

BAY CITY ROLLER FINISHED FOR THE SEASON AFTER CHAMPAGNE HEROICS

By Adam Houghton

Every day is a school day if you follow TDN. Thankfully, master of all subjects Emma Berry delivered yesterday's lesson on the Bay City Rollers--apparently one of the most popular bands of the 1970s--in her excellent Seven Days column, allowing me to stay in my lane with today's news that the unbeaten two-year-old colt of the same name is unlikely to run again this year after his comfortable victory in Saturday's G2 Champagne Stakes at Doncaster.

That is according to trainer George Scott, who already has his sights set on the big tests next spring with Bay City Roller (Ire), the son of New Bay (GB) who showed the benefit of the education he gained in his first two wins at Sandown and Chelmsford when finding plenty to beat Monumental (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) by half a length on Town Moor.

Bought for €320,000 at Book 1 of the Goffs Orby Yearling Sale, it seems that Bay City Roller has always been the teacher's pet where Scott is concerned, with the Newmarket trainer barely able to contain his enthusiasm for what the future might hold with Victorious Racing's latest hot prospect. Cont. p3

AL HAKEEM RETIRED TO HARAS DE BOUQUETOT

Multiple group winner Al Hakeem (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) has been retired and will stand at Al Shaqab's Haras de Bouquetot in 2025. A fee will be announced later.

A homebred for Al Shaqab Racing, he won the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano, although an early 2023 injury delayed his return last year. He would go on to finish fourth in both the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. This term, the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron and Listed Prix de Suresnes went his way while under the care of Jean-Claude Rouget. His record stands at 10-5-1-0 and $738,809 in earnings.

Benoit Jeffroy, Haras de Bouquetot's stud manager, commented, "We are proud to welcome home Al Hakeem, an Al Shaqab Racing homebred who was raised at Haras de Bouquetot. He carries an exceptional pedigree, and we are pleased to announce that breeding rights will be offered for sale. Breeders interested in this new stallion should contact our nominations team." George Scott Cont. from p1

"Bay City Roller is really the horse that we've been hoping would come along for a long time," Scott summed up on his way to Yarmouth on Tuesday. "We spent a lot of money on him at the sales, which brought some pressure with it. Then Shaikh Nasser bought him after his first start, so that put a little bit of pressure on as well.

"He went into the race [at Doncaster] with two hard-knocking victories under his belt, which I really felt would put him in good stead in that situation. And he's really impressed me at home, all the way through. He's just got an amazing mind and an amazing constitution. Honestly, I very much expected him to be involved at the business end of the race and it was a relief to see him fulfill everything that I thought he might become."

Of the plan to draw stumps for the season, Scott added, "He's come out of the race well, but I do feel like he's really done enough this year. He's had three pretty hard races and he has his whole future ahead of him. He's got a later-maturing pedigree and giving him this prolonged period of time between now and next spring could just make the difference ahead of a busy three-year-old campaign."

It might be a case of Bye Bye Baby until 2025 for Bay City Roller, but his return to action is likely to prove worth the wait if Scott's assertion that this horse could be the best he's trained is anything to go by.

"I certainly do think he has that potential, I really do," confirmed the trainer who enjoyed early big-race success with the G2 Mill Reef Stakes winner and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest runner-up James Garfield (Ire), while more recently he saddled Isle Of Jura (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) to win the G2 Hardwicke Stakes at Royal Ascot in June.

Isle Of Jura is said to be recovering well from the setback which has sidelined him since that landmark victory, though he won't be seen on a racecourse again until next spring, with Scott already considering the G2 Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket as a potential stepping stone to a Hardwicke defence.

That rules out another Far East foray this winter for Isle Of Jura, who preceded his Royal Ascot triumph by winning Bahrain's Triple Crown earlier in the year, but Scott is by no means short of ammunition as he weighs up his international options either side of the new year. Bahrain can certainly expect another strong raiding party from Eve Lodge Stables.

"We really enjoy our time in Bahrain and get so well looked after," Scott began, before giving the details of what is shaping up to be a classy team bound for the Kingdom in the coming months. Cont. p4

BLUESTOCKING joins G1 Irish Derby winner LOS ANGELES as a leading Arc contender following her assertive win in the G1 Prix Vermeille this weekend.

“The one horse everyone will take away from Longchamp is surely Bluestocking [she] has showed herself to be of a rare Juddmonte ilk... in a Vermeille that would measure up to any run in the last 20 years, she showed the class and grit which have hallmarked her season.”

George Scott | Goffs UK

He said, "We're keen to support their season again and we've probably got between five and 10 possible horses to go out there. We're still making some plans, but I think the likes of Phantom Flight, City House, Watch My Tracer and Rocket Rodney would be on the team at this stage, with a few other possibles."

Another horse set to be on his travels again is the six-year-old Prydwen (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), who completed a "very special weekend" for the team when winning Sunday's G3 Deutsches St. Leger at Dortmund.

"I have to admit I absolutely loved that," Scott said of that success. "I probably got as much of a kick out of that as almost anything else we've done since I started training."

"The horse looked like he was finding it quite hard work running against the pool of horses he was in England, so we had to think outside the box. We'd never been to Germany before and there was a lot of planning that went into it. The horse went there after being so impressive in Ireland a few weeks before and I thought it was another really good performance from him. It meant a lot to win a race of that stature--it was hugely satisfying."

"I think he'll go to Dubai," he added of future plans. "There's quite a good programme for stayers in Dubai and then, if everything goes to plan, I'd hope he might go to Saudi for the Red Sea Turf Handicap."

"It's great fun travelling horses and you always learn something from it. The staff enjoy it and the owners enjoy it, so we're always open-minded to those trips."

In addition to the staff and the owners, Scott was keen to pay tribute to the role played by Callum Shepherd, both at Dortmund on Sunday and in general as a jockey who is fast becoming an integral part of the team.

"I think Callum is an outstanding rider and the way he conducted himself on the trip to Germany showed how much work goes into making him what he is," said Scott. "He'd watched every German St. Leger possible and he walked the track and had a very clear idea of where he wanted to be. He gave the horse an unbelievable ride and he was the difference. There's no question about that."

"What really impresses me is that when we run in big races--big races for us both because we're on the same trajectory--he's just so cool and relaxed in the paddock. It doesn't matter if it's at Lingfield on a Tuesday or we're running in the Hardwicke, he's exactly the same. That's a huge asset to him, that he doesn't feel the pressure of the big days."

Both trainer and jockey have become increasingly familiar faces on the big days this year, having also teamed up to win the G3 Palace House Stakes with Seven Questions (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}) and, of course, the Champagne Stakes with Bay City Roller.

For Scott it's certainly been the best season of a training career which began the best part of a decade ago. For context, his total prize-money won in Britain of £825,536 is already more than double what he earned in all of 2023, while his tally of 34 winners leaves him just three shy of the personal best he achieved in 2022.

"Things have really gone well," said the man with around 65-70 horses in his care, a number he expects to stay more or less the same in 2025. "It's been a little bit surreal at times. We've had 10 stakes winners and won over a million in prize-money worldwide this year, which is a credit to everyone connected to the yard."

"Hopefully, this could be a stepping stone to the next level. We've already bought some really nice yearlings and we're very much hoping that we can keep increasing the quality and continue to be represented in these better races."

NEW AGE VIBES IN CANADA

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week's column is highlighted by the victory of New Century at Woodbine on Saturday.

Kameko Reaches Milestone Top-Level Winner In The Great White North

Qatar Racing's New Century (GB) (Kameko) made his North American debut in style, running out a 1 1/4-length winner of the G1 Summer Stakes at Woodbine on Saturday (video) for trainer Andrew Balding.

Bred by the Potent Embrace Partnership, the dark bay is a half-brother to G3 Glorious Stakes winner and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden third Passion And Glory (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Potent Embrace (Street Cry {Ire}) foaled a full-brother to New Century in 2023. Both his granddam, Karen's Caper (War Chant), and his great granddam, Miss Caerleona (Fr) (Caerleon), won at Grade III level Stateside. The latter also foaled GII Davona Dale Stakes victress Miss Coronado (Coronado's Quest).

Tweenhills Stud's Kameko has his first runners this season, and New Century is his initial runner in North America. Overall, he has 10 winners worldwide, and also has the G3 Acomb Stakes second and G2 Superlative Stakes third Wimbledon Hawkeye (GB) as his other black-type horse to date.

That Lovin' Feeling

Godolphin homebred Beautiful Love (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) captured the GIII Fasig-Tipton Jockey Club Oaks Invitational Stakes during the Belmont at the Big A meet on Saturday (video). The Charlie Appleby trainee was ridden by Dylan Davis.

Previously campaigned in the UK and Meydan, the filly's record now boasts three wins from eight starts, with Saturday's heroics her first black-type and graded win. The third foal, third winner and second stakes winner out of G3 Prix Fille de l'Air heroine Powder Snow (Dubawi {Ire}), Beautiful Love (Ire) is a half-sister to G3 Zetland Stakes hero Flying Honours (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Her dam's latest offspring are a juvenile colt named Nordic Games (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), a yearling colt by Kingman (GB), and a filly foal by Sea The Stars (Ire). Third dam is the influential G1 Oaks heroine Snow Bride (Blushing Groom {Fr}), herself responsible for a trio of stakes winners anchored by European champion and sire Lammtarra (Nijinsky II), the winner of the Arc, Derby and King George.

The Aga Khan Studs' Siyouni has 18 winners from 43 runners (42%) after Beautiful Love's victory. His total North American stakes winners have increased to five, with four scoring at graded level.

Winter Memories Goes To Les Reys

West Point Thoroughbreds, Peter Leidel and Winters Equine's Les Reys (Fr) (Penny's Picnic {Ire}) struck in the Listed Winter Memories Stakes at Belmont at the Big A (video) for trainer Christophe Clement.

Bred by Athanase Pouloupoulos and Haras du Hoguenet, the grey was a €12,000 buy-back at the Arqana Select Yearling Sale. During her seven-race French tenure under the care of co-owner and trainer Didier Guillemin, she won the Listed Prix Volterra for Guillemin, Pouloupoulos et al in June.

She is the ninth foal and seventh winner for her unraced dam, Allegria (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}), who has a juvenile colt by The Grey Gatsby (Ire) still to race. This is the family of G2 Temple Stakes/G2 Queen Mary Stakes winner Dramatised (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) who was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint, and multiple graded winner Quattroelle (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), placed in the GI Gamely Stakes.

Haras du Hoguenet stallion Penny's Picnic now has two winners from three to race in the U.S. (66%). The son of Kheleyf also has Thousand Oaks, fourth in the Listed Golden Poppy Stakes, running for him in that jurisdiction.

Repeat Winners:

No Show Sammy Jo (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is now four-for-five after taking Laurel Park's All Along Stakes on Saturday (video). She is trained by Graham Motion for Bridlewood Farm and Madaket Stables.

Klaravich Stables' Risk Threshold (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) won for the second time in four starts when successful in a Belmont at the Big A affair on Sept. 14 (video). Trained by Chad Brown, the daughter of Priceless (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) broke her maiden at the same venue in June.

The son of G3 Prix Penelope heroine Jadhaba (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is one of four winners from four to race for his dam. His granddam, the Giant's Causeway mare Naissance Royale (Ire), won a quartet of American graded stakes and was also second in the G3 Prix Vanteaux. Fourth dam Bookkeeper (Private Account) was second in the GI Demoiselle Stakes.

"Al Hakeem is a horse of great heart and courage, and his ability to recover from such a serious injury and return to group-winning form speaks volumes about his character," Rouget remarked. "He has all the attributes of a future champion sire."

BELIEVING UNDER CONSIDERATION FOR THE ABBAYE AND BREEDERS' CUP

Consistent filly Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), second in Sunday's G1 Flying Five Stakes at the Curragh to Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), will be given a break, according to trainer George Boughey. The Highclere Thoroughbred Racing and Jane Addams runner will return in either or both the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye in October or the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar a month later.

"It will be interesting to see how she comes out of Sunday's race," he said. "I was really pleased to hear from Ryan Moore on Sunday night that he felt she was better than ever.

"She'll have a bit of a break and we'll work out what we're going to do next. The Abbaye and the Breeders' Cup are the two entries she has. She's not going to get her ground on Champions Day at Ascot, so we didn't even enter her."

A winner of the G3 Prix Texanita and third in the G1 Sprint Cup Stakes last term, Believing won a listed race at Haydock in June, before a pair of fourths in the G1 King Charles III Stakes and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes, both at Royal Ascot. Back in the winner's circle in the G2 Sapphire Stakes over the minimum trip in July, she was third in the G2 King George Stakes at the beginning of August, and found only Bradsell too good in the G1 Nunthorpe Stakes later that month prior to her Flying Five placing.

He added, "I'm sure she'll be seen again this year, whether that's once or twice, we'll see. The draw is one of those things you can't change and the luck's been with Bradsell for the best part of this season. I think the last three five-furlong Group 1s of the year, the Flying Five, the Abbaye and the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint, are all on incredibly draw bias tracks. The hope is we might hit one right one day."

ARC CONTENDER SHIN EMPEROR RATED 123 BY TIMEFORM

Shin Emperor (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), a full-brother to G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sottsass (Fr), has been given a rating of 123 by Timeform. Third in Saturday's G1 Irish Champion Stakes, the Yoshito Yahagi runner was formerly rated 114.

The race report by the publication read, "Shin Emperor, placed in the Japanese Derby when last seen in May, ran really well on his first start in Europe, finishing one place better than his full-brother, Sottsass, had in this race in 2022, and it would be no surprise on this evidence were he to go on and emulate that one by going on to win the Arc, with the step back up to 1m4f sure to suit."

The chestnut, who races for Susumu Fujita and was third in the G1 Japanese Derby in May, is rated three pounds higher than Sunday's G2 Prix Niel victor Sosie (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), and is rated the equal of Group 1 winner Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who was second to City Of Troy (Justify) in the G1 Eclipse Stakes and went on to take the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin. Also in action on the weekend was new G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}), a winner of the G1 Pretty Polly Stakes, has been given a master rating of 121, but will receive three pounds from males in the Arc.

No horse trained in Japan has ever won the Arc, but there have been a fearsome trio who have taken second: El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo) (1999), Nakayama Festa (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) (2010) and Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) in 2012 and 2013.

Timeform's provisional Arc ratings, adjusted for the expected weight to be carried, are as follows:

- 133: Bluestocking
- 132: Al Riffa
- 132: Shin Emperor
- 131p: Look de Vega (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire})
- 131: Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire})
- 131: Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB})
- 129: Sosie

DABIRSIM LEADS SIMON SPRINGER DISPERSAL AT ARQANA DECEMBER

Stallions Dabirsim (Fr) and Shamalgaln (Fr), as well as seven broodmares, will be sold by owner-breeder Simon Springer of Ecurie Normandie Pur Sang during Arqana's December Breeding Stock Sale, the Jour de Galop reported on Tuesday. Springer is changing his bloodstock approach to concentrate his efforts on his other businesses. Cont. p8

Dabirsim | Zuzanna Lupa

Springer's representative Daniel Haeser told the JDG, "The horses will go to Arqana in December. Mr. Springer has bred more than 150 horses in France, enjoying great success. But he now wants to buy yearlings on the public market. Breeding is a very time-consuming activity and Simon Springer lacks the time to run his professional business at the same time...His involvement in horse racing remains very strong, but it will take a different form."

Dabirsim, a dual Group 1-winning juvenile by Hat Trick (Jpn), has seven stakes winners to his name and 24 black-type horses. He stood at Haras de Montaignu for €4,000 this year. Shamalgan, who stood at Haras des Granges in 2024 will also be sold. He was purchased for €135,000 by Springer at Arqana December in 2017. The sire of G1 Preis der Diana heroine Toskana Belle (Fr), he stood for €2,000 this year.

Of the septet of mares, Toskana Belle's dam, Tristane (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}), will sell, as well as group winner Gloomy Sunday (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}). Other Springer mares set to pass through the ring include Celesteville (Ire) (Elusive City), the dam of stakes winner Celestin (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}) and black-type mares Bavaria Baby (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}) and Bavaria Express (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}), with the latter pair followed by foals by Torquator Tasso (Ger).

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

SON OF PASSAGE OF TIME DEBUTS AT SANDOWN

14.50 Sandown, Novice, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT

COSMIC YEAR (GB) (Kingman {GB}) is the 11th foal out of Juddmonte's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}), with her previous Kingman being the dual group 3 winner Tempus (GB) and her best overall being Dubawi's multiple group winner and top-level-placed sire Time Test (GB). Introduced by Harry Charlton, the homebred will have to be smart to contend with Amo Racing's Rock d'Oro (Bolt D'Oro), another promising juvenile trained by Ralph Beckett who made the subsequent G2 Champagne Stakes winner Bay City Roller (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) work at Chelmsford on debut.

14.30 Great Yarmouth, Novice, £9,950, 2yo, f, 6f 3yT

QUEEN OF THE ROSES (IRE) (Ribchester {Ire}) is slated to start at large odds on debut, but trainer Michael Appleby has enjoyed major success with her half-brother Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) and it will be interesting to see how much Jaber Abdullah's homebred takes after her rapid sibling. Among her peers is Nurlan Bizakov's Newbury maiden fourth Maissara (GB)

(Frankel {GB}), a Roger Varian-trained daughter of the dual listed scorer Mrs Gallagher (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who cost 425,000gns at the 2022 Tattersalls December Foal Sale.

MIDNIGHT THUNDER (GB) (c, 2, Kodiac {GB}--Silk Words {GB}, by Dubawi {Ire}), who graduated with a 4 3/4-length tally over this distance at Windsor last month, raced in a prominent third through the early fractions here. Cruising to the fore at halfway, the 4-5 favourite was safely clear entering the final furlong and kept on strongly to defeat Winnebago (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) by 1 3/4 lengths. Midnight Thunder, half-brother to a yearling colt by Showcasing (GB), is the fifth of six foals and one of four winners out of a dual-winning half-sister to G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination). Descendants of the February-foaled bay's dual Group 1-winning second dam Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) also include multiple Grade I winner Program Trading (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint hero Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and G1 Kennedy Oaks victrix Zardozi (Aus) (Kingman {GB}). AUBERGINE (IRE) (f, 2, Mehmas {Ire}--Lady Of Fire {Ire}, by Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) was caught napping at the break and forfeited ground to all five rivals before recovering to race in touch after the initial strides of this debut. Nudged along with a quarter-mile remaining, the 7-2 chance was ridden to the front approaching the final furlong and kept on well under continued urging to prevail by a half-length from Lord Roxby (Ire) (Soldier's Call {GB}). Aubergine is the first of two foals out of a multiple-winning half-sister to last year's G3 World Trophy victor Thunderbear (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}). Cont. p10

KHALDIYA (IRE) (f, 2, Sioux Nation--Dancing Around {GB}, by Iffraaj {GB}), third behind Magic Basma (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}) over this trip at Carlisle last month, tracked the leaders throughout the early stages. Joining battle with that rival inside the final furlong, the 2-1 favourite was game to gain her revenge by a nose. The unraced dam, whose yearling filly by Acclamation (GB) is catalogued in the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 2, is kin to the Hong Kong group 1 Performer Rewarding Hero (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and the dual group 3-placed Dance And Dance (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), is also related to the G3 Sirenia Stakes winner Mighty Gurkha (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}). Clear when eased late, the 4-9 favourite registered a 9 1/2-length verdict over Flying Fortress (GB) (Churchill {Ire}). The winner, the third for his first-crop sire, is out of the high-class five-times group-winning dam, whose career-best success came in the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes and who was placed in the G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Prix de l'Opera. Bustled along off the home turn, the 10-3 second favourite came under sterner urging inside the final furlong and was driven out in the latter stages to assert by two lengths from Joyful Princess (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

"She had a nice first run a couple of weeks ago and came forward plenty from it," said Joseph O'Brien stable representative Sean Corby. "It was her first time in front and she was having a look around. She looked green in front, but was always holding them and won nicely. The experience of making the running will probably do her plenty of good." Slipping to third off the home turn, the 11-10 second choice came under pressure passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to deny Storm Piece (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) by an ultimately comfortable 1 1/2 lengths nearing the line. "Ryan [Moore] gave him a fantastic ride from the wide draw and, when he got there, he was still very green," said Ballydoyle's Chris Armstrong. "He had a good run the first day in a good maiden at the Curragh. He's a massive, big, scopey horse and what he does at two is going to be a bonus. It's good to get the win with him. UK LAB REPORT DEMONSTRATES 'INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS'; UK MOVES TO FIRE STANLEY

by Dan Ross

A report issued by Horseracing Integrity & Welfare Unit (HIWU) and Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) into HIWU's investigation of the University of Kentucky Equine Analytical Chemistry Laboratory (UK-EACL) cites multiple failures on the part of the lab and the lab director, Dr. Scott Stanley, including "intentional misrepresentations" of positive tests as negative.

In a press conference Tuesday, HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus said that HISA was "cooperating" with federal law enforcement, and that possible criminal charges could be leveled against Stanley for some of the alleged offences detailed in the report, which can be accessed here.

"It's in their hands whether or not they determine if there's anything criminal to take forward," she said, about federal law enforcement's involvement. "It'll obviously be subject to their investigation and their discretion."

WERTH LANDS NYQUIST FILLY TO TOP BOOK 4 FINALE AT KEENELAND

by Christina Bossinakis

Colts have dominated much of the activity at the top of the leaderboard at the Keeneland September Sale in Lexington. However, the fairer sex had their day Tuesday with fillies filling five of the six top slots, headed by a daughter of Nyquist who brought $375,000 from Legion Bloodstock, buying on behalf of the new venture Icon Racing.

Icon Racing is a partnership launched by MLB All-Star and World Series-winning Jayson Werth, who made racing headlines earlier this spring with a horse he co-owned, Dornoch (Good Magic), winner of the GI Belmont Stakes before adding the GI Haskell Invitational Stakes.

Shortly after the report was released, UK said that it was taking steps to terminate Stanley. The university has also reportedly referred the matter to UK Police for further review of any possible criminal wrongdoing.

The report details the events leading up to the investigation, “including UK-EACL’s persistent delays in reporting results, unprofessional staff behavior, and unresponsiveness to HIWU communications.” Ultimately, “the catalyst for the commencement of the investigation was the discovery by HIWU of intentional misrepresentations that were made about Sample analysis,” the report states.

When asked Tuesday if there was any suspicion that Stanley had communicated with industry stakeholders about any testing the laboratory was or was not conducting, Lazarus described it as “a tremendous concern to us.” She said that HISA has shared those concerns with law enforcement, “who are investigating them.”

According to the press release, key findings of the six-month long investigation include:

--UK-EACL's failure to comply with mandatory testing specifications and instructions, including its standard operating procedures and sample analysis methods.

--UK-EACL's misrepresentation about both its ability to test for specific substances, including erythropoietin (EPO), and the completion of analysis for certain substances on specific Samples.

--At the direction of UK-EACL Director Dr. Stanley, the laboratory's failure to perform confirmatory analysis on 91 samples whose initial screening showed the potential presence of a prohibited substance and therefore required follow-up, instead reporting the samples as negative.

As a result of these findings, HIWU re-analyzed and reconciled all remaining potentially affected Samples, and HISA has sought repayment from the University of Kentucky for the laboratory's non-compliant services, the press release says.

In Tuesday’s press conference, Lazarus said that amount is over $1 million.

“The university has agreed to work with us to reimburse this money. They’ve taken responsibility and they’ve acknowledged it,” she said. “This is industry money. So, it’s something that we have a fiscal responsibility for and a duty to recover.”

The report states that in November of 2023, HIWU requested a confirmation that a sample from another program lab contained EPO. Two months later, Dr. Stanley reported that the sample had been tested twice, but did not contain EPO.

The following month, HIWU was told by UK-EACL staff that the sample had never been analyzed, and was still sealed in the storage refrigerator.

The investigation also found that they failed to follow the specifications for testing for methamphetamine and cobalt, testing for the latter on only a few days per month. They also failed to follow procedures for glaucine and triamcinolone, the report says, and that there was evidence of Lasix in horses who were not eligible for it. Those findings were not reported to HIWU, the organization said.

Furthermore, the report alleges, HIWU was billed for “numerous analyses of samples that were not in fact performed by the laboratory.”

The HIWU investigation involved more than 15 current and former lab employees, and a comprehensive laboratory performance and staff review, the release says.

Upon re-examination, two samples were confirmed as Adverse Analytical Findings for controlled medications, and will be processed under the ADMC program. Two others were found not to be positives, as previously reported by the UK lab, and HIWU said they would withdraw all sanctions, and refund fines, costs, and purses to the parties in question. Neither resulted in a suspension.

In Tuesday’s press conference, Ben Mosier, HIWU’s executive director, explained that the identity of the two trainers charged falsely with positives will be made public soon on HIWU’s website, after first being notified directly.

“Both of the false positives were controlled medications, as well as both of the false negatives—they were controlled medications,” Mosier said. “At the time that the rules require public disclosure, those names will be made public on our website.” Cont.

In a press release, Mosier said that, “through our decision to investigate UK-EACL and consequent discovery of ongoing deceitful activities, we're proud to have uncovered and halted these unacceptable practices that were unfair to our horsemen and put horses at risk.”

Lazarus also issued a statement Tuesday. “HISA's and HIWU's actions to uncover these wrongdoings and quickly remedy them is a testament to how the Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) Program is enhancing the integrity of our sport and ensuring fairness in competition,” she said. “We also thank the University of Kentucky for their partnership and cooperation in the investigation.”

To provide further assurance that the other Program Laboratories are in compliance with the ADMC Program requirements, HIWU said, they have bolstered their Negative Sample Exchange Program and is preparing to implement HISA Equine Analytical Laboratory (HEAL) accreditation on January 1, 2025.

HEAL accreditation will include enhanced compliance oversight by HIWU and a more robust Equine Quality Assurance Scheme sample program. Currently, in a transitional phase, lab accreditation is handled by the Racing Medication & Testing Consortium. HISA/HIWU were initially required to utilize the services of UK-EACL under the requirements of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act.

HEAL accreditation will give HIWU a strengthened ability to ensure strict compliance by all Program Laboratories with all ADMC Program requirements, the report says.

On March 5, 2024, HIWU and HISA announced that HIWU was investigating the performance of the UK lab under HISA's ADMC program. The UK lab was one of the original six program laboratories selected by HISA and HIWU.

But from the outset of the program on May 22, 2023, the report states, “the behavior of Dr. Stanley and some of his staff at UK-EACL was challenging.

They failed to acknowledge emails from HIWU staff with respect to matters critical to the operation of the ADMC program...In addition, “there was a level of incivility in their communications to HIWU staff that was frequently unprofessional.”

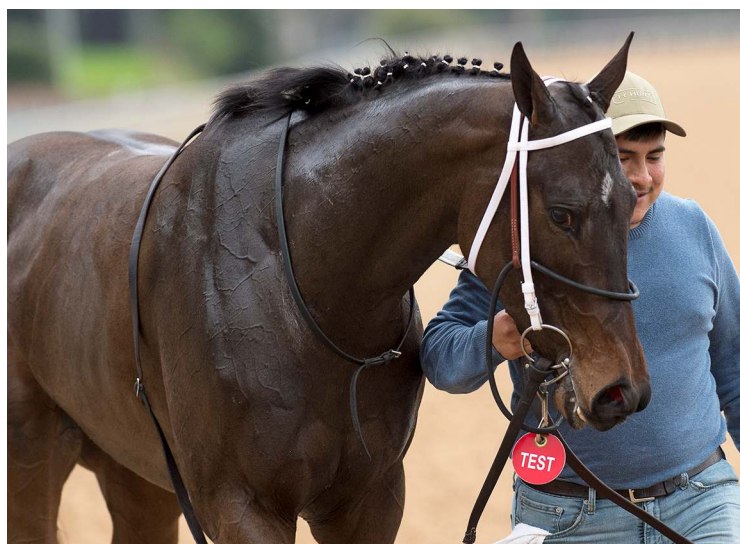

The report says they lab failed to meet the agreed-upon deadlines for reporting of results, and that Dr. Stanley's conduct on weekly calls with HIWU was “often disruptive and disrespectful to colleagues.” HIWU stopped sending samples to the UK lab of February 16, 2024.

The investigative report identified a lab employee who was a close relative of a “Covered Person” working in the industry. While the lab employee’s position represented an opportunity for sample manipulation,” according to the report, “HIWU found no evidence that Samples collected from the Covered Person’s horses were handled inappropriately.”

HIWU executive director Ben Mosier declined to reveal the identities of the lab employee and the covered person, saying that was a matter for the university to disclose.

A call to Dr. Stanley's mobile phone was not answered, and the phone's voice mail was not activated.

U.K. Takes Steps to Terminate Stanley

“After a months-long internal investigation into the EACL, UK has concluded that the lab's former director—Scott Stanley, who is currently a professor in the Martin-Gatton College of Agriculture, Food and Environment (Martin-Gatton CAFE)—did not follow appropriate business practices in reporting equine drug tests and did not honor certain standards and obligations,” the school said in a press release Tuesday.

“In March, Stanley was removed from his administrative role as director of the lab,” the release continues. “Stanley's tenured faculty position is distinct from his role as lab director and disciplinary action with respect to his employment at the university is a separate process.” Cont.

“University officials have determined that these initial findings warrant the additional disciplinary measure of tenure revocation, with the intention of terminating him as a university employee.”

“We appreciate our partners HIWU and HISA bringing forth concerns so that we could investigate the problem and act decisively to take corrective action,” said Martin-Gatton CAFE Dean Nancy Cox.

The university said they would continue to investigate Stanley's management of the lab. They said he “exploited vulnerabilities in technology, governance and oversight. Additionally, the investigation found that Stanley potentially engaged in business and employment relationships that constitute conflicts of interests. Specifically, Stanley purposefully chose not to disclose external work, violating university rules requiring disclosure.”

The press release said that the university had referred the matter to UK Police for further review of any possible criminal wrongdoing.

“Given the serious breach of ethics and policy violations, we have now initiated the process to revoke Stanley's tenure as a faculty member, with the intention of terminating him as a university employee,” said Cox. “In accordance with university rules and regulations, and working with the university's Provost, we are preparing a specific set of findings that will be presented as part of a case to revoke Dr. Stanley's tenure.”

The leading yearling of the Book 4 finale was consigned by St George Sales. Offered as Hip 2611, she is out of Raise the Flag (Awesome Again).

“From a physical standpoint, the first time we saw her, she was a queen to us,” explained Villante. “She was the one we really wanted today.”

He added, “We showed her to Jayson and his son Jackson, they loved her too. Really the whole team really loved her.”

The Mar. 9 foal is a granddaughter of GI Coaching Club American Oaks heroine My Flag, herself a half-sister to Grade I winners Makers Mark and Traditionally. That daughter of Easy Goer is also responsible for juvenile champion filly and MGISW Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat).

“We have been focusing on horses with physicals first and not necessarily on pedigree. But in her case, she was an opportunity to get the physical and she also has the pedigree from one of the best Phipps families,” explained Villante. “It’s a great producing family top to bottom.”

“Nyquist kind of speaks for himself with the fillies he has gotten over the last few years.”

In regard to the final price on the day’s top yearling, Villante added, “The price was where we kind of pegged her, but she was the one that Jayson and the whole team really loved so we are really happy to add her to the horses that we have put together here.”

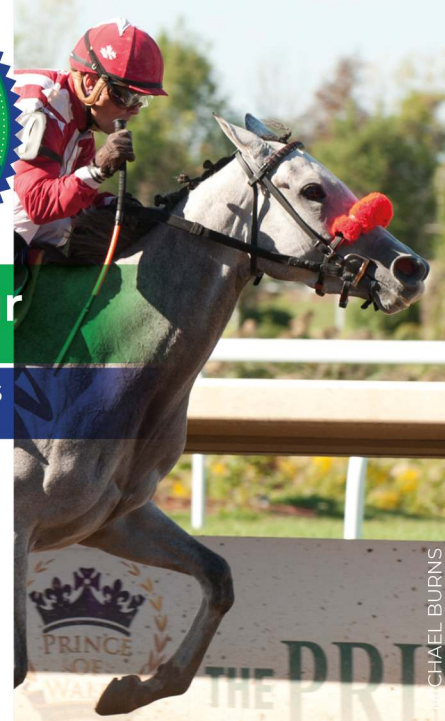

During the eighth session, Legion signed for four yearlings in total--a pair secured for Icon and an additional two on behalf of Bob Hahn. On Tuesday, Icon also purchased Hip 2469, a colt by Raging Bull (Fr) for $75,000. The son of Hearts of Red was consigned by Four Star Sales.

“It’s not so much about the pedigree but more about the physical, that’s what he likes,” Villante said. “We try to identify horses that look like those we can bring to the races.”

Through Book 4, Icon purchased four yearlings individually, including a Maclean's Music colt [Hip 816] for $260,000 and a Yaupon filly [Hip 498] for $190,000.

“We purchased both colts and fillies here for the new venture Icon,” confirmed Villante. “In Book 1, we bought a Yaupon filly and then we added a couple of colts that [Werth] partnered on with one of our clients, Hoolie Racing [Andrew Hudson].”

He explained, “We have been focusing on physicals first and foremost and then bringing the pedigree in after that to help determine how far we’re going to stretch on each horse.”

In tandem with Hoolie Racing, Werth partnered on an additional two yearlings--a colt by Charlatan for $350,000 [Hip 1856] and a colt by McKinzie for $160,000 [Hip 1330].

“We really liked the McKinzie,” said Villante. “He was the star for us on that day. He actually came in under budget which was nice. We also bought a Charlatan for Hoolie and Icon. They were both beautiful colts that the physical came first with them but they also both have the pedigree that suggests they will go two turns.”

Who will train Werth’s initial purchases for the new Icon partnership?

“We haven’t decided on trainers at this point, but right now they will go to Travis Durr Training Center and then we can make decisions on trainers when they get further down the line,” said Villante.

Legion Bloodstock's Kristian Villante | Keeneland

According to Villante, the market has proven tough for the most sought after prospects, regardless of their placement in the sale.

"We tried for about 40 horses here for [Jayson] and we only got a few, but we stuck to our guns," he admitted. "Sometimes at the price point that we are at, and if we can't get them at that price, we move on to the next. But we are very happy with the group he's put together at this sale and, hopefully, we can have some luck for him."

And while some owners might be content to watch from the sidelines as the team is recruited, Villante affirmed that Werth is certainly not one of them.

"He's had a lot of success in a short time in the industry and he wants to keep that going," he said. "He's very passionate. He's been here the last week going through everything with us and he's been very involved with the whole thing."

"Jayson loves the industry and loves the game so he has been very involved in [the management] of this venture. We all put our heads together, but ultimately it all falls upon Jayson and with what he wants to do with things. We put in our two-cents, but he really is he manager in all this. We're just part of the team and we are thankful to be part of it."

At the conclusion of Book 4, a total of 1740 yearlings sold for gross receipts of $382,469,500, up 4.52% from 2023. The average closed out at $219,810 (+8.42%) with a median of $150,000 (+20%). For the eighth session, 286 yearlings sold for $20,827,500, down 3% from one year ago. The day averaged $72,823 (+2%) with a median of $55,000 (+10%). Taylor Made Sales Agency was the session's leading consignor by selling 32 yearlings for $2.54 million.

Selling resumes Wednesday at 10 a.m.

FIFTH CIRCUIT ISSUES SWIFT DENIAL OF AUTHORITY'S REQUEST TO STAY HISA UNCONSTITUTIONALITY MANDATE

by T.D. Thornton

The United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit required fewer than 24 hours to shoot down a request made Monday by the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) to delay the issuance of that court's mandate that the Horseracing and Safety Integrity Act is unconstitutional.

The Authority had asked the appeals court to hold off on making the mandate official while the Authority petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court to step in and decide the current HISA constitutionality conflict that exists because of clashing opinions out of two separate federal appeals courts.

The Fifth Circuit responded right away the very next morning, Tuesday, Sept. 17, by issuing a two-paragraph order that stated, without elaboration:

"IT IS ORDERED that Authority Appellees' opposed motion to stay the mandate pending disposition of petition for writ of certiorari is DENIED.

"IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Authority Appellees' opposed alternative motion for a 21-day administrative stay to seek stay relief from the United States Supreme Court is DENIED."

In Sept. 16 court documents, the Authority had signaled its intent to ask the Supreme Court to intervene.

But until that Fifth Circuit mandate issues--perhaps within the next several days--no one knows the scope of its reach.

Thus, it's possible the Authority's petition could go before the Supreme Court with HISA nullified in either the Fifth Circuit states alone (Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi), or maybe even across the entire nation.

The Fifth Circuit panel opined July 5, 2024, that HISA's enforcement provisions are unconstitutional, while a Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals panel opined in a different case Mar. 3, 2023, that Congressional changes to the law in 2022 made HISA completely constitutional.

When two federal appeals courts issue opposing opinions on the same legal matter, it's called a "circuit split," and the Supreme Court generally takes heightened interest in resolving such conflicts.

The 3 1/2-year-old lawsuit that led to the Fifth Circuit's opinion is headed by the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA) and 12 of its affiliates.

The losing legal entities in the Sixth Circuit case, led by the states of Oklahoma, West Virginia and Louisiana, have already asked the Supreme Court to have another look at the conflicting appeals court opinions.

Eric Hamelback, the chief executive officer of the NHBPA, told TDN on Tuesday that his organization expects the Authority to abide by the Fifth Circuit's ruling.

"The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, with extraordinary speed, denied the HISA Authority's motion requesting a stay being issued for the mandate of its judgement dated July 5, 2024," Hamelback wrote in an email. "The Authority's request for the motion for stay to be heard by all the Fifth Circuit Judges ('en banc') was also denied [back on Sept. 9]."

"The Fifth Circuit decision finding HISA unconstitutional is now final and the HISA Authority should immediately stop enforcing this unconstitutional Act before additional harm is done, or additional litigation becomes necessary to stop this unlawful activity," Hamelback wrote.

"As was said before, the Authority should not be able to enforce federal law and run over the constitutional rights of horsemen and women by allowing a private corporation to bypass their constitutional protections," Hamelback wrote.

TDN requested comment from an Authority spokesperson, but that query did not yield a reply prior to deadline for this story.

WHITE ABARRIO NEARING A WORK, BUT WON'T MAKE BREEDERS' CUP

White Abarrio | Clint Cornett

by Bill Finley

White Abarrio (Race Day), the winner of the 2023 GI Breeders Cup Classic, is close to his first workout after being given a freshener by his connections. However, co-owner Mark Cornett reports that the now 5-year-old horse will not be ready in time to defend his title in this year's Breeders' Cup.

"The Breeders' Cup Classic is not in our plans," Cornett said. "We're not going in that direction. There's no way he can be ready for that and we want to get a good race in him off this layoff. We'll start looking for a race and races we will consider are the Harlan's Holiday and the Pegasus."

White Abarrio has not run since finishing fifth in the GI Metropolitan Handicap June 8. After that race, he was sent back to his original trainer, Saffie Joseph Jr., after being in the Rick Dutrow barn. He has not worked since the Met Mile.

"He's doing great," Cornett said. "He is scheduled to breeze either Friday or Monday in Saratoga. He's ready to come back after we gave him a little breather on the farm. He's been galloping and doing super and it's time for his first breeze back. Then we'll be on our way with him."

Cornett said that while there was nothing wrong with White Abarrio, he and his partners decided he could benefit from a lengthy rest.

"I just gave him time off," Cornett said. "He ran just so so in the Met Mile and then I switched from Rick to back to Saffie. The horse had never been away from the track since he was a 2-year-old. We let him freshen up, get some sun, some pasture time and then brought him back."

White Abarrio's other big win last year came in the Whitney Stakes, but he was not the same horse after his Breeders' Cup victory. Cont.

White Abarrio | Sarah Andrew

He finished tenth in the GI Saudi Cup before failing to hit the board in the Met Mile.

White Abarrio will be six at the time of next year’s GI Pegasus World Cup. Cornett said that if he returns in good form he will have likely have a full campaign in 2025 rather than going off to stud.

“We’ll take it race by race and see,” he said. “If he were to come back like he ended last year we’d seriously consider running him another year.”

RECORD HANDLE, PURSES, AT 2024 KENTUCKY DOWNS MEET

Kentucky Downs's seven-day meet that ended Wednesday again set records for wagering and purses paid out to horse owners for the 12th straight year.

Purses totaled $34,624,472 for 76 races, including $13.6 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund available only to registered Kentucky-bred thoroughbreds. That reflects an increase of 38 percent over last year's total purses of $25.06 million paid out for 76 races. Sixteen of the 18 stakes winners were foaled in Kentucky, taking full advantage of the KTDF funding.

All-sources wagering totaled $90,181,408, up eight percent over last year's $83,640,261. In the six meets with the ownership group headed by Ron Winchell and Marc Falcone at the helm, total betting has increased 148 percent. While that reflects going from five days in 2018 to the current seven days, the per-day average has gone from $7.28 million for five days to the $12.88 million daily average this year.

The signature Saturday Sept. 7 card--this year packaged as the FanDuel TV U.S. Open Turf Championships featuring six graded stakes paying out $2 million apiece to Kentucky-breds and $1 million to others--attracted track-record betting of $21,184,941.

The average field size was 10.89 horses per race, up from the 10.42 last year that led America, and Kentucky Downs's highest average since 2019.

"We are extremely happy with the results of the meet," said Ted Nicholson, Kentucky Downs's Vice President for Racing. "We continue to see positive growth in every metric we look at, and I am already excited for next year's meet."

Frankie Dettori, riding for the first time at Kentucky Downs, won eight races, one fewer than meet-leaders Irad Ortiz Jr. and Tyler Gaffalione. Four of those were stakes, including the meet's new signature race, the $3.1 million DK Horse Nashville Derby, and sweeping the pair of closing-day stakes. That ballooned his mounts' earnings to $3.86 million, topped only by Ortiz's $4.1 million.

"Listen, it's amazing," Dettori said during the meet. "There's a great incentive to the owners, a great incentive to the European horses to come over. Great incentive for the turf horses in America to race for this kind of money. I am very pro what they have done here at Kentucky Downs."

FIERCENESS CONTINUES TO TOP LONGINES BREEDERS' CUP CLASSIC RANKINGS

'TDN Rising Star' and GI Travers Stakes winner Fierceness (City of Light), owned by Repole Stables, has stayed in the top spot in the Longines Breeders' Cup Classic Rankings for the fourth consecutive week, in front of fellow 3-year-olds City of Troy (Justify) and Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) after the eighth week of voting.

Fierceness, trained by Todd Pletcher, rose to the top ranking following his dramatic Travers Stakes win at Saratoga Race Course Aug. 24. Last year's GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner and champion 2-year-old male earned 322 votes. Mrs. John Magner, Michael Tabor, and Derrick Smith's Betfred Derby (G1) and G1 Juddmonte International Stakes winner City of Troy, trained by Aidan O'Brien, sits second with 282 votes. Susumu Fujita's Forever Young (Jpn), winner of the G2 UAE Derby and third in the GI Kentucky Derby, remains in third place with 223 votes for trainer Yoshito Yahagi.

West Paces Racing LLC, R. A. Hill Stable, Belmar Racing and Breeding, LLC, Two Eight Racing, LLC, and Pine Racing Stables' Dornoch (Good Magic), winner of both the GI Haskell Stakes and the GI Belmont Stakes, jumped from sixth place to fourth this week with 163 votes for trainer Danny Gargan.

Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), the Chad Brown trainee who finished third in the Travers and was second in the Kentucky Derby, remains in fifth place (162 votes).

Godolphin's 4-year-old Highland Falls (Curlin), winner of the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Saratoga Sept. 1, dropped from fourth place to sixth with 154 votes for trainer Brad Cox.

Fierceness after the GI Travers | Sarah Andrew

Ryotokuji Kenji Holdings Co. Ltd.'s 7-year-old Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}), second in the G1 Saudi Cup and in the G1 Dubai World Cup, stayed in seventh place with 121 votes for trainer Noboru Takagi. Glassman Racing's 4-year-old GI Whitney Stakes winner Arthur's Ride (Tapit), trained by Bill Mott, remained eighth with 94 votes.

Rounding out the top ten, Hiroyuki Asanuma's 4-year-old Derma Sotogake (Jpn) (Mind Your Biscuits), who finished second in last year's Longines Breeders' Cup Classic, is ninth with 86 votes, while Peacock Family Racing Stable, LLC's 6-year-old Saudi Cup winner Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) remains in 10th place with 85 votes for trainer Todd Fincher.

OLD FRIENDS TO HOST KEENELAND LIBRARY EXHIBIT ON RACING'S BLACK PIONEERS

Old Friends will host The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers, a traveling exhibit sponsored by the Keeneland Association and developed and shared by the Keeneland Library, from Oct. 2 to 31, seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily, the retirement organization announced Tuesday.

The exhibit, which highlights the lives and careers of 100 African American horsemen and horsewomen from the mid-1800s to the present, will be held in the Josephine Abercrombie Center at Old Friends at Dream Chase Farm in Georgetown, Ky. It will run seven-days a week from Oct. 2 through Oct. 31.

Those interested in seeing the exhibit may stop in the Old Friends office for information and viewing details. The exhibit is free to the public, but reservations are required. Phone 502-863-1775 or email alysa@oldfriendsequine.org to make a reservation.

"We at Old Friends are very privileged to host this most special and meaningful exhibit," said John Nicholson, President and CEO of Old Friends. "We are proud to be a part of the Keeneland Library's exploration and celebration of the extraordinary contributions of Black horsemen and women to the Thoroughbred industry. All who love this sport should be forever grateful to the countless African Americans over many generations whose knowledge and skills built racing into what it has become today."

"We are thrilled to have Old Friends as a hosting site for Keeneland Library's traveling exhibit that is now making its way across Kentucky to reach as many people as possible with its stories of the contributions of African Americans in the industry from enslavement to today," said Roda Ferraro, Keeneland Library Director and Exhibit Curator. "Visitors are likely to see some familiar names, like Isaac Murphy, Will Harbut, and Kendrick Carmouche. But they will also encounter lesser known and never-before published stories and photographs spanning nearly 200 years. The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers exhibit showcases select stories of countless African Americans who forged their way in Kentucky and beyond, making the racing industry what it is today."

The exhibit comprises interpretive panels with one-of-a-kind photographs from Keeneland Library collections, as well as biographical vignettes spanning nearly two centuries, which include four future Racing Hall of Famers that once lived in Lexington's East End: jockeys Issaac Burns and Jimmy Winkfield, trainer Ansel Williamson, and trainer/owner Edward Dudley Brown. Each exhibit panel has a QR code for ready access to the exhibit's audio guide with life and career highlights of behind-the-scenes caretakers and racetrack superstars alike.

During the exhibit's run at Old Friends, there will be two special events.

The opening program will be held Wednesday, Oct. 2, 2024, from 5 p.m.-6:30 p.m. at the Josephine Abercrombie Center at Old Friends. Ferraro will be on hand for an exhibit opening discussion, and Q&A. Also, the exhibit's companion book, The Heart of the Turf: Racing's Black Pioneers, the first comprehensive chronicle of its kind, will be available for purchase, with proceeds benefitting Old Friends and the Keeneland Library.

Family Day: Meet & Read to Old Friends Retirees will be held Saturday, Oct. 12, 2024, from 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m. at the farm.

Old Friends and the Keeneland Library are partnering to bring the story of Cheryl White, the first Black woman jockey to ride and win a professional race in the United States, to Family Day at Old Friends. Keeneland Library will donate copies of the acclaimed children's book The Jockey & Her Horse to young readers of all ages, who will meet Old Friends retirees and read the story to Old Friends horses.

STRONG NUMBERS FOR WOODBINE TURF CHAMPIONS DAY

This year's Woodbine's Turf Champions Day, held Saturday, Sept. 14, saw a 9 percent increase in total wagering from last year. The all-sources handle for the day, which was headlined by the GI Rogers Woodbine Mile and a trio of Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' races, was $13,339,206, up from last year's $12.1 million. The $13.3 million handle is also the second highest ever for a Woodbine Mile card.

Additionally, wagering in the local Ontario area also saw an 8.9 percent increase from the previous year and a strong crowd helped push on-track wagering up significantly by 26.1 percent.

"We couldn't have asked for a better day to showcase racing at Woodbine," said Woodbine CEO Michael Copeland. "A lot of factors played into a successful Turf Champions Day, including the world-class competition of our top stakes races, the influx of top jockeys and trainers from around the world, and outstanding weather, which we were certainly due to receive."

With an average field size of 9.3, the average per-race handle was $1.1 million and $1.3 million on the stakes.

"We want to thank all the participants that ran their horses on Saturday's Turf Champions Day, whether local or traveling from overseas," said Copeland. "We're always ready or these big moments and our racing team did a great job putting together a deep and competitive day of racing."

FREDERIC HEYMAN NAMED NEW PRESIDENT OF TEAM VALOR INTERNATIONAL

Frederic Heyman, a Baltimore-based lawyer, has been named the new President of Team Valor International, the company's CEO Barry Irwin announced Tuesday.

Heyman is active in the Mid-Atlantic, having managed the racing and operations of the late Baltimore Orioles' owner Peter Angelos's Marathon Farms. He also sat on the board of Fair Hill training center.

Irwin noted that he has no plans to step back or retire.

"I plan to spend more time each summer and fall abroad, where we source most of our stock. I want to focus on the stable in Ireland, England and Europe. Being able to eyeball what we buy is an advantage," Irwin explained. "Running a stable domestically and internationally makes prospecting abroad difficult." "Having Fred on board will free me up to do what I do best. Fred initially will learn the administrative ropes of TVI, gradually take over operating the domestic branch of our international stable and eventually move into a role as my successor."

Sunday's Results:

2nd-Chukyo, ¥10,480,000 ($73,957), Maiden, 2yo, 1200m, 1:10.7, my.

OTOMENA SHACHO (f, 2, Speightstown--Mylady Curlin {MGSW, $805,883}, by Curlin) had placed in each of her first two runs, both over 1000 meters, finishing third June 29 before completing a the underneath the impressive American Bikini (Jpn) (American Pharoah) July 13. Off at a dime on the dollar to get the job done this time around, the $200,000 Keeneland September graduate was quickly in front, set a good pace while well in hand and lengthened away when slipped a bit of rein in the final furlong to break her maiden by five convincing lengths in course-record time. The 45th Japanese winner from 53 starters for her late sire, Otomena Shacho is out of a two-time graded-winning mare who was sold to Couteau Grove Farms for $550,000 in foal to Speightstown's son Charlatan at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Mylady Curlin foaled a filly by the Hill 'n' Dale sire in 2023 and a colt by Life Is Good this term before being bred back to Constitution. Sales history: $200,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. TERRIFIC PLAN (c, 3, Mastery--Changing Plans, by Perfect Soul {Ire}) was a debut second behind the future Group 3-placed Mikki Flight (Jpn) (Just a Way {Jpn}) in February, but had since won two in a row and was the 4-5 pick to keep the streak alive on Monday. Marooned in gate 14, the Silk Racing runner managed to slot in for the run around the first turn while securing a midfield berth and taking plenty of kickback. Forced to cover ground on the final bend, Terrific Plan rallied five or six wide into the straight, surged to the lead about a furlong from home and went on to score by two tough lengths despite never switching his leads. Changing Plans, a half-sister to three-time Grade I winner Peace Rules (Jules) and to the dam of GSW New York Central (Tapit), was purchased by RGP Ocala Holdings for $27,000 in foal to Connect at Keeneland November in 2019. The dam of the 2-year-old gending Complete Oneeighty (Cararvaggio), third on Gulfstream debut Sept. 1, Changing Plans is also responsible for a yearling colt by Good Magic who was hammered down to Joel Politi for $200,000 at Keeneland September this past Sunday. After failing to produce a foal in 2024, she was bred to Vino Rosso. Sales history: $47,000 RNA Wlg '21 KEENOV; $32,000 RNA Ylg '22 OBSOCT; $100,000 2yo '23 OBSMAR.
