

MILLION-DOLLAR NYQUIST COLTS PACE 'VIBRANT' BOOK 2 FINALE AT KEENELAND

The session-topping Nyquist colt, hip 984 | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini & Christina Bossinakis

LEXINGTON, Ky - With a pair of seven-figure colts by Nyquist leading the way, trade remained strong straight through the conclusion of Book 2 during the fourth session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale Thursday in Lexington.

"It was a great day," said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy at the close of business Thursday evening. "We are very pleased. The median is up 25% for the session over last year, which is a metric that we always use. That shows that it was really difficult to buy a nice horse. Everyone was fighting over the ones they wanted. There was a real was vibrant trade on the ones they wanted."

For the session, 216 horses sold for $63,046,000. The average of $291,880 rose 13.25% from last year's corresponding session and the median was up 25.0% to $250,000.

Through the two Book 2 sessions, Keeneland sold 436 yearlings through the ring for a gross of $132,963,000. The average was up 8.1% to $304,961 and the median rose 15.6% to $260,000.

PROCLAIMING HIS INNOCENCE, TRAINER JORGE DUARTE, JR. IS FINDING OUT HOW TOUGH IT IS TO FIGHT HIWU by Bill Finley

On June 26, trainer Jorge Duarte, Jr was informed that a horse he trained named Happy Cat (Kitten's Joy) had tested positive for methamphetamine following a May 22nd race at Delaware Park. Duarte was indeed concerned, but he insisted he had done nothing wrong, that cooler heads would prevail and that he would not be penalized.

Three-and-a-half months later, he has already started serving what could be a lengthy suspension. The problem is that when there is a drug positive, Duarte says the position of the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) is that you are guilty until you can prove you are innocent.

"Here I am, guilty before they could prove I'm guilty," Duarte said. "I haven't even had a hearing yet." Cont. p16

During last year's two-session Book 2, 416 yearlings sold through the ring for a total of $117,375,000 for an average of $282,151 and a median of $225,000.

Through four sessions, the buy-back rate is 29.59%. It was 28.67% at the same point a year ago, but there have been plenty of post-sale transactions. As of Thursday evening, there were 40 horses listed as post-sales through the two books for a gross of $8,925,000.

"The RNA rate was a little higher than last year, but there is a vibrant RNA-to-sale trade," Lacy said. "We have over $9 million worth of horses registered already as sales that are going to be published. It's very much on track with last year. Even the second to last horse [Thursday] RNA'd and came in and was done straight afterwards."

Keeneland Director of Sales Operations Cormac Breathnach added, "Over the week, the RNA rate is about the same, it's maybe 1% higher than it was through week one last year, which means that some people are not getting their horses sold through the ring. That's something we will always be monitoring, talking to people and getting feedback to make sure that the buyers are here at every level for week one as well. Last year, we did a lot of RNA-to-sales and this year we are well on track to match or even exceed that, which is important for the sellers and breeders."

Elliott Walden, bidding on behalf of Maverick Racing, CHC, Inc., and Siena Farm, made the highest bid of Thursday's session, going to $1.3 million to acquire a colt by Nyquist from the Blake-Albina Thoroughbred Services consignment. Late in the day, John Stewart of Resolute Bloodstock bid $1.2 million to acquire a son of the Kentucky Derby winner from the Indian Creek consignment. Cont.

The two seven-figure yearlings brought the total to reach that threshold over the first four days of the auction to 36.

“For us, the sale has been wonderful,” said Indian Creek’s Sarah Sutherland. “I think if you are in the right spot, things line up well and you are rewarded handsomely. The market is strong for those top horses. I think it will continue to trickle down. There are going to be quality horses all the way through. You just have to stick around and keep working and shaking the bushes.”

The domestic buying bench remained dominant during Book 2, but there also continued to be broad international participation.

“We have a lot of the players—especially the trainers—that were active in the first three days and were still here today and they are still looking,” said Lacy. “That is really encouraging for the next group of horses. There are a lot of people who haven’t gotten their hand up and some people are just starting to get traction now.

“The domestic buyers were strong, but we also saw Michael Costa from Jebel Ali Stable from Dubai buying four, the Japanese are very much in play still, and there are a lot of Irish that are here looking to buy for pinhooking. Coolmore bought today. It’s a very vibrant and broad marketplace still. And it gives you the feel that a lot of these people are not going anywhere. They are going to be around next week.”

Following a dark day Friday, the Keeneland September sale resumes Saturday and continues through Sept. 21. Sessions begin daily at 10 a.m.

“A Man Among Boys”: $1.3M Nyquist Tops Book 2 Finale

Midway through Thursday’s second Book 2 session, a colt by Kentucky Derby hero Nyquist (Hip 984) lit up the tote board with a $1.3 million final bid from WinStar’s Elliott Walden, who was bidding on behalf of China Horse Club, Maverick Racing and Siena Farm.

“Everybody seems to want a Nyquist, Gun Runner, Justify or Constitution...there are a lot of them in here,” said Walden. “You have to sort through them. This was the one we landed on.”

Out of Spa Treatment (Bernardini), the bay was consigned by agent Blake-Albina Thoroughbred Services.

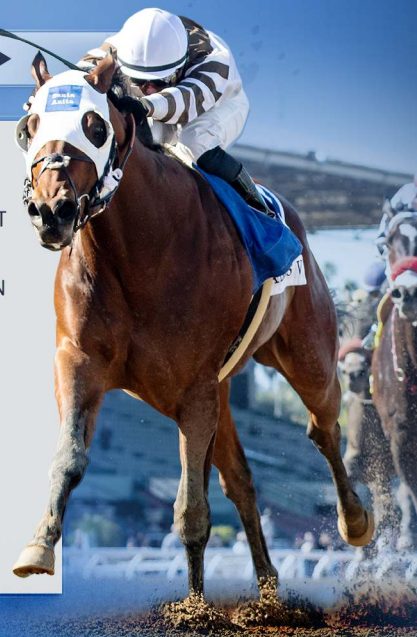

“He was always was a beautiful colt and we felt like Book 2 would suit him better; he would stand out,” said Ron Blake. “He had such presence in the way he carries himself in everything he does. He is first class and the buyers could see that. It’s always hard to get those kinds of numbers. We knew we had a lot of people on him, but we just didn’t know if it would go that far. He deserved it.” Cont.

Selling on behalf of an undisclosed client, the Feb. 10 foal previously brought $385,000 at Keeneland last November.

"He was a 385,000 pinhook, but I don't think it's ever reasonable that you are going to get seven figures," Hanzly Albina admitted. "There is a lot that has to go right. There was definitely a point [Wednesday] that I felt pretty confident that we were going to get pretty close. [Thursday], I felt super confident that we were going to get there. But you still have to do it."

The colt was bred by Hunter Valley Farm and Springhouse Farm. The latter purchased Spa Treatment, a daughter of SW and GISP Silver Knockers (Silver Deputy), for $140,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Mixed sale in 2019.

"I went to the farm in the spring to look at some of the horses we were looking at selling and this is definitely one of the yearlings that caught everyone's eye," recalled Albina. "He's just a beautiful horse all around. He really stood out...a man among boys. He was always a very nice individual but he developed properly."

The yearling represents the same cross as four Grade I winners, including recent GI Spinaway Stakes winner Immersive. Trained by Brad Cox for Godolphin, that daughter of Bernardini's Gap Year also won her career debut at the Spa July 21.

"Obviously, Nyquist over Bernardini is a great cross," explained Walden. "[Hip 984] was one of our favorite horses in the sale--very strong."

"That cross works very well, it's a high-statistical cross and he's a beautiful horse, one of our favorites of the sale. Book 1, Book 2--it didn't matter. We were very bullish on him."

Asked about some of the changes that have been made throughout the Keeneland pavilion of late, Walden opined, "I love the tables that they set up and the fact that Keeneland, Tony Lacy and Shannon Arvin are changing the culture here."

Blake-Albina Riding High After Session-Topping Score

Highlighted by Thursday’s session-leading colt by Nyquist, Blake-Albina Thoroughbred Services enjoyed solid action through the first four days of selling at the Keeneland September Sale.

Hip 984 | Thorostride

Asked about the pre-sale action leading up to the sale of Thursday’s top yearling, Hanzly Albina explained, “The activity at the barn was crazy. That horse had 218 shows. The average horse in my consignment got 126. And we were happy with those and they sold well. They were well-sold horses. People came to see [Hip 984] three, four times, people were taking videos for international clients. There was definitely buzz.”

Through the sale’s initial four sessions, three yearlings by Darley’s champion juvenile and Classic winner Nyquist realized seven-figure prices.

“He definitely is the best example of his father,” said Albina of the sale’s co-seventh leading priced yearling. “He had leg, size and more than enough hip for his body. He was a very tight package all around. All the parts matched. With that huge push that the stallion is getting, it took it over. When you get a physical like this, it gives people a lot of confidence in the stallion. It’s not a question anymore. He’s here to stay and they’re ready to pay money for them.”

Through four days, the Blake-Albina consignment offered nine head, with five finding buyers through the ring, in addition to one selling post sale (Hip 933).

From four horses offered in Book 1, the operation sold half--a colt by Tapit (Hip 42) going to Chad Summers for $400,000 and a colt by Candy Ride (Arg) (Hip 287) for $550,000 to BC Stables.

“Book 1 is an interesting beast because Book 1 horses were expensive to breed,” explained Albina. “They are usually bred by people with means, and they don’t have to sell. They can choose to test the market and choose to bring the horse to market. They are often sellers at a price. So it’s a bit unfair to judge the entire market on the RNA rate of those sessions. If the horse doesn’t sell, it can be kept to go into training. So for us, that was Book 1. We bought a few back and sold others really well, but we’re happy overall.”

Offering five head in Book 2, the operation sold four of five, including a pair of $300,000 purchases (Hip 892, Medaglia d’Oro filly and Hip 921, Tapit colt).

“In Book 2, we sold most of our horses. On most of those we got what we expected,” he said. “We were realistic but on the high end of realistic. So it was very good. If you had told me we would have gotten 20% less on all the horses we sold, I still would have been very happy.”--@CBossTDN

Stewart Still Swinging in Book 2 Conclusion

Things appeared to be gearing down toward the end of Thursday’s fourth day of selling at Keeneland. That is until Resolute Bloodstock’s John Stewart reappeared in the main pavilion. On a day that proved prolific for Nyquist, a colt by the Darley sire brought $1.2 million from Stewart, making it the second-highest price of the fourth session.

“I like the way that [Nyquist] horses have run. I really think that there is nothing but upside there,” said Stewart. “Then the physical of the horse--it was our top colt for the day. I was joking around that I was waiting for that horse for four hours, and there was no way I wasn’t buying it. Whoever I was bidding against on the phone I was just watching, thinking, ‘I’m going to keep going. Let’s go.’” Cont.

Offered as Hip 1114, the Apr. 10 foal, who was bred by County Line Farm, was consigned by Indian Creek.

“This is a horse that we loved for a really long time,” said Indian Creek’s Sarah Sutherland. “He seemed like he was very well received, but you just don’t know. It takes people that are going to be spirited bidding and they have to fight for a horse like this, and if they do, you can have amazing results. It definitely exceeded out expectations, but I’ll never complain about that.”

The bay is out of the Candy Ride (Arg) mare GSW Candy Swap, herself a full sister to Grade I winner and sire Sidney’s Candy. Candy Swap is already responsible for stakes-winning Bluegrass Parkway (Quality Road). Candy Swap, in foal to Quality Road, was purchased in 2015 for $200,000 at Keeneland November.

“He is one of those horses that shows that he wants to do it,” said Sutherland. “He’s going to want to train and be forward in everything that he does. He never got tired. He’s a feel-good type of colt and it translated well with what we asked him. He didn’t let us down.”

Earlier in Thursday’s session, another colt by Nyquist (hip 984) brought a session-topping $1.3 million.

“Honestly, I thought that was very strong and good for [those connections] because he was a very nice horse. But to have two of them right there together at $1.2 and $1.3 million says there wasn’t much to separate them. The stallion can do no wrong right now.”

“[Hip 1114]’s got a nice pedigree and he’s a Classic distance type of horse. I think he’s one that is not even close to his best right now. He’s a beautiful mover but there is a lot of improvement in this colt.”

At the conclusion of Thursday's session, Stewart had purchased an additional three yearlings. In addition to the second-highest priced colt of the day, he secured Hip 829 by Authentic for $750,000 and Hip 885 by Vekoma for $600,000.

Through four sessions, Resolute purchased nine head--including two seven-figure yearlings--for $6.325 million.

According to Stewart, he also bought into the $2.2-million Gun Runner colt (Hip 169) purchased by Mandy Pope in Book 1.

Sarah Sutherland, John Stewart, and Gavin O'Connor | Keeneland

"I think the top of the market is doing well," said Stewart. "That is really good for everybody."

According to Stewart, Resolute has secured 47 yearlings in 2024, to add to the weanlings purchased last fall.

"I've got too many yearlings now so I've got to figure out what to do," he said. "We still have some sales to go through and we're active overseas now with [Goffs and Tattersalls]. I don't want more than 50 going into racing next year, so I'm going to have to cull some of the ones we've bought, but I think the market is pretty good."

Giving a nod to what lies ahead at the upcoming breeding stocks sales, he explained, "We've got some exciting things planned for the foal sales coming up. Something that could really boost the market and benefit the people that make a living of buying foals and selling yearlings--the pinhooking market. It's something the industry is really not seeing which is some widespread financing.

"I've been working for a year to put together a program to offer some financing on weanlings. So hopefully, we will have it ready for the weanling sale and inject about $20 million to support the market. I think that is part of solving this problem of the declining foal population. It's about making it more profitable to breed good horses. I think that will be interesting and there will be more details coming out about it in the next few months."--@CBossTDN

Team Dornoch Restocks

As retirement looms for GI Belmont Stakes and GI Haskell Stakes winner Dornoch (Good Magic), the team of partners on the sophomore is restocking with more yearlings by Good Magic and his sire Curlin. Bloodstock agent Megan Jones, bidding alongside trainer Danny Gargan, purchased a colt by Curlin (hip 875) for $850,000. Out of Grade I-placed Lady Kate (Bernardini), the yearling was consigned by Indian Creek on behalf of Barbara Banke's Stonestreet.

“He was just a beautiful specimen,” Jones said after signing the ticket on the yearling. “He did everything right. Bred by Barbara, obviously, we loved that. We loved the pedigree. I thought he did everything right in the back ring.”

Of the colt's new owners, Jones said, “It's most of the same guys who own Dornoch--it will be Belmar Racing, Randy Hill, Dean Reeves and Mark Pine.”

Megan Jones | Keeneland

Earlier in the auction, Jones signed on behalf of the group for a colt by Good Magic (hip 540) for $550,000 and the partners came back later in the day Thursday to acquire a colt by Good Magic (hip 955) for $600,000.

They also acquired a colt by Good Magic (hip 224) for $850,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale last month. “We love Curlin and Good Magic,” Jones said. “Danny has had three Good Magics and three graded stakes winners. We love Curlin and Good Magic, we just feel safe and happy there.”

In addition to Dornoch, Gargan also trains graded winners Society Man and Dubyuhnell, both by Good Magic.

As Dornoch battles to the end of the year for an Eclipse championship, Jones admitted the partners were eager to find their next star.

“They would love to come back and do that again in two years,” she said. Cont.

Into Mischief Colt Brings $825K Thursday

A colt by Into Mischief realized $825,000 during Thursday's action at Keeneland. Offered as Hip 898 by agent Mill Ridge Sales, the bay was purchased by Windancer Farm.

Hip 898 | Keeneland

The colt is the first foal out of Mighty Road, who made a single career start, finishing ninth at Gulfstream in 2020, before being retired due to injury.

The daughter of Quality Road, who brought $1 million at the 2019 OBS Spring Sale after selling for $220,000 at KEESSEP, is a half sister to Grade II winner Decelerator (Dehere), the dam of GSWs Nafaayes (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and Stoltz (More Than Ready). This represents the extended family of Grade I/Group 1 scorers Fabulous Notion and Cacoethes.

"He was really special colt," said Price Bell of Mill Ridge Sales. "Mighty Road was a very good 2-year-old who sold for $1 million and had an injury. She had a lot of ability. The colt has a ton of class."

He continued, "Margaux Farm raised the horse and we had the privilege to consign him. He was a star from the beginning and had a lot of interest from a lot of good judges."

In regard to the Spendthrift sire, Bell added, "What a sire Into Mischief has been. He throws all shapes and sizes and the beauty is they all like to run."--@CBossTDN

Dooleys Cap Big Day with Not This Time Colt

Sarah and Leo Dooley's Norevale Farm had already had a series of pinhooking scores when they sent their homebred colt by Not This Time (hip 1067) through the ring Thursday evening to sell for $825,000 to the bid of Belladonna Racing. The yearling, bred in partnership with Sarah's father Tony Holmes and brother Michael Holmes, is a half-brother to this year's GII Rebel Stakes runner-up Common Defense (Karakontie {Jpn}). The team purchased Allusion (Street Cry {Ire}), with Common Defense in utero, for $25,000 at the 2021 Keeneland January sale.

"We bought the mare a few years ago kind of cheap and everything has come together," said Sarah. "This has always been an awesome foal. We bought him back as a foal and he has just done super as a yearling. He is a tremendous physical, a super cool horse."

The yearling RNA'd for $260,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

"The page came together a lot with Common Defense being on the Derby trail," Leo said of the difference between the results last November and Thursday. "He would have been in the Derby if not for a minor injury beforehand. And the yearling, physically, just got better and better. And Not This Time is on fire."

The couple are consigning under the Norevale for just the second time and Thursday's $825,000 result marked a high-water mark for the farm. Cont.

“It’s our second sale. Our first was in July and this is our first September,” Sarah said with a broad smile. “Records fell today.” Before its homebred success Thursday, Norevale had a pair of pinhook successes. A colt by Charlatan (hip 881) purchased for $150,000 at Keeneland last November sold for $450,000 to Pedro Lanz; while a colt by Good Magic (hip 1012) purchased for $175,000 last November sold for $475,000 to Reeves Thoroughbred Racing.

Also Thursday, Norevale consigned a filly by Good Magic (hip 1001), bred by Tony and Michael Holmes, Timothy Thornton, and Norevale Farm, for $330,000 to Tracy Farmer. Thornton had purchased Sumptuous (Hennessy) with the filly in utero for $85,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November sale.

Completing the farm’s day, a filly by Charlatan (hip 891) bred by Tony Holmes, sold for $300,000 to First Row Partners.

“We are delighted for the whole team,” Leo said. “It’s a testament to all the hard work that the staff does. We are very thankful for a great staff at home. We’ve had a good sale. We knew we had good horses coming in here. It’s nice to see that come together.”

Sarah added, “We are going to head back to the barn now and there are going to be a lot of hugs, high fives and maybe some tears. We’ve had a great day. It’s great when the puzzle pieces come together. We are going to enjoy it, it’s hard work and in a couple of months, it will be on to the next batch. It was a great day overall. It takes a village and we have a great village. We couldn’t be more thrilled.” @JessMartiniTDN

Mike Ryan Landing a Gun Runner at KEESEP

Agent Mike Ryan has been busy filling orders this week, securing a bevy of babies from several of the best stallions in the country. One of the most sought-after sires that had eluded

Hip 818 | Keeneland

Ryan through the initial three sessions was Gun Runner. However, that changed Thursday when the agent extended to $750,000 for Hip 818.

Consigned by St George Sales, agent for Phase II of the Dell Ridge Farm dispersal, the Dell Ridge-bred colt is out of stakes-winning Giant Mover. The daughter Giant’s Causeway produced GII Indiana Oaks scorer and GI Alabama third Family Tree (Smart Strike), who in turn foaled Grade II Heroic Move (Quality Road). The colt’s dam is also responsible for GII Golden Rod winner and GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up Liora (Candy Ride {Arg}). In foal to Army Mule, Giant Mover most recently sold for $90,000 at Keeneland November last fall.

“It was pretty spirited bidding for that horse. It was really nice,” said Archie St George moments after the sale. “He had a lot of action and a lot of big players [on him]. He’s a very nice horse.”

St George continued, “Gun Runner is a brilliant stallion. Arguably a top stallion in North America and out of a good mare. He was raised by a very good farm and I would like to thank Dell Ridge Farm. Des [Ryan] and Dell Ridge do a wonderful job.

“Thanks to Chad Brown and his team. We wish them the best of luck. We couldn’t do this without the buyers and hopefully Chad has got a runner and he’s got a nice horse. Fingers crossed.”--@CBossTDN

Book 2 Pinhooks Average a Profit of Over $136,000 Each

We took a deep dive into how Book 2's pinhooks fared and attempted to analyze how the prospects as a whole performed over the two days. We've subtracted a loose estimated cost of $25,000 for each yearling's board, veterinary expenses, farrier work, sales prep, and sales entry fees. Obviously, this amount has the potential to vary substantially per offering.

A total of 86 yearlings were consigned over the two days of Book 2 as pinhooks. Fourteen of the 86 were outs and 18 were RNAs, leaving 54 to represent the pinhook sector. The 54 sold for a total of $18.2 million from a combined output of $9,498,577 at original purchase. Less $1.35 million for the 54 in combined estimated costs, that leaves a profit of $7,351,423 for the group or an average of $136,137.46 and a median of $275,000. Forty-four were profitable at an average profit of $176,736.90 and 10 lost money at an average loss of $42,500. The obvious pinhooking standout was Nyquist's colt out of Spa Treatment, who was purchased for $385,000 by Goodwill Bloodstock at Keeneland November and resold Thursday for $1.3 million. @JillWilliamsTDN

Duarte is the private trainer for Richard Santulli's Colts Neck Stable, which is based at a private training center. That means that when he runs a horse, they will usually spend time in the receiving barn at the track. Reporting for the TDN, Dan Ross found these locations around the country can be filthy and it's common for backstretch workers to urinate in them. They are an environment conducive to yielding positives that are the result of environmental contamination. In the Aug. 21 edition of the TDN, Ross wrote that HISA reported 13 methamphetamine positives were identified at that point--seven were from ship-ins.

"I'm upset because they have written rules that don't give anybody a chance," Santulli said. "They're saying we gave meth to the horse, which is completely absurd. And they're saying that with the ways the rules are written, if there is any meth in the horse, that horse will test positive."

Some believe that giving methamphetamine to a horse produces nothing in the way of an enhanced performance, making it unlikely that anyone would use it as a doping agent.

HIWU doesn't necessarily agree.

"Methamphetamine is a banned substance under HISA's ADMC Program because there is no approved veterinary use for the substance, meaning it's not supposed to be in a horse's system," said a HIWU spokesperson. "Methamphetamine is similarly classified in the ARCI Model Rules and in other major international racing jurisdictions. HIWU prosecutes violations due to its presence in the horse, not because of the intent or effect of the drug. That said, methamphetamine is a stimulant, which has known side effects of increased alertness and energy."

Duarte will not go down without a fight. He has sent numerous emails or memos to HIWU staff in which he has tried to explain his predicament and make the case that he never gave the horse methamphetamine. He has gotten nowhere.

"They don't want to help you," Duarte said. "If you can't come up with anything that shows there is the presence of meth in someone's system, they just want to bury you."

That's how it works. The trainer must prove where the meth came from. That may require testing employees. If one that handled the horse tested positive for meth, HIWU will usually hit the trainer with a much shorter suspension.

Duarte went to work. He had himself tested, as well as any of his employees that handled Happy Cat. All the tests came back negative. But Duarte noted that none of the employees of Delaware Park or the Delaware Racing Commission that had any contact with Happy Cat were tested. He said that the person who collected the urine from the horse did not wear gloves.

Duarte kept digging and now believes he knows what happened. When he ships in to a track, he brings a groom, but hires a freelance hotwalker. According to Duarte, the day after Happy Cat tested positive, another horse turned up positive for meth. Trained by Bonnie Lucas, it was also walked by the same freelance worker.

"I had a methamphetamine positive one day after Jorge had his," Lucas said. "HIWU is just stonewalling. They've been of no help and they don't listen to reason. Yes, Duarte and I used the same hotwalker." Cont.

Jorge Duarte, Jr., Richard Santulli and Alan Goldberg | EquiPhoto

Duarte, cont.Jorge Duarte, Jr. | EquiPhoto

"I have a pro-bono lawyer working for me and he's doing a great job. He's sticking up for me, but HIWU just continues to be unreasonable. I've lost everything because of this. I've already lost horses and I have had to sell horses just to be able to afford to keep going. I haven't even been served with anything yet, and that's frustrating. As a trainer, I lived a comfortable life. Now I work a second job, just to make sure I get by. I am working as a waitress at a restaurant."

Like Lucas, Duarte said it's been very hard to get HIWU to do anything.

"I called the Delaware Racing Commission and HIWU and asked if this freelance hotwalker could be tested and there was a disconnect and they kept throwing the ball back and forth," Duarte said. "The Delaware Commission said they couldn't test the person, that only HIWU can. HIWU told me they can't do it, that the Delaware Racing Commission has to do it."

Duarte took things into his own hands and made arrangements to have the hotwalker tested by an outside lab. She tested negative. Duarte believes that's because he gave the hotwalker a seven-day notice of the impending test and the person refrained from using the drug in the days leading up to it.

HIWU listened to what Duarte had to say, but concluded that he had not proven that the horse's positive was a matter of environmental contamination.

On Aug. 29, Duarte heard from HIWU. In an email from HIWU lawyer Geneva Gnam, he was told that because he couldn't prove where the meth came from, the provisional suspension, with the possibility of stretching out longer, remained in effect.

"This is the story: Jorge has no rights and he did nothing wrong. It's bull (expletive)," said Alan Goldberg, who trained for Santulli before retiring and turning the barn over to Duarte. Goldberg has come out of retirement to oversee the barn while Duarte is suspended.

The letter from HIWU notifying Duarte that he was being suspended included the following: "Having received and reviewed your submissions on July 2, 2024 and Aug. 27, 2024, which do not include a sufficient explanation, HIWU is satisfied that you have committed an Anti-Doping Rule Violation."

"The whole thing is crazy because they don't want to help you," Duarte said. "And if you can't come up with anything on your part that shows there's presence of meth in somebody's system they just want to bury you. There's no screening of the other people who handle the horse, the gate crew, the pony boy, people than randomly walk around the receiving barn and want to walk your horses There's no security. The receiving barn there was disgusting. They assigned us those stalls."

Some prominent trainers have paid attention to the Duarte story and have expressed their concerns.

"Lisa Lazarus had every opportunity to fix this," said trainer Rusty Arnold. "She realized early on that these were examples of environmental contamination. The Department of Transportation has thresholds for drivers and pilots. It's not hard to understand."

Rusty Arnold | Coady Photography

Duarte will have a hearing on Oct. 3 but will remain under suspension at least until that time. He has a deep-pocketed owner in Santulli behind him who is ready to fight back.

"What bothers me is that there is no due process," Santulli said. "They set the rules and as silly as they are, they just say those are the rules. That's very unfair to the average horse trainer. It's terrible. We're going to survive. Al just got his trainer's license renewed. But for the average horse trainer what can they do? So how do we prove that we didn't give the horse meth? That's impossible. Why would I give a horse meth? What for? It's just horrible. We'll go to the hearing. If we lose, I'll take this to every court I can take it to."

FIRED HAWTHORNE VET ALLEGES TERMINATION IN RETALIATION FOR EFFORTS TO SCRATCH UNSOUND HORSES

by T.D. Thornton

Christine Tuma, who formerly worked as an association veterinarian jointly employed by Hawthorne Race Course and the Illinois Racing Board (IRB), on Thursday filed a federal lawsuit against those two entities claiming her efforts to scratch over 80 lame or injured Thoroughbreds during the 2022 and 2023 race meets were met with an alleged conspiracy to overturn her actions so the unsound horses could be entered in races.

The lawsuit further contended that when Tuma reported this alleged conspiracy to state and federal government regulators, she was fired "in retaliation for blowing the whistle on the illegal activities."

That termination came just 48 hours before a scheduled visit to the track by Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) Authority regulators, the suit alleged.

Hawthorne management and the IRB both denied the allegations when TDN requested comment Sept. 12.

An emailed statement from Hawthorne said, in part, "Tuma's lawsuit is false and misguided and Hawthorne will vigorously contest it in court....Tuma is using the legal system to settle professional disagreements with other, more experienced and accomplished veterinarians at the track and the IRB."

Domenic DiCera, the IRB's executive director, wrote that, "When we were made aware of some of these allegations in March 2023, we immediately looked into the matter and alerted federal horse racing authorities. We found no credible evidence to support any allegations of wrongdoing at the time, nor have federal authorities made us aware of any substantiated allegations."

WBEZ in Chicago, which first broke the story of the lawsuit, reported that Tuma has been licensed in Illinois since 2007 with no records of disciplinary action against her.

Tuma's lawsuit in United States District Court (Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division) is using the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) as a tool to try and collect damages.

RICO is a sweeping 1970 federal statute initially designed to combat the Mafia. But in a legal sense, it has long since lost its "organized crime" stigma, and RICO has evolved as a civil litigation component often asserted by purported victims of white-collar crimes, such as mail and wire fraud.

Also named in the suit as defendants are Hawthorne employees Jim Miller, the director of racing; John Walsh, the assistant general manager, and Dave White, the racing secretary. Beth Beuchler, a vet employed by Hawthorne; Dawn Folker-Calderon, the IRB's chief state vet, and two state stewards, Thomas Kelley and John Eddy, are also defendants.

"The entry of these horses into regulated Illinois races was not only a means for the RICO Defendants to induce wagers on horses that were not legally qualified to run, but in numerous instances, the certification of an additional horse in a race allowed the Enterprise to run races that did not meet the legally mandated minimum number of entries required to run a wagered race under Illinois law," the suit stated.

"It was during the fall meeting in 2022 that Dr. Tuma uncovered the full extent of the illegal running of sick and lame horses," the suit stated. "On or around the same time, Dr. Tuma uncovered and began investigating alterations of the medical records of these horses.

"Dr. Tuma recorded her assessments in the Track Manager software, which transmitted the medical assessments of horses running in Illinois to the IRB and HISA," the suit stated. "Dr. Tuma discovered that on multiple occasions, her assessments of horses as 'scratch lame' had been tampered with by Calderon and Beuchler and changed to 'racing sound,' the indication to state regulators that the horse was fit to run, or 'scratch sick.'

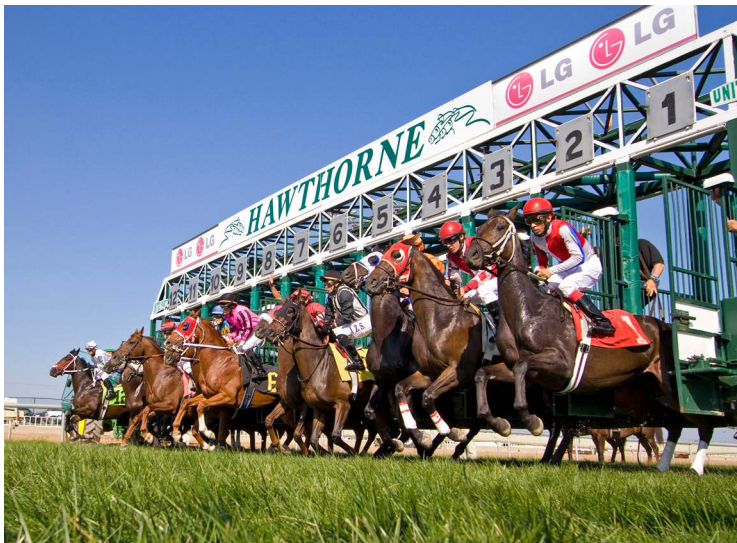

"Dr. Tuma first noticed that when Beuchler assessed a horse as lame, requiring a minimum two-week layoff under federal law, Beuchler would surreptitiously ask the horses' trainer while in the barn during the pre-race exam if the trainer would prefer to scratch the horse themselves as 'sick' via the submission of a falsified trainer initiated scratch request," the suit stated.

When Tuma expressed her concerns about the scratch process to Calderon, she was allegedly told, "This is how it's always done."

Tuma's lawsuit stated that owners and trainers began to complain about her high number of scratch assessments, including one horseman who "caused a horse to lurch menacingly at her, threatening grave bodily harm."

Another time, the suit alleged, a groom "physically battered her."

The suit stated that when Tuma reported these incidents of abuse to track officials and the stewards, "only a nominal fine was levied against the perpetrators."

Hawthorne | Four Footed Fotos

When Tuma began making a series of complaints to the stewards about the "misclassification of horses as sick from lame," she was informed by Calderon "that she had been stripped of her authority to scratch horses," and that a new protocol requiring Beuchler to check her assessments would be in place, the suit stated.

"Finally, on March 20, 2023, Dr. Tuma delivered a comprehensive whistleblower letter to the IRB and HISA," the suit stated.

The suit continued: "On or around the date Dr. Tuma submitted her comprehensive complaint to the IRB, Miller, who had theretofore never called Dr. Tuma directly on her cell phone, called her a minimum of six times to intimidate her about her lame scratches and to ensure that the maximum number of horses were run."

Some 3 1/2 months later, the suit stated, just two days before HISA personnel were scheduled to visit Hawthorne for an inspection, "Dr. Tuma met with Walsh via Zoom on July 11, 2023, and was informed that she had been terminated based on the pretext that her termination was a cost-cutting measure.

"Dr. Tuma was terminated in retaliation for her protected activated of disclosing the activities of the Enterprise and to ensure that Dr. Tuma could not make any further disclosures regarding the scheme to the federal regulators," the suit stated.

GISW BLAZING SEVENS HEADED FOR DARBY DAN STUD DUTY AFTER RACING CAREER

After his racing career is complete this year, Blazing Sevens (Good Magic), the winner of the GI Champagne Stakes at two and the runner-up in the GI Preakness Stakes, will stand at Darby Dan for 2025, the farm said via a press release on Thursday.

A stud fee for the 'TDN Rising Star' and future stallion will be named before the year is out and plans are being finalized to syndicate him. Peter Bradley, bloodstock advisor for owner Rodeo Creek Racing, brokered the deal to stand the son of Good Magic at Darby Dan.

"Blazing Sevens was an exceptional racehorse at two and was unlucky not to have won the Preakness Stakes at three," said Bradley. "At 16.2 hands, Blazing Sevens is an A+ physical and has every chance to become a top stallion."

Blazing Sevens broke his maiden at Saratoga at first asking, winning by 6 1/4 lengths. In his second start, the dark bay finished third in the GI Hopeful Stakes over a sloppy track upstate before winning the Champagne during the Belmont at the Big A meet for trainer Chad Brown.

During his 2024 campaign, Blazing Sevens debuted a winner against optional claimers at Aqueduct Apr. 20, finished sixth in the GI Met Mile Handicap at the Spa June 8 and was last seen running fourth against optional claimers over the same surface July 11. Blazing Sevens is currently drilling at Brown's Belmont base where he recently worked going four furlongs at :49 (39/167) Sept. 7.

"We are thrilled to announce the addition of a precocious Grade I son of Good Magic to our roster," said Stuart Fitzgibbon, stallion director at Darby Dan Farm. "Blazing Sevens was a true standout in his two and three-year-old racing seasons. Coupled with his exceptional conformation and pedigree, Blazing Sevens is a highly desirable stallion. Blazing Sevens beat or placed against the absolute best of his generation, just missing a Classic, the 2023 Preakness Stakes, by a head to National Treasure."

Bred in Kentucky by Tracy Farmer, Blazing Sevens was a $225,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Sale graduate. Darby Dan's latest addition to their roster is out of Trophy Girl (Warrior's Reward), who is a half-sister to GISW King David (Hat Trick {Jpn}) and SW Bertsgoldenmissile (Golden Missile). Blazing Sevens's dam herself was a $750,000 purchase by Hugo Merry Bloodstock at last year's Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale while a full-sister to the future sire was in-utero.

FASIG-TIPTON CATALOGUE FOR SARATOGA FALL MIXED NOW ONLINE

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 315 entries for its Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale, to be held on Tuesday, Oct. 15 in the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion beginning at 10 a.m. ET, the auction company said in a release early Thursday morning.

"We have another full catalogue for Saratoga Fall this year, which is the industry's primary source of New York breeding stock," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. Cont.

“There are 240 weanlings catalogued--nearly all of which are New York-bred--by both leading national and New York-based sires. Also included are 75 broodmares, many of which are in foal on fashionable coverings.

Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale | Fasig-Tipton

“The New York-bred program is as vibrant as ever, evidenced by the strength of our recent New York-bred yearling sale this summer,” noted Browning. “With $65 million distributed annually in purse money, incentives, and awards for New York-breds, there has never been a better time to invest in the program.”

The catalogue may now be viewed online and will also be available via the Equineline sales catalogue app. Print catalogues will be available by Sept. 17.

JUVENILE FILLY BELLAVININO CATALOGED TO INGLIS DIGITAL USA SEPTEMBER SALE

Bellavinino (Get Stormy), a juvenile who recently finished second in a stakes race at Kentucky Downs, will be offered in the Inglis Digital USA September Sale which is scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 25, according to a press release from the sales company on Thursday.

The daughter of Get Stormy closed to finish as the runner-up in the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Fillies Stakes Sept. 8. Two starts earlier, Bellavinino won on debut by 3 1/4 lengths over the Gulfstream Park turf.

Owned by C2 Racing Stable and trained by Saffie Joseph, Jr., over her three starts the filly has earned $224,800, and remains eligible for a first-level allowance.

Bred in Kentucky by Mt. Joy Stables, Inc., Bellavinino is the first runner and first winner out of Gauntlet mare Lancelots Lady. The extended family features Canadian black-type, including second dam SW Professor's Ride (Silent Name {Jpn}), Plate Trial Stakes hero Avoman (Old Forester), and full-siblings SW Cawaja Beach (Where's the Ring) and SW Who's Big Daddy.

“This filly offers a great opportunity for someone looking for a ready-made racehorse,” said Kyle Wilson, Inglis Digital USA's Sr. Director of Sales and Recruitment. “She was looking for more distance and showed tremendous ability to overcome a difficult trip in her stakes debut. She offers a new owner exciting opportunities leading into the fall racing season.”

Bellavinino | Ryan Thompson

Entries close for the Inglis Digital USA September Sale on Monday, Sept. 16. The catalogue will be released Friday, Sept. 20, and the horses will sell Wednesday, Sept. 25.

RECORD WAGERING AT KENTUCKY DOWNS AS MEET WRAPS

The seven-day Kentucky Downs meet set another record for wagering, totaling $90,181,408 and up 8% over last year, according to a press release from the track late Wednesday.

That included a single-day record of $21,184,941 on the Saturday, Sept. 7 card featuring six graded stakes worth $2 million for Kentucky-breds ($1 million for others).

As for the meet's leaders, jockey Tyler Gaffalione finished with nine wins, to pull even with Irad Ortiz, Jr. for the riding title, while Brendan Walsh's sixth victory put him in a tie for the trainer prize with Joe Sharp and Steve Asmussen. Ken Ramsey earned his 10th owner's title.

NOMS FOR MARYLAND JOE KELLY AWARD DUE OCT. 1

Given by the Maryland Million Ltd. Board of Directors, nominations for the 2024 Joe Kelly Unsung Hero Award are due by Oct. 1, the organization said in a Thursday release.

Potential nominees should embody characteristics that are valuable, but often go unrewarded. Nominees that are not selected for the award on Maryland Millions Day will be considered in the future without further need for submission.

Publicist Joe Kelly was involved from the introduction of the concept in 1985 until his death in 2012. Recent recipients include Brenda Herzog, Fran Burns and last year's award winner Betty McCue.

Nominee must have:

- Demonstrated a particular commitment, impact or contribution to the Thoroughbred industry or equine community in general;
- Been involved in the Thoroughbred industry in Maryland for at least five years.

Nomination must include:

- A completed nomination form, online or hard copy;
- A recommendation letter of 500 words or less expounding on the reasons for your nomination.

Return all documents to: Maryland Million Ltd., Attn: Emily Stakem, 321 Main Street, Reisterstown, MD, 21136 or email registrar@marylandthoroughbred.com.

STEWARD STAN BOWKER PASSES AFTER SERVING FIFTY YEARS IN INDUSTRY

Stan Bowker, a longtime management executive who also served as a steward at several racetracks, passed away Sept. 10 in Clearwater, Florida after a long illness.

Stan Bowker | courtesy of the Bowker Family

After 17 1/2 years at Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha, Nebraska where he rose to become the director of racing, Bowker made stops at Canterbury Downs and Will Rogers Downs. He was also a senior steward at Colonial Downs and spent 11 years as a judge at Oaklawn Park, Indiana Grand, and as recently as 2021, at Canterbury Park.

Bowker established a consulting company to assist new tracks by advising them about everything from licensing to how to open a racing facility. A Racing Officials Accreditation Program founding member, the veteran racetracker received awards for professional excellence.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years Judy Bowker, son Todd Bowker--both of Clearwater--and his brother Clayton Bowker of Omaha. No services are planned. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be sent to the Permanently Disabled Jockey's Fund.

6th-Churchill Downs, $123,355, Alw (NW2L)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 9-12, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10.15, ft, 1 1/2 lengths.

ECHO SOUND (f, 2, Echo Town--Eagle Sound, by Fusaichi Pegasus), a debut winner at odds of 14-1 at Ellis Park Aug. 3, was off as the even-money favorite to stay perfect here. She forced the issue from an outside second through an opening quarter in :21.69 and poked a head in front on the far turn. She kicked for home as the one to catch, and, despite hanging on her left lead until about the eighth pole, dug in nicely to defeat Oliviera (Mo Town) by 1 1/2 lengths. One of six winners for freshman sire Echo Town, Echo Sound is a half to Pick of the Litter (Kitten's Joy), GSW, $419,110; and Deer District (Oscar Performance), MGSP, $367,061. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $114,245. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

5th-Churchill Downs, $123,245, Msw, 9-12, 2yo, 6f, 1:10.06, ft, 1 length.

MITTY'S GRIDDY (c, 2, Mitole--Sarah's Song {SP, $107,865}, by Songandaprayer) trailed the field of 12 soon after the start and was under a ride in last as they flew through an opening quarter in :21.35. Still with his work cut out for him at the top of the stretch, the 6-1 chance swung widest of all into the seven path and came flying down the center to reel in favored El Prestigio (Practical Joke), who led by four lengths at the stretch call after battling through hot fractions, by a length. The winner's dam had a filly by Vekoma in 2023 and a colt by Sharp Azteca this year. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Barry & Joni Butzow (KY); T-Brad H. Cox.

DESERT FLOWER ON TOP IN THE MAY HILL

Desert Flower | Racingphotos.com

by Tom Frary

In deeper than when beating up lesser lights on home soil, Godolphin's TDN Rising Star Desert Flower (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Promising Run, by Hard Spun) proved that she had what it takes to continue her winning sequence in Doncaster's G2 Betfred May Hill Stakes on Thursday. Untroubled in two starts on Newmarket's July Course, the Charlie Appleby-trained even-money favourite followed the early pace with William Buick content to play the waiting game.

Staying on strongly to take control passing the furlong pole, the daughter of the four-time group 2 winner kept finding on the run to the line to beat Ballydoyle's Listed Churchill Stakes scorer January (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths, with Flight (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) 3/4 of a length away in third.

"She looked around in front and had plenty in reserve," Buick said. "The obvious race now is the Fillies' Mile, but Charlie and the team will make the decision. She has a bit of energy flowing through her, but no badness."

"She's a nice, big filly with plenty of scope for next year," Buick added. "I was always happy and she handled the ground. She came into the race very easily, which is the sign of a quality horse obviously and she kind of confirmed what she showed us at home and on the racecourse on her first two starts." Cont. p3

THE LOWDOWN: BETFRED ST LEGER

By Emma Berry

It's the Leger Lowdown, our final run-through of Classic contenders for the season and one in which the late Galileo (Ire) has three chances to notch his 101st Group/Grade 1 winner so soon after Content (Ire) brought up his century in the Yorkshire Oaks. He is the sire of the first three favourites in the betting at the time of writing, and paternal grandsire of the next two. It was the St Leger which provided Galileo with his first British Classic winner, Sixties Icon (GB), and we should have guessed then what we know now: that Galileo was going to be a great stallion. From his first crop he had the first three home in the St Leger of 2006. Don't bet against history repeating itself on Saturday with these members of his penultimate crop.

Charlie Appleby’s assistant Alex Merriam was on hand to pass judgement. “She travelled very nicely through the race and was professional,” he said. “She showed that turn of foot at Newmarket, but in maiden and novice races, so you never know quite what you’ve got or what you’ve beaten until you take in the good races, but she’s done it nicely and deserves a shot at a group 1 now.”

“She’s not a flashy work horse, she’s always done everything nicely but she wouldn’t set the world alight at home. That can be the way sometimes,” he added. “We’ll go for the Fillies’ Mile and see where we go from there, but she’s a big, scopey filly, so hopefully all she’s going to do is improve. I’d say she’s our best 2-year-old filly anyway.”

Pedigree Notes

Desert Flower’s aforementioned dam Promising Run captured the Rockfel in this country prior to adding the Al Rashidiya, Cape Verdi and Balanchine to her tally. Also responsible for the G3 Solario Stakes winner Aablan (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), she is a half-sister to the G3 Lillie Langtry Stakes runner-up Arabian Comet (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) out of the Brazilian group 1 winner Aviacion (Brz) (Know Heights {Ire}). Descendants of the third dam Arbulus (Liloy {Fr}) include the elite-level performers Eddington (Arg) (Contested Bid), Panama (Brz) (Signal Tap) and Persane (Tampero {Fr}).

DEIRA MILE (Ire)

Camelot (GB)--Fastnet Mist (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus})

Bred by Churchtown House Stud, he was bought as a yearling at Tattersalls for 47,000gns by Federico Barberini and owner Ahmad Al Shaikh.

A novice winner back in April, he finished fourth in the Derby, seven lengths adrift of City Of Troy, and has run just once since then when a close second in the Listed August Stakes at Windsor.

By the 2012 St Leger runner-up Camelot, and the first winner from four runners for his Listed-placed dam, who is in turn out of a half-sister to G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Wannabe Grand (Ire) (Danehill), G3 Ballycorus S. scorer Wannabe Better (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) and the Listed winners Wannabe Posh (Ire) (Grand Lodge) and Pirateer (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

GROSVENOR SQUARE (IRE)

Galileo (Ire)--Wadyhatta (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire})

Bred by Lynch Bages Ltd, he was beaten just once in three starts as a juvenile, when his wins included the G3 Eyrefield Stakes at Leopardstown. Third in the G3 Chester Vase and then down the field when seventh in the Irish Derby, he has appreciated the step up to this trip and was just run down by stable-mate Tower Of London (Ire) in the G2 Curragh Cup before most recently running out the 20-length winner of the G3 Irish St Leger Trial.

He is the fourth winner from as many runners out of his winning dam, a half-sister to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Motamarris (Ire) (Le Havre {Ire}) and the multiple Listed-placed dam of multiple Group 3 winner Tantheem (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}). His siblings include the 2020 Irish Derby winner Santiago (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), who also won the G2 Queen's Vase, and the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Prix Vermeille third La Joconde (Ire) (Frankel {GB}).

ILLINOIS (Ire)

Galileo (Ire)--Danedrop (Ire) (Danehill)

This Coolmore-bred half-brother to the Arc and King George winner Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) is still lightly raced but has been a model of consistency. His career highlight to date is his victory in the G2 Queen's Vase, which was followed up by second-place finishes in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G2 Great Voltigeur when beaten a neck by his stable-mate Los Angeles (Ire), who heads to the Irish Champion Stakes.

His full-brothers Venice Beach (Ire) and Broadway (Ire) are both Group 3 winners. Cont. p5

JAN BRUEGHEL (Ire)

Galileo (Ire)--Devoted To You (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})

Only appeared on the scene this May but he has been a faultless progression with three wins, starting in a Curragh maiden and followed by the G3 Dubai International Stakes and the G3 Gordon Stakes, the latter over 1m4f. It wouldn't be a big surprise to see him step forward again.

Jan Brueghel was bred by Barronstown Stud, as was his dam, who won a Galway maiden and was second in the G2 Debutante Stakes among other black-type placings. The most notable of her offspring is this colt's full-brother, the 2019 Irish Derby winner Sovereign (Ire). Another brother, Dawn Rising (Ire), won last year's Queen Alexandra Stakes at Royal Ascot.

Galiway (GB)--Kensea (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr})

Retained at €300,000 at the Arqana August Yearling Sale by his breeder Guy Pariente, he won last year's G1 Criterium International and is yet to add to his tally in five starts this season. He has however posted some decent efforts in defeat, notably when finishing three-quarters of a length behind Los Angeles to take second in the Irish Derby. Super-sub Christophe Soumillon has been booked to replace Oisin Murphy, who is heading to Canada instead.

Sunway is the fourth winner from as many runners out of his Listed-winning dam, whose previous matings with Galiway also produced the G1 Champion Stakes and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero Sealiway (Fr).

WILD WAVES (Ire)

Crystal Ocean (GB)--Guenea (GB) (Sinndar {Ire})

An interesting contender as the first runner in a Classic for 2019 joint-Horse of the Year Crystal Ocean. Bred by the Guenea Partnership, the pinhooking team of Matt Houldsworth and the Gleeson brothers of Aughamore Stud bought him as a foal for 46,000gns and made a healthy return when selling him at Tattersalls October Book 1 for 135,000gns to his trainer Andrew Balding. After two reasonable efforts at two, Wild Waves won on his handicap debut over 1m4f at Kempton and backed that up with a win over the Leger course and distance in June. Most recently he was just two and a half lengths behind Table Talk in the competitive Melrose Handicap at York.

He may not be quite up to this Classic test but he is certainly a staying prospect to keep an eye on next year. His breeding offers plenty of encouragement in this regard as he hails from the same female line as the current top-rated horse in Europe, Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), whose third dam Guadalupe (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) is the granddam of Wild Waves. With the Derby winners Sea The Stars (Ire) and Sinndar (Ire) as his grandsires, there's a lot to like about his pedigree.

YOU GOT TO ME (GB)

Nathaniel (Ire)--Brushing (GB) (Medicean {GB})

Bred by Dullingham Park Stud and Sarabex, she first sold for 62,000gns at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale and was later bought by Alex Elliott for 200,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1.

The winner of the Lingfield Oaks Trial before running fourth at Epsom in the Oaks, she then beat Content (Ire) to win the Irish Oaks before finishing second to that same filly in the Yorkshire Oaks. She was supplemented for this race by Ralph Beckett, who won the St Leger in 2015 with the filly Simple Verse. Cont. p6

ALL POWER TO NAKHEEL IN THE PARK HILL

by Tom Frary

One of the lesser-known of the cast of proven and burgeoning stayers in Doncaster's G2 Park Hill Stakes on Thursday, Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum's Nakheel (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) emerged best in the "Fillies' St Leger" to add ballast to the Owen Burrows stable always capable of producing pattern-race performers from a relatively small sample. Fourth behind this race's key withdrawal Mistral Star (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in Newmarket's Listed Aphrodite Fillies' Stakes in July and third to the re-opposing Scenic (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in the Listed Galtres Stakes at York last month, the 10-1 shot who was fitted with cheekpieces travelled comfortably behind the leading pair moving up from a mile and a half for the first time.

Nakheel | Racingfotos.com

Committed by Jim Crowley as Ballydoyle's Grateful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) looked poised to take command inside the final three furlongs, the homebred outstayed that rival and showed grit from the front from two out to ward off Night Sparkle (Ire) (Postponed {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths.

"She's as tough as nails," her rider said. "The application of cheekpieces, a bit of ease in the ground and the step up in trip have all been a big plus. She's improving and there's not much of her but by god she tries hard."

Burrows added, "She came off the bridle a fraction turning in, but she came straight back on so I knew then we still had plenty of petrol in the tank and I thought she would certainly stay on right to the line. From a trainer's point of view, I'd love to have her back as a 4-year-old, in which case I'm not sure we need to do anything else this year. We're getting to know her and she's still lightly-raced, so we'll see."

Pedigree Notes

Nakheel is the third foal out of the stakes-winning dam Into The Mystic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was also third in the GIII Megahertz Stakes and was a $385,000 purchase at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. She is a daughter of the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Tamazirte (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who also produced the G3 Prix de Guiche and G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange scorer Chachnak (Fr) (Kingman {GB}). From the family of the G2 Rockfel Stakes winner Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), she has the unraced 2-year-old colt Kanneen (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}) and a yearling full-brother to Nakheel.

TDN RISING STAR ZARIGANA WOWS PARIS WITH STUNNING PRIX D'AUMALE TRIUMPH

by Sean Cronin

The Aga Khan's Zarigana (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}--Zarkamiya {Fr}, by Frankel {GB}), a granddaughter of the storied Zarkava, attained 'TDN Rising Star' status with a stunning performance over seven furlongs at Chantilly in July and duly delivered a first black-type triumph with a display reminiscent of the owner's star distaffer in Thursday's G3 Prix d'Aumale at ParisLongchamp.

The 4-5 favourite broke swiftly and was steadied off the tempo in sixth through halfway in this one-mile test. Angled to the outside passing the quarter-mile marker, she cruised to the fore approaching the final furlong and lengthened clear in style to easily outclass the hitherto undefeated G3 Prix Six Perfections victrix Angeal (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) by an untroubled three lengths. Angeal's Christopher Head-trained stablemate Rosa Salvaje (Ire) (Maximum Security) finished four lengths back in third.

Zarigana | Scoop Dyga

"I loved how she travelled on that [soft] ground and, when Mickael [Barzalona] switched her out, she did it all on her own," reflected trainer Francis Graffard. "It was really nice to watch, she is a lovely looking filly with a great temperament and the only question is would she have another gear if asked for more. Of course, if she comes out of this race well, she will come back in the [G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac. She is all class and, hopefully, we will have a nice Classic prospect for next year."

Pedigree Notes

Zarigana, half-sister to a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire), is the second foal and scorer produced by Listed Prix Thiberville victrix and G1 Prix Vermeille third Zarkamiya (Fr) (Frankel {GB}), herself kin to Group 1-winning sire Zarak (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), Listed Prix

Charles Laffitte victrix Zaykava (Fr) and to the dam of dual Group 3 winner Zeyrek (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). The January-foaled bay's second dam went unbeaten through a seven-race career, annexing the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe along the way.

Mario Baratti trainee Misunderstood (Fr) (Hello Youmzain {Fr}-Waldjagd {GB}, by Observatory) made all to shed maiden status on debut at Deauville in July and repeated the dose in Thursday's G3 Prix des Chenes at ParisLongchamp to become the first black-type winner for his freshman sire (by Kodiak {GB}).

Breaking well from the outside stall to establish a clear buffer through the early fractions, the 13-10 favourite was shaken up with 350 metres remaining and maintained a high tempo in the closing stages to easily account for Nesthorn (GB) (Expert Eye {GB}) by 4 1/2 lengths. Cont. p8

Cacophonix (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) was nine lengths further adrift in third.

“He has a tendency to be keen and we don’t have much choice but to let him bowl along in front at a good pace,” Baratti explained. “This is also why he carries a hood. He kept finding and drew away nicely, proving that he is probably a very good horse. [Jockey] Alexis [Pouchin] has suggested running him over seven furlongs. The [G1 Prix Jean-Luc] Lagardere is a possibility, but I first want to discuss it with the owners. Personally, I would like to wait for next year as he gives a lot in his races and I don’t want to give him one race too many [this year].”

Pedigree Notes

Misunderstood, the ninth of 11 foals, is one of seven scorers out of G2 Diana-Trial second Waldjagd (GB) (Observatory), herself a daughter of multiple Group-winning G1 Deutschland-Preis second Wurftaube (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}). Wurftaube’s quartet of black-type performers is headed by G1 Deutsches Derby hero Waldpark (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}) and her descendants include G1 St Leger victor Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and multiple Group 1-winning Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). The February-foaled bay is a half-brother to G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis victrix Waldbiene (Fr) (Intello {Ger}) and Listed Prix du Pont Neuf winner Urwald (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}). He is also kin to a yearling filly by Frankel (GB) and a weanling filly by Persian King (Ire).

RACE PREVIEWS

DIVERSE DOUBLE ACT AT DONCASTER ON FRIDAY by Tom Frary

Friday’s action at Doncaster sees a brace of group 2 races of wildly contrasting type, with the hardened stayers battling out the G2 Doncaster Cup over two and a quarter miles preceded by the five-furlong G2 Flying Childers Stakes for the fast juveniles. In the former, the Gosdens have a strong hand with the Normandie Stud-bred pair Sweet William (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) looking to benefit from the absence of Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and enjoy their day in the sun away from that Ballydoyle colossus. Throw in old-stagers Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) and Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and you have a “Cup” race for the purists to savour.

The Flying Childers sees the G3 Molecomb Stakes first and second Big Mojo (Ire) (Mohaather {GB}) and Aesterius (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) re-oppose, with the former having missed out in York’s G2 Gimcrack Stakes and the latter having gone one better in the Wathnan Racing’s G3 Prix d’Arenberg at ParisLongchamp. Trainer Mick Appleby has an eye on another Breeders’ Cup for Big Mojo, which is also a target for Aesterius who is sure to be ridden more positively in this rematch. Cont. p9

“Goodwood probably wasn’t quite the ideal set-up, but then he was impressive in the Prix d’Arenberg I thought and gave James [Doyle] a pretty big feel that day,” Wathnan Racing’s racing adviser Richard Brown said. “It’s quick back, but the options for the two-year-olds over five furlongs are pretty limited. Archie [Watson] says he’s fresh and well coming out of France, so we will let him take his chance. Whether it’s too quick, we’ll find out after the race and, going forward, the Breeders’ Cup is kind of in the back of our minds.”

Tabiti Gets Second Crack At The Dick Poole...

Lost to the weather last week, Salisbury’s G3 Ire-Incentive, It Pays To Buy Irish Dick Poole Fillies’ Stakes takes place on Friday with the same protagonists due to line up. Juddmonte’s Tabiti (GB) (Kingman (GB)) had had to wait to build on her debut win over seven furlongs at Newmarket last month, but the Ralph Beckett-trained half-sister to the G2 Linlithgow Stakes winner Old Flame (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is poised for the next step.

“Hopefully the ground will have dried out, as she’s in great form and we look forward to seeing her run,” Juddmonte’s European racing manager Barry Mahon said. “She was impressive at Newmarket on debut and we would like to think she is a smart filly. She won quite easy in the end and she has a lot of natural ability. Dropping back in trip is a slight concern, but she did show plenty of speed the first day, so we would be hopeful enough she can overcome it and hopefully she is up to this level on Friday.”

Also ready for the rescheduled test are the G3 Princess Margaret Stakes runner-up Betty Clover (GB) (Time Test {GB}), Jayar Investments’ Newmarket nursery scorer Magic Mild (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), and the debut winners Jewelry (Ire)

(Wootton Bassett (GB)) and Greydreambeliever (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) who represent Isa Salman Al Khalifa and William Haggas and Hambleton Racing and Karl Burke respectively.

Jonquil To The Test In The Royal Scotsman...

In the week that Sir Michael Stoute announced his retirement at season’s close, it would be fitting were Juddmonte’s TDN Rising Star Jonquil (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) cap it with a win in Doncaster’s Listed Flying Scotsman Stakes. Defying trouble-in-running to win on debut at Sandown last month, the relative of Frankel (GB) whose immense career tally included this race when it was staged as a conditions event 14 years ago has it all in front of him.

“It’s a little bit of a quick turnaround, but he came out of Sandown in very good shape, he was very fresh the next morning and the team at Sir Michael’s have been pleased with him in his work back,” Juddmonte’s European racing manager Barry Mahon said. “He looked fairly streetwise, because he had every chance to get beat but he seemed to know what he was doing and I think guts and determination got him through.”

“Sir Michael has probably been one of the best British trainers of the last century, he’s right up there with the best of them and he’s trained some great horses for us and over 50 stakes winners,” he added. “It’s great to see him going out on his terms and going out on a high. Hopefully Jonquil can send him off on a high from our point of view and on a good note.”

ILLINOIS HEADS BALLYDOYLE TRIO IN THE ST LEGER by Tom Frary

Aidan O'Brien has whittled his G1 St Leger team down to three sons of Galileo (Ire) after the final confirmations were made for the Doncaster Classic on Thursday morning. Wayne Lordan will partner the G2 Queen's Vase winner and G1 Grand Prix de Paris runner-up Illinois (Ire), who will be joined as expected by the unbeaten G3 Gordon Stakes-winning TDN Rising Star Jan Brueghel (Ire) and the emphatic G3 Irish St Leger Trial Stakes winner Grosvenor Square (Ire). Jockeys for the latter pair have yet to be announced. Sean Levey rides Jan Brueghel, with Gavin Ryan handed a big opportunity on Grosvenor Square.

The withdrawal of Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), Euphoric (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Align The Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) means that seven will line up for the extended 14-furlong test, with the chief opposition to an eighth renewal for Ballydoyle being Valmont and Newsells Park Stud Bloodstock's supplemented G1 Irish Oaks heroine You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) and Guy Pariente Holding and Qatar Racing's G1 Irish Derby runner-up Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}). Green Team Racing's Derby fourth Deira Mile (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and the outsider Wild Waves (Ire) (Crystal Ocean {GB}) complete the line-up.

AUGUSTE RODIN HEADS EIGHT FOR IRISH CHAMPION by Tom Frary

Ballydoyle's G1 Irish Champion Stakes hero Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) will face seven rivals as he breaks from stall four bidding for back-to-back renewals of the Royal Bahrain-sponsored Leopardstown feature on Saturday. Aidan O'Brien has last year's runner-up Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) engaged with first-time cheekpieces in stall seven, along with the G1 Irish Derby hero Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) in five and pacemaker Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in six to make up half the field. Ryan Moore sides with Auguste Rodin, while Dylan Browne McMonagle is on Los Angeles and Declan McDonogh takes the ride on Luxembourg.

William Haggas would have been dealt a blow by the outside draw of the current favourite Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), who is the leading protagonist taking on Team Ballydoyle. Isa Salman Al Khalifa's progressive G2 Dante Stakes and G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano winner is joined by fellow 3-year-old colt Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), with Jeff Smith's G1 Eclipse Stakes and G1 Juddmonte International third in two next to Susumu Fujita's G1 Tokyo Yushun third Shin Emperor (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in three. Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's outsider Royal Rhyme (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) completes the line-up.

SPECIAL INDEED AT KENTUCKY DOWNS

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of Special Wan at Kentucky Downs on Saturday.

Team Valor Filly Strikes In Kentucky

Special Wan | Coady Media

Team Valor International and Steven Rocco's Special Wan (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) was first past the post in a Kentucky Downs contest in her U.S. debut on Sept. 7 (video) for trainer Patrick Foley.

Bred by Kilnamoragh Stud, the G3 Ballycorus Stakes second and G3 Brownstown Stakes third was a £225,000 Goffs QIPCO Ascot Champions Day buy-back last autumn. The third foal and one of four winners out of Fast Jazz (Ire) (Frozen Power {Ire}), Special Wan is a half-sister to stakes horses Yerwanthere (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}) and Over The Blues (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}). She made her first three starts in the colours of John Browne, with her current connections purchasing her privately after her second in a Naas listed race in May. Second dam Slow Jazz (Chief's Crown), a winner of the Listed Prix Petite Etoile, is a half-sister to the influential Blue Duster (Danzig), a champion in Europe at two, and successful in the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes prior to becoming the ancestress of no less than eight stakes winners.

Bearstone Stud's Belardo, who stood for £5,500 this year, has sired eight winners from nine American runners (89%). Grade I winner Gold Phoenix (Ire) and Bellabel (Ire), who won the GII San Clemente Stakes and GIII Megahertz Stakes.

Win Sweet For Caroline At Kentucky Downs

Last year's G3 Blue Wind Stakes heroine Caroline Street (No Nay Never) returned a winner at Kentucky Downs in the colours of Fergus Galvin and Marc Detampel (video). Trained by Brendan Walsh, she was bred by Grantley Acres, Ryan Conner and Ron Davidson.

The Kentucky-bred, a $200,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select yearling, made eight starts for Joseph O'Brien, with her Blue Wind tally the best of them. Part of a four-strong brood out of G3 Gallinule Stakes third Harvestfortheworld (Ire) (So You Think {NZ}), Caroline Street hails from the extended family of G1 Phoenix Stakes heroine Pharaoh's Delight (Fairy King).

Coolmore's No Nay Never has been represented by 53 U.S. winners from 96 runners (54%). GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine Meditate (Ire) is one of nine stakes winners in that jurisdiction for her sire, a son of Scat Daddy.

No Nay Never Filly Wins At Second Asking

Bal Mar Equine's Unhidden Gem (Ire) (No Nay Never), sixth when unveiled at Saratoga last month, triumphed at Kentucky Downs for Albert Stall, Jr. on Wednesday (video).

Barronstown Stud bred the dark bay daughter of Gems (GB) (Haafhd {GB}) who brought 250,000gns from SackvilleDonald out of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. A half-sister to G3 Prix Miesque second Seaella (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) and a full-sister to G2 Superlative Stakes winner Mystery Power (Ire), juvenile filly Bijou (Ire) and a weanling colt, Unhidden Gem is kin to four-time Italian Group 1 winner and sire Alhijaz (GB) (Midyan). Roaring Lion Filly A Queen At Kentucky Downs

Qatar Racing homebred Queen Regent (GB) (Roaring Lion), favoured in her American debut, won at Kentucky Downs for Brendan Walsh on Thursday (video).

The 12th foal produced by Common Knowledge (GB) (Rainbow Quest), the grey made her first eight starts in the land of her birth for John and Thady Gosden, which resulted in a win at Newcastle on the all-weather, and second-place finishes in a trio of all-weather handicaps prior to this win. She is a half-sister to dual Group 3 winner Astrophysical Jet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), G3 Weld Park Stakes heroine Coral Wave (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), and G3 Derrinstown Stud Fillies Stakes winner and G1 Prix Rothschild placegetter Know It All (GB) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). Second dam Highbrow (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}) is a half-sister to blue hen and champion Height Of Fashion (Fr) (Bustino {GB}).

The late Roaring Lion sired just one crop at Tweenhills Stud in Britain, before passing away before covering a single mare at Cambridge Stud in New Zealand. Queen Regent is his first winner from four runners in the U.S. (25%). Worldwide, he has six stakes winners, with the cornerstone Group 1 winner and first-season sire Dubai Mile (Ire).

Sky Wins Again In So-Cal

Sorrento Sky (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}) captured a Del Mar affair on Sept. 8 for trainer Phil D'Amato (video). Raced by Benowitz Family Trust, CYBT, McLean Racing Stables, Saul Gevertz, Marc Lantzman and Michael Nentwig, the 3-year-old colt was winning for the second time in seven starts.

CITY OF TROY MOVES UP TO SECOND IN LONGINES WORLD'S BEST RACEHORSE RANKINGS

After setting a new course record in the G1 International Stakes, City Of Troy (Justify) is now the second-highest rated horse in the world on the Longines World's Best Racehorse Rankings, which were released on Thursday. He improved from 123 to 127 with his victory.

The G1 Eclipse Stakes and G1 Derby winner is behind only G1 Dubai World Cup hero Laurel River (Into Mischief), who holds a mark of 128. Second behind City Of Troy at York is G2 King Edward VII Stakes hero Calandagan (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), who is rated 125, the equal of G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes scorer Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}).

G1 Travers Stakes hero Fierceness (City Of Light) has moved into the top five--shared with multiple Group 1 winner Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--at 123. He defeated Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) (120) and Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) (120), while the 121-ranked G1 Belmont Stakes hero Dornoch (Good Magic) was fourth. Crack miler Charyn (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) moved up to 122 after taking the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois by three lengths, and he was most recently second to Tribalist (GB) (Farhh {GB}) (120) in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp on Sunday. TARA STUD PUT ON THE MARKET

Tara Stud's Derek Iceton | Goffs

Tara Stud has been put up for sale, according to the stud's Derek Iceton. The bloodstock operation will move to Skryne Castle Farm. Goffs and Raymond Potterton and Co. will handle the sale as joint agents.

"A number of factors have come together to make this decision" said Iceton. We are not going to stand stallions anymore and, though I am by no means going to retire, I do want to reduce the agricultural side of the business. We sell well over 1,000 cattle from here each year, up to 1,000 sheep, and 1,000 tonnes of grain from the arable side of the business, so the time has come to reduce this side of the business. There is no one here to succeed me, so we have all decided to sell the Tara farm. This still leaves us over 350 acres on which to facilitate our own mares and those of our clients. The land and facilities we have been developing considerably over the last few years, and we will continue selling stock as before, under the "Skryne Castle" name."

Tara Stud has been under the same ownership for almost 80 years, with Billy Iceton taking over for his father Tom, who arrived in 1945, with Derek joining in 1984. The overall farm is comprised of two blocks, with the Tara Stud side approximately 600 acres, and Skryne Castle the remaining 350+ acres.

Among the star past graduates are Grade I winner and current stallion roster member River Boyne (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) and dual Group 1 winner A Case Of You (Ire) (Hot Streak {Ire}). The latter is out of a Key Of Luck mare, who stood for many years at the stud. Other alumni include the Grade 1-placed Balmont Mast (Ire) (Balmont) and G2 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Birthe (Ire) (Study Of Man {Ire}) among many other group winners born and raised on the property on behalf of clients.

Iceton added, "Not only has Tara got fine land on which to grow horses and cattle, it is in wonderful condition, with strongly built boxes and a continuous program of fencing undertaken and every facility you could want to run a stud farm, as well as modern facilities for the cattle. Its location is one of the properties strongest selling points, close to motorways, the M50, to Dublin City and its airport; Ferry Port, so I hope it will attract both local and foreign interest."

HANLON SUSPENSION RULED TO START ON DEC. 1

Trainer John 'Shark' Hanlon's 10-month suspension from training will begin on Dec. 1, the Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board (IHRB) Referrals Committee ruled on Thursday.

The trainer of G1 King George VI Chase winner Hewick (Ire) (Virtual {GB}), Hanlon had appealed the IHRB decision with a potential deferral of the suspension until Apr. 1, but this request was denied. The Dec. 1 start date was the date given when his suspension was originally announced.

The trainer was found to have acted in a manner that “caused significant prejudice to the integrity, proper conduct and good reputation of the sport of racing” in the removal of a dead horse from his yard earlier this year. A member of the public videoed the incident and it was widely circulated on social media, which attracted further media attention and led to the IHRB bringing charges against Hanlon, saying the conduct “attracted significant public opprobrium and adverse comment” both for the trainer personally and racing in general.

“The Committee decided that it saw nothing in the material submitted to justify deviation from the initial suggestion that the effective date of the sanctions should be December 1, 2024,” a statement released by the IHRB Committee read.

“The Committee acknowledged in the initial decision that these sanctions would be burdensome for Mr Hanlon in various ways.

“However, there was nothing in his circumstances to differentiate them from those of other trainers put in the same position by similar decisions in other cases. These cases informed the initial proposal by the Committee of a deferral to December 1, 2024.

“In summary, to defer a sanction of five or 10-months duration (depending on the ultimate approach taken by Mr Hanlon) for well over six months would tend to have the effects suggested by the IHRB and would disproportionately dilute the effect of the withdrawal sanction.

“Accordingly, the Committee confirmed that the sanctions imposed in the initial decision will take effect on December 1, 2024.”

There is a possibility that five months of the suspension will be deferred, as long as the trainer meets the conditions imposed by the IHRB referrals committee during the initial five-month span.

SISTER TO KAMEKO GETS HER CHANCE AT DONCASTER

16.45 Doncaster, Mdn, £30,000, 2yo, f, 7f 6yT
KINGSCLERE (Kitten's Joy), who was due to make her debut at the abandoned Salisbury fixture last week, is instead rolled out on Doncaster's Town Moor with much expectation on her shoulders. She is a homebred full-sister to Qatar Racing's G1 2,000 Guineas and G1 Futurity Trophy-winning sire Kameko who sports the name of trainer Andrew Balding's historic stable. Interestingly, Nurlan Bizakov's similarly unraced Gulya (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) is here having also been set to run at Salisbury and the Roger Varian trainee is out of a full-sister to the G1 Irish 2,000 Guineas-winning sire Romanised (Ire).

16.58 Salisbury, Mdn, £35,000, 2yo, f, 6f 213yT
SANDTRAP (IRE) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is a significant debutante for Valmont and Ballylinch Stud, being a full-sister to last month's GI Fourstardave Handicap hero Carl Spackler (Ire). Bought for 450,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1, the Ralph Beckett trainee encounters six rivals and is slated as the current favourite.

HALLASAN (GB) (g, 2, Pinatubo {Ire}--Fig Roll {GB} {SW-Eng, SP-Ire}, by Bahamian Bounty {GB}), sent off at 15-2 for this Weatherbys Scientific £300,000 2-Y-O Stakes, raced towards the fore early before being committed approaching two out. Made to fight by Ballydoyle's Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) on the run to the line, the 15-2 shot who had scored at the fourth attempt and first at six furlongs at Nottingham in July prevailed on the nod by a nose. "He dug really deep. He's a horse who showed plenty of ability early on and he might just be fulfilling it now," Buick said. "He may get seven, although he is a sharp horse." Charlie Appleby's assistant Alex Merriam added, "He's a small horse and we thought he was going to be an early one, but actually he's just taken a little while to come to himself. I've just spoken to Charlie and he said he thought he might be a nice horse to take to Dubai." The Listed Empress Stakes-winning dam, who has produced the multiple listed-placed Al Raya (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), is a daughter of Cake (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) who was also successful at that level in the St Hughs' Stakes and was third in the G3 Cornwallis Stakes. Her filly foal is by Blue Point (Ire). Sales history: £180,000 Ylg '23 GOFFUK. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-2, $258,759.

BASALT (IRE) (c, 2, Pinatubo {Ire}--Alienate {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), fifth on debut behind TDN Rising Star Maranoa Charlie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in Deauville's seven-furlong Arqana Series des Poulains last month, tended to over-race close to the early pace wanting to go faster. Tanking to the front three out, the 11-10 favourite stayed on to score by 3 1/2 lengths from Bentbasa (Ire) (Sioux Nation). The unraced dam, whose 4-year-old daughter Lmay (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) was third in last year's G2 Park Hill Stakes, is typically a half to Frankel's G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB), the triple grade III winner and GI E. P. Taylor Stakes runner-up Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and the G3 Gordon Richards Stakes scorer Okeechobee (GB) (Time Test (GB)). She is also kin to the dam of the dual GI Diana Stakes heroine Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) from the family of the sires Cityscape (GB) and Bated Breath (GB).
