$575K MAXFIELD COLT ON TOP AS BK 3 CONCLUDES WITH INCREASES

Sunday's session topper, by Maxfield | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale continued ahead of its 2023 edition as Book 3 concluded Sunday night with a colt by Maxfield leading the way when selling for $575,000.

Through the two Book 3 sessions, 526 yearlings sold through the ring for a gross of $83,880,000. The section's average was $159,468--up 4.7% from a year ago--and the median was $130,000, an increase of 13.04%. Ten horses sold for $500,000 or more, compared to 13 hitting that mark a year ago.

During last year's Book 3 section, 562 yearlings sold through the ring for $85,565,000 for an average of $152,251 and a median of $115,000.

With trainers Bob Baffert, Chad Brown and Mark Casse among the first-week shoppers still on the grounds as Book 3 concluded, Sunday's session marked a transition for the 12-day auction, according to Mark Taylor of Taylor Made Sales Agency.

"[Saturday] and today, to me, it felt a little bit thin like a lot of horses didn't have quite punch above the reserve," Taylor said. "They were getting done, but it was right there and you had to be careful with your reserves. But I think the market was still fair. Sunday, to me, seems like sometimes it's a transitional day."

PRIDE OF OHIO TAKES AIM ON KENTUCKY-- AND BEYOND by T.D. Thornton

The Week in Review

Let's start this column with the disclaimer that it's way too early to start seriously talking about how a one-turn-mile victory at age two might translate to winning a 10-furlong stakes some 7 1/2 months from now in a chaotic field of 20.

We'll also put aside for the moment that the GIII Iroquois S. has never been a prognosticator for success in the GI Kentucky Derby. Dating to the race's inception in 1983, juveniles who ran in that late summer/early autumn Churchill Downs stakes have gone a collective 0-1-1 from 30 starts as sophomores on the first Saturday in May. The Sep. 14 winner of the Iroquois, 'TDN Rising Star' Jonathan's Way (Vekoma), also has the distinction of being an Ohio-bred. You've got a pretty good head for obscure facts if you know that Wintergreen in 1909 was the only Kentucky Derby winner ever to be foaled in the Buckeye State. Cont. p11

Keeneland September, Day 6 cont. from p1

Taylor continued, "Some of the people are almost done and maybe they are just bidding on a few select horses. And then some of the people who are really coming for Book 4 are maybe up here around the ring and they are dabbling and maybe buying a few in the back ring. But it's kind of a transition day."

Through six sessions, 1,166 yearlings have grossed $336,408,000. The cumulative average of $288,515 is up 8.15% from the same point in the 2023 auction and the median is up 5% at $210,000. The buy-back rate is 28.51%. It was 26.08% last year.

"I think the sale has been very, very good," Taylor said. "I think Keeneland has done a great job of bringing in buyers from all over the world. There has been a ton of European breeze-up people that have bought a lot of horses from us, so getting them over here and getting them engaged, I think it's a good sign for our breeders that those guys want American horses and they think they can do well at the breeze-up sales. That's been kind of a bright spot."

Looking ahead to the auction's second week, Taylor added, "I thought Book 3 was good, but my hope is that Book 4 is even stronger, that there is new blood coming in and it's going to kick on and go from there."

The Keeneland September sale continues through Saturday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Maxfield Colt for the Amigos

Trainer Bob Baffert, still on the grounds shopping through Book 3 at Keeneland, and bloodstock agent Donato Lanni went to $575,000 to acquire a colt from the first crop of Maxfield on behalf of the 'Three Amigos': Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman Sunday. Out of Bible Belt (Pulpit), the dark bay colt is a half-brother to graded-placed Hardworkcleanlavin (Colonel John). Bred by Bill Thompson, Jr., he was consigned by Indian Creek.

"Bob is here and the three amigos are all here," Lanni said. "It's nice to have them here. The Maxfields have been selling really well. They are all beautiful. And we all liked this colt. He was a must-have."

The Three Amigos were buying their second yearling by Maxfield. They also paid $575,000 for a colt by the sire consigned by Burleson Farms (hip 1108).

Through six sessions, has had 41 yearlings sell for an average of $275,366. He was represented by pair of million-dollar yearlings in Book 1.

STATS DON'T LIE

Everyone knows Midshipman gives breeders and buyers alike an unusually big chance of breeding or buying a Stakes horse. In fact, that chance has never been better: he's up to 17% Black Type horses to runners, best of all Kentucky stallions standing for under $75k. See his yearlings and just imagine.

Maxfield Colt a High for Thompson

Bill Thompson, Jr., breeding Thoroughbreds since 1996, sold his highest-priced yearling Sunday at Keeneland when his colt by Maxfield sold for a session-topping $575,000 to Three Amigos.

“That exceeded my expectations,” Thompson admitted. “I was hoping that we might be $250,000 to $300,000, so this certainly exceeded my expectations.”

The session topper is out of Bible Belt (Pulpit), a mare Thompson purchased for $15,000 at the 2011 Keeneland January sale.

Maxfield is in the midst of a breakout sale with his first-crop yearlings at Keeneland.

Of the decision to send his mare to the Darley stallion, Thompson said, “Maxfield was a stallion that I had the opportunity to see at the racetrack when he was in his racing days.

Bill Thompson Jr | Keeneland

[Trainer] Brendan [Walsh] was really kind to take him out and let us see him. And I was impressed with his disposition, the way he carried himself. That's the difficult thing to ascertain about a potential mating. What is the horse's demeanor? That's so important, I think, not only for the sales, but also for the racetrack. They've got to have that demeanor and confidence that they don't get addled. So I like to pay attention to what I observe of them and Maxfield was such a standout individual from the way he carried himself.”

Thompson has six mares that he boards at Winsom Farm in Paris, Kentucky.

“I had horses when I was younger--Quarter Horses, just riding horses,” Thompson recalled. “But I was really interested in the Thoroughbred world. I bought my first mare in 1996 and had the good fortune to breed to Saint Ballado in his second year and that yearling went on to do very well. I sold her well here at Keeneland. So what do you do? Get some money, buy a couple more mares. So that's where I am today.”

Asked what it was like to watch his high-selling yearling go through the ring Sunday, Thompson said, "It feels rewarding because there are so many things that can go wrong. I lost two foals this year. It's a difficult game, but when everything lines up and you have a success like this, it just feels terrific."

Nyquist Colt to Wathnan Racing

A colt by Nyquist (hip 1813) is joining the expanding U.S. stable of Wathnan Racing after bloodstock agent Case Clay made a final bid of $550,000 to secure the yearling Sunday at Keeneland. The dark bay is out of stakes-placed Slimey (Quality Road) and was consigned by Knockgriffin Farm.

"He really just caught my eye," said Clay. "He has a lot of presence and is a beautiful mover."

The Wathnan Racing of the Emir of Qatar Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani burst on the European racing scene last summer when winning a pair of races at Royal Ascot. The operation returned to win four races at the royal meeting this year.

Clay has been shopping for Wathnan at the yearling sales over the last month as the operation expands its U.S. roster, which already has seen graded success with Subsanador (Arg) (Fortify)'s win in the GIII Phillip H. Iselin Stakes

"In America, they are looking to buy two-turn dirt horses, colts and fillies," Clay said. "There are 13 in training at the moment and so far at Saratoga and September sale, they have bought 14---11 here [at Keeneland] and three at Saratoga."

Wathnan's purchases at Keeneland have included a colt by Gun Runner (hip 235) for $800,000 and a colt by Not This Time (hip 4) for $675,000. At Saratoga, Clay's three purchases on behalf of Wathnan included a filly by Tapit (hip 160) for $850,000; a colt by Into Mischief (hip 55) for $850,000; and a second filly by Tapit (hip 135) for $500,000.

Fitzgerald Hits Another Book 3 Home Run

Jim Fitzgerald's Knockgriffin Farm hit a pinhooking home run when topping the second Book 3 section in 2023 with a $900,000 son of Constitution he had purchased for $100,000 at Keeneland January eight months earlier. Fitzgerald did again Sunday at Keeneland when selling a colt by Nyquist for $550,000 to Case Clay Thoroughbred Management. The yearling was purchased for $95,000 at Keeneland this past January.

"He just had an overall range about him," Fitzgerald said. "The way he moved as a weanling, I thought there was just so much potential there. He grew up exactly as I thought he would. I think his better days are ahead of him. He's really started to come into himself now and I think Case Clay bought a really nice horse."

Of the colt's price tag in January, Fitzgerald said, "I was a little surprised by it, but he had a lot of maturing to do. And sometimes you get a bit lucky. And obviously I got lucky, especially with Nyquist, who is probably one of the hottest sires around right now."

Casse Celebrates with More Shopping

By any measure, Mark Casse had a good day at the race Saturday. The trainer saddled the top three in the GI Natalma Stakes, the top two in the GI Woodbine Mile and south of the border captured the GIII Pocahontas Stakes at Churchill Downs. Casse wasn't on hand at any of those races, however, as he shopped the Keeneland September sale.

"It's funny," Casse said at the sales pavilion Sunday. "I think we've won the Natalma eight or nine times and the Summer four or five times. I think that was our third Woodbine Mile. I haven't been to any of them. It's always the week of the sale. I tell everybody, that book has been written. I am trying to buy next year's winners."

Asked how he celebrated the racetrack success Saturday, Casse said, “We went out to dinner with some friends. We were going strong, trying to buy horses and watch races. This is always an interesting week.”

Casse had a knockout summer with his 2-year-olds at Saratoga and the babies continue to perform with And One More Time (Omaha Beach), Vixen (Vekoma), and Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) sweeping the trifecta in the Natalma and La Cara (Street Sense)'s win in the Pocahontas.

“We had a wonderful year with our 2-year-olds,” Casse said. “We started a new plan at the beginning of the year. We bought yearlings, but then we got them ready at our training center, so we had a good group ready early. We got them started. I think that's the key. You look at a filly like La Cara who won the Pocahontas, she started a couple of times before she even won. So it takes some of those horses a few starts.”

Tynan Makes the Scene at Keeneland

Ronan Tynan | Keeneland

Ronan Tynan took time away from his teaching duties at University of Kentucky to take in the sales at Keeneland Sunday, but the Irish tenor, who breeds and races in his native country, found bidding competitive.

“I teach two weeks each semester at University of Kentucky,” Tynan, said. “I have a stud farm in Ireland and in the past I've bought horses here, but it's very good sales this year. Holy moly.”

Asked if he had bid on anything Sunday, Tynan admitted, “I saw a beautiful filly by Street Sense and she attracted my attention hugely, but then she detracted my attention because she flew. I tell you what, if this is an indication of the way things are going, it's going to be hard to get something within the realm of my pocket. But it's fantastic.”

Tynan will be hoping the action is as competitive in Ireland when he turns to the selling side of the sales.

“I breed and race,” Tynan said. “The year before I had eight winners, last year I had seven or eight. This year, not so good, but you have years like that. I have foals for the sales in Ireland. I'm a little worried about how it goes. Ireland is not America. I think Europe may be near a recession, not near the top, but the tier below it.”

VIEW CONSIGNMENT

- The Keeneland September Book 3 section concluded with increases in both average and median. Through the two sessions, Keeneland sold 526 yearlings for $83,880,000. The average of $159,468 was up 4.7% and the median of $130,000 was up 13.04% from a year ago.
- Yearlings from the first crop of Maxfield, who had a pair of million-dollar colts earlier in the auction, continued to be in demand. A son of the Darley stallion topped Sunday's session when selling to the Three Amigos for $575,000.
- Taylor Made Sales Agency was the leading consignor during Book 3, with 54 head sold for $7,101,000.
- Monique Delk was the leading buyer of Book 3. Bidding on behalf of Vinnie Viola's St. Elias Stable, Delk signed for eight yearlings for $3,380,000. She signed for an additional two yearlings in partnership with Donegal and Whisper Hill Farm.
- Through six sessions, alone or in partnership, Delk has signed for 14 yearlings for $7,850,000.
- Jim Fitzgerald's Knockgriffin Farm, which topped Bk 3 a year ago with a home run pinhook, had another big score Sunday. The operation sold a colt by Nyquist for $550,000. The yearling was purchased at Keeneland January earlier this year for $95,000.

101 Pinhooks Sold in Book 3 Average Nearly $44,000 Profit Each

We took a deep dive into how Book 3's pinhooks fared and attempted to analyze how the prospects as a whole performed over the two days. We've subtracted a loose estimated cost of $25,000 for each yearling's board, veterinary expenses, farrier work, sales prep, and sales entry fees. Obviously, this amount has the potential to vary substantially per offering.

A total of 138 yearlings were consigned over the two days of Book 3 as pinhooks. Eleven of the 138 were outs and 26 were RNAs, leaving 101 to represent the pinhook sector. The 101 sold for a total of $16,428,000 from a combined output of $9,496,000 at original purchase. Less $2,525,000 for the 101 in combined estimated costs, that leaves a profit of $4,407,000 for the group or an average of $43,634 and a median of $150,000. Sixty-four were profitable at an average profit of $89,469, one broke even, and 36 lost money at an average loss of $36,639.

The pinhooking standout of Book 3 was Nyquist's colt out of Slimey (Quality Road), who was purchased for $95,000 by Knockgriffin Farm and Stoney Pointe Bloodstock at Keeneland January before reselling Sunday for $550,000. @JillWilliamsTDN

Phil Bauer and Richard Rigney | Keeneland

Yet even if the historical odds are stacked against him, you have to admit the connections of this 2-for-2 colt are entitled to at least a little bit of celebratory "Derby dreaming" hype after watching Jonathan's Way establish command, take pressure through the middle stages, and shrug off decent bids at the top of the stretch and through the lane to score in Saturday's Iroquois by 2 3/4 lengths in 1:36.08 (89 Beyer Speed Figure).

"Isn't this great? An Ohio-bred?" owner Richard Rigney asked rhetorically while basking in the afterglow of his 1.26-1 favored colt earning the first 10 points on the 2025 Road to the Derby qualifying leaderboard.

Rigney, who has operated Rigney Racing for the past 11 years, said post-win that he named this $290,000 KEENOV weanling after his teenage son.

Presumably, he was aware when he christened the colt that an old adage in the sport dictates you don't name a racehorse after a family member or friend unless you think the horse will turn out to be something special.

It turns out that indeed was the case with Jonathan's Way.

"As a weanling, we were thinking big, high things of this horse from the very beginning," Rigney said in post-race interview footage provided by the Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association.

"One of the wonderful things about [bloodstock agent] John [Moynihan] is that he's not looking at what the [catalogue] page looks like. He's looking at who are the athletes, and it just couldn't have been better for us," Rigney said.

If you sift those against-the-grain statistics about the Iroquois S. and Ohio-breds through a finer sieve, you can come up with a couple of exception-to-the-trend coincidences that give glimmers of hope to the prospect that Jonathan's Way might have a fighting chance in the spring Classics.

Last year's winner of the Iroquois S., West Saratoga (Exaggerator), did make it into the 2024 Derby, finishing twelfth. But the fourth-place horse out of that 2023 Iroquois, Seize the Grey (Arrogate), eventually annexed his own slice of the 2024 Triple Crown, upsetting the GI Preakness S. at 9-1 odds

And while no winner of the Iroquois S. has ever worn a blanket of roses under Churchill's twin spires, the favorite for the Derby 22 years ago, Harlan's Holiday, was actually an Ohio-bred who had won the previous year's Iroquois.

Off as the 6-1 public choice in the 2002 Derby wired by the 20-1 War Emblem, Harlan's Holiday finished seventh.

Rigney was well aware of that connection, too, and even added another layer of intrigue to the Iroquois/Ohio kismet.

"The other thing that's kind of awesome is Harlan's Holiday was an Ohio-bred," Rigney said. "And the person that bought Harlan's Holiday [in 2000 as the stable manager for Jack and Laurie Wolf], was Barry Berklehammer, the one who broke this horse.

"So we're pretty happy. We've got the Ohio mojo going," Rigney enthused.

Jonathan's Way, through just two lifetime starts, has also managed to mirror the exploits of his first-crop sire, Vekoma. Both won six-furlong sprints in New York in their debuts, then registered victories as favorites in one-turn-mile stakes second time out.

In Jonathan's Way's case, he parlayed a 4 1/4-length score at Saratoga Aug. 17 into a win in the Iroquois.

Vekoma, by contrast, had gotten a later start. As a May 22 foal, he won his Sept. 23, 2018, debut at Belmont Park, then (bypassing the Breeders' Cup the same weekend), took down the Nov. 4 GIII Nashua S.

Harlan's Holiday and Todd Pletcher | Horsephotos

At age three, Vekoma ran third in the GII Fountain of Youth S., won the then-GII Blue Grass S., and finished twelfth in the 2019 Kentucky Derby.

After missing 10 months with foot ailments, Vekoma's connections cut him back to one-turn races in 2020, and he ended his career with three straight stakes tallies, including the 2020 GI Metropolitan Handicap. He was sidelined again that summer, pointed toward the Breeders' Cup without a prep race, then a fever caused Vekoma to miss what was to be his final start in the GI Sprint. Jonathan's Way's trainer, Philip Bauer, said that running through adversity in start No. 1 established that his colt could handle stakes company.

In his Saratoga coming-out party, Jonathan's Way got bumped at the break, was taken up and got pinched back, powered through dirt kickback, circled the field, then swept to the lead in the lane and drew off in what was termed a "sparkling effort" by the Equibase chart caller.

"Certainly in the debut, we never anticipated the trouble he encountered," Bauer said. "But he overcame it, and was much the best that day.

"[Saturday] we felt the [nine] post was to our advantage, to see how [the pace] developed, and he developed things himself [by going straight for the lead]," Bauer said.

While watching the Iroquois unfold, Bauer said he took a measure of comfort in getting a visual read that Jonathan's Way was not overtaxing himself on the front end despite taking heat for most of the trip.

"Joel [Rosario] is a great rider for a reason," Bauer said. "When they break sharp, you try not to take anything away from them."

The main track at Churchill did not appear biased on Saturday, but it was decidedly not slanted toward early speed.

Of 11 races on the main track, only the opener and Jonathan's Way's win were wire jobs. Four races were won by stalkers from midpack; five others featured deep closers.

"The horse gives you a ton of confidence in the mornings. He's ultra-talented, and I feel sorry for his workmate at times," Bauer said.

"Two-year-olds, it's a 'light bulb' moment a lot of times," Bauer continued. "You could tell after his first race he knew what the game's all about. Started training a little more forwardly in the mornings. We came in here with a ton of confidence."

The Nov. 1 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile is next, Bauer said, although he did admit that the seven weeks between starts presents a dilemma about whether or not to fit in another prep stakes.

"I think we'll train up," Bauer said. "I think with Kentucky Downs [holding the early September dates], Churchill tries to just back up [the date of the Iroquois] a little bit. The timing gets a little messed up."

Bauer's solution?

"Talented horses, you've just got to keep them happy," he said.

JONATHAN'S WAY TO TARGET BREEDERS' CUP JUVENILE

Rigney Racing's TDN Rising Star Jonathan's Way (Vekoma) went wire-to-wire in the GIII Iroquois Stakes at Churchill Downs, earning the colt 10 qualifying points towards the GI Kentucky Derby. According to trainer Phil Bauer Sunday, the colt will now head to the Nov. 1 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Del Mar.

“It was an unbelievable day for our barn,” Bauer said. “Watching him turn for home in the Iroquois, he looked so comfortable on the front end. His ears told a story--he was just waiting for Joel [Rosario] to ask for more. And, really, Joel didn’t have to push him much at all.”

The Ohio-bred earned TDN stardom after his impressive 4 1/4-length score going six panels at the Spa Aug. 17.

“For only his second start, he showed a lot of heart and gave us a new dimension in his running style. He cooled out great and was in perfect [Sunday] morning.”

Jonathan’s Way is only the second horse that Bauer and Rigney Racing have had on the Road to the Kentucky Derby leaderboard. The duo previously campaigned Another Lemon Drop, who finished fourth in the 2015 GIII Lecomte Stakes at Fair Grounds.

“We actually bought him as a weanling for $290,000 and we were thinking high things of this horse from the beginning,” Rigney said. “I have a great team behind me and I use John Moynihan as my bloodstock agent. The great thing about John is he’s not looking at the page behind the horse but the physical attributes.”

Jonathan’s Way’s was broken by Barry Berkelhammer, who also holds the distinction of having broken Grade I-winning Ohio-bred Harlan’s Holiday.

“Seeing him already reward us is surreal,” he added. “Being one of the favorites for both the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile and Kentucky Derby is a dream come true. This is the greatest sport in the world.”

THORPEDO ANNA POSTS FINAL WORK AHEAD OF COTILLION

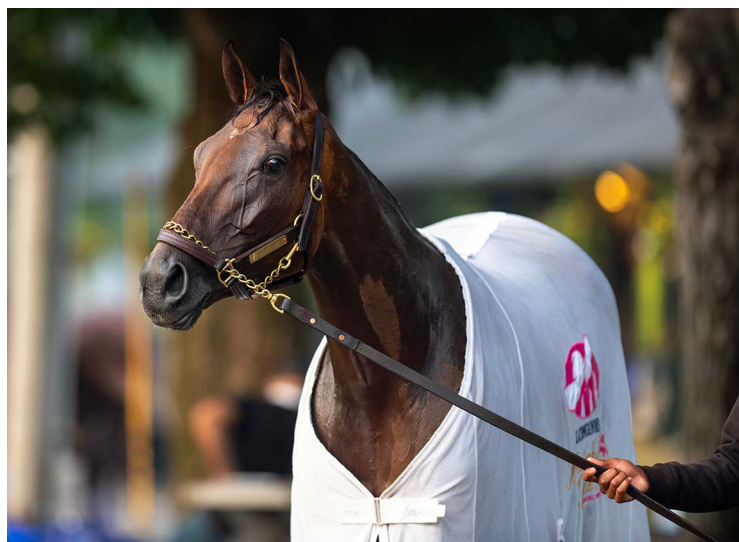

Brookdale Racing, Mark Edwards, Judy Hicks and Magdalena Racing’s Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) posted her final work Saturday at Saratoga in preparation for Saturday’s GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx Racing.

Trained by Kenny McPeek, the GI Kentucky Oaks winner covered five furlongs in 1:00.20 over the Oklahoma dirt training track under regular exercise rider Danny Ramsey.

McPeek, who is currently at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, said the report on the filly’s work was positive.

“All accounts are that she worked super and came out super,” said McPeek. “She’s doing great at Saratoga.”

Thorpedo Anna was last seen finishing second to reigning Champion 2-Year-Old Colt Fierceness in the Aug. 24 GI DraftKings Travers at the Spa. She has won three Grade Is this year, including the DK Horse Acorn during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival at Saratoga, and the Coaching Club American Oaks at the Spa.

Thorpedo Anna | Sarah Andrew

Parx will be the fifth track the TDN Rising Star has raced over. “She’s all set and will probably ship down the day before,” said McPeek. “She’s handled everything else she’s ever done, I don’t know why she wouldn’t handle that.”

Thorpedo Anna has remained at Saratoga since the Travers and has posted two works, the other being a half-mile in :50.80 seconds on Sept. 7.

'SKIPPY' WORKS AHEAD OF WOODWARD; JOSEPH CHARTS PLANS WITH TEAM

Daniel Alonso’s Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) breezed a half mile in :49.90 over the Oklahoma dirt training track Sunday in preparation for a start in the Sept. 28 GII Woodward at Belmont at the Big A.

Trained by Saffie Joseph, Jr., the 5-year-old won three graded stakes this season, including last time out in the GII Charles Town Classic on Aug. 23.

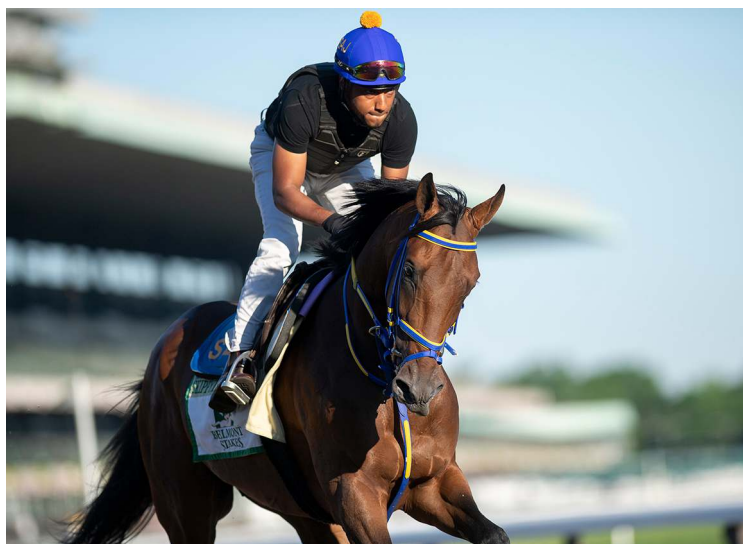

“It’s a good spot for him and he’s doing well at Saratoga, so it’s not too long of a ship,” Joseph, Jr. said. “He just seems to keep getting better. He had a good work [Sunday] and for him it was just perfection. I just hope he can continue the way he is right now.”

Joseph, Jr. could also be represented by C2 Racing Stable and Agave Racing Stable’s Soul of an Angel (Atreides), who is possible for the 6 1/2-furlong GII Gallant Bloom Sept. 29.

Joseph, Jr. said Soul of an Angel worked well Saturday while covering three-eighths in :36 flat in company with Practically Dark over the Oklahoma dirt training track.

The 5-year-old was purchased privately earlier this year and won the GII Ruffian going a one-turn mile on May 4 here on debut for Joseph, Jr.

Skippy Longstocking | Sarah Andrew

Soul of an Angel, fifth in the nine-furlong GI Ogden Phipps after a slow start, was a close second in the 1 1/16-mile GIII Molly Pitcher in July at Monmouth and a distant third last out in the nine-furlong GI Personal Ensign on Aug. 23 at the Spa.

“She is possible to cut back in the Gallant Bloom but it’s not decided just yet,” Joseph, Jr. said. “We just want to get her back to one turn. She hasn’t run at one turn since she won the Ruffian.”

Miller Racing’s dual graded stakes-winner Spirit Wind (Bahamian Squall) was also on the Oklahoma tab Saturday, covering three-eighths in :35.66.

Joseph, Jr. indicated the 5-year-old mare could target the Oct. 5 GII Thoroughbred Club of America at Keeneland.

Joseph also indicated C Two Racing Stable and Mathis Stable’s The Queens M G (Thousand Words), winner of Saratoga’s Schuylerville and GIII Adirondack this summer, would likely stretch out around two turns in the 1 1/16-mile GI Alcibiades on Oct. 4 at Keeneland.

The dark bay, a private purchase following a gritty debut win in April at Keeneland, finished a distant fifth last out in the seven-furlong GI Spinaway Aug. 31.

“No excuses for her as far as trip last time,” he said. “The trip was perfect and she came out of it well. The slop was an unknown factor and maybe that was the cause, but time will tell,” Joseph, Jr. said. “She’s probably going to go to Keeneland. I’d like to try her two turns and see how she gets on there in the Grade I.”

Joseph Jr. added that C2 Racing Stable, Kuehne Racing and Mark Corrado’s Andrea (Thousand Words), who is 2-for-2 after a pair of frontrunning romps at Gulfstream this summer, exited Saturday’s Hallandale Beach victory in good order, however, her next start has yet to be decided.

“She’s a nice filly. She’s progressive and really going in the right direction,” Joseph, Jr. said. “She had a nice debut and we stretched her out [Saturday] which was not ideal going from 5 1/2-furlongs to a mile, but there wasn’t any other options. She handled it well.”

Andrea was purchased by Joseph, Jr. for $105,000 from the OBS Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in training where she worked in :9.4.

“She looked like she had speed and class. You never know until you get them back to the track, but since she came in she’s trained well,” Joseph, Jr. said.

The South Florida-based trainer also noted that last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Classic-winner White Abarrio (Race Day), who finished fifth last time out in the GI Metropolitan Handicap in June, remains in training at Saratoga and is getting closer to a breeze.

ANOTHER CLEESHAY WORKS FOR FRIZETTE; EPITAPH POINTS TO FUTURITY

Trainer Gary Contessa will point a pair of New York-breds to Breeders Cup “Win and You’re In” events at Belmont at the Big A with Another Cleeshay (Volatile) targeting the Oct. 5 GI Frizette Stakes and Epitaph (Country House) pointing to the GIII Futurity on Oct. 4.

“I look to shoot high. If you don’t shoot high, you can’t do amazing things,” said Contessa, who captured the GI Hopeful Stakes last year with 54-1 shot Nutella Fella.

Another Cleeshay worked five-eighths in 1:03 flat Saturday over the Oklahoma dirt training track in company with maiden But Now Am Found.

Sean Shay’s Another Cleeshay will look to parlay a 9 1/2-length debut score on Aug. 30 at Saratoga into a first career stakes win in the one-turn mile Frizette for juvenile fillies.

"She broke slow, broke in the air, but she's got talent," said Contessa of the filly's debut. "Junior [Alvarado] knew how good she was, too. He knew she could overcome that break. The worst that could have happened is if they'd shut off the inside on her and she'd have no place to go. Luckily, the horses stayed off the rail and she was able to zip up the rail."

Another Cleeshay, bred by 3C Stables, was purchased by Contessa for $40,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale.

"I thought she was extremely athletic. I loved the way she moved," said Contessa. "I'm all about analyzing the stride of a horse when I'm buying at a 2-year-old sale. I might look at a tape of a horse working 20 times before I bid on it and that's what I did with her."

Contessa said the filly, who was also nominated to the state-bred Joseph A. Gimma next week, is doing well and he has no concerns about stepping her up in class and distance.

"I can always run in a New York-bred stake, but I can't always run in a Breeders' Cup," Contessa said. "We don't know how good she is. She won very impressively first time out. I think the mile is going to suit her, so why not take a shot?"

Epitaph, purchased by Contessa for $15,000 at the Midlantic sale, graduated in front-running fashion in his Aug. 25 debut sprinting 5 1/2-furlongs over firm Spa turf.

The gelding, with Alvarado up, showed the way through splits of :21.83 seconds, :45.99 and :57.96 en route to a one-length victory in a final time of 1:04.13.

Bred by NK Racing, Epitaph, who worked five-eighths in 1:02.50 Saturday over the Oklahoma dirt training track, was nominated to next weekend's state-bred Bertram F. Bongard but will instead look to earn his way into the Breeders' Cup in November at Del Mar in the six-furlong Futurity for juveniles.

"Epitaph worked well [Saturday], too," Contessa said. "He's another one where I really liked his sale video. I nominated him to the New York-bred race, but I think we'll go to the Futurity with him as well. He won impressively going 5 1/2-furlongs on the grass."

DEBUT WINNER SAXTON, SP MUNNY GRAB ADDED TO INGLIS DIGITAL USA SEPTEMBER SALE

Munny Grab winning at the Big A | NYRA/Coglianesse

The Inglis Digital USA September Sale added a pair of offerings to its catalog in debut winner Saxton (Mosler) and MSP Munny Grab (Munnings), both to be offered on Wednesday, Sept. 25.

Saxton enters the September sale after a 4 1/2-length debut victory in a 5 1/2-furlong turf maiden special weight at Colonial Downs Sept. 4.

Trainer Cathal Lynch co-owns the 2-year-old gelding with Nick Sanna Stables.

"Saxton acts like an older horse," remarked Lynch of Saxton. "He is good minded and feels like he will improve as we stretch him out. The Laurel Futurity on Sept. 28 could be his next possible start."

A Virginia-bred with Maryland-sired eligibility and Maryland Million certification, Saxton was bred by Lazy Lane Farms. He is first runner and winner out of the Lookin At Lucky mare Winning Thread. His family includes third dam Grade II winner Secret Account, in addition to Kentucky Oaks winner Plum Pretty, GISW Secret Hello, and Grade III winner Conveyance.

Munny Grab is stakes-placed on both dirt and turf, most recently finishing a gaining third over the grass in the Suzie O'Cain Stakes at Saratoga. The New York bred filly earned a career best 78 Beyer Speed Figure in that effort.

The 3-year-old launched her career on the main track during her juvenile season, beating fellow New York-breds by four lengths in an Aqueduct maiden special weight, then finishing third in the Gin Talking Stakes at Laurel Park.

Munny Grab is trained by Horacio De Paz, earning $144,140 for owners Magic Cap Stables and Hayden Racing. She is consigned by Lucan Bloodstock, agent.

Listen to this week's podcast

September 11, 2024

Aidan O'Brien shares updates on City of Troy and other Breeders' Cup-bound trainees.

"The future is very bright for Munny Grab who is stakes placed on dirt and turf and is still improving race by race," said Karl Keegan of Lucan Bloodstock. "She's one of those unique fillies that is effective no matter what surface she's on. Her 2-year-old half-brother is in training will Bill Mott, and the reports on him are excellent."

Bred by EKQ Stables Corp., Munny Grab is out of the stakes-winning Maria's Mon mare Another World, whose seven foals to race are all winners. Her pedigree traces back to a Thomas Mellon Evans female family that features champion Pleasant Stage and Grade I winners Changeintheweather, A Phenomenon, Seattle Meteor, and Marsh Side.

"Munny Grab and Saxton are among the exciting new racehorses added to our September catalog," said Inglis Digital USA CEO Liza Hendriks. "With demand for racehorses at a high, sellers are leveraging recent successes, and these horses can remain in training through the sale without having to move, offering buyers an excellent opportunity."

Entries close for the Inglis Digital USA September Sale on Monday, Sept. 16. The catalog will be released Friday, Sept. 20, and the horses will sell Wednesday, Sept. 25.

Collecting his second consecutive graded win in Saturday's GIII British Columbia Derby, August Rain has rarely put a foot wrong, having finished out of the money only once in 11 career starts. A three-time listed winner at 2, the gelding finished second in his 2024 debut facing allowance foes at Hastings in May before winning his next two at the stakes level, including the 8 1/2-furlong Chris Loseth Handicap July 6. A close-up third in the Aug. 5 BC Cup Sir Winston Churchill Derby Trial, the chestnut rebounded to take the GIII Canadian Derby last time out at Century Mile Aug. 24.

Sent off the well-supported 4-5 choice here, the BC bred settled in midpack early through respectable early splits. Narrowing the distance on the front runners while racing two wide turning for home, August Rain shifted out while closing down the lane, took command was maintained a 1 1/4-length advantage over Moneyshot at the wire. J Dutton was third.

MONMOUTH PARK CONCLUDES WITH INCREASES IN TOTAL AND ON-TRACK HANDLE

Spurred in part by a record handle on NYRA Bets Haskell Stakes Day, Monmouth Park continued its upward trend with increases in both total and on-track handle for the fourth straight year, while jockey Paco Lopez and trainer Claudio Gonzalez were repeat winners of their respective titles as the 50-day meet came to an end on Sunday.

Total average handle was $4,251,965, a 5.4% increase over last year’s average of $4,032,648 during a 51-day meet.

On-track handle averaged $352,939, a 3.7% increase over last year’s average of $340,257.

In addition, the total handle of $212,598,246 for the 50 days was an increase of nearly $7 million over last year’s 51-day total handle of $205,665,035.

The overall on-track handle also increased despite one less day of live racing, finishing at $17,646,973 compared to $17,353,093 in 2023.

“It’s a testament to the owners, trainers and the quality of racing that we were able to show an increase in handle once again,” said Dennis Drazin, Chairman and CEO of Darby Development, LLC, lessee and operator of Monmouth Park. “With everything we have on the horizon, from the state-of-the-art Caesars Sportsbook now under construction to the development that is planned for the property, the future of Monmouth Park has never been brighter.”

Haskell Day produced a record total handle of $21,748,294 for the 14-race card, eclipsing the record set a year earlier. The crowd of 38,976 was the largest for Haskell Day since 2015.

Among the future enhancements to the facility is the 16,000 square foot Caesars trackside sportsbook, which is currently under construction. Completion is scheduled for next year.

JEMB, of which Morris Baily is the chairman of the board, has partnered with Darby Development and Monmouth Park to develop 80 acres of the track property, with plans calling for multi-family housing, a hotel and retail and youth sports facilities.

On the racing front, Lopez won his 11th Monmouth Park riding title overall and 10th in the past 12 years, finishing with 76 winners to 65 for runner-up Jairo Rendon.

Gonzalez won his third straight Monmouth Park training total, holding a 34-32 advantage over Mario Serey, Jr.

Robert Reidy, a Rumson resident, earned his first leading owner’s title with 14 winners from 66 starts. Reidy has been an owner since 2010.

Thoroughbred racing in the state shifts to East Rutherford starting on Friday for the boutique Monmouth-at-Meadowlands all-turf meet. Live racing will run from Sept. 20 to Oct. 18 on Fridays and Saturdays, with the six-race cards starting at 7 p.m.

Souper Supreme ran to her odds in the Victorian Queen Stakes after winning second out against maiden optional claiming company at Woodbine July 6 and then taking home the restricted auction company Muskoka Stakes trophy in Toronto Aug. 25. At 65 cents on the dollar here, the bay took to the turf for the first time like water and made every pole a winning one as she sailed home a winner on Sunday. A half-sister to current sire Army Mule (Friesan Fire), the winner's dam visited Silent Name (Jpn) consecutively starting in 2022, which yielded a filly and a colt May 18. Dewolf debuted in maiden special weight company going six furlongs on the grass at Woodbine July 4 but only managed fourth and dropped into an optional claimer last out, breaking through by 2 3/4 length Aug. 24. He scratched from last Saturday's GI Summer Stakes to tackle this spot instead and was heavily supported at 4-5 when trying this longest distance to date. Forwardly placed while third along the inside, Dewolf stalked pacesetter Unbridled Weather into the turn and pounced with an outside move with a quarter to run. Cont.

Someday Lady earned her first black-type score after running third in the BC Cup Debutante Stakes over this course and distance Aug. 5 and then was the runner-up in the auction restricted CTHS Sales Stakes at Hastings Aug. 26. A 4-1 shot here, the juvenile raced in third into the first turn and steadily began to reel in the leaders up the backstretch. The hooded filly grabbed the lead around the far turn and never looked back.

The winner's dam is responsible for a gelded yearling by Bakken and she foaled a filly by Cistron Apr. 20. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Avana kept her five-win streak going in the British Columbia Oaks on Saturday evening. After collecting three black-type wins this summer at Hastings, the 3-year-old added the Century Casino Oaks Aug. 24 which she won by 4 3/4 lengths. Well-backed at 25 cents on the dollar here, the chestnut loped along towards the rear as the field circled the bull ring for the first time. Approaching the far turn for the final time, Avana launched her bid and began to drive down the lane. Pacesetter Viva La Diva (Sungold) put in a valiant effort trying to stick with the chalk as the runner-up. A half-sister to GISW Belle Gallantey (After Market), the winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly in-training Revealing Sun (Sungold) and a yearling filly by that same sire. MINK'S PALACE (f, 3, Palace Malice--Scattering Mink, by Scat Daddy) was a debut maiden winner late last year and picked up her second win two starts back over course and near distance June 22 while fourth most recently at Ellis going seven furlongs Aug. 11. The 5-1 shot sat at the back of the field through the opening half, bidding her time into the far turn before fanning out across the track at the quarter marker to challenge Riperton (Constitution). The pair kept things tight down the lane with Mink's Palace getting the better bob to win by a head while insightful runner V V's Dream (Mitole) just hung on for third. Scattering Mink has a 2-year-old unraced War of Will filly named As Advertised and reported a full-sister to Mink's Palace this season. She was bred to Gunite for 2025. BENEDETTA (f, 3, City of Light--Tessie Flip, by Grand Slam) debuted a juvenile winner at Los Alamitos during the summer, was the runner-up in the GIII Sorrento Stakes at Del Mar in early August and was well-beaten in the GI Del Mar Debutante Stakes in September. Making the switch from Simon Callaghan's California operation to Steve Asmussen's shedrow, the filly kicked off her 3-year-old campaign under the Twin Spires and was fifth against optional claimers June 28. Shipping to the Spa, the bay was third while facing allowance company Aug. 17. A 4-1 shot here, Benedetta skillfully angled out of the chute and held a short lead up the backstretch. The filly continued to control the fractions around the far turn and saved plenty for the run down the lane as she won by 2 3/4 lengths over Huntress for Hire (Nyquist). The winner is a half-sister to Jo Jo Air (Scat Daddy), MSW & GSP, $221,474. Herself a half-sister to MGSW Switch (Quiet American), Tessie Flip is responsible for a yearling

NOT TOO LATE (f, 2, McKinzie--Donna Getyourgun {SP, $167,626}, by Stormy Atlantic) broke her maiden by two lengths at third asking at Parx Aug. 19. Overlooked at odds of 11-1 here, the filly raced mid-pack as the favorite Biscuitwiththeboss (Holy Boss) showed the way up the backstretch. The juvenile fanned three wide around the far turn and suddenly shot to the lead by the top of the lane. Striding home like a pro, the dark bay cleared the condition by three lengths over Shkhara Fire (Friesan Fire). The winner is a half-sister to Mizzen Beau (Mizzen Mast), SW, $205,559. SUNDAY DISRUPTOR (f, 2, Not This Time--Pocket Gift {MSP, $176,227}, by Great Notion) finished in fifth place behind next-out winner Echo Sound (Echo Town) on debut at Ellis Park's main track Aug. 3 and the juvenile was the runner-up stretching out to a mile over the same surface Aug. 26. At 71 cents on the dollar here, the top choice tucked in along the rail in fourth heading into the first turn and continued to hold that spot up the backstretch. Given her cue around the far turn, the filly circled the leaders, asserted herself by the eighth pole and kicked for home to score by 1 1/4 lengths over a charging Margot's Angel (Practical Joke). The winner is a half-sister to Pass the Plate (Temple City), MSW & MGSP, $556,669. Pocket Gift was entered in Twirling Candy's book for next season. Sales History: $350,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. WOODS EDGE FARM GRADUATE

Sunday Disruptor | Coady Media

2nd-Churchill Downs, $120,000, Msw, 9-15, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:43.64, ft, nose.

D'ORO UNBRIDLED (c, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Unbridled Forever {GISW, $805,257}, by Unbridled's Song) debuted a well-beaten third at Keeneland in early April, then was fifth at Churchill Downs May 4. After nearly a three-month break, the colt returned to the races and was a well-beaten runner-up at Colonial Downs July 27. A 9-2 shot here, the homebred tracked a trio heading into the first turn, but was having trouble keeping pace with the leaders up the backstretch. The 3-year-old began to rally around the far turn though and passing the eighth pole he took aim at Eglise (Frosted) who seemed to be cruising. Diving to the inside, D'oro Unbridled dug down and nailed his target in the final jump to graduate by a nose. His dam's last registered foal, the winner's second dam is GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), who also produced champion older dirt female Forever Unbridled (Unbridled's Song). Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $93,725. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O/B-Charles Fipke (KY); T-Ignacio Correas, IV.

KENTUCKY SMOKESHOW (f, 2, Volatile--Dying to Dance, by Street Cry {Ire}) took money down from her 10-1 morning line and was forwardly placed early into the turn while third, fanned out to take on a pair of dueling leaders into the stretch and was driven hard past to edge away late by 1 1/4 lengths over Wisconsin Gal (Army Mule). The 10th winner for her freshman sire (by Violence), Kentucky Smokeshow is a half to both Encumbered (Violence), SW, $136,995 and Your Only Man (Creative Cause), GSP, $197,604. She has a foal half-sister by Independence Hall while Dying to Dance is due back to Global

NBS SUCCESS

1st-Belmont The Big A, $90,000, Msw, 9-15, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:44.11, fm, 3/4 length.

LAVENDER DISASTER (f, 2, Into Mischief--Cafe Americano {GSW, $178,800}, by Medaglia d'Oro) debuted going long Sunday and had to take back a bit after an unsettled start saw her hit the side of the gate. Situated mid pack in fourth through fractions of :24.62 and :50.15, she came through along the rail into the far turn before angling out with a quarter remaining to take aim at pacesetter Snipsnippitysnip (Girvin). Once in the clear past the furlong marker, the 3-5 favorite closed with a good kick to prevail by three-quarters of a length over stablemate Competitive Market (Authentic). The first foal out of the Peter Brant-owned GSW Cafe Americano, Lavender Disaster's second dam is dual Canadian champion Roxy Gap (Indian Charlie). Cafe Americano, herself a $625,000 KEESEP yearling back in 2017 for White Birch Farm, has a yearling Tapit colt who was withdrawn from this year's KEESEP sale and returned to Into Mischief for a full-sibling to Lavender Disaster next year. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

WILD MAMA (f, 2, American Pharoah--Safwah, by Medaglia d'Oro) came away running from the outside stall to contest the front just a short distance back of pacesetter Smooth Claret (Vino Rosso). Steadily advancing from along the outside, the 5-1 shot picked up the lead past the quarter pole and drew off convincingly but was reeled back in a bit late by a closing Save the Queen (Practical Joke) to win by a diminishing two lengths. Safwah is a half-sister to both GI Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming (Bodemeister) and GI Spinaway Stakes winner Hot Dixie Chick (Dixie Union) who produced GISW Pauline's Pearl (Tapit). Wild Mama has a foal half-brother from the first crop of Flightline while her dam visited Elite Power for 2025. Sales History: $380,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. SHADE OF PALE (f, 3, Demarchelier {GB}--Pale Moon {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) debuted as a juvenile at Monmouth last summer then took nearly a year off and returned to the Jersey Shore to hit the board going 1 1/16 miles June 15. 7-1 in this spot, she split the field against the rail through much of the backstretch, tracking fifth past the half-mile pole in :48.01. Ready to roll when given rein off the turn, Shade of Pale took over into the stretch and stayed away, coming home 2 1/4 lengths ahead of Jitterbug (Justify). From her sire's first crop, the winner has a 2-year-old More Than Ready half-sister, a yearling full-sister and a foal full-brother. Pale Moon (GB) went to Mystic Guide this year. 1st-Woodbine, C$82,754, Msw, 9-15, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:40.81, fm, 3 1/2 lengths.

ASHLEY'S ARCHER (c, 2, Karakontie {Jpn}--Certainly Special, by Distorted Humor) took money but endured a rough beginning and never factored going seven furlongs over Woodbine's Tapeta course Aug. 18. On the surface switch and the stretch out Sunday, the 7-1 shot was much more prominently placed and shot right to the front, setting a safe advantage and taking this field gate to wire to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths over Sugar Buzz (Twirling Candy). Certainly Special has already done well as a broodmare, producing successful runners like Narrow Escape (Sky Conqueror), GSP, $181,572, Crysta's Court (Silent Name {Jpn}), SW, $241,004 and Coltimus Prime (Milwaukee Brew), Ch. Older Horse-Pan, Ch. Stayer-Pan, SW-Pan, SW-USA, SW & GSP-Can, $644,125. She foaled a colt by Goldencents this year and was bred back to Maxfield for 2025. HE'S NOT JOKING (c, 2, Practical Joke--Collegeville Girl {SW, $270,526}, by Central Banker) only missed by a neck on debut in Toronto Aug. 4. Supported heavily at the windows here, the 55 cents on the dollar favorite did not break on top from the rail, but the juvenile made the front alongside a longshot up the backstretch. The 2-year-old gained the advantage around the far turn and turned on the jets down the lane to get his picture taken by 1 1/4 lengths over Drexel Hill (Bolt d'Oro). The winner is his dam's first foal, but he does have a yearling half-brother named October Wedding (Silver State). ‘HE’S ONE IN A MILLION’: O’BRIEN HAILS ARC POSSIBLE KYPRIOS AFTER GALILEO’S LEGER DOUBLE

by Tom Frary

Aidan O’Brien is always on edge when Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Polished Gem {Ire}), by Danehill) is at the races, but the mighty stayer proved yet again that there is no real cause for concern with a typically straightforward success in Sunday’s G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh. Back in peak form as he had been when first capturing this in 2022, the Moyglare homebred and colour-bearer was the 2-5 favourite to erase the memory of his runner-up placing 12 months ago when not fully recharged following his major injury.

Cruising in second throughout for Ryan Moore, the 6-year-old veteran of two G1 Gold Cups, two G1 Goodwood Cups and a G1 Prix du Cadran was sent on two out and was soon beyond recall to register his brace in this prestige event. Vauban (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) was 2 1/4 lengths away in second, with the surprisingly non-threatening Giavellotto (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) 3/4 of a length further behind in third. The success also constituted one of the last great tributes to his late sire, who was completing a notable St Leger weekend double having had the one-two in Saturday’s G1 St Leger at Doncaster with Jan Brueghel (Ire) and Illinois (Ire). Cont. p3

‘SHE REALLY LOVES IT’: BECKETT IN AWE OF BLUESTOCKING AFTER VERMEILLE BATTLE

ROYAL by Tom Frary

Showing that her recent travails had left no mark on Sunday, Juddmonte’s Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}--Emulous {GB}, by Dansili {GB}) instead relished a heavyweight clash with a younger rival up the ParisLongchamp straight to edge the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille from Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Hard at it when second in the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth Stakes and when fourth in the G1 Juddmonte International in the previous weeks, Ralph Beckett had considered leaving the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes winner at home so was a relieved trainer in the hallowed winner’s enclosure afterwards.

So zestful in the hands Rossa Ryan she was instantly pressing Aventure’s pacemaker Halfday (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) to step on it, the race-hardened homebred was visibly tanking up the renowned “false straight” heading to the home turn after which she left in front as the target. Cont. p5

Intriguingly, on a weekend when several threads were weaved into the enthralling tapestry of the 2024 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, O'Brien revealed that connections are pondering a belated tilt at the ParisLongchamp monument. "We knew that, at any time, he could run in an Arc, but it's important to mind him and do the right thing for him and let him tell us how he is and where he wants to go at that time of the year," he said, before hinting that it is more than 50-50 that the chestnut forms part of the star cast in three weeks' time. "There is only one Arc and he has a serious engine," he added. "He looks very fresh there. He just doesn't get tired, he keeps going."

Kyrios posted sectionals in the 2022 Gold Cup that would place him front and centre in an Arc, particularly one as open as this year's, but that was him in his prime and it remains to be seen whether he can ramp it up enough to eclipse the likes of Ardross (Ire), Westerner (GB) and his own stable's Order Of St George (Ire) who went close in it. Whatever the decision, the fact that he was all business-as-usual in this potentially tricky test is worth celebrating in its own right.

For O'Brien, every task completed by the yard's latest stayer A-lister is to be savoured after his joint infection which took him so close to the brink. "He's so special and we can see what he did there today," the master of Ballydoyle said after greeting his seventh Irish Leger winner which takes him closer to the shared record of nine of his contemporary Dermot Weld and the late Dr Vincent O'Brien. "Every year he seems to be improving--Ryan said he won so easy and that even looks to be his best again."

"It's a special place and a special race and these kind of horses are once in a lifetime," he added. "In the Ascot Gold Cup very few horses are able to get that far, but this horse has serious class as well. He's so genuine to get through what he did and still be the way he is and stay the way he does and relax the way he does. He's one in a million."

Ryan Moore was in no doubt as to where the winner stands in the category from his personal point of view. "He's just an unbelievable horse--the best stayer I've ridden," he declared. "He knows plenty about what he's doing, he just takes a while to engage but he didn't really even open up today. He's got a lot of class and a lot of speed."

Eva Maria Bucher-Haefner was on hand to watch the performance at first hand and enjoy a fourth renewal in the famous Moyglare silks and a second dual winner following Kyrios's full-sister Search For A Song (Ire). "It's the first time I've been here that he's won. I was here last year and he was second," she said. "What beautiful work they've done with him, because he was quite sick. I'd say yes to him racing on next year, I would love to see him again." Cont. p4

Pedigree Notes

Kyprios has one of those unique pedigrees and as the last foal out of the illustrious Polished Gem he has provided a fitting culmination of a life's work. As well as this remarkable performer and his aforementioned dual Irish Leger-winning full-sibling Search For A Song, she has produced six other black-type runners including High Chaparral's G1 Prince of Wales's Stakes-winning sire Free Eagle (Ire), the multiple group scorer Custom Cut (Ire) (Notnowcato {GB}) and the G2 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes winner Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}). Polished Gem is a full-sister to the GI Matriarch Stakes winner Dress To Thrill (Ire) and daughter of the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner (Affirmed), who is also the third dam of the G1 Vincent O'Brien National Stakes hero Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and the G1 Criterium International winner Vert De Grece (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}).

Maxime Guyon had to ask the Wertheimers' fellow TDN Rising Star Aventure to dig deep to get by Bluestocking passing the 300-metre marker and for a few strides it looked as if she had the measure of the visitor.

With the pressure on inside the final furlong, lesser souls would have understandably cried enough but the eventual winner was almost willing Ryan to ask more big questions with the French filly's red light flashing alongside her. Sensing Aventure falter for a stride as her reserves ran out, the 27-10 favourite surged again to the line to open up a 3/4-of-a-length success from the 3-year-old in an epic encounter. Bluestocking's compatriot Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) ran her best race for a while to get on the premises late and finish half a length away in third, with some serious fillies and mares adrift of the main trio.

"She worked really well last weekend--she's been working exceptionally well lately, but I wasn't convinced that coming was the right decision," Beckett revealed. "There were a couple of things in the week that I just wasn't happy with. It wasn't the race or the circumstances, more her, but she really loves it and that showed that today. She seemed beaten, but she's simply very tough."

Bluestocking is not entered in the Arc and would need to be supplemented, but Beckett seemed to be leading towards a return trip over Ascot's Champions Day. "She is entered in the British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes, but she got beaten there last year and she's proven that she loves this course so if she's in good shape and if her connections are all in agreement I'd be very tempted to supplement her for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe," he added.

"When horses are happy to race, as she showed today, I think you have to keep going. Everything points to her acting on all types of ground, save for fast. The ground was clearly slower today than during the 2023 Arc meeting and some ease in the ground will always be to her advantage."

Christophe Ferland said of Aventure, "She ran a beautiful race, but we came across the proverbial immovable object! The winner is a year older and certainly more battle-hardened than Aventure but she nevertheless ran a very fine race.

"She has lost no caste in defeat and we'll have to see how she comes out of the race when it comes to planning the rest of her season. She was the only 3-year-old splitting older fillies and she will remain in training at four. She might run again. In the Arc possibly."

“The form of the Pretty Polly Stakes is working out really well and the top 3-year-olds and older fillies and mares were all concerned at the finish,” he said. “Aventure is a very good filly, so we’re pleased with Emily Upjohn. The ground was a bit sticky today and she prefers it faster but we saw what we wanted to see. She won’t go for the Arc if the rains materialise and instead we would be more likely to go to the Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mares, where she’ll get the fast conditions she relishes.”

Pedigree Notes

Bluestocking’s dam Emulous, who captured six black-type races over seven furlongs and a mile including the G1 Matron Stakes, is a full-sister to the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron winner First Sitting (GB) and the Listed Criterium de Vitesse winner Daring Diva (GB). The latter is in turn the dam of the G2 Ridgewood Pearl Stakes winner Brooch (Empire Maker), whose son Mandaloun (Into Mischief) captured the Kentucky Derby and Haskell.

Daring Diva also produced the Listed Naas Oaks Trial winner and G2 Blandford S. runner-up Caponata (Selkirk) and is kin to the dam of Camelot’s Alounak (Fr) who was second in the G1 Canadian International. Emulous is responsible for the unraced War And Peace (GB) (Frankel {GB}), dam of the G3 Ballyogan Stakes runner-up Firebird (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and the stable’s promising 2-year-old debut-winning filly Cathedral (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}). She also has the useful 3-year-old gelding Qirat (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), who looks a black-type performer in the making judged by his recent Goodwood handicap win, the unraced 2-year-old gelding Dissident (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a yearling filly by Kingman (GB) and a filly foal again by Frankel.

VICTORIOUS RACING'S BRADSELL CONTINUES HIS STREAK IN THE FLYING FIVE

by Tom Frary

Backing up his success in last month's G1 Nunthorpe Stakes at York, Victorious Racing's Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}--Russian Punch {GB}, by Archipenko) proved he is a sprinter to be reckoned with by doubling up in Sunday's G1 Flying Five Stakes at The Curragh. Prominent throughout under Hollie Doyle, the Archie Watson-trained 2-1 favourite was committed two out and stayed on strongly to score by 1 1/4 lengths from compatriot Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) to bring his group 1 win tally to three having also conquered last year's G1 King's Stand Stakes. Another Brit Makarova (GB) (Acclamation {GB}) was the same margin back in third, with the first six home all hailing from England. With the victory, Bradsell has punched his ticket to the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar in November.

"He's so special. He just dominated them," Doyle said of the winner, whose prior visits to this track had resulted in a fourth in the G1 Phoenix Stakes and seventh in this race 12 months ago. "I'm always confident when I'm riding him, but his track record hasn't been great here which was a little bit of a worry. He's just improved and improved and proven today he's one of the best sprinters around."

"He bangs out of the stalls, you can fill him up and hold onto him. He's got a good turn of foot and he tries real hard," she added. "I was happy to have the two to aim at and I knew when I pushed the button he'd give me all he could, but it's a stiff five here so I was just trying to hold onto him as long as I can. He has been our flagbearer this year and long may it continue."

Watson is ready for the next part of the journey. "I thought he was by far the best sprinter around and I hope he's showing people that he is," he declared. "He's so fast and so tough and just a pleasure to have anything to do with. At the beginning of last year we were going down the Commonwealth Cup route as he had won a Coventry over a stiff six and I didn't even have him in the King's Stand, but he wasn't really finishing off over six. Luckily, we were able to supplement him for the King's Stand and it's been five since then."

"I wouldn't mind trying an easy six, but I don't see why. He's so good at five, there are plenty of group 1s to run in and the two more obvious races--the Abbaye and the Breeder's Cup in Del Mar. I wouldn't want it to be horrible ground and the draw stupid at Longchamp, so the Breeder's Cup should be right up his street. One or both of those would be the plan."

LAKE VICTORIA GIVES O'BRIEN A TENTH

MOYGLARE by Tom Frary

Most were expecting that Aidan O'Brien would be welcoming back a 10th winner of The Curragh's G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes on Sunday and that it would be an unbeaten daughter of Frankel (GB), but few would have predicted that it would be Lake Victoria (Ire) and not Bedtime Story (Ire). Like her deservedly much-vaunted stablemate, Lake Victoria held TDN Rising Star status heading into this seven-furlong test having beaten the re-opposing Red Letter (GB) (Frankel {GB}) on debut over this course and distance in June and gone to Newmarket to follow up in the G3 Sweet Solera Stakes.

Anchored in last early by Wayne Lordan, the daughter of the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Commonwealth Cup heroine Quiet Reflection (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) benefitted from the overly-fast pace carved out by the yard's number one. Bedtime Story was going to have to be every bit as good as she had looked at Royal Ascot to maintain the stern gallop she set, but by the time the 4-5 favourite had reached the furlong pole it was starting to look ominous.

With all four others striving to the line as that market-leader caved in, it was the 11-2 shot Lake Victoria who came over the top 100 yards out and prevail by 1 1/4 lengths from Al Shaqab Racing's G2 Prix du Calvados winner Simmering (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}). The other Ballydoyle trainee Exactly (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) was another short head back in third as Bedtime Story wound up a tired last of the quintet in this 'Win and You're In' G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf qualifier.

Aidan O'Brien was not completely surprised by the outcome. "When she won here the first day, she got to the front and was very green and she won very impressively at Newmarket, so she's a very classy filly," he said. "It's a possibility she could go to the Cheveley Park. We ran her here with the thought in our head that she could be a Cheveley Park filly--that was the plan. We wanted to take our time on her, let her relax and not give her a tough race and Wayne gave her a brilliant ride. She's fast, she's by Frankel but she's made like a sprinter."

Turning his attention to Bedtime Story, he added, "Ryan's filly hit the gates and he just couldn't get her back. That was it, but she'll be grand. It's always a worry, after what she did in Ascot, that that could happen and we took her very gentle the next time, afraid that it could happen but it still did. We'll go round the way and work another way to get her to go to sleep again. Wayne actually rides her out all the time, so he will do that."

'HE'S TOP NOTCH': SCORTHY CHAMP BRINGS UP A THIRD NATIONAL FOR JOSEPH

by Tom Frary

Sunday's G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National Stakes at The Curragh had a more open look to it than the betting suggested beforehand and that proved the case as the Joseph O'Brien-trained outsider Scorthy Champ (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}--Fidaaha {Ire}, by New Approach {Ire}) stepped up to earn the bragging rights. Cont. p11

Third behind this race’s favourite Henri Matisse (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) on his second start over this course and seven-furlong trip in the G2 Futurity Stakes last month, the 12-1 shot who had won on debut at Leopardstown in May raced on the wing halfway down the field throughout the early stages.

Sent forward by Dylan Browne McMonagle to reel in the British raider Seagulls Eleven (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) approaching the furlong pole, the flashy chestnut who races for Rectory Road Holdings Limited, Barry Fowler and Anne Marie O’Brien stayed on to score by 3/4 of a length from the 5-6 market-leader Henri Matisse, with Seagulls Eleven the same margin behind in third.

O’Brien, who had sent out Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) to win this in 2020 and 2022, was not surprised by the outcome. “He’s a very talented horse,” he said. “He’s still learning and is still a big baby. I knew he’d stay well and he went through the gears nicely from halfway, was good and tough in the last furlong and got to the line strong.”

“He’s going to have no problem getting further, as he relaxes good and he’s got a really good temperament,” he added. “It was a fantastic ride by Dylan and I’m so delighted for Barry Fowler, who’s in the partnership with Sam McCauley, who’s been such a huge supporter of ours for the last number of years and it’s so special to win a group 1 for them. We knew whatever happened the last day, we were going to be better for the run after his lay-off and I thought he was really impressive. Dylan felt that he idled in front. He’s top-notch. “I see him more as a miler, so I suppose he could go for the Lagardere or the Breeders’ Cup.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Henri Matisse, “He’s a baby still. When he got there the last day he jinked and he did the same today. He’s still probably physically mature, but he’s mentally immature,” he said. “I knew Joseph fancied the winner and it was probably a good race.”

Pedigree Notes

Three of Fidaaha’s first four foals have now won at group level, with her first being the winner’s G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte and G3 Prix Imprudence-winning full-sister Malavath (Ire) who was also and runner-up in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf and G1 Prix de la Foret. She was followed by Mehmas’s G3 Horris Hill Stakes-winning TDN Rising Star Knight (Ire), who was also second in the G2 Celebration Mile, while Fidaaha is a full-sister to the GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial Stakes winner Ceisteach (Ire) and a half to the dual group 3 winner and dual group 1-placed Steip Amach (Ire) (Vocalised). Cont. p12

SOSIE HAS THE ANSWERS IN THE PRIX NIEL

by Tom Frary

All eyes were on the returning G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Look De Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in Sunday's G2 Qatar Prix Niel at ParisLongchamp, but while he appeared to run out of stamina the Wertheimers' Sosie (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}--Sosia {Ger}, by Shamardal) proved that is his strong suit to book his Arc ticket. Rested since his G1 Grand Prix de Paris success over this course and mile-and-a-half trip, the Andre Fabre-trained homebred shadowed that Classic-winning peer throughout the early stages with Ronan Thomas happy to let the 7-10 favourite bowl along in front.

Sent forward by Maxime Guyon as the petrol gauge started to empty in his chief rival approaching two out, the 100-30 second favourite drew away to beat Delius (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths, with Look De Vega two lengths behind in third.

Sosie | Scoop Dyga

"He is a very good horse with a lovely temperament, we knew he stays this trip, he loves Longchamp and he has improved," the owner-breeders' racing manager Pierre Yves Bureau said of the winner, who had been third to Look De Vega in the Jockey

Club and enters the big event as a lightly-raced, still-unexposed type. "It's been a great season and we need to keep it going."

"Logically, he will head to the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and physically-speaking, he's reaching maturity," he added. "The colt showed a good turn of foot. He has a very calm temperament, which is certainly an asset when it comes to the big occasions."

Hermine Bastide, representing Coolmore, said of Delius, "He ran really well and the whole team is delighted--he finished where we expected him to and was 80 percent wound up for this. Ioritz Mendizabal wasn't unduly hard on him and we'll mull matters over with his owners as he has the option of heading to Australia for the Melbourne Cup." Cont. p14

5 October - Saint-Cloud

Yann Lerner was still thinking of an Arc tilt with Look de Vega. “We know that these races can be tactical affairs, so we wanted to ensure that he got the race he needed because we know he’s well above his optimal weight compared to the Prix du Jockey-Club,” he explained. “Despite the fact that he’s been cranked up on the training grounds, he was a long way off his best form. He needed to get a race under his belt to help him to be in mint condition in three weeks’ time.”

“His rider said that he battled well upsides Sosie until asking for a breather in the final 200 metres and we know that the colt has a lot of scope for improvement,” he added. “We need to ensure that he’s in top form come the big day. In three weeks’ time, he’ll be cherry ripe.”

Pedigree Notes

Sosie’s dam Sosia, who was placed in the Listed Prix Coronation, is also responsible for the dual listed winner and the four-times group 3-placed Anasia (GB) (Intello {Ger}), the listed scorer Copie (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) and the G3 Prix Daphnis runner-up Sosino (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}). The second dam Sahel (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) produced the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio winner Sortilege (Ire) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) who is in turn the second dam of last year’s G2 Union-Rennen winner and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden runner-up Straight (Ger) (Zarak {Fr}).

Sahel is a full-sister to the G1 Deutsches Derby-winning pair Samum (Ger) and Schiaparelli (Ger), as well as the G1 Preis der Diana heroine and Deutsches Derby runner-up Salve Regina (Ger) who is also the third dam of this year’s G3 Zukunfts-Rennen winner Santagada (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), with this being the family of the runaway Deutsches Derby hero and sire Sea The Moon (Ger) by Sea The Stars. Sosia’s unraced 2-year-old colt by Camelot (GB) is named Uther (GB), while her a 2024 full-brother to Sosie is named Jumeau (Ire).

HANALIA STEPS UP FOR BLANDFORD

SUCCESS by Tom Frary

The Aga Khan's Hanalia (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) had looked to be building towards something special and it came on the right stage on Sunday as she swooped to conquer The Curragh's G2 Moyglare Jewels Blandford Stakes. Successful in the Listed Irish EBF Naas Oaks Trial in June, sixth in the G1 Irish Oaks the following month and second to the owner-breeder's Tarawa (Ire) (Shamardal) in the nine-furlong G3 Snow Fairy Fillies Stakes also here last month, the Johnny Murtagh-trained relative of Sea The Stars's dual Derby hero Harzand (Ire) was dropped out in last early by Shane Foley.

Confidently steered throughout, the 12-1 shot was delivered to overhaul Ballydoyle's long-time leader Wingspan (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) inside the final furlong and prevail by a neck, with 3/4 of a length back to the 2-1 favourite and Irish Oaks third Purple Lily (Ire) (Calyx {GB}).

"With the little bit of rain last night and the extra furlong, we were coming here quietly confident," Murtagh said. "There are a lot of good fillies in Ireland at the moment and I just had the feeling today was going to be the day for her. I knew she came home well. She needs to be settled early. She's keen and if you put her in the race early, she can get up on the bridle so I told him the more relaxed she is, the better she'll finish. These are hard won and we'll see is she can go on and have a shot at a group 1 next."

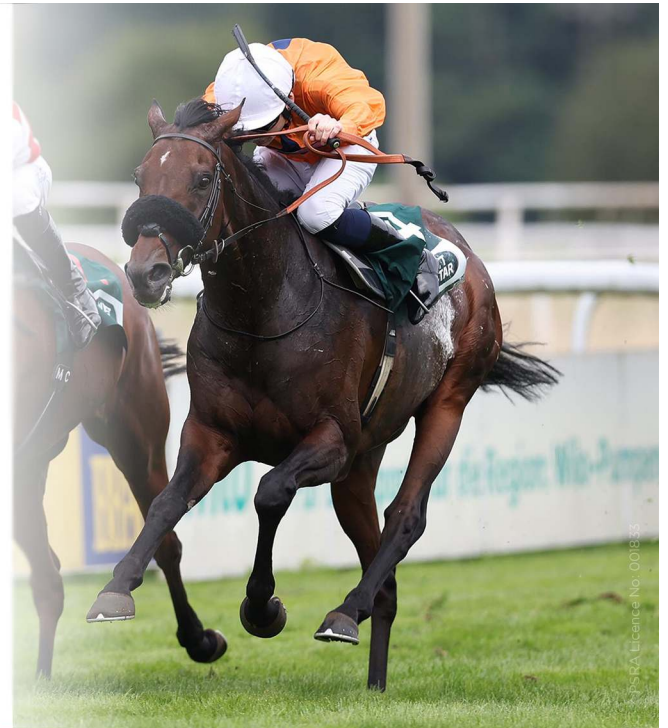

Pedigree Notes

The dam Hanakiyya (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is also responsible for the G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil winner Hunaina (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1,000 Guineas Trial scorer Hamariyna (Ire) by Sea The Stars's Sea The Moon (Ger). Cont. p16

Coming under pressure off the home turn, he gained an edge approaching the final furlong and was driven out to hold the late rattle of Zarir (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) by a short-neck in game fashion. Continuous stayed on well to finish 2 1/2 lengths adrift in third.

Iresine | Scoop Dyga

“It didn’t go well for him in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and I was worried that maybe he had lost his quality, his fighting spirit and part of his sparkle in [the G1] Japan [Cup],” reflected trainer Jean-Pierre Gauvin. “He was doing well at home, but you never know, so the result is very satisfying. He and [jockey] Marie Velon know each other so well and what a partnership they make. Of course, being a gelding, the [G1 Prix de l’] Arc [de Triomphe] is not for him, so we will be again left with possibilities like the [G2] Prix du Conseil de Paris, the [G1] Royal Oak and maybe travelling abroad. We are not against the idea again.”

Pedigree Notes

Iresine, the leading performer out of a full-sister to G3 Prix de Guiche and G3 Prix Daphnis runner-up In Chambers (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), is a granddaughter of G3 Prix Vanteaux runner-up Reve De Reine (Lyphard). Reve De Reine is also the dam of G3 Prix de Guiche victor Roi De Rome (Time For A Change) and G3 Prix Thomas Bryon third Rose De Thai (Lear Fan). Iresine’s fourth dam is G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix Saint-Alary and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud heroine Riverqueen (Fr) (Luthier {Fr}), whose descendants include G1 Prix Jean Prat hero Rouvres (Fr) (Anabaa), dual G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica victor Altieri (GB) (Selkirk) and multiple Australian Group 1 winner Zaaki (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). Iresine is kin to the unraced 2-year-old colt Morus (Fr) (Mondialiste {Ire}).

HOLY ROMAN EMPEROR’S GREAT GENERATION DOUBLES PATTERN-RACE TALLY IN THE SCEPTRE by Sean Cronin

Scuderia Sagam’s G3 Chartwell Fillies’ Stakes victrix Great Generation (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}--Adutchgirl {Ger}, by Dutch Art {GB}), last of 15 contesting Deauville’s G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest in her most recent start, rebounded in style to double her pattern-race tally in Sunday’s G3 Japan Racing Association Sceptre Fillies’ Stakes at Doncaster.

The Marco Ghiani-ridden 8-1 chance found space in short supply upon leaving the stalls and was under wraps at the tail of the 11-runner field through the early fractions of this seven-furlong test. Tanking forward after halfway, she was ridden into contention passing the furlong marker and kept on strongly to usurp Elim (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}) by a length in the dying embers.

“It was quite frustrating last time in France when she didn’t run a very good race, so it was great to see her back winning,” said Ghiani. “I think it’s hard to say if she’s a Group 1 filly [or not], but she tried really hard and everything went smoothly. I would rather the ground was a bit faster, it is soft today, and she’s won on good-to-soft before.” Cont. p18

He added, "For a Group race, you'd ideally have good ground. Last time I rode her [in York's G3 Summer Stakes], I just took her out and travelled, but when I pressed the button I had nothing left in the last 20 yards. Today, I kept hold of her as long as I could."

Great Generation, the third of five foals, is one of two scorers from as many runners produced by a half-sister to multiple Group-winning G2 German 2000 Guineas second Aspectus (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and to the dam of stakes-winning G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud runner-up Willie The Whipper (GB) (Whipper). Descendants of her G3 Hamburger Stutenpreis-winning second dam Anna Thea (Ire) (Turfkonig {Ger}) also include G2 Diana-Trial victrix Akribie (Ger) (Reliable Man {GB}), last year's G2 Hansa-Preis and G2 Carl Jaspers-Preis victor Assistent (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), G3 Hamburger Stutenpreis victrix Anna Katharina (Ger) (Kallisto {Ger}) and this year's G3 Fruhjahren-Meile winner Arcandi (Ger) (Zarak {Fr}). The March-foaled bay, who hails from the family of G1 Derby hero Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and G1 1000 Guineas vixtrix Billesdon Brook (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), is a half-sister to the once-raced 2-year-old colt Qaaeadd (Ire) (Earthlight {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Kodi Bear (Ire).

FRANNY NORTON TO RETIRE ON SEPT. 21

Franny Norton | Getty Images

Jockey Franny Norton will retire on Sept. 21, the contemporary of Frankie Dettori announced on Instagram. The Liverpool native will end his career riding at Chester Racecourse.

Norton, who turned 54 this year, began riding in 1988. A Chester specialist, he was a close ally of Mark Johnston, and now rides for his son Charlie, among others. Throughout his career, Norton has been associated with several Pattern winners including Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), and G1 St Leger second Sir Ron Priestley (GB) (Australia {GB}), to name a few. A notable boxer, his latest victory, of which he has at least 1859, was aboard Aviemore (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) for the younger Johnston at Chester on Sept. 13.

Norton said in a statement, “After an incredible journey spanning over 35 years, the time has come for me to hang up my boots and call it a day in horse racing.

“On the 21st of September at Chester Racecourse, I will ride my final race, marking the end of an amazing chapter of my life.

“From the early days in the saddle to the many highs and lows that followed, this sport has given me memories I will treasure forever. I’ve been blessed to ride alongside some of the best jockeys, work with the finest trainers, and compete at the most iconic racecourses. Every moment has been a privilege.

“To the fans who have supported me over the years, your encouragement has meant the world. To the owners, trainers, and stable staff, it’s been an honour to share the track with you. And to my family and loved ones--your unwavering support has carried me through every victory and every challenge.

“While I may be stepping away from the track, I will always remain connected to the sport that has been my life. Racing has taught me resilience, passion, and humility, and I’m forever grateful for the incredible journey it has taken me on.

“I look forward to seeing you all at Chester for one last race. Let’s make it a day to remember!

“Much love, F.”

Committed approaching the furlong pole, the 13-2 second favourite asserted for a two-length success from Gloriously Glam (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}). "It couldn't have worked out any better," jockey Ronan Whelan said. "Watching the videos and speaking to everyone involved, she's quite a forward-going filly. The last furlong was a little bit of an unknown, but we thought if she did things right she'd see it out. She has a great attitude and is tough. It was a big call by Gavin to bring her over here from France. We worked in Jim Bolger's many moons ago and he rang me during the week and we had a debrief whether it was worth bringing her over. We both thought it was a good idea." The winner is the first foal out of the dam, whose yearling full-brother to the winner is catalogued in the Tattersalls Ireland

Lazio swooped late to notch a narrow win over 7 1/2 furlongs at Dusseldorf in his Aug. 18 debut last time and repeated the dose to continue on an unbeaten roll with a half-length tally in this black-type bow. Positioned fifth of the six runners before slipping back to trail all five rivals, he made relentless headway under pressure out wide inside the final quarter-mile and rolled on by the pacesetter Name Lord nearing the line to register a career high in ultimately snug fashion.

Lazio, who becomes the 13th stakes winner for his sire, is the fifth foal and scorer produced by a dual-winning full-sister to the dual stakes-placed La Hermana (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), herself the dam of five black-type performers headed by Gill Orchid Stakes victrix La Luna De Miel (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). La Hermana is also the second dam of G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Lancade (GB) (Areion {Ger}). The March-foaled bay, whose third dam La Colorada (Ger) (Surumu [Ger]) won the G3 Herbst-Stutenpreis heroine and ran second in the G3 German 1000 Guineas, is kin to the dual stakes-placed La La Land (Ger) (Outstrip {GB}) and a yearling filly by Alson (Ger). La Colorada's leading performer is multiple Group 1-winning sire Lomitas (GB) (Niniski), with this being the damline of taproot mare Love In (GB) (Crepello {GB}).

4th-Dortmund, €52,000, Cond, 9-15, 2yo, 7fT, 1:30.43, g/s. LADY SAHARA (GER) (f, 2, Counterattack {Aus}--Lady Jacamira {Ger}) {GSW-Ger, $120,360}, by Lord Of England {Ger}), who backed up a July 3 debut win at Hamburg with a fourth at Baden-Baden last month, was well away from the outside stall to race in a prominent second through the early fractions here. Nudged along passing the two pole, the 7-5 chalk came under sterner urging approaching the final furlong and was driven out to deny Sympathie (Ger) (Make Believe {GB}) by a head in a blanket finish. Lady Sahara, full to a yearling colt and kin to G3 Silbernes Pferd victor Ladykiller (Ger) (Kamsin {Ger}), is the seventh of eight foals and one of five scorers from as many runners out of G3 Franz-Gunther von Gaertner-Gedachtnisrennen victrix Lady Jacamira (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}). Cont. p24
