grew up poorer and I went to school on an athletic scholarship, so I could throw a ball a little bit. But anyway, at the end of the day, as you go along, you start out with claiming horses, and find horses that you love and you get lucky every now and then. Pretty soon, you start breeding and racing and it's grown from there. I have been very, very lucky and it's grown beautifully for me. From claiming horses, to allowance horses, to stakes horses. We haven't bought a horse in 20 years because we've been breeding our own. We've won a lot of races."

While Seltzer studied up on his pedigrees, his daughter always knew her love of horses would be a more hands-on endeavor.

"I was born in Chicago, we lived in downtown Chicago," she recalled. "For my second birthday, all I wanted was a horse and my dad took me for a pony ride in downtown Chicago. That was my horse for my second birthday--it really wasn't, but I was in this little pink dress with the biggest smile on my face. I've always loved horses. And then when I was eight or nine, all I wanted to be was a veterinarian. I used to ask my brother, 'Can you just bring me some ripped stuffed animals and I will be the doctor?' and he would play along and I would sew them up."

For father, the joy he feels at being able to work with his daughter is palpable.

"A lot of people think if your daughter works for you, they can't get a job doing anything else," he said with a chuckle. "I lost a son and I lost my wife years ago, so we have gone through life with a lot of grief. My daughter went to vet school and wound up at Davis and she was offered a good partnership in California. You don't like to say anything and you don't like your children to do what you want them to do or to be where you want them to be. You don't want them to think you are lonely, so I didn't say anything. But one day she called me and told me she didn't want to be that far away from me. 'I want to come home.' It's been the most wonderful time of my life." Cont.

Father and daughter form a complementary team.

“I’m hands on,” Krista said. “My dad is brilliant with the business and with racing, and reading a Racing Form. He started out in claiming, but I would venture to guess he may not even know how to put a halter on. He was never hands on. But brilliant with the rest of it. But for me, I always loved the horses. And then I am just lucky in a sense, because I ended up by osmosis really falling in love with the industry.”

Another obviously valued member of the team is trainer Curtis Garrison, who they brought on board after buying Solera Farm in Williston, Florida in 2005.

“After we bought the farm, we wound up hiring Curtis,” Seltzer said. “He is one of the two best day’s work I’ve ever done in my life. He is irreplaceable. It’s not only his training and his ability to do what he does, but he looks after everything and he takes care of my daughter and the farm and me. For the rest of his life, he will be with me, no matter what.”

Among the horses Seltzer has bred in his six decades in the racing industry is 1985 GI Preakness Stakes winner Tank’s Prospect (Mr. Prospector), as well as graded winners Surgical Strike (Red Giant), Sky Treasure (Sky Mesa), Sparkling Review (Lemon Drop Kid) and Customer Base (Lemon Drop Kid). He also campaigned multiple graded winner Field Commission (Service Stripe).

But asked for a favorite, Seltzer names a former claimer from his early days in the racing business.

“I remember I claimed a horse in 1964--something like that--a horse called Going Abroad,” Seltzer said. “I claimed him for $10,000 and he wound up winning the Arlington Handicap and a whole bunch of stakes. It was an unbelievable experience for me.”

He continued, “I look at all the photographs on my wall and I go all the way back, so many years and so many pictures.” Cont.

“It's hard to pick one over the other. You look at your wall and you're just happy with where you are.”

Seltzer began dispersing his stock at the OBS June sale to dissolve a partnership. The dispersal continues at Keeneland this month and at the breeding stock sales in November, which will include Lucrezia, in foal to Curlin, as well as her weanling colt by Flightline.

“We are dispersing our entire horse operation, as you know,” he said. “Not because we want to, but because of some circumstances that have come up. Hopefully, my daughter and a couple of good friends of mine will buy some of these horses. But it's time for us to cut back anyway. Curtis is getting older and so am I. I am 90. A lot of the babies and a lot of the families that we built will go on for years, but I won't. I doubt that I will live to be 110.”

But Seltzer doesn't sound like someone ready to sit at home and rest on his laurels.

“We have a tremendous amount of money coming in in the next three or four years,” he said. “We have to reinvest it and I want to do it in this area that I live in. When I came here, the farm was the first thing I ever bought in my life that I didn't expect to be worth more money later. I loved it and I wanted to be involved and it was beautiful. And it turns out this whole area, Ocala, Williston, is growing like a weed. It's unbelievable. So we happen to be in a great place to reinvest the money we have coming in. I have a great guy, Evan Pitts, with me to help me do it and we are going to look for things to do in this area, not only because it's a prolific area that is growing, but it's nice to have it here and my daughter is here and can enjoy seeing the investments we make. It will be in this area, but not necessarily in the horse business.”

Of his time in the racing industry, Seltzer said, “It's been a lovely relationship. I have been in this for about 64 years and I've loved every minute of it.”

Australian Group 1 winners Scales of Justice (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}) and Tuvalu (Aus) (Kermadec {NZ}) were purchased at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale.

Preparing for the two-week blitz of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Rounsefell compared his experiences at yearling auctions across the globe.

“I enjoy working the U.S. yearling sales, particularly Keeneland September, due to the large volume of horses offered and thus the opportunities this presents,” Rounsefell said. “The nature of this sale and the system at Keeneland is such that you are inspecting whilst the sale is going on, whereas in Australia all your inspections are complete before the sale starts. I think this may detract from the sales experience for buyers and owners in this scenario, as there is little time to entertain.

Although Keeneland has first-class facilities and is always working to improve the buyers’ experience.”

Rounsefell also sees a difference when it comes to scoping horses at U.S. yearling sales versus their Australian counterparts. While there was a concerted push to encourage buyers at American sales to use video scopes provided in the repository some five years, it seems to remain a far more utilized technology overseas than it does in the U.S., according to Rounsefell.

“In Australia, the large majority of the buying bench are happy to rely on a video scope taken on the sales grounds and lodged in the repository,” he said. “Whereas in the U.S., the vets are still individually scoping a large portion of the yearlings at the sale. This obviously presents its own issues when a horse is popular.”

Rounsefell has proven it is possible to find Grade I performers without breaking the bank. He purchased Hit the Road for $160,000 at the 2018 Keeneland September sale, while Scales of Justice was acquired for just about that same price at Inglis in 2014. Hit the Road earned over $600,000 on the track, while Scales of Justice has banked well over $1.6 million.

The Australian credits his bargain purchase successes with focusing on the individual in front of him, rather than the catalogue page.

“We have had success in the middle market, both in Australia, U.K. and U.S. by focusing on type rather than pedigree,” Rounsefell explained. “I think particularly at a yearling sale, if you are working on a lower budget, you have to forgive in one area. All of the trainers I work with always remind me that they can only train what is on the end of the shank, so the physical is paramount. To find value, we look for stallions that are successful, but not fashionable at the time for whatever reason due to their age or commercial appeal. Similarly, it may be an unknown stallion from a mare that has thrown runners and this can also give you an opportunity to get a decent runner on a budget.”

One area where it’s not always possible to compromise is on the vet report, Rounsefell said.

“Generally, the trainers I buy for don’t compromise on their vetting, especially for places like California or Hong Kong,” he said. “Although this very much depends on where the horse will be trained as to the risk tolerance of the vetting.” Cont.

Rounsefell has served as president of the Federation of Bloodstock Agents (FBAA) of Australia since 2020. Formed in 1988, the organization sets an ethical standard for its members to live up to.

“In Australia, the FBAA aims to raise the standard for bloodstock agents,” Rounsefell said. “We have 30 accredited members who agree to be held to account by our strict and enforceable code of ethics.”

A similar group in the U.S. could give buyers more confidence when entering the sales pavilion, according to Rounsefell.

“I think having a Federation of Bloodstock Agents in America would be a positive step for the industry as a whole and I am somewhat surprised one has not been established,” he said. “It would increase transparency and thus confidence in the market and encourage new investment.”

Transparency is also a buzzword for Rounsefell’s social media presence. The Boomer Bloodstock website features a “Learn” tab which provides detailed information on everything from breeding and racing to buying and selling and insurance.

“Boomer Bloodstock works with Kick Collective to produce content for social media with a large emphasis on education,” Rounsefell said. “We felt there was a lack of reliable information that is accessible for those interested in horse ownership or even for those that have been in the game for many years. So we started the learning center on the Boomer Bloodstock website, which is amplified through social media. I think by sharing your IP in the various areas of racing and breeding, it is a positive step to removing barriers to entry for horse ownership and involvement in the industry.”

"The team conducted a track evaluation, collected soil samples, and performed moisture and consistency tests, which will be compared with previous results. At the time of the evaluation, all divots had been filled with growing medium. However, there was a noticeable lack of moisture in the track surface. Track management explained the irrigation system was down for maintenance.

"HISA officials met with PARX horsemen and Jeff Matty, Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, to provide updates on the ongoing review and demonstrate the Racing Services Testing Laboratory (RSTL) track surface testing procedures.

"On Wednesday, September 4, the irrigation system was operational, and a portion of the turf course was aerated. Track management has committed to completing additional steps over the next two weeks, aiming to resume turf racing on Monday, September 16 through September 21, concluding with PA Derby day. A representative of HISA's Track Surface Advisory Group will visit PARX for another evaluation prior to the track re-opening. HISA will continue working with PARX management to evaluate the ongoing efforts and develop a comprehensive long-term plan to upgrade the turf surface."

Serpe denied any wrong doing.

“I really can’t comment on this right now,” Serpe said. “The only thing I can tell you is I do not use and never have used any kind of illegal medication. We certainly haven’t used any clenbuterol. KEN LOWE, JR., CHAIR OF WEST VIRGINIA RACING COMMISSION, DIES SUDDENLY

by T.D. Thornton

Kenneth F. Lowe, Jr., the colorful and sometimes controversial chairman of the West Virginia Racing Commission (WVRC), died suddenly earlier this week. His passing was first reported Sept. 4 in a remembrance editorial in the Journal-News of Martinsburg, West Virginia.

Lowe was in his mid-70s, and no cause of death had been announced prior to publication of this story.

On Thursday, a staffer at the WVRC confirmed Lowe's passing to TDN, but declined to speak on the record about the circumstances of the chairman's death or about his recent health, citing a desire to let family members release an obituary first.

Lowe had just presided over the WVRC's monthly meeting last Thursday, Aug. 29.

Lowe, who was a decades-long horse owner and breeder, lived in Shepherdstown, about 12 miles north of Charles Town Races.

According to a biography that Lowe provided to TDN in 2022 when he submitted a letter to the editor, he spent his earliest years around horses, then began working in the mutuels at Charles Town in his teens until he graduated from Shepherd College in his hometown of Shepherdstown.

Lowe wrote that his love for the track led him to "scratch" the idea of attending law school decades ago, and he instead enrolled in the New York Jockey Club School for Racing Officials.

But instead of officiating races at mid-Atlantic tracks for a full-time living, Lowe cultivated an outsized community presence in his hometown and embarked on a career in real estate and business development.

In 1997, Lowe was recognized as West Virginia Real Estate Entrepreneur of the Year, and in 2000, Lowe was credited with being instrumental in bringing President Bill Clinton to the state's eastern panhandle for peace talks.

In 2004, Lowe took what he described as a "deep dive" into owning and actively managing a Thoroughbred racing stable and breeding operation in Maryland.

Lowe later served as president of the Charles Town Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (CTHBPA), and was appointed as a state racing commissioner in 2017 after having served on the transition team of Gov. Jim Justice.

Lowe's appointment as a commissioner and his tenure on the board was controversial at times, in part because he had an abrasive history with Charles Town management.

In 2011, when Lowe was president of the CTHBPA, track management ejected him from the property for a violation of Charles Town's house rule against distributing political flyers. Six years later, when he was a commissioner, Lowe told TDN he had won an undisclosed court judgment from track management when he challenged that ejection.

Ten months after his appointment to the WVRC in 2017, Lowe led a failed bid to withhold commission approval for a $1.2-million purse for the GII Charles Town Classic, the track's signature race. He told TDN in an interview that he was not acting out of any sort of a "grudge," but that he just thought the money could be better spent on bolstering local racing. Cont.

BREED TRUE

Lowe's resistance to the seven-figure purse--which had been contractually approved by the Charles Town horsemen--almost scuttled the running of the 2018 Classic. But Gov. Justice, reacting to well-publicized backlash, vowed to have the WVRC's decision reversed, and the commission subsequently re-voted to approve full funding for that stakes.

Lowe had a habit of referring to himself in the third person when he launched into long, sometimes quixotic, soliloquies at WVRC meetings. He was vociferously on-record as a staunch pro-Lasix supporter for Thoroughbreds, and was emphatically against the concept of an entity like the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) overseeing racing in West Virginia.

Lowe advocated for the 2022 federal lawsuit led by the states of West Virginia and Louisiana that still hasn't been resolved, but has resulted in an injunction barring HISA rules from being implemented in those two states.

Prior to the advent of HISA, Lowe also publicly chafed at West Virginia's adoption of certain model rules set forth by the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI). Lowe served on that organization's board of directors, and he seemed to relish his role as an iconoclast member.

"I'm so damn outnumbered I feel like the lone ranger sitting there," Lowe said in 2021 of the ARCI meetings.

"I think differently than many of those fine folks do."

Yet during his time as the WVRC chairman, Lowe also repeatedly emphasized a compassionate core belief that he needed to stand up for smaller-scale racing at Charles Town and Mountaineer Park, whose horsemen he often portrayed as needing protection from larger, national entities that had more power in the sport.

"I can listen to what California wants and what New York wants and what Kentucky says. But one size doesn't always fit all," Lowe said during one impassioned speech at a 2021 commission meeting. "West Virginia doesn't want to be an outlier. I understand that. But at the same time, I can't agree to do something just because everyone else has. I'm not geared that way. If it's best for everybody, I'll go along with it. But I just can't let something happen that's not fair to the West Virginia horsemen at Mountaineer or Charles Town."

The journalist Toni Milbourne, who authored Lowe's remembrance editorial in the Journal-News, recalled his presence like this:

"His voice and his passion for all things West Virginia will resound long after this time of when he has physically left this earth. He was an advocate for so many things--so many causes--and there are so many who will miss his efforts and his strength.

'RISING STAR' HEARTLAND RETIRED TO WINSTAR

One-for-one Heartland (c, 3, Justify--Sambuca Classica, by Cat Thief), whose debut maiden victory in 2023 stamped him as a 'TDN Rising Star' under Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, has been retired from racing and will stand at WinStar in 2025. His introductory fee will be $10,000 S&N.

“One might ask, ‘Why stand a maiden winner?’,” said WinStar President, CEO, and Racing Manager Elliott Walden. “Well, he looks the part, he’s by Justify, and he’s a half-brother to Classic Empire. It makes perfect sense to us because we know what we had. He has all the credentials--pedigree, elite ability, and looks. We felt he had the ability of a Grade I winner.”

Heartland's half-brother Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile) was the champion 2-year-old colt of 2016 and a Grade I winner at two and three whose victories included the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

“The way he is bred and the way he looks, the first time we breezed him I knew we were sitting on something really special,” said Baffert. “When a 2-year-old runs in 1:03 and change that is really special. That’s fast. I thought he just stamped himself as one of the top 2-year-olds in the country. He was my horse.”

Bred by CHC Inc. in Kentucky, Heartland hammered for $525,000 at Keeneland September in 2022 and raced for CHC Inc., Siena Farm, and WinStar Farm. He made his lone start at the 2023 Del Mar summer meet, getting 5 1/2 furlongs in 1:03.20.

PARTNERSHIPS: BBN RACING SETS PIERS THAT RUN DEEP INTO CONCRETE by Joe Scurto

A concrete foundation is the bedrock of any structure. Building a successful Thoroughbred partnership needs that same footing. You need rock-hard determination, the right aggregate of experience and the liquidity to maintain elasticity. Without such a concrete foundation, the tallest of ambitions can crumble, but with one in place, you can find long-term success and come out smelling like a rose.

For BBN Racing, the first scent of success came from the appropriately-named mare Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy) who won over $1.2 million and four graded stakes, including the Grade I Belmont Oaks Invitational.

“When we bought our first group of yearlings in 2018, Rusty Arnold suggested we might need to get involved with a racehorse to keep our partners engaged while the first group of yearlings prepared for the racetrack.” Cont.

"That is why we partnered with Ashbrook Farm and bought into Concrete Rose," recalled Brian Klatsky, founding member of BBN Racing.

BBN was founded in 2018 by Klatsky, Braxton Lynch and Brendan O'Brien after planning and discussing their previous ownership experiences for several years. Their vision was to create a platform that democratizes the sport, making it accessible to a wider audience, while providing unparalleled ownership experiences.

"I used to visit Saratoga every summer and always wanted to own my own Thoroughbreds. My wife made it clear there would be no racehorses until we started a family, said Klatsky. Challenge made; challenge accepted. "Six months after our son Alex was born, I bought my first racehorse."

That competitive spirit resides deep in Klatsky's DNA. He played basketball at Rumson-Fair Haven High, 10 minutes from Monmouth Park, and at Division III Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, New York. Klatsky also earned an MBA from the University of Florida.

A huge fan of SEC athletics, with his two sons playing basketball in the SEC, Klatsky paid homage to Kentucky Wildcat fans by naming the partnership in honor of the Big Blue Nation. He is a partner at Gold Coast Wealth Management, with O'Brien, in addition to heading up BBN.

"We don't do this for a living," said Klatsky. "We simply want to bring people into the game. This isn't a career for us, it is a passion."

When referring to "us," Klatsky is talking about an impressive group of talented horse people including BBN's Racing Manager Braxton Lynch. Lynch, along with her husband Damian, own and operate Royal Oak Farm in Paris, Kentucky.

"I spent my summers prepping yearlings, and exercise riding at Delaware Park, Fair Hill and in Newmarket, England," said Lynch. "After graduating from Trinity College, I secured a job at Three Chimneys Farm where I eventually became the director of sales."

Lynch's lineage goes back to the Mid-Atlantic where her maternal grandparents, Harry and Jane Lunger, started Christiana Stables in Wilmington, Delaware, but her work is centered in Kentucky as is the BBN Racing operation. As a former President of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association (KTA) and current Director Emeritus, Lynch lobbied hard for the legalization of Historical Horse Racing (HHR) in the Bluegrass and was rewarded with the Governor signing a bill preserving its future in 2021.

"We started BBN with the advent of HHR in Kentucky," said Klatsky. "We hit that trajectory at just the right time with increased purses coming and have ridden that trajectory ever since. We are Kentucky-focused and meets like Kentucky Downs are a focal point for BBN."

Klatsky and Lynch were brought together by trainer Victoria Oliver over 25 years ago. Prior to BBN, Klatsky had had over 100 different horses conditioned by Oliver, who started her training career at Monmouth Park and has accumulated over $22 million in purse earnings. Oliver guided the City Zip filly Personal Diary to a Grade I victory in the Del Mar Oaks in 2014 for her father, prominent racing breeder and owner G. Watts Humphrey, Jr., and won last year's GII Clark Stakes at Churchill Downs with Trademark (Upstart), making him a millionaire in the process.

The other BBN trainer is George "Rusty" Arnold. Arnold is a third-generation horseman who ranks third among Keeneland's all-time leading trainers. During his career, he has won over $84 million in purse money with 1900+ wins, including 17 Grade I winners, ranking him in the top 40 all-time winningest trainers in Thoroughbred racing history. His success with Concrete Rose, along with his connection to Victoria Oliver's father, for whom he trained multiple stakes winners like Centre Court (Smart Strike) and Morticia (Twirling Candy), cemented his role with the BBN.

The BBN team and the business model established by Klatsky and Lynch appealed to partner Artie Logan early.

"I have been involved in all aspects of the Thoroughbred industry off and on since the mid-70's," said Logan. "I was mostly dealing with cheaper horses due to the lack of raising enough capital. I've known Rusty for over 40 years and Bo and Vicki for the last 10 years or so. Rusty had me take a look at BBN and introduced me to Braxton, Brian and Brendan. I was looking for a racing partnership that raised enough capital to buy quality yearlings, had a good business model, was transparent with good communication about our stable, regular financial statements and lastly, good chemistry among the members." Cont.

"Bingo, BBN was the answer. I've been involved since the beginning and the best part has been having success with our horses and meeting and developing relationships with our members and team."

Finding the right horses to send to these accomplished trainers is bloodstock agent Glenn "Bo" Bromagen. He started walking hots for Arnold after graduating from Trinity University in 2007. The entry-level position changed as he worked his way up to groom and barn manager within a four-month period. Bromagen knew he didn't want to be a trainer, but understood the need to gain the education from Arnold's operation. He later went to work for David Ingordo and within five days of working his first 2-year-old sale, he knew he had found his calling. In addition to finding horses like Concrete Rose and Weep No More (Mineshaft) for BBN, he also serves as racing manager for his family's Ashbrook Farm in Versailles, Kentucky.

This lineup of accomplished and diverse individuals has combined to bring BBN over $4.5 million in purse earnings thus far, but aside from that is the impressive and almost unheard-of record of getting 33 of 34 of their yearling purchases to the races.

"I don't even want to say it since we don't want that run to end," said Lynch. "Our selection team is phenomenal. We can't afford to buy the perfect horse, so we have to trust our trainers to find us the athletes. We also believe in patience with these animals and don't race them until they are ready."

In BBN's first five crops at the races, 23 of 33 have been winners (70%), including seven unique stakes winners (21%). Few can argue that something is being done right at BBN. Their second group of yearlings purchased included 2021 Kentucky Derby runner Hidden Stash (Constitution), who was a $50,000 purchase. That success led the team to purchase his half-brother Mo Stash (Mo Town) for $130,000 later that year. He has gone on to compete in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, win the GIII Transylvania Stakes at Keeneland and accumulate over $600,000 to date. Their latest crop of 2-year-olds has produced an exciting first-out winner, sweetly named Kilwin (Twirling Candy), after the candy and ice cream chain. She is a half-sister to GI Alabama

Stakes third-place finisher Just Basking (Arrogate) and GSW One Timer (Trappe Shot).

"We are buying yearlings to race, so we look for athletes that can compete," said Klatsky. "Kentucky-breds are our focus and we also look for horses that will have strong residual value as broodmares. We typically will purchase six to eight yearlings each year for our partners. The minimum investment is $25,000, which includes estimated training costs for the entire life of the partnership, which is expected to be three to four years. There is no markup on any of the yearlings or salaries for anyone, but we do retain 7.5% of sale proceeds and purses. Both Braxton and I, along with our trainers, buy in just like every one of our partners. We are equal partners and believe in what we are doing."

Partner Gordon Priest said about this kind of approach to partnering: "As you know, many of the partnerships spawned since Cot Campbell pioneered the concept, still concentrate on shares of a single horse. The obvious downside is that, if you've landed on a stinker, it's over before you get much fun out of it. Buying seven yearlings every September is a much more sensible way to manage the risk of what is inherently a crapshoot and boost the probability that you might come up with a movie star out of that crop."

Lynch said that there is sound reasoning for collecting a major portion of the training expenses up front. "As a partner, not having to worry about monthly bills is a terrific way to keep the experience positive. So far, we have had six groups and have purchased 36 horses and regardless of which group you are in, we are one big family. You could invest $150k in a single horse or have six years of excitement and 36 horses to root on."

Oliver's brother and BBN partner Watts Humphrey also sees the lack of monthly invoices to pay as a selling point.

"I have been in multiple other syndicates and have been an owner, breeder and involved in the sport my whole life," said Humphrey. "The idea that there is only one capital call for the syndicate is appealing as it is a lower-cost way to enjoy the sport and have some action."

"A good partner for BBN is someone that is competitive, likes action, and probably participated in sports themselves or was involved with their kid's youth sports," said Klatsky. "Some of our partners have been involved in racing and some not at all." Cont.

"Most have reached a point where their family is grown and they are looking to make new friends and share new experiences. Our trainers get to know our partners personally, Braxton has them out to farm, they come out to the sales and we work hard to keep them engaged. We will send out daily communications and share information on all the BBN horses."

BBN Racing's goal each year is to invest $2 million into its annual program. This takes 40 partners, some of which are involved in all the groups and some who are new to BBN. Partners can buy in for a single share or buy multiple shares each year as well.

Hidden Stash | Coady Photography

"We don't want to grow too big," said Klatsky. "We want to deliver a true ownership experience."

"We would really like to see more of the Lexington community get involved since we are so Kentucky focused," Lynch said.

"Empty-nesters or people who are local and may be retired can get most out of what we offer. We put our horses first. Every member of the BBN team is as honest as the day is long. We all, including our partners, hold the same values and that is special."

Priest said he agreed. "My wife Liz and I had been junkies for years. We've had a box in front of the clubhouse at the Preakness for about 40 years, had been to many Breeders' Cups, made Haskell Day at Monmouth for 25 years straight, and attended quite a few Belmont Stakes. BBN is just big enough to make a party out of it, but small enough to get to mint some new friendships or get better acquainted with some partners first met at an earlier outing. Liz and I have been in every iteration, and we're just signing on for BBN VII. If I can evade the Grim Reaper long enough, I expect we'll be in BBN XXIII!"

While BBN has achieved significant milestones in a relatively brief time, the partnership's founders remain grounded and focused on their core values. They said they believe that horse racing is a special sport that deserves to be shared with a wider audience. BBN aspires to bring new fans into the fold and help to ensure the future of the sport, and they hope the foundation they have built will withstand the test of time.

AUGUST ECONOMIC INDICATORS, WAGERING AND PURSES ON THE RISE

Wagering on U.S. races, plus available and paid purses, all saw increases to varying degrees when compared to a year ago in August, while the number of race days and races themselves saw a slight uptick during the month, according to information released by Equibase on Thursday.

Total wagering of over $1.1 billion on races during the month represented a 5.53% increase over the same period from 2023, while available purses of over $142.7 million were up by 7.38%. The figure of over $136.6 million for paid purses in August was up 8.37%. As for the total number of race days, they went from 409 to 416 (+1.71%) and the number of U.S. races was up slightly from 3,204 in August 2023 to last month's tally of 3,232 (+0.87%).

Average field size in August was also up from over a year ago when it was 7.16, and checked in at an average of 7.21 runners, an increase of 0.72%. Average daily wagering increased by 3.75% to $2,807,622 and the average available purse number per race day was up 11.29% to $343,109 from the figure of $308,293 in 2023.

When it comes to the year-to-date figures, through August of 2023 wagering on U.S. races came in at $8.249 billion, while this year the amount is 8.081 billion (-2.03%). Those numbers include worldwide commingled wagering on U.S. races.

TAA ON THE GROUND FOR VIRGINIA DERBY WEEKEND

Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) will be present at Colonial Downs during Virginia Derby weekend starting on Saturday, Sept. 7, the organization said in a release Thursday.

Colonial Downs, a longtime supporter of accredited aftercare, will honor the TAA with a named race on the card. Aftercare members will present for the Gill Kitten’s Joy Stakes and make a presentation in the winner’s circle, and a number of other scheduled events are planned.

“I’m both excited and grateful to represent Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance at Colonial Downs on Virginia Derby Day,” said Suzie Picou-Oldham, Inspections Administrator, Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance. “We will be presenting Best Turned-Out awards, sponsored by Virginia HBPA. This is a fantastic way for us to celebrate accredited aftercare while awarding the grooms who care for the horses on the track.”

NORTH AMERICAN RACING

SUMMER BREEZES:

Pricey Midnight Lute Filly Starts Off on Turf

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits. Summer Breezes highlights debuting and stakes-entered 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. Here are the horses entered for Friday's program at Del Mar:

Safeen, winner of the 2023 GIII Pucker Up S., ended a seven-race losing streak with a front-running upset beneath Luis Saez at odds of 12-1 here. She set fractions of :23.90 and :46.72, enjoyed a clear advantage in the stretch and had enough left in the tank to hold on by a head. Safeen was adding blinkers following off-the-board finishes in the GII Nassau S. at Woodbine June 29 and Ky Downs Preview Ladies Turf Mile S. at Ellis Aug. 4.

"She got the ground she wanted today," winning trainer Eddie Kenneally said. "She likes it pretty firm. This adds to her resume. She's hard-knocking and probably as good as ever."

The winner's dam had a colt by Practical Joke in 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Margins: 3, 2 1/4, NO. Odds: 0.90, 1.70, 3.60.

Also Ran: Sweet Unique, Lionistic, Wine Me Up Baby.

Back to Ohio, already a six-time stakes winner, including the Presque Isle Debutante S., tracked the early leader from second and powered clear to deliver a three-length victory as the 4-5 favorite. She previously made up for a second-place finish as the heavy favorite off the bench in an allowance here July 11 with a runaway score as the 1-9 chalk Aug. 13. Back to Ohio is a half-sister to Ucantkeepup (Keep Up), SP, $217,824; and a Dialed In filly of this year. Her dam was bred back to Mitole. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

QUEEN REGENT (GB) (f, 4, Roaring Lion--Common Knowledge {GB}, by Rainbow Quest) was maiden winner and hit the board on five other occasions while under the care of John and Thady Gosden, including runner-up efforts in valuable handicaps over the Lingfield all-weather Dec. 6 and Jan. 20. Making just her third start on the grass and wearing the cheekpieces she carried for the first time in her most recent outing, the homebred settled in about centerfield behind what appeared to be a good pace up ahead. Poised to strike down the side of the track, Queen Regent was produced five wide into the straight, tackled the always-prominent Take Shape (Street Sense) with time ticking away and outfinished Heart Spin (Hard Spun) for the victory as the 17-10 favorite. A half-sister to Know It All (GB)

This is the extended female family of Nashwan, Unfuwain and Wind In Her Hair (Ire), the dam of the legendary Deep Impact (Jpn). Queen Regent is the first American winner for and is a member of last of just three crops left behind by her sire (by Kitten's Joy), who passed away on shuttle duties in New Zealand in 2019. A $160,000 Keeneland September yearling bred by RanJan Racing, Roaring Lion was trained by John Gosden for Qatar Racing to four Group 1 scores in some of Europe's top contests from 1600 to 2000 meters. He is the sire of six black-type winners--all from his first crop--from 53 winners overall, including 2022 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Dubai Mile (Ire). DAISY FLYER (f, 2, Mshawish--Starstruck {Ire} {MGSW, $299,423}, by Galileo {Ire}), sixth at 19-1 on debut at Ellis Park

Daisy Flyer | Coady Media

July 21, delivered at odds of 8-1 here. She raced in ninth through a half mile in :46.28, began to rally while six wide on the turn for home and came rolling down the center to outbattle Poema (Kantharos) by a head. Daisy Flyer is a half to Time for Trouble (English Channel), GSP, $647,307; Scarabea (American Pharoah), MSP, $190,290; and Turf War (War Front), SW, $111,550. WARHEART (g, 2, Omaha Beach--Inside Out {SP, $158,305}, by Colonel John), second on debut going 5 1/2 furlongs over the Colonial turf Aug. 17, went one better at odds of 3-1 here. He broke in and bumped with a rival at the start and traveled nicely while forcing the issue from an outside second. He took over as they hit the quarter pole and dug down gamely to defeat favored City of Oscars (Oscar Performance) by a head. The winner's dam had a filly by Midnight Lute in 2023 and a filly by Volatile this year. She was bred back to Game Winner. Sales history: $90,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

US BRED WINNING HAS NO BOUNDARIES

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Chukyo Racecourse:

The debuting American Stage is a half-brother to MGSW Super Chow (pictured) | Horsephotos

Saturday, September 7, 2024

4th-CKO, ¥13,720,000 ($95k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m

AMERICAN STAGE (c, 2, Into Mischief--Bonita Mia, by Warrior's Reward), a half-brother to three-time Grade III-winning sprinter Super Chow (Lord Nelson) and SW Princess Indy (Lord Nelson), was a $500,000 purchase out of last year's Keeneland September Sale by Yoshizawa Stable Co. The colt's unraced dam is a half-sister to Miss Match (Arg) (Indygo Shiner), an elite-level winner in Argentina and the U.S.; and to former 'TDN Rising Star' and 2016 GI Acorn Stakes winner Carina Mia (Malibu Moon), whose most recent foal--a colt by Epiphaneia (Jpn)--made $2.3 million at this year's JRHA Select Sale in July. Argentinian champion and GI Spinster Stakes victress Miss Linda (Arg) (Southern Halo) appears under the third dam.
 B-Spendthrift Farm LLC (KY)

CHUWA CHIEF (c, 2, Tom's d'Etat--Figure, by Overanalyze) made $60,000 as a Keeneland September yearling last fall and matured into a $190,000 OBS March breezer after working an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5. The March foal's stakes-placed dam is a half-sister to Grade III winner Ben's Duchess (Munnings) and the deeper female family includes GI Hollywood Derby winner Vergennes and MGISW turfer Nijinsky's Secret. B-WinStar Farm LLC (KY)

4th-CKO, ¥13,720,000 ($95k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200mT

T O ELVIS (c, 2, Volatile--Stopshoppingdebbie, by Curlin) is the latest to the races for his dam, winner of no fewer than eight stakes races at Emerald Downs and subsequently the dam of Generous Tipper (Street Sense), third in last year's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity. The dual stakes-winning second dam Taste the Passion (Wild Again) is responsible for six winners from nine to start, including five-time Emerald stakes winner Shampoo (Gulch)--also a stakes producer--and treble black-type winner and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies participant Smarty Deb (Smart Strike), herself the dam of two stakes winners. B-Jeff & Melissa Prunzik (KY)

SHOWING TIPS FOR WORKING THE KEENELAND SALE

Begin at the End (or even the Middle)

Historically lookers often start in the first barn of a given book and work their way through. Instead, we suggest starting at the end or somewhere in the middle to avoid traffic jams. This will be especially true once lookers start Book 2.

If the Crowd Zigs You Zag

If an area suddenly gets crowded, be flexible and jump over a few barns and then come back. Often one barn is swamped while a nearby barn is fairly quiet. However, if the whole area is active, jump to another area entirely. Keeneland has lots & lots of shuttles roaming the grounds. Remember, don't waste time standing in a sea of humanity and equine -- there is always someplace to see horses efficiently if you avoid the straight line.

HEWICK TRAINER SHARK HANLON BANNED FROM HAVING A LICENCE FOR 10 MONTHS

John 'Shark' Hanlon | Racingfotos.com

John 'Shark' Hanlon, the trainer of last year's G1 King George VI Chase winner Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}), has had his licence withdrawn for a period of 10 months and received a fine of €2,000 for "acting in a manner prejudicial to the integrity, proper conduct, or good reputation of the sport", it was announced by the Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board (IHRB) on Thursday.

The IHRB is said to have initiated an investigation on Sunday, June 16 after images appeared on social media which showed the carcass of a deceased horse being transported on an open trailer drawn by a horsebox belonging to Hanlon.

"Although there had been some attempts by Mr Hanlon to conceal the carcass from public view by covering it with a tarpaulin prior to departure from the paddock, these had failed completely by the time the box and trailer combination reached Paulstown, County Kilkenny at around 5pm, such that the carcass was completely uncovered and fully visible to members of the public," said the IHRB in a press release following a meeting of its Referrals Committee on Friday, August 30.

INISHERIN FACES 15 IN HAYDOCK SPRINT CUP

by Tom Frary

Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's G1 Commonwealth Cup winner Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal) heads a field of 16 sprinters confirmed for Saturday's G1 Betfair Sprint Cup at Haydock. Rested since his fifth as favourite for the G1 July Cup, the Kevin Ryan-trained homebred returns to the scene of his success in the G2 Sandy Lane Stakes in May with regular rider Tom Eaves retaining the ride. "Inisherin is in great form," his trainer said this week. "We've had an uninterrupted preparation and all his work has gone to plan when we wanted it to. He is very fresh and well. Knowing the horse, we haven't had a concern with him in any of his work and I'm confident we are in the right place. There is a fair chance he'll put some of the pace to the race anyway. The good thing about him is that he can go on or take a lead."

Also representing the owner-breeder is the Karl Burke-trained G3 Hackwood Stakes winner Elite Status (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), with Burke also saddling the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes and July Cup runner-up Swingalong (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}). The three-strong Irish contingent includes Amo Racing's G1 Phoenix Stakes winner Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) and Bronsan Racing's G3 Phoenix Sprint Stakes scorer Givemethebeatboys (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}).

The release continued, "Having considered the evidence and the admissions by Mr Hanlon, the Committee was satisfied that the IHRB had established that Mr Hanlon was in breach of Rule 272(i), by reason of the fact that he transported a deceased animal through Paulstown in a completely uncovered state, using a highly identifiable horsebox, which caused significant prejudice to the integrity, proper conduct and good reputation of the sport of horse-racing.

"The Committee was satisfied that the prejudice caused by the conduct of Mr Hanlon was compounded by the wide dissemination on various social media platforms of the recording of these events, and the ensuing adverse reaction and commentary."

Of the punishment handed out to Hanlon, the ruling read, "Having duly considered these matters, the Committee concluded that Mr Hanlon was grossly negligent in the supervision of the transport of the horse carcass on the day in question, and that the breach of Rule 272(i) therefore involved high culpability on his part.

"In relation to the breach of Rule 272(i), the Committee identified a headline sanction of 10 months withdrawal of Mr Hanlon's licence to train, together with a fine of €2,000. The fine was levied at a significantly lower level than that advocated by the IHRB, in anticipation of the financial and other consequences for Mr Hanlon of the primary sanction of withdrawal of his licence."

However, following admissions from Hanlon on the morning of the hearing "regarding his conduct and the consequences thereof", plus an unannounced inspection of his yard that showed no welfare issues and no relevant previous rule breaches, the Committee left the door open to later halving his suspension.

The ruling stated, "The Committee is disposed to consider a future application to conditionally suspend the last five months of the 10 month withdrawal sanction. The possible partial suspension of such a sanction to reflect mitigating factors is consistent with the previous approach of this Committee."

Hanlon said he was "very disappointed" and intends to appeal against his suspension.

"There is going to be an appeal put in straight away, that is one thing, and I can't say too much at this stage as my legal team have advised me not to say too much," said the County Carlow trainer.

"But we are very surprised and very disappointed with the results of the hearing."

KLARAVICH AND BROWN DOMINATE SARATOGA STANDINGS

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of Idea Generation in the Flower Bowl Stakes, as Klaravich Stables and trainer Chad Brown earned meet titles at Saratoga on Labor Day.

Idea Generation after the Flower Bowl | Sarah Andrew

Dubawi Longshot Pillar To Post In The Flower Bowl

Klaravich Stables and Chad Brown enjoyed a Saratoga double on Aug. 31, and Idea Generation (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) brought up the second half of that milestone when taking the GII Flower Bowl Stakes in front-running fashion (video).

Bred by Epona Bloodstock at Croom House Stud, the daughter of Knocknagree (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) caught the eye of Mike Ryan on behalf of Klaravich Stables to the tune of 340,000gns during the 2021 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1. Her dam's most recent produce are colts by Too Darn Hot (GB) and New Bay (GB) born in 2023 and 2024, respectively, both sons of Dubawi. Cont. p4

Second dam Tyrany (GB) (Machiavellia) foaled a trio of stakes winners, including sires Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), who won the G1 Phoenix Stakes, and Wilshire Boulevard (Ire).

Darley's Dubawi holds an enviable record in the U.S., with 44 winners from 86 runners (51%). Approaching a quarter-century of stakes winners with 23, he has now sired 18 graded winners with Idea Generation's success.

Lope De Vega Colt Strikes Early At Saratoga

Klaravich Stables' Early Adopter (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) closed to take a Saratoga affair for trainer Chad Brown on Aug. 31 (video).

Bred by Luca and Sara Cumani's Fittocks Stud in partnership with Arrow Farm & Stud, the chestnut was a 170,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling when picked up by Mike Ryan for Seth Klarman's operation. The winner is out of G2 Park Hill Stakes heroine and G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes runner-up Silk Sari (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). He is a half-brother to the dam of G1 Kennedy Oaks heroine Zardozi (Aus) (Kingman {GB}). This is the extended family of another Klaravich/Brown runner, three-time Grade I winner Program Trading (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

Ballylinch Stud's Lope De Vega now has 44 winners from 79 runners (71%) in the U.S. His 10 stakes winners are anchored by Grade I winners Program Trading, Newspaperofrecord (Ire), Carl Spackler (Ire) and Aunt Pearl (Ire).

Nashville Derby Glory For Bellum Justum

Bellum Justum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) delivered in the $2,337,160 GIII DK Horse Nashville Derby at Kentucky Downs for Andrew Balding (video). He is raced by King Power Racing, whose The Foxes (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) ran second in the 2023 GI Belmont Derby Invitational Stakes.

Bred by Rabbah Bloodstock Limited, the 375,000gns Book 1 yearling selection by SackvilleDonald at Tattersalls won the Listed Blue Riband Trial prior to running seventh in the G1 Derby this year. He was then third in the G3 Hampton Court Stakes and second in the G3 Gordon Stakes prior to his American heroics. The second foal out of the winning Natural Beauty (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Bellum Justum is followed by a yearling colt by Mehmas (Ire). He is kin to multiple group winner Laaheb (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third Fox Tal (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

The Aga Khan Stud's Sea The Stars (Ire) has 67% winners Stateside, with 21 winners from 43 runners. A quintet of horses have struck at graded level among his 11 stakes winners in that locale, with Grade II winners Ottoman Fleet (GB) and Legend Of Time (GB) the best of the bunch.

Dubawi Filly Finds The Spa To Her Liking

Stephanie Seymour Brant's Opulent Restraint (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) won at second asking at Saratoga for trainer Chad Brown (video). The White Birch Farm-bred is out of multiple graded winner Significant Form (Creative Cause).

Peter Brant's White Birch Farm acquired the grey's dam for $575,000 out of the OBS Spring 2-Year-Old Sale, and she would go on to score in the GIII Miss Grillo Stakes, GII Ballston Spa Stakes, GIII Noble Damsel Stakes, and GIII Intercontinental Stakes, throughout her career. Opulent Restraint is kin to a yearling full-sister and a weanling half-sister by Kingman (GB). Her dam was covered by Justify later this spring. Significant Form is a half-sister to graded winner Hay Dakota (Haynesfield), while under the third dam is GII Nassau County Breeders' Cup Stakes heroine Hello Liberty (Forest Camp), second in the GI Acorn Stakes, Grade III winner Cairo Memories (Cairo Prince) and GI Blue Grass Stakes hero and young sire Zandon (Upstart).

As mentioned above, Dubawi's progeny thrive in the U.S. Of his 10 Grade I winners there, Master Of The Seas (Ire), Modern Games (Ire), Yibir (GB), Rebel's Romance (Ire), Wuheida (GB), and Space Blues (Fr) have all captured at least one Breeders' Cup race. Cont. p5

Child Of The Moon Thrives In Allowance

Madaket Stables, Michael Dubb and Louis Lazzinnaro's Child Of The Moon (Fr) (The Grey Gatsby {Ire}) prevailed in Saratoga Springs on Labor Day (video). Yet another Chad Brown trainee, the 4-year-old filly was bred by Patrick Chedeville.

Sold for €110,000 by Haras du Petit Tellier to Hubert Guy at the Arqana October Yearling Sale, the daughter of G3 Prix Fille de l'Air heroine Ma Preference (Fr) (American Post {GB}) is a half-sister to stakes winner and GI Flower Bowl Stakes-placed Onthemoonagain (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Racing in the colours of Ecurie Jean-Louis Tepper, she made five starts in France for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget, winning her fifth start there by seven lengths. Resless Kara (Fr) (Akarad {Fr}), who shares the same third dam as Child Of The Moon, won the G1 Prix de Diane in 1988.

All five of The Grey Gatsby's runners in the U.S. are winners. His pair of stakes winners include the GIII The Very One Stakes heroine Mylady (Ger) and Atomic Blonde (Ger). The last-named has placed three times at the graded level.

Belardo Runner Remains Perfect

Hronis Racing's Raw Ability (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) showed just that when landing a Del Mar contest on Sept. 2 (video). Her record is now a flawless two-for-two after taking a Gowran Park affair earlier this summer for owner Kate McNamara and trainer Eric McNamara.

Now trained by John Sadler, the Gary Aspell-bred filly was a €1,000 Goffs August yearling RNA before selling for £140,000 to Shawn Dugan during the Goffs London Sale. Her dam, the winning mare Que Sera Sera (GB) (Dansili {GB}), has fillies by Buratino (Ire) and Raven's Pass born in 2022 and 2023, respectively. Sire Zambezi Sun (GB), also by Dansili, won the G1

Grand Prix de Paris, while European champion sprinter Continent (GB) (Lake Coniston {Ire}) is also a far-flung member of this clan.

Bearstone Stud resident Belardo has now sired seven winners from eight runners in America (87.5%). His best there are Grade I winner Gold Phoenix (see below) and multiple graded winner Bellabel (Ire).

Repeat Winners:

Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) made it three consecutive GII Del Mar Handicaps with a victory on Aug. 31 for Phil D'Amato (video). The 6-year-old gelding is raced by Little Red Feather Racing, Sterling Stables and Marsha Naify.

Muhaarar (GB)'s Motorious (GB) claimed the GIII Green Flash Handicap for Anthony Fanticola and trainer Phil D'Amato on the final day of August (video). He won the GIII San Simeon Stakes at Santa Anita previously in the spring of 2023.

Maman Joon (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), already a winner at the Oceanport oval this year, scored by 1 3/4 lengths in the Violet Stakes at Monmouth Park on the last day of August (video). She races for Amo Racing USA and trainer Chad Brown.

AGENDA AND KEEPER'S HEART JOIN LIST OF HONG KONG IMPORTS FROM BRITAIN AND IRELAND

Agenda | Racingphotos.com

G3 Chester Vase runner-up Agenda (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Irish Derby fifth Keeper's Heart (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) have been sold to continue their racing careers in Hong Kong, it was reported by Hong Kong Racing (@HongKong_Racing) on X on Thursday.

Last seen finishing seventh in the G2 King Edward VII Stakes at Royal Ascot, Agenda is reportedly set to join the stable of David Hall. He follows several other horses formerly trained by Aidan O'Brien who have been recruited to the Hong Kong ranks this summer, with the others including the Listed Dee Stakes winner Capulet (Justify) and Leopardstown maiden scorer Igor Stravinsky (Ire) (No Nay Never). That pair will continue their careers in the care of Danny Shum and Tony Cruz, respectively, while G2 Dante Stakes fourth Cambridge (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and last year's G2 Gimcrack Stakes runner-up Johannes Brahms (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) have both joined Pierre Ng since leaving Ballydoyle.

Earlier this year Massive Sovereign (Ire) (No Nay Never) won the Hong Kong Derby for Dennis Yip, having previously won two of his five starts for O'Brien when known as Broadhurst, while multiple Group 1 winner Russian Emperor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is another former Ballydoyle inmate to excel after moving to Hong Kong.

Keeper's Heart was beaten around seven and a half lengths behind Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) when making his final appearance for Ger Lyons in the Irish Derby. He too is set to join Ng, along with Donnacha O'Brien's three-time winner Naval Force (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) and wide-margin Newmarket scorer Validated (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}).

Another high-profile import from Britain this year is the former Ed Bethell trainee Mickley (Ire) (Soldier's Call {GB}), who will be part of John Size's team in Hong Kong after winning the Britannia Stakes at Royal Ascot on his final start on British soil.

IRISH CHAMPIONS SALE POSTPONED BY GOFFS

The 2024 Goffs Irish Champions Sale, slated for Leopardstown during the Irish Champions Festival, has been postponed due to a lack of suitable stabling, the sales company announced on Thursday.

Instead, horses will be re-routed to the second edition of the Goffs QIPCO British Champions Day Sale at Ascot on Oct. 19. Last term, Rogue Lightning (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) sold to Richard Brown on behalf of Wathnan Racing for £1 million at the latter sale.

Goffs Group chief executive Henry Beeby said, "It became apparent this morning that we would be unable to use the racecourse stables to house the sale horses as we have done in the past, despite working proactively with Leopardstown and the IHRB. This is largely due to the expected increase in runners given the expanded racecard and the number of very welcome overseas runners. Naturally we are disappointed, however, as the only option would be to build temporary stables for the sale, we feel this is not appropriate for the quality of horses we intended to offer." Cont. p7

He said, "We will instead redirect those horses suitable to the Goffs QIPCO British Champions Day Sale at Ascot on 19 October. We hope to revisit the Champions Sale concept in 2025 with the benefit of this years' experience and with more time to plan for all eventualities."

BRITISH EBF TO SUPPORT JUNIOR HURDLE PROGRAMME

The British EBF is to refocus part of its National Hunt prize-money contribution to support the junior hurdle programme, it was announced on Thursday.

Now in their fourth year, Junior National Hunt Hurdle races are designed to enhance the potential of young horses through earlier jumping education. Racing against their own age group, the development of the programme aims to mirror the early education options available to National Hunt trainers in Ireland and France.

Open exclusively to three-year-olds from October to December and four-year-olds from January to April of the following year, Junior Hurdle runners must not have previously competed, except for running in a NH Flat or Junior 'NH' Hurdle. They carry the same status as NH Flat and point-to-point races, in that winners will not be precluded from competing in novice hurdles during the following jumps season.

"We are constantly looking at the best ways to strategically support the race programme," said Simon Sweeting, chairman of the British EBF.

"With guidance from the BHA, we agreed to lend support to this relatively new initiative so it had time to gain traction with owners and trainers and give its creators [the TBA and BHA] time to assess its value to the wider National Hunt racing and breeding landscape."

Simon Cox, chairman of the TBA National Hunt Committee, added, "We are delighted that the British EBF are supporting the Junior 'NH' Hurdle races from this autumn through sponsorship. These races provide a vital education for NH-bred horses to compete against each other at the same development stage, without the burden of taking on more mature Flat-breds.

"As a NH Committee, we were pleased with the interest that these races have had from the first to the second year, and as more and more stakeholders understand the concept and its benefits, we anticipate the standard to keep on improving."

LAUREN KEEN-HAWKINS MOVED OUT OF INTENSIVE CARE

Lauren Keen-Hawkins, an amateur jockey who sustained a serious head injury in a fall at Worcester earlier this month, has been moved out of intensive care.

Hospitalised in Birmingham, the winning rider and member of Kim Bailey's team, was visited by Bailey's assistant Mat Nicholls this week.

Bailey wrote on his stable blog, "Mat went to Birmingham to visit Lauren Hawkins yesterday and was pleased to see how she looked.

"Lauren has been moved out of ICU and into a ward and although still not fully conscious, she does seem to recognise voices and mentioned the odd words.

"She is improving and although she has a long way to go, the signs are positive.

"I must say again how wonderful the Injured Jockeys Fund and their team have been to Lauren's family. Their support has been brilliant and hugely appreciated."

BALLET SLIPPERS HEADS TO ASCOT

15.00 Ascot, Novice, £15,000, 2yo, 7f 213yT
BALLET SLIPPERS (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}) looks to get off the mark at the third attempt, having run into smart peers in her native Ireland so far. Ballydoyle's first foal out of the multiple Group 1-winning Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and granddaughter of Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) was third on debut behind Juddmonte's TDN Rising Star Red Letter (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and just edged out back at The Curragh last month by Falling Snow (Ire) (Justify). Arguably the best maiden in training has a distinct edge over her rivals on the card that Aidan O'Brien brought Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) to in 2022.

HOW THEY FARED

15.20 Salisbury, Mdn, £40,000, 2yo, f, 6f 213yT
Qatar Racing's hitherto unraced homebred Kingsclere (Kitten's Joy), an Andrew Balding-trained full-sister to G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Futurity Trophy-winning sire Kameko, was unable to make her debut after the entire card was abandoned due to a waterlogged track.

16.05 Newbury, Mdn, £12,000, unraced 2yo, f, 7fT
Shadwell's homebred Suhub (GB) (Mohaather {GB}), a William Haggas-trained daughter of G1 Falmouth Stakes and G1 Sun Chariot Stakes heroine Nazeef (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), was unable to land a telling blow and finished 10 1/4 lengths adrift of the winner in fourth.

5th-Haydock, £14,000, Novice, 9-5, 2yo, c/g, 6fT, 1:13.87, g/s.
DEFENCE MINISTER (GB) (c, 2, Too Darn Hot {GB}--Tears Of The Sun {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Mastercraftsman {Ire}), carrying a seven-pound penalty for his taking debut win at Newmarket last month, was settled behind the leaders early. Surging to the front inside the final furlong, the 11-8 favourite asserted for a 1 1/2-length defeat of Arabian Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The listed-placed dam, whose filly foal is by Ten Sovereigns (Ire), is a daughter of the Listed Rosemary Stakes winner Perfect Star (GB) (Act One {GB}) who also produced the G3 Prestige Stakes winner Kilmah (GB) (Sepoy {Aus}). Sales history: 20,000gns Ylg '23 TADEY; €210,000 2yo '24 TATBRU. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $15,623.
 O-Wathnan Racing; B-Mildmay Bloodstock Ltd (GB); T-Hamad Al Jehani.

4th-Haydock, £10,000, Nov, 9-5, 2yo, c/g, 7f 212yT, 1:42.82, g/s.
SILVER PEAK (FR) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Pretty Spirit {GB}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}), an Aug. 21 debut fourth at Kempton last time, trailed all four rivals through halfway here. Coaxed closer in the straight, the 11-8 favourite quickened to the front approaching the furlong pole and was pushed out to assert by an ultimately comfortable two lengths from Sir Dinadan (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). Silver Peak, a €1.25-million Arqana August graduate, is the third of five foals and second scorer produced by a half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning sire Persian King (Ire) (Kingman {GB}). The March-foaled bay is half to a yearling colt by St Mark's Basilica (Fr) and a weanling colt by Mehmas (Ire). Sales history: €1,250,000 Ylg '23 ARAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $7,720.

1st-Newbury, £12,000, Mdn, 9-5, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:29.25, sf.

TOO MUCH HEAVEN (GB) (f, 2, Too Darn Hot {GB}--Favulusa {GB} {SW-Ity}, by Dansili {GB}) was swiftly into stride and led from flagfall in this debut. Holding sway throughout, the 6-1 chance scooted clear approaching the final furlong and kept on powerfully under mild urging in the latter stages to easily outclass Orange Sky (Ire) (No Nay Never) by an impressive four lengths. Too Much Heaven is the fifth of seven foals and third scorer out of Listed Premio Archidamia victrix Favulusa (GB) (Dansili {GB}), herself one of five black-type performers produced by G3 Premio Mario Incisa della Rocchetta winner Rosa Del Dubai (Ire) (Dubai Destination). The February-foaled bay is a half-sister to last year's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup hero Regional (GB) (Territories {Ire}), G1 Al Maktoum Challenge runner-up Franz Strauss (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}), a yearling filly by Palace Pier (GB) and a weanling filly by Oasis Dream (GB). Sales history: 46,000gns Wlg '22 TADEWE. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $8,299.

O-Mrs Julie Wood; B-Razza Del Sole Societa Agricola SRL (GB); T-Richard Hannon.

5th-Newbury, £12,000, Mdn, 9-5, 2yo, 6fT, 1:15.61, sf.

PERSIAN SPIRIT (IRE) (f, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Persian Beauty {Ire}, by Dubawi {Ire}), sent off at 20-1, tanked her way to the front soon after the start. Finding plenty despite having raced so keenly, the newcomer had half a length to spare over the smart yardstick Boxtel (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) at the line. The winner is the first of two current foals out of the dam, a full-sister to the G3 Huxley Stakes winner Danadana (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) whose family includes Dubawi's G2 Celebration Mile winner and GI Arlington Million runner-up Afsare (GB) and the remarkable broodmare Reem Three (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}). That links her to Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Ajman Princess (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), whose high-class son Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal) is one of this weekend's star turns. Her yearling filly is by Earthlight (Ire). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $8,299.

O/B-Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum (IRE); T-Richard Hannon.

2nd-Haydock, £8,000, Mdn, 9-5, 2yo, 6f 212yT, 1:30.28, g/s.
WE DARE TO DREAM (IRE) (c, 2, Dark Angel {Ire}--Vestavia {Ire}, by Alhaarth {Ire}), runner-up in six-furlong starts at Ayr and Ripon, broke well from the inside stall and asserted for an early lead here. Holding sway throughout, the 5-2 favourite came under pressure approaching the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from Sir Peter Fossick (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). We Dare To Dream is the ninth of 11 live foals produced by an unraced half-sister to G3 Princess Margaret Stakes runner-up Rosabee (Ire) (No Excuse Needed {GB}). The February-foaled bay is a half-brother to Listed Owenstown Stud Stakes and Listed Waterford Testimonial Stakes victor Texas Rock (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), a yearling colt by Australia (GB) and a weanling filly by Kuroshio (Aus). Sales history: €75,000 Wlg '22 GOFNO1; €45,000 Ylg '23 GOFOR2. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $10,917. O-Baker Longden Lambert; B-M C Grassick (IRE); T-David O'Meara.
